

THE WEATHER

Mostly cloudy and probably local showers tonight and Wednesday; not much change in temperature.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

"TRUTH IN PREFERENCE TO FICTION"

NEWS FOR THE READER RESULTS FOR THE ADVERTISER

VOL. 98 NO. 2

Leased Wire

GREENVILLE, N. C. TUESDAY AFTERNOON, JUNE 11, 1935

Associated Press

Price: Five Cents

Recover Bulk of Ransom In Weyerhaeuser Kidnap Probe

HUGE SUM IS FOUND BURIED IN BIG CANYON

Edgar Hoover Reports Recovery of $90,700 on Historic Immigration Pass Near Salt Lake City; Brings Total to $116,000; Complaints Filed Against Abductors at Tacoma

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—Recovery of $116,000 of the $200,000 ransom paid for the return of the kidnapped George Weyerhaeuser was announced today by J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Justice Department's bureau of investigation.

This included $90,700 found buried in a canyon today near Salt Lake City. This amount was buried on the historic Immigration Pass, five miles south of Salt Lake City, Hoover said.

He added it was recovered after the confession of Harmon Waley, under arrest at Salt Lake City since Saturday.

Hoover said the fugitive William Mahan who deserted his car and "between $15,000 and $16,000" probably had the remainder of the ransom money with him or buried.

Waley burned $4,000 of the ransom money because "things became too hot" he added. The key man said the Waleys had spent about $300. The remainder was not immediately accounted for.

Hoover said the young kidnap victim positively identified the hide-out where he was held captive at Spokane.

He added that complaints had been filed at Tacoma against the Waleys and the fugitive Mahan, charging violation of the federal extortion statute. He indicated that the State of Washington whose laws provided possible death penalty would prosecute the kidnapers on their return there.

Location of the $90,700 resulted from constant grilling of Waley at Salt Lake City, the director said. The money was buried about two feet under the ground in a black oil cloth and wrapped in a gunny sack.

REAL ESTATE
FEEBLE HERE

Eleven Transfers Reported Here as Business Sits on Fence And Marks Time

The real estate business took a seat on the fence the last several days to watch developments in the Recovery field and as a result transactions here were probably the smallest in the last several months.

Records in the office of the registrar of deeds today indicated that only eleven transfers were reported over the period, although one of them carried the sum of $12,000. The deal involved a lot in the city of Greenville and was from F. M. Davis and wife and others to F. W. Brown, et al.

The remainder of the transactions involved land in various sections of the county and carried sums ranging all the way from $53 to $3,000.

The list follows:
John F. Boyd, et al., to J. C. Lauer, 1 lot, $1,500.
Town of Greenville to Mrs. Milo Smith, 1 lot, $53.50.
Life Ins. Co. of Va. to J. R. Harvey, 48A, $3,500.
Life Ins. Co. of Va. to J. R. Harvey, 251A, $3,500.
R. L. Davis to Wilson Boyd, 1 lot, $300.
Com. Investment Co. to Anna May Morgan, 1 lot, $350.
Blooma A. Shultz to Helen L. Tucker, 1 lot, $2,800.
T. G. Worthington, Jr. to John T. Sparkman, et al., 1 lot, $500.
Kemp B. Jolly and wife to Larry Dall, 8 3/4-4A, $350.
Lula Hadcock, et al., to Madison D. Adams, 8 1-4A, $230.
F. M. Davis and wife, et al., to F. W. Brown, et al., 1 lot, $12,000.

Russia And Japan At Odds Over a Slaying

(Copyright By Associated Press)
Tokyo, June 11.—(AP)—The slaying of a Soviet sentry on the disputed Manchukuoan-Siberian frontier was disclosed today as the cause of diplomatic controversy between Russia and Japan.

Moscow and Tokyo exchanging notes over the incident each charged the armed forces of the other with invasion of its territory. The skirmish occurred June 3, southwest of Mishau. The Soviets charged two Red army men stationed on the frontier were fired on by Japanese troops. One of the sentries fell, according to the Russian version, and the other ran for help.

Moscow asserted that when their reinforcements reached the point described as 1,700 meters on the Soviet side of the border that they found only blood stains and empty cartridges.

The Japanese made the first diplomatic move, protesting June 5 to the Soviet consular at Harbin against what they termed a Soviet invasion of Manchukuoan territory.

The Soviets countered by sending Nicholas Reyvid, counselor of the Tokyo embassy, to lodge a similar complaint with the chief of the European bureau of the Japanese foreign office.

Babcock Given Post On PWA
Washington, June 11.—(AP)—Appointment of Colonel George Babcock, of Asheville as work progress administration assistant was announced today by Frank C. Walker, head of the agency receiving all applications for funds from the $4,000,000-000 works program.

County Agent E. F. Arnold reports that he is preparing twelve hundred and forty-six notices to cotton growers to call at his office for one half rental check on their 1935 cotton rental payments. The total amount of these checks is reported to be $24,782.42.

The above growers represent those who were prompt in calling on their committees and signing up the necessary papers required by the government, in order to receive rental payments this year. All growers who were careless in calling on the committees, with reference to their papers or who improperly signed same, will receive their checks later.

The office also requests that growers wait until they receive their notice, before they call for their checks, in as much as it is impossible for the office to take time to check through their entire lists in order to know whether or not growers have checks in the office.

Farmers are urged by the office to be prompt in complying with notices sent, then asking them to see their committees and complete papers in order that they may have prompt settlement on their rental payments.

Woman's Clubs Endorse Birth Control Plan
Defolt, June 11.—(AP)—The General Federation of Women's Clubs gave endorsement today to federal legislation for dissemination for scientifically regulated birth control legislation. The vote was 493 for the resolution and 17 against.

ROBBERS STEAL $800 WORTH OF CIGARETTES
Wilson, June 11.—Robbers broke into the warehouse of J. H. Little and Company on East Barnes Street here yesterday morning about 3 a. m. and made off with 150,000 cigarettes valued at $800. They broke the two locks on the front door by cutting them in two with bolt cutters, according to police who investigated the theft. This is the second big theft of cigarettes here within the last two months. Several months ago the Southern Grain Warehouse was broken into and robbed of 70,000 cigarettes. Detectives C. P. Hocutt and R. L. Gay arrested Alonzo Davis, James Gavin and John Williams negroes, a few days later, and they were sentenced to 3 years in State's prison by Judge N. A. Sinclair.

The detectives discovered several persons to whom stolen cigarettes had been sold and identified the thieves in this way.

BOY PLACED IN HOME RUNS OFF TO MOTHER
Denver (AP)—Every day is mother's day to Kenneth Smith, 7. He and three others of a family of 11 were placed in a state home in an effort to assist the family. For weeks after entering the home they ran away on an average of once every other day—once in a blinding snow storm. Each time he trudged six miles to be with his mother.

JUDGE IS MERCIFUL TO FATHER OF SEVEN
Greensboro, June 11.—Joseph T. Martin, Rockingham county man from whom government agents some time ago secured 314 gallons of tax-paid whiskey, was today in United States District Court placed on temporary probation with a three-year suspended sentence over his head. Judge Johnson J. Hayes said that he defendant's seven young children weighed heavily with him in his decision to have mercy on Martin. Martin tendered receipts to show he has paid the government tax on 90 gallons of bootleg whiskey seized at the same time as the bottled goods bearing stamps.

Reflector To Begin Half Holiday Plan At Noon Tomorrow
Along with other business houses of the city, the Daily Reflector will close at noon tomorrow in observance of the Wednesday half holiday to be observed here during the summer months.

The regular edition of the paper will be issued at noon and advertisers desiring advertisements for that edition are requested to have them in the office as soon as possible.

CLINICS FOR TYPHOID TO START SOON

Health Office Here Busy Making Schedule of Vaccination Clinics in Pitt

The annual drive against typhoid fever will begin soon in this county, it was announced today from the office of Dr. N. T. Ennett, director of the Pitt County Department of Health.

Dr. Ennett, it was said in reports from his office today, is now making up a schedule for typhoid vaccination clinics throughout the county and will have this work completed in a short time.

The campaign each year carries health workers into every section of the county and inoculations given the populace have resulted in a pronounced decrease in this form of illness even in the most remote sections.

Communities desiring clinics have been asked to let their desires be known immediately.

Dr. Ennett stated that the centers for vaccinations this summer will be pretty much the same as those of last year; however, he will give every consideration to requests for other centers if the request is made promptly.

He also stated he desires very much to meet the convenience of the citizens of Pitt County, but it will not be practical to make additions to the vaccination centers after the final schedule has been published.

Address your request to Doctor N. Thomas Ennett, Health Officer, Greenville, N. C.

DAVID JAMES PASSES AWAY

Funeral Services to Be Held From Greene Street Home Tomorrow Morning

David C. James, son of Mrs. Maggie S. and the late Dr. D. L. James, died in Duke Hospital this morning at three o'clock after several months of declining health.

Funeral services will be held from the home of his mother on Greene street, tomorrow morning at eleven o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. W. Fleischmann, pastor of Memorial Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. J. R. Potts, Presbyterian minister. Interment will follow in the family plot in Cherry Hill cemetery.

He is survived by his mother, Mrs. Maggie S. James, of Greenville, and two daughters who reside in Florida.

Active pall bearers will be: W. H. James, Dink James, Larry James, B. James, J. J. White, and Charles James.

Honorary W. T. Lipscomb, I. E. Tyndall, J. C. Tyson, W. C. Oresbach, D. M. Clark, Frank Patrick, Charles Skinner, James Skinner, Dr. L. C. Skinner, Gordon Ware, W. R. Lee, C. T. Munford, Jack Boyd, Jr., N. O. Warren.

Twins Have Party
Ontario, Cal. (AP)—Honoring the fifth birthday of her twin son and daughter, Mrs. Ruth Curry Burns invited more than 2,000 pairs of twins to a party at her resort near here.

Nearly one-fourth of the total inhabitable land on the surface of the earth is controlled by Great Britain.

LEGAL POINTS STALL THREE PWA PROJECTS

$16,000,000 Park to Park Highway Now Threatened With Much Delay

Washington, June 11.—(AP)—Legal difficulties which have delayed two large PWA projects in the Carolinas today threatened to hold up a third—and the largest—he $16,000,000 park-to-park highway.

The parkway appeared likely to join the proposed $2,000,000 port development at Morehead City, N. C., and the proposed publicly owned power development at Greenwood, S. C., both delayed by legal difficulties.

All are PWA projects, the three largest proposed in the Carolinas. Concern has been that an appeal to the supreme court testing the right of the state to exercise eminent domain to acquire land later to be transferred to the federal government for park purposes may retard progress on the parkway which would connect the Shenandoah national park in Virginia and the Great Smoky Mountain park in North Carolina.

Raleigh, June 11.—(AP)—Plans for securing the right of way on the national park scenic highway between Sparta and Mulberry Gap in Allegheny and Wilkes counties will be pushed immediately despite indication that actual construction may be delayed.

Capus M. Wayne, chairman of the State Highway and Public Works Commission, said he had received instructions from the federal bureau of roads to proceed with the right of way procurement for one of the legs of the North Carolina portion of the route.

