

Considerable cloudiness tonight and Friday, scattered thundershowers Friday afternoon in southwest and extreme south portions.

OUTER DEFENSE SYSTEM OF LENINGRAD SMASHED

BRITAIN URGED TRY INVASION OF CONTINENT

New Cries Come from English, Polish, Norwegians

FELT BOMBINGS NOT SUFFICIENT

Many Sources Urging Britain To Attempt Landings At Numerous Places In Order To Find Weakest Spot

London, Aug. 21.—(AP) Unofficial English, Polish and Norwegian strategists raised anew today their cries for a British invasion of the continent as the only way to defeat Germany.

British military leaders were called upon an all-out war against the Nazis. Current RAF bombings of Germany and occupied territories were deemed insufficient by these sources.

Frank Owen, editor of Lord Beaverbrook's Evening Standard, demanded "a second front not only in the air" in a signed editorial. Owens suggested a British offensive against Italy, long favored by some military sources as the spot where the Axis could be hit hardest.

Many Polish and Norwegian military men have urged the British to attempt landings at a number of points along the European coastline in an effort to find the weakest point in German defenses.

Once a weak spot were found, these men believe, enough British and Allied forces could be landed to overcome local resistance to dig in and open a new front. Most of these men believe RAF bombings have smashed German communications and therefore the Germans would find it difficult to concentrate enough troops to counter a British invasion at any one point.

Favored particularly by Poles and Norwegians is a landing in Norway north of Narvik.

Warn Delinquents Under Draft Act

Officials of Pitt County Selective Service Board No. One today issued a list of delinquents with the warning that "this is the last resort" and that unless the registrants returned their questionnaires within a comparatively short while it would be necessary to report them to the district attorney.

Of the 3,800 persons who registered last October, 43 still have failed to return their questionnaires. Anyone knowing the whereabouts of any one on the list is urged to advise the delinquent to get in touch with the board immediately.

The delinquents and their latest known addresses follow:

Henry Edward Bowie, Route 2 Farmville, (Col); Richard Stevens, 215 Berry St., Farmville, (Col); Gene Staton, Rt. 3, Bethel, (Col); Nathan Penner Hokes, Rt. 1, Farmville, (Col); Spencer Brown, RFD, Robertsonville, (Col); Junius Taylor Bethel, (Col); Woodrow Wilson Clark, Rt. 3, Grimesland, (Col); Johnnie Junior Hemby, 1317 W. 3rd St., Greenville, (Col); George Costandi Ake, 243 N. Main St., Greenville, (Col); Charlie Knight, 217 Center St., Greenville, (Col); Jacob McCathey, Farmville, (Col); Major Johnson, 405 Bonners Lane, Greenville, (Col); Montie Barnes, 406 W. 1st St., Greenville, (Col); Gus Brewer, Rt. 2, Robertsonville, (Col); Robert Komey, 308 Walnut St., Farmville, (Col); Rufus Moring, Bethel, (Col); Eddie Carr, Rt. 1, Stokes, (Col); William Allen Edwards, Rt. 5, Greenville; Bennie Roy Harrell, Rt. 5, Greenville; Levi Butler Smith, Box 427, Belle Glade Fla., (Col); Calvin Raspberry, Barrett St., Farmville; Ben McCutchen, 312 1st St., Greenville, (Col); New Williams, 304 E. 1st St., Greenville, (Col); Ole L. Phillips, Rt. 1, Ayden, (Col); Otis Tank Gooden, Greenville, (Col); Elmer Lee Gibbs. (Continued on Page Two)

Rural Home Is Struck By Bolt Of Lightning

George Woolard, who lives about three miles from Greenville on the Patactus highway, was in the city yesterday reporting what a narrow escape he and his family experienced yesterday morning.

According to Mr. Woolard, lightning struck a radio aerial leading to the corner of the apartment house in which he lives with another family. He reported that a hole about six by eight feet was torn from the corner of the house by the lightning. Although all persons in the house were jolted by the bolt, no one was seriously injured. Smoke filled the house, he said, but the building did not catch fire.

Asks Oil Probe

Washington, Aug. 21.—(AP)—A New England senator today urged a speedy congressional investigation to determine if the east actually faces a gasoline shortage, as the defense petroleum office sharply reasserts its case.

"I want to learn if there is an actual shortage of oil as we are being shipped around for psychological reasons," Senator Maloney (D-Conn.) told reporters, saying he would ask the Senate Commerce Committee to act immediately on his resolution for an inquiry.

Firm Stand Is Taken By British Government In Dealings With Iran

Closes His Bank

John M. Nichols (above), who threatened for years to close his bank, the First National of Englewood, Ill., finally did it. He came into national prominence in the early '30's with a "one man war" against New Deal's banking policies.

REDUCTION IN CARS ORDERED

Auto Production To Be Curtailed 26 One-Half Pct.

Washington, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The Office of Production Management announced today that passenger car production will be curtailed 25-1-2 per cent during August, September and October.

The curtailment will be progressively greater in subsequent months, officials said, with the expectancy of a 50 per cent curtailment for the model year ending July 31, 1942.

The production quotas were formulated by the OPM and the Office of Price Administration and Civilian Supply.

A substantial increase must be made in motor truck production, officials said, in order to meet vital transportation and military needs.

During August, September, October and November 817,000 passenger cars will be made, compared with 1,113,000 during the same months of 1940 and 1,560,000 during the four months ended July 31, 1941.

The larger companies—General Motors, Chrysler and Ford—will make a reduction of 27.6 per cent, while the other companies, Studebaker, Hudson, Nash, Packard, Willis-Overland and Crosley will cut 20.2 per cent.

George Woolard, who lives about three miles from Greenville on the Patactus highway, was in the city yesterday reporting what a narrow escape he and his family experienced yesterday morning.

