Allied Army Reported Moving Across Belgium Border

GERMANS CHECKED BY BELGIUM AND NETHERLANDS

ARE HALTED BY DUTCH TROOPS

Driven Into Dangerous Position After Unsuccessfully Attempting To Fight Their Way Through Rotterdam; Invaders Checked Few Hundred Yards Of Belgian Frontier

Rotterdam, May 10.—(AP)—Germany's plane and parachute troops attempting to fight their way through Rotterdam were driven back into a dangerous position late today by the attacks of reinforced Dutch troops and the pounding of Dutch artillery. Strong detachments of Netherlands marines made repeated rushes into the enemy positions on the river Nieuwe Maas and the fighting was fierce. Dutch incendiary shells set fire to the large Maas hotel, from which the Germans were operating on the left bank of the stream, which divides Rotterdam. The fire spread rapidly, threatening the thin German lines.

Berlin, May 10.—(AP)—An official announcement tonight said almost 100 "enemy airplanes" either had been shot down in aerial battles or destroyed on the ground. Seven German airplanes were reported missing in addition to two known to have made forced landings, it said.

Brussels, May 10.—(AP)—The German land forces have been stopped within a few hundred yards of the frontier after entering Belgium as part of Hitler's blitzkrieg against the low countries, the foreign minister announced today.

Defense Minister General Henri Denis told the Chamber of Deputies that at noon the Germans were halted everywhere on the Belgium defense lines. He said he was "convinced the Germans failed to obtain their first objective and failed to gain the initial success they expected."

The Hague, May 10.—(AP)—German leaflets dropped in The Hague today told the residents that the strong German forces have surrounded the city and that "resistance is insanity." (This dispatch was filed more than two hours after the Berlin radio's announcement that the Germans had occupied The Hague, and apparently proved that to be untrue.)

Berlin, May 10.—(AP)—The German high command announced tonight that German troops had broken border resistance of the Belgium, Netherlands and Luxembourg fronts.

The communique stated: "German troops at 5:30 a. m. went over the Dutch, Luxembourg and Belgium borders. Enemy opposition in the border area was broken everywhere in the first attack in the closest collaboration with the air force."

"A German U-boat sank a British submarine in the sea region near Terschelling (Dutch island in the North Sea.)"

"A German speed boat sank an enemy destroyer with a torpedo in the course of operations in the North Sea," the communique ended.

War Bulletins

New York, May 10.—(AP)—Aviation authorities said today that the British and French governments have ordered 2,000 or more additional American-made warplanes in the last few days. The new contracts are for the latest type fighting planes and bombers.

Washington, May 10.—(AP)—Secretary Hull indicated today that consultations would be held with the Latin-American republics concerning the status possessions in the Western hemisphere.

Paris, May 10.—(AP)—Premier Reynaud tonight announced a reorganization of his cabinet to face the intensified threat of Germany's drive to the west. Reynaud's office announced the reorganization had been accomplished with the inclusion of two extreme Rightist ministers in the new cabinet.

London, May 10.—(AP)—An unofficial British statement today said The Hague, seacoast capital of The Netherlands, had been bombed by German invaders.

"Our air attaché at The Hague was nearly killed by a bomb which fell close to the foreign office early this morning," the statement said.

London, May 10.—(AP)—A British source said today that unconfirmed reports had been received that the Dutch Frisian islands in the North sea facing England had been bombed and parachute troops landed there.

NO CHANGE IN STATUS OF U.S.

President Discusses War Situation With Press

Washington, May 10.—(AP)—President Roosevelt said today he saw no change with respect to the possibility of the United States keeping out of Europe's war.

At a press conference he told reporters who crowded his office to the walls that there was not much he could say about the situation abroad now and that it spoke for itself.

Fate of Germany Staked By Move

Berlin, May 10.—(AP)—Germany's powerful war machine moved at dawn today on its third blitzkrieg since September 1, 1939. Adolf Hitler announced this was the beginning of a fight that "decides the fate of the German nation for the next 1,000 years." Steam-rolling its way into Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg by a combination of the land and air forces that proved so effective against Poland, Norway and Denmark, the armed forces of the Third Reich under Adolf Hitler's personal direction "darted over Germany's western borders along the broadest front for attack," as a high command communique briefly put it. At the same time German fighting planes, with Holland's hitherto neutral air no longer a hindrance, darted straight for the heart of England.

Succeeded by Churchill; Thames Estuary Bombed

London, May 10.—(AP)—Winston Churchill, belligerent First Lord of the Admiralty and long-time target of Adolf Hitler's wrath, tonight became Britain's man of destiny, succeeding Neville Chamberlain as Prime Minister as war surged over western Europe.

The government announced "The Right Honorable Neville Chamberlain resigned the office of Prime Minister and First Lord of the Treasury this evening and the Right Honorable Winston Churchill accepted his Majesty's invitation to fill the position."

Chamberlain will broadcast a message to the nation at 9 p. m. (3 p. m., EST) tonight, it was announced.

The Air Ministry announced tonight that British air forces in France had bombed German troops. The government warned every Briton tonight to be on the lookout for German troops landing by parachute in Britain.

