NEW BOARD OF CITY FATHERS INDUCTED HERE

Mayor Flanagan and Six Members of Board Take Oath of Office at Noon

Mayor R. C. Flanagan and six members of the board of Aldermen who were elected at the municipal election held in the early summer, were inducted into office in impressive ceremonies marking a special session of the Board of Aldermen at noon. Immediately following the induction ceremonies, the board organized for the next fiscal year which begins today. H. H. Duncan was re-elected mayor-pro-tem.

Aldermen sworn in this morning follow: A. E. Hoggood, Vernon Parrish, L. B. Fleming, Dr. M. B. Massey, H. H. Duncan and A. C. Tadlock. Tadlock is the only new member on the board. He defeated J. H. Boyd for the seat in the Fourth ward.

The oath of office was administered to Mayor Flanagan by Judge Dink James of County court, and the mayor in turn administered oath to members of the board.

It was the first time the mayor had appeared at the city hall in several weeks, having been confined in a Washington city hospital for treatment during the period. He was greeted heartily by members of the board, who after induction ceremonies delved into other matters of business. The board met the latter part of last week to clean house for the coming of the new year.

The regular meeting of the board will be held next Friday evening instead of Thursday in view of the fact that the Fourth of July falls on Thursday. This will be the first regular meeting of the new year and much business is expected to be transacted.

LIGHT DOCKET IN CITY COURT

Mayor R. C. Flanagan Presides Over First Session in Several Weeks

With a light docket on tap, Mayor R. C. Flanagan presided over the first session of police court this morning in over a month. The Mayor returned from Washington City over the week-end much improved after treatment in a hospital there. He was greeted heartily by members of the board of aldermen and other city officials when he entered his office at the city hall this morning and expressed the hope it would be a long time before he had to go to a hospital again.

He appeared in much better physical trim than when he left Greenville several weeks ago, but will take life easy during the next several days as he attempts to get in trim for the arduous duties of the mayor's office.

One charge of speeding was disposed of this morning, that being against Fountain Evans, who was fined on payment of cost.

Another similar charge was scheduled to come up but the defendant did not appear and action was deferred until Wednesday morning.

Two or three drunks picked up by police over the week-end were set free with cost.

State Letter Carriers To Meet At Charlotte

The state convention of Rural Letter Carriers' Association which was postponed at Chapel Hill recently because of the infantile paralysis epidemic, will be held at Charlotte July 2, 3 and 4th. It was announced today by O. H. Jackson, of Winterville, of the Rural Carriers' Association of this district.

Mr. Jackson urged all interested parties to take note of the change of place for the convention.

The action followed declaration of University of North Carolina and Chapel Hill Health Officials that in view of the infantile paralysis situation prevailing in the eastern part of the state no further public gatherings would be held there until further notice.

Russia Spurns Ship Bonds

Odessa, U. S. S. R. (AP)—The Russian authorities refused to accept a set of chains for disorderly members of the crew when a foreign-built steamship, purchased for Soviet use, was delivered here. The chains were dumped into the sea. An explanation was published saying they were not needed for soviet sailors.

POTATO PRICES BOUND UPWARD ON N. Y. MART

New York, July 1.—(AP)—A sharp increase in the price of potatoes on the market here has resulted from the Eastern Shore potato strike with best grade quoted today at from $2.00 to 2.37 a barrel, compared with 1.50 to $2.00 last week.

In market circles it was reported the recent stoppage of potato shipments by producers had brought considerably more confidence in the price structure.

TO PAY OFF DEPOSITORS OF OLD BANK

State Bank & Trust Co. To Make Final Payment To National Bank Depositors

The fourth and final payment to depositors of the old National Bank of Greenville will be made on July 27th, it was announced today by State Bank & Trust Company which took over affairs of the closed institution nearly four years ago.

All persons holding certificates due July 27 have been asked by officials of the bank to present them for payment as early as convenient so the bank may fulfill its contract to the depositors. When the new bank opened for business it unconditionally assumed 75 per cent of the deposit liability of the National Bank, payable in four annual installments. Three of these installments have been met, and that due on July 27 is the final payment.

"In successfully working out the affairs of the National Bank of Greenville, we have had the loyal support and co-operation of a large majority of our people whom it has been our pleasure to serve," officials of the institution said in a public statement today. "To these people we publicly express our sincere appreciation and thanks."

At the close of business June 30, 1935 the bank had total resources of $1,318,230.48, as compared with $1,015,634.19 the previous year.

B. B. Sugg is president, C. W. Harvey, vice president, John Mitchell, cashier, and J. R. Gaskins, assistant cashier.

TOBACCO MEN MEET IN W. VA.

Opening Dates of Markets To Be Announced at White Sulphur Springs

White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., July 1.—(AP)—The Tobacco Association of the United States opened its annual convention here today.

Cloak room talk and gold occupied chief interest of the visitors today. W. T. Clark, of Wilson, N. C., president, said the only business session would be held tomorrow when dates for the opening of the tobacco markets in the various states would be taken up. H. C. Moss, secretary of the association, said crop and price prospects and legislation also would be discussed but he expected no formal action.

One charge of speeding was disposed of this morning, that being against Fountain Evans, who was fined on payment of cost.

Another similar charge was scheduled to come up but the defendant did not appear and action was deferred until Wednesday morning.

Two or three drunks picked up by police over the week-end were set free with cost.

NEW SUPPLY OF WHISKEY AT WILSON

Carload of Liquor for Edgecombe County Reported on Wilson Tracks Today

Wilson, July 1.—(AP)—Wilson's first A. B. C. liquor store was expected to open tomorrow about noon on a license issued today. It was planned to unload the liquor car tonight after workers finished renovating the building.

A car of whiskey on a siding for local use had not been unloaded. The unloading and store opening was being held up pending the arrival of federal license.

