

Europe Turns Attention To Pacts Against Wars

LAVAL PLANS AGREEMENT WITH RUSSIA

Further Conversations Expected to Complete Mutual Assistance Pact; Britain Receives Sizzling
Note From Chancellor Hitler on Taking Part in Condemnation of Germany

Geneva, April 18.—(AP)—Statesmen of Europe turned today to denunciation of Germany's violation of the Versailles treaty to negotiation of new pacts intended to guard against future wars.

Pierre Laval, French Foreign Minister, who played a leading role in yesterday's criticism by the League of Nations Council of the Reich's unilateral abrogation of the treaty's military clauses returned to Paris to press plans for concluding a mutual assistance pact with Soviet Russia.

He took along a tentative draft of the agreement which he negotiated here with Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet Commissar of Foreign Affairs. The draft was to be submitted to the French cabinet for approval.

Joint action against an aggressive nation is the essential element of the Franco-Russian agreement.
Litvinoff prepared copies of the pact without awaiting judgment of the Council of the League, but France was understood to have wished to keep the pact scrupulously within the framework of the League and will seek the council's judgment whenever possible.

The extent to which the mutual aid will be automatic is expected to require further negotiations. A fundamental point of the projected accord is that the Council will convene an extraordinary session within 48 hours in the event of a threat of war.

Berlin, April 18.—(AP)—A British embassy spokesman revealed today that Chancellor Hitler had sent Britain a diplomatic note which he described as "sizzling," although he declined to divulge this note's exact contents.

He said the note, clothed in the strongest possible language, was relayed to Sir Eric Phipps, the British Ambassador, from Hitler through Constantine Von Neurath, the German Foreign Minister, yesterday.

The central argument in the note was said to be that yesterday's condemnation by the League of Nations Council "positively means the end of any talk of Germany returning to the League."

It is known that Hitler bitterly resents Britain's action in siding with France and Italy. German circles saying he was led to believe that Britain would stick to her role of "guest broker." These sources said Hitler felt Britain did not play the game in ranging herself on the side of France and Italy following conversations here between himself and the British statesmen, Sir John Simon, Foreign Secretary, and Captain Anthony Eden, Lord Privy Seal.

Rally Behind Securities Bill Washington, April 18.—(AP)— Rallying strongly behind the social security bill, the house today voted down a number of proposals to liberalize its provisions including the Townsend old age pension plan.
This was rejected 206 to 56.

The Greenway amendment to increase from $15 to $20 a month the federal contribution to the old age pension plan was turned down

Next the Lundeen bill to grant a minimum pension of $10 a week

THREE SENT TO ROADS FOR ROBBERY HERE

Colored Men Given
Terms of From Four To Twelve Months in Criminal Court

Three negroes who took part in a couple of robberies here recently were sentenced to terms on the roads in the opening session of criminal Superior court here yesterday.

Willie Williams and Herbert Green were sentenced to 12 months each and James Collins was given four months.

They were charged with entering the Salvage Company's Evans Street store, over a week ago and making away with a considerable amount of clothing, the major part of which has been recovered.

Police also reported the arrest yesterday of six colored women in connection with the case on charges of receiving stolen property. The men also are alleged to have entered the Perkins Company here several weeks ago and made away with several pieces of merchandise.

The grand jury returned a true bill in the case the first of the week.

Several bands of robbers which have been operating in this section for the last several weeks have been sentenced to the roads since court convened the first of the week. Several other charges of a similar nature are scheduled to receive consideration during the remainder of the two weeks' term.

TRUE BILLS IN 3 MURDER ACTIONS HERE

Grand Jury Returns Indictments in Important Cases During Yesterday

The grand jury here yesterday returned true bills in three murder cases, two of which grew out of automobile wrecks during the first of the year with the third resulting from the shooting of a negro here about the first of the month.

Charlie Haddock is held in connection with the death of Frank Spain, Grimsland young man, who was fatally injured on the Greenville - Washington highway, January 24 when the car in which he was riding was struck by another machine driven by Haddock. Haddock was taken into custody, charged with reckless and careless driving and operating a car while under the influence of whiskey. The murder charge was later added.

Jesse Mozorgo is charged with the death of Stancill Stocks, who died shortly after being fatally injured in an automobile collision on February 23. Stocks was riding with Mozorgo when the machine crashed into the rear of another machine.

Ernest Watson, colored, is charged with the slaying of his stepfather, Frank Barrett here on April 1, because he said he believed Barrett had been mistreating his mother. Firing through a window with a shotgun at close range, Watson inflicted injuries from which Barrett died a short time later.

A number of actions have received the attention of the grand jury this week, but it probably more interesting is centered in the two wreck cases than any of the others because of the prominence of those involved.
Large crowds probably will be on hand when the actions come up for trial.

