REGISTRATION FOR SCHOOLS
CLOSES TODAY

Between 900 and 1,000 Persons Expected to Take Part in School Balloting

Registration books for the special school election to be held here on May 28 will close late today with indications that between 900 and 1,000 persons will be eligible to vote in the election to determine whether or not the city is to supplement the state eight month school term to provide a nine month school here.

When the registration books opened this morning it was said that 780 persons had registered and it was expected between a hundred and two hundred more would register during the day. Persons failing to register will not be able to vote as a special registration was called along with announcement of the election.

Greenville is among several cities of similar size in the state voting on the supplement question with a number of towns much smaller taking the same action.

The object of the movement here is not to increase school facilities or to raise teachers' salaries but to give the children the full advantage of the extended term. It will enable them to enter schools with a much higher rating, eliminating examinations required by colleges of children coming from eight month schools, and also enabling the school to hold its high rating in accredited high school circles.

The movement has been given the wholehearted endorsement of all civic clubs and other organizations of the city, and their members are expected to vote solidly for the additional month of school. The petition for the election was presented to the Board of Aldermen by the Board of Trustees of City schools after petitions had been received from the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs and various parent-teacher organizations of the city.

Prior to the depression three years ago Greenville for many years enjoyed a nine month school and the system was recognized as one of the outstanding of the state. While still enjoying a splendid reputation, it was said by supporters of the ninth month term that the additional month would enable the school to hold its high rating and give students due recognition when entering the largest colleges of the country.

MRS. MILLS
PASSES AWAY

Aged Woman of Black Jack Section Succumbs to Several Weeks' Illness

Mrs. Sophia Eliza Mills, 84, died this morning at 7 o'clock at the home of her son, Louis Augustus Mills, near Black Jack, after several weeks of critical illness and declining health of a number of years.

Funeral services will be conducted from the late home Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by Elder J. C. Griffin, of New Bern, pastor of the Black Jack Free Will Baptist church. Interment will be made in the family graveyard near the home.

Mrs. Mills, member of an old and prominent family, was born and reared in the community where she died. She was the oldest living member of the Black Jack Free Will Baptist church and devoted much of her time prior to illness to the work of the denomination.

She was one of the most highly respected and beloved women in the section, and wielded wide influence in the social, civic and religious life of the territory.

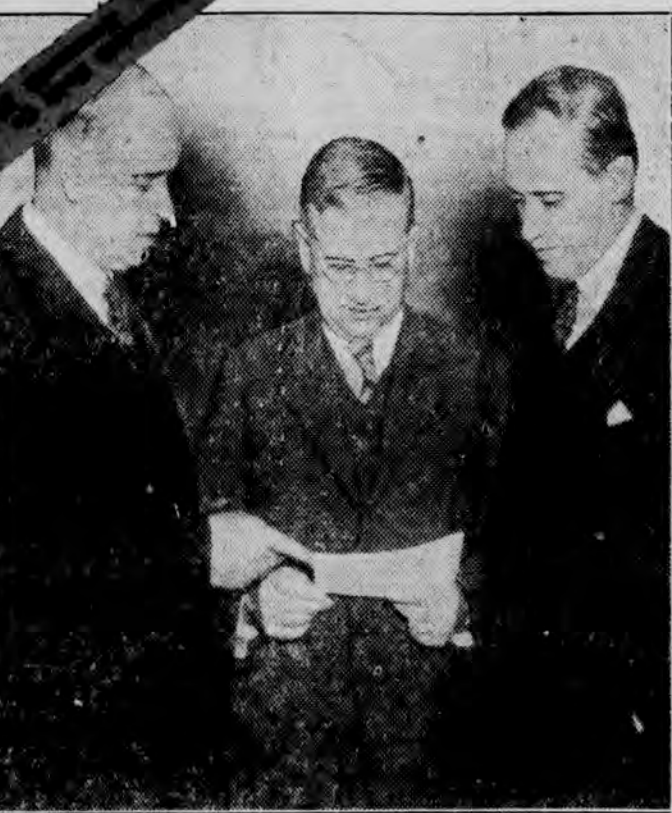

She was the widow of the late Redin Augustus Mills; who died in 1933.

Surviving are two sons, Louis Augustus and Jim J. Mills; two daughters, Mrs. J. F. Buck and Mrs. W. A. Hudson, in addition to 32 grandchildren and 36 great-grandchildren, all of this section.

