KILLER OF TWO WISC. OFFICERS SHOT BY POSSE

Fugitive Killed Attempting to Flee In Boat

HAD LED CHASE THROUGH BRUSH

Murderer, Weary and Hungry, Killed After Entering Home For Food and Rest

Cable, Wis., June 29. (AP)—Ray Olson, fugitive killer of two special sheriff's deputies, was shot to death today while attempting to flee from four possemen, led by Constable Ernest Moore of Cable.

The shooting took place on a lake near the Wheatley Anderson farm 14 miles from Cable. Struck by four bullets, the killer, who had been hunted since June 17, toppled into the water from a boat which he was attempting to row.

Olson lived about 10 minutes. Before death he admitted the shooting of the deputies, Carl Johnson and Fred Scott of Hayward, and told the officers his wife was in no way connected with his law breaking.

Olson, who had led 200 possemen in a spectacular chase through the wild brush country of Sawyer and Bayfield counties for two weeks, finally was trapped because of his dire need of food and rest.

Weary and hungry, the 30-year-old fugitive broke into Anderson's home some time Wednesday afternoon. He cooked a meal, changed his clothing and apparently lay down to rest.

The Anderson family discovered something was amiss upon returning home last night. Anderson, realizing the situation, was surrounded the place.

Shortly after dawn today, Moore and his men closed in on the farm. Olson, hiding in an outhouse, broke for the woods. The possemen fired and gave chase.

They pursued their quarry through a clump of bushes and on to the lake shore, where Olson frantically tried to shove a boat off the lake.

A bullet from a .22 calibre rifle was the first to strike Olson.

Examiner in City For An Extra Day

M. J. McLeod, license examiner for the State Highway patrol, today announced that he will be in Greenville three days a week in the future, instead of two.

Examiner McLeod said he had been stationed at Plymouth on Wednesday, but had now been transferred to Greenville on this particular day. This will give persons in this vicinity an opportunity to apply for a driver's license on Monday, Wednesday or Friday.

The local hours for the examiner are as follows: Monday, 8:30 to 11; Wednesday, 8:30 to 4:30; and Saturday, 8:30 to 4:30.

Mrs. Robert Davis Claimed By Death

Mrs. Julia Sumrell Davis died at her home in Ayden yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock following a lingering illness. She was 56 years old and had been ill for two years.

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock by the Rev. W. H. Brunson and burial was in the Ayden cemetery.

Mrs. Davis was the wife of Robert C. Davis, Ayden constable, and daughters of Charles and Adams Sumrell. She was a member of the Ayden Christian Church and active in its affairs.

Besides her husband, surviving are two daughters, Miss Julia Bob Davis and Mrs. Wilbur Dunn; a stepson, R. Larry Davis; a sister, Miss Addie Sumrell; a brother, Walter Sumrell of Norfolk, Va., and two grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Salvation Army Here To Have Bible School

The Salvation Army will conduct a daily Vacation Bible school beginning July 3 and continuing for two weeks. All children in the community between the ages of 6 and 12 are invited to enroll.

Daily sessions will begin at 9:30 a. m. and continue until the noon hour.

The Salvation Army has announced that any church worker who is willing to give his or her time to the school will be honored on the teaching staff. Anyone interested should call Captain Brewer at 761.

Convicts' Hostage Wounded

This exclusive picture shows Mrs. Ruth Joiner of Crawfordsville, Ind., in a hospital with a gunshot wound in her shoulder after she was rescued from three convicts in the Indiana state prison at Michigan City. Mrs. Joiner, a welfare worker, was being shown through the prison when the convicts seized her, barricaded themselves and threatened her life unless they were freed. State police fired on the prisoners, wounding them, and forced them to release their hostage. She was wounded during the fight.

RAINS SPOTTY IN THIS STATE

Many Tar Heel Farmers Face Possible Drought

Raleigh, June 29.—(AP)—Many North Carolina farmers are sorely in need of rains on their crops, data available here today indicated, though no severe general drought conditions prevail.

H. E. Kichline, weather man, said there were some extremely dry spots in the Piedmont and mountain areas, but that ideal conditions might prevail "right close to the driest places."

He pointed out that the state was now having practically nothing but local showers which might dry after day sweep over one part of a county and leave the rest dry.

Last night there were nearly four and one-half inches of rain near Sotiland Neck, two inches at Weldon and one and a half at Rocky Mount. Within the city limits of Raleigh it showered on one section, a few drops fell in another, and the remainder went dry.

State Agriculture Department reports indicated a rather serious drought through most of the northeastern corner of the state, beyond the Albemarle sound from here. The area around Raleigh is also generally very dry.

No County Court Set For Here Next Week

Due to next Tuesday's coming on July Fourth, no session of County court will be held next week.

The docket of the tribunal is in good condition, about a dozen cases remaining at the conclusion of this week's session of County court not previously reported follow:

Spencer Peel, non-support, six months; Hermon Ebron, assault with a deadly weapon, ordered held in jail for mental examination; Burlie Spain, possessing illegal liquor, 30 days or pay on-half costs, appealed and bond set at $50; J. H. Tripp, drunk on highway, judgment suspended upon payment of costs; W. H. Roberson, possessing illegal liquor, judgment suspended upon payment of costs; R. C. Keys, driving drunk and careless and reckless, not guilty.

CHIEF SPEAKER ON NAVAL WEEK

Proclaims Poland's Determination To Retain Outlets Regardless of Adversary

Warsaw, June 29.—(AP)—President Moscicki in a broadcast speech climaxing Poland's naval week, today declared the nation's war-won seacoast and Pomerze, the Polish corridor, were the "air and sun of our existence as a state."

He proclaimed Poland's determination to keep her outlets to the sea, no matter how great her adversary or how heavy the outside pressure.

"In the traditional naval week every year," the president said, "the thoughts and sentiments of all Poland concentrate on the seacoast, of all our frontiers the shortest, yet most important, section, because three-quarters of our foreign trade passes through it."

"That is why the ports of Gdynia (in Poland, at the head of the Polish Corridor) and Danzig (which Germany wants returned to the Reich) have such exceptionally great significance for our national economy. That is why the Free City of Danzig is now bound to us by so many ties, as well as it was in past centuries."