SCHOOLS TO CLOSE EASTER

City schools will suspend work tomorrow for observance of the Easter holidays.

The closing will cover a period of one week during which time the music club of the schools will go to Greensboro to take part in the State-wide music contest, an event, in which the local schools have captured numbers of honors in recent years.

The music club will leave Wednesday for Greensboro and will remain the rest of the week to compete in several of the main events. Numbers of faculty members will accompany the youngsters, headed by Miss Ona Shindler, director of public school music, while others will go to their homes in other parts of the country with numbers remaining here.

HOUSE PLANS TO RUSH WORK

Effort to be Made to Complete Work and Adjourn by First of July

Washington, D. C., April 17.—(AP)— A rapid-fire schedule of action was drawn up today by House leaders with the aim of getting ready for adjournment by June 15th or 18th.

"Speaker Byrnes conceded that slowness in the Senate might delay this session of Congress until August.

"But," he said, "we are beginning to get our things in shape now that the blame for a long session, if any should be on the Senate."

On the leaders' tentative program subject to change, were these bills in about this order:

Social securities, naval appropriations, omnibus banking legislation holding companies, NRA extension ship extension, ship subsidy and merchant marines, more bus regulations and extension. Others may be added or some of them may be dropped.

TALK POULTRY OUTLOOK HERE

State Specialist Meets Pitt Growers on Farm Near Farmville Today

C. G. Maupin, state poultry specialist, arrived in Greenville this morning in preparation for meeting growers on the John T. Thorne farm near Farmville this afternoon at 2 o'clock to discuss poultry problems.

Attention will be given to flocks and control and care of baby chicks.
Mr. Maupin is an authority on poultry problems and has been in many sections of the state recently conferring with growers on their various problems in chicken raising.

Although poultry raising has fallen off noticeably in Pitt county the last two years, quite a number of growers still give considerable attention to their chickens, finding the industry a paying one during these seasons of the year when money for the main crops isn't pouring in. In fact, numbers of farmers have found the business quite profitable and wouldn't give it up if prices for all commodities skyrocketed.

It was indicated that quite a number of growers would greet the state specialist this afternoon in an effort to improve their condition through his advice on the subject.

COTTON HEADS TEXTILE HEAD PRESSING FOR TAKES CRACK QUICK ACTION AT COTTON TAX

Seek Relief While Body is Studying
Bleach Cotton Cloth Importation

Washington, D. C., April 18.—(AP)— Gaining confidence hourly, the Congressional textile block stretched forward today in a drive for immediate action in behalf of the cotton textile industry pending completion of a study of bleached cotton cloth as ordered by President Roosevelt.

For weeks the drive to eliminate the processing tax levy on cotton manufacturers and to erect a new tariff wall against Japan, has been gaining force.

While spokesmen of the textile mills were calling the President's order to the Tariff Commission, a step in the right direction, the feeling exists in the textile bloc here that some action is imperative while the study is being made.

The President asked the Tariff Commission to make recommendations after its study. Under the law he can increase the duty 50 per cent if he judges the facts warrant it.

MAYOR SEEKS RE-ELECTION

R. C. Flanagan Announces Candidacy
For Same Post in May 6 Contest

The municipal political pot which has been slow getting away to a start this year, picked up some steam today with announcement by Mayor R. C. Flanagan of his candidacy for re-election in the May 6 election.

The mayor has served two terms having been elected the last time without opposition.

In his announcement to the "People of Greenville" today, he said:
"In offering myself a candidate for re-election on May 6, for the office of mayor, it is with a deep sense of my responsibilities and also my great appreciation of your every kindness to me. Should you again entrust me with this office, it shall be my endeavor never to dishonor the confidence you impose in me."

Although six aldermen are to be elected in the forthcoming election no candidacies has been filed. However, as far as known, the present members of the board will seek re-election.

Mayor Flanagan has been instrumental in obtaining many economies in government during his administration, and today Greenville has a splendid financial reputation throughout the country. The tax rate has been reduced several times the past four years until the city enjoys probably the lowest rate of any city its size in the State.

The mayor and members of the board are proud of their achievements, especially in view of the fact that they occurred in one of the worst economic crisis the country has ever known. Even during the depression, the city was able to meet its obligations, and now that times are better, there is a comfortable nest egg in the treasury awaiting the proverbial rainy day.

COLLEGE HERE BEGINS EASTER

Spring Holidays Started Today; Classes to Resume Work April

"The spring holidays of East Carolina Teachers College began at noon today and the campus has been filled with cars and buses taking the students to their homes for the Easter vacation. Only a few will remain in the college, but one dominitory and dining hall will be kept open.

Classes will be resumed on next Tuesday morning, April 25, at eight o'clock.

