WM. DOUGLAS NOMINATED TO HIGH TRIBUNAL

Stock Market Regulator Succeeds Brandies

APPOINTEE WAS YALE PROFESSOR

Secretary of Treasury Sees No Need For Lifting Present Legal Limit on Public Debt.

Washington, March 20.—(AP)—President Roosevelt nominated William O. Douglas, his number-one stock market regulator, to be a member of the Supreme Court today.

He chose the former Yale University law professor, now chairman of the Securities Commission, to succeed Justice Louis D. Brandies, who retired recently after a long career that made him famous as a liberal.

Mr. Roosevelt also transmitted to Congress a report by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau that there was no need to lift the present 45 billion dollar legal limit on the public debt. The report added that the 30 billion dollar limit on long-term bonds should be removed, however, and that the President asked that Congress "take such action as may be necessary."

The administration continued efforts to obtain additional appropriation of $150,000,000 from Congress to carry on the WPA to July 1. Col. F. C. Harrington, the Works Relief administrator, made public a state by state list of reductions which he said he would have to make in WPA job quotas unless more money was voted. He said 7,000 would have to be dropped in North Carolina.

The Civil Aeronautics Authority asked Congress for $7,300,000 to train civilian air pilots.

The Senate Civil Liberties committee recommended legislation to prevent the use of machine guns and "offensive chemical weapons" in industrial disputes.

Sentiment increased in the Senate Finance committee for independent congressional action to overhaul business taxes if President Roosevelt fails to recommend their revision.

The President said last week the Treasury was making factual studies to ascertain effects of suggested changes in the tax structure. He insisted that revenues remain at their present level.

Injured in Wreck And Left For Dead

Thurman Gray of Pitt county, is in Pitt General Hospital suffering a fractured spine and lacerations of the head received in a week-end automobile accident. Dr. W. I. Wooten described Gray's condition as serious.

Highway Patrolman C. R. Williams who, with Deputies R. W. Tyson and R. W. King, investigated, said the automobile owned by Gray, but driven by Jake Barnhill, Pitt Negro, struck an embankment on the dirt road from Ayden to Farmville Saturday night. Barnhill, along with Robert Randolph, another Negro passenger, fled from the scene of the accident, thinking that Gray was dead.

Williams said the accident happened around 8:45 Saturday night, but was not discovered until 12:45 Sunday morning. He said Gray was paralyzed from the waist down and had lost much blood. The Negroes were later arrested and lodged in the county jail. Bond has not been arranged pending the outcome of Gray's condition. The Negroes escaped unhurt. The automobile was badly damaged.

Pitt County Farmers Ship Potatoes North

Thirty Pitt county farmers have participated in the shipment of nine cars of sweet potatoes to northern markets during the past two weeks, it was revealed today.

This marks the first time in many years that farmers of this county have shipped their potatoes co-operatively in order to get the best prices, the potatoes are being graded and packed in paper lined baskets. A government inspector, provided by the Department of Agriculture, is inspecting each car before it is shipped.

Each basket of potatoes is labeled to show the quality of its contents. Prices obtained so far range from 60 cents to $1.01, net to the farmer. C. C. Hilton, director of the fruit and vegetable marketing service of the Farmers Co-operative Exchange, is assisting farmers in the marketing of potatoes.

A hen owned by Lawrence A. Taylor, Salsbury, N. C., lived to be 23 years old.

Boyd of the First Presbyterian Church of Greenville, assisted by Rev. Worth Wicker, pastor of St. Paul's Episcopal Church. Burial will follow in the family plot in Cherry Hill cemetery.

About 1913 they built the Vines house, which they operated until the death of Mr. Vines in 1917.

An active member of the Presbyterian Church, Mrs. Vines was well known for her charitable work.

Active pallbearers will be Dink James, Dr. S. M. Crisp, B. S. Warren, K. W. Cobb, Frank Patrick and Frank W. Brown.

FIRE THIS AFTERNOON

A fire at the Rainbow cleaners this afternoon burned the cloth off one of the steam presses. Origin of the blaze was undetermined.

Legislature Has Failed To Develop 1941 Speaker

Reflector Bureau Raleigh, March 20.—Unlike the two past legislatures, the present session has failed to develop any one or two outstanding candidates for speaker of the next House of Representatives.

