

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Thursday, not much change in temperature.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

TRUTH IN PREFERENCE TO FICTION

NEWS FOR THE READER RESULTS FOR THE ADVERTISER

VOL. 106 - No. 121

Leased Wire

GREENVILLE, N. C., WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 1, 1939

Associated Press

Price: 5 Cents

FRENCH CHECK GERMAN DRIVE NORTH OF LINE

Repulse Nazi Attempts to Encircle Small Village

NAME OF TOWN NOT DISCLOSED

French Military Sources Also Report Monday's Successes in Air Repeated Tuesday

Paris, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Military sources reported today that French troops had fought off a German force of 1,000 men attempting to encircle a French frontier village on the northern flank of the Western front.

The Germans were said to have attacked yesterday in an area extending from west of Saarbrücken to the Bliès river valley, east of Saarbrücken, but the identity of the threatened village was not disclosed, nor were casualties mentioned.

French sources said a heavy artillery preparation which preceded the German attack lasted at least an hour.

The gray-clad troops leaped from entrenchments in battle formation. A small French advance post in the village had been abandoned before the attack reached it.

The Germans held a cluster of houses only a short time. The French said, before a battalion of police of equal strength counter-attacked and drove them back to their original line.

Military sources said the French yesterday repeated Monday's success against German planes, bringing down three. Two were said to have been shot down within France and the third fell behind German advance posts.

Illness Is Fatal To Episcopal Rector

Durham, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Rev. Robert Brent Drane, D. D., retired minister of the Episcopal church in the Diocese of Eastern Carolina, and for 56 years rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church at Edenton, died in a hospital last night.

Funeral services will be conducted at St. Paul's in Edenton at 3 p. m. Thursday.

Pitt Farmers Get Purebred Cattle

County Agent R. R. Bennett declared today that four purebred Hereford bulls have been placed with progressive farmers in the county. J. R. Carroll and L. H. Ellis of Winterville, C. H. Edwards of Greenville, R. F. Tugwell of Fountain and Alton Gardner of Gardner's crossroads.

Rocky Mount Gets Premiere Of Movie

Los Angeles, Nov. 1.—(AP)—RKO announced today that the world premier of the film "That's Right, You're Wrong" at Rocky Mount November 15 would be attended by the governors of North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia.

Reaches Finalist In Songwriters' Contest

Charles K. Woodward of this city was awarded honorable mention by the Song Hit Guild Advisory Board in making final selections of the nation's outstanding amateur authors and composers following an intensive six-month search for undiscovered talent.

The local man just missed out in the first ten, each of whom has been sent advance royalties and professional songwriters' contracts.

Great Britain to Begin Rationing of Foodstuff Due to Reduced Imports

Wins Role

It was an unknown New York photographic model under the name of Doris Jordan who was chosen as leading lady for Gary Cooper's next picture. But her signature to the contract revealed her as Doris Davenport who was a movie extra six years ago. Doris is shown displaying her happiness after signing the contract in Hollywood.

MOTHER HEARD BY DIES GROUP

Witness Confident Charge Against Son 'Framed'

Washington, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The mother of Seaman William McCusick, Dies committee witness, said today she was "confident" that a charge of murder made against her Communist-fighting son in New Orleans was a "frame up."

Appearing before the Dies committee, the Frederick, Md. woman also testified that Joseph Curran, president of CIO's National Maritime Union, once told her the Communist party was placing so many members in key positions in Washington that it hoped to take over the government in a few years.

At the start of today's session she took the stand from which McCusick had testified for two days about alleged Communist activities among seamen. At the conclusion of his appearance yesterday he was taken into custody by Washington police at the request of New Orleans authorities.

In the latter city, meanwhile, Chief of Detectives John J. Grosch filed an affidavit in criminal court charging McCusick, former confidant and officer of the National Maritime Union in New Orleans, with murder in connection with the slaying there in September of another NMU officer, Phillip Carey.

State High Court Renders Decisions

Raleigh, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The State Supreme court decided 19 cases today in 18 opinions.

Motion To Strike Hearing Deferred

Arguments on the motion to strike certain paragraphs of the petition filed in behalf of the county asking that the consent judgment in the Whitehurst case be set aside was postponed from this afternoon until tomorrow upon request of counsel for the county.

Bacon and Butter First to Go on Restricted List

TO BE EFFECTIVE IN NEAR FUTURE

Movement to Ease Government Far-Reaching War-time Powers Seems to be Gaining Favor

London, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The British government announced today that rationing of bacon and butter would begin some time next month, due to "reduced imports" from European sources.

This will be the first rationing of foodstuff since the war started on this island, which normally produces less than half of what its inhabitants eat.

Food minister W. S. Morrison said the exact date for start of the plan would be announced later. Each consumer will register with a retailer and receive ration books.

Morrison said that the government expects supplies of both butter and bacon to increase later on if they continue at the present rate, he said, the ration will be four ounces a week for each individual consumer—a pound of bacon and a pound of butter for a family of four persons.

Consumers also are to register for sugar rationing, Morrison said. He explained that consumers would find the ration books had coupons for "meat, margarine and cooking fats" and many foodstuffs which might later be added to the rationing plan.

A movement to ease the government's far-reaching war-time powers over personal liberty appeared to be gaining force today, despite an official statement that Nazi propagandists were at work in England.

Informed circles forecast a relaxation of the defense of the realm regulations after nearly four hours of debate in Parliament caused the government to give ground.

Building Permits For Month Shown

Nine building permits were issued at the city clerk's office during the month of October for construction of cost $9,215. The same number of permits was issued during September, but the estimated cost of the work was set at $20,310.

Permits issued last month follow: R. H. Station, alter one-story dwelling on Evans street, between Twelfth and Thirteenth, estimated cost $500.

Albert Hill, erect one-story four-room frame dwelling on Tyson, between the Tar River and Colonial, $1,350.

Garris Evans Lumber company, erect one-story storage shed on Ridgeway, between Factory and Short streets, $250.

Alexander Ford, erect one-story, five-room frame dwelling on Cadillac street, between Fourth and Fifth, $1,200.

Laura Z. S. Carr, alter one-story garage on Pitt, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, $15.

K. W. Cobb, erect one-story, six-room frame dwelling on West Third, between A. C. L. railroad and Pitt street, $1,000.

J. A. Collins, erect one-story, six-room apartment on Tyson, between Ward and Fourth, $1,400.

College View Cleaners, erect one-story office building on Evans, between Seventh and Eighth, $500.

Mrs. Mittie Garris, erect one-story, five-room dwelling on Manhattan street, $3,000.

The constitution of North Carolina vests the power to levy taxes exclusively in the legislative branch of the government," wrote Judge Barnhill.

Confesses Slayings

Henry P. Haynes (above), 23, mild-mannered farm hand of Comanche, Texas, was charged with murder after Sheriff Wid Spivey quoted him as confessing he slugged his aged grandmother and an uncle in their home and burned their bodies because they made stinging remarks about his widowed mother.

$1,800 RAISED IN FIRST DAY

Report Described by Chairman Ryan As 'Fine'

By WYATT BROWN A total of $1,800 was reported for the first day's solicitations for the 1939 Community Chest campaign, it was learned at the Chest headquarters today. This amount was secured as cash and pledges by ten canvassers working in the Evans street section of the business area. They each have others they have to call back to see who were out for the first visit.

"This fine report of the first day's efforts is very encouraging," said Rev. W. A. Ryan, general chairman of the 1939 Community Chest campaign. "These partial reports from ten workers leaves eighteen other canvassers unheard from. But we need more people to volunteer to help in the canvass. We will give each new volunteer the names of donors of previous years which will make their work very simple.

"There are many more workers out soliciting funds this year than ever before but the way Greenville has grown makes so many more to see each year."

Any volunteers may go to the Service League Thrift Shop office on Five Points over Key Brown's Drug Store and get pledge cards and names. You will find Mrs. J. B. Cummings there most of the time and George Thomasson there all other times. Either of these people will explain the work to you.

Gifts reported from the first day's efforts shows gifts ranging from 25 cents to 125 dollars all from merchants in the "up-town" business section. Many instances donors are increasing their pledge being fully aware of the growing need and broadening services of the Community Chest.

Local Grand Jury Honors Member

The Pitt county Grand Jury recessed at noon today out of respect of Henry Franklin Congleton, one of its members who died suddenly at his home in Stokes Monday night.

Mr. Congleton had served with the jury on Monday and appeared to be in his usual good health.

The Grand Jury attended the funeral at the home this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in a body. Burial followed in the family cemetery near the home.

Mr. Congleton is survived by his wife, three sons, three daughters, seven grandchildren, two brothers and a sister. He had spent his entire life in the Stokes community.

State High Court Motion To Strike Hearing Deferred

Arguments on the motion to strike certain paragraphs of the petition filed in behalf of the county asking that the consent judgment in the Whitehurst case be set aside was postponed from this afternoon until tomorrow upon request of counsel for the county.

The case was sent up to Superior court when Clerk of Court J. Frank Harrington ruled that the motion was out of his jurisdiction. The motion to strike only not the petition itself will be argued this week, it was understood.

The motion is scheduled to be argued at tomorrow afternoon's session of the criminal term of court being conducted here this week by Judge J. Paul Frizzelle of Snow Hill.

Demand that U.S. Recall Its Ambassador to Russia

TIME ELEMENT IS QUESTIONED

Came at a Time When House Talking Neutrality

DOUBTS THEORY OF COINCIDENT

Soviet Premier Molotov had Declared That 'President's Interference not Consistent

Washington, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Stephen Early, a presidential secretary, questioned today whether it was more than a "coincident" that Premier Molotov of Russia had criticized President Roosevelt at the time when an important vote was scheduled here in the House on neutrality legislation.

Molotov said in a speech to the Supreme Soviet in Moscow yesterday the President had mixed in Soviet-Finnish negotiations "in contradiction" of the United States' neutrality policy.

Early said he did not know whether the President had yet read Molotov's remarks.

He asserted that he himself had read them in the press, however, adding:

"I wonder whether the remarks of yesterday were purely coincidental. The Russian negotiations with Finland had been carried on in utmost secrecy over a period of about three weeks, I believe.

"The decision to speak yesterday and give the first revelations on the points being discussed between the representatives of Finland and Russia, whether by coincident or not, seems to me to be worth considering as a question of timing."

Roosevelt recently expressed to Russia his hope that it would take no steps in negotiations with Finland which would upset its peaceful relations with that nation.

High In Praises Of NYA Workers

Dr. N. Thomas Emmett, Pitt county health officer, today took occasion to praise the National Youth Administration workers employed in the health department.