Arrest Two at Still
Washington, N. C., May 17.—Sheriff William Rumley, assisted by Deputies Bryan Marslander, Ed. Hoyt, Jr., and Grady Stevens, arrested Guy and Bryan Lewis, white farmers of the Blounts Creek section at a still near Stillley Station Thursday morning. Both men were released on bond.

More than 7,000 elm trees infected with Dutch elm disease have been found so far in the area around New York harbor.

'BIG THREE' TELL RELIEF PLANS

The "Big Three" of the work-relief program, Frank C. Walker (left), Secretary Ickes (center), and Harry L. Hopkins (right), are shown outlining their speeches just before they went on the air to tell the country how they will spend more than $4,000,000,000 for the relief of unemployment and poverty. For one thing, they said there will be no "political log-rolling." (Associated Press Photo)

New Bonus March On Capital City Planned

Los Angeles, May 17.—(AP)—Royal W. Robertson, disabled veteran and leader of the California delegation of "bonus marchers" to Washington in 1932 today called on ex-soldiers to mobilize in another trek to the nation's capital.

Robertson declared the veterans would leave for Washington on freight trains as soon as President Roosevelt vetoes the Patman bill.

CONGRESS IN DRYS SEEKING
RECESS TODAY; TO INVALIDATE
AWAITS VETO NEW RUM LAW

Members Ponder Possible Action of President Roosevelt on Bonus Issue

Washington, May 18.—(AP)—Congress had a full day today and could spend it pondering just what President Roosevelt will say in the bonus veto message he will take with him when he makes his unprecedented journey from the White House to Capitol Hill next week.

The two houses will meet in joint session—probably Monday—to hear him read the message. Aside from his remarks on the bonus proper—which he has declared he would make as strong as possible—the capital looked for a possible pronouncement on the inflation question. Some Democratic leaders expressed the belief he would set forth his views on the new money question. In administration quarters one argument that has been advanced against the Patman new currency bonus bill is that the value of currency inflation is questionable.

Senate Democratic leaders were predicting the Roosevelt social security bill approved by a committee yesterday would go through without major changes, although there will probably be long debate.

President Roosevelt and Secretary Morgenthau yesterday had a few words to say about the idea of the government owning stock of the 12 Federal Reserve banks. This was expected to spur those legislators who favor further centralization of banking control in Washington.

Drunken Drivers
Highlight City
Court Here Today

Charges of driving drunk highlighted the Saturday morning session of City court this morning. Three other charges of over indulgence in intoxicating beverages also occupied attention of the court.

Lonnie Mills and Lloyd Barnes, charged with driving while under the influence of whiskey, were found guilty and bound over to the next sitting of county court under bond of $100 each.

Those charged with drunkenness were: Jack and J. T. Myers and Maynard Cox. They were released on payment of cost.

In the absence of Mayor R. C. Flanagan, Mayor Pro-Tem H. H. Duncan presided.

Only Single County Of
N.C. May Get Legal Rum

Reflector Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel.
By J. C. BASKERVILL

Raleigh, May 18.—New Hanover county may yet turn out to be the only "wet" county in the state and the only one in which liquor stores will ever actually be opened as a result of the growing opinion in governmental and political circles here to the effect that law enacted granting to 16 other counties the privilege to set up liquor stores, is unconstitutional. There is also a very strong possibility that the "drys" in many of the counties under this second law will attempt to delay the holding of the county elections with restraining orders until the 60 days time limit expires. If they can do this, the law will automatically become inoperative, regardless of what the state supreme court may decide, since it stipulates that the county elections must be held within 60 days from the enactment of the law.

The New Hanover county law, however, is regarded as having been more carefully written and as being entirely constitutional, even if the other law is held to be unconstitutional. Indications also are that no effort will be made to prevent the county-wide election on the county liquor stores plan there, which has already been set for July 2. One reason for this belief is the fact that New Hanover county, including Wilmington, Wrightsville Beach and Carolina Beach, is regarded as being overwhelmingly

SCHOOLS MAY GET MORE FOR SALARY BOOST

Change in Machinery Act May Convert $2,000,000 to the School Fund

Reflector Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel.
Raleigh, May 18.—The public schools of the state may get as much as $2,000,000 a year more with which to supplement teachers' salaries and other objects heretofore paid for entirely from state funds as a result of the provision in Section 9 of the new school machinery act which permits local school units to use the revenue from special county funds for such purposes, with the approval of the State School Commission, it was pointed out here today.