George Uzzell of Rowan has cherished speakership ambitions for some time and has quietly and discreetly let the word out that he would like very much to have the No. 3 license plate on his automobile in 1941 and 1942. He has gotten considerable assurance of support and at this time is undoubtedly the most likely prospect.

BRITAIN SEEKS UNITED FRONT AGAINST NAZIS

Takes Steps in Answer Hitler's Drive Eastward

TO CONFER WITH OTHER CAPITALS

Decides to Communicate At Once With Russia, Poland, and Other Southeastern Countries.

London, March 20.—(AP)—Prime Minister Chamberlain told the House of Commons today that Britain's colossal defense program again would be reviewed as one of the three British steps in answer to Germany's eastward drive in Europe.

The British cabinet meanwhile, was reported by informed quarters to have decided to communicate immediately with Soviet Russia, Polish and Southeastern European governments on formation of a united front against aggression in Europe.

Labor and Liberal opposition leaders meanwhile were understood to have pledged support for the government's new policy of resistance to any further Nazi move toward European demonstration.

In addition to communicating with Moscow, the cabinet was said to have decided on approaches to Rumania, Yugoslavia, Turkey and Bulgaria in the attempt to weld "anti-aggressor" nations into a bloc.

Prime Minister Chamberlain disclosed to Parliament that Britain was now consulting with other nations over the consequences of Germany's absorption of Czechoslovakia.

The Prime Minister told the House of Commons that "Britain requires to give full consideration" to the tense European situation in conjunction with other powers "before any statement can be made."

British attention was centered on Chamberlain's message to the House and to a similar statement made to the House of Lords.

Negro Accused Of Murdering Lover

Walter Cherry, 23-year-old Bethel Negro, is being held in the Pitt county jail without privilege of bond, charged with the murder of Clarissa Stokes, said by officers to have been Cherry's sweetheart.

County Jailor W. G. Leggett said the Negro was lodged in jail late Saturday night by Officer S. H. Martin of Bethel, who explained that Cherry slashed an artery in the left arm of the Stokes Negro, who lived only two hours.

The cutting scrapie is said to have been the outgrowth of an argument that arose between Cherry and his girl Saturday night around 9 o'clock. The Negro probably will be given hearing in the next term of Superior court.

Vanceboro Citizen Claimed By Death

Lewis B. Dail, 62, of Vanceboro, route two, died suddenly at 9 o'clock last night at his home.

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at the graveside in the Manning family cemetery near Littlefield, in Pitt county, by his pastor, Rev. Marshall Joyner of Juniper Chapel Free Will Baptist Church.

Mr. Dail is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mollie Dail; one son, William Dail; and one daughter, Miss Meacod Dail, both of the home; one brother, Frank Dail of Erul; two sisters, Mrs. Emma Miller of Pamlico county, and Mrs. Nan Harris of Vanceboro.

Pitt Officers Arrest New-Comer To Pitt

Howard Williams, Martin county man, who has been in Pitt county about a month, is in the county jail to await trial on a charge of illegal possession of liquor for purpose of sale.

J. M. Ward, J. L. Taylor and E. G. McMillan, ABC officers, assisted by Sheriff's Deputies R. W. Tyson and Herber Harris, nabbed Williams with 30 gallons of illegal contraband Saturday night in Chicod township. The whiskey was poured out at the county jail this morning.

Absorption Of Memel By Germany Matter Of Days

SHADOW OF SWASTIKA FALLS ON RUMANIA

This map shows how Germany's latest step eastward in Europe has placed her to Rumania, a kingdom rich in wheat and oil. King Carol of Rumania conferred all night with his crown council and general staff as Germany set about administering her new protectorates, Bohemia-Moravia and Slovakia, both once a part of dismembered Czechoslovakia.

CANDIDATE FOR EACH POSITION

R. Troy Burnette Out To Succeed Himself On Board

R. Troy Burnette, present city alderman from the fifth ward, today announced the candidacy to succeed himself. George Clapp had previously announced from the ward, assuring at least a two-way race for the office.

Alderman Burnette was elected to the post in 1937 and during the administration drawing to a close was active on the cemetery committee and also was chairman of the sanitary committee. Having lived in Greenville all his life and in the fifth ward for the past fifteen years, he now resides at 618 Cotanche street.

