Are Ready for Prospective Major Battle

Shanghai, April 19. — (AP)—As a prelude to a grand new offensive in South Shantung province, where they have met with severe reverses, 6,000 Japanese reinforcements have arrived on the Yi river, four miles from Lini.

They fought their way overland, despite constant Chinese harassing from Tsingtao, Shantung port 130 miles away, airline distance.

Lini rapidly was becoming the center of a battle which military experts said might develop into a major engagement of the nine-month-old undeclared war.

Another Japanese column was reported sweeping to the southeast of Lini.

Chinese sources said five fresh Japanese divisions had arrived in Shantung from Japan and Formosa, while 26 transports were unloading munitions.

Japanese aircraft carriers were reported stationed off the Shantung coast, presumably for a concerted air attack.

On their part, Chinese commanders declared they were ready to put 1,000,000 soldiers into the battle.

Tokyo, April 19.—(AP)—With what political circles described as "strategic politeness" in Japan's inner chamber cabinet struggle, Premier Prince Konohe has apologized for an illness that kept him from his home during the crisis.

The first statement since reports he was threatening to resign as a result of army and navy pressure for drastic military measures to deal with the conflict in China was made yesterday.

Gives Self Up In Cumberland Death

Fayetteville, April 19.—(AP)—Cumberland County Sheriff N. O. McGeachy said today Glendene Odum of St. Pauls, in Robeson county, surrendered last night after officers had sought him all day for questioning in connection with the death last week of J. B. Baumgardner, 55-year-old carpenter.

The sheriff said Odum was taken immediately to Robeson county, where he was being held on a coroner's warrant charging murder, pending an inquest.

Baumgardner reported to officers last April 2 that one of two hitchhikers attacked him after they had asked him to drive them to St. Pauls.

Last week a head injury he had received began to trouble him again. He lapsed into a coma and died soon afterwards of what physicians said was effects of a blow.

Three persons were taken into custody three days ago and questioned about Baumgardner's death, the sheriff said, adding that they were still being held.

Declines To Free
Accused Murderer

Smithfield, April 19.—(AP)—Judge Luther Hamilton declined in Johnson Superior court today to issue a writ of habeas corpus for the release under bond of James Tharrington, indicted yesterday for murder in the death of John McMillan.

Superior Court Clerk H. V. Rose said the case had been continued, probably until the June term.

McMillan was fatally shot March 31 at Selma.

Solicitor Claude Canady said he would press for a first degree murder conviction when the case comes to trial.

for Conference

The twenty-sixth annual session of the Woman's Missionary Society convened at Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church this afternoon for a three-day session, with the president, Mrs. A. M. Gates of Durham, presiding.

Delegates began arriving this morning from all of Eastern North Carolina. The delegates represent an organization of 12,000 members within the Methodist churches of the North Carolina Conference. The announced purpose of the organization is to build Christian citizenship around the world. For this reason, officials declared, "the scope of the work embraces various activities in our own country and in China, Japan, Korea, Africa, Europe, Mexico, Brazil and Cuba."

In 1935 a similar session was held in the local Methodist church.

The first session of the current meeting was called to order at two o'clock.

Mrs. Elizabeth Lamb, chairman of Spiritual Life Groups, conducted the worship service, followed by a solo by Mrs. J. A. Karsnak.

The welcome on behalf of Jarvis Memorial Church was given by Mrs. Hortense Moyer; the response for the conference by Mrs. J. M. Ormond of Durham.

The president, Mrs. Gates, who will preside through the entire session, delivered her annual message, followed by reports of the following conference officers: Vice-president, (Continued on Page Two)

RAIL DISPUTE WON BY YOUNGCommon Stockholders Rally Behind
C & O Chiefs

Richmond, Va., April 19.—(AP)—One per cent of the common stock of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway rallied to the support today of the C and O management, which Robert R. Young is fighting to maintain in office.

The management had solicited proxies for the common stock to be counted at the regular stockholders' meeting today and the official canvasses announced 41.68 per cent had responded to the solicitation.

Stock not held by the public is owned 39.8 per cent by the Chesapeake corporation, and 3.3 per cent by the Allegheny corporation, parent holding company of Chesapeake corporation. This stock was not represented in the vote today.

The stockholders, after announcement of the vote, adjourned the meeting until May 10 upon motion of Young.

Lightning Strikes In Falkland Community

Falkland citizens were almost frightened out of their wits about 7 o'clock last night when a bolt of lightning struck in the center of the town, but no damage was experienced.

As told by one witness:

"A loud clatter of thunder was heard and a ball of fire came down the highway. The wet pavement was dried by the bolt. One woman was put to bed because of the shock and jar, but she was up today and none the worse for her experience."

Part of the town was in darkness for a time after the bolt.

Roberson To Deliver
Talk on Salesmanship

W. R. Roberson of Washington, will deliver the talk on salesmanship at the vocational course to be held at the high school library tonight.

Mr. Roberson was scheduled to have delivered the talk at a previous class, but was prevented from coming due to last-minute developments. It was definitely stated, however, that he would be here tonight.

Following his talk on salesmanship, individual courses in textile testing, business English and display and advertising will be held.

Officials Of City Court
Required Enter Primary

W. A. Darden and Harry Brown, judge and solicitor, respectively, of the newly created City Recorder's court, are required to run for office in the Greenville May 2 elections, under a ruling handed down by Attorney General A. A. F. Seawell, it was revealed at a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen last night.