According to Mr. Woolard, lightning struck a radio aerial leading to the corner of the apartment house in which he lives with another family. He reported that a hole about six by eight feet was torn from the corner of the house by the lightning. Although all persons in the house were jolted by the bolt, no one was seriously injured. Smoke filled the house, he said, but the building did not catch fire.

D. T. Beaman Named Manager Of Theatre

Dow T. Beaman, who has been connected with the Pitt theater in various capacities for the past five years, has been named manager of the new Colony theater which will open in the immediate future.

Announcement that Mr. Beaman would be manager of the new theater was made by T. Y. Walker, manager of the Pitt theater.

In making the announcement, Mr. Walker praised the capable service rendered by Mr. Beaman and highly recommended him to the general public in his new capacity.

Note Outlines Plans For Replacing Germans Employed In Key Industries; London Represented as Not Disposed To Taken for Answer to Request That Nazi Subjects Be Expelled From Country

Ankara, Turkey, Aug. 21. (AP)—Informed sources said today that Britain in a note had outlined to Iran (Persia) plans for replacement of Germans employed in key communications industries and proposed that definite action be taken by August 31.

Americans arriving from Baghdad in Iraq reported steady streams of British material and armored cars moving east in the last week toward the Iranian border.

Observers considered that Britain was not disposed to take no for an answer and would move into Iran, as she took control in Iraq, to obtain a solid defense front in the Middle East.

Previous British notes to the Iranian government were reported to have called unsatisfactory the expulsion of a few dozen German technicians in view of an estimated 2,000 or more employed in key Iranian industries.

(London dispatches today said Iran had been given about a week to meet British-Russian requests for expulsion of Germans, and British and Russian troops were reported already on Iran's frontiers. Iranian reports said the country would resist any invasion and was increasing its army.)

Britain was described as seeking to displace the Germans with either Iranian or British technicians. It was reported the latest note carried no military threat nor fixed a date for compliance, but the Iranians were cautioned that August 31 was about the latest time for action.

Cuban Consulates Closed By Berlin

Berlin, Aug. 21.—(AP)—The German government announced today it had ordered closing of Cuban consulates in the Reich effective September 15.

(The announcement followed closely the action of the Italian government in closing Cuban consulates in Italy in retaliation for the expulsion of the Italian consul general from Cuba.)

Cuba ordered expulsion of seven German consuls as well as one Italian and Germany earlier had responded by demanding withdrawal of Cuban consuls from German-occupied territories.

DNB said the action was taken because one Cuban consular official had been engaging in activities outside his regular duties, thus "giving reason for severe objections."

7th Grade Students To Report Tomorrow

All seventh grade students who were promoted from the rooms of Miss Plumb and Miss Moselle Jones to the eighth grade in the city school are asked to report to the high school auditorium tomorrow morning at 9:30 to confer with V. M. Mulholland about their eighth grade work in the high school.

Students who have recently moved to town and who will be in the high school for the first time next year are also requested to consult Mr. Mulholland in his office tomorrow afternoon concerning their program for the coming year.

It is essential that this preliminary work be completed for both groups mentioned above.

Jack Spain At Home For 30-Day Vacation

Jack Spain, former mayor and now secretary to Congressman Herbert C. Bonner, is at home for 30 days due to the fact that the House of Representatives is at present in a 30-day recess and will not reconvene until September 15, unless the emergency becomes more acute.

Mr. Spain stated that he would be delighted to see any citizens of Greenville or Pitt county pertaining to any federal matters they might care to take up with Mr. Bonner's office. He can be reached at the office of White Chevrolet Company or at his home, 407 Rotary Avenue.

Developments On Eastern Front

Arrows indicate main sectors on the eastern front and the possibility, envisioned in Berlin, of a German thrust at Batum, Soviet oil port on the Black sea. Russians reporting a firm stand east of Kingisepp, acknowledged a German drive to the Novgorod region (1) and an advance in the Gomel sector (2). Odessa (3) was reported under heavy pressure, and Germans reported attacks on Dnieper river bridgehead defense forces. In Berlin, where the quick fall of Odessa was predicted, possibility of a sea-borne thrust at Batum (4) was seen.

President Makes Report On Atlantic Conference

JAP IRE IS FELT BY AMERICANS

Anti-American Campaign Waged In Occupied China

Shanghai, Aug. 21.—(AP)—An anti-American campaign, purported to be inspired and directed by Japanese military authorities, appeared today to be growing throughout occupied China as a result of the recent United States freezing of assets.

Reports from numerous points in central and south China indicate that more than 1,700 Americans are facing increasingly difficult living conditions because of restrictions imposed by the military. British citizens also were affected in some areas, but not as badly as Americans.

Many of those feeling the brunt (Continued on Page Two)

Seaman Home On Leave Brings Interesting Tales

Sm. 2nd Class John S. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed Nelson of this city arrived home Sunday afternoon from New York on a seven days leave.

Signalman Nelson is a member of the crew of the USS destroyer Benson which, on a return cruise, encountered the sensational tryst at sea of President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill. He says the President and Prime Minister conferred for lengthy periods for several days.

Since Signalman Nelson has been aboard the destroyer Benson he has had some exciting experiences. For instance his ship, on returning home from a secret mission, passed the exact spot where the battleship Hood was sunk twenty-four hours later.

Nelson was also in the convoy which carried the first American troops to Iceland. In this convoy were battleships, destroyers, cruisers, marine transports and supply ships.

Upholds Principles Agreed On With Churchill

Washington, Aug. 21.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, reporting to Congress on his epochal meeting at sea with Prime Minister Churchill, said today the declaration of principles agreed upon there were so clear-cut that they would be difficult to oppose "without automatically admitting willingness to accept compromise" with Nazism.

These principles, the President added in a brief special message, also would be hard to oppose without admitting a willingness to "agree to a world peace which would give to Nazism domination over large numbers of conquered nations."

"Inevitably," Mr. Roosevelt asserted, "such a peace would be a gift to Nazism to take breath—armed breath—for a second war to extend the control over Europe and Asia to the American hemisphere itself."