LARGE CROWD AT SERVICES

Union Services Largely Attended Last Night In Spite of Intense Heat Wave

The second of the series of union services were conducted at Memorial Baptist Church last night with Rev. A. W. Fleischmann, pastor, delivering the sermon.

In spite of the intense heat wave which held the city in its grip, the services were largely attended. The musical program by the choir was featured by a duet by H. A. McDougle and W. W. Lee.

The Ministerial Association, sponsors of the services which have been held on the court house lawn each Sunday evening for the last several years, said today permanent arrangements for a location for the services will be made by next Sunday. Plans to hold services on the court house lawn were abandoned the latter part of last week.

Mr. Fleischmann spoke last night on the subject of "Transformers." His subject was taken from Romans 12:2: "And be not conformed to this world; but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind."

He said in part: The principle of grace having been established as the basis of our salvation (Romans 1-8) the Holy Spirit in this part of the letter describes the character and conduct of those who have been born into that kingdom of grace. Accordingly Christian conduct is exhibited in seven relationships, namely, to God, the church, fellow-believers, enemies, the State, society and weak brethren. This transformed life is not the result of outside mechanical action, but an inward perpetual renewing of the mind, seeking for discerning, and doing the will of God. We think first of our being "transformed" in the terms of personal experience. "Metamorphosis"—means to be changed into another form. The word is used concerning Christ's transfiguration in Matt. 17:2 and Mark 9:2. Here the Lord Jesus came to the completion of his human life, on the level of the earthly, and the beginning of it on the level of the heavenly. The change took place in Him, which prepared Him to leave the world and pass into the wonder of the life that lies beyond. In Him, God's

NEW SALES TAX SCHEDULE BEGINS IN THIS STATE

Raleigh, July 1.—(AP)—When Mrs. Housewife went to the grocers today she had to fork over the 3 per cent sales tax on every article of food she purchases except milk.

Ten basic articles of food were exempted from the sales tax when the law went into effect two years ago, but with the exception of milk the exemptions were removed by the 1935 legislature.

The new law went into effect at midnight last night.

HALF HOLIDAY IS CALLED OFF HERE THIS WEEK

Business Houses to Remain Open All Day Wednesday, But Close July 4th

Due to the fact that the Fourth of July falls on Thursday this year all business houses of the city will abandon their regular weekly half holiday this Wednesday, it was announced today by the Chamber of Commerce.

With the city closed as tight as Dick's proverbial hat band Thursday, it was deemed advisable to remain open all day Wednesday to meet the demands of shoppers who will want to stock up to take care of the holiday on Thursday.

Although no special preparations are being made for observance of the glorious Fourth here, everything will be done to make the occasion truly in keeping with past years. Everybody stops work on the Fourth to celebrate their independence, and while some may not feel as independent as they did last year, it is assured they will try to keep pace with the remainder of the crowd.

Observance of the summer half holidays started about a month ago and virtually all stores and business houses of the city take time off each Wednesday to give employees an opportunity to rest and take part in anything special the community may put on for the half day. Up to now the day has seen only ball games as a feature with clubs of the Coastal Plain league holding the spotlight, but those who do not attend the ball games go to nearby watering places for diversion and a few stay home and rest.

Late News Flashes

REFUSES BRITISH OFFER
London, July 1.—(AP)—Captain Anthony Eden revealed to the House of Commons today that Premier Mussolini of Italy had refused an offer by Britain to give Ethiopia a slice of the British territory in an effort to facilitate a final settlement of the dispute between Ethiopia and Italy.

Today in Congress.
Washington, July 1.—(AP)—President Roosevelt lost the first round of his struggle with Congress over the utilities holding companies bill today when the House refused 216 to 146 his request for an amendment which would abolish all such unnecessary companies by 1942.

The test came on an amendment to reinstate in the Senate approved measure the death sentence clause which had been eliminated by a House committee.

Although the House vote was awaited avidly by political observers as a possible indication the result might determine one of the major issues of the 1935 presidential campaign, it was pointed out that it was not a clear cut test of Democratic strength inasmuch as it was not a formal roll call.

While the House situation absorbed most of the capital attention, another controversial subject engaged the Senate—it took up the bill proposing a subsidy for the American Merchant Marine which had been advocated by President Roosevelt.

Its opponents asserted their determination to try to strangle it with legislative red tape. Drastically revised from the form in which it passed the House, but retaining control of the nation's Reserve Board of the administration banking bill was reported to the Senate Banking committee by the Glass sub-committee.

Supporters of the Guffey coal bill strove for quick action on the measure which would set up a little NRA within the industry. They contended its passage is necessary to avert a bituminous coal strike which now has been deferred twice. The last time was Saturday night when a 30-day truce was agreed on.

MADE F. COX TAKES LIFE: BURIAL TODAY

Funeral Services Conducted From Late Home This Afternoon at 5:30 o'Clock

Made F. Cox, 42, Greenville farm director, took his life by hanging himself with strips torn from bedclothes in the city jail yesterday morning between 5:15 and 6:30 o'clock.

The body was discovered at 6:30 by a negro jail attendant. No cause had been advanced today for the act.

A coroner's jury under direction of Coroner A. Ellwanger conducted an investigation yesterday and returned a verdict the deceased came to his death by hanging himself with bedclothes in the jail.

According to Coroner Ellwanger, the jury found that Cox had been drinking and was taken into custody after his machine collided with a truck loaded with automobiles on Dickinson avenue. Cox failed to stop, it was said, and police gave chase, taking him into custody on Chestnut street.

He was lodged in jail at 5:30 over his vigorous protest on a charge of driving while drunk and hit-and-run driving, it was reported from police headquarters today.

Funeral services will be conducted from his late home this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock by Dr. G. R. Combs, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, and burial will be made in Greenwood cemetery.

