GREEKS AT OUTSKIRTS OF ANOTHER ITALIAN BASE

TWO BRANCHES HOLD MEETS IN OLD CHAMBERS

Senate Convened In Old Hall For First Time in 81 Years.

LOGAN - WALTER MEASURE IS UP

Both Senate And The House Forced To Abandon Old Quarters To Facilitate Needed Repairs To Roof

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Backers of the controversial Logan-Walter bill renewed their efforts to bring up the measure today as the Senate convened for the first time in 81 years in a cramped historic chamber which witnessed many stirring sessions in the nation's early years.

The Senate, like the House, was forced to vacate its regular quarters to facilitate needed repairs to sections of the capitol's roof. Fears had been expressed that the weight of a heavy snowfall might cause the collapse of the roof over both Senate and House chambers, so the two bodies moved elsewhere to allow workmen to do the repairing and bracing.

The Senate shifted back to the chamber in the capitol where it last convened January 4, 1859, and the House arranged to meet in a committee room.

Still the pending business the Senate, the Logan-Walter bill apparently had only dubious chances. The absence of a quorum and thus block consideration of the House-approved measure. Even should the bill win consideration, opponents were reported likely to offer anti-lynching legislation as an amendment, something believed certain to bring a filibuster by southern senators which would be the bill's doom.

Vessels Attacked Off North Ireland

New York, Nov. 25.—(AP)—MacKay Radio picked up a message today reporting a submarine attack upon the British steamer Temple Inn off the northern coast of Ireland.

Another message from the Swedish steamer Anten, which reported Saturday that she was being torpedoed, advised that she was still afloat, but was breaking up amidship.

The Anten was reported about 200 miles off the northwest coast of Ireland. Thirteen men were still aboard with only one life raft remaining. The message said the ship was listing badly.

Urges Cooperation In Keeping Alleys Clean

C. K. Beatty, superintendent of the Greenville Street department has issued a statement through the Merchants Association bulletin urging merchants to cooperate in helping his organization maintain a cleaner street.

Supt. Beatty asked the merchant to see to it that paper and trash refuse put in the back alleys be placed in containers, and not just throw it out on the ground where a slight breeze will scatter it.

"It is impossible for my department to collect this loose paper and it makes our city dirty," declared the street department head, who added he felt certain the merchants would give full assistance once the matter is called to their attention.

Movement Being Pushed For New Super Highway

FINAL APPEAL ON ROLL CALL

Fountain Only Bright Spot In Campaign In County

Results of the annual Red Cross Call so far have been disappointing. Declared Chapter Chairman J. Nat Harrison today in reporting that with a quota of 1,200, only approximately 500 memberships have been secured and announcing that tomorrow would mark the end of the annual campaign.

A number of volunteer workers will meet at the City Hall at 9:30 o'clock, Tuesday morning, and the Roll Call will be completed. A special call was made today by Mrs. C. C. Hilton, Greenville Roll Call chairman, for additional workers who will give their services for this the last day, and it is hoped that a generous response will be made to this call for service.

The need is particularly urgent this year and the National Headquarters has made an urgent appeal through the United States for additional members. Greenville has always responded liberally in the annual roll call, and it is hoped that those of our citizens who have not already joined this year will turn in their memberships at once, declared Mr. Harrison.

The reports thus far throughout the county have been scattering and the one bright spot in the entire county is from the Fountain district that area reporting 85 memberships, or forty-one per cent greater than last year's total. This is a worthy example for all other districts to follow, Mr. Harrison observed.

Funeral Held For Sheldermine Man

Funeral services for King D. Sutton, life-long resident of Sheldermine, who died at his home Sunday night after a long illness, were conducted from the late residence this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock by the Rev. J. C. Griffin of New Bern. Interment followed in the Sutton cemetery near the home.

Surviving are his widow, one son Ben David of the homeplace; two daughters, Mrs. Odelle Hedgcock of Sheldermine, and Mrs. Bertha Nelson of Ayden; two brothers, Jesse Sutton of Sheldermine and Richard J. Sutton of Simpson; six sisters Mrs. Sudie Mills and Mrs. Lena White of Black Jack, Mrs. Victoria McLawhorn and Mrs. Pattie Stocks of Ayden; Mrs. Mary Smith of Bells Fork and Mrs. Fred Haddock of Sheldermine.

Germans Meanwhile Concentrate Attack On Western England Town As London Experiences One Of Quietest Week-Ends Since Nazi Air Siege Started; French Coast Towns Also Bombed By RAF

London, Nov. 25.—(AP)—British bombers capped a week-end of smashing blows at the Axis by raiding Hamburg last night, while the Germans were concentrating a 100-plane attack on a town in western England, official reports said today.

The RAF carried its offensive anew to the German port, biggest in Europe, by dumping bombs on its waterfront and vast refineries, the Air Ministry announced. Other British raiders were said to have splashed bombs along the Nazi-held French coast, including the Boulogne area, which was blasted for more than an hour.

The attack on the town in western England was said to have been carried out by German bombers coming over in virtually continuous relays. A home for the aged, two churches, two theatres and several shops were among the buildings reported hit.

The German high command declared that hundreds of its planes subjected Bristol, major British west coast port, to another "Coventry" raid last night. Hundreds of thousands of pounds of explosives and fire bombs were said to have started 45 major fires there.

London had one of its quietest week-ends since the air siege began, but a communique today said one section in the west of England was attacked heavily with damage to buildings and some residents killed and injured.

