DIPLOMACY OF AXIS TURNS TO SPAIN, RUSSIA

Secrecy, However, Surrounds Official Discussions

GERMAN LIKELY GO TO MOSCOW

Reference to Policies Of Authoritarian Powers Apparently Aimed At Britain And U. S.

Berlin, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Axis diplomacy turned aggressively today in two directions, toward Soviet Russia and Spain, unless all signs in Berlin are misleading.

The same secrecy which surrounds all axis diplomatic preparations enshrouds the present new "offensive."

It seems, however, that either German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop is going to Moscow in the near future or that Russian Premier Foreign Commissar Molotov or another Russian representative is coming to Berlin.

Officials here said von Ribbentrop was resting near Berlin. For this reason, they said, he was not at the railway station yesterday to bid farewell to Italian Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano when he left for Rome.

Russian sources in Berlin expressed belief it was "quite likely" that von Ribbentrop would go to Moscow soon.

Unofficial circles, usually well informed, said also the new three-power pact of Germany, Italy and Japan makes new conversations with Russia necessary since the treaty created a new set of facts.

These sources, with obvious reference to the United States and Great Britain, said "certain political circles always forget that the policies of the great totalitarian powers are initiated and carried out by strong governments, not by cliques with international entanglements."

Funeral Tomorrow For John D. Gates

John Dudley Gates, 70, died at his home in Farmville at 6:30 o'clock this morning. Funeral services will be conducted at the residence tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. J. D. Roberts of Farmville and Rev. H. L. Cobb of Wilson. Interment will be in the Forest Hill cemetery.

Mr. Gates, the son of the late Wiley G. and Mary Monk Gates of Durham in 1913 and accepted a position with Monk and Beamon Brothers. From 1916 until the time of his death he was funeral director and undertaker for the Farmville Furniture company and also was manager of the company's refinishing department. For 40 years he was a faithful member of the Primitive Baptist church and for the past 22 years served as deacon and clerk of the Damascus church. He was treasurer of the Davis fund of the local Primitive Baptist church. He was known throughout Eastern Carolina for his loyalty to his church.

Mr. Gates for long had been active in the Farmville Building and Loan association and for the past five years had served as vice president and director. He had served as director of the Farmville Mutual Burial Association since its organization in 1933 and he was one of the oldest funeral directors in the state and through this connection had made many friends throughout this section.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Agnes Monk Gates; three sons, George W. Gates of Raleigh, J. Sterling Gates and Will Coy Gates of Farmville; two daughters, Mrs. W. D. Simpson of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. C. C. Satterfield of Richmond, Va.

Meat Is Stolen From Dail Laughinghouse

Members of the sheriff's department today reported that a quantity of meat was stolen from the smokehouse at the Farm home of Dail Laughinghouse, in Pactolus township, during the week-end.

The meat, believed to have been five shoulders and one ham, is believed to have been stolen Saturday night. The theft was not discovered and reported to the sheriff until yesterday afternoon.

Not An Attack

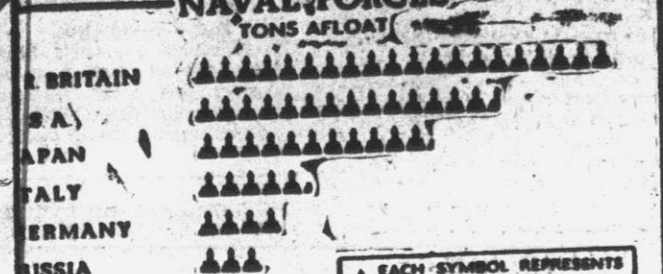

Rome, Sept. 30.—(AP)—A Fascist authority said today that the supplying of arms to Britain as in the case of the United States would not be considered an "attack" calling for the application of the Japanese-German-Italian alliance.

How They Line Up

MILITARY LINEUP OF BIG SIX POWERS

NAVAL FORCES

TONS AFLOAT

AIR FORCES

INCLUDING TRAINING SHIPS

LAND FORCES

INCLUDING TRAINED RESERVES

The new German-Italian-Japanese alliance presents one of the most formidable military combinations in history. Between the United States and Britain, however, the balance of sea power is in non-axis hands. Using latest possible figures, some of them in the cases of Russia and Japan possibly outdated, the chart illustrates the line-up of power.

LEON F. EVANS DIES AT HOME

Funeral Services To Be Conducted Tuesday Afternoon

Leon F. Evans, 80, prominent Pitt county farmer and father of the present tobacco industry in Pitt county, died at 12:50 o'clock this afternoon at his home on the Fall-land highway, three miles west of Greenville.

Funeral services will be conducted from the home tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, followed by burial in the family cemetery near the home place. Services will be conducted by Dr. J. D. Simons, pastor of Memorial Baptist church, of which Mr. Evans had been a lifelong member. In keeping with his oft repeated wish, the family requests no flowers.

Mr. Evans was born September 15, 1860, the son of William and Caroline Forbes Evans. On December 22, 1896, he married Miss Martha Jones, who with a son, Hugh Evans of the Damascus church, was treasurer of the Davis fund of the local Primitive Baptist church. He was known throughout Eastern Carolina for his loyalty to his church.