Mr. Roosevelt said it was perhaps unnecessary to "call attention once more to the utter lack of validity of the spoken or written word of the" (Continued on page two)

CONCERN FELT OVER NEW NAZI BALKAN MOVES

Advance German Units Reported To Be In Bulgaria

GREEK - TURKISH BORDER SCOUTED

Competent Source Points Out Nazis May Be Planning Aggressive Action To Open Dardanelles

Ankara, Turkey, (Delayed), Aug. 21.—(AP)—Foreign diplomatic sources reported today that advance units of two German divisions had arrived in Bulgaria and that Italian patrols have been scouting the Greek-Turkish border.

At the same time, fresh groups of German aviators were reported to have arrived in the Bulgarian capital of Sofia during the past few days. The portent of these reported developments opposite the Turkish frontier was uncertain, but one competent source said they could have only two purposes:

1. To take over from the Bulgarians certain policing duties in occupied areas in southeastern Europe.
2. To undertake aggressive action against Turkey with the object of opening the Dardanelles to permit German ships to enter the Black sea with supplies for Nazi troops now fighting in the Ukraine.

The same source said Italian garrisons on Greek islands adjacent to the Dardanelles had been increased.

Foreign diplomatic sources also said they had been receiving reports for several weeks of extensive preparations of airports in Bulgaria, even though German troops there during the Greek campaign were removed northward before the war with Russia began on June 22.

The German troops now reported arriving in Bulgaria were described as fresh and well-equipped and obviously from reserve areas rather than from the Russian front. Included among the advance units were said to be a number of elite S. S. troops.

Mistrial Ordered In Haddock Case

After one full day had been taken up in hearing evidence in the case of J. G. Haddock vs. L. C. Venters, administrator of the estate of Elwood M. Venters, Judge J. Q. Nimocks ordered a mistrial this morning in order to give the plaintiff an opportunity to file an answer to the amended answer filed by the defendant.

The case was started in Pitt Superior court yesterday. The plaintiff seeks to recover $10,000 for injuries allegedly suffered in an automobile wreck in which Elwood Venters and Johnnie Haddock were killed. The plaintiff alleges that Venters was driving.

Phillip Williams, four-year-old son, was awarded $1,054 through his mother, Mrs. Margaret Williams, in a consent judgment against the Carolina Coach Company. The little boy was alleged to have been injured when struck by one of the defendant bus company's trucks April 11, at a point between Chocowinity and Grimesland.

One divorce was granted yesterday, this being in the case of Elmer Allen Whitley vs. Annie Whitley.

Mrs. Waldrop Dies In Hendersonville

Word has been received here of the death last night at 10 o'clock of Mrs. J. G. Waldrop of Hendersonville, mother of 10 children, several of whom live in this county. She had visited here often and had many friends in Greenville.

Mrs. Waldrop's death was the result of a fall last Thanksgiving day in which she suffered a broken hip. She had been confined to her home and hospital since. She had been returned to the hospital on Tuesday.

Three sons and two daughters had left last night before learning of her death. They were J. H. Waldrop, J. C. Waldrop and Mrs. Frank Wilson of Greenville, Mrs. J. A. Staton of Bethel and Hugh Waldrop of Goldsboro.

Two other sons, Paul Waldrop of Norfolk, Va., and Harold Waldrop of New Bern left today. Also leaving today were J. A. Staton and Miss Camille Staton of Bethel and Miss Verda Wilson of Greenville. Funeral services will be conducted Friday afternoon in Hendersonville.

Russians Acknowledge City In Dread Danger

Sued By Husband

Mrs. Esther Thalhammer, 16, (above) together with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Schleisser, was defendant in an annulment suit in Los Angeles brought by Karl W. Thalhammer, 60, wealthy photographic equipment manufacturer, who charged the Schleissers had forced him to wed their school-girl daughter by accusing him falsely of having an affair with her. He said the marriage took place at Yuma, Ariz., July 20 and that they separated 11 days later.

FACES CHARGE OF ROBBERIES

White Man Reported To Have Confessed To Thefts

Sheriff J. Knott Proctor today announced that John Koonce, ex-convict taken in custody Saturday night in connection with three recent robberies in Swift Creek township, had confessed to him and Chief of Police George Clark that he committed the robberies.

Koonce, who makes his home both in Pitt and Lenoir county, was taken in custody at the home of a brother-in-law near Snow Hill Saturday night. Sheriff Proctor and Chief Clark have questioned him several times since and this morning reported the man confessed to the charge. Koonce was just released from the local prison camp on March 9 after serving a term imposed in Pitt Superior court on robbery charges.

According to Sheriff Proctor, Koonce confessed to the robberies of Corey Stokes' filling station and store, Hugh Stokes' store and Reid Smith's store, all in Swift Creek township, during the second week in July. Officers have been quietly working on the case since.

Smith reported that between $375 and $400 was taken from his store in the robbery, but Sheriff Proctor quoted the man as saying that he got only $202. He had $117 on his person when taken in custody. Only minor loot was reported to have stolen from the other two places.

Koonce probably will be sentenced at the criminal session of Pitt Superior court convening here Monday morning.

Commencement at College Tomorrow

Commencement exercises for the close of the thirty-second summer school of East Carolina Teachers College will be held tomorrow morning in Austin auditorium. The processional march will start promptly at 10 o'clock, with Miss Margaret Barnes of Pictops at the piano.

A. B. degrees will be conferred upon 98 graduates, and M. A. upon two. President L. R. Meadows will deliver the baccalaureate address.

Music will be furnished by the summer school glee club, directed by A. L. Dittmer, head of the music department.

Miss Edna Earle Kirby of Princeton, will head the processional line, with President Meadows and the M. A. candidates following. Miss Nancy Peacock Chesson of Wilson, will lead the A. B. candidates. Conferment of degrees will follow the address. Announcements will close the exercises and mark the end of the summer school.