The deceased was a member of the Young Men's Bible Class of Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church. He had been farm superintendent for Blount-Harvey Co., here for a number of years and was well and favorably known.

He was a native of Pitt county and spent his whole life in Greenville. Surviving are his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Murray House; his mother, Mrs. J. Marshall Cox, of Greenville; three brothers, Roscoe T. Cox, Dal Cox, Greenville, and Dr. C. C. Cox, Durham; three sisters, Mrs. N. S. Cox, Greenville; Mrs. E. O. Dixon, Ayden, and Mrs. E. E. Tracey, Asheville.

The following will act as pall bearers:

PUSH SALES TAX STRIKE IN ARKANSAS

Merchants Refuse to Enter Tax Charge to Articles Sold in That State

Little Rock, July 1.—(AP)—Expressing confidence their signed followers will stand firm, leaders of the Arkansas sales tax rebellion opened their stores to customers today with prices bearing no demand for the 2 per cent levy which automatically went into effect at midnight.

Warned by Revenue Commissioner Earl Wiseman that if the merchants have not paid the levy to the state by June 15 he will enforce the collection under provisions of the tax act.

Harley Stump, leader of the rebellion's most militant faction, responded last night:

"Not a single merchant who signed the agreement will wince on it when the stores open for business tomorrow."

ESCAPING MICE THROW STATION INTO CONFUSION

London (AP)—Something like a riot occurred at a tiny railroad depot in Essex when the bottom dropped out of a crate containing 30 mice.

The mice ran in all directions. So did the passengers. While the men caught the mice, the women caught the train. Some caught the wrong trains.

'Ty' Wagner Elected League Club Manager

The Greenville Coastal Plain League club took the field today with a new manager at the helm.

He was Ty Wagner, who has caught for the local club the past two seasons and captained last season's Duke University nine.

Wagner succeeds "Bo" Farley, who resigned the latter part of last week to go to Springfield, Mass., to resume studies considered necessary for his position as athletic coach and teacher at Danville, Va. Farley played his last game at third base with the Greensville Saturday and saw them annex the second game of the series with Goldsboro after making it two straight over Tarboro.

Wagner was elected to succeed Farley at a meeting of the board of directors Saturday night, and will make his first appearance as manager in the game here today against Williamson, one of the most formidable teams of the league. The Martins several days ago made it two in a row over the locals.

In accepting Farley's resignation the directors expressed regret over his departure, and praised him for the fine work he had done during his brief stay as team head.

Wagner has been with the Greensville two seasons and was in the front line of attack as the locals captured the championship series from Kingston last year to keep the flag here another season.

LEAF GROWERS CAST BIG VOTE FOR 'CONTROL'

Twenty to One Majority Reported From Balloting in Southwestern States

Atlanta, July 1.—(AP)—Flue cured tobacco growers in five southeastern states voted approximately 20 to 1 on incomplete returns in favor of continuing the acreage control program for their crop year. Scattered returns showed 27,636 voting for the program and 1,313 against. Growers in Georgia, Virginia, North and South Carolina, and Florida balloted on the flue cured control program.

The incomplete vote in Georgia was 14,754 for and 1,185 against. North Carolina reported a vote of 7,667 for and 57 against on incomplete returns; Virginia, 5,011 for and 53 against and Florida 204 for and 18 against. Reports from South Carolina said 98 per cent of the growers in that state voted to continue the control act.

State extension headquarters will forward the vote to Washington where the tobacco section of the AAA will formally proclaim the results.

Duce Limits Newspaper Pages

Rome (AP)—A new government order, issued without explanation, limits newspapers to 10 pages once each week and to six pages on Wednesdays and Fridays. Since most papers receive subsidies, economy is thought to be the motive for the order.

INVOKE MARTIAL LAW IN PEIPING SECTION

Peiping, China, July 1.—(AP)—Martial law was proclaimed yesterday at Tungchow, 15 miles east of Peiping, upon report that mutineers against the Chinese army had taken refuge there.

Police reinforcements were sent to Tungchow, where a score of missionaries of the American Board of Missions and the mission's school are located.

In Peiping guards were further strengthened at strategic points, following an attack on the city of rebels Friday. Gates of the city were closed between the hours of 9 p. m. and 6 a. m., and streets were deserted.

A reward of 20,000 silver dollars for the capture alive of General Pao Chien-wu former chief of staff of a northern Chinese army who is accused of leading the revolt, was offered by Chinese authorities. They will pay 10,000 silver dollars for his body.

Hear Ye! Hear Ye! The Duchess of Kent made her first official speech since her marriage to King George's fourth son, when she opened an exhibition of Russian art here. "I have much pleasure in declaring this exhibition open," was all she said.

SPUD PRICES BOOSTED TO $2 A BARREL

Improvement in Price Situation Results From Strike of Growers In Va.

Painter, Va., July 1.—(AP)—A theoretical price of $2 a barrel and strike, code regulations on potato shipments went into effect here today as the Eastern Shore potato growers shipping strike enters its second week.

Since the farmers met last Wednesday no potatoes have been shipped from Accomac and Northampton counties, Virginia's greatest producing area. Today operating under an agreement reached Saturday growers may ship the tubers at $2 a barrel provided the price is specified by the commission merchants in writing in advance.

Independent truckmen may buy potatoes at $1.90 and will be allowed to haul them across the state line if they can show a pass signed by the postmaster, bank cashier, or notary public, specifying the agreed price.

Pickets continued to patrol the area and truckmen had been invited to co-operate in the price boosting movement. The level has been raised from $1.25 as of last week to the $2.00 level the farmers said they must have today.

FICKLEN BACK FROM EUROPE

Leaves Almost Immediately For U. S. Tobacco Assn. Session In W. Virginia

James S. Ficklen, president of the F. B. Ficklen Tobacco Company here, returned Saturday from an extended trip to European countries where he conferred with representatives of his concern regarding the tobacco industry.

