SOVIET CHIEFS STUDY LATEST BRITISH OFFER

Mystery, Continues, However, Over Foreign Policy

NOTE DELIVERED BY BRITAIN ENVY

Understood that Message Contained Counter Proposal to Russian Suggestion

Moscow, May 9.—(AP)—The Kremlin today studied the latest British proposal for Soviet participation in the British and French-engineered coalition, and at the same time sustained the mystery over Soviet Russia's foreign policy.

Both British and Soviet sources maintained silence on the nature of the note handed to Premier-Foreign Commissar Molotov yesterday by Sir William Seeds, British ambassador.

It had been understood, however, that the note conveyed British counter proposals to the Soviet suggestion of a far-reaching security plan based on a British-French-Russian military alliance.

Britain was understood to have favored Soviet assistance to all states on the western border of the Soviet republic, promising British-French aid to Russia if such assistance involved her in conflict.

The "calm prevailing in British circles following Sir William's interview with Molotov was interpreted by some observers as meaning negotiations were proceeding normally.

An editorial in the Moscow publication Bolshhevik mentioning a "just and holy war for the triumph of Communism" if the Soviet Union were drawn into conflict started some observers.

ECTC Publication Wins High Honors

The Teco Echo, student publication of East Carolina Teachers College, took first honors in its class in the state newspapers contest sponsored by the North Carolina Collegiate Press Association.

The award was made at the spring meeting of the press convention held last week-end in Greenville. Competing in the Class B division, which includes Wake Forest, Davidson, Greensboro College and Lenoir-Rhyne, the local paper was adjudged the best in its bracket.

State College, Duke and W. C. U. N. C. participated in the Class A contest.

Billy Daniels, Wilmington, editor of the Teco Echo, and Miss Lucille Johnson, Ayrton, business manager, as heads of the winning paper, were presented the awards by Charles B. Driscoll, writer of the column, "New York Day by Day."

The Teco Echo was commended by the collegiate press officials for the general excellence of its news writing, make-up and pictorial display. For the first time in its history, the campus newspaper has used the new type of "streamlined" make-up and "flush left" headlines.

In a recent national rating by the Associated Collegiate Press, the paper was ranked as "Good," the second class honor rating, with the sports page, under Jack Daniels, Wilmington, receiving the distinction of "Excellent."

Shooting - Robbery Admitted By Pair

Sheriff J. Knott Proctor said today that William James Williams of Mount Olive, and Solomon Herring of Wilson, Negroes, accused of the robbery-shooting at a filling station-store on the Farmville-Snow Hill highway Friday night, had made a confession to Chief of Police L. T. Lucas of Farmville, had waived a preliminary hearing and were being held in the county jail.

The Negroes also engaged ABC Officer G. A. Gregory of Farmville, in a gun duel while making their escape down the Norfolk Southern railway tracks.

The pair walked to Greenville and caught a Norfolk Southern freight train as it pulled out of the city. They were arrested by Edenton officers who found them on the train after having been "tipped off" by hit officers.

They were brought back here and at first denied their guilt, but later admitted and told officers they threw their gun and also one they took from Harry Lee Chestnut, Negro operator of the filling station they robbed, into the Pamlico river as they crossed on the freight train. Chestnut was shot in the arm, but not seriously injured.

The pair probably will be tried at the next criminal term of Pitt Superior court.

Preparedness Urged By British War Secretary

ARMED FORCES CHEER IL DUCE

Mussolini Declares that Italy Will Prove Strength

Rome, May 9.—(AP)—Speaking in connection with a great Army Day parade, Premier Mussolini declared today that Italy would prove the strength of her decisions "when the hour comes."

"The force of our arms is great, but still greater is the decision of our hearts and when the hour comes we will prove it," Il Duce told cheering troops and civilians.

He spoke briefly from the balcony of the "palace" after a parade of armed strength that gave German military leaders a further opportunity to appraise the Fascist war machine which Mussolini has agreed to harness to German might in a military alliance.

Mussolini spoke only about 60 words, two sentences. To introduce the statement "on the force of our arms," he said:

On this third anniversary of the founding of the empire and on the first observance of the holiday dedicated to the army you have participated in a memorable military parade."

40 & 8 Shad Supper On Wednesday Night

The Wilson Vulture of 40 & 8, which has a number of Greenville ex-soldiers in its membership rolls, will hold a plank shad supper here tomorrow evening between 6 and 7 o'clock.

The feast will be held at Third Street school. All Greenville members are expected to attend and a large delegation from Wilson will be here for the event.

Municipalities To Wage Fight On Property Levy

Reflector Bureau. By HENRY AVERILL.

Raleigh, May 9.—There are unmistakable indications that a long expected battle between county and municipal governments over the question of taxability of municipal property is going to break out shortly with great vigor.

Signs pointing that way come from both sides. To begin with, it is a matter of fact, not guesswork, that the attorney general's office is being asked for a broad and inclusive opinion on just what municipal property can legally be taxed by counties. It isn't a matter of public record yet and information that the opinion has been requested isn't being volunteered by the A.G.'s office.