Average For 1940 Tops 1939 Figure

Offerings on the Greenville tobacco market for the season which closed Friday fell less than 500,000 pounds short of the 50,000,000-pound figure and exceeded pre-season forecasts, it was revealed today by R. C. Rankin, sales supervisor.

Sales totaled 49,594,306 pounds for the 57 selling days of the season and brought farmers $8,667,268.09.

The average price paid on the Greenville market was more than one dollar a hundred higher than the season's average in 1939. The average this year was $17.48 per hundred as compared with $16.35 for the 79,097,530 pounds sold for $12,934,485.52 last year.

Hit-Run Victim

Lumberton, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The badly mangled body of a young woman identified as Miss Beatrice Moore, about 30, of Smithfield, was found early today beside the St. Paul-Payetteville highway, three miles north of St. Paul. Officers said she had apparently been struck by a hit-run driver.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

OFFICE OF THE MAYOR
CITY OF GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

Whereas, the Governor of this State, following the custom of many years, has designated the last Thursday in November as the official Day of Thanksgiving for the people of North Carolina, and

Whereas, it is fit and proper for each community in our State to join in this State-wide observance, and

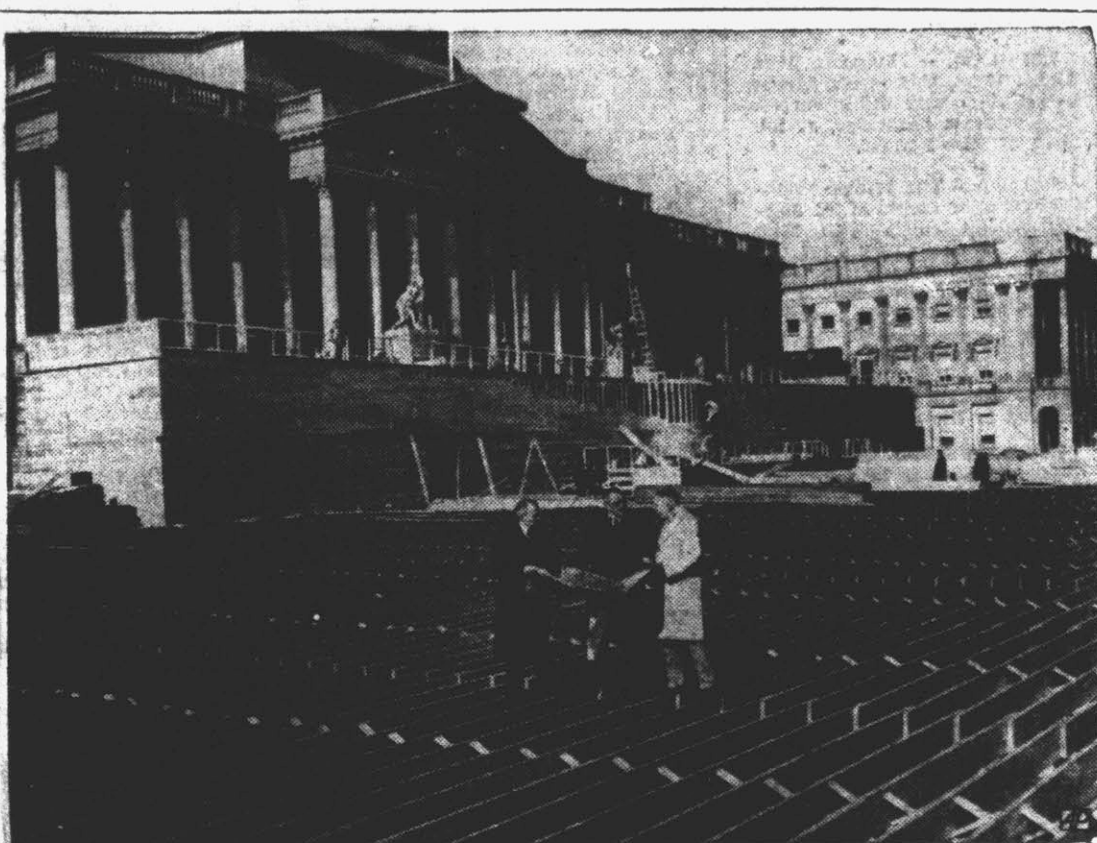

Whereas, our Nation and State have enjoyed almost unprecedented peace and a goodly measure of prosperity in a world torn with strife, and bloodshed, and want, and

Whereas, it is the desire always of a grateful people to express their thanks for the blessings of a beneficent Providence, now

Therefore, I, B. B. Sugg, Mayor of the City of Greenville, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-eighth day of November, in the Year of Our Lord, nineteen hundred and forty, to be a Day of Thanksgiving for our people, and do call upon them to gather together in their appointed places of worship and give thanks to Almighty God for the Providential Care with which we have been blessed, and to pray for the continuance of that care in the days that lie ahead.

Done under my hand and seal this twenty-fifth day of November, Nineteen Hundred and Forty.
B. B. SUGG, Mayor.

Sign Of Events To Come

Armed with plans and blueprints, members of the inaugural committee check over progress on the stands being built in the capitol plaza at Washington, for the third inauguration of President Roosevelt January 20. The group includes, left to right: David Lynn, capitol architect, Col. Edwin Halsey and Sen. M. Neely (D-W. Va.).

AXIS VESSELS HOLD TO PORT

Remain At Tampico After Getting Set To Make Run

Tampico, Mexico, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Twelve German and Italian merchantships which got up steam in apparent preparation to leave this neutral port remained at anchor today and three United States destroyers were reported on neutrality patrol off shore.