Retirement of the law authorizing sale and manufacture of natural wine was held in abeyance as Commissioner W. A. Graham, of the Department of Agriculture, who was entrusted with its administration, awaited for Attorney General A. A. F. Sewell's argument on the various aspects of the case.

Plans for contesting the validity of the law in Superior court and if necessary in the Supreme Court were disclosed today by Cale K. Burgess, generalissimo of prohibitionists who said restraining orders would be sought to prevent holding of the proposed referendum. A number of counties have already set dates for voting on the question. Burgess said he would issue a full statement in a few days.

Operation of the law authorizing sale and manufacture of natural wine was held in abeyance as Commissioner W. A. Graham, of the Department of Agriculture, who was entrusted with its administration, awaited for Attorney General A. A. F. Sewell's argument on the various aspects of the case.

Now, however, local school units may use either the surplus from these special local sources to supplement state funds and this increase teachers' salaries or increase the school term, or use the entire revenue to supplement state objects, provided such use is approved by the school commission. If this permission is given, it then becomes mandatory upon the county commissioners to levy a tax sufficient to yield the amount of revenue needed to pay the cost of maintaining the school plants and the insurance on them.

Indications are that the School Commission is going to permit as many counties as want to use these other revenues for supplementing state funds to do so and thus require the levying of a tax for plant maintenance. Since the revenue from the fines, forfeitures, penalties, poll tax, dog tax and other sources which go to the schools in the counties amounts to about $2,000,000 a year, this provision in the Machinery Act means that the schools will have available at least $22,000,000 the first year and about $23,000,000 the second year for objects formerly supported entirely from state funds, despite the fact that the legislature appropriated only $20,031,000 the first year and $20,900,000 the second year of the coming biennium for the schools.

Washington, N. C., May 17.—Former Governor Angus W. McLean, of North Carolina, today was reported "very much improved" at Emergency hospital where he was rushed yesterday by airplane ambulance after being stricken ill at an Atlantic City hotel.

"The governor had a very good night and is very much improved today," his office announced.

McLean came here during the early days of the Roosevelt administration to open a law office.

Suffers Lacerated Wrist
Washington, N. C., May 17.—Thomas Stewart, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Lee Stewart, of this city, and a pupil in the ninth grade of the city school, suffered a badly lacerated wrist in an accident at the school on Thursday at 2:30. He was taken to the Tayloe Hospital where several stitches were required to close the wound.

Young Stewart's left arm and hand were caught in a swinging door.

EPIC PARTY

Upton Sinclair Plans to Put Candidate in Field Against Roosevelt

Los Angeles, May 18.—(AP)—"Production for use" was injected sharply into the national political picture today with a threat of opposition from Upton Sinclair's Epic organization to President Roosevelt's candidacy for re-election in 1936 unless he adopts such a program. Declaring that unless the president puts forth a national program for production for use, the "End Poverty League, Inc." would enter a presidential candidate against him from his followers here.

"The president has permitted the business men of this country to persuade him they can bring back prosperity and put the unemployed to work again."

"His fate in 1936," shouted Sinclair, "depends on how much longer he pursues this notion."

Three hundred members of the Epic "end poverty" in California club" are attending the statewide Epic convention here.

TRIM FEDERAL AID PROGRAM

Highway Commission to Cut Construction and Crossing Elimination Plans

Reflector Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel.
By J. C. BASKERVILL

Raleigh, May 18.—The highway department is going to have to trim down its highway construction and crossing elimination program with Federal funds as the result of the allotment of only $9,544,131 to North Carolina for these purposes from the new $40,000,000 Federal appropriation for public works and relief, Chairman Capus M. Waynick of the State Highway and Public Works Commission said here today. For it had been planning on getting an allotment of about $16,500,000 instead of the $9,544,131 just received. This means that only the more urgent projects can be constructed out of this allotment at first. But Chairman Waynick still hopes that later on the state will be allotted another $7,000,000 at least.

When asked how soon this money would be available, Chairman Waynick said he was not sure, but thought it would be available by July 1. He pointed out that the state still has almost $1,000,000 of the Federal allotment of about $11,000,000 made two years ago yet unexpended, although projects have been prepared and approved for the expenditure of this balance.

"It is safe to say that this additional $9,544,131 will be available just as soon as we can prepare the specifications on the projects we plan to build with it, get them approved and can call for bids," Waynick said. "We will start work on sorting out the more important projects at once and in trimming our program down from $16,500,000 to only $9,544,131."

