KANSAS PRISON MUTINY CRUSHED EARLY TODAY

Floods Claim 175 Lives
In 11 Mid-Western StatesHEAVY LOSS
IS REPORTED IN NEBRASKA

Raging Waters Take 106 Lives Last Few Weeks in Nebraska; Colorado, Wyoming and New Mexico Also Among Other Heavy Losers

Fort Smith, Ark., June 19.—(AP)—Breaking through a levee at Ned's Lake, near here today, the boiling Arkansas river's flood waters swept toward 15,000 acres of rich bottom land. The dyke gave away at its highest point and reinforcements were concentrating at the scene to prevent a widening of the fissure.

(By Associated Press.)
Disastrous spring floods fed by rainfalls considerably higher than the average, in most parts of the nation today has claimed an unofficial total of more than 175 lives, millions of dollars of property damage and undetermined loss to farmers in 11 mid-western states.

The greatest loss of life was in Nebraska where the flood took 106 lives in the past few weeks. To date 67 bodies were recovered and 39 were listed as dead.

Colorado, Wyoming, and New Mexico counted 29 dead and Texas and Oklahoma 18 each.

One was drowned in Illinois when an automobile struck a culvert and overturned in a flooded ditch. Two of the dead in Texas were struck by lightning and two South Carolina youths were killed in the same manner. One person was drowned in New England and a small boat with two persons was reported missing.

Among the property damage estimates were $14,000,000 in Nebraska, $6,000,000 in Colorado, $500,000 in Minnesota, $4,500,000 in Texas, and $1,200,000 in Oklahoma.

Crop loss defied estimate. In the Midwest where a year ago farmers were praying for rain to end one of the worst droughts of history, the cry today was for sunshine. Many producers already have planted two crops.

PARALYSIS IS ON INCREASE

Fifteen Additional Cases Reported in North Carolina Swell Total to 168

Raleigh, June 19.—(AP)—Fifteen additional cases of infantile paralysis were reported today to the State Board of Health and swelled to 168 the record for the prevalence of the disease in North Carolina this year.

There have been 109 cases reported in June and the high monthly toll of the deadly malady since it became reportable in 1917, was 44 cases in May.

In the United States during the week ending June 8 there were only 61 cases with North Carolina contributing 17 and California 9. While in this state alone there were 57 cases during the week ending June 15th.

Official reports of the disease which came in today were: Wake 3; Vance and Bertie 2 each; and one each from Person, Lenoir, Hatteras, Franklin, Durham, Cumberland and Alamance.

TO COST $10 FOR GOING SHIRTLESS AT BEACH

Wrightsville Beach, June 19.—(AP)—If you stroll along the boardwalk here, you'd better keep your shirt on or it will cost you ten bucks.

Men who prefer trunks sans shirt may toll on the strand or swim, so attired as much as they wish, but they can not hang out around pavilions, refreshment stands, or parade their manly beauty along the boardwalk without a shirt.

'TIGER WOMAN' WINS FREEDOM

With 12 years of prison life behind her, Clara Phillips, known as the "Tiger Woman" because she killed Mrs. Alberta Meadows with a hammer 15 years ago, was freed on parole from the state penitentiary at Tehachapi, Calif. With baggage packed, she is shown here as she waited for the warden to open the prison gates. "I am not bitter. All I want is that people will leave me alone and give me an even break," said Clara, who was convicted of slaying Mrs. Meadows at a secluded spot in Los Angeles in a fit of jealousy over her husband. Military Council Renounces Armed Action as Capitulation Result

Tientsin, June 19.—(AP)—The Japanese military council was reported today to have apparently renounced any plans for armed action in China as result of the Chinese government's capitulation to far reaching demands in North China. Japanese spokesmen inferred that China by dismissing General Sung Cheh-Cuan as governor of Chahar province and ordering 132 Chinese divisions to evacuate the province had brought issues there "to the stage of amicable settlement."

SABOTAGE: House leaders are talking in their sleep against President Roosevelt's legislative leadership. It leaves them out on a shaky political limb. Their soreness explains why so many "must" bills are stymied in committee.

House Democrats think they have behaved prettily. They rushed through several of the President's reform measures against their better judgment. They nailed their political hides to the barn door of presidential loyalty. The President smiled and patted them on the back. "Great work, Joe," he said to the Speaker.

Then conservative Democratic Senators laid down on the New Deal. They removed many radical features from measures the House had enacted without dotting an "I." They let reform proposals drag in committee and on the floor. They

LOCKED UP INJURED IN GETTING OUT, PAID $252

Wilson, June 19.—A 10-year-old boy accepted a settlement of $252.7 from a local heater through his lawyer in county court Monday morning as payment for injuries received when the child was locked up in the theatre after closing hours last November, and cut himself when he broke one of the glass front doors in getting out. Charlie Williams Given Six Months; Several Other Cases in County Court

Charlie Williams, colored, of the Chase Station community, was found guilty of the larceny of a pocketbook from the home of Mrs. S. B. Underwood here last week, and was sentenced to six months on the roads by Judge Dink James, presiding over the regular sitting of County court here yesterday.

