

BYRNES GIVES BARUCH CLEAN HEALTH BILL

Baruch Advocates Peacetime Manufacture of War-Making Implements

Washington, March 28.—(AP)—The peacetime manufacture of war-making implements either under government license or by the government itself was advocated today before the Senate Munitions committee by Bernard Baruch, chairman of the world war industries board.

Washington, March 28.—(AP)—Spurred on by Senator Byrnes, (O) South Carolina, members of the Senate Munitions committee today gave Bernard Baruch a clean bill of health for his activities as chairman of the War Industries Board under President Wilson.

Appearing as a surprise witness, Byrnes declared he believed unfair insinuations against Baruch's record which may have grown out of the committee's investigation.

"When I saw the criticism about his war time financial transactions, I felt it necessary to state the facts in the case."

He added he was chairman of the special deficiency committee of the house appropriations committee during the war and knew in detail all of the transactions concerning Baruch.

He reported that Baruch had financed a mission going to Europe to learn if any American goods were being diverted by allies for military purposes to commercial purposes.

"Baruch paid expenses of the commission out of his own pocket, amounting to $85,000," Byrnes said adding that the financier declared reimbursement from the treasury although the act saved the United States "many millions of dollars."

MAGISTRATES HOLD STATUS

Recorders Court Remains Part of Judicial System as Legislators Act

By C. A. PAUL.

Raleigh, March 28.—The grip of local politics was left unshaken as the senate placed its seal of approval on a series of amendments to the state constitution after first amending them so that justices of the peace will remain constitutional officers and recorders' courts will retain their present status.

The series of amendments, if approved by the lower house, will be submitted to the people at the 1936 general election and are, for the most part, compromises on the series of controversial amendments which the Supreme Court declared the people could not vote upon last year. The old set of amendments almost re-wrote the present constitution. Dropped from the list this year is the highly controversial amendment which would have shortened the state ballot by permitting the Governor to appoint most state department heads.

The present series is designed to: raise the state income tax limit from six to ten per cent; permit the classification of property for taxation purposes, such classification to be made by the legislature; allow an exemption of $1,000 in listing homesteads for taxation in lieu of the present $300 exemption; create within the superior courts a division for the trial of criminal cases; and limit the borrowing power of the state to an amount equal to two-thirds of the amount retired in the preceding year, unless the people should vote otherwise.

Struck from the amendment relating to the courts were provisions which would have removed justices of the peace as constitutional officers, thus placing the magistrates and their jurisdictions within the domain of the legislature, and which would have paved the way for abolition of recorders' courts. The real object in the magistrates' provision looked toward eventual abolition of the present promiscuous appointment of magistrates. Defeat of that provision of the proposed amendment was presented last month by defeat of Senator Weathers' bill which would have reduced the number of magistrates and regulated sharply their offices.

All baseball games in Dallas this year, excepting on Sundays, will be played under the lights.

SUTTON CASE STILL ON TAP

Court Denies Motion For Dismissal as Plaintiff Completes Testimony

Civil court continued hearing today in the case of J. W. Sutton, vs. Joe Sutton and others in which the plaintiff seeks to recover property disposed of while he was in an alleged state of mental incapacity.

The case was begun Monday afternoon shortly after court had begun its second week session of the two week term which convened here last week and indications to date pointed to completion during the latter part of the week.

Following this ruling court innumerable testimony by the plaintiff yesterday Judge M. V. Barnhill, of Rocky Mount denied a motion on part of the defense that the action pertaining to some of the defendants be dismissed.

Following this ruling court immediately began hearing of defense testimony which probably will not be completed until sometime tomorrow.

The action has been before the court for several years, beginning with Sutton being deprived of handling his estate, involving considerable valuable farm land and other things Sutton's guardian started the suit for recovery and Sutton was later declared mentally sound and capable of looking after his business. He then continued his effort to recover the property disposed of and won out at a term of court here last Spring. The supreme court after reviewing the case, ordered a new trial because of an error on the part of the presiding judge.