According to preliminary word from Washington, it was expected that a total of $700,000,000 would be allotted for new Federal aid highway construction and grade crossing elimination.

Remains of Missing
Boy Found in River

Two days after he mysteriously disappeared from home, the body of Frank A. Sazama (above), 7-year-old son of an athletic instructor in the naval academy at Annapolis, was found in a nearby creek. It was believed he fell from a bridge. Midshipmen and naval planes had been searching for him. (Associated Press Photo)

Plan Immediate Vote on Bonus
Washington, May 18.—(AP)—Patman bonus leaders in Washington agreed today to vote immediately without debate on whether to override Pres. Roosevelt's veto after the chief executive delivered his message in person probably next Wednesday.

At the same time they conceded they did not have the vote to override the veto in the senate but still expressed hope of a swing they would put the inflationary measure over despite the president's objection.

The decision was reached at a conference of the bill's friends in the office of Senator Thomas, Democrat of Alabama, at which strategy was discussed and vote canvassed.

After the conference Thomas announced the bonus forces would call for an immediate vote in the house when the president concluded his veto message. If the vote is overridden it will then go to the senate where Thomas said they would be ready for a vote also without debate provided all their supporters were on hand.

House leaders decided against Monday for a joint session of the senate and house to receive the veto message on the grounds there was insufficient time to make preparations for reviving the bill.

A memorial service for members who have died the past year is to be held Tuesday. Leaders said Wednesday was the probable date.

MEADOWS TO BE INDUCTED
HERE ON JUNE 1

Governor Ehringhaus And Other Men Prominent in State Life to Attend

Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus, Associate Justice George W. Connor, Dr. J. Y. Joyner, and Supt. Clyde Erwin will be on the program of the inauguration exercises of Dr. Leon Renfro Meadows as president of East Carolina Teachers College, two weeks from today, June 1.

Dr. J. Y. Joyner, who was chairman of the Board of Trustees for most of the first decade and later served on the board, will preside. Clyde Erwin, the present chairman, will represent the Board of Trustees.

The chief speaker for the occasion, Patt M. Neff, ex-governor of Texas, is considered one of the greatest orators of the day.

This will be one of the greatest occasions in the history of Greenville and will draw a number of prominent people from a distance. The academic procession will be one of the interesting features, as the delegates from a number of Colleges, universities, and honor societies, in addition to the faculty and graduates, will be in the line. The procession will form at 10:15 o'clock in the morning, and march across the Campus, getting into the Campus Building Auditorium at the time the program begins, 10:30. The guests here for the inauguration will be the guests of honor at the alumnae dinner, on one-thirty o'clock.

A formal reception will be given by the College in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Meadows at their home from eight-thirty to ten-thirty that evening, to which the people of Greenville and vicinity are invited.

The alumnae business meeting, usually held on Saturday morning of commencement, will be in the afternoon. There will be no program this year. The usual day exercises will also be omitted.

The commencement sermon will be preached on Sunday morning, June 2, by Dr. Oliver J. Hart, pastor of St. John's church, the church of presidents, of Washington City. He will also take part in the Y. W. C. A. vesper services at six-thirty that evening.

The graduation exercises will be held on Monday morning, June 3. The music recital on Friday night, May 31, will open the commencement exercises.

CIVIL COURT
HERE MONDAY

Judge M. V. Barnhill of Rocky Mount to Preside Over Two Week Term

A two week term of Pitt County Superior court for the trial of civil cases will convene in Greenville next Monday morning with a calendar of between forty and fifty cases.

Judge M. V. Barnhill, of Rocky Mount, who has conducted a number of terms of court here since the first of the year, will preside. The calendar was completed last week and was in the hands of the members of the bar two days later.

Many of the actions scheduled for hearing during the two weeks term are expected to be completed. Numbers will receive actual hearing and others will be settled through compromise.

Around fifteen cases were disposed of in the one week term here last week with Judge Clayton Moore presiding. About half were compromised. With several sessions of civil court having been held since the first of the year, the total number of cases awaiting trial have been greatly reduced. At least half of the calendar scheduled for the next two weeks probably will be completed.

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG
News Behind The News.

Washington
By RAY TUCKER

HOIST: A smart newspaper reporter gave away the secrets of the great Navy war game in the Pacific. The opposing fleets are supposed to be operating under war-time conditions, but he figured out their respective battle lines and wrote a piece for more than 1,000 newspapers.