Williams allegedly entered the Underwood home while Mrs. Underwood was away and obtained her pocket book containing a sum said by police to have been $16 in cash and a check. The negro removed the money and then hurled the pocketbook and check into Tar river. Workmen standing on the river bank witnessed the incident, fished out the pocketbook and found it contained a check with Mrs. Underwood's name. Police were notified and Williams was taken into custody at the ball park the same day the theft was committed.

Between fifteen and twenty cases were disposed of in the one day session of the court, the first sitting in two weeks by reason of the absence of court officials last week and lack of jail cases awaiting consideration.

Berry Taylor of Walstonburg, charged with careless driving, had judgment suspended on payment of cost and $110 to N. G. Cox for injuries to a mule and cart which Taylor's car damaged. Another charge of transporting liquor was consolidated with this case. The accident occurred on the Ballard's creek bridge Monday, but nobody was injured.

TWO KILLED
AS CAR GOES INTO RIVER

Charlotte Man and Cramerton Young Woman Perish in Wreck Last Night

Gastonia, June 19.—(AP)—The bodies of Fred H. Connor, 33, of Charlotte, and Miss Ruth Randall, of Cramerton, were dragged from the muddy waters of the South Fork river near Cramerton early this morning after the car in which they were riding late last night crashed into the bridge on the Belmont-Cramerton highway today and plunged into the river.

On reports that another girl was in the car a rescue party continued operations today.

The machine was dragged from 18 feet of water by divers who ceased operation when they decided that reports were false that another woman had also been in the car.

Late last night Mr. and Mrs. H. Allen, Deputy Sheriff Ralph Armstrong and others in the vicinity heard the crash and investigated. It appeared the slick road following a heavy downpour of rain caused the crash.

The investigators found part of the bridge raft had been demolished and search was begun. Recovery of the bodies followed early today. Miss Randall was an employee of the Cramerton mills.

TWO ARE SENTENCED ON DRIVING CHARGES

Wilson, June 18.—A. D. McGowan Jr. was sentenced to six months on the roads and his driver's license revoked for six months by Judge C. P. Dickinson in county court Monday, while a companion of McGowan's, Stella Mae Gray, was sentenced to 60 days in jail and her license revoked for 12 months. Both were charged with driving while intoxicated. Both defendants pleaded not guilty of the charge as the trial and appealed to the Superior Court. They were arrested Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Frank Carter on the Wilson-Elm City highway.

ARE NOT MET

Termination of Day and Night Long Riot 730 Feet Under Ground Accomplished Without Injury to Man or Beast; Warden Comes to Surface at 3:30 to Announce Riot Over

(Copyright By Associated Press)
Lansing, Kan., June 19.—(AP)—A score of officers and guards led by Warden Lacey Simpson subdued 300 rioting convicts early today in the inky darkness of the Kansas state prison coal mine and ended a destructive 24-hour mutiny.

Soon the first lift of mutineers, sheepish, bedraggled, came to the surface, county and state highway officers to cell blocks 60 feet away. In 30 minutes the evacuation of the 730-foot mine level where the riot occurred, was complete.

Only a half dozen guards remained below to check the damage wrought by the convicts' rage.

Termination of the day and night long mutiny was accomplished without injury to either guards or convicts and even the 19 frightened mules kept below to haul coal cars were reported unharmed.

"We had a hell of a time breaking down a door barricade. That's what took us so long," said Simpson as he came up at 3:30 to announce the riot was ended.

Not only was the mutiny quelled without bloodshed to man or beast, but the prison officials announced they had made no concessions to demands of the rioters.

"We don't owe them a nickel," declared T. Woodward, member of the prison board of administration. The more than 300 prisoners had demanded better prepared food, the discharge of Dr. David F. Parker, prison physician, and immunity from their actions.

The prison guards and other officers used smoke from a fire started by the convicts themselves as their chief weapon of attack.

Started in the mule barn, the fire was fed by hay and timbers in an effort of the rioters to drive armed guards away from the strategic gun cage near the base of the air shaft.

This would have given them control of the entire sub-surface. They had food and water that had been smuggled down a little at a time.

Quartet Pleases Audience.
Two members of the Cleveland Opera Company who are also members of the famous Orpheus Male Chorus, a Victoria artist, and a youthful pianist of decided promise, all of whom now form the Ambassador Quartet, gave a most delightful concert last night at the college. The spectacular touches, costume and dramatic interpretations, added interest to those who needed something to catch their interest, but the singing of the artists was of such high quality they did not need the accessories. They gave a popular program and even their heaviest numbers were familiar.