The editor of a newspaper here said the destroyers were plainly visible through field glasses yesterday afternoon. Port authorities, he said, identified them as destroyers reported in the vicinity 10 days ago when four German ships made a false start to run the British blockade and one was scuttled on the assumption that signaling patrol vessels were British.

The ships, three German and nine Italian vessels which have been in Tampico harbor since early in the war, took aboard fuel loads and got up steam shortly after midnight.

(There was nothing to indicate that the presence of the neutrality patrol destroyers caused the ships to remain in port. The neutrality patrol is not intended to interfere with movements of merchant shipping of any nation.)

City Makes Payments On Debts Due Dec. 1

Checks totaling $25,236.25 have been drawn and prepared for mailing for payments on city and water and light bond and interest payments due December 1.

Of the total amount $17,000 represents bond payments, $13,000 for the Water and Light Commission and $4,000 on city paving bonds. Interest checks include payments on water and light issues and on city, sewer, paving and refunding securities.

No Thursday Edition Of Daily Reflector

No Thursday edition will be published by The Daily Reflector, the management having decided to continue its custom and to cooperate with other business houses of the city in observing Thanksgiving Day. Greenville, along with the rest of North Carolina, worked as usual on last Thursday, while much of the country observed the earlier Thanksgiving Day and therefore will pause to give thanks and eat turkey this Thursday—the traditional last Thursday in November.

TALK AID FOR GREAT BRITAIN

Question of Financial Help To Be Considered

Washington, Nov. 25 (AP)—Secretary Hull said today that the whole question of financial aid for Great Britain apparently would have to be considered by governmental and congressional authorities with a view to establishing a basic policy before specific methods were discussed.

Hull spoke at a press conference after the subject of British credit was discussed, along with other topics at an hour and one-half conference between President Roosevelt and congressional leaders.

Senate Democratic Leader Barkley of Kentucky left the White House meeting with word that the question of British credits would not be taken up at the current session of Congress.

Hull's comment was in reply to several questions at his press conference on statements of Lord Lothian, the British ambassador, who has just returned from London. That financing of the war would become a serious question for Britain next year.

Hull, who returned today from a brief vacation in Georgia, said he had not yet had an opportunity to discuss the matter with other officials or with Lothian. He indicated that while the question had not yet reached the state of active consideration within the government, he expected that it would in the near future.

No Announcement On Miss Perkins

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The White House said today that Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor, had not submitted her resignation and "the President has not discussed resignation with her."

The statement came from Stephen Early, press secretary, when he was asked for comment on a story in the New York Times that Miss Perkins had tendered her resignation and President Roosevelt had accepted it.

Early was asked by newsmen whether his statement meant that Miss Perkins, first woman cabinet member and an appointee to the original Roosevelt cabinet in 1933 would continue in her present capacity during the President's third term.

"I don't know anything about continuation or any other phase of it," Early replied.

DISPUTED BILL UP IN SENATE

Walter-Logan Bill Comes Up on Vote Of 34 To 21

Washington, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The Senate voted 34 to 21 today to take up the controversial Logan-Walter bill designed to facilitate court appeals from the decisions of such quasi judicial agencies as the Labor board.

Seventeen Democrats joined 16 Republicans and Senator Shipstead Farmer-Laborite of Minnesota, in ordering consideration of the measure, a move strongly opposed by Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic leader. Twenty-one Democrats voted against the motion to consider it, made by Senator Hatch (D-NM).

The action brought before the Senate a bill which the House passed early last spring. The measure would fix uniform rules of procedure or administrative agencies as well as broaden the basis for appeals from their decisions.

Meanwhile Representative Cox (D-Ga.) asserting that "strikes against the government" were the "most shameful thing that has happened in this country in a long time," proposed today that Congress outlaw all such strikes during the "emergency period."

He told the House membership assembled outside the capitol for the first time since 1857, that "labor racketeers" were responsible for the strikes.

"I am wondering," he said, "if Congress does not have the vitality or the real courage to take notice of what is happening to this country and do something in an effort to remedy it."

Start Today On Job Of Decorating City

A definite indication that Christmas is not far off—exactly a month today—was observed as the Water and Light Commission and the Merchants Association began their annual task of decorating the streets.

Mountain laurel with red ruscus is being used to string across the streets and colored lights also will be used. Light posts in the main business section also will be wrapped with the decorations. The lights will be turned on next Monday night, when Santa Claus will arrive for his pre-Christmas visit.

Merchants are being urged to decorate their windows and store fronts.

Army Officer Given 15 Years In Prison

Manila, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Captain Ruffo Romero of the Philippine Scouts was convicted by a general courtmartial today of conspiring to sell military information and was sentenced to serve 15 years at hard labor in a military prison.

The West Point graduate, who offered to submit to a brain operation to erase from his memory any military information he might possess, was convicted as charged after the courtmartial heard briefly final summations of his case.

Romero denied he took maps from Fort McKinley with intent to sell them.

Extend Gain On Southern Coast Drive

Greek Forces Declared In Dispatches From Battle Front To Be Threatening Fall of Argirocastro, Main Italian Base In Southern Albania; Advances Are Reported Elsewhere

Athens, Nov. 25.—(AP)—Dispatches from the battle front said today that Greek advance units had entered the outskirts of Argirocastro, main Italian military base in southern Albania and that the city was expected to fall before evening.