Mr. Gates for long had been active in the Farmville Building and Loan association and for the past five years had served as vice president and director. He had served as director of the Farmville Mutual Burial Association since its organization in 1933 and he was one of the oldest funeral directors in the state and through this connection had made many friends throughout this section.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Agnes Monk Gates; three sons, George W. Gates of Raleigh, J. Sterling Gates and Will Coy Gates of Farmville; two daughters, Mrs. W. D. Simpson of Norfolk, Va., and Mrs. C. C. Satterfield of Richmond, Va.

Final Rites Held For Mrs. Tyndall

Funeral services for Mrs. Dorothy White Tyndall, 28, who died suddenly Saturday morning, were conducted at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lee, yesterday afternoon with a large number of friends and relatives attending the rites. Burial followed in Cherry Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Tyndall, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. A. White, is survived by one sister, Mrs. Lee, and one brother, J. J. White, both of this city. She had a wide circle of friends throughout Eastern Carolina.

Light Docket Faced By County Tribunal

County Recorder's court will be resumed tomorrow after having been in recess last week during a clerk session of Superior court, but Clerk E. F. Tucker said this morning the local tribunal would face a comparatively light docket unless an unusually large number of cases were booked between now and court time.

The next session of Superior court is scheduled for October 21, at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lee, yesterday afternoon with a large number of friends and relatives attending the rites. Burial followed in Cherry Hill cemetery.

Mr. Evans had spent practically his entire life on the farm in the community in which he was born, and was considered one of this community's outstanding and most valuable citizens.

In 1886 he became interested in the production of tobacco and employed a man from Person county to come to this county to instruct him and four of his neighbors, Richard S. Evans, Gus F. Evans, A. A. Forbes, Sr., and Jacob Joyner in the proper methods of producing and housing tobacco. It was from this early beginning that Pitt county has grown into the world's largest tobacco producing county. For several years after the production of tobacco began on the farms of the Evans neighborhood the crop was hauled to Henderson and Oxford for sale, but the realization of the need for a closer market led to the establishment of a stock company here, headed by G. F. Evans and O. A. Forbes, which opened Greenville's first tobacco warehouse in 1891. Mr. Leon Evans, who was employed at the warehouse for the first year, later joined in the operation of the warehouse and continued in it for around six or eight years before retiring to the farm.

After his retirement to the farm Mr. Evans lived a quiet life, but one from which the world was never shut out, for he was a beloved Christian character and never missed an opportunity to extend a helping hand to someone in need.

INCREASED PAY FOR TEACHERS WILL BE ASKED

Superintendent Erwin To Make Request To Assembly

PLAN IS AIMED PREVENT EXODUS

State School Head Says Increase Inevitable In Industry And Schools Must Maintain Pace

Raleigh, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Clyde A. Erwin, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, announced today that he would ask the 1941 Legislature to increase the pay of school teachers "to prevent an exodus of our best teachers to other lines of work."

"In view of the inevitable increase of the wage scales in industry, in line with the upswing in business," Erwin said, "I feel it is going to be necessary to raise the salaries of our teachers to keep them from leaving the schools. I remember the wage increases in industry in the period from 1917 to 1920."

The school system is "our secondary line of defense in that it serves to bolster the morale of the people and help them understand and appreciate democracy," Erwin said. He added that the department was doing everything possible to gear the schools up to the top notch for meeting any emergency that may arise with reference to American Democracy.

The body will remain at the S. G. Wilkerson and Sons funeral home until noon tomorrow, at which time it will be removed to the Austin auditorium at the college, where it will lie in state until the funeral hour of 2 o'clock.

DEATH CLAIMS DEAN C. TABOR

Funeral Services To Be Conducted Here Tuesday

Dean C. Tabor, 35, director of the Music Education department of East Carolina Teachers College since 1938, who had been critically ill at the Pitt County hospital following a major operation last Thursday, died at 12:45 o'clock this morning. He had not been well for some weeks prior to entering the local hospital on Thursday.

The services will be conducted in the Austin auditorium by Rev. T. M. Grant, pastor of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, assisted by Rev. Clarence Patrick, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church, and Dr. L. R. Meadows, president of East Carolina Teachers College.

Funeral services for Mrs. Dorothy White Tyndall, 28, who died suddenly Saturday morning, were conducted at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lee, yesterday afternoon with a large number of friends and relatives attending the rites. Burial followed in Cherry Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Tyndall, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. A. White, is survived by one sister, Mrs. Lee, and one brother, J. J. White, both of this city. She had a wide circle of friends throughout Eastern Carolina.

The body will be removed to Rocky Mount, where it will leave by train at 7:23 p. m. for Slatersville, Rhode Island. Services will be conducted there on the Congregational church. Interment will follow in the church cemetery.

Mr. Tabor is survived by his wife, the former Miss Kathleen Gibson of Albertville, Ala., one daughter, Barbara Ellis Tabor; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Tabor of Southbridge, Mass.; one brother, Osborne Tabor of Boston, Mass., and his paternal

Hitler Displeased With Netherlands

Amsterdam, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler and Anton Mussert, leader of the Dutch Nazis, had a series of long talks in Berlin last week, a communique announced today.

Hitler received Mussert in the presence of Arthur Seyss-Inquart, German high commissioner for the Netherlands.

No details were revealed about the subjects of the talks, but there was no doubt in the minds of well informed persons that the meeting contained the greatest importance for the immediate future of the German-occupied Netherlands.

In Berlin Dienst Aus Deutschland, news service closely connected with the government, said that Germany was "in no way satisfied with political developments in The Netherlands."

Competition Keen For Good Tobacco

Tobacco prices reached new high levels on practically all grades today as the market opened another week of sales.