MASONS HOLD MEETING HERE

Annual Meeting of Fifth District Held With Local Lodge Here Yesterday

Between a hundred and two hundred Masons attended the annual meeting of the Fifth Masonic District here yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Methodist church and enjoyed a program consisting of addresses by prominent state officials and business.

The meeting was called to order by District Deputy Grand Master W. J. Bundy and the address of welcome was delivered by S. G. Wilkerson, prominent member of the local lodge. The response was made by J. C. Galloway, member of the Grimesland lodge.

Addresses were delivered by Charles B. Nocomp, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, John H. Anderson, Grand Secretary of the Grand Lodge of North Carolina, and Raleigh T. Daniel, District Deputy Grand Master of Halifax County.

The meeting was presided over by Grand Master W. J. Bundy. The meeting was adjourned at 7:30 and the Masons went to the Yum Yum Barbecue Palace where they enjoyed a delightful supper.

The state officials discussed the promotion of good fellowship of the organization and who is being accomplished by the various lodges in this and other parts of the county.

WILMINGTON, June 11.—Waiving preliminary examination in Recorder's Court this morning, James Murray was bound over to Superior Court under a $1,000 bond on two charges of armed robbery and one of carrying a concealed weapon.

Police said Murray admitted holding up L. R. Peterson, operator of a barber shop, and robbing him of $14. They said he told them he "could not recall" he attempted hold-up earlier Saturday night of T. W. Weaver, a grocer.

Murray was arrested in the police station when he went there to inquire if a warrant had been issued for him for a taxi-cab he had peddled to his customers.

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG
News Behind The News.

Washington By RAY TUCKER
MYSTERY: A New Deal experiment, second only to NRA is slipping out of President Roosevelt's control. It is the Tennessee Valley Authority. Unless he can save it, Controller General McCarl and the House Appropriations Committee will wreck it beyond hope of recognition.

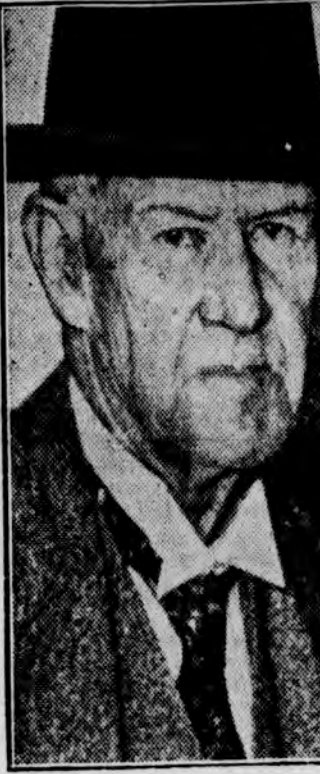

The sabotage of TVA is one of the first class mysteries of Washington. Nobody knows how McCarl's letter questioning certain expenditures and procedure fell into the hands of Republican Senators battling the TVA extension and the holding company bill. It was supposed to be a secret document. But it bobbed up on the Senate floor and it may cripple the administration's power program on many fronts.

Some TVA-ites blame McCarl in their private confidences. TVA directors have steadily maintained that Congress empowered them to operate without regard for governmental red tape. McCarl has insisted that they must abide by the same rules which govern purchase of a stuffed animal for the Smithsonian Museum. There has been constant friction.

JEOPARDY: Mr. Roosevelt conceived the TVA project as an empire within itself and beyond the control of bureaucrats. He clothed it with "powers of government" and tried to give it "the flexibility and initiative of private enterprise."

Mr. McCarl disagrees. He insists that an engineer supervising a $20,000,000 job must account for every penny spent in driving to and from it. He demands that supplies needed at a moment's notice must be advertised and awarded to the lowest bidder. (Continued on Page Two)

Accused of Shooting

Walter L. Abernathy (above), retired furniture manufacturer, was accused of shooting Vane Wilkerson in an argument over Abernathy's alleged request that Wilkerson's wife do a "strip" dance at the elderly squire's palatial estate near Kansas City. (Associated Press Photo)

EXPLAINS CURE FOR PARALYSIS

Simple Whole Blood Injection Presented To Medical Society At Biloxi

New Orleans, June 11.—(AP)—An extremely simple yet successful treatment for infantile paralysis was described here today by Dr. J. Stubb, chief of the contagious and infectious disease service at Charity Hospital.

Dr. Stubb said the treatment consisted of an injection into the hip of the whole blood of any normal healthy person.

The method was explained before the Charity hospital staff and the Orleans Parish Medical Society last night.

"The cure is simple," said Dr. Stubb. "Anyone can apply it." The whole blood does the entire work the antibodies contained therein destroying the organisms producing the infantile paralysis.

NATURE SHOWS MAN HOW TO BUILD DAM QUICKLY
Sacramento, Cal. (AP)—For thousands of years Grizzly Dome has stood a rugged sentinel towering 1,000 feet above the North Fork of the Feather River.

Recently the state highway department decided to cut a notch across its face for a highway and a power company announced plans to build a dam in the river below it.

As though taking umbrage, Nature disclosed how a dam could be built quickly and shook off 75,000 cubic yards of the dome. It swept clean 800 feet of the highway survey and made a dam in the river which raised the water 30 feet.

Freak Rose
San Diego, Cal. (AP)—A rose grown here has a stem with a perfectly formed bud and two small leaves protruding from the bloom's center.

Thief Takes All
Norfolk Va.—(AP)—A small fuel dealer here was wiped out of business at a single stroke by a thief who stole his horse, his wagon and a load of coal he had bought to peddle to his customers.

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG
News Behind The News.

Washington By RAY TUCKER
MYSTERY: A New Deal experiment, second only to NRA is slipping out of President Roosevelt's control. It is the Tennessee Valley Authority. Unless he can save it, Controller General McCarl and the House Appropriations Committee will wreck it beyond hope of recognition.

The sabotage of TVA is one of the first class mysteries of Washington. Nobody knows how McCarl's letter questioning certain expenditures and procedure fell into the hands of Republican Senators battling the TVA extension and the holding company bill. It was supposed to be a secret document. But it bobbed up on the Senate floor and it may cripple the administration's power program on many fronts.

Some TVA-ites blame McCarl in their private confidences. TVA directors have steadily maintained that Congress empowered them to operate without regard for governmental red tape. McCarl has insisted that they must abide by the same rules which govern purchase of a stuffed animal for the Smithsonian Museum. There has been constant friction.

JEOPARDY: Mr. Roosevelt conceived the TVA project as an empire within itself and beyond the control of bureaucrats. He clothed it with "powers of government" and tried to give it "the flexibility and initiative of private enterprise."

Mr. McCarl disagrees. He insists that an engineer supervising a $20,000,000 job must account for every penny spent in driving to and from it. He demands that supplies needed at a moment's notice must be advertised and awarded to the lowest bidder. (Continued on Page Two)

Governors To Talk National Plans at Biloxi

Biloxi, Miss., June 11.—(AP)—Most of the nation's governors will gather here tomorrow to frolic and talk over national affairs.

George Power, of Jackson, chairman of the entertainment committee, said he expected between 25 and 30 chief executives to attend.

Governor Ehringhaus of North Carolina will attend, it was stated.

Late News Flashes
NRA Hits Snag In Senate.
Washington, June 11.—(AP)—Efforts of administration leaders to push through a measure extending a modified NRA were blocked temporarily today in the Senate. Only a half hour of debate was available.

Senator Gore of Oklahoma, prevented a vote by seeking to amend the revised legislation so as to require confirmation of all government officials receiving more than $4,000 a year.

Leaders planned to try to get the bill through later in the day.

On the other side of the capitol the House debated an anti-smuggling bill.

Striving to force higher silver prices the Senate silver bloc selected a committee of five headed by Senator McCarrin of Nevada, to ask Secretary Morgenthau for a full explanation of his silver purchase program.

At the same time the Senate banking committee approved a joint resolution extending for an additional three years from June 16 the time in which officers of Federal Reserve member banks must pay off personal loans from their own institutions. Such officers will face jail sentences next week if the extension is not approved by Congress.

Prompt enactment of the Wagner labor dispute bill on the grounds that present conditions tend toward a situation which "will become a menace to industrial peace that cannot be exaggerated" was urged by the House labor committee.

Opposes Pardon for Lea
Beaufort, June 11.—(AP)—Judge M. V. Barnhill, who presided over the trial of Luke Lea, former United States senator from Tennessee, convicted in Asheville of bank law violations, said today he had written Edwin M. Gill, parole commissioner, opposing clemency at this time for Lea.

Gill tomorrow will hold a public hearing on the petition of Lea for a pardon from Governor Ehringhaus and freedom from the 6 to 10 years' prison sentence imposed for alleged bank law violations.

Republicans Meet In Springfield.
Springfield, Ill., June 11.—(AP)—"A declaration of principles" setting out the views they will rally to support in the 1936 presidential campaign was adopted with cheers and applause today by mid-western Republican workers closing their "grass root" conference of the prairie states.

"Justice for veterans" although with no specific mention of paying off the bonus, was one of the planks read to the delegates by the resolutions committee.

The gathering declared for the preservation of the constitutional form of government and state's rights. Free enterprise against fascism and collectivism, a system of collective bargaining for labor, with child labor laws and women workers protected, and a wage scale equal to the American living standard. Old age pensions were also endorsed.

A policy of "economy and thrift with allowance for relief" was advocated along with a demand for "a balanced budget by the honest method of bringing government expenses within the nation's income."

(Continued on Page Four)

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG
News Behind The News.

Washington By RAY TUCKER
MYSTERY: A New Deal experiment, second only to NRA is slipping out of President Roosevelt's control. It is the Tennessee Valley Authority. Unless he can save it, Controller General McCarl and the House Appropriations Committee will wreck it beyond hope of recognition.

The sabotage of TVA is one of the first class mysteries of Washington. Nobody knows how McCarl's letter questioning certain expenditures and procedure fell into the hands of Republican Senators battling the TVA extension and the holding company bill. It was supposed to be a secret document. But it bobbed up on the Senate floor and it may cripple the administration's power program on many fronts.

Some TVA-ites blame McCarl in their private confidences. TVA directors have steadily maintained that Congress empowered them to operate without regard for governmental red tape. McCarl has insisted that they must abide by the same rules which govern purchase of a stuffed animal for the Smithsonian Museum. There has been constant friction.

JEOPARDY: Mr. Roosevelt conceived the TVA project as an empire within itself and beyond the control of bureaucrats. He clothed it with "powers of government" and tried to give it "the flexibility and initiative of private enterprise."

Mr. McCarl disagrees. He insists that an engineer supervising a $20,000,000 job must account for every penny spent in driving to and from it. He demands that supplies needed at a moment's notice must be advertised and awarded to the lowest bidder. (Continued on Page Two)

BEGIN CHECK OF ACREAGE IN PITT COUNTY

Five Thousand Contracts to be Checked During The Next Forty Days

Federal supervisors began checking cotton, tobacco and peanut acreage in this county today and hoped to complete the program within the next forty days, it was revealed this morning by E. F. Arnold, director of the local farm department, who is in charge of the acreage movement.

