JAP WARRIORS LANDED ALONG HANGCHOW BAY

Reinforcements May Be for Major Drive On Nanking

HANGCHOW MAY BE NEXT ATTACK

Shanghai Meanwhile Almost Entirely In Hands of Japs Following Retreat

Shanghai, Nov. 10.—(AP)—Japanese reinforcements landed on the south and north shore of Hangchow Bay today for what may become a major drive toward Nanking, China's capital.

Chinese feared the reinforcements would attack Hangchow as the first step in a Nanking drive, now that Shanghai is in Japanese hands—except for Nantao, native quarter in which are remnants of the Chinese army which receded from Shanghai yesterday to defense lines further inland; in the International settlement and the French Concession.

A few Chinese also were holding out in Pootung, industrial center across the Whangpoo from Shanghai.

Japanese used airplane and artillery bombardment today in an effort to drive out the remaining Chinese.

Many bombs fell along the Nantao Whangpoo river waterfront within a few hundred yards of American and other foreign war vessels anchored in the river.

Chinese said Japanese transports already had arrived off the coast in the new Hangchow inlets, carrying about 40,000 soldiers. Capture of Hangchow would cut one of the two railroads now open between Shanghai and the capital.

Half the troops landed in an area on the north side of the bay. One war time division landed on the south shore of the bay, about 70 miles east of Hangchow.

ECTC Graduates Widely Scattered

The 1937 graduates of the College are widely scattered in teaching positions, the placement bureau reports, with members of that class teaching in over 52 counties in North Carolina, and some in other states—Virginia and South Carolina.

Twenty-two of last year's graduates are in schools in Pitt county. Thirteen are in Johnston, ten in Wayne, and seven each in Beaufort, Currituck, Edgecombe and Sampson.

In each of the other 45 counties there are from one to six E. C. T. C. graduates of 1937 teaching.

Mrs. M.D. Haddock Claimed By Death

Mrs. M. D. Haddock, 73, died in the Pitt General hospital at 2:55 o'clock this morning following several weeks of critical illness.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 at the home, near Chicoed School. Burial will follow in the family cemetery near the home.

Mrs. Haddock is survived by her husband; two sons, L. H. Haddock of the home place and Lanier Haddock of the Cox Mill community; two daughters, Mrs. W. E. Corey of Grimesland and Miss Nora Haddock of the home place; and eight grandchildren.

Rotarians To Gather In Inter-City Meet

Rotary Clubs of Greenville, Robersonville, Bethel, Ayden and Farmville will meet at the Woman's club here Friday in an inter-city session.

With each of the clubs seeking to have 100 per cent attendance, at least 200 Rotarians and Rotary Anns are expected to attend the joint meeting.

Royal Couple Invited Town Bearing Name

Windsor, Nov. 10. (AP)—The Duke and Duchess of Windsor have been invited to this little town which bears their titled name.

Mayor J. A. Pritchett announced today he had asked Senator Robert R. Reynolds (D-NC) to forward the invitation to the royal couple to visit here, when and if they come to America.

REFUSED ENTRY INTO U. S.

On grounds of "moral turpitude," Magda deFontanges was refused entry into the United States by immigration officials in New York upon the arrival of the red-headed French woman who shot Count Charles deChambrai, former French Ambassador to Italy, because she claimed he broke up her love affair with Premier Mussolini. She is shown outlined against the New York skyline while awaiting the immigration officials' decision.

Two Days Required For Term Of County Court

TWELVE SLAIN DURING MONTH

Total of 88 Accidents On Eastern Carolina Highways

Twelve persons were killed in wrecks on Eastern Carolina highways during October as compared with nine in the preceding month, the monthly report issued by Lieut. Lester Jones, head of Troop A of the State Highway patrol, revealed today.

The deaths resulted from 83 accidents investigated by the combined force of Troop A. In addition to the fatalities, 60 persons were injured in highway accidents. During September the patrolmen investigated 51 accidents, in which 25 persons, other than the nine killed, received injuries.

The patrolmen spent a total of 11,744 hours on duty in October, traveling 107,676 miles, using 694 pints of oil and 5,743 gallons of gasoline.

A total of 538 arrests were made during the month, 60 of which were for driving drunk. In the preceding month 422 persons were arrested, 57 on charges of driving while drunk.

Of the 538 persons brought to court by the patrolmen, 527 were convicted and only 11 acquitted. Sentences totaling 37 years and six months were meted out to defendants violating state highway laws. Fines amounted to $7,135.58 and court costs $2,821.57. The patrolmen recovered property valued at $2,140 and collected $3,020.65 in revenue, to make a grand total of $5,117.97.

Activities of the patrol included: vehicles inspected, 1,059; lights corrected, 1,863; warnings issued, 70; courtesies extended 355; cars recovered, seven; vehicles stored, 39; complaints investigated, 227; and citations made 318.

Hard Whiskey Preferred By ABC Stores' Patrons

Reflector Bureau. Raleigh, Nov. 10.—Patrons of ABC Stores in North Carolina are almost uniformly whiskey drinkers. Rum, gin, cordials and liquors have no attraction for them.

In September, the only month for which complete figures are available, nearly nine out of every ten gallons of liquor sold in the stores was whiskey of one sort or another. The second place beverage was so far behind as to be out of the running.

In exact figures 87.39 per cent of all liquor sold was whiskey, straight gin made up 7.39 per cent of sales, gin specialties 1.55 per cent, brandy 1.19 per cent, rum .20 per cent, cordials and liquors 1.81 per cent, cocktails .08 per cent and other spirits, a trace.

Flourished from the report, which listed sales by cases nearly 100,000 gallons of liquor were sold in Sep-

Intruder Slain In Gruesome Duel on California Ranch

Officers Piece Together Story of Fight Between Aged Rancher With Old Rusty Sword and Robber With Butcher Knife

Santa Rosa, Calif., Nov. 10.—(AP)—A story of a gruesome, deadly duel between a 79-year-old rancher armed with an old, rusty sword and an intruder brandishing a butcher knife, was pieced together by officers today by the dying survivor's gasps.

Thomas Elliott, the rancher, cut off the intruder's left hand, but finally was overpowered. Surrendering, he promised to get his money.

Instead he grabbed a gun, killed the invader with one shot.

Elliott was so critically wounded hospital attendants gave him little chance to survive.

Sheriff Harry Patterson reconstructed this story from the gruesome battle.

Answering a knock at the door of the house where he lived alone, Elliott was confronted late last night by a hooded intruder holding a flashlight in one hand and a butcher knife in the other.

"This is a robbery," the hooded man said. "I want your money." Elliott fled upstairs, grabbed the old sword from its scabbard on the wall and wheeled to battle his assailant. They duelled about the room and battled down the stairs.

A sudden swipe of Elliott's sword cut off the stranger's left hand. The stranger stopped, picked up the hand and stuffed it into his pocket.

Then, despite loss of his hand, the intruder suddenly overpowered the elderly rancher, threw him to the floor and waved his butcher knife menacingly.

"I surrender. I'll get the money," the rancher shouted. The man let Elliott up and tried to stem the flow of blood from his arm.

Elliott stumbled toward a cupboard, but instead of cash grabbed a gun, turned and fired. The intruder dropped dead.

SEEK HELP OF UNITED STATES

Appeals For Aid Come From Two Major Powers

(By The Associated Press) Appeals came from two major powers today seeking to bring the United States more closely into the complicated international situation.