A number of the teachers have left also. Miss Lorraine Hunter and Mrs. L. R. Meadows left in a car yesterday for a trip to their homes went with them. Miss Turner went to her home in Puckett Tennessee. Misses Hazel Mack and Jennie left for Washington City this

Thomas McMahon
In Protest; Persons Denounces Those Assailing Tax

Augusta, Ga., April 18.—(AP)— Thomas McMahon, president of the United Textile Workers of America, today joined the attack on the cotton processing tax.

McMahon, on the program of the Georgia Federation of Labor, said in a prepared address that the tax underlies a basic industry and said that he did not oppose benefit payments to farmers but felt they should come from some other source.

He said "the processing tax on cotton and the importation of foreign chief textile products have a tendency to hurt the industry whether as employer of employee."
"But the solution of these two problems will not bring peace to the industry as a whole and that peace is desired alike by employer, employees and the government," he said.

The textile industry, he said, is in need of some kind of curative program.

Lincoln, Ga., April 18.—(AP)—A denunciation of those "following bellwether liars who claim to be such friends of the farmers," was delivered here today by R. T. (Bob) Persons, a cotton manufacturer, in an attack on the textile operators who oppose the processing tax.

In a written statement issued yesterday, Persons who also is a banker and business man of Forsyth Ga., said over-production and not the tax is the trouble with the cotton mill business.

He said that the industry is suffering from the World War, and just how it is going to work out from under this condition no man can tell.

FORMER NRA HEAD BACKS RELIEF WORK

Hugh S. Johnson Says To Abandon Recovery Work now Would Be Disastrous

Washington, D. C., April 17.—(AP)— Plain-spoken as usual, Hugh S.
Johnson told the Senate Finance Committee today the mistakes of NRA were due to his administration and that to abandon it would be "like burning your house to get rid of a few rats in the attic."

He freely admitted mistakes and errors in NRA, but as faults of administration and not of the law. The Blue Eagle was set up, he said, to stop the trend of concentration of industrial power which he said was wiping out the little man.

"No more explosive act of destruction could be committed than to kill it now and go back to the utter futility of the system we had here before 1933," Johnson testified.

The hard-hitting former cavalry officer warned that it is a "policy" to contend the old capitalistic system couldn't be improved upon and that "if we go back to that policy the capitalistic system is on its way out in the very near future."

COMMODITIES TAX WILL BE SOUGHT TODAY

Plans To Be Offered As a Substitute For The Present Sales Tax

Reflector Bureau,
Sir Walter Hotel,
By C. A. PAUL

Raleigh, N. C., April 18.—A select commodities tax will be offered today as a substitute for the sales tax which the Senate takes up for third reading the revenue bill. The proposed new series of levies, commonly known as the luxury tax, is an almost exact copy of the South Carolina law. It will be offered by Senator Carson of Alexandria.

Tobacco, shotgun shells, cartridges, candies, playing cards, beer, sugar, soft drinks, deers, automobiles, stocks and bonds, amusement admissions, cosmetics, and malt extracts would pay the burden. The tax is estimated to yield from $6-000,000 to $10,000,000 annually.

Except in the case of automobiles the tax would be collected by means of stamps. Such stamps would be sold by the State Commissioner of Revenue and in all amounts. Discounts would be allowed for quantity purchases of the stamps. A reduction of 3 per cent would be permitted on sales between $50 and $100, and a discount of 4 per cent would be given on all sales in excess of $100.

Soft drinks and bottle beer would be taxed at a rate of 20 per cent necessitating the collection of a tax of one cent on each five-cent sale.
Beer in kegs would be taxed at 50 cents per gallon. Sugar would be taxed one cent per pound, and all syrups for soda fountain use would pay a levy of 76 cents per gallon.

Cigarettes would pay a 20 per cent levy which would mean that a tax of 3 per cent would be imposed on the sale of a package of standard-brand smokes selling at 15 cents.
Smoking tobacco would pay at the same rate. Snuffs and chewing tobacco would be levied against at the rate of one cent for each three-ounce package. Shotgun shells would be taxed at $4 per 1,000 and rifle and pistol cartridges at $2 per 1,000. All candies selling for 50 cents per pound or more would be taxed at 10 cents. Playing cards

CARSON CASE NEARING JURY STAGE TODAY

Second Degree Murder Case May be Completed Today or Early Tomorrow

Indications today were that the second degree murder charge against Allan Carson, 31-year-old Bethel filling station operator, would not go to the jury before late today or early tomorrow.

When court reconvened this morning the defense had several witnesses to put on the stand. This was to be followed by rebuttal testimony and it was quite likely the jury would not get the case before sometime tomorrow morning.