The demand was declared to be unusually strong for medium, good medium and good smoking leaf, with the various buyers bidding strong because of the shortage in these particular grades.

Growers with tobacco of these types are urged to bring it to the market now that the price has reached its peak of the season.

Sales will be resumed tomorrow morning according to schedule.

GUARD LEAVES TUESDAY A. M.

Local Unit To Head For Fort Jackson At 5 A. M.

Officers and men of Battery A, 113th Field Artillery, today were preparing to leave early tomorrow morning for Fort Jackson, S. C., where they will complete a year of active service in the regular army.

The men were granted additional privileges today and were granted blanket leaves this afternoon at 5 o'clock, with instructions to be back at the post, the local armory, at 10:30 o'clock tonight.

Several of the young men had their girl friends visiting them at the post this afternoon. All were planning to visit relatives or friends tonight before their departure tomorrow.

The unit will form about 3 o'clock in the morning, have breakfast at 4 and leave via of their own motor equipment at 5 o'clock. A cold lunch will be prepared so as not to lose much time on the road. The schedule calls for arrival at Fort Jackson at 7 o'clock tomorrow night.

The unit has been increased to its full strength of 122 men and four officers, under the command of Captain Worth Wicker. Other officers are First Lieutenant J. H. Moyer and Second Lieutenants Ed Waldrop and Dan Wright.

Lieut. Moyer and eight men will remain here on detailed duty until Thursday, when they will leave to join the remainder of the Battery at Fort Jackson.

The unit was mustered September 16 and since that date has been undergoing preliminary training at the City-County armory, where army headquarters have been established. A large number of the men ate and slept at the post although a blanket order permitted them to return to their homes. The food has been prepared and served under the supervision of Mess Sergeant Elks of Grimesland, who has had several years' experience as regular army cook and also as cook for the local unit of the National Guard. The men have been served good, substantial food, prepared under the most sanitary conditions which has staved off any sickness.

The men were guests this afternoon of the State theater, one of many occasions upon which they have been honored while encamped here.

Four Arrested By Local ABC Force

Pitt county ABC officers, aided by Chief of Police Jim Buck of Winterville, early yesterday morning arrested three Negroes of the Winterville section on charges of transporting 12 gallons of illegal liquor.

The three were taken to Washington this morning and given a preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner Paul. They were ordered held under bond for trial in federal court.

The three being held are Thurman Phillips, Douglas Clark and Willie Lester Jones. They were arrested after 5:45 yesterday morning after a chase which started in the Negro section of Winterville. Officers chased the trio, who were in a 1935 model small car, for about five miles on a dirt road and the liquor-laden car was said to have barely escaped turning over several times.

After overtaking the car officers searched it and found that all but one half-gallon jar of two cases of bootleg liquor had been broken, with glass and whiskey all over the back seat and floor.

The ABC officers yesterday morning also arrested Clyde Murchison on a charge of illegal possession. He was arrested after officers found two gallons of bootleg liquor in a field in front of his home on the Creek road in Pactolus township.

Funeral Held For J. L. Shackelford

Funeral services for Jasper LeRoy Shackelford, 55, of Farmville, who died early yesterday morning, were conducted at the Farmville funeral home this afternoon at 3 o'clock. J. F. Bountree, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal church, and the Rev. C. B. Mashburn of the Christian church, Burial followed in Forest Hill cemetery.

Mr. Shackelford was the son of the late William R. and Mrs. Annie Pender Shackelford. He was a native of Wilson county, but had made his home in Farmville for the past 30 years. He was vestryman of the Emmanuel Episcopal church and also had served as superintendent of the Sunday school. He was a member of the Farmville Masonic lodge.

He was formerly connected with Farmville tobacco market, but in recent years he was associated with the Southport Paint company.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Eva Horton Shackelford; a sister, Mrs. H. N. Patton, and two brothers, W. Randolph Shackelford of Farmville and Charles W. Shackelford of Durham.

GERMAN CRAFT CHASED BY RAF

Four German Planes Unofficially Reported To Have Been Downed In 20-Minute Battle Over Cloud-Shrouded London; German And British Exchange Cross-Channel Blows

London, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Nazi warplanes, coming over with gradually increasing strength, smashed again and again at London's defense today, running into a continuous thunder of anti-aircraft fire and roaring dogfights with Britain's swift fighter planes.

The action took place in a haze of fog. The British declared they had turned back most of the thrusts, downing at least 11 German planes. But the fourth main drive of the day, in which a force of 180 Nazi planes took place, penetrated to the outskirts of London.

Although the main body was broken up, the British Air Ministry said a few planes dropped bombs in London's western suburbs, causing casualties and damage.

The Nazi raiders swarmed inland from the channel coast from dawn until early evening.

London, Sept. 30.—(AP)—British fighters fought a slashing 20-minute battle with German raiders above cloud-shrouded London today which ended when the Nazi planes broke off to the south.

The British press also declared the German flight had been chased away. Unofficial reports said four German planes were brought down.

Three planes were reported downed in the areas of Oxley, Godstone and Tadworth in Surrey, south of London, and another downed in the Ealing district in western London.

The raiders were engaged heavily over Surrey's rolling countryside. The plane which crashed near Tadworth came down in flames after a long burst of machinegun fire.