Mr. Ficklen was accompanied by Mrs. Ficklen.

They visited England and several European countries, remaining away from home about a month.

Mr. Ficklen spent only a few hours in Greenville before leaving for White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., where he will attend the annual meeting of the United States Tobacco Association which sets the opening dates of the various tobacco markets. His stay here was so brief that he was unable to be reached for a statement as to the outlook on the foreign tobacco markets.

The concern here, like numbers of others in this part of the state, does a large business with foreign agencies, and Mr. Ficklen makes an annual visit to Europe to determine the outlook for demand during the forthcoming season. However, during the past year he has made two or three trips abroad.

Several other members of the Greenville Tobacco market left yesterday and today for White Sulphur Springs to attend the sessions of the United States Tobacco Association, of which Mr. Clark, of Wilson, is president.

Opening dates for the various markets was expected to be set sometime tomorrow, and tobacco men in all sections will watch for the announcement with interest.

gored the conservatives. Even those who favor the underlying philosophy deplored such haste. As Whirligig predicted weeks ago, the President wants the taxes but he doesn't want to be taxed too heavily for wanting them. That explains the off-again-on-again-gone again tactics.

HAIL! Many White House aides heaved a sigh of relief when Hugh Johnson fell for the Roosevelt-La-Guardia offer to put the "boon" in
"boon-doggling" in New York City.
The General had been angling for several federal posts.

His exit from the Washington stage was typical. On the very day he took the new job he wrote an article smacking the new work-relief program as "anti-raking." The liberal was repeated over the telephone to one of Harry Hopkins' assistants, and he was asked to guess who had said it. "Oh," he replied, "some Republican reactionary, I suppose."
"No," came the answer. "It was made by your new works progress
director in New York City."

SHUNTING: Future administrations came take a lesson from the New Dealers in handling a bonus
army with gloves instead of guns.
It's a costly and troublesome scheme
as a confidential report on these maneuvers reveals. But it's supposed to be better for bonus-seekers to draw $40 a month in tropical surroundings than to camp at the Capitol and stir up a bonus-minded Congress.

More than 5,000 bonus marchers
have piled to Washington since Mr.
Roosevelt took office. That is almost half the number which settled down in alleys and vacant lots before the eviction some years ago.
Such a nucleus would attract many more thousands if allowed to congregate here. They might threaten serious political embarrassment.
But FEMA keeps them on the move. Some are shunted to transient camps roundabout. Others receive placement in Florida rehabilitation camps. Some have been enrolled in CCC outfits. They go peaceably enough, but plenty bounce back after this polite bum's rush.

DEBTORS: The $400,000,000 worth of potential farm loans heaving toward the White House frighten many big officials. They admit privately that those pending bills—
the Bankhead and Federal Land-bank—may upset the structure of large scale financial aid to hard-up farmers.

Despite favorable bookkeeping practices the repayment picture on farm loans is gloomy. About 40 per cent of borrowers from the $2,000-$5,000 Land Bank fund are delinquent. But the hidden catch is that nobody is listed as a bad debtor so long as he pays interest. Only 30 per cent are cutting down the principal.
About 83 are keeping up interest on another $700,000,000 block of loans.
Principal payments are not due until three years after the loan is negotiated.

Congress is largely at fault. Most farmers honestly try to pay up.
Most officials want to collect. But when times get hard and farm prices sag, Congress pours out more billions, postpones payment of principal and reduces the interest burden. Every Congressman loves a debtor who votes.

CURSES: Of course Roosevelt's foes have politely called attention to his contradictory policy in demanding indefinite extra taxes on business at this juncture, while the government propaganda boys are whipping up the idea that business is recovering. It did feel better after FRA was slain, but now it hesitates again.

The usual theory is that Roosevelt can't be licked if the country enjoys good times in 1936. Why, then, did Roosevelt give business a wallop? The answer is that he wanted to take the wind out of radical sails—to herd all the leftists back into camp. But some Democrats in Congress breathe "curses," not loud but deep" when they think of the failure of the work relief

tax plan in a form which will affect only the wealthy. The conservative opposition—realizing that their case has no political appeal—will make a powerful effort to broaden the base of the new taxes
to take in everyone who makes over $10,000 a year. New York insiders
ting this over.

The object will be to make the new taxes as unpopular as possible
so they won't be too darned permanent. If they are confined to the super-rich it would be very hard to get them repealed. The more pocketbooks are squeezed the more agitation there will be to have the imposts removed as soon as possible.
Of course even those with incomes
from $10,000 up are a small minority of the population—but the group includes most business and professional leaders and wields an influence far beyond its numbers.

The basic argument of those who are trying to engineer this broadening
will be: "So we're going to reduce the national debt, with higher taxes? Fine—but $340,000,000 won't make much of a dent. Let's take in everybody who can afford to give."
Supporters of the President's program will find that logic hard to refute.

VOTES: Reports that Mr. Roosevelt will veto the holding company
bill unless it contains the death sentence seem to contradict the contention that he has been willing to have the back teeth pulled if the front teeth are left nice and shiny.
The contradiction is more apparent than real. The best informed sources say that the President was ready to accept modification—until the utilities got hard-boiled and decided the bill must be slaughtered instead of merely softened. That has been their real objective in recent weeks where earlier they would have been content with a compromise. Lately they have felt they had the President on the run—and why take a half-loaf when there's a whole one within reach?

The trouble is that two can play that game. If the power people don't care to be reasonable, neither does the White House. Insiders figure FDR's strategy will now be to step hard on a measure he can characterize as too weak and then take the question to the country in the '36 campaign—another skirmish in the coming showdown between the New Deal and the money power.
New Yorkers agree that a rousing fight on the utilities would probably corral many extra votes for Roosevelt next year from liberals who have been lukewarm towards his policies.