Carson is charged with the slaying of Ed. Simons, at Bethel about a year and a half ago. The slaying grew out of a dispute over a check for $1.81, which Simons had gone to Carson's filling station to discuss when the shooting occurred. Carson allegedly fired two bullets into Simons' body causing death a few minutes later. He was held under bond pending a trial.

Taking the stand in his own defense yesterday, Carson said he shot in self-defense when Simons advanced upon him during an exchange of profanity. He said his father, John E. Carson, a Bethel policeman, who had accompanied Simons to the filling station to see about the check, struggled with him after he had gotten his pistol, and that he fired twice over his parent's shoulder as Simons advanced on him with open knife.

The only other eye-witness in addition to Carson's father, was Miss James, who told of Simons entering the filling station, the exchange of profanity, but said he did not see a knife in Simons' hand or charged by the defendant.

Carson was given a good character by a number of witnesses introduced during the afternoon, but the answer to questions in this connection concerning Simons was negative.

Simons was the son-in-law of Chief of Police Martin, of Bethel, and Carson's father was a member of the police force at the time of the shooting.

The town of Bethel was stirred by the shooting, and scores of people from that section were on hand yesterday to hear evidence in the case. Among the character witnesses for the defense late yesterday was M. O. Blount, of Bethel, member of the House of Representatives of the State Legislature from this county.

The case was begun yesterday morning shortly after court convened. The State rested before the noon hour when the defense immediately started introduction of testimony. Carson faced a first degree murder charge, but at the outset, Solicitor D. M. Clark announced that the State would not seek the supreme penalty, but asked for a verdict of second degree murder or manslaughter, the choice resting with the jury.

SCHOOL ACT FACES SOLONS

Machinery Measure Introduced in Both Houses with Changes Recommended

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.
By J. C. BASKERVILL.

Raleigh, April 18.—School teachers will be taken out from under the yoke of servitude to local school committees and local politicians and be made responsible only to the principals under whom they work, if the general assembly passes the new school Machinery Act introduced jointly in the Senate and house Wednesday and now before the joint education committee. The bill as it now stands is generally conceded to have been very largely the work of Senator Griffin of Chowan, chairman of the senate education committee, Representative R. L. Harris of Person county, chairman of the house committee on education, and the members of the subcommittee named many weeks ago to draw the new act.

While a number of changes are made in the act as compared with the 1933 School Machinery Act, the most important and significant is regarded as being contained in Section 13-1-2 which changes the procedure in the election of principals and teachers and which provides that the principals, instead of the superintendents or the local committees, shall select the teachers. Under the Machinery act now in effect, the teachers are selected and elected by the school committees from each school or by the local boards of education, with the approval of the county or city superintendent. As a result of this plan teachers must play up to the local school committees, who are also usually local politicians and to the county or city superintendent if he or she desires to be re-elected the following year.

This has resulted in the building up of a system by which teachers must toady to local politicians, school committees, school board members and to their superintendents in order to hold their jobs.

But if this new machinery act is passed, it will mean that the teachers will be responsible only to the principals who are immediately over them and who know them best. The principals are to be selected by the county or city superintendents and must be approved by the board of education, while the superintendents are employed by the county or city boards of education.

Other important changes in the new machinery act as compared with the one now in effect are as follows:

(1) Salaries of superintendents and principals will be fixed by the State School Commission and the State Board of Education in a salary schedule to be adopted, instead of written into the law as at present. In other words, the School Commission and Board of Education will fix the salaries of superintendents and principals in the same manner in which they now fix teachers' salaries.

(2) The State School Commission shall be composed of nine members, appointed by the Governor, one from each Congressional District as at present, with the Lieutenant Governor as chairman, the State Superintendent of Public Instruction as vice-chairman and the State Treasurer as an ex-officio member. At present, the Governor is also an ex-officio member, but he is left off the commission in the present act.

(3) No high school will be maintained with less than eighty pupils in average daily attendance and no elementary school with less than 25 pupils in average daily attendance unless geographical conditions make it impossible to conform with these requirements. At present 60 pupils in average daily attendance are required for a high school and 25 for an elementary school. This new provision, increasing the high school requirements from 60 to 80 pupils will mean the discontinuance of about one hundred small high schools and their consolidation with larger schools.

(4) A county superintendent may also act as the principal of a high school and receive not to exceed $300 a year additional salary for so doing, he may also act as county welfare officer at whatever compensation the county may pay him.

NOVEL SERVING OBTAINED WITH INVERTED GRAPEFRUIT

Are you weary of serving little sausages on toothpicks spread out on a platter? Why not try a new way? Take a grape fruit and cut in half, then turn it upside down on the platter. Spear it with your toothpicks on which you place the little sausages and around the grape fruit there may be green, stuffed and black olives for the guests.

In this way you are serving more than one thing at a time while making your platter look decorative, gay and pretty.

