Roosevelt After Broad NRA And Share Wealth Taxes

BOTH PRAISE AND CRITICISM GREET ACTION

Surprise Message to Congress Receives Approval on the "Left" and Condemnation on the "Right." Another "Surprise" Message May Be in Offing in Effort to Increase Purchasing Power

(Copyright by Associated Press)
Washington, June 20.—(AP)—Before Congress had recovered from its surprise of President Roosevelt's call for share the wealth taxes, close confidants of the president passed the word today he is considering a new and broad NRA designed to be in a sense a companion measure to the tax program.

The tax plan intended to break up great fortunes and reduce large incomes was greeted by expressions of gratification from the "left" and criticism from the "right." It was presented to Congress late yesterday with the presidential comment it would encourage very sound policy for a "wider distribution of wealth."

The revised NRA which the president is said to be considering was pictured by some of his advisers who declined to be quoted by name as an effort to increase mass purchasing power. Thus, they said, it would be added to the tax plan. They foresaw the possibility that another "surprise" message on the subject might be forthcoming.

There is one major "if" on NRA. It was said. The plan may be recommended if the administration can find a definition of interstate commerce it considers satisfactory and able to stand the test of constitutionality. Authoritative sources said the president had remarked that he was inclined to believe Congress could constitutionally define interstate commerce so the federal government could supervise some things over which the Supreme court held the old NRA had no power. The quest, it was said, is for words to define what the constitution means when it says Congress can regulate commerce "among several states."

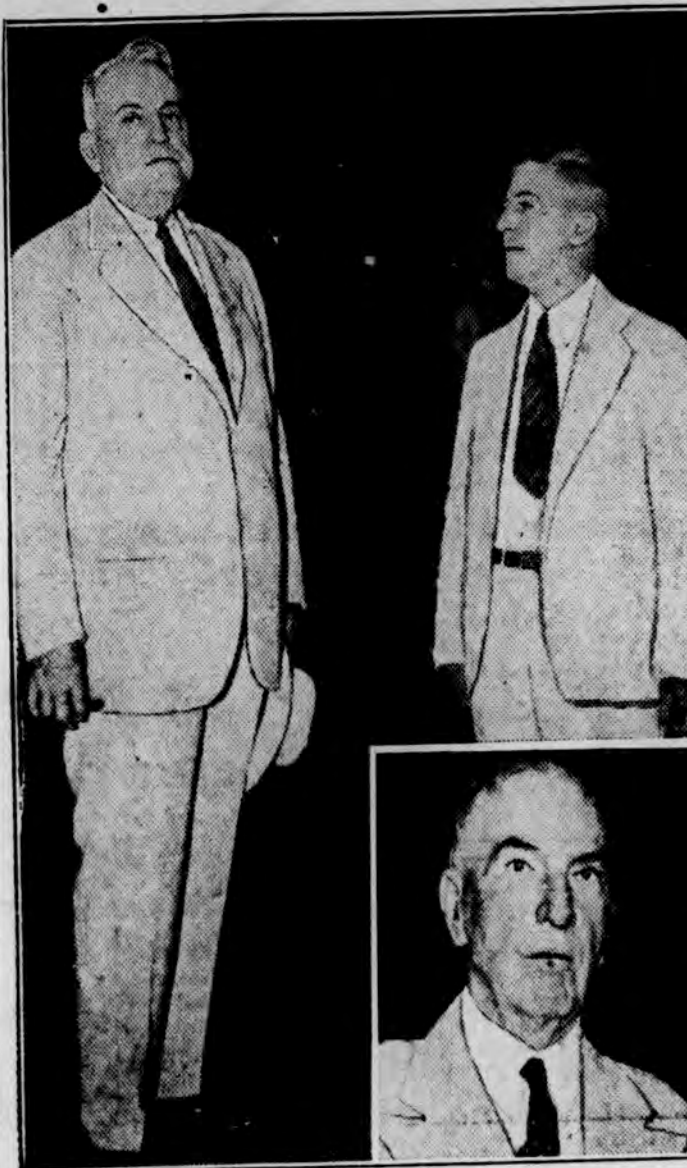

Yesterday's tax message, it became clear today, was written and sent to Congress against the advice of all the high Democratic advisers on Capitol Hill. After consulting again, such an idea some time ago, some of them had been predicting recently that no new taxes would be recommended. But the president, it was said authoritatively, wrote the message without their knowledge and sent it to the Capitol in a hurry so pressure would not be brought on him to withhold it.