Dr. Emmett began by praising the work of Mrs. Mattie Move Gaylord, Pitt county supervisor of the N. Y. A. project, stating that she appeared to have an intelligent, sympathetic understanding of her problem. Mrs. Novella M. Williams, secretary of the Pitt county health department, under whom the girls work, heartily agreed with the opinion expressed by Dr. Emmett.

The health officer stated that there were two aspects of the N. Y. A. girls' employment. First, what the health department could give the girls; second, what the girls could give the health department but added that after a little experience on the part of the N. Y. A. helper, these two aspects of her employment, "the getting and the giving," fused into a single unit — in other words that while she was "getting" instruction she was also "giving" service.

Mentioning some specific duties assigned the N. Y. A. girls, he stated that while much of the work assigned was of a general nature, he made it a point in the beginning of her service to learn from the girl herself, as to what she was more interested in, nursing work or office work and then an effort was made to give her work according to her preference. As he expressed it, it amounted to a sort of "modified" vocational guidance course.

The type of office work available is copying, filing, record keeping, typing, and general office work; the type of nursing work—making bandages, sponges, sterilizing supplies, home visiting with staff nurses, assisting in the various types of clinics such as tubercular, venereal disease, orthopedic, vaccinations, maternal and infant welfare, etc.

Dr. Emmett stated that he would not like for the public to infer that it was only the helper who profited by her employment "for in a very real sense, the N. Y. A. girls have been of great assistance to the local health department."

No Fires

Fire alarm signals heard during the day were caused by electricians testing the new system and no fires had been reported in the city up until late this afternoon.

Britain Set For Heavy Attacks

British aerial experts hint that England is prepared with three lines of defense in the event of heavy German air raids. They indicated (1) fast fighting planes would meet the raiders over the North Sea, (2) raiders would encounter a balloon barrage and anti-aircraft defenses, and (3) heavy British fighting forces would meet the raiders near their objectives.

Coast Guard Rushes To Torpedoed British Ship

No Signs of Ship or Crew Found at Site, However

Washington, Nov. 1.—(AP)—The coast guard announced today the cutter Bibb reached the reported position of the British freighter Coulmore this morning and found no signs of ship or survivors.

The Bibb, which started out last night after intercepting a distress call from the vessel, reported that it found a moderate southerly gale blow in the area officially estimated at 600 miles east of Boston. The Bibb turned north after reaching the position and said it would continue to search in that direction.

The Coulmore had reported it was attacked by a submarine.

The Bibb was the first of a rapidly growing number of coast guard and navy ships and planes looking for the Coulmore.

The navy said that its destroyers and planes were cooperating with the coast guard in "saving life at sea" in response to a distress call from the Coulmore.

The navy refused further details, and it was not known whether the phrase "saving life at sea" meant that the British freighter attacked by a submarine southeast of Boston had been sunk. How many destroyers and planes were engaged in the rescue work likewise was not disclosed.

Offerings So Far Exceed '38 Total

Offerings on the Greenville tobacco market for the first two days of this week totaled 3,309,508 pounds and brought $625,709.29, or an official average of 18.91 cents per pound.

Tuesday's sales brought to 49,032.24 the number of pounds sold to date on the Greenville market. For this amount farmers were paid $7,868,438.25, an average for the season of 15.75 cents per pound.

Another 1,300,000-pound sale was experienced today, bringing the total offerings to date to a figure in excess of the total season sales of 51,233,626 pounds last year.

Firemen Called To Two Fires Yesterday

Firemen answered two calls yesterday, but the damage at each was only slight.

ACTION ASKED BY MCCORMACK

Suggestion is Made During House Debate Over Arms Embargo Repeal that Ambassador be Called Home in Answer to Molotov's Criticism of Chief Executive

Washington, Nov. 1.—(AP)—A demand that the United States recall its ambassador to Russia because of Premier Molotov's criticism of President Roosevelt was injected into the House neutrality debate today by Rep. McCormack (D.-Mass.)

Describing both Russia and Germany as "the anti-God forces of the world today," McCormack said he had read newspaper accounts of Molotov's address to the Supreme Soviet yesterday in which President Roosevelt was criticized for "intervening" in Russia's negotiations with Finland and it was stated that this country's move to repeal its arms embargo would "intensely aggravate and protract" the European war.

"With that statement made by the official representative of Soviet Russia," McCormack shouted, "the United States ought to recall its ambassador. That should be the answer of the United States to this attempt to influence American public opinion—this grave breach of international law."

Subsequently at the State Department, Secretary Hull, when asked about the Russian premier's remarks, said the American move in the Russo-Finnish situation spoke for itself in that it was a simple appeal for peace.

Advocates of the arms embargo argued doggedly for their case in the House as the best way to world peace, but administration leaders clung confidently to their belief the ban would be lifted by Saturday.

Crowded galleries and most of the House membership heard McCormack's recall demand.

It was received with scattered applause and promptly stirred up the hottest exchange of the House debate.

Rep. Fish (R.-N.Y.), supporting the embargo, said McCormack's speech should have been made to those favoring recognition of Soviet Russia. He termed "this remark the most war-like speech since we declared war back in 1917."

Hallowe'en Party Here Big Success

Rain failed to dampen the spirits of the Hallowe'en crowd last night, although many probably were kept at home on account of the weather.

The merry-makers over-ran the armory building and crowded in front of the building.

The objective of the street dance and party—to keep children out of mischief and from destroying property—was realized. Police officials said they had heard of no damage to property and a check of various places failed to bring any reports of destruction by celebrants.

Competition was keen in the various costume contests, prizes being awarded for the best costumes for various ages. Because of the excitement and enthusiasm of the crowd, names of the winners were not available today. The prizes were donated by Greenville merchants.

The student council of the high school had charge of the party and Superintendent J. H. Rose declared it was a "grand success."

Weather Report

Table with weather data including temperatures (High yesterday 56, Low yesterday 36, At 1:30 p. m. 61), precipitation (For 24 hrs ending 1:30 p. m. 41, Total for month 40), barometer (7:30 last night 29.72, 7:30 this morning 30.01), and prevailing winds and velocity (7:30 a. m. W-2, 1:30 p. m. W-2).

Social and Personal

Miss Lillian Carpenter of Wilmington is the guest of Mrs. T. M. Watson.

Miss Lill Wilson and Miss Addie Johnston are attending the Spiritual Life Retreat at Eureka conducted by Miss Lamb for the people of the New Bern district.

Mr. J. M. Caldwell and family have moved from East Tenth street to 904 West Fourth street.

Harold Sugg of Norfolk spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Sugg.

W. M. Seales, Jr., is ill at his home on West Fourth street.

Mrs. O. G. Guilley was called to Greensboro yesterday because of the death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Lashley.

Mrs. H. L. Hodges and Miss Jean Hodges are spending today in Richmond.

Mrs. Tripp Improving. The condition of Mrs. Jack W. Tripp who has been very ill, is very much improved.

Miss Cooper Honored. Miss Fannie Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Cooper of Greenville has just been pledged to the Phi Gamma Tau social sorority at Fassfern School for Girls, Hendersonville, N. C. A great deal of social activities of the campus takes place through the sororities. At the end of the rushing period, Miss Cooper, a senior student at the school, was one of a group of 17 pledged to the Phi Gamma Tau sorority.

Church Social. A church social will be held at Mount Pleasant new community house on Friday night, November 3 at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Social Calendar

WEDNESDAY
7:30 p. m.—The Methodist choir meets for practice.

THURSDAY
7:30 p. m.—The Memorial Baptist choir meets.

7:30 p. m.—The Presbyterian choir will meet.
8:00 p. m.—Pitt County Alumni Women's Division, U. N. C., will meet in high school library.

8:00 p. m.—International Relations department of Woman's Club meets at Woman's Club building.

FRIDAY
4:30-5:30 p. m.—Directors of Service League will entertain at tea at the home of Mrs. E. C. Stokes, Jr., honoring new members of the league.

SATURDAY
4:00-5:00 p. m.—Mrs. H. C. Sugg and Mrs. M. D. Sugg will entertain at tea, complimenting Miss Louise Taylor, bride-elect.

Bunch-Sumrell.
Mrs. Maude Sumrell announces the engagement of her daughter, Lila Rook, to George Hendrick Bunch of Greenville and Kinston, N. C., the wedding to take place in November.

Athenum Book Club.
Mrs. John Winstead was gracious hostess to the Athenum Book Club at her home on Greene street Tuesday at one o'clock. Upon arrival of the members the hostess served a delicious luncheon. Assisting her were Mrs. W. W. Lee and Mrs. H. L. Ormond. The dining room was lovely with a profusion of fall flowers and autumn leaves. The table was centered with a most attractive arrangement of fruit suggestive of Halloween.

Mrs. Ormond, the president, turned the meeting over to Mrs. Winstead who graciously presented the speaker of the afternoon, Dr. J. L. Winstead, who gave a most interesting and enlightening talk on "New Trends of Medicine". At the conclusion of his talk, John Lindsey and Lou White Winstead, dressed as doctor and nurse, presented each person with a most useful "first-aid cabinet" as a reminder of the delightful occasion.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Larry Moore and Mrs. W. I. Wooten.—Reported.

Meeting Of Round Table.
Mrs. Wiley Brown was hostess to the Ladies of the Round Table on Tuesday afternoon. Since our last meeting, one of our members, Mrs. Milton White, has lost a sister, Mrs. George Hawkins of Hertford, who was well known and loved in our club. Sympathy was expressed for Mrs. White and her temporary guest Mrs. K. W. Cobb, who was welcomed to our midst.

Routine business, the distribution of books, and the announcement that some of our dolls had been loaned for a school exhibit during the summer held our attention for a while.

Mrs. J. W. Higgs, who was in charge of the program for the afternoon, presented Miss Mamie Jenkins of the college faculty, who gave us a thrilling account of her summer trip to Europe. Although conditions looked dubious at the start, Miss Jenkins was not to be deterred in this her seventh attempt to visit the Old World. She made the trip entirely alone, without guide or escort, but was heralded and provided for in advance from country to country, and city to city, so that no unpleasant incident or real scare marred the pleasure of her trip, although she kept just "one jump ahead of trouble" all the time, and had to hasten her return to America late in August and forego the lectures she had planned to attend at Oxford University.

She visited seven different countries in seven weeks, and contended with the different monies and languages successfully and often amusingly.

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
Wednesday, November 1, 1899

Confederate Tea
The Daughters of the Confederacy will have their tea Thursday evening for the benefit of Mrs. Stone-waller Jackson. They will have supper ready to serve at 6 o'clock in Hyman's photograph gallery. The tea should be liberally patronized.