From the other side of the fence, the municipalities, through "Municipal News," publication of the North Carolina League of Municipalities, have launched a bitter attack on the recent decision of the state Supreme court holding that hotel property in Warrenton is a proper and legal subject for county taxation.

War Secretary Says Nation Must Sleep On Haversacks

London, May 9.—(AP)—War Secretary Hore-Belisha declared today that the British nation "must sleep on its haversacks." He addressed the House of Commons during debate on a bill to enable the government to call up reserves of the army, navy and air force.

Hore-Belisha announced that a large portion of the regular army reserve including officers, would be called up in batches this year. This, he said, would "enable the regular army to train at army strength in formations and put the regular army in position, if necessary, to take the field at short notice."

The bill under debate would enable the government to call up reserves secretly, eliminating the present system under which a proclamation by the king is necessary. The regular army reserve and supplementary reserves total about 170,000.

The war secretary said that any aircraft units of the territorial army corresponding to the National Guard would be called in rotation with one man serving more than one month. The units will man searchlights and anti-aircraft guns on 24-hour-a-day schedules.

(Five such divisions, totalling 71,000 officers and men, had been enrolled up to Feb. 1.)

Meanwhile, British negotiations for an alliance with Soviet Russia were believed to have gained firmer ground because of indicated increasing friendliness between Russia and Poland.

Polish suspicions of her big neighbor had impeded British efforts to bolster the British-French front with Soviet military might.

But the announcement that Russia was sending an ambassador to the vacant Warsaw post was taken by diplomatic observers to indicate closer collaborations between the two nations now.

Studies made in New York State show that on the average a man marrying at 40 will take a bride aged 32.

PLEA BY POPE BEARS WEIGHT IN NAZI STATE

Action Has More Effect Than Any Other Moves

PAPAL Nuncios IN CONFERENCES

Pope's "Arch Desire For Peace" Conveyed to Capitals of Various European Nations

Berlin, May 9.—(AP)—Disclosures of Pope Pius' peace moves in European capitals has struck a more responsive cord in Germany than any such efforts made thus far.

Questions concerning conferences Papal Nuncios have had in recent days with political leaders in Germany, France, Poland and other countries brought this comment from a foreign office spokesman:

"If the reports of the Vatican move along these lines are true, then certainly it can be said that we would regard it as a much more honest offer of mediation, than, for instance, 'R. A. Butler's offer in the House of Commons yesterday.'"

(A Vatican news service announcement that Papal Nuncios in various capitals were conveying the Pope's "arch desire for peace" to heads of governments, did not mention "mediation.")

Butler, British under-secretary for foreign affairs, said that the future was "primarily a matter for negotiations between parties to the Danzig settlement," and that "the British government stands for settlement of international questions by friendly negotiations, arbitration or other peaceful means."

Monsignor Orsenigo, Papal Nuncio to Germany, conferred with Reichsfuehrer Hitler Friday.

However, the foreign office spokesman said that whatever the Vatican was planning was evidently to be kept confidential and therefore German officials would refrain from detailed discussions of the move.

J. H. Rose Speaker For Program Here

J. H. Rose, superintendent of Greenville city schools, will deliver the principal Confederate Memorial Day address in the Greenville High school auditorium Wednesday morning at 11:15 o'clock.

Glee club members and the band of Greenville High school will furnish music for the program at the high school and later will participate in a parade with boy and girl scouts. The parade will move from the high school to the courthouse for the final phase of the program.

Following a program on the courthouse lawn, paying tribute to the Confederate city schools will deliver the address in the Greenville High school auditorium Wednesday morning at 11:15 o'clock.

The special civil term of Pitt Superior court being conducted here this week convened as usual this morning, settled two cases, adjourned one, submitted the issues to a jury in another and then adjourned until tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

The issues were submitted to the jury in the case of Anne Goodsky a minor, vs. Mrs. Louis T. Dildy Sr., et al. The case grew out of an automobile wreck December 26 on the Bruce-Farmville highway.

The cases of Troy Smith vs. Sarah L. Jones, et al. and C. H. McGowan vs. Vera Mills, et al. were settled. That of R. E. Harris, Jr., vs. G. C. Hardee was continued.

CONGRATULATIONS ON DUKE'S ADDRESS

Verden, France, May 9.—(AP)—The Duke of Windsor received hearty congratulations from French officials today for his plea-broadcast—"simply as a soldier of the last war"—to "save humanity from the terrible fate which threatens it."

He was greeted by a group of Meuse department officials shortly before he and his American-born duchess began an automobile trip back to Paris after a tour of World War battle sectors.

BURGUNDER GUARDED AGAINST POSSIBLE SUICIDE

HULL HEARD BY ARMY DOCTORS

Appeals for Elimination of Horrors of Armed Conflict

Washington, May 9.—(AP)—Secretary of State Hull asked a convention of military physicians from all over the world today to join him "in an appeal to all peoples to do their utmost in bringing about the day when the horrors of war will disappear."

Before high ranking medical officers of the German, Italian, British, French, Polish, Rumanian and other armies, Hull reaffirmed the faith of the United States in "an international order based upon justice, respect for law, and the recognition of the essential dignity and worth of the human spirit."