The Swiss Bells seemed a novelty to the younger members of the audience and their revival was pleasing to the older members who recalled the "Swiss Bell Ringers" from the old Chautauqua days. The bells were artistically used for the types of music which they especially suited, such as the hymns imitating the chimes of church bells on a Sunday morning in London and the "Mocking Bird."

The singing of Victor Herbert's song, "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life" from "Naughty Marietta," was a happy coincidence, and was evidently accidental, as the program was sent in advance.

The quartet singing was very fine, and they made good the claim that they were "kings of harmony."

The solo groups were greatly enjoyed. The Swede, Gustave Johnson, who is the Victor artist, sang a song in his native language which brought out the quality of pathos and sympathy in his voice.

Russell Abbott, who has a bass voice of great power, sang splendidly "The Glory Road." The tenor solos by George Vaughn made the audience understand why he is successful in opera. One of the very clever tricks of the evening was the quartet took off "Rigoletto" by singing "Quartet" in grand opera style.

The music lovers especially enjoyed the solos played by William Martin Potts before he rode away H. Hughes, the pianist.

DRYS NERVOUS OVER OUTCOME COURT BATTLE

Judge Williams' Decision in Franklin Causes Concern in Ranks of Drys

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.
Raleigh, June 19.—Wets and Drys were all set for the Franklin county injunction this afternoon, but Judge Clawson L. Williams has postponed the argument until 2:30 p. m. Friday at which time he will ask the attorneys to discuss the legal points solely.

Though His Honor is regarded the driest man in North Carolina, the dries are more worried over the outcome than the wets are. Judge Williams is one of those direct democrats who does not care how often the elections come nor how much the public is stirred by them. He thinks public questions are made more intelligible by those processes and there will be no way to reach him by reminding him that North Carolina voted on this issue two years ago. The judge would not care if the state voted on it two weeks ago if it happened to be legal to hold one in June or July.

The dries will therefore have to take the burden of proof. They must show the judge that the Franklin act, based on the Pasquotank bill, is invalid because it contravenes certain sections of the state constitution. A purely sentimental position won't reach Judge Williams.

GRAHAM NOT WINE HEAD

Commissioner Not to Have Charge of Administering Wine Laws in State

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, June 19.—Commissioner William A. Graham of the department of agriculture, who must formulate the rules under which the wine act of the 1935 general assembly will be administered, will not be the administrator.

Mr. Graham is getting a great deal of publicity as the "administrator," but he does not desire it. The enforcement of the act will be in the hands of regular officers and the commissioner will have nothing whatever to do with it. Taking on wine was not one of the Graham desires. He has to provide the rules under which this measure will be made effective, but he does not have any officers whose duty it will be to run down the violators.

In the opinion of many good lawyers the wine act of the late legislature has constitutional shortcomings that none of the county-wide liquor bills has. There is in the wine measure a clear discrimination against outside dealers and there is a serious federal question.

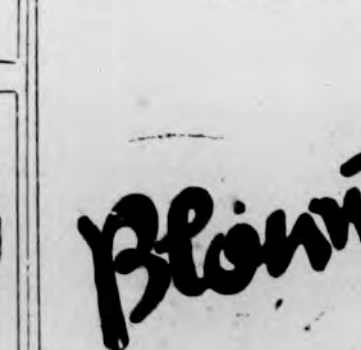

Williams. His experience with the North Carolina electorate increases his belief in frequent elections. He remembers very well that wise man declared in 1928 when Herbert Hoover routed Al Smith that "the prohibition question is settled for all time." He remembers also that the 18th amendment was repealed within five years, a feat which nobody then living seemed to think possible within 150 years if ever. Judge Williams believes that elections decide.

The Friday hearing should be a good one for lawyers. Leading the dry forces will be W. H. Yarborough of Louisville, once prominent in Republican politics and the party's nominee for attorney general some years ago. He is opposed by various attorneys. It is expected that Representative W. L. Lumpkin and Senator Edward F. Griffin, both of Franklin, will appear in the argument.

To Judge Williams there is just one issue to be raised and that is the legality of the act. He leaned heavily toward the belief, for he is a typical Tar Heel who thinks legislatures should be allowed to legislate. But if they run over the constitution he picks it up.

involved there. The alcoholic content does not disturb since the legislature took the alcohol pretty high in everything that it touched.

Commissioner Graham is working on the rules now and is fortified with opinions of the attorney general. That officer has ruled in favor of the validity of the act, but he was far from dogmatic about it. The measure does not suit the growers of the Sandhill as another bill did, but the authority granted under it makes a big market for fruits which otherwise would go bad. It was the hope of the Sandhillers that power would be given to manufacture brandy from native fruits. But the issue was not pressed.

