Renewed Demands For Democrats To Adopt Resubmission Plank

Expressions From Early Arrivals at Chicago Indicate Resubmission of Prohibition Question Inevitable

Chicago, June 22.—(AP)—Renewed demands for a prohibition resubmission plank came from Democratic chieftains today as they assembled on the convention scene for the preliminary maneuvers of the battle for the presidential nomination.

Alfred E. Smith, a leader of the fight against Franklin D. Roosevelt, demanded repeal of prohibition and immediate revision of the Volstead act.

He was his own favorite for the presidential nomination and expected to join in the fight to elect Juett Shouse, chairman of the Democratic executive committee, permanent chairman of the convention.

On this fight will come the first test of the strength of the Roosevelt forces. They are supporting Senator Walsh of Montana for the post.

Senator Hull of Tennessee, prominently mentioned for chairman of the resolutions committee, said the consensus of wets and dries in the party favored submitting to the states the question of retention or repeal of the 18th amendment. Hull is dry and a Roosevelt supporter.

He declared, however, prohibition was subordinate to the economic issue.

Hull said he had found in conferences at the capital that virtual all elements of the party wanted submitted to the states the question of retaining or repealing the 18th amendment.

However, Hull lashed out severely at those who are making prohibition the dominant issue in the convention and in the campaign.

"I am not minimizing prohibition," said this supporter of Roosevelt, "but it is a damnable outrage that this subject is paramount to the economic crisis. The people ought to rise up and elect politicians into Lake Michigan if they don't meet the economic issue."

Economy by "ruthless retrenchment" in federal, state and local governments was advocated by Hull, together with a straight declaration for reduction of the tariff.

CHARGE FRAUD IN ELECTION

Fountain Manager Alleges 900 Illegal Absentee Votes Cast in One County

Raleigh, June 22.—(AP)—Attorney General Dennis G. Brummitt said this morning that he had received and was "considering" an affidavit of K. R. Hoyle, special investigator for Lieut.-Gov. R. T. Fountain, in which irregularities in the primary of June 4 are alleged.

J. L. Delaney, manager for Fountain, who ran second in the gubernatorial race, issued a statement late last night alleging that illegal absentee ballots were cast in 900 absentee ballots were cast in the investigation county.

He said an investigation by Hoyle, who is a Sanford attorney, showed that 900 absentee ballots were voted in Surry, "and that men who had been out of the county six to eight years were voted absentee."

County officials, the statement said, refused to allow Hoyle to examine election records.

Delaney demanded a thorough investigation by the attorney general "in the interest of the Democratic party, which has always stood for fair elections."

Major L. P. McLendon, manager for J. C. B. Ehringhaus of Elizabeth City, who led the gubernatorial race by 47,000 votes, termed Hoyle's charge of 25,000 fraudulent votes having been cast in counties west of Raleigh an attack on the Democratic party. In a statement he accused the Fountain forces of "taking a leaf from the Republican ledger."

See Hope for Agreement On Reparations Tangle

Lausanne, Switzerland, June 22.—(AP)—The prospect of a Franco-British accord on the question of reparations rose over the conference of European powers here today and warmed what had been a virtual stalemate into new activity.

The new hope sprang last night when Premier Edouard Herriot, of France, informed Prime Minister MacDonald of Great Britain that France was ready to adopt a new policy, differing widely from her previous attitude, and including the virtual scrapping of the Young plan.

FIFTY KILLED IN AUTO WRECKS DURING MONTH

Accidents in This State in May Took a Toll of Fifty Killed and 329 Injured

Raleigh, June 22.—(AP)—A total of 207 automobile accidents in North Carolina in May cost the lives of 50 persons and caused injuries to 329 others, according to the monthly report of the Motor Vehicle Bureau issued today.

Children playing in the street resulted in three deaths and injuries to 12. Intoxicated drivers were held responsible for 14 fatalities and injuries to 28. Reckless driving was listed as the cause of 54 accidents. Hit and run drivers killed three and injured six.

Eight were killed in auto-train collisions.

Sunday was the most dangerous day on the highways with ten killed and 35 injured that day, while the hour between 7 p. m. and 8 p. m. was the most dangerous hour, five killed and 11 hurt during that time.

LANIER HEADS LEGION POST

Former Mayor Elected Commander Pitt County Post at Meeting Last Night

J. Con Lanier, former mayor of Greenville, was elected Post Commander of the regular monthly meeting of Pitt County Post of the American Legion at the Rotary club here last night. He succeeds C. C. Martin, of Ayden, who has served for the usual term of one year. Mr. Lanier will take the office on October 20.

The other officers elected were as follows: S. N. Graham, Greenville, first vice-commander; W. L. Cherry, Greenville, second vice-commander; J. W. Rook, Bethel, third vice-commander; S. M. Woolfolk, Greenville, re-elected adjutant; C. W. Williams, Greenville, sergeant at arms; J. L. Evans, Greenville, Americanism officer; Dr. R. S. McGeachy, Greenville, service officer; S. L. Bridges, Greenville, chaplain; F. A. Jordan, Greenville, historian; A. B. Corey, Greenville, athletic officer.

In addition to the election of officers the post also elected delegates to the state convention to be held at Asheville July 17 to 19. The delegates are: J. Con Lanier, chairman; W. L. Cherry, J. B. Kittrell, Dr. A. M. Schultz, Dr. McGeachy, A. B. Corey, Z. V. Bunting, P. L. Goodson. Each delegate will be entitled to 1-p vote.

The new commander has been active in the work of the post since its organization. He is familiar with activities of the post and the state department also.

Mr. Lanier has promised to do all in his power to make Pitt County Post No. 39 one of the leading posts of the state.

The usual eats were enjoyed by forty odd members.