Mr. Arnold said 65 supervisors gathered here for final instructions yesterday. They were equipped with all paraphernalia necessary to push their work forward as rapidly as possible. In addition to checking the acreage of the three crops, the supervisors will also be charged with responsibility of determining the compliance of the various farmers with the government crop control program.

Mr. Arnold made known that there are five thousand contracts to be measured by the supervisors. All growers are required to furnish the necessary help in making a complete check of their acreage, the farm head said.

This year compliance must be shown before rental payments and marketing cards are issued. Mr. Arnold said, and it is to the interest of every grower to do his utmost to speed up the measurement of his acreage.

Pitt county has been among the first counties of the state to rally to the government program in recent years, and it was expected the same attitude would be shown this year by the growers who realize the important part which the government control movement has played in the price situation.

The checking of the acreage of 5,000 contract signers is a monumental task to be undertaken by 65 men in forty days, but Mr. Arnold expressed hope that aid provided by the growers would enable the supervisors to complete their work in the prescribed time.

SUMMER TERM ON AT COLLEGE

Several Hundred Students Registered For Several Courses of Study Here

The summer school of East Carolina Teachers College opened this morning and, for the first time, was in two parts, those who are on the road with the travel-observation tour and those who remain on the campus and take regular classroom work.

The travel party, composed of 92 students working for credits, three teachers and twenty others who are assisting with the tour, left this morning for the first day of the tour. Two buses and several cars left here soon after six o'clock and several cars will meet the party at different points along the way, with the party finally rounding up the last car in Weldon.

The three teachers with the party in charge of the courses are: Miss Emma L. Hooper, English; E. C. Hollar, History, and J. B. Cummings, Geography. Each course will carry three points of credit, the same amount that the students at home will get for each course they take. The cost of the tour is the same as the cost of a term spent in the college.

The tour is in charge of Paul T. Ricks, who will be general business manager and director. The party will be gone 18 days. The itinerary is as follows:

Richmond, Washington, New York, through the New England states, Canada, Niagara Falls, back through Pennsylvania and the Shenandoah Valley.

Those who stayed on the campus had a busy morning registering. The class rolls read like a cross section of the past years. A great number of students who are teaching during the year are returning in order to raise certificates or to get in a term's work toward degrees. Quite a number of students on the roll during the past year are working through the summer also, getting in credits so as to shorten the time in getting through college.

Straw Trim's Gloves
London (AP)—Flirt gloves have braided straw to trim the gauntlet.

The Daily Reflector

Every Afternoon Except Sunday
Established 1882

DAVID J. WHICHAID, Jr.
Owner and Publisher

TELEPHONE 56

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, S. C. as second class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES (Payable in Advance)
One year $5.00
Six months $2.50
Three months $1.25
One month50

Subscription will be discontinued at expiration of time paid

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.
All right of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES:
Thos. F. Clark Co., Inc., New York, Chicago, Indianapolis, Philadelphia, Kansas City.

The ball club is showing up good and the fans seem to be well pleased with the performances. The best way to be sure of good baseball is to give good support to the team.

Since local police started making arrests for traffic law violations here there has been some improvement in the way some of our people handle their automobiles on the city streets. There is still room for considerable improvement, however, and it is to be hoped that the officers will keep up their good work until they have made local automobile drivers conscious of the fact that the traffic laws were adopted for the public safety and must be obeyed.

The response of citizens of this county to the call to have their dogs vaccinated against rabies in compliance with the recently enacted state law is gratifying. Since the beginning of clinics in this county last Friday morning more than 5,000 dogs have been vaccinated which should mean that in the future there will be less danger from mad dogs in this community. In view of past mad dog epidemics resulting in the death of several persons bitten by the dogs, the last legislature enacted the anti-rabies law as a safety measure and if every owner will comply with the law by having his or her dog vaccinated the time will not be far distant when rabies can be entirely wiped out in this state.

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

Continued from Page One

est bidder, though it may mean delay and added expense. Directors Morgan and Morgan say they cannot operate under ordinary government regulations.

TVA is menaced on other fronts.
The House Appropriations Committee may cut its 1936 funds request from $42,000,000 to $30,000,000. This would halt all new construction, permitting TVA to finish only the four dams now being built.

Mr. Roosevelt's dream of utilizing the basin as a laboratory for power development, flood control, navigation, proper use of land and rural advancement would thus go up in smoke.

STAND: Jesse Jones is preparing to make the railroads be good. He is tired of pouring out government money for lines which refuse to face the obvious necessity of going through the wringer under voluntary reorganization or bankruptcy.

The RPC chairman has been patient. For a while he deferred harsh orders for fear of upsetting conditions. But his demand that certain western roads reorganize or be reorganized was the most drastic he has issued. Six months ago he would not have issued such an order. Now he feels that it cannot hurt—much.

ENEMY'S KISS

SYNOPSIS: Allison Rede and Guy Underhill are in love. Guy is explaining some contradictions in the story he told Allison about himself. And this story points to the fact that Guy Underhill, who is about to marry Allison's sister, is the woman who poisoned the husband just ahead of Mr. Rede. Guy was a notorious physician on the Florida coast and Guy Underhill in the murder—almost.

Chapter 28
POISON PEN

"Well, Guy, went on, 'about a month later, I began to find my practice vanishing. Patients who had been seeing me every day wrote and said they felt they'd like another doctor; people I met began to look at me in a funny sort of way, and I found myself being cut in the street."

"I stood it as long as I could and then I got hold of a man I knew quite well and asked him what had happened. He told me that there was a most scurrilous story going round about me and a young American girl called Trevor who had disappeared."

"I went to the French police, of course; they tracked the tale home to some anonymous letters which had been sent to my patients. But, though they did their best, they couldn't trace the writer. And that wasn't the worst! I was asked to leave the club."

"My dear! Allison's eyes were full of sympathy. 'How awful for you!'
"Not too nice was it?" he concurred. "Anyway, I soon saw that I wasn't getting a living any more; I couldn't even sell my practice for a fifth of the sum I gave. I had to clear out, I came home here to England and I put Scotland Yard on to tracing the letters. But by then the trail was cold and they failed. An old friend of mine, Dundas, let me stop with him and help a bit in return for my board and I'd one consolation, anyway; I was doing good work again, where it was needed."

He was silent for a few seconds, looking straight out before him. His clear, light eyes came down slowly and rested on her face.

"You know I'm not sorry, now! I mean, that it happened." He was smiling at her. "If it hadn't, I'd be out there now!"

"Rather a big price to pay!" said Allison.

"Not too big."
"Not?"

"Not Not a bit. I didn't know that anyone could be as much in love as I am with you!"

"Are you?" She knew it, yet was pining to hear him say so.

"You know I am. Utterly. When I thought I'd lost you, yesterday, I went nearly crazy."

"So did I! It was half a whisper.
"Directly the door shut I was sorry.
I wanted to tear after you down the street."

"Did you?"
"Mmm..."

The clock struck the half hour.
A very fat man with a scowl and a rolled newspaper, waiting for his lunch, glowered impatiently at the two who sat at the corner table.

He muttered grumpily, "Indecent,
I call it!" and looked at his watch.

A young clerk, looking for a free chair, caught at the back of one by Allison's table, looked down, raised his eyebrows and went elsewhere wearing a very wide grin.

Totally unconscious that anyone had even looked at them, Guy and Allison drifted back into their interrupted conversation.

"YOU begin to see how it was?"
"I think so," she said. "But I don't quite understand where the house at Warley came in."

"I'll tell you that in a minute.
More coffee? No? A cigarette? Don't you? Just as well! We shan't be able to afford it!"

"What was he like?" Allison broke in.

"The man? Dark, Spanish-looking —that's why I asked you the other day."

She asked breathlessly, "What was his name?"

"Called himself de Gony—he was a Mrs. Poynter."

"Daphne Poynter?"
"Yes. How do you know?"

"I'll tell you later, said Allison.
"Go on!"

"Well, anyway, they were having a most awful row. One could hear 'em half across the restaurant. She was calling him every name under the sun because he hadn't married her after her husband's death. He was a nasty bit of work and he simply sat and shrugged his shoulders and sneered and told her that if she wanted him she'd better get some money."

"He told her that if she hadn't been a fool, she'd have known about her husband having an annuity. She was obviously dreadfully in love with the fellow and half off her head and I rather hoped she might say something that would give me a clue. Unfortunately, she looked up and saw me."

"She went about as white as that menu and shut up as if she'd lost her tongue and I saw the man look round at me. Then a waiter came up and told me that he'd put through my call and that Dundas was on the telephone and when I got back they'd both gone. But for that I might have followed them. That was about six weeks ago. And I heard nothing more at all until the other night, the night that I met you."

"ABOUT six o'clock that evening,
I was in the surgery and I got a phone call. I couldn't place the voice at all, it might have been a man's or a woman's. It had a sort of whistling sound in it as if the person had got asthma."

"Talking through a comb," suggested Allison.

"I hadn't thought of that! You're probably right," he agreed. "Anyway, the person said that if I was at the Croft House, Warley, Sussex, at eleven-thirty, punctually, that night, I would meet the writer of the anonymous letters."

"So I left London that night directly I was done with my last case, got down just before eleven and parked my car right up on the downs. Then I walked down to the house as quietly as I could, found a good spot just across the road and lay down to wait. You see, I guessed the person'd turn up to wait for me, since the house looked empty and I meant to have a look at 'em first.
But then I saw a light moving inside the house."

"My light!"
"Yes. So I started to get into the garden and investigate, when I saw someone climbing in through the open window. So I thought it'd be a good idea to climb in too, and surprise 'em, as they'd be expecting me to arrive by the door. Anyway, I got in and the next thing I knew was your hand in my face and a terrific yell."

Allison look at him curiously. "But why didn't you tell me right off? I mean your name and why you were there?"

"Because I was such a complete and utterly blind fool that I thought that you might have something to do with it!"

"With the anonymous letters?"
"Yes. Or the telephone call. I felt in my bones that you were telling me the truth, of course, but—well,
I didn't know what they were playing at, and I didn't mean to be caught. That's why I couldn't tell you I'd a car and take you into Warley and that's the reason I wanted you to wait upstairs, I didn't mean them to catch us together. You see, those letters had practically accused me of causing the Trevor girl to disappear and I thought they might be trying it again. I tell you,
I was a blind fool!"

"Not a bit," contradicted Allison.
"I think it was rather natural after what you'd been through."

"Not to anyone who'd seen you," retorted Guy. "I ought to have known—but anyway, that's what I did think. So when you were in bed I went through all the drawers in that desk, to see if I could find out who owned the house."

(Copyright, 1935, Evelyn M. Winch)

Allison and Guy begin, tomorrow, a race against time.

Many railroads have no private credit. They cannot put up collateral to finance further government loans. So Mr. Jones thinks it is time for them to be sensible. He has strong support for his stand from influential but unimpeachable sources.
He may need it in view of the opposition of insurance companies and savings banks.