Ran Off From Depot
A horse left untended at the depot ran away Tuesday night. It is a wonder there are not more such occurrences, as it is a common thing to see teams left without an attendant. There is a town ordinance forbidding it, too.

Meeting Of Round Table.
Mrs. Wiley Brown was hostess to the Ladies of the Round Table on Tuesday afternoon. Since our last meeting, one of our members, Mrs. Milton White, has lost a sister, Mrs. George Hawkins of Hertford, who was well known and loved in our club. Sympathy was expressed for Mrs. White and her temporary guest Mrs. K. W. Cobb, who was welcomed to our midst.

Routine business, the distribution of books, and the announcement that some of our dolls had been loaned for a school exhibit during the summer held our attention for a while.

Mrs. J. W. Higgs, who was in charge of the program for the afternoon, presented Miss Mamie Jenkins of the college faculty, who gave us a thrilling account of her summer trip to Europe. Although conditions looked dubious at the start, Miss Jenkins was not to be deterred in this her seventh attempt to visit the Old World. She made the trip entirely alone, without guide or escort, but was heralded and provided for in advance from country to country, and city to city, so that no unpleasant incident or real scare marred the pleasure of her trip, although she kept just "one jump ahead of trouble" all the time, and had to hasten her return to America late in August and forego the lectures she had planned to attend at Oxford University.

She visited seven different countries in seven weeks, and contended with the different monies and languages successfully and often amusingly.

Hollywood
Sights And Sounds
By Robben Coates

Hollywood. — That man's out again. Which man? That man who is always escaping from Devil's Island, France's gift to the cinema, or from some place just like Devil's Island but not so named because France might get sore.

The man this time is Gable. Last week it was Basil Rathbone, the week before—but let's get up a list instead, some time, of the actors who haven't made the dash for freedom. You know—"the jungle—the fever—the swamps—and if you don't get through—the ants. Yain't a chance, buddy!" But liberty is sweet, and your hero has to make the try or the movie he's in ain't got a chance, buddy, neither.

Well, Gable's doing it for a new one called "Not Too Narrow, Not Too Deep" (but much too long for the marquee) so the present title is "Such Chance". The girl is Joan Crawford, here with Gable for the sixth time.

That means something to the Crawford career, coming as it does quickly after her about-face in "The Women," a role which made her interesting again. With Gable, Joan made her biggest early talkie successes. And the present picture will be ready soon after Gable begins reaping the reward for his months of screen absence spent in the making of "Gone With the Wind." The long overdue picture has the snappers raving, with especial huzzahs for Ohio-born Gable's impersonation of Dixie's Rhett Butler.

"Not Too Narrow, Not Too Deep" release will find Gable bigger than ever in consequence, and Joan, in the slightly shady role of a waterfront resort hostess, ought to profit immeasurably by the association. Stardom is measured, more

SUFFERING WOMEN
WELCOME "BUILD-UP"
A simple method is saving many women much pain and discomfort! It is based on the knowledge that women's headaches, nervousness and cramp-like pain often are symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to a weak run-down, undernourished condition. That so many women find relief from these painful symptoms through the CARDUI "build-up" is easy to explain. By improving the appetite, assisting digestion and assimilation, CARDUI helps to build physical resistance against periodic pain. Thousands of women also report that CARDUI, taken just before and during "the time," lessens periodic pain.—(Adv.)

92 Piece Set
IMPORTED CHINA
Service for 12—Special, $22.50
Terms—$1.00 Per Week
BEST JEWELRY COMPANY

than ever these days, by the company it keeps on the marquee.

It's the brave movie light indeed, these parlor box-office days, who dares to shine alone on a marquee. Since the making of "Grand Hotel" and "Dinner at Eight"—counter-destination measures involving the dumping of a carload of real stars into each production—the idea of fellow traveler stars (non-politically speaking, of course) has gained such ground as to be almost the rule.

Even our leading star, Shirley Temple, is not averse to stellar support, although her name alone is one of the few that can sell tickets on its own. In the old days one Billie Love or one Greta Garbo was sufficient. Today we get combinations like Power-Loy-Brent, Muni-Davis-Aherna, Garbo-Melvyn Douglas-Lubitsch and in each film they're aided by the best "support" money can buy. We get three Marx brothers, three Lane sisters (with a Gale Pace thrown in) and we used to get three Ritzes and four Yacht Club Boys. For "Not Too Narrow, etc." besides Gable and Crawford we're getting Melvyn Douglas and Peter Lorre and Betty Compson, with Frank Borzage for director.

All of which should be the answer to bank night and bitno and free dishes, but unfortunately hasn't answered anything yet—for Walt Disney is still the only producer without an indirect investment in the crockery business.

Everything Quiet At Police Headquarters

Activity at the local police station has been unusually quiet this week, only one person having been arrested since Sunday.

The one arrest was a Negro man charged with drunkenness. One other person, a sleeper, spent one night in jail, and another person was fingerprinted.

There will be plenty of cases to be tried at Friday's session of recorder's court, however, as a number of cases have been continued to that date.

Road Project Approved
Raleigh, Nov. 1.—(AP)—Approval of projects under which a total of $1,039,386 is to be spent "to reconstruct and improve state-owned highways and roads" in 14 counties was announced today by C. C. McGinnis, state WPA administrator.

Road projects approved included one in Edgecombe county, $54,738, to give employment to 105 workers.

BEST COLDS
To relieve distress easily, quickly, rub throat, chest, back with
VICKS VAPORUB
USED BY 3 OUT OF 5 MOTHERS

Value Beyond Equal!

17-Jewel
BENRUS
"MISS LIBERTY"
First time ever at a price like this. Engraved case in the charm and color of natural yellow gold... Ever-bright white back, 17 jewels.

Visit Our Gift Show
LAUTARES BROS. JEWELERS

YOU Might Do The "Jumping Jive" and "Beat It Out" But... You Can't Beat These!

PHANTOM HOSIERY

beautiful and styled for Pavlova
68c pair
Archer Hosiery in walking chiffon or crystal sheer... $1.00-$1.39
Alba Hosiery in service and sheer weights... 79c pair

Blount-Harvey

SUPPOSE Your Salary Was Cut

Mr. Average Citizen:

Suppose that you were notified tomorrow that your salary was reduced 5 per cent. You would immediately adapt yourself to this reduction in salary by reducing your living expenses accordingly.

Are You Saving 5c Out of Every $1.00 You Earn?

If you are not saving 5c out of every $1.00 you earn let us suggest that you set aside 5 per cent of your income each month in a savings account in our Association.

For the sake of argument, figure out how much cash you would have if you had saved 5c out of every $1.00 you have earned for the last ten years. The figures would surprise you.

Our 96th Series Opens Saturday

We have a savings plan for every member of the family.

Home Building & Loan Association

DIAL 2149 ESTABLISHED 1906 403 EVANS STREET AUTHORIZED CAPITAL $5,000,000.00

RED OAK NEWS

The Red Oak Variety Show, a program consisting of three short plays, songs, drills and a twenty-one piece rhythm orchestra in costume will be presented for the first time at the new Red Oak community building next Wednesday night, November 8, at 8 o'clock. There are about 35 people taking part in this program and two hours of good, clean fun are promised to all who attend. The proceeds from this program will go for our new building.

The baby contest which has been going on for about two weeks will end the night of the program, November 8. A large number of votes have already been secured and winners are still hard at work soliciting votes.

There are four darling babies in the contest. The oldest one, little Miss Margie Lou Rhodus, is about four years old. She has a lovely smile for everyone and is a good tap-dancer. She will dance for us in the Red Oak Variety Show. Margie Lou is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Rhodus, who have lived in our community the past year.

Master Don Manning, a cunning little boy of about three years of age is another contestant. He is the baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Manning. He has four older brothers. He always has a bright smile for everybody.

A winsome little lady is little Miss Jeanette Move with honey-colored hair which she wears curled around her head with a tiny piece of blue ribbon which exactly matches the blue of her eyes. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Move and she already has a large number of votes to her credit.

Another young lady who is only seven and one half months old is in the contest also. Little Miss Alice Leota Edwards doesn't have quite as much hair as little Jeanette but

TODAY'S BEST WATCH BUY

ELIZABETH 17 JEWELS $24.75
BULOVA

In the charm and color of natural gold.
Best Jewelry Co.
Convenient Terms

you in an important coat... distinction is yours when you wear a Forbes' coat!

Winter Coats
... are different

We are particularly proud of our collection... coats that were purchased before the rise in prices... coats that are marked lower than we thought possible... coats that are the "buys" of a lifetime... come in and get yours today.

C. HEBER FORBES

SOCIAL and LOCAL

Enters Hospital.
Mrs. R. L. Gaston left Tuesday for Duke Hospital to undergo an operation. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Will James.

Boy Scout Troop To Meet.
Boy Scout Troop No. 30 will have their meeting tonight at 7:15 and everyone is urged to attend.

Tryouts For Play Tonight.
The Little Theatre will hold tryouts for the play "Personal Appearance" at the Sheppard Memorial Library tonight at 7:30. All members are urged to be present.

Attend Funeral.
Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ricks spent Tuesday in Capron, Va., attending the funeral of Mr. Ricks, uncle, Mr. Thomas Ricks.

Chatham Club Meets.
The Chatham Book Club held its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. C. Ruffin.

At the conclusion of the business session which was presided over by the president, Mrs. J. Con Lanier, Mrs. Frank Bendall, chairman of the program committee, introduced Mrs. Lee Moore, who talked to the club on "The Duke Foundation."

The Duke Endowment covers a variety of enterprises, including several universities and colleges, hospitals, medical care, construction of Methodist churches, the support of orphanages, and support for superannuated preachers and widows, and children of deceased ministers. This paper was splendidly presented and greatly enjoyed by all.

At the conclusion of the program the hostess invited us into the dining room, where a delicious buffet dinner was served by Mrs. Clayton and Mrs. Bendall. In the center of the table a large jack-o-lantern cast its soft glow carrying out the Halloween motif. Mrs. N. S. Beard poured coffee. Each guest was remembered with a Halloween favor.—Reported.

Special Junior Order Meeting.
There will be a special joint meeting of Greenville Council No. 135 and Roy Flanagan Council No. 53, Junior Order United American Mechanics, Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock at the Masonic Hall. All members of the two councils are urged to be present. Very important business.

M. H. Wells and L. S. Spence, Councilors.

Rising To An Emergency ...

Crisis: Private Arthur Schneider, of Boston, was ordered to the Canal Zone. Result: Helen Szableski came to the troop transport, bid her soldier a fond farewell, snuggled on his shoulder, helped produce one of those pictures that make boys join the army.

