ITALIAN ARMY STARTS DRIVE TAKE CAPITAL

Campaign from Dessye to Addis Ababa in Full Swing

PRINCE PLANNING TO MAKE STAND

Reports Ethiopians Not to Fight Save Capital are Branded as False.

(By Associated Press)
The drive of the Italian army from Dessye to the Ethiopian capital was in full swing today according to a communique from Marshal Pietro Badoglio, commander-in-chief of the fascist armies, in east Africa.

Marshal Badoglio reported that a large body of native Eritrean Askari, part of the large force of 30,000 Italian troops which arrived in Dessye for the campaign, had taken Uorra Illu, a town about 38 miles south of Dessye.

The main Italian army in the north, where the advance contingents were, reports placed some 70 miles from Addis Ababa.

The Italian commander said the advance was progressing in good form on the southern front.

A government spokesman in Addis Ababa denied Italian reports that no defense would be made of the capital. He said of Italian dispatches stating that a mission would meet the Italian armies before Addis Ababa with a white flag of surrender that they were "intentionally false."

Even if the capital were taken by the fascists, the spokesman said, the war would go on with Ethiopians starting large scale guerrilla warfare against the invaders.

Crown Prince Asfa Wosan was discussing plans for defense of the capital with the cabinet and tribal chieftains. Other reports in Addis Ababa said Emperor Haile Selassie was "endangering" Dessye, his former field headquarters, now in Italian hands.

The intentions of the Nazi Germans in regard to the Locarno question and colonial expansion took the spotlight in the capitals of France and Great Britain, with the Paris government asking British authorities to demand of Adolf Hitler whether he intends to obtain foreign colonies.

Declares Salesmen Taking No Chance With Traffic Laws

Traveling Men Who Drive Own Cars or Those of Companies Jealously Guard Their Licenses

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.
Raleigh, April 24.—Traveling salesmen who drive their own cars or cars supplied by the companies they represent, are taking no chances with the state drivers' license law but are observing it to the letter, Director Arthur Fulk of the division of highway safety of the Department of Revenue, said today. The reason for this is that these traveling men are dependent upon the right to drive their cars for their living, with the result that they are taking pains to see that they do not do anything that might endanger this privilege, Fulk pointed out.

"A traveling salesman who I have known for a long time and who makes quite a large salary came by the office to see me the other day," Fulk said. "He told me that he heartily approved of the new drivers' license law, despite the fact that it had more or less revolutionized his personal as well as his driving habits and those of most other traveling men who drive their own cars."

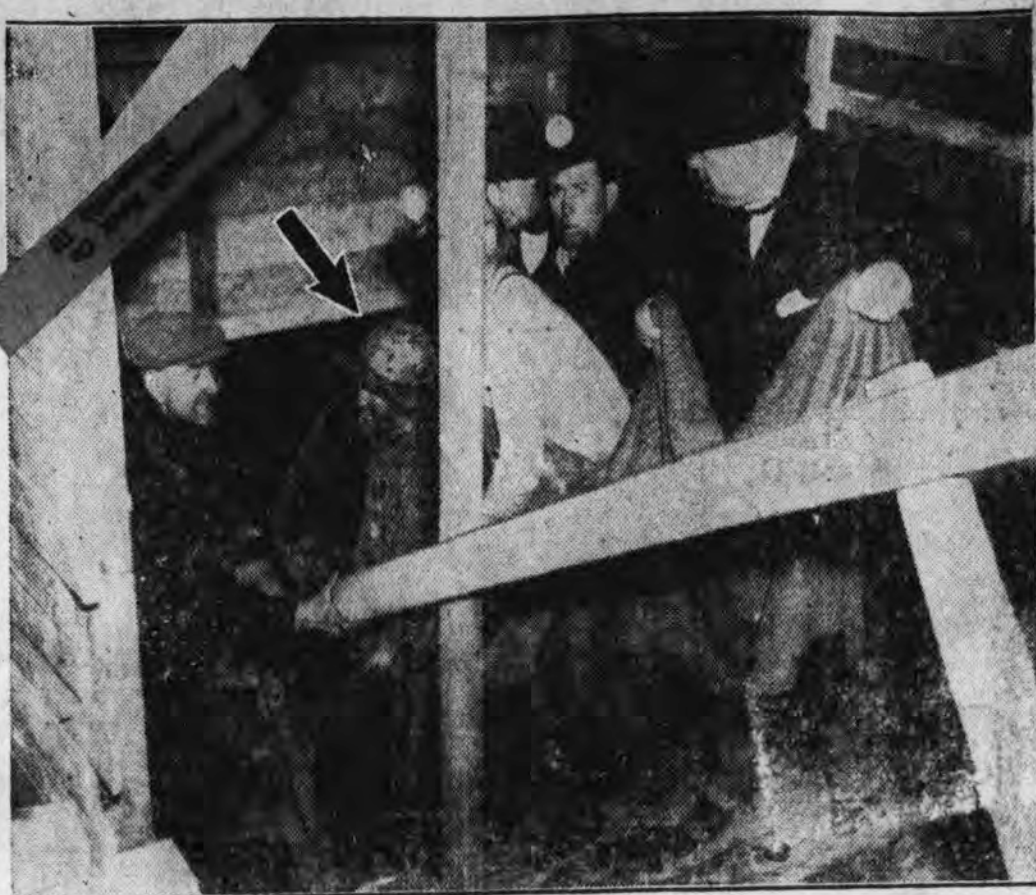

"He told me that until the drivers' license law went into effect he was in the habit not only of carrying a good supply of liquor with him in his car most of the time, but that he frequently took drinks with customers at his various stops, so that he often drove his car when he was partially under the influence of liquor. He told me that he knows of scores of other traveling salesmen who did the same thing, since their companies expected them to do a certain amount of entertaining."

"But since the drivers' license law went into effect, this man has not taken a single drink while he has been driving his car, nor has he carried any liquor with him in his car," he told me.

"I just could not afford to take a chance at losing my driver's permit by either taking a drink or even carrying any liquor in my car, since I would lose my job if I did."

RESCUED DOCTOR WALKS FROM TOMB IN MINE

Despite the ordeal of living eleven days entombed in a gold mine at Moose River, Nova Scotia, Dr. D. E. Robertson (arrow) was able to walk part of the way up the shaft to the surface after rescuers dug down to him and Charles A. Scadding, and the body of their companion, Herman Magill, who died of exposure. Ready hands are shown helping Dr. Robertson along before he was placed on a stretcher for the last stage of the climb. ## END HEARINGS MURDER CASES

J. C. Taylor Ordered to Pay $575 to the Victim's Mother

J. C. Taylor, Greenville white man, entered a plea of guilty to reckless and careless driving, driving while drunk and hit and run in connection with the death of Jesse Jones, another local white man, on February 9, and upon payment of $575 to Mrs. Mattie L. Jones, mother of the slain man, and revocation of his license for 12 months prayer for further judgment was continued in Superior court yesterday afternoon.

The body of Jones, 25-year-old Greenville man, was found a few feet from the road on the Greenville-Washington highway early one morning. Taylor, arrested several days later, confessed to the crime.

Private prosecution and the solicitor concurred in recommending acceptance of the plea.

John Bruce Hall, negro, was sentenced to State's prison to from eight to 10 years upon conviction of killing his wife.

James Morris entered a plea of guilty to robbery and was sent to the roads to from two to three years.