Berlin Warns That If Old Czarist Capital Is Defended It Will Suffer Fate of Warsaw; Russians Reported To Have Destroyed Dnieper River Dam In Effort To Check Nazis In Ukraine

By The Associated Press
Adolf Hitler's high command reported today that German troops had smashed three main bulwarks of Leningrad's outer defense system, and the Russians acknowledged that the old-time Czarist capital was in "dread danger."

Challenging an official Russian order for a fight to defend Leningrad to the death, the Berlin radio declared that if the city were defended it would suffer the fate of Warsaw, which was largely destroyed by Nazi Stukas and siege guns, when the Poles refused to surrender.

(By The Associated Press)
German troops storming toward Leningrad from the south were reported today to be within 13 miles of the old Czarist capital, Russia's second city, and even the Russians acknowledged that Leningrad was in "dread danger."

A Swedish broadcast, quoting the Berlin correspondent of a Stockholm newspaper, said the Nazis were advancing via Gdansk, about 22 miles south of Leningrad.

The Red army northwest command admitted that Leningrad was under "direct threat of attack," but the Russians expressed confidence that the city's defenses—with an estimated garrison of one million men—would hold.

On the southern front, Russia's great Black sea port of Odessa was reported aflame, blasted by German artillery and Stuka dive-bombers.

The German high command reported that Nazi troops storming toward Leningrad from the south had captured the ancient walled city of Novgorod, 100 miles below Leningrad, in bitter fighting against the Red army defenders. Only last night, Soviet dispatches declared that a showdown battle for Leningrad was raging about Novgorod and that the town, surrounded by swamps and lakes, was admirably situated for a stonewall defense.

(Continued on Page Two)

Last Rites Held For Albemarle Merchant

Funeral services for James McKnight Morrow, 76, one of Albemarle's pioneer business men and father of Mrs. Marvin Honeycutt of this city, were conducted Saturday morning at the home in the Stanley county city.

Mr. Morrow was born in Lancaster county, S. C., September 7, 1864. Early in life he moved to Albemarle, where he married Miss Addie Whitfield, who survives him.

He moved to Albemarle in 1897 with his late brother, R. A. Morrow, established Morrow Brothers and Heath Company, one of the leading mercantile establishments in that section. In addition to being president of this company at the time of his death, he was also president of the Building and Loan Association and was a director of the Cabarrus Bank and Trust Company. Morrow Mountain state park was named in honor of Mr. Morrow. He was an active member of the Presbyterian church.

Weather Report

J. A. CLARK (Always Observer)
TEMPERATURES
High yesterday	70
Low yesterday	67
At 1:30 p. m. today	70
PRECIPITATION (In inches)
For 24 hrs. ending 1:30 p. m. ..	2.38
Total for month	2.38
BAROMETER (Pressure)
7:30 last night	29.92
7:30 this morning	30.00
Prevailing Wind and Velocity
7:30 last night	E-3
1:30 p. m. today	NE-2

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Jethro Mills, Mr. Elbert Mills of near Greenville, and Mrs. Robbie Dail of Ayden, will leave tomorrow morning for Washington, D. C., to visit Miss Elsie Mae Mills. They will be joined there by Dr. Wardell Mills of Cleveland, Ohio, who will spend the week-end with them.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Allen and daughter, Barbara, left this morning for their home on Dumont, New Jersey, after visiting Mrs. R. C. Abbe and family.

Mr. Carl Crawford has returned from Lumberton, where he sold tobacco Monday.

Lieutenant Colonel C. B. Wilson, Mrs. Wilson and three sons of Menominee, T. H., will arrive this afternoon to visit Mrs. W. B. Wilson on Evans street.

Mr. C. B. Allen left Monday afternoon for Atlanta, Ga., where he will spend several days.

H. L. Cherry is confined to Pitt General Hospital for treatment.

Miss Betty Tyson left today for Brevard to attend the American Red Cross Aquatic School at Camp Carolina for ten days.

Bill Utley returned today from Metter, Ga., where he has been on the tobacco market.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Brown returned home last night after spending several days at Virginia Beach.

Dance in Grifton.
There will be a square dance in Grifton Friday night, sponsored by the Improve Your Health Club. A small admission fee will be charged. The public is invited.

Announcement.
Mrs. Charles A. White announces the opening of her music class on Monday, September 1. Call 2604 (Adv.).

No Primitive Baptist Service.
Due to the absence of the pastor there will be no service in the Primitive Baptist Church.

Jane Austen Club Meets.
Members of the Jane Austen Book Club of Stokes met with Mrs. W. G. Stokes for its August meeting. The house was colorfully decorated with mixed flowers. Mrs. T. G. Banting, vice-president, presided over the business session.

The program for the afternoon was presented by Mrs. Allen Womble. "Leading Women in Medicine" was the topic of Mrs. Womble's especially interesting paper. Mrs. Stokes served a delicious sweet course to the following members and invited guests: Mesdames T. G. Banting, R. D. Congleton, G. H. Roebuck, Ethel Clark, Allen Womble, A. L. Woodard, J. B. Congleton, Misses Kate Roebuck, Beatrice Cherry, Marie Robertson and LaRue Mooring.

SAD BUT TRUE
Ma used to make her own soap. And darn good soap it was. But since we got a radio Ma's quit, and jest because she keeps that box a-going from morning until night—that radio has changed Ma. I tell you it's a sight.

While I'm out plowing through the day Ma's getting all the "dope;" and every time I goes to town Ma buys a different soap. She wants to win a coupe—Sedan or a "two door." I tell you Ma just ain't the same—Ma just ain't Ma no more.

Ma can keep on sending wrappers. But I'll bet you—"doggonit!" The day that car comes rollin' in Ma'll be too old to run it.

—Edw. W. Hearne.

THE PATRIOT
His country called him up one day To mend a leaking dike. Said he, "I do not like the pay; Besides, I'm on a strike."