Crisis: Oft-married, asbestos-heir Tommy Manville, New York, was bored with reading war news. Result: He chartered a plane to bring Elinor Troy from Hollywood. For five days they went from night-club to night-club, then parted. Leaving, Elinor took a cab.

Crisis: After a federal grand jury indicted Earl Browder, leader of the American Communist party, on passport charges, he was held in $7,500 bail. Result: Mrs. Hester G. Huntington, a society woman, put up the cash needed to get him out of jail.

Crisis: A fire broke out in a New York hotel, endangering 300 guests. Result: Mrs. Marcia Smith, hotel telephone operator, notified the guests while her son took them down in the elevator. To rescue Mrs. Smith police had to drag her away from her switchboard.

To Present Reviews Of World Situation

The International Relations committee of the Woman's Club is presenting to the public a series of reviews of outstanding books on world affairs, relating especially to peace. The first of these, "Not Peace But a Sword," by Vincent Shean will be given by Miss Lois Grigsby of East Carolina Teachers College on Thursday night, November 2, at eight o'clock at the Woman's Club building.

The schedule for the remaining presentations in the series is as follows:
November 9.—"Days of Our Years," Van Passen, given by Mrs. Gunther, given by Rev. Wm. A. Ryan.
November 23.—"Inside Asia," Gunther, given by Dr. R. L. Hill-drup.
December 7.—"Union Now," Clarence Street, given by Dr. A. D. Frank.

The Woman's Club is a member organization of the Greenville council for peace action. Believing in the pertinence of a factual background for forming personal and group opinions and decisions, the Woman's Club through its International Relations committee is inviting the citizenry of Greenville to hear these reports and participate in the discussion.

Place: Woman's Club building
Time: 8 to 9 p. m.
Date of first of series: Thursday, November 2.

'Oh, Elizabeth!'
Waco, Tex.—(AP)—Shout "Elizabeth" at the dormitory annex of Baylor university and six of the 10 girls who live there will answer.

Ways And Means Committee
Oklahoma City.—(AP)—Frank S. Smith, former G-man and Oklahoma City's new chief of police, was caught in a traffic jam and looked around for traffic officers on duty in that block.

"Finally I saw them standing on a corner talking with both hands," said the chief.

Persistent honking of the automobile horn failed to distract them from their argument before the jam finally broke and the chief's car moved on. Later he summoned the two eloquent officers.

"What," said the chief, "were you arguing about?"

"We were discussing ways and means of improving Oklahoma City traffic conditions," said they.

SALE OF REAL PROPERTY

North Carolina—Pitt County.
In The Superior Court.
Sarah E. Sutton, Administratrix
-vs-
Bessie Willoughby, et al.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Pitt County, made in the above entitled Special Proceeding by His Honor, Clawson L. Williams, Judge Presiding at the March Term of Pitt Superior Court, 1939, the undersigned Administratrix of the estate of J. W. Sutton, will on Monday, the 4th day of December, 1939 at 12 o'clock, noon in the Court House door in Pitt County to the highest bidder for cash, the following described real property to-wit:

1st TRACT: Situated in Beaver Dam Township, Pitt County, North Carolina, and on the South side of the State Highway known as the Nichols Road, and bounded on the North by the Nichols Road, on the South by Beaver Dam Swamp Canal on the East by the lands of Bessie Willoughby, and on the West by the lands of Jimmie Sutton, containing 43.75 acres by actual survey, and being lot No. 2 allotted to Clara Sutton Todd in the division of the lands of J. W. Sutton.

2nd TRACT: Situated in Beaver Dam Township, Pitt County, North Carolina, and being on both sides of the State Highway known as the Nichols Road, and adjoining the land of the William McArthur heirs on the North, the lands of C. R. Willoughby on the South, the lands of Jimmie Sutton, and J. W. Sutton, Jr., on the East, and the lands of T. M. Dail on the West, containing 48.77 acres by actual survey, and being lot No. 4 allotted to Charles F. Sutton in the division of the lands of J. W. Sutton.

3rd TRACT: Situated in Beaver Dam Township, Pitt County, North Carolina, and on the North side of the State Highway known as the Nichols Road, and bounded on the North by the lands of Charlie F. Sutton, and the lands of William McArthur heirs, bounded on the South by State Highway known as the Nichols Road, bounded on the East by William McArthur heirs, and the lands of Guy Sutton, on the West by the lands of Charlie Sutton, and being lot No. 5 allotted to J. W. Sutton, Jr., in the division of the J. W. Sutton lands and containing 49.79 acres by actual survey.

4th TRACT: Situated in Beaver Dam Township, Pitt County, North Carolina, and being on the West side of the Public Road leading from the Nichols Road to the Stantonburg Road, and bounded on the North by the lands of Guy Sutton, on the South by the lands of the David Sutton heirs, now Kinsaul land on the East by the public road leading from the Sutton Road to the Stantonburg Road, and on the West by the William McArthur heirs land, and containing 43.71 acres by actual survey, and being lot No. 6 allotted to Joe Sutton in the division of the lands of J. W. Sutton.

5th TRACT: Situated in Beaver Dam Township, Pitt County, North Carolina, and bounded on the North by the David Sutton heirs, on the South by the lands of Joe Sutton, and on the East by the public road leading from Nichols Road to Stantonburg Road, and on the West by the William McArthur heirs and by the lands of J. W. Sutton, Jr., and containing 50.92 acres by actual survey and being lot No. 7 in the division of the lands of J. W. Sutton, which was allotted to Guy Sutton.

6th TRACT: Situated in Beaver Dam Township, Pitt County, North Carolina, and bounded on the North by the Anderson land, bounded on the South by the lands of Fannie Lloyd, on the East by the Anderson lands, and on the West by the lands of Fannie Lloyd, and being lot No. 8 allotted to Roy J. Sutton in the division of the lands of J. W. Sutton, and containing 48.70 acres by actual survey.

7th TRACT: Situated in Beaver Dam Township, Pitt County, North Carolina, and bounded on the North by the old Road and the Willoughby heirs, on the South and West by the lands of the Willoughby heirs, and on the East by the lands of Guy Sutton and the Anderson lands, and containing 46.70 acres by actual survey and being lot No. 9 in the division of the lands of J. W. Sutton, allotted to Fannie Lloyd.

The above lands will be sold under order of the Superior Court of Pitt County for the purpose of making assets with which to pay the indebtedness of the estate of J. W. Sutton, deceased.

The courses and distances of the boundary lines of the tracts of land above referred to are to be found on the map of the survey of the above tracts of land made by W. C. Dresbach, C. E. which said map is now in the office of Harding and Lee for the purpose of inspection by those desiring to bid on said lands.

This the 1st day of November, 1939.

SARAH E. SUTTON, Administratrix of the Estate of J. W. Sutton.
Harding & Lee, Attys.
Nov. 1-11w-4wk.

NEW! INSPIRING! EXCITING!

New Fall Coats

New! Back Swing

No matter how luxurious your wardrobe, you'll want one of these. Splendid for informal morning and occasional wear. Many colors from which to choose. If you are slender we can fit you.

$9.50 TO $19.50

New! Square Collars

Have the luxury fur-trimmed winter coat you want — at savings! Deep fur collars, plastrons, borders, cuffs! Newest fitted, swagger models. Rich woolens. Warmly interlined. Shop early. Sizes 12 to 44.

$16.50 TO $69.50

New! Fitted Reversibles

Sophisticated flip-back reversible reefers with snug waist, broad shoulders. Herringbones, tweeds, solids. You are there — rain or shine, with one of these. Everybody will have one this season.

$9.95 up

Don't Delay—See Them Tomorrow

BRODY'S

STYLE — QUALITY — ECONOMY

FOR A HIGHER MARKET—COME TO GREENVILLE

"BEST MARKET IN STATE"

MONDAY'S SALES THIS WEEK — OFFICIAL FIGURES

Pounds	For	Average
1,718,944	$335,144.06	$19.50

SALES WEEK ENDING OCTOBER 27th — OFFICIAL FIGURES

8,067,434 Pounds	$1,491,093.97	Average $18.44
-------------------------	-----------------------	------------------------

SALES WEEK ENDING OCTOBER 20th — OFFICIAL FIGURES

8,444,296 Pounds	$1,472,931.70	Average $17.44
-------------------------	-----------------------	------------------------

THESE OFFICIAL FIGURES SPEAK FOR THE GREENVILLE MARKET. THEY SHOW GREENVILLE TO BE A STRONG MARKET WITH PRICES ON THE UPWARD TREND.

Now, Look Over Greenville's Six Year Record

Official U.S. Government Figures quoted below

Crop Year	East Belt Avg.	Border Belt Avg.	Greenville's Average
1933	$16.30	$12.93	$16.82
1934	$29.71	$23.93	$31.21
1935	$20.86	$20.54	$21.02
1936	$22.85	$21.58	$23.24
1937	$25.77	$22.38	$26.46
1938	$23.34	$22.95	$23.63

Year In And Year Out Greenville's Prices Are Above The Market Level Paid By Either The Eastern, Or The Border Belt.

5 Sets of Buyers Make a Prompt Sale Possible

The Daily Reflector

Every Afternoon Except Sunday
Established 1882
DAVID J. WHITCHARD, Jr.
Owner and Publisher
DIAL 3356

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as second class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
(Payable in Advance)
One Year ..... $5.00
Six Months ..... $2.50
Three Months ..... $1.25
One Month ..... 50
One Week ..... 15

Subscriptions will be discontinued at expiration of time paid.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of publication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
Thomas F. Clark Co., Inc., New York, Chicago, Indianapolis, Philadelphia, Kansas City, Richmond.

DO YOUR PART

Despite the bad weather yesterday Community Chest solicitors working in the downtown business section reported contributions and pledges of around $1,800 which does well for the first day. This amount, however, is less than one-third of the $6,000 goal necessary to take care of the 1940 budgets of the organizations participating in the Community Chest funds and citizens not yet solicited must come across generously if goal is to be reached and the campaign completed by Friday as planned.

The work of the participating organizations, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Service League Thrift Shop, Salvation Army and Emergency Relief, is absolutely essential in this community and experience has proven that it is far better to raise the necessary funds for each of these projects in one drive than for each of the organizations to stage individual drives each year. We are sure that the citizens would prefer to make one donation to cover all these causes than to have to be called upon from time to time by the various groups. Therefore, we urge every citizen who has not yet contributed to the fund to give as liberally as he or she possibly can when the solicitors call.

Of course the time for the drive and the number of workers is limited and it is possible that some individuals might not be called upon, but if you wish to contribute to the fund, and you should, you may telephone Campaign Headquarters at the Thrift Shop and someone will be sent to you immediately to get your contribution or give you the opportunity to sign a pledge card.