The fierce air fights occurred as Nazi bombers flew to the attack on London's millions of peoples and miles of buildings and industries. There were three alarms before mid-afternoon. Anti-aircraft guns boomed into action during the third alarm when a German plane came into view over a northwest suburb.

On the coastal front German and British long-range gun crews threw shells at each other across the English channel.

British fighter planes engaged the raiders over a western suburb out of sight above the clouds.

The roar of engines was heard as the fighters dived into attack. More than 20 bombs were reported dropped during two raids on a south coast town, causing some casualties and considerable damage.

The British Press Association said the flying invaders split into small parties and were driven back. None reached the capital, but some bombs fell on the south coast.

The British long-range guns opened up on the German-occupied French coast shortly before dawn. Fire blazed from the quayside of Calais harbor. German batteries replied with four salvos of shells at 20-minute intervals. Later they opened fire on the Dover area.

One man was killed and several others were wounded during the half hour bombardment of Dover.

Greatest wind velocity ever recorded atop Whiteface mountain, New York, was 144 miles per hour.

Christian Science Church. "Really" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches and societies Sunday, September 29.

The Golden Text was from Luke 12:32. "Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom." Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon were the following from the Bible: "And I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea. And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city." (Rev. 21: 1-3; 22:14).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook. "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy. "The Revealer was on our plane of existence, while yet beholding what the eye cannot see—that which is invisible to the uninspired thought. His testimony of Holy Writ sustains the fact in Science, that the heavens and earth to one human consciousness that consciousness which God bestows, are spiritual, while to another, the unilluminated human mind, the vision is material. This shows unmistakably that what the human mind terms matter and spirit indicates states and stages of consciousness. When you read this, remember Jesus' words, 'The kingdom of God is within you.' This spiritual consciousness is therefore a present possibility."

Y. M. C. A. Services. The Y. W. C. A. of East Carolina Teachers College took an active part this week-end in helping newcomers at the college feel at home. At an "open house" in the Y-Hut Sunday afternoon under the direction of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet, many freshmen and transfer students filed into the Hut, to receive a welcome from the Y. W. C. A. president, Miss Rebecca Ross, and visit with each other in the friendly atmosphere of the Hut. Other members of the Y. W. cabinet, Misses Irene Mitcham, Rebecca Shanks, Rachel Farrior, Charlotte Shearin, Erlene Sawyer, Grace Ross, Sara Gorham and Bessie Fay Hunt, were present to serve refreshments, register guests, and talk with the group.

At night, the first vesper service of the year—an interpretation of the meaning of the "Y" on the campus—was held in the Hut by the light of candles and an open fire. The service began with the hymn, "Worship the King." After the Scripture, Erlene Sawyer, social chairman, read the selection, "You, An Answer to Prayer."

Irene Micham, religious education chairman, gave a short talk in which she stressed the point that freshmen should find that activity in which they are most interested and competent and make a good job of working with it. She also mentioned the numerous fields that the Y. W. and Y. M. C. A. open to students, and appealed to each listener to become active in the associations.

After short selections on prayer, which were read by Bessie Fay Hunt, world fellowship chairman, and James Whitfield, Y. M. C. A. vice-president, Rebecca Ross and Vernon Keutemeyer, Y. presidents, kneeling before an open fire, led the group in prayer.

The service closed with the hymn, "Now the Day is Over."

Forty Years Ago Today

September 30, 1900

A Step At The Time Last day of September. Corn gathering time. October brings the fairs. Can you realize that the year is three-fourths gone? The man who sweats and cusses and gets sooty over the stove pipe that he can't make fit, will soon be on deck. Greenville is not specially on a building boom, but you can hardly get on any street without seeing work progressing on houses.

Teachers was held at Sheppard Memorial Library Friday morning, at 10:30 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. C. Parker, of Fountain, and then turned over to the program committee, Mrs. Ed Batchelor, of Greenville.

The program began with a prayer by Mrs. J. H. Waldrop, followed by a very beautiful solo by Mrs. Helene Higgs Kirkpatrick. The speaker, Mrs. D. M. Clark, was then introduced to the group by Mrs. Batchelor. Mrs. Clark's theme was the crying need for better moral training, better play facilities, stricter attention paid to proper food for the children in the elementary grades of our schools in Pitt county. Mrs. Clark drew very aptly her illustrations of larger amounts of money spent in the city of Greenville for so many recreational and civic projects, yet not one playground has been provided for the small children through the elementary grades. She vividly portrayed the not impossible ideal of supervised playgrounds for the child through the years most important in developing a foundation of fine ideals and character.

She told the group that one child out of every three was undernourished. This was due so often to the parents not knowing or caring whether the food was suitable for the child's growth and development, rather than the inability to furnish food. Our democracy needs strong children mentally, morally and physically. Our work as parents and teachers is to see that our conditions in our own community are adequate and useful.

A discussion of adequate playground space was taken up by the group. Only three schools out of the group felt that they had adequate playground space for their children. Some were pitifully meager. All agreed that parents and teachers organizations would do all in their power to relieve these conditions.

Another problem was discussed. Who of the children should be given free lunches from the school lunchrooms. All schools seem to have the problem of those parents who are able financially to furnish adequate lunches, but send the child to school without providing a lunch for him. All agreed that the child must be fed. Some very good suggestions were given to relieve this situation in our school lunchrooms.