SPENDING: To hear business
tell it, higher taxes on the profits of large corporations will raise havoc with employment. It's argued that big companies will have to economize more sharply than ever to make any kind of a showing and that the incentive to expand activities will be destroyed.

Experience fails to confirm these gloomy prophecies. The excess profits tax—based on a broader principle—led to much larger corporate outlays. More people were hired,

salaries were raised, advertising appropriations enlarged, research work expanded—anything to keep profits in bounds. Most corporate managements would rather spend freely
for almost any purpose than hand over extra dough to Uncle Sam. It makes them feel that at least they have some say about what is done
with their companies' money.
There's no room for executive initiative in shelling out to the Treasury.

This doesn't necessarily imply a vigorous reemployment boom if the corporate tax proposals go through.
But it does suggest that there is an intent of pressure for expanding employment back of the Roosevelt drive.

ENOUGH: New York observers
note that the most conspicuous

Congressional opponents of speedy action on the Roosevelt tax program are Senator Bennett Clark of Missouri and Representative Emanuel Celler of New York—both Democrats.

This ties in perfectly with our recent analysis of the elements fighting to smash FDR within his own party. As noted here last week, Clark is one of the leaders of the bloc of 24 Democratic Senators who have privately dedicated themselves to this cause. He is developing an expert technique of obstruction—
warmly approved in powerful financial and industrial quarters.
Celler is a loyal son of Tammany.
Nuff said.

G. O. P. Backstagers in the metropolis are setting a bit annoyed at Republican House leader Bertrand
H. Snell. They criticize him on two counts. One is that he takes a strictly factional view of every issue
that comes up and doesn't pay enough attention to popular reactions. The other is that he doesn't maintain proper party discipline.
The boys are always wandering off
the reservation and supporting New Deal measures.

He can't very well be superseded
now—but important Republican circles are engaged in a still-hunt for someone who can do a more efficient job of leading when the fighting gets important: from a party standpoint. At present it doesn't matter much—with so many Democratic snipers pot-shooting at the White House.

LARGE CROWDS AT SERVICE

second Man, we see the realization of God's ideal, expressed in His declared purpose, "Let us make man."

Christians are to be transformed into the same image, for so it is written, "But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as
by the Spirit of the Lord." 2 Cor.
3:18. Hence, Christians are to be changed in moral character for the better. They are to be possessed of a spiritual mind. Pertinent questions arise concerning personal experience in the terms of "transformed living." There will be an attitude of compassionate gentleness and forbearance with the weak brethren. One will also find an attitude of unswerving loyalty to Christ transforming the Christ in his witness to Christ, and in his prayer life. Again their will be strong positive changes manifested in view of a dulled sense of "God's moral standards." The commonest sins are selfishness, indifference, covet-ousness, intemperance or lack of self-control. Therefore we find altogether too many professed Christians who have become "conformists" and no longer a "transforming" force in the life of which they are a part. It is much easier to "conform" to go with the crowd,
than it is to stand against trends
that are wrong, and transform them.

A second consideration is this, as the church of the living Christ, we are to be transformers exerting a powerful influence in the face of

Four Counties To Open Liquor Stores In State

Raleigh, July 1. — (AP)—North Carolina which voted overwhelmingly against repeal of the 18th amendment, today faced the opening of legalized whiskey dispensaries in four of its 106 counties while 11 more counties prepared to vote during the week on the question of liquor stores.

Under two acts passed by the 1935 legislature, 18 counties and two townships were authorized to hold referenda but since then the acts
have been held invalid by two Supreme court judges and valid by two others and the legal contest appeared headed for the supreme court.

Beaufort and Vance Saturday dropped into the wet column behind Wilson and Edgecombe which voted a week earlier. Liquor stores were expected to be opened this week in the latter two counties and also in Beaufort and Vance as soon as the necessary machinery can be set up under the liquor act.

With returns fairly complete the wets won in Beaufort by a better than 3 to 1 majority. In Vance county the vote was more preponderous, the wets running to about 5 to 1 majority. In Wilson and Edgecombe counties the vote was 10 to 1 for the liquor stores.

Craven and New Hanover counties are to vote tomorrow unless a last minute fight is made by the dry forces of the county to restrain the election. Saturday Pasquotank, Martin, Halifax, Carteret, Onslow, Pitt, Lenoir, Nash and Warren
counties are to vote.

present day situations. Christ Jesus in exerted such an influence. From Him there flower just such power. He has made it possible for us to exert a like influence. The individual church member, the Christian, is expected to be a "transforming influence" in his relationships as a citizen, as a church member, and in his individual experience of Christ. As a citizen he can aid in producing a "God-consciousness" in the midst of ALL circumstances. In the light of this fact he may exert powerful influence for good in the realm of conduct on "the Lord's Day," and in fighting the liquor evil. The need of the hour is "better men" not more laws. Men who have moral stamina and backbone, who can array themselves against social evils and fight to the finish.

The service test is the established test as to the value of the Christian's influence and life. Let us be "transformers," an instrument by which the power may flow through us to the point of need in proportion to the need and for beneficent, useful ends.

DOZEN HURT WHEN GRANDSTAND FALLS

Flamington, N. J., July 1. — (AP)— A temporary grand stand at the new velodrome here collapsed today, throwing between 100 and 200 spectators to the ground. Corporal Charles Pfeiffer, of the state police, said about twelve persons were injured.

Pfeiffer and Trooper John Lea were on the grounds, and said the center section of the temporary stand buckled. Pfeiffer said twelve persons were put into automobiles
and taken to the homes of nearby physicians. They were not seriously injured.

The accident occurred before the start of a bicycle racing program.
The races were held.

