

JUL 16 1973

ANNUAL REPORT OF PSYCHOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Reporting Period: September 1972 to September 1973.

I. Faculty Honors:

Dr. T. E. Long was made president-elect of the North Carolina Psychological Association--to serve as president for the term 1974-75.

Dr. T. E. Long was appointed by the Governor of North Carolina to the North Carolina Board of Examiners of Practicing Psychologists.

Dr. Dennis Roberts was on a panel at a workshop at the North Carolina Advancement School in Winston-Salem. The workshop focused on the characteristics, causes, and treatment of underachievement in learning.

Spoke Mrs. Hazel Stapleton was the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Virginia Medical Records Association at Natural Bridge, Virginia.

Paper Dr. C. H. Moore presented a paper at the annual meeting of the Southeastern Psychological Association in New Orleans. He spoke on Induced Anxiety.

Spoke Dr. C. C. Mitchell was a member of a symposium presented at the annual meeting of the Southeastern Psychological Association in New Orleans.

Dr. C. C. Mitchell was elected Chairman of the Association of Eastern North Carolina Psychologists.

Spoke Dr. T. E. Long was a member of a symposium presented at the annual meeting of the Southeastern Psychological Association in New Orleans.

Dr. W. F. Grossnickle moderated a symposium at the annual meeting of the Southeastern Psychological Association in New Orleans.

Dr. W. F. Grossnickle was appointed to the Faculty Assembly of the Greater University of North Carolina.

Dr. W. F. Grossnickle conducted a Psi Chi Workshop for students and faculty advisors at the annual meeting of the Southeastern Psychological Association in New Orleans.

Spoke Dr. W. F. Grossnickle was principal speaker at a meeting of the supervisors for water distribution in local governments in Fayetteville, North Carolina.

Mrs. Myree Hayes was appointed chairman of the Pitt County Mental Health Board.

Mrs. Myree Hayes was appointed a member of the Board of Directors of the Learning Institute of North Carolina.

Dr. Betty Jane Corwin was appointed by the State Department of Public Instruction to formulate requirements for competency based certification for school psychologists.

II. Publications:

Dr. Larry W. Means:

Woodruff, M. L., Means, . W., and Isaacson, R. L. Deficient go, no-go brightness discrimination following hippocampal lesions. Physiological Psychology.

Means, L. W., Huntley, D. H., Anderson, H. P., and Harrell, T. H. Disruption of acquisition and retention of a visual-tactile discrimination task in rats with dorsomedial thalamic lesions. Behavioral Biology.

Walker, D. W. and Means, L. W. The effect of an interpolated task during the intertrial interval on single alternation performance in rats with hippocampal lesions. Behavioral Biology.

Dr. Rosina Lao:

Internal-External Control and Competent and Innovative Behavior Among Negro College Students. Published in Psychology and Social Issues, Hamsher and Sigall, editors.

III. Student Honors:

James William East, a psychology major, was admitted to the World Campus Afloat--Chapman College for a study voyage to ports in Africa and Asia.

David T. House, III was named to Who's Who.

Patricia Clarke and Ronald Howard were honored by the local chapter of Phi Beta Kappa.

Ronald M. Howard graduate summa cum laude.

Jane L. Rayford Beaman graduated magna cum laude.

Monty G. Grubb graduated magna cum laude.

Karen Bumgardner was appointed to serve as Affiliate Representative to the North Carolina Psychological Association.

Katherine Green, a graduate student, was a participant in a symposium at the annual meeting of the Southeastern Psychological Association. The symposium centered around the six-month internship, an integral part of the graduate program in clinical and school psychology at East Carolina University.

Ronald Howard and Mary Margaret Kelly were awarded Psi Chi Scholarships.

IV. Grants:

Dr. Larry W. Means was awarded $990 to support research to discover amphetimine drugs can restore memory when the brain's retention cells have been damaged or destroyed. The grant was from the North Carolina United Community Services.

V. Miscellaneous:

Dr. Clinton R. Prewett resigned as chairman of the Department, a post he had held for 16 years.

The Psychology Department's graduate program in clinical psychology was recently recognized and described in a book "The Revolution in Professional Training: A Review of Innovative Programs for the Training of Professional Psychologists." This was published by the National Council on Graduate Education in Psychology.