STUBBORN: Cordell Hull is playing in a cage game with Russia. He would like to settle all problems of debts and trade but he doesn't intend to be outsmarted by the Soviet. Moscow breeds a slow, wary kind of trader and so do the Tennessee mountains where the Secretary of State was born.

Mr. Hull recently signed a reciprocal tariff agreement with Brazil which cut in half our duty on man-ganese ore. Russian exporters immediately sought to take advantage of the reduction under the most-favored-nation clause. But Mr. Hull gently told them that the clause was inoperative so far as the Soviet was concerned. There is no sign that the stubborn Cordell will change his mind.

surgents as Governor Olson of Minnesota and possibly Mayor LaGuardia of New York. Their enthusiasm for an insurgent movement seems to have cooled. At recent conferences they have concluded that there may be no place to go except the Democratic Party in 1936.

Mr. Farley has already counted Kingfish Long out—that is, out of the party. Gov. Talmadge of Georgia will be another trouble maker.
But his own state committee was maneuvered by Clark Howell into adopting endorsement of the New Deal. And Farley's Georgia scouts report that a Roosevelt slate of delegates will defeat Talmadge's any day in the week.

New York

By JAMES McMULLIN FIGHT: Steel men wish their customers would take them seriously when they insist they will maintain the present scale of wages, hours AND PRICES. Many of the customers seem to have their doubts about it. At any rate they are sitting persistently quiet and waiting for something to break.

The resulting decline in orders is one reason for the sharp tone of the Iron and Steel Institute's statement that the status quo will be preserved. It's hoped that emphasis will carry conviction. If it does not there's no telling what will happen. The lighter the business the heavier the temptation to consign code practices to the wastebasket and go on a price-cutting spree—a fact of which buyers are well aware.

If price cuts come wage cuts will follow—and then there would be the devil to pay. Steel workers are not so supremely satisfied with existing conditions that they will placidly swallow a reduction in their earnings—and plenty of people keep reminding them that they must fight at the first sign of a change for the worse.

INCONSISTENT: A keen New York observer remarks that consumers certainly have peculiar ideas.
Many of them favor higher wages and are inclined to be very critical of any company which tries to slash its payroll. Yet at the same time they want lower prices for the goods they buy and are likely to refuse to purchase unless they get them—thereby tending to force wages down.

Manufacturers concede that both these attitudes are natural even if contradictory. What irks them is that the average citizen doesn't seem to realize his inconsistency.

AMBITIOUS: FDR has left the Industrial and Business Conference for NRA Extension out on a limb.
Here they went to work and devised a plan to pull out the Blue Eagle and the President goes off on another tangent entirely. Their project to preserve the codes was far broader in scope than the NRA skeleton he asks for—and some of the boys feel he isn't as appreciative of their efforts as he might be.

The backbone of the Committee's plan was to summon the Governor and Attorneys-General of the 48 states into conference to agree on measures to be adopted by all states for the protection of NRA principles. Meanwhile the existing codes were to have been kept in effect for 90 days by general consent. It was felt that action by the states would eliminate all constitutional objections.

Informed New Yorkers agree that the plan was legally impeccable but rate it about as practical as a pair of rubber boots in the Sahara desert. They cannot imagine the authorities of all the states reaching a workable agreement on any formula of business regulation—let alone in a grace period of 90 days. They are confident that FDR will get much farther in the end by shooting at a less ambitious target for the present.

COALITION: The proposed political alliance between Republicans and conservative Democrats is like an automobile of the vintage of 1900—it's making plenty of noise but not much speed. Here are a couple of angles that intrigue New York:

Judge Pettengill—who resigned from the bench to help organize the movement—has quite a record for stirring up trouble. Back in 1924 he was one of the three Democratic leaders (the other two were Senator Harry Hawes of Missouri and the late Ed Moore of Ohio) who were chiefly responsible for stirring up the bitter convention fight on the Ku Klux issue. At the time Pettangill was running for Governor of Maine—unsuccessfully, as it turned out—and figured it would help him corral the French-Canadian vote if he blasted the daylight out of the Klan. It isn't likely that the judge can command much of a Democratic following.

Then there's the question why ex-Senator David Reed of Pennsilvania is so pepped up about coalition. Political sharps say the answer is that Pennsylvania—contrary to popular impression—is by no means sure to return to the Republican fold even if the GOP registers substantial gains elsewhere. Senator Gaffey has built up a remarkably efficient machine in a short time. He will have plenty of money to spend and knows how to spend it. The situation is very painful to wealthy Republican interests with whom Reed is friendly and they're grabbing at every straw which increases their chances of relief next year.

POTENT: President Roosevelt is credited with a smart move in be-littling before-hand the value of restricting government purchases to firms which adhere to NRA schedules of wages and hours. The public has been led to expect nothing and any progress that is made can be

SKYRIDE TOWER TUMBLES

With a deafening roar, the west tower of the Skyrise at the Chicago World's fair of 1933 and 1934 became a mass of twisted steel when it was blasted by dynamite at its base and toppled to the ground. The huge tower, weighing 3,400,000 pounds, is shown as it began to fall. (Associated Press Photo) emphasized accordingly.

It's true that trying to control industrial standards by this method is something like trying to steer the Normandie with a canoe paddle. But if the some restrictions can be made to apply to all purchases with funds advanced by PWA or some other government agency—which is not yet certain—the weapon might turn out to be far more potent than people expect.

(Copyright McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

Try Our Want Ads

Nazi Births Up 23.4 Per Cent; 'Just A Start'

Berlin, (AP)—Nazi leaders are dissatisfied with a 23.4 percent increase of births in 1934 over 1933 although they call it "an unexpectedly great and definite result of the national socialist population policy."

"That is just a start," Adolf Hiller's newspaper remarks tartly, "because it shows a birthrate of 18 per thousand, while the maintenance of the German vitality can only be insured by a continuous birthrate of 21 per thousand."

Nevertheless, it was with no little pride that these vital statistics were announced:

In 1934, there were 731,431 marriages; 1,181,179 living births, and 716,865 deaths.

The marriages exceeded those in 1933 by 100,279, and those in 1932
by 121,555, or 43.5 per cent.

Of those married in 1934, 224,- 619 couples were enabled to wed by government loans.

Birhs in 1934 exceeded those of 1933 by 224,205 or 23.4 per cent.
Illegitimate births fell to 4,000, or 2 per cent, compared to 9.0 per cent in 1933 and 10.2 before the war.

Of the legitimate births last year, about 130,000—or 58 per cent—were to couples married in 1933 with federal loans.

Another substantial increase in the birthrate is expected next year, because of the recent increases in marriages, and because the wedding loans are reduced by one-fourth for every child born.

THINKS FALL OF NRA (WILL SPUR BUSINESS)

Chicago, June 10.—(AP)—The fall of the NRA, Edgar Kobak, of New York, chairman of the board of the Advertising Federation of America, said yesterday, "is bound to be followed by an expansion of business."

He predicted a marked upturn for advertising media within the next three months as the federation's convention opened.

"The strong spirit of competition is just around the corner and headed this way," he said. "Funds will be released, without question, for competitive distribution of commodities—funds which have for a long time been hoarded by those who claimed they were held back by the federal codes."

Kobak, a vice president of the National Broadcasting Company, asserted what he termed the federal government's challenge to freedom of the press would undoubtedly be answered by the convention. He added that "any threat to freedom of freedom of the air, and of advertising."

I Am Selling Flues

The kind that Critcher makes which have always given perfect satisfaction, and will appreciate my friends patronage again this year.

I have decided to continue my business and will be at Forbes and Morton's Warehouse to serve the public with flues that fit and in any quantity that you may need.

A. H. Critcher

TOBACCO FLUES

At Dixie Warehouse

WE HAVE A COMPLETE STOCK ON HAND, ALL SIZES.

COME TO SEE US FOR LOWEST PRICES.

WE MAKE THEM BETTER

J. H. B. Moore Flue Co.

PHONE 386

SPEND JUST 10 Minutes in a PONTIAC

$615*

A General Motors Value

BEFORE YOU BUY ANY LOW-PRICED CAR

In fairness to yourself get the facts behind the widespread enthusiasm for the Silver Streak Pontiac before you invest in a new car. Spend just 10 minutes in the low-priced car America calls the most beautiful thing on wheels!

1. Triple-Sealed Hydraulic Brakes
2. Solid Steel "Turret-Top" Bodies by Fisher
3. Completely Sealed Chassis
4. Knee-Action on the Eight and De Luxe Six
5. Record-Breaking Economy
6. Full-Pressure Metered Flow Lubrication
7. The Most Beautiful Thing on Wheels
8. Patented Fisher Ventilation
9. Concealed Lugage and Spare Tire Compartment
10. Product of General Motors

*List prices at Pontiac, Mich., begin at $615 for the Six and $750 for the Eight (subject to change without notice). Standard group of accessories extra. Available on easy G. M. A. C. Time Payments.

HAZLEHURST MOTOR SALES

118-20 E. Third Street

Associate Dealer

JENKINS GARAGE

Phone 429

Ayden, N. C.

Social and Personal

Miss Katie Tunstall has returned from Durham where she spent the week-end.

Mrs. Dudley Robb of Lenoir, is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. H. Menefee.

Mrs. J. F. Davenport has returned from Enfield where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Gus Neville, Jr.

Miss Elizabeth Phelps was at home from Raleigh for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Morton, Miss Frances Morton and Billy Morton left today for Atlantic Beach to spend the summer.

Miss Julia Brown left today for a visit in Aberdeen.

Misses Victoria Vincent, Nellie Moore and niece, and Lissie Hart and Casper Galloway left today for Washington, D. C., to spend several days with relatives.

Mrs. John Flanagan of Rocky Mount, spent yesterday with her mother, Mrs. W. I. Skinner.

Immanuel Baptist T. E. L. Class. The T. E. L. Class of Immanuel Baptist Church will meet Friday evening at eight o'clock with Mrs. P. A. Mixon on Jarvis street. Mrs. G. G. Seago will be assisting hostess.

Attending Meeting Pythian Lodge. A. B. Ellington and S. O. Worthington are in Charlotte attending a meeting of the Pythian Grand Lodge. Mr. Ellington has been a member of the finance committee for over twenty-five years, and Mr. Worthington is a past grand chancellor.

Leave For Davidson. Miss Mary Council Horne and Harvey Deal left today for Davidson. They will attend the Synod Conference for Young People as delegates of the Senior Young People's Society of the local Presbyterian Church.

Mr. Conley Recovers. Friends will be glad to know that D. H. Conley has recovered from a recent illness.

Mr. Morton Recovers. Friends of S. V. Morton, Jr., will be glad to learn that he has recovered and is out after several days illness.

Birth Announcement. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Neville, Jr., of Enfield, announce the birth of a daughter, Lela Katherine, on Sunday, June 9, 1935. Mrs. Neville was formerly Miss Lela Davenport of this city.

Noter, High School Students. All high school students desiring to take high school work for the summer will meet Wednesday and Thursday morning at the high school library at 9:30 o'clock. This work will be without charge. J. H. ROSE, Supt.

First Church of Christ, Scientist. "God the Only Cause and Creator" was the subject of the lesson-lesson in all churches and societies of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, June 9th.