One of the bids came from Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain of Great Britain; the other from the Communist party organ, Pravda, in Moscow.

Chamberlain apparently encouraged by President Roosevelt's October 5 Chicago peace address and by United States participation in the Brussels conference, called for fuller British-American cooperation last night at a speech at Guild Hall.

Pravda asserted the real purpose of the Italian-German-Japanese agreement against Communism was to obtain territory in a new world war and urged collective action by the United States, Britain and France against the three powers.

In the Spanish civil war insurgents from the northeast held important positions in the Gallego river valley which would be used as a starting point for an attack against government forces.

Johnny Hardee, white man, was convicted of reckless driving and was fined $25 and costs and had his driving license revoked for 90 days.

Dave Cogdell, Negro, offered a plea of guilty to driving without lights and judgment was suspended upon payment of the costs.

Pittman Stocks was convicted of being drunk on the highway, but judgment was suspended upon payment of the court costs.

Ben Wilson, Negro, tendered a plea of guilty to gambling and was given a 90-day road sentence.

Noah Harris, Negro, was fined $25, costs to be deducted, on a charge of possession of illegal liquor.

Charlie Bell, Negro, was convicted of possession of liquor and fined $25, court costs to be deducted.

Ernest Whitchard, Negro, was given two sentences of 60 days each upon conviction of assault with a deadly weapon and larceny. The sentences, however, will run concurrently.

James Gray, Negro, was given a 60-day road sentence, suspended upon payment of $25, costs to be deducted, upon conviction of driving without license and brakes.

PEACE PARLEY CALLS RECESS

Reply to Bid Expected from Japan Before Saturday

Brussels, Nov. 10.—(AP)—The Brussels conference adjourned today until Saturday after Belgium's foreign minister, Paul Spaak, announced Japan's reply to the conference peace note was expected by that time.

Spaak, chairman of the conference, said the latest information from the Belgian ambassador in Tokyo was the reply would be decided upon at a meeting of the Japanese cabinet Friday.

He added that the text of the note probably would be communicated to the various delegations on Friday night.

The conference paid impressive tribute to the memory of Ramsay MacDonald, former British Prime Minister, who died yesterday. The representatives of all the major powers, including Norman Davis of the United States delegation, joined in stressing MacDonald's work for world peace.

Private conversations between heads of the British, French and United States delegations preceded the session.

HOEY SPEAKER AT DEDICATION

Ceremonies Mark the Completion of Western Sanatorium

Black Mountain, Nov. 10.—(AP)—Governor Clyde R. Hoey said today completion of the Western North Carolina Sanatorium here marked another victory in the state's successful fight against tuberculosis, the former "captain of death."

Speaking at exercises dedicating the 165-bed sanatorium, the governor said the care of health and the preservation of life have become the chief concern of a forward-looking people.

"The whole state rejoices in this accomplishment," Hoey declared. "I warmly congratulate those who have worked so faithfully and with such abounding enthusiasm for the establishment of this great institution."

North Carolina, he said, recognizes the necessity of making greater provisions for treatment and prevention of tuberculosis and will continue to fight the disease.

"Tuberculosis, formerly the 'captain of death,' has been reduced to seventh place in the causes of death," the governor said. "A most striking illustration of the reduction of the tuberculosis death rate in North Carolina is shown by a comparison of figures for the past 20 years. In 1915 there were 150 deaths for every 100,000 population, whereas in 1935 there were only 58 deaths per every 100,000 population."

Burke Hearing Held. Shelby, Nov. 10.—(AP)—Judge J. Will Pless, Jr., continued today until the December term of Superior court in Burke county a hearing on an order padlocking two roadhouses in Burke county. The continuance was granted upon motion of counsel for the two establishments.

PLAN OBSERVE ARMISTICE DAY

Complete Program Announced for Exercises Tomorrow

Plans have been completed for the Armistice Day program to be presented here tomorrow by Pitt County Post No. 39 of the American Legion, with Judge Luther Hamilton of Morehead City as the principal speaker.

The exercises will be held in the Robert H. Wright auditorium of East Carolina Teachers College and are scheduled to get started at 11 o'clock. Music will be provided by the Greenville High School band.

Formal opening of the program will include advancing of the colors, invocation of divine guidance by Rev. Clarence Patrick, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church, a period of silence "in memory of our departed comrades" and recitation of the preamble to the Legion constitution.

The program then calls for the audience joining in singing "America," after which special numbers will be presented by the male glee club.

Arthur B. Corey will introduce Judge Hamilton, who will deliver the Armistice Day address.

Another feature of the program will be the award of Service Cross by the George B. Singletary Chapter, U. D. C.

Greenville Rotarians Attend Trenton Meet

Eight members of the Greenville Rotary Club attended the charter presentation meeting of the Trenton club at that place last night.

Those attending from here were Rufus Keel, Wayland Simons, Haywood Dall, Wesley Harvey, Olive Van Nortwick, W. W. Lee, J. B. Kittrell and K. W. Cobb.

STUDENT HURT IN TEMPLE BLAST

Investment In Housing Talked As Business Aid

Administration May Encourage Use Of Private Funds

Washington, Nov. 10.—(AP)—Stimulation of heavy private investments in housing construction developed today as one means the administration may use upon to aid business and employment.

President Roosevelt called Federal officials and private business men to discuss the possibilities with him this afternoon.

White House attaches, emphasizing any new undertaking would be apart from the government's sum clearance and low-cost non-building program, said the conference would be concerned with the methods of inducing private capital into the housing industry.

The impression prevailed suggestions for general increases in government spending as an aid to business would get nowhere.

Other developments: The House Agricultural committee considered suggestions for restoring processing taxes on cotton, wheat and corn to raise an estimated $200,000,000 to help finance the proposed ever-normal granary program for agriculture.

Representative Andersen (R-Minn.) said the committee devoted most of the day to a discussion of the constitutionality of processing taxes.

One member of the committee had a different idea on how to raise money. He was Representative Fulmer (D-SC) who proposed an eight cents per pound tax be placed on jute from India.

Presiding Judge William Johnson Graham, 65, of the Court of Customs and Patent Appeals, died suddenly early today of a heart attack.

Opposition was developing to three major portions of the Maritime Commission's program for restoring what it termed America's "very sick" shipping industry.

The biggest dispute may result from a recommendation for a mediation board to handle maritime labor problems.

Only three cases were tried in City police court this morning, all three of the defendants being Negroes. Two were charged with public drunkenness and one with larceny.

Weston Harris was bound over to County court under bond of $200 to face a charge of larceny of a radio. Harry Price and Robert Newsome were convicted of drunkenness and each was ordered to pay the costs of court or serve a 30-day term on the roads.

Repeat Visits Objective Of Advertising Campaign

Raleigh, Nov. 10.—North Carolina's State advertising campaign is being designed not only to bring the tourist to the State for one time but to induce him to repeat his visits. J. L. Horne, Jr., chairman of the advertising committee of the Board of Conservation and Development, pointed out today in discussing the tourist phase of the program.

Figures compiled by the American Automobile Association, Mr. Horne stated, show that some 38.8 percent of the tourists are influenced in the choice of their vacation sites by former visits.

An additional 26.0 percent, the survey shows, plan their trips as a result of recommendations of their friends, bringing the total percentage of tourists directly influenced by personal contacts to 65.8.