Children Disappointed By Failure Of Swimming Pool To Open Today

Great disappointment prevailed among the number of children who were on hand for the opening of the Westbrook swimming pool this morning when it was learned that the pool would not be opened today. Delay in the issuance and delivery of a liability policy from New York left those in charge of the pool without protection in case of any accident at the pool and the opening has been postponed until this policy is in hand.

Just as soon as advice is received from New York that the application has been received and the policy issued the pool will be opened to the public. It is hoped by those in charge that the matter will be completed in time for the opening of the pool tomorrow morning or by Friday morning at the latest.

ORGANIZE POST VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS

Local Post of Veterans' Organization to be Mustered in Here June 30.

The local post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States No. 2615 will be mustered in here by Junior Vice Commander Fitzhugh L. Whitfield of Clinton, N. C., Thursday, June 30 at 8 p. m. in the Pitt County court house, according to a statement issued today by William B. Dupree, organization officer.

The charter supplies arrived several days ago from headquarters in Kansas City, Mo., and Dupree says he has been very busy since making the necessary arrangements for the institution of the post.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars is not only the oldest veterans organization in the United States, but it is also the only veterans organization which maintains a home for widows and orphans. The V. F. W. has a large and modern home of this kind at Eaton Rapids, Michigan.

The V. F. W. differs considerably from other organizations of its kind in that it has ritualistic work, degree team, etc., along the lines of a secret order or lodge in addition to being a veterans organization.

Dupree said he was very anxious for all overseas men who are eligible for membership to attend the meetings on June 30 whether they are ready to come in now or not, in order that they may learn more about this great organization.

SAYS SHARKEY DID NOT WIN

Sport Writers Criticize Decision in the Heavyweight Title Bout.

New York, June 22.—(AP)—The metropolitan newspaper critics disputed today the 2 to 1 vote that gave Jack Sharkey the decision over Max Schmeling.

"It has been the legend," said W. O. McGeehan of the Herald-Tribune, "that a foreign fighter could not get a square deal in the United States, especially in New York. Up to this time I felt that this was merely a legend, but the decision given last night was the worst I have ever seen in peering intently at these things for a quarter of a century or more."

Paul Gallico of the News said: "Schmeling's steady pursuit, the sting of his left and right and his strong fighting finish were enough to give him the fight."

Damon Runyon of the American said: "Personally I gave Schmeling quite a lead in my score of the rounds and was surprised at the decision."

James P. Dawson of the Times said: "I gave Schmeling nine rounds—Sharkey five and one even. . . Schmeling won, in this writer's opinion. . . because of a treacherous, unswerving offensive he launched at the opening bell and never once interrupted, even in the face of Sharkey's best blows."

SEEK TWO BANK BANDITS AFTER PISTOL BATTLE

Deputy Sheriff Killed and Four Possemen Wounded in Fight with Robbers.

Monroe, La., June 22.—(AP)—Two bank bandits, one leaving a trail of blood, were hunted through the Bayou swamps southwest of here today after a running gun battle in which a deputy sheriff was killed, four possemen wounded and the woman companion of the robbers shot down and captured.

The bandits raided the Franklin State Bank and Trust Company branch at Baskin yesterday morning and escaped in an automobile with more than $1,000 only to bog down in Bayou mud. Officers caught up with the two as they continued their flight on foot.

Deputy Sheriff "Slim" Ferguson of Rayville was the first to engage the robbers as he confronted them on a bridge near Warsaw. He was shot dead by a bullet through the chest as he raised from behind a log to fire at the fleeing trio. A few moments later, the woman companion of the bandits, was dropped with a bullet in the hip. The men abandoned her and retreated into swamp.

One of the bandits was dripping blood as he ran. Possemen frequently exchanged shots with the (Continued on Page Three)

BORAH FAVORS HOOVER'S PLAN DISARMAMENT

Washington, June 22.—(AP)—President Hoover's proposal to the Geneva disarmament conference for a one-third cut in world armaments drew the immediate approval today of Chairman Borah of the Senate foreign relations committee who only two days ago announced he would not support the President for re-election on the party platform.

Borah said the plan seemed "fair and sound" and expressed the hope it would bring a realization to the conference that failure to disarm would "bring an irreparable disaster."

The foreign relations chairman, in a formal statement said: "Looking over the President's proposal somewhat hurriedly, it seems to me fair and sound. I am for drastic reduction of armaments and so long as all nations are treated fairly I do not care much how it is brought about."

"I sincerely hope the proposal of the President will bring the conference to a realization that a failure to lift this burden of armaments and do it at once will come near to being an irreparable disaster."

"If we should fail to bring about drastic disarmament and the reparations and money problems should remain unsettled, it would be difficult to foresee the evil consequences which would follow."

Mrs. Lloyd Mayo Died Yesterday

Mrs. Lloyd H. Mayo died yesterday afternoon at one o'clock following an illness of several days.

Funeral services were held at the home near Mt. Pleasant Church this afternoon at four o'clock. Rev. S. B. Denny of Wilson, conducting the service.

Mrs. Mayo was formerly Miss Nurthia Staton. She was well known and will be missed by a wide circle of relatives and friends in her community. She is survived by her husband, four daughters, Misses Lucy, Lillian, Margaret and Pearl; five sons, Rufus, David, Wesley, Jess, Lloyd Jr., and an infant son; three sisters, Mrs. V. L. Johnson, Mrs. R. W. Dunn and Miss Helena Staton; four brothers, Ernest, Ivy, Joe and Kenneth Staton, all of this county.

Youth Drowned

Gastonia, June 22.—(AP)—C. J. Wyatt, 14-year-old son of Charles Wyatt, Mount Holly farmer and dairyman, was drowned late yesterday while swimming in a creek near his home.

Would Cut Armaments Of The World Powers Down Nearly a Third

Reduction would Save Ten to Fifteen Billion Dollars in Ten Years; Plan Not Acceptable to Franco.

