Forecast Speedy Relief For The Jobless

Senate Leaders Predict Quick Approval Of Bill For Aid Of Unemployed

HUGE SUM TO BE PROVIDED

Democratic Measure Providing $300,000,000 for Relieving Hunger Expected to Incur Little Opposition in View of General Agreement That Federal Aid is Imperative

Washington, June 10.—(AP)—For the second time this session, the Senate today tackled the problem of federal relief for the unemployed as the Democratic $300,000,000 jobless aid bill was taken up for debate.

Early approval of the measure was forecast by Senate leaders as the program has been approved in principle by President Hoover.

Controversial relief proposals were shoved to the background in order that the emergency relief measure might be speedily considered and passed.

The relief bill came up for debate under unanimous consent at the request of Senator Wagner of New York, chief sponsor.

Senators Watson of Indiana, and Borah of Idaho, leaders of the two Republican factions, agreed to its consideration.

Wagner, operating debate on the measure before a crowded Senate, said he expected there would be little discussion because of the general agreement now that federal aid is necessary.

The Democratic bill would authorize the Reconstruction Corporation to advance $300,000,000 to the states on certification of the governors that the money is necessary.

Unless the states arrange for repayment of the money it would be deducted from future federal aid highway appropriations beginning in 1935.

Administration of the funds would be left entirely to the state governors.

Four Killed as Gas Well Runs Wild in Miss.

Jackson, Miss., June 10.—(AP)—The death list in an explosion and fire at the Atkinson Valenteur No. 1 gas well near here late yesterday was increased to four today.

J. W. McCarroll and Bill Taylor, workmen, died this morning as result of inhaling flame.

Laurie and Wayland Atkinson, brothers are part owners of the well, died of facial burns last night. Jack Burnham, another worker, was burned on the body but his injuries are not regarded as critical.

The well burst into flames as the men were repairing a leaking valve and blew them from a platform.

Jackson, Miss., June 10.—(AP)—Two owners were killed and three workers badly burned as the Atkinson Valenteur No. 1 gas well burst into flame and sent a pillar of fire roaring skyward five miles east of Jackson yesterday.

The owners, Laurie and Wayland Atkinson of Birmingham, Ala., brothers, were helping repair a leaky valve. A spark from a tool was blamed for the fiery blast. The five victims were blown clear of the platform and one was hurled forty feet.

Last night the well was a gigantic torch that lighted the country side for miles around. It was undecided what steps would be taken toward the expensive process of stuffing the flames since the Atkinson brothers were the chief owners.

Other owners in the field conferred with the governor and officials intimated a collection might be taken to bring in experts to put out the fire.

Say Roosevelt Can Win Without Tammany Vote

New York, June 10.—(AP)—Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt's pre-convention campaign manager has issued what newspapers here interpret as a warning to Tammany Hall that Roosevelt can win the presidency without Tammany support.

So far Tammany has not declared for Roosevelt. Its chief city office holder, Mayor James J. Walker, is under fire and the decision whether to remove him or clear him rests with the governor. What effect, if any, the Walker case will have on Tammany's choice for the presi-

SALVAGE GOLD FROM STEAMER

Divers Obtain $45,000 in Bullion From Sunken Ship Egypt in France

Brest, France, June 10.—(AP)—First fruits of two years of struggling to wrest a fortune of $5,000,000 from the bottom of the sea were reaped today when divers from the Italian salvage ship Artiglio II rose above the surface with $45,000 from the hold of the sunken steamer Egypt.

The gold is in bullion form. It represents a quest which cost 15 lives and two strong ships. The fight has been one of the most spectacular battles of man against the sea.

The steamer Egypt was rammed and sunk off the French coast by a cargo steamer in 1922. In its hold was $5,000,000 in gold, safely locked in the strong room.

In 1930 the Italian salvage ship Artiglio set out to raise it, but bad weather prevented.

The Artiglio was blown to pieces with a loss of 14 lives a short time later while attempting to salvage another steamer.

The salvage company then sent the sister-ship of the Artiglio, the Raffio, to carry on the work. The captain sank an eight ton block of concrete to anchor the vessel. As the block fell it caught in a chain and overturned the ship. One of the crew was lost.

