

THE WEATHER

Rain tonight and Tuesday. Warmer in extreme north and extreme west portion Tuesday night.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

TRUTH IN PREFERENCE TO FICTION

NEWS FOR THE READER
RESULTS FOR THE ADVERTISER

VOL. 99 NO. 77

Leased Wire

GREENVILLE, N. C., MONDAY AFTERNOON, MARCH 9TH, 1936.

Associated Press

Price: Five Cents

PLANS EXTEND
STRIKE SCOPE
TO BROOKLYN

Strike Leader Criticizes Stand of Realty Interests

MAYOR OF N. Y. SEEKS END STRIKE

LaGuardia Asks Realty Advisory Board If It Has Authority in Negotiations

New York, March 9.—(AP)—Criticism of the realty interests, conditional acceptance of Mayor LaGuardia's peace plan, James J. Bambrick, leader of the Building workers strike, today declared there is no other answer than to fight to the bitter end.

The reply of the realty advisory board to Mayor LaGuardia's four-point peace plan was full of stipulations, Bambrick said and, "conditioned the peace formula to death."

"The reply was dishonest and insincere," he added. There is no other answer than to fight to the bitter end and the union will hurl its entire force today.

Bambrick went ahead with plans to call workers out of loft and office buildings in the important grand central zone and to extend the strike to Brooklyn and Queens.

A telegram was sent to the mayor by Bambrick today saying the union was prepared to accept the selection of an arbitrator "so that immediate peace can be secured."

The mayor sent a telegram to the Realty Advisory board asking it to inform him "if you have the authority to agree to abide by the decision of the arbitrator."

The board agreed yesterday "with minor modifications and some additions" to Mayor LaGuardia's proposal for terminating the walkout.

The union leaders accepted them "unconditionally."

Week-End Arrests Expected Provide Heavy Court Term

County Court Tomorrow to Be Faced with Number of Cases Involving Liquor Law Violations

This week's term of County court is expected to be one of the heaviest in several weeks, a large number of arrests having been made over the week-end.

The session tomorrow will be the last in three weeks, terms of criminal and civil court set for the weeks of March 16 and March 23, respectively.

Several persons will face trial on charges of driving drunk, transporting whiskey and other counts.

Constable J. Gus Stokes and Patrolman H. B. Smith were eluded by three negroes, they said were transporting whiskey, but the trio were arrested this morning.

The three, Jordan Wilson, Jr., Alexander Wilson and Roy Chance, were chased after the officers became suspicious of them on the Bethel highway. Constable Stokes said the negroes threw several liquor-filled fruit jars out of the car, but one of them failed to break and it could be used as evidence against the men.

William E. Venters was bound over to County court on a charge of driving drunk, following a hearing in Mayor's court this morning. His arrest followed a wreck at the intersection of Tenth and Evans street. He is alleged to have struck a telephone pole, breaking it down.

Another wreck occurred over the week-end on Evans street in which a telephone pole was knocked down, but no official report had been made at police headquarters.

Clifton Worthington was bound over to County court on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

Eileen Burney, negro, was bound over on a whiskey charge.

Mid-Street Crossing Fatal Cincinnati, March 9.—(AP)—Eighty-three of the 125 persons killed by automobiles in Cincinnati in 1935 were pedestrians, the Cincinnati Safety council announced.

Crossing in the middle of the block instead of at intersections was held the principal cause for pedestrian fatalities.

Nurse First Hawaii Vet TO SIGN UP FOR BONUS

Honolulu, March 9.—(AP)—The first Hawaii war veteran to sign a bonus application was Mrs. Frances Layton, who served 10 months overseas as a nurse at the American base hospital No. 35, Mar-sur-Ailler, France.

After signing she helped several score buddies with their applications.

Warden and Convict Slain in Prison Break

Warden Eugene Bailey (top left) and a long-term convict, Phil Ray (bottom left), were shot to death in a daring prison break at the South Dakota penitentiary at Sioux Falls, S. D. Claude Carriere, of Kansas City, who attempted to free his brother, Harold, and Ray by kidnapping the warden is shown (right) in prison after he was captured—wounded in the head and arm. Harold Carriere was also wounded and captured, and a deputy and a spectator were wounded as the fugitives carried on a running gunfight in their futile efforts to escape. (Associated Press Photos)

DEATH CLAIMS
MRS. WOOLARD

Funeral Services to be Conducted Tomorrow Afternoon

Mrs. J. H. Woolard, 49, died at her home on the corner of Fourth and Holly streets Sunday night at 6:30 o'clock.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock from Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, of which Mrs. Woolard was a member. Dr. G. R. Combs, the pastor, will be in charge. He will be assisted by Rev. J. A. McIver, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church. Burial will follow in Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. Woolard was born August 8, 1886, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Chauncey of Beaufort county. She was married to Mr. Woolard on October 26, 1904, since which time they have lived in Pitt county, the last 10 or 12 years in Greenville.

Mrs. Woolard was a devout church worker and spent much of her time in the various activities of the local Methodist church. She also was noted for her charity work among the unfortunate of the community.

She is survived by her husband, John Hyman Woolard; two sons, Garland Woolard of Williamston and William Woolard of Greenville; four daughters, Mrs. P. F. Batchelor and Misses Lucille, Frances and Madeline Woolard of Greenville; four brothers, W. C. Chauncey of Grifton; J. R. Chauncey, of Greenville, R. F. D.; J. H. Chauncey of Miami, Fla.; and J. W. Chauncey of Akron, Ohio; three sisters, Mrs. A. L. Woolard of Stokes, Mrs. W. H. Calfee of Belhaven; Mrs. J. A. Breth of Akron, Ohio; one aunt, Mrs. Bettie Lassiter of Washington, and a number of distant relatives.

Active pallbearers will be L. R. Whichard and James Moore of Stokes, James Woolard, J. R. Barker, J. C. Galloway and B. S. Warren of Greenville.

Honorary pallbearers will include: Dr. Vernon Ward of Robersonville, Dr. Needham Ward, R. B. Kittrell, (Continued on page four)

Seeking Find Owner Of Stolen Chickens

Chief George Clark has in his possession several chickens he says he is positive were stolen, but is unable to determine the owner and return them.

Following complaints from residents that they were missing a number of chickens, the police chief asked all buyers to aid him in trying to catch any chicken thieves by calling him if there was any suspicion the fowls were stolen.

One buyer this morning telephoned Chief Clark that a negro was in his place with a number of chickens for sale and that they might have been stolen. The negro heard the buyer put through the call and fled.

Chief Clark said if the owner would call for the chickens he could claim them.

Fancy Lettering Makes Tombstone Unreadable

Norfolk, Va., March 9.—(AP)—A stonecutter's fancy lettering has condemned to anonymity a man buried in St. Paul's churchyard here.

The stonecutter carved clear and straight until he began cutting the name on the tombstone.

Then he went off into flirts and scrolls with the result that the identity of the deceased is indecipherable.

Model For Magazine Has Kin in County

Ten-year-old Betty Jean Cobb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cobb, the former a native of Farmville, was the model for the cover design of the April issue of the Pictorial Review.

The girl's father is a cousin of K. W. Cobb of this city and he also has a brother and several sisters living in Farmville. The girl-model has never lived in this county, but has been here on several occasions with her parents visiting relatives. Her mother is originally from Brooklyn, N. Y.

Anton Bruehl, the artist of the magazine cover, was quoted by her father as saying that he had several commercial offers for pictures of the pretty, auburn-haired girl, but that her mother had refused all of them up until the present. He also is seeking the permission of her parents to take her to Hollywood.

The picture shows the girl working in a garden. With red ribbons on her hair and dressed in a pink frock, she is digging in a garden bed.

BLOUNT NOT TO SEEK OLD POST

Representative Says He Is Not a Candidate for Office

M. O. Blount of Bethel, representative to the General Assembly in 1935, announced today he would not be a candidate for re-election in the coming primary.

No candidate has formally announced for the place so far. Neither has any candidate offered opposition to Senator Arthur B. Corey, who will seek his old senate seat.

In announcing he would not be a candidate to succeed himself, Mr. Blount issued the following statement:

"Many of my friends have inquired as to whether or not I will be a candidate for re-election to the House of Representatives. After having given the matter careful consideration, I have decided that I will not be a candidate. I am deeply appreciative of the honor bestowed upon me by the citizenship of our County and trust that my record in the Legislature met with the approval of our voters."

Washington By RAY TUCKER

DARK: Legislative leaders had no warning of the split-the-profit tax's far-reaching purpose and character until reporters who had quizzed treasury technicians furnished them the lowdown. Now, the more these solons learn about its birth and background, the hotter they get.

What nettles them is that FDR employed this same clandestine technique when he handed them the "soak-the-rich" program last June. When he called them in for a five-hour parley at the White House, he simply sketched a measure imposing new processing taxes and retouching corporation taxes.

He promised to let them write the rates and schedules. And they privately resolved to feather their political nests rather than the treasury till.

Now they know that the revolutionary reform of the corporate taxing structure was decided on at least a week before they talked with Mr. Roosevelt. The basic scheme for reaching into corporations' surplus strongboxes was first advanced by Cordell Hull and John Garner when they dominated tax talk in Senate and House. Mr. Roosevelt merely fitted their philosophy into his program and ordered Henry Morgenthau's tax experts to transfer it to paper.