Washington, June 22.—(AP)—President Hoover, in a sudden and dramatic announcement at the White House today, proposed principles for reducing the arms of the entire world by nearly one-third.

With Secretary Stimson at his side, the President read to a small group of newspapermen hurriedly assembled at the executive mansion a statement saying that "the time has come when we should cut through the brush," and "adopt arms reductions calculated to save between ten and fifteen billions of dollars during the next ten years."

Five broad principles were laid down by the Chief Executive and upon this foundation he proposed, among other things: Abolition of all tanks, chemical warfare and large mobile guns. Reduction of one-third in the strength of all land armies over and above "the so-called police component."

The abolition of all bombing planes, and the "total prohibition" of all bombardment from the air. Reduction in the treaty number and tonnage of all battleships by one-third.

Reduction in the treaty tonnage of aircraft carriers, cruisers and destroyers by one-fourth and of submarines by one-third with no nation having more than 35,000 tons of submarines.

Simultaneously with the President's announcement today it was learned in authoritative quarters that the proposals suggested already had been approved fully by Secretaries Stimson, Hurley and Adams, by the chief of staff of the army and the chief of naval operations, and by the entire American delegation at Geneva.

Mr. Hoover's broad and drastic plan was placed before the Geneva conference today, almost simultaneously with his reading of it to a group of hardly a dozen newspaper correspondents assembled in his private office.

The principles enunciated by the chief executive for slicing the world's armaments by 33 per cent were read by him as follows:

"First: The Kellogg-Brand pact to which we are all signatories, can only mean that the nations of the world have agreed that they will use their arms solely for defense.

"Second: This reduction should be carried out not only by broad general cuts in armaments but by increasing the comparative power of defense through decreases in the power of the attack.

"Third: The armaments of the world have grown up in general mutual relation to each other. And speaking generally, such relativity should be preserved in making reductions.

"Fourth: The reductions must be real and positive. They must first effect economic relief.

"Fifth: There are three problems to deal with—land forces, air forces, and naval forces. They are all inter-connected. No other part of the proposals which I make can be dissociated one from the other."

The President paused significantly after enunciating this part of his statement, and then added: "Based on these principles, I propose that the arms of the world shall be reduced by nearly one-third."

It was learned from highly authoritative sources in the capital today, that Mr. Hoover has no idea that the United States should act alone upon the principles he proposed, but would do so only if the other major powers should "accept them."

As analyzed here today, the President's proposals would have less effect upon the American army and navy than those of European powers. Figures are available here to show that the American army has been demobilized below the peacetime component given Germany and the other states following the war. "Heavily" Hoover would use as a yardstick for measuring the size of all armies.

America's bombing planes, tanks and chemical warfare, of course, would fall under the proposed plan. Other figures available here show that the American navy has not been built up to treaty strength, and that the effect of the proposals upon this country would be to bring the treaty limits down to about the ratio now enjoyed by the American (Continued on Page Three)

EX-MAYOR IS UNDER CHARGE OF EXTORTION

Charged with Conspiring to Get Money From Wealthy Wilmington Woman.

Wilmington, June 22.—(AP)—A hearing for John J. Furlong, Sr., and Parker & Moore, former city officials charged with conspiracy in an attempted extortion of Mrs. Jessie Kenan Wise, was set today for Friday afternoon.

A hearing had been placed for today for Furlong, former county recorder, but it was continued on motion of defense.

The hearing for Moore, former Wilmington mayor who was arrested yesterday as the latest suspect in the alleged $25,000 extortion of the wealthy social leader and philanthropist, was set for the same time as that of Furlong.

The case will come before Judge Henry A. Grady who will not sit as a Superior Court judge but as a committing magistrate. Thus, if a probable cause is found, he will send the cases to the grand jury for consideration of indictments.

Wilmington, June 22.—(AP)—Parker Quince Moore, former mayor of Wilmington, was under a charge today of conspiring to extort $25,000 from a wealthy Wilmington woman by threatening her with "serious bodily harm" and death.

Moore, who has resided in the past several years in Charlotte, Southern Pines, and Burlington, was arrested yesterday afternoon after Deputy A. B. Crews signed an affidavit accusing him of complicity in the case in which former Chief of Police J. J. Furlong was arrested last week.

They and others are alleged to have sent two notes to Mrs. Jessie Kenan Wise, one demanding $25,000 and the other, $20,000, threatening her with great harm if their demands were not granted.

Two other warrants for out-of-town people were said by officers here to have been served today. Moore had not been served today. Moore was said by officers to have been implicated in the extortion case by Furlong when he was arrested last Wednesday.

Draws Sentence For Murder

Asheville, June 22.—(AP)—For killing W. P. Pruitt at Oteen, Canie Lunsford of Haw Creek, was under sentence today to serve 15 to 20 years in state prison.

The sentence of Bill Lunsford, Canie's brother, for being an accessory to the murder, was set at 12 months on the county gang. (Continued on Page Three)

Prohibition Chief Topic At Capital

Washington, June 21.—(AP)—A swift succession of startling developments around the prohibition question today kept the capital stirred to fever pitch.

Hardly had political Washington calmed down from Speaker Garner's unexpected declaration of repeal of the 18th amendment yesterday, when Senator Borah of Idaho, told the Senate that Postmaster General Brown, close political adviser to the President, had said he preferred return of the saloon to present conditions, and that he expected to see it return.

Up to this morning this statement had gone unchallenged by Brown.

It was Borah's second spectacular prohibition declaration in as many days, and was the direct outcome of his speaking to the Senate Monday afternoon and rejecting the Republican platform and all its planks, particularly the resubmission one. In that speech he said Brown and Secretary Mills were for repeal. Both denied it.