Greenville cannot afford to fail to reach the Chest goal of $6,000 because this amount is necessary to carry on the work here next year, and we are sure our citizens will see to it that the desired goal is reached before the end of the week in order that the campaign might close on schedule as planned.

Make up your mind now to do your part.

The castor plant is used in the manufacture of lubricants, medicine, flypaper, paints, soap, linoleum, printing, and suphoned

The Creeping Man

by Frances Shelley Wees

YESTERDAY: Devoe tells Michael, Tuck and Bunny that Murchison has disappeared, warns them of Miss Lissey's scandalous maneuvering, and classifies tries to throw suspicion on Duncan.

Chapter 22

Walk In The Woods

MICHAEL, coming home after a harrowing day at the office, decided to leave Christabel at the garage nearest the campus and walk across to the Horseshoe. As he explained to Tuck later, Christabel's congenital defect had cropped up again. Her congenital defect was a certain tendency toward collecting, in some mysterious and wholly puzzling manner, rust in her gas tank. No, not even the blindest and most greasy mechanic could explain it. When it happened, when sufficient of the rusty particles had collected in her bronchial tubes, Christabel coughed and choked and spluttered like an old lady with the asthma and finally refused to go until some ministering spirit had blown down her throat.

Michael passed through the pine grove and turned to the right on the path that led directly to the back gate of the Murchison house. As he did so he saw before him on the path the flutter of a light skirt and thought instantly that it was Tuck, come to meet him. But before he could make out the identity of the skirt's owner she had left the path and turned off among the trees along the river bank.

So Michael turned off the path too, into the trees at the left, and dodged quickly from tree to tree, trying to keep Tuck—as he thought—in sight and not letting her see him. Apparently she was out for an afternoon constitutional. From where she had left the path it was nearly a quarter of a mile to the edge of the river, but she traversed it quickly now and then he caught the gleam of the sun on her dress as she followed warily. At last she reached the edge of the wood and was walking out in the open; and Michael halted as he came to the edge of the shelter, and stood there behind a big pine watching her, for he had realized at his first clear glimpse that this was not Tuck, but an older woman with whitening hair—Alix Lissey. He was about to turn and slip silently off to the path again, having no desire to talk with her or be seen by her; then he saw what she was doing.

Miss Lissey was making her way through the undergrowth and over the rocks very slowly, bent double as if she had lost something and was looking earnestly for it. But the strange part of her searching was that she was doing it with one of those large reading glasses to be found on most elderly desks. "Sermons in stones and good in everything," Michael muttered, and moved silently to the right down on her knees and surveyed the rocks with extreme care; and again she would stand and stare ahead of her for several moments before progressing a step.

"Now what in the devil," Michael asked himself, rubbing his chin, "is she looking for?" He moved silently along the wood as Miss Lissey moved. It was slow going. Eventually she had reached the end of the stretch of ground in which she seemed to be interested. Here a larger gully came down into the river, its banks thickly wooded, and she did not descend into it. Rather she dropped the glass into her pocket and went out to the very edge of the river cliff, which here was sheer and stark; gray rock dropping straight into the river. She shaded her eyes and looked up stream, along the bank. She looked down stream. Then she peered earnestly across the river, deep and swift here, and widening after the rapids above. Her pose was one of complete absorption, of tense interest.

Michael moved restlessly and stepped on a twig.

"Spying On Me!" It CRACKED like the sound of a shot through the still afternoon, and Alix Lissey swung round in her contemplation of the landscape. Her hand was pressed to her breast, her face was chalk white. There was utter horror in her eyes. She saw him. Afterward he realized that she could not possibly have recognized him in that moment, yet she saw a man, a blur of white face and dark clothes lurking there among the trees spying on her. The sight unnerved her completely. She put a shaking hand over her mouth; but she made no attempt to run; rather she stood there as the rabbit might have stood confronted with a snake. Michael remembered that, too, afterward.

He stepped out from under the trees. "Sorry if I frightened you, Miss Lissey," he said apologetically. She stared at him. "I thought you were my wife, out for a walk, and I followed you," he explained, as she still seemed unable to talk.

She dropped her hand. The rouge on her cheeks stood out in two brilliant hectic spots. "It's a beautiful day, isn't it?" Michael continued stepping out busier. She drew a deep breath and straightened her shoulders.

"I thought you were a bear," she said angrily.

"Bear? Are there bears in these woods?"

"Why not? Why did you come sneaking along there in the dark? You must have seen I wasn't your wife, the first time you looked at me," she said with a trace of bitterness. "Spying on me. Following me around. Spying. That's what you were doing."

"More spied upon than spying," Michael paraphrased to himself in a murmur. She had the grace to flush.

"What I am doing is my own affair," she said with acerbity.

"Certainly," Michael agreed politely. "If I choose to come out for a quiet walk in the woods by myself, I see no reason why I should be accused of anything underhanded."

"Of course not, Miss Lissey." His eyes, perhaps unconsciously, strayed to the handle of the reading glass which protruded from the pocket of her jacket. She put her hand over it hastily, and turned defiantly away from him.

Michael gazed out across the river. "It's rather a beautiful view, isn't it?" he inquired courteously.

Across the river the low hills rose smoothly, crested with dark pines and groves of poplars. Far to the right the smoke of the city rose slowly into the summer air; on the hills straight across were innumerable white sheep dotting the green grass. One white curl of smoke rose lazily from the chimney of the old stone house on the promontory, the only other sign of human habitation was the low compact group of farm buildings on the hills at the left.

Miss Lissey snorted. "Did you send that letter?" he asked.

"The one about the diamonds?" "Diamonds?"

Michael did not elucidate. He regarded the sheep gloomily.

"I don't know what you are talking about," she broke out at him. "I never in all my life met such an objectionable young man. Diamonds, indeed! Why should I write a letter about diamonds? To whom? What diamonds?"

"Lady's Maid"

"PROFESSOR Murchison's diamonds?" Michael said gently, and looked at her.

There was not a trace of confusion on her face. "I didn't know he had any," she said.

"His wife's, then?"

"His wife's? She hasn't got any diamonds, that little upstart!"

Where would a lady's maid get diamonds? Diamonds, indeed!"

Michael raised his brows. "Lady's maid? Oh, come now, Miss Lissey!"

She pressed her lips together. "You're clever, aren't you? Very clever." Her eyes went over him swiftly, over his thick black hair, his keen green eyes, his firm mouth over his broad shoulders and his slim height. She sighed. "Very clever, Michael Forrester," she said a little wearily.

There were a thousand wrinkles under her eyes and around her mouth. Michael was suddenly sorry for her.

"Supposing you tell me all about it, Miss Lissey," he said gently. "This isn't a woman's business. Tell me what you know, and then go away and take a holiday. Forget it."

"She turned on him angrily again. 'I am not going,' she said.

There was a certain astonishment in his glance, at her fierceness.

"You needn't pretend you don't understand me. You used to fool me with that mally-mouthed look when you didn't know your Latin. I am not going. I am going to stay here and see it through. At least," she softened surprisingly, "I'm glad you came. You and those two other children. I was afraid."

"Afraid of what?"

"Oh, afraid somebody might get away with something."

"And you don't think that will happen now?"

"No."

Michael made a last appeal to contradictory femininity. "Miss Lissey," he said hopefully, "don't you think we'd better join forces? That you'd better tell me what you know?"

"She shook her head. 'I can't,' she said unhappily. 'I don't know all right if you find it out for yourself. I can't.' She looked at him sharply. 'Jared Devoe,' she said, 'what did he want of you this morning?'"

"Nothing."

"She compressed her lips. 'Very well,' she said. 'That's only fair.' She pulled the handle of her dress, and started back toward the path, walking very quickly. Michael followed in silence. She did not speak to him until they were almost at his gate. Then she turned suddenly, as if she had made her mind up, and said, 'What do you think of Duncan Murchison?'"

"He seems to be a very nice boy," she said.

"Yes, he does. Well," she turned off toward her own house, and then came back. "There's one thing I will tell you. If you happen to be interested in hats, there's a stray one over at McBain's. It was left there on the night Dr. Murchison left. You might get something if you started following around spying on lonely old maids."

Continued tomorrow

Interested. Nevertheless there are some stories going the rounds, some absurd on their face, others which bear the look of reliability and still others which seem to be about 50-50 in the matter of truth and veracity.

As everybody knows who has read the papers, there are six definitely suspected candidates, several of whom have actually announced in every sense except the technical.

But in addition there are three, maybe four others, who are still toying—or at least said to be toying—with the idea of running.

There's, for example, Libby Ward, House Speaker in 1936 whose friends firmly declare is not out of the running by any means.

And there's Willie Lee Lumpkin, Franklin county's many-times legislator who is exceedingly among the top men in the so-called liberal element of the democracy.

There's Dr. Clarence Poe, too, whose trial balloons of several weeks ago were regarded with editorial favor in many quarters.

And, finally, there's the ever-recurring talk that Congressman Lindsay Warren of the First District will be induced to carry the torch for the Gardner-Hoey machine.

On the whole, however, none of these four seem likely entrants. Libby isn't going in unless he finds a financial angel who hasn't yet appeared. Willie Lee could probably put more color and fire into the face than anyone in sight, but there is an extremely good personal reason why he won't get into the race; the Poe candidacy struck no fire; and there is almost certain evidence that Warren will not run.

One standpoint about the coming campaign is that it's going to be hard to raise money with which to conduct it.

Reason is simple enough—there's nobody in the race against any important financial group has grudge enough to get out and fight actively.

That's really important, too. Take 1936, for instance, when Governor Hoey had practically no trouble at all getting enough of the filthy stuff which makes candidates, as well as the mare go. If it had been a question of Hoey vs. Graham it would have been different, as the lads with the shekles wouldn't have given a fig for the difference between the two in their financial and tax attitudes. But as it was, important money was scared to death of Dr. Ralph W. McDonald and busted itself about the business of beating him.

Another thing which will add to the languor of the race, if it's possible for it to get more languid, is the fact that sheriffs and register of deeds are not up for election—except in isolated instances. There will, accordingly, be that many the fewer local races to get the vote out, and after all it's these which work the voting public into a fever of interest.

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady, calm, and at times absorbing prose. In conversation he seems excited, but that is only the peculiar pitch of his voice. Current events largely determine most people's readings, but even if there wasn't hellzapoppin in the English Channel "Inside Europe" and "Inside Asia" would be so important that your own intelligence would compel you to read them. Gunther puts a handle on Europe so you can tote it around like a bag.