The attorney general decided that the court attaches could serve only until the next election under appointment. They were appointed by the Board after the court was voted on at an election held March 28.

The attorney general's order does not include the clerk, a position to which W. C. Harris was appointed. The board last night named H. B. Drum deputy clerk.

ANNOUNCE FOR COUNTY POSTSClark For Treasurer;
Porter and Cannon
For Board

Announcement of candidates for three county positions today added speculation to the political situation in Pitt.

The three to announce were Amos O. Clark of Greenville, for treasurer; D. S. Porter of Simpson for commissioner from the fourth district; and Thad J. Cannon of the Ayden community, for commissioner from the fifth district.

Mr. Clark is the first publicly to announce for the office of treasurer, now held by J. Vance Perkins, although the incumbent is expected to seek re-election.

Mr. Clark is a native of Pitt county, having been born in Belvoir township. When he was only a child, however, his father, the late W. L. Clark, moved to Black Jack. After finishing school he accepted a position with J. O. Proctor and Brothers of Grimesland, as bookkeeper and remained with the firm until the owners retired from business. He later accepted a position with Quinn-Miller and Company and has been there for the past 15 years. Mr. Clark is well known throughout the county. He has taken an active part in church work and civic affairs.

Mr. Cannon will oppose Frank Kilpatrick, incumbent, who already has announced for re-election from the fifth district.

Mr. Porter, a merchant and farmer of Simpson, was the third to seek the office of commissioner from the fourth district, the incumbent, Roy T. Cox, and Grover Smith previously having announced.

Missing

Andrew Carnegie Whitfield, (above), nephew of the late Andrew Carnegie, steel magnate, mysteriously disappeared after leaving Roosevelt Field, N. Y., on a short plane flight. Later a steamship officer said he was seen aboard the Red Star liner Westernland just before the vessel sailed from New York.

DELAYS ACTION
IN TEEL CASEDecision on Parole
Petition Promised
During Week

Judge J. Paul Frizzelle, presiding in Superior court here, this morning withheld action on a motion by Judge Albion Dunn, private prosecutor for the Pitt County ABC board, that a capias be issued for Medius Teel and that he be turned over to proper authorities for service of a six months' sentence, following his conviction at the November term of court of operating a tourist camp for immoral purposes.

Judge Frizzelle withheld action after D. M. Williford, attorney for Teel, asked that his ruling be delayed until Friday at noon, and agreed to have Teel in court and surrender him unless the defendant was granted a parole in the meantime.

It was explained that Commissioner of Paroles Edwin M. Gill had agreed to wire the court his decision on the application for parole the week.

It was revealed in Raleigh Saturday that Commissioner Gill had under consideration a petition for a parole for the Pitt county man and "had heard both sides of the application."

The parole petition was said by Gill to have been approved by trial solicitor D. M. Clark, as well as by Judge J. H. Clement, who sentenced Teel, and Judge H. A. Grady, who issued a capias for the arrest of Teel after his attorneys had failed to perfect an appeal to the Supreme court. After Teel was brought into court it was agreed to withhold action until this term.

The parole petition set forth that never before had Teel been convicted of a serious crime and he had signed a written agreement to remove the "offensive" cabins and never again operate such a place.

HALT WORK AT
FLINT PLANTSClosed When UAWA
Resumes Collection
Of Dues

Flint, Mich. April 19.—(P) For the second time in as many days Fisher Body plant number one and the assembly line of the Buick Motor car plant were closed today when the UOWA renewed their dues-collecting drive at the body company gates.

About 3,700 workers of the Fisher plant and 1,500 Buick assembly line workers were sent home. The Buick management said 600 additional workers would be out of work if the Fisher plant did not resume body production within two days.

Police estimated today's dues-collecting picket line at the Fisher plant at 1,200. A small detail of police was on hand. All workers who did not have credentials were turned back at the gates.

A number of fights occurred but no one was injured seriously. Union workers of the Chevrolet plant here and those of the Buick factory, both General Motors units, are to take a strike vote Wednesday because of disputes involving seniority rights and grievance adjustments.

Water transportation for Greenville and this vicinity was a step nearer a reality today as a result of inclusion of the Tar river project in the rivers and harbors bill approved by the House of Representatives Appropriations Committee yesterday.

Of the 95 million dollars to be appropriated for rivers and harbors

The following telegram was received by The Reflector today from Congressman Lindsay C. Warren:

"Am pleased to inform you that I have secured budget approval of three hundred twenty eight thousand dollars for the improvement of Tar River and it is included in lump sum appropriation for Rivers and Harbors which will pass the House this week. This project was only passed by Congress last August and I am securing this appropriation at least three years before it was expected. This news should be very pleasing to the people of Pitt county and if the bill goes through I am hoping that contract can be let within the next six or eight months."

work during the fiscal year beginning July 1, $328,000 will be for the purpose of clearing a 12 foot channel 100 feet wide in Tar River between Washington and Hardee's creek near this city and for a turning basin 1,500 feet above the mouth of the creek. This was the largest of the five new projects for North Carolina included in the bill.

The efforts to procure water transportation for Greenville has been under way for several years and local citizens who have been active in the matter, today expressed delight that the matter had been included in an appropriation bill so quickly after being approved by the board of engineers. When the project was proposed several years ago it received an unfavorable report from the district engineers and would have been a dead issue had it not been for Congressman Lindsay Warren who was successful in getting the matter reopened for hearing. The project in its original form sought the waterway all the way to the city but investigation by the engineers revealed that the great cost to overcome difficulties at Red Banks just below Greenville would cause them to make an unfavorable report so the request was changed to make the terminal of the channel in Hardee's creek three miles below the city. In this form the matter finally was approved by the War Department Board of Engineers about a year ago but even then it was anticipated.