William Morris was given eight months on the roads upon entering a plea of guilty to larceny.

T. W. Manning was given a six months' sentence, suspended upon payment of the costs on a charge of illegally possessing whiskey.

Nol pros was taken in each of the cases charging Sam Wainwright with reckless driving and Ernest Carson with allowing stock to run at large.

J. E. Russell was given a 12-months' sentence, suspended upon payment of the costs and a $50 fine on a charge of operating a nuisance.

Son Of Detective Is Characterized As "Conspirator"

Said to Be Real Force Kidnaping and Torture of Paul H. Wendel in Lindbergh Case

Brooklyn, N. Y., April 24.—(AP)—Ellis H. Parker, Jr., son of the Burlington, N. J., chief of detectives, was characterized by District Attorney William F. Geoghan today as the "real conspirator" in the kidnaping and torture of Paul H. Wendel.

Parker, indicted with four others yesterday, remained at large today although there were rumors he was on his way here from New Jersey to surrender.

The state police were given a warrant for his arrest last night after he had been indicted on charges of kidnaping and second degree assault.

"We know that Parker, Jr., was the real conspirator in this case," Geoghan said.

"He concocted the whole plot and it was he who pointed out Wendel the night he was kidnaped."

Harry Bleefeld, 61, and Martin Schlossman, two of those indicted, are now being held. The other two, Harry Weiss, and Murray Bleefeld, have not been located.

The district attorney had previously indicated that additional indictments might be forthcoming.

Rescue Tarboro Men From Sound

Elizabeth City, April 24.—(AP)—Lyn Bond, George Pennington and Percy Lewis of Tarboro, who set out in their small motor launch for Edenton Wednesday were found by a yacht in Albemarle sound last night and towed to Coinjock in Currituck county about 10 o'clock. The men had been missing for 48 hours when found.

Cotton Producers May Secure Forms From Farm Agent

Blanks Available For Farmers to Obtain Release of Pledge Made to Secure Loans in 1934

County Agent, E. F. Arnold has received blank forms for use of cotton producers to obtain release of warehouse receipts, pledged to secure loans made on the 1934 crop.

According to information from the Department of Agriculture, the plan that has been adopted will afford producers a commission of not to exceed 25 points for the marketing of this cotton together with such premiums which may accrue on account of grade, staple, and location. It is particularly important Mr. Arnold said, that cotton producers who desire to take advantage of this plan must take buyers pay them the full market price and all premiums which their particular cotton should bring.

"In other words, the producer should market this cotton in the same manner that he would market his crop, because if less than full value is paid by the buyer, the net amount which will be obtained by the producer will be less. It is desired to emphasize this point, as already we have received reports that producers who have cotton in the loan are pledging or assigning their equities at less than the full value."

"While no assignments or pledges will be recognized, producers should be fully advised of the value of their holdings in order that private arrangements will not be made which involve a sacrifice of the producer's return under this program. It is apparent that there is considerable demand for certain types of cotton which will be available only if a portion of the stocks now impounded in the 12-cent loan is released."

"Producers also should be advised that successful operation of this plan should result in a substantial increase of the consumption of American Cotton for the remainder of this marketing year with a corresponding decrease in the season and carryover of August 1, 1936. Such a decrease in the carryover should have an important influence upon the prices to be received for the next crop."

Growers who wish to take advantage of this plan should call upon the cotton buyer or banker through whom he secured his loan.

LABOR SAVING MEN AIDS OWNER TO CUT DOWN WORK

Weatherford, Texas. (AP)—W. M. Gibson, a farmer in Parker county, has a white legion hen that believes in direct action.

It will lay only in an egg case that Gibson keeps in the cellar of his house for storing freshly gathered eggs. If the door is closed the hen cackles until it is opened.

Youthful foreigners lodged in the hotel's many youth hostels increased from 85,000 in 1934 to 110,000 in 1935.

DR. McDONALD BOOSTS LEAD

Forsyth Candidate Lacks Only a Few Votes of Majority

Dr. Ralph McDonald continued to add to his lead in The Reflector straw vote by getting six out of the 11 ballots voted since the tabulation published Wednesday. McDonald's six votes came three from Pitt County, two from Martin and one each from Hyde and Beaufort. McDonald received his second vote tabulated so far today's vote coming from Beaufort county. To date only about 20 per cent of the first mailing of 500 ballots have been voted and persons who have received the ballots are urged to mark them and drop them in the mail at once. The second 500 ballots were mailed by The Reflector yesterday afternoon and an additional 500 will be mailed each Thursday for the next three weeks.

The statewide poll of the gubernatorial race is being conducted by 20 of the state's newspapers and on May 7 the first tabulation of the vote in the 100 counties will be published in The Reflector. The five counties being polled by The Reflector include Pitt, Martin, Beaufort, Bertie and Hyde and tabulations on these five counties will appear in The Reflector from day to day prior to the statewide tabulation.

Here is how the candidates stand in the five counties today:

	McDonald	Hoy	Graham	McRae
Pitt	20	13	7	1
Beaufort	6	5	7	1
Bertie	7	5	0	0
Martin	10	1	6	0
Hyde	4	5	1	0
	47	29	21	2

CITY COMMISSION PAYS TAXES FOR POOR WIDOW

Fort Lauderdale, Fla. (AP)—A widow who said she supported four children on earnings of $5.50 weekly asked the city commission for permission to pay her taxes in installments of 50 cents a week.

Instead the commissioners and others made up a fund and gave her a "paid-in-full" receipt for her $6.68 tax bill.

THE NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

News Behind The News

Washington.
By RAY TUCKER

"TIF" President Roosevelt is regarded as the closest friends with an anecdote which suggests that Fair Harbor is auspicious of its most distinguished alumnus. Though he tells it with twinkles and chuckles, it's another example of the resentment his liberal policies arouse on conservative campuses.

Some months ago President Coolidge invited the President to deliver the principal address at the university's 300th anniversary next fall. Word flitted into Washington that certain trustees would suffer no pain if his campaign engagements blocked an acceptance. But FDR fooled them. Then he received a letter from ex-President Coolidge, and that he intended to make a "speech fitting to the occasion"—meaning not a political address.

He ignored the time element entirely. A second collegiate communication explained that "all speakers" were being asked to limit their speech-making. The Tiff recalls that several other Chief Executives—T. R. Wilson and Hoover—won a popularity contests at their respective alma maters.

ENTOMBED MEN TELL DETAILS OF LONG WAIT

Two Survivors Despaired of Life During Imprisonment

PHYSICIAN HELD DYING PARTNER

Dramatic Story Told Today of How Doctor Aided Others at His Own Risk.

(Copyright by Associated Men)
Moose River, N. S., April 24.—(AP)—Through the long, dark hours of their rescue from the Moose River gold mine, Dr. D. E. Robertson and Charles Alfred Scadding despaired of life, it became known today from the full story of their 10-day entombment.

Dr. Robertson, practiced his profession as physician, even through his own danger, to help Scadding to keep alive, and held Herman Magill in his arms when the third man died.

Patient and quietly the two survivors conserved their strength, facing their dangers sensibly and working to overcome them until the miners of the tunneling rescue crew finally arrived.

Only today while Dr. Robertson, was recovering rapidly in an emergency hospital here and Scadding, was being treated in the Halifax hospital, to which he was flown, was the whole dramatic story learned.