COUNTIES TO LOSE THROUGH NEW MEASURE

Millions Also to be Lost by Towns and Cities if Machinery Act Passes

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.
By J. C. BASKERVILL.

Raleigh, N. C., April 17.—Counties, cities and towns will lose between $50,000,000 and $100,000,000 from their tax books the first year and still more in years to come, if the present General Assembly passes the new Machinery Act in the form in which it has been reported, according to estimates obtained here today from reliable sources. For the new Machinery Act omits Section 603 of the present Machinery Act, which requires all domestic corporations to submit detailed statements to the State Board of Assessment, to be checked against the property list for taxation in the counties, cities and towns.

If the act is passed as introduced with this section omitted, it will mean that county, city and town tax collectors will have to accept the listings made by domestic corporations as bona-fide and that they will have no check, as at present, on the actual value of these corporations.

Under the present law, the State Board of Assessment has the power to raise or lower valuations as declared by domestic corporations and to certify back to the counties the proper valuation. The State Board of Assessment is composed of tax experts and experts in valuations, with the result that every report is given expert investigation. In cases where the board finds the valuation listed by a corporation is too small, it orders the valuation increased.

As a result of this law, as set forth in Section 603, the domestic corporations have been careful to list their property at its real value, knowing that if they did not do so, the State Board of Assessment would compel them to do so by changing the valuations and thus put them in a bad light with the county, city or town tax authorities. It is generally agreed that this section of the Machinery Act has been responsible for millions of dollars of corporate property being listed on the tax books in local government until that otherwise would never have been listed.

It has been known for years that the big manufacturing interests, especially the textile, furniture and power interests, have been trying to get this section eliminated from the Machinery Act in every past session of the General Assembly. Indications are that they may succeed in this session.

The argument for its elimination is that at the present time before very little corporate excess found by the State Board of Assessment so that there will be very little lost by the local units if the section is eliminated entirely.

North Carolina agricultural authorities are trying to induce staple to fill the requirements of Southern textile mills.

Miss Hyman Hostess

Miss Elizabeth Hyman was gracious hostess to members of the Literature Department of the Women's Club Tuesday afternoon at her home in Chatham Circle.

After routine business had been disposed of, Mrs. J. H. B. Moore, in a pleasing manner, reported on the success of The Fine Arts Festival held in Greenville last week. Immediately following this, Mrs. Moore was given an enthusiastic vote of thanks and appreciation for without her vision and her tireless efforts, we realize, this splendid opportunity never could have been given the people of our community.

Mrs. Charles Horne, chairman, then presented Mrs. K. T. Futrell who had charge of the program for the afternoon, the subject of which was Margaret Langster.

Mrs. Futrell gave a brief, interesting account of Margaret Langster's life and then introduced Mrs. C. E. Oakley, guest of the club, who read one of Miss Langster's stories "The Healer," which was not only beautiful in itself but was especially appealing because of its appropriateness to the Lenten season. "The Healer" is the author's interpretation of the restoration to health of the aged mother of Barabas and of her faith which led ultimately to the release of Barabas and to Jesus taking the place of the thief upon the cross.

At the close of this beautiful program, Miss Hyman, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Bowden, and Miss Eunice McGee served a delectable salad course with coffee.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. R. L. Powell, April 23rd. The subject of the program, which will be given by Mrs. Moore, will be Frances Perkins, a very timely topic, as Miss Perkins is scheduled to speak in Greenville on Friday evening, April 26th at the college.

Easter Program at Black Jack
Under the supervision of Mrs. N. A. Clark, the Senior and Junior leagues will present a short Easter program at Black Jack Sunday morning at 11:00 o'clock. The "Griffin Boys," sons of Rev. J. C. Griffin, pastor, will assist with instrumental music.

After the program a sermon will be delivered by the pastor, using as a subject, "The Results of Christ's Resurrection."

Saturday evening at 7:30 the Concert class from the Free Will Baptist orphanage at Middlesex will render a program. And possibly this class will render a short program Sunday evening.

Rev. M. C. Prescott, a former pastor, has been invited to attend these services and if present he will speak after the program Sunday evening.

The public is cordially invited to attend all these services by the pastor and congregation.

Sunday School Classes To Give Supper Friday

Members of the Men's and Young Men's Bible classes of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church will enjoy a supper at the Yum Yum Barbecue Palace Friday night at 7 o'clock. It was announced today by the committee on arrangements.

The committee said that fish barbeque and Brunswick stew would be served during the evening, in an attempt to tempt the appetites of all members.

The supper marks the completion of the second period of a membership campaign in which the two classes have been engaged, and a number of short, snappy speeches probably will be made by those who do not partake to freely of supper to permit free vocal expression.

NEW BOOKS

By JOHN SELBY

New York. Take your choice—a book about that dwindling institution, the Chautauqua, or one about the still more dwindling colony of American expatriates in Paris.