"Although every acre of Polish soil is equally dear and close to us and in equal measure helps to make up the great entity of our native land, Pomerze and the seacoast are the basic elements of our economic and political independence."

"They are invaluable, the air and sun of our existence as a state."

Many From This City Attend World's Fair

World's Fair, New York.—Registrations at the North Carolina exhibit of the New York World's Fair reached its peak the past week when over 4,000 persons visited the display. The exhibit has caused quite diversified reactions but all agree that no state is as comprehensively portrayed as that of North Carolina in all its varied attractions and industries.

Among those registering from this city are Harvey Deal, W. L. Whitehurst, Ethel Whitehurst, Elizabeth Deal, Carl Abe, Jr., Mrs. L. A. Whitehurst, Walter R. Moritz, Vern Kuetemeyer, Joe Romano, Mary E. Stokes, Sarah Brown, D. R. Taylor, Lela Clark, G. S. Bruton, Jim Ficklen, Jr., C. M. Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Clayton, Harvey Clayton, Jr., Ruby Worrell, M. L. Wright, Kathryn Holzclaw, Stuart Ficklen, Elizabeth Rich, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bowen, Joe Bowen, Billy Bowen, Nora Lee Harris and Ailya Taylor.

Revocation Of Licenses During Month Totals 439

Reflector Bureau. By HENRY AVERILL. Raleigh, June 29.—Revocation of drivers licenses in North Carolina during the current month of June reached a total of 439, of which 109 were in the 27 wet counties, 299 in the 773 legally arid units of the state, and a total of 31 from non-residents of North Carolina, according to figures released today by Ronald Hocutt, director of the Highway Safety Division.

The total revocations since the state adopted its "take-away" policy hereby reached 22,692, the report showed.

Of the 439 revocations no less than 393 were for drunken driving, either standing alone or in combination with some other offense, and it seems safe to assume that some other cause listed (such as hit and run driving) probably included operation after imbibing too much.

Gulfport county stood first in revocations, with 31, closely followed by Forsyth's 28. Rowan and Wake, first wet counties to make their appearance in the standing of the counties, tied for third with 18 each; with Mecklenburg and Moore deadlocked for fifth with 16 each. Then came Iredell with 13, Jackson

SEEK CHANGES FOR WEED ACT

Sec. Arnold Assured Amendments Will Be Enacted

Raleigh, June 29.—(AP)—E. F. Arnold, secretary of the Farm Bureau Federation, said today he had been assured that Congress would have a chance in the very near future to act on proposed amendments to the tobacco section of the AAA.

Representative Harold Cooley, who is backing the proposals, was quoted by Arnold as saying that the amendments were on the House calendar and if they are not acted upon Monday would then be taken up soon thereafter under a special rule.

The amendments would permit ordering of tobacco referenda after July 1 instead of after November 15; change the penalty tax; fix the poundage production of growers who observe their allotments as the total harvest instead of an arbitrary number of pounds; and increase allotments of "little farmers."

Holds That Labor Hurts Own Cause

Atlanta, June 29.—(AP)—Labor leaders, pressing for a 32½-cent an hour minimum wage in the textile industry, were described today as being in danger of cutting their own throats by forcing adoption of labor-saving machinery and elimination of workers.

Testifying before Wage-Hour Administrator Elmer Andrews at a public hearing on the proposal, Frederick Moore of Charlotte, N. C., said basically wages could be increased only as the output of workers was increased.

That meant, he added, that just as many workers would lose their jobs and incomes as pay increases were granted those remaining at work.

To Buy Fans For N. C. UCC Offices

Raleigh, June 29.—(AP)—Governor Hoyer received a telegram today from Rev. R. L. Doughton saying that the Federal Social Security Board had authorized purchase of additional "pedestal adjustable fans" for the state UCC offices, where 16 persons have suffered heat prostration in recent weeks.

The governor said he had no other information, but apparently the Social Security Board had rejected a proposal for "blower fans" to change air frequently in the offices.

Mrs. Leona Howell Dies This Morning

Mrs. Leona Howell, 66, died at the home of her son, J. D. Howell of near Pinepots, this morning at 10:30 o'clock following a three-days' illness.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home of her son Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock by the Rev. L. E. Manning, Free Will Baptist minister of King's cross roads, and burial will be in the Hathaway family cemetery.

Mrs. Howell had been a life-long resident of Pitt county. She joined the Free Will Baptist Church at King's cross roads 35 years ago and took an interest in affairs of the church.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. W. I. Corbette of near Falkland; two sons, J. D. Howell of Pinepots and L. M. Howell of near Pictolous; one sister, Mrs. Betty Keel; and 16 grandchildren and one great grandchild.

WOULD EXTEND MUTUAL PACT

Proposed That Baltic States Also Be Included

London, June 29.—(AP)—Britain was said by informed quarters today to have sent proposals to Moscow for inclusion of the Baltic states and Belgium, Holland and Switzerland in the proposed Anglo-French-Russian mutual assistance pact.

This proposal was said to have been in the latest instructions which the British dispatched to Sir Wilfrid Seeds, British ambassador to Russia.

Sources close to the government discounted an article published in Moscow today in the official organ of the Communist party saying that the negotiations had run into a "blind alley."

The new instructions, these sources said, would come very close to solving Russia's original demands and a agreement was expected next week or week after next, at the latest. Negotiations have been in progress for two and a half months.

Fears that a major crisis would be precipitated soon in Danzig was expressed in Britain, where a movement was under way to strengthen still further the nation's reserved man power.

The British press, which voiced fears that Nazis were "preparing mischief" this week-end in Danzig, gave prominence to Winston Churchill's prediction yesterday of a summer of friction and to Anthony Eden's advice that Britain "be tough, talk tough, act tough" to keep peace.

Adolf Hitler's Berlin newspaper ridiculed reports of impending Nazi action as "wild rumors over an immediate Nazi coup in Danzig." But overnight reports were received here from Warsaw that well-trained Germans were being organized into a Danzig "free corps" for any emergency in that free city.