A legend had grown up that the Egypt's gold was cursed. To this the stout-hearted Genoese crew replied scornfully by naming a third (Continued on page six)

WETS CAPTURE FLORIDA VOTE

Three Congressional Seats Fall to Candidates Favoring Dry Referendum

Jacksonville, Fla., June 10.—(AP)—Democratic nominations for two of Florida's contested congressional seats have fallen to prohibition referendum candidates and a third to a repealist while a referendum advocate and a dry will fight it out for the fourth in a run-off. Virtually complete returns from Tuesday's Democratic primary indicated victory for Mark Wilcox, West Palm Beach attorney who wants the 18th amendment repealed, in the fourth district congressional race and the incumbent, Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, conceded his nomination. She ran as a referendum candidate.

A run-off between Representative Tom Yon, dry, and Millard Caldwell, referendum advocate, appeared assured in the third district.

The nomination for congressman at large was up to Mayor John T. Alsop, Jr., of Jacksonville and W. J. Sears, former fourth district congressman, both referendum candidates who will enter a run-off.

J. Hardin Peterson forced Representative Herbert J. Drane into a congressional run-off in the first district. Both favor referendum.

John W. Martin, former governor, and Dave Shotts of Daytona Beach, will enter a run-off for the gubernatorial nomination.

In the presidential preference, Governor Roosevelt of New York received an overwhelming endorsement for Florida's fourteen convention votes.

Chain Newspaper Boosting Smith

New York, June 10.—(AP)—Roy W. Howard, chairman of the board of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, announced that all Scripps-Howard newspapers were publishing today an editorial entitled "Give Us Smith," in favor of Alfred E. Smith for president.

The editorial describes Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt as "another Hoover," and expresses the opinion that Roosevelt and Hoover "possess in common one dominating trait—faced in a pinch with political consequences, they yield."

"Every item of his economic training and his international experience cried out against the tariff bill," the editorial reads, "yet Herbert Hoover signed it. Every instinct in Franklin D. Roosevelt's makeup revolts against the New York City revelations, yet for over a year he has temporized before Tammany."

Lindbergh Will Testify at Trial Norfolk Hoaxer

Flemington, N. J., June 10.—(AP)—A subpoena has been issued calling on Col. Charles A. Lindbergh to testify in defense of John Hughes Curtis, alleged hoax negotiator in the kidnapping mystery.

The defense move in obtaining the subpoena was unexplained. Col. Lindbergh has been quoted as saying he "would be ready at any time" to testify against Curtis.

BOARD CHECKS STATE BALLOT

Raleigh, June 10.—(AP)—The State Board of Elections today started its official canvass of returns in last Saturday's state-wide primary but adjourned its meeting until this afternoon for a re-check of figures when an error in addition of 10,000 votes was found.

No material changes from previous unofficial returns were noted. Returns from the 100 counties were all available, Avery's being the last received.

Complete official Democratic returns, subject to correction as shown in the re-check, gave Robert R. Reynolds of Asheville, wet candidate, a lead of 13,372 votes over Cameron Morrison of Charlotte, dry, in the short term contest for the United States Senate. The vote was Reynolds 156,548; Morrison, 143,176; Tam C. Bowles of West Jefferson, former Superior Court judge 37,748; and Frank D. Grist, commissioner of labor 31,011.

For the senate long term, with the total vote several thousands less than for the short term, Reynolds led Morrison by 15,131. The (Continued on page six)

Predict Hard Fight For Democrats At Chicago

Washington, June 10.—(AP)—However pugacious next week's Republican national convention may become over prohibition, it seems increasingly evident that the rear 1932 award for sustained and hard-hitting in-fighting will be won by Democrats when they get together during the last week of June.

Not only is there to be a last-ditch battle over the candidacy of Franklin D. Roosevelt, but a first-ditch combat of real proportions now is assured over the convention chairmanship, and it is easy to foresee plenty of excitement in between.

For the first time, the develop-

EXTEND FILING PERIOD HERE

Candidates Desiring Second Primary Have Until June 13 in Which to File

Candidates in the recent primary who desire to file for a second election will have until Monday, June 13 in which to do so, it was announced today by F. C. Harding, chairman of the Pitt County Board of Elections.