At least one candidate has announced for each of the aldermanic posts to be filled at the May 1 election. Candidates who have announced to date are: first, G. C. Honeycutt and L. B. Fleming, the incumbent; second, C. A. Robertson; third, J. D. Simpson; fourth, E. H. Wilson; fifth, George Clapp and R. Troy Burnette, the incumbent.

Wards one and five have only one alderman Alderman J. A. Watson from the second, J. E. Taft from the third and M. B. Massey from the fourth have another year to serve, having been named last May for two-year terms. Jack Spain, who is seeking the office of Mayor, is the second present member from the second ward, the office being sought by Mr. Robertson. Mr. Simpson is out to retain his seat from the third. Mr. Wilson is out for the post now held by David Evans, who was appointed to succeed A. C. Tadlock, who resigned when he moved from the fourth, and Mr. Clapp is contending against Mr. Burnette for the seat from the fifth, now held by the latter.

A three way race for mayor is being waged by J. H. Boyd, H. H. Duncan and Mr. Spain.

Two other city offices are to be filled at the May election. They are judge of the municipal court, now held by L. C. Skinner, and solicitor of the same court, now held by Harry Brown. So far no candidates has announced publicly for either of the offices.

Schedule Hearing On Drainage Bills

All persons interested in proposed drainage bills for Pitt county are urged to attend a public hearing at the court house Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at which time the county's delegation in the General Assembly will attempt to learn the wishes of the people regarding the measures.

The bills would allow the levying of a tax in the respective drainage districts for maintenance purposes. The tax would be levied only upon petition of the drainage board and would affect only property in the area to receive benefits from the project. The set-up would be similar to the various school districts in the county.

Six To Die

Columbia, S. C., March 20.—Governor Burnet R. Maybank refused today to extend clemency to the six men condemned to die for the December 12, 1937 slaying of Captain J. Olin Sanders at the State penitentiary.

Unless some unexpected court action intervenes, the six men will die in the electric chair early Friday morning. The original death date was March 10, but the Governor granted a two weeks' reprieve in order to study the case.

SAYS FIGURES WON'T BE BAD

Maxwell to Advise Committee on Expected Receipts

Raleigh, March 20.—(AP)—Revenue Commissioner A. J. Maxwell said today "it won't be bad news" that he will present to the Senate Appropriations committee this afternoon on income tax receipts.

"The figures will first be given to the committee," said Maxwell, "and I will be working on them right up to report time, but you can say that it won't be bad news."

The commissioner this morning was figuring what estimates should be for income tax receipts for the next biennium in view of unexpectedly large receipts last week.

Week Should Determine Form Of Spending Bill

Reflector Bureau. By HENRY AVERILL Raleigh, March 20.—The General Assembly should finally determine this week the final form of North Carolina's spending bill for the next biennium. With that done and out of the way there will be no great or insurmountable obstacles to a sine die adjournment in the not too distant future—say around April 10, or thereabouts.

Of course there are plenty of "ifs and buts" about all this. It is quite within the bounds of possibility that the Senate will go to either of two extremes after its Appropriations committee confers with Commissioner of Revenue A. J. Maxwell and Budget Director Bob Deywell this afternoon.

MOSCOW CALM ON NAZI DRIVE

Not Alarmed at Nearness of Hitler's Steam-Roller

Moscow, March 20.—(AP)—Although the Nazi steam-roller advanced last week to within several hundred miles of the Soviet Russian border, Moscow has remained as usual, one of the calmest capitals in the world.

Soviet citizens learned that their government had refused to recognize Adolf Hitler's absorption of Czechoslovakia and had condemned it as "arbitrary, violent and aggressive." There was no hint of panic at the near approach of German troops.

It is against this background of calm confidence in Moscow that the chances of Soviet cooperation with the Western democracies must be considered.

Convict Negro Women On Whiskey Charges

Two Negro women, convicted in Municipal court this morning of illegal possession of liquor, were given 60-day sentences to the county home, suspended upon payment of $10 fines and costs of court. They were Martha Moore and Maggie Hines.

White Man Arrested For Wayne Officers

Ellsworth Jordan, former Greenville man, was arrested by members of the Highway Patrol Saturday night and was lodged in jail to await the arrival of Wayne county officers, scheduled to return Jordan to Goldsboro.