PUSHES FIGHT TO RETAIN POWER OF PRESIDENT

Secretary Morgenthau Opposes Any Curtailment

BILL CONSIDERED IN CONFERENCE

Treasury Head Says Public Will Need To Worry If Authority Not Continued

Washington, June 29.—(AP)—Secretary Morgenthau voiced the administration's unflinching opposition to curtailment of President Roosevelt's monetary powers today with an assertion that "farmers, business men and laborers had better start worrying about the dollar" if devaluation authority is not continued.

While Senate Majority Leader Barkley and House Majority Leader Rayburn conferred with Mr. Roosevelt at the White House about the bitter contest over the President's emergency powers over money, the treasury secretary told his press conference:

"Certainly since 1934 no farmer, business man or laborer needed to worry about the dollar, but they had better start worrying now if the devaluation power lapses tomorrow night."

Apparently the main hope of the administration in preventing that lapse was to work out in a conference committee of Senators and Representatives some compromise of Senate restrictions in the pending monetary bill which would split a coalition of hard-money Republicans and silver-state Senators.

These groups joined to write into the bill a treasury price of 77.57 cents an ounce for domestic silver and to vote an end to the President's authority to devalue the dollar further.

Little time remains. If no bill is passed before Friday midnight, the devaluation power as well as the $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund expire automatically.

Rayburn said the $1,800,000,000 relief bill approved by the Senate in today's early hours and swiftly sent to the House by a joint conference as soon as the chamber met today, also would be finished in time to become law. He added it was the leadership's intention to keep the House in session tonight, if necessary, to finish action on the pending neutrality bill.

Meanwhile, the Treasury cut its price for foreign silver to 38 cents an ounce shortly after Secretary Morgenthau said the price would be adjusted to that on the London market.

The price was cut from 38½ cents an ounce.

The world price cut in as many days brought the price exactly five cents below the level it had held since March, 1933, until Tuesday noon.

Also the Senate ratified a treaty with Great Britain, providing for the exchange of 600,000 bales of American cotton for British rubber.

The agreement was ratified in less than a minute without a dissenting vote when it was called up.

Earlier in the day the Senate Banking committee had approved legislation to permit this country to carry out terms of the agreement.

Wells-Fleming

In an impressive June ceremony of picturesque loveliness, Miss Laura Smith Fleming and Harold William Wells, Jr., were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at five-thirty o'clock in the Memorial Methodist Church...

A program of nuptial music was rendered by Mrs. G. B. W. Hadley prior to the ceremony, selections including Schubert's "Serenade," "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," by Herbert, "Oh, Promise Me," and "Lullaby" by Liszt.

Just before the entrance of the wedding party, Mrs. Knott Proctor, wearing a gown of dusty rose chiffon trimmed with black velvet...

The bridesmaids, Miss Nan Seward of Petersburg, Virginia, Miss Pearl Lautes, Mrs. Staunton Harvey, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Rex Hodges of this city, entered wearing floor length dresses of flesh net designed by LeLong...

The ring bearer, Master William H. Taft, Jr., nephew of the bride, wearing a pink Irish linen suit, entered with the flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Van Calvin Fleming. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and William K. Stewart, as best man.

The bride's wedding gown, designed by Le Long, was of flesh net, made with corseted waist and high neckline piped with flesh taffeta...

During the ceremony, Mrs. Hadley softly played "I Love You Truly" by Bond. For the recessional the Wedding March from Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream" was played.

For the wedding Mrs. V. C. Fleming, mother of the bride, wore an allx model of ice blue chiffon trimmed with lace. Her hat was of ice blue starched net with ribbon velvet trimming matching her gown.

Mrs. Harold Wells, mother of the bridegroom, wore an aqua blue organza gown with a pink horsehair braid hat.

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR Thursday, June 29, 1899

Great Need For One. Editor Reflector: Why can't we have a graded school in Greenville? Will someone tell me? We want our children educated, not only the rich, but the poor.

We now have a town, say of 3,500 people. We all pay taxes and all pay school bills, and the total amount is considerably more than we would have to pay to the graded school for our children the same number of days.

The graded school will give far better advantages by having the best teachers, the best methods and the best results. And the cost, if anything, would be less than we pay now. Why not have it?

If we have good schools in our town it would mean an increased growth, for as all know, the people of the country are looking for good schools and will go to the town that offers the best means of mental training. It would be a god-send if we had a good large building suitable for a graded school, and run it ten months in the year.

Let us all arouse and see what can be done on this line. A TAX PAYER.

Brown, brides-elect of this month, were presented corsages of pink roses and sweetpeas.

"Bright tables marked each guest's place. Teed drinks were served during the game.

High score bridge prize went to Mrs. Wadie Ward; second high to Mrs. William Andrews. High score Chinese checkers prize was won by Mrs. Hemmingway, while traveling prize fell to Mrs. Reginald Etheridge.

There were many beautiful and useful gifts received by Mrs. Roberson.

The hostesses served a delicious ice course carrying out the color motif of pink and white.

Entertained At Breakfast. On Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock Mrs. W. E. Hooker and Miss Louisa Hooker entertained at breakfast honoring Miss Elizabeth Ferguson.

The home on East Fifth street was decorated throughout with red and white flowers.

The bride's table in the dining room was covered with a red and white cloth and centered with an attractive arrangement of red and white flowers.

To each place card was attached a red-handled kitchen utensil. These utensils were later presented to Miss Ferguson.

The honoree's place was designated with a rag doll whose body was made of woven towels and whose head was steel wool.

Following a delightful breakfast, the hostesses presented the honor guest a package beautifully wrapped in silver and white paper, tied with a red bow and containing an electric clock.

Mrs. B. B. Joyner of Fayetteville, and Miss Mary Jane Robertson of Mt. Sterling, Ky., house guest of Mrs. E. J. Garrett, were remembered with gifts.

Bellboys should be tipped from fifteen cents to a quarter for taking you to your room.

By JOAN DURHAM AP Feature Service Writer

Travel means tipping, and that puts a lot of us in a quandary. "Make me a list of tips, won't you?" begs a gentleman from Nebraska planning to visit the New York World's Fair.

Here's what it takes: Bellboys—Fifteen cents to a quarter for taking you to your room; for doing errands, a dime a trip.