German bombers brought the war to England's doorsteps with forays up the Thames estuary along the southeast coast and into Kent, but heavy anti-aircraft fire drove the invaders from Dover and other points.

Four incendiary bombs were dropped near Canterbury in Kent.

In response to urgent appeals from Brussels and Amsterdam, Britain promised full military aid to the invaded nations, but warned that Germany through her speed had again gained an initial advantage.

Sunday Set Aside For Hospital Day

Pitt Community hospital will observe National hospital day on Sunday, May 12th. Visiting hours will be from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m. The hospital officials cordially invite the public to visit the institution on that day and learn at first hand the services and facilities which the community hospital is offering.

The National Hospital day is observed each year on May 12th in honor of the memory of Florence Nightingale, who not only founded the modern nursing education movement, but whose efforts to improve standards of hospital care marked the beginning of the modern hospital.

Rev. T. M. Grant, pastor of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, will conduct a Florence Nightingale service Sunday at 8 p. m. The public is invited to attend this service and all graduate nurses are invited to attend in uniform.

Planes Downed

Amsterdam, May 10.—(AP)—The Netherlands officially announced today that her defense forces had shot down at least 70 German planes, blown up a German armored train at Venlo and were offering strong resistance along rivers just inside the eastern part of the country from Germany.

The armored train, described as one of four "successfully attacked," was reported blown up while attempting to cross the Maas river bridge at Venlo. The announcement said Netherlands troops offered strong resistance to the invaders on the IJssel and Maas rivers, a short distance within The Netherlands.

RUSH TO MEET NAZI SOLDIERS

Speeding Across Invading Country To Face German Legions Which Had Entered Country From East; Difficult To Determine Immediate Exact Nazi Objective

Paris, May 10.—(AP)—A British-French army was authoritatively reported moving rapidly across the Belgian border today to meet German legions which had entered from the east, and a Paris military spokesman said "the most gigantic battle of all time may be near at hand."

The spokesman said that the Germans must have one of two military purposes in mind.

Pointing out it was difficult at the moment to determine the exact Nazi objectives, the spokesman said they may be trying:

1. An operation to gain control of a long strip of coastline facing England, or—

2. A vast strategic movement of invasion, comparable to an infinitely larger one than that carried out by the German troops against Belgium in 1914.

In the latter case, he said, "we are at the beginning of the most gigantic battle of all time."

The Belgian army was reported by Havas, French news agency, to be busy mopping up small detachments of German parachutists who landed on Belgium territory.

Several German planes were shot down from the numerous squadrons which flew over Belgium.

The war department spokesman said there was as yet no precise information in Paris of the exact line of march of the Germans.

The Germans, he continued, are following the usual tactics of sending shock forces in advance, preceded by intense aerial bombardment of roads, bridges, railroads and air fields.

The bombardments, he states, are on a vast scale. Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg and France, those in France being notably in the eastern and northern areas.

Pitt Medical Society Holds Monthly Meet

Dr. K. B. Pace and Dr. E. B. Beasley were joint hosts at the regular monthly meeting of the Pitt County Dental and Medical Society, held at the Proctor hotel last night. Following the dinner and interesting program was presented. Dr. J. L. Winstead gave a case report on "Sarcoma" and another on "Tuberculosis Encephala." Dr. F. B. Brooks presented a paper on "Hyper-Insulinism." Dr. F. B. Haar presented a paper on the use of vitamin K and Dr. N. Thomas Ennett, health officer, submitted his report on activities of the department for the month.

Cadman Talks At Bankers Meeting

Pinehurst, May 10.—(AP)—Dr. Paul F. Cadman of New York, economist of the American Bankers Association, told North Carolina bankers in convention here today that "at the very heart of a system of free enterprise is a free banking system." Cadman continued: "The deepest issue of our time is: How far can we surrender the direction of our economic life to government and still preserve our political liberty?"

Fail In Attempts To Kidnap Queen

Daring Attempt By Squadrons Of German Planes To Capture Wilhelmina Ends In Failure and Sudden Death

New York, May 10.—(AP)—Two squadrons of Nazi planes loaded with soldiers were said today by Edwin Hartich, Amsterdam correspondent for CBS, to have made a "daring attempt to capture Queen Wilhelmina," an attempt which "evidently has met with failure and sudden death for the perpetrators."

His cable from Amsterdam to CBS said: "A daring attempt of the German air force to capture Queen Wilhelmina in the early hours today apparently has met with failure and certain death for the perpetrators."

"A flight of 16 large Junkers and possibly more landed at the airport of Valkenburg, five miles from the queen's summer villa and about seven miles from her residence in the outskirts of The Hague. Each Junker carried 20 soldiers or more. All were equipped with automatic rifles or machineguns. The planes landed in the early hours of the morning."

Other contingents of aerial kidnapers landed at Delft, about four miles south of The Hague. The strategy was to cut off The Hague from the rest of Holland surrounding the capital city and capture the government, even if only for a few hours."