The Navy screened its war plans with the utmost secrecy and censorship. But the journalist had lived in the Orient, knew the Navy from stem to stern and pieced together fragments of gossip and reports. Although the gold-branders deny it, he spotted the position of the two fleets with uncanny accuracy. But the most unfortunate development—was that his story was broadcast by Navy radio to the ships engaged, and published in their daily newspapers. At breakfast each Admiral read in detail the plans and position of the "enemy" vessels. The air became a vivid blue—and not from gunfire.

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Whitehurst and little daughter, Nell, of Snow Hill, are spending the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bundy.

Mrs. W. A. Darden and Mrs. Fred Outland attended the District meeting number four of the Episcopal Church at Bath Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Carr have returned from Wilson where they attended the graduating exercises of their granddaughter, Miss Harriet Carr Fleming.

Mrs. Ollen Warren is visiting her daughter, Mrs. George Sharpe, in Burlington.

Mrs. H. L. Hodges spent yesterday in Raleigh.

Mrs. John E. Raper of Lexington, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Guiley.

Mrs. R. C. Deal is visiting relatives in Long Island, New York.

Mrs. E. F. Tucker has returned from Elizabeth City where she attended a convention of the Great Potomac Council.

Rev. J. R. Potts who has been conducting services at the Presbyterian Church at Morehead City, has returned.

Auxiliary To Meet.

Present Operetta.

Friends and patrons of West Greenville School enjoyed a real visit to Fairyland on Thursday evening, when members of the primary grades presented in operetta form the story of "The Sleeping Princess." So perfectly did the presentation compare with the story in dialogue, stage setting and costumes, that the characters seemed to be stepping right from the pages of a fairy tale book into real life.

Miss Mary Grantham Hales and Master Thomas Thorpe, as King and Queen, robed in royal blue and purple, were seated on a throne such as you would find only in Fairyland. Master Haywood Sellars and Miss Margaret Anne Johnson made a perfect Prince and Princess. Their costumes were especially lovely, and quite expressive of the characters they were portraying. Misses Theo Dell Nichols, Louise Nichols, Margaret Waters, Eleanor Brown, Virgil Corey, Fay Duval, Wildo Gray Wall and Ruth Brown, robed in long colorful gowns, enhanced the atmosphere of Fairyland as the Princess ladies in waiting. The twelve good fairies in their spritely dance were none other than Misses Mary Barden Taylor, Miriam Twine, Christine Morning, Edna Earl Jones, Edna Earl Corbett, Betty Braxwell, Dora Dean Hathaway, Lucille Aldridge, Evelyn James, Earline Allen, Jane Massey and Nancy Mose.

Miss Mary Ann Duncan was the wicked witch who cast the spell on the Princess, and Misses Geraldine Alligood and Helen Aman were her attendants. The Williams Twins, Harold and Howard, in their costumes of black and white, made perfect pages, as did Carl Morris in the role of jester. Ed Jolly McGlohon was the Old Man who watched the thorns grow around the castle while the Princess was sleeping, and Masters Rufus Curry, Heber Savage, Penner Allen, Stephen Humphries, Donald Whiting, Billy Denton, Bernard West, Thomas Moore, C. B. West, Lizzie Vivian Allen, Ruth Harris, Lizzie Keech, Myrtle Gray Pollard and Sylvia Braxwell in their long thorny costumes made quite a natural looking patch of thorns.

No fairy tale is complete without the elves and brownies, and this one was completed by the merry dancing arrival of Masters Joe Allen, Jimmy Sutton, Moulton Massey, James Page, Joe Cagle, Jack Harris, Clifton Perry, James Johnson, Wallace Gurganus and Herbert Corey.

This operetta was given under the direction of the primary teachers Misses Agnes Fullilove, Jane Hadley, Alma Lee, and Mrs. Vance Perkins, with Miss Ona Shindler accompanist. Mrs. Virginia Earl, assistant.

This presentation closed the activities of the West Greenville school program for the term, and was largely attended.—Reported.

Fox Patrol Still Leads.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 30 held their regular weekly meeting Friday night at the Rotary building.

The meeting consisted of two games, one a crawfish game, won by the Hawks, and the other a feather game, won by the Foxes. After the games, Dr. Viola gave a very interesting talk about first aid to animals for which he is a merit badge counsellor.

Then came announcements, patrol meeting and drill. The meeting closed with the repeating of the Scout oath and taps.