Like Gunther and Van Paassen, Vincent Sheean is another newspaperman who quit the city room to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would accounts of what happened in Munich, and what occurred in those last days in Prague, before Czechoslovakia lost its identity. Some have been blunt and factual. Others have been sentimental. None quite catches the lost heights of melancholy and the bewildered numb despair that Sheean saw in the eyes of those people and transposed to the pages of "Not Peace But a Sword." Vincent Sheean is in New York just now—not Europe. Reason: his wife has just had a baby.

There are others—John Whitaker, who was at Munich, too, and who begged his publishers to send him to roam far continents in pursuit of armies. There have been many Nazi or Fascist penetration would

Another of these is John Gunther, who writes steady,

Phantoms Meet New Bern Friday in Conference Game

NIGHT BATTLE IS SCHEDULED

Local High School is Given Edge Over Bears

The Flying Phantoms of Greenville high school will engage the New Bern Bears in their second conference tilt in that city Friday night. The kick-off is scheduled for eight o'clock.

Rain yesterday made it impossible for the Phantoms to hold their usual practice. Yet for the remainder of the week they will work hard on defensive and offensive tactics.

After losing a thrill-packer to Ronoke Rapids by a score of 7-0 last Friday, the Phantoms will be working overtime to defeat New Bern.

New Bern does not hold so good a record as the Phantoms, but they have a hard-fighting team. Greenville's injuries are as few as they have been during the year, and the Phantoms are expected to be at their best Friday.

New Bern defeated Kinston 7-0 in New Bern last Friday night. Fulcher, New Bern quarterback, starred for the Bruins. Outstanding linemen for New Bern are Bruce Morris, Charles Parker and Hinkle Jones.

Wilfred Allen, halfback on the New Bern first-string, was a member of the Greenville team that defeated New Bern 19-0 last year. John Collins and Larry James or Dewey Page will start at ends. Collins and James are veterans at these positions. Page is an impressive addition to the G-men.

Earl Kittrell and Russell Rogerson, lettermen, will start at tackles; while Warren Parish and Paul Scott will hold down the guard posts. Charles Williams, stellar center, will also begin the Phantom-Bear tussle.

In the backfield the four horsemen, J. B. Kittrell, George Tyndall, George Sakas and Marion Stocks, expect to be galloping around and through the Bears.

AERIAL CIRCUS PACKS STANDS

Record Crowds Being Attracted By Carolina Team

Chapel Hill, Nov. 1.—Estimating the Homecoming crowd for the Carolina-State game Saturday at a modest 15,000 to 20,000, Carolina's high-powered air raiders will have played to almost 200,000 people and broken all attendance records for the first seven games this year.

With the Davidson, Duke and Virginia games yet to come, and the advance sale indicating a 50,000 crowd at Duke, the Tar Heels this year should play to audiences of well over a quarter million in all. This sets a new all-time record for Carolina.

For the Tar Heels, who are being called the most exciting and colorful Carolina eleven since 1929 and who will race, pitch, and catch for a home audience Saturday for the first time in a month, have drawn

STELLAR BACKFIELD ACES

George Sakas, left, and J. B. Kittrell, right, are two of the main cog in the Phantom attack. The two backfield men have chalked up some fancy runs this season and are expected to aid in bringing home the bearskin when they meet the New Bern Bears there Friday night.

175,000 in six games. And General Stirrweiss, Sweet Lalanne, and their thrill-manufacturing mates, vying to pack more excitement into each succeeding thriller with teams like New York, Tulane, and Penn. have been packing in more and more fans each week, jumping from 22,000 with N. Y. U. to 35,000 to 55,000 last week.

Saturday's game with State will center a gala celebration of Homecoming for Carolina alumni and of Greater University Day for all units of the consolidated institution and another large and colorful throng is expected for the game and attendant festivities.

The Carolina team, which is somewhat battered up with injuries after its suicidal stretch of schedule, pushed preparations for the brotherly battle today, and is expecting the usual hard game from State, which has had two weeks to point and is expected to be at its peak.

The squad concentrated particularly on State plays but also put in a long session polishing its own ground and aerial attacks, which produced two touchdowns in the last quarter to beat N. Y. U. and the Tulane, and which counted three times in two and a half minutes against Penn.

Mike Bobbitt ran with Stirrweiss, Lalanne Radman, and Dunkle in the first backfield when a broken finger kept Roy Connor on the sidelines again.

Chuck Kline and Jim Mallory at end were also out with injuries and the first line listed—Severin and Doty, ends; White and Kimball, tackles; Woodson and Slagle, guards; and Smith and Sunheimer, centers. Smith was out last week, and Sunheimer was one of the stars at Penn.

GEORGIA TECH NEXT FOR DUKE

Saturday's game may Be Like Thriller Of 1937

Durham, Nov. 1.—It's saying a mouthful, but the Blue Devils of Duke and those Yellow Jackets of Georgia Tech appear to be just about ready to reel off a gridiron battle like that 20-19 sensation of 1937 when they come together in Atlanta Saturday.

That game is still being called one of the most thrilling in the history of southern football. It was the kind of a contest that makes wrecks out of everyone, players, coaches, fans, newspapermen and even the officials.

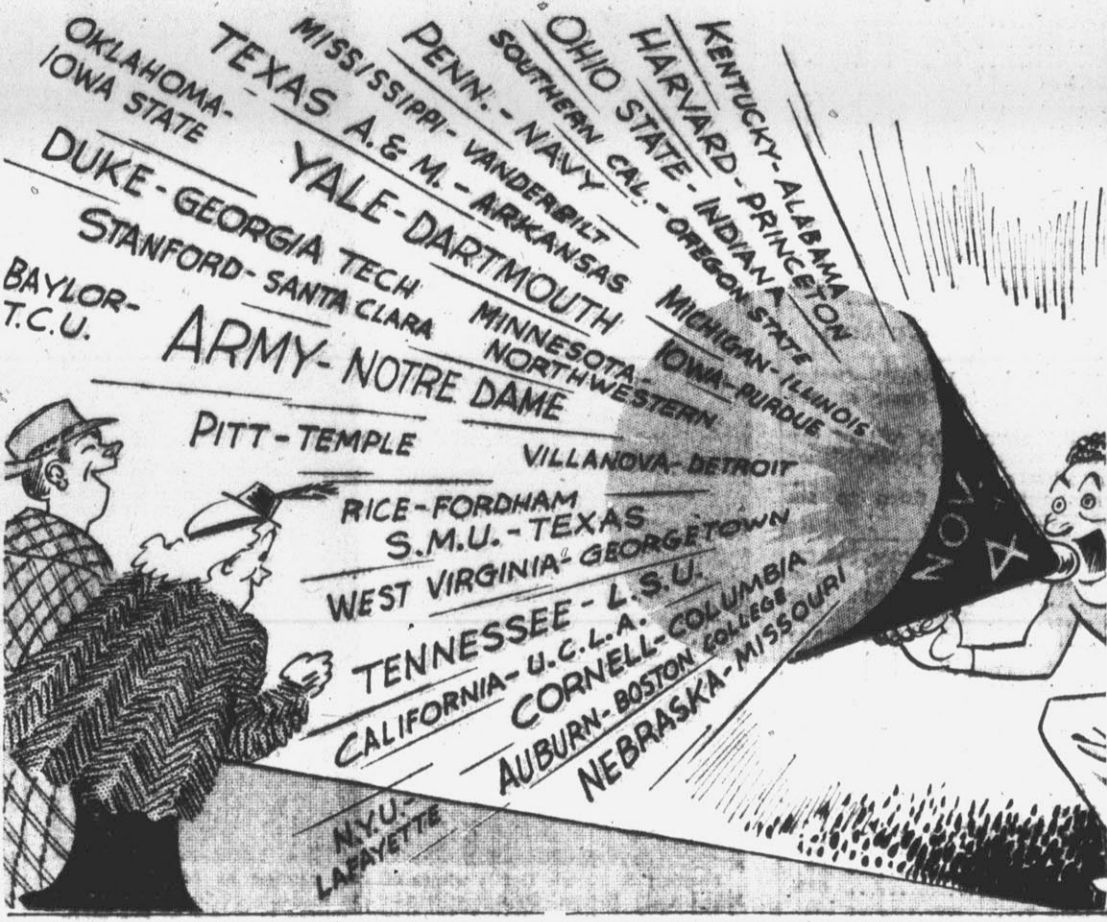

Here's the story of that ball game in black and white:

- Duke 7, Georgia Tech 0.
- Duke 7, Georgia Tech 6.
- Duke 7, Georgia Tech 13.
- Duke 14, Georgia Tech 13.
- Duke 14, Georgia Tech 19.
- Duke 20, Georgia Tech 19.

As those running scores of the game show, it was first one and then the other with Duke getting a break on a fumbled punt in the final minutes of play to overtake the Engineers' 19-14 lead.

Every game in the six-year old rivalry has been an exhibition of brilliant football but the three that have been played in Atlanta have the edge on the trio played at Duke.

In fact, the first two games in Atlanta in 1933 and 1935 were upset that startled the nation. In that first meeting Duke had won nine straight games and needed only a victory over an "in-and-out" Tech team for national honors. But the Engineers were "in" that day and whipped the boys in blue, 6-0. In 1935 the Blue Devils returned to Atlanta after walloping four straight and suffered an upset defeat by the same margin with the touchdown being scored on about the same spot on the field with about the same play being used. Then came that 1937 thriller.

Last year's game was one of the toughest of the year for the famous "Iron Dukes" but the Blue Devils finally got across a single touchdown to win, 6-0.

While Duke and Georgia Tech just started their rivalry in 1933, the feud between Coaches Bill Alexander of Tech and Wallace Wade of Duke is one of the oldest.

Maybe the reason for all the "unexpected" happening when "Wade and Alec" meet is something to do with tradition. The first time the pair of them met—back in 1923 when Wade was tutoring his first Alabama team—they put on one of the oddest games in southern football history. That was the day that Georgia Tech made something like 23 first downs to Alabama's none but the final score was 0-0.

IT'S A MIGHTY BIG BOTTLE!

IT'S MIGHTY HIGH QUALITY!

DRINK OLD COLONY BEVERAGES

IT'S MIGHTY LOW-PRICED!

Try these famous Old Colony beverages today! — Orange — Grape and Cherry.

5¢

OLD COLONY
Quality Beverages

Follow the crowd TO FLANAGAN'S USED CAR LOT

Come and see the greatest bargains ever offered in Greenville. We are absolutely selling our entire Used Car stock at a reduction of $10,000.00.

We are giving WHOLESALE PRICES TO RETAIL BUYERS

John Flanagan Buggy Co.
GREENVILLE, N. C.

