

Ethiopians Seeking To Buy Arms-Ammunition In Japan

PLAN TO SET UP CONSULATE AT TOKYO SOON

Foreign Office Official Reported Proceeding To Japan With Unidentified Japanese For Purchase; East Africans To Also Seek Credit For 50 Per Cent of Order

Addis Ababa, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Daba Birrou, foreign office official, left for Japan today accompanied by an unidentified Japanese on a secret mission.

It was reported without confirmation that the mission had to do with the purchase of arms and ammunition from the Japanese.

A reliable source said Birrou would establish the first Ethiopian consulate in Japan, probably at Tokyo.

In connection with the arms and ammunition report it was said Ethiopia would obtain credit for at least 50 per cent of the value of the order. The government today embarked on a campaign of economic self-efficiency for the empire along with its military preparations for the threatened conflict with Italy.

The ministry of commerce began a series of meetings considering the best means of pushing economic expansion.

British government representatives disclosed today preliminary plans for protection of their nationals and other Europeans under their wing in Ethiopia in the event of an Italian invasion or internal disorders.

More than a month after the United States advised all Americans to leave the country, British through its legation here took similar precautions but recommend only that women and children be evacuated.

PUSH WAR ON WEEDS IN CITY

Property Owners Are Given Until Wednesday To Cut Down Rank Vegetation

With the campaign on weeds gaining momentum here each day, property owners today had been given until next Wednesday to clear their yards of rank vegetation.

Chief of Police George Clark, who several days ago warned that people who refused to cut down weeds on their property were to be indicted, said today the check of property was continuing at full speed ahead. Everybody is being warned they must comply with the order by the prescribed time or face mayor's court and explain why they refused to abide by the ultimatum.

A check of property will be made after the time limit expires and wherever weeds are found, police will notify the owners to appear in court.

The drive is one of the most widespread put on by city officials in several years. It is due mainly to the refusal of property owners to abide by a plea made during the early part of the summer, causing many sections to experience greater weed growth than any summer in years.

Ohio Flood Death Toll Continues To Show Gain

Danvers, O., Aug. 9.—(AP)—The toll of destruction from Ohio's worst flood in 22 years mounted higher today as the crush of the swollen waters moved on toward the Ohio river.

With two persons known to have been drowned, another missing, and three others dead as indirect result of the flood and series of storms that preceded it, officials estimate of property damage ranged upward today from $3,000,000.

More than a thousand persons who resided in the path of the flood are homeless and hundreds are under orders to flee for safety to higher ground.

TWO NEGROES JAIL NEGROES PUT TO DEATH AT N. C. PRISON

Houston, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Houston McMillan and Vander Glover, negroes convicted in Cumberland county of murder, were electrocuted at State Prison here today.

McMillan went to the chair first. The two men were sentenced to die for the killing of Robert Williams, a negro storekeeper in Fayetteville during an alleged robbery attempt.

McMillan said while seated in the chair that he struck Williams in the head with a bottle and got his money which was in a paper sack but turned the money over to Glover without counting it. He denied he killed Williams.

Glover was asked while seated in the chair how much money McMillan gave him and he could not remember. Then he denied he had robbed anyone and claimed he was drunk at the time Williams was killed.

McMillan, 19 years old, and Glover, 39, were both truck drivers in Fayetteville. Both professed innocence to the killing of Williams up to this morning and it was after midnight before Governor Ehringhaus finally ruled he could not intervene in their behalf.

McMillan entered the death chamber at 10:25 and at 10:27 was given his first shock of 2 minutes and 10 seconds. Another shock of 1 minute and 20 seconds was given before he was pronounced dead at 10:34.

Glover entered the death chamber at 10:42 and at 10:44 was given a shock lasting two minutes and 21 seconds. He was pronounced dead at 10:53 after another shock of one and a half minutes.

The Greenville tobacco market paid over five cents a pound more for tobacco sold here on the opening day last season than was paid on a border market for the same period, comparative figures compiled here today revealed.