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

News Behind The News.

Washington
By IRA BENNETT

SHOT: Sidney Hillman of the National Industrial Recovery Board took a page out of Rex Tugwell's famous book of recantations when faced with a drumfire by Senator King on the subject of Hillman's alleged radicalism.

King sprang a leaflet of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union, of which Hillman is president, urging workers to develop "class consciousness" and aim at control of the industry. Hillman disavowed the leaflet and denied that he was a radical. He made an emotional appeal for betterment of labor conditions which brought applause. But his argument in favor of placing service industries under NRA runs afoul of numerous court decisions which bar federal interference with state business.

Members of the Senate committee dealing with the new NRA seem to be convinced that service industries should not be placed under codes.

"Hillman is strong on wage boosts through legislation but short on constitutional law," observed a member of the committee.

BREWING: Still another "reorganization and coordination" injection is given to NRA to keep the moribund institution alive until Congress gives it another lease of life or kills it off. Donald Richberg, handy coordinator, is made head of the National Industrial Recovery Board and a labor representative is added to the board.

The administration and AFL are backing away from a death feud. Each is afraid of the other—and each lost faith in the other—but they are trying to work together for selfish reasons. President Green puts out a hint that FDR will get behind the Wagner bill, and FDR doesn't deny it—but he has made no commitment for all that.

SIMON TELLS OF HIS TALK WITH HITLER

Says "Divergencies of Opinion" Revealed In Conversations at Berlin

London, March 28.—(AP)—Sir John Simon, foreign minister, told a crowded House of Commons today "considerable divergence of opinion" were revealed in his talk with Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler at Berlin on questions of European peace.

The visit, the foreign secretary said, was one of several exploratory trips of British ministers to European capitals and "in view of these circumstances it will be obviously undesirable to make a full statement as to the position which is still under investigation."

"Unauthorized circulation, such as have appeared in some quarters," Sir John said "may be disagreeable."

FLIM-FLAM ARTIST HELD

Tank Gooding Bound Over on Charge of Obtaining Money By False Pretense

Tank Gooding, colored, described by police as a flim-flam artist of the first water, was scheduled to face trial in County court here next week on a charge of obtaining money under false pretense.

The negro was given preliminary hearing in mayor's court yesterday but was unable to post bond of $400 and was remanded to jail to await hearing.

Gooding Chief of Police George Clark said, is charged with two separate charges of obtaining money from persons in an underhand manner and probably would face a number of others had it been gone through.

Accosting persons on the streets, the police head said the negro offered them some special values in various lines of goods, including especially a radio. After interesting the prospective buyer in his wares, the negro was then said to have taken him to his home. The unsuspecting buyer was then asked to make a deposit. As soon as Gooding received the money he did the disappearing act.

Usually people accosted along the streets either did not want what the negro had to offer or were too busy to investigate, and that probably saved more from losses, the police head said.

Youth Sent To County Farm

Wilmington, March 28.—Porter Lee Huffham, a high school student and son of Porter Huffham, U. S. commissioner at Wilmington, has been convicted of assault and sentenced to 15 days on the county farm.

Judge Alton A. Lennon in recorder's court recognized the defendant until the close of school in May to begin his sentence.

He was convicted of assaulting J. A. Thompson during an altercation at a nearby filling station Thompson suffered the loss of two teeth and a badly battered face Huffham escaped with a badly smashed hand.

SOUTHERN STORMS TAKE SIX LIVES—DAMAGE HEAVY

Six deaths were attributed to storms which struck in scattered sections of the south. Three persons lost their lives in North Carolina and three in Tennessee. Several others were injured and property damage was heavy. At the top Mrs. Allen Rader, Jr., is shown standing above the splintered wreckage of her home which was demolished by a windstorm which cut a wide path through outlying sections of Knoxville, Tenn., seriously injuring five persons. Mrs. Rader, her sister, and her 6-year-old son miraculously escaped death, though the house fell upon them. Below is shown the wreckage of a barn near Charlotte, N. C. Although splinters flew all around it, the car was unharmed. (Associated Press Photos)

PEACE PLANS FOR GERMANY DEALT BLOW

Failure of European Powers to Intercede in Lithuanian Court Act, Causes Worry

Berlin, March 28.—(AP)—Failure of European powers to intercede in behalf of the Nazis sentenced by a Lithuanian court was viewed in official circles today as a severe blow to prospects for bringing Germany into line with their peace program.