The standings in the attendance contest are:

	Pts. Last Night	Avg.
Fox	118	108
Eagle	104	103
Hawks	92	98
Raven	81	101

The scores from the last two baseball games are: Hawks 7, Eagles 3, and Ravens 7, Foxes 6. These games were refereed by A. F. Harrington.

The baseball standings are:

Fox	3	2	.600
Eagle	3	2	.600
Hawk	3	2	.600
Raven	1	4	.200

Encampment Soon

Letters are being mailed to 4-H club girls, 4-H leaders and Home Demonstration Club women announcing the encampment at Camp Leach, June 8-12. All 4-H girls' reports have not been received—and if you do not get a letter and have not sent in your report—please send it to me. Every club member should complete her contract, however it does not have to be perfect in order to make you eligible for camp. If you have done anything at all make a report, and if you have exhibited, have your leader to sign it. Let me know if you expect to go to camp by Saturday, May 26. Please state whether you will have a way to go or not. We expect to save the expense of a bus if we can, but if the majority do not have a way, then a bus will be taken. Camp Leach is a lovely place for a camp and we are expecting to have a good time. There will be a life guard each time we go in the water. Make your arrangements to come with us.

In spite of the rain sixteen women met at the Pierce community club building Thursday afternoon. Mrs. P. A. Gurganus, Miss Wade Gurganus and Mrs. Jake McGlohon were hostesses.

Bethel 4-H Report.

The Bethel 4-H club was re-organized last fall with 53 members enrolled. Miss Margaret Ford was chosen to be leader. They had 36 meetings, seven of which the agent attended. Thirty-three of the girls were in the finishing group. The following subjects were used in their meetings with the leader:

"Things We Expect To Do This Year," "Cooperation," "The Qualities of a Good Sport," "A Model Scrapbook," "What About Our Parties?" "Practice for the Song and Dance Contest," "Seam Finishes," "Health Contest," "Club Dresses," "Club Emblems for Our Dresses," "Reports from 1934 Camp," "Applying What We Have Learned To Our Everyday Life," "Grooming."

All girls were examined for the Health Contest by Dr. Cecil Garrenton. Theda Wynne won first place in the county contest and Nell Wynne Bullock won second place. They had seven parties at a cost of 81-2 cents per girl attending each party. They furnished the program for a Parent-Teacher meeting. Flowers were bought for a club girl's deceased brother. Thirty girls and nine boys took part in the Song and Dance Contest—winning second place. A grooming contest was held, in which Theda Wynne was winner. Nell Wynne Bullock made the best club dress. Was your group as active as this club? If not, can you make it so next year?

Organization of Clubs.

Clubs are being organized at Belvoir and St. John's. Second meetings will be held. One at St. John's at 3:30 Tuesday, May 21, and one at Belvoir June 4 at 3:00 p. m. If you are interested in an organization at your place come out to the meeting.

Our children deserve better than State Standard Schools. I am for the ninth month of school.

JUNE BRIDES MAY GO TO ALTAR IN SATIN'S DIGNIFIED SIMPLICITY

A supple white satin which drapes and falls with dignity still is a big favorite for Paris weddings. This one designed by Worth is fashioned on slender, simple lines with a great sweeping train. The veil of white is held in place by a coronet of tiny orange blossoms with mother of pearl leaves. Double service wedding gowns also have made their appearance on the marriage scene. They are designed to display all the grace and dignity of the regulation bridal gown and last may be used as evening dresses. The trains of these latter generally are not excessively long.

MERIT BADGE For The WEEK

To obtain a Merit Badge for Journalism, a Scout must:

1. "Cover" satisfactorily the following assignments:

(a) News incident; (b) Routine club or society meeting; (c) Lecture sermon, or political address; (d) Theatrical performance; (e) Subject or event to be suggested by counselor.

2. Write:

(a) An editorial; (b) A publicity article; (c) A feature, or human interest story.

3. (a) Explain the respects in which the articles in requirement one and two are different; (b) Secure the publication of at least one of these articles.

4. (a) Describe the elements of a good lead paragraph; (b) Explain the use and importance of headlines; (c) Prepare for the linotype operator three good headlines for stories submitted in requirement one.

5. Read and correct proof, using the conventional proof reader's signs (manuscript of two typewritten pages to be furnished by counselor).

6. Submit four styles of advertising copy for a local magazine or newspaper.

7. (a) Submit suggestions for photographic or cartoon copy; (b) Explain briefly the various engraving processes.