Prices continued to improve on the Greenville market as the season continued, and ended with a general average of $31.41—the highest average paid by any other market in the bright leaf world.

Comparative figures were looked upon with interest by tobaccoists and others interested in the industry here today as they give some indication of the difference in the price situation on this market and those of the Border belt. The prices paid on the border market were considered in keeping with those throughout the entire belt.

The Border markets opened yesterday with prices averaging around $22 a hundred pounds, similar to those paid last season. Farmers were described as happy. With a considerably larger crop than they had last season they were looking

CLAIM GERARD WILL CONFER WITH IL DUCE

British Press Thinks America is Sending Observer To Talk Italian Crisis

London, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Public reports purporting to disclose that the United States is taking an active interest in the Italo-Ethiopian controversy, preceded Anthony Eden's return to London today to make final preparations for the trip-power conversations.

British press reports said James W. Gerard, former United States ambassador to Germany, was hastening to Rome at the request of the American government to talk over the situation with Premier Benito Mussolini of Italy.

Ignoring the fact that Gerard retired from the American diplomatic service 18 years ago and presented no possible authority for their statement, the newspapers pictured Gerard as an unofficial observer and a possible mediator.

Gerard was recently in London and has been vacationing on the French Riviera.

State Department officials at Washington said they were not acquainted with any orders sending Gerard to Rome as an official American representative to discuss the Italo-Ethiopian situation.

Gerard served at Berlin until the breaking off of diplomatic relations on American entrance to the world war. He has not been connected with the diplomatic service since then.

MIXED TERM OF COURT TO OPEN AUG. 19

Judge Walter Small To Preside Over two Weeks of Superior Court Here

A two week term of Pitt County Superior court for the trial of civil and criminal cases will convene in this city Monday, August 19, with Judge Walter Small, of Elizabeth City, on the bench.

The calendar for the civil term was completed by the local bar the first of the week, and Solicitor D. M. Clark, who will prosecute the docket, said the criminal calendar will be made public next week.

The civil calendar contains about forty actions of more or less interest to the people of this section. Solicitor Clark said he thought there would be around 150 cases on the criminal calendar with the prospect that most of the term will be confined to the hearing of jail cases.

The criminal calendar contains no outstanding murder cases, although three or four of minor importance are docketed, but there are a number of other charges of more or less interest to the countryside scheduled to be heard.

CANCEL GREAT SCOUT MEETING

The cancellation of the National Jamboree by President Roosevelt last night proved a blow to eleven Greenville scouts. John J. Sigwald, scout executive told a Reflector Reporter this morning that Jamboree fees would be refunded by the National Jamboree Committee as soon as possible.

Mr. Sigwald said that the meeting with Jamboree scouts and their parents held at the Rotary Building yesterday afternoon was one of the most enthusiastic scout meetings held over the East Carolina Council territory. At that time final arrangements were outlined calling for the scouts to go into the Pre-Jamboree Training camp Saturday the 17th and leave for Washington the evening of the 19th.

More details will be found in another news story in this paper. Joe Taft, Greenville District Jamboree Chairman will be prepared Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock to make a detailed report on this cancellation to the District Board in their August session in the study of Dr. Combs, District Chairman.

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

News Behind The News.

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker
REMAKE: President Roosevelt will have to reorganize his official family ruthlessly to make them sing in tune and march in step. The headlines don't begin to tell the story of inner differences and dissension.

Messrs. Ickes and Hopkins' war over non-federal projects every day. After Mr. Ickes' agents persuade a city to borrow 45 per cent of federal funds for a new sewer, Mr. Hopkins' men agree to furnish 90 per cent without interest charges. That happened in Atlanta. The Forestry Service has bid for land wanted by Rex Tugwell for rural re-settlement, thus boosting the price. Secretary Swanson forced Secretary Dern to mobilize the War Department against the "reds," although Mr. Dern would have preferred to keep out. Attorney General Cummings refused to let the Treasury select its own lawyer to prosecute a notorious gangster, although this lawyer had "the goods" on the principal defense witness, and the gangster goes free.