It was revealed that Jordan is wanted in Wayne county for operating an automobile after his driving license had been revoked and for assaulting an officer. While in Greenville, he was employed by a local slaughter house.

Bootlegging doesn't pay, especially when whiskey is sold on church property on the Sabbath. At least, that is the opinion of Noah Moore, Stokes township Negro, who was caught selling bootleg at a "dime a drink" Sunday.

HITLER LOOKS TO SOUTHEAST

Also Revealed That Ambassador to Paris Ordered Back Berlin; Reich May Cancel British - German Naval Treaty as Reply to Protest Made by Britain to German Expansion.

Berlin, March 20.—(AP)—Jozuas Urbys, foreign affairs minister of Lithuania, and German Foreign Minister Joachim Von Ribbentrop conferred today on what government spokesmen said was primarily the fate of Memel.

It was announced at the same time that Count Johannes Von Welczek, German Ambassador to Paris, had been ordered "to return to Berlin to report."

French Ambassador Coulonde called back Saturday by his government, already had left the German capital.

Circumstantial evidence indicated that the reunion of Memel with greater Germany is only a question of days.

Memel, a Baltic district 1,099 square miles in area, was detached from Germany by the Versailles treaty and later placed under Lithuanian sovereignty with a measure of autonomy.

With Hitler back in his chancellorship and the press hinting at a possible cancellation of the 1925 British-German treaty in reply to Britain's stiff protest over the Nazi absorption of Czechoslovakia, this train of facts showed how the wind was blowing.

German newspaper editors told their foreign colleagues privately that the absorption of Memel was practically assured.

Various travelers reaching Berlin from the northeast of Europe reported troop movements.

A meeting of the Memel Landtag, or Diet, is scheduled for March 25 and the date is regarded in political circles as pivoted in Memel's future history.

The discussion between Von Ribbentrop and Urbys was said also to have touched upon the question of Lithuania's role in the European concert of nations.

White Man Arrested For Wayne Officers

Ellsworth Jordan, former Greenville man, was arrested by members of the Highway Patrol Saturday night and was lodged in jail to await the arrival of Wayne county officers, scheduled to return Jordan to Goldsboro.

It was revealed that Jordan is wanted in Wayne county for operating an automobile after his driving license had been revoked and for assaulting an officer. While in Greenville, he was employed by a local slaughter house.

Bootlegging doesn't pay, especially when whiskey is sold on church property on the Sabbath. At least, that is the opinion of Noah Moore, Stokes township Negro, who was caught selling bootleg at a "dime a drink" Sunday.

Moore was nabbed at Sycamore Church by Pitt officers, who declared the Negro was "dishing out drinks when we got him." The arrest was made when officers answered a complaint filed by a deacon of the church.

The Negro is in the county jail awaiting trial on a charge of illegal possession of liquor for purpose of sale. He is under a $500 bond.

Thursday evening at 8:15. Postponement to these dates was necessary because of illness among the leads.

The play opens on a scene of singing and dancing fairies, but they are soon disturbed by a group of gnomes. Later Hag, a witch, appears with Halvor, a little beggar boy. She poses as his grandmother, but when she leaves him alone for an instant he voices his suspicions that she is a witch and runs away. Before he leaves a magic blue belt is dropped at his feet and he takes it away with him. This blue belt transforms him into a prince. He returns and awakens the beautiful princess, Ellanore, over whom the witch has cast a magic spell, by his song of love.

Here King Gorumpus arrives to find Ellanore and Halvor happily

in love, but Hag re-enters, persuades the King to demand Halvor to let him examine the blue belt, and when Halvor takes it off, she swiftly has the belt snatched away and changes Halvor into a bear.

Ellanore is broken hearted at this turn of events and she appeals to Thimbelina who sends the Lunor moths to recover the blue belt. By its recovery Halvor again becomes a prince.

King Gorumpus, because he does not like Halvor very much, makes him pass through three tests before he can get Ellanore. These Halvor passes through. The witch is pardoned and everything ends well except with King Gorumpus.

Billy Lee and Leah Mildred Ross play the leading roles.

ESSENTIAL MUTUAL PRINCIPLES

Conservative Management

The man who founded the oldest American insurance company in 1752—a mutual still in business—believed that the first purpose of an insurance company was to pay for losses, not pile up profits for its organizers. They believed that the policyholder's premium dollar was a trust fund to be held in security until needed for the payment of losses or expenses.