Improvements For Local P. O. On Federal List

Washington, June 20.—Representative Lindsay Warren stated today that the names of five cities in his district are on the new list just submitted to Congress by the Secretary of the Treasury for which Federal Buildings are recommended. Elizabeth City and Washington are carried over on the list from last year. The allocation for additions to the Federal building at Elizabeth City has been increased from $45,000 to $105,000 and the Department hopes to let the contract in July. Improvements to the building at Washington including the purchase of additional land calls for an expenditure of $100,000, and Mr. Warren is hopeful that funds will be allocated for same within the next year.

To the list has been added improvements for the building at Greenville, and also for new buildings at Williamston and Ahsokie, these being the only two towns in the district eligible for consideration under the existing law. Mr. Warren caused surveys to be made in March at Greenville, Williamston and Ahsokie, and got favorable reports on all of them. Now they become eligible for future allocations out of the annual lump sum appropriated by Congress. According to Mr. Warren, this may be any time from two to five years from now.

HUEY'S FOE DODGES STATE COURT

Charged with operating a confidence game, Col. John P. Sullivan, enemy of Senator Huey P. Long and dispenser of federal patronage in Louisiana, stole a march on the "Kingfish" by having his trial transferred from state jurisdiction to federal court. RAIN BOOSTS SEEK NEGRO COUNTY CROPS IN CAR WRECK

Shower Yesterday Afternoon Believed to Have Greatly Improved Plant Life

Crops of this section which have been suffering to some extent because of the shortage of rain were believed to have been given a new lease on life by the refreshing shower which visited the community yesterday afternoon.

Farmers coming to the city today from various sections said they could almost see plant life jump under the impetus of the cooling rain, and predicted that stunted growth in many instances would be improved.

Although considerable lack of uniformity in the tobacco crop prevails throughout the county because of cool nights and a hot weather contrast, it was believed the shower yesterday will also cause the plants to pick up and come out much better than at first anticipated.

The rain not only affected plant life auspiciously, but brought much relief to human beings who have suffered more during the last three or four days than any other part of the summer. The breeze was so strong last night it was reminiscent of the seashore and hundreds who found sleep difficult during the early part of the week, drifted off on the wings of Morpheus in a way that caused them to feel greatly rejuvenated this morning.

The temperature Monday was described as the hottest of the season with the mercury registering 98 here as against 94 and 95 Saturday and Sunday.

Although the sun was bearing down vigorously today, the breeze continued to bring relief.

Police Hunting Chester Nobles, Alleged Rum Runner, Following Accident

Police today were seeking Chester Nobles, colored, on a charge of transporting whiskey, hit-and-run reckless and careless driving as result of an automobile wreck on Albemarle Avenue last night.

Nobles is charged with running into an automobile driven by Cecil Jones, Pitt county game warden, as the negro entered Albemarle Avenue from a blind alley. Both cars were badly damaged by the impact.

Nobles jumped from his car and ran, leaving what police described as a gallon of liquor behind in the car. Opinion was expressed that he had just delivered a cargo of whiskey and was finishing the route when the accident occurred.

Chief of Police George Clark said Nobles was tried on a charge of selling whiskey a week or so ago and released on payment of fine and cost.

He was believed to have resumed his old trade last night when the wreck brought his trip to an abrupt end.

HOME LOANS WILL EXPIRE ON JUNE 27

Distressed Home Owners Needing Aid Urged to Act Before Date of Expiration

Salisbury, June 20.—The attention of home owners in distress who desire aid of the Home Owners' Loan Corporation, was today called to the fact that under the amendment of the HOLC Act, recently passed by Congress, the period for filing new applications will expire at midnight, June 27, 1935. After that date, it was stated by T. C. Abernethy, state manager of the corporation here, no applications will be received, and he warned all those desiring assistance to file their applications at once.

Mr. Abernethy stated that regulations, as to eligibility, remain virtually unchanged, and those desiring complete explanation of what cases are eligible may receive it either by calling at the state office, Post Office Building, Salisbury, N. C., or one of the district offices, or by writing for full information. District offices are located as follows: Raleigh, Charlotte, Greensboro, Asheville and Greenville.

On June 13, 1935, two years to the day since the Home Owners' Loan Corporation was created by Congress, the Corporation in North Carolina has made loans upon 11,125 urban homes threatened with tax sale or foreclosure, the amount of such relief loans totaling $28,346,483.18, according to Mr. Abernethy.