The Board of Elections decided to extend the filing period at a meeting here last night and this will give candidates who have found it difficult to determine what to do more time in which to turn the matter over in their minds.

The filing period for a run-off primary expires five days after the counting of the official vote and in view of the fact that the official tabulation was not completed here until Wednesday, the board found it necessary to extend the time limit.

Only two persons had filed for run-off primaries today. They were J. R. Hemby of Beaver Dam run. (Continued on page six)

Sandwich, Eng., June 10.—(AP)—Gene Sarazen, long hitting American golf star, today won the British Open Golf championship with a record score of 283 to carry on an American golfing sweep in the event, unbroken since 1923.

The 1922 American Open champion score his 283 (two strokes under Bobby Jones winning total of 1927) early in the afternoon and then watched those who had a chance to catch him, fade away under the pressure of having to shoot sub-par golf.

Sarazen has been well up in the British open field for several years, finishing second to Walter Hagen in 1928 at the neighboring Royal St. George's course for his best effort up to today.

It was the 11th American victory in 12 consecutive years of the blue ribbon event of golf, the only break being Arthur Havers victory in 1923, when Hagen finished second.

It was Havers who was the threat to Sarazen as he shot a course record 68 in his third round to pull up within four strokes of the flying American. The British pro faltered on his final nine, made the turn in 37 to lose two more strokes to Gene and when he started home 4-4-5 his last chance was gone. It appeared the best he could possibly do was a 73, which would leave him three strokes behind.

Tommy Armour, the defending champion from Detroit, faded badly on the final round with hopes of victory gone, and finished with an 81 for a 72 hole total of 300.

Sarazen's fine score bettered not only the British record but was three strokes better than the best winning total in the American Open, Charles (Chick) Evans' 286 at Minneapolis in 1916.

MacDonald Smith, other member of the American "Big Three" had the heartbreaking experience of scoring a 288 for a total score enough to have won but the current British championship and the 1927 event. Smith, a native of Charlotte, Scotland, has been striving for years to win the British title although always up in the running has always been just a little shy of champion's play.

Mac wasted his best strokes in the qualifying round at Carnoustie last year and then caught Sarazen when the stocky little Lithuanian-American was playing super golf. Armour couldn't do anything right on his final round, even his irons failed him.

First prize in the British Open is $100, about $360 at the current rate of exchange but the prestige that goes with the title probably will mean at least $50,000 to the American professional.

Protest Against New Government Action in Chile

Santiago, Chile, June 10.—(AP)—Representatives of foreign governments, including the United States, filed their protests today against the acts of the new Socialist regime under provisional President Carlos Davila.

Members of the diplomatic corps submitted individual written objections to the junta against its order confiscating all foreign currency deposits in Chilean banks and providing for repayment to the foreign depositors in pesos, now valued on foreign exchange schedules at only 6 cents.

Although the new government has not yet set a value on the peso street quotations have run as low as 21-2 to 3 cents.

United States Ambassador William S. Culbertson presented the first of the protests in behalf of the National City Bank of New York, although he said he had not been requested to do so.

The confiscation decree is not yet effective and the diplomats expressed the opinion it would be modified or annulled. They informed the members of the junta that it might cause a reaction abroad. No estimate was made of the amount of deposits which would be affected by the decree.

Admiral Byrd Plans Another Visit to Pole

Boston, June 10.—(AP)—Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd plans a second anti-Arctic expedition—this one to the purpose of studying more closely the territory Marie Byrd Land and to elaborate on scientific data gained previously.

The tractor—something new in the way of anti-Arctic equipment—will take its place in the scheme of things alongside the sled dog and the airplane.

The expedition, as planned, is smaller than the first, experience having assisted Byrd in planning a more compact outfit. A larger number of sled dogs, about 150, will be carried and two planes and several tractors have been included in the equipment.

One ship instead of two will be used to transport the equipment. The Bear, built in the 70's and used for years by the coast guard, has been obtained and is being fitted in Oakland, Calif.

in the drinks their nickels buy?