Mr. Roosevelt has had no time to rehearse his company in their proper lines. But now that the New Deal is reaching the stage where administration becomes all-important heads will fall here and there. He could use a stronger Cabinet as a talking point in 1936.

FUNDS: GOP Chairman Fletcher is rolling in wealth these days—that is, for him. New York Republicans recently raised $250,000 and turned over one-third to him. It accounts for new publicists, new radio speakers and new typewriters at the Barr building at Washington.

Republicans are contributing more regularly than at any time since the 1932 debacle. Some donors explained that they didn't dare to give for fear of administration retaliation, but the Supreme Court removed that hobgoblin. Others saw no use in pouring out money to a lifeless outfit, but the new hope that the New Deal may prove vulnerable has loosened them up.

Chairman Fletcher and the Congressional collectors have effected a working arrangement to bring in the cash. When Republicans refuse to give because they are waiting to see whom the party will nominate next year, as many do, Mr. Fletcher hands their names over to the Belton-Hastings organization. Their collectors point out that even if Mr. Roosevelt is re-elected it may be possible to return enough GOP-ers to the House to checkmate him. That often does the trick.

BIDDING: Cool heads narrowly averted a knock-down drag-out fight between Chairman Fletcher and the "grass rooters."

Peppy young western Republicans—"hard heads" they call them around GOP headquarters—thought that the ex-diplomat was too tender toward the New Deal. They wanted to fight the President all down the line, including even the

DISEASE FEAR HALTS SCOUT 'JAMBOREE'

Infantile Paralysis Spread Causes Cancellation of Washington Meeting

Washington, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Declaring he acted "with deep regret," President Roosevelt today cancelled the National Boy Scout Jamboree because of an infantile paralysis epidemic in this section.

Nearly 35,000 boys were headed for the national capital for the big Scout meeting scheduled for August 21 to 30.

The decision to cancel the session was reached at a White House conference attended by Surgeon General Hugh S. Cumming, District of Columbia officials, and a Scout executive. Reports were considered from health officers from Maryland, Virginia and North Carolina.

"While this (infantile paralysis) prevalence was not considered to be unduly alarming," said a White House statement, "the conference decided it would be to the best interest of the Scouts and all concerned to cancel the Jamboree."

White House aides sought to emphasize also that the cancellation was not regarded as a cause for alarm but rather as safeguarding movement.

Mr. Roosevelt, who is honorary national president of the Boy Scouts, was himself a victim of infantile paralysis 14 years ago.

The President agreed to deliver nationally over the radio the talk he would have made to the Scouts here, addressing himself directly to Scout camps throughout the country. He will speak Aug. 21 at 8 p. m. Eastern Standard Time.

Surgeon General Cummings reported after the White House meeting that the spread of infantile paralysis had "increased." It has been moving northward through North Carolina and Virginia toward the capital.

Dr. Cummings explained there is "no undue prevalence" of the disease in the capital now but said that the Charlottesville and Richmond, Va., centers of the epidemic are "an hour or two's drive from Washington."

CHURCH FETES BALL PLAYERS

Immanuel Baptist Church Also Host to College Girls at Barbecue Supper

Members of the Greenville baseball club of the Coastal Plain league and college girls were guests at a delightful barbecue supper and watermelon feast at Immanuel Baptist church last night.

The occasion proved decidedly one of the most delightful given by the church in years and was attended by virtually every member of the ball club as well as a majority of young women of the college who attend Sunday school and services at the church.

Prior to the supper Rev. J. A. McIver, pastor of the church, delivered a brief address of welcome in which he congratulated the young women upon the whole-hearted spirit they had thrown into their church activities, and members of the ball club for the fine spirit of sportsmanship displayed during league play.