Hull said in an address read for him by Assistant Secretary George Messersmith that the tenth international congress of military medicine and pharmacy:

"We in the United States desire passionately to live at peace with every nation in the world. We believe that nations seated as equals at a conference table are able to compose their differences amicably and with honor. We are ready and willing to extend the hand of friendship and respect to all peoples and to bend our best efforts toward the erection of an understanding structure of peace built upon civilization's cornerstone, the sanctity of the pledged word."

A greeting from President Roosevelt was read.

Greenville Banks To Be Represented

At least 15 officers and employees of the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company are expected to attend the annual North Carolina Bankers Association convention which officially opens in Pinehurst tomorrow morning, following preliminary sessions tonight.

W. H. Woodard, executive vice president of the bank is first vice president of the association and, under normal procedure, will be elevated to the presidency at tomorrow morning's election.

John Mitchell, cashier of the State Bank and Trust Company, also will attend the meetings.

Among those from the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company who will attend are Mr. Woodard, President E. G. Flanagan, Cashier J. H. Waldrop, J. W. Overton, J. S. Moyer, M. L. Starkey, J. M. Moyer, Miss Martha Lee Cowell, Mrs. J. S. Moyer, Mrs. F. A. Jordan, Mrs. A. L. Blow, Miss Senora Moore, R. H. Staton, R. P. Hardee.

Reflector Bureau. Raleigh, May 9.—Parole is one of the methods by which society attempts to cope with its present complicated and congested status. North Carolina's Parole Commissioner Edwin Gill today told the Southeastern States Probation and Parole Conference at Jacksonville, Fla., according to his address prepared for delivery there.

"Parole is as modern as our present system of controlling traffic by red and green lights," he said, "and like our system of traffic control there was no necessity for it in the old, carefree days of the covered wagon."

"Today, it is important that the returning prisoner be fitted into a definite social and economic status. He must not be allowed to hitchhike his way through life."

Mr. Gill traced the development of "some semblance of sanity in dealing with delinquent human beings" from Biblical times to the present. In the early days of America, he said, many were allowed to go west and find for themselves a new life in a vast and undeveloped continent.

"And it was good for those who went and for those who sent," he said. "But today we cannot send a man west, for the West is filled up. And we cannot send a man to the New World, for even the icy stretches of the North are no longer new. In fact, there are few places on this earth that are not organized into communities."

"It is into such a world that parole comes. An old idea is seeking a new manner of expression through us. With our penal institutions overflowing and with new ones being built and with thousands of persons returning yearly to live in

Mayor Of Clinton Dies From Attack

Clinton, May 9.—(AP)—Colonel George L. Peterson, 59-year-old mayor of Clinton, died today in a Washington, D. C., hospital of a heart attack he suffered last Tuesday.

He suffered the attack during the mayoralty election in which he was named for a third term.

He had been adjutant of the American Legion post here for several years. During the World War he was a major in the quartermasters corps at Camp Jackson, Columbia, S. C.

He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Harry Gump of Clinton, and Miss Hilda Peterson of Washington, D. C.

HIGH JUSTICES HEAR APPEALS

Trio Death Sentences Are Taken Under Advisement

Raleigh, May 9.—(AP)—The Supreme Court took under advisement today three appeals from death sentences.

Attorney General Harry McMillan argued for the State that conviction of Bricey Hammonds in Robeson county of murder in the death of Lacy Brumple and of Cleveland Jones in Hoke, of arson in the burning of the dwelling of E. B. McNeill, should be sustained.

D. M. Britt of Lumberton, appeared for Hammonds and H. W. B. Whitley of Raeford, for Jones.

Assistant Attorney General Wade Bruton argued the State's contention in the case of Alfred Caper, convicted of the murder of J. C. McNeill of Robeson. J. E. Carpenter of Lumberton, appeared for Caper.

The cases were the first appealed from Judge John J. Burgin. The court tomorrow will hear the appeal of James Godwin, convicted in Guilford county of the murder of Donald Moss.

Stock Breeding Prizes. St. Louis, Mo.—(AP)—To encourage the breeding of better livestock, the St. Louis and Kansas City Chambers of Commerce this year are offering $4,500 as prizes in beef and swine production contests. Only Missouri raisers are eligible.

DECISION LEFT UP TO POLAND

Must Decide Whether To Act On 'Feelers' From Pope

Paris, May 9.—(AP)—France and Britain were reported in diplomatic circles today to have left with her ally, Poland, the final decision as to whether to act on feelers put forward by Pope Pius XII for negotiations to relieve the tension between Poland and Germany over Danzig.

In these circles it was said that Britain and France had let Poland know that they were anxious to see the problem of the Free City of Danzig settled by negotiations if possible.

The Pope's suggestions, diplomats said, were made to the German, Polish, French and Italian governments by envoys of the Vatican, acting on personal instructions from the Holy Father.

The British government was understood to be more receptive to the Papal plan than the French government.

There was no indication in Paris diplomatic quarters as to what Poland's attitude would be.