WHAT do your children get in the drinks their nickels buy? Do they get health and nourishment? Do they get real fruit juice and vitamins?

Now, you never need wonder. Now, you never need hesitate to let your children spend their nickels for a bottled drink.

One of America's great food experts has developed a delicious new drink made with fresh orange juice—the new Orange-Crush. It's made with the luscious juice of golden oranges picked when they're sweetest and ripest. Scientific tests recently made in a leading university prove that this new drink, prepared and handled by the exclusive Orange-Crush method, retains full strength the precious vitamin C of the fresh juice—the vitamin that helps build strong bones and sound teeth.

Here, at last, is a drink that you will be glad to let your children have. A drink that is zestful and refreshing, healthful and nourishing. Health authorities recommend the new Orange-Crush. ABOUT TOWN

The county-wide sing to be held at the college tonight should be greatly attended in view of the fact that it will give clear demonstration of the development of music in various communities.

The sing, an annual affair sponsored by the Home Demonstration department, will faithfully portray old songs of foreign countries in addition to interpretative dances. Community singing has been gaining much impetus in Pitt county the last several years, and at least eight communities will be represented at the sing tonight.

Development of music has reached new heights in this country and it is gratifying to note the widespread interest which it is obtaining in rural localities. It enables people to forget their troubles momentarily and imparts cheer and good will for the battles which each individual has to fight for himself each day.

The demonstration department is to be congratulated upon progress made by the sing movement, and no stone should be left unturned or continued expansion.

Congress is besieged with bills asking for relief of the hungry, half-starved people in all sections of the country, but it is difficult to say what will be done with them in view of the severe economic situation affecting the government.

The plan to distribute government wheat and cotton to the poor apparently will meet with considerable favor, but applications for money evidently are going begging.

Congress sometimes also released thousands of bushels of wheat to the suffering, and it is impossible to estimate the relief resulting from the single stroke. Several carloads of flour made from this wheat were assigned to this county for distribution, and many a family derived benefit from it.

Congress is up against a monumental task providing for the poor, and while it is certain all of the bills cannot be passed, it is believed something will be done to alleviate the condition as much as possible.

With thieves beginning to turn their attention to the theft of porch furniture, Greenville people are going to find it necessary to put this kind of furniture on the inside at midnight, unless they want to wake up some morning and find it gone.

The first theft of this kind was reported here the first of the week, and the practice may continue if housewives do not take proper precautions. The police are doing everything in their power to round up those connected with the first theft, and their apprehension undoubtedly would do more to discourage this kind of stealing than any other thing to be imagined.

It is gratifying to note the number of Pitt county young people who are taking advantage of the opportunities offered by East Carolina Teachers college. Numbers took part in commencement activities, including forty or more young men who attended school there this session.

It is the first time in the history of the institution that young men have become interested in educating themselves for the teaching profession here and this means the public is going to be treated to a wider field of athletics in the future.

This fact was emphasized by basketball and baseball during the session just closed and it is expected football will be instituted next session. This not only will afford more diversion for the several hundred students but will place the institution out in the forefront of state athletics.

There is no reason why E. C. T. C. should not occupy an enviable position in the realm of sports, and everybody hopes it will find its rightful place in this field during the coming school year.

Gambler's Throw

By EUSTACE L. ADAMS

SYNOPSIS: When a mysterious gang of kidnapers carry off Nancy Wentworth, a musical comedy star, four wealthy men and a gangster, Jerry Calhoun, and his friend, Emory Battles, joined forces with a detective in determined pursuit. The unusual letters from the kidnapers, and their plan of demanding board money with no insurance of the return of the abducted persons promise a difficult task. But in an airplane, piloted by Jerry, the three men follow the kidnapers' hydroplane when it collects the board money. They hope it will lead them to the place where the captives are concealed. Unknown to them, the group of prisoners are held in a lonely house in a place of which they know nothing except its extreme heat. Mallory, one of the abducted business men, is in love with Nancy, but he is told by the gangster, Lucci, to leave her alone. The waiting affects everyone's nerves.

Chapter 11 MOST OF THE HOUSE PARTY Mallory finished his highball at a gulp and went out into the hot night.