Heavy fighting also was reported southwest of the town, where the Greeks were threatening to push to the Adriatic coast, isolating a large number of Italians.

These thrusts were part of a counter drive against the thwarted Italian invasion, which was described by military sources as a "full fledged offensive" intended to wrest Albania from Italian control and possibly key to a plan for Greek-British seizure of Italy's strategic Dodecanese islands.

While the drive on Argirocastro continued, additional Greek columns to the east threatened Premeti.

In the central sector the Italians were reported to have abandoned their fortified positions on Mount Ostrovitz. Another Italian retreat continued in the Pogradetz area north of the surrendered city of Koriza, where even Greek cavalry was unable to engage the main body of the fleeing Italians.

London, Nov. 25.—(AP)—The capture of 8,000 more Italian troops by the Greeks was announced in Athens today, according to dispatches from the Greek capital to the Exchange Telegraph, British news agency.

Farmville School To Be Recognized

The Farmville school will be placed on the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools' accredited list at the organization's meeting in Memphis December 13, it was disclosed today by J. H. Rose, member of the state committee of five of the association, revealed today.

Mr. Rose declared that he was "exceedingly happy" to announce the addition of Farmville to the list and added it provided him with much personal satisfaction. Greenville at the present is the only Pitt county school on the list.

The state committee decided at a meeting Saturday held in the offices of Dr. J. Henry Highsmith of Raleigh, a member of the group, to recommend the addition of Farmville after a survey last week showed that the Farmville school measured up to the requirements for being placed on the standardized list.

Deal To Goldsboro. Professor R. C. Deal of the college faculty, who is in great demand as a dinner speaker, will make the principal address at the Goldsboro Kiwanis club tonight, when it will observe annual "Ladies' Night."

Named Prime Minister. Belfast, Northern Ireland, Nov. 25.—(AP)—John Miller Andrews today was elevated from the post of deputy prime minister of Northern Ireland to be prime minister, succeeding Viscount Craigavon, who died unexpectedly last night.

As you know, German Club members are the only Greenville people who can attend our dance as invited guests.

Christian Science Church. "Soul and Body" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches and societies on Sunday, November 24. The golden text was from Psalms 66:8-9. "O bless our God, ye people, and make the voice of his praise to be heard; which holdeth our soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved."

Among the citations which composed the lesson-sermon were the following from the Bible: "What? know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought with a price; therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's." (I Cor. 6:19-20).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Man is idea, the maker of Love; he is not physical. He is the compound idea of God, including all right ideas; the generic term for all that reflects God's image and likeness; the conscious identity of being as found in Science, in which man is the reflection of God, or Mind, and therefore is eternal; that which has no separate mind from God; that which has not a single quality undervived from Deity; that which possesses no life, intelligence, nor creative power of his own, but reflects spiritually all that belongs to his Maker."

Vesper Service At College. Members of the Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, Miss Rebecca Ross, president; Miss Hazel Starnes, music chairman; Miss Irene Micham, program chairman; Miss Bessie Fay Hunt, world fellowship chairman, and Miss Erlene Sawyer, Teo Echo representative, conducted vespers at the college last night, presenting for the serving a program on Music in Religion.

Beginning with Debussy's "Clair de Lune" as a prelude and going on into other music of religious tone to illustrate the various aspects of the topic as they were presented, Miss Starnes created a background of music for the whole.

The close relation between music, life and religion was brought out by Miss Micham, the contribution of the Bible to religious music, by Miss Hunt; and the place of music in the religion of both the educated and the lowly, with particular reference to the religious music of the Negro, by Miss Sawyer.

Miss Rose introduced the program with a passage from the Psalms and concluded it with prayer.

Miss West Honored. Miss Martha Bland and Miss Elsie Jean "Skeeter" Horton entertained at a delightful bridge party at the home of Miss Bland in New Bern, honoring Miss Maude West of Greenville, who is to be married on November 27.

The home was beautifully decorated with fall flowers and the bride-elect's place at the bridge table was marked by a beautiful corsage of red roses.

High score prize was won by Mrs. L. B. Kinlaw, Jr., second high by Mrs. Wilbur Williamson, and other prizes by Misses Amy Gwaltney, Louise Corbin, LaRue Mooring and Marjorie West.

A delicious salad course with Russian tea was served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Bland's mother, Mrs. Frances King Bland, after which the bride-elect was showered with many lovely and useful gifts. The hostesses presented Miss West silver in her chosen pattern.

The players were: Miss Maude West, bride-elect, and Misses Ann Dail, Louise Corbin, Ruth Woodard, Edith Forrest, Frances Whitely, Jane Smith, Janet Evans and Elizabeth Brooks of Greenville; Mrs. L. Kinlaw, Jr., of Ayden; Misses Marjorie West and Hilda Herring of Raleigh; Miss LaRue Mooring of Grimesland; Misses Amy Gwaltney and Esther Cherry and Mrs. Wilbur Williamson of New Bern.

Joining the guests for refreshments were: Mrs. T. F. Tyson and Mrs. Maude King Gwaltney of New Bern; Bill Williams and Jack Whitely of Greenville; William Herbert Bland, Jr., J. B. MacDuff and Bub Tyson of New Bern.