ITALY - FRANCE
TO OPEN TALKSWill Not Wait for Appointment of Rome
Ambassador

Paris, April 19.—(AP)—Italy and France decided today to undertake friendship talks without waiting for appointment of an ambassador to Rome and a source close to the French foreign office said the question of extending "international cooperation" to include the United States and Britain would be studied.

Inclusion of Italy and France would be discussed during the visit April 28 of Premier Daladier and Foreign Minister Bonnet to London, it was said.

Though no specific questions were placed on the agenda, it was indicated the entire scope of diplomatic, financial and economic collaboration would be considered.

Jules Blondel, French charge d'affaires in Rome consulted with foreign minister Ciano today and it was agreed to begin conversations for a general settlement of problems between the two countries immediately.

The possibility the appointment of an Ambassador to Rome might be announced shortly before the League Council meeting May 9 was given credence in authoritative circles.

Regular enrollment at Louisiana State university jumped 1,399 during the 1936-37 session and 700 in the 1937-38 session. Regular enrollment for the 1938-39 biennium was 11,324 and 15,443 for the 1936-37 biennium.

Reaves pleaded guilty to assault with a deadly weapon with intent to kill and Judge J. Paul Frizzelle, presiding, passed sentence. James Little, who was caught in the store with Reaves, was given a sentence of three to four years after pleading guilty to breaking and entering.

Reaves cut Chief Clark several times across the hand and stabbed him one time in the back of the head in breaking away from the officer in front of the store. Reaves escaped and went to Kinston but was taken into custody early the next morning. He was given a preliminary hearing in police court and bound over under bond of $1,000.

The chief of police was not served.

4-H Club Members
Make Fine Record

C. D. Griggs, assistant county agent in charge of 4-H club work, today revealed results of corn demonstrations carried out by members in the county.

Thirty-five members in 13 different communities in the county enrolled in the project. Thirty-three members completed the demonstrations, growing 1,923.9 bushels of corn on 35 acres of land, or an average of 54.9 bushels per acre. This average is 35.9 bushels per acre more than that for the county in 1936.

The value of the corn produced was $961.95.

The outstanding record made was by Elmer Tucker, who produced 72.5 bushels on an acre of land at a cost of 24 cents per bushel. His record shows that he paid $5 for rent, $5.19 for fertilizer and a total of $8.10 for time, including his own. This makes a total expense of $13.29. He sold the yield for 50 cents a bushel, bringing $36.25, a net profit of $17.96 for the acre.

Regular enrollment at Louisiana State university jumped 1,399 during the 1936-37 session and 700 in the 1937-38 session. Regular enrollment for the 1938-39 biennium was 11,324 and 15,443 for the 1936-37 biennium.

dent's Suggestions for Recovery

Washington, April 19.—(AP)—Senate opponents of the $1,156,000,000 naval expansion bill attempted today to kill an authorization for 950 additional navy airplanes.

Chairman Walsh (D-Mass.), of the Senate Naval Committee, starting debate on the floor, expressed confidence, however, of overwhelming approval.

Sensor Nye (R-N.D.), one of the principal foes, contended that the navy's present 2,050 planes are sufficient and that land based aircraft are more effective for defense purposes.

Meantime the House, accepting one of President Roosevelt's recovery suggestions, decided tentatively to more than double the $100,000,000 highway appropriation in the pending agriculture supply bill.

A few minutes earlier the Senate completed final congressional action on another phase of the President's pump-priming plan, approving a $50,000,000 increase in the appropriation of CCC camps for the next fiscal year.

Opposition appeared, however, to another phase of his program, Senator Glass (D-Va.), charged that the administration's proposed revival of public works duplicates the program which is possible under authority recently given the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The road-fund, known to $100,000,000 as a budget balancing aid suggested by the President, was increased to $201,500,000 by the House. Mr. Roosevelt rescinded his budget balancing request in his recovery messages.

Other developments:

Resources of the 22 insured commercial banks in the state of North Carolina totalled $666,703,000 December 31, 1937, a survey made public today by the FDIC showed.

Deposits in the insured banks were listed as $402,854,000. Demand deposits of the latest call date amounted to $217,185,000 and time deposits totalled $185,669,000, each exclusive of inter-bank deposits.

Vice-president Gardner appointed Senator Davis (R-Pa.), today as a member of the joint congressional.

Youths Guests Of Local Civic Club

C. D. Griggs, assistant county agent in charge of 4-H club work, present his club members in a program at the regular weekly meeting of the Greenville Rotary club last night.

The program put on by the club members depicted the various work being carried on by the organization in the county. The program was sponsored by the rural-urban acquaintance committee headed by J. C. Winslow.

The club selected directors for the coming year as follows: Carl Adams, W. H. Dail, Jr., R. V. Keel, Lyndon Ollie van Norwick, Jr., and Dr. J. Winslow.

Besides Mr. Griggs and club members, guests included Ernest Miller of Albemarle and Paul Davoport of Pactolus.

Eli Bloom Solicitor of City Court In Ayden

Eli Bloom, Greenville attorney and merchant, yesterday assumed his duties as solicitor of the Ayden recorder's court, succeeding Harry Brown, who at the same time assumed a similar position with the Greenville Recorder's court.