A short business session was held, at the end of which Mrs. Fuson, our state directors of parents and teachers, gave us helpful suggestions, and announced that the district meeting would be held in Greenville on November 13. This will bring parents and teachers from all of Eastern North Carolina to our town. These district meetings are sensational in the reports each organization brings of the work accomplished each year for the good of the children. Pitt county parents and teachers would like to have a good number present, at this meeting to greet these people at that time. The Pitt County Council of Parents and Teachers adjourned to meet again April 22, 1941.—Reported.

Wesley Philathea Class To Meet. The Wesley Philathea Class of Jarvis Memorial Methodist church will meet tonight at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Studie Corey. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. A. H. Parker, Mrs. Frank Wilson, Mrs. L. C. Powell and Miss Lill Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Stokes Honored. Mr. and Mrs. Tyree Stokes of Greenville were honored Wednesday evening with a shower given by the mother of the groom, Mrs. Roy Stokes of Grimesland. The guests were met at the door and invited into the living room. Delicious sandwiches, iced drinks and cakes were served by Misses Doris Stokes, Dorothy Hudson and Lois Edwards. The color scheme of pink and green was carried out.

As a climax to the evening a large wagon beautifully decorated, was pulled in by two very attractive little cousins of Mr. Stokes, little Miss Deloise Jean Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Linuar Hudson of Farmville, and little Miss Mae Frances Stokes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stokes of Robersonville. The bride and groom were asked to open their many love letters, which were placed for the guests to see.

Mrs. Stokes was formerly Miss Grace Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Parker of Stokes, Mr. and Mrs. Stokes are making their home at 114 Tenth street, Greenville.

GREENVILLE HI NEWS

By SIDNEY JOHNSON

Yeah, Man! Today promised to be the first normal day of the year. By that we mean the students came to school knowing there was no campaign to face today, and no football game tonight. In short, they expected just a calm school day. But when the morning announcements came around, the calm of the day was shattered. The circus this afternoon! We were released for the afternoon at 12:30. Whoopee!

Red Cross Club Winding yarn into balls for 27 sweaters was the main job of the Red Cross club today. The members of the club are planning to knit sweaters for the war refugees and soldiers. Men's, women's and children's sweaters will be the three types knitted.

Library News

Current Magazine Articles. More and more in these days of great political upheavals the patrons of Sheppard Memorial Library are using the magazine table. The current magazines are especially interesting, having more than the usual number of articles on world affairs. Particularly is this true of Harper's and the Atlantic, both magazines carrying two splendid articles on the war situation. "The Failure of France," by Robert De Saint Jean, and "Why Hitler Wins."

by Carl Dreher, are in Harper's, while the Atlantic has two timely discussions, "A Monroe Doctrine for Japan," and "The Cliffs of England Stand," by Thomlinson. Other current articles worthy of notice are: "What Does Col. Lindbergh Believe?" by James Truslow Adams, in Current History and Forum.

"The Negro and American Culture," by V. C. Calverton, in Saturday Review of Literature.

"Your Son at Seventeen," by Paul Popenoe in Hygeia.

"American Fallings," in Harper's Bazaar.

"Miss Edith's Dress," by Thomas Wolfe, in Mademoiselle.

"When October Comes Again," by Mrs. Joy Clark, in House Beautiful.

"Secular Idealists and the Church," by John Irving Darleys in Christendom.

"Broadway in Prospect" by Morton Eustis, in Theatre Arts.

"Japan's Most Dangerous Man," anonymous in Asia.

"The Inner Threat" by Roy Hilton in Harper's.

"One Man's Escape" by Lieut. Henri in Atlantic.

If freedom and human progress as we know them are to survive, girls as well as boys, desperately need practical training in meeting the problems of democratic life; practical experience which will truly give them a stake in their country and an understanding of their responsibilities.

Democracies are likely to have a mistakenly easy-going idea that girls' behavior takes care of itself or is taken care of at home. It has remained for totalitarian states to show us that women and girls, the mothers and future mothers of the race, are one of the most important single influences in making or breaking a national way of life.

The Girl Scouts are showing what can be done in a voluntary, democratic to make girls responsible, intelligent citizens. They are ready to meet emergencies and at the same time to build for the future.

But the Girl Scout membership in Greenville is only a fraction of what it should be if the ideal of practical citizenship experience for all girls is to be realized. A nation is not a fortress with walls. It is a living body which dies if new blood ceases to flow through its veins. That new blood must be healthy and plentiful. The democracies have learned that

Agency Finds Jobs For Many Unskilled Workers

Reflector Bureau. Raleigh, Sept. 27.—Despite the fact that its greatest single order of all time calls largely for skilled or semi-skilled workmen, the North Carolina State Employment Service made more than 70 per cent of its 6,531 August placements in service or unskilled manual occupations.

Distributed occupationally, placements were: Service, 2,774 or 42.4 per cent; unskilled manual, 1,520 or 23.3 per cent; semi-skilled production, 717, or 11 per cent; skilled craftsmen, 633, or 9.7 per cent; sales, 262, or four per cent; clerical, 189, or 2.9 per cent; professional, 36, or .5 per cent.

Distributed by industries, placements were: Service, 2,695 or 41.3 per cent; construction, 1,638 or 25.1 per cent; manufacturing, 1,119 or 17.1 per cent; distribution, 671 or 10.3 per cent; agriculture, 289 or 4.4 per cent; transportation and communication, 77 or 1.2 per cent; finance, insurance and real estate, 42 or .6 per cent.

The "biggest single" order was largely responsible for the high figure for the construction industry. This order is for the army construction program at Fort Bragg.