Four sharp cracks, like giant rifle shots, warned the three men of approaching disaster Easter Sunday night while they were making an inspection tour of the mine. Magill, already ill when he went to the mine, was too sick to worry about the chances for rescue. His two companions during the first five days of their imprisonment saw little chance of rescue.

For hours Dr. Robertson held Magill, his partner in the mine, in his arms trying to keep him warm. Monday morning, less than 24 hours after the diamond drill broke through and established communication with the entombed men, Magill sat up suddenly, spoke incoherently and in two minutes he was dead.

While Magill, 30 years old, succumbed, the 62-year-old Dr. Robertson contracted a cold and Scadding, 44-year-old timekeeper, suffered from "trench feet." They lost surprisingly little weight, however, because they had plenty of drinking water.

Two County Projects Await Appropriation

Chapel Hill, N. C., April 24.—It appears that North Carolina is considerably interested in an increased appropriation for Public Works Administration projects, according to applications for grants and loans on file in the office of State Director Herman G. Baily.

Of 301 applications received at the Chapel Hill office, 84 have been approved by the legal, finance, and engineering sections of the State office here and also by the Washington office.

The PWA office here reports that the following Pitt projects are ready to be undertaken if sufficient additional funds are made available:

Pitt County Office Building, $43,636; Greenville Street Improvements, $103,636.

REVOLT FEARS FOR HONDURAS

Travelers Report Bloody Uprisings in Central America

Managua, Nicaragua, April 24.—(AP)—Horace Fortin Machado, minister of Honduras to Nicaragua, said today that government forces in Honduras had dispersed a small group of rebels and that the nation was "entirely peaceful."

The minister stated: "The revolt reports are absolutely false."

(Copyright by Associated Press)
Mexico City, April 24.—(AP)—Travelers arriving by air from Nicaragua reported today a bloody revolt broke out in the central American republic of Honduras with rebels moving on Tegucigalpa, capital of President Carias' government.

Senora Anita Gutierrez, widow of one time president of Honduras, General Rafael Gutierrez, who lived here said she received information indicating that the insurgents were successful, in their first engagement.

The travelers, after coming here by airplane from Nicaragua, brought word that rebels who said they were under the leadership of General Ines R. Duenas, were advancing toward the capital from three sides.

These reports could not be confirmed immediately.

Senora Gutierrez said she understood the rebels were well supplied with arms and ammunition for campaigning in the mountainous country of Honduras.

Attempts Suicide After Killing One and Injuring Wife

Fort Bragg Army Private Kills Fugate Springs Woman, Attacks Wife, Then Attempts Kill Self

Fayetteville, April 24.—(AP)—Grover Pritchett, 44, an army private, hacked Miss Ruth Pugh, of Fugate Springs, to death with an axe, critically wounded his wife and attempted suicide today at his home near the Fort Bragg reservation.

Sheriff N. H. McGeachy said Pritchett, a native of Albemarle county, made a signed confession that he attacked his wife and Miss Pugh with an axe and then slashed his own throat with a razor blade "because my wife had not been treating me right."

The sheriff said the confession set forth that Pritchett ran out of their house at Spring Hope, a settlement near Fort Bragg, early today, procured an axe, smashed its blade into the head of his wife, then turned it on Miss Pugh and finally cut his own throat because "my wife had not been treating me right."

Pritchett's condition, the sheriff said, was not serious and he was expected to be removed from a hospital to jail this afternoon.

REVENUE BILL IS CONDEMNED BY DEMOCRATS

Measure Strikes First Blast of Democratic Opposition

IS ASSAILED AS COERCIVE

Representative Lamneck Says Bill Will Destroy Thousand of Business Firms

Washington, April 24.—(AP)—The administration's $903,000,000 tax bill struck its first blast of Democratic opposition in the House today when Rep. Lamneck (D-Ohio) contended it would destroy the nation's business.

Members of the ways and means committee which wrote the measure, took the floor after Rep. Reed (R-N.Y.) renewed the Republican opposition to the intricate tax plan with such terms as "drastic" and "coercive."

"This bill," Lamneck said, "will destroy absolutely thousands of business concerns of the country."

He added that if attempts by taxation "to compel business institutions to follow our bidding," and contended "no such power is vested in the Constitution."

The practical aim of the bill, Lamneck said, is to compel the distribution of earnings of the closely held corporations the "most striking example of which is the Ford Motor company."

Then he questioned the bill's money raising capacity and asserted a belief that the revenue this year will be less than under existing law.

The senate finance committee took its first lesson on the complicated revenue plan after when Chairman Harrison (D. Miss.), announced:

"I don't anticipate any great amount of trouble in getting a bill out."

Harrison reiterated that if the house bill did not provide sufficient revenue his committee would consider adding new levies.

"There will be no tax bill next year," he asserted flatly.

"This bill or one carrying out the general purposes will be reported by the committee," Harrison said.

Mrs. Belle Sutton Is Being Held On Kidnaping Charge

Federal Warrant Charging Violation of Lindbergh Law Issued by New Bern, U. S. Commissioner

New Bern, April 24.—(AP)—A federal warrant charging violation of the Lindbergh kidnap law has been drawn against Mrs. Belle Sutton, being held in jail here on a state warrant growing out of the alleged kidnaping of Miss Mabel Margaret Hutchins of Norfolk.

The warrant was issued by a local U. S. commissioner at the request of Orville T. Smith, federal investigator, following an investigation of the kidnaping.

Mrs. Sutton was arrested here late Tuesday night by county officers after she was alleged to have kidnaped Miss Hutchins in Norfolk and left her tied up in a swamp near New Bern. She is in jail in default of $1,500 bond on an assault charge.

Increase in Demand of Tornado Insurance

Reflector Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel

Raleigh, April 23.—A big increase in the demand for tornado insurance has developed in almost every section of the state as a result of the tornado which struck Greensboro, and the heavy winds which struck Concord and a number of other cities early in April. Commissioner Dan C. Boney of the State Insurance Department, said today.

Complete figures are not yet available, but Commissioner Boney estimates that the amount of tornado insurance written since the Greensboro tornado has increased at least 300 per cent.

The figures for 1934, the latest available, show that the premiums paid for tornado insurance amounted to approximately $220,000. Boney said, "Insurance firms in every section of the state have informed that their tornado insurance business has increased tremendously ever since the Greensboro catastrophe. Many of them said that for several days after the tornado they were literally swamped with applications, and the demand has continued until the present time, though not in such great volume."

CHURCHES FOR PEACE ACTION

Peace Bond Campaign Being Sponsored Locally

The Peace Bond campaign, initiated by the National Council for Prevention of War, and sponsored locally by the Greenville Council for Peace Action, Rev. Wm. A. Ryan, president, has the support of numerous church bodies, among these being the Methodist Episcopal church, the Society of Friends (Quakers), the Church of the Brethren, the Universalists, the Disciples of Christ, and distinguished churches of the Baptist, Presbyterian, Congregational and other bodies.

Mrs. W. A. Newell, of Rockingham, N. C., Superintendent of the Bureau of Christian Social Relations, Women's Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, recently declared, "The Peace Bond movement of the National Council for Prevention of War commends itself to me as a wisely conceived plan for extending interest in world peace among the people of this nation."

Cuba and educational groups as well as throughout the country have endorsed the drive, now underway in some 38 states. Said Miss Emily Kneubuhl, Executive Secretary, National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, "NCFW is to be congratulated upon this splendid plan for the mobilization of the middle income group around one specific project—such as this campaign for funds for peace—which is the most urgent one right now."