Mr. Bloom said court would be held each Monday morning.

The local attorney entered the primary for the office of County court solicitor two years ago, but later withdrew his name.

Increase Payments on Three Types Tobacco

Washington, April 19.—(AP)—The AAA said today benefit payment rates under the soil conservation program had been increased for three types of tobacco.

For flue-cured and dark air-cured tobacco the rate per pound on a farm's normal yield per acre was increased from 1.5 to 1.3 cents. For Georgia-Florida type 62 tobacco, the per pound rate on the same basis was changed from 1.5 cents to 1.8 cents.

Nurses' Association Meets.
The eighth district of the North Carolina State Nurses' Association met at the community house in Tarboro on Thursday, April 14, with a fine attendance from various places in the district.

A cordial welcome was extended the group of Rev. Henry Ruark of Tarboro. After a short business meeting, the guest speaker, Miss E. A. Kelly of Fayetteville, spoke on "Eight Hour Duty." Special emphasis was on the advantages derived from "Eight Hour Duty" and the talk was highly interesting to the nurses.

At the conclusion of the program, the group was served sandwiches and punch. During the social hour the nurses had an opportunity to discuss plans for their next meeting.

Christian Science Church.
"Doctrine of Atonement," was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science Churches and Societies on Sunday, April 17.

The golden text was from John 10:30. "I and my Father are one." Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God. Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil, cleave to that which is good. Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another." (Rom. 12: 1-2-9-10).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Wisdom and love may require many sacrifices of self to save us from sin. One sacrifice, however great, is insufficient to pay the debt of sin. The atonement requires constant self-immolation on the sinner's part."

Plan Furniture Show At High Point Soon
Local lovers of fine furniture who each Spring journey to High Point for the Annual Furniture Style Review will welcome the announcement of this event for April 2nd according to Joe Taft of the Taft Furniture Co. This year the Review has been developed around the theme—"Furniture Fashions from Colonial Days to the Gay 90's and the program just released promises a day of splendid entertainment to the guests of this popular store."

A beautiful film in color of "Old Williamsburg"—another in color showing "The Making of Fine Furniture"—a display of Glamorous Natchez and many other feature events are listed on the invitation folder which is available, along with a courtesy admission card, from Taft Furniture.

"The Furniture Style Review attracts more and more people from here each year," said Mr. Taft. "This year, said Mr. Taft, it will be a real treat to the lovers of fine furniture through its displays of beautiful ensembles. The entire Tomlinson collection of fine 18th and 19th Century recreation, covering four huge floors, will be arranged for guests."

"Many of our patrons who attended the review last year have expressed a desire to go again, and many more who have just heard of the event plan to attend this year. So we have arranged to secure a block of courtesy admission cards to take care of a considerable number of Greenville parties. Hundreds of thousands of folks visit each year the shrines of an older America, Williamsburg and Natchez in particular, and the appreciation of fine old pieces seen there are reflected in the current trend to finer furniture."

The High Point event is a unique opportunity to see, under one roof and in a single day, the complete picture of present day decorative styles.

Miss Hooper called the much-talked of "Our Town," a play given without scenery and with a narrator to interpret the picture of life in a small town, "a religious drama in the deepest sense of the word," because of its insistence on the idea that there is something eternal and imperishable in the soul of every man.

Mrs. D. S. Spain and Mrs. Jack Spain were hostesses to the group.

Miss Harriet Fleming of Wilson, is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Carr.

Herbert White Lee and Larry James have returned from Washington, D. C., where they spent the Easter holidays with Harvey Turnage, Jr.

Miss Hazel Gray Evans has returned from Lawsonville, where she visited relatives during the Easter week-end.

J. B. Kidd, Miss Virginia Kidd and Miss Connie Kidd have returned from Dobson where they spent several days.

Paul Kitchen of Raleigh, was in town today.

Dr. and Mrs. W. K. McDowell of Scotland Neck, spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. W. Z. Morton.

Mr. and Mrs. Carey Mayo, Jr., of Kentucky, are visiting Mr. Mayo's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Mayo.

Miss Iris Bellamy spent Easter week-end with her parents in Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Morrow and Paul Morrow, Jr., of Burlington, and Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Barnes and children of Wilson, spent Easter with Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harvey.

Norman Warren and Miss Iva Leburn spent the Easter holidays with Mrs. Warren, who is a patient at Pine Crest Manor, Southern Pines.

Miss Frances Harvey of Kinston, spent Easter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harvey.

Mrs. Smith in Hospital.
Mrs. Leon Smith is very much improved following an operation in Pitt General Hospital last week.

Mrs. Elmer Cox underwent a tonsillectomy in Pitt General Hospital this morning.

Ill In Hospital.
Friends of Miss Ruby Gray Burrey will be sorry to know that she is ill in Pitt General Hospital.

Pitt-Renouf W. M. U.
There will be an all-day meeting of the Pitt-Renouf Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church on Wednesday in Winterville. The meeting will begin at 10 o'clock in the morning and will be held in the Baptist Church of Winterville.

A. A. U. W. Meets.
In spite of a pouring rain at the hour set for the program, a number of members of the local branch of the A. A. U. W. met in the high school library last night for their April meeting and heard a most interesting discussion of plays current on Broadway by Miss Emma Department of the college English department.

Saying that she read reviews of plays and comments of critics not only because she enjoyed reading them, but also because she wished to know about plays that ought to be added to the college library and because people continually ask—What plays must I plan to see when I am in New York next week?