Since active lending operations began in August, 1933, the corporation in North Carolina has closed loans at an average rate of about $270,000 per week. Of the $28,346,483.18 disbursed, approximately $4,000,000 has been paid out in cash for payment of back taxes for the necessary repairs and for other similar expenses. That the majority of eligible distressed mortgages have already been submitted to the corporation is indicated by the small number of new applications filed since May 28 when, for the first time since November 13, 1934, acceptance of new requests for aid was authorized. From May 28 to June 13, only 583 applications were received by the North Carolina agency, representing an accumulation of six and a half months.

SHOWER MARS HALF HOLIDAY

Greenville - Williamston Ball Game Called Off Yesterday Account of Rain

Greenville's observance of its third half Wednesday holiday was marred yesterday by rain which prevented the playing of the scheduled Greenville-Williamston ball game, the highlight of the day's celebration here.

Rain visiting the community shortly before 3 o'clock during the afternoon wet the ball grounds so completely that officials of both clubs decided it would be futile to attempt to play under such conditions.

When the rain subsided during the mid-afternoon numbers of persons took plunges in the local swimming pool and still others went to nearby streams to try their luck at angling.

After its failure to play yesterday, the local ball club went to Williamston this morning for a game at 10 o'clock. This afternoon the two clubs were to play in Rocky Mount as a feature of the Gallopade. The game will be an exhibition affair and is not contained on the league schedule.

With the holiday observance just starting good there will be plenty of other occasions of the kind for employees of local business houses to enjoy themselves during the remainder of the summer, and regret over the loss of yesterday's ball game will soon be forgotten.

HAUPTMANN'S APPEAL GOES TO HIGH COURT

Legal Aspects of Kidnap-Murder Case Presented to Court of Errors-Appeals

Trenton, N. J., June 20.—(AP)—Bruno Richard Hauptmann's lawyers stripped his case of its emotional wrappings today and presented legal aspects to the State's highest court in an appeal from the Flemington verdict which decreed he must die for the murder of Charles Lindbergh, Jr.

The 14 judges of the Court of Error and Appeals sitting in the oppressive hush of a big white-walled room presented a lengthy brief sighting numerous legal opinions to support their contention that Hauptmann did not receive justice in the crowded Hunterdon county court house.

To the brief they added in their appeal three hours of oral argument, twice the time allotted the defense.

The Hauptmann brief made its heaviest emphasis on the charge that the state had wrongfully used varying theories in the trial as to how the kidnaped child met death. The burden of the state evidence, it was said, was that the child had been killed when he was dropped from the bucking kidnap ladder.

Despite this, the brief contended that Attorney General David T. Wilentz, summing up for the state, espoused an entirely different theory that Hauptmann had killed the child before removing him from his crib.

A week-old opinion of the court granting a new trial to a Newark negro was sighted in support of this contention. Although the court did not rule on the point in that decision it observed in its opinion that it was unfair to inject a new theory in a murder trial after the case had proceeded on a different theory because it deprived the defense of his right to cross examine on the new theory.

Three months of waiting—three or four—will follow the hearing while the members of the court study records of the trial and weigh the arguments of defendant and prosecution.

Quarter Million Dollar RAIN IN WILSON COUNTY

Wilson, June 20.—Wilson county was richer tonight by $250,000 the rain that the farmers of this section have all been praying for the last two months arrived around 3 yesterday, and gave them much sought for life to the tobacco and cotton of this section. Up to yesterday the cotton and tobacco crops of the county, according to farm agent W. L. Adams, have suffered by drought and windstorms to the extent of around $350,000. Today the crops came back in a new own again.

News Behind The News.

TOMAHAWK. Tammany and the Roosevelt administration are heading toward a war which may mark a major development in American politics. I will not be the first time a Democratic President has fought the Tiger, but this conflict could upset calculations for 1936. An armed truce is now in effect. Tammany has not forgiven Mr. Farley for robbing it of the mayoralty. Its bigwigs have no sympathy with the New Deal's larger aims. Its district leaders are getting no patronage worth talking about.

You can find the key at Washington. Two important Tammany men are completely off the reservation. One is Senator Copeland the other is Chairman John J. O'Connor of the powerful House Rules Committee. Doctor Copeland has voted against almost every Roosevelt measure. He vows he will run on an anti-Roosevelt ticket next year if necessary. Chairman O'Connor has pigeon-holed or held up several "must" measures wanted by the White House. It is clear where

PROBE DEATH OF TWO MEN IN MILL STRIKE

Officers Seek to Untangle Web of Conflicting Accounts at Union, S. C.

Union, S. C., June 20.—(AP)—A coroner's jury sought today to untangle a web of conflicting accounts of the fatal shooting of two men during the short-lived strike at the Monarch mills here.