He lauded the ball players upon the fine record they had made this year and expressed the hope the end of the season would find them still in first place and with the flag to their credit.

He complimented them upon the spirit of manliness and fair play injected into the game and declared this had won an enviable reputation for Greenville in all parts of the league where such qualities are appreciated.

The guests ate freely of the bountiful supply of Pitt county pig placed before them as well as the luscious watermelons, also grown in this section.

It was the first entertainment of the nature during the summer months, and those enjoying the hospitality of the church expressed their appreciation of the good time they had.

SHARPERS REPLACE KIDNAPERS AS PERIL WHEN COUNTESS 'BABS' FLEES TO EUROPEAN COUNTRIES

Countess Barbara Hardenberg-Reventlow, heiress to the Woolworth "five and dime" millions, is shown with her new husband, Count Haugwitz, as they alighted in Paris from a boat train. The wealthy countess said she intends to live in Europe because she is "afraid of American kidnapers."

By ROGER D. GREENE

London, (AP)—In her flight abroad "because," so she says, "I'm afraid of American kidnapers," Countess Hardenberg-Reventlow, the former Princess Movani, nee Barbara Hutton, may find a hornet's nest of menaces to her five-and-dime store millions. "I'll be less violent, perhaps, but not less potent."

Twenty million dollars, as she is reputedly worth, offers a target that Europe's suave "con-men" are just as likely to yearn after as their more brusque brethren across the Atlantic.

It well may be that after encountering the delicate nuances of blackmail, high-finance swindling and other forms of old world cancanery, the countess will prefer guards to blackguards.

"I am tired of having guards follow me everywhere," she reportedly said, on sailing for Europe with her new husband, the dashing Count Haugwitz.

She will not need them abroad. On her arrival at beautiful old Castle Hardenberg, on the island of Lolland, Denmark, the American heiress saw her fears of the "snatch" racket vanish behind centuries-old moats and grim towers.

England's Record Clean

Even without the moats and towers, she will be comparatively safe. A survey of Europe indicates that kidnaping for ransom is strictly an American institution.

Scotland Yard officials pored through musty records for decades back without finding a single instance in England of "the snatch" for ransom as practiced in the United States.

The nearest approach was the seizure of Dr. Sun Yat Sen in London in 1906, but this had a political background. Dr. Sen having a price of $500,000 on his head following his escape from China. Allegedly kidnaped at the instigation of the Chinese legation here, he was released when the venerable Marquis of Salisbury, then foreign secretary, threatened to break into the legation.

As a "big business," kidnaping has never even been attempted in England. Actually, the highest ransom ever demanded, according to available records, was $15, which a hotel kitchen porter demanded for the return of a missing child. He had not kidnaped the child, but sent a threatening letter to the parents when he saw an appeal in the papers.

German Penalties Severe

In Germany kidnaping is a term associated with the United States, except for entirely political kidnapings such as the Herr Jacob "snatch" from Switzerland and other Nazi "raids." Ransom kidnaping has little chance of becoming a "favorite sport" in the third reich because the penalties are so drastic that no member of the underworld would think of purloining an heiress.

Moreover, the criminal police of Europe so obligingly exchange information with neighboring countries that it would be folly to attempt to smuggle a "snatch" victim across the border.

In France, Countess Barbara would find much the same safety from kidnapers, at least. For when the French criminal covets a millionaire's gold he goes after it in more subtle ways.

When practiced at all, the "snatch" in France has usually been for political purposes. The Russian general Alexandre Koutepoff, whose unsolved disappearance in 1930 was charged to soviet secret police, was

First Rural Electric Line Completed In N. C.

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.
By J. C. BASKERVILLE

Raleigh, Aug. 8.—Electricity is already sizzling through the wires of one rural electrification project just completed a few days ago under the supervision of the North Carolina Rural Electrification Authority while a second line in Wilson county is rapidly nearing completion despite the fact that the Rural Electrification Administration in Washington has not yet indicated how much it would help the state authority and has recently been asking the state authority to "go slow" in making any additional surveys. Chairman Dudley Bagley pointed out today.