Curtis Denies His Part in Baby Search A Hoax

Norfolk, Va., June 22.—(AP)—John Hughes Curtis today had repudiated his startling statement that his negotiations for the return of the kidnapped Lindbergh baby were entirely imaginary.

In a statement issued through his Flemington, N. J., attorney, the Norfolk boat builder said that his story of contact with the baby's kidnappers or their representatives was entirely true.

He charged the New Jersey state police with refusal to follow his clues. "Instead," Curtis complained, "they chose to believe I was a liar and worked on that assumption rather than that the clues were true."

W. C. Pender, Curtis' Norfolk attorney, will leave for Flemington soon to aid in preparing his client's defense.

Congress To Adjourn Middle Of Next Week

Washington, June 22.—(AP)—Congress now expects to remain in session until the middle of next week, through at least part of the Democratic national convention which opens in Chicago Monday.

The expectation is based on the Senate's deliberate slowing up in its consideration of the highly controversial unemployment relief bill, which is now the only major trouble spot on the congressional program. An agreement for a final vote today on the bill was sought, but even this was generally believed to be coming too late for adjournment by Saturday.

The leaders are pressing for hurry, and the House is to all intents twiddling thumbs until the Senate catches up, but a decision last evening against staying in session on the relief bill registered a definite (Continued on Page Three)

John Garner, Speaker of the House of Representatives, and one of those mentioned for the Democratic presidential nomination, injected joy into the hearts of opponents of prohibition yesterday when he declared for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment.

The action was the most surprising of the year, even more so than that of the Republican National Convention which declared in favor of resubmission of the question to the voters.

Just what effect Garner's statement will have on the Democratic convention is problematical, but with J. P. Shouse declaring prohibition the paramount issue of the campaign, it is to be presumed the Democratic party must decide affirmatively or negatively.

Some think the halcyon over prohibition will attract votes for both parties, but that is nothing but a matter of opinion. In some instances it will prove true but in others it will be just the opposite.

All we have heard recently is the argument for those opposed to the dry law but the story will be a different one when the dries begin raising their voices and casting their votes in protest.

European governments have been told that they cannot hope for further debt suspension from America until they stop spending so heavily for armaments.

The message was delivered to the disarmament conference by Hugh Gibson and was construed as meaning that America is ready to further postpone debt payments if the foreign governments will stop their spending.

Whether such construction can be placed on the warning remains to be seen, but it is difficult to see how America, hard hit by prevailing depression, will be able to continue delaying payment of tremendous debts owed by the foreign powers.

If those countries are able to continue preparations for war, then they should be requested to meet payments as usual. They have no right to expect this government to be lenient with them when they are making no attempt to meet their next payments.

It is a situation demanding the attention of the financial experts of this country, and the people generally will not sympathize with further delay of payments as long as such conditions prevail.

George Clark, chief of police of Greenville, announced yesterday he would enforce the ordinance requiring the elimination of rank growth of vegetation in the city limits.

The action is taken to throw a safeguard around the health of the people as well as to beautify the community and it should be the purpose of co-operative men and women to comply with the request at once.

Rank weeds offer splendid opportunity for breeding mosquitoes and if they are not properly destroyed it is impossible to say to what extent mosquito emergence will take place.

Persons who fail to comply with the ordinance will be required to explain to the court why they did not.

With the opening of the Westbrook swimming pool young people of the city will have a place to swim while being surrounded by every safeguard. Life savers will be on the job to see that swimming restrictions are observed, while a representative of the county health department will see that sanitary requirements are met every day.

The value of a public swimming pool of his kind cannot be estimated from the standpoint of dollars and cents. When we consider the toll of life taken by the river and other unprotected places, we begin to appreciate the value of the properly guarded public swimming pool and realize it is con-

SYNOPSIS: "I am going to buy you from your fiancé," Ashwood, polished gang leader who is holding Nancy Wentworth prisoner for ransom tells her. She has been taken with Lucel, a gangster, and four other men to an island. Jerry Calhoun, a friend and a detective have been caught trailing Ashwood.

Chapter 21
TWO PROPOSALS
 "I am taking you with me to my yacht, aboard which I shall spend the rest of my life," Ashwood told Nancy.

"She is a magnificent vessel, some two hundred feet long, with sufficient fuel oil capacity to cruise around the world without stopping. I have spent a year and an absurd amount of money outfitting her as a home afloat. She is now anchored in Mexican waters, her steam up, completely manned with a ready crew, and dependable crew, most excellent at a moment's notice. We will leave here in the amphibian shortly after breakfast the day after tomorrow and should be aboard the yacht by sunset."

Nancy's brain reeled. She grasped the arms of her chair. She must concentrate upon one thing at a time.

"What has given you to believe that I am for sale?" she demanded, forcing herself to speak calmly. Not for nothing had she been rated a fine actress.

"Are you in love with your fiancé, the venerable Mr. Macomber?" he countered imperturbably. "You will remember that the announcement of your engagement attracted considerable comment in the New York press. I noted that some of the so-called scandal sheets were somewhat cynical in their observations. Didn't one of the columnists stoop to the banality of referring to it as the union of May and December?"

"No, I'm not in love with Philip Macomber," she flared up. "But what difference does that make? I was tired—so tired—of having men make love to me. Philip Macomber is a wonderful man. We've known each other for years. He is kind, patient and fatherly and has promised to demand nothing that I do not wish to give him. When I've married him the others will stop. You don't know all the details, of course, but—"

"I wonder if you do?" he interrupted, his voice mildly questioning. "The arrangement, the settlement, if you please, between Mr. Macomber and your mother was quite considerable, one is told. Therefore, it is difficult to regard the matter as other than a cash sale. That being so, my predatory instincts urge me to deprive Mr. Macomber of a substantial sum of money—not in cash, but in property that he has purchased for cash."