Approximately 50 witnesses were expected to testify concerning the killing of A. L. Stuts, 63, overseer of the cardroom, and W. B. Franklin, 57-year-old magistrate's constable before a jury empaneled by Coroner George Noland of Union county.

George Royster, a mill deputy and John Stuts, 40-year-old son of the slain man were arrested on a warrant charging T. M. McNeil, superintendent of the mill, as an accessory before the fact in the killing of Franklin was sworn to before Magistrate Warren Fowler by D. M. Head, a mill employee.

Stuts, who was said to have struck Franklin with a club or bat was held at the Union county jail. Royster was taken to the State penitentiary for safe keeping after demonstrations against him.

The Monarch and Ottery mills employ 1,200 operatives and all machinery remained inactive until Monday but the mill management agreed to reinstate without discrimination several hundred workers who quit the Monarch plant.

Late News Flashes

Refuse to Okay Roosevelt Proposal

Washington, June 20.—(AP)—The state finance committee refused today to add any of President Roosevelt's proposals in approving the house resolution extending $500,000,000 of nuisance and excise levies expiring June 30.

Higher taxes on the wealthy were proposed yesterday by the president in a special message to Congress. He asked this action to cut large incomes and to prevent concentration of great wealth.

Considerable difference of opinion existed as to whether he wanted the program passed this session. There was clear implication he wanted most of it enacted before adjournment but some leading Democrats privately opposed this.

The senate committee voted to extend the nuisance taxes for one year instead of two voted by the house. Senator LaFollette of Wisconsin proposed that an inheritance tax on higher sur-tax and corporation taxes be incorporated in the resolution by chairman Harrison announced the sentiment of the committee was that the proposal should go through without amendments.

LaFollette said he would renew his fight on the senate floor.

Federal Government Asked to Take Over Carriers

Washington, June 20.—(AP)—Charging that financial houses have looted the railroads of the country, the Railway Labor Executive Association today adopted a resolution urging immediate taking over of the carriers by the federal government.

The resolution said financial institutions holding large amounts of railway bonds had obtained the power to control railway management because of the wide distribution of stock among individual holders through these measures and the

NEGRO STEALS MONEY; HELD

Rufus Williams to Face Trial Here Saturday for Theft of $9.75 in Belvoir

Rufus Williams, colored, was arrested early today on a charge of larceny growing out of the alleged theft of $9.75 from a white man named Andrews in the Belvoir association yesterday.

The negro was lodged in county jail to await preliminary hearing before Magistrate John Ivey Smith Saturday morning.

The arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff Preston Pierce, who said the theft apparently was committed when Andrews went to the negro's home, and had the money stolen from him after he had taken on a considerable amount of contraband whiskey.

Andrews a short time later came to Greenville and reported the theft to the sheriff's office.

NEARLY 600 AT COLLEGE

Registration Stood at 565, Largest in Years, When Final Count is Made

The final count of 565 when the time limit for registration closed for the first term of the Summer School at East Carolina Teachers college makes the enrollment the highest for a number of summers.

A large number of the students taking courses leading to the A. B. degree and Class A certificates, are teachers who hold diplomas for the completion of the two-year course. Many of these have been coming summer after summer, so that a large percentage of the student body is made up of former students.

There is quite a sprinkling of students from other colleges, some of whom are making credits to transfer in the fall to the colleges in which they are regularly matriculated, while others are getting their credits transferred so as to continue regular work at E. C. T. C.

Quite a number who drive in from the surrounding towns are among the day students. Their cars make the campus look like a summer resort.

PRISON CAMP LASHES ARE INACTIVE NOW

No Reports of Uncensored Whippings Reported to State Department

Reflector Bureau, St. Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, June 20.—No report has been made on the recent prisoners outbreak in two camps. Woodville, Perquimans county, and at the Calcedonia farm, but it is certain that Chairman Capus M. Waynick of the state highway and public works commission does not think the unrestricted use of the whip is the remedy for that wrong.

Mr. Waynick's attitude toward corporal punishment probably fixed the general assembly's. During the late session when the Mecklenburg negroes whose amputated feet brought the county camp into the public eye, there was almost universal expression given to the need of the lash. Mr. Waynick desired neither license nor prohibition. The facts soon were available. The prison camps were using the leather strap.

Mr. Waynick has been begged recently to license the whip and remove the restrictions upon its use. The chairman, as an old newspaper man, recalls the days when there was no restraint upon the impulse to flog. The state prison management banned the whip 12 years ago. The absorption of the county camps into the state system brought another set of rules and of employees into the picture.