Protests throughout the Reich against action of the military tribunal in condemning four Nazis to death and 87 to prison terms were feared to have impressed Reichsfuehrer Hitler greatly.

As a result, German sources said the assurances which Hitler gave Sir John Simon, British foreign secretary, of the Reich's peaceful intentions toward Lithuania have been virtually nullified.

"Memorandum is absolute proof," a Wilhelmstrasse spokesman said, "that Germany must be saved by herself. It shows once more we must be strong and capable. We cannot depend on a collective system which always plays against Germany."

"When guarantees favor Germany somehow or other they never work. Yet we are asked to be stupid, enough to give our signature to mutual assistance."

KIWANIS HEAD HERE APR. 11

The coming of the district governor to this community, announced the first of the month, has been received by Kiwanians throughout the section, and members of a number of clubs have been invited to be on hand to hear him speak.

Charges State Has Not Collected All Sales Tax

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, N. C., March 28.—The State of North Carolina has been collecting only about two-thirds of the sales tax which the people have been paying the last two years, owing to the fact that merchants who have been collecting the tax for the State have been out of sympathy with the tax, according to Dr. Ralph W. McDonald, Representative from Forsyth County. If this statement is correct, the merchants of the State have been collecting between $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 a year more from the sales tax than they have been remitting to the Department of Revenue.

Officials of the Department of Revenue have maintained for some time that the merchants—or at least, some of them—have been making a nice profit from the sales tax for some time.

"I am convinced that the Department of Revenue has not been collecting more than two-thirds of the sales tax actually paid by the people since the 3 per cent sales tax went into effect, because the merchants have been antagonistic and have not co-operated with the State," Dr. McDonald said in the House during the fight to reduce the rate of the sales tax 2 per cent. "But if the sales tax rate is reduced to 2 per cent, the merchants will not be so antagonistic and will give better co-operation with the result that the State will collect almost as much from the 2 per cent as it has been collecting from the 3 per cent tax."

Dr. McDonald maintained that the difference between the yield from the 3 per cent sales tax with exemptions removed and the 2 per cent sales tax with exemptions removed, would be less than $2,000,000 a year, since the merchants would co-operate so much better in collecting and remitting the 2 per cent tax.

The House did not seem to be much impressed with Mr. McDonald's argument, however, re-inserted the 3 per cent sales tax rate into the revenue bill and then passed it on third reading.

BOYCOTT BY LEAF UNIONS BEGINS TODAY

Tobacco Workers International Announces Fight Against Non-Union 'Fags'

Washington, March 28.—(AP)—The Tobacco Workers International Union announced today that its campaign for boycott against non-union made cigarettes is under way.

The boycott was threatened shortly after President Roosevelt's sometime ally signed a cigarette code the union disapproved.

A tobacco union statement said: "Some 25 able and capable speakers will visit local unions spreading the truth of the damnable conditions that prevailed in the non-union tobacco industry, the robbery of the farmers and the ruthless exploitation of the workers in this industry."

Among the non-union cigarette factories are the "big four" of the industry, The American Tobacco Company, R. J. Reynolds, Leggett-Myers and P. Lorillard.

Late News Flashes

Today In The Legislature.

Raleigh, March 28.—(AP)—The House this afternoon refused to appropriate $22,000,000 yearly for the public schools instead of the $20,000,000 for 1935-36 and $20,900,000 for 1936-37, as recommended by its appropriation committee.

An amendment to boost the figure to $22,000,000 yearly was defeated 56 to 47.