Meanwhile Commissioner Graham hopes very much that he is not going to be blamed for whatever shortcomings there may be in the administration of the new law.

even more aggravatingly. It questioned the validity of House-origined measures. It refused to put its august head in a judicial noose. There are too many would-be Senators at home ready to jump at any opening.
Unless the President talks tough turkey to Senate Leaders Harrison, Robinson and Byrnes, the House may turn on him. Leaders of the lower chamber are making no fight to force committees to report "must" bills. "We've been burned once," they whisper when no presidential action is listening.
SMASH: Presidential intervention would be futile. The Senate prides itself on the stubbornness it has exhibited since it "broke the great heart of the world" back in Woodrow Wilson's day. It notes that the world still rolls on.
Democrats won't admit it, but only fifteen Senators support the President regularly and three of them are Republican Progressives. Only twenty have sincere faith in New Deal policies, and the two leaders—Messrs. Robinson and Harrison—are not among them. One convinced that Mr. Roosevelt is unpopular with the voters, the Senate would desert him. Pending measures would no command sufficient support to place them on the calendar.
Mr. Roosevelt is too keen a politician not to know where he stands. Under the circumstances it may be political wisdom to let the Senate revolt and the House roar in pain. But this might smash his New Deal to senatorial smithereens.
NEGOTIATION: Postmaster General Farley will not renege the air mail fiasco in dickering for lower rates with Pan-American Airways. This is not—as some suppose—because he believes he blundered in his wholesale cancellation of domestic contracts. The P. G. will never admit it.
Some far-sighted officials are looking years ahead. They see the day when airplanes will carry bulk freight. Pan-American has established physical and commercial contact with South American nations. It will soon network Alaska. Preliminary appropriations for a line to the Orient via Honolulu have been approved by House sub-committees. The U. S. is taking no chance of losing out in the air as it has on sea lanes of commerce.
What Mr. Farley seeks is a slight reduction in rates through negotiation. There will be no rough stuff this time.
EXAGGERATED: Private contractors can't understand President Roosevelt's brand of humor. They insist he must have been kidding when he said that compliance with code provisions on government-financed projects would affect only 1 per cent of production. They figure it closer to 60 per cent.
Suppose ten firms bid on a federal or non-federal contract dependent on Roosevelt money. They swear that their hours, wages and working conditions comply with code levels. The winner cannot segregate code labor from non-code labor in the fulfillment of the contract. He cannot work one man six hours a day and another eight hours a day without disrupting production. The same applies to each raw product which they purchase for a federal project.
They have an idea that the President deliberately exaggerated to create the impression that the NRA smash-up was the end of the world.
SQUEEZE: Federal Procurement Officer Christian Joy Peoples has a sweet and symbolic name, but you can't make contractors believe it means anything. He has sent private instructions to his field force which may hatch a high-flying brood of Blue Eagles.
Admiral Peoples has "recommended" that new government contracts contain a clause requiring bidders to abide by any code legislation which Congress may pass "in the future." He apparently has in mind NRA amendments or legislation which the administration might put through to strengthen federal regulation of hours, wages, working conditions, etc.

Contractors complain they would have to bid blindly under this system. They claim that Admiral Peoples ask them to give a blank check to Congress as to the way they shall run their business. It looks to them like the perfect squeeze play.
New York
By JAMES McMULLIN
GOOD-WILL: Postponement of the coal strike at FDR's request confirms our statement that the Guffey bill is the only real issue from the union viewpoint. Hour and wage demands are secondary. John L. Lewis is perfectly willing to play along with the administration as long as he is convinced it helps the Guffey bill's cause. It's worth noting that the threat of a strike is more likely to spur Congress to favorable action than an actual walk-out. You can't fire the same shell twice—and once fired it might turn out a dud.
The operators for their part have no reason to force a crisis when they are not asked to yield to "impossible" hours and wages—and many of them also want the Guffey bill.
The atmosphere in the industry last week—when everyone thought a strike was coming—was unprecedented in its mutual good-will. Miners have always before been surly before a walkout and production efficiency has declined to almost zero. This time there were no signs of ill-feeling and the workers—knowing that every pound of coal they dug would help defeat the strike—nevertheless met stepped-up production schedules willingly and with maximum efficiency.
The opera announcement that they wouldn't fight the strike had a bearing on that. It was as if each side was saying to the other: "We know this isn't your fault—so what's the sense in getting mad about it?"
TEST: The United Mine Workers have a ticklish problem ahead of them in Alabama. When the coal code was adopted operators in the territory produced figures to prove they couldn't possibly survive if they paid code wages—even with the differential allowed the South. At that time their men were hardly unionized at all. To get his foot in the door, John Lewis agreed to raise no objection to their payment of wages at about half the code scale in exchange for recognition of closer to the cliff.