W. A. B. H.

PRESIDENT MAKES REPORT ON ATLANTIC CONFERENCE

(Continued From Page One)

He added that it also was unnecessary to point out that the situation included of necessity "the world need for freedom of religion and freedom of information."

He said: "No society of the world organized under the announced principles could survive without these freedoms which are a part of the whole freedom for which we strive."

The President reported the military and naval conversations at the North Atlantic conference "made clear aim" in furthering the effectiveness of lend-lease aid to countries east and west.

He and the Prime Minister, Mr. Roosevelt added, are arranging for conferences with Russia to assist it in its defense against the attack made by the principal aggressor of the modern world—Germany."

In fact, this copy, furnished to Congress in the nature of a report, constituted most of today's message. Only six new paragraphs were included.

Rights Respected

Orangeburg, S. C.—(AP)—A man under the influence of whiskey called at the county jail and demanded the right to see a kinsman being held prisoner. He was accommodated for an extended period.

Social Calendar

THURSDAY
8:00 p. m.—Modern Woodmen meet.

8:00 p. m.—The executive board of the Business and Professional Women's Club will meet with Miss Helen Gaskins.

FRIDAY
10:00 a. m.—12:00 noon—Puppet and clay-modeling class at Greenville WPA Art Gallery. Children 6 to 15 years. Free materials and free instructions.

6:30 p. m.—The Kiwanis Club meets.

7:30 p. m.—Meeting of the Red Men.

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
Thursday, August 21, 1901

The papers for some days past have been publishing chapter after chapter of catastrophes. There have been explosions, fires, storms, shipwrecks, railroads that have caused many deaths and great loss of property.

If the farmers will save hay now they will have less of it to buy in the winter.

The tobacco warehouse sales have been large every day this week, and prices continue good.

Bruce Sugg came down Wednesday evening from Rocky Mount.

Jap Ire Is Felt By Americans

(Continued from page one)
of the campaign are missionaries. At numerous places missions have been picketed as have American business houses in Shantung province and in south China.

Those Americans living in the foreign areas of Shanghai, about 2,000, have continued their daily routine without Japanese interference. At many places elsewhere in Japanese-occupied territory, however, Americans have reported they were refused permission to buy coal and other necessities. They said their purchases of foodstuffs have been limited.

OUTER DEFENSES OF LENINGRAD SMASHED

(Continued from page one)
The German high command, reporting the swift fall of Novograd, also claimed the capture of Narva, 81 miles southwest of Leningrad, and Kingisepp, the rail gate to Leningrad, six miles farther east.

Amid the desperate plight of the Red armies in the Ukraine, unconfirmed reports circulated in European listening posts that the Russians had opened or blown up the great $100,000,000 Dnieper river dam, in an attempt to stem the Nazi onslaught.

In the critical battle of Leningrad, Soviet Marshal Klement Voroshilov admitted that the Germans were attacking the city's approaches and dramatically called on the inhabitants to fight to the death.

Besides claiming the capture of three key cities in the main Leningrad defense ring, Hitler's high command announced the "crushing defeat" and partial destruction of 25 Russian divisions—about 375,000 troops—as well as two air-borne brigades in a great battle around Gomel, on the central front, midway between Smolensk and Kiev.

Total Red army losses of five million men in the 61-day-old struggle were claimed by the Germans, including 1,200,000 prisoners. DNB, the official German news agency, said conquered Soviet territory exceeded 335,000 square miles—an area greater than the entire German Reich and its newly incorporated territories east and west.

DNB also distributed a statement re-emphasizing that the war with Russia was being waged "to gain pre-conditions for the final struggle with Great Britain" and insisting that aerial blows against the British Isles had not been weakened.

Neutral observers interpreted the statement two ways:

1. An attempt to bolster German morale, now suffering devastating punishment from the RAF;

2. To quash vague rumors of a British-German peace movement.

In London, a high British authority said RAF raids in the last eight weeks had placed far more bombers over Germany in a single night than the Germans sent over Britain in the most violent raids last autumn and winter.

WARNS DELINQUENTS UNDER DRAFT ACT

(Continued From Page One)
165 Brooklyn Ave., Farmville, (Col); William Lamb Emerson, Rt. 4 Greenville, N. C.; George Allen Butts, Rt. 2, Farmville; James L. Forbes, W. Perry St., Farmville (Col); Charlie Mooring, Rt. 4, Greenville, (Col); James Wooten, Rt. 4, Greenville, (Col); Luther McPherson, General Delivery, Bethel (Col); Alfred Gibbs, 219 E. 1st St. Greenville, (Col); Henry Price, Bethel, (Col); Sam Fleming, George St., Farmville, (Col); Leroy Daniel, Rt. 5, Greenville, (Col); Jasper Lee Cox, Paoious, Fred Barnes, 307 Proctor St., Durham, N. C. (Col); Theodore Phillips, Rt. 1 Farmville, (Col); Heddie Maxwell Squires, 3210 Huntington Avenue, Newport News, Va.; David Edwards, Rt. 1, Stokes, (Col); Henry Woodrow Hardy, Rt. 5, Mox 210, Greenville, (Col).

MODES of the MOMENT

by Adelaide Kerr

Salute the flag! So much the better if you do it in twin Army and-Navy leather gloves. Not the gold stars and matching tassels of the Navy glove—the turn-back cuff held by a gold button for the military hand. Just another illustration of fashion's adaptations of military themes.

Hold that skirt! It's a dirndl, in red with imaginative blue trim to match the sweater. The sweater idea is new—a bolero-fronted, hug-me-tight affair that displays a good neckline to advantage. Dorna Whittingham design.

Public Fails To Realize Serious Gas Situation

Reflector Bureau.
(By LYNN NISBET)
Raleigh, Aug. 21.—Enunciating a three-point program for gasoline conservation which he said was nothing but "good Scotch practice and applied common sense," T. B. Boddie, director of the Motor Vehicle Department, declared that the public does not realize the seriousness of the situation facing this country.