MAKING PLANS RE-SET TREES

Nurseries to Send Out Large number of Seedlings

Raleigh, Oct. 31.—Movement of some of the four million forest tree seedlings from State Forest Nurseries at Clayton near Raleigh, and in Henderson county to farms will begin soon, it was announced today by R. W. Graeber, extension forester of State College. He said that hardwood or deciduous trees may be planted any time after November 1 in the mountains, and after November 15 in the Piedmont and Coastal Plain sections.

Pines should not be planted until January and February in the Coastal Plain, February and March in the Piedmont, and March and early April in the mountains, Graeber advised.

The extension specialist said that the seedlings will arrive from the nurseries well packed in wet moss.

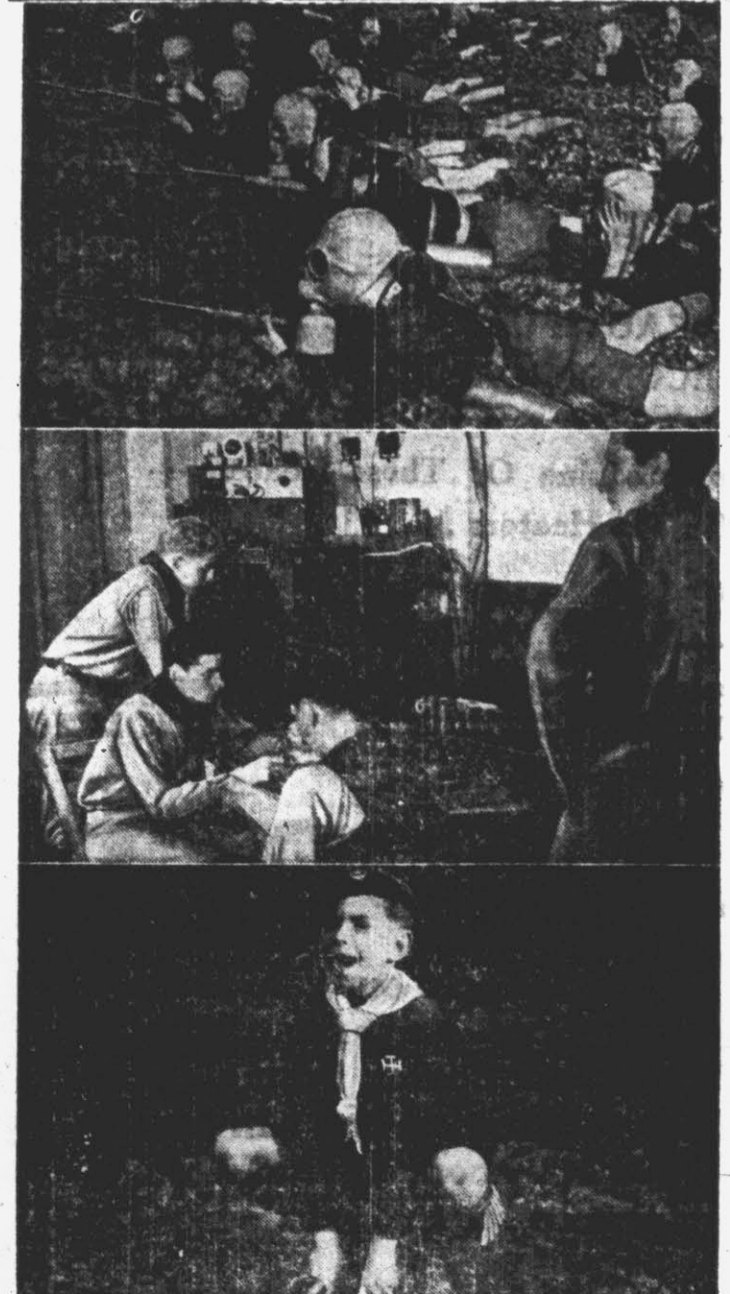

"If the trees are not planted shortly after arrival," he said, "they should be heeled-in in light, well-drained soil. Dig a trench, break bundles, spread the trees in the trench, and cover the roots and a portion of the stems with dirt."

When ready to transplant, Graeber recommends the use of a bucket of thick creamy mud. Transfer the trees from the package or trench to the bucket. When planting, remove enough seedlings so that the roots will not have time to dry out before being placed in the ground," he said.

Orders are still being taken for the trees through the county farm agents, or the extension forester's office at State College. Black walnut seedlings cost $10 per thousand delivered, white pines cost $3 per thousand delivered, and all other species sell for $2 per thousand delivered.

And This School Is Built Of Sod Wamblee, S. D.—(AP)—A modern sod school building has taken the place of the little sod huts that dotted South Dakota prairies in homestead days.

The school building here is made from tamped earth—the gumbo that slowed ox carts. It has stood weather as well as any concrete structure for the past year, the agriculture experiment station at State College, Brookings, reports.

The sharp contrast between dictatorship's youth lessons (top) and the lessons learned by millions of American (center), French (bottom) and British boys as members of democracy's largest youth movement, the Boy Scouts, is set in bold relief by "Young America," in the new March of Time.

THIMBLE THEATRE (Starring Popeye)

Now Showing — And A Job's A Job!

DEPLOY FOR SKIRMISH! SURROUND THE OBJECT AND ARREST HIM! OKAY OKAY OKAY

EASY MEN TAKE HIM ALIVE! BOP! SOK!

POPEYE, PLEASE DO NOT ENTER THE CASTLE, WE WILL LOSE OUR JOBS AS SOLDIERS! VAS?—WHY DIDN'CHA SAY SO IN THE FIRST PLACE!

BLONDIE

I DON'T SEE WHY YOU WONT LET ME RAISE A MUSTACHE! OTHER WIVES LET THEIR HUSBANDS HAVE THEM

HE KNOWS HIS TRAFFIC SIGNALS!

I'LL LET YOU RAISE A MUSTACHE IF YOU LET ME DYE MY HAIR RED

DAWGONNIT! ALWAYS ONE JUMP AHEAD OF ME

WANTS

Rates 1 1/2c per word, minimum charge 25c for 25 words, one insertion; six insertions $1.85; one month, $7.00. Indented lines shown as classified display, or larger than regular size type, double price.

Other than to business houses having regular accounts with us, no want ads will be charged. Send or bring cash with order. To prevent errors, want ads will not be taken over the telephone.

PLUMBING - HEATING
Your Dependable Plumber and Steamfitter
C. L. RUSS
312 Evans Street
Day, Dial 3231 Night, Dial 3062

SPECIAL EVERY DAY - FRESH
cooked Potato Chips, People's Bakery.

We Clean and Press
Men's Suits, Ladies Coats - Dresses
Our work must please and a trial will convince you.

CAROLINA DRY CLEANERS
Dial 2276 - Leon Smith Prop.

JUST RECEIVED - NEW SHIP- ment of Imported China - 53-piece set, open stock for $15.50 - $1.00 down and $1.00 per week. Several beautiful patterns to select from. Lauteurs Bros. Jewelers.

SEE US FOR YOUR HUNTING, fishing and trapping licenses. Also shotguns, rifles and ammunition. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions.

OCTOBER IS A VERY GOOD
month for planting your permanent or winter lawn. Call us for prices on all kinds of grass seed. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions.

CALL US FOR YOUR NEEDS IN small tin heaters, stove pipe and elbows. All sizes. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions.

COME IN AND SEE OUR NEW
bulbs for fall planting. The largest variety we have ever had. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions.

BEFORE YOU BUY, GET OUR
prices on seed rice, seed oats, seed wheat, seed barley, Austrian winter peas and vetch. J. A. Watson, Seed-Feed-Provisions.

WANT WORK AS BUTLER OR
cook, or as chauffeur. Have 12 years experience. 39 years old. George Hayes, 106 E. Pitt St.

FOR RENT - 8-ROOM HOUSE 311
Greene Street. Immediate possession. Call Elizabeth Skinner, Dial 3567.

COMFORTABLE ROOM FOR rent in a steam-heated home. Mrs. W. L. Hall, 502 W. Fourth St., phone 3852.

LOST - MALE FOX TERRIER
all white except left side of face. Name "Mickey." Owner's name J. H. Thomas on collar. Reward to finder. Please phone 2461.

DRIVING THROUGH TO FLOR- ida and return one week, will take passengers on share expenses basis - will exchange references - for information reply Sam Travel, care Reflector.

FOR RENT - TWO ROOM FURN- ished apartment - garage. Dial 3062-1.

FOR SALE - MY HOME ON DICK- inson Avenue, Dial 2477. C. B. West, Sr.

See Typewriters
WOODSTOCK
J. A. Moore Office Equipment Company, 250 Tazewell Street, Norfolk, Virginia; W. R. Kerr, Agent, Rocky Mount, N. C.

Radio Repairs
-BY-
FACTORY TRAINED EXPERTS
DIAL 3114
McCormick Music Co.
121 1/2 W. Fourth Street
DIAL 3114

Today Tomorrow
CRASHING ACTION FROM THE HURRICANE WEST!
GEORGE O'BRIEN
in "The FIGHTING GRINGO"
-Plus-
"Daredevil"
No. 11
News Reel

FOR SALE - CHRYSANTHEMUMS

-Mrs. A. C. Jackson, near Bell-forks.
WANTED - TWO YOUNG MEN,
ages 17-25 years, neatly dressed, free to travel. Chances for good earnings. See M. Whitfield - Hotel Greenville, from 7-8 Tuesday p. m., and 8-9 Wednesday a. m. 31-2t

FOR SALE - ONE SLIGHTLY
used Home Comfort Range. Call 2179. Mon-Wed-Sat.

COME TO HUBBER WHITE'S
Cycle Shop for bicycle repair work. Guns, locks, key cutting, and outboard motors. Located at Western Auto Associate Store, 519 Dickinson Ave. Dial 2042. All work guaranteed. 1-3t

FOR RENT - STORE BUILDING,
Fifth Street Formerly occupied by Brown's Soda Shop. Near Five Points. Also 6-room Bungalow, West Third Street, Ready to move in. L. J. Smith, Real Estate - Insurance.

WANTED - PERMANENTLY AF- ter November 29, two or three unfurnished first-floor rooms with bath. Must be near college. Write full particulars to "Rooms," care Reflector office. 1-3t

LOST - FROM OUR TRUCK - ONE piece of artificial grave grass - reward if returned to Williams Funeral Home. 1-3t

WANTED - EXPERIENCED SODA
fountain operator to manage first-class soda shop. Must furnish references. Apply to Mr. Pleasants, Pleasants Drug Store. 1-2t

SPECIALS FOR THURSDAY -
Cherry Tarts, Jelly Rolls, Butter Biscuits. People's Bakery.