Williams tossed aside a three-weeks-old copy of a Chicago paper and followed him. Martin remained in his chair, silent, moody. Hamilton found his game blocked and dealt a new hand. He could hear the girl's clear, vibrant contralto from the porch. The deep, resonant rumble in response would be Lucci's.

The sound of the airplane motor's hum changed to an uneven popping.

Those who had watched the descending airplane from the porch returned to the room, hoping that with the return of the ship something might occur to break the monotony. Although they were accustomed to frequent short flights when the amphibian departed upon brief shopping expeditions, the last time it had been absent for more than twelve hours it had returned to add Lucci, Martin and Williams to the trio of bored New Yorkers who had been sole "guests" of the large house. Now it was returning from a three-day trip. Perhaps other victims would join the group.

Nervous, the staccato conversation eddied back and forth. A strange figure entered the room that of a tall, thin man who limped painfully with the aid of a very heavy stick. As he stood in the doorway glancing about, Hamilton took him to be an elderly man, sixty or sixty-five years of age, perhaps. Upon a second glance, he noted that the pale, parchment-like features beneath the snow-white hair were those of a man in his early thirties. The eyes were young, vivid blue, and with a direct from home this season. Before making a decision, they should at first consider how many of their requisites may be obtained from the home merchant. This will not only display civic loyalty but will enable the merchant to provide a more complete line of goods next season.

The trouble with small towns at this time is that too many people buy away from home. They form the impression that goods bought in large cities are superior to those at home. That may be true in some instances, but in the majority of cases the home merchant offers superior materials and at prices much below those charged by city merchants burdened to death by overhead expenses and forced to charge more for his goods because of this fact.

Greenville is recognized as the principal shopping center of this part of the state, and the goods carried on the shelves of its merchants are as good as can be bought anywhere, therefore, vacationists should buy at home before going elsewhere.

the face before long. "So?" Ashwood turned away and settled himself laboriously in a chair. Then he looked up at the aggressive figure which towered over him. His face bore an expression of faintly amused interest. "Yeah, that's so. Now we all wanta know what this racket's all about. It's a shake-down, o'course. That's all right, but why are we still here? Wouldn't our people kick in, or what? Did the bulls get hot on you so's you had to lam "Neither one, Lucci," replied Ashwood, patiently. "Your friends and relatives have all paid your current accounts very promptly. I am now the proud and happy possessor of some $600,000 more than I had a short time ago and that pays your board bill in full for another ten days or two weeks. They were most generous, I assure you."

Lucci whistled softly and looked down at the cripple with patent admiration. "God! You chiseled us right, didn't you? Well, ain't six hundred grand enough? Why are you digging it all outa us? You got enough outa one outfit. Tuta us loose and get yourself another flock of suckers."

"That's a logical point of view," admitted Ashwood. "In due course I'll follow your suggestion. But I am not quite ready now. (Copyright, Dial Press)

Ashwood is "not quite ready," he explains tomorrow—because he is planning further unpleasantness for his guests.

Tigers Romp Away With Yankees To The Tune Of 5-4

BROWNS WIN 2-1 CONTEST FROM BOSTON

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Danny MacFayden, the pride of Scrumville, Meas., and the man for whom the Yankees made an important outlay of players and money last week, begins to shape up as the prize puzzle of the 1932 campaign.

He won 16 games and lost only 12 last season for the sixth place Boston Red Sox, and came to be recognized as one of the game's greatest pitchers. Then he turned right around this year and lost 10 of his first 15 efforts for the Sox.

The popular theory was that it didn't count, that MacFayden's defeats were chargeable to the offensive impotence and fielding weaknesses of his teammates.

But the transaction had an entirely different complexion today and there was even some doubt the Yankees had driven such a shrewd bargain after all.

MacFayden made his maiden appearance in the New York uniform yesterday against the Detroit Tigers and lasted only six innings as the Tigers scored a 5 to 4 victory. They pounded MacFayden for 11 hits and scored all their runs before he was relieved. It was the first game the Yankees had lost to a western team this season.