UPSET: King-pin cotton men are violently disturbed by the measure for handling the product that was introduced by Senator Ellison Smith of South Carolina—"Cotton Ed"—to his colleagues.

Although high-up officials can't afford to vocalize their thoughts, they suspect the proposal will profit brokerage houses more than producers below the Mason and Dixon (Continued on Page Two)

SEEK UNCOVER
KIDNAP SCARE

Officers Investigate Tip on Plot Kidnap Dempsey's Child

Atlantic City, N. J., March 9.—(AP)—Officers investigated today an anonymous "tip" purporting to disclose a plot to kidnap Jack Dempsey's 19-month-old daughter, Joan Hannah.

Whether the "tip" was accurate the officers were unprepared to say. Acting Captain of Detective James Farley asserted, "It is probably the work of a prank."

The child, however, was placed under guard at a hotel here where (Continued on page four)

Eli Bloom Seeks Pitt Solicitor Post For Coming Term

Greenville Attorney Announces Candidacy For Post Subject to Next Democratic Primary.

Eli Bloom, well-known Greenville attorney, today announced that he will be a candidate for Solicitor of the Pitt County Court, to succeed Jack Spain who, it is understood, will not be a candidate for re-election as Solicitor.

Mr. Bloom attended the University of North Carolina and was admitted to the bar in January, 1932, since which time he has been actively practicing law in Greenville. On several occasions he has been called upon to prosecute the county court docket in the absence of the solicitor.

Mr. Bloom is associated with his wife, Mrs. Etta Bloom in the operation of Bloom's store. They have one child, a daughter.

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

News Behind The News

Washington By RAY TUCKER

DARK: Legislative leaders had no warning of the split-the-profit tax's far-reaching purpose and character until reporters who had quizzed treasury technicians furnished them the lowdown. Now, the more these solons learn about its birth and background, the hotter they get.

What nettles them is that FDR employed this same clandestine technique when he handed them the "soak-the-rich" program last June. When he called them in for a five-hour parley at the White House, he simply sketched a measure imposing new processing taxes and retouching corporation taxes.

He promised to let them write the rates and schedules. And they privately resolved to feather their political nests rather than the treasury till.

Now they know that the revolutionary reform of the corporate taxing structure was decided on at least a week before they talked with Mr. Roosevelt. The basic scheme for reaching into corporations' surplus strongboxes was first advanced by Cordell Hull and John Garner when they dominated tax talk in Senate and House. Mr. Roosevelt merely fitted their philosophy into his program and ordered Henry Morgenthau's tax experts to transfer it to paper.

UPSET: King-pin cotton men are violently disturbed by the measure for handling the product that was introduced by Senator Ellison Smith of South Carolina—"Cotton Ed"—to his colleagues.

Although high-up officials can't afford to vocalize their thoughts, they suspect the proposal will profit brokerage houses more than producers below the Mason and Dixon (Continued on Page Two)

ONE OPINION IS HANDLED DOWN
BY HIGH COURT

Right Upheld to Collect Tax on Seized Alcohol

PREPARES HEAR SECURITIES ACT

Supreme Court Prepares for Arguments Which Will Test Validity of Acts

Washington, March 9.—(AP)—Preparing for arguments which will test the constitutionality of two new deal laws, the Supreme court today received a federal defense of the 1933 securities act and other documents attacking and upholding the Guffey coal act.

The justices met briefly handing down one opinion, that delivered by Justice Brandies and unanimously upheld the government's right to taxes on 146,157 gallons of alcohol seized several years ago from the oil barge "Doris" at Port Bayonne, New Jersey.

The court agreed to decide whether Arthur W. Cutten, Chicago grange trader should be barred from the market for two years. The Circuit court of Appeals at Chicago had decided in favor of Cutten.

The government brief on the securities act was presented in conference with arguments scheduled for tomorrow on validity of the legislation. The law was unsuccessfully attacked in New York courts.

Thirty-one Alabama coal producers assailed the legislature. Kentucky defended it. The court also was told by Representative Keller, (D. Ill.) that his state planned to file a brief.

TAXES TO HIT
MANY PERSONS

Estimated 2,879,000 Individuals Would Pay New Levies

Washington, March 9.—(AP)—Figures showing that 2,879,000 individuals would pay new or additional taxes, should corporations—faced with a proposed tax on their undivided income—distribute all earnings among stockholders, were submitted by Treasury authorities today to a House ways and means sub-committee.

On the assumption of complete distribution of all corporation earnings, the Treasury estimated that $18,176,000 of incomes would be taxable.

Chairman Samuel B. Hill (D-Wash.) said today's discussion was confined to President Roosevelt's suggested corporate earning levy.

The Treasury was asked to submit tables covering lower rates on a portion of net undistributed corporate incomes that would enable corporations to build up reserves.

He said possibly the committee would base the proposed new levy on the percentages of income held back from dividends rather than on actual amounts of corporate earnings not distributed among stockholders.

Speaker Byrnes said he thought the forthcoming income tax bill would include levies on undistributed corporate earnings, processing taxes, a "windfall" tax to recapture returned processing taxes and nothing more.

Eden said there was "no reason to suppose that the present German action implies a threat of hostility" but Baldwin admitted that there appeared less hope today than for many years of "bringing France and Germany together again."

London, March 9.—(AP)—Intense British diplomatic activities in the crisis precipitated by German occupation of the Rhineland aroused a belief today Britain intended to make the best of a bad situation by attempting to obtain some consideration of Adolf Hitler's proposal for new pacts.

To Anthony Eden, Britain's new foreign secretary, the task of disclosing to the house of commons his government's reply to Germany's latest blow against the much-scarred treaty of Versailles and the pact of Locarno.

Eden's address preceded a two-day debate on British rearmament with the government gravely concerned over Germany's uni-lateral denunciation of the Locarno pact, but at the same time noting the (Continued on Page Four)

France Strikes Back
German Occupation
Of Rhineland Zone

Europe's Trouble Zone

The shaded portion of this map shows the Rhineland zone which was demilitarized by the Versailles treaty—a pact Dictator Hitler violated when he sent Nazi troops into the territory with orders to occupy the area. (Associated Press Photo)

ANTHONY EDEN SAYS ETHIOPIA
TO GIVE REPLY WILL CONTINUE

Falls to Secretary to Disclose Reply to Germany

London, March 9.—(AP)—Anthony Eden, British foreign secretary, said today that his nation would go to the defense of France and Belgium if Germany attacked either one of them—but that he did not "see a threat of hostilities."

At the same time Prime Minister Baldwin said that if the countries of either want to stop aggression they will have to be "much more ready for war than they are today, otherwise the aggressor will have his own way."

Eden said there was "no reason to suppose that the present German action implies a threat of hostility" but Baldwin admitted that there appeared less hope today than for many years of "bringing France and Germany together again."

London, March 9.—(AP)—Intense British diplomatic activities in the crisis precipitated by German occupation of the Rhineland aroused a belief today Britain intended to make the best of a bad situation by attempting to obtain some consideration of Adolf Hitler's proposal for new pacts.

To Anthony Eden, Britain's new foreign secretary, the task of disclosing to the house of commons his government's reply to Germany's latest blow against the much-scarred treaty of Versailles and the pact of Locarno.

Eden's address preceded a two-day debate on British rearmament with the government gravely concerned over Germany's uni-lateral denunciation of the Locarno pact, but at the same time noting the (Continued on Page Four)

Mrs. Mary Forrest Claimed By Death At Home Sunday

Funeral Services For 86-Year-Old Woman Held From Late Home at 3 o'clock This Afternoon

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary J. Forrest, 86, who died at her home near Ayden Sunday morning at 5:40 o'clock, were held from the late home at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Rev. R. P. Pittman, Free Will Baptist minister of Ayden, and Rev. M. A. Woodard, Free Will Baptist minister of Winterville, were in charge. Burial was in the family plot near (Continued on Page Four)

SEEKS LINE UP
OTHER NATIONS

Fears Privately Expressed That France Will Be Alone in Determined Action Against Germany for Violation of Locarno Pact; Officials Publicly, However, Say France Can Count on Friends

Paris, March 9.—(AP)—French officials declared today that a war with Germany to oust Hitler troops from the Rhineland was impossible and that Great Britain appeared sympathetic with the Reich peace offers blocked the French demand for "justice."

They said France was "strong in her right" but that she still believes in collective security—that is joint action by allied nations.

The speech made this afternoon by Anthony Eden, the British foreign secretary, in the House of Commons aroused exclamations of bitter disappointment in the French atmosphere of profound gloom.

Officials said that France had relied upon the loyalty of her allies the little entente of Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia and Rumania, and upon her newly found friend, Russia.

But they said France even would be mad even with the major portion of her "iron ring around Germany" but hesitates to take drastic action "if Great Britain deserts us."

(Copyright By The Associated Press)

Paris, March 9.—(AP)—France, striking back swiftly at Germany's occupation of the Rhineland, drove today to line up all other large European powers to punish the Reich for its treaty violation and to force the Nazi troops out of the once demilitarized zone.

French diplomats, demanding that Great Britain join in collective action against Germany with the same severity that was applied to Italy, proceeded also with attempts to align Italy, Belgium and the Benelux nations behind the move to compel Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler to observe the principles of the Locarno pact.

In parliamentary lobbies it was urged that the cabinet be reorganized to make "a strong government" and that a parliamentary election scheduled for the last of April be postponed.

