

[To: Miss F. E. Mitchell, Fort Barnwell, N. C.]

Grate I want to

September 28th 1892
Miss Phillis A. Mitchell,

My Dear

Girl it is with much Pleasure & Grate Joy that I write you

The condition of my Perfect Health Darling you is my hold studies I cant Express my love to you By Pen But I have Tongue enough to tell it to you ever you is the Apple of my eye and The darling of my heart Lover be of God's comfort untill we meet again Don't let your mind be Over swated by No young Gentlemen

Gentlemen, I am
Copping down Sunday
if nothing Pursuits
so Good Night ~~to~~ Do nothing my Ours so I Remain your Devoted friend
Robert Williams
you must Railey excuse,
my bad hand Write,

Grade Plant, N.C.

September 28th 1922

Miss ~~F. C. ~~Walt~~~~ Mitchell

My Dear Girl
it is with much

Pleasure that I write you the condition of my Present Health I am well And Sincerely hope
When these few Remarks Early Reach you they May find you in Perfect Health and also in being Good Health Dear lover
I am Studing about you so grate untill I cant not Restrain my self from Dropping you these few Remarks of my hand

Love. I am expecting to call on you Sunday.
As I am anxious to see you and family love is too sure to try to express to you by my Penn, But I hope time may work some change in ~~you~~ my favor that I can express it better by word of mouth than by Penn. So I have said enough at present So good night Darling
My true friend
W. H. Williams, Esq.
or, hon. Henry Williams.