Belgium Declared She Can Not Be Vanquished

Tells Nazis She Will Defend Self By All Means

Brussels, May 10.—(AP)—Belgium is "resolved to defend herself by all means and can not be vanquished," Germany was told today in a note handed to the German ambassador by Paul Henri Spaak, the Belgian foreign minister.

The text of the note said in part: "Germany for the second time has invaded neutral and loyal Belgium. The present invasion is even worse than that of 1914."

"No ultimatum was given. No official notification. No protest."

"Instead, a direct attack violating the neutrality of the country."

"This attitude deprived Germany of any justification. This violation will hurt the conscience of the entire world abroad."

Two children were killed and 50 persons wounded in an air raid on Brussels. The Brussels airport also was bombed.

BRITISH MOVE INTO ICELAND

Move Taken To Bar Germany From North Base

London, May 10.—(AP)—In a lightning-like move to bar Germany from a strategic base in the far north, Great Britain today took protective custody of tiny Iceland.

The island, which is linked to German-occupied Denmark by its allegiance to King Christian X, will be under British protection only until "the conclusion of hostilities," it was announced.

It was not believed that the British force—an undetermined size—encountered any opposition from

Nazis Invade Countries In West Europe

Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg Entered by Hitler's Troops In Triple Blitzkrieg; Low Countries' Fight To Death Seen By Allied Commander In Chief

By The Associated Press

The lights of peace exploded violently in western Europe today as Reichsfuehrer Adolph Hitler launched a triple blitzkrieg attack before dawn on the little neutral "low countries"—Belgium, Holland and Luxembourg.

Nazi parachute invaders rained down in the darkness, striking at vital airports and strategic centers, while the German land steam-roller rumbled across the three frontiers. General Gamelin, commander-in-chief of the French and British armies, declared Germany had begun "a fight to the death against us."

A Paris military spokesman said "the most gigantic battle of all time" was apparently imminent.

Within a few hours the Berlin radio announced the fall of The Hague, capital of The Netherlands. Nazi troops dropped from the skies, seized the airport at Rotterdam after a heavy bombardment that destroyed the flying field and hangars.

Freeze Wealth Of Invaded Countries

Washington, May 10.—(AP)—President Roosevelt "froze" all Dutch and Belgian wealth in the United States today to prevent its seizure by the Germans.

After consultations with financial officials, who had been asked out of bed, the President signed an executive order extending the freezing decree on Danish and Norwegian assets to The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg.

The emergency order, rushed through before the country's financial markets opened for the day, was the first precautionary step taken to cope with the new war situation which had arisen overnight.

Of All Places! Pueblo, Colo.—(AP)—A thief broke into the cloakroom of a church and stole five hats and an overcoat while members of the men's class were attending a meeting in the basement. The speaker of the evening was among those who lost hats.

Series of Sermons.
May is designated the "Month of the Christian Home" on the annual calendar of the Memorial Baptist church. Therefore Dr. J. D. Simons began a series of messages last Sunday night on this subject. His theme was "Courtship—What Is It?" as the scaffolding by means of which the house of matrimony is built, as the time when a man and woman are endeavoring to understand each other. "The better the understanding, the greater their chance of success in matrimony," he said. "The End of The Century Book Club.

The lovely little home of Mrs. Hortense Moye was the scene of another charming evening to The End of The Century Book Club, on Tuesday afternoon.

The subject under discussion was "Distinguished Literary Families of America". Members of the Beecher family were subjects of discussion.

Business being finished the young hostess afforded much amusement for the members of the club and various visitors, by requiring each person to draw on a black board a representative of some book.

The guests were then invited into the dining room, where delicious and elaborate menu was tastefully served.

Little Miss Nina Harris left this morning for Wilmington to attend the annual meeting of the Bright Jewels. She is a delegate from the Greenville Bright Jewels.

oldest and most interesting stories in all history are stories of love and courtship," he alleged. Then he proceeded to warn his auditors against undue haste in matrimony and the prevalent intimacies between the sexes, which cheapen the experiences of courtship. "Love does not come to full fruition in courtship. Marriage is launched inauspiciously when it is entered into secretly. I had almost rather not be married at all than to be married secretly," he concluded.

The home is one of the fundamental institutions of society. No nation rises above the level of the home, which are little streams that are constantly pouring their influence into the mighty Amazon of national life. The best way to elevate a nation is to Christianize its homes. This connection has inspired this series of sermons.

Dr. Simons will preach this Sunday on "An Ideal Mother" and "Am I Really in Love?" The other themes in this series are "Choosing A Husband", "Choosing A Wife", and "Married and Happy."

The public is cordially invited to hear these messages on "The Christian Home."

The U. D. C. Meets.

Freshman Frolics of 1940
The Freshman Frolics of 1940, given last night at the College, included a variety of types of entertainment, and gave a large number of the class opportunity to contribute to the occasion. Among the local students taking an active part were Kenneth Woolard, who directed the melodrama given and presided as Master of Ceremonies over the variety part of the program; and Clara Crumpler, who gave one of the dances.