Some French officials said privately they feared France would be alone in the determination to take quick action against Hitler's violation of the Locarno treaty, but publicly they said that France could count on her friends.

Italian ambassador Vittorio Cerutti, informed sources said, assured the French government that Italy would assume its Locarno obligations if the league of nations would slacken the sanctions being imposed as punishment for the war in Ethiopia.

Reports from Warsaw said, it was understood in informed Polish quarters that Poland gave the French ambassador there assurance that she would carry out her obligations under the Franco-Polish accord.

(Continued on Page Four)

Adopt Resolution Asking Findings of Lobby Hearings

Senate Calls On Communications Commission for Information on Seizure of Telegrams

Washington, March 9.—(AP)—The senate today adopted a resolution calling on the communications commission for all information bearing on its "inspection and alleged seizure" of telegrams and its checking on telephone calls for the Senate Lobby Committee.

Previously Chairman Black (D-Ala.) of the Lobby Committee, said he would not object to the resolution if it used some other word for "seizure."

He extended there had been to "seizure" in the ordinary sense of that word because all telegrams obtained had been duly submitted.

Senator Borah agreed to use the phrase "alleged seizure."

Funeral Services For 86-Year-Old Woman Held From Late Home at 3 o'clock This Afternoon

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary J. Forrest, 86, who died at her home near Ayden Sunday morning at 5:40 o'clock, were held from the late home at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Rev. R. P. Pittman, Free Will Baptist minister of Ayden, and Rev. M. A. Woodard, Free Will Baptist minister of Winterville, were in charge. Burial was in the family plot near (Continued on Page Four)

The Daily Reflector

Every Afternoon Except Sunday.
Established 1882

DAVID J. WHITCHARD, Jr.
Owner and Publisher

TELEPHONE 36

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C. as second class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
(Payable in Advance)

One year $5.00
Six months $2.50
Three months $1.25
One month50

Subscription will be discontinued at expiration of time paid.
MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein. All right of republication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES:

Thos. F. Clark Co., Inc., New York, Chicago, Indianapolis, Philadelphia, Kansas City.

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

(Continued from Page One)

line. The bill is highly technical, but certain experts at Washington maintain that it will permit New York broker to name their price monthly and squeeze the market for unlikelier futures. It has precipitated a bitter back-stage quarrel between merchandisers and marketmen.

Several Manhattan figures have hovered constantly in the wings during consideration of the measure at Senate committee sessions and their presence has aroused suspicion. The government's cotton cars have discreetly kept out of the picture but they are making a quiet checkup of the bill's chances. They may move to block it one of these days.

ENDURANCE: First reports of American observers assigned to Mussolini's army in northern Ethiopia have begun to trickle back to Washington. They throw a new light on Il Duce's position insofar as military operations in the field are involved. He's sitting pretty there and that may help him at Geneva, London and Paris.

The morale of his troops is reported to be excellent and improving as a result of General Badoglio's recent triumphs. But what surprised outsiders the most was the physical well-being of the Italian soldiers. The communiques also declared that the construction of roads and communication lanes—a vital need—were far beyond expectations.

These confidential reports contradict previous word from other sources, which pictured the invaders as discontented and predicted that spring rains would wash out the military roads. Though 200 miles of rough terrain face the Italians before they enter Addis Ababa, it appears that they can dig in for a summer recess if Rome's cash holds out.

VULNERABLE: Harry Hopkins is in for a busy time running down charges of political graft in his Works Progress setup. He wants to get it cleaned out so as to still Congressional outcries when President Roosevelt asks for new relief funds some time this month.

Two sides whose boondoggling ventures provoked uproars—"Cowboy Jake" Baker and Corrington Gill—have been shorn of direct responsibility, although they still enjoy their old titles of assistant administrators. Mr. Baker directed the theatrical productions and Mr. Gill supervised the art colony at Key West. Both these undertakings produced headlines which were not helpful. West Virginia is boiling as a result of Senator Holt's revelations. Senator Vandenberg sends in a hijacking letter from a relief agent to a subordinate, demanding a political contribution to the Democratic war chest on pain of dismissal. Reports from California indicate that politicians there too are getting fat pickings in the relief operations.

For some time the WPA-ers have been on the hunt for a master-publicist to dress up boondoggling so it won't be recognized as such. Although New Dealers insist they can make a good case for furnishing appropriate aid to white-collared and soft-palmed unemployed, so far they haven't succeeded in dispassionate public—and political—judgment against this form of relief.

New York

By JAMES McMULLIN

PLEASURE: The President's so-called surplus tax plan (forecast in this column several weeks ago) will perform a major operation, if enacted, on the personal fortunes of several of his pet enemies. Whether by coincidence or design, the duPonts and Henry Ford will be especially hard hit.

The Ford Motor Company and the duPont Corporation have been conspicuous among the "surplus boarders"—and their main motive has been to protect big stockholders from paying huge income taxes to Uncle Sam.

The duPont's Liberty League activities have naturally made them extremely unpopular around the White House. Those who should know say that FDR feels nearly as

Golden Rain

by Margaret Wildmer

SYNOPSIS: Most unexpectedly, Morgan Black has become very much interested in 19-year-old Iris Lanning, with her precise speech and her old-fashioned clothes. When he finally leaves her he does not know that she is the niece of the Ella Lanning who will, he hopes, tell him for a boarder to business the Lanning fortunes. Iris becomes his position as the daughter of poverty-stricken aristocracy; all she can do is to wait parties go with her "parlor tricks."

Chapter Three

SURPRISE

BUT Iris' "parlor tricks" were better than she knew. Miss Ella had unweariedly passed on to her niece everything that in her own more accomplished and literate age money could buy or art suggest for the brilliant young Ella Lanning, who had intended to be a singer.

Iris' unmodern education comprised fluent French and Italian, the ability to play well the yellow-keyed old family piano, and a singing voice upon which Miss Ella had lavished all she knew of her own "voice culture" of a good though old-fashioned school.

"You'll need accomplishments,"

"And I met a young man—oh!"

Jarring. Gentlemen like them," she had said invariably over all the years Iris could recall. As invariably her father had added gayly but insistently, "Iris isn't to marry. I want her all to myself."

None of it had seemed very immaterial to Iris, her young vitality and strength made living a pleasure, in itself so much as anything immediately anything came along, like a party she couldn't have good clothes for, to make the dark side of the picture more real than the bright one; the garden the loving old aunt and uncle, the library books, the piano to play and sing at, and all the vague belief in a lovely and fortunate future, with the right lover, gentle, gracious, magnificent to everyone but her; the lover partly out of books a little out of movies, but more from old stories of her grandmother's glories and adores:

There were town boys and there were moments when her father and aunt had relaxed guard, and she had been made love to in brief awkward phrases; here were boys who by old Uncle William's connivance stole off with her now and again to movies to a ball game in Philadelphia. But they were not the Prince.

IT WAS more curious than they knew Aunt Ella insisted on "contact with society," "ease of manner." There were invariable teas and suppers to which, she went with her aunt; Mrs. Cadwallader's ancient house Miss Deborah Wayne's, Mrs. Josiah Warrell's. It never struck Aunt Ella that these might not amuse Iris as much as they did her self. It occurred to only one person—Uncle William.

He it was who planned Iris's small escapes, who in spite of Ella's firm hold on all money for the use of lawrence, Iris's father, squeezed tiny sums out now and again to buy Iris a length of silk for a dress or a pair of rayon stockings.

He hadn't been able to do much of late. Miss Ella was more stringent than ever; she was talking about a memorial for her dead brother.

"Oh, well, maybe I can find something to do one of the trunks of old clothes in the garret to let down this dress with," Iris thought as she swung along in the dusk with her armful of "golden rain."

She began to daydream again; perhaps somebody would be at Kay's when she sang her old-fashioned songs that people laughed over; perhaps she'd get a paying engagement at some house in Philadelphia. Perhaps it would end with her doing it regularly, earning money enough to buy herself and her uncle all the things she wanted....

She began to sing as she came up the neglected old drive, under the old-fashioned portico. She had lingered so long that a half hour had passed; it was quite dark. She was singing one of the songs she would do at Kay's. It was a song of an older day, a funny old thing of the seventies that had been a show-piece of her grandmother's:

"Just as sure as it is half past eight
Someone's tapping at the garden gate...."

It was her signal to Uncle William. She knocked on the big front door.

"Let me in, let me in, Uncle William! I haven't any free hands."

HER uncle's slow foot and tapping crutch trod down the unseen hall and a gaslight awakened. She ran through the opened door, laughed, kissed him above her bright-colored head.

"Oh, I'm late," she said, "but you can't think how heavy young trees are! And I met a young man—oh!"

She stopped. She colored all over

"And I met a young man—oh!"

Jarring. Gentlemen like them," she had said invariably over all the years Iris could recall. As invariably her father had added gayly but insistently, "Iris isn't to marry. I want her all to myself."

None of it had seemed very immaterial to Iris, her young vitality and strength made living a pleasure, in itself so much as anything immediately anything came along, like a party she couldn't have good clothes for, to make the dark side of the picture more real than the bright one; the garden the loving old aunt and uncle, the library books, the piano to play and sing at, and all the vague belief in a lovely and fortunate future, with the right lover, gentle, gracious, magnificent to everyone but her; the lover partly out of books a little out of movies, but more from old stories of her grandmother's glories and adores:

There were town boys and there were moments when her father and aunt had relaxed guard, and she had been made love to in brief awkward phrases; here were boys who by old Uncle William's connivance stole off with her now and again to movies to a ball game in Philadelphia. But they were not the Prince.