"In planning to obtain the most far-reaching results from tourist promotional efforts," Mr. Horne asserted, "it is necessary that we look toward bringing each visitor back and having him recommend North Carolina to his friends. Thus we have a direct approach to the estimated more than half of the travel public in the country.

"There is no question that North Carolina has the scenery, the recreational facilities, and other national assets to impress the visitor and make him want to return and to recommend the State to his friends. We should then emphasize the human factor of making the visitor feel at home and to convince him that we are glad to have him and are interested in his welfare.

"Another feature of the program is an effort to create every practical way a most beautiful state. It is true that we cannot improve on nature's great scenic wonders but we can preserve them and have an eye toward the beautiful in the works of man.

"There is only one way to put the right words into the mouths of visitors and that lies not only in creating the impression that we are ready for him but in proving it—making our readiness an actuality."

REDUCTION IN TOBACCO CROP IS SUGGESTED

Necessary If Present Situation Is To Be Maintained

SMALLER EXPORT TRADE EXPECTED

Agriculture Department Economists Recommend Cut in '38 Crop of 10 Per Cent

Washington, Nov. 10.—(AP)—Agriculture Department economists suggested today a reduction of 10 per cent in the production of flue cured tobacco "if the present marketing situation is to be maintained."

The suggestion was made in the departments annual tobacco outlook report, which said "decreased exports from the 1938 crop seemed likely unless prices are materially lower."

Prospects for increased exports this year are favorable, the economists reported, and domestic consumption for the current year is encouraging.

Consumption of scrap chewing tobacco was reported increasing slightly.

The report carried a prediction cigarette consumption would establish new record levels in 1937.

"Prospects are for some further increase in cigarette and cigar consumption in 1938, but no significant change appears likely in consumption of chewing tobacco, smoking tobacco and snuff," economists reported.

They suggested a substantial increase in binder type tobacco and an approximation of the 1937 production for wrapper types.

Meanwhile the agriculture department said the outlook for peanut production in 1938 is not favorable.

Because of agricultural economic conditions, predicting another big drop, said the 1938-39 marketing situation would depend largely on the demand for peanuts for oil production.

A crushing outlet in the present season is unfavorable because of the low prices for competing oils and fats the report added.

President Mourns McDonald's Death

Washington, Nov. 10.—(AP)—President Roosevelt issued the following statement today on the death of Ramsay MacDonald, former Prime Minister of Great Britain.

"Because Ramsay MacDonald labored long and successful for the good of his fellowmen he will be mourned by those throughout the world who call themselves liberals. I am glad to have known him as a friend and I deeply regret his death."

New York, Nov. 10.—(AP)—President Herbert Hoover, friend of the late Ramsay MacDonald, said today the "United States has never had a more sincere well wisher among commanding statesmen, abroad than Mr. MacDonald x x x We in America must realize we have lost a good friend."

Final Rites Held For Mrs. Elizabeth Haydn

Funeral services were held at St. Paul's Episcopal church at 11 o'clock this morning for Mrs. Elizabeth Haydn, 74, who died at her home, 508 West Third street, after a critical illness of three weeks. Burial was in Cherry Hill cemetery beside her late husband.

Mrs. Haydn, a member of one of the county's old distinguished families, is survived by one daughter, one step-daughter, one step-son, two brothers and two sisters.

CHILDREN ARE HURT IN BUS-TRUCK CRASH

Wilmington, Nov. 10.—(AP)—Six Brunswick county school children were injured slightly Monday when a bus carrying them collided in a heavy fog with a lumber truck near the Northwest school.

Mary Robbins and Inez and Betty Peterson were admitted to hospitals here for treatment. The other injured were released after first-aid was administered.

Oscar Rich, 28, of Buwalda, driver of the truck, was cited for appearing in Southport recorder's court for alleged failure to have a license on the trailer part of the truck.

STUDENTS GET COVETED JOBS

ECTC Well Represented at Methodist Student Parley

East Carolina Teachers College was well represented in the Methodist Student Conference at Chapel Hill November 5 to 7, with Miss Louise Davis, Milwaukee, senior at the college, as retiring first vice-president, and Miss Sarah Ann Maxwell, Pink Hill, sophomore, elected as first vice-president for next year.

The College was represented also by a large group of Methodist students from the campus here, three of whom were Greenville boys: Neal Herring, Alton Johnston and Charles Musselwhite.

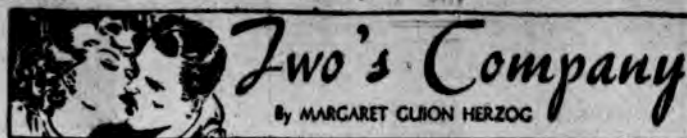

At the conference, the theme of which was "The Christian Issue Today" the principal speaker was Dr. Clarence Craig, of the School of Theology, Oberlin College.

Fifteen colleges and universities were represented among the 147 delegates.

Among the other students attending the conference were the following: Misses Ann Akers, Roanoke Rapids; Louise Davis, Milwaukee; Emily Brendle, Booneville; Marie Gregory, Angiers; Helen Gray Gillingham, Windsor; Inez Hubbard, Fayetteville; Eleanor and Frances Hardy, Maury; Sarah Ann Maxwell, Pink Hill; Lillian Parrish, Rocky Point; Beatrice Reeves, Warsaw; Iberia Roach, Hamlet; Rebecca Ross, Aurora; Elizabeth Stubbs, Pembroke; Margaret White, LaGrange; and Beulah White, Tyler.

With them was Miss Zoe Anna Davis, student worker for the Jarvis Memorial Church, who conducted one of the discussions at the conference.

J. B. Spilman and Charles Woolen also drove cars for the group.

The Characters
Nina is beginning to find happiness with David whom she married impulsively to escape her love for her stepfather.

Richard, the charming, well-tailored stepfather, is on a 5-month trip with his wife, after shamelessly talking Joe to Nina.

Honey, Nina's gay, youthful mother, is wild about Richard and traveling on doctor's orders.

David, a bright young auto salesman, adores Nina and strives to make her happy on his small salary.

Chapter 33
Summer in Town

IT HAD been a horrid early spring, and May made up for it for all she was worth. June too. The leaves on the trees standing off the dust, and hanging on to their first baby freshness as long as possible.

Nina, who had thought of the Park in past years, more as a place to walk off hips and hangovers, than anything else, began to love it and use it, like hundreds of other New Yorkers, chained to the city during the summer months.

Cordelia went on a cruise to Norway and Sweden. Horseface went to Bar Harbor. Tony Leeds, to the south of France. Everybody, that is, Nina's friends, fled the town. But still the wonderful finding of that new quiet happiness, that new peace, gave Nina all the vacation she needed.

July came on with a threat of the first real heat, but she didn't mind. The movies (if the money in the previous day's dear little compartment had not been used up) were gilt heavens of coolness; the dirty roofs across the court kept out the sun's hot rays; and her husband was an angel.

"Nina, sweet," said David, "you're looking marvellous..." as indeed she was.

iced tea. Gin rickeys. Salmon in aspic. Beer.

"I like New York, in the summer, darling."

"I like you."

David was a lover, who never grew weary of loving.

If they got along too, too beautifully on their $5 a day—and yesterday's compartment usually did have something left over in it, for today's amusements—David laid it all to Nina's superlative management.