The rural electrification line just completed and into which the current was first turned Tuesday, is in Orange county and extends out into the country about 10 miles east and south of Carboro and for the time being will serve some 29 families although within a few months as many as 40 families are expected to be served by it. The power for this line comes from the Chapel Hill generating plant, which is owned by the University of North Carolina. The line was built with NCERA labor, with the people along the line who will be served by it contributing towards the cost of materials.

The second line now under construction in Wilson county will be 11.2 miles long and will extend from the Wilson hydroelectric plant southeast to Scotts, Lamb's Cross Roads and to Hawra. The poles have been set along about seven miles of this line and the primary wire strung for about six miles. Completion of the line is waiting on transformer equipment. This line is also being built with NCERA labor.

The N. C. Rural Electrification Authority already has the results of hundreds of detailed surveys aggregating thousands of miles of lines in its files, since these surveys were made a year ago with the cooperation of the NCERA before the present electrification authority was created by the 1935 general assembly, at the instigation of the old N. C. Rural Electrification Commission of which Dr. Clarence Poe of Raleigh was chairman. In fact, it was the work done by this former commission, appointed by Governor Ehringhaus, which first attracted the attention of the Federal government and led to the formation of the national Rural Electrification Administration of which Morris L. Cooke is administrator. So actually, the old N. C. Rural Electrification Commission is the papa of the present Federal Rural Electrification Administration.

JAPANESE TRADE FLOOD TURNED ASIDE BY EGYPT

Cairo, Egypt, (AP)—Predictions that an exchange dumping duty on Japanese rayon and cotton goods will shortly be imposed by the Egyptian government have followed recent termination of the Japanese-Egyptian trade treaty on the ground that depreciation of the yen gives Japanese goods an excessive advantage.

Commercial circles here believe such action will lead to a large increase in cotton goods trade with Europe and several firms are renewing connections in Great Britain and Czechoslovakia that lapsed with the Japanese imports.

The punitive action against Japan reportedly is due to government determination to end "unfair" Japanese competition which virtually has halted Egyptian trade with countries upon whom she depends for her own foreign sales.

Official statistics show corn is North Carolina's biggest crop, the normal yearly yield being about 50,000,000 bushels.

Hamerly Reunion.
On August fourth numbers of relatives and friends gathered at Rolling Hill, Va., to celebrate the eighty-second birthday of L. H. Hamerly. At noon the group assembled around a long table on the lawn and enjoyed a delicious picnic dinner.

Mr. Hamerly received numerous useful and attractive gifts. Among those present were Mr. Hamerly's only sister, three of his four daughters, one son, and ten grandchildren. A brother, one son and one daughter, three grandchildren and one great-grandson were unable to be present.

Mr. Hamerly is the father of Mrs. Virginia Perkins and Mrs. S. F. Thornton of this city, and is well known in Greenville, having visited here several times.

PUT CHECK ON SCHOOL FUNDS

School Commission Sets Up New Auditing System To Keep Track Of Money

Reflector Bureau.

By J. C. BASKERVILL

Raleigh, Aug. 9. — The State School Commission is not only allotting the money to the schools, as in the past, but is now releasing it in monthly installments and keeping an itemized check on how every penny is being expended. It was revealed here today for the first time, although this new system has been in operation for more than a month. The reason for this new procedure, under which the School Commission is keeping a continuous audit of the expenditure of all school funds, just as the Budget Bureau keeps a daily check and audit on the expenditure of all state funds, is that the new 1935 School Machinery Act for the first time gives the commission authority to release school funds as well as to allot them and thus makes it possible to keep an accurate check on their expenditure.