RISKS: Wall Street is watching the duel between the Ontario government and Toronto investment bankers with rapt attention. The bankers can deny it till their faces are blue but no one here doubts that their refusal to enter a single bid for a $15,000,000 bond issue by the province traces to Premier Hepburn's cancellation of contracts between Quebec power companies and the public-owned Ontario Hydro-electric Power Commission.
This was supposed to be an object lesson to public officials who meddle with private enterprise—but there's no assurance it will work out that way. Ontario won't have much trouble raising the funds it wants through other channels—and the provincial authorities can use their taxing power to take the bankers for a pretty rough ride if they choose.
New York conservatives privately applaud the temerity of their Canadian conferees in bearding the government lions. But there's no chance that such boldness will prove contagious. The pastime carries too many risks for local tastes.

LOW COST MAINTENANCE AND HIGH RESALE VALUE

● The first cost of the Ford V-8 is as low as it is possible to make it and still give you a high quality, modern automobile with the comfort, roominess and safety features—the performance, dependability and economy of the Ford V-8.
This inbuilt quality is evident in the very low cost of maintenance and operation of the Ford V-8. And throughout many thousands of miles of service, maintenance is kept to a minimum because Genuine Ford Parts and service are priced so much lower. In addition, upkeep is further reduced by the Ford policy of exchanging factory reconditioned units—even to the Ford V-8 engine—a big economy only Ford owners enjoy.
Ford quality again comes to light in the high resale value of the Ford V-8. The manufacturer may set the price of a new car but the public itself decides what it will pay for a used car.
And it is a very significant fact that the public has set a high resale price on Ford cars... The reason is simple. Precision-built of the finest quality materials, Ford cars last longer, and therefore the market for used Fords is always good.
What else can you buy that will give your family as much enjoyment as a new Ford V-8? What other car offers you so sound an investment? With your old car applied against the down payment you may have to pay no more than $8.00 a week to be driving a new Ford V-8 tomorrow. Just ask your nearest Ford dealer about the Authorized Ford Finance Plan... And remember, as you thrill to V-8 performance on the highway, that this is the most economical car to operate that Ford has ever built.

LOCALS AGAIN WIN 4-2 TILT OFF SNOW HILL

Show Hill, June 19.—Greenville's league leading outfit broke a tie by scoring three runs in the ninth yesterday, and the best the locals could do in their half was to push across one run. The Greens won, 4-2, to protect their one-game hold on the league top.

The game was a hurriers' duel between Newsome of the locals and David Smith, Duke's freshman star from Whiteville. Newsome went the route, but Smith was relieved by Chubby Dean in the ninth and the locals had tallied one run and with two men on bases. Dean fanned Harrington and got Manager Walker, a pinch-hitter on an out-field fly.

Ambler's single opened Greenville's victorious rally in the ninth. Huiskamp sacrificed. Wagner drew a walk. Ace Parker left and it looked as if Newsome might pull out of trouble. Andy Johnson was passed. Manager Barley Farley of the Greens then decided to surrender his turn at the plate to Dean. The move proved a good one, as Dean dropped a short single into left field. The blow was good enough to score one run, but three came in when the ball was error by Neuman. Bostic popped up to end the inning.

Neuman walked to open the locals' ninth, and he went to second on Perry's infield out. Parrish's single scored Neuman. Newsome hit to Smith, who threw wild to second in an effort to catch Parrish. It was at this stage of things that Dean relieved the Whiteville youngster.

The first run of the game was tallied in the third by Snow Hill on a walk to Parrish. Newsome's sacrifice, and Paul Cheek's single. The Greens tied it by counting in the sixth, after two were out, on Bostic's double and Smith's single.

Buddy Crump, with a double and a single, paced Snow Hill and was the only player in the game to get more than one hit. Doubles by Bostic and Parker formed Greenville's extra-base collection.

KINSTON BESTS WILLIAMSTON
Williamston, June 19.—Keller's single to open the fourth was followed by a home run by Jim Morgan—and that was enough to give Kinston a 2-1 victory over Williamston yesterday behind good pitching by Joyce.

The victory lifted Bunn Hearn's Eagles into the first division and dropped Williamston to fifth place. Kinston now is only 11-2 games below Greenville's leaders. Williamston trails the leaders by two games.

Williamston's lone run came in the sixth when Corbitt singled with one out, reached second on Irwin's error of Gaylord's hopper and counted on House's single. The threat was checked when Leary hit into a double play.

Morgan and Keller made two hits apiece for Kinston. Taylor and Gaylord, each with a pair of safe blows, were best for the Martins.

NEW BERN SHUTS OUT TABORO
New Bern, June 19.—Stuart Flythe handed Tarboro a four-hit blanking yesterday as Chick Doak's New Bern Beares gained revenge for Monday's defeat at the hands of the cellarites. The score was 4-0.

Flythe, lanky right-hander, had what he usually lacks—control. He issued only one walk. He struck out six.

The locals garnered a dozen blows off Parmele and his successor, Rymer, who came to the firing line in the sixth.