Hotel Maids—No tip if you stay less than a week; five per cent of the bill for longer stays. (The general manager of the St. Regis Hotel helped me on that. "Put the tip in an envelope and leave it at the desk," he said. "And specify WHICH maid. The day maid does most of the work. The night maid turns down your covers."

Writers—Ten per cent of the bill; in ultra-smart places slightly more. Hat-Check Girls—From a dime to a quarter. Taxi Drivers—A nickel or a dime for fares up to 75 cents; 10 per cent over that.

Beauty Parlor Operators—A dime for bills up to 75 cents; 10 per cent for over that. When in Doubt—Apply the 10 per cent rule.

Chemurgy in College. Denton, Texas.—(AP)—A course in chemurgy, new science of finding new uses for farm products, will be offered this summer at North Texas State Teachers College.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells left for un-announced points on a honeymoon. After July 15th they will be at home at 204 North 16th street, Wilmington.

For traveling, Mrs. Wells wore powder blue crepe with matching accessories and corsage of orchids.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding and reception were: Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lilly, Dr. and Mrs. Sandy Mark, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lawther, Jr., W. K. Stewart, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. John Sheehan of Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Fleming, Ernest Fleming, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Fleming of Rocky Mount; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Winslow, Washington, N. C.; Miss Louise Roebuck, Miss Marjorie Roebuck, Robersonville; Mr. Bob Bracken, Sanford; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith, Mrs. Nonie Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Barrett, Miss Verma Lee Joyner and Miss Frances Joyner of Farmville; Mrs. A. L. Seward, Miss Nan Seward and Mr. Walter Brown of Petersburg, Va.

Reception. Immediately following the Wells-Fleming wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Van Calvin Fleming entertained at a reception in honor of the wedding party. The Fleming home was lovely, decorated with gladioli, shasta daisies and delphinium.

The ring bearer, Master William H. Taft, Jr., nephew of the bride, wearing a pink Irish linen suit, entered with the flower girl.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Van Calvin Fleming. They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and William K. Stewart, as best man.

During the ceremony, Mrs. Hadley softly played "I Love You Truly" by Bond. For the recessional the Wedding March from Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream" was played.

Mrs. Harold Wells, mother of the bridegroom, wore an aqua blue organza gown with a pink horsehair braid hat.

Mrs. Wells is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Van Calvin Fleming. She received her degree from East Carolina Teachers College and for the past four years has been teaching in the city schools of Wilmington. She is a prominent member of Eastern Carolina society and was widely entertained prior to her marriage.

Service At Fleming's Cross Roads. On next Sunday evening, July 2nd, at 8:45 p. m., the men's Bible class of the First Presbyterian Church, Greenville, will conduct a song service and Dr. Boyd, pastor, will preach on the new lot at Wilson and Green streets, in the Meadowbrook addition at Fleming's Cross Roads, which was recently presented by Mr. E. G. Flanagan and Mr. N. O. Warren as the site for a new church building. All citizens are invited to attend. Bring your children and your next door neighbors.

No seats are available yet, but a newspaper will serve very well for a seat for the short service planned. Mr. Hunter Keck, president of the Bible class sponsoring this movement, will make a short statement as to future plans.

The evenings are long and the twilight beautiful these June days. Come and enjoy this service with your neighbors and help start something that will help make your community a better place in which to live and rear your children.

Mrs. Hoke Roberson Honored. Bethel, June 29—Beautiful in simplicity was the bridge party and shower given Friday afternoon by Mrs. Alton Clapp, Mrs. Ralph Carson and Mrs. W. C. Whitehurst, at the club house in Turbo, in honor of Mrs. Hoke Roberson.

The entire floor was artistically decorated, with garden flowers forming a lovely setting for ten tables of bridge and four of Chinese checkers. Mrs. Roberson and Miss Lillie

Dr. and Mrs. M. B. Massey invited the guests into the dining room, which was especially attractive with white gladioli, snapdragons and feverfew. The table was covered with an Irish lace cloth with a centerpiece of white roses, gypsophylla and feverfew. On each side silver holders contained burning tapers.

Mrs. G. B. W. Hadley and Mrs. T. H. Boykin were seated at the table and served molded ices from large silver platters. Misses Alice Hicks Smith, Rebecca Scoville, Alice Lee Keel and Virginia Bradshaw assisted, passing cakes and mints which carried out a pink and white color scheme.

From the dining room the guests were shown to the register and registered by Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Fleming directed the guests to the gift room, where the large number of hand-some gifts were displayed.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Winslow and Dr. and Mrs. K. E. Pace invited the guests to the music room. Here the punch table was arranged with a lace cloth, crystal bowl and smilax. Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds May and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Har-

COLORED RACE TO HAVE BEACH

Area For Negroes To Be Opened First Of July

Reflector Bureau. Raleigh, June 29.—Opening of the bathing beach and recreational area developed exclusively for Negroes at Jones lake, in Bladen county, has been set for July 1, Director R. Bruce Etheridge of the Department of Conservation and Development said today.

The area was purchased originally by the Farm Security Administration of the United States Department of Agriculture, but it was recently leased to the Department of Conservation and Development by which it will be administered.

The development consists of the bathing beach, bath house with capacity of 400 persons at one time, bathing pier, sanitary facilities with running water, drinking fountains, picnic and parking areas, a concessions building and boats for hire.

No charge will be made for use of the picnic grounds or parking area, but a charge of 15 cents will be made for adults using the bath house, and of 10 cents for children—these prices for those having their own bathing suits. An additional charge of five cents will be made for soap and towel. Those not having their own suits may rent them at 25 cents, in addition to the other charges.

No one will be permitted to bring their own suits and put them on in cars or in other places than the bath house. Persons may wear bathing suits, if covered with a rain coat or bath robe, to the lake; but may not change into other clothing later except through use of the bath house.

"Purpose of the development is to provide clean, wholesome outdoor recreation for Negroes of the southeastern part of the state," said Thomas W. Morse, superintendent of state parks in the department. "We believe the Jones lake area will fill a long felt want."

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER

Gloria Swanson, once Hollywood's highest paid actress, has just opened a business office in New York to handle inventions. She says her film career now seems as though it were a dream.