Marguerite Moye, known in Greenville as soprano soloist last year in the Messiah of the Symphonic Chorus and in this year's production of the same group, sang "How So Fair". Other numbers were "Moon Country" and "Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair" sung by Jean Phillips, Bobbie Pritchard and Margie Selby; "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life"; tap dancing by Crawford Hedspeth and "Smoky & Co."; a reading by Bessy Uary; "Street Urchin's Medley" sung by Arch Yow, Ben Summerlin, David Cox and Norman Wilkerson.

The one-act play, an old-time melodrama, was the chief feature of the program. Its cast was composed of Hilda Ruth Martin, Joye Parnell, Margaret Hennant, Estelle Davis, Frances Sars, Norwood Wall, David Cox and Bill Basden. Miss Parnell's parents and several friends came from Fayetteville for the occasion.

At the conclusion of the program, the class presented a gift to the director of the play, Kenneth Woolard, for his service.

The Class of 1943 has been an active one this year, under the leadership of David Cox, New York City. Cox expects to study at Davidson next year. Norman Wilkerson, of Greenville, follows him as president of the class.

End Of The Century Club.
In the final meeting of the Club year, the End of the Century Club was delightfully entertained at a delectable luncheon at the home of Mrs. R. J. Slay on Tuesday evening at one o'clock. The spacious rooms of the home were abundant with beautiful arrangements of iris. The guests found their places at the tables marked with most attractive corsages of sweetheart roses.

After the luncheon, Mrs. R. C. Stokes, Jr., president, called the meeting to order. Dr. Wooten was introduced and gave a short talk in the interest of the cancer campaign. As is customary, the club will send in the group of 20 books which were read this year to Sheppard Memorial Library, and also a substantial contribution in addition to the beautiful "Treasure of Masterpieces", which was added to the Bowen shelf last fall. Plans for the program for next year were submitted by Mrs. J. L. Little, program chairman.

At the close of the business meeting, Mrs. A. D. Frank introduced Mrs. J. S. Picklen, who gave a most delightful talk on "Life At Sea" and "The Philippines".

Mrs. Picklen spoke first on ships and compared early voyaging with the very up-to-date means of commuting by sea. Boats were the earliest means of transportation, except to walk. The first boat we are familiar with is Noah's Ark. Then came the three boats in which Columbus "sailed the ocean blue." A comparison of size is that the length of Columbus' boats was the size of a life boat on the Queen Mary. The third boat we heard much about was the Mayflower. These boats varied in weight of 100 to 150 tons. The modern passenger boat of today, such as the Normandie or Queen Mary weighs about 83,000 tons. It took six weeks to two months and some times longer for the early boats to cross the ocean, and today it only takes four to five days for the fast boats.

In speaking of the Philippines, Mrs. Picklen spoke chiefly of Manila and its beauty. We visited many beautiful spots in the city as Mrs. Picklen gave very vivid descriptions of places which had been of particular interest to her.

The meeting closed with everyone in accord on the splendid year just ended and looking forward to being together again in the fall—Reported.

Training School P. T. A.
The Training School P. T. A. held the last meeting of the year in the school auditorium on Wednesday afternoon.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. H. G. Clayton. Mrs. Clayton asked Mrs. Putrell to read a letter she had received from Mr. Rose. Mr. Rose expressed his appreciation for the work done by the P. T. A. during this school year. He asked that the parents help do something to develop the property which has been bought for a recreation center. He also invited everyone to visit the Girl Scout cabin on this property. He then stated that ten acres of the property would be used this summer as a truck farm and that the vegetables would be canned and used in the school lunch rooms. He asked for a donation of jars to be used in this work.

After the reading of this letter it was reported that books and playground equipment had been ordered. Dr. Boyd then installed the following officers for the coming year: President, Mrs. Herbert Waldrop; Vice President, Mrs. Ruel Tyson; Secretary, Miss Plum; Treasurer, Mrs. B. F. Bullard.

Dr. Boyd spoke briefly on the motives, purpose and service of these officers.

A rising vote of thanks was given for the splendid work done by this year's officers.

A most delightful social hour was held by the grade mothers of Miss

MEMORIAL DAY

This morning at the regular assembly hour the "Daughters of the Confederacy" sponsored its annual Memorial Day program honoring its Confederate Dead. The band and student body opened the program with one verse of "America", followed by a prayer by F. C. Harding.

A medley of Southern Songs, including "Swanee River", "Dixie", "America", "My Old Kentucky Home" and the "Star Spangled Banner" was played by the band. The Senior Hi Glee Club concluded the musical part of the program with "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, The Boys Are Marching."

Following this, Jack Spain gave a very entertaining talk on "The Confederacy". The program was concluded with the student body singing "God Bless America" and the "Old North State". The student body, including the band and glee club marched to the court house for a short ceremony.

ANNUAL DEDICATION
The 1940 Greenville High School senior annual has been dedicated to the memory of Dillon Forbes. Dillon, popular and well-liked, would have been a senior this year except for the unfortunate accident of his death during his ninth year in school. The choice was unanimous throughout the senior class. Dillon was the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Forbes on the Falkland highway.