Nina never realized just how she had got started using small amounts from her own allowance, when he had told her not to, that "they were so small" and made such a difference... it seemed the height of foolishness not to continue.

Ten dollars or so a week... what was that? Nothing. Nothing... and everything.

Hot And Sticky

AS JULY wore on, the heat became pretty intense and steady. Nina watched the girls in the street who went about in low-backed, sleeveless summer dresses and no stockings, as though they were in the country, and envied them. Why couldn't she risk over the traces, forget her foolish sense of what was correct for town, and be comfortable, too? But she couldn't.

She felt that the heat was beginning to get her—she had never been in the city before, after the first of June—but she held on. She went about in the daytime in pajamas, and stayed in the darkened apartment as much as she possibly could, so as to be fresh for David in the evenings; but it was becoming increasingly difficult to feel really fresh, ever.

Nina could play tennis, or golf in the broiling sun, become perfectly apoplectic, and then go for a swim and feel marvelous as fresh as a daisy and ready to dance all night. But this kind of heat was different.

She took money from her allowance and tried swimming in some of the city pools—the Shelton was the nearest—but it was not worth the effort. If she marketed and cleaned the apartment beforehand, she was so weary that she didn't give a darn about it when the time came to go; and if she swam first, the subsequent work took all the good results away.

She grew to loathe the hot pavements, and the sticky asphalt. One day, when her french heel sank into a particularly musty part of Lexington avenue, and her stockings foot came right out and plopped down into the sticky street... she burst into tears, she was so angry.

She kept telling herself to take it easy, but it didn't do any good.

David stopped telling her that she was looking marvelous, because she wasn't, and his own freshness and vitality were a constant source of irritation to her, poor soul, instead of a comfort.

One evening, when he thought she had had enough of a spell of cooking, he took her to Schraff's for dinner.

Nina was so excited at being confronted with a menu she hadn't prepared herself, that she couldn't make up her mind what to choose; and after much changing of orders, David said to the waitress: "As for me, I'll just have the leg of a chair, without Russian dressing!"... and sent the poor girl away in stitches.

And he took Nina to Long Beach, when he could, and helped with the dishes, when she would let him, and generally behaved like an angel... but had she ever said it was fun in New York in the summer?

God! She must have been crazy!

8:30 p. m.—Memorial Baptist choir meets for practice.

Mrs. J. H. Rose Hostess.
The Round Table was graciously entertained Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. J. H. Rose at her home on Tenth street.

Chrysanthemums of rare and delicate tints were used for decorations.

The doll committee reported that the royal group of dolls recently donated had been placed in the cases and until more space can be provided, the dolls will be exhibited in national and historical groups according to the nations prominent in the public eye at the time.

A message from Mrs. B. B. Sugg asking the cooperation of the club in celebrating Book Week was happily received, and as usual the Round Table will gladly cooperate in making the occasion a success.

Mrs. Howard McGinnis, chairman of the program committee, presented Mrs. E. B. Higgs, whose paper "Some Chinese Personalities" proved to be one of the best ever given in the club. Mrs. Higgs chose for discussion the renowned Soong family. This family whose progenitor was a seaman, left in Wilmington, N. C., later found by General Julian S. Carr, and educated at Trinity College, later at Vanderbilt, returned to his native land a Christian missionary. Out of his home have come sons and daughters whose brilliance of mind, financial, social, religious and military leadership, has astounded the civilized world.

The current topic "Peace Preparation" given by Mrs. W. B. Tighman, was timely and appropriate. Special guests adding pleasure to the afternoon were Mrs. Winnie T. Barnes of Wilson, Mrs. G. Frank Smith of Wisconsin, and Mrs. C. W. Hearn.

During the social hour the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Herbert Barker, served a salad course, with tea.—Reported.

Speaks To Bethel P. T. A.
Bethel, Nov. 10.—J. Nat Harrison, chairman of the Red Cross organization of Pitt county, was the principal speaker at the Bethel Parent-Teacher Association which met Thursday evening, November 4, in the high school auditorium.

Mr. Harrison used the Red Cross and its benefits as his topic for discussion. Pitt county has set two thousand dollars as its goal for the 1937 drive. O. H. Boettcher was placed in charge of the Bethel organization.

The number played by the Robersonville-Bethel high school band, under the direction of Mr. Akins of Robersonville, were an added attraction to the program.

The Bethel Parent-Teacher Association was reorganized in September when D. T. House, Jr., was elected president. The membership has increased greatly since the first meeting, and indications point toward a successful year.

P. T. A. Meeting.
The Pactolus P. T. A. met in the high school auditorium Friday evening with a large attendance. Mrs. J. P. Davenport, the president, presided. The devotional was led by Rev. Lowell F. Soderman of Greenville. Following were the reports of the officers, the reading of the minutes by the secretary, Mrs. C. J. Satterthwaite; treasurer's report, Miss Sydney Davenport, and reports from the representatives to the district meeting at Washington, who were Mrs. George Cherry, Mrs. Charlie Fleming, and Miss Sydney Davenport. Mr. Forrest, the principal, made a short talk and announced the school honor roll for the past month which was as follows:

First Grade—Clarence Brown, Dewey Fussel, Kenneth Gray, Billy Griffin, J. W. Lee, Samuel Manning, Robert Carraway, Polly Barrington, Hilda Johnston, Katherine Briley.

Second Grade—Myrtle Ruth Buck, Lila Crawford, Alton Butler, Dorothy Mae Dixon, Joe Briley.

Third Grade—Ellen Meeks.

Fourth Grade—Frances Gray, Ramona Gray, Everdene Johnston.

Fifth Grade—None.

Sixth Grade—Jasper Harper, Beulah Mae Tye.

Seventh Grade—Julia Dickinson, Grace Ward, Steve Johnson.

Eighth Grade—Ellen Barnhill.

Ninth Grade—Doris Carson, Lilly Mobley.

Tenth Grade—Hazel Harper.

Eleventh Grade—Aileen Johnston, Elsie Cherry.

Following the reports and announcements, Mrs. Davenport mentioned the fact that the Pactolus school had been allotted an extra teacher, then she introduced Miss Helen Taylor who fills that position.

Appreciation was shown Mrs. George Cherry, the teachers, and others, who worked so hard for the success of the P. T. A. booth at the county fair.

After all business was finished the audience enjoyed an entertainment given by Miss Koma Lee Owens' third grade and the glee club which is directed by Miss Thelma Taylor.

Protracted Meeting Closed.
The protracted meeting held at the Baptist Church by Rev. G. W. Davis, the pastor, and Rev. Lowell F. Soderman of Greenville, closed Sunday night. Twelve candidates were received for membership by baptism, one by letter, and two others came under the watchcare of the church.

Thanksgiving Salad.
Boil apples. Cool and stuff them with cranberry jelly. Then top them with cream cheese. Serve with French dressing. Mold cranberry jelly into a ring. When it is thoroughly chilled unmold. Fill the center with ripe olives and celery curls.

Flavor Changes.
Sprinkle grated cheese over hot clear soups; add a little chopped candied ginger to caramel puddings; combine carrots and mushrooms in cream sauce; add a few roasted peanuts to fruit salad; pour a little chili sauce over boiled cauliflower; top scalloped corn with cheese mixed with cracker crumbs.