The three points emphasized are (1) efficiency of equipment; (2) reasonable driving speed, and (3) systematic planning of trips and merchandise delivery service. These were the matters discussed at the recent regional conference of petroleum interests at Columbia, attended by representatives from Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and Florida, and at which Dr. John A. Frey, chief of the division of markets, department of interior, represented Oil Czar Ickes. It developed at that conference that the service station curfew had not appreciably affected gas consumption. Mr. Ward believes, however, that it was and is justified by savings in electric current and labor. Since its main purpose of gasoline saving has not been fulfilled, the other plan of gasoline rationing has been adopted. Deliveries to distributors will be curtailed ten per cent, based on July business. Present plan leaves it up to the distributor fitting piston rings, clean spark plugs, quick ignition, prevention of brake dragging, correct tire inflation, frequent washing and greasing of the car.

Under the second point of speed, he most vigorously condemned what he most vigorously condemned what practice of racing the car and slamming on brakes at stop lights or intersections. Actual tests show that a car which will run 18 miles on a gallon of gas at 45 miles an hour without a stop, will give only 13 miles if three stops are made. He suggests that drivers should avoid congested areas where frequent stops are necessary, and should maintain a sensible speed at all times.

"Such practices," he said, "not only will prolong the life of the car but will also prolong the life of the driver."

Completion of the pipe line from Louisiana to Greensboro will alleviate, but not solve, the problem of gas shortage in this section. So it is a long time program that must be worked out. Voluntary response of motorists will make it easier for everybody, but the job of saving gas for defense efforts will be done by compulsion if that becomes necessary.

'JOHN' HAD TO PROVE SHE WASN'T A MAN

Greybull, Wyo.—(AP)—Mrs. Roy Hutchinson of Kent, Wash., had to make a trip to Wyoming to prove she was unqualified for army service.

When her birth certificate was made out on May 1, 1912, her name was erroneously listed as "John M. Delk, male" and it was filed at Stringtown, Wyo., where she was born.

Her mother died several years later and her father failed to detect the error.

The Wyoming selective service board came in possession of the birth certificate and they ordered "John M. Delk" to appear and explain why he hadn't registered for the draft.

That's why Mrs. Hutchinson came to Wyoming.

Found Slain In A Cemetery

Billie Grayson, 18, whose nude body was found propped against a gravestone near Chandler, Okla., is shown as she appeared in a recent portrait with her four-year old half-brother, David. She was found a few hours after a girl friend left her struggling in a car with an unidentified man. She was strangled with hands and a rope, and her neck was broken.

Sore Toe Brings Sourdough Luck
Perth, Australia.—(AP)—Annoyed because he continued to stub his toe on a jagged piece of rock on the way to his camp, Thomas Starr, a prospector in Kalgoorlie, applied his pick and shovel. On breaking the rock out of its earthly bed he noticed yellow gleams on the underside. He had the stone assayed and found that it contained gold worth $875.

BRILLIANCE TO WASTE ON THE GASLESS AIR

Dunkirk, N. Y.—(AP)—For three weeks Stephen Jozwiak, manager of a gasoline station, anxiously awaited arrival of a new electric sign to advertise his products at night.

The sign finally came—just as

Petroleum Coordinator Harold L. Ickes requested stations to close at 7 p. m.

Jozwiak sadly complied.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS AND DEBTORS

Having qualified as Executrix of the estate of Ira M. Moore, deceased, late of Pitt County, North Carolina, this is to notify all persons having claims against the estate of said deceased to exhibit them to the undersigned on or before the second day of August, 1941, or this notice will be pleaded in bar of their recovery. All persons indebted to said estate will please make immediate payment. This the 31st day of July, 1941. Arley V. Moore and Annie Louise Nobles Overton.

HOW BUSINESS MOVED LAST MONTH

 GAIN	%	NET CHANGE FROM
 LOSS		MONTH AGO	YEAR AGO
	GENERAL SPENDING	-3.8	+27.5
	STOCK MARKET	+6.2	+3.2
	INDUSTRIAL ACTIVITY	+1.5	+32.5
	RAW MATERIAL PRICES	+2.0	+23.4
	FOOD PRICES	+1.4	+23.7

PERSONAL

Beatrice—what did you tell the Sewing Circle that day? Was it about one baking powder being best for all kinds of recipes? Yes, that's what Beatrice said, and she was talking about Rumford. For with Rumford you can use any good recipe without worrying about how much baking powder to use. The amount the directions call for is the right amount to use of Rumford. Rumford contains no alum—never leaves a bitter taste. FREE—Send for new booklet, containing dozens of bright ideas to improve your baking. Address: Rumford Baking Powder, Box R Rumford, Rhode Island.

Executrix of the Estate of Ira M. Moore. Julius Brown, Atty. Aug. 1-11w-6wk.

What Is . . . ?

Enriched

Roller Champion

- A. This Enriched flour is a high grade, soft wheat flour, made from Michigan wheat, enriched with certain highly valuable vitamins and minerals.
- Q. What are these vitamins and minerals?
- A. They are Thiamin (Vitamin B1), Nicotinic acid (anti-pellagra vitamin), iron, phosphorus and calcium.
- Q. Who determined the standards by which Roller Champion flour is enriched?
- A. The United States Government.
- Q. Is there any loss in vitamin potency through baking?
- A. Yes, but the vitamins are present in sufficient quantity to provide for human requirements in anticipation of vitamin loss through baking.

ADDITIONAL VALUABLE INFORMATION WILL BE GIVEN IN A SERIES OF ADVERTISEMENTS ON

Enriched

Roller Champion

MAKING THE BEST CORN MEAL

BILBRO

Wholesale Co.

DISTRIBUTORS

Announcement!