The golden text was from Acts 15:18: "Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world."

Among the citations which comprised the lesson sermon was the following from the Bible: "Drop down, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness; let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the Lord have created it. Unto him that striveth with his Maker. Let the potsherd strive with the potsherd of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioned it, 'What makest thou?' or thy work, 'He hath no hands?' (Isaiah 45:9-10).

The lesson sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Mortals are egoists. They believe themselves to be independent workers, personal authors, and even privileged originators of something which Deth would not or could not create. The creations of mortal mind are material."

"Immortal spiritual man alone represents the truth of creation. When mortal man blends his thoughts of existence with the spiritual and works only as God works, he will no longer grope in the dark and cling to earth because he has not tasted heaven."

SAY SALESMEN NOT WITH ROBBER GANG. Florence, S. C., June 11—(AP)—Florence police said last night an investigation had failed to connect the late Nick Saleeby and his son, Mitchell, with a gang of thieves, of which three Negroes told a North Carolina court at Fayetteville they were the "brains."

The Negroes, Rufus Brington, Frank Gaddy and Kerry Singletary, testified while on trial for larceny that Nick Saleeby, of Florence, who committed suicide May 31, had engineered a robbery at Fayetteville. They also implicated Mitchell Saleeby, who is serving a term in Sumter county for liquor law violation,

Social Calendar

TUESDAY
7:30 p. m.—Witha Council No. 43 Degree of Pocahontas will meet.

8:00 p. m.—The Choral Club will meet in the auditorium of Sheppard Memorial Library.

WEDNESDAY
7:30 p. m.—The choir of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church will meet for rehearsal.

THURSDAY
12:30 noon—Mrs. W. H. Taft and Mrs. M. B. Massey will entertain at luncheon at the home of Mrs. Taft, honoring Miss Louise Winslow, bride-elect.

8:00 p. m.—Circle No. 2 of the Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian Church will meet with Miss Cornelia Manning.

FRIDAY
8:00 p. m.—The T. E. L. Class of Immanuel Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. P. A. Mixon. Assisting hostess Mrs. P. G. Seago.

Mrs. Britt In Hospital.
Friends of Mrs. Otis Britt will be sorry to learn that she is ill in Pitt Community Hospital.

Miss Tunstall At Home.
Friends of Miss Mamie Ruth Tunstall will be glad to learn that she is very much improved and has returned from Durham where she has been in Duke Hospital.

Miss Nagle At College.
Miss Louise Nagle, who joined the music faculty of East Carolina Teachers College the first of the year and has taken an active part in the music life of the community since then, will give piano lessons in the college during the first term of the summer school.

Miss Nagle is a graduate of Peabody Conservatory, of Baltimore and came straight from there here. She has made an enviable reputation both as a pianist and as a teacher of piano since she arrived here last winter.

Leave For Norfolk.
Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Smoot left yesterday for Norfolk, Va., where Mrs. Smoot will enter the hospital.

BADLY WOUNDS SELF IN SUICIDE ATTEMPT
Sanford, June 11—L. J. Jackson, 27, white man of Lemon Springs, is a patient in Lee County Hospital with a badly wounded left arm as a result of a self-inflicted wound with a shotgun on Sunday morning while alone at his home. The discharge tearing away the muscles of the upper arm. According to reports it is thought that the shooting was with suicidal intent, and that the man was aiming at his heart. It is said that Jackson had been drinking heavily recently. Unless complications develop his recovery is expected. The man has a wife and children.

VICTIM OF ACCIDENT BURIED AT EDENTON
Edenton, June 11.—Funeral services for Wilbert Russell, 25, who was killed in a motor accident near Portsmouth, Va., yesterday morning were held this afternoon from the home of his father, Charles F. Russell, 406 North Broad Street, here. Rev. E. L. Wells of the Baptist Church officiated and interment followed in Beaver Hill cemetery.

Young Russell, a companion of the late Wilbert, a nearby farmer, had been spending Saturday night in Norfolk and was returning to Edenton as they approached Deep Creek village after crossing the bridge it is believed they could not take the curve at the high speed they were said to be traveling. Their car swerved from the road and ran into a tree. Russell was crushed to death and Wilkins was taken to the Kings Daughter's Hospital at Portsmouth where slight injuries were patched up and he was afterward able to return home. Coroner Cascoe made an investigation and reported death as attributable to an accident with an automobile operated at a rapid rate of speed.

MISSING RINGS FOUND. WERE IN TOE OF SHOE
Durham, June 11.—The mystery of the disappearance of two valuable rings here has been explained. They were in the toe of one of the shoes of their owner.

A visiting fireman, Morris H. Clarke of the Washington, D. C. department, came to Durham on April 27 and lost the rings, a wedding band and an engagement ring, both studded with diamonds.

He registered at a local hotel on that date, checked out on the following day, and upon his return to the nation's capital discovered the jewelry was missing.

Local police were notified, and an investigation was launched. Hotel maids were submitted to intensive questioning. Bell-hops were suspected. Even a heavy carpet of the hotel was ripped away in the search for the rings.

Yesterday police heard from Fireman Clarke. He had recovered his rings. Officers were thanked for their strenuous efforts and kindly indulgence.

Paul Whiteman and Orchestra, at Atlantic Beach Casino, Saturday and Sunday June 15th-16th

EURE SEEKS STATE POST

Winton Man Announces His Candidacy For Secretary of State of N. C.

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.

By J. C. BASKERVILLE.

Raleigh, June 11.—A spirited campaign for the Democratic nomination for Secretary of State is in prospect as the result of the formal announcement issued today by Thad Eure of Winton and Raleigh that he is a candidate for the nomination in the primary next June. Last Saturday M. R. (Mike) Dunnagan, local newspaper correspondent, issued the announcement of his candidacy for this office. Secretary of State Stacey W. Wade, the present incumbent, has not yet issued any formal announcement with regard to his intentions, but all indications are that he is already busy running for re-nomination next June. As a result, an interesting three-cornered race for this office is in prospect.

Of the three, Wade is regarded as having had more political experience, having twice been nominated and elected Commissioner of Insurance and once having been elected Secretary of State. Dunnagan has never been a candidate for public office before, but has been active in the councils of the Democratic party for many years. He also has the advantage of being well known in most sections of the state as a result of his writings as a newspaper correspondent. Dunnagan served for more than a year as personal secretary to former Governor A. W. McLean and has served in two campaigns as publicity man for the State Democratic Executive Committee.

The belief in most circles here, however, is that Eure is going to cause both Wade and Dunnagan plenty of trouble in the campaign and that at the present time he seems to have the best chance of the three to win the nomination, although it is conceded that the three-cornered campaign will probably be closed. But the fact that Eure has been principal clerk of the house in the last three sessions of the general assembly and served as a member of the house in the 1929 assembly is regarded as being distinctly in his favor. For it is agreed that Eure has universally popular with the members of every assembly in which he has served either as a member or as principal clerk. It is no secret that a large proportion of the members of the house and of the senate of this last legislature regarded Eure as a prospective candidate for Secretary of State before the end of the session, and that many of them pledged him their support. It is also agreed that Eure has some very strong supporters among the members of the 1929, 1931 and 1933 general assemblies, with the result that he can already count on the support of several prominent and influential Democrats in almost every county in the state.

Still another factor regarded as being in Eure's favor is that in his work as Executive Officer for the University of North Carolina the past two years, this work has taken him into almost every county in the state and has brought him in contact with many county officials, which in turn has won him many friends in circles outside of members of the general assembly.

The announcement issued by Eure today was brief, as are most of those which are being issued this year, and is as follows:

"Without solicitation from anyone, I desire to serve the people of North Carolina and have filed with the State Board of Elections notice of my candidacy together with the fee and pledge required to enter the forthcoming Democratic primary for nomination to this office. Coming from an humble home, without wide political influences and being without funds to conduct a money campaign, I can only submit my desire to my loyal friends throughout the state and to the new friends I am confident they will make for me."

"Molder" by Winifred Duke: Miss Duke devotes a book to the task of explaining why Mr. Bruce murdered Mrs. Bruce, and what the act did to him; not a mystery.

"Beauty's Daughter" by Kathleen Norris: Mrs. Norris writes her 50-umpth novel, mostly about love and holding love.

"Kneel To The Rising Sun" by Erskine Caldwell: One of the leading writers of the lowly fiction writes a group of short stories, some very fine; the title story is being dramatized.

"The Fruit Stoppers" by Alceon Blackwood: Amusing fantasy about a girl and the curious creatures carved from fruit stones, like "Alice in Wonderland." It is for the sensitive of any age.

"Lives of a Woman" by Baroness von Hutten: The rich life of Jeanie Birdwell, who had five sets of children by four husbands and a lover and communicated the wisdom she accumulated to them.

"An Eastern Odyssey" by Georges Le Peuvre: The story of a back-breaking trek from Beirut to "eking by motor, through dust storms, over snow, across the Himalayas through bandits' fire, one of the best travel adventure books of the season.

"A History of Europe" by H. A. L. Fisher: The first installment of a three volume work written with beautiful clarity and warmth; this book stops with the fall of Constantinople.

NEW BOOKS

By JOHN SELBY
For some weeks, the publishers of "Paths of Glory" have been giving Humphrey Cobb's novel what the publicity fraternity calls a "build-up."

A large number of more or less qualified judges have read the book, with unanimous praises therefor. Much advertising attends its publication; if it is not a best seller, it will be because the public is definitely tired of war books.

It is to be hoped the public is not too weary of blood and thunder to like "Paths of Glory." The first part is perhaps a little slow to take off. It describes the 181st French regiment coming exhausted out of the trenches, and the reason why it is sent directly back into them. The reason is that a blunder has led headquarters to announce that a certain position has been taken, and the commander has asked General Assolant to make the announcement good, rather than tell the truth.

Assolant sees great honor for himself if he succeeds. The 181st, being fine soldiers, take the brunt of the attack. The attack fails, and at that point Mr. Cobb's book leaves off being "good" and in the opinion of many, becomes "great." Assolant's frustrated rage, his determination to make the 181st the scapegoat, his insane demand that each company commander choose one of his men for a court-martial certain to return a death sentence—these are shattering pages.

And the three men chosen, as they realize little by little their fate build one of the finest scenes in recent fiction. Mr. Cobb's carefully restrained prose is responsible for most of the effect.

"Molder" by Winifred Duke: Miss Duke devotes a book to the task of explaining why Mr. Bruce murdered Mrs. Bruce, and what the act did to him; not a mystery.

"Beauty's Daughter" by Kathleen Norris: Mrs. Norris writes her 50-umpth novel, mostly about love and holding love.

"Kneel To The Rising Sun" by Erskine Caldwell: One of the leading writers of the lowly fiction writes a group of short stories, some very fine; the title story is being dramatized.

"The Fruit Stoppers" by Alceon Blackwood: Amusing fantasy about a girl and the curious creatures carved from fruit stones, like "Alice in Wonderland." It is for the sensitive of any age.

"Lives of a Woman" by Baroness von Hutten: The rich life of Jeanie Birdwell, who had five sets of children by four husbands and a lover and communicated the wisdom she accumulated to them.