Conservative management—security—these rank high among the lasting essential principles of mutual insurance. Dividend savings are an added benefit. A Letter To Our Hosts Of Friends.

This is an open letter to the multitude of friends who tried so hard in so many ways to be helpful and kind to us in our sorrow. Our thanks, gratitude, and prayers will be with you until the end of our lives. No life runs continually smooth, and no one can have everything. Each of us must in the course of time bow before crushing burdens. We must all try to be satisfied. For fourteen years we have had the beauty, blessing, and happiness of our baby. For those years we are thankful!

May the Great Spirit bless our dear friends! If in the years to come we can be of help or comfort to them, we shall not be found wanting.

WORK DONE ON ELECTION LAW

Only Real Progress Is Shown During Eleventh Week

Reflector Bureau Raleigh, March 20—Although the senate and house both passed on final readings the revenue bill for 1939, together with a whole flock of local measures, the only real progress in legislation was a short step toward election reform.

The apparent speed on the revenue bill was entirely offset by action on appropriations. Amendments to the finance bill cut several hundred thousand dollars off of prospective revenue, on the basis of accepted estimates, and amendments to the appropriations bill added something more than half a million to the proposed expenditures. Not being willing to reopen the whole matter, the senate appropriations committee just deferred acting until next Tuesday of this week to give the budget commission boys a chance to re-figure estimates and make the thing balance. A large group in the senate isn't in sympathy with any such synthetic balancing act. So it cannot be said that any actual progress was made in that respect.

The forward step in election reform wasn't a very long one but at that many interested observers were surprised that the senate committee was as liberal as it turned out to be in absentee reform. A sub-committee re-wrote the house act on this subject, and instead of doing the expected and taking off most of the restrictions the house put on, the senate report really strengthens the house act.

The bill virtually eliminating "markers" at elections, already enacted by the house, is now in the hands of the same senate sub-committee for rewriting. This committee is composed of Senators Prince Austin and Lumpkin, who did such a good job on absentees there was unanimous demand that the same men request the markers section. Highlights of election committee sessions during the week were the assaults made upon the proposal to eliminate absentees from primaries, led by Young M. Smith, president of the North Carolina Democratic Club in Washington, and Senator Ralph Gardner whose legal residence in Cleveland county, but whose family lives in Washington. Despite these appeals and the support of Senators Hatcher and Fearing, a westerner and a far easterner, the committee stuck by its guns. Absentees won't be allowed in primaries.

Colored News

A meeting of interest was held at Simpson school Friday at 7:30 p.m. During this meeting Mr. Griggs, assistant county agent, showed slides on treating worms in hogs.

A very appreciative audience of about 100 farm men and women were present.

The 4H county council met in the agent's office Saturday afternoon to discuss plans for a better garden campaign. In a few days these same boys will make plans for a judging team.

Several farmers have enrolled in the corn contest. If any others would like to enroll you still have a chance. Let's see who will grow the biggest yield on one acre.

A priming demonstration will be given on Joe Daniels' farm, Greenville, route five, by Mr. C. R. Hudson, state agent of State College, Raleigh.

Washington Daybook

By Preston Grover

Washington—So keen is our observation that in one day we detected a change in the Washington atmosphere.

Along about mid-March or early April each year we yearn to drop affairs of state and go over to see Larry LaRouche. LaRouche is to the Bureau of Indian Affairs what Grover Whalen is to the New York World Fair. He speaks for it, although he isn't the head of it, as Grover Whalen is of his own. (We like to keep writing Grover—elegant name, isn't it?) Also LaRouche has a moustache, somewhat less magnificent than Grover Whalen's.

LaRouche is gowned in Indian stories. He has an office on the south side of the Interior Building and lets the sun stream in.

Oh, For An Adobe Wall.
In no times at all you begin to feel that it would be nice to sit on the warm side of a pueblo or hogan
out in sunny New Mexico or Arizona
and count the buzzards in the blue, splendid peaceful thoughts come to people who sit on the second terrace of a pueblo, even though sometimes the flies are bad.

After leaving LaRouche we have in to see Mr. Messersmith in the State Department to see Europe
still teetered on the brink of collapse. We went to see Senator Pittman about Europe and Nevada.
Both were troubled. And to see Jerome Frank of the S.E.C., about troubled stocks and bonds.