Owing to the increased cost of operation, we, the undersigned Barber Shops of Greenville, feel that it is necessary to make a slight increase in prices for our services.

Accordingly, on and after August 25, 1941, the following prices will be in effect:

Shaves 25c
Children's Hair Cuts 35c

There will be no advance in price of other services.

We wish to express our appreciation to the public for their patronage, and respectfully solicit a continuance of same.

PROCTOR HOTEL BARBER SHOP
SANITARY BARBER SHOP
PALACE BARBER SHOP
STAR BARBER SHOP
WEST END BARBER SHOP
DE LUXE BARBER SHOP

Sale of DRESSES

—FOR—

Friday and Saturday

—ON RACKS—

CLOSE-OUT REGARDLESS OF FORMER PRICES!

$1.00 $2.00 $3.00 $3.95

CLOSE-OUT . . .

Few Coats and Suits

$4.95

WILLIAMS'

"The Ladies' Store"

AMERICA'S FAVORITE FLAVOR NOW MADE WITH CANADA DRY QUALITY?

YES..it's Spur, 6 BIG BOTTLES JUST 25¢

World famous for Quality

PERMANENT WAVES

PRICES START AT —$1.50—

"ASK THE WOMAN WHO HAS ONE!"

MRS. JOHNSON

1509 CHESTNUT STREET

Near West Greenville School

DIAL 2610

MADE UP TO KILL

by Kelley Ross

Chapter 22
More About Ashley
Carol's eyes were sparkling and for a moment she looked like any girl whose engagement was to be announced in toasts and celebration. Then the light faded from her eyes. "We can't, Steve. People would see us, they'd know."

WILSON'S Weekly RECIPES

This month, as Wilson & Co. celebrates its 25th Anniversary, nutritionists are discussing the vital role meat plays in a nation's health. But homemakers know that there is just one way to get folks to eat the meat they need—make it so good to eat, it can't be resisted. Your job of feeding your family is easier today because in the past 25 years Wilson & Co. has improved one meat after another—making each one tastier, tenderer—in short, "the meat you love to eat."

George Repton
Food Consultant
Wilson & Co.

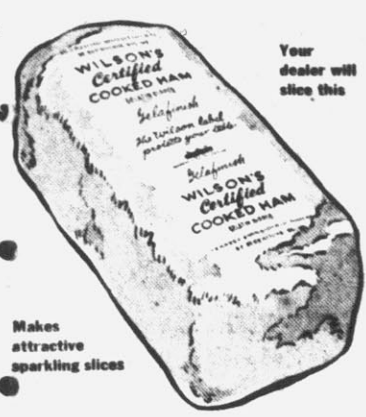

Only WILSON & CO. makes Certified Tender Made Ham the ham you cut with a fork

DELICIOUS VITAMINS
Vitamins for health, yes! But one of Wilson & Co.'s contributions to better living for America has been to make vitamins delicious. Take Wilson & Co.'s MOR, that juicy, tender, luscious, cured pork shoulder meat—one can of MOR provides enough vitamin B₁ (Thiamin) for the average daily requirements of 2 to 3 people.

SAVE-A-WIFE DINNER
Since Wilson & Co.'s highest aim has been to bring you better food and simpler cooking, why not celebrate this, their 25th Anniversary, with one of the easiest dinners you ever prepared?
Fresh Fruit Salad
MOR and Spaghetti with sauce
New York Ice Cream
Beverage

Try serving your salad first—refreshing hot-weather practice. Open one can of MOR and place in a buttered casserole. Over it pour 2 cans of prepared spaghetti. Bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) for 25 minutes.

SPARKLING GELAFINISH GLAMORIZES COLD MEAT PLATTERS
After perfecting extra-delicious boneless cooked hams, Wilson & Co. developed "Gelafinish," a pure, transparent, edible gelatin coating which brings you these choice hams with all their rich flavor and juiciness sealed in. Ask your dealer for "Wilson's Certified Cooked Ham in Gelafinish," plain or caramel. You'll enjoy its unusual tastiness as well as the sparkle it adds to your cold meat platter.
Gelafinish is another Wilson & Co. accomplishment for which you and I can congratulate them on this, their Silver Anniversary. See you next week. G. R.

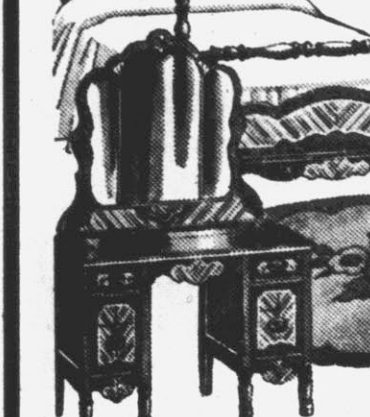

The Wilson Label protects your table

"All right, tomorrow then for dinner. Let's all meet here at five. Carol can give me, her key again and I'll sneak in and get things ready. You'll come, Jeff? And Clint?"
Jeff said he would be there in person but Clint demurred. "You young people," he started to say. "You're coming!" Steve said. "We'll have champagne and lobster thermidor and—"
"Texas hash?" Jeff asked innocently.
"Caviar," Carol pleaded.
"Absolutely! Last week Carol made an astounding discovery. Caviar!"
Jeff grimaced horribly. "Caviar! The undeveloped young of careless fish!"
Carol said, "It's wonderful!"
"I wish that fish would hide their children where they can't be found."
"Oh, be quiet!" I said. "You don't want to eat it!"
Carol went to the window and threw it open, letting the wind ruffle her hair and the lace collar of her dress. When she turned back to us she was smiling. "I feel happy again and not afraid. Just telling you about Steve and me has done it. And a party, that helps too. It makes me feel almost—normal." I thought: "She's really just a little girl. There's going to be a party, a party with caviar, and so everything is all right."
Steve followed her to the window. "If we told everyone and got married, you wouldn't need to be afraid at all. Nothing could hurt you with me around you all the time. I wouldn't let it!"
"No," Carol said, turning away. Then her eyes fell upon a crumpled newspaper. She picked it up and turned, appealing to us, thrusting the paper in our faces.
"Look! Look at that! Pictures of me all over the thing. Your family would like that. Steve. My name in headlines. The Murder Girl, that's what they're calling me now. Steve Brown weds the Murder Girl. Your family would be sure to love me. No, no, I won't have it!"
"But, Carol," Steve pleaded, his eyes begging her to listen.
Bowers cleared his throat. "I think you should marry him immediately. Carol. That's my opinion and, having given it, I'll run along. I'll stop in at your party tomorrow." "Wait, Clint. I'll go with you," Jeff said.
"Where?" I asked.
"Anywhere," he said morosely. "Steve shot my pretty theory out from under me and I've got to dig up another one. I'll call you tomorrow, Gby."