The first one is called "O. Chautauqua" (Coward-McCann), and is a lusty, sometimes racy, novel dealing with life on one of the chautauqua circuits. The scene is Wisconsin—it might as well be any one of a dozen States. The story goes fast, and there is humor as well as action and caricature. Mr. Duncan does not emphasize the better side of chautauqua activities, but then he is not out to do so.

The second is Virginia Faulkner's novel, "The Barbarians" (Simon & Schuster). If you have sufficient money, it might be easier to go to Paris, take a chair at the Dome or the Sijet, and wait for someone to pretend he knew you in Kalamazoo or wherever it was you came from.

Then you would hear a succession of cleverness, the story of numerous odd liaisons, curious travels, and strange situations that would almost duplicate Miss Faulkner's contribution. It would cost you a good deal for liquor, but it would take less time than reading the book.

Thumbnail Reviews

"Illyria, Lady," by Constance Butler (Houghton Mifflin), a really clever, fast novel having to do with seven strangers, the congress of the Pen Is Mightier Than the Sword Club, a boat and an imaginary country.

"Castle in Andalusia," by Elizabeth Sprague (Macmillan), the author of "The Old Man Dies" writes this time about an English woman who romantically marries a Spanish noble and finds that living with him in Spain is far from amusing; the true friends she makes among the peasants, and how she turns to them when revolution comes.

"The Son of Richard Carden," by Neil Bell (Little, Brown), in fine honest prose Mr. Bell tells of the degeneration of a father and the ascending curve of his son's life; the book is quiet but strong, and the analysis of the two leading characters amazingly apt.

Travel

"To Nova Scotia," by T. Morris Longstreth (Appleton - Century), said to be the first comprehensive guide-book to Nova Scotia; it is not written in Baedeker style, however. "A Vagabond in Sovietland," by Harry A. COMPROMISE IS SOUGHT ON REVENUE BILL

High Appropriations—Low Revenue Senators Fearful Present Bill Will Pass

Reflector Bureau, Raleigh, N. C., April 18.—The anti-administration bloc in the Senate, who under the leadership of Senator Lee L. Gravelly, have been fighting the revenue bill down to the point where it lacks an average of $3,000,000 a year of balancing with the appropriations bill and who refused to make any compromises while the bill was under debate in the committee of the whole, are now worried and making every effort to get the administration forces to agree to reopen the bill. But the administration forces, again holding the balance of power, for the time being, are saying to their former opponents:

"You are responsible for throwing this bill out of balance and for removing $3,000,000 a year of revenue which the House put into the bill and which you took out. You refused to compromise when the bill was in the committee of the whole and to accept any of the alternate plans proposed. You took the taxes off the rich people when you removed dividends tax, off the hotels when you exempted them from the sales tax. You refused to tax the big gasoline and oil corporations, like the Standard Oil Company, the Texas Company, Andrew Mellon's Gulf Refining Company and others. Now when the bill comes up for third reading, you come running up wanting to re-open the bill and put in amendments to make up the deficit. Why should we show you any more consideration now than you showed us several days ago?"

When the bill was still under consideration in the committee of the whole, the administration forces, or those who felt that the budget should be balanced, pointed out that if the revenue and appropriations bills were to be brought anywhere within balancing distance that the Senate must either keep the food exemptions out of the revenue bill or put back into it the sections taxing dividends from stock in domestic corporations, the chain filling station tax and the tax on hotels, even with the additional $790,000 a year it decided to divert from the highway fund. But the opposition sat tight and refused to do any of these things, although its members well knew that they were removing millions of dollars from an already unbalanced bill.

It is generally agreed that many of the Senators who voted to remove the various taxes from the bill and to put the exemptions back into the sales tax sections did so because of political promises made in the campaign and because of political obligations to constituents, in the hope that they would be outvoted and the bill left in balance. When to their surprise they found they were in the ascendancy, they still had to sit tight. They then hoped that when the bill went to conference the House would finally compel them to accept a conference report putting many of the taxes removed back into the bill.

House members have sensed this political maneuver and are in anything but a good humor at the prospect of the Senate passing the bill to them and saying:

"Here is the revenue bill as we passed it, about $3,000,000 a year out of balance with the bill you passed. You go ahead now and force up to accept your bill by refusing to concur and by sending it to conference."

This attitude on the part of the Gravelly group in the Senate is making a good many House members mad, because they feel the Senate is deliberately trying to pass the buck, including full responsibility for the sales tax, to the House. As a result, there was much talk in House circles today to the effect that the House might accept the revenue bill as sliced down by the Senate without sending it to conference at all, and thus force the Senate to reduce the appropriations bill accordingly. This is regarded by a good many as a slap at Senator Gravelly, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, who has consistently led the parade for larger appropriations, but who also led the fight on the revenue bill and against the efforts to get enough revenue with which to meet appropriations.