In quick order an amendment by Uzelle of Rowan to raise the allotment for the first year to $20,641,000 was defeated as was one by O'Berry of Wayne to add $40,000 yearly to take care of sick leaves for teachers.

An amendment by Lumpkin of Franklin to provide a 25 per cent increase in 1935-36 in revenue permits was adopted.

Set Inquest Date In Highway Death

New Bern, N. C., March 28.—Inquest has been set for 11 a. m. Saturday at the courthouse in Jacksonville for the death of Henry Gilmore, 50, negro, who was injured fatally Saturday night when he was struck by an automobile driven by Philip Stroud, 16, son of Glennie Stroud of Belgrade, while he was riding a bicycle on Route 30 at Chaney Creek bridge, near Jacksonville.

Coroner Timmons Jones, of Onslow County, will conduct the inquest. Meanwhile, Stroud is out under $500 bond for his appearance at the hearing. He said that he had passed another car and could not avoid striking the negro on the bicycle, not seeing him until the last minute, then both of them turning quickly in the same direction. The negro died within a few hours at a New Bern hospital.

MONEY FIGHT TO BRING OUT LIQUOR BILL

Battle Over Finances In Senate Expected To Give Hill Bill Another Look-in

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.
By C. A. PAUL.

Raleigh, March 28.—Now that the revenue bill has reached the Senate proponents of the Hill liquor control bill in the senate finance committee will soon trot it out again, this time as a budget balancer.

The famed Angus D. MacLean strategy of putting the legislative cart before the horse may be employed: The offering of a new section to the revenue bill, and "if and when" measure, levying a tax on liquor if it should be legalized. Such a new section has in fact already been drawn and will be proposed in the finance committee room now that committee again has the revenue measure. An effort will be made to get the section adopted, perhaps with the aid of dry senators who would certainly have no objection to taxation of liquor if it should be legalized, no matter how much they might oppose actual legalization.

Failing in securing adoption of the new section the proponents of the measure will probably let it die in the committee files. If they are successful, however, they will then offer the Hill bill itself, a proposal to establish a state-owned system of liquor dispensaries.

That the two money bills—revenue and appropriations are now out of balance to the tune of a $2,000,000 deficit for the next two years is contended by many legislators. If the finance committee strikes out the increased cash filling station tax and the stock dividend levy the difference in revenue will amount to about $1,000,000 in addition to the theoretical existing shortage.

The liberals in the legislature see in such an eventuality an opportunity to offer the liquor bill as a method of closing the financial gap.

King, local police detective sergeant, has been named in warrants charging him with reckless driving injury to property and assault and battery with a deadly weapon in connection with an automobile collision in which a police car figured on March 9, it was disclosed today.

LEGISLATIVE RAMBLINGS

By C. A. PAUL

Raleigh, March 28.—Stout, matronly women are to be seen daily in and about the state capital. They don't know how to lobby, but they are doing their best. They are Raleigh boarding house keepers who are agitated no end because the revenue bill as passed by the lower house imposes the three per cent sales tax on meals served by them, plus a tax of $1 per chair on all chairs in excess of 20 in their dining room. They say that they do not, like cafes, buy their groceries from wholesale. Instead, they say, they make their purchases at retail stores where they of course pay the three per cent levy. Most boarding houses, they aver, are conducted by widows who have dependents and no other means of livelihood save their boarding houses. Somehow (Continued on Page Two)

CAPT. EDEN AND LITVINOFF CONFER TODAY

European Problems Discussed at Office Of Russian Commissioner at Moscow

Moscow, March 28.—(AP)—Foreign Commissar Maxim Litvinoff and Captain Anthony Eden, British Lord Privy Seal, today discussed the "conclusions to which the Berlin negotiations are leading" during a two-hour conference on the peace of Europe.

The British envoy, received with honors, talked to Litvinoff in the latter's office in the Foreign Ministry and the description of the subject of the talk was made later by well-informed quarters, but these sources were unable to say what nature of "conclusions were meant."