Miss Hooper proceeded to tell of some of the things she would plan to see if she were going to New York soon.

She took up by types the entertainments she would see, beginning with the most outstanding moving pictures, like "The River," which she described as a dramatic picture of the Mississippi and the struggle man has made to control it.

Another type the speaker referred to as significant was the drama of real literary worth written especially for the radio. Maxwell Anderson, in particular, is working out a technique for the radio drama.

Of the musical comedy, "an American contribution to drama," Miss Hooper described two light satires—"Hooray for What," which gives Ed Wynne a chance to be amusing; and the political comedy "I'd Rather Be Right." The second, said the speaker, "laughs us into thinking about governmental affairs."

In the field of pure drama the speaker described especially the revivals of older plays and the plays of religious nature.

Quoting the critics to the effect that producers return to Shakespeare when the stage falls on lean years, Miss Hooper told of the recent "Anthony and Cleopatra" which had $100,000 spent on it and still was "a flop," and of the $6,000 production of Julius Caesar in modern dress, with no scenery, and with Caesar in a Fascist uniform, which has been a decided success.

She spoke of the importance of the religious play today on Broadway, illustrating with a list of current productions, especially "Susan and God" with its satire on Buchananism and its emphasis on the evils of drink and divorce; and "Shadow and Substance," an Irish play of the church and conditions in Ireland.

Miss Hooper called the much-talked of "Our Town," a play given without scenery and with a narrator to interpret the picture of life in a small town, "a religious drama in the deepest sense of the word," because of its insistence on the idea that there is something eternal and imperishable in the soul of every man.

Mrs. D. S. Spain and Mrs. Jack Spain were hostesses to the group.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
Tuesday, April 19, 1938

Personal
Mrs. G. E. Harris and daughter, Nina, returned Monday evening from Durham.

M. O. Blount of Bethel, went to Williamson Sunday night.

Notices
Odd Fellows meet tonight.

We had more April showers today. Weather cleared off nicely after a load of heavy lumber is being unloaded near the depot to be used for making repairs to the railroad bridge.

The freight train today killed a horse belonging to Mr. W. S. Fleming.

Go Get A Ride
The ladies of the Baptist Church have chartered the merry-go-round for Wednesday and it will be run for their benefit from 2 till 11 p. m. They ask for a liberal patronage.

Mrs. Gower Hostess.
On Monday afternoon at three o'clock, Mrs. Eleanor Gower was hostess at a lovely party honoring her mother, Mrs. Mary Worthington, who celebrated her 71st birthday.

The home was beautifully decorated in a profusion of flowers in the yellow and green colors.

Mrs. Robert Mewborn greeted the guests at the door and showed them to the punch bowl, where Mrs. Walter Mewborn, Mrs. R. A. Nelson and Miss Louise Mewborn served punch.

Mrs. Joel Patrick gave an enjoyable birthday reading, as did Mrs. Walter Harding, Mrs. Adele Patrick, and the Rev. Jack Rountree.

In a question and answer contest conducted by Mrs. Cecil Cobb, the winner was Mrs. J. H. Barwick who was given a lovely handkerchief.

Late in the afternoon a dainty ice course carrying out the green and yellow color note, was served. Guests were: Mrs. Walter Harding, Mrs. Maggie Johnson, Mrs. Joel Patrick, Mrs. Adele Patrick, Mrs. T. C. Hart, Mrs. R. E. Nelson, Mrs. J. R. Harvey, Mrs. Annie Dawson, Mrs. C. E. Gardner, Mrs. J. A. Jarrell, Mrs. G. T. Gardner, Mrs. W. G. Chapman, Mrs. C. C. May, Miss Mary Harvey, Miss Maggie Laughinghouse, Miss Winnie Burney, Miss Mary Harding and Mrs. F. C. Harding of Greenville, Mrs. Mark Mewborn, Mrs. T. W. Heath, Mrs. J. C. Rasberry, Mrs. H. P. Loftin, Mrs. Lula Bruton, Mrs. Fannie Moseley, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rountree of Kinston, Mrs. Mayme Cox, Mrs. Addie Cox of Winterville.

Recovering
Mrs. Ruby Jackson who underwent an operation at the Memorial General Hospital in Kinston, is now at the home of her sister, Mrs. R. L. Collins of Grifton, for a few days, before returning to her work in Greenville. She is getting along very nicely.

French border officials said the fall of Viella opened the way for further Insurgent advances along the Pyrenean frontier without resistance.

No confirmation was obtained of travelers' reports of mutiny among Government troops in Barcelona.

They said part of the newly mobilized troops quartered in the Barcelona seminary and some barracks had refused to go to the front.

With the Insurgents Before Tortosa April 19.—(AP)—Large detachments of Government troops, including international brigade units, were captured south of Tortosa today after Ebro river bridges were dynamited by the Government to hold back the Insurgent movement to encircle the city.

General Vilano's legionnaires occupied the suburbs of Tortosa and the right bank of the Ebro; then started to cut off the city proper, where the Government had massed thousands of its best shock troops.

lously wounded and was not kept from his duties although the cuts have not as yet healed completely.

Reaves was given a bad character and was said to have a reputation dating back several years for breaking and entering.

Four Negroes charged with aiding Reaves' escape after assaulting Chief Clark, pleaded guilty and judgment was suspended as to three.

Reaves, brother of the Negro who cut the chief, however, was defendants were Clint Hardy, Mary given a term of two years. The other Daniel and Martha Joyner.