FOR SALE
New 6-room bungalow, 1118 Colonial Avenue, near Third St. School. Large lot. Modern conveniences. Priced for quick sale. Owner leaving town.
D. L. TURNAGE, Phone 2715. 1-eod-4t

Richmond Livestock

(Courtesy J. N. and J. L. Williams)
Richmond, Nov. 1. Hogs - receipts moderate, market steady and unchanged, quoting good and choice 180 to 250 lbs. $6.55 to $6.80 the top; 120-140 $5.50-$6.00, 140-160 $6.00-$6.30, 160-180 $6.30-$6.55, 250-300 $6.05-$6.55, over 300 lbs. $5.75-$6.30. Sows under 350 lbs. $4.80-$5.30, over 350 lbs. $4.30 to $4.80. Steers, strictly good fat butcher steers $8.00 to $8.50, extra choice little higher; butcher steers $7.00 to $7.75; common steers $6.00 to $6.50. Heifers - average run nearby heifers $5.50 to $6.50, poor quality $5.00 to $6.00. Cows - strictly good fat butcher cows $5.00 to $5.50, few choice little higher; medium cows around $4.25 to $4.50, common and canners about $3.50. Bulls - good fat butcher bulls $6.00 to $6.50, lights around $5.50 to $6.00, top medium bulls $5.00 to $5.50. Vealers - merely good to near choice vealers $9.50 to $10.00, strictly fancy mostly $10.00 to $10.50, extreme top, culls down around $5.00 to $6.00 as to value. Sheep - lambs, receipts light, good and near choice lambs $8.00 to $9.00 top. Slaughter ewes $2.50 to $3.25 with culls as to value.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Nov. 1. (AP) - While real selling pressure was absent in today's stock market, leading issues added fractions to a point or so to their decline of the previous session. Dealings picked up a trifle on the downside after slow early rallying efforts failed to get anywhere. Offerings dried up near the fourth hour and scattered recoveries appeared.

Chicago GrainMarket

(Courtesy Vernon Parrish)

WHEAT - Open Close Pr. Cl.
Dec.	86 1/2	86 1/2	86 1/2
May	85 1/2	85 1/2	85 1/2
July	84 1/2	84 1/2	84 1/2
CORN -
Dec.	50 1/2	50 1/2	50 1/2
May	53 1/2	52 1/2	53 1/2
July	53 1/2	53 1/2	54
OATS -
Dec.	36 1/2	36 1/2	36 1/2
May	35 1/2	35	35 1/2
July	32 1/2	32 1/2	32 1/2
RYE -
Dec.	53 1/2	53 1/2	53 1/2
May	54 1/2	54	54 1/2

New York Cotton

New York, Nov. 1. (AP) - Cotton futures opened two lower to one higher.
The list around the end of the first hour ranged two points higher to three lower.
Losses ran from three to six points around midday.

Open Close Pr. Cl.
Dec.	9.08	8.97	9.09
Jan.	9.03	8.90	9.02
Mar.	8.91	8.79	8.91
May	8.80	8.68	8.82
July	8.65	8.52	8.66
Oct.	8.36	8.29	8.38

N. Y. STOCK LIST

A. C. L.	25 1/2
Anaconda	32 1/2
American Radiator	10 1/2
Bethlehem Steel	88 1/2
Chrysler	82 1/2
C. I. T.	52 1/2
Coca Cola	120 1/2
Commercial Credit	47 1/2
Commercial Solvent	13 1/2
Consolidated Oil	8 1/2
Continental Can	44 1/2
Electric Bond and Share	9 1/2
General Motors	54 1/2
Gillette	6 1/2
International Telephone	5 1/2
Lorillard	22 1/2
Nash Kelvator	7 1/2
National Dairy	16 1/2
Otis Steel	13 1/2
Packard	3 1/2
Paramount Pictures	26 1/2
Pullman	8 1/2
Pure Oil	5 1/2
Radio	5 1/2
Reynolds	37 1/2
Simmons	24 1/2
Southern Railway	20 1/2
Standard Brands	5 1/2
Sperry Corporation	48 1/2
Texas Corporation	47 1/2
Texas Gulf Sulphur	35 1/2
United Aircraft	47 1/2
United Corporation	2 1/2
United Drug	8 1/2
U. S. Steel	74 1/2
Warner Pictures	4 1/2
Western Union	31 1/2
Douglas Aircraft	84 1/2
N. Y. Central	21 1/2
Phillips Petroleum	43 1/2
American Tobacco	81 1/2
U. S. Alcohol	25 1/2
Aviation Corporation	7 1/2
Curtis Wright	97 1/2
American Telephone	167 1/2

Champ
Lynchburg, Va. (AP) - This city, where Thomas Jefferson taught the public that the tomato was good to eat, now boasts a tomato-growing champion. W. E. Martin, the champ, produced a tomato plant which grew to a height of 12 feet in his back yard.

MR. FARMER

Will You Need Any Money This Fall?
We have $5,000,000
To Loan on Farms in Eastern Carolina
Our Interest Rate Ranges From 4 1/2% to 5%
Our Terms 5, 10 and 15 Years
No Payment Required On Principal Unless You So Desire
For Example: On a $5,000 loan at 5% interest you would only pay $250.00 each fall. If prices on your crops are better than you anticipated, you could curtail the principal $500.00, $1,000.00 or $2,000.00. If prices are lower than you anticipated, as stated above, you only pay the interest.
Don't wait until you have to have the money - make an application immediately.
H. A. WHITE & SONS
103 Evans St. Dial 2149
REALTORS
GENERAL INSURANCE

Mid-Air Slayer Fingerprinted

Ernest P. Pletch (left), whom officers quoted as confessing he killed Carl Bivens, flying instructor, in mid-air during a flight, is shown being fingerprinted by Sergt. Victor C. Kelso in the state highway patrol headquarters at Macon, Mo. Bivens' body was found near Cherry Box, Mo., after Pletch was arrested upon landing at Bloomington, Ind.

STUDY SAFETY OF OIL TRUCKS

Transporters aroused To Seriousness Of Problem
Reflector Bureau
By HENRY AVERILL
Baleigh, Nov. 1. -Transporters of petroleum products in tank trucks have at last waked up to the seriousness of the problem they face as the result of a series of spectacular accidents which have brought flaming death and destruction in their wake.
Five such fatal accidents within a short span of two weeks - the last of which left two charred bodies on a roadside near Asheboro and nearly burned to death a preacher and his family sleeping in a nearby dwelling brought this abrupt awakening and there is little doubt that something is going to be done and done immediately.

"HENRY ALDRICH, you're enough to make a man-hater out of any girl!"
Poor Henry, no matter what happens, he gets the blame!
Two Grand Days THURSDAY FRIDAY
Jackie Cooper - Betty Field in "WHAT A LIFE"
George Abbott's comedy success - now a hilarious screen treat with LIONEL STANDER HEDDA HOPPER
OUR GANG COMEDY "DAD FOR A DAD"
New Novelty • Pitt News
Mat. 10c-25c
Eve. 10c-25c
PITT

one sort or another.
The truckers contended, of course, that in proportion to the number of gasoline tanks on the roads and the mileage they travel there are not an excessive number of accidents, but they were informed that this does not change the fact that these accidents are so spectacular and cause so much damage to innocent parties that a real crisis has been reached.
There were suggestions that the speed limit of all gasoline carriers be limited to as low as 30 miles an hour - Commissioner Maxwell appeared to be on the verge of issuing an order just that drastic - but in the end it was agreed that a program of "self-regulation" should be given a chance, although the Commissioner emphatically pointed out that it is the duty of the state to see that there is real enforcement, and promised that the department will not be lax in doing its duty.
Ronald Hocutt, safety director, pointed out that the organized truck interests have been cooperative in all safety programs and expressed the opinion that something really progressive can be accomplished through joint action of the safety division and the transporters.
The point was stressed by the truckers that much of the trouble is caused by gasoline transporters who own only a tanker or two and who do not select their drivers as carefully nor adopt as rigid safety standards as do the larger concerns.
There is little doubt that the atmosphere was cleared preliminary to the study and adoption of rules and regulations, drastic and far-reaching in nature, and as ironclad as possible.
Even then, it is admitted, there are bound to be accidents to gasoline carrying vehicles, just as there are accidents to all forms of transportation on roads, rails, in the air or on the sea.
Scheduled to meet for Friday's

City Receives Check From PWA Agency

City Clerk J. O. Duval today received a check for $24,950 drawn on the United States treasury and representing a 10 per cent payment on the PWA's share of the cost of the fire station, city hall and street department yard and garage.
A check representing 25 per cent of the agency's share previously had been received here, leaving only 10 per cent more to be received from the PWA, which agency provided 45 per cent of the total cost of the projects.

conference with Maxwell and Hocutt are C. S. Schaub of Apex, president of the N. C. Truck Owners Association; Nathan Strause, Henderson; T. R. Reid, Greensboro; J. Y. Ray, Roanoke Rapids; and J. H. Vickers, Charlotte.

This Silo Is Built Of Hay

Vivian, S. D. (AP) - Archie Zar and his sons have built an economical silo. They built it from bales of hay - 15 bales in circumference and 13 bales high - wired together. It holds 40 tons of cane silage.
As they feed the cane, they tear down the silo. It, too, is feed.
To conform with the color scheme of one streamlined train, the engineer and his assistant are dressed in white instead of in the usual blue overalls.
A single grapevine in Rosebud, Texas, covers the entire side of a building and is half a block long.
Loft, Texas, has regular free boxing shows every Saturday afternoon and free rodeos every Saturday night.

Which Foot Is Yours? See Tomorrow's Paper

Will Your Home Be Like This... On the Inside this Winter? KEEP IT WARM WITH A COLE HOT BLAST or ENTERPRISE HEATER For Coal or Wood

You May Prefer A COLE OIL BURNER

- SAFE
- CLEAN
- BEAUTIFUL
- ECONOMICAL

We Carry A Complete Line Of These Heaters - Also Tin Heaters...

Quinn-Miller & Stroud

Smith and Sugg - Market Report

Prices Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at our Warehouses 1 and 2 Highest of the year.

We have 1st Sale Friday at our No. 1 Warehouse beginning at 10:05 A.M. and finishing Monday afternoon.

We have space on our No. 1 Warehouse for 2,000 baskets of tobacco for Friday's Sale, Beginning at 10:05 A.M. Friday

We will begin our sale at No. 2 Warehouse for Friday at 2:35 P.M., continuing through Monday afternoon and can accommodate about 4,000 baskets of tobacco for this sale.

Fancy Grades Selling above 40c

Please Get Your Tobacco in Friday By 3 P. M.

SMITH and SUGG - Star Warehouses No. 1 & No. 2