Books On Democracy.
Two books on democracy and one on our fleet were added to the shelves of the Sheppard Memorial Library last week. Overnight there has been a demand for books on the subject of democracy and our national life, so these books were chosen because they seemed to serve the particular needs of this library.
"We, the Guardian of Our Liberty," by Albjerg, Knight and Woodward. A book for high school students that is clearly and simply written, dealing with the most fundamental subject matter which can be presented to school children in a democracy.
"Group Education for Democracy" by W. H. Kilpatrick. A collection of articles that have appeared in various educational magazines, designed to meet the needs of any who are interested in the education of "teen-age" young people. Three phases of education are treated: the demands of the social situation today, life learning, and the philosophy of education.

The Fleet Today. by Kendall Banning. The whole story of a democracy's fleet, well-told and well-illustrated by the same author who wrote "West Point Today," and "Annapolis Today."
There have been eight additions to the Parents' Shelf, all of them gifts to the library. Mrs. D. M. Clark gave "The Heart of a Child," by Lowell; "The Health of the Runabout Child," by Lucas; "The Healthy Baby," by Dennett, and "The Adolescent Girl" by Richmond. An anonymous giver contributed "Childhood," by Dowd; "The Story of a Baby," by Ets; "The Beginnings of Art in the Public Schools," by Mathias, and "Music for Young Children," by Thorn.

Mrs. W. R. Davis recently gave the library four books of light fiction and 15 copies of Opera News.

Several patrons of the library have remarked how much they enjoy the Sunday edition of the New York Times. Particularly did they speak of an article in the magazine section entitled "What About the Nazi Movie?" by Tolichus. This section of the paper always carries as its leading article one of a political nature. One contributor of these articles, Anne O'Hara McCormack, who rivals Dorothy Thompson in popularity, is more sane in her judgment, less excited in her observation, and not so drastic in her criticism.

The Book Review section is a delight to all book lovers, for every book of any importance gets its proper estimate herein, and the measure of its success can usually be forecast by the length of its review.

Other sections of the paper carry besides "all the news that's fit to print," the newest information on Music, Art, Drama, Radio, Screen, Dance, Science, Education, Travel and Bridge.

Rep. Bonner Seeks Air Base For N. C.

Washington, Nov. 25.—Congressman Herbert Bonner this morning visited the Navy Department, Bureau of Aeronautics, having a conference with Admiral Arthur B. Cooke and Captain C. E. Rosendahl, regarding the location of a non-naval air base, on the North Carolina coast between the Virginia line and Cape Hatteras.

Captain Rosendahl advised Mr. Bonner that he would visit this area during the latter part of next week and make a thorough inspection of all sections. Mr. Bonner gave Captain Rosendahl a memorandum of various cities that had been in touch with the Congressman's office offering locations. The Navy Department has such a base at Lakehurst, New Jersey, and deems it necessary to have an additional base on the South Atlantic coast. After a careful study the area in question seems to be the most logical.

Three Plays Tonight
Tonight and tomorrow night at 8 o'clock, the Black Masquers club of the high school will present three one-act plays, "In the Mausoleum," a new mystery play by Herbert Lee, "The Man Who Came Back," and "Yours and Mine," in the workshop theater at the high school. The admission is ten cents.

Tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock the Monogram club will sponsor a pep rally for the game with Washington high school the following night.

Girls Need 'Build-Up'

Many girls know where to turn for help for the headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition. For CARDUI has helped them by stimulating appetite, increasing flow of gastric juices and so improving digestion. Thus many are assisted to build physical resistance to periodic distress. Or, CARDUI may help you if taken a few days before and during "the time." Used and popular for more than 50 years. (Adv.)

WHY DOES A SCOTCHMAN PREFER CERTIFIED TENDER MADE HAM?
Because it shrinks so little you get about 25% more ham to serve than with ordinary ham. And remember only Wilson & Co. makes Tender Made Ham.

RECTOR'S HAM 'N' TURKEY PLAN GIVES ME GRAND MEALS CLEAR THROUGH SUNDAY!!
Have your dealer cut thick, juicy center steaks from your ham and reserve for broiling. Fasten the butt and shank ends together with skewers and heat and glaze as you would a whole ham. You can buy a whole, half or family size Tender Made Ham in tins ready to eat or heat in double boiler on top burner while turkey roasts in the oven. And here are the rest of your week-end meals:

Thanksgiving Supper ... Cold Platter of Ham 'n' Turkey
Friday Dinner ... Scalloped Turkey 'n' Ham
Saturday Dinner ... Turkey Pie
Sunday Dinner ... Broiled Center Slices of Ham

TO TELL IF TURKEY'S DONE

Farley's Boys Journey To Washington On Wednesday

LOCALS EXPECT TOUGH BATTLE

But They Are Determined To Come Away with Win

By C. B. ROWLETT
Richmond, Va. (AP)—Carolina, Carolina stopped Duke, Duke just ran over N. C. State, and well—what's going to happen in the annual Washington-Greenville classic when they tangle Wednesday in Washington at Kugler field? Well, I'm taking this game to be a tough one for the Pam Pack of Washington—come on, let's go over and watch the local pickin' to see how they come through with a win over their old rivals.

The boys from Washington came over to our fair city last week and began telling a few bored listeners how they were going to put the damper on our local gridders, but they went away with a nice long and haughty horse laugh. Personally, I don't think they have the confidence that they tried to bring through. But then again whoever is victor it will be no pushover.

It seems that the boys from down on the Pamlico have taken over their share of victories during past encounters and well the local GHS gridders are all the more determined that they can rack up that victory for the 1940 season.