There have been many whippings, but Mr. Waynick has ordered them discontinued except under such supervision as his department sets up. The prison camp supervisors do not like those restraints. There were severe whippings following the outbreak in Woodville. Another effort to break camp was thwarted by prisoners in that same camp. Naturally the Raleigh offices have been wondering if there is not something wrong with the management.

On that point there is no information yet. The report has not been made. An investigation has been undertaken but Mr. Waynick is not yet ready to give the results publication. The prison directors, who are the highway and public works commission are not convinced that the whip is the remedy for such troubles as have been breaking out periodically.

The present board is not disposed to abolish the lash. The late Woodrow Wilson thought the initiative, referendum and recall, particularly the recall, a good "gun behind the door." Mr. Waynick is not certain that such a gun as the whip is not necessary behind the door. But he is not giving license to everybody on the prison payroll to use the gun. And while the several camps have been troubled by rowdy and vicious prisoners, the central prison which does not under any conditions use the whip is keeping its records clean. It has had no major trouble of any kind.

The prison management is going to make better use of good records. There is, for instance, the promotion of John Hatfield, something of a feudist in a family of feuds living in Carter County, Tennessee. Hatfield broke up the beating that six Calcedonia prisoners gave Floyd Johnson, Calcedonia guard, several weeks ago. Hatfield terrorized Creedy Woody, assailant of Mr. Johnson and would have beaten Woody up if the assailant of Johnson had shown the nerve to fight the big mountaineer. The promotion gives Hatfield his honor status. It makes certain his getting out, before his days end.

The prison management is going to undertake some of the conventional humanities and some of its own. It is believed that much of the trouble that periodically breaks out may be avoided and that the quality of service may be improved. Hatfield neither came nor lived here with any reputation as an angel. But he is winning his time off and for saving Guard Johnson is putting himself in line for early clemency.

Wallace Infant Dead; Funeral This Afternoon

Don Erwin Wallace, 11 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tobie Wallace of Greenville R. P. D. 5, died yesterday afternoon at 12:30 o'clock at Bass Memorial Hospital at Tarboro.

Funeral services were conducted from the late home this afternoon at 3 o'clock and burial was made in the family cemetery nearby.

Surviving are the parents and two half-brothers, James Crawford and Ronald Crawford, and a sister, Joyce Arlene Wallace. He is also survived by two grandmothers, Mrs. Mary Colville and Mrs. W. Colville, all of this county.

It also permits the arrest of American smugglers caught in foreign other catch here. We must negotiate express agreements with other powers before that provision can become effective. State Department emissaries doubt that this urge to reform the world's morals will get us anywhere. Japan is still marching into China.

PURIST: Don't look for any reduction of liquor taxes at this session. Secretary Morgenthau will not listen to such suggestions despite the argument that they will cut the cost of liquor and reduce bootlegging. President Roosevelt stands squarely behind him—so far.
Mr. Morgenthau believes a tax cut would amount to a surrender to the bootleggers. He thinks he can drive them out of business through enforcement. He is pressing them by land and sea and his head bulges with new enforcement ideas each day. He will not compromise unless "Boss" Roosevelt forces him to do so.

Though the public may not realize it, Mr. Morgenthau is the political purist of the Cabinet. There are no half-ones in his public life.
A thing is right or wrong, black or white, to him. He wears a blue suit day in and day out. Only the President can make him change his policies—or his clothes.

SHARPENED: About 1500 clerks will carry on under the new NRA.
Their chief job will be to compile statistics and reports which may later afford some assistance in shaping up a new scheme for regulating interstate business. The Central Statistical Bureau will cooperate with the NRA crew in gathering information as to business conditions and practices.

Opponents contend that passage of the de-horned NRA is merely a face-saving device—a move to make the country believe that Congress and the President have not been completely mopped up by the Supreme Court.

The Federal Trade Board comes into its own. The anti-trust laws have had their teeth sharpened. Big business lawyers are advising clients

Few New Dealers are afflicted that way, as the Supreme Court gently hinted.

But the SEC Chairman shudders at the work which will be piled up on him if the holding company bill becomes law in its Senate form. Besides the added task of breaking up second-degree corporations, he would have to serve as financial undertaker—or godfather. He must take charge of all corporations which go into voluntary or involuntary receivership.

Mr. Kennedy doesn't intend to quit, despite reports to the contrary.
He will stay as long as Mr. Roosevelt wants him and these prospective new jobs may make him a permanent resident of the Capital.