The loss reduced the Yankees' lead over Washington to five games, the Senators grasping the opportunity to defeat Chicago, 6 to 5, largely on errors by "Red" Kress and Bill Sullivan. Cleveland defeated Philadelphia, 9 to 8, in a slug-ging match and knocked the Athletics from third place in the American league standing down to fifth.

George Blaholder of the St. Louis Browns checked up his seventh victory of the year as the Browns took their third straight from Boston, 2 to 1.

Hack Wilson was the day's fair-est one in the National league as he clubbed Brooklyn to a 5 to 2 triumph over his former com-patriots, the Chicago Cubs. His homerun with the bases loaded and a single drove in all the Dodger runs.

The loss did not deprive Chicago of the leadership, however, as Boston was dropping its second in a row to the onrushing St. Louis Cardinals, 2 to 1. Bobby Brown, Braves' sensational rookie, suffered his first defeat.

Melvin Ott's two homeruns provided the Giants with another vic-tory over Cincinnati, 3 to 2 and Pittsburgh bunched his blows to squeeze out a 4 to 3 decision over Philadelphia.

TOURISTS AND PATS VIE FOR SECOND PLACE

Charlotte, June 10.—(AP)—The Asheville Tourists and Greensboro Patriots lined up today for a three-game series to determine who will be runner up to Winston-Salem for the time being in the Piedmont League pennant chase.

Virtually tied for the honor now, each had everything to gain as the week-end series came around. The Pats divided a double header with the Twins Thursday, 9-3 and 5-8, while Asheville was defeating High Point 6-3.

However, they were in position to knock one another down below Charlotte, now trailing by a half game as the Hornets engaged the Durham cellars after a batting spree which gave them a 14-1 victory over Wilmington. Raleigh, tied with Charlotte after beating the Bulls 10-6, had less opportunity for advancement, since they face the all-powerful Twins in the long stand.

Nonetheless, the Caps don't get along so bad against Winston as a usual thing, holding the honor of being the only team to win two series from the league leaders this season.

"Toots" Brandon, for all these many years backstop and fence-sheller for the Caps, released yesterday when President Eddie Winston was forced by Hollywood, with which Raleigh has a working agreement, to keep Roy Luebke. He replaces Jim Calvin, slugging young catcher who split a hand in last night's massacre by Charlotte.

Frank Coleman, southpaw hurler, is being shipped by the Boston Braves from Atlanta to Wilmington. Last year he played with Raleigh.

The Hornets had their eye on the ball last night. Everybody got a hit. Snyder got four, including a triple, out of four times up. Mcney got four out of six, and everybody got two or three except Culbreth, league home run king who couldn't quite connect in five of his six trips. The team batted .489, getting 22 safeties out of 45 trips, and making no errors. Set### demire, the pitcher, batted in three runs.

The club standings present a strange aspect. Asheville and Greensboro are one point apart. Just below them Charlotte and Raleigh are tied at 500. At 465 stand Wilmington and High Point. Winston-Salem has a fraction less than the three-game lead. Durham has a game and a half "lead" for cellar honors. That puts the league in the position of playing both ends against the middle.

And Big Tom Wolf, Durham outfielder, has hit in his 21st consecutive game.

Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, baseball's high priest, held a hearing in Raleigh on a dispute between the Durham club and officials and the Philadelphia Nationals over their working agreement. The details of dispute or decision were not made public, and the judge returned to Washington by train a few hours after he arrived by airplane. Judge W. G. Bramham, Piedmont president, said league affairs in general were not discussed.

Yesterday's Stars

Mell Ott, Giants—Drove out two homers to beat Reds, 3-2.
Jess Haines, Cardinals—Held Braves to five hits, three of them in the ninth, and won 2-1.

Hack Wilson, Dodgers—His home run with bases filled in first and single in eighth drove in all Dodger runs against Cubs.

George Buehler, Browns—Stopped Red Sox with four hits to hang up seventh victory.

Glenn Myatt, Indians—Drove in five runs against Athletics with home run and single.
Heinie Schuble, Tigers—Home run drive with one on played important part in victory over Yankees.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

New York Cotton

New York, June 10.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady 1 lower to 2 higher. July declined 1 point and sold as low as 4.91 under liquidation and other months were unchanged to 2 points higher on trade and spot house buying.