Strength For The Day

By KARL L. DOUGLASS

CONCERNING DECISION

These words greet us from signs and billboards everywhere. It is the government's slogan urging young men to enter the army or the navy.

The psychology is good. Not tomorrow, or next week, or next year, but now. And enlist, which means to put one's name upon the list for service. Thus does the army recruit its soldiers and sailors. But if we read the Bible with discrimination, we discover that with the same insistence God would enlist all men in His service. Writes Thomas Carlyle, "Are not all true men that live, soldiers of the same army, enlisted under heaven's captaincy?" We are told in the Word of God that now is the appointed time, now is the day of salvation. And our Lord began His preaching by saying "The kingdom of heaven is at hand."

The remorse we have as we look at life with hind-sight rather than foresight is a weighty obstacle to prayer. Why could we not in the sunny open hour when decision was offered, make the decision upon which so much depended? Many a man sobs out that question as he sits amid the ruins of his own life. And it could all be avoided if we acted now, decided now, enlisted now, on the side of those things we know to be right.

● The placing of a number of trash receptacles on the sidewalks of the business section should prove an aid in keeping our city streets cleaner. It must be remembered, however, that the trash cans will be worthless unless our people co-operate by placing their trash in the cans instead of throwing it about the streets promiscuously as has been the custom in the past.

● While you are busy talking about the war in Europe, don't forget that locally we have another kind of war just ahead of us, our Democratic primaries for the nomination of county and state officials, and that your name must appear on the new registration books if you wish to vote in the primaries. Tomorrow at sunset is the deadline for registering so we make this last appeal to you not to overlook this important matter of registration.

It is the same Hitler with the same pretext of establishing protectorates over the small neutrals lest his enemies use the neutral countries through which to attack Germany. To the outside world, however, Hitler's actions are those of the bully possessed with a greed for power and more power and attempting to gain it by overrunning the smaller brothers. To say the least, Hitler's rise to power has been spectacular but even though his efforts to date have been crowned with success the day must come that Hitler and his totalitarian ideals must be crushed before there can be a semblance of peace among nations.

Washington Daybook

By Jack Stinnett

Washington.—Any writer of any consequence can get an interview any time with any candidate for almost any political office—and you can bet anything you want that any candidate with common sense is going to do his best to give any writer only that impression and material which will reflect greatest credit to him, the candidate.

That's why it's fun, sometimes, to do a little figurative keyhole peeping and see what traits a candidate will disclose when he's off-guard.

That's why, caught in a corner of an inner sanctum of Senator Bob Taft's presidential campaign headquarters, surrounded only by friends and workers, I kept my mouth shut when the Senator himself made his appearance.

That's how I'm able to pass along a five-minute profile of a presidential candidate with his hair (what there is of it) down.

In those five unguarded minutes he did three things:

1. Asked advice, weighed the source, and didn't take it.
2. Kicked the props out from under the pard-nable enthusiasm of one of his lieutenants.
3. Gave his press department boys a headache by correcting their count on some unwatched chickens, and then tried to ease their pain by dictating a conservatively optimistic release on what he thinks of his prospects at the Republican convention, as of the present date.

Whether the PD boys are sending this release around or consider it too mild a claim for publication I haven't heard yet.)

He Pares 'Em Down

I was chatting with a campaign worker who had just returned from a middle western survey.

"Now you take Nebraska," he said. "Dewey won the preferential primary (Taft wasn't in it) but dope is that 10 of 14 delegates are just waiting to switch to Taft."

Just then the big, baldish, bespectacled son of a President who wants to walk in his father's footsteps entered the room. He overheard the remark.

"Now wait a minute. That isn't fair," Taft said. "You can't say that for sure. Let's stick to the facts. That was just somebody's guess. I'm doubting that I broke into that delegation until I see it happen."

The lieutenant grinned sheepishly and didn't argue.

Taft writes his own speeches and really sweats over them. He read a few paragraphs from one he had been wrestling with.

The assemblage enthused. "That's fine! Swell! Great, Chief!"

The Senator looked over the crowd of "yessers" and smiled. "Well," he said slowly, "I still don't think it says exactly what I mean. I'd better work on it a while longer."

One of the workers asked the boss to run over some estimates of Taft strength that were being prepared for a press release. In almost every instance Taft revised the list downward. The worker's face lengthened at every check of the pencil.

"Understand," said Taft, "we are making no outright claims. Here, for instance, we have two instructed delegates in North Carolina. The sentiment isn't unfavorable in some other states. That's all."

He Peps 'Em Up

Before long, the press department gang was glooming and said so. Taft laughed. All right," he said. "Here's an authorized statement."

"1. Senator Taft will have more votes on the first ballot than any other candidate.

"2. Senator Taft will have delegational strength in practically every state.

"3. Senator Taft is the second choice of more delegates than any other candidate."

The Senator turned, went into his private office, closed the door.

One of his press representative shook his head, a little sadly. "He thinks that's bragging."

I wouldn't know.

Raleigh, May 10.—The North Carolina fishing season and a holiday for employees arrived simultaneously today.