Railroad Magnate Claimed By Death

Washington, May 9.—(AP)—Carl R. Gray, 71, vice chairman of the board of the Union Pacific railroad and its former president, was found dead in bed today at his (Mayflower) hotel.

Discovery of Gray's death was made when associates went to his room to awaken him around 10 a. m.

A son, Russell Gray of Wellesley, Mass., said his father was feeling well when he retired last evening after having dinner with another son, Carl R. Gray, Jr., of St. Paul, Minn. The elder Gray's home was New York.

The three Grays were in the city on different matters. Russell Gray said his father was here on "national transportation matters."

Carl Gray, Sr., had served on President Roosevelt's joint labor-management committee appointed to work out a plan for reviving the nation's railroads.

"Now there doesn't seem to be a trace of mosquito larvae on the swamps," says William Shea, sanitary commissioner.

MORE CHANGES ARE PROPOSED BY ROOSEVELT

Second Reorganization Proposal Sent To Congress

PRESIDENT SAYS THIS FINAL ONE

Today's Request Includes Transfer Of Various Governmental Agencies to State Department

Washington, May 9.—(AP)—President Roosevelt proposed his second government reorganization plan to Congress today involving 14 inter-departmental transfers and consolidations estimated to save $1,250,000 a year.

The President in a lengthy message declared this would be his final reorganization proposal to Congress this session under the recently enacted reorganization law.

The first plan, involving merger of a score of independent, lending, welfare and public works agencies into three new federal agencies, becomes effective June 24 because the veto resolution failed of passage in the House last week.

His second plan today proposed, among other things:

1. Abolition of the National Bituminous Coal Commission and transfer of its functions to the Secretary of the Interior.

2. Transfer of the Foreign Commerce Service of the Commerce Department and the Foreign Agricultural Service of the Agricultural Department to the Department of State for consolidation with that department's foreign service.

3. Transfer of the Foreign Service Buildings Commission, now independent, to the State Department.

Meanwhile the soft coal operators and miners' conference at the White House ended with only a statement by John L. Lewis that the negotiations meet again tomorrow in New York.

Lewis' statement to reporters indicated that the conference with the President had succeeded in extending the labor contract negotiations despite signs that the conferees were unable to agree.

As he emerged from the President's office, Lewis said any statement on the nature of the talks with Mr. Roosevelt would have to come from the White House.

The White House said later there would be no formal statement from the President, but that Mr. Roosevelt might answer questions on the subject at his press conference at 4 p. m. (EST).

Merchants Directors Meet At 8:00 Tonight

Mrs. Cora S. Powell, executive secretary of the Greenville Merchants Association, today called attention to the meeting at 8 o'clock tonight of the board of directors of the association.

The meeting will be held in the organization's offices in the post office building. A full attendance is requested, as several important questions will be considered.

MOSQUITO-EATING CARP WIN FISHERMEN FRIENDS

Great Falls, Mont.—(AP)—There are lots of trout fishermen in Great Falls and trout fishermen despise the lowly carp. But in Great Falls carp are welcome residents.

They made themselves popular last fall after they were washed into city swamps from the overflowing Sun river. Soon they began eating the mosquitoes and the mosquito larvae with which the swamps were infested.

"Now there doesn't seem to be a trace of mosquito larvae on the swamps," says William Shea, sanitary commissioner.

LOU GEHRIG ON BENCH, DAHLGREN TAKES HIS PLACE

AN OLD NAZI CUSTOM is this—the droning review of a bombers' armada marking Berlin celebration of Hitler's birthday. The birthday military spectacle surpassed all previous ones.

SCHOOL DAYS CRAZE prompted Wyenelle Jowers to wear a decorated high school mortar board at Washington, D. C.

Weary and graying at the temples after many years in baseball, Lou Gehrig, "iron man" first baseman of the World champion New York Yankees, requested Manager Joe McCarthy to bench him during a game with the Tigers in Detroit. Lou (left) is shown bestowing congratulations and a bit of fatherly advice on young Elliott Dahlgren who took his place in the Yankee lineup.

ILLUSTRIOUS FAMILY has Mrs. Otelia Compton of Wooster, Ohio, who was picked by the Golden Rule Foundation as "American Mother of 1939." Seen in a family group are Mrs. Compton, her late husband, and her daughter, Mrs. Mary Rice. Left to right, rear: her sons, Wilson, a professor at George Washington university; Karl, the M.I.T. president; and Arthur, a Nobel prize winner in physics. Arthur is at University of Chicago.

NO. 1 MAN among the Nazis in Danzig is Albert Forster (above), who's long been an admirer of Hitler. Forster heads group agitating for Danzig's return to Germany.

Washington Daybook

By Preston Grover

Washington—Just now House members are having their first real run with the federal writers and theatre projects after dealing very gingerly with them for three years or more.

These arty projects have had House members down wind for a number of seasons. House members for the most part are a country-grown variety and the easiest way to make them feel completely uncomfortable is to insist that they don't understand the later art movements.

Whether the federal writers understand the movements is still another matter, but they have been sort of on a pedestal, free from more than half-hearted interference.