TWO ARE BOUND OVER FOR SHOT-GUN SLAYING

Kenansville, July 1. — Hiram Bryant, has been placed under a $2,500
bond, and his brother, Justice Bryant, under a $1,000 bond by Justice of the Peace C. B. Sitterson of Ken-ansville for the killing of Edmund
McMillan last Sunday afternoon.
The hearing was held before Justice
Sitterson and Coroner Carl Smith
in the presence of a jury. The jury's verdict was that Edmund McMillan came to his death by a shotgun wound at the hands of Hiram Bryant, aided and assisted by Justice Bryant. The trial will be held at the July term of Superior court.

FARMERS MAINTAIN POTATO BLOCKADE

Painter, Va., July 1. — (AP)—Potato farmers of Virginia's Eastern Shore maintained a sharp vigil along the Maryland line yesterday to prevent any efforts to run the "potato blockade" established by the growers to force the price upward.

The blockade was not relaxed despite the fact no effort was made to break through during the night.
About fifty men held the line
during the night, and this many were there today.
Dealers were warned today that if there was any sign of price cutting tomorrow the farmers would see to it that there were no potatoes loaded for that particular establishment.

'Sarah' Means Transport

Pretoria, South Africa (AP)—For
publicity purposes, the state-owned transport services have been nicknamed "SARAH," the word standing for "South African Railways, Airways and Harbours." The coining of it was made possible when the government recently took over all internal air services and hired publicity experts to make the public
"Sarah conscious."

Above we publish report of Condition of State Bank & Trust Co., at the close of business June 29th, 1935, and compare same with similar report of June 30th, 1934, so that our Customers and Stockholders may know the progress THEIR BANK is making.

Almost four year ago (or to be exact July 25, 1931) State Bank & Trust Co., opened for business. When it opened for business it unconditionally assumed 75 per cent of the deposit liability of the National Bank of Greenville, payable in four annual installments. Three of these installments have been met and paid. The last and fourth one will be due July 27th this year. In order that we may complete our contract with the depositors of the National Bank of Greenville we request that all persons holding our certificates due July 27th, present them for payment as early as convenient. Upon presentation they will be paid at face value.

In successfully working out the affairs of the National Bank of Greenville we have had the loyal support and cooperation of large majority of the people whom it has been our pleasure to serve. To these people we publicly express our sincere appreciation and thanks.

Note:—Recent news articles appearing in the public press have been somewhat confusing regarding the insurance of Bank Deposits. We desire to advise our customers that all things necessary have been done by State Bank & Trust Co., to continue this protection and that all Deposits in State Bank & Trust Co. up to $5,000.00 are NOW and will CONTINUE to be INSURED.

The Y. W. A. of Immanuel Baptist Church will meet Tuesday evening at 8:30 with Miss Verdesa Oida.

Coffer-Miller Players.

Both plays to be presented by the Coffer-Miller Players on Friday, July 5, of this week, are comedies that never fail to please, one of them familiar, "The Rivals," and the other a translation of a French comedy that is perhaps new to most people but full of rich humor, "The School for Husbands."

The matinee will be at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon, and the evening performance at eight o'clock. Both are to be in the Austin Auditorium.

These players will appear at State College before they come here, and are making a tour that includes many of the summer schools throughout the country. For years they have been popular, not only with the summer school students, but with the public in general.

Since the activities of community drama both in the college and the town during the past year, there has been an awakening of interest in plays and playmaking. Those who have been interested will have the opportunity to see professionals handle plays that amateurs frequently give, while those who care only to see a good comedy can enjoy it merely for what they see and hear.

Stancill-Taylor.

A wedding of much interest to Greenville people was that of Miss Henna Madge Taylor and Burke Stancill, in Paris, Texas, on June 17. The report of the wedding, which was to have been sent to the Reflector by the Paris Evening News was in some way delayed in reaching this office.

The wedding which was at high noon in the Central Presbyterian Church in Paris, Texas, was marked by a beautiful simplicity, with only members of the family and specially invited friends present. Dr. F. L. Wear, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony.

The bride, attended by her maid of honor, Miss Agnes Wadlington of Greenville, and the groom with his best man, Roy Barrett of Greenville, came down opposite aisles and met at the altar where the officiating minister and the ring bearer, Frank Wear III, nephew of the bride and grandson of the minister, awaited them.

The ushers were Frank Wear, Jr., of Paris, and Wilford Smith, of Gilmer, Texas, brothers-in-law of the bride, and Murray Stancill, of Tarboro, brother of the groom.

The music was altogether organ music, with Charles Logan, a talented young musician of Paris, at the organ. He played a number of beautiful introductory selections while guests were assembling and the processional of the wedding march from Lohengrin and the recessional from Mendelssohn. During the ceremony he played softly "Moonlight and Roses."

The bride was married in a going-away suit of grey sheer wool crepe with a collar of blue fox fur hat and accessories were navy blue. She carried an arm bouquet of dainty white flowers with orchids.

The maid of honor wore a suit of navy blue silk net, a pink picture hat, and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

The mother of the bride wore a suit of powder blue chiffon and shoulder corsage of pink roses. Miss Jean Blount, niece of the groom, wore pink crepe with blue accessories, and a shoulder corsage of sweet peas.

A reception at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Frank Wear, Jr., followed the ceremony. The house was beautifully decorated, with a color scheme of pink and green. The wedding cake, decorated with the initials of the bride and groom, was cut by the bride. Her two sisters, Mrs. Frank Wear and Mrs. Wilford Smith, assisted by a few friends served refreshments.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Taylor of Olney, Texas. Her family has lived in Texas for many years and has had part in the building up of the north-eastern part of the state; her maternal grandfather was from Western North Carolina. She is a graduate of East Texas State College, Commerce, Texas, where she has been teaching for the past two years. She received her M. A. degree from George Peabody College in 1932. She was a member of the faculty of East Carolina Teachers College, as critic teacher in the training school, for the school year 1932-33. The groom who is the son of Mrs. G. A. Stancill of Tarboro, and a brother of Mrs. J. H. Blount of Greenville, comes of an old family prominent throughout Eastern North Carolina. For several years he has been connected with the Blount-Harvey Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Stancill are at home for the summer, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Blount on Ninth street.