Your Raleigh reporter would wager a small sum that more of them go angling than attend Confederate Decoration Day exercises—which is the occasion for the holiday.

Erskine Smith, candidate for lieutenant governor, is reported to be opposed to liquor "legal or illegal."

What a lot of the boys want to know, though, is whether he is against "drinking" liquor—they don't care whether its legal or illegal.

Former State Senator L. A. Martin of Davidson, another of the candidates for lieutenant governor and the one who is supposed to be the driest of the dries, told your reporter Thursday that he has found very substantial support in the APC east, as well as in the supposedly arid west.

It is reported that the Mt. Olive precinct in Wayne county sent its registrar to Washington, D. C., this week to list those deserving Democrats who are holding down jobs in the national capital.

The reports further were that the Mt. Olive folks up there plan to charter a special bus to come down into North Carolina vote in the May 25 primary.

Raleigh's American Legion post—now the second largest in North Carolina—is expected to send its delegation to the High Point convention next month more interested in boosting attorney Roy McMillan for Department Commander in 1941 than in anything slated to be decided at this year's session.

Dave Hall of Belmont, is expected to be named the 1940-41 Department head without a fight.

Three North Carolina State College agricultural students have received valuable fellowship awards this year. The latest was Harold F. Robinson of Bandana in Mitchell county, a graduate student who has been awarded a fellowship in the agronomy department of the University of Nebraska, according to announcement of Dean I. O. Schaub. The fellowship is valued at $850 annually.

The others were James McGinnis of Lincoln county and Clifford L.

Announcement!

I hereby announce my candidacy for constable of Winterville township, subject to the action of the Democratic Primary May 25, 1940.

If elected, I will serve the public to the best of my ability. Your vote and support will be greatly appreciated!

In Raleigh the other day a new restaurant wanted two waitresses. It applies to the local office of the State Employment Service.

FORUM

Every Tuesday is Recorder's court day down in Greenville, N. C., and that is one day in the week that a motorist can get out on the Highway around Greenville and have no fear of being held up and robbed for having left his driver's license at home, because all the Patrolmen are at the "Patrolman's Heaven."

The Recorder's Court.

The writer happened to be present at a recent session of this "Amos and Andy" court down in Greenville and watched the comedy enacted by the dignified judge and the rookie solicitor.

Some of the patrolmen seemed to be pressing some minor cases that ought to have been settled in Magistrate's court, but the majority of them appeared to be just looking on, enjoying the fun, strutting up and down the hall-ways and loafing in the streets.

Not so long ago, a patrolman was convicted and sent to jail for accepting a bribe and one of the high officials of the patrol made the statement that this was the first case they had had. What he should have said, was this was the "first case" that they had caught up on. It seems that those in authority are too anxious to get things of this kind forgotten as soon as possible.

Now we need a highly efficient patrol in North Carolina, but do we have it?

Our patrol system needs to be shaken from bottom to top. We need patrolmen who think less of their fancy uniform, their big gun and badge than they do of safeguarding life and property on the highways.

It seems that some officers, after

SOFTBALL AND GREENIES IDLE

Rube's Boys At Snow Hill; Softball Tonight

Both the Coastal Plain league and the softball loop were kept idle yesterday and last night because of the heavy rains, but Old Sol was out today with indications that activities would be resumed today.

Rube Wilson's rookies were invading Snow Hill this afternoon and tonight R. C. Cola and Blount-Harvey and Carolina Dairy and Double Cola will match teams in the softball loop.

The Greenies were scheduled to entertain Snow Hill here last night. Last night's softball games, Pepsi-Cola vs. Tadlock and Water and Light vs. Carolina Sales, probably will be played next Wednesday night. The two games are the only ones on the schedule which have not been played. Rain the first Friday night of the season halted scheduled games, but they were played off on the following Wednesday and up to last night the league was up with its schedule.

Bad Eyes, Good Hit.

Norman, Okla. (AP)—Popeye Laster's constituents are suggesting that he close his eyes when he comes to bat.

That's because he has been hitting phenomenally ever since he threw away his specs last summer when his eyes started bothering him. With Lakeview, Ore., he batted .500 and now, at Oklahoma University, he's still around the .500 mark.

GRAHAM FAILS IN SOME CASES

Many Star Players Misjudged By Seals' Owner

By GAIL FOWLER

Seattle—Charley Graham, gray-haired owner of the San Francisco Seals of the Pacific Coast league, has sold more players for higher prices to the majors than any other man.

But he can't help but think about the "ones that got away." Among those Graham sold "up-stairs" are Joe Di Maggio, Dominic Di Maggio, Earl Averill, Jimmy O'Connell, Willie Kamm, Frank Crosetti, Vernon Gomez, Augie Galan, Joe Marty and Lefty O'Doul.

But, watching the rain drench his hotel room window here recently during a fanning bee, Graham recalled some players his team once had who went to the majors—but not from the Seals.