Already two thousand persons have found jobs; and before the placements are completed approximately one thousand workers will have been sent to the Fort Bragg quartermaster and from five to eight thousand to the building contractor, T. A. Loving.

North Carolina Campaign Develops Few Sensations

Reflector Bureau. By HENRY AVERILL. Raleigh, Sept. 28.—The tempo of the political campaign in North Carolina continued very and exceedingly languid this week; though reports from Charlotte indicate that the Republican State Chairman Jake Newell hopes to inject a bit of life into his party's efforts.

In Democratic state headquarters here, the force is working; but nothing even approaching the unusual or sensational developed this week.

Congressman Lon Folger came down, set up an office for the National campaign—an office designed almost solely for the purpose of collecting campaign contributions—then trekked back to Washington without having named a director for the campaign.

He may be back in Raleigh today with an announcement, probably of Dick Reynolds of Winston-Salem as the money drive head; or he may not come in until early next week.

H. Braxton, drunk and disorderly, 30 days or costs; J. D. Simpson, Jr., speeding, pay $10 on costs; Clem Jones, Negro, assault with a deadly weapon, 30 days, suspended upon good behavior for one year; Roy L. Tripp, careless and reckless driving and also speeding, pay $25, costs to be deducted, balance to go as fine.

Woman Reports Theft Of Empty Pocketbook

Mrs. Frank Elks, Jr., who lives on the Farmville highway, about two miles from Greenville, reported to police that a pocket book was stolen from her home Saturday night during the course of a party.

Neighbors said Mrs. Elks had sworn a warrant against Willie Stocks, charging him with taking the pocketbook, which was declared to have contained no money.

Professor Tabor had been a leader in both college and town from his first year at East Carolina Teachers College, as he had always been deeply interested in music in the town and state, as well as the college, where his many activities that brought him in touch with all the students and his genial personality made him a general favorite. He has furthered an interest in music throughout the section in

What Do You Know About POLITICS?

1. This man was chosen by his state as one of its first United States Senators. He has served since 1912, but was defeated at the primaries. Who is he?

2. A governor known for his frequent utterances against vice and riotous living has been renominated. Who is he?

3. A prominent mayor recently announced his support of President Roosevelt for a third term. Name him and another important office he holds.

4. Before which of the following organizations did President Roosevelt make his opening campaign speech: The National Grange, the International Teamsters Union, the Veterans of Foreign Wars?

5. At which of the following cities did Wendell Willkie once serve as a high school teacher: Weeping Water, Neb.; Colorado Springs, Colo.; Coffeyville, Kas.; Rushville, Ind.?

Each full question counts 20. A score of 80 is good.

Political Quiz Answers

1. Henry F. Ashurst of Arizona.
2. Luren D. Dickinson, 81 years old, of Michigan.
3. Fiorello H. LaGuardia, who is mayor of New York and also chairman of the American section of the joint defense board of the United States and Canada.
4. The International Teamsters Union.
5. Coffeyville, Kas.

Considering the whopping Roosevelt majority of almost 400,000 in 1936 that's a big order; but maybe Lon is doing a Jim Farley in the matter of predicting.

If there were any state developments in the projected campaign of Democrats for Willkie they were not heard in Raleigh. There were predictions that the rich men who were to finance the Willkiecrats have changed their minds and are letting the North Carolina election go by default as far as they are concerned.

every way possible. As one of his last activities, he served the past year as general chairman of the Greenville district in the Music Elimination contest.

Mr. Tabor was a graduate of the New England Conservatory, Boston, Mass., and Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn., and was an assistant in music at Peabody College before coming to East Carolina Teachers College in January of 1937. He had also served as head of the Department of Music at Tennessee Polytechnic Institute in Cookeville, Tenn.

Before that he had been for two years training director and baritone soloist with the Metropolitan Theater Vocal Ensemble of Boston, and for five years baritone soloist in several Boston churches. He was a member of Phi Mu Alpha, Sigma Phi fraternity, at the New England Conservatory of Music.

Under the leadership of Mr. Tabor, who first joined the East Carolina Teachers College faculty in January, 1937, and was appointed head of the newly reorganized department in 1938, the work in music was expanded until Music Education became one of the major departments of the institution. Among his first activities was the organization of instrumental group classes, a college orchestra, and a men's glee club. In 1938 he organized the first E. C. T. C. band, which has grown from a handful of players to a fully uniformed and equipped band of sixty or more pieces. Other similar music groups on the campus now include a string choir, a string quartet, and a college choir.

The department under him first offered a major in music education, and he had instituted instrumental training for the children in the demonstration school, in addition to vocal, in anticipation of a children's band and orchestra.

In token of the affection of the students for this instructor, the Teccon, college annual, was last year dedicated to him.