But when the WPA appropriation request came forward, a House subcommittee got busy. It sent an investigator to New York to gather all witnesses and evidence. The investigator, H. Ralph Burton, did something more than a casual job, although at the time he appeared before the committee his testimony was decidedly on the incomplete side.

High Costs—Low Talk?
But he had exhibits. He disclosed that labor and material costs of producing "Prologue to Glory" was $250,208. He had cost data on a half dozen other theater project productions. "Halt," for instance, cost $196,000, and others were in similar brackets.

Moreover, the rehearsal time of some of these plays ran well toward a year, which the congressmen considered an extraordinary length of time to put a play in order. And committee members suspected 200,000 items looked too big for just one play.

Mr. Burton said, moreover, that some of the lines in "Sing For Your Supper" were a bit bawdy.

Instantly the congressional ears pricked up, but Mr. Burton, perhaps something of a Victorian, looked hastily around the room, saw several women present, and decided it would be just as well to put the items in the record without embarrassing himself by reading them.

We asked him what the lines were. One was a jingle rhyming "intellectual" with "sexual." Another was a bit more earthy, in a sea-going way.

Nudes Unexciting
Mr. Burton's prize exhibit was two large albums of photographs of models in the nude. Again we were an inquiring person but came to the conclusion that it takes an awful lot of hunting to find a model who would truly inspire a model to his best painting. The subjects were on the lump side and not at all the sort of thing you see in the lingerie advertisements.

There came a whole cluster of witnesses to testify to the presence of Communism among the writers in the New York writers' projects, which is, of course, the principal one of its kind in the country. The committee particularly enjoyed one Ralph De Sola report on the new trend of Communism. This, he said, is to class Communism as the lineal descendants of Jefferson and Payne.

"It is the Trojan horse approach," he said.

De Sola was a Communist until he attempted to resign in 1936. The party refused to let him resign, he said, but instead expelled him as a "Fascist enemy of the working class," a transformation which amused him as much as the committee members.

De Sola once ran a zoological garden in Florida, but the depression broke him. Now he is head of a section of the writers' project doing a natural history of the country.

Double Trouble.
Pugwash River, N. S.—(AP)—Troubles never come singly to Ernest Mitchell, lumberman. First he was laid up with a cut hand. As soon as he was able to work he cut his foot and was off for five weeks. Then he slashed his other hand with an axe when he returned to work.

SHORT SHOTS

Reflector Bureau.
By HENRY AVERILL

Raleigh, May 9.—Pettigrew State Park, the latest addition to the state's system, will be primarily developed for the enjoyment of fresh water fishermen, according to Director R. Bruce Etheridge of the Department of Conservation and Development.

It will be, in fact, the only "fishing" park in the state.

Different ways of getting target practice as related under the head "Shootings" in The North Carolina Municipal News, organ of the League of Municipalities:

Item: North and South Carolina police crack shots participated in the second annual pistol tournament of the Association of Law Enforcement Officers of the Carolinas at Sumter, April 29. Only 38 caliber revolvers were used.

Item: Chief of Police T. T. Aubry of Bailey is being held for Superior court on $1,000 bond for murder, after shooting Lee Lucas, Negro.

Item: Albert E. Parham, Kanapolis policeman, shot and killed James White, drunken Negro convict when White drew a gun.

Item: Chief of Police G. A. Helms of Edenton was exonerated following his fatal shooting of Josh Norman, Negro bad man at Edenton, in a gun fight.

The attorney general's ruling on vehicles exempted from the 60 mile per hour speed limit in North Carolina is that only these are not included in the limitation: Police, fire department and ambulances traveling in an emergency.

Secretary of State Thad Eure, State Treasurer Charles M. Johnson and State Auditor George Ross Pou were back in Raleigh Monday after attending the Young Democratic rally for the Tenth and Eleventh Congressional districts, held in Asheville last Saturday.

Mr. Eure says that Gregg Cherry, the state chairman, "got 'em told" plenty.

Word from an observer who was in Washington recently is that all sorts of pressure is being brought to bear on Congressman Lindsay Warren in an effort to induce him to run for congress next year.

Much of this pressure undoubtedly is being applied by, or at the behest of, First district politicians who covet the Warren seat in the federal House of Representatives.

Municipal elections which have been going on recently and still to be held in the near future involve, in many instances, increases in the city limits.

Municipalities which were given the right to vote on added territory by the recent legislature included Greensboro, Wilson, Atlantic Beach, Bryson City, Canton, China Grove, Concord, Coats, Guilford College, Hamilton Lakes, Kings Mountain, Lumberton, Monroe, Newton, Mount Olive, Oxford, Rocky Mount, Spindale, Tarboro, Yonkersville and Zebulon.

For the second time in a week, according to reports from Hatteras, tarpon have been taken in nets in still waters of North Carolina. Last Thursday shad fishermen found three tarpon, weighing 20, 35 and 45 pounds, in their nets. Previously, commercial men had taken a tarpon in a net in Newport river.

NATIONAL PARK WORKER CLAIMS HIGH-LOW RECORD

Los Angeles—(AP)—After a recent visit to Death Valley, Harry Lick of the National Park Service believes he is the only man who has stood at the highest and lowest points in United States territory.