Relatively easy Liverpool cables appeared to be offset by the markets firmer technical position while there appeared to be a considerable demand for July at the decline to 4.91. Offerings were light and the market at the end of the first half hour was quiet and steady with active months ruling about 3 to 5 points net higher. July worked up to 4.97 and December to 5.36. Houses with continental connections were said to be among the early buyers, while part of the demand was attributed to covering.

New York Cotton Exchange service estimated domestic consumption for May at 342,000 bales against 367,000 the previous month and 465,000 last year. Liverpool cables reported liquidation and Indian selling absorbed by covering in that market, and said there was a moderate demand for cotton cloths from Egypt and Africa.

Grain Market

Chicago, June 10.—(AP)—Wheat price went upward in the late dealing today, influenced by strength shown in securities at New York.

Sharp watch was also kept on developments at Washington likely to affect trade interests. Fairly good sized North American wheat export sales were noted, including moderate amounts from the United States.

Stock Market

New York, June 10.—(AP)—The Stock Market reflected a moderate but distinct improvement in financial sentiment today.

A bullish government wheat crop report, checking the protracted decline in that commodity, indications of fairly early cessation of the outflow of gold, and a somewhat more encouraging survey of general trade conditions appearing in the weekly mercantile reviews, were probably the chief factors conducive to a better feeling.

Further skyrocketing of Auburn, at the expense of the bears, also had its effect. The advance was checked after publication of the unfiled steel tonnage figures, but the list maintained a good under-tone. Advances of 1 to 2 points were common for a time. U. S. Steel and American Can lost early gains of a point, then came up slightly again. American Telephone reacted after an extreme gain of 2 1/4, then stiffened. American Tobacco B, Liggett and Myers B, Public Service of N. J., Union Pacific and Eastman lost about half of 2-point gains. Auburn shot up more than 15 points, they reacted 5. Case was firm, in sympathy with wheat. Indications that the outflow of gold may be drawing to a close had a distinctly favorable effect upon sentiment. In some quarters it was expected that the Bank of France might complete repatriation of its balances here, probably about $300,000,000 within little more than a week. While the movement has not made serious inroads into our monetary base, a heavy outflow of the metal usually has an adverse psychological effect.

vote was: Reynolds 150,763; Morrison, 135,632; Bowie, 36,414; Grist, 28,038; Arthur Simmons of Burlington, a poultryman, 4,341.

The complete returns in the race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination gave J. C. B. Ehringhaus of Elizabeth City a lead of 47,311 over T. Fountain of Rocky Mount, his nearest opponent. The vote was: Ehringhaus 162,498; Fountain, 115,127; A. J. Maxwell of Raleigh, state commissioner of revenue, 102,312.

Under the elections laws the board prepared its report ordering a second primary for the senate and four governor if it is demanded within five days by Morrison and Fountain. Morrison has announced he will demand the second race, while Fountain awaited returns from the official count.

Where any candidate secured a clear majority the board's report was ready to name his nominee. Included in this list were Jake F. Newell of Charlotte, Republican for the senate; and the following Democrats, Stacy W. Wade for secretary of state; A. H. Graham for lieutenant governor; Baxter Durham for state auditor; Dennis G. Bunnitt for attorney general; Stanley W. Osborne as corporation commissioner and Dan C. Boney as insurance commissioner.

A second primary was ordered if it is demanded, in the race for commissioner of labor,

MORRISON AND REYNOLDS PREPARE FOR FINAL FIGHT

Winston-Salem attorney, reprimanded Morrison for demanding a second primary. He published a telegram he said he had sent the senator which read:

"Which to remind you of your statement in 1920 to the effect that if Gardner had received one vote more than you did you would not have asked for a second primary, on account of the expense of same. Times are hard now. Reynolds leads more than 12,000. Be the kind of sport you thought Gardner should have been and decline to ask for a second primary to save the taxpayers $104,000 expense."

Reynolds was in West Jefferson today, conferring over campaign plans with Tam C. Bowie, one of the trailers in Saturday's primary who announced he would throw his support to the Asheville man.

Morrison was expected here, to confer on campaign plans also, and a Reynolds caucus is to be held here Wednesday night.