Nancy wondered if she, too, had gone mad. Nothing seemed real. Those stars, so close that she might have reached out and plucked one of them, mocked her. The three-quarters moon, silhouetting the palms on the next island in a clear-cut half tone, had a face which grinned sardonically at her. And the man beside her was still discussing the outrageous proposal in a matter of fact voice which made it sound all the more unreal.

"After the first few days upon the yacht, Nancy, you will be quite content, I hope. You will have all the privacy you wish. A large, private suite will be set aside for you into which you may retire when you choose."

"We will get under way at once and begin a leisurely cruise around the world, calling at every unknown, seldom-visited port on the seven seas."

"You will find me, I dare say, an interesting companion. We have many things in common. You are the first woman I have known in ten years with whom I could be content to spend the rest of my days. You have, thank God, a brain and to watch it develop will be a source of never-failing stimulation to me. Books, music, art—all these things will fill your life to an extent that will amaze you."

"It is entirely possible, of course, that love will come to us. Propinquity works magic, good and bad, as you have already observed here. But we will not look ahead too far. Companionship is all that I require at this stage of events. That is, after all, what you expected out of your marriage to Macomber."

He became silent, the tip of his cigarette glowing and fading like a mammoth firefly. She fought for control of herself.

"Mr. Ashwood," she said, evenly, "from the moment you take me contributing its bit to the preservation of human life.

Enormous expense is attached to the operation of the pool and receipts are not sufficient to take care of the overhead. This makes it necessary for the public to contribute to the cause and it is hoped this will be done far more liberally than last year when everybody was convinced of the value of the pool as a recreation for children and grown-ups alike.

The people should take advantage of the facilities offered by the pool and do their bit toward making it a paying proposition and a permanent asset for the physical development of the public.

from this island to begin that mad scheme, I shall watch for an opportunity to commit suicide. You may be able to prevent it for a while. But the chance will come sooner or later and I will kill myself just as surely as the sun rises and sets."

He made no answer. As he lit another cigarette the red flare illuminated his strange lined face. It was set deep in thought. He took several rapid puffs, then exhaled in a long sigh.

"Dear, dear," he observed at last. "I had no idea that you were so conventional. I had hardly expected that your mind run in such ultra-conservative grooves. Very well, then, I shall send my airplane after a minister tomorrow. You may not know it now, but you will find that a wedding ring will assuage your pain to a great degree. You will be," he added mockingly, "at least an honest woman, no worse off than millions of your sex who are uncomfortably tied in the bonds of matrimony."

He pushed himself to his feet.

"And now, if you will excuse me, I must join the delightful group in the living room. I heard loud voices which seem to be raised in anger. It is possible that their conversation will be entertaining. Will you join me?"

"Thanks," she replied indifferently. "I'll stay here."

A step as soft as that of a cat slithered on the porch beside the silent girl.

"Nancy, don't you worry about Limp." It was Lucel's voice, harsh with suppressed rage. "I been creeping around looking the place over to see what could be done about getting outa here. I heard him talking and listened to what he said."

She was too exhausted to reply. If she opened her mouth at all, she thought, it would be to shriek in hysteria. All day long she had avoided the gangster for her intuition warned her that he was reaching an emotional crisis.

"That bird'll be found dead in his bed in the morning, Miss Wentworth," he assured her violently. "Then I'll get his gas and heat up this joint 'til the water under there'll be crowdin' with people swimming to get away from the lead. You and me'll go back to Chi."

SHARKEY GIVEN
 DECISION OVER
 HEAVY CHAMP

By ALAN GOULD
 (Associated Press Sports Editor)

New York, June 22.—(AP)—Jack Sharkey's victory over Max Schmeling for the world heavyweight championship today was greeted as the crowning touch to one of the ring's strangest careers.

The decision in the Boston sailor's favor, after 15 somewhat monotonous rounds, was as sudden a "break" of fortune for him as have been the frustrations previously in his erratic course through the heavyweight ranks over a six year period.

The Sharkey who walked out of the ring with the world title, finally a 2-1 verdict of the officials, was not the convincing fighter of the nights he whipped Harry Wills, knocked out Jimmy Maloney and floored big Primo Carnera. He looked more like the careless fellow who had wasted chances, by his lack of aggressiveness, against Heeny and Risko and Dempsey.

Sharkey at no time showed the punching superiority and spirited drive that had given him an overwhelming margin over Schmeling two years ago up to the time the big sailor swung low and fouled out. He looked like the complete master of Schmeling, in 1930. Last night he seemed to be biding his time, trusting to luck. To most everybody's surprise, he suddenly found it with him as the clear Irish voice of Joe Humphries proclaimed him the winner, and new champion.

There was nothing made than a vocal rebuttal to the verdict which went to Sharkey on the vote of Referee "Gunboat" Smith, himself an old time heavyweight, but it was the loudest that has been heard in many a moon in the working press section. The experts were at least six to one in their conviction that Schmeling had won and that by no stretch of the imagination could the German have been given worse than a draw.

Only once before has the heavyweight crown changed hands on a decision and never on a dividend verdict. Gene Tunney captured the crown on points from Jack Dempsey in the rain at Philadelphia, in 1926, but there was no argument as to the winner there.

From the time of John L. Sullivan, it has been an unwritten law of the ring that the champion receives the benefit of the doubt; in other words, that a world title should change hands only when there is small chance for dispute. Schmeling didn't receive any such benefit from the hands of the officials last night, despite his stronger, more effective finish.

Sharkey is the 11th acknowledged world champion in the 40 years since Sullivan swaggered above them all. For at least four years, since Tunney's retirement, he has been a potential champion in a division that has been filled with disputed developments. He has the chance now to settle down and prove he belongs at the top, but it will take a third or "rubber" contest to convince the critics that he is Schmeling's master.