It was a great day for Red Cleary Tarboro castoff, who was taken on by New Bern a couple of days ago. The red-head smacked three singles for a perfect day and one of his blows sent in the day's first run. Uriah Norwood continued his sensational work in the outfield for the Beares. However, the State College star had to be removed from the game in the sixth—he sustained a minor arm injury when he crashed into the fence after catching Burnette's long drive.

AYDEN TAKES BUGS IN COUP

Ayden, June 19.—Mantaser Doe Smith was the hero in Ayden's 10-inning victory over Goldsboro here yesterday.

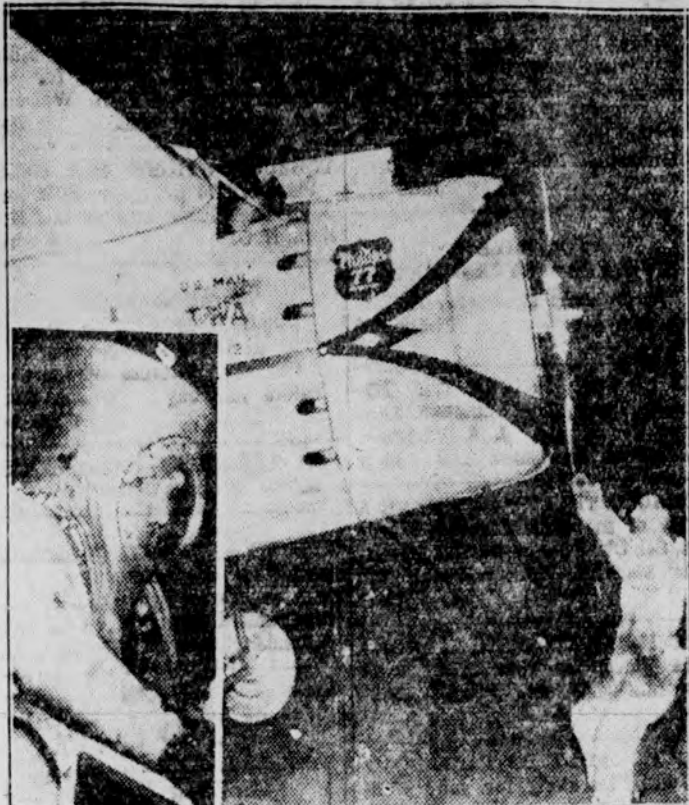

The locals filled the bases in the 10th, and Smith inserted his husky frame in the game as a pinch-hitter for Catcher Frank Sittenfield. The pilot caught hold of one of Skipper's pitches—and the ball sailed over the right field fence for a homer and a 9-5 victory.

The manager's blow gave Coon Weiden the verdict over Skipper in a nip-and-tuck pitcher's battle. Ayden had sent the game into extra innings by counting three runs after two were out in the seventh—Dallas Morris walked, Dwight Wall tripled, Faust Johnson doubled, and Worlis Knowles doubled.

Atkins hit a single to open Ayden's 10th and start the setting for Smith's victory blow. Herbie Cheek singled, and Coljins walked to fill the bases.

Ayden got a pair of runs in the first inning, on a hit by Dallas Morris.

his, an error after two men had been retired, and Atkins' triple.

The Bugs evened it in the second. Rand was safe on an error, and Royce singled. They engineered a double steal, and then Skipper singled to send in both. Tick Poole's men counted another in the third.

May Leads Club With The Stick; Barley Second

Although he has taken part in only one game because of illness, Reynolds May, one of the ace pitchers of the Greenville club, continued to hold the batting lead with two safe cracks out of four times at the rubber. The figures were furnished by R. O. Moye, official scorekeeper. Barley, another ace flinger, was in second place, with two hits out of three times at bat. He participated in three games.

Ty Wagner, hard slugging catcher, whose home run over left field fence last week was the longest drive ever recorded on the local diamond, with exception of Ace Parker's drive in the same game, came in for third place with 15 hits out of 41 times at bat. He took part in 11 games.

"Runt" Bostic, home town product, who has played short and third base for the last three seasons, pulled down in fourth place. He was credited with 11 safe blows out of 24 times to the plate. He led off the whole aggregation in slugging the apples.

Billy Huiskamp Leads In Runs For Greenville

Billy Huiskamp, hard slugging Greenville outfielder, today led the club in the number of runs scored this season, reports compiled by R. O. Moye, official scorekeeper, indicated. His total was 15.

While Billy was busy putting the most runs over the rubber, Ty Wagner, catcher, took the lead for runs batted in, chalking up a total of 11, with Huiskamp and Bostic accounting for nine each.

Wagner also featured in the home run realm, being tied with Wade and Ace Parker. They are credited with one each.

Parker, whose long wallopers have figured in a number of victories, and Sullivan, grabbed the front row from three-base hits. They accounted for two each.

Sullivan and Wagner forged to the front in the matter of two-base hits, having four each to their credit.