Heretofore, the School Commission has had only the power to allot school funds for the entire eight months, but with no authority to release the funds month by month or to require an itemized accounting of their expenditure. As a result, many school units frequently spent their allotments before the eight months was up and would then come to the commission virtually demanding supplementary allotments, maintaining that if they did not get these additional allotments the schools would have to close. For while the State Department of Public Instruction released the allotments each month in eight equal installments, it did not make any check on the expenditures because it did not have a uniform accounting system.

But now all this is changed and as a result the School Commission not only expects to save at least $12,500 to $25,000 a year it has been spending in the past for school audits which are agreed were almost worthless, but hopes to save between $85,000 and $90,000 a year more by careful scanning of school expenditures for objects other than salaries.

GREENIES TO MEET TARBORO ON SATURDAY

By H. B. UTLEY
(Staff Writer)

After having been ridden out here with Ayden yesterday afternoon, the Greenville club of the Coastal Plain League went to Tarboro this afternoon to begin a two-game series with the cellarites. Tomorrow will find the Edgcombe town boys playing here and fans may be expected to see an exceptionally fine brand of ball as result of the unusual strength displayed by the cellarites the last several days.

Last Monday Tarboro jumped on the delivery of Guy Williams, Greenville mound ace, and licked the fire out of the locals. The next day, the disgruntled Williams asked to be permitted to go back on the firing line against the cellarites, and the story was an entirely different one from the day before. He blanked them 5 to 0.

Yesterday, however, the cellarites who have distinguished themselves the last two weeks for slipping up on some of the leading clubs and licking them half to death before they could recover from surprise, pulled a hocus-pocus trick on Williams and licked them to the tune of 7 to 4. It was the only game played on the circuit and it was fitting indeed that the cellarites should have been the winners of the contest.

Although apparently hopelessly lost at the bottom of the standing of clubs, Tarboro still has a chance of forging near the top of the ladder before the end of the season. There are still sixteen more games to be played before the season closes, and with the cellarites just a few games behind New Bern, Goldsboro and Williams on, several straight victories would put them right up among the top-notchers and completely reverse the picture at this time.

As it is, the race is a pretty stiff one, and anything can happen between now and Saturday, August 24, when play is scheduled to come to an end. The lowering of the curtain will find Greenville at Ayden and that fight will be a memorable one. The locals played next to the final game with the Aces last year and returned to their home diamond to take on New Bern and a subsequent licking at the hands of the Craven county lads who finished the season away down the ladder. Greenville's finished the season last year with slightly over a game lead for second place, and that enabled her to take part in the championship series with Kinston, finally losing the Kinstonians out for the flag in one of the most spectacular "world series" this section of the county has been treated to in many a day.

The actual championship series will be preceded this year by a "little world series" in which the four leading clubs will take part. The two winners of that series will play for the flag, and what a battle that is going to be.

With Greenville holding the top of the standing of clubs by over a five game margin, it looked as if the league leaders would be in the race but just what other teams will take part probably will not be determined until the last day of the season owing to the closeness of the race.

Fans are urged to attend the Tarboro game here tomorrow in large numbers and support what is considered the finest club the city has had in years.

Greenville To Play At Ayden Coming Sunday

It was announced today by officials of the local club of the Coastal Plain League that Greenville would play at Ayden next Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the playoff of a game rained out July 10.

The two clubs had another game rained out yesterday and probably will make arrangements for another playoff in the near future, although the date had not been decided upon. The Aydenites were scheduled to play here, Greenville having beat them on their home grounds the day before.

Sunday games always attract large crowds from the surrounding countryside and indications pointed to a tremendous crowd at Ayden the forthcoming Sunday.

SIXTEEN MORE GAMES TO END LEAGUE PLAY

By R. O. MOYE

It doesn't seem true but facts are facts. There are only sixteen more scheduled events in the Coastal Plain League not counting the few rained out games or cancelled affairs that some of the clubs have to play off. It will be an eight club battle right on through Saturday, August 24, and between now and then there is going to be a lot of baseball played. There's no one that could say what is actually going to happen.