"An Eastern Odyssey" by Georges Le Peuvre: The story of a back-breaking trek from Beirut to "eking by motor, through dust storms, over snow, across the Himalayas through bandits' fire, one of the best travel adventure books of the season.

"A History of Europe" by H. A. L. Fisher: The first installment of a three volume work written with beautiful clarity and warmth; this book stops with the fall of Constantinople.

"Molder" by Winifred Duke: Miss Duke devotes a book to the task of explaining why Mr. Bruce murdered Mrs. Bruce, and what the act did to him; not a mystery.

"Beauty's Daughter" by Kathleen Norris: Mrs. Norris writes her 50-umpth novel, mostly about love and holding love.

"Kneel To The Rising Sun" by Erskine Caldwell: One of the leading writers of the lowly fiction writes a group of short stories, some very fine; the title story is being dramatized.

"The Fruit Stoppers" by Alceon Blackwood: Amusing fantasy about a girl and the curious creatures carved from fruit stones, like "Alice in Wonderland." It is for the sensitive of any age.

"Lives of a Woman" by Baroness von Hutten: The rich life of Jeanie Birdwell, who had five sets of children by four husbands and a lover and communicated the wisdom she accumulated to them.

"An Eastern Odyssey" by Georges Le Peuvre: The story of a back-breaking trek from Beirut to "eking by motor, through dust storms, over snow, across the Himalayas through bandits' fire, one of the best travel adventure books of the season.

"A History of Europe" by H. A. L. Fisher: The first installment of a three volume work written with beautiful clarity and warmth; this book stops with the fall of Constantinople.

"Molder" by Winifred Duke: Miss Duke devotes a book to the task of explaining why Mr. Bruce murdered Mrs. Bruce, and what the act did to him; not a mystery.

"Beauty's Daughter" by Kathleen Norris: Mrs. Norris writes her 50-umpth novel, mostly about love and holding love.

"Kneel To The Rising Sun" by Erskine Caldwell: One of the leading writers of the lowly fiction writes a group of short stories, some very fine; the title story is being dramatized.

"The Fruit Stoppers" by Alceon Blackwood: Amusing fantasy about a girl and the curious creatures carved from fruit stones, like "Alice in Wonderland." It is for the sensitive of any age.

"Lives of a Woman" by Baroness von Hutten: The rich life of Jeanie Birdwell, who had five sets of children by four husbands and a lover and communicated the wisdom she accumulated to them.

"An Eastern Odyssey" by Georges Le Peuvre: The story of a back-breaking trek from Beirut to "eking by motor, through dust storms, over snow, across the Himalayas through bandits' fire, one of the best travel adventure books of the season.

"A History of Europe" by H. A. L. Fisher: The first installment of a three volume work written with beautiful clarity and warmth; this book stops with the fall of Constantinople.

Brown Presents Paper To Notes

Last night the Greenville Rotary Club met at their club building on Rotary avenue for their regular weekly dinner meeting. A paper written by Moses H. Douglas was presented by Wyatt Brown. The paper dealt with the traditional neutrality of the United States and its significance in view of certain anti-Japanese influences operating in our country instigated, in the opinion of the author, by European nations to secure feeling in the United States which will secure our cooperation in securing for interested European nations the trade interests of Japan.

Guests of the club were Rev. J. R. Potts and a visiting Rotarian from Washington, Rev. "Steve" Gardner. The attendance prize given by Dr. John Winstead, was won by Ollie VanNortwick. Herbert ReBarker, president of the club, presided.

Santa Clara loses three of its brightest, 1934 gridiron stars by graduation: Halfback Frank Soberro, Guard Louis Spadefore, and End Jim Americh.

COMMISSIONER'S SALE OF LAND
Under and by virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Pitt County, made in the Special Proceeding entitled "Frank Wilson, Administrator of W. B. Wilson, deceased, vs. Lizzie B. Wilson, Widow, and Francis Q. Wilson and others, heirs-at-law of W. B. Wilson, deceased," the same being No. 3514 under the Special Proceeding docket of said court, the undersigned commissioner will on Saturday, July 6th, 1935 at 12 o'clock Noon before the court house door in Greenville, N. C., offer for sale to the highest bidder for cash those certain lots or parcels of land lying and being just south of the corporate limits of the town of Greenville, N. C., in that suburban section known as the "Bama," said lots being more specifically described as follows:

1st PARCEL: Beginning at a point on the west side of Pitt Street, 100 feet southerly from the southwest corner of Pitt and Mill Streets, and runs thence in a westerly course at right angles from Pitt Street 100 feet; thence in a southerly direction, parallel with Pitt Street, 50 feet; thence in an easterly direction, parallel with first line, 100 feet to Pitt Street; thence in a northerly direction with the west side of Pitt Street 50 feet to the beginning, upon which is located a small dwelling house, it being a portion of that property described in the deed from Frank Wilson and wife to W. B. Wilson, Jr., dated Feb. 19, 1909, duly registered in Book S-8 at page 533 of Pitt County Registry.

2nd PARCEL: On the west side of Pitt Street, beginning at a stake in J. F. Davenport's southeast corner on Pitt Street, said stake being on the west side of Pitt Street 250 feet southerly from the southwest intersection of Pitt and Mill Streets; thence in a southerly direction with the western boundary of Pitt Street 50 feet to a stake; thence in a westerly direction at right angles from Pitt Street about 100 feet to McClellan Street; thence in a northerly direction with the eastern boundary of McClellan Street 50 feet; thence in an easterly direction at right angles from McClellan Street about 100 feet to Pitt Street; the beginning it being the same property conveyed by A. L. Potter and wife, Naisy Potter, to W. B. Wilson, Jr. by deed dated July 10, 1915, duly registered in Book C-11 at page 182 of Pitt County Registry.

3rd PARCEL: Beginning at the southeast corner of Pitt and Mill Streets, and runs thence in a southerly direction with the eastern boundary of Pitt Street 52 feet; thence in an easterly direction, parallel with Mill Street, 110 feet; thence in a northerly direction, parallel with Pitt Street, 52 feet to the south side of Mill Street; thence in a westerly direction with the south side of Mill Street 110 feet to the beginning, the same being a part of the land conveyed by W. H. Dail and wife, Mary B. Dail, to W. B. Wilson, Jr. by deed dated Dec. 10, 1913, duly registered in Book R-10, at page 211 of Pitt County Registry.

4th PARCEL: Beginning on the east side of Pitt St., at a point located 102 feet southerly from the southeast corner of Mill and Pitt Streets, and runs thence in a southerly direction with the east side of Pitt Street 198 feet to a stake; thence in an easterly direction at right angles to Pitt Street 110 feet; thence in a northerly direction, parallel with Pitt Street, 50 feet; thence in an

1. Copied
2. Wild hog
3. Cease:
4. nautical
5. Hub of a wheel
6. Advantageous
7. Rubbed out
8. Dashed
9. Short for a man's name
10. Any of several long-legged birds
11. Guiding strap of a harness
12. Pigeon
13. Musical study
14. Vigor; slang
15. By
16. Nourished
17. Any measured or regular beat
18. Ireland
19. Edged tool
20. Scatter
21. Immerse suddenly
22. Sacred image
23. Minute
24. Wild animal
25. Kind of moose leather used for binding books
26. Mountain chain
27. Egyptian god
28. Easy gait
29. Stanza
30. English letter
31. Entirely
32. Top piece of a spire

33. Those who watch closely
34. Kind of rubber
35. Got away from
36. Adjust again
37. River bottom
38. Draft animal
39. Part of a church
40. Cooking formula
41. Manner
42. Those who collect and remove refuse
43. First Vice President to succeed to the Presidency
44. Behold

45. Sufficiently cooked
46. Burst forth violently
47. Rent asunder
48. Think
49. Dared
50. Stake once used as a dummy in sword practice
51. Be unsuccessful
52. Possession of unusually good qualities
53. Took oath
54. Impolite
55. Break suddenly
56. Historical period
57. Rounded convex molding
58. Female horses
59. Born
60. Web-footed birds
61. Musical instrument
62. Landed property
63. Pertaining to bees
64. Swine
65. Speed contests
66. At no time; contrary
67. Mountain in Utah
68. God of love
69. City in France
70. Donkey
71. Lair
72. Symbol for calcium
73. Behold

Daily Cross Word Puzzle

ACROSS

1. Copied
2. Wild hog
3. Cease:
4. nautical
5. Hub of a wheel
6. Advantageous
7. Rubbed out
8. Dashed
9. Short for a man's name
10. Any of several long-legged birds
11. Guiding strap of a harness
12. Pigeon
13. Musical study
14. Vigor; slang
15. By
16. Nourished
17. Any measured or regular beat
18. Ireland
19. Edged tool
20. Scatter
21. Immerse suddenly
22. Sacred image
23. Minute
24. Wild animal
25. Kind of moose leather used for binding books
26. Mountain chain
27. Egyptian god
28. Easy gait
29. Stanza
30. English letter
31. Entirely
32. Top piece of a spire

DOWN

1. Fresh
2. Kind of rubber
3. Got away from
4. Adjust again
5. River bottom
6. Draft animal
7. Part of a church
8. Cooking formula
9. Manner
10. Those who collect and remove refuse
11. First Vice President to succeed to the Presidency
12. Behold

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

TAN MADAM PEG
AGE EPODE ROE
PORK TROMBONE
VICE ROOT BRETHREN LEST RA SOAR RECUR
ELM SLICE TRA
ELODE CANS ED
DYNE HARDWARE
HERSE ESAU
HESITATE GNAM
ERE EVERY TRY WAS TERSE SEE

Itching of ATHLETES' FOOT Relieved in 5 minutes

Kurto

ALLOW TO DRY 5 MINUTES

If all pain, itching and discomfort have not completely disappeared, ASK FOR YOUR MONEY BACK

PITT DRUG CO.
Phone 75

666 checks MALARIA in 3 days COLD first day. TONIC and LAXATIVE

Liquid - Tablets and Salve-Nose Drops

Was Weak, Easily Worried
"I felt weak, tired and very nervous," writes Mrs. Clifford Wehnt, of Smyrna, Ga. "It seemed like everything worried me. Children got on my nerves with their noise at play. My mother had given me Cardui when I was just a girl for run-down condition, and I was better from taking it, so I decided when so nervous and weak that this was the time to take Cardui again. It surely did help me. I am stronger and my nerves are better."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician. (Adv.)

Truck Special

1933 Ford V-8, short wheel base, stake body, dual tires..... $385

1933 Ford V-8, short wheel base, stake body..... $350

1933 Ford 4-Cylinder, long wheel base, stake body..... $295

1930 long wheel base..... $225

1930 short wheel base..... $195

2-1930 Pick-up Trucks..... $150

TERMS TERMS

JOHN FLANAGAN BUGGY CO.
GREENVILLE, N. C.