Coach Farley has four good reasons why the Pam Pack won't hold the Phantoms out of the pay dirt. Reason No. 1—Spearman—short, hard to handle, tough, hard to hold, fast, hard to catch and above all—hard to stop. Reason No. 2—Page—one of the hardest drivers in the conference—six-footer tough as they come—grades a line like a pro—and a little advice to Washington—don't let him get started. Reason No. 3—Britt, freshman—good for yardage on almost every run—can sling a nice pass and tops on defense. Reason No. 4—Kittrell—can tote the leather if needed—can throw a block with the best of them—and the best interference in the conference.

Not only can Farley's boys usually get in that land of vertical stripes but they have a fairly good record of keeping other teams out. Credit for this goes to that wall of green and white that stands like a blockade to all invaders.

John Collins and Larry James will be on their old post at ends and to prove that they are just what I have said they were, they got an invitation to play in the annual North Carolina-South Carolina football game, and Buddy, that is an honor! Not only can these boys stop the opposition but they can start a little offense of their own when they really need to. Both boys can do well in the punting slot and they have a knack of reaching up and pulling the leather out of the clouds when it comes to pass snatching.

At tackle will probably be Spencer Carroll and Paul Scott, veterans of three seasons. Both boys started at the same time and both began their regular varsity work last season as first-stringers. Spencer has been at tackle during his three seasons but Paul was shifted to tackle during a good reliable tackle to fill a tough hole.

Sydney Johnson and Noah Lee Edwards, former lettermen, are starting their first year as first stringers on the Phantom eleven. Both boys have been at it a number of seasons and they got their starting assignments this year.

Bear Goodall, a bulwark of defense, will be in his old position at center for the Wednesday tilt. Goodall is starting his first year as a regular.

The English people's nickname, John Bull, first appeared in Arbuthnot's ludicrous "History of Europe."

Hapes-Hovious Dream Backfield Duo Is Double Nightmare To Rebel Foes

AP Feature Service
University, Miss.—While there's Hovious or Hapes there's hope at Ole Miss.

This University of Mississippi dream duo—a double nightmare to opposition—is a touchdown partnership that has had opponents gasping all season.

When it wasn't Junie "Lil' Butch" Hovious running for a touchdown it was Merle Hapes slamming his way for one, or Hovious passing for one, or Hapes intercepting a pass for one, or Hovious doing the same thing, or Hapes passing to Hovious—and on and on.

Both these fellows—Hovious, the 155-pound scamper, and Hapes, the 190-pound powerhouse—can do anything with a football and seem to do it better because they are in their together.

Both Kick.
When the Rebels need a long booming punt straight down the field Hapes gets back and lets fly (he averages 44 yards a kick). If the situation calls for a spot kick out of bounds that's Junie's job—and he's averaged 36 yards a try. Should the situation demand a scoring thrust—and quick—either one is likely to crack through for a touchdown, or they are just as likely to team up on a pass play for six points. Statisticians have figured that every time either Hovious or Hapes gets his hands on the ball you can chalk up an average gain of 9.2 yards for Mississippi.

For an example of the way these fellows work, take this scoring resume of the Georgia game:

Hovious returned a punt 19 yards, ran right end for 25, ran center for 3, passed to Hapes for 8, passed to Popp for 15 and a touchdown. Hovious ran back punt 96 yards for second touchdown. Hovious ran back another punt 25 yards, Hapes ran the end for 26, Hovious hit the center for 8, and Hovious passed 26 yards for a touchdown. Hapes intercepted a pass and ran 75 yards for a touchdown just to complete the days work.

Hapes and Hovious have southerners talking of the days of Hack and Mack of Tennessee and many of the fans argue this partnership is even more effective.

And the beautiful part of it—from a Mississippi standpoint—is that both are juniors and will be back in there again next year passing, punting, running and generally causing opponents misery.

JUNIE HOVIOUS

PITT NEXT FOR DUKE'S DEVILS

Stiff Workout Marks First Day Of Last Week of Season

Durham, Nov. 25.—Duke's Blue Devils were to start the last week of practice of the 1940 football campaign with a stiff workout today in preparation for the game against the University of Pittsburgh in Duke stadium next Saturday afternoon.

After resting up on Sunday following its 42-6 victory in the North Carolina State game, Duke began hard work immediately without the usual comparatively light Monday session. Though the current Pitt team has not equalled the record in games won by the Jock Sutherland machine of two or three years past, the Blue Devils are expecting one of the season's toughest contests.

Both teams have been beaten, but those who like to see good football should be on hand next Saturday. This will be the fifth meeting of the series is predicted. Except for the 1929 slaughter when Pitt rolled over the Devils in Duke's stadium dedication program, meetings between the two teams have been battles from start to finish.

In 1937 the Panthers came to Durham with the nation's top eleven to defeat Duke 10-0. The next year, 1938, Coach Wade's undefeated, untied, and unscored on Iron Dukes with Eric Tipton, Bob Spangler, Bob O'Mara and Easy Eaves fought to a 7-0 victory in the snow. Last year Coach Charlie Bowser, in his first season as head mentor, eked out a 14-13 win in Pittsburgh.

Nine seniors will appear against Pittsburgh for the last time on the gridiron for Duke and they will be seeking a triumph at their final stand. They are Captain Alex Winter, guard; Tony Ruffa and Jack Hardy, tackles; Wade Eldridge, guard; Leonard Darnell, end; Carl Deane, quarterback; Wesley McAfee and Frank Killian, halfbacks; and Jap Davis, fullback.

Very Few Favors Asked By Commissioner Scott

Reflector Bureau.
By HENRY AVERILL.