"We gave up on Wally Berger, Lloyd Waner, Cookie Lavagetto, Bob Johnson and others," Charley said. Berger, an outfielder, is now with Cincinnati. Lloyd Waner joined his elder brother, Paul, with Pittsburgh after Paul graduated from the Seals. Lavagetto wound up with Brooklyn after going up from Oakland. And of Johnson—

"We thought Bob Johnson was riding on the reputation of his brother Roy, whom we sold to Detroit. That idea cost us thousands." Johnson is the hardest hitting and highest paid hired hand with the Philadelphia Athletics.

"When I look at the Seals in the cellar this spring I think about how we gave up too hurriedly on Berger, Johnson and Lavagetto, how we underrated the Waner boys and how we almost let Earl Averill get away."

"It costs so little to take just one more look, and it costs so much to fire a diamond in the rough, just because we couldn't see past the rough edges."

Truth of Graham's words is borne out in the performance of young Ted Jennings, an infielder, this year. The Seals asked waivers on Jennings last winter, but there were no takers.

Injuries this season meant Jennings, an uncertain fielder and streaky hitter, found himself at third base.

"We had given up on Ted. Then this spring Lefty O'Doul (Seal manager) discovered that Ted was

Third Straight Dual Meet Victory For Locals

By LARRY JAMES

Coach Heman Fulkerson's local high tracksters won their third straight dual meet by overpowering the Goldsboro Quakes in that city yesterday. The final score was 62-41.

George Tyndall won the mile in 4:48 to tie the Goldsboro high school record set in 1935. Tyndall has won in every race since joining the track team last season. He won both the state and Civitan meets this year. Spencer Carroll, also of Greenville, finished second in yesterday's meet at Goldsboro.

John Spearman, 15-year-old dash man, won the 100 and 220 yard dashes. He did the 100 in 10.8 seconds. His time for the 220 was 24 seconds flat.

In the weight division Russell Rogerson garnered first place in the javelin and second in the discus and shotput.

George Sakas won the pole vault and tied Parrish of Greenville in the high jump.

Points for Greenville were as follows: Rogerson, 11; Spearman, 10; Sakas, 9; Tyndall, 9; Parrish, 7; L. Briley, 3; Carroll, 3; J. Briley, 1; Johnson, 3; Corbett, 3 and Beland 3.

Bailey of Goldsboro was the star performer for the Quakes. He won first in the discus and broad jump. Simmons won the 440 yard run, while Shumate took laurels in the 880 yard run. Goldsboro emerged victorious in the half mile also.

That's Counting Them Pretty Close Denver (AP)—Colorado's grizzly bear population is just about static. The 1940 game census disclosed that there still are approximately 10 grizzlies all man-eaters, in the state. The number hasn't changed for several years.

Deer in national forests increased about 20 per cent during the year and elk about 10 per cent. There are an estimated 130,900 deer in the state's forests and 19,200 elk. This is about 88 per cent of all the deer in the state and about 95 per cent of all the elk.

Brown and black bears number about 4,900 and mountain sheep 1,900. There are 120 antelope in the national forests, but many more in the plains section of the state.

standing at the back of the box and overhand curves that were breaking across the plate passed Jennings so low he couldn't handle them. Lefty moved Jennings up abreast of the plate and he's murdering those troublesome curves.

"Now the player we tried to almost give away last winter looks like a star."

APRIL HEALTH REPORT ISSUED

Activities Of Department Related To Society

Activities of the Pitt County health department during the month of April were reported by the health officer, Dr. N. Thomas Ennett, at the regular monthly meeting of the Medical Society last night.

"There was nothing of importance in the contagious disease situation for the month of April except two cases of diphtheria and one case of scarlet fever. No measles, no whooping cough and no typhoid fever were reported."

"The tuberculosis clinic held in Pitt county for the first three weeks in April and conducted by Dr. G. D. Godwin of the State Sanatorium had an attendance of 594. He found 10 new cases—3 white and 7 colored."

"Dr. Godwin, in commenting on the clinic, wrote in part as follows: 'The number of new active cases at this year's clinic is small and I think the work you have been doing there for the last two or three years, becomes more apparent as each year passes. However, we are of the opinion that this apparent slight control of tuberculosis in no way invalidates the fact that Pitt county needs a local sanatorium for its advanced cases.'"

"Pitt county should have a clinic every six months instead of every 12 months. The health officer hopes to have a two weeks clinic in October."

"The state-county monthly orthopedic clinic held in the Pitt county health offices and conducted by Dr. Hugh A. Thompson of Raleigh, continues to run at full capacity, there being 32 patients at the April clinic."

"During April the health officer held pre-school clinics throughout the county and in the city of Greenville. The attendance at these clinics was 467. The dentists of Greenville and of Pitt county were good enough to assist in these pre-school examinations and added materially to the efficiency of the clinics. The health officer wishes here to express his appreciation for this fine cooperation on the part of the dentists."

"The attendance at the maternal and infant welfare clinics last April was 159, this April, 208; an increase of 39 per cent. The increasing popularity of these clinics is, in the matter of work required, creating a problem for both clinicians and nurses."

"The attendance at the venereal disease clinics last April was 1764, this April, 2532, an increase of 43 per cent. The popularity of the venereal disease clinics is creating the same problem as that just referred to in connection with the maternal and infant welfare clinics."