THE WORLD OF STAMPS

By QUINTON JAMES

Roumania, which always seems to attempt to outdo its previous issues with new stamps that quickly catch the eye, has not failed to do so with its current contribution.

Available information is to the effect that the set is commemorative with other details lacking. There are four values, bearing portraits of Crisan, Horia, Closca. Horia's picture appears on two of the stamps, the 1 leu and the 10 le. While he is alone on the 10 dark blue, he is shown in the central figure with the others in the background on the 1-leu dark violet.

The 2-lei dark green bears the portrait of Crisan, and on the 6-lei dark brown is Closca. The colors are all two tones, but frame lines are omitted. Each bears the date, 1785, in large open-face numerals below the portrait.

From South America

South America is in the stamp news again as a result of the activities of two of its territorial divisions, Bolivia and Peru are the countries concerned.

The principal Bolivian stamps comprise two groups, one of airmail and the other for regular postage. The design is identical, consisting of a map of the country. The airmails contain values from 5 centavos to 10 bolivars, while the postage go from 2 to 40 centavos.

In addition Bolivia has a new commemorative, a 15-centavo purple paying tribute to its late president, Mariano Baptista.

Peru's offering is a special group in observance of the 300th anniversary of the founding of the city of Ica, which also is the name of a department of the country having an area of 8,720 square miles.

Persian Progress

A strikingly distinctive set of postage stamps, intended to illustrate the progress of modern Persia, the land of rug weaving, is the latest to make a bid for collector attention.

Not only do the designs depict the various activities of the country, but they are carried out in sharp relief by the use of two colors. The set contains nine items, 5 dinars to 1-2 rials. The borders are in keeping with the general conception of Persian art of bygone days, while the centers are definitely modern. Like

COMMITTEES TAX WILL BE SOUGHT TODAY

would bear six stamps at the rate of five cents for each 50 cents, or fractional part. Mail extrates, with sales to bakers excepted, would be levied against at a rate of 10 per cent, as would amusement admissions. The latter group would include dance halls and bathing beaches. However, amateur performances as well as school and college plays would be exempt from the tax. Cosmetics would be taxed at a flat 20 per cent. Autos, trucks and trailers would be taxed on a graduated basis, with all sales ranging from $400 to $1,000 taxed $5; $1,000 to $2,000 $10; $2,000 to $3,000, $20; and all sales in excess of $3,000, $30. All taxes would be based on retail prices, but wholesalers, in the State would be required to affix tax stamps before selling the taxed items and manufacturers would be required to fix the stamps when such items were manufactured in the State and intended to re-sell in North Carolina.

In addition to the commodities taxes the bill would, tax the sale of stocks, bonds, and all debentures at 10 cents per $100. On deeds conveying property valued at from $100 to $500, a $1 tax stamp would be required, and a $1 stamp would have to be affixed for each additional $500.

Virtually the same tax was proposed last session (1933) and failed of adoption. The famed Hinsdale act of 1931 which was repealed at the same session contemplated about the same levies.

Today the Senate takes up the revenue bill for third reading after passing it yesterday, 21 to 9, on second and reading without debate. The measure is now more than $5,000,000 short of enacting the appropriations bill for the next biennium. Observers are freely predicting that the Carson amendment will fail and that the bill will be sent to the House as now written, which difference to be ironed out later in meetings of a House-Senate conference committee.

Mother Advised Taking Cardui

"I had a severe pain in my side and felt nervous all the time," writes Mrs. Floyd Ferrell, of Thomasville, N. C. "At times, I felt so weak and had a dull, sleepy feeling, not energetic enough to do my work. I had been advised by my mother to take Cardui as she had obtained good results from using it. I took three bottles of Cardui. It increased my appetite, built my strength up, helped my nerves and the pain in my side."

There are many similar cases. Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician. (Adv.)

"PIGS IS PIGS" . AND CROPS ARE CROPS

Yet they're much alike at Feeding Time

• Strange, isn't it, to think of pigs and crops this way . . . but science presents more and more evidence every day to show that food requirements of animals and plants are much the same.

Animals need vitamins. They could starve to death on chemically pure food. So could your crops, without vital impurities.

Chilean Natural Nitrate supplies the vital impurities—supplies them in Nature's own balance and proportion. These vital impurities are the rare elements—iodine, boron, calcium, magnesium, lithium, strontium, and many others. They're all there, combined with nitrogen, to make your crops strong and healthy.

Chilean Natural Nitrate is ideal for your crops. It is natural, the only nitrogen that comes from the ground.