I Am The Newspaper

• Born of the deep, daily need of a nation—I am the Voice of Now—the incarnate spirit of the Times—Monarch of things that Are. • My "cold type" burns with the fire-blood of human action. I am fed by arteries of wire that girdle the earth. I drink from the cup of every joy and sorrow. I know no death, yet am born again with every morn—with everynoon—with every twilight. I leap into fresh being with every new world's event. • Those who created me cease to be—the brains and heart's blood that nourish me go the way of human dissolution. Yet I live on—and on. • I am Majestic in my Strength—Sublime in my Power—Terrible in my Potentialities—yet as democratic as the ragged boy who sells me for a penny. • I am the consort of Kings—the partner of capital—the brother of toil. The inspiration of the hopeless—the right arm of the needy—the champion of the oppressed—the conscience of the criminal. I am the epitome of the world's Comedy and Tragedy. • My responsibility is Infinite. I speak, and the world stops to listen. I say the word, and battle flames the horizon. I counsel peace, and the war-lords obey. I am greater than any individual—more powerful than any group. I am the dynamic force of Public opinion. Rightly directed, I am a Creator of Confidence. A builder of happiness in living. I am the Backbone of Commerce. The Trail-Blazer of Prosperity. Coach John Christenbury Notes Defects, However

By BURTON DANIELS
 John Christenbury's team came out of their 14-6 victory over the Kutztown, Pa., Teachers with fine fettle with no injuries, and are expected to work out inside this afternoon provided the weather doesn't break.

While Christenbury expressed himself as being satisfied with the manner in which the teachers played against the heavier visitors, he wants to get his offense clicking at full pitch on the opening kickoff against Presbyterian Junior College at Guy Smith stadium Saturday night. Only seven plays were used against the heavy Kutztown outfit, and the lack of a balanced offense was felt in the lack of deception.

Coach Christenbury was effective in his praise of the play of Butler and Russel Eversole, reserve tackles, and from indications one or both stand a good chance of coping the starting assignment in this week's fray. There was nothing to indicate when the reserve line was in the same Saturday other than a tightness of defense play that surpassed even that of the starting lineups. Every man in the line except Captain Rogers was substituted for during the game and no slacking in the pitch of the play was noted. With this reserve material to fall back on it is likely that substitutions in the future will be by team.

The backfield is equally strong boasting of such backs as Schuerholz, McFee, Williams, Waddell, Evans, Murray Davidson, Mayo and two boys that did not see action Saturday but show much promise, Bob Young and Ray Sisk.

The game Saturday is to be the Teachers first venture into night football at home, and a campaign is underway for the distribution of tickets through the merchants of Greenville. These tickets will be given away with the purchase of merchandise at the stores, of the co-operating firms.

While the heavily favored visitors outran the Pirates and ran up a large number of first downs in mid field, there was no question of the superiority of the two teams after the sixty yard touchdown march that the Christenburymen put on in the final quarter. Starting on their own forty, the teachers moved downfield taking nine plays to score chalking up a first down every two plays. This march was done the hard way through the huge line of the visitors that had the locals outweighed by twenty pounds to the man.

Man About Manhattan

By George Tucker
 San Juan, P. R.—Tom Ferris, former N. Y. newspaperman with whom I covered the Hauptmann trial. I have seen just about everything in this town that the time will allow. Knowing what to do and what not to do is his business. He represents this Island. In a way he is a sort of good will ambassador. Don't say I sent you, but when you get to San Juan, drop around to his office in the El Mundo building and ask him where the best shops are. Ask him where you can find Enrique Ortega, director of the Institute of Tourism, or how you can get into one of Governor Leahy's press conferences. He'll know. He knows all these things.

WELL-READ FARMER ADDS TO KNOWLEDGE

Vassalboro, Me.—(AP)—A farmer who had read all about this "fifth column" business, became suspicious when he found an apparatus resembling a radio, attached to a parachute, in his pasture.
 He called in the newly-formed American Legion police. They gingerly picked up the contraption and rushed it to the Augusta airport.
 Officials there explained that the instrument was sent up by balloon from the federal weather bureau at Portland, 76 miles south, to record atmospheric conditions.

Phantoms to Journey To Goldsboro Friday Night

The Parlymen came out on top in the last year's encounter, 7-0, but with the Goldsboro High boys continually threatening at the pay dirt door. Marvin Stocks, driving fullback, went over for the only score.

John Spearman, shifty wingback who has ability time after time this season will be among the starters at his regular backfield position. The remainder of the backfield will probably be made up of Bill Britt at tailback, J. B. Kittrell at blocking back, and Dewey Page or Hubert Musselwhite at the fullback post.

In all probability the starting line will be John Collins and Larry James at end, Paul Scott and Noah Lee Edwards at guard, Brice Dale and Spencer Carroll at tackles, and H. R. Goodall at center.

 San Juan, P. R.—Tom Ferris, former N. Y. newspaperman with whom I covered the Hauptmann trial. I have seen just about everything in this town that the time will allow. Knowing what to do and what not to do is his business. He represents this Island. In a way he is a sort of good will ambassador. Don't say I sent you, but when you get to San Juan, drop around to his office in the El Mundo building and ask him where the best shops are. Ask him where you can find Enrique Ortega, director of the Institute of Tourism, or how you can get into one of Governor Leahy's press conferences. He'll know. He knows all these things.

With Tom today I sat in a little restaurant on a little crooked street and sipped essence of coffee. In Puerto Rico they give you just the essence of coffee. It is heavy, almost syrupy, as Turkish coffee is heavy with aroma and body. With it they serve hot milk. This is not the cafe au lait of New Orleans. It is the "essence" with milk of San Juan. Many people do not care for it. This is a pity. It has a richness of flavor as pungent as walnuts cracked be-

Pictured above are a few of the attractions which will greet the circus fans today when they attend the Wallace Bros. Circus, which is giving two performances at the Greenville Fair Grounds today.
 In the center the original talking picture Lone Ranger Lee Powell is surrounded by a galaxy of stars. Powell is a young chap of compelling personality and wonderful physique and one can readily realize why movie moguls selected this red-blooded he-man to play that hard riding part.
 The Wallace Bros. Circus carries a large number of acts whose versatility make up a program so diversified that there is something to please young and old continuously going on.
 Baron Novak, a refugee from Prague, is one of the outstanding features, as he stands but 23 inches tall, weighs only 17 pounds, yet has already passed his 19th birthday.
 Buddy, the talking seal, trained and presented by his ever-patient trainer, Walter Jenner, carries off high honors, as does Ray Goody, America's latest sensation on the silver thread. All in all, it's a swell show.