"Malaria drainage matters still claim a large part of the time of the health officer and the county sanitary inspector."

"So far, we have been unable to have our W. P. A. community sanitation, or privy project restored, but we shall not relax our efforts until it is restored."

BROUGHTON For Governor

Hon. J. M. Broughton
Exempt Food for Home Consumption from the Sales Tax

ONE PLANK FROM MR. BROUGHTON'S PLATFORM READS AS FOLLOWS:

"In order to meet the obligations of the State the Sales Tax must be continued, but, in conformity with the pledges of the Democratic Party, all food for home consumption should be exempted. Let us take the Sales Tax off the home table. The improvement in business as reflected in increased revenue under our present tax laws will now justify this action."

Mr. Broughton is the only candidate for Governor through whose efforts we can expect food for the home table to be exempted from the Sales Tax. He has been endorsed by the North Carolina Food Dealers Association. Your neighborhood grocer urges you to join with him in electing Mr. Broughton in order that you may be relieved of the burden of paying the Sales Tax on food for your home.

GERMANS FIGHTING WAY TO NETHERLANDS CAPITAL

Bombs fell on numerous railway stations in the heart of the country. King Leopold, III, taking active command of the armed forces as his father, King Albert, did in 1914, ordered complete mobilization against the invaders and appealed to the Allies for help.

No Change in Status Of U. S.

of Germany's invasion of Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg on this country, the President asserted a great many things were being studied. He did not give details.

But in response to a question he said that a German pledge at the outbreak of the current war not to bomb "open" unfortified towns was being considered in the light of reports of the bombing of such cities.

A reporter asked him whether there was "anything you can say at this time as to what you think the chances are that we can keep out of the war."

That, he said, would be speculative. Then he hastened to add an admonition not to say that his words meant we might get in.

He said he saw no change in the situation in that respect.

British Move Into Iceland

On the other side of Holland, across the river and captured the by wide open dikes, Netherlands' first line defenders were resisting a German land army which entered the country along the Rhine and swarmed some 15 miles to the vicinity of Arnheim.

Queen Wilhelmina uttered a "flaming protest" against Germany, urged her nation to do its duty and sought strong assistance from the British-French Allies.

They said they would help and quickly. British and French planes were over the country and before noon seeking the enemy. Allied troops and naval forces were concentrating confidently.

The amazing methods of aerial warfare enabled the Germans to circumvent the entire Netherlands' water and land defense system and move into this key city, scarcely more than 100 miles from the British coast and the home of 600,000 people.

Rotterdam was taken completely by surprise at 4 a. m. (10:00 p. m. EST) by the roar of hundreds of German planes over the city.

BELGIUM DECLARES SHE CAN NOT BE VANQUISHED

German civilians who are known to have entered Iceland since the outbreak of the European war.

England, in explaining the move, stressed that it had no intention of interfering with the existing administration and shortly after the occupation the foreign office announced it already was negotiating a trade agreement.

The foreign office, in explaining the move, said that "it is clear that in the face of an attack, even on a small scale, the Icelandic government would be unable to prevent their country from falling completely into German hands. The island has a defense force of only about 70 police."

Only Three Cases In Today's Court

Only three cases were tried in Municipal recorder's court this morning, activities at local police headquarters having been unusually quiet during the past few days.

Andrew Grice, colored, was convicted of abandonment and non-support and was given a 90-day sentence, suspended upon condition he pay the sum of $2 weekly into the clerk's office, the money to be used for the support of his family.

Sam Hunter, colored, was found guilty of larceny of a watch from a Negro girl and was given a 30-day road term.

Mrs. Alma Letchworth was required to pay the sum of $5 to be applied on the costs of court for violation of a traffic ordinance, parking in a zone marked off for trucks.

Denver (AP)—First accidental trick shot of Denver's golfing season Mrs. Fred Binner whacked a trapped ball at the Welshire course with a niblick. The pellet snapped the bank, bounced 10 feet in the air and came down—in a pocket of Mrs. Binner's sweater.

SMOKING TRACK SHOES GO UP IN FLAMES

Madison, Wisc. (AP)—Anyone who treasures an old pair of shoes can sympathize with Charles (Chuck) Fenske, the current "Mr. Mile."

The University of Wisconsin graduate star lost his spare pair of well-worn 9½C track shoes when fire gutted the university athletic equipment room. Chuck prized the shoes over his "other" pair because they had carried him to four of his winter indoor victories, including the national A.A.U. mile championship.

The same fire also put Woodrow Swancutt into mourning. The two-time national intercollegiate 155 pound boxing champion lost the gloves with which he won the 1940 title at Sacramento, Calif.

CARDINALS NEED 2 MORE "M" MEN

St. Louis (AP)—If the Cardinals had a catcher and a third baseman whose names began with "M", they could put a full team of m-men on the field.

Joe Medwick, Terry Moore and Pepper Martin would be in the outfield, Johnny Mize at first, Stuart Martin at second, Martin Manion at shortstop and Bill McGee would be the pitcher.