New York
By JAMES McMULLIN
TIES: Keen New York sources remark that Senator William E. Borah's amendment to the Wheeler-Rayburn bill—which would summarily abolish all intermediate holding companies without regard to possible economic justification—wasn't nearly as unfriendly to the utilities as it appeared. With the House already balked at the stringency of the original bill, this attempt to give it still more bite will only intensify the argument between House and Senate when they try to reconcile the differences between their respective holding company measures in conference.

Insiders insist that the President isn't bitter—end about the details of holding company legislation as reports would indicate. They are firmly convinced he would accept modification of the Wheeler-Rayburn bill to give the better class groups some assurance of survival as long as he doesn't have to take responsibility for the softening. One observer puts it: "If he can get a nice set of front teeth, he won't care much if the molars are extracted."

But power leaders are feeling their oats again. They would have been gratefully satisfied with such modification a month or so ago—but now they are shooting to kill the whole menace of federal intervention in their business. Borah's rider gives them a lift. The more delay there is in conference, the better the chances that Congress will yield to the Washington summer climate and go home without enacting any utility bill. You couldn't exactly call Borah Wall Street's pal—but he does have strong private ties in conservative circles which the informed say have played quite a part in shaping his ideas.

Taft-Winslow

The Winslow home presented a lovely scene on Wednesday night at eight o'clock, when Miss Louise Winslow, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Winslow, became the bride of Joseph M. Taft.

The ceremony, performed by Dr. G. R. Combs, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, was witnessed by the two families, close friends of the bride and groom, and a number of guests from other cities.

The library where the ceremony took place, was a bower of flowers. The improvised altar was banked with Easter lilies, shell pink gladioli, palms and clobotium ferns, and tiers of cathedral candles.

The ceremony was preceded by a musical program by Mrs. Herbert Waldrop, accompanied by Mrs. Closs Hearn at the piano. Mrs. Waldrop sang "All For You" by Guy d'Harcourt, and "Still As the Night" by Earl Bohm.

The "Bridal Chorus" from Lohengrin was played for the entrance of the wedding party. The ushers entered from the side door and stood on either side of the altar. They were Hoover Taft, brother of the bridegroom; Dr. B. Massey, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; Norman Winslow and Hugh Winslow, brothers of the bride.

The bride and her attendants descended the stairway. The bridesmaids were, Mrs. William Taft, sister-in-law of the groom; Mrs. Norman Winslow, sister-in-law of the bride; Miss Mary Elliott, the bride's room-mate while at Agnes Scott College, and Miss Patsy Davenport. They were identical dresses of peach mousseline-de-soie, long, close-fitting, with slight train, pleated ruffles around the bottom of skirt, and cape with pleated ruffles. They carried arm bouquets of shell pink snapdragons with garlands of belladonna delphinium.

Little Miss Jane Massey, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. B. Massey, and niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She was very lovely in a dainty, fluffy dress of white. She wore a bandeau of sweet peas and sweetheart roses, with a bracelet to petals.

Mrs. Marvin Blount, sister of the bridegroom, dame of honor; and Miss Elizabeth Winslow, sister of the bride, maid of honor, wore identical dresses of cornflower blue mousseline-de-soie, made on long flowing lines, with a shirred cape. The skirt, with a slight train, was trimmed with a cascade of ruffles. They carried sprays of briarcliff roses, delphinium and gerbera daisies.

The bride entered with her father, by whom she was given in marriage. She was very lovely. Her gown was fashioned by Chanel of white mousseline-de-soie, made in princess style with puffed sleeves to elbow and tight-fitting from elbow to hand, with rows of tiny white buttons as trimming. Her belt extending around her waist, was trimmed with pearl ornaments. The skirt was made on long flowing lines with tiers of fluffy ruffles extending around the skirt and forming a long train. Her veil was a Marie Dorree model of white illusion, made tight-fitting cap style with bands of French orange blossoms around the head, the veil rippling in flowing lines beyond the length of her train. She carried a bouquet of valley lilies, framed in a pleated ruffle of tulle, with a cascade of lilies.

The bridegroom was attended by William Taft, his brother, as best man.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Winslow entertained with a reception. A large number of friends called during the evening.

The guests were welcomed at the front door by Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Person and Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Massey and introduced to the receiving line by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Duncan. The receiving line was composed of the entire wedding party and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Winslow, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taft, C. R. Small, Phillip Winslow, Mrs. M. B. Massey, Marvin Blount, Mrs. G. R. Combs, J. H. Waldrop and C. W. Hearn. The bride and groom stood directly in front of the altar with the wedding party on either side.