It was stated that during the first conversation Litvinoff and Eden "have no disagreement on the problems discussed." Their parley was described as being conducted in "an extremely friendly atmosphere."

Lord Chilton, the British Ambassador to Russia; Ivan Maisky, the Russian Ambassador to London, and William Strang, of the British Embassy, were present at the conference.

Captain Eden informed Litvinoff of the conversations he and Sir John Simon, the British Foreign Secretary, had with Reichsfuehrer Hitler and other German leaders in Berlin, and afterward the two exchanged information and opinion on the most important aspects of the present European situation. They are to meet again at 11:30 o'clock tomorrow.

LETHAL GAS BILL UP SOON

Measure Expected to Receive Consideration in the House Next Tuesday

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, March 28.—Whether or not North Carolina will replace its ancient electric chair with a lethal gas chamber will be a subject of special order before the House of Representatives Tuesday. Reported out favorably this week by the joint committee on penal institutions the bill, offered by Dr. Charles Peterson (M.D.), Mitchell county legislator, would authorize the construction of a lethal gas chamber to supplant the 25-year-old electric chair at Central State Prison here. Death would come to those convicted of capital crimes by means of hydrocyanic gas, the deadliest gas known. Two other states, Colorado and Arizona, now have such chambers.

Death, says Dr. Peterson and other medical men, is painless when the deadly gas is used. The chamber, believes the Doctor, can be built with convict labor at a cost to the state of about $300, which would go principally for materials.

When the Peterson measure reached the floor of the house it was set as a special order for Tuesday upon the motion of Representative U. S. Page, who announced that in the meantime he intends to get some committee action on the bill offered some time ago by Representative Dees, of Pamlico county, which would cause the state to revert to public hanging. "Those paying the death penalty would be hanged in the county in which the crimes were committed. Rep. Page, a former chief of police at Dunn, attempted in committee to amend the Peterson bill so that it would, in effect, be the same as the Dees bill. His amendment was ruled out of order.

Several legislators have announced their intention of supporting what has become popularly known in legislative circles as the "gas bill." Dr. Peterson, a Republican, came to the legislature for the express and avowed purpose of introducing his pet bill. It requires the expenditure of 90 cents for gas, says Dr. Peterson, to put a man to death in a lethal gas chamber.

It is believed that some sentiment for the Peterson bill has been aroused as a result of the Montgomery county prison camp investigation growing out of the cases of W. Shropshire and Robert Rame, whose feet were amputated while they were subject to "inhuman treatment by prison camp officials."

Junior Woman's Club Meeting.

It was a great pleasure to have Mrs. J. H. B. Moore for the speaker for the afternoon. Mrs. Moore spoke on Mussolini, the dictator of Italy. This talk was very entertaining as well as instructive one. Mrs. Moore began her talk by comparing a dictator to a lion tamer in a circus. She said the dictator is like the lion tamer who stands in front of eight or ten growing beasts, constantly holding them in awe with scourge and revolver. They both hate him and obey him. At the tent door of the circus men stand ready with hydrants and rifles. Nevertheless he forces the animals turn after turn to their respective places on the wooden platform while at any moment one of them may make a single stroke with paw or tooth and stamp out the life of the tamer. It is not at all strange then that the lion tamer is rarely a favorite with the rest of the circus company. His chief admirers are the outside visitors who come to look on. Mrs. Moore gave the biography of Mussolini including his birth, his early childhood, his military training, his home life, and his place in society. Following this delightful talk, Mrs. John Winstead and Mrs. W. W. Morgan served cheese sandwiches, pickles and Coca-Colas.

Mrs. William Taft, president of the club, presented Mr. Stratford, the captain of the Salvation Army. Mr. Stratford offered the Junior Woman's Club the opportunity of sponsoring the dances at the Exposition which is to be held here April 8-15. The club voted in favor of sponsoring these dances. Committees were appointed definite places in regard to the dates and orchestra will be announced later.