This may not be a bad business partnership at that, inasmuch as the first two Sharkey-Schmeling bouts, in some what difficult times have surprised everyone by grossing close to $1,250,000 together.

DIZZY DEAN
 HOLDS GIANT
 BATS SILENT

By HERBERT W. BARKER
 (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Jerome Herman Dean, eccentric right hander of the St. Louis Cardinals, perhaps is trying to discover whether the best way to Manager Gabby Street's heart is through gill-edged pitching.

The dizzy one, whose career with the Cardinals has been one big argument after another, quit the team cold a few days ago in Philadelphia. He returned as quickly, returned to the fold and perhaps earned full forgiveness yesterday when he stopped the New York Giants cold with six hits to win a 5-1 decision.

Meantime the Chicago Cubs were increasing their National League lead by trouncing the Phillies 12-3 while the second place Boston Braves accepted a 9-3 beating from Cincinnati.

The Cubs blasted out 14 hits, including home runs by Moore and Hartnett, to win easily behind Pat Malone's steady pitching. Chuck Klein's 19th homer with one on accounted for two Philly runs. Babe Herman had a field day with a home run and three singles as the Reds checked the Braves. Ray Koip gave the tribe seven hits, two of them homers by Berger and Worthington.

Fred Heilmach pitched effectively and hit a home run and a single, driving in three runs, as Brooklyn beat Pittsburgh 9-2.

Chad Kimsey's three base wild throw of a sacrifice bunt permitted the New York Yankees to score three runs in the ninth, beat the St. Louis Browns 12-8 and increase their lead in the American League. Lou Gehrig hit his 15th homer with two on in the third.

The Philadelphia Athletics got only six hits off Milt Gaston and the Chicago White Sox walked off with a 3-1 decision, bunching hits off Rube Walberg for all their runs in the eighth. George Uhle's pinch triple in the ninth gave Detroit a 3-2 victory over the Boston Red Sox. Washington pounded Jack Rus. sell off the mound in the eighth, scored five runs and won 8-3.

CAPS HOLD TO TOP POSITION

Charlotte, June 22.—(AP)—Still battling for a higher position in the Piedmont League standings, the Charlotte Bees went to Raleigh today to engage the loop leading Caps in a series of games.

The Caps, however, had struck a fast stride to the tattoo of heavily swinging bats and promised the Hornets a hot reception. They smacked pitcher Durham of the High Point Pointers for 15 hits last night as they defeated the Pointers by a score that left no room for argument—16 to 5.

All the Hornets were able to do was split a double header with the Asheville Tourists, and that division left the Tourists all square with the Winston-Salem Twins for second position. The Hornets took the afternoon game at Asheville from the home team by the count of 5-3, but lost the night contest to the Tourists 2-0, as pitcher McLean blanked them.

The Twins went to Asheville today to see if they could do better, for they were two and a half games behind the Caps in the official records. Greensboro, leader of the second division, took an even number of hits with the Twins in last night's game at the Twin City, but made them count for more chalk marks on the scoreboard. The Pats won 10-9.

Wilmington and Durham, pretty close together on the bottom of the standings, met on the Pirates' diamond, and the home towners' hurler, Burns, let the Bulls have 11 hits, but kept them scattered far enough apart for the Pirates to win 5-4. In this game, Harry Daughtry made his debut with the Pirates.

Fielder Perry of the Pointers increased his lead over the other home run hitters of the league yesterday when he raised his total for the season to 12. Not to be outdone, in the same game, Durham, Smith, Scott and Strain also slugged for the circuit.

SEEK TWO NEGROES AS OUTLAWS

Sanford, June 22.—(AP)—Harvey Wallace and Elva White alias Morgan, negroes, were sought as outlaws today, accused of holding up and fatally wounding the men at a store at Cummock, near here, Saturday.

 Will Speak at the Court House,

Friday Night June 24
 at 8 o'clock
 In the interest of
Sen. Cameron Morrison
 Candidacy for re-election to the
UNITED STATES SENATE
 Mrs. Cotton is well-known to the people of Pitt county and you are invited and urged to hear her Friday night.

ANNOUNCEMENT!

I hereby announce my candidacy for membership in the House of Representatives from Pitt County, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary to be held July 2nd.

I believe the first and most important function of Democratic Government is the education of its youth.

The state should pay the entire expense of the six month's school term WITHOUT ANY TAX ON LAND.

I am opposed to spending more for any kind of Governmental service than the people are able to pay and then issuing bonds to pay deficits, as we have sometimes done in the past.

There should be no bond issue without a vote of the people, except for refunding bonds already outstanding.

I favor re-valuation of land and all real estate at its true value.

I stand for strict, though sound economy in all departments of our Government.

Your vote and support will be greatly appreciated.

Norfolk-Southern To Cut Off Two Trains on July 1

Raleigh, June 22. (AP) - The Norfolk-Southern railroad will operate only two passenger trains daily between Raleigh and Norfolk, one each way, after July 1, provided satisfactory mail and express arrangements can be made by that date.

Permission to discontinue the night trains via Wilson, Greenville, Washington and Elizabeth City was granted yesterday by the North Carolina Corporation Commission. Discontinuance of the railroad's agency at Willow Springs was also permitted.

Tomorrow, the petition of the Atlantic & Yadkin railroad for permission to discontinue passenger train service on its Sanford-Mt Airy will be heard for the third time.

Father of Auto Industry Dead

Cleveland, June 22. (AP) - One of the most famous men of the automotive industry, Alexander Winton Sr., who was generally known as the first commercial manufacturer of an automobile, died at his home here last night at the age of 72. He had been ill two weeks.

Long before the world ever dreamed the part automobiles were to play in modern life, Winton was building cars in a little Cleveland factory and his first automobile was running on the streets of this city as early as 1895.