Another Canape.
Cut bread into one and one-half inch cubes. Scoop a hollow in each cube and spread melted butter in the hollow and over the cube. Fill these buttered "cups" with a thick creamed mixture of crab, lobster, tuna, salmon or shrimp, then broil or bake until the canape is brown. Cool slightly before serving.

Laundrying Note.
Although bluing serves as a light bleach it will produce dingy looking clothes if it is not used carefully. Use the correct amount and mix it thoroughly with water before adding it to clothes.

Called To Danville, Va.
C. W. Shuff has been called to Danville, Va., on account of the illness of Mrs. Florence W. Shuff, his mother. Mrs. Shuff has been quite ill for the past eleven weeks.

TRANSLATED FROM THE RUSSIAN — Here is Helen Cookman's American version of the Russian Cossack coat, made of deep taupe wool with side fullness springing from unpressed pleats. It is fastened down the front with self-covered buttons and trimmed with a Russian stone marten scarf. A steep black toque goes with it.

Wedding anniversaries: First year, paper; second, calico; third, muslin; fourth, silk; fifth, wood; sixth, iron; seventh, copper eighth, bronze; ninth, pottery; tenth, tin; fifteenth, crystal; twentieth, china; twenty-fifth, silver; thirtieth, pearl thirty-fifth, coral; fortieth, ruby; forty-fifth, sapphire; fiftieth, gold fifty-fifth, emerald; seventy-fifth, diamond.

Canned peas may be filled with cream cheese and grape jelly and served with French dressing on crisp.

In stringing beads with very small holes first twist the cord tightly. Then dip the end into household cement or glue. When the cords are dry it will pass through the holes easily.

For cleaning tiles in the bathroom or kitchen use a soft cloth dipped in kerosene. Afterward, wash the tiles with warm water and then wipe them with a soft cloth.

To cut button holes first place the fabric over stout paper or a blotter. Then draw a chalk or pencil along that line with a razor blade.

Use for adhesive tape: To hold torn shoe linings in place; to fasten loose book leaves; to repair torn sheet music; to mend rubber hose, raincoats and overshoes.

Pie variety notes: Add half a cup of spiced diced peaches to mince meat for one pie; mix half a cup of orange marmalade into pumpkin pie filling.

Paint saver: Wash all soiled spaces on the kitchen walls before applying a fresh coat of paint.

Christmas shopping hint: Carry a list of the sizes of wearing apparel of each member of your family in your purse.

Cranberry jelly makes an effective garnish for fruit salads, croquettes, a la King combinations and roast. Cut the jelly into one-inch cubes.

YOUR ACCIDENT TOLL

Accidents account for about 30 per cent of Amerca's total motoring costs!

This is the estimate of National Safety Council statisticians. They figure that the expense of an average 100-mile driving trip is $2.60, divided as follows: Gasoline, $1.50; oil, 20 cents; tires, 19 cents; accidents, 71 cents.

The direct cost of last year's accidents, according to the same authorities, was $1,640,000,000. That is enough money to build or pave 550,000 miles of road, at a cost of $3,000 a mile—or to buy 1,640,000 automobiles worth $1,000 each.

It is statistically impossible to accurately determine the indirect costs of automobile accidents. But all experts agree that they are substantially greater than even the vast direct costs.

Here is a gigantic totally unnecessary drain on the nation's economic resources. And, bad as that is, it is nothing compared to the human waste that the reckless and incompetent driver causes. In 1936, traffic accidents killed almost 38,000 human beings. They injured 1,300,000 more—of whom a large number will eventually die as a result of the accidents. Blasted careers, parentless children, ruined homes—these are but three of the consequences of a heavy foot on the throttle, a drunk at the wheel, an incompetent in control of a lethal machine weighing thousands of pounds.

We are now entering the winter season, in which the accident rate has always risen in the past. The most dangerous driving days are just ahead, with rain, ice, snow and early darkness to add to the always-present hazards. Yet it is within our power to revoke precedent, and make winter a safe season. All that is needed is the cooperation of each motorist and pedestrian. Do you part! — (Industrial News Review).

IT'S ODD But It's Science

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE

New York — Scientists seeking a tailor-made air to rival nature are playing with a new toy, meta-stable-oxygen.
"This," says Dr. Robt. F. James of the Westinghouse Lamp Co., "is the name of a little understood change caused by the passage through air of ultra-violet rays. The phenomenon is believed related to the process of ozone formation and is thought to impart to the air an energy state that causes a favorable physiological reaction. In other words, the something which gives a lift to the air we breathe.
Meta-stable-oxygen follows on the heels of another air state attributed to ions, electrified particles of air supposed to be most numerous out in the open.

He came to Pitt County first as principal of the Edvoir school, but now is beginning his second term at Chitied, which has the largest rural school in the County. He is chairman of the Pitt County Principals' club.

Washington Daybook

By Preston Grover

Washington—It seems only fair to let people know that the Rev. Gerald L. K. Smith is planning to come back into the public eye after a period of 12 months or so outing which not a great deal was heard of him.

He signaled his return to the fighting political and social front by tentatively sticking his thumb into the New York City election arena a day or so before the votes were to be counted, and then swung southward to Washington. Here he called the press to his elbow to announce his message.

Mr. Smith used to be one of the many tight hand men of Huey Long in Louisiana. After Long's death, he fought with millions of spoken words during the last campaign on behalf of "social justice" and pointed out the dangers he felt would arise from the re-election of President Roosevelt.

There is nothing pretentious about Mr. Smith. He is of medium height, physically active and no heavier than his 40-odd years would justify. His hair is brown, his eyes smoky blue and his nose of the out thrust cantilever construction.

He did not welcome the newspaper reporters in pajamas and blue silk dressing gown as Huey Long did on occasion, but instead wore the dark suit and "sensible" overalls suitable to his ministerial calling.

A Large-Scale Budget
He told the half dozen reporters who sat on the bed and chairs of his room that when Father Coughlin of Detroit abandoned his radio speaking on request of higher authority an opportunity had come to him for a great vocal evangelism. Mr. Smith has signed up the 50 or more stations he said once made up the Father Coughlin chain and plans to deliver 23 Sunday afternoon lectures beginning in mid-November.

He has no "angel" to finance him in the undertaking but expects public contributions to support it and him and the staff necessary to carry on. The contract for the Coughlin radio system, he said, called for a payment

SHORT SHOTS

By HENRY AVERILL

Raleigh, Nov. 10.—Robert R. Reynolds, North Carolina's junior senator, today comes back to the state for a flying visit before the special session of Congress opens next Monday.

"Our Bob" who commented "I need the exercise" when he was told of Frank Hancock's announcement of opposition, will undoubtedly put the rest of this week to good use in repairing any fences he may have noticed are a little out of whack. Bob can cover more territory, see more people, and snap more voters on the back in a given time than almost any living politician.

He has preceded his visit with a verbal blast for the press, in which he puts himself on record as for a Congress session of "reassurance to the country."

Says he: "In brief, every effort will be made in the special session to make it one of reassurance. There is no doubt that business and industry are moving in uncertainty, labor strife is having an effect and peace-making efforts are of concern to everyone."

Your correspondent spied R. Bruce Etheridge, director of the State Department of Conservation and Development, striding down Fayetteville street, shotgun at exactly the proper "right shoulder arm" angle. Wonder which war Mr. Etheridge was heading for—Chinese or Spanish?