Miss Mary Dirnberger told the club the plans of the play "Nothing But The Truth," which is to be presented by the Little Theatre Guild April 4 at the Pitt Theatre. The club voted to sell tickets. The president appointed Mrs. W. W. Morgan to be in charge of the tickets. Those interested in selling them were asked to call Mrs. Morgan.

Plans for the Fine Arts Festival, which is to be April 11, were discussed.

The meeting adjourned to meet again April 5th. At that time officers for the coming year will be elected.—Reported.

"Nothing But The Truth."
One week from tonight the Greenville Little Theatre Guild will present "Nothing But The Truth," at the Pitt Theatre. Ever since its production several years ago in New York City this comedy of high finance and truth telling has been a favorite among little-theatres and amateur dramatic groups. The story and comedy situations appeal to the audiences, while the range of acting required falls within the scope of those to whom the theatre is a hobby rather than a profession.

Miss Mary Dirnberger, supervisor of community drama, is directing the production. The first act takes place in the uptown office of E. M. Ralston, New York broker. The second and third acts are laid in a country home on Long Island. Miss Lelia Higgs will decorate the living room in a manner suggestive of the simple elegance characteristic of the Ralston family.

The cast, which includes Mrs. Vance Perkins, Mrs. J. B. Cummings, the Misses Alma Lee, Jane Hadley, Sybil Clark, Elizabeth Wilson, and Calvin Gorman, Robert Moyer, Charles Woodard, D. T. Beamer and Jack Humphrey, has been rehearsing for over two weeks. A show complete in every detail, and rich in comedy spirit is expected.

"Nothing But The Truth" on April 4 will be the fifth public performance directed by Miss Dirnberger to be given in Greenville this year.

E. C. T. C. Alumnae.
The Greenville Chapter of East Carolina Teachers College Alumnae will meet at eight o'clock this evening in the teachers dormitory.

Mrs. Smith Gives Program.
Mrs. Guy Smith gave the program for the regular meeting of the Round Table when it met last Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. H. L. Carr at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. A. Darden, on Holly street. Her subject was "Prominent Women of the Period, 1903-13." Her splendid paper told of three women, Grace Dodge, Cora Wilson Stewart, and Dr. Florence Sabin.

During the social hour, the hostess assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Darden and Mrs. Fleming, served refreshments. The guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Frank Smith of Littleton, Miss Hattie Everett of Scotland Neck, Mrs. E. E. Rawl of South Carolina, and Mrs. Hunter Fleming of Wilson.—Reported.

SIXTY-FOUR CAMPERS RELEASED FROM DUTY

New Bern, N. C., March 28.—Sixty-four men of Camp Patterson CCC camp left Tuesday for Wilson to entertain for Camp Dix, New Jersey, where they were to be released from the service Wednesday upon the expiration of their enlistment periods. Their departure leaves only 88 men at the local camp, but supplements will arrive during the first part of April from the new recruits.

Accompanying the men to Wilson were two local officers, Lieut. E. B. James, in command of the camp, and Lieut. Lynn S. Waters, Jr. Two Fort Bragg officers, Captain Kern and Lieutenant Heyne, also went from here with the boys and will accompany them all the way to Camp Dix, expecting to remain there until assigned new recruits for them to bring back here.

PREHISTORIC FISH EGGS MAKE STONE FOR DOORS

Norman, Okla.—(AP)—Eggs of prehistoric fishes will adorn the entrances of buildings of the University of Oklahoma, but most people will see only the likenesses of beloved university officials.

Three tons of oolite limestone from Bromide, Oklahoma, have been quarried, and on these art students will sculpture the figures of past and present school leaders. Dr. Frank A. Melton, geology professor, said the white, hard stone was formed by millions of tiny eggs laid by strange fishes, perhaps a million years ago.

CONTRACT 1935 RULES EXPLAINED

(This is the fourth and last of a series by an outstanding authority on contract bridge.)