At Badwater, Death Valley, he was 280 feet below sea level. He also has climbed Mount McKinley, Alaska, which is 20,300 feet high.

May Co-operate.
Frederickton—(AP)—Canada and the United States are planning to co-operate in war against the European spruce sawfly, said R. E. Balch, Dominion entomologist here, on his return from a conference at Washington. Infestation of United States forests was reported less extensive than in Canada.

TWO AGAINST LOVE

by Frances Hanna

The Characters
Jocelyn Russell, beautiful heiress.
Tally Mack, a young farmer who has inherited half the Russell estate, Seaciff.

Yesterday, Little Betsy trespasses on the Russell side. She says Uncle Tally is going to raise money.

Chapter Eight Truck Farm

I ATE in the afternoon the crowd insisted on feting their conquering hero and arranged an impromptu dinner and dance at the club; inviting everyone to stay on in sport clothes and join in the private celebration. Jocelyn perceived that Bob longed to get away, and she reflected spitefully that he probably wished to see how his protégés were doing at Seaciff.

However, as he was guest of honor, he had no opportunity and so it was well past midnight when they got home.

An unfamiliar reiterated sound woke her at daybreak. Her mind, sleep-drugged, finally identified it as the crowing of a rooster. Pulling the covers over her ears she started drifting back to sleep when suddenly the realization smote her that there were no roosters at Seaciff. It took a few minutes for the thought to penetrate, but when it did she struggled upright and strained her ears. It was a rooster.

Curiosity overcame sleepiness. After taking a cold shower to wake up, she toweled her tingling body, then stepped into flannel slacks and slipped a woolly blue sweater over her tousled curls.

Her stealthy creeping down the back stairs was halted by a new sound. A sort of low, rumbling animal sound... the lowing of a cow!

One minute later she stood on Mack territory surveying with astonishment what had yesterday morning been a double tennis court and was now a chicken pen. The tennis nets had been taken down and the entire space enclosed in close-mesh wire. Dozens of white chickens pecked at grain strewn plentifully over the hard-rolled turf.

Again she heard the cow. Two spots of angry color appeared in her cheeks. She marched to the stable and jerked open a door; peered into the comparative dimness; saw, on the left side, beyond the three horses selected by the Macks, two black and white cows.

"Of all the nerve!" she exclaimed. "Oh, good morning, Miss Russell," called an amused voice. "Admiring my livestock?"

Jocelyn headed for the voice; found Tally calmly sitting on the job milking one of the animals. "How dare you put cows in here?" she whispered.

"They are fine representatives of the bovine genus," Tally rattled on imperturbably. "Guaranteed to give five gallons of milk a day. The chest of drawers in Gretchen's room bought these."

"And what about the chickens?" she choked.

"Two tables and three chairs. And the plow cost a bed. Chicken feed and human feed cost two pictures and a tapestry!" she stammered.

"Sure. For the garden. If I plow up all the ground from the tennis courts back to the stables—on my side, of course—I can raise enough potatoes, peas, beans, carrots and onions to feed my family and have some left to sell."

Jocelyn counted to ten and swallowed hard. "But you can't do this!" she declared. "You—just can't turn Seaciff into a—truck farm! It's desecration. You just can't do it!"

"Peasant!"

"SORRY, I've already done it. Since circumstances forced us to live on this feudal estate of yours, that same circumstance forced me to find some way to eat and make a living. There's really nothing you can do about it, Miss Russell. Would you mind leaving? You seem to be making the cow nervous and if she gets nervous she won't give milk."

"Oh!" she choked, feeling as if her face were purple. "So I make your cow nervous, do I? I hate you—peasant!"

"Please, Miss Russell, if you don't stop upsetting my cow I shall have to put you out! Oh, by the way, are these horses broken to harness? I shall have to use two of them for plowing."

"Listen—listen to me," she implored wildly. "If you had to raise money why didn't you get an opportunity to buy my own grandmother's possessions, instead of selling them to strangers? I would have paid you the same amount. Those things are heirlooms; they mean something to a Russell! It was a horrid thing to do—I'll never forgive you for it!"

"Sorry again," he apologized, yet he did not sound the least bit regretful. "It never occurred to me you'd want that creaky old stuff. Believe me, the next time I shall inform you."

"The next time!"

"Certainly! It just happens I am more concerned with living right now on food instead of living in the past on memories."

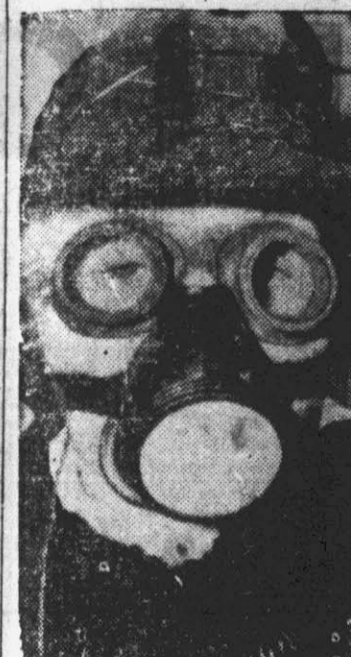

"You've already sold everything of any value to a dealer," she complained bitterly.