There's no news to be had out of the Department of Agriculture these days. Louis H. Wilson, publications editor, has announced his approaching wedding, December 15. Louis is way up in the clouds and can't be concerned with such mundane matters as news items.

How much, or rather how little do you know about North Carolina? Recently your correspondent was asked who are the Representatives from Tar Heel and he admitted with considerable reluctance, he could offhand recall only nine of the eleven.

Then someone suggested trying to name all the counties of the state (for your information there are an even one hundred of them) and your correspondent was stuck after listing eighty-nine.

Try these and see how you like them and how you come out.
Mrs. J. B. Spilman, whose name was used by a Raleigh political commentator in speculating over possible feminine entries in the 1940 governor's race, has declared herself emphatically "out."

Governor Clyde R. Hoey is in the far West of the state today. He will speak at the dedication of the State sanatorium at Black Mountain and tomorrow he will make an Armistice Day address at Asheville. Incidentally, the Governor will be one of the chief executives from the Southeast who will confer with President Roosevelt in Warm Springs, Georgia, on Friday, November 26.

GREENVILLE, N. C.

MR. AND MRS. CAR OWNER,
GREENVILLE AND PITT COUNTY.

Ladies and Gentlemen:
Since our business was established more than 70 years ago, we have been continually trying to render the folks of Greenville and Pitt County superior automotive service and accommodations. Our reputation in the community is established on sound business principles which we have been improving as business progresses.

Tomorrow we are inaugurating a new kind of service which, we feel, will be a real accommodation and truly big aid to the people of our community.

For our patrons, and for the motoring public in general, we are opening, officially, tomorrow the new Puroil Station at 9th and Evans Streets, which will be known as the Flanagan Service Station.

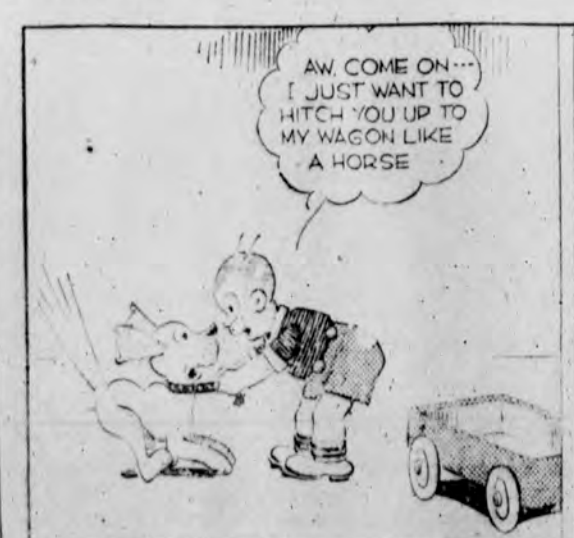

At this station you will find service and hospitality abounding. In addition to the regular services which you ordinarily expect at a Filling Station, you will find many extra conveniences—one of which will be a full-time, first rate mechanic, who will make prompt and efficient repairs to your car at all times. You will find the most modern equipment and service which can be put into a Service Station at the present time.

For the first few days we are giving away a number of souvenirs, which we hope you will be fortunate enough to receive. So plan to visit the station at once. The attendants will be glad to show you around and explain all things in detail. We especially invite the ladies to inspect our modern facilities and the real beauty of our Station. To visit the station at night and see the new illuminating effects will be a treat in itself.

If you are one of our patrons at our central garage, we feel that you will want to take advantage of this new service and we will look forward to greeting you at our new station at 9th and Evans.

Respectfully,
JOHN FLANAGAN BUGGY CO.

Greenies To Meet Goldsboro In Armistice Day Tilt Here

TILT TO START AT 2 O'CLOCK

Line-ups Announced By Coaches of Two Elevens

Coach Herman Dally sent the Flying Phantoms through a heavy practice yesterday perfecting several new plays in preparation for tomorrow's game with Goldsboro high school at Third Street Stadium. The kickoff is at 2 o'clock.

In scrimmage yesterday the varsity looked better on offense than defense. The line upped up wide holes for the backs to go through for long gains. Futrell and Harris elicited off numerous gains. Tyn-dall, Tucker, and Hodges went through a long punting drill, endeavoring to find a kicker to replace Parrish.

Local fans will have an opportunity to see some of the finest high school players in the state in action tomorrow. Leading the Earth quake backfield is Dick Daughtry, a swivel-hipped halfback, whom Goldsboro fans are boasting for All-State honors. In Captain Seep Hollowell, Coach Norris Jeffrey has one of the best high school passers in the state. He has thrown 7 touchdowns passes this year. Pate a hard plunging fullback takes care of the kicking.

The Phantoms have some fine backs of their own. William Harris, heavy 185 pound fullback, has been doing some good line-cracking in early games. Baxter Clark, speedy little quarterback, is a fine broken-field runner.

Top performer in the Green line is Captain Howard Hodges, one of the finest ends in the state. Wayne Tucker, hard charging guard, is the power in the center of the line. Hubert Roberts, left end, has shown some fine play also.

"Gethat" Jernigan and Kannon, earthquake guards, have done the heavy duty in the Goldsboro line. Greenville Goldsboro

Probable lineup:

- Roberts Left End Snypes
- Kittrell Left Tackle Dawson
- Nobles or Joyner Right Guard Jernigan
- Williams Center Crone
- Tucker Right Guard Kannon
- R. Clark or Swain Right Tackle Thippen
- Hodges Right End Pearson
- B. Clark Quarterback Hollowell
- Futrell Left Half Daughtry
- Tyndall Right Half Potter
- Harris or Henderson Fullback Pate

Local Negro Team To Meet Kinston

The Kinston Negro High school will bring to Greenville tomorrow one of the best high school teams in Eastern Carolina. The visitors boast of having won from Wilmington 25-0 their first game of the season.

It will be the toughest game of the season for the locals, his will be the last game for the locals until Thanksgiving when they will meet the Washington High School of Washington, N. C.

The game will get underway at 3 P. M. at the new fair ground. Probable line up for Greenville Industrial High School:

- L. E. A. Smith; L. T. R. Payton; L. G. B. Gibbs; Center, Chas. Eston; R. G. Wm. Jones; R. T. S. Payton; R. E. R. Mays; Backs, Geo. Mays; T. Foreman; P. Daniel; A. Hill.

ANDY BERSHAK TO SPEAK AT ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM

Chapel Hill, Nov. 10—Handy Andy Bershak, North Carolina's star end and foremost contender for All-American honors on the football field, will turn his talents toward a more scholarly purpose when he appears as one of the principal speakers at an Armistice Day program to be held at the University Thursday morning.

Bershak, who is an honor student at the University of North Carolina as well as being one of the nation's best ends, will share the speaker's platform with three other student speakers in a demonstration for peace to be put on by the joint Peace Committee of the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A.

Other speakers on the program will be John MacPhee, Brooklyn; and Anne Guerry Perry, Columbia S. C. The committee is chairmanned by Miss Perry and Ralph Miller, San Antonio, Texas. Scott Hunter, of Hendersonville, president of the Y. M. C. A. will open the meeting, and Miller will introduce the speakers.

CAROLINA OUT ON TOP IN FIRST DOWN RAINING

Chapel Hill, Nov. 10—Carolina has amassed more first downs this season than Duke, although it has been defeated and tied once while Duke has only a slatemate against its impressive record of six victories. The Tar Heels have tallied 93 first downs against 84 for Duke. Duke has the edge on defense. Blue Devil opponents have moved the big stick 55 times compared to 66 for Tar Heel foes. Carolina and Duke will clash at Durham Saturday renewing one of Dixie's most colorful and keener rivalries. They first met in 1888.