Y. W. C. A. Vesper Service.

The Y. W. C. A. vesper services at the college were held on the steps of the campus building, facing the Wright Circle, last Friday evening.

As singing by the group was the special feature of the service, one of the praise psalms, read by Miss Esther Mae Dennis, was the scripture lesson. Miss Beth Brantley led the singing. A poem, "God of the Open Air," was read by Miss Vivian Lucas.

Miss Dora Coates, in the service the week before, told a beautiful story, rich in its significance.

BLOCK MOVE FOR SOLONS ACT ON RUM

Young Democrats Back Governor and Refuse Wet Move for Special Legislature

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.

By J. C. BASKERVILLE

Raleigh, July 1.—While the Young Democrats of North Carolina are more than ever in favor of a state liquor control and state liquor stores law and of tossing overboard the old Turlington prohibition law, a majority of the delegates to the annual convention of the North Carolina Young Democratic clubs here stood solidly behind Governor J. C. B. Ehringhaus and his administration and refused to adopt a resolution proposed by the more extreme wet element which would have called upon the Governor to call a special session of the general assembly immediately to enact a state-wide liquor control law. Instead, the convention adopted by an overwhelming vote a substitute resolution proposed by Senator Harris Newman of New Hanover county which urged the enactment of state-wide legislation setting up a state liquor control system "at the earliest feasible time" but which did not ask the Governor to call a special session.

"This resolution which I have proposed leaves no doubt as to where the Young Democrats stand on the liquor question and indicates that they want something done about it, as soon as possible, but it leaves the question of a special session entirely in the direction of the Governor and does not put the convention in a position of attempting to dictate to the Governor," Senator Newman said.

The convention had previously adopted a resolution by a unanimous vote commending the Ehringhaus administration and the 1935 general assembly for balancing the budget, making better provision for the schools and state institutions, for the recent sale of state bonds at a record low rate of interest, and for other notable accomplishments. So the convention could not very well have turned around and taken a slap at the administration which it had just praised in a previous resolution.

One of the most potent reasons for the defeat of the resolution proposed by the more extreme "wet" element in the convention asking the Governor to call a special session of the general assembly to pass a state-wide liquor control law, though not mentioned, was the fact that a special session, if called, could not be limited to consideration of liquor control legislation only with the result that it might go into the sales tax question again and completely upset the state's balanced budget. This was hinted at when David Sinclair of Wilmington, in opposing the resolution, pointed out that this is the only one of the 48 states in which the Governor does not have the veto power and that many questions other than liquor entered into the calling of a special session.

In fact, it was the realization on the part of most of the Young Democrats that as bad as the present liquor situation is in the state, this situation had better be endured for another 18 months than to have a special session of the general assembly and run the risk of having the revenue law torn to pieces and the state's budget unbalanced. It was also realized that the public generally over the state, especially business, has no desire to see the 1935 general assembly convene again. For a session of the legislature, regular or special, always creates an atmosphere of uncertainty in business circles over the state.

JURY WILL PROBE DEATH OF NEGRO

Clinton, July 1.—(AP)—A coroner's jury will resume its hearing here Wednesday afternoon into the death of a negro Dr. J. S. Brewer, Sampson County sheriff, said he had been told was Jethro Aycock.

The body of the negro, also said by some to be named Jethro Aycock, was found in a cornfield Friday with a bullet in his body about 400 yards from a still which had been raided Thursday night.

The body was discovered after the negro's father had come here to see if his son was being held by officers. Informed that he was not, the father and a group of neighbors started a search which resulted in the finding of the body.

Coroner Brewer said the hearing was postponed in order to seek additional evidence.

BUGS DROP SECOND GAME TO GREENIES

George Barley, Duke University pitching star, registered his fifth straight victory for Greenville by limiting Goldsboro to six hits Saturday as the league leading Greenies counted a 6-1 win.

Goldsboro's only runs came in the fourth, when singles by Morris and Dairymple came in the right places. The Greenies got a pair in the first. Bostic singled and stole second, scoring on Hulskamp's single. Wagner walked and then Parker singled—his 23rd hit in as many games—to score Hulskamp.

Barley's double, an error, and Dean's fly to center counted another for Greenville in the third. Doubles by Ambler and Hulskamp produced a singleton in the fourth, and the same combination manufactured a tally in the seventh when Ambler singled and Hulskamp doubled. Herring, Goldsboro's finger, forced in the last run—he walked Barley with three on in the eighth.

The locals made 13 hits including six doubles and one triple. Hulskamp, with two doubles and two singles, batted .800. Parley hit a triple and a double, and Ambler and Dean each contributed a double and a single. Dairymple collected half of Goldsboro's hits, getting a double and two singles for four runs.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS
Williamston, 6; Ayden, 12.
Snow Hill 4; New Bern 2.

TODAY'S SCHEDULE
Kinston at Snow Hill.
Ayden at Tarboro.
Williamston at Greenville.

SNOW HILL WINS
New Bern, July 1.—A home run by Cheek in the fifth, and another by Perry with one aboard in the eighth furnished the chief wherewithal for Snow Hill's win over the backsliding Bruins yesterday. Perry's clout and four other hits were collected off Stuart Flythe before a blistering finger forced him out in the sixth. The tall right-hander had hurled capably in early innings. Kennel did a nice piece of relief chunking, but one outside pitch gave Perry his chance to ice the game.