IT WAS more curious than they knew Aunt Ella insisted on "contact with society," "ease of manner." There were invariable teas and suppers to which, she went with her aunt; Mrs. Cadwallader's ancient house Miss Deborah Wayne's, Mrs. Josiah Warrell's. It never struck Aunt Ella that these might not amuse Iris as much as they did her self. It occurred to only one person—Uncle William.

He it was who planned Iris's small escapes, who in spite of Ella's firm hold on all money for the use of lawrence, Iris's father, squeezed tiny sums out now and again to buy Iris a length of silk for a dress or a pair of rayon stockings.

He hadn't been able to do much of late. Miss Ella was more stringent than ever; she was talking about a memorial for her dead brother.

"Oh, well, maybe I can find something to do one of the trunks of old clothes in the garret to let down this dress with," Iris thought as she swung along in the dusk with her armful of "golden rain."

She began to daydream again; perhaps somebody would be at Kay's when she sang her old-fashioned songs that people laughed over; perhaps she'd get a paying engagement at some house in Philadelphia. Perhaps it would end with her doing it regularly, earning money enough to buy herself and her uncle all the things she wanted....

She began to sing as she came up the neglected old drive, under the old-fashioned portico. She had lingered so long that a half hour had passed; it was quite dark. She was singing one of the songs she would do at Kay's. It was a song of an older day, a funny old thing of the seventies that had been a show-piece of her grandmother's:

"Just as sure as it is half past eight
Someone's tapping at the garden gate...."

It was her signal to Uncle William. She knocked on the big front door.

"Let me in, let me in, Uncle William! I haven't any free hands."

HER uncle's slow foot and tapping crutch trod down the unseen hall and a gaslight awakened. She ran through the opened door, laughed, kissed him above her bright-colored head.

"Oh, I'm late," she said, "but you can't think how heavy young trees are! And I met a young man—oh!"

She stopped. She colored all over

"And I met a young man—oh!"

Jarring. Gentlemen like them," she had said invariably over all the years Iris could recall. As invariably her father had added gayly but insistently, "Iris isn't to marry. I want her all to myself."

None of it had seemed very immaterial to Iris, her young vitality and strength made living a pleasure, in itself so much as anything immediately anything came along, like a party she couldn't have good clothes for, to make the dark side of the picture more real than the bright one; the garden the loving old aunt and uncle, the library books, the piano to play and sing at, and all the vague belief in a lovely and fortunate future, with the right lover, gentle, gracious, magnificent to everyone but her; the lover partly out of books a little out of movies, but more from old stories of her grandmother's glories and adores:

There were town boys and there were moments when her father and aunt had relaxed guard, and she had been made love to in brief awkward phrases; here were boys who by old Uncle William's connivance stole off with her now and again to movies to a ball game in Philadelphia. But they were not the Prince.

IT WAS more curious than they knew Aunt Ella insisted on "contact with society," "ease of manner." There were invariable teas and suppers to which, she went with her aunt; Mrs. Cadwallader's ancient house Miss Deborah Wayne's, Mrs. Josiah Warrell's. It never struck Aunt Ella that these might not amuse Iris as much as they did her self. It occurred to only one person—Uncle William.

He it was who planned Iris's small escapes, who in spite of Ella's firm hold on all money for the use of lawrence, Iris's father, squeezed tiny sums out now and again to buy Iris a length of silk for a dress or a pair of rayon stockings.

He hadn't been able to do much of late. Miss Ella was more stringent than ever; she was talking about a memorial for her dead brother.

"Oh, well, maybe I can find something to do one of the trunks of old clothes in the garret to let down this dress with," Iris thought as she swung along in the dusk with her armful of "golden rain."

Daily Cross Word Puzzle

ACROSS

- One; a colloid.
- High mountain.
- Common condiment.
- Two-toed sloth.
- Roman household god.
- Medicinal plant.
- Copper sulphide, used to color glass.
- Crescent-shaped figure.
- Change.
- Female sandpiper.
- Crippled.
- Dam in a river.
- Boy.
- Thus.
- Unsoiled.
- Trunk of a felled tree.
- Cut off.
- Rhythmic swing.
- Statue.
- Acid fruit.
- Addition to a building.
- Allow.
- Fine fabric.
- Oil; suffix.
- Cover.
- French author.

DOWN

- Covering for the hands.
- African arrow poison.
- Good-by.
- Article of apparel.
- Change.
- Tardy.
- One in favor of; colloq.
- Cold dish.
- Astringent salt.
- Depressed by.
- Small part used in golf.
- The Emerald Isle.
- Fall behind.
- Partake of food.
- Of less than usual height.
- Enclose.
- Feminine name.
- Imaginary island peopled by a tiny race.
- Pillar in a Buddhist building.
- Lotion used to allay pain or soreness.
- Guided.
- Kindled.
- Waterfall.
- Pillage.
- The one defeated.
- Abounding in foliage.
- Shakespearean king.
- City in Pennsylvania.
- Eat away bit by bit.
- Aerial railway; colloq.
- Fortune.
- Belonging to him.

Solution of Saturday's Puzzle

ACROSS

- BARB
- MEDOC
- SOLO
- OBSE
- ORON
- PROW
- SIMPL
- LINEN
- EARN
- ODAL
- DEE
- SPENDS
- MENACES
- SOLD
- PACER
- BELTS
- PAR
- ADOREALIST
- ERA
- RIPPERED
- ESSAY
- ATE
- CREE
- ERN
- STAR
- ESSOINS
- RESIST
- GAT
- ORAL
- IRAN
- IRATE
- PAPA
- LING
- COLOR
- EDEN
- LADE
- SCANS
- REST

DOWN

1. Covering for the hands.
2. African arrow poison.
3. Good-by.
4. Article of apparel.
5. Change.
6. Tardy.
7. One in favor of; colloq.
8. Cold dish.
9. Astringent salt.
10. Depressed by.
11. Small part used in golf.

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11

12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25

26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44

45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52 53

would bring about a wider distribution of purchasing power—which has been an administration objective all along.

It would also tend to push stock prices higher. Those who receive additional dividends would be certain to reinvest a large part of their windfall in stocks. That means one more potent element added to the steadily rising tide of investment demand which we have several times stressed as the most important single factor in the strong bullish trend of the stock market.

IRONY: Financial insiders learned there was a background of bitter argument behind the Interstate Commerce Commission's 5 to 4 decision to order the lowering of railroad passenger fares. The four dissenters were firmly convinced that the move would be ruinous to the railroads affected and tried strenuously to gain the one convert whose change of opinion would have reversed the ruling. The disagreement is said to have left a trail of hard feelings on both sides.

Claude R. Porter—the Commissioner who delivered the majority opinion—has long been a pain in the necks of eastern railroad leaders. They did their best to figure out some way to block his reappointment this year as not qualified for the job—but got nowhere. His prominence in the fare controversy leaves them more than ever convinced that he ought to be abolished. They only wish someone would tell them how.

Opponents of the fare cut emphasize the irony of Baltimore and Ohio's position. This road, which has consistently favored the reduction, showed the biggest percentage of passenger revenue increase for 1935 of any railroad in the country. And it did so on a basic fare of 3.6 cents a mile.

FUSE: The New York State Court of Appeals started something when it ruled that the minimum wage law for women is unconstitutional. Leading women's organizations are up in arms. The blow was unexpected, so it may take a little while to get a fight organized. But a state constitutional amendment troves leaves them more than ever convinced that he ought to be abolished. They only wish someone would tell them how.

FOUND!

My Ideal Remedy for HEADACHE

"Though I have tried all good remedies Capudine suits me best. It is quick and gentle. For headache, neuralgia, muscular aches, and periodic pains, use either Capudine Liquid or Capudine Brand Tablets."

CAPUDINE

Colonial Bedroom Suits Always In Good Taste!

Everyone Loves Colonial Furniture! So lovely in appearance... so simple in style... so rich in background... and this is one of the outstanding numbers from our complete line of colonial suites now on display.

TERMS: $10.00 DOWN
Balance 15 cents per day

Home Furniture Store

Cor. 8th St. and Dickinson Ave.

PHONE 79

will be pushed to the limit if the U. S. Supreme Court upholds the high state court in the final appeal.

In that case, New York state legislators are due to learn something new about political pressure from the distant side. Indications are that feminine opinion will be more militant united on this issue than on any other since women got the right to vote.

Shrewd observers figure that adoption of such a constitutional change in New York would go far to arouse public sentiment for an amendment to the federal constitution which would give the government power to regulate wages, hours and labor conditions in general. The laundry owner who won the women's wage case may have left the fuse that leads to "regimentation" which the Supreme Court stamped out last year.

NOTICE OF LAND SALE

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in that certain deed of trust executed on June 19, 1931 by John Saled and wife, Olga Saled, to Sam T. Carson, trustee, of record in Book T-18 at page 463 in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County, default having been made in the payment of the debt therein secured and the undersigned having been substituted as trustee in said deed of trust, the said substituted trustee will on Monday, the 24th day of February, 1936

at 12 o'clock, Noon

before the courthouse door in Greenville, N. C., offer for sale and sell to the highest bidder for cash the following described real property, to-wit:

Being in the Town of Ayden, N. C. and beginning at the north-east intersection of Union and Third Streets and running an easterly course with the northern property line of Third Street 200 feet to a stake; thence running a northerly course and perpendicular to Third Street 160 feet to a stake; thence running a westerly direction and parallel with Third Street 200 feet to a stake in the eastern property line of Union Street; thence running a southerly course along Union Street 160 feet to the beginning state in the northern property line of Third Street, the beginning.