Speaking Of Campaign Slogans— We Offer These To The Warring Parties (No Charge)—

If you can't figure them out blame the cartoonist, Milt Morris, who thought they would give the political campaign a distinctly lighter touch, if generally adopted. We think so too. Confidentially, the first says "Willkie for President" in its own inimitable way, and the second "Put Roosevelt in Again."

any, which closely resembles maple; others were stained. We saw a matched set of salad bowls destined for Marshall Fields in Chicago. The proprietor of this shop has many mahogany cigarette boxes, salad bowls, and book ends are made by hand. Some were in the natural mahogany, finished products are beautifully designed. The prices here are never more than half what they are in the states.
 Speaking of La Conga reminds me that San Juan also has a Havana-Madrid. Broadway has had La Conga and Havana-Madrid nightclubs for years. This is where their names

 HAD AIR MAIL SERVICE AS EARLY AS 1859!
 In 1693, LETTERS WERE CANDLED TO DETERMINE THE RATE OF POSTAGE!
 Long before the coming of postage stamps the rate of postage was determined by the distance a letter was to be carried and by the number of sheets of writing paper. Many schemes were invented to cheat the posts, such as pasting two sheets of paper together, etc. To offset this loss of postage, postmasters candled the letters to see if more than one sheet of paper was enclosed. Odd Isn't It?
 A Postal Oddities program is presented over radio station WGTC each Tuesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock.

Richmond, Sept. 30.—Hogs, quotations are based on hogs producing hard carcasses after normal chilling. Hogs producing soft and oily carcasses are discounted 40 cents and 80 cents respectively from hard hog prices. Market steady with Thursday. Good and choice 130-225 lb. butchers .635 to .655 the top; 100-120 lbs. $4.55-$5.05; 120-140 lbs. $5.05-$5.55; 140-160 lbs. $5.55-$6.00; 160-180 lbs. $6.00-$6.35; 225-250 lbs. $5.85-$6.35; 250-300 lbs. $5.55-$6.05; over 30 lbs. $5.45-$5.95. Sows under 350 lbs. $4.80-$5.30; over 350 lbs. $4.30-$4.80. Cattle, today's market nominal. The steer market the first of the week was slow. Most grass steers bringing $8.00-$9.00 with the top $9.50 on best offerings. Common to medium kinds hard to move with prices ranging from $5.50-$7.50. Cows and bulls were rather slow, at about steady prices. Most dairy type cows brought $4.50-$5.50, with canners mostly $3.00-$3.50; sausage bulls sold over a range of $5.00 to $5.50 according to weight. The vealer market remained fairly active and steady, closing with practical top $10.00 on good and choice offerings. Receipts of spring lambs were light, particularly on good and choice brought $9.00-$9.50 with medium mainly $6.00-$8.00 and culls down to $5.00.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Sept. 30.—(AP)—The stock market acted as though it wanted to go up today, but most leaders lacked real rising steam. Aircrafts were given a moderate run and an assortment of preferred stocks registered sizeable advances on small turnovers. Dealings generally were light and near the second hour quotations were slightly mixed. Traders on the whole, brokers said, leaned to the bullish side because of mounting business activity spurred by defense spending. On the other hand many speculative contingents were still sufficiently confused by international developments to prevent their venturing too far out on a buying limb. Bonds moved up selectively and commodities steadied. Securities at London were a shade irregular.

New York Cotton

New York, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened two to four lower. Mid-morning prices were off one to three points. October 9.55; December 9.55; July 9.11. Noon prices ranged three lower to one bigger. October 9.55; Dec. 9.58; May 9.33.

Warren To Retain Seat Until Nov. 1

Raleigh, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Governor Hoy received a letter this morning from Congressman Lindsay C. Warren asking that Warren's resignation to become comptroller general of the United States be deferred from October 1 until November 1. The governor immediately noted the change of date in official records and Warren will hold his seat through next month. A special election has already been ordered for November 5 to fill the unexpired term and Herbert C. Bonner of Washington, Warren's secretary for 13 years, is the unopposed First District democratic nominee. Rep. Warren's letter said that, with the consent and approval of the President, he would not become comptroller general until November 1.

Britain Attacked By German Planes

Berlin, Sept. 30.—(AP)—Nazi war planes are strafing the United Kingdom from Aberdeen to the English channel without stopping, causing near devastation to British war industries, the German high command reported today. London and Liverpool, hit by "close formations and individual planes" bore the brunt of Nazi attacks last night, the communique said. Aberdeen, Edinburgh and Leith in Scotland were listed as targets for heavy calibre bombs. Preliminary reports on the day's air fighting over southern England showed that the British had lost 36 planes and 14 German aircraft failed to return, informed German sources said. They declared that aerial engagements developed in various places as "more waves of German bombers invaded Britain during the day."