Gloria Swanson Somborn, 18, daughter of the former movie actress and of the late Herbert Somborn, is planning to be married to Robert Williams Anderson, 20, son of a Los Angeles contractor.

LADIES OF THE STAGE

Tallulah Bankhead, actress-daughter of Speaker Bankhead of the House, prepares to go before a Senate committee to plead for continuation of the federal theater project.

Man About Manhattan

New York—The clearance of slums on Manhattan's east side is getting the acclaim of everyone except the people who live there. They themselves cheered the idea while it was still an idea. But when it came right down to moving their families and belongings from those ancient firetraps, the people balked.

They all had plenty of reasons—but when they were boiled down they amounted practically to this: why be in a hurry? Why move now? Where will we find new lodgings with patient landlords? Our children will have to change schools. And many of us were born here. We've lived here for generations. It's home. No matter where we go we shall in all likelihood have to pay more than we are paying now. One of the districts now being razed is Corleals Hook Park. Everybody welcomed the idea until a date for abandonment was fixed. Then they began moaning. They signed petitions, made entreaties to the Mayor, but it was no soap. Those vote old rat holes will have to come down. In their place will rise new and modern apartment houses. It will mean a cleaner and more wholesome environment for children. Meanwhile, the moaning and groaning continues. So does the process of rehabilitation.

Don't try to call upon Mayor LaGuardia at his home unless you're armed with a personal invitation. You won't get in. And you'll find a cop at the door to see to it that you don't get in. As a matter of fact, there's a cop there 24 hours a day. You may not see him at first. He may be standing around the corner, or in a nearby doorway. But, as soon as you head toward the street entrance of Hizonor's apartment building, the bluecoat will challenge your presence.

However, should you be so fortunate as to get yourself an invitation to call at the LaGuardia domicile, we'll tell you that it's on the top floor of a 10-story apartment house at Fifth avenue and 109th street. It's just on the edge of Fifth avenue's aristocratic section. Just one block north of the Mayor's address lies one of the roughest, toughest neighborhoods in all Manhattan. For, like Park venue, the upper section of Fifth avenue is no bargain. Mayor LaGuardia, however, says he's lived in this same neighborhood for years, and he doesn't want to move. Of course, there were no badlands near where Mr. LaGuardia first took up a residence in the territory.

Anyway, the Mayor spends a lot of his time in various summer homes traveling, and in general, staying away from home.

Have you ever noticed those three flanges or ridges, along the rounded steel bumpers of every subway and elevated railroad car in New York? Well, they're not there as mere trimmings. In case of a collision, the flange of one car interlock with the flanges of the next and the cars can't telescope. It's a simple idea, but an effective one. It has doubtless saved many lives. It was thought up some 30 years ago by a young car designer who is still collecting royalties from the patent.

FOUR BLIND DATES

By Edwin Ruff

YESTERDAY, The wolfhound Lily, who looks like a fugitive from the Zoo, corners a young lady in Central Park.

Chapter 20 Sheer Blackmail

PACKY glanced quickly at Lily, then snapped her fingers. "I'll ask the first person that comes by to drive this dog away."

"Oh, no, you won't," answered Tacks. "It would embarrass you too much. I know your type. You try to give the impression of being strong and self-reliant."

"You see," said Tacks, "that dog isn't going to stand any nonsense. Now I'll tell you what I'll do, Miss North. You've treated me shamefully. I'll overlook that if you'll do as I say."

"Where," she asked, "do you suppose this dog came from? Certainly nobody would keep a dog like that in New York?"

"Oh, you never now," Tacks said slyly. "New Yorkers do funny things. I had a pal once who kept a barracuda in the bathtub. That was an isolated case, of course."

"Well, Miss North," he said, "it's been nice to see you. I hope you pass a comfortable night sleeping like a baby."

Goodby Gesture

TACKS got up off the coping. Tacks's voice had sounded very resolute and it looked as if he were licked. He decided, however, to brazen this thing out.

"Well, here we are at the exit. All we need now is a taxi." A thought struck Packy. "Are you going to force me to ride with that dog?"

"Oh, come on!" she said. "But I warn you, this is the final insult." Her heels made an angry sound as they clattered down the stone steps.

SHORT SHOTS

Raleigh, June 29.—Football games have grown to be inexcusably expensive, dangerously influential in college government, obviously immoral in many of their methods to secure victory and are frequently attended by scandalous conduct.

No, that isn't an excerpt from the Carnegie Foundation's report, but a part of what the governing body of Trinity College—now Duke University—had to say 25 years ago this week—as reported by Hugo Germino in his sprightly Durham Sun column, "You May Not Agree."

can guess why not.

Failure of the North Carolina convention of the American Legion to adopt any resolution opposing clemency for Fred Beal, against whom the Gastonia post recently fluminated in fiery fashion, was hailed by many as quite the appropriate attitude for the departmental gathering to take.

Despite North Carolina's justifiable pride in the Roanoke Island "Lost Colony" celebration, a Virginian will deliver the opening sermon of the 352nd anniversary celebration at Fort Raleigh, Sunday, July 2, according to a press release of D. B. Fearing, president of the Roanoke Island Historical Association, which sponsors the summer-long celebration.

This will make the first time the association has gone out of the state for a religious leader to open the celebration.

The Virginian to be honored is the Rt. Rev. William A. Brown, bishop of the Southern Diocese of Virginia.

Colonel Bain Takes Command!

Brewers and Distributors Inaugurate North Carolina "Clean-Up or Close-Up" Campaign. State and Local Enforcement Heads Endorse Plan.

IN NORTH CAROLINA, as in many other states, a few retail beer outlets which flout the law, often bring discredit upon the entire business.

Brewers and distributors are convinced that this business can and should always be conducted properly and in full conformity with the law, and they are determined that this shall be the case in North Carolina.

Consequently, we, the undersigned, recently formed the Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee which, acting in close cooperation with state and local enforcement bodies, has launched a vigorous cooperative campaign to rid the state of those few beer outlets which persist in disregarding both the law and the public.