The thick of the fight is going to center around the Greenies at whom the Eagles, Snow Hillites, Aces and Marins are going to concentrate their effort. On the inside there is Kinston and Snow Hill constantly at each other for the second place. Another fight, just now raging, is between Williamston and Ayden who have been fighting like cats and dogs for the last two or three weeks for the lower place of the first division. Once either the Aces or the Martins get one of the other under their feet they are going to start slashing at Snow Hill and Kinston. Most of the clubs are envious of the trick the Eagles pulled anyway. They got off to a bad start but once they got going nothing seemingly could stop them and now they are still near the top. They called Bunn Hearne, the Eagle skipper, a cocky fellow when he said he was not worried about his boys when they were bumping near the bottom but now they aren't saying much. He actually has demonstrated by the showing his club had made why he wasn't worried.

TARBORO LICKS WILLIAMSTON

Williamston, Aug. 9. — Tarboro made it two in a row over Williamston by taking a 7-4 verdict here in the only contest played yesterday in the Coastal Plain League. Rain blocked games at Snow Hill, Greenville and Kinston.

Manager Olin Perritt's Tarboro club won in the ninth. The locals had put over a tally in the eighth to gain a 4-all tie.

Walks to Physioc and Chumbris, with one out, started the victory-bringing rally. Male then doubled to tally Physioc, and Chumbris counted when Corbitt errored Bryant's bounder. Male scored on Bassin's fly to center.

Tarboro gained a 4-0 lead before the Martins scored. Dick Cherry, starting Williamston hurler, yielded one run and two hits in the first inning. Slim Gardner went to the hill at the start of the second and yielded eight hits over the rest of the distance. The visitors counted a singleton in the third and a double in the fifth. Williamston got two in its half of the fifth. Rhymier, Tarboro's first hurler, worked until the seventh. He yielded to Physioc after walking two in that inning. Bassin poked a double and singles to pace Tarboro. He drove in three runs. McArthur, with a triple and a single, ranked next.

Corbitt, back in the lineup after a fortnight's absence, hit a pair of singles and was the only Martin with more than one safety.

ROAD PATROL RADIO SYSTEM GETS SETBACK

Engineering Difficulties May Delay Installation For Several Months

Reflector Bureau,
Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, Aug. 9.—The location and installation of the radio broadcasting stations for the State Highway Patrol, as well as the installation of the receiving equipment for the patrol cars and motorcycles, may be delayed for several months yet as the result of numerous engineering difficulties being encountered by the radio engineers who have been making a survey of the state for several months. Assistant Commissioner of Revenue M. C. S. Noble, Jr. said today. If the state were entirely flat and level, as is the eastern plain section, the problem of placing short wave radio stations would be able to remain in constant 24-hour contact with the patrol cars and motorcycles, would be very simple, Noble said. For radio waves travel most easily along level ground, and it is the ground waves upon which radio systems of the type contemplated are demanded.

But North Carolina is anything but level, especially in the Piedmont and western sections. Consequently the radio engineers are being faced with a real problem in trying to perfect a state-wide radio broadcasting system which will reach to every county in the state, especially in the mountain counties of the western part of the state. For the mountains act as a barrier to radio waves, especially the ground waves, with the result that there are many "blind spots" in the mountain sections to which radio waves rarely penetrate, or in which they are too weak to register. The surveys which have been under way for several months now have been designed to locate all these "blind spots" to enable radio engineers to conduct tests with various types of equipment in an effort to penetrate these sections.

TWO CHARGED WITH PASSING BAD MONEY

Asheville, August 7.—E. Edney of Asheville, and J. Ross of Greensboro, are in jail in default of $1,000 bond on a charge of passing counterfeit money in Hickory following a preliminary hearing here before Vonnio L. Gudger, United States commissioner.