Johnson and Huiskamp, with two sacrifice hits each, led in this field of play.

Ambler, second sacker, came to the front in the matter of stolen bases, being credited with six as against Sullivan five.

Governor Refuses to Talk Regarding Senatorial Contest Next Year

Reflector Bureau, Raleigh, June 19.—Less than a year off the United States Senatorial contest for 1936 has to date only Josiah William Bailey and Richard Tilden Fountain with the Governor or North Carolina more insouciantly and less inclined to talk about the senatorship than ever.

There is no mistaking Governor Fountain's movements amongst the voters. He turns up at all the meetings and he talks to the boys. Over in Chapel Hill Tuesday night of last week one of the state's newspaper men heard him quoting Senator Bailey to some of the fellows in an automobile. Mr. Fountain stuck his head in the car and quoted Senator Bailey's speech to the Elton College graduates.

There are some signs of an Ehringhaus interest. One hears a frequent reference to the Senator by the Governor's private secretary. But even that would not convict Governor Ehringhaus. Secretary Powell resides in Oxford, the home of Congressman Frank W. Hancock. Mr. Hancock is reputed to have senatorial aspirations. Should there be a clash of interests as between Governor Ehringhaus and the Congressman Mr. Powell of course would be loyal to the chief, but Hancock would get the Powell help otherwise.

The wet and dry question may figure considerably in this contest. If an American leoness runs against Senator Bailey the Young Democrats and the lion men and women most likely will make common cause against the senator who has an adjusted certificate or soldiers' bonus record not altogether satisfactory to the soldiers. Mr. Bailey suits them on the repeal matter, but he is a very dry Tar Heel and in his own state he would have the help of history. He made state reputation as an advocate of prohibition before he was 25 years old and on local honor keeps he has been consistently of the dry line. He defended them manfully when he voted for repeal of the 18th amendment and hurt their feelings in writing as far back as the 1908 state election. He always was a local self-environmentalist and he got out-moded in that field.

Still if the dry men are shouting at national prohibition again decide to pass one of their own then the probable will stand aside and watch the political before enlisting their phantoms. Neither Governor Phelan nor Senator Bailey with a repeal vote would be agreeable to them. It is probable will take another four or five months to get the vote going.

The more Governor Phelan knows the less he thinks of other office and the only thing he seems to care for is the freedom which comes to a man not in an office. Senator Bailey would be believed if he told Governor Phelan that he, being a senator, isn't an unpaid job.

When Walter Murray was here a few days ago after a hard state in North Carolina he declared that there will be no convention in Raleigh. Bailey's candidacy and if there should be one it would be a very close contest. The Democrats' permanent in legislation throughout the past 28 years think that calm if once has North Carolina sent to the United States Senate a man of the Bailey caliber.

But the state do not favor that Bill. They want Governor Phelan. Phelan is Democratic and Bailey is Republican. The Bailey candidacy will present as many antagonisms as any but the realization of these objections has not arrived. There is no sign that Governor Phelan will try.

WILMINGTON COPS NAB RACKETEERS

Wilmington, June 19.—Active here for weeks against a "number racket" lottery which has been widespread in this section, police under the personal direction of John J. Burney, district solicitor, today raided a negro printshop here, arrested six negro "runners," seized $500 in cash (the day's "take") and a number of lottery tickets.

W. H. Moore, negro, owner of the shop and already under indictment here as a "number racket" operator, escaped as the police entered the establishment, he had not been apprehended late today.

Pointing to one shooting as a result of the "number racket," Solicitor Burney declared that the lottery ticket traffic has reached such a vicious stage in Wilmington that he anticipates serious trouble "such as has occurred already in some of the big cities," if the racket operators are collecting hundreds of dollars daily and that they refuse to pay off when those taking a chance make a "hit," claiming the bank has been "broken."

Locals Have Two Games On Tap Thursday

The Greenville club of the Coastal Plain league today had two games on tap for Thursday.

owing to figures and statements not being available. Most every member of the delegation made a brief and straightforward statement to the board with every member of the board listening intently.

Senator Bailey in his talk outlined the proposition thoroughly, stressing the importance of the Tar river's geographical location and the agricultural and other advantages of the section. He appealed to the board to give this matter its careful consideration and in the event the evidence presented at this hearing was not sufficient to give us another opportunity to supplement the tonnage data and other information.

Both Senator Bailey and Congressman Warren dropped all other matters as soon as the delegation arrived at 9:15 a. m., and took charge of the situation, and after the hearing they both stated that they were well pleased with the showing made and the manner in which the various representatives presented their views, and that they feel certain the matter will receive prompt and careful consideration by the board.

He has been connected with the insurance business here for a number of years and his election to the highest office the post has to offer was received with interest by post members.