This is the 23rd day of Jan., 1936.

R. B. LEE, Substituted Trustee, Harding & Lee, Attys.

Jan. 24-1tw-4wk.

North Carolina—Pitt County

In The Superior Court

PITT COUNTY DRAINAGE DISTRICT NO. 2 SUITS FOR TAXES ACTIONS INSTITUTED DURING THE MONTH OF FEBRUARY

Second Advertisement

Notice is hereby given that actions by Pitt County Drainage District No. 2 and against the persons named below have been instituted in this Court for the purpose of securing judgment for the sale of real estate described in each separate action below set out, and for the applications of the proceeds of such sale to the discharge of amounts due Pitt County Drainage District No. 2 on unpaid tax sales certificates for the years 1931 and 1932 as set out in the complaints filed, the said tax certificates having been duly issued to the Pitt County Drainage District No. 2 and now held by it against said persons named below; the names of the several defendants, the property and the amount of taxes unpaid are shown below.

And notice is further given to all persons claiming any interest in the subject matter of any of the several actions by the Pitt County Drainage District No. 2 against the persons named below that they must appear before the Clerk of the Superior Court of Pitt County, at his office in Greenville, N. C., and set up or defend their claims within six months from the 3rd day of February, 1936, otherwise they will be forever barred and foreclosed of any and all interest, claims, liens, etc., which they may have in or to the said property described below and in to the proceeds derived from the sale thereof.

1931 Taxes

J. H. Adams and Wife, 65 a, $19.32.

Mrs. C. H. Archibald, 15 a, $15.75; 52 a, $35.38.

R. D. Bailey and Wife, 20 a, $5.95.

W. L. Barnhill and Wife, 84 a, $24.97.

Mrs. Rosa Briley and Husband, 18 a, $5.35.

Theo. Carson Estate, 266 a, $166.18.

Mrs. E. B. Davis and Husband, 33 a, $19.62; 43 a, $21.13; 100 a, $148.64.

Elias Dail and wife and D. W. Dail and Wife, 146 a, $113.27.

Mary Jane Daniel and Husband, 10 a, $2.97.

J. P. Davenport, 41 a, $12.19; 48 a, $33.01.

L. P. Dudley and Wife, 56 a, $19.32; 46 a, $13.67; 60 a, $22.60.

S. I. Dudley and Wife, 10.11; 41 a, $24.38.

Mrs. R. L. Dudley and Husband, 40 a, $11.89.

J. B. Fleming and Sisters, 24 a, $21.40; 83 a, $24.67.

V. C. Fleming and Wife, 96 a, $85.60.

Mrs. Sidney Fleming and Husband, 20 a, $5.89.

F. W. Satterthwaite and Wife, and J. E. Winslow and Wife, 289 a, $148.94.

Mrs. N. R. Edwards and Husband, 16 a, $4.76.

R. D. Harrington and Wife, 154 a, $149.33; 150 a, $44.59; 3 a, $86; 30 a, $8.92; 37 a, $23.48; 25 a, $7.43; 48 a, $14.27; 97 a, $28.84; 75 a, $14.85.

Mrs. G. E. Harris, 25 a, $28.73; 38 a, $33.89.

Amy, Samuel and Willie Short, 99 a, $56.98.

Jesse Hardison and Wife, $6.24.

Jesse and Perry Hopkins and Wives, 96 a, $52.03.

J. W. James and Wife, 152 a, $75.32.

W. C. James and Wife, 50 a, $14.86.

Mrs. S. P. Langley and Husband, 39

a, $26.75.

C. L. Manning and Wife and Mrs. W. Jasper Manning, 81 a, $47.86; 92 a, $101.08; 5 a, $7.42.

C. L. Manning and Wife, 36 a, $10.70; 15 a, $4.46.

Mike C. Manning Estate, 25 a, $7.43; 40 a, $11.89; 81 a, $56.78.

Mrs. W. J. Manning and Husband, 160 a, $176.98; 74 a, $22.00; 132 a, $145.52.

Miss Alice Moore, 12 a, $12.78.

Amy Mooring, 112 a, $33.30.

Mrs. J. P. Moss and Husband, 84 a, $12.78.

Redmond

Social and Personal

R. M. Garrett, R. B. Arthur, W. D. Tucker and K. W. Cobb were business visitors in Morehead City Saturday.

J. C. Stocks of Ayden, was here today.

Mrs. N. E. Winslow and children of Scotland Neck, who have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Whitehurst, have returned home.

Harvey Tripp has returned from Richmond, Va., where he spent several days with Mrs. Tripp, who is in a hospital in that city.

Miss Theresa Cruz of Havana, Cuba, who has been the guest of Miss Mary Council Home, left today for Henderson.

R. M. Garrett left today for Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Johnston spent Sunday in Wilmington.

Miss Mary Woolard and Miss Frances Spilman spent the weekend in Raleigh and Wake Forest.

Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Cobb have returned from Raleigh and Durham where they attended the Southern Conference basketball tournament.

Mrs. L. W. Gaylord left yesterday for a visit in Laurinburg.

Mrs. F. J. Forbes spent Saturday in Raleigh. She was accompanied home by Mr. Forbes, who returned to Raleigh today.

Mrs. W. M. Transou of Greensboro, is the guest of Mrs. Hortense F. Moye. Miss Elizabeth Transou returned to Greensboro today after spending the week-end with Mrs. Moye.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Galbraith and children of Kinston, were here yesterday.

Richard Williams was here from Raleigh to spend the week-end with his mother, Mrs. R. Williams.

Miss Neta Turnage has returned from a visit in Hartford, Conn., and Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Galloway and Misses Doris Burke and Margaret Burke of East Carolina Teachers College, spent Sunday in Henderson.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Livengood have arrived from Durham and are making their home on West Fourth street.

Mrs. Spilman III.

Friends of Mrs. J. B. Spilman will be sorry to learn that she is ill at her home on East Fifth street.

Club Meeting Postponed.

The Literature Department of the Woman's Club will not meet tomorrow.

Recover From Influenza.

Friends will be glad to know that Mrs. E. V. Carter and her little daughter, Mary Ruth, have recovered from influenza.

Y. W. C. A. Vesper Service.

"The house in which we live" was the subject of an inspiring message brought to the students at the college Y. W. C. A. vesper services by Dr. H. J. McGinnis, college registrar, last night.

From the historical standpoint, he discussed the four houses in which we live: the dwelling house, the physical body, the house of knowledge, and the house of the church and of reverence.

The dwelling house, he said, is the location of the family in a particular place. It has certain characteristics, such as protection and shelter and is the house of the present occupants only in one sense, he pointed out. Its building, he said, has been a slow process, going back to the house of the cave man, to the tent of the Arab, then to the thatched cottages, coming up to the stone homes and to the homes people now enjoy.

The body he gave as the dwelling house of an individuality or personality; it was inherited from a long line of ancestors, who, with the aid of men of medicine have contributed to it. He cited the Warm Springs Foundation as one of the helps to the coming generations in building up the body.

The third, he gave as the house of knowledge, which also goes back to those who have gone on before. The splendid school systems of today are results of the labors of those who have gone on before and who were willing to build them up.

The home of the church, the fourth in the series, he said, was built up by past generations until now there is such widespread reverence as has never been before. Houses fall into a decay and disappear; human bodies wear out and die, he brought out, but human knowledge, the home of thought and religion, never wears out and must be preserved by constant use.

He left four questions with the students:

First: Have you and I the qualities of builders?

Second: Are we repaying the debt we owe to those who furnished the foundations for these structures?

Third: Are we going to do our best to give the next generation a debt-free house?

Fourth: Are we giving them a better home than we have had ourselves?

The best answers, he said, are not in words but in the deeds of good citizens; one cannot live in the past nor in the future, but must wear the garments that he has earned by his own personal endeavors. No matter how grand homes are, he said, people cannot claim them unless they have contributed to them. "We are tenants in these homes, owned by humanity," he concluded, "and we owe it to humanity to be good contributors."

Snake Plants.

We have just received green and gold border snake plants. Suitable for small pots. Baker & Davis Hdw. Co.—(Adv.)

Social Calendar

MONDAY

6:30 p. m.—The Rotary Club will meet.

7:30 p. m.—Circle No. Two of the Presbyterian Auxiliary will meet with Mrs. B. W. Moseley.

8:00 p. m.—The Parent-Teacher Association of the Training School will meet.

8:00 p. m.—The Choral Club will meet in Sheppard Memorial Library.

TUESDAY

3:00 p. m.—The Eighth District Nurses Council will meet in the parish house.

3:30 p. m.—The Round Table will meet with Mrs. C. T. Munford.

7:30 p. m.—Witha Council Degree of Pochontas will meet, church.

7:30 p. m.—The teachers and officers of the Presbyterian Sunday school will meet with Mrs. Lindsay Savage.

8:00 p. m.—The Patient Circle of the King's Daughters and Sons will meet with Mrs. W. R. Jones on Pitt street.