Raleigh, Nov. 25.—Commissioner of Agriculture W. Kerr Scott asked the Advisory Budget Commission for very few favors in the estimates he submitted to the State's financial steering committee recently.

The only material change asked is elimination from the Agriculture Department's expenditures of approximately $30,000 it now turns over to State College for the experiment station and for seed improvement.

The Commissioner does not regard this as a slap at the College nor as intensification of the ancient row between department and college. On the contrary he advances the opinion that if the budget-cutters will allow the Department to keep these funds and, at the same time, give the College the money from general fund appropriations a long step toward better relations will have been taken.

The fact that the Department each year is forced to hand over money it needs badly for its own activities is a constant source of irritation to the personnel, he points out.

As an example he cited: "Suppose the entomology division runs out of funds for travel about January—as it often does. Then I have to tell its head to bring his men into Raleigh because of this lack of money. The field specialists come in and while they stay around Raleigh they begin to grumble and complain about turning over agricultural money to State College. It's a constant source of friction which could be completely eliminated if the legislature would give the College enough money for its vital activities and let us keep all our receipts for our."

Getting around to some figures on the Department's budget requests and estimates: Scott estimates that receipts for the year 1941-42 will be $533,338 as compared with actual 1939-40 receipts of $526,716 and estimated 1940-41 receipts of $514,888. For the second year of the coming biennium he thinks receipts will be same as for the first.

Present conditions required the Department to turn over to State College annually $26,250 for seed improvement work. These are the items Scott asks be permitted to retain, which would permit expenditure by the Department of just that much more on its own activities.

Here's where the Department's revenue will come from:

Fertilizer tax $275,000, cotton seed meal $27,500, feed $90,000, seed licenses $18,000, condimental feed $1,000, serum $15,000, costs $400, 75-gums $5, linseed $2,250, bleached flour $15,000, bottling plants $2,500, ice cream $2,250, fertilizer registration $500, insecticides $2,000, branding cattle $3, test farms $37,500, bakeries $1,500, chicken tests $17,500, chick labels $300, seed tags $5,000, seed tests $5, inspection entomology $2,250, dynamometer $100, oleomargarine $2,750, land plaster $2,500, rabies $1,250, agricultural lime $2,500, feed registrations $3,000, canned dog food registration $750, dog food stamps $4,500, soil containers $275, miscellaneous $250. These items total the $533,338 the Department estimates it will have as receipts for each of the years 1941-42 and 1942-43.

Against these anticipated receipts are listed the following expenditures for the indicated purposes: Administration $50,092, inspection $32,500, markets $53,000, credit union $4,500, dairy $4,888, entomology $21,072, seed laboratory $22,290, analytical $57,000, crop statistics $23,096, museum $10,028, serum $14,100, veterinary $64,865, test farms $111,080, miscellaneous $7,830, reserve $5,000, rabies $7,500, Japanese beetle work $15,750, blister rust control $5,000, soil testing $20,370. These requirements total $531,440 for the year 1941-2, while estimated requirements for the next year of the biennium are about $6,000 less by reason of small reductions here and there over almost the entire list.

Should the Department get budgetary approval of its request to retain the money now turned over to State College, here is what the commission proposes to do with the additional funds:

1. Spend $1,500 more annually on the Agricultural Review, on account of the increased demand for it; on the Fertilizer Analysis and on the Feed Analysis report, cost of publication having risen on both these.
2. Perhaps the most pressing need of all is $2,100 with which to employ a Market Master for the market in Raleigh now under construction and which should be in operation by July 1, 1941. This market will furnish an organized outlet for miscellaneous farm products. At present there are no funds for the purpose of employing a Market Master.
3. An additional $1,000 for field travel of entomology specialists.
4. Addition of a Senior Agronomist, salary $3,000, and two part-time clerical and laboratory assistants, combined salaries $650 in the soil testing division.
5. The balance spread over in-

In The Army Now

As the men-folk were being inducted into the army, Uncle Sam also enrolled this pretty Miss. She's 22-year-old Rena Hayman of Quincy, Mass., commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army Nurses Corps. She will report to West Point.

LUCY HEMBY
Lucy Hemby, well known colored citizen of Greenville, age 88 years, died last Friday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. H. Wiloughby. The funeral took place at Paul's Chapel Church, of which she has been a member for 42 years. Burial took place at the Hemby cemetery about 21-2 miles from Bell Arthur.

She left to mourn her death eight children, 37 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren and a host of friends. She was born December 10, 1852, and was a lifelong resident of the Greenville section.

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the source of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Creomulsion blends beechwood crossite by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

Maintaining roads is my business...and believe me, you save with CONCRETE

"After you've spent years trying to keep so-called 'low-cost' roads in a travelable condition, it's a relief to get assigned to a stretch of concrete. Concrete is easy to maintain—saves the taxpayers real money."

Real money is right! Concrete roads cost $71 to $495 per mile per year less for surface maintenance than other pavements. Less to build than any other road of equal load carrying capacity. Less to drive on than lower type pavements.

Tobacco Disease Problems Talked At Winterville

Four hundred or more interested farm men and women met in the school auditorium at Winterville Friday night to discuss the problem of tobacco diseases which is of common interest to all tobacco farmers of the county.

Dr. Luther Shaw, plant pathologist; L. T. Weeks, extension tobacco specialist; H. B. James, farm management specialist; Dr. L. D. Baver, head of the State College Agronomy department; and B. Troy Ferguson discussed the symptoms and possibilities of controlling Granville wilt and Black Shank.