A few of the prominent Americans who have endorsed and purchased Peace Bonds are: Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Honorary Chairman of the National Committee on the Cause and Cure of War; Senator Gerald P. Nye and Dr. James T. Shotwell, Director, Division of Economics and History, Carnegie Endowment for International Peace who said, "I heartily approve the method of the NCFW for financing more adequately the peace movement in America by means of Peace Bonds, and urge full cooperation on the part of all who want to see a stronger peace movement in our country at this critical time." Other prominent purchasers include: William T. Stone, vice president of the Foreign Policy Association, Secretary of Agriculture, Henry A. Wallace, and Miss Jean Muir, famed star of "A Mid-Summer's Night Dream."

More Than 10,000 Receive Positions

Raleigh, April 23.—A total of 10,796 persons were placed in rainfall jobs during the month of March by the State Employment Service, operated by the State Department of Labor, according to figures contained in North Carolina Labor and Industry, published monthly by the Department of Labor.

Of these placements of formerly unemployed persons in the state, 1832 were in private industry and 2667 in public employment while 2297 were placed on relief work projects. A good many of the jobs are of a temporary nature, though many of those given employment in private industry and on public projects will be permanent. It was pointed out.

The new registrations in March amounted to 10,000, while 7,681 persons who had formerly registered, returned to the employment offices to re-register or renew their applications. The total new registered is 190,252.

M. C. S. Nobles, Jr., of Raleigh, was here today.

Aubrey G. McCabe of Elizabeth City, was a business visitor here this morning.

Miss Greene Club Hostess.

Last evening at her home on Third street, Miss Estelle Greene delightfully entertained members of her bridge club.

Lilies, narcissi, iris and other lovely spring flowers made an attractive background for the bridge tables.

High score prize, a jar of home-made preserves, went to Mrs. E. E. Rawl. Visitor's prize, bridge cards, to Mrs. R. D. Harrington, and low score, prize, a linen towel, to Miss Betsy Greene.

The hostess served a tempting frozen salad course with tea.

Tea For Visitors

An informal tea in honor of Mrs. E. J. Leffler and Miss Monte Ralston, of Boston, who are the guests of Mrs. Leffler's sister, Miss Laura Rose, was given yesterday afternoon by Misses Rose, Davis, Charlton and Turner, at the home of Mrs. E. G. Flanagan. The guests were the women of the College staff and the wives of the men on the staff.

The dining room, parlors, sun room, and halls were beautifully decorated in mixed spring flowers. Tea sandwiches and wafers were served by the hostesses from a beautifully decorated table.

The Boston guests will be here for a day or so longer.

American Legion Auxiliary.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet at 3:30 on Monday afternoon with Mrs. S. L. Bridges, 106 East Ninth street. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. John L. Horne, Mrs. Cecil Garrenton and Miss Hernie Whitchard.

All members are urged to be present.

THURSDAY

FRIDAY

6:30 p. m.—The Kiwanis Club will meet in the Woman's Club.

Mrs. James Erbertanus.

A lovely affair of the week was yesterday when Mrs. J. B. James was a charming hostess to members of her bridge club at luncheon and bridge, having as honor guests Mrs. Major Fleming of Rocky Mount, and her guests, Mrs. Chase Idol of High Point, and Mrs. Elmer Leake of Greensboro.

A delectable luncheon was served at attractively appointed tables. The entire lower floor of the home was beautifully decorated in profusions of narcissi and iris and other blooming flowers.

Following the game, the honor guests were remembered with lovely handkerchiefs. Mrs. J. L. Little was given a milk glass vase of callendulas and narcissi for high visitor's score, and Mrs. S. T. White a milk glass vase of pink roses for high club score.

West Greenville P. T. A.

The Parent-Teacher Association of West Greenville School met yesterday afternoon in the school auditorium. Following the reading of the minutes, the treasurer made a very gratifying report, and also stated that $5.00 had been donated to social welfare and $2.00 to the Red Cross. The playground committee announced that additional equipment would be erected soon.

Miss Fullilove stated that the school would present a program on plantation and folk songs in keeping with National Music Week, the date to be announced later. Mrs. Carl Abbe, chairman of the nominating committee for new officers to serve for the term 1936-37, submitted the following report which was unanimously accepted:

President, Mrs. Herman Duncan; vice-president, Mrs. Bill Drum; secretary, Mrs. Arthur Denton; treasurer, Miss Agnes Fullilove.

A rising vote of thanks was extended to the retiring president, Mrs. H. A. Hudson who had most faithfully served for two years.

We were delighted to have Miss Schnapp of the high school Home Economics Department present, who gave an illustrated talk on "Home-making." This was much enjoyed by everyone and was followed by a discussion as to the possibility of organizing a study group at this time.

Miss Agnes Fullilove's grade won the prize for having the most mothers present.—Reported.

Science Department "Open House"

The second annual "Open House," sponsored by the Science Department of the College, to be held on Friday and Saturday, of next week, May 1 and 2, will be on a much more extensive scale than last year and will attract a great many more people. The number of visitors last year was estimated at nearly two thousand and the exhibits attracted wide and favorable attention from the general public as well as from the schools, but a much larger crowd is expected this year.

An industrial display in which twenty-eight companies will have special exhibits showing raw materials and various kinds of products, processes of manufacture, and materials used in the manufacturing, is a new feature that will perhaps draw a great many people interested in the commercial aspects of science. Chemical concerns will send samples of a number of chemical compounds; several oil companies will send specimens of crude oil, different grades of oil, and other products; a copper company will send many articles made of copper and its alloys; lead, zinc, aluminum, glass, rayon, cement, and their products will be among the materials displayed. Processes of making shoes, tooth paste, glass, pottery, paper, and many other things will be shown.

The first two floors of the Science Building will be used for exhibits. There will be a sufficient number of guides present at all times to direct visitors through the entire exhibit. With many of the projects will be stationed students who will answer questions and make necessary explanations concerning the exhibits.

In order to prevent crowding, a schedule of hours has been arranged for different groups:

Friday, May 1st, 2 to 10 p. m.—College Students, Greenville Public.

Saturday, May 2nd, 8 a. m. to 3 p. m.—All public school students and teachers. Out-of-town people.

The public is cordially invited to attend. Special invitations have been sent to High School Science teachers to bring their students to inspect the exhibit.

Banquet and Dance at College

The E. C. T. C. Junior-Senior banquet and dance, which for the past decade has been the most elaborate social event of the College year, will bring many young people to Greenville Saturday evening.

The colonial motif will be carried out in decorations and entertainment. A colonial mansion, on a back drop curtain, which has been especially designed and painted for this occasion, will form the background for the musicians, who will be seated on the terrace in front of the mansion. This scene will greet the eye as the guests enter the dance hall, which is the auditorium of the Robert H. Wright Building.

The whole of the auditorium will be transformed into an immense arbor. The banquet will be served on small tables placed around the edge of the arbor, with candles giving a romantic touch to the scene.

The music for the occasion will be furnished by the Citadel Bulldogs.

Each member of the two classes is entitled to one guest to whom an engraved invitation was sent. The dancing couples were published in the last issue of the Teco Echo, but a number have been added and changes made. It is a card dance.

The chaperons are the president and his wife, the deans of women, the advisers of the two classes, and a few other selected members of the staff, with the wife of each man and a guest of each lady.