8. Prepare a dummy for the printer representing one issue of an eight-page paper, magazine, catalogue, or circular.

9. Produce copy to show what is meant by each of the following terms: typeset, handset, galley proof, electotype, form, mat, stereotype, case.

10. Explain what steps are necessary to copyright a manuscript, and tell what rights are granted by a copyright, and for what period.

11. Serve as a reporter (either voluntary or paid) for local school, farm, club, trade, or other paper for a period of six weeks after becoming a First Class Scout, or until at least six news items shall have been accepted.

12. Present a scrap book prepared in the customary way to include unpublished copy, as well as clippings of published material, filed under date and place of publication. The following requirement may be chosen as an alternative to the above twelve.

Conduct an authorized, chartered amateur publication, under the standards set by the National Council, Boy Scouts of America, for at least five consecutive issues. Scouts who are members of the editorial staff (editor-in-chief and not more than three assistants) of an authorized, chartered Local or Area Council publication and who work under supervision of local Scout authorities may also receive the Merit Badge in Journalism.

ONLY SINGLE COUNTY OF N. C. MAY GET LEGAL RUM

that if elections are called and held and the supreme court later holds the law unconstitutional, the counties will be out the expense incident to the elections but will have nothing to show for them. There is also the possibility that a county may get torn up into factions and develop great bitterness that may have a very detrimental effect in the primary next year or in the general election next fall.

As a result of these considerations, the county commissioners in several counties are understood to be reluctant to call any elections at all, or not until after the supreme court has passed on the validity of the law. They do not want to go to the trouble and expense of calling an election that may later be ruled as invalid. Consequently it is believed that no move will be made in several of the 16 counties to call an election at all. It is understood here that the Warren county commissioners have decided to postpone action indefinitely, or at least until the supreme court passes on the validity of the law. Carter county commissioners have called a mass meeting to find out what the sentiment of the people is before they call the election. Other counties are understood to be equally undecided as to what to do. Some of those who have read the law believe that Rockingham county can go ahead and set up a liquor stores and liquor control system without holding any election, but others think it must also call an election.

The entire law is in such a muddle, however, that no one seems to know just what it means or what can be done. In the mean time the "drys" are expected to do everything possible to prevent what elections are called. So New Hanover county may be the only one that goes through after all.

New York Cotton

New York, May 18.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady, seven higher to two lower with trade buying of the July positions and liquidation of the late months.

July sold off from 12.19 to 12.04 and the general market at around 10:30 o'clock was ruling about 6 to 12 points net lower.

Futures closed steady 4 to 10 lower. Spots were quiet.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, May 18.—(AP)—The stock market continued to back track today as inflation minded traders less sure of their positions, took further profit. A few specialties bucked the trend but the close was rather heavy. Transfers were 60,000 shares.

The fact that the activity stuck perceptibly on the date was helpful to bullish prognosticators. Also it was pointed out that a technical correction was overdue.

Hopes were expressed that the so-called "healthy" reaction would put the list in shape to resume its upward journey.

Grains sagged largely on news of better crop weather.

Cotton was hesitant and bonds were highly irregular as were leading foreign exchanges.

Telephone Toll Rates Reduced
Raleigh, May 18.—(AP)—A reduction in station to station toll rates of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co. in North Carolina for the hours between 7 and 8:30 p. m. was announced today by Stanley Winborne, state utilities commissioner.

The reduction will become effective June 1.

Under the new schedule the present night rate which applies from 8:30 until 4:30 a. m. nightly will start at 7:00 p. m.

The reduction was made with the consent of the telephone company and is interstate as well and intrastate having been approved by the Federal commission.

Senators Fish in North Carolina.
Manteo, May 18.—(AP)—A party of three senators and a retired army colonel today were trying their luck at fishing at Oregon inlet.

Yesterday morning Senator Joseph Robinson, Democratic leader, Senator Josiah Bailey and Colonel Rutherford, retired army officer, went to Oregon inlet and returned last night with 48 bluefish.

"Enough to feed the whole Senate," remarked Senator Bailey who up and shipped the whole lot off to Washington.

"We didn't catch any Kingfish," said the North Carolina senator.

"We weren't fishing for any."

Captain W. H. Lewark of Kill Devil Hill coast guard station, was in charge of the party which last night was joined by Senator Barton K. Wheeler of Montana.

Bethel High Licks Kiwanis Club 5 to 4

Playing their final game of the season as a feature of commencement exercises, Bethel high school yesterday afternoon trounced the Greenville Kiwanis club by the score of 5 to 4.