By ALFRED M. GRUENTHER
(Written for The Associated Press)

There has been a general clamor for simplification of undertrick penalties. It is apparent from the above table that the law makers have heeded this prayer. The scoring now is so simple it can be learned in a very few minutes.

It is not believed that the bidding strategy should be changed as a result of the new scoring, except possibly in the case of vulnerable contracts. There is now a slight percentage in favor of close doubles of vulnerable contracts, since there is so much to gain in case the contract is defeated by more than one trick. Heretofore, a player could sit back and watch his vulnerable opponents to down four tricks undoubled and still collect a sizable premium—700 points. Now if he desires to benefit materially he must double. This is as it should be and I consider this feature an excellent one.

The large grand slam bonuses never have been popular with the bridge playing public. While mathematically correct, they have made too great a dent in the pocketbooks of unfortunate defenders against successful grand slam contracts.

Music Festival Here On Sunday

The first big Sectional Festival Program of the North Carolina Music Festival Association will be staged in Greenville Sunday afternoon, March 31, at 3:30 o'clock.

Many prominent features will be presented on the program. A combined chorus of eight hundred voices will be one of the main attractions. An adult chorus of over two hundred voices, high school chorus of four hundred voices, and a junior chorus of some three hundred voices. Each of these groups will be heard in separate recitals and all will be heard in a combined performance.

Towns represented in the program will include New Bern, with a representation of some 150 voices; Aydon with 175 voices; Kinston, with about seventy adult voices; Kennedy Home with 125, and Greenville, with about 150 voices, including the junior group. These groups will be arranged on the stage in three different choruses that can be combined into one big chorus.

Never before has Greenville been favored with such a mammoth musical feast. It will be yours for the coming. No admission will be charged. It will be free to the public.

The program will be staged at the Campus Building at the college. This is the only auditorium in town that will accommodate the chorus and the audience. People from all over the State will be present to witness the unusual performance. It will have all the colorful variety of the big State-wide programs often heard of but seldom seen.

"Tip" Hughes, sophomore of the Stillwell, Okla., high school, walks eighty miles each week to attend classes and had a perfect attendance record for the first semester.

Mills Close, Blames NRA

New Bern, March 28.—The consumer is both unwilling and unable to buy lumber products at cost, set by the NRA codes and for a sawmill to operate under such regulations and conditions entails a loss so the Commercial Hardwood Company plant is to be closed down as soon as logs on hand have been sawn. It has been announced by Clarence Kirven, head of the sawmill which has operated for some years at James City, who says that if the codes are not extended beyond their expiration date in June he expects a revival in the lumber industry.

Says Cardui Soon Helped.

"My mother was such a believer in Cardui that she gave it to me," writes Mrs. Sam Ferrara, of Hammond, La. "I was suffering with my back and side. I would get so dizzy I could hardly stand and then have a weak feeling in my back. This made me very nervous and I did not rest well at night. I felt better after my first bottle of Cardui. I took two bottles and felt a great deal better. It certainly is a fine medicine."

Successfully used over fifty years. Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician. (Adv.)

New York Cotton

New York, March 28.—(AP)—Cotton opened easy 20 to 24 lower on heavy foreign selling owing to the political situation abroad and under commission house liquidation. After the first flurry of liquidation prices rallied from nine to ten points from the lowest. May contracts sold up from 10.85 to 10.97 by nervousness remained in evidence and later fluctuations were irregular. At midday May was quoted at 10.97 and December at 10.69. Active months were ruling 10 to 15 points below yesterday's final level.

N. Y. Stock Market

STOCKS New York, March 28.—(AP)—The shadow of international monetary uncertainty was thrust across financial markets anew today and created fresh uneasiness that held prices movement in a narrow area. While some sort of drastic action had been looked for in Belgium as result of the prolonged difficulty experienced with its currency, suspension of the Brouse and foreign exchange trading was a mild surprise, and brought the financial community one step nearer the realization that a shakeup in international monetary unit was inevitable with its repercussions on world trade and finance in unknown quantity. The late tone was easy. Sales were 420,000 shares.