Briggs Baffles Tobs, 9-2; Meet Bugs In Twin Bill Friday

HOLDS WILSON TO EIGHT HITS

Two of Them Homers by Jirak; Rimmer Tops Scoreboard

While Hoodie Briggs was keeping eight Wilson hits scattered in his debut at Guy Smith park yesterday and taking an effective part in the hitting himself, his teammates were busy pounding out 13 hits which were good for nine runs to give the locals their seventh tilt in nine starts.

Wilson scored only two runs to the locals' boys' nine, but those two were really earned tallies. Milton Jirak, third baseman for the Tobs, lifted one over left field fence in the second inning and duplicated the feat in the fifth.

Briggs got into trouble several times with men on the bases, but always came out with the fine support of his mates. Four double-plays nipped several Wilson threats.

The Greensies got men on third base both in the first and second inning, but each time they died there and the first runs scored by the locals came in the third on a homer over the scoreboard by Geo. Rimmer after Briggs had singled. Stimpson, who followed Allen hit a long one and rounded second base and was nearly at third he saw that Briggs had not gone home. Both runners landed safe at third, out the bag belonged to Briggs and Stimpson was out.

The Greensies added another in the fourth when Christopher, who had doubled, came home on Vincent Smith's single. Briggs was hit by the pitcher, but Allen went out short to first to end the frame.

Jirak's second homer was the next score of the game. Greenville got busy in its half of the fifth to add one more. Rimmer singled. Heaver hit to the infield and the pitcher's throw to second base was high, both runners being safe on a fielder's choice and an error on the pitcher. Manager Rube Wilson then singled to score Rimmer.

In the sixth Christopher singled. Smith was safe on a fielder's choice, which failed to get either runner. Briggs singled to score Christopher. Smith came home on a passed ball and Briggs came home on Simpson's sacrifice fly.

Briggs got into trouble in the Wilson half of the seventh inning. With two men out Jirak walked. Paytvi singled and Katzen walked to fill the bases. It looked as if Briggs would have to give away, but the tightened down and struck out Hebies to end the frame.

The Greensies added two more in its half of the seventh. Heaver singled, Wilson laid down a bunt and was thrown out at first, but Whitey had reached second. Jenkins singled to score Heaver and then Christopher singled, scoring Jenkins. A double play ended the rally and the scoring for the day.

Lily's 'Guests'

Arthur Casper (top) was jailed at Newark, Conn., and left to decide whether he would remain imprisoned for a year or go home to California in peace after he was found sitting nonchalantly and smoking a cigar in the home of Lily Pons, the opera singer. He said he "liked the kid" and wanted to see her. Meanwhile, Louis M. Brucker (bottom), another Pons fan, was found "guarding" her home. He returned to his home in Philadelphia and was released from a three-month jail sentence.

LOOKA! LOOKA! MARTINS LOSE

Williamston's Streak Halted by Goldbugs; Tarboro Wins

Well—somebody finally done it! Yes, those Williamston Martins are out of the win column for the first time this season and it took Mule Shirley's Gold Bugs to turn the trick—but Mule's boys had to have an extra inning to be on the big end of the 10-9 score.

A wild pitch by Dick Cherry in the tenth broke a 9-all deadlock after the Bugs had tied the count in the ninth inning. Eight pitchers saw service in yesterday's game—one of the wildest ever staged in the league.

Not to be changing the subject—but Tarboro's Serpents clubbed a pair of Snow Hill twirlers, for 20 base knocks in racking up a 16-4 victory last night at Tarboro. The Greensies defeated Wilson Tobs by a 9-2 score, while the New Bern-Kinston game was rained out.

PIRATES BEAT WESTERN FOES

Willie Phillips Hurls Four-Hit Ball Over Catamounts

Catch Gordon Gilbert's E.C.T.C. Pirates Monday began a six-game series by turning in a 6-1 triumph over Western Carolina Teachers College at Cullowhee behind the four-hit hurling of Willie Phillips. Floyd Hinton, Pirate catcher, was the powerhouse hitter for the local hitters and collected three safeties out of the 12 the Pirates garnered off Griffin, hurler for the Western entry.

Ardey and Lee were the top performers in hitting ways for the Catamounts, each collecting two hits for a total of four safeties the losers got off Phillips.

The locals went scoreless for the first two innings, but cut loose in the third frame with a pair of failures, both of which determined the victory.

But the Pirates weren't satisfied with a two-run lead, so they staged a four-run party in the sixth to sew up the game. Hinton's effective hitting featured in the scoring.

An effort was made by the Catamounts in the nightcap to go ahead, but they managed to scratch only one tally off Willie Phillips' glove.

The Pirates will complete their two-day invasion with the Catamounts this afternoon. They will journey to High Point Wednesday, where games are scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday.

They will conclude play for the season here Friday and Saturday, when they encounter the Norfolk Naval Base nine. The Pirates were not in a recent conflict with the Middies, in that a two-game series scheduled with the Navy recently was washed out along with other contests in the Coastal Plain.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, May 9.—(AP)—The stock market took a new lease on life today and leading issues pushed up fractions to around three points. The turnover for the five-hour session of about 700,000 shares was about double that of the preceding session and was the largest for any day since April 13.