Randolph-Macon Alumnae Organize

Thirty-five Eastern North Carolina graduates and former students of Randolph-Macon Women's College met in Winston at the home of Mrs. Everett Blake on Wednesday afternoon, April 22, for the purpose of organizing an Alumnae chapter. This popular southern college, located at Lynchburg, Va., is forty-three years old and by its high rank in educational circles, now standing fifth in the country, has attracted large numbers of students from North Carolina. Present at the meeting were residents of Winston, Rocky Mount, Greenville, Goldsboro and Raleigh, with visitors from Charlotte and Lynchburg.

The hospitable home of Mrs. Blake on the Raleigh road was the center of animation as the guests, many of whom had not seen each other since college days, ten, fifteen or even twenty years ago, greeted each other and recalled former student days or picked up the threads of life left off at graduation and brought personal histories down to the present day.

Officers elected to lead the organization are: Chairman, Mrs. S. P. Morrill, Winston; and secretary, Mrs. N. A. Edwards, Goldsboro. Annual meetings are planned and Goldsboro extended an invitation to the group to meet there on March 12, 1937, the date being Founder's Day at Randolph-Macon.

Miss Annie E. Whiteside, college registrar, came from Lynchburg to talk to the group on the progress and changes made in the college in recent years. Miss Whiteside told of her travels to leading girls' colleges throughout the country and of the results of this comparative study of schools and student bodies. Additions to the physical plant were listed as an auditorium and student activities building, a library, music building, additional dormitories, and remodeling of present buildings. The present student body of 634 is considered ideal for happy college life and individual faculty contacts; larger enrollments demonstrated that much of the personal element disappeared, and the present policy is to select students of superior character and ability and keep the student body at its present size.

Randolph-Macon Women's College is one of a group of colleges and preparatory schools for boys and girls, all of which have high scholastic standing. The present head of the institution, Dr. Theodore Henry Jack, follows in the footsteps of notable leaders for nearly half a century. A former member of the college faculty, Miss Meta Glas, now president of Sweetbriar College, is head of the national body of the American Association of University Women; another prominent alumna is Pearl Buck, noted writer on Chinese life. All present were urged to enroll in the college alumnae association, of which Miss Mary B. Stokes is resident secretary at the college in Lynchburg. Publications and col-open at 7:15, with the overture by the Palais Royale orchestra following at 7:30 and then the curtain will rise promptly at 8:15. One night only in Greenville, on Saturday, April 25, the show grounds being located at Higgs lot, W. Dickinson Avenue, on Wilson road opposite old Fair grounds.

Big Sum Realized On Horticultural Crops in Carolina

Vegetables, Fruits, Floral Crops and Nuts Bring in More Than $50,000,000 Each Year

College Station, Raleigh, April 23.—The annual income from horticultural crops in North Carolina is more than $50,000,000.

According to Prof. M. E. Gardner, head of the horticultural department at State College, available statistics show this amount is divided as follows:

Vegetables, $42,386,000; fruits, $7,042,000; floral crops, $541,000; and nuts, $140,000.

The figures do not include the local sale of products, or truck shipments of certain commodities, on which no figures are available, Professor Gardner said.

The natural advantages for producing horticultural crops in North Carolina are almost unlimited, he continued, and the complex topography, varying climate, and numerous soil types make possible the production of a wide range of fruits and vegetables.

A recent survey of native fruit-bearing plants in the State listed more than 330 different species.

"We are greatly endowed with natural advantages," the professor pointed out, "but we need more co-operation in building a great and sound horticultural industry."

"Fruit and produce must be merchandised rather than dumped on the market. This calls for greater attention to grades and standards, pest control, an intensive cultural and soil management methods."

"Closer cooperation would solve many marketing problems and at the same time save growers money by the purchase of seed, fertilizer, containers, implements, and other necessities in volume."

"It would also mean that standard brands could be placed on local and distant markets and this would lead to repeat orders, and establish a reputation for quality products."

Greenville members include: Mrs. Wm. I. Wooten, Miss Jane Hadley, Mrs. Jack Spair, Mrs. W. S. Best and Mrs. W. E. Hooker.

Black-Draught

Good Laxative

Black-Draught has been kept on hand for all the family in the home of Mr. W. A. Lemons, of Independence, Va., since twenty years ago.

Mr. Lemons writes that he takes it as a laxative in cases of "headache, dull, tired feeling, biliousness."

"And I take it if I feel uncomfortable after a heavy meal," he adds. "I especially use it for sick headache. It certainly is good."

When a man says "Black-Draught is good," it is probably because he remembers the prompt, refreshing relief it brought in constipation troubles. Its benefits are felt because it is a simple, herb laxative, so natural in composition and action that thousands and thousands of men and women prefer it when a laxative is needed.

Members Of Baraca

Class Enjoy Feast

Approximately 60 members of the Baraca class of the Methodist church enjoyed a shad supper at Third Street school last night, the feast having been the climax of a membership contest staged by the class recently.

The supper was given by the "Buses," which side lot to the "Rode," as agreed upon, had to furnish the treat.

Short talks were made by W. S. Dahl, J. E. Winslow, J. H. Waldron, J. H. Rose, D. M. Clark and Judge J. Paul Frizzle. J. C. Galloway acted as toast master.

Fire's To Show Here Saturday

So many beautiful girls that you can hardly count them; the famous Palais Royale Orchestra direct from Miami, dozens of noted vaudeville artists, a dramatic cast of prominent players from stage and screen, and last but by no means least, Daphne, "The Queen of Fan Dancers," comprise the entertainers who will visit Greenville on the night of Saturday, April 25, playing but one engagement. In the words of the advance representative, it is, "the greatest show on earth for the money." Presented under a huge tent with a seating capacity of more than 4,000 the huge and spectacular attraction is offered to the theatre goers of Greenville at popular prices, and on this one night engagement ladies will be admitted free when accompanied by one adult paid admission.

The doors to the huge tent will

Reach $300,319,708 State Bank Resources

Reflector Bureau, Sir Walter Hotel.

Raleigh, April 21.—Resources of 180 state banks and their 63 branches in North Carolina amounted to $300,319,708 as of March 4, 1935, thus reaching the highest peak since 1930, Commissioner of Banks Gurney P. Hood announced today.

In March a year ago, the resources of these same banks amounted to only $265,393,809, so that the resources have shown a gain of $34,925,899 during the past year, Hood pointed out. In 1930, the total state bank resources amounted to $312,966,246, or only about $12,000,000 more than the total resources at the present time.

"The figures contained in this latest statement of the condition of state banks in North Carolina is only another indication of the manner in which President Roosevelt and the 'New Deal' have helped the banks and the people in North Carolina," Commissioner Hood said.

Loans decreased more than $3,000,000 during the past year, while investments in U. S. state and local unit bonds increased almost $35,000,000.

PLEASE MAIL THEM IN

Yesterday we mailed our second 500 ballots to be sent out in the poll being conducted to ascertain the standing of the four candidates in the Democratic gubernatorial race. If you receive one of these ballots or if you received one of those mailed out previously please mark it and drop it in the mails now. Out of the 500 ballots mailed last week only around 20 per cent have been voted. In conducting this poll this newspaper and the other co-operating newspapers in this state have gone to considerable trouble and expense to conduct this poll in order that we might be in position to give our readers the news concerning the political situation. The names to whom the ballots are being sent were picked impartially and with mathematical precision from the registration books and represent a true cross section of the voters. If these voters will mark and return these ballots we will be able to forecast accurately how the candidates will come out in the primary, but if those who receive these ballots do not vote them, our efforts and expense will go for naught.