In the second receiving line which was formed in the back lobby and headed by Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Fleming, were relatives of the families. Mrs. Josiah Russell of Chapel Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Winslow of Scotland Neck, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCulloch of Tampa, Florida, Miss Virginia Whitlark of Tarboro, Harold Yelverton and Misses Martha and Betty Belle Yelverton of Fremont, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Campbell of Plymouth, Mrs. N. B. Stevens and Miss Sarah Stevens of Fayetteville, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Chesson of Wilson, John Lewis Yelverton of Miss Martha Bagley Yelverton of Stantonsburg, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Taft, Mr. and Mrs. John Taft and Mr. and Mrs. Bryce Sigmon of Greenville.

Guests were asked to register by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Davenport. Mr.

and Mrs. J. H. Rose and Miss Lelia Higgs presided over the register which was in the back hall.

Miss Nellie Denny and Mrs. Frank Wilson invited the guests into the dining room. Mr. H. E. Austin and Mrs. W. B. Tighman were in the dining room.

The dining room was lovely with profusions of flowers banked on the mantel and buffet. The table was covered with an imported cloth, centered with an exquisite arrangement of pink roses and gypsophylla, flanked by pink candles in silver holders. A pink and white color note was carried out in the lilies, mints and decorated cakes.

Mrs. J. L. Hassell and Mrs. O. G. Guiley, seated at the table, served ice cream from silver platters. Others assisting were, Misses Mary Wise Davenport, Verda Wilson, Lorraine Skinner, Mary Rachael Teel, Sarah Winslow of Scotland Neck, Ada Martin Flynn of Washington, Frances Morton, and Rosamond VanDyke.

In the hall were Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Higgs, Mr. and Mrs. M. O. Blount of Bethel, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Flynn of Washington. On entering the music room, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Blount of Bethel, invited guests to the punch bowl, presided over by Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. Walker. Others assisting were Misses Helen Fleming, Elizabeth Higgs, Frances Moseley, Elizabeth Flynn of Washington, Zack VanDyke, Dr. Sandy Marks of Wilmington, Dr. Darden E. Morehead City, John F. Long of Lancaster, Pa., and Add Warren of Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Simpson invited guests to the gift room where they were greeted by Mrs. Nannie Holloman and Mrs. Iverson Skinner. Immediately following the reception Mr. and Mrs. Taft departed for a wedding trip through the northern states and Canada. Mrs. Taft's traveling costume was a Paton model of navy sheer crepe, made on semi-tailored lines, with a short pleated cape of chiffon trimmed with bands of white ribbon. Her accessories were navy and white.

After returning they will be at home, 1212 Dickinson Avenue.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Winslow and is very popular and attractive. She is a graduate of Agnes Scott College, Atlanta, Ga. Since graduating she has been a secretary in the office of the J. E. Winslow Company.

Mr. Taft is a son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Taft. He attended the University of North Carolina and Eastman School of Business, Poughkeepsie, New York. At present he is a member of the firm of Taft Furniture Company.

4-H Club Girls, Notice! The State Short Course which has been announced for July 24-29, has been indefinitely postponed because of the increase of infantile paralysis.

On Tuesday night, after the rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Louise Winslow and Joseph M. Taft, Miss Elizabeth Winslow and Hugh Winslow entertained the bridal party, relatives and out of town guests, and a few friends.

Immediately after the rehearsal guests were invited into the dining room, which was lovely with gladioli, tall gleaming candles in silver holders and white wedding bells hanging down over the well appointed table. The table was covered by an imported Italian cut-work cloth with a beautiful three-tiered wedding cake topped by a decoration of wedding bells and miniature bride and groom. Gardennias were scattered over the table around the cake—the color scheme being green and white.

Much merriment was caused by the cutting of the wedding cake by the bride-elect. After guests had found the articles in the ones getting the ring and thimble, they were served orange-pineapple sherbet and cake. Dancing followed and guests reluctantly departed at a late hour.

DONKEY BALL GAME SET FOR CITY FRIDAY

Tomorrow night at 8:15 p. m. at the Third Street baseball field the most novel attraction ever staged in a baseball way will come off when the Kiwanis and Rotary club team will play the Greenville base ball club a game of baseball on donkeys.