Atlantic Beach Casino

PAUL WHITEMAN

In Person, With Group of 45 Musicians and Artists

Dance Saturday Night, June 15th

Sunday Afternoon Concert, June 16th 3:15 to 5:15

W. L. BEST, Opt. D.
Complete Eye Examination
FITTING OF GLASSES

WE GUARANTEE JEWELRY REPAIRING WATCH REPAIRING—Engraving—Reasonable Prices LAUTARES

W. M. B. BROWN, M. D.
Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Examination For Glasses
319-325 National Bank Bldg.
Office Hours: 9-12:30; 2-4
Wednesday 9-1

THERE'S A SMARTNESS and style about a Vanitie Boxe permanent that isn't found in the ordinary wave! Ask the woman who has one!

If you didn't like your last wave—may we suggest you make an appointment here for your next one!—you'll be delighted!

YOURS FOR THE ASKING
A Facial Treatment will work wonders these hot days! They're not only restful—but they're real protection for your skin! We have an expert with us this week who will be glad to give you a Restful Facial without charge! Won't you call us—or come in?

Step up—and have a dram of your favorite Perfume! The very best the market affords!

Vanitie Boxe
GREENVILLE, N. C.

WANT ADS PAY

TARBORO IS EASY MEAT FOR LOCALS

Tarboro was shoved deeper into the Coastal Plain league cellar when they were handed a 5-2 licking by the Greens on the Third Street school athletic field here yesterday afternoon before a crowd that saw Pete Naktens stage one of the greatest pitching exhibitions ever seen here.

For over six innings the tall Duke left-hander virtually had the cellars eating out of his hands, striking out nine and causing the remainder to either hit feebly to the outfield or pop up in a hopeless effort to do something better. In the seventh, however, he became wild and his inability to find the plate resulted in "Chubby" Dean being sent to his relief with the bases about loaded and everything looking anything but rosy. But "Chubby," whose control is perfect in tight places, checked the Tarboro forward rush after two runs had been scored off Naktens. It was the old Dean in action—the old left-hander who the past two seasons played such an important part in Greenville capturing the circuit flag.

It was the first time Naktens had been given an opportunity to show his speed ball on this circuit, and fans who saw him are confident he is going to play an important part in Greenville's spectacular fight to retain the pennant again this season. The big boy not only can pitch, but is something of a power with the stick. One of his blows should have gone for three bases yesterday, but the Tarboro center-fielder pulled a stunt he couldn't pull again in a lifetime by racing far back into the garden and pulling down one-handed a scorching drive which should have gone for three bags or the circuit in anybody's ball game.

All Greenville's runs came off Halabrow, who pitched six innings and gave nine hits. Murreyman, who followed, hurled hitless ball during his two-inning assignment.

The Greens counted twice in the second, on a triple by Parker, a single by Andy Johnson, a walk, and a single by Bostic. Two more were added in the third when Wagner doubled and Andy Johnson singled after one man had been safe on an error.

Andy Johnson doubled in the fifth, and scored on a single by Manager Bo Farley.

Nelson, shortstop, shone for Tarboro. He hit a double and three singles to bat 1,000 and to account for two thirds of his club's hits. Andy Johnson, with a double and two singles, and Bostic, with two singles, led the Greens.

Greenville went to Tarboro today where they are due to have another win and more firmly entrench themselves in the tie for second place with Williamston and Goldsboro. Tomorrow New Bern, the league leaders are scheduled to come here and the half holiday crowd more than likely will have the chance of seeing one of the greatest battles of the season. New Bern has won four and lost only one game so far this season and it is certain they will send their best to the mound to attempt to add Greenville to the beaten lot.

In view of the half holiday it is expected the largest crowd of the season will turn out tomorrow to see the battle between two of the strongest clubs of the eight club outfit.

TARBORO	AB	R	H	O	A	E
Bassin, cf	3	0	0	0	0	0
McAvoy, 3b	5	0	0	0	4	0
Charches, 2b	4	0	0	0	1	0
Nelson, ss	4	0	0	0	1	0
Burnette, rf	3	0	0	1	0	0
Laughon, lf	3	0	0	5	0	0
Averette, cf	3	1	0	0	0	0
Cobb, 1b	3	1	0	0	0	0
McArthur, c	3	1	0	0	0	0
Halabrow, p	2	0	0	0	0	0
Murreyman, p	1	0	0	0	0	0
Parmer, X	0	0	0	0	0	0
Willis, XX	1	0	1	0	0	0
Young, XXX	0	0	0	0	0	0

TOTALS: 33 2 6 24 7 1
X—Hit for Halabrow in 7th inning.
XX—Hit for Bassin in 7th inning.
XXX—Ran for Willis in 7th inning.

GREENVILLE	AB	R	H	O	A	E
Bostic, ss	5	0	2	2	1	0
Ambler, 2b	4	0	1	5	1	0
Hulkamp, cf	5	1	0	0	0	0
Wagner, c	4	1	1	1	2	0
Parker, lf	4	1	1	0	0	0
Johnson, 1b	4	2	3	3	1	0
Farley, 3b	3	0	1	1	0	0
Cox, rf	2	0	0	2	0	0
Sullivan, rf	0	0	0	0	0	0
Naktens, p	2	0	0	1	0	0
Dean, p	1	0	0	0	1	0

TOTALS: 34 5 9 27 4 0
Score: R H E
Tarboro: 000 000 200—2 6 1
Greenville: 022 010 00x—5 9 0
Summary: Runs batted in Willis 2, Johnson 2, Bostic, Wagner. Two base hits: Nelson, McArthur, Willis, Ambler, Wagner, Johnson. Three base hit—Parker. Stolen bases: Hulkamp 2, Johnson 2. Left on base: Halabrow 2, off Murreyman 1, off Naktens 5, Dean 0. Struck out by Halabrow 0, by Murreyman 0, by Naktens 9, by Dean 4. Hits off Halabrow 9 in 6 innings; Murreyman 0 in two innings; Naktens 4 in 6-13 in 1-3 innings; Dean 2 in 2-3 innings. Hit by pitcher: Cox by Halabrow twice. Wild pitches: Halabrow 1, Naktens 1. Losing pitcher: Halabrow, winning pitcher: Naktens. Earned runs: Greenville 5, Tarboro 2. Umpire: Morgan. Time: 1:50.

COASTAL PLAIN LEAGUE

	W	L	Pct.
New Bern	4	1	.800
Greenville	4	2	.667
Williamston	4	2	.667
Goldsboro	4	2	.667
Snow Hill	3	3	.500
Ayden	2	3	.400
Kinston	2	4	.333
Tarboro	0	6	.000

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

New Bern 7, Snow Hill 5.
Goldsboro 10, Kinston 6.
Greenville 5, Tarboro 2.
Williamston 1, Ayden 0.

Williamston Beats Ayden

Williamston, June 11.—Lefty Upchurch held Williamston to two hits yesterday—but he dropped a 1-0 decision to John Gady in the second round duel for play this far in the Coastal Plain League.

Henry House hit a double and Gady hit a single to account for the Martins' hits off the former Piedmont League flinger, but neither of the safeties figured in the scoring.

Fast work on the bases by House decided the contest and brought the game's only run. House drew a walk to open the seventh, went all the way to third on Leary's sacrifice, and registered when Johnson let Gillespie's bunt get away.

Gaddy, former Wake Forest star, gave five hits but he kept them widely separated. He had better control than Upchurch and his strikeout ball was working in nifty fashion. Gaddy fanned an even dozen; Upchurch fanned one. Gaddy walked only one, and his southpaw rival walked three.

So well did Gaddy hold the Aydenites in check that only in the ninth did the visitors get more than one runner on base. Two singles started a rally in the final inning, but the Martin flinger bore down and checked the threat.

Score: R H E
Ayden: 000 000 000—0 5 3
Williamston: 000 000 10x—1 2 1
Upchurch and Smith; Gaddy and Gillespie.

Bears Win In Sixth

Snow Hill, June 11.—New Bern's Bears retained their place on the league pinnacle and dropped Snow Hill to the second division by taking a 7-5 victory here today.

A five-run party in the sixth inning enabled the visitors to overcome a 5-2 deficit and gain the decision.

Three doubles and three singles were batted by the Bears in their big inning. Eason opened with a double, and Van Horn duplicated to score Eason. Norwood singled. Billy Perebee popped out, but Staton doubled to send in two runs. Androlo fanned. Emmett Perebee singled, stole second, and came home on Webb's single.

Griffin—with a homer, a triple, and a single for four trips—accounted for half of the local's hits off the flinging of Sanderlin and Androlo. Emmett Perebee, with three for five, was best for Chick Doak's New Bernians.
Score: R H E
New Bern: 100 015 000—7 13 0
Snow Hill: 201 200 000—5 6 1
Sanderlin, Androlo and Staton; Sivley, Briggs and Parrish.

Bugs Defeat Kinston

Kinston, June 11.—Goldsboro defeated Kinston, 10-6, today by hitting at the right time in five innings.

Jim Fogleman, former Piedmont Leaguer, started for Kinston but retired in the second. The Goldsbugs had counted two runs in the first and Fogleman had shown signs of wildness in the second.

Four runs were chased across the plate in the second stanza by Tick Poole's visitors. They resulted from four errors, a walk, and two hits. Two of the errors were credited to Fogleman.

Kinston tallied three in the fifth—on Red Hayworth's homer with two on bases.
Shortstop Kurdy and Second Baseman Libby hit homers for Goldsboro, each coming with a man on.

Brax Rhodes, Wake Forest flinger pitched for the winners.
Taylor, Kinston hurler, made three hits in four tries to lead the Eagles. Vick, local centerfielder, made a sensational catch for the fielding feature.

Score: R H E
Goldsboro: 240 019 021—10 9 3
Kinston: 001 130 010—6 9 5
Rhodes and Johnson; Fogleman, Taylor and Strayhorn.

Today's Games

Tuesday, June 11—Greenville at Tarboro.
Snow Hill at New Bern.
Williamston at Ayden.
Kinston at Goldsboro.

Wednesday, June 12—
New Bern at Greenville.
Ayden at Kinston.
Goldsboro at Williamston.
Tarboro at Snow Hill.

Thursday, June 13—Greenville at New Bern.
Snow Hill at Tarboro.
Kinston at Ayden.
Williamston at Goldsboro.

Friday, June 14—
Goldsboro at Greenville.
Tarboro at Kinston.
New Bern at Williamston.
Ayden at Snow Hill.

New York Cotton

New York, June 11.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened quiet, two to four higher on better Liverpool cables and trade buying with offerings light. October sold off from 11.30 to 11.25 and the market held within a point or two either way of the previous closing levels.

After easing to net losses of one to four points, prices recovered slightly on local and New Orleans buying. At midday the market was one to three points net higher.

Futures closed steady three lower to five higher.

	Open	Close	Prv Cl.
May	11.60	11.56	11.38
July	11.29	11.26	11.56
Oct	11.30	11.25	11.25
Dec	11.31	11.28	11.28
Jan	11.37	11.37	11.29
Mar	11.42	11.53	11.34

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, June 11.—(AP)—Buyers still held the stock market fort today and sellers showed little disposition to rush the parapets.

The metals pushed up in response to a meeting of the senate silver bloc which considered ways and means of stimulating the government purchasing program.