By 1903, while the infant industry was still generally confined to "one-lungers" and "two-lungers" according to the number of cylinders, Mr. Winton had built an eight-cylinder racing car, which he entered and drove that year in the James Gordon Bennett Cup race in Ireland.

In those days, an automobile still looked like a demonic monster to many people, and Winton lost the race, he said later, because someone put candles in the gasoline tank to "keep away the devils."

Although several other inventors made and operated automobiles before Mr. Winton, he was generally known as the first to manufacture them for sale.

Will Discuss the Advisability of A Third Party

Washington, June 22. (AP) - Plans for a "convention" of the bonus army, to decide whether political activity will be confined to fighting bonus opponents or whether a third party move shall be attempted, were being formulated today by leaders of the veterans.

A split between the legislative committee and the executive officers of the army has developed over the question. The committee recommended a third party attempt if the Democratic convention ignores the bonus issue.

Quite a large crowd attended the burial of Ephraim Cherry (colored) Sunday, who was a member of the Order of Elks in Greenville and lived there for some time.

Several from here went to Farmville to hear Gypsy Smith and were highly pleased with his sermons.

TENNESSEE TRUCKS MUST HAVE N C TAGS

Raleigh, June 22. (AP) - Unless the North Carolina Highway Commission changes its plans, Tennessee trucks will be forced to display North Carolina tags when they come to this state after the next ten days.

Chairman E. B. Jeffers of the Commission, said yesterday that Tennessee officers have been arresting the drivers of North Carolina trucks without Tennessee licenses, and he intended to withdraw reciprocity with that state.

SAYS SHARKEY DID NOT WIN

(Continued from Page One) Tribune said: "No longer can the former sailor complain about the breaks, for last night he got perhaps the biggest break a challenger for the heavyweight championship ever received."

Mayor James J. Walker chimed in on a similar note. In a broadcast to Germany after the fight he said: "In my opinion, Schmeling should have won."

Berlin, June 22. (AP) - Max Schmeling's mother is convinced he won the fight with Jack Sharkey at New York last night, in spite of the decision.

She listened to the report of the fight over the radio in her home surrounded by a group of friends. "I heard the fight—every bit of it," she said. "My son and only my son is the world champion, I am firmly convinced. I telegraphed him that, too."

New York, June 22. (AP) - In the excitement of his warrior's losing the heavyweight championship, Joe Jacobs charged that there had been a deliberate plot, hatching for the past month, to rob Schmeling of the title.

"A couple of weeks ago," he charged as he stormed in Schmeling's dressing room, "I told newspapermen and it was printed that I would not allow Schmeling to leave his dressing room if a 'certain referee' was named to officiate in his match with Jack Sharkey."

"But the Boxing Commission insisted that we would get a square deal, even though I had every confidence in the source of my information. So we went in and got robbed. And the referee I referred to two weeks ago was the referee in that ring last night, Gunboat Smith."

Poses assembled from all directions to surround the fleeing bandits and today their only avenue of escape appeared to be to face once more the gunfire of their pursuers. The woman was given hospital treatment and placed in jail at Winnabro.

She refused to identify herself or her companions and said they had picked her up only a few days before while she was hitch-hiking. Officers said she apparently was about 29 years old.

Kills Holdup Man, Wounds Another

Chicago, June 22. (AP) - A fighting mayor of a suburban community with 3,000 souls called the leaden bluff of three bandits on a deserted highway early today and disregarding personal danger, shot one of them to death and forced the others to flee.

The mayor, George A. Hahn, of the village of South Chicago Heights, was en route home with a neighbor, Mrs. Court Kraemer, when the bandit car pulled up alongside his about 20 miles south of the Loop; and its occupants commanded him to stop.

He refused, and advising Mrs. Kraemer to "lay low," he stepped on the accelerator. The hold-up men fired four bullets into his car and all of them narrowly missed him. Undaunted, he returned the fire and saw one of the men fall to the pavement. The others fled.

While Mayor Hahn hastened to nearby Chicago Heights to summon police reinforcements for a chase, a youthful driver of a bullet-pierced car called at St. James hospital

Ghouls Attempt To Rob Grave of Labor Racketeer

Chicago, June 22. (AP) - Band of ghouls apparently intent upon robbing the grave of George "Red" Barker, labor racketeer and public enemy recently slain by machine gunners, engaged in a pistol fight with the caretaker of Mount Carmel cemetery early this morning. The ghouls escaped, but not until they had shot several holes in the caretaker's automobile, stopping pursuit.

The police advanced the theory that perhaps the intruders were seeking valuable papers or jewelry buried with the gangster. They pointed out that an automobile truck in which the men escaped could easily have been used to carry away Barker's casket.

The number of men in the band was not learned. Joseph Sobol, 50, the caretaker came upon them shortly after midnight while driving his automobile truck in the vicinity of the Barker grave.

They were bending over Barker's grave. When Sobol asked them what they were doing they answered him with a half dozen shots. Sobol threw his own pistol and fired back at the hoodlums while he hid behind his truck. The ghouls kept on firing until both front tires of Sobol's car, the hood and the windshield had been punctured.

RENEWED DEMANDS FOR DEMOCRATS TO ADOPT RESUBMISSION PLAN

"Governor Smith has a right to make any statement he desires," replied Farley.

Headquarters were opened during the day for another presidential candidate - former Senator James A. Reed of Missouri. Ed S. Villmore, who opened the quarters for Reed, said the Missouri delegation would stand for the former senator until he released them.

Coincidentally, the Byrd and Garner headquarters swung actively into the campaign.