Income Publicity Holds Congress Washington, D. C., March 28.—(AP)—A new verdict on publicity of income tax returns, occupied the Senate today as major administration legislative problems slipped momentarily in the background. PROBERS OFF TO MORGANTON

Joint Legislative Committees Leave For Insane Hospital For Investigation

Raleigh, N. C., March 28.—The special joint committee named some time ago to conduct an investigation of the State Hospital for the Insane in Morganton, will leave for Morganton tonight and spend Friday and perhaps Saturday there in conducting its probe concerning the management of the hospital and the treatment of patients, nurses and attendants by Dr. John McCampbell, the superintendent. The appointment of this committee and the ordering of this investigation was the result of the revelation of conditions in the Morganton Hospital as made by the sub-committee of the House Committee on Insane Asylums headed by Representative Wiley Andrews of Wayne County. It was this committee that brought out the fact that the nurses and attendants were required to work fifteen hours a day, that nurses were allowed virtually no social privileges and were under the same regulations adopted fifty years ago and that the heat was often turned off to save fuel so that both patients and nurses suffered from cold.

The sub-committee named to make the special investigation of the Morganton Hospital and which will open its probe there tomorrow is composed of Senator Doctor Burrus of High Point; Senator Shute, of Monroe, Union County, and Representatives Andrews, of Wayne; Thomas, of Anson, and Rouse, of Lenoir. Senator Burrus, who is a former member of the board of trustees of the Morganton Hospital, has been named chairman of the committee.

Numerous witnesses have already been subpoenaed to appear before the committee when it opens its investigation.

Nothing radically new is expected to be developed as a result of this investigation, since most of the facts about the operation of the hospital have already been brought out as a result of the investigations made by Chairman Andrews and his committee. The Legislature has already passed the bill introduced by Representative Andrews to limit the working hours of employees in State Hospitals and similar institutions to two twelve hours a day, which was intended to correct the fifteen-hour a day schedule in Morganton. There is a possibility that this investigation may result in the placing of the Morganton and Raleigh hospitals under one board of trustees and a bill to that effect has been talked of here. But many observers think the investigation will not amount to much.

LaFollette To Speak At Annual Chamber Dinner

Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin will be the principal speaker at the 13th annual dinner of the Eastern Carolina Chamber of Commerce in Kinston Tuesday night, April 9 at 7 o'clock, according to an announcement made by Secretary Bartlett this week. The meeting will be open to the general public and a large crowd is expected to hear the distinguished Senator from Wisconsin. Mr. Bartlett announced that while every effort will be made to take care of all who come, the committee would appreciate reservations being made in advance for plates. The price per plate which includes one hour's music by Isham Jones and his Chevrolet Orchestra is $1.00.

Those who expect to attend should make reservation to Mr. Bartlett at Kinston as early as possible. Judge Guy Elliott, president of the organization will preside over the dinner meeting. Isham Jones' Chevrolet Orchestra will play for the dinner at 7 o'clock and for the annual dance 10 to 2. Kinston's large tobacco warehouse will be decorated for the occasion and the Chevrolet dealers of Eastern Carolina will have a complete showing of 1935 models of Chevrolet cars, Monday and Tuesday, April 8-9.

More than the usual amount of interest is being shown in the coming event and from all indications a record attendance will be on hand for the occasion.

WANTS MORE MONEY FOR HIS HATCHERY

Elizabeth City, N. C., March 28.—An immediate appropriation of $1,000 for shad fish propagation at the Edenton Fish Hatchery is being requested of Congressman Lindsay C. Warren, it became known here today.

The amount would be used to supplement the $900 which represents the entire appropriation for all purposes at the Edenton hatchery this year.

Frank Stick, acting chairman of the North Carolina Coastal Commission and chairman of the Coastal Development Council, has taken the matter up with Congressman Warren, and with R. Bruce Etheridge, head of the North Carolina Department of Conservation and Development. Mr. Etheridge is expected to discuss the situation with Congressman Warren.