The ballots are absolutely secret and no one but you will know how you vote. The ballots are coded in no way except to designate the counties from which we receive them, so you need have no fear about marking your ballot and send it in now. In the interest of getting the real news for you and the rest of our readers we urge you to co-operate with us in this poll by voting your ballot if you have received one or if you receive one at a later date.

catch only the "big fellows" in the publicity dragnet. Personal rather than party politics lies behind the revision.

The Michigan Senator accepted the committee amendment requiring publicity only for payments above $10,000, and not for those above $1,000 as demanded by Secretary Wallace. It so happens that almost no Michigan farmers benefited to the extent of the higher figure, and therefore Mr. Vandenberg's constituents will escape the spotlight. His colleagues also preferred the $10,000 minimum because it won't antagonize so many small producers in their states. Members don't relish ruffling the vast number of voters whose grants ranged from $1,000 to $10,000 a year.

Secretary Wallace has been blamed for insisting that publicity be restricted to payments on single crops in single counties, and not lumped so as to disclose individual totals. G. O. P.-ers construe that proposal as a move to conceal the true nature of AAA's generosity. It might let an army of political farmers duck out of the headlines.

COUNSEL: Maybe so. But the most eminent beneficiary of the Wallace suggestion would be Allan Hoover, son of the titular leader of the Republican party.

Young Hoover recently announced that he had cashed $4,500 worth of New Deal checks for reducing his acreage planted in cotton. But what isn't known is that he benefited by more than $6,000 from cutting down his production of wheat. Under the Wallace scheme his name would not appear on the Vandenberg list because he didn't get his $10,000-plus from a single crop.

AAA-ers are holding back another secret involving the ex-President's son. It concerns his zeal in trying to negotiate an AAA farm marketing agreement on certain crops he raises on his father's ranch in California. New Deal strategists will sprinkle their campaign literature with the insinuation that the son did not swallow AAA medicine without first consulting his esteemed parent.

JELLING: Washington high-ups were recently treated to the lowdown on how the folks back home size up the current political situation. The information was supplied to a shut-in Capital by 1090-odd shrewd newspapermen and smart politicians who attended the annual editors' convention and the Gridiron dinner.

Despite individual and group dissents, the majority of the "grass roots" scouts agreed (1) That Governor Alf Landon will turn up as the Republican presidential nominee, (2) That President Roosevelt is sure of another four years barring unforeseen shifts in popular sentiment, (3) That business and industry will stage an upswing at least through the fall, (4) That formation of the American Liberty League and the du Pont "family reunion" will be recorded by historians as the "political crime" of the day.

President Roosevelt addressed both groups. Although his remarks cannot be quoted, his audience left Washington with the conviction that he will hang his reelection campaign on a masses-against-classes peg. He tuned his offstage statements to a high-pitched defiance of "organized greed." He was, in short, cocksure of himself and contemptuous of personal and political opposition.

HEAT: Topnotch Republicans' hatred of Herbert Hoover flares so bitterly that it may destroy any hope of party peace after the convention has named its 1936 standard-bearer. Animosity touched a new high at Republican national headquarters the other day.

A political commentator asked Chairman Henry Fletcher if he would submit to an interview, and the Pennsylvania senator consented. In suggesting a subject, the interviewer revealed an unknown chapter in the war debts negotiations. He swore that Messrs. Hoover and Stimson had a tentative promise of a 50 per cent payment by our foreign debtors when they requested FDR's cooperation prior to the 1933 inauguration. But Mr. Roosevelt declined the confab—according to this version because he hoped to nail down the arrangement himself.

The big idea was to depict the President as rejecting a fine offer for political reasons, but Mr. Fletcher saw only the Hoover-Stimson angle. "What!" he retorted. "Tell that story and give credit to those two fellows—Hoover and Stimson! Not on your life!" Friends recall that Mr. Fletcher had expected Mr. Hoover to make him Secretary of State. But it fell to Mr. Stimson!

New York

"CONSTRUCTIVE": The Democratic National Committee has worked out a neat follow-up system to take advantage of the atmosphere of defeatism in anti-New Deal circles. For the past week or so New York has been invaded by swarms of Democratic agents seeking interviews with financial and industrial leaders. In many cases their approach is paved by a telegram from an officer of the national committee.

They are all set with an eloquent sales patter when they reach their man. It is based on the promise that Roosevelt is sure of reelection. That being the case, they argue, it is very bad for the future welfare of the nation and of business itself that business men should oppose him en masse. As matters stand, the country is bound to interpret his victory as a smashing defeat for business—which will make it more difficult for Mr. Roosevelt to protect finance and industry from radical legislation in his second term.

"Therefore you, Mr. X, would be rendering a great service to yourself and your associates by abandoning your opposition and working with Mr. Roosevelt instead of against him. Your example as an outstanding business leader would be a most constructive influence."

UP-TO-DATE: So far this propaganda has made little outward progress. But inwardly it is scoring a deep impression. Business leaders in general are nervous. Not when it comes to politics and the Democratic counter-attack hits them where they are weakest. The drive will probably win very few active converts. But it may well succeed in its real objective—which is to shatter all semblance of forceful and united business support for the Republican cause.

New York gets a laugh out of one aspect of this grand Democratic offensive. The National Committee is planning pursuing its bright idea with ancient mailing lists. A telegram signed officially by W. Forbes Morgan as Secretary of the Committee—asking an appointment for an agent—was recently delivered at the office of one of the nation's biggest corporations.

TREES ON DICKINSON AVENUE

The trees on Dickinson Avenue are to be cut down. What a pity! The only use many people see in a tree is for firewood. While others see the Handiwork of God, as they see it in the glorious sunset.

It is proposed to cut down the trees in order to widen Dickinson Avenue on each side ONLY THREE FEET—A HIGH PRICE TO PAY FOR THIS EXTRA WIDTH. This action is being taken in the name of PROGRESS and in effect is charging those who do not favor the project with being "non-progressive" and would-be blockers of progress.

Does the future growth and progress of Greenville depend upon the widening of Dickinson Avenue five blocks west of the A. C. L. Railroad?

It is true that a wholesale house has recently been erected within these limits (partly because of being able to get a spur track to the building) and also a second hand automobile sales yard established (some people have been heard to say that it looks more like an automobile graveyard).

There may be some that feel, as it is, these five blocks is a dead or dying street and that by cutting down the trees and adding six feet to the width they will soon see it built up in solid blocks like it is from Five Points to the Courthouse. You know there really are people that are that optimistic—you may not believe it—but it is true.

In order to save the feelings of those who plead for the tree they were told that they would be given a "white way". What for? that strung wires and ugly poles may be better seen? The trees are to be cut down. What a pity!

Who believes that the trees would be cut down if we had a woman mayor and a board of alderwomen, instead of a board of aldermen? You may think women haven't got enough sense to run the town—if you think that, don't tell it to me—tell it to your wife.

—A TREE LOVER.

Lieutenant Governor Has Greatest Power In State

In Better Position To Shape Legislation Than Governor

Reflector Bureau,
Sir Walter Hotel.
By J. C. BASKERVILLE

Raleigh, April 24.—The Lieutenant Governor in North Carolina really has more power and more opportunity to shape legislation than has the Governor, due to the fact that the Lieutenant Governor is the presiding officer in the senate and selects all committees, while the Governor has no direct contact with members of the general assembly and is the only Governor that does not have any veto power.