STARS GALORE TO SEE ACTION

State Hopes to Make It Interesting For Jaspers

Raleigh, Nov. 10—There will be football stars to spare running around on Ebbets Field in Brooklyn Saturday afternoon when State College and Manhattan clash there for the third straight year.

Coach Doc Newton has done a swell coaching job in his first year at State and his club led by the great Eddie "Little Buzzer" Berlinski, the amazing Art Rooney, the courageous Louie Mark, the big Jess Tatum, and a host of other good players, hope to make it an interesting ball game for the Jaspers.

Coach Chick Meehan has been at the Manhattan school for a number of years and this season has come up with one of his best elevens—a team that defeat powerful Detroit, 7-0, last week and Georgetown, 20-12, the week before.

Manhattan has a fine array of good ball players, headed by Capt. Jack Daly, considered one of the East's best ends. Then there is Vic Fusia, a senior who has worried State for two years; Al Caruso, as speedy a back as any team would care to have; and Tubby Savage.

The Jaspers have a sophomore back by the name of Joe Mitchell who they will put against State's first year star—Art Rooney. Both are triple threats.

The Berlinski-Fusia battle will be one of the highlights of the game. Both boys are seniors and each is a star of great ability. Berlinski is ranked among the great backs of the year.

Berlinski and Rooney are not expected to start the game, out Coach Newton will have them ready to go in on a moments notice. They are dangerous backs every second they are in the game.

The Jaspers will find Louie Mark one of the fastest centers to face them this fall and Jess Tatum one of the hardest blockers. Mark and Tatum have paced State's forwards all season.

State fears Manhattan, but expects to be in good shape for the game. Herman Hickman, State's line coach who has scouted the Jaspers, says Chick Meehan has one of the best second half clubs he has seen.

BURNETTE AND HACKNEY EACH HAVE 9 PLACEKICKS

Chapel Hill, Nov. 10—When Carolina and Duke, two of Dixie's keenest rivals clash Saturday at Durham in one of the outstanding games in the nation, they will be protected in the department of placekicking. Tom Burnette, 183, Tar Heel senior halfback; and Elmore Hackney, 165, triple Blue Devil field general, each have nine placekicks. Hackney booted four extra points in Duke's 67 to 0 victory over Wake Forest Saturday. Burnette converted twice in the Tar Heel's 26 to 0 win over Davidson.

Carolina - Duke Contests Almost Always Exciting

Chapel Hill, Nov. 10—Approach of the 23rd meeting between North Carolina and Duke, two of the nation's foremost rivals, in Durham Saturday at 2 o'clock brings back vivid memories of many colorful, exciting, and hard fought games of bygone days. Perhaps the games of 1923, 1932, 1934 stand out among the most gruelling ever staged between the two institutions. Those of 1925, 1929, 1933, 1935, and 1936 are examples of vast scoring power surpassed by one or the other of these ancient rivals. These games are just one of the many reasons why the Duke-Carolina meeting is a "football natural."

Carolina's football machine stepped into high gear in 1920 and 1929 and gave its neighbor the two most decisive lickings in the 49-year-old feud. The 1925 Tar Heels whitewashed the Blue Devils 41 to 0. The brilliant 1929 University outfit second highest scoring team in the entire nation, swamped the Dukes 48 to 7.

Varsity Team To Play Stars

Game at College Called For 7:45 O'clock Tonight

The varsity team of 36-37 will meet the newly chosen all star team tonight at 7:45 in the Campus Building auditorium. The all star team was chosen Monday night, after a week's participation in the college intramural tournament. Players who were thought to be the most outstanding and possess the most promising qualities in the field of basketball were chosen.

Constituting the all star team from Cotton are: Merv Frances Iwin, forward, Shelby; Virginia Woods, forward, Hurdle Mills; Nell Newsom, forward, Hendersonville; Grace Smith, guard, Fuquay Springs.

Fleming Myrtle Hopkins, forward, Plymouth; Sadie Hocutt, forward, Zebulon; Eunice Griggs, forward, Wadesboro; Margaret Trexler, guard, Wadesboro; Martha Redford, guard, Pikeville; Mildred Briselev, guard, Bethel; Estelle Edwards, guard, Newport.

Jamis Ruth Parker, guard, George Wilson, none.

The game tonight will probably be a fast and close contest as nearly all of last year's varsity team is back. Merv Frances Iwin, forward, Shelby; Louise Martin, forward, Jamesville; "Mickey" Blanton, forward, Roxboro; Geraldine Tyson, forward, St. Paul's.

... ARE LEADING UNC-DUKE SCORERS

Chapel Hill, Nov. 10—Leading scorers on the Carolina-Duke teams which clash Saturday at Durham in one of the nation's outstanding games this week are Elmore Hackney of the Blue Devils and Crowell Little of the Tar Heels. Both Hackney and Little are quarterbacks, triple-threaters and seniors. In seven games this season Hackney has scored six touchdowns and nine extra points for a total of 45 points compared to 30 points and five touchdowns for Little.

College Intra-mural Basketball Brought To Close

The intra-mural basketball tournament, which has been in progress for the past week at the college, ended last night with Fleming and Jarvis dormitories tying for honors in the number of games won. Fleming held the title for high scoring, scoring 104 points; Jarvis scoring 74. Wilson 57, and Cotten, having the lowest score, scoring 44 points.

Topping the list of girls who scored the highest number of points were Myrtle Hopkins from Fleming dormitory, who scored a total of 38 points, followed by Sadie Hocutt, also from Fleming, running a close 2nd of 36 points. Other high scorers were Nell Newsom, Cotten dormitory, 32 points, and Eunice Griggs, Fleming dormitory, 30 points. Honorable mention went to Virginia Woods and Frances Nance, each scoring 20 points.

Rating of the games was as follows:

	Won	Lost	Tied	Per Ct.
Fleming	5	1	0	.833
Jarvis	5	1	0	.833
Wilson	1	4	1	.260
Cotten	0	5	1	.000

The young man you see in the above picture—Tom Burnette, Tar Heel halfback—will bear close watching Saturday when North Carolina and Duke clash for the 23rd time at Durham in renewal of a 49-year-old rivalry. Burnette, 185-pound senior halfback, is the leading Tar Heel ground-gainer this season with a 7.4 average per try. He has gained a total of 302 yards in 41 rushes. He comes from Tarboro.

The Dukes have pretty well avenged the disastrous beatings of 1925 and 1929. In 1933 they rode high, wide and handsome to win 21 to 0. In 1935 they blasted Carolina's national championship hope with an impressive 25 to 0 victory. Last season they walloped the Tar Heels 27 to 7. But in number of victories Carolina is still leading 12 to 8. Two games have ended in ties.

The 1928 game was one of the most exciting. Duke jumped into the lead in the second quarter when Halfback Bill Murray and Fullback Jan Jankoski paced a 55 yard drive climaxed by Jankoski's three yard buck. Carolina squarred accounts in the third quarter when Chuck Erickson, now varsity coach at the University, broke off right tackle for 35 yards and touchdown. The Tar Heels went pass-minded in the later stages of the game with Jim Mastner tossing them to all sectors of Kenan Stadium. Mastner passed 3 yards to Julian Fieger for the winning score. The Dukes took to the sky often with repeated success in the closing moments but were finally stopped on the 32. The final score was 14 to 7.