Then we came back to the office
to ponder and write and to read what others had pondered and written. That was when we sensed the change in the atmosphere.

Pastoral For A Day
Three learned men who also write daily pieces out of Washington had blossomed about a single idea. They were tired of carrying around heavy international thoughts and were thinking it was time to sit on the side of a pueblo and sun awhile.
Unanimously they decided to lay off
for one day the job of being a pundit.

They became positively pastoral.
As the swing linguists would have
it, they were splu-fitten with the sun.

They were hauled one way by duty to help clarify the troubled problems of the world and pulled another by an urge to say the devil with it. And they did the latter.

It always is a problem. An editor in New England writes that he likes it best when the column sticks to serious business. Yet from out in Minnesota a woman writes that while she is a glutton for knowledge she gets tired of the wrangling and jangling in Washington and wishes somebody would do something quick to fix it all up. Statistics, politics and economics are beginning to wear on her.

It was not until the woman had written and we had thought of the among the pueblos and read the dreamy rhapsodies of the three Washington pundits, that it dawned clearly on us what had brought about the change in atmosphere.

It just took a glance at the calendar. Spring is here—in Washington, where even the buttercups
watch the election returns.

Hitler Has Built Biggest Germany; Map Shows How

By The AP Feature Service.
Greater Germany's eastward
march has given her an area
and population exceeded in Europe only by Soviet Russia. Only Russia and the United States, of Western countries, have greater populations. Greater Germany's population is now
twice that of France proper;
twice Italy's, and more than that of the British Isle, Canada and Australia combined. These maps show the territorial growth of the greatest Germany in history:

The Germany ruled by Kaiser Wilhelm II. before the World War.

She lost chunks of territory to France, Belgium, Poland, Danzig, Denmark, and Czechoslovakia after the close of the war.

The Saar basin (arrow) voted to return to the Reich (1935). On March 12, 1938, German troops, "to restore peace," entered Austria, and it was joined to the Reich.

Hitler added the western mountain rim (Sudetenland) of Czechoslovakia to the Reich on the ground that its German residents had been treated unfairly by the Czechs.

Hitler took Moravia and Bohemia into the Reich March 15 as an autonomous protectorate and made Slovakia a protectorate the next day. The eastern tip of the former Czechoslovak republic, Carpatho-Ukraine, was annexed by Hungary.

TULIP TIME in Manhattan doesn't hold much charm for Bobby Hetterly, who had to play nursmaid to two rare plants at the International Flower show in New York's Grand Central. The
tulips were grown by John Scheepers of New York.

SHORT SHOTS

By HENRY AVERILL and LYNN NISBET

Reflector Bureau
Raleigh, March 20—A press release from the North Carolina World's Fair Commission informs that "only educated and poised persons will be employed for the staff" which will represent North Carolina at the New York exhibit.
It also informs that "eight intelligent and personable young Tar Heels who are expected to greet five million visitors to the North Carolina exhibit at the World's Fair will be experts on the subject of their state."

That's all very well, but this corner still thinks one Sally Rand or Eleanor Holm would attract more persons to the North Carolina exhibit than all these "educated"
"poised," "intelligent" and "personable" people—yet Sally and Eleanor qualify only under the last section.

Decision of Judge Henry Stevens
that the "Fair Trade Act" of 1937
is unconstitutional will give opponents of the current proposed act to prevent selling at less than cost a whole lot more ammunition to fire
at the Senate German-backed proposal.
Judge Stevens held that the 1937
measure "puts restraint upon competition and tends to create a monoopoly."

Of course the case will be appealed—New Hanover Representative Jack LeGrand who appeared for the plaintiff in the action, made that clear immediately; but the legislature will have adjourned long before any final ruling is handed down and in the meantime the Stevens ruling will be cited against the pending measure, which has met with the most stubborn sort of opposition, anyhow.

That unlucky "13" which has haunted the 1939 revenue bill last week got in three more licks at its unfortunate victim. The bill has carried from introduction the number House Bill 13. It was amended 13 times. It passed the senate on the 13th day of March. And then it finally passed the house on concurrence in senate amendment on March 16th, which was the thirteenth day of its consideration on the floor of the General Assembly.
And there are those who think that another "13" will have to be added—that the lack of balance between revenue and appropriation will keep the legislature in session thirteen weeks.