In plain words, we refuse any longer to tolerate outlets which use their beer licenses as a "cover-up" for flagrant bootlegging operations; which sell to minors or otherwise violate the law and their license privileges. With the brewers, our Committee includes wholesalers who distribute approximately ninety per cent of the beer sold in North Carolina. And we also have the wholehearted support of the large majority of our respectable and law-abiding retailers.

Furthermore, duly constituted enforcement officials have approved our objectives and promised their help. And ACTION is certain now that Attorney General McMullan has declared it is the duty of municipal and county boards, on request for revocation of malt beverage licenses, to hold hearings.

Colonel Edgar H. Bain, of Goldsboro, N. C., has been appointed by the Committee to direct its activities.

"Good Conduct" Committees of local beer distributors, each headed by a chairman, have been set up in ten districts of the state for close cooperation with law enforcement officers, and with our own Executive Committee, in eradicating objectionable places of business.

Established on a permanent basis, our Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee seeks to protect the legitimate beer business in North Carolina from the depredations of a small and irresponsible minority, and to perform a worthwhile service to the public. The Committee is sponsored by the United Brewers Industrial Foundation, a national organization of brewers.

The Brewers and North Carolina Beer Distributors Committee is convinced that its work is in the public interest. Therefore, we respectfully solicit your cooperation with our efforts.

Battling Goldsboro Knocks Greenville Out Of Win

ARLY'S HOMER PROVES FATAL

Rusty And Red Get Round-Trippers As Locals Lose 10-9

While Joe Louis was landing blows that put out Tony Galento's lights last night, Goldsboro was also landing blows against Greenville's anatomy (with the lethal smasher coming off the end of Arky Vaughn's bat in the ninth inning) to "put out the lights" in the Goldsboro park and give the Bugs a 10-9 win.

When that ninth inning rolled around the score was deadlocked at 9-all. Mule Shirley had sent Marvin Gramly into the game in an effort to hold those league-leading Greens. Marvin did a swell job in retarding the Greens, but if it hadn't been for that fellow Vaughn, there is no telling how long the game would have lasted.

In Aesop's fables, the rabbit got ahead, but lost the race. Greenville duplicated the feat of the rabbit last night, but the tortoise, the Goldsboro team, caught the Greens napping and broke the tape in a dash that lasted nine innings.

Only two innings were required for the Greens to build up an 8-run lead. Rusty McCall was far removed from being "rusty" last night when he connected with a beautiful pitch that sent the ball sailing over the wall with two aboard. A pair of singles coupled with McCall's blow gave the locals a 4-0 lead. But Red Christopher, Greenville second-sacker, wasn't satisfied with just one homer, so he homered over the left field wall with the bases full to put Greenville in front with an 8-0 count. This was too much for "Chunky Shirley" so he motioned to Pete Kunis to dismount from his steed and put the animal in the stables for the night. Gramly took over the handling assignment and the locals managed to touch him for only five safeties.

An over-dose of self-confidence and carelessness permitted the Gold Bugs to score five runs in the fifth, an average of one run for every inning covered. Two hits, four walks, and another mistake accounted for the Bugs' success in the fifth.

A round-tripper by Sandy Peele, good for two runs, and another run on a pair of singles and a walk, deadlocked the score at 8-all in the "lucky" seventh. A free ticket and a pair of singles put Goldsboro ahead 9-8. However, McCall's double and a single knocked the score at 9-8.

Then Arky Vaughn blasted his sixteenth blow in the ninth. That was the end of the ball game.

SHOWERS WIN FOR SOFTBALL

Continue Play Friday Night In City, However

Games between Tadlock and Gulf and Double Cola and Carolina Sales in the Greenville softball loop were rained out last night, but play will continue Friday night.

Friday night's games will find the Carolina Dairy tangling with Water and Light and R. C. Cola competing with Blount-Harvey Company.

Royal Crown is leading the loop at present and tomorrow night's game will determine whether its average is raised or lowered. Carolina Dairy, cellarites of the league, will be playing a second-place team.

Amazing Tabby. Washougal, Wash.—(AP)—Splatters, a purebred Persian cat, goes in for the unusual. She celebrated her eighteenth birthday recently by having a litter of healthy kittens.

Later, when a neighbor's rabbit deserted its day-old bunnies, Splatters came to the rescue — mothering them carefully despite the theory infant rabbits are an epicurean treat to cats.

WILSON GIVEN NEW STADIUM

Top Off Dedication With 5-4 Win Over Williamston

It took a 5-4 win over Williamston to make the dedication of Wilson's $76,000 municipal stadium something worth remembering. There will be over 2,000 people who will have the opportunity of remembering the dedication and victory, in that there were over 2,000 in attendance.

Rain threatened to intervene and halt the gala festivities in the "old and new" East Carolina baseball town, but the Wilson club wasn't afraid of threats, went into the game with the determination to win, and emerged victorious.

Things didn't look so good for the winners in the outset and they went for five consecutive scoreless innings. Meantime, Williamston took a three-run lead in the trio of innings that followed the first three and Wilson edged into the scoring column and chalked up a pair of tallies. Williamston scored another run in the ninth, but this was not sufficient to overcome the two made in the eighth and one in the seventh.

Rain fell in the sixth inning at Tartoro yesterday afternoon, with Kinston's Eagles ahead 11-2, and that's the way the game ended. It was a fine day for football. The field was soggy, threatening clouds hanging overhead threatened to spill rain any minute and the players nor the spectators appeared to care what happened.

A game scheduled between Snow Hill and New Era was washed out, so athletic excitement was at a stand-still as far as the Bears and the Billies were concerned.

'RED' ROEBUCK CLINCHES WIN

Pitches and Hits Legion Juniors to 9-2 Triumph

Red Roebuck, Stokes youngster, pitched and hit the Greenville Junior American Legion's way to a 9-2 victory over the Rocky Mount Junior American Legionnaires here yesterday afternoon.

It was the second win over the visitors for the locals, and the second win in several seasons starts for the Greenville entry.

The red-headed Pitt County boy, handling the ball like a veteran, and the bat like an expert, limited the Rocky Mount fellows to 8 hits and then made a perfect day of things by batting in five runs with a three-bagger, a two-bagger and a pair of singles. Harrington and Tripp got three hits apiece to follow Roebuck in hitting ways.