For your own protection say "Chilean" when you order nitrate. Two kinds—Champion (granulated) and Old Style. They are both genuine. Both are Chilean. And both give your crops the vital impurities.

THE OLD ORIGINAL SODA

I've got those natural IMPURITIES!

So have I!

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, April 18.—(AP)—A number of specialties moved substantially higher in today's stock market while the general runs of so-called leaders continued to operate on the "hit and miss" basis.

Selective circles were encouraged by apparent abatement of the pressure which unsettled the list in the latter part of the previous session. Most metals worked about in a restricted range. The dollar worked higher again, leading foreign exchange.

Transfers were 800,000 shares.

carried Broughton to face Mrs. Brite and settle the domestic controversy. Broughton denied the accusation. Mrs. Brite testified, today and started to leave the house when Brite opened fire.

Mrs. Brite told the coroner's jury that she had never had improper relations with Broughton and declared her husband forced her to sign the purported confession.

Broughton was the superintendent of a large Pamlico farm and Brite was a foreman on the same place.

Revenue Bill Back to First Reading

Raleigh, N. C., April 18.—(AP)—The Senate today reopened the biennial bill to put more taxes in reading as the House approved on second reading a proposal to reduce the cost of automobile license tags.

By virtue of 28 Senators voting affirmatively on an amendment to write into the revenue bill act the chain filling station tax graduated from $15 to $85 per unit, Lieutenant-Governor A. H. Graham ruled that the measure go back to first reading. It had been on its third and final reading until amended.

Senator Newman, of New Hanover, the Senate Finance chairman, offered the filling station amendment. He also proposed changing the sales tax article to allow 15 cents instead of a 10 cents maximum on a single purchase and limit food exemptions to flour, meal, lard and fatback of white side meat as well as application of the present 3 per cent tax on hotels and boarding-house room rentals. The room rental levy also was voted. It and the chain filling station tax were figured to yield nearly $600,000 annually.

When the tax measure was reopened it was estimated to be $5,241,000 below proposed appropriations.

The House voted for 40 cents per hundredweight with a minimum of $7 for automobile licenses by using the Senate bill fixing the rate of 45 cents with a minimum of $7.50. Now the rate is 55 cents with a minimum of $7.50. Now the rate is 55 cents with a minimum of $12.50.

The Senate will meet in joint session with the House at 11 o'clock tomorrow to elect trustees of the University of North Carolina.

At noon tomorrow the Legislature is slated to hear an address by Frank L. Belgrano, J., National Commander of the American Legion.

Pesh Morehead City Development Plan

Washington, D. C., April 18.—(AP)—Another barrier between releasing $2,000,000 in Federal funds for development of the port terminal at Morehead City, N. C., was removed today.

M. R. Beaman, general manager of the project, will leave Washington tomorrow for North Carolina with an agreement between the PWA which it set up $425,000 of the money and the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad, a State-controlled line.

The agreement already signed by PWA officials provides that the any of the Morehead City port railroad guarantee against deficit of any of the Morehead City Port Commission.

The next step in the negotiations will be a meeting of the stockholders of the railroad to consider the agreement.

It was pointed out that the agreement does not involve the credit of North Carolina nor the State equity in any part.

As soon as the agreement becomes effective the PWA will be in position to release its $425,000 allotment which automatically makes available an additional $1,500,000 to the War Department for dredging.

Peasant Mothers Succumb To Toil Says Nazi Report

By DUDDOLF JO JOSTEN Stettin, Germany.—(AP)—Hard and manifold duties at home and excessive farm work are held responsible for the low birthrate and high infant mortality among Germany's peasant population by Frau Maria Burgstaller, educational leader of the voluntary labor service for girls.

To increase motherhood by relieving "housewives," especially peasant women, of their daily burdens is one of the primary tasks of the labor service for girls, Frau Burgstaller says.

Pomerania, East Prussia and Silesia were declared "agricultural emergency districts" and accorded special consideration by the women's labor service last year.

Infant Mortality Alarming
"The low birthrate of 191 per 1,000 inhabitants of farms, compared with 16 in Pomeranian cities, necessitate quick relief measures," Frau Burgstaller explained.

A more alarming picture was given of infant mortality, deaths averaging 191 in every hundred born. Death among expectant mothers also was appallingly high with 234 per cent, the average for peasant women being 137 per cent.

Last year's efforts at remedying the situation in these emergency districts were described in Frau Burgstaller's annual report as "having been brought a good step forward."

There were 18,000 girls in 195 labor camps for women at the end of 1934. Nearly 70 camps were in Pomerania, each housing about ninety girls, while 32 camps each were operated in East Prussia and Silesia respectively, the others being scattered over the whole Reich.

"Much is being said about race," said Frau Burgstaller, "but fulfillment of this task cannot be demanded from the German peasant woman if we don't help her prepare for motherhood."