AYDEN TAKES GAME
Ayden, July 1.—Ayden unleashed barrages of hits in the second and fifth innings here yesterday to beat Williamston 12 to 6.
Smith and Atkins hit homers for Ayden, Smith's coming during the heavy scoring in the second with two on. Atkins' circuit ball came in the eighth with none on.

SNOW HILL WINS
Snow Hill, July 1.—Channing Parmelee, brother of the New York Giants' Roy Parmelee, Saturday pitched a no-hit game as his Snow Hill mates defeated Ayden, 1 to 0.
Parmelee's well-nigh perfect pitching was needed, as the locals were held to a brace of hits—doubles by Paul Cheek and Ralph Williams in the fourth for the game's only run—by Coon Weldon, Louisville College star.

EAGLES DEFEAT TARBORO
Kinston, July 1.—The Eagles defeated Tarboro, 8-4, Saturday, getting all their runs before the visitors got started.
Score: R. H. E.
Tarboro 000 300 001—4 8 3
Kinston 028 000 000—8 10 1
Rhymers and Short; Taylor and Strayhorn.

WAGNER—C

"Ty" Wagner, former Duke University baseball team captain, was elected manager of the Greenville Coastal Plain League club to succeed "Bo" Farley, resigned, at a meeting of the board of directors Saturday night. Wagner has been first-string catcher with the locals for two seasons and his terrific work with the bat has played an important part in the flag remaining in Greenville.

MARTINS FINALLY WIN
Williamston, July 1.—Williamston broke into the win column for the first time this week by taking a 10-4 verdict over New Bern here Saturday in a contest lasting two and half hours.
The Martins batted round in the second to tally five times on two walks and six hits.
New Bern ... 100 200 001—4 10 4
Williamston ... 250 010 20x—10 15 1
Holboro, Andreoli and Staton; Gaddy and Gillespie.

New York Cotton
New York, July 1.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened barely steady two to four decline on favorable weather and owing to the slow demand.
Prices generally worked low under realizing or liquidation. October was selling at 148 or within 2 points of Saturday's closing quotations when other fronts showed net losses of four to 8 points.

N. Y. Stock Market
New York, July 1.—(AP)—The stock market kept its feet on firm ground today and apparently was not particularly disturbed by rumbblings of the Washington fight.
Buyers were selective and trading was quiet but an upward price slant was evident from the start.
Many brokerage customers found the side line as attractive as the battle over the Utilities holding company bill was renewed in what bolstered speculative spirits although it was believed the upturn was dull largely to a back rush of fears.
Other gains were sympathetic. Bonds were easy. The dollar improved in terms of leading foreign exchanges.
The late stock tone was firm. Transfers were 700,000 shares.

Longshoremen Fighting in La.
Lake Charles, La., July 1.—(AP)—A gunfight broke out on the Lake Charles waterfront here this morning when two opposing longshoremen fought over the privilege of leading the steamship Queen City.

Eight longshoremen were wounded, two critically, in the early morning fighting in which pistols and shotguns blazed away in a hand to hand fighting.
After eight men had fallen, each side stood by heavily armed, daring the other to attempt to load the vessel.

Sheriff Henry Reid telegraphed Governor O. K. Allen to call out militia to take charge of the situation and Adjutant General Beargard was ordered from Camp Charles. The adjutant general was empowered to take charge of the company of militia at Lake Charles if necessary.

Explains Action on Potato Bill
Washington, July 1.—(AP)—Chairman Smith, democratic of South Carolina, of the senate agricultural committee, today explained to President Roosevelt why the proposed potato control plan was not included in the AAA amendment approved Saturday by the senate body.
He said the committee while favorable to the proposal to make potatoes as basic commodity failed to include the entire plan because it was thought the issue should be considered separately in view of the administrative and taxation features.

Discussing the potato control plan which originated in the house with introduction by Senator Warren of North Carolina, Smith said the president showed considerable interest in the measure.
The bill was not introduced in the Senate, but proponents proposed it be included in the AAA amendment. It also was understood that President Roosevelt agreed to this method of getting the proposal before Congress.

The Warren bill is still pending before the House agricultural committee but action is expected shortly. Hearings lasting over a period of several months have been held.

Discouraged Over Spud Strike.
Washington, July 1.—(AP)—Representative Bland, Democrat of Virginia, today returned to Washington discouraged over the potato strike situation on the eastern shore of Virginia which he investigated personally over the week-end.
"Newspaper reports of conditions there are substantially correct," Bland said.

ARTIFICIAL LANGUAGES GET 'RAUS' BY NAZIS
Berlin (AP)—Esperanto, the artificial language which is struggling to get along in the world, has been thrown out of Nazi Germany.

The minister of education banned the teaching of Esperanto and inferentially warned Germans that if they want to use it, they must do so when talking to themselves.
"The fostering of artificially constructed world languages has no place in national-socialist Germany," he said. "Their use leads to a weakening of national unity."

ZULU CHIEFS DECRY SECTS IN SOUTH AFRICAN RELIGION
Ladysmith, So. Africa (AP)—Zulu chiefs in conference here discussed "the increasing menace of charlatans in the guise of Christian ministers of religion."
More than 50 native sects were known to exist and it was stated that whenever a clergyman had a disagreement with his church, he started one of his own, with fancy name and ritual.
The chiefs asked the government to "purge religion of these undesirable," leaving missionary work to recognized churches.

Norway Raises Speed Limit
Oslo (AP)—Norway has raised the speed limits for motorists, permitting them to drive on clear highways at 37 miles an hour instead of the 27 miles previously enforced. Legal pace through villages has been raised from 15 to 21 miles an hour.

Sofia (AP)—A survey having shown less than 6,000 divorces in this country of 7,000,000 inhabitants, Bulgaria claims the lowest divorce rate in the world. Peasants, who form 90 per cent of the population, regard matrimony as a bond which can be broken only by death.