Ford, batting three for four, featured the visitors' hitting attack. Greenville had little trouble taming the Rocky Mount youngsters, limiting them to only singles in the sixth and eighth innings. Teal featured afield for the Greens.

Score: Rocky Mount..... 000 001-2 Greenville..... 010 103 31x-9 Williams and Carr; Roebuck and McLawhorn, Clark.

OBES NATIONAL GUARDS PUT ON SLENDERIZING DIETS

Sante Fe, N. M.—(AP)—It may be an exaggeration but officials attending National Guard encampment at Camp Luna, near here, contend the mess officer is buying greens by the bale.

"It's because of a new order that the regular army's specifications for physical fitness," said Adjutant General R. C. Charlton.

"Most of our officers are far overweight and use fat ones are on a strict diet in camp. So we've got plenty of slenderizing green things on the menu."

JAPANESE FLOUR BAGS USED FOR CHINESE PANTS

Melbourne.—(AP)—Japan may not know it, but for months she has been helping to provide the Chinese with trousers. Many of Australia's calico flour bags come from Japan and when they are filled some go to China. Emptied, they are made by the Chinese into pants, and the fact that "Best Australian" is stenciled boldly across the seats is a minor detail for the wearers. It is estimated that a consignment for Tientsin this month will clothe, at least partially, 32,750 Chinese.

Your Screen Test

1. What picture, with a cast of comparative unknowns, was so successful that a sequel, with practically the same actors, is being made and additional pictures for a series planned?

2. Identify the two following character actors: (a) He won Academy awards for his performances in "Come and Get It" and "Kentucky"; (b) He played a doctor in "Stagecoach" and "Hurricane."

3. What Hollywood newcomer (she's shown in the picture if that'll help) knocked film moguls for a row with her charm, beauty and singing in Broadway's sentimental Valentine of last season, "The Two Bachelors," and now is being called the "female Edward G. Robinson" and playing such roles in "Persons in Hiding" and "The Magnificent Fraud"?

4. What actress who has had great success since the days of "Dancing Daughters" is now more in need of a good picture than any ranking star in Hollywood?

5. Who are the following: (a) He's eight years old, won one of the most coveted child roles of the year in the screen adaptation of a Broadway play, has eight brothers and sisters who have played in films; (b) Her brother is one of best known sound engineers in Hollywood; (c) He won a lawsuit over a picture called "Tumbleweeds" and soon will be seen on the talkie screen for the first time in a prologue to a reissue of that picture; (d) Her real name is Sandra Lee Henville and she scored heavily in her first picture in a male impersonation.

Count 20 points for each question correctly answered. A score of 60 is good, 80 is excellent, and 90 or above is colossal.

JEW'S BRAINS—AND A FIRE—BEAT NAZI MONEY RULES

London.—(AP)—A German Jew has found a new way of defeating the Nazi currency regulations—by the tune of $280,000.

A British lawyer called to Berlin to take details of British stock certificates, watched astounded as his client threw them on the fire.

After reaching England the refugee had the lawyer file a sworn statement as to the destruction of the certificates. Under British law this enabled him to obtain the necessary duplicates—at a cost of around $720.

GREEN TRAFFIC LIGHTS BURN OUT BEFORE RED

Memphis, Tenn.—(AP)—Memphis police have pondered this question for years: Why do bulbs used in green traffic lights burn out three times as fast as identical bulbs in the red and amber signals?

It's true in almost every instance, says C. V. Starker, superintendent of fire and police signals. He theorizes it might be that because the green bulb is at the bottom of the signal it is closer to the street and therefore subjected to greater degrees of heat.

IS GERMANY GETTING READY TO MAKE ANOTHER GRAB?

By The AP Feature Service
Since the breakup of Czechoslovakia, maps have shown that the territory of that country is held by Germany and Hungary—a small piece of Poland. They have been fundamentally correct. Theoretical-ly, however, one unit of the former republic emerged from the second major breakup in March as a new state. It is tiny Slovakia (popula-tion 2,800,000), "protected" by Ger-many and give a 25-year promise of independence. Many Slovaks fear that Germany and Hungary want their territory outright. And German military activity, apparently part of plans looking for a show-down with Poland, is reported in the area indicated on this map. Never-theless the state plans establish-ment of a constitutional republic with a president elected for seven years. The capital is Bratislava, in the southwestern corner.

N. C. FARMERS TO HOLD MEET

Round-Table Talks Planned for "Timber Farmers"

Raleigh, June 29.—A forestry round-table for "timber farmers," will be an important part of the 36th annual Farmers' and Farm Women's convention to be held at State College July 31-August 4. It was announced today by R. W. Graeber, forester of the State Col-lege Extension Service. The conven-tion, popularly known as "Farm and Home Week" will this year be what the name implies—a farmers' and farm women's meeting, with the programs by and for them.

Graeber said that the forestry round-table will be held at 11 a. m. on Tuesday, August 1. To launch the discussion, 12 "timber farmers" from different parts of the state have been invited to tell in five minutes each, just what they are doing in developing a forestry pro-gram on their farms.

"Some will give their experiences and results in forest planting on waste land; others their methods of thinning timber to get firewood or commercial timbers; some will dis-cuss fire-prevention methods; and others marketing problems," the extension specialist said.

This will be just one of many phases of agriculture and home-making discussed in round-table fashion during the Farm and Home Week, according to John W. Good-man, assistant extension director, and Miss Ruth Current, state home demonstration agent, who are in charge of arrangements. Plans are going forward rapidly for a well-rounded program of education and entertainment, expected to attract from 5,000 to 6,000 North Carolina farmers and their wives and fam-ilies.

George R. Sockwell of Guilford county is president of the Farmer's convention and Mrs. W. E. Neill of Mecklenburg county is head of the Home Demonstration clubs in the state. They will preside.

An incandescent lamp was invent-ed by William Robert Grove in 1840; Edison's, introduced in 1880, was an improvement.

GRADUATION EXERCISES KEEP MOTHER HOPPING

Denver.—(AP)—It's a tour for Mrs. Denver McCarthy, this keeping abreast of the family's commencement ceremonies.