The field will be electrically lighted and you will have an opportunity of seeing prominent local citizens playing base ball on bucking mules. These Mexican burros are especially trained for this combination baseball game and rodeo and you will get more laughs than you can imagine. All players ride donkeys except pitchers and catchers. After the batter hits the ball he mounts his steed and away to first he goes. The fielders play their position mounted on Mexican Burros. At times the donkey will get within a few feet of the base and balk, and when he balks the runner has not got a chance to make him move, the result is the batter is thrown out.

After careful consideration Arthur vote of the people. You know it will be a scream to see Karl Pace rounding second base on the back of a donkey. Sheriff Whitehurst has promised to be on hand to take care of those who continue to laugh boisterous and disturb the donkeys. Lester Jones is expected to handle the traffic jam. Read the list of the players below, and if you would like to play, be on hand, for brother you will be called on:

Greenville Base Ball Club—Ty Wagner, Hoyt Farmer, Lefty Dean, Pete Naktens, Reynolds May, Clarence Wade, George Barley, Guy Williams, Andy Johnson, Wayne Ambler, Runt Bostic, Bo Farley, Jim Sullivan, Billie Huiskamp, Ace Parker.

Kiwanis and Rotary—Herbert Barker, Dink James, Bill Lee, G. V. Smith, David Moore, Karl Pace, Jasper Winslow, Herbert Waldrop, Frank Harrington, Claude Gaskins, Al Darden, J. W. Overton, Lebron Spence, Prof. Ralph Deal, Jimmie Galloway.

Arthur Corey will umpire and play on both sides.

modest support appeared for scattered issues. Grains, cotton and most other commodities took their cue from equities and backed up substantially. Bonds were irregular but not noticeably heavy. Foreign exchange rates are narrow.

The stock tone in the final hour was heavy. Transfers were 1,000,000 shares.

"creation of highly questionable holding companies."

The bankers had rivited their control on this most vital industry. In order to meet the extremely high interest and rental charges due to this situation and the rates charged by the railroad management have found it necessary to dispend with the services of hundreds of thousands of railway workers.

It added that a large number of communities throughout the country have been destroyed to increase the returns to the "wholly irresponsible groups controlling the rail-

Italy Threatens to Quit League

Rome, June 20.—(AP)—An authoritative source stated tonight that Italy will resign from the League of Nations if the league continues to interfere with the Italo-Ethiopian controversy on the basis of the protest sent to Geneva today by Ethiopia.

Ethiopia appealed to the league again today against Italy involving Article 10 of the league covenant under which members of the international body are pledged to respect the territorial integrity of other nations.

a sporting offer TO EVERY FAIR-MINDED MOTORIST

If you've been passing up Gulf pumps lately, you're postponing a great discovery. We'd like you to know just how good That Good Gulf Gasoline is today. So here's a sporting proposition . . . Try Gulf for 3 weeks. Give it a chance to prove that it's really 5 good gasolines in one. We're betting you'll agree with the motorists who've already accepted our bid. You can't lose—you can gain. Fair enough?

GULF REFINING COMPANY

750 People said "O.K." . . . and Gulf won!

WE picked 750 motorists "out of a hat"—and made them this proposition: "Buy That Good Gulf Gasoline for 3 weeks—try it in your cars—and give us your answers."

"O. K." they said, "We'll do it."

They compared Gulf, mile by mile, with their regular brand—for (1) mileage (2) starting (3) pick-up (4) power (5) all-around performance.

Out of 750 drivers, 7 out of 10 found Gulf better on one or more of the 5 points—and many on all five.

Why does That Good Gulf gasoline top others? Because it is 5 good gasolines in one! Controlled refining builds—not

2 or 3—but five ideal qualities into Gulf gas! Try That Good Gulf in your car—beginning today. We're betting that you'll make a lifelong friend!

Q: What's the best way of stopping your car—to stop wasting gas?

You'll find the answer to this question in this free Gulf booklet, plus 14 other helpful hints on gasoline economy. Get your free copy today at the Sign of the Orange Disc.

New York Cotton

New York, June 20.—(AP)—Cotton opened steady 5 to 8 lower with partial response to lower Liverpool cable which was partly offset by commission house buying.

There was a scattering demand for later deliveries which held prices within 2 or 3 points of the opening levels.

At midday October was around 11.19 with the general list net unchanged to four lower.

The market rallied on covering trade and spot house buying. Futures closing steady 5 to 9 higher.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, June 20.—(AP)—A selling movement in the stock market today greeted the president's share the wealth tax program.

While analysts were inclined to attribute the prices to the Washington News it was pointed out at the same time that further corrective reaction in the list was partly due to technical factors and was not to be construed as exceptionally bearish.

After an opening downward flurry the activity dwindled and some