Yet every four years, the campaign for the Democratic nomination for Governor attracts about 95 per cent of the interest of the voters, with little or no attention given to the campaign for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

This is true again this year to a certain extent, although in some quarters more serious thought is being given to the selection of the nominee for Lieutenant Governor than in previous years. The forces seeking the nomination of Dr. Ralph W. McDonald as Governor are anxious for the nomination of a candidate for Lieutenant Governor who will be in sympathy with the McDonald program, should be elected. For it is conceded that a Lieutenant Governor in the senate who was unfriendly to the Governor, could virtually block everything the Governor might advocate through the appointment of unfriendly committees, even though the Governor might have a majority in the house.

Accordingly, the prevailing belief in most political circles is that the McDonald forces are quietly working for the nomination of Paul D. Grady of Kenly, Johnston county, who is seeking the nomination for Lieutenant Governor on an anti-sales tax platform very similar to Dr. McDonald's.

Those opposed to the McDonald doctrine are equally interested in seeing to it that the nominee for Lieutenant Governor is of a more or less conservative type who cannot and will not be dominated by the McDonald political philosophy. It is generally conceded that a majority of the more conservative and middle-of-the-road liberal Democrats are accordingly centering their support back of State Senator W. P. Horton of Pittsboro, Chatham county, for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor, because they believe that regardless of who is nominated for Governor, Horton would make a safe, sane, yet entirely fair and dependable Lieutenant Governor. And if McDonald should be elected Governor and should be able to get a majority of McDonald members in the house, it would be essential to have a Lieutenant Governor presiding over the senate who could not be dominated and dictated to by the house, it is maintained. For if McDonald should be elected Governor, get control of the house and also have a Lieutenant Governor he could control and dictate to, there would be nothing to prevent him from becoming a veritable Huey Long, able to put through both branches of the legislature any laws he might desire, it is pointed out.

It is conceded also that George McNeill of Fayetteville, also a former member of the state senate and the third candidate for the nomination for Lieutenant Governor, has some substantial support among the ultra conservative Democrats. But McNeill's lack of legislative experience—he has served only one term in the general assembly as compared with Horton's three terms and Grady's two—and the fact that he does not appear to be making any material headway in his campaign, is causing most of the observers here to agree that for the time being the contest for Lieutenant Governor is chiefly between Horton and Grady, with Horton in the lead. For while Horton has not been doing as much speech making as has Grady, the prevailing belief is that he has been concentrating on organization and that over the state as a whole Horton has a much better organization in the field than has Grady.

Another factor regarded as being favorable to Horton is that he is admitted to have a strong and substantial following among the farmers, laboring classes and the "drys" because of his record in the 1935 senate and in the 1931 and 1927 sessions of the general assembly. It is also believed that the McDonald forces are already so busy with the gubernatorial campaign that they will not be able to work either for Grady or against Horton and McNeill, with the result that many who will vote for McDonald will undoubtedly vote for Horton and McNeill.

GREENIES WIN OVER TARBORO

Local Team Ekes Out 4-3 Victory Over Old Rivals

The Tarboro Tigers were not so ferocious yesterday afternoon and saw the Greenies of the Greenville high school nose out a victory of 4-3 there, causing the fifth consecutive win of the season for the locals.

The game was slated to have been played here, but the rain which poured from the heavens the night before soaked the diamond in such a manner that playing on the local square was something next to impossible.

Yesterday's battle was the closest of the season. Forrest Minges, aspiring young hurler was started on the mound by the high coach Reynolds May, but was relieved in the second inning after their opponents had totaled four hits off the youngster.

Louis Gaylord went in as relief pitcher for Minges and held the Tarborians to two scattered hits. This was the second victory of the season that young Gaylord has produced for the Greenies with his fancy yet efficient technique in baseball tossing.

Three of the players participating in yesterday's clash were not regular members of the team but stood up very systematically under the strain inflicted upon them.

Lautares, Hatem, Hamilton and Carl Pierce led the attack with the stick to run up the total number of runs earned by the Greenies.

The next game of the season will be played here on Tuesday afternoon of next week at which time the Greenies face their long time rivals, the Pam Pack of Washington.

Local Negro School Plans Sports Events

Greenville Industrial School baseball team will play Atkins high school of Kinston here Saturday.

The local team has not lost a game this season. They defeated the Tarboro high school on Easter Monday, in their opening game.

This is the second time for the two schools to meet in baseball this season. The Greenville lads came from behind with the score 8-4 in Kinston's favor, and tied the score in the ninth inning, when they played the Kinston team at home. The locals are in good condition for the visitors.

The classes at both schools have started their practice for the field day program. Which will take place in the afternoon of May 1. Every class from the fourth through the fifth school boys and girls will have relay teams as well as dasher for every race.

There will be prizes on hand for every winner.

The events for the day will include: 50 yards dash, 100 yards dash, 1-2 mile relays, broad jump, and high jump.

SPORT SLANTS

Jimmy Fox is once again hitting the ball with his old time zest. The former star slugger of Connie Mack Athletics was delighted at the shift that sent him to the Boston Red Sox, and predicted not only a comeback but threatened to surpass the best season of his brilliant career.

The change came at just about the right time in his career. He is still plenty young enough to climb to greater heights—he's only 28 despite the fact that he is working on his 12th season in the American league. But he needed a change of scenery—needed it very badly.

He had spent 11 seasons with Connie Mack in Philadelphia—the first six in climbing to the peak with the Athletics and the latter five carrying on while the team was bled white by the sale of stars who made the winning of pennants possible. Last season when the Athletics dropped into the cellar, Fox felt the depression in spite of his brave effort to keep blazing away at top speed.

In Majors At 17

The game was getting to be old stuff to him, especially in the old surroundings. He was a kid of 17 when he came up as a catcher and won a place with the Athletics on the strength of his powerful hitting. Now he is a veteran—one who needed new pastures to graze in. And the change to the Red Sox's uniform should prove just the right sort of tonic to pep him up.

This change of scenery, and especially the change from a team destined for last place to one of the leading pennant contenders, should add years to his active playing life.

Connie Mack has little cause for complaint as far as Jimmy Fox is concerned. Jimmy served the veteran manager well for 11 years.

At various times he played third, caught, and covered first. That he was ever ready to do anything Connie Mack asked of him was best indicated by his willingness to do the catcher's mask and pads after a long layoff last spring.

Mack collected something like $200,000 from Tom Yawkey when he passed his big batter over to the Red Sox. And that $200,000 represented clear profit, for Fox did not cost the Athletics one cent. "Home Run" Baker discovered Jimmy Fox when he was an apple-cheeked youngster of 16 working on a farm at Sudbury, Md., and made a present of him to his old manager, Connie Mack.

To hear Fox speak of staging a comeback this year one would get the impression that he had a miserable season last year. While

Without the slightest cost or obligation, you will learn the very latest methods of food preparation and kitchen management. How to make many interesting new dishes. How to utilize left-overs, how to plan a week's meals so as to reduce costs and serve a pleasing variety of well-balanced menus. And another thing you'll enjoy will be suggestions for really making use of the "freezing properties" of the electric refrigerator.

PLAN TO ATTEND EVERY SESSION

Remember—this is not an ordinary cooking school where a woman gets up and tells you how to boil eggs and broil a steak. You'll learn new things about food preparation. Things which will help you plan better meals and make your food budget go a lot further. You'll learn how to make new desserts, new salads, delicious entrees—and how to make them with a minimum amount of work.