The contest was witnessed by a large crowd assembled for the school finals and some lusty rooting was done for the home town boys.

"Twist" Matthews, Greenville second sacker, walked away with stick honors of the day, cracking out three safeties out of five trips to the rubber. One of the blows was for an extra base, and like the rest figured largely in the Kiwanis scoring.

Matthews, who has hit like a house afire during most of the season was a two to one favorite for batting honors of his team when the game started.

McLawn pitched for Greenville and Roebuck caught. Donald Conley, who has pitched every game for the clubmen this season, played in the outfield yesterday, his pitching arm being slightly out of trim.

Ragged fielding by the Kiwanians was said to have been largely responsible for Bethel's victory. Several costly bobbles were made with men on the paths enabling Bethel to forge ahead. The entire Bethel club played good ball with the pitcher showing plenty of confusion stuff.

TRIM FEDERAL AID PROGRAM

ing elimination, Wayne said, this amount to be apportioned so as to provide $400,000,000 for highway construction and $300,000,000 for grade crossing elimination. But, instead, this first allotment consisted of only $400,000,000 to be equally divided between highway construction and the elimination of railway grade crossings.

"If the entire $700,000,000 had been allotted a this time, as we had expected it would be, North Carolina would have received approximately $9,500,000 for Federal aid highway construction and unemployment relief and about $7,000,000 for the elimination of railway grade crossings," Wayne said.

"But now since only $400,000,000 has been allotted for all the states, to be divided equally between road construction and grade crossing work, North Carolina's allotment is only $5,441,331, of which half will have to go for building underpasses and overpasses at railroad crossings. Consequently we will have to materially trim and revise our construction program to include only the most necessary projects."

It is expected that 25 per cent of the amount to be used for highway construction will again have to be used for the construction or repaving of streets within cities and towns traversed by Federal Aid highways. It is also expected that another 25 per cent can be used for construction work on the secondary road systems and that only 50 per cent will be spent on that portion of the state highway system which has been designated as a part of the Federal Aid system. At present about 7,000 miles of the state highway system of more than 10,000 miles have been designated as a part of the Federal Aid highway system.

Part of the new allotment for highway construction is expected to be used to rebuild or modernize old roads which are no longer regarded as a safe for modern travel.

Plans for the new projects and new construction work will be announced as soon as they are developed, Wayne said.

SPORT SLANTS

About twenty-five years ago Mike Gibbons was earning the appellation of "The Phantom" by beating men like Willie Lewis, Young Ernie, Jack Denning, Sailor Burke and others in Eastern rings.

His success stirred the followers of the fistie sport in his home town of St. Paul into a campaign to have boxing legalized in Minnesota so that they might see the local boy in action without having to travel hundreds of miles.

The measure permitting boxing in the State was passed in the spring of 1915, thanks to the free publicity brought to the Twin Cities by Mike's ring successes.

Hard on Mike's trail-blazing ring campaign a wave of fistie enthusiasm swept over the youth of that part of the country with a veritable hot-bed for budding ring prospects. Many a fine fighter came up in the rush to emulate the Phantom. Mike's younger brother Tommy, Mike O'Dowd, Billy Miske, Joe Malone, Johnny Erle, Fred Fulton King Tut, My Sullivan and Johnny Nichols are but a few of the flock that came on to win national fame in the ring.

Another Gibbons Gets 'Em
Today another Gibbons has aroused interest in boxing in that section. It is the old Phantom's son Jack this time.

The youngest seems to have inherited a fair share of his famous father's ring wizardry, for he has won 47 successive fights and has brought back fans who had lost interest in ring battles years ago.

If young Jack continues to improve as he has done in the last six months—and there is no reason why he should not—he may arouse the fans of Minneapolis and St. Paul to fever heat just as his daddy did a generation ago.

Old Mike is bringing the youth along slowly—carefully picking the spots but at the same time increasing the caliber of his opponents with each start.

The younger Gibbons is rapidly picking up poise and confidence with the result that he is not only improving defensively but is putting more snap into his punches.

Jack is learning how to relax and husband his strength and to pace himself to go the route. His experience he has gained in the last six months has greatly improved his general effectiveness.

"Smiling Sam" Allen, the southwest's leading hurdle-hopper, hopes to equal or better the world record in the 120-yard high-humber race using unique form that lifts him from mediocrity as a sprinter to ex-