Minnie Brown pleaded guilty to assault with a deadly weapon and was given a three months' sentence. Thomas Oakley pleaded guilty to four counts of forgery, and was given a two-year sentence in each.

Elmer Mills was given a four-year sentence after pleading guilty to larceny.

Ernest Thompson, convicted of aiding abetting in larceny, was given a two-year suspended sentence.

As the court recessed for noon the case of Jesse Alford, white man, charged with attempting to assault his 12-year-old daughter, was in progress.

New York Cotton

New York, April 19.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened six to nine lower on disappointing Liverpool cables and under liquidation and foreign selling.

July sold up from 8.96 to 8.98, leaving quotations five to eight points net lower shortly after the first half hour.

July went to 9.01 and at midday was 9 even when the list was three to four net lower.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, April 19.—(AP)—The stock market wagon again bogged today under light selling pressure.

With the ticker tape loafing throughout, setbacks ran to two points or so at the worst. Mild buying here and there occasionally cut losses and near the fourth hour a number of leaders were above morning lows.

Bonds were mixed.

RESERVOIRS to protect Pittsburgh and lower the Ohio valley flood heights were urged by Mayor C. D. Scully (above) of Pittsburgh, in telling house committee that early construction of nine reservoirs is needed.

WELCOME METHODIST WOMEN

We are sure we voice the sentiments of the entire citizenry of Greenville in extending a cordial welcome to the large number of Methodist Women who are in attendance at the Women's Missionary Conference in this city. We are confident that the various sessions of the conference will prove well worth while from a spiritual standpoint and in addition to this we sincerely hope that your stay in our city will prove most enjoyable for you. It is always a pleasure for our city to be host to large gatherings of visitors and especially is this so when the gathering is composed of several hun-

ENDORSES LAW ENFORCEMENT EFFORTS

The Grange is built around the home, including in its membership men, women and children. For that reason law and order are of first concern to Grangers.

Several months ago the Beaver Dam Grange sponsored a community meeting dedicated to law and order, at which time our County Judge was the guest speaker.

At this time Beaver Dam Grange wishes to go on record as supporting our county commissioners or any agency or officials who are making an honest effort to enforce law and order and to make this a better place in which to live.

We fail to see that Judge Grady was acting in good faith to tamper with our juror system at this critical time, to throw a wrench in our law enforcement machinery which in reality makes null and void the work of our law enforcement officials which heretofore he and others have deemed legal.

Washington—West Point graduates receive their certificates in or-

The system, a practice of years beyond counting, recently inspired Representative Terry of Arkansas and unnecessary" thing to brand a poor army officer for life as the "goat" of his class.

He demanded that General Benedict, West Point commandant, look into the matter of giving out the certificates in alphabetical order, from Adams to Zagurski. General Benedict said he would. But from the ranks of those most concerned in the matter comes a counter protest suggesting that Representative Terry tend to his law-making and stop worrying about West Point.

Why, Senator!
"Now I ask you," writes Louis Dosh, a West Point senior, in a letter published in his father's newspaper at Ocala, Fla., "isn't that something to pay a man $10,000 a year (Mr. Terry's salary) to worry himself about?"

The letter goes on to say that General Benedict, as he promised Representative Terry, appointed a board to investigate the system of distributing certificates.

"The board polled the 30 lowest ranking men in my class," Dosh writes, "one of whom would inevitably be the 'goat' and have to suffer this great humiliation and excessive cheering on graduation, to find their opinions."

"Of the thirty, two favored alphabetical graduation. One of the two was the alphabetical senior and he voted that way just to get the laugh that he knew it would provoke among his classmates."

"I think it is ridiculous that outsiders who know next to nothing about this institution should be permitted to dictate changes in our traditions. Outsiders just can't understand the position of the goat or the goats in general. The goats are the most popular men in the class and the wooden nature of their mental faculties is one of the most prolific sources of humor for them and their classmates."

"To take away the one glory that they may achieve before graduation —unheard of!"

Louis cautioned his father that his information came from hearsay and might be defective but he didn't leave any doubt about his convictions on the subject. He won't have West Point Terrified.

APPROVE N. C. SAVINGS ASSO.

Hospital Service Among First Group Be Recognized

The Hospital Saving Association of North Carolina is among the first group plans for hospital service in the country to be approved by the American Hospital Association under the standards recently established according to an announcement received her today by Mrs. L.
A. Brock, local representative.

The new standards were adopted as a protective measure both for the public and affiliated hospitals. The American Hospital Association has launched a national movement to require hospital service in insurance associations to maintain rigid financial and ethical standards.

Nearly 1000 Pitt County members of the Association will be interested in this announcement. The list of approved associations was released yesterday from the office of the American Hospital Association in Chicago.

Forty associations scattered thruout the United States, with a total membership of nearly 2000,000 obtained approval certificates. Hospital Saving Association which is the State-wide plan operated by the North Carolina Medical Society and the North Carolina Hospital Association, was the only organization in North Carolina receiving approval it was stated. There were three others approved in the Southern area. Atlanta, Richmond, and Norfolk. None of these operates on a state-wide scale.

"I am naturally delighted that our Association can comply with all the high standards," said Felix A.
Grisette of Chapel Hill, executive director of the Association then informed yesterday that his Association had been approved. "The American Hospital Association is rendering the American public a genuine service in seeing to it that this new and popular form of pretection is amply safeguarded."