In Washington, D. C., she saw her son, Dennis, receive his diploma from Georgetown University law school. Next day she flew to Salt Lake City where her daughter, Kathleen, was graduated from the University of Utah. The next day she was back home in Denver to attend graduation exercises of another daughter, Mary, at Kent School.

STATE OF WASHINGTON GOT NAME FROM KENTUCKIAN

Olympia, Wash.—(AP)—The state of Washington is celebrating its fiftieth anniversary, and it is doing so under that name only because of a Kentuckian.

Delegates who engineered the secession from Oregon, petitioned Congress to name the new territory "Columbia." But Representative Stanford of Kentucky had a differ-ent idea and put through an amendment to the congressional bill.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, June 29.—(AP)—Ap-prehension over renewed European war talks and the monetary battle in Congress apparently served as a selling excuse in the stock market today and leaders at the worst drop-ped one to more than three points.

Dealings, fairly lively in the fore-noon, slacked up subsequently, with transfers approximating 800,000 shares.

Governor Long Plunges Into Work

Gov. Earl K. Long of Louisiana, who was sworn in at Baton Rouge immediately following the resignation of Gov. Richard W. Leche, is shown rolling up his sleeves preparatory to plunging into his first full day's work as chief executive in the massive, ornate capitol built by his brother, the late U. S. Senator Huey P. Long.

Hollywood

Sights And Sounds
By Robbin Coons
Hollywood.—Catching Joy Hodges between engagements, I—Ouch! Oh, it's you, Joy, looking over this shoulder, huh?
Oh, so you don't wanna talk about engagements, is that it? You're sick and tired of this romance talk. Well, can't say that I blame you. It got pretty funny for a while there.
First it was Robert Wilcox, wasn't it? Yes. You two met one day and three weeks later you left for New York and "Id Rather Be Right," and there were lots of stories about love spanning the continent by telephone, and then one day (there was another story on this, too) you decided to forget it, both of you. And some time later Bob married Florence Rice, surprising everybody because Florence, as actresses will do, had been saying pretty positively that she didn't like to date actors.
But by that time (all I knew was what I read in the papers) your heart, Joy, belonged to actor Lee Bowman. Handsome guy, Lee. There was an engagement, duly announced with a lot of publicity, and then there wasn't. Lee got sore, or you did, about one of the stories, and the whole thing was off. But by that time, Joy, you'd been "typed" for romance.

You're being pretty sensible now, the things you're saying. Like "The next time you hear Joy Hodges is engaged, it'll be because she's already married the fellow." Like "It's better to break an engagement than a marriage." Like "Have a heart—let's talk about something else."

Your naive, for instance? You know, you told me a while back how naive you were? How you met George Granger, singing night after night with Jimmy Grier's orchestra in the Biltmore Bowl, because you think boredom is simply the mark of pseudo-sophistication. "I guess I'm not sophisticated," you said, "because I get a kick out of every-thing I do. I love working, what-ever it is." You were naive, Joy—because only the unsophisticated confide their heart-throbs to call-ous reporters. Only the naive act as glamorous-struck as you were, a kid from Des Moines, singing on the fringes of film-town, wanting to get in, and star-struck when you did. I think you had half an eye on the headlines, but just the same you worked hard at your business. You didn't yawn while George M. Cohan, who knows a few tricks, did 'em in "Id Rather Be Right." You looked, and I learned, on the movie sets. You've an eye on a future now, and I wouldn't be surprised if you got it. You haven't a chance, of course, in "Sandy Takes a Bow." Nobody has, not with that infant around. But some day, maybe, some day when they let you sing again.

What's that? You used to take the high notes like Durbin—and got snatched in "pop" stuff? Wonder what would have happened if you'd kept on? Don't tell me you wanna be another J. MacDonald some day? You do? Well... more power to you!

Say that stand-in of yours, Joan Roberts, is a looker. Des Moines, too, huh? You're trying to boost her into pictures, is that it? Well, with that figger and that face, it oughtn't to be hard.

Well, so. As I was saying, "Catching Joy Hodges between engagements, I—Ouch! Ouch! Ouch!"

HELP KIDNEYS PASS 3 LBS. A DAY

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste. Frequent or scanty passages with aching and burning above them may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pain, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give a happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Furniture Plans Are Being Studied

Marvin L. Westmoreland, city finance officer, said that a special furniture committee met today for the purpose of discussing specifications for furniture to be used in the city hall now under construction, and tentatively approved the specifications, subject to minor changes.

The finance officer said that it may be the last part of July before bids can be submitted in that the specifications have to be sent to PWA authorities in Atlanta for consideration and that the matter of calling for or receiving bids cannot be taken up at that time.

It has not been determined definitely how much will be spent for furniture for the building, in that this amount would come in the late stage of allotment-spending. Spec-ifications submitted to the commit-tee were adopted tentatively subject to coming within the allotment.

Seniors Head The ECTC Honor List

Seniors led the classes at East Carolina Teachers College in number on the registrar's list of students doing outstanding work at the college during the spring quarter, 57 seniors having made the roll, according to Registrar H. J. McGinnis, while only 39 juniors, 32 sophomores and 26 freshmen were included.

If the total for the whole year is taken, the seniors still lead, with 143 on the list for the three terms, as compared with 135 juniors, 88 sophomores and 77 freshmen.

Below are the names of those listed for the quarter just over.

Seniors: Marguerite Averett, Hilda Gray Batten, Ruth V. Batten, Lucille Beamon, Ludell Bellflower, Lois Brady, Hattie Laura Britt, Leo Burks, Charles Cobb, Estelene Cook, Mary C. Conpede, Juanita N. Davis, Lula M. Davis, Florine Edwards, Edith Evans, Susan Evans, Roland Farley, Mary A. Felton, Mildred Fisher, Marjorie Garris, Emma G.

Syria Howls Over Hatay, France's Gift To The Turks

ed a choice ally, so France softened her no. By last year, Turkish troops were helping patrol Hatay. After the French-Turkish defense pact was signed a few days ago, the French troops prepared to leave—and Syrians howled foul.

Forty per cent of Hatay's scram-bled population of 220,000 are Turks. But more compelling reasons why Turkey wanted Hatay were: (1) Alexandretta has a fine and strate-gic harbor; (2) its hills hold oil.