Duke edged out a 7 to 0 decision in 1932. The Blue Devils recovered a Tar Heel fumble on the 20 in the first quarter. Chuck Collins, head Tar Heel coach at that time, got excited. He raced out on the field and protested vigorously. Collins' tactics cost the Tar Heels a 15-yard penalty. Duke scored in two plays. The teams battled evenly the rest of the way but the damage had been done.

The 1934 game was one of the most breath-taking ever played between the two institutions. On this occasion the underdog Tar Heels won 7 to 0. Late in the third quarter, Don Jackson, another of Carolina's finest aerial craftsmen, shot a booming pass to End Dick Buck who raced 51 yards before he was downed on the 10. Buck reached the 20 with a swarm of Blue Devils in his way. He dragged them all 10 yards and in the process lost his jersey. Three plays later Jackson scored a another bomb at Buck and he raced 6 yards for the score. Duke fought gamely all the way but was beaten by those two passes.

Orvil Newby, forward, Hertford; Davis Hollowell, guard, Goldsboro; Hi-La Stephenson, guard, Kelfry; Josephine Jackson, guard, Dunn; Eva McMillan, guard, Dunn.

Motorists Paying Large Portion Of State's Tax Load

Proportion Paid by North Carolina Motor Vehicle Owners Higher Than National Average

Raleigh, Nov. 10.—North Carolina's motor vehicle owners pay a much higher percentage of the state's taxes than do motor vehicle owners as a class throughout the nation. If a comparison between figures just sent out by the National Highways Users Conference and the Department of Revenue's collections for the first four months of the current fiscal year is a true comparison.

The department's figures show that for the first four months of the fiscal year total tax collections of all sorts reached $21,328,657.20, of which no less than $9,088,562.67 was collected through taxes of one sort or another on motor vehicles owned by their owners or operators. This makes motor vehicle collections about 42 per cent of the total collected from all sources.

Only one-sixth of all the money gathered in taxes by all local, state and federal units of government is obtained through levies upon ownership and use of motor vehicles, the conference reports.

According to the report, motor vehicle owners and users bear a total "ultimate consumer" burden of at least $1,750,000,000 in levies placed annually upon automotive transportation in all its phases.

Annual tax receipts from all governmental units are estimated at $10,200,000,000.

Establishing the annual total of direct and indirect taxes at an average of $60 per motor vehicle, the report says:

"The actual average unit value of each of the 28,000,000 vehicles in the United States is only $190.08, according to the American Automobile Association. Ninety per cent of the automobile owners of the country have an annual income of less than $30 per week."

HIGH POINT MAN GIVEN 4 MONTHS ROAD TERM

High Point, Nov. 10.—Lindo Luther, 29 of High Point, yesterday in Guilford Superior court was sentenced by Judge Sam J. Ervin Jr. to serve four months on the roads upon his conviction on a charge of larceny from the person. Luther pleaded guilty to $12 belonging to N. A. McDonald last September 24.

MANY PERSONS ON PROBATION

State System Works Smoothly in First Stages

Raleigh, Nov. 10.—North Carolina will have between 1,500 and 2,000 persons on probation within the next year, if the rate set in the probation system's first week of operation is continued.

Reports to the office of J. Harry Sample, probation director, show that 29 men and 3 women were given probationary sentences in the first week of November. Two of the districts showed no cases for the week and no report was received from another.

Districts from which the probationers were drawn were: First and Fifth Judicial 3; Second and Third 1; Seventh and Tenth 5; Twelfth and Fifteenth 10; Thirteenth and Fourteenth 2; Sixteenth and Seventeenth 1; Eighteenth, Nineteenth and Twentieth 7. The three women probationers were reported by Mrs. Charles Hutchins of the western district. Fourth and Sixth, Eighth and Ninth reported no cases of probation during the week. No report was received from the district officer in charge of Judicial Districts Eleven and Twenty-one.

"I am greatly pleased with the start we have made," said Mr. Sample. "We have received so far the finest sort of cooperation from the 121 judges of the state with whom we have to deal."

"I believe that probation in the state is going to prove a great success, but I want it understood that we do not claim it is going to wipe out all crime. It isn't. Too, we are going to have some cases where a probationer goes wrong, chops somebody up or commits some other horrible form of crime."

"Then we are going to hear a squawk about probation. We can't make the system perfect, but we do intend to do our best."

Mr. Sample pointed out that North Carolina's is the first system ever to start out fully developed over the entire state. In other states he said, probation started in the individual counties.

STATE OFFERS GAME COURSE

Four Studying Game Management At Carolina College

Raleigh, Nov. 10.—There are four folks in North Carolina who are going to know a lot about "game management."

This quartet (composed of one junior and three freshmen) is studying all about how to propagate game on their future farms. They are members of the class in game management at North Carolina State College here—a class which was originally established as far back as 1928, but which ran into such tough sledding during the depression that it was discontinued.

It was the first of its kind in the United States and so impressed with its possibilities were State College heads that it has again been installed, to become one of five such courses in the country.

Institution of the course is the result of the recognition of the close relationship existing between the re-development of the forest regions and the welfare of the animal life of the forest.

With this in mind, Professor Ross O. Stevens and his colleagues set to work mapping out a curriculum. The courses in the curriculum are, in general, composed of botany and zoology courses for the most part.

According to Dr. Z. P. Metcalf, training in the course presents opportunity for work in the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the State game department and with a private game preserves. The outstanding qualifications for success in the work are a love of the wide open spaces and a real interest in the living things of the forest.

DUKE HAS ADVANTAGE IN BOTH SCORING RESPECTS

Chapel Hill, Nov. 10.—When Carolina and Duke clash Saturday in the renewal of their 49-year old Dixie football classic, the Blue Devils will have an edge in score, both offensively and defensively. In seven games, to date, the Blue Devils have amassed a total of 202 points against 25 for the opposition compared to Carolina's 119 against 33 for her opponents. Duke's biggest score of the season came last Saturday when the Blue Devils whitewashed Wake Forest 67 to 0. Carolina's highest 1937 score also came against the Deacons, 28 to 0.

MARINE EXHIBIT OPENS TO PUBLIC

A specially built railroad car over 10 1/2 feet in length, was shunted on to a siding near the Norfolk-Southern Depot this morning, and a crowd of attendants worked quickly to put the Mammoth Marine Hippodrome in shipshape condition.

When everything was in readiness, Captain David J. Barnett ordered the gang plank in place, and the show—a congress of strange biological specimens—was opened to the people of Greenville.

The collection of oddities, both living and dead, are displayed amid an atmosphere that is definitely nautical. Capt. Barnett, 78 year old whaling man, who has spent the last 50 years of his life traveling the "seven seas", lends a salty tang to the surroundings. His lectures are interesting and have been well attended during his performances so far.

"Colossus" is a 68-ton sea monster, over 55 feet in length. He lies among other strange specimens of deep sea life in an exhibit which forms the center of the marine show.

Other features of the giant show are "Serpentina," the living mermaid, nature's strangest enigma, and it is up to the public to say whether she is human or a fish. The exhibit car will remain here today only, and will be open to the public from noon until 10 p. m.