THURSDAY

3:30 p. m.—The Junior Circle of the King's Daughters will meet with Miss Edith Forrest.

7:30 p. m.—St. Mary's Auxiliary will meet in the parish house.

7:30 p. m.—The choir of the Presbyterian Church will meet for rehearsal in the home of Mrs. Lindsay Savage.

FRIDAY

6:30 p. m.—The Kiwanis Club will meet in the Woman's Club.

The Round Table

Mrs. C. T. Munford will be hostess to members of the Round Table tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at 3:30, at her home on Evans Street.

Beautiful Japanese Fantail Goldfish on sale at Baker and Davis Hardware Store.

Patient Circle King's Daughters.

The Patient Circle of the King's Daughters and Sons will meet at eight o'clock Monday evening with Mrs. W. R. Jones on Pitt street.

Eighth District Nurses Council.

The Greenville Nurses Council will entertain the Eighth District Council tomorrow (Tuesday) afternoon at three o'clock in the parish house.

An interesting program has been arranged.

U. D. C. Meeting.

The George B. Singletary Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met at the home of Mrs. T. T. Hollingsworth Friday afternoon, March 6th, with a large number of Daughters present.

The meeting opened with the members reading the ritual and repeating the Lord's Prayer. The president, Mrs. E. W. Harvey, presided over a very interesting business meeting. The minutes of the February meeting which was held with Mrs. F. C. Harding, were read and approved.

The treasurer, Mrs. Harding, reported having sent $3.80 for the Nurses' Fund for the Confederate Woman's Home. Mrs. Charles Laughinghouse gave $5 for the chapter to send toward the Memorial Pavilion at Raleigh. The chapter is anticipating raising $5 more for this project during the year.

The president announced that the district convention of the U. D. C. would meet in Wilson on March 24, beginning at 10:30 a. m. in the Woman's Club building on Broad street. She urged that as many Daughters as could possibly do so to attend this meeting.

Mrs. T. A. Person in her usual charming manner gave the program for the afternoon on "Our Confederate Flag." She said that she hoped that our first local contributions would be for literature on the Confederate Flag for our public library. She ended her most interesting and instructive talk by saying that she was heartily in favor of starting a fund for Flag Literature.

A very enjoyable social hour followed. Delectable refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Hollingsworth.—Reported.

BLACK-DRAUGHT

A Laxative That Thousands Prefer

Black-Draught has helped so many men and women that others, needing a purely vegetable laxative, should have no hesitancy in trying it. Black-Draught relieves constipation in an easy, natural way. "We have found Black-Draught so satisfactory, I do not see any need to change," writes Mr. Ralph Burch, of Black, Ala. "I take Black-Draught for biliousness and constipation which makes me feel sluggish, tired and no account. Black-Draught surely will relieve me."

The proper use of this old, reliable laxative tends to leave the bowels acting regularly. Be sure to try it! Sold everywhere in 25-cent packages.

MISSION WEEK GETS STARTED

St. Peter's Catholic Church Filled For First Session

Is life worth living? This was the question asked and answered last evening by Fr. Maurice, in the opening discourse of the mission now in progress. St. Peter's Catholic Church was filled to capacity for the opening of the week's mission. "So many people have such a distorted view of life!" he said. "To them, life is such a deep dark mystery! 'We are but toys, they cry out—playthings of some mysterious cruel providence. We are thrown here on this planet, in all truth a vale of tears. Sorrow and sadness, misery of all kinds thrust upon us; every day the same old battles to fight! Then, after such a cruel existence—we are lowered into a cold cruel grave—there to become rottenness and the food of worms!' To those who have such a distorted view of life, life is not worth living!" Fr. Maurice proceeded to explain that life is worth living, basing his arguments on the fact that man is endowed with a soul which is immortal. "God made me to know Him, to love Him, to serve Him in this life, that I may be happy with Him in the life to come." How frequently is this basic truth forgotten by God's creatures. The missionary very simply and very clearly explained how life here on earth is but a preparation for the eternal life to come. "Life is a period of probation, a time of trial wherein we must prove ourselves worthy of the kingdom which God has prepared for those who love and serve Him."

"What doth it profit a man if he gain the whole world and suffer the loss of his own soul?" How many a man and woman have gone before the judgment seat of God, wearing the laurels with which the world had crowned them, thinking themselves to have been such a grand success in life. Too late did they learn the miserable failure which they had been. Wealth, honor and fame had come to them in abundance and they forgot their God—forgot their very souls and death came and found them unprepared to meet their Maker. Truly we can say of such a man and woman, "Better had they not been born." Fr. Maurice concluded with the encouraging thought that God is more anxious for our eternal salvation than we ourselves are. He pointed to the bleeding wounds of Christ as proof conclusive that God yearns for the salvation of every human soul. This evening, Fr. Maurice will deliver a discourse on another fundamental truth of religion. The service will commence at 7:30.

Third Party Men Talk LaFollette For Ticket Head

Revival of Talk For Third Party Expected Following Farmer-Labor Party Convention

By HERBERT PLUMMER
Washington, March 9.—(AP)—Revival of third party talk, confined more or less of late to individual groups of politicians, may be expected with the coming of spring. The event which will project the subject more prominently in public discussion will be the convention of the farmer-labor party in Minnesota March 27. Third party advocates in congress, who have been holding meetings frequently during the past months, will wait until after this convention to decide when a national convention should be held to name a presidential ticket.

Here's the strategy, as outlined by Representative Thomas R. Amle of Wisconsin, a leader in the third party movement: "The Republicans undoubtedly will name a candidate to the right of Roosevelt. Being less liberal, he naturally will lose the west and it is there the election will be decided." "Then, by 1940, we shall have a strong third party candidate in the field to rectify failures of New Deal policies and to keep the country from going back to Republicanism."

Minnesota, Wisconsin and California are counted on by Amle and his associates to form the nucleus of their third party movement. The farmer-labor votes would furnish strength in Minnesota, the progressives in Wisconsin, and the Sinclair EPIC forces in California.

"Townsendites will come in, too," says Amle. "We'll have organized labor with us if the supreme court declares the Guffey coal act, the Wagner labor relations act and the social security act unconstitutional and the administration makes no determined fight for a workers' rights amendment to the Constitution."

Amle, who has been mentioned along with Representative Lundeen of Minnesota as the second man on a third party ticket, favors Governor Philip LaFollette of Wisconsin as the presidential candidate. He claims LaFollette would consider the nomination if the various groups comprising the American Commonwealth Federation decided to hold a national convention.

PUPPET SHOWS TO BE HELD IN PITT

Puppet plays will be presented in various schools in the county this week. Dr. Ernest A. Branch (left), director of the division of oral hygiene of the North Carolina State Board of Health, and Frederick H. Koch (right), founder and director of the Carolina Playmakers.

TO GIVE PLAY AT 15 SCHOOLS

Puppet Play to Be Presented in Tooth Care Campaign

A puppet play will be presented at 15 Pitt county schools during the present week in efforts to arouse attention of students in the value of properly taking care of their teeth.

The play will be presented in cooperation of the Good Health for Children, Inc., and the division of Oral hygiene of the State board of health, the county health department making arrangements for the play to be presented at the various Pitt schools.

The puppet play was given today at the Grifton, Ayden and Winterville schools. It will be presented at the following places during the week:

Tuesday, March 10th—9:00 a. m.—Farmville White School; 11:00 a. m.—Farmville colored school; 2:00 p. m.—Fountain white school.

Wednesday, March 11th—9:00 a. m.—Grimesland white school, 11:00 a. m.—Pitt County Training school (colored), 2 p. m.—Chicod white school.

Thursday, March 12th—9:00 a. m.—Greenville colored school, 11:00 a. m.—Pactolus white school, 2:00 p. m.—Stokes white school.

Friday, March 13th—9:00 a. m.—Belvoir white school, 11:00 a. m.—Falkland white school, 2:00 p. m.—Arthur white school.

Every other German is insured, either directly or indirectly, against sickness.

YOU MAY BE SICK AND NOT KNOW IT, DOCTOR DECLARES

Berkeley, Calif.—(AP)—One can have measles without knowing it and become the center of a large epidemic, Dr. Karl F. Meyer of the University of California school of medicine has found.

A person so infected will not run a fever, Dr. Meyer said, after a study of "symptomatic" diseases and the disease's characteristic spots will not appear.

Attention was focused on such latent infections during the world war when it was found that tetanus and gas gangrene often set in long after the wound with which they were originally associated.

Reviewing these cases in a recent scientific paper, Dr. Meyer pointed out that infection could be dormant for long periods and was not infrequently stirred up by operations to remove bullets or bits of shrapnel.

Mothers!

In treating children's colds, don't take chances... use VICKS VapoRin

PROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

5.85

The buckled monk type—in brown kid and white buckskin, blue kid and white buckskin. Sizes 3 1/2 to 8.

Blount-Henry

Our Office Is Located At Room Number 3 Munford Building

FIVE POINTS
TELEPHONE NUMBER 128
Lincen to Practice Before The Treasury
Thirty Years Experience

F. A. Edmundson & Co.
TAX EXPERTS

'T WAS A HARD WINTER FOR ROADS

With the spring thaw many roads—of materials that can't take it—have become almost impassable from "frost boils," "honey pots," ruts, bumps and chuck-holes.