Col. Henry Breckenridge, one of the three Virginians in charge of the headquarters of the former governor of the Old Dominion, said Byrd would support Shouse for permanent chairman of the convention.

awriter L. Barlow, one of the leaders of the California drive for Garner, said the wet and dry question had been injected into the primaries in that state by Smith supporters and those of the Speaker and of Gov. Roosevelt had not taken part in it.

Barlow said that cards had been circulated saying: "If you are wet, vote for Smith; if you are dry, vote for Garner, but if you are neither wet nor dry, vote for Roosevelt," had been distributed by Smith supporters.

William C. Walsh, director of the Ritchie-for-President committee of Maryland, also arrive to open quarters for the Maryland governor.

He issued a statement saying Governor Ritchie was the only candidate whose strength had grown in the last two months and that the governor possessed the courage and leadership demanded at this time.

Market Report

Cotton--Stocks--Grain

New York Cotton

New York, June 22.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, 5 to 6 lower on lower Liverpool cables and a more favorable view of weather reports.

Volume was moderate at the start but further July liquidation was absorbed by trade and spot house buying. Some buying for foreign account was also reported which with a scattering commission house demand was sufficient to absorb early offerings and hold prices fairly steady within a range of 3 or 4 points. At the end of the first half hour the market was quiet with July selling around 5.17 and December 5.35 or about 4 to 7 points below yesterday's closing quotations. Some selling after the call was attributed to the easier stock market. Liverpool cables reported local and Bombay liquidation in that market influenced by the advance of sterling, and said there was some improvement in the British home trade in cotton goods.

Stock Market

WALL STREET.—(AP)—The New York Stock Market braced itself after a further slip in the first hour today, but showed scant inclination to recover.

Electric power production, and the movement of revenue freight as reported by some individual trunk-lines for last week, were mildly favorable, and tended to counterbalance such adverse developments as further shrinkage in steel output, dividend cuts and uncertainties, and indications that Congress would be unable to finish this week.

American Can slumped 2 points to a new low, then recovered partially. American Telephone and Allied Chemical sagged more than a point, the former to a new bottom, before support appeared. U. S. Steel preferred went under 60 with a 2-point sag to the lowest since 1904. The common sagged a fraction to within a shade of its recent low. Santa Fe also got down 2 before recovering partially, and issues off a point or so included Union Pacific, Borden, Eastman, American Tobacco B and McKeesport. As the list stiffened, a few issues traded about a point over the previous close, including Public Service of N. J., Case, and B-M-T.

The slight improvement in Electric Power production in the past two weeks, inasmuch as these figures are regarded as one of the more sensitive of business barometers, has provided some encouragement. The situation has become somewhat obscured, however, by the pick-up in some lines of business in an effort to move merchandise before the excise tax became effective yesterday.

Power production for the week ended Saturday showed a gain over the preceding week, the first time an upturn has been shown in that period since 1929. It was 101.2 per cent under 1931, as against 111.2 in the previous week.

Grain Market

Chicago, June 22.—(AP)—Still staggering under the effects of heavy increased taxes on future delivery dealings, wheat today fell more than a cent a bushel, but later recovered somewhat.

Reports that black rust was in evidence at various places in the Dakotas helped the market, to rally after today's prices had broken the season's low record. Official figures indicated that board of trade business under the new federal taxes had diminished more than 10,000,000 bushels in a single day.

Late buying attributed to eastern interests led to fractional advances at the last. Wheat closed nervous, 1-8-1-2 above yesterday's finish, corn unchanged, to 1-4 higher, oats 1-8 off to 1-4 up and provisions unchanged to 10 cents lower.

Says Business On the Upgrade

Raleigh, June 22.—(AP)—Will Neal, prominent Marion hosiery manufacturer and member of the State Highway Commission, said here today that he believed business conditions are on the upgrade.

Mr. Neal said his mill was running night and day making hosiery and that orders now in hand would insure the plant running full capacity until the latter part of August.

"Month by month this year our business has increased," Mr. Neal said. "Our receipts increase every month and we are able to give employment to our workers night and day."

Alienation Suit Continues Today

Winston-Salem, June 22.—(AP)—Mrs. Alexander B. Hanks was still on the witness stand today when the third day's testimony was begun in her suit for $150,000 in which she charges her father-in-law J. R. Hanks, with alienating the affections of her husband.

Mrs. Hanks, the first witness called in the suit which opened Monday, told the court yesterday that her husband, Jim Hanks, described to her a talk he had had with the defendant to the effect that if she would sign a paper and go to Boston with her two children, her father-in-law would give her $300.

She said her husband told her that if his father would approve, he would send her $50 a month if she would go to Boston and secure employment.

SEEK TO BREAK UP TWO NUDIST COLONIES

Raleigh, June 22.—(AP)—Week-end parties in the nude are the target of a new campaign conducted by Wake county officers. They said there were two colonies of the nudists on the Neuse river.

Four men and three young women described by the officers as being "conspicuous for lack of wearing apparel," were arrested yesterday. Their names were given as Everett Salmon and Rip Morris, said by the officers to be leaders of the two colonies, George Wood, Grady Stutz, Elizabeth Ellington, Josephine Moore and Barbara Moore.

The Ellington girl was released under $50 bond, and the others were locked up.

Pardoned

Raleigh — Brinson Smith, who conducted a periodical subscription campaign in Burlington and failed to pay the winners, served five months of his six months sentence, Governor O. Max Gardner pardoned him at the beginning of the sixth month.

they are Milder!

YOU'RE RIGHT... there's one thing that stands out about Chesterfield. That is... they're Milder. This means Chesterfields aren't harsh. It means they're not strong or heavy. Early in the day or late at night you'll find that Chesterfields are always pleasing. They are mild and yet they satisfy. What's more they taste better, too. That's it... milder and better taste. These are the two outstanding merits of Chesterfield. Plus... a third important advantage. Chesterfields are as pure as the water you drink... as pure as science can make them.