Hocutt Cites Cooperation in Safety Program

Reflector Bureau.
Raleigh, May 9.—Their rights on the highway and their safety record called into prominence and question by last week's horrible tragedy at Fayetteville, trucks of all sorts, and especially petroleum trucks hauling gasoline and oil were today given a clean bill of health by Ronald Hocutt, director of the highway safety division of the Department of Revenue, insofar as their general record for safety and their operators' co-operation in safety education are concerned.

"Naturally, I do not want to get into any controversy over whether or not trucks—gasoline or otherwise—should be entitled to use the highways. That's not within the scope of my duties," said Mr. Hocutt. "But I will say that as director of the highway safety division, I have received wholehearted co-operation from all companies operating trucks in the state. The truck owners have apparently been glad to co-operate and have done so at all times."

As for the safety record of trucks and other commercial vehicles, Mr. Hocutt said that figures of the division speak for themselves.
These figures show that in 1938, commercial cars (including trucks of all sorts) had the best record of any class vehicle in North Carolina, exclusive of school buses, when compared on a basis of accidents per vehicle.
In the state last year there were 118,461 "commercial cars," which according to the division's records were involved in a total of 1,404 accidents, 143 of them fatal, which figures out one accident for each 828.

Figures for passenger cars were 9,870 accidents, 811 of them fatal, for a registration of 450,064 cars, or one accident for each 45 1/2 cars and one fatal accident for each 555 passenger vehicles.
The state's 4,850 school buses were involved in only 12 accidents (one for each 404), of which only three were fatal (one for each 1,607).

PRELIMINARY CERTIFICATE OF DISSOLUTION
State of North Carolina
Department of State.

To All to Whom These Presents May Come—Greeting:
Whereas, It appears to my satisfaction, by duly authenticated record of the proceedings for the voluntary dissolution thereof by the unanimous consent of all the stockholders, deposited in my office, that the Gritton Insurance Agency, Incorporated, a corporation of this State, whose principal office is situated in the Town of Grifton, County of Pitt, State of North Carolina (P. L. Stone being the agent therein and in charge thereof, upon whom process may be served), has complied with the requirements of Chapter 22, Consolidated Statutes, entitled "Corporations," preliminary to the issuing of this Certificate of Dissolution:

Now Therefore, I, Thad Eure, Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina, do hereby certify that the said corporation did, on the 18th day of April, 1939, file in my office a duly executed and attested consent in writing to the dissolution of said corporation, executed by all the stockholders thereof, which said consent and the record of the proceedings aforesaid are now on file in my said office as provided by law.

In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal at Raleigh, this 18th day of April, A. D., 1939.
THAD EURE,
Secretary of State.

HERE'S AN INTERESTING CIGARETTE COMPARISON... See how it's made by Al Conklin of Dartmouth

SMOKERS all over the country are learning what A. R. Conklin (right) is showing a group of Dartmouth men. It's a striking way to compare cigarettes by simply watching them burn! Al is testing the leading brands to find the one that burns slowest! Which brand won? C-A-M-E-L... by a wide margin! The reason? Costlier tobaccos, expertly blended in a cigarette that burns slowly, completely—smokes cooler, of course!

Recently, a group of scientists ran this interesting laboratory test on a bigger scale. 16 of the largest-selling cigarette brands were rated impartially. CAMELS BURNED SLOWER THAN ANY OTHER BRAND TESTED—25% SLOWER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME FOR THE OTHER BRANDS. (Camels were remarkably consistent.) IN THE SAME TEST, CAMELS HELD THEIR ASH FAR LONGER THAN THE AVERAGE TIME FOR ALL THE OTHER BRANDS.

Camel is the cigarette of costlier tobaccos... a cooler, milder, better-tasting smoke... every cigarette... every pack!

"Look how slowly the Camel burns compared to the other brands," Albert Conklin points out to the bunch. Everyone agrees that Camels win hands down. "No wonder Camels smoke so cool and mild," Al adds. "And that must have a lot to do with why Camels have such an appealing taste!"

Smoking is Believing!

WHEN you've enjoyed the thrill of a mellow, ripe-tasting Camel, you'll know that NOTHING can take the place of costlier tobaccos! What a wonderful pleasure it is to get set with a cigarette that is really mild—a matchless blend, made to give you all the pleasure in smoking.

Camels have more tobacco by weight than the average of the 15 other brands tested. Besides, Camels burn slower than any of those other brands. And by burning 25% slower than the average of the 15 other of the largest-selling brands, Camels give you the equivalent of 5 extra smokes per pack!

Camels give you even more for your money when you count in Camel's finer, more expensive tobaccos. Buy shrewdly! Buy Camels... America's first choice for a luxury smoke every smoker can afford!

Camel's slower burning (compared to the average time of the 15 other brands tested) gives you the equivalent of 5 extra smokes per pack! You economize while enjoying smoking pleasure at its best!