Start at the very beginning of the classes and get the full benefit of this unusual school. Remember there are no fees, nothing to buy, and no obligations incurred.

Miss Margaret Doughty Will Direct The Class

Miss Doughty is one of the country's leading domestic scientists. Trained by the Kelvin Kitchen, she brings to the class the very latest information regarding the best methods of food preparation, planning of meals and menus, and the use of the modern electric refrigerator for making new and delicious frozen salads and desserts.

If you are interested in safety, by all means drive Oldsmobile before you decide on any car. Learn at first hand what its complete quota of safety features means to the security of yourself and others. In Oldsmobile a Solid-Steel "Turret-Top" Body by Fisher guards your safety—with Safety Glass as an extra protection at no added cost. Powerful, self-energizing Super-Hydraulic Brakes combine with the traction of big, low-pressure tires to make emergency stops quick, smooth and sure. Rugged Knee-Action Wheels and the Ride Stabilizer assure steady, reliable roadability as well as superior riding comfort. Center-Control Steering and Synco-Mesh Shifting provide sure and easy handling whatever the road condition. And combined with all these features is the sturdiness and dependability of Oldsmobile's quality construction. Oldsmobile, remember, gives you all these safety provisions at a price but a little above the lowest. Why not take your trial drive today!

DR. MCDONALD TO BROADCAST

Gala Demonstration Planned for Wilson Tonight

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.
Raleigh, April 24.—The speech to be delivered tonight in Wilson by Dr. Ralph W. McDonald, which will be broadcast over radio station WPTF of Raleigh for one hour, from 8 to 9 o'clock, is expected to be the biggest and most enthusiastic demonstration yet held in any eastern county, his campaign manager, W. L. Lumpkin, said this afternoon.

The entire staff from McDonald headquarters here will attend in a body, and Dr. McDonald, Manager Lumpkin, Associate Campaign Manager Thomas T. Valentine and all those connected with his campaign will be entertained by the Wilson committee after the meeting.

A motorcade of at least 50 automobiles is expected to meet Dr. McDonald several miles outside of Wilson and escort him through the city in a twilight parade. Dr. McDonald spoke in Bayboro at noon today and is not expected to reach Wilson until late in the afternoon.

Delegations of McDonald supporters from ten to twelve counties have already signified that they will be present for the speech tonight, while thousands of others are expected to listen in around radio sets throughout the eastern and central portions of the state. Campaign manager Lumpkin has already been notified that delegations will be present from Pitt, Greene, Nash, Johnston, Craven, Franklin, Vance and Edgecombe counties, as well as hundreds of supporters from Wilson county. It is not believed that more than half of those present will be able to get into the court house to hear Dr. McDonald.

Planning Release Number Terrapins State Hatcheries

Distribution to Be Carried on Under Direction of Commissioner of State Fisheries
Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.
Raleigh, April 24.—Return of the diamond-back terrapin, one of the delicacies among seafoods, as an important phase of the commercial fisheries of North Carolina, is to be speeded by the release of between 2,000 and 3,000 of the animals in waters of the state this summer.

R. Bruce Etheridge, director of the Department of Conservation and Development, has been notified by Frank T. Bell, U. S. fisheries commissioner, that this number of terrapins will be allotted to the state from the hatchery at the biological station at Beaufort this year.

Distribution of the terrapins will be carried out under the direction of Capt. John A. Nelson, State fisheries commissioner, Morehead City. Captain Nelson stated today that the animals would be placed in suitable rearing places along the coast. Previous plantations have been made in salt and brackish water marshes from the southern part of the State to Hyde county.

So intensive was the fishing for the valuable terrapins that concern was felt for their survival in the early 20's. As a result, a five year closed season on the terrapin was decreed in 1934 and the state entered into a cooperative agreement with the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries for the operation of a hatchery at the Beaufort station. This arrangement was continued for several years until the state was compelled to withdraw from participation because of lack of funds. Operations were continued by the Bureau of Fisheries, however, with the output now being divided among several states in which conditions are suited to the production of terrapins.

MAIL SLOGAN AIDS WOMAN CARRIER MEET PROBLEMS

Hampton, Ga. —(AP)—"Uncle Sam's mail must go through."
That's the slogan that has been a help to Mrs. Kenneth Barfield during a 17-year career as a carrier of mail over rural red clay Georgia roads.

She says that without it she would have failed to overcome some of the obstacles that confronted her.

She recalls that only several weeks ago she had to swing a heavy axe to clear the road of fallen limbs and twisted trees after an ice storm.

Once during a flood the bridge over a creek washed away a few seconds after she had driven her car across it.

But carrying the mail has its sunny side, she says, pointing out that her romance with Mr. Barfield began when she drove her automobile into his service station 13 years ago to inquire about the oil supply.

RURAL PEOPLE BEING HELPED

Resettlement Administration Carrying on Big Program

Reflector Bureau.
Sir Walter Hotel.
Raleigh, April 24.—The Resettlement Administration had 35,000 farm families under care of its rehabilitation program in the five states grouped in Region 4, Rehabilitation Director Paul Maris, of Washington, D. C., said here today.

Other additional thousands will be added to the program during the next few weeks, he stated. The states of Region 4 are North Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Virginia and West Virginia.

Here for a conference with Regional Resettlement officials, Mr. Maris was especially pleased with the progress of Rehabilitation activities in North Carolina, where 14,500 farm families are fighting their way back to a self-supporting basis with "Rehab" loans.

The Rehabilitation program is described by the Information division of Resettlement as follows:

"For many years the American people have regarded farming as the one activity certain to yield at least three square meals a day and a place to sleep at night. Many thought the farmer was never threatened with starvation, even though there were years when he did not make any money.

"This idea was proven false during the depression, when more than a million farm families were forced on relief. The Government had to feed these families. It was during this period that the Government learned that in most cases it is far better to help the farmers help themselves than to give them direct relief. It was shown that a small loan, better land, and good farming methods would put many of these distressed families on their feet permanently.

"The Resettlement Administration is the government agency now carrying out this program of aid for needy farm families. Resettlement is extending loans and providing agricultural guidance to enable low-income farm families to become self-supporting. The purpose is to enable individual farm families to get a new start under more favorable conditions on the farms they now own or rent.

Athletic Committee to Give Kiwanis Progr'm

Several speakers, including representatives of the college, high school, Coastal Plains baseball league and the country club, will appear on the program tonight at the regular meeting of the Greenville Kiwanis club.

The program has been arranged by the Athletic committee of the club.

Another feature of the meeting will be the selection of delegates and alternates to the Kiwanis International convention.

Grazing Returns Profit

San Angelo, Tex. (AP)—Grazing on winter grain fields of west Texas compounds profit for ranchmen. Louis Williams and Bill Mason, Jr., of Eden bought 2,500 lambs at $4 a head last fall, paid 10 cents a month each for 90 days' pasture and sold them, wool included, at $8 a head.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, April 24.—(AP)—A few rallying thrusts today were generally ineffective in piercing the stock market gloom.

While resistant to further selling, pressure was shown by scattered issues. Losses of fraction to a point or so predominated near the start of the fourth hour.

After a steady opening, prices began to slip rapidly and at one time the ticker tape fell behind four minutes. A recovery movement then got underway and trading turned quiet.

The late tone was mixed. Transactions approximately 2,000,000 shares.