Edney was held for passing the counterfeit money and Ross for conspiracy with Edney in passing it. Ross was brought here from the Greensboro jail for the hearing and has been returned there. Edney is held in the Buncombe County jail. They will be tried before Judge E. Yates Webb in the Federal district court at Shelby in September of October. At the preliminary hearing evidence tended to show that Edney boasted he had connections with persons with whom he had been in prison and could get supplies of the "queer money" to pass. Both men were arrested by Henry Thomas of Charlotte, United States secret service agent.

ACQUITTED OF CHARGE OF CRIMINAL ASSAULT

Smithfield, August 9.—Carl Parsh, 17-year-old married man of Selma, who was charged with criminal assault upon Marjorie Hicks, 11-year-old child from near Pine Level, was acquitted in Recorder's Court Wednesday.

The child identified him as the man who made indecent proposals to her as she was going along a private path between her home and Pine Level on July 29, but her identification was discredited after his mother and Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Van testified that he was not out of their presence at the time of the occurrence. He had driven his mother to the Van home to attend to some business matter and, according to their testimony, did not leave the house except to go to the well until he got into the car to drive home. While no assault was made, it was not denied by any one that some unknown person, whom Marjorie thought to be the defendant, had insulted her and alarmed her parents.

Wilmington, Aug. 9.—A verdict of unavoidable accident has been turned in by a coroner's jury investigating the death of Betty Von Oesen, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Von Oesen, 1211 Grace street, who was fatally injured late Monday afternoon when she stepped in front of an automobile operated by Mrs. L. A. Marshall, 311 1-2 North Second Street. The little girl's skull was crushed one of her hips was broken and she was thought to have suffered internal injuries. Witnesses at the inquest said the child walked into the path of the Marshall automobile, which was traveling west, on Grace street in front of the Von Oesen home.

LICENSE COSTS ARE CHANGED

Motor Vehicle Bureau
Starting Big Job Involving All Registered Cars

Reflector Bureau,
Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, Aug. 9.—The motor vehicle bureau of the State Department of Revenues just starting on the job of changing the license cost on the file cards of almost 500,000 automobiles and trucks in the state, which means that a new addressograph plate has to be made for every one of these file cards, showing what the cost of the new license plates will be when they go on sale November 1, 1935 for the license year of 1936. Assistant Commissioner of Revenue M. C. S. Noble, Jr. said today.

The 1935 general assembly changed the license cost of passenger automobiles from a basic charge of 55 cents per 100 pounds to 10 cents per 100 pounds and also made some changes in the licensing basis for trucks. As a result, the addressograph plate for every automobile owner in the state must be changed to conform with the new basis between now and the time the new 1936 license plates go on sale in November. This means that first the license cost must be crumpled on almost 500,000 passenger cars and trucks in the state and indicated on the file cards, then that these corrected cards must be taken to the addressograph department where new plates will be made for each one.

Since this process involves more than 1,000,000 operations and will keep several hundred clerks and about a score of addressograph operators busy for several months, work is being started now so that all of the plates and record cards will be corrected and show the cost of the new licenses by the time the new licenses go on sale in November.

They just moved there. His father's name is Cuff too and that's about all the boy can tell. He says some other boys persuaded him to hop the freight. If the police can locate the elder Cuff they will send the boy home.

October was up from 1108 and 1113 and May from 1090 to 1096 or within a few points of yesterday's closing quotations on the general list. At midday prices were about 3 points above to two points below yesterday's closing on active months with October relatively steady. Futures closed barely steady 6 higher to 5 lower.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Aug. 9.—(AP)—Faltering only occasionally stocks resumed their advance today in an active market.

A little profit here and there was virtually ignored and buyers were in the majority from the start. Merchandise, motors, aircraft, and specialty issues lead the forward push although other categories were not far behind. Even the rails and utilities fell into line. Grains again were a negligible influence. Wheat and corn holding to a restrictive groove.

Cotton steadied after its dip yesterday on the government crop estimate. Bonds were not exciting.

Many new highs for the year or longer were registered by the more active stock shares.

The late tone was strong. Transfers were 2,000,000 shares.