Brown Hodges and G. H. Pittman, county commissioners, explained that a study had been made of the prevalence of tobacco diseases in the county and the commissioners believed that the threat of diseases to the tobacco industry should not be neglected. Therefore, the county agreed to supply an assistant county agent to work with the farmers of the county in controlling and preventing the spread of these diseases.

A survey of the county has been made and it is evident that 280 or more farms in the county are affected by Granville wilt on which 840 families or 5,040 people depend for a living. Twenty to 30 farms are now affected by Black Shank on which about 60 to 70 families or 400 people depend for a living.

In 1936, C. D. Griggs, assistant farm agent, discovered an unusual tobacco disease on one farm in the county. We had plant disease specialists from State College, Oxford and the U. S. Department of Agriculture to investigate the trouble.

Dr. R. F. Poole, pathologist of State College, and Dr. Luther Shaw, extension plant pathologist, identified the disease as Black Shank. Until this discovery Black Shank was not known in Eastern Carolina. But already the disease has spread from one farm in 1936 to 20 or 30 in 1940. Therefore, the Pitt county commissioners and the extension forces felt it imperative that everything possible be done without delay.

A program is now being worked out jointly by the commissioners, the county agents and the farmers of the county to combat these diseases and to learn more about their control.

The county has been assured by Assistant Director John W. Goodman and B. Troy Ferguson of the State College Extension Service of the full cooperation of the specialists in getting the program under way. It is hoped to have suggestions from farmers and the full cooperation of every grower.

Every tobacco farmer in the county is vitally interested in the program since those farmers who have infested farms are anxious to get the diseases under control and farmers who do not have infested farms are anxious to prevent the spread of tobacco diseases to their farms.

Fountain Reports Series Of Thefts

Chief of Police J. O. Bryan of Fountain disclosed today that his community had been victimized by a series of robberies recently, climaxing Saturday night when at least three places were robbed and an attempt made to break in another.

The home of Mary Lee Bridges, colored, was entered and $240 in money reported taken. Also robbed was the store operated by Simon Hemby, colored, and the home of Frank Pony, also colored. An attempt was made to break into the store of E. C. Edwards, but the robbers were unsuccessful, although the store has been victimized by recent robberies.

Chief Bryan said that while he had been unable to track down the guilty person or persons so far, he felt that a "break" in the case could be expected shortly.

Five Sentenced In One Whiskey Case

Bill Clark and four other Negroes were sentenced in Municipal recorder's court this morning on charges growing out of the finding of 14 and one-half gallons of liquor on a vacant lot on Pitt street in the Bama section by members of the sheriff's office and Pitt county ABC officers last week.

Clark admitted having the liquor and was given an 18-months sentence. June Clark and Thelma Whitehurst were given six months each. Bruce Riddick was given a 60-day sentence on the liquor charge and also drew a similar sentence on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. He allegedly fired a shotgun at officers when they neared the spot where the liquor was hid. Riddick said he thought someone was trying to steal the liquor and did not know the men were officers.

James Tell, charged with transporting the liquor, was given a 60-day sentence, suspended upon payment of $25 and good behavior for two years. Joseph Barden, Negro, was bound over to Superior court under bond of $500 on a charge of check forgery. Leland Jones, Negro boy, was ordered held for juvenile court on a charge of larceny. E. D. Carr, Negro, was given six months upon conviction of assault with a deadly weapon, the sentence to be suspended upon payment of $25. Robert Harrington, Negro, was given 30 days, suspended upon payment of costs on a charge of drunkenness and a similar sentence was meted out to Pete Morton, Negro, on a like charge.

Wiley Rodman, Negro, was given a 30-day sentence, suspended upon good behavior for one year on a charge of disorderly conduct. Lucille Ward, Negro, was given a 60-day jail sentence on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. Charles R.

COURT RULES RACE QUESTION

Rules Against Exclusion Of Negroes On Grand Juries

Washington, Nov. 25 (AP)—The Supreme court ruled today that racial discrimination resulting in the exclusion of qualified negroes from grand jury service not only violated the constitution, "but is at war with our basic concepts of a democratic society and a representative government."

Justice Black delivered the unanimous decision, which set aside the conviction of a Houston, Texas, negro sentenced to life imprisonment for criminally assaulting a white woman.

The Negro, Edgar Smith, contended he had been denied constitutional rights because members of his race had been "systematically excluded" from Harris county grand juries.

Justice Black asserted that "it is part of the established tradition in the use of juries as instruments of public justice that the jury be a body truly representative of the community."

The court refused to review a decision which Georgia officials contended would "seriously endanger" the successful administration of unemployment compensation programs in 33 states.

The decision, by the Georgia Supreme court, barred the state from treating two or more concerns under the same ownership or control as a single unit in determining whether there were sufficient employees to warrant the collection of unemployment compensation assessments.

The meeting was called in the interest of a movement designed to rehabilitate discharged prisoners.

Each of the counties represented will set up their own units. J. F. Harrington was named president of the local group, with J. P. Davinport of Pictolus being chosen vice-president.

Organization To Aid Discharged Prisoner

Approximately 100 representatives from Beaufort, Greene, Lenoir and Pitt counties met at the Pitt county prison camp for a luncheon meeting today, called by and presided over by Rev. Lawrence A. Watts, director of religious training of the N. C. Prison department.

The meeting was called in the interest of a movement designed to rehabilitate discharged prisoners.

Each of the counties represented will set up their own units. J. F. Harrington was named president of the local group, with J. P. Davinport of Pictolus being chosen vice-president.