A variety of preferred issues and dividend paying specialties were also in demand. Scattered rails, oils and utilities were in favor. The activity was more pronounced than in yesterday's dull proceedings. Grains and cotton were enigmatic. Secondary carrier bonds found following. Sterling firmed in foreign exchange transactions but the gold currencies were reactionary.

The day's stock turn-over was 900,000 shares and the late tone was firm.

Chicago Grain Market

(Courtesy Vernon Parrish)

	Open	Close	Prv Cl.
WHEAT:
July	83 3-4	83 1-2	83 5-8
Sept.	84 1-2	84 1-8	84 3-8
Dec.	86 5-8	86 1-4	86 1-2
CORN:
July	82 1-4	81 7-8	82 3-8
Sept.	75 5-8	75 1-2	75 5-8
Dec.	63 3-8	63 1-8	63 5-8
OATS:
July	35 1-2	35 1-4	35 3-4
Sept.	33 5-8	33 1-4	34
Dec.	34 7-8	35	35 1-4
RYE:
July	48 1-4	47 1-2	48 1-2
Sept.	49 1-4	48 5-8	49 1-2

New York Stock List

American Radiator 14.
American Telephone 130.
American Tobacco 13 3-8.
Anaconda 16.
Atlantic Coast Line 23 3-8.
Atlantic Refining 26 3-8.

Tells of Shooting

A principal witness in the Los Angeles trial of Mrs. Gladys Carter for the slaying of Miss Frances Wallace was Virginia Carter, the defendant's eight-year-old daughter. She is shown on the stand, clutching her doll, as she unfolded details of the shooting. (Associated Press Photo)

Auburn 21 1-4.
Bendix Aviation 14 1-4.
Bethlehem Steel 26 1-2.
Columbia Gas and Electric 6 7-8.
Commercial Solvent 80 1-8.
Continental Oil 9 1-8.
DuPont 101 3-8.
Electric Power Light 2 3-4.
General Electric 25 3-4.
General Motors 31 1-2.
Liggett & Myers 112 1-2.
Mongomery Ward 26.
Reynolds Tobacco 51 1-4.
Southern Railway 10 1-8.
Standard Oil 49 1-4.
U. S. Steel 33 1-4.

Late News Flashes

(Continued From Page One)
Resolutions endorsed the stand of Frank Lowden for government benefit to agriculture and advocated "preservation of the competitive system protected against monopoly."

It included a declaration for "sound currency based on gold and definitely stabilized by Congress."

No mention was made of the AAA which was both criticized and defended by some of the delegates attending the meeting.

The oratorical guns of the mid-west Republicans were turned on James A. Farley, postmaster general and leader of the Democratic party. Farley was charged with drawing his party funds from "the swollen portions of the wealthy."

Boy Drowns as Car Crashes Off River Bridge

New Bern, June 11.—(AP)—Robert Jones, 15-year-old New Bern boy, drove an automobile through the railing of the Neuse river bridge today and was drowned.

The accident gave rise to a widespread report that an automobile filled with women and children and a truck had crashed through the bridge railing but at police headquarters the belief was held that only the one car with Jones alone in it had gone into the river.

The car smashed through the railing near the middle of the bridge which is a mile long. Apparently no one saw the accident.

The automobile was located and pulled from the water with a derrick. Jones' body was in it. A search with grappling hooks in that part of the river which is ten to twelve feet deep failed to locate any other machine.

Jones was the son of James Jones of New Bern.

WANTS

RATES: 1c per word (minimum 25c) per insertion, this size type. Larger type, double price. Persons not having regular account with this office must send or bring cash with copy. No want ads taken over telephone.

BABy CHICKS—8 CENTS EACH: one week old, 10 cents each; Reds and cross-breeds. "Liv and Gro" brooder with electric heater, $2.00 each. Jenness Morrill, Jr., Falkland.

LOST OR STRAYED FRIDAY: Night Black Mule about 4 years old. Finder return to C. N. Nobles, Winterville, Route 2.

TOBACCO STICKS FOR SALE: Place orders promptly while they last. The Slater Lumber Co., New Bern, N. C.

AFTER WE CLEAN YOUR WINTER clothes and blankets we will put them in moth-proof bags FREE. Crystal Laundry, phone 30.

VISIT J. P. VICK, 523 N. CHURCH St., Rocky Mount, N. C., for Painting and Papering. Phone 825-WX.

COTTAGE FOR RENT AT Atlantic Beach, two doors from hotel on beach front—for full particulars phone 762-W.

ICE CREAM FREEZERS—ranging in sizes from 2 quart to 8 quarts—now in stock. Priced right. Home Furniture Store.

ABLE MAN FOR DISTRIBUTING and route work. Automobile given man who qualifies. $35.00 a week opportunity; steady. Costs nothing; write Albert Mills, 7215 Monmouth, Cincinnati, Ohio.

WE CAN SUPPLY YOU WITH any kind of paint for any type paint job, inside or outside. Get our prices and estimates. J. A. Watson—Seed, Feed, Provisions.

PHONE 619, IT'S LAUNDRY OR dry cleaning. The Old Reliable—we know how. Rainbow Cleaners.

VERY LARGE ASSORTMENT of Ice Cream Freezers now in stock—2 quart size, priced from $1.00 up. Home Furniture Store.

TOBACCO FLUES J. H. B. Moore Flue Co. at Dixie Warehouse For your interest see ours before you buy. Phone 386.

FOR RENT—SEVEN ROOM house on Chestnut street. Apply to Pitt Oldsmobile Co., phone 587.

GIVING AWAY PORTABLE 5 RCA licensed tube radios, 2-tone walnut cabinets, super-tone quality, for $8.95. Powerful field glasses, $1.35 cash. Tige's Novelty Exchange, Greenville, N. C.

SPECIAL AS LONG AS THEY last—2 quart capacity Ice Cream Freezers, $1.00. Home Furniture Store.

MAN WANTED FOR RAWLEIGH route of 800 families. Good profits for hustler. We train and help you. Write today. Rawleigh Co., Dept. NCP-87-SA2, Richmond, Va.

DRY CLEANING AND PRESSING SATISFACTION GUARANTEED PERSONAL ATTENTION TO EVERY ARTICLE CAROLINA DRY CLEANERS PHONE 176. LEON SMITH, PROP.

KEEP—PAR-T-PAK on hand at all times. Greenville Neon Bottling Co.

CANNING SEASON IS HERE! We have all sizes fruit jars, jar rubbers, jar tops, jelly glasses. Also No. 2 and 3 open tops and sealed cans. This is headquarters for your canning supplies. J. A. Watson—Seed, Feed, Provisions.

FOR YOUR WEDNESDAY PICNIC—try our class pies. People's Bakery.

NEW CORNED HERRINGS—RED Arrow spray, non-poisonous to your vegetables, keeps off all insects. Prices right on meat, lard, sugar, flour, peas, beans, extracts. C. S. meal and hulls. Phone 333. L. Rives, Greenville Dist. Co.

TOBACCO TRUCKS—WE HAVE A few of the $7.00 Tobacco Trucks left. See Clark before buying. Greenville Machine Works, Washington St.

OUR NEW TURNIP AND RHUBARB seed have arrived. It is time to plant them now. J. A. Watson—Seed, Feed, Provisions.

LUMBER, ROUGH AND DRESSED—Flooring, Ceiling, Siding, Roofs and Mouldings. All kiln dried. Mill and Cabinet work. We furnish complete house build, at a saving to you for cash. Ayden Lumber Co.

FOR SALE BROILERS—FRYERS—HENS W. B. Herring Grocery Co. Dickinson Ave. Phone 359.

SEE US FOR PRICES ON Tobacco Twine, Thermometers, Lanterns, Trucks, etc. J. A. Watson—Seed, Feed, Provisions.

WE HAVE ALL KINDS POISONS In stock. Paris Green, Arsenate of Lead, Calcium Arsenate, Black Leaf "40," Evergreen, Nu Spray, Sling Shot, Garrydard, Beetle Mar and other poisons. J. A. Watson, Seed, Feed, Provisions.

SPOT CASH! OLD GOLD & SILVER WANTED I. ABELSON Licensed on Treasury Department Form TGL12 $2 to $33 for Watches Gold Teeth, Rings, Chains, Spectacles, Bracelets, Broken Jewelry of all kinds, also silver and gold filled.

Bring or mail—we do not canvass HILL HORNE DRUG STORE Evans St.

Open 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. Gold $8 to $35 oz. Silver 40c oz.

TODAY TUES. WED Shirley TEMPLE in her greatest picture "OUR LITTLE GIRL"

Rosemary AMES Joel McCREA LYLE TALBOT plus LAUREL-HARDY COMEDY Color Cartoon PITT NEWS

SEE IT ONLY IN THE MARCH OF TIME PITT THURSDAY FRIDAY

SEE IT ONLY IN THE MARCH OF TIME PITT THURSDAY FRIDAY

SEE IT ONLY IN THE MARCH OF TIME PITT THURSDAY FRIDAY

SEE IT ONLY IN THE MARCH OF TIME PITT THURSDAY FRIDAY

FOR SALE OF TRADE—FRESH Jersey cows at Savage's Stables. George H. Clapp and F. A. Savage. 7-eod-4t

FRESH POTATO CHIPS EVERY day—ideal for your bridge parties, luncheons, etc. People's Bakery.

B-U-Z-Z People Will Talk JUNE 13th-14th

Mat. 15c Eve. 20c WED.

Famous Funsters In The Season's Merriest Frolic!

SPRING TONIC with Lew Ayres Claire Trevor Zasu Pitts Jack Haley Mitchell and Durant

Added Joys "SUPERSTITIOUS OF BLACK CAT" Novelty "Easy Money" Comedy

Today—"THE FLORENTINE DAGGER"

4th RELEASE! ALL NEW!

How Red is Red Russia?

SEE IT ONLY IN THE MARCH OF TIME PITT THURSDAY FRIDAY

SEE IT ONLY IN THE MARCH OF TIME PITT THURSDAY FRIDAY

SEE IT ONLY IN THE MARCH OF TIME PITT THURSDAY FRIDAY

SEE IT ONLY IN THE MARCH OF TIME PITT THURSDAY FRIDAY

"Camels don't get your Wind!" FAMOUS ATHLETES SAY

A few of the famous athletes who approve of Camel's mildness

BASEBALL: Dizzy Dean; Lou Gehrig; Melvin Ott; Harold Schumacher; Guy Bush.

TENNIS: Ellsworth Vines, Jr.; George M. Lott, Jr.; William T. Tilden, II; Lester R. Stofen; Bruce Barnes.

GOLF: Gene Sarazen; Craig Wood; Tommy Armour; Willie Macfarlane; Helen Hicks; Denny Shute.

TRACK AND FIELD: Jim Bausch; George Barker; Leo Sexton.

SWIMMING: Helene Madison; Stubby Kruger; Josephine McKim; Susan Vilas.

DIVING: Harold ("Dutch") Smith; Georgia Coleman; Pete Desjardins; Sam Howard.

WINTER SPORTS: Raymond Stevens; Jack Shea; Irving Jaffee; Bill Cook; Paul Thompson.