With upwards of five thousand school teachers from all over North Carolina here the last of the week,
hotel lobbies, eating houses, drug stores, etc were overrun. Shoving around through the lobby Friday night, Malville Broughton and Willis Smith, two avowed candidates for governor came face to face. A newspaper man propounded a question as to how they stood on increased teacher pay. Of course it wasn't fair, with all those teachers listening, but the would-be governors out talked a tobacco auctioneer in profession undying loyalty to the principals of higher pay for teachers.

LIFE LINGERS for 27-year-old Fossum, one of nine army mules relieved from death, to the relief of Private George Bellum at Fort Dix, N. J. Legislation is sought amending army rule providing death for mules no longer useful.

IT'S LOVE AT FIRST SIGHT between Billy Cowley of the Boston Bruins, National Hockey league champs, and the stick with which he smacked enough goals to become his team's leading scorer. And if endearing words help, that stick will help the Bruins beat the New York Rangers in the Stanley Cup playoff series between the league's two leading teams.

MAKING GOOD IN A SMALL WAY, this tiny olive siskin puts on a bell-ringing act for the benefit of its St.
Louis owners, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Donnelly. The bell is scaled down to the bird's size, which put it well into the junior class; the siskin is smaller than a canary, has a touch of temperament, and is a native of Mexico.

ter of keeping appropriations down to the level originally recommended by the committee.

There is undoubtedly a powerful undercurrent of sentiment in favor of doing just this, but even so it isn't the most likely course.

The best bet seems to be that the Senate will follow a course between these two extremes and accept the House bill with perhaps a change
here and there—some up, some down in the matter of spending.

Inasmuch as the appropriations measure is not a roll call proposition there is every likelihood that it can be enacted into law (except for final enrollment and ratification, which can be effected only after careful checking of the lengthy and multi-figured measure) before the end of this week.

That done, there will remain
nothing which cannot be finished state into chaotic conditions except the machinery bills and these, while important and far-reaching, have never been the subject of well-igh interminable haggling and squabbling such as the money bills themselves sometimes turn out to be.

There are other important things to be done—such as completion of election reform measures, the Department of Justice bill, and the passage of what it now appears will be the gaudiest version of Wage-Hour bill (with the wage part completely eliminated).

On the whole, however, it appears that the legislature is now really in the home stretch, though it will take some two or three weeks to tie up all the loose ends now dangling
in space.

As a matter of fact there are good reasons why the law makers should stay in session for at least two weeks after final passage of the money bills, chief among them being that it gives time for any error in them to be caught and corrected without necessity for an extra session.

Changes Are Made In Brush - Burning Laws

C. A. Bowling, Pitt County fire warden, today was advised of changes made in the "brush-burning permit law," which is now in effect. J. M. Stringley, district forester, who advised Bowling of the changes, said the former periods were from October 15 to December 1, and from April 1 to June 15. The new periods are from February 1 to June 15, inclusive, and from October 15 to November 13, inclusive. The changes were made through an act ratified March 16 by the General Assembly. Bowling requested that Pitt County residents comply with the new changes.

Texas has approximately 22,500 miles of highways.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, March 20—(AP)—Stocks revived their trend in today's market, but early advances running to two or more points were substantially reduced in the latter part of the proceedings. After getting off to a fast start, the list soon lost momentum. Near the fourth hour dealings inclined to drag. Appointment of Chairman Douglas of the Secretary to the Supreme court was in line with market predictions.

Local Negro Cafe Destroyed By Fire

The Early Bird cafe at the corner of Twelfth and Clark streets, was practically destroyed early Sunday morning by fire of undetermined origin. The damage was estimated by Chief George Gardner at $1,000.

The fire broke out about 3:30 a. m., and when firemen arrived the combined Negro cafe and residence was beyond saving, with fire and smoke "all over the place."

While firemen were fighting the blaze an alarm was sounded from box 20 at Washington and Second streets, but this evidently was a false alarm, as members of the department who answered the call were unable to locate any fire.

Chief Gardner stressed the seriousness of a false alarm being sounded at any time, but declared it was far more serious to sound a false alarm when officers are already on duty at one fire.

Excessive speed is the chief cause of highway accidents in Texas, statistics of the Department of Public Safety indicate.