Mr. Rose has had a very successful administration. The post saw its membership climb to the highest figure in history during his two years of service. He has been very active in encouraging interest in work of the organization and interesting former service men in what the posts in all sections of the country are attempting to accomplish.

HALF HOLIDAY ON TAP TODAY

one of the largest crowds of the season is expected to be on hand to see the club tangle with Williamston, considered one of the strongest organizations of the Coastal Plain circuit.

Last Wednesday afternoon witnessed the largest attendance since the inauguration of the half holiday plan this year. Both grandstand and bleachers were packed to capacity. Sunday, however, saw the largest crowd of the season on hand to see Greenville lick Snow Hill. The club made it two straight by taking yesterday's game from the Greene county club by the same score as Sunday, 4 to 2.

While the ball game held the center of the stage here, scores of others planned to spend the afternoon at nearby beaches and others will cool themselves in the municipal swimming pool. Still others planned to go a-fishing, a sport that some never abandon despite other forms of entertainment.

Has Miraculous Escape

New Bern, June 19.—Mr. John Haywood Jones had a most miraculous escape early Saturday night during the severe electrical storm. A sharp flash of lightning came suddenly down an electric light fixture, jumped to a radiator, and then struck the iron bedstead on which she was lying. The entire room was momentarily filled with the blaze, but nothing caught on fire and Mrs. Jones herself escaped injury except for two small burns on her face.

FALLS BENEATH HORSES, NOT EXPECTED TO LIVE

Hickory, June 19.—His body paralyzed from the shoulders down, Frank Frye, prominent farmer of the Startown Community, has been brought to the hospital here for treatment following an accident late Monday when his neck was broken at the base following a fall.

Frye was riding on a load of oats when the load slipped and threw him on the wagon tongue. The horses became frightened and ran away, trampling Frye beneath their feet. He was also run over by the wheels of the wagon. No hope is being held out for his recovery.

POLITICS at random

By HERBERT PLUMER

Washington.—Reports that administration leaders had included the Guffey coal commission bill on the program of "must" legislation for this session of congress has created a stir on capitol hill.

No one had paid much attention to the bill before. Introduced in the senate last January by Pennsylvania's first democratic senator in years, the gray-haired, portly Joseph P. Guffey, the measure was little known to others than the author and those directly connected with the coal industry.

When the supreme court all but wiped out NRA however, the Guffey bill popped into the news in a big way. It dawned on members of congress and leaders of industry that here was a possible at empty on the part of the government to regulate a major industry which might be taken as a pattern.

The situation in the coal industry has been a desperate one for years. NRA brought some relief, but both operators and miners months ago decided that something more drastic was necessary.

Labor Backs It

The Guffey bill was brought forth as a possible solution. The miners' spokesman, John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers, is demanding that the measure be passed.

Briefly, the bill provides for the creation of a federal coal commission of five members. These would be named by the President and given wide authority over all bituminous coal mines.

A national coal reserve would be set up by having the government purchase all the marginal mines and put them out of business for the time being. The bill for such purchases would be paid by a $300,000,000 bond issue to be liquidated by a tax on coal.

The commission would decide whether new mines are to be opened or old ones worked. Operators of mines would be permitted to create codes.

Tax Fees are Important

The taxing item of the bill is probably its most important feature. All coal would be taxed 25 per cent at the mine, but 99 per cent would be rebated to the operator who signed the code. Whether this would weather a court test on its constitutionality is a matter of varying opinions among lawyers.

All matters affecting labor would be handled by a coal labor board consisting of three members—one representing the public, one the mine owners and the other labor.

The measure already has been reported favorably to the senate by the interstate commerce committee. Administration leaders admit that there's plenty of dynamite in the measure but the condition of the industry and the demands of labor may force its passage.

CRITICALLY HURT UPON FALLING OUT CAR DOOR

Faye Leville, June 19.—Mrs. Marshall Warren, of Fort Bragg is in a critical condition in the Highsmith hospital here with injuries suffered when she fell from the door of an automobile driven by her husband Saturday night. She is thought to have a fractured skull.

Mrs. Warren fell from the car while it was crossing the overhead bridge between Fort Bragg and Manchester, when the Warrens' young child turned the handle of the door. Mrs. Warren's husband is manager of the post exchange garage.

Packed like silks...it takes patience and care to prepare Turkish tobacco for Chesterfield Cigarettes

Size, color, texture, condition... all these have something to do with aroma and flavor

Leaf by leaf, the sun-ripened Turkish tobacco is selected or rejected to get just the right kind for Chesterfield's milder, better taste.

And just as much care is taken to pack the tobacco to preserve the delicate aroma during its 4000 mile journey to this country.

So important is the preparation of Turkish tobacco in making Chesterfields, that Liggett & Myers have their own modern leaf handling plants in seven important tobacco centers of Turkey and Greece.

"Selection station" in Turkey where Turkish tobacco leaves are weighed and classified to judge their quality.