The measurement standards on which approval was based are: adequate representation of hospitals, medical profession, and public; non profit sponsorship and control; participation by the majority of hospitals of standing in each community; provision of benefits thru service contracts with member hospitals rather than through cash indemnification for hospital expenses; adequate subscription rates or premiums; sound accounting procedures; complete actuarial date; segregation from hospital finances; reasonable payment to hospitals; dignified promotion and administration; hospital service benefits determined by customs of the community; non-interference with relationships between hospitals and their staffs; general approval by the Committee on Hospital Service

of the American Hospital Association.

Greenies To Meet House Of David Team Tomorrow

GAME CALLED FOR 3:30 P. M.

Manager Monk Joyner Fast Whipping Team in Shape

Monk Joyner, manager of the Greenville baseball team, said today he was anxious to pit his boys against the unique House of David team here tomorrow afternoon, following their good showing against the Norfolk team of the Piedmont League Sunday.

The game will be called at the Third street park at 3:30 o'clock. It will be the second exhibition game of the season for the Greenies.

Manager Joyner is rapidly shaping his team into shape. He expresses optimism, declaring that he is well pleased with the way the boys are looking on the field.

Greenville's weakest spot appeared to be in hitting last year. This year's team is expected to show much improvement in that division—an indication borne out in daily practices and also against the Norfolk nine, Sunday.

If there are any fans in this city who think that the House of David baseball team cannot play ball because they don't believe in cutting their hair and shaving off their beards they will be surprised when they see the hairy players in action. They are a curious lot, the House of David team. From the neck down they don't look any different from any other team. But from there up they make the Smith Brothers look like a pair of selling plasters for hair.

The barbers' union and butchers will not compose any part of the personnel of the reception committee for the House of David ball players, as the bearded men do not need barbers and are vegetarians. The whiskered athletes are human but they have their own peculiar belief and the wearing of beards is one of them. These draperies do not interfere with the diamond work of the players and it will be a formidable club that will appear in the role of the opposition to the local team here.

Holland Fans 21 As Teachers Defeat W. & M. By Score Of 8-0

BE-WHISKERED GENTLEMEN HERE ON WEDNESDAY

The House of David baseball team will meet the Greenies in the second exhibition game of the season here Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The team is well-known in Greenville, having seen action here before. The Greenies looked good in their first showing Sunday against Norfolk and the contest with the House of David team is expected to provide many thrills.

VISITORS LUCK ONLY TRIO HITS

Lefty Bill Also Bating Star in Yesterday's Tilt

Bill Holland, Teachers' college southpaw, struck out 21 hitters and allowed only three hits as E. C. T. C. defeated the William and Mary Braves from Norfolk, 8 to 0, in one of the best games seen here in many a day.

Barnes, Donover and Oden were the only William and Mary players to secure hits off the delivery of Holland and, incidentally they were the only visiting players to reach first base. No opponent got as far as second base, and Holland was never in trouble. He had perfect control. On two occasions he had three balls and no strikes on the hitter and then struck them out to bring applause from the crowd.

Holland, Smith and Ridenhour were the hitting stars for the Teachers, with two safeties each. The game was played in eighty-eight minutes.

The Pirates play the Ayden team of the Coastal Plain league there on Thursday.

DUKE TO PLAY ON WAKE SOIL

Blue Devils To Meet Deacons Wednesday P. M.

Wake orest, April 19.—The second of the annual series of games between the baseball nines of Duke and Wake Forest will be played on the Deacon's home ground Wednesday afternoon. In a meeting at Durham last week Ed Watson of the Devils and Joe Talley of Wake Forest hooked up in a torrid mound duel with Watson walking off the victor by virtue of some timely hitting by Eric Tipton. Talley and his mates will be looking for revenge on Wednesday.

The baseball rivalry between Duke and Wake Forest is one of the hottest in college baseball. Opposing each other Wednesday will be two of the nation's most successful baseball coaches—Jack Coombs of Duke and the Deacon's veteran John Caddell. In the last several years these two teams have come close to dominating play in the Big Five. Duke has generally been a bit stronger, but the Deacons have had their moments. It was a Wake Forest team that gave Duke its first licking in its home park, and again last year Duke bowed only to the Deacons in conference play.

Whether Watson will again hurl against the Deacs is problematical. It may be that Coombs will send Dave Smith to the mound. Joe Talley of Jim Denning, Soph star, will be the Wake Forest twirler.

The game will start at 3:30 and will be the first Big Five game in Wake Forest this year. The Devils are sure to feel at home because of the beautiful growth of new grass on Groves' field.

The starting lineup for Duke: Hove, 1b.; Rue, rf.; Bergman, ss.; Tipton, cf.; Marris, 3b.; Gaddy, lf.; Davis, 2b.; Brunansky, c.; Smith or Watson, p.

Wake Forest's starting lineup: Dickens, ss.; Fuller, 1b.; Payne, cf.; Aderholt, 2b.; Hoyle, lf.; Rustler, rf.; Dupree, 3b.; Sweet, c.; Talley or Denning, p.

Advices Work For College Students

Chapel Hill, April 19.—(AP)—Dr. Earl Douglass, head of the University of North Carolina Division of Education, suggested today that "youth should be provided with a program that would keep in school and allow him to work part time up to the age of 19 or 20." He spoke to the Kiwanis Carolina district vocational guidance conference on the changes in youth's problems today from those of other days. In his youth program of work and study, Dr. Douglass said the youth could earn money to pay his way partly until 19 or 20 years old.

Now you can cure your TOBACCO CORRECTLY WITH LESS WORK... AT LOWER COST.