Soon you will see load restriction, warning and detour signs—while repair crews spend the equivalent cost of miles of needed new pavements!...But on concrete roads, please notice, there was no "spring break-up." Year after year concrete roads can take it—with lowest maintenance.

Twelve months a year concrete carries you swiftly, safely, economically, saving gas, tires and car wear every mile you drive.

FOR ALL-WEATHER ROADS INSIST ON CONCRETE! NORTH CAROLINA NEEDS MORE CONCRETE ROADS

Write for interesting booklet "An Open Letter to Henry Ford." It's FREE!

PORTLAND CEMENT ASSOCIATION

905 State Planters Bank & Trust Bldg., Richmond, Va.

Concrete IS THE REAL LOW COST ROAD

J. D. AMAN

WHOLESALE and RETAIL
Plumbing and Heating
Supplies

423-25 Cotanch St. Greenville, N. C.

Phone 734

For County Solicitor

I hereby announce my candidacy for the nomination as Solicitor of the County Court of Pitt County, subject to the action of the forthcoming Democratic Primary, to succeed Hon. Jack Spain, who will not offer for re-election, as Solicitor.

If elected I will faithfully perform the duties of the office, and I will be very grateful for your vote and support.

ELI BLOOM

ROBINSON CRUSOE

By R. W. McDONALD

WORK STARTED ON BASEBALL

Greenville High Team To Be Selected by Coach May

Reynolds May, Greenville high school coach, said today that plans for selecting the baseball team for the coming season were well under way, after having over a hundred boys to report to him for tryouts.

The baseball representatives of the local high school will have one of the best schedules ever to be had by them and should show the baseball public what they are capable of doing in "swatting the old pill."

The locals are a member of the class "A" baseball conference this year, and under the competent guidance of Coach May who is a baseball idol in the minds of local fans as well as those other than local, should enable the boys to develop themselves into kings of swat.

The first scheduled game of the season will be played in Durham with the highs of that place on March 27. This opener with the Durham boys will be quite a fight, owing to the fact that they were state champs in class "A" conference baseball last year.

The Durham game is the only available one for the time being, but Coach May said a complete schedule for future games would be ready for publication sometime in the near future.

Being in the class "A" conference automatically makes the boys who are trying to form the high's baseball material for the coming year, feel that they have to exhibit the best in baseball because they will face the best in baseball competition.

The Durham game is the only available one for the time being, but Coach May said a complete schedule for future games would be ready for publication sometime in the near future.

Being in the class "A" conference automatically makes the boys who are trying to form the high's baseball material for the coming year, feel that they have to exhibit the best in baseball because they will face the best in baseball competition.

TEACHERS END COURT SEASON

Girls Defeat Blackstone College by Score 42-26

E. C. T. C. girls defeated the Blackstone College basketball quint, 42-26 here Saturday night in the final game of the season for the Teachers. They have lost only one out of nine games.

The Panthers took a lead at the start and had an 8-0 margin after five minutes of the game. At the half the home team held a 21-9 lead over the visitors.

Miss "Tee" Martin, with 23 points led Greenville's scoring. Miss Clark led the visitors with a dozen points.

Line-up: Greenville—"Tee" Martin 23, Shackelford 8, Blanton 4, H. Martin 2, Wilson 2, Miller 2, Tyson, Capt. Martin, Pleasant, Trexler, M. Parker, R. Parker, Smithson, Hollowell, Blackstone—Clark 12, Taylor 4, Chambers 10, Marchant, Paxton, Baker, Dunton, Rubincan.

DEATH CLAIMS MRS. WOOLARD

(Continued from page one)

Charles Whiteford, W. A. Darden, Jr., A. B. Baker, W. H. Woolard, M. H. White, L. B. McCormack, James Brown, E. C. Hollar, Dr. L. R. Meadows, Dr. H. J. McGinnis and the Board of Stewards of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church.

SEEK UNCOVER KIDNAP SCARE

(Continued from page one)

she is staying with her mother.

Farley said that "rumors to the effect" that Dempsey and a friend had received postcards from an anonymous writer warning of a kidnap plot against Joan were being investigated.

"As far as we've been able to find out," Farley added, "there is nothing to the report. It is probably the work of a prank."

While Farley was reluctant to discuss the case further, he said he had heard rumors that "federal men were investigating."

ANTHONY EDEN TO GIVE REPLY

(Continued From Page One)

specific Pacific offers Adolph Hitler made Saturday in his Reichstag address and his memorandum to foreign powers.

A general belief prevailed that Eden would go to Paris for a meeting there of other signatures of the pact tomorrow, prepared to use his influence so that Hitler's offers for non aggression and air pacts should not be entirely ignored.

MRS. MARY FORREST CLAIMED BY DEATH

(Continued From Page One)

the old home place.

Grandsons acted as active pallbearers. They were J. G. Forrest, G. M. Forrest, Lloyd Forrest, Ray Humbles, Lester Humbles and Bruce Suggs.

Mrs. Forrest is survived by two sons, J. A. Forrest of Greenville, and D. R. Forrest of Ayden; two daughters, Mrs. Mamie Humbles of Greenville, and Mrs. Annie Simmons of Kingston.

Thirty-five grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren also survive.

In 1890 Mark A. Cooper erected a monument at Cartersville, Ga., in honor of 38 friends who had endorsed notes for him.

Chicago Grain Market

(Courtesy Vernon Parrish)

	Open	Close	Priv. Cl.
WHEAT:
May	100 1-4	99	99 3-4
July	90 1-8	89	89 7-8
Sept.	89	88	88 7-8
CORN:
May	60 7-8	60 3-8	60 7-8
July	61 1-4	60 3-8	61
Sept.	61 1-8	60 1-2	61
OATS:
May	28 1-8	27 1-8	28 1-8
July	28	27 1-4	28
Sept.	27 5-8	27 1-8	27 5-8
RYE:
May	57	56 1-4	56 3-4
July	56 7-8	55 7-8	56 5-8

New York Cotton

New York, March 9.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady six to nine points advance on higher Liverpool cables and nervousness over the European political situation.

At the end of the first hour May was selling at 10.91 and October at 10.25 with the market showing net advances of three points on March and six to seven points on later deliveries.

March worked up to 11.27 and October to 10.19. Active months were holding within a point of two of Saturday's closing at midday.

Courtesy of E. A. Pierce and Co., Wilson, N. C. Phone 313

	Open	Close	Priv. Cl.
Mar.	11.32	11.27	11.27
May	10.91	10.83	10.84
July	10.61	10.52	10.53
Oct.	10.24	10.16	10.19
Dec.	10.29	10.17	10.22
Jan.	10.34	10.19	10.14

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, March 9.—(AP)—Early clouds today cast new shadows over the financial market, but the gloom was not particularly heavy. Stocks met fast steel at the specialties, agriculture, air crafts and mines bucked the trend for gains. Offers dried up later and rallying tendencies appeared. Trading pace slowed perceptibly after the first hour.

The late tone was irregular. Transactions approximated 2,300,000 shares.

N. Y. STOCK LIST

2:00 P. M. Quotations

American Radiator 22 1-4.
American Telephone 17 3/4.
American Tobacco 84.
Atlantic Coast Line 76 3-4.
Atlantic Refining 31 1-2.
Bendix Aviation 35 7-8.
Chrysler 27 5-8.
Columbia Gas and Elec. 18.
Commercial Solvent 22 5-8.
Continental Oil 15.
DuPont 142 1-2.
Electric Power Light 11 1-2.
General Electric 40 1-2.
General Motors 62.
Liggett and Myers 102 1-2.
Montgomery Ward 40 1-2.
Southern Railway 17 3-4.
Standard Oil 61 1-4.

(Courtesy E. A. Pierce & Co., Wilson, N. C. Phone 313)

(Closing Quotations.)

Otis Steel 18 5-8.
Western Union 87 5-8.
Radio 123-8.
Simmons 25 5-8.
Standard Brands 163-3.
Packard 107-8.
International Tel. 163-4.
Anaconda 34 3-8.
U S Steel 63 5-8.
Reynolds 52 1-2.
White Motors 25 1-4.
Texas Gulf Sulphur 35 7-8.
Lorillard 23.
Texas Corp 37.
Elec. Bond and Share 173-4.
United Corp 71-4.
Allegheny Corp 35-8.

Richmond Livestock

(Courtesy J. N. and J. L. Williams)

Receipts moderate; hog market is steady today with top at $10.25 paid for choice 175-225 pound corn fed butcher stock. Vealers steady; extreme top quotable to $10. Practical top $9.50, heifers $4 to $6.50, few best to $7, cows $3.50 to $5.50, bulls $4 to $6 common and medium steers $4 to $7. Good steers quotable $7.50 to $8.00, sheep steady Ewes $3.50 to $4.50, lambs from $7 to $9 as to quality.

Weather, clear. Temperature 56.

FRANCE STRIKES BACK GERMAN OCCUPATION OF RHINELAND ZONE

(Continued From Page One)

Refusing to examine Hitler's proposal for a substitute security system "under the menace" of German troops in the Rhineland, France called a Paris conference of the Locarno signatories, Britain, Italy and Belgium for tomorrow.

'GO WEST' CHINA'S URGE TO YOUTH OF FLOOD AREA

Nanking, (AP)—"Go West, young man," is again the cry. But this time the "West" means the vast plateau and mountain land of central Asia, and the "young man" is the Chinese youth whose home lands have been swept away by Yangtze river floods.