With the Reynolds vote having forced prohibition to the front as a probable moot question at the Democratic state convention next week, Mrs. W. B. Lindsay, of Charlotte, state president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, announced that she had called on all Democratic members of her organization to fight for Senator Morrison, and described as a "surprise" the vote received in usually "safe" North Carolina.

Reynolds announced that B. F. Giles, of Marion, unsuccessful candidate for the nomination for lieutenant governor had promised his support.

Governor O. Max Gardner declined to take sides in the internecine strife, and Josephus Daniels, long-time foe of the senator who was reported by Morrison followers as on the verge of announcing his support, remained silent.

Meanwhile, announcements were awaited regarding second primaries in the race for governor and for commissioner of labor, in which J. C. B. Ehringhaus and A. L. Fletcher did not receive majorities.

underworld who informed police, was stolen and its owner slain, officers said.

The men are James Autry of Fayetteville, Dud Travis of Hickory, and Robert Cook of Waynesboro, Ky. They were positively identified by several persons who saw them riding with the woman and by others who said they talked to the outlaws at a clay digging near the city which is a favorite drinking hangout.

Police quoted their informants as saying the trio was headed for Kentucky, but stopped here to drink, brandish their arms and boast of the trail of blood which they had traced from the camp near Raleigh.

Early today a police cordon was placed about the neighborhood where the outlaws were believed to be spending the night. The officials were optimistic over possibility of arrests.

The men, outlawed yesterday by Judge M. V. Barnhill of Rocky Mount, thus making them fair targets for any citizen, killed D. M. Brantley in a struggle when they commandeered the automobile of T. H. Monie Jr., of Raleigh, at the prison farm gate, in which to make their getaway, after using him for a shield behind which to escape the farm stockade.

Monie's car was later found abandoned about six miles from Cary.

Police here said their informants quoted the outlaws as declaring they would never be arrested alive, but would die in a battle with anyone attempting to arrest them "and take several others with us."

A glove dropped by Autry while he was struggling to keep the woman in the car was turned over to police, and identified by a guard who came here from Cary as belonging to the outlaw.

The neighborhood in which the trio was believed hiding last night is known as Tin Can Alley, said by police to be Fayetteville's "rough" section. Not far away is a state highway prison camp.

BONUS ARMY EXPELS REDS

out last night as the camp commanders questioned the arriving contingents which poured in steadily at the rate of about 100 an hour.

Before possibly violence could take place a detailed of police, aided by ex-soldiers, marched the Communists half a mile or so to a vacant lot, where a strong guard was maintained to prevent disorder. They were to be escorted out of town today.

The steady influx had swelled the "army" enormously, greatly adding to alarm over the camp conditions which the city health officer, Dr. William C. Fowler yesterday pronounced frightful.

New supplies, however, arrived to ward off danger of starvation as well as disease. Several tons of food raised by a Hoboken Italian club were brought in early this morning, and delivered to the camp officers.

Fearing an outbreak of epidemic disease among the veterans, district officials spoke of quarantining, reduced their efforts to have the various states disband some members and sought arrangements to distribute the men at some of the old forts and military posts which surrounded the capital.

The veterans yesterday, through Father James R. Coy of Pittsboro, and a committee, left pitiful for payment of the bonus with Gen. Hoover, Vice-President Curtis and Speaker Garner. Curtis is the only of the three who has had their plea read in both chambers of Congress and was named in today's Congressional Record.

The House vote on the Palmer bill to pay the bonus will come up Monday.

SALVAGE GOLD FROM STEAMER

salvage ship the Artiglio II.

The Artiglio II set out for the Egypt's location on May 25, 1931. No soon had it arrived than terrible weather set in. It took the divers three days to find the Egypt, and when they did find it they could do no work.

Finally they succeeded in ripping the Egypt's deck and by July 5 were 8 feet from the $5,000,000. The weather again thwarted them.

Slowly, however, they dug away, and on November 17 they broke through into the gold room itself.

But with the treasure almost in their hands, winter struck them and the attempt had to be abandoned until this year. Last month the search was begun again and the first yellow bars were plumped down on the Artiglio's deck.