At last the tobacco growers in our territory can have the full advantage of modern equipment in the curing of their tobacco. The Buckeye Rite-Heat Tobacco Curing System is offered by us with full assurance that it is the best system available today for curing tobacco. It cures correctly and perfectly—it does away with back-breaking labor, sleepless nights and uncertainty.

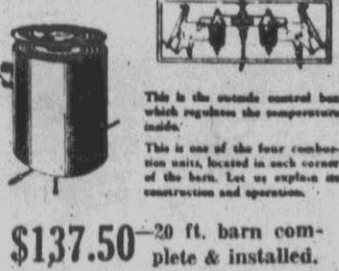

Without a doubt the additional price you will get from your tobacco will soon pay for a unit.

The Buckeye Rite-Heat Tobacco Curing System is built by an organization with years and years of experience in building and selling oil heating equipment to the farmer and planter. This unit has only four stoves, eliminates all floor fires, does away with constant watching of burners and replacement of wicks. It is so simple to operate that it requires practically no attention.

With all its advantages, it is the lowest cost unit available today, and will cure your crop at lower cost than any other system. Don't take a chance of spoiling another crop through improper curing. We have a demonstration unit on display and will gladly show you its many benefits without obligation.

QUITS COTTON TO RAISE HOGS

Gets Tired of Growing Cotton to feed boll weevil

Watson, April 18.—I got tired raising cotton for the boll weevil, says J. A. Watson, a farmer in a Hamilton County, who has decided to quit cotton and raise hogs. Watson, who has been raising cotton for 15 years, says he has decided to quit cotton and raise hogs. He has been raising cotton for 15 years, says he has decided to quit cotton and raise hogs. He has been raising cotton for 15 years, says he has decided to quit cotton and raise hogs.

Negro farmers in Hamilton county who are raising hogs at the present time, says Watson, who has decided to quit cotton and raise hogs. He has been raising cotton for 15 years, says he has decided to quit cotton and raise hogs. He has been raising cotton for 15 years, says he has decided to quit cotton and raise hogs.

In balancing their farming program, they have turned to hogs, says Watson, who has decided to quit cotton and raise hogs. He has been raising cotton for 15 years, says he has decided to quit cotton and raise hogs. He has been raising cotton for 15 years, says he has decided to quit cotton and raise hogs.

To improve the quality of their livestock and poultry, the farmers have been adopting better methods of feeding and management, and have been buying pure bred and high grade hogs and chickens.

A survey has shown that 55,338 worth of pure bred and good blood stock has been placed with Negroes in the county recently.

There were 22 pure bred male hogs valued at $660 and 41 pure bred females valued at $51,230. Twelve young pure bred bulls valued at $600 were acquired by individuals and "bull associations."

Twenty-three pure bred and high grade sows valued at $1,150, and 18,873 pure bred day-old chicks valued at $1,698 were also numbered in the recent purchases.

Where individual Negro farmers felt they could not afford a pure bred bull, a group would form an association to buy the animal cooperatively for the use of all members and other farmers upon payment of a small fee.

Cotton exports are the largest single item in United States trade with Czechoslovakia.

Checking Erosion Helpful To Game As Well As Soil

Raleigh, April 19.—Halting soil erosion increases the crop of game birds and smaller game animals, as well as being of inestimable value to the land itself, according to the game and inland fishing divisions of the Department of Conservation and Development.

This by reason of the fact that prevention of erosion is by means of plants and grasses which provide food for the small game. They also furnish cover for game and are used extensively by quail, rabbits and other small game as nesting places.

And so the soil conservation program of the Department of Agriculture gets full approval of the Department of Conservation and Development.

PEOPLE DO APPRECIATE THE COSTLIER TOBACCOS IN CAMELS THEY ARE THE LARGEST-SELLING CIGARETTE IN AMERICA

JOE KEEPS his hand in on mending nets. His family are fisher folk. DiMaggio is 6 feet tall—weighs around 185 pounds. His nerves are h-e-a-l-t-h-y!

IN THE KITCHEN of his picturesque waterfront restaurant, Joe says: "I eat pretty much what I like all season long and smoke Camels with my meals and afterwards, 'for digestion's sake.'"

CLOSE-UP OF JOE'S GRIP. "Ball players go for Camels in a big way," he says. "I'm a steady smoker myself. Camels have real mildness all right—don't irritate my throat."

"TOBACCO GROWERS FAVOR CAMELS FOR THEIR SMOKING!" —is the majority opinion in a survey of well-known tobacco planters

"When Camel says 'costlier tobaccos' I know it's right," says Mr. Edward Estes, capable young planter, who knows tobacco from the ground up because he grows it. "Take my last crop, for instance, Camel bought all the best parts—paid me the most I've ever gotten. The men who grow tobacco know what to smoke—Camels!"

"Last year I had the dandiest crop ever," says Mr. Roy Jones, another experienced planter who prefers Camels. "I smoke Camels because I know they bid higher and pay more at the auctions for the choice lots of leaf tobacco. They paid the highest price I ever got from anybody. Considering that Camel uses finer, costlier tobaccos, it's not surprising that Camel is the leading cigarette with us planters."

Mr. Harold Craig, too, bases his preference for Camels on what he knows about the kinds of tobaccos that go into the various cigarettes. "I get the check—so I know that Camels use more expensive tobaccos. Camel got the best of my last crop. That holds true with most planters—I know too. You bet I smoke Camels."