Thousands of years ago the Chinese laid the foundations of their civilization in what is now north-west China, but the lure of greener fields and easier living lured the tribes eastward to the river valleys and sea coast.

Over-population and calamities of nature have caused the national government to seek homes in the long forgotten west for the luckless descendants of the men and women who first took root in the western wasteland which modern transportation and scientific irrigation is to reclaim.

BEER DRINKERS ALLOWED 40 MINUTES TO THE MUG

Memphis, Tenn.—(AP)—Is 40 minutes a reasonable time for quaffing a mug of beer?

City Judge Moore decided it was and dismissed a case charging a restaurant owner with selling beer after 1 a. m.

The case was made at 1:30, but the two imbibers said they bought the beverage at 10 minutes before 1.

WANTS

RATES: 1c per word (minimum 25c) per insertion, this rate type. Larger type, double price. Persons not having regular account with this office must send or bring cash with copy. No want ads taken over telephone.

FOR RENT—ONE OR TWO BED-rooms, with heat and bath. Mrs. E. V. Carter, 411 West Fourth St., phone 833. 9-3t

LOST—MAN'S GREEN GOLD Elgin watch and chain, key on end of chain; Feb. 26th. Phone 282-J.

SPECIAL FOR TUESDAY—CHERRY Tarts. People's Bakery.

FOR SALE—38-ft. CRUISER WITH 9-ft. beam. Two compartment cabin with room for four bunks. Large after deck. 16HP Lathrop motor. New ribs and bottom put on last summer. Waters-Stier Wood Products Company, Washington, N. C. 9-3t

FOR RENT—UNFURNISHED apartment. 416 Latham St.

FOR SALE—FRESH MILCH COW. Lee Marnon, 21-2 miles from Greenville on Stantonburg road. Mon-Wed

1932 CHEVROLET SPORT COUPE—new tires, 36 license, newly painted. A real buy at only $195. Easy terms. White Chevrolet Co., Inc., Greenville, N. C.

Its Power Obsess You

A notable novel becomes the perfect picture. "The Magnificent Obsession" stars Irene Dunne and Robt. Taylor and is the feature attraction at the Pitt Theatre today thru Wednesday.

SEED OATS, GARDEN SEEDS, onion sets, seed Irish potatoes, Farm supplies, etc. Seed-Feed-Provisions. Greenville Dist. Co., L. L. Rives, Mgr. 2-tf

FOR RENT—FIVE ROOM HOUSE. Vance street, West Greenville, between Third and Fourth. Immediate occupancy. $27.50 in advance. Lewis G. Cooper. 9-2t

1934 CHEVROLET (MASTER) SEDAN. Driven only 11,000 miles. Looks and runs like new. Sale price $395. Also 50 other bargains on easy terms. White Chevrolet Co., Inc., Greenville, N. C.

FOR GARDEN FLOWING—SEE Roy Payton, 316 Reads St. Price very reasonable. 9th-1t

LOST OR STRAYED—ONE MALE Boston Bull Dog. Call 34. Reward. 9th-1t

FOR SALE—TWO GOOD MILCH cows with young calves. J. P. Davenport, Pactolus, N. C. 7-9 11 13

FOR SALE—ONE 1934 L. W. BASE Stake Body Chevrolet Truck, good condition, will refinance $85.00 down, balance $25.00 per month, 9 mo. this, or $292.00 cash including 1936 license. Also several other repossessed automobiles. Come and look them over. Big Four Garage. 9-60d-3t

FOR RENT—TOBACCO WARE-house in Wallace. Led in sales, 1935. W. C. Worsley, Wallace, N. C. 7-6t

BRING US YOUR CHICKENS, eggs and all country produce—we pay the highest prices. Give us a trial. Evans Feed & Seed Co. 7-6t

BEST 24 Pct. Dairy Feed, $1.90; 20 Pct. Dairy Feed, $1.80; 18 Pct. Dairy Feed, $1.65; Starting Mash, $2.60; Scratch Feed, $2.15. Evans Feed & Seed Co. 7-6

WHITE GIANT EGGS—SETTING of 18 for $1.00. H. H. Craft, Winterville, N. C., R. F. D. 1. 7-2t

HOOD-O-GRAPH—1936's ADVERTISING sensation. A floating billboard auto or truck hood. On-off quickly—wording changeable. Demands attention—gets results. Tige's Novelty Exchange, phone 940-W. 29-tf

LESPEDEZA—ALL KINDS DOD-der free Lespedeza, Selected Seed Oats, Seed Potatoes, Grasses. Starting Mash, $2.70 bag. 24 Pct. Dairy Feed, $1.70 bag. Pitt FCX Service, Greenville and Ayden. 4-tf

CLEANING AND PRESSING ALTERATIONS Called for and Delivered CAROLINA DRY CLEANER Phone 176—Lee South 29-tf

PERMANENT WAVES — $2.50 to $10.00. Shampoo and finger waves 50c and up. Experienced operators in all branches of beauty culture, Cinderella Beauty Parlor, over Greenville Drug Co., phone 798. Feb. 13-1 mo.

JUST RECEIVED NEW SEED garden peas, cabbage plants and onion sets. It is time to plant now. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions 17-tf 1934 FORD TUDOR SEDAN—LOW mileage, new rings, and very clean inside and out. One of today's leaders at only $295. Easy terms. White Chevrolet Co., Inc., Greenville, N. C.

WE SELL MUSKY CHICKS and PURINA STARTENA

J. A. WATSON Feed-Seed-Provisions

WE CAN SUPPLY YOU WITH any kind of paint for any type paint job, inside or outside. Get our prices and estimates. J. A. Watson—Seed, Feed, Provisions. 24-tf

FOR SALE—JERSEY AND Charleston Wakefield cabbage plants. 15 cents hundred; 500, 60c; 1,000, $1.00. Phone 782-J. Mrs. L. C. Arthur. 7-6t

SPECIAL—CORNED MULLET AT 9c per lb.—as long as they last. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions. 6-tf

SEED POTATOES—RED BLISS, Irish Cobbler, seed oats: Burt, Fulghum and spring oats in stock. See us for prices. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions. 18-tf

PHONE 618 If it's Laundry or Dry Cleaning. The Old Reliable—We Know How! RAINBOW CLEANERS

WE SELL GLASS AND CUT glass any size at the Dickinson Avenue store. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions. 16-tf

ROOMS, OR ROOM AND BOARD in nice location College View. Convenient. Rates very reasonable. 406 Billmore St., phone 398-W. 7-2t

APARTMENT FOR RENT — H. L. Hodges, Phone 48. 5-tf

PITT SEAFOOD CO. Phone 149

Roe Shad, Buck Shad, Rock, White Perch, Trout, Herring, Mullet, Croakers, Shad Roe, Herring Roe. Dressed and Delivered Free Located Back of Webb's Warehouse

Now Playing!

PITT

IRENE DUNNE • ROBERT TAYLOR in MAGNIFICENT OBSESSION

A JOHN M. STAHL Production from the novel by Lloyd C. Douglas, with Charles BUTTERWORTH BETTY FURNESS Henry Armetta, Sara Haden, Ralph Morgan A Universal Picture presented by Carl Laemmle

IT'S HERE AT LAST!

Paramount News Shows 12:35 2:50 4:55 7:02 9:03

MEAT SALT — TABLE SALT — Smoke Salt, and all kinds of salt—any size, fine, medium or coarse grades. Any quantity—one bag or a thousand. Our prices are the best in town. J. A. Watson, Feed-Seed-Provisions.

WEATHER FLASH

The

TODAY-TUESDAY

ON OUR STAGE "Seabee" Hayworth Star of "Paris Nights" Sis Hopkins of Vaud. "Happy" at the Piano Big Time Vaudeville

ON THE SCREEN

The GARDEN MURDER CASE

Mystery flavored with romance... a laugh follows every thrill with Edmund Lowe Virginia Bruce

STATE

No Advance in Prices—10-20c

POULTRY & EGGS WANTED We buy any amount, at any time. We pay highest cash prices. Sell with us. FITT POULTRY CO. 925 Dickinson Ave.

For centuries the world has gone to the Near East for its flavors and aromas and spices.

...and today Chesterfield imports thousands of bales of tobacco from Turkey and Greece to add flavor and fragrance to Chesterfield Cigarettes.

Turkish tobacco is expensive. The import duty alone is 35 cents a pound. But no other place except Turkey and Greece can raise tobacco of this particular aroma and flavor.

This Turkish tobacco, blended with our own American tobaccos in the correct proportions to bring out the finer qualities of each tobacco, helps to make Chesterfields outstanding for mildness and for better taste.

Outstanding .. for mildness .. for better taste

WAR DECLARED ON CARBON

Pure Oil dealers, armed with a new product of science, have Dirty Dan Carbon on the run. Super-Solvenized Purol-Pep will conquer this deadly power thief—save you money.

4 QUICK FACTS

- 1—Conquers Motor Carbon
- 2—Equalizes Compression
- 3—Gives Smoother Power
- 4—Increases Mileage

Super-Solvenized Purol-Pep DOES WHAT GASOLINE CAN'T DO SOLVES CARBON PROBLEMS

Sold at PURE OIL STATIONS and DEALERS

Super-Solvenized Motor Fuels are licensed under United Oil Corporation Patents 1,986,645 & 1,986,651 Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

Center 1936 The Pure Oil Co.

STOLEN POWER AND MILEAGE