He opened the door and I saw that Crowley's reassuring figure was stationed outside it once again. When I turned back to Steve and Carol, they were sitting on the floor close by the fireplace and I mumbled a good night that neither of them heard and slipped into my bedroom. I was done in.
With a pile of pillows behind my back, I switched on the bedside lamp. "This," I thought, "is my first peaceful moment in 72 hours."
I opened the script that Vincent Parker had given me that afternoon. Skimming through the list of characters I found the one that he had marked for Carol. I turned to page 40.
Not British
Under Jeff's surveillance eye I finished the last morsel of bacon and eggs and lit a cigarette. I was thinking happily that there was nothing in the world like the first drag of the day's first cigarette when Jeff said, "You smoke too much."

"It keeps me busy," I said in defense. "I don't have a husband and a home and children to keep me occupied like other girls."
"If you stopped smoking you might. Nicotine's a drug."
"You smoke?"
"It's all right for me. I'm a drug addict."
"If you'd hurry up and solve the murder we could get married and I'd have a home and children. And a husband, too. Then I'd give up smoking."
"I'm solving the murder."
"You're sore at me, aren't you, Jeff?"
"Look, Haila. Today's Thursday. Monday night the murderer strikes at Carol and misses. Tuesday night murderer re-strikes, re-misses, gets Eve North instead. Wednesday I don't catch culprit. Today's Thursday. You give me hell, wax sarcastic. Gwan back to bed."
"I'm sorry, Jeff. And I was. Forgive me?"
"No. It's a lucky thing for you we're being joined." He shouted across the restaurant, "Won't you join us, Tommy?"
I looked up and saw Tommy Neilson approaching us. He dragged a chair from another table to ours and sat down heavily. He had been job hunting and there didn't seem to be any producers who wanted any stage managers.
"The theater is dead," Tommy grumbled. "I wish I were."
"Why don't you go see Vincent Parker, Tommy?" I suggested. "He's doing a play."
"He's got a stage manager. Bobby Reed. The rat!"
A waitress appeared and took Tommy's order. I asked for more coffee. When the girl had gone I said to Tommy: "You can act. I've a copy of Parker's play, and the cast is enormous. There might be something in it for you."
"Now. How could I get a part in New York anyway? I'm not an Englishman."
I laughed. That was the first attempt at a wisecrack I had heard Tommy make in weeks. Jeff didn't get it and Tommy tried to explain. "There are more English actors working in New York than there are Americans. But then of course I'm not even an American. I was born in Brooklyn."
"What d'ya mean more English actors?" Jeff stuck his chin out. He loved to argue on subjects he knew least about. "What English actors?"
"Shall I name you just a few?" Tommy asked, smiling.
"Yeah, Who besides Evans?"
"And Philip Ashley and half a hundred more," I said.
"Philip Ashley isn't English."
"My coffee cup clattered in the saucer as I set it down and stared at Tommy. Jeff was almost out of his chair.
"What's the matter with you two?"
Jeff's voice was sharp with excitement. "Did you say Ashley isn't English?"
"Yes. He isn't."
"How do you know?"
"One of the old-timers at the Lamb's Club told me. Ten or twelve years ago Ashley went to Toronto for a season of stock. When he came back he was English. And he worked steadily ever since. New York loves English actors."

Off Again
I was astounded. To me Philip Ashley had always been the very spirit of Trafalgar Square or Piccadilly or whatever it is that is all British and a yard wide.
"Where was Ashley born?"
"Salt Lake City."
Both our cups clattered into our saucers that time. Jeff's hand closed over mine. "Are you sure Tommy?"
"Positive. Some of us were going to expose him once just for the fun of it, but we decided it would not be so funny to him. We found out then that he was born and bred in good old Salt Lake City, U. S. A."
"C'mon, Haila." Jeff scooped up my purse and gloves and hustled me out to the sidewalk. Through the window Tommy stared at us open mouthed.

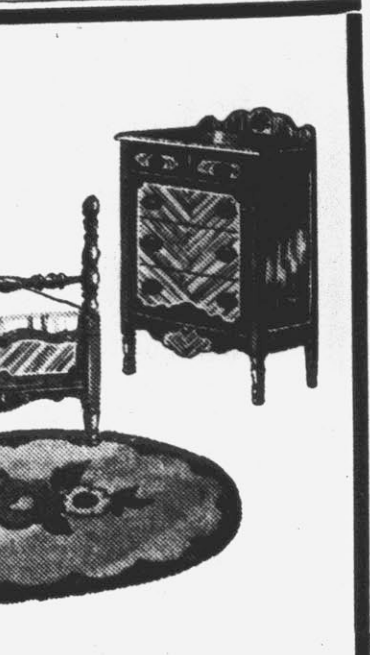

SPECIAL PRICES - SPECIAL TERMS
For A Limited Time Only!
3-PIECE BEDROOM SUITE
(as illustrated)
$49.50
Terms: $10.00 Down — $1.00 Per Week
Home Furniture Store
Dickinson Ave. at 8th St. Dial 2879

"Jeff, why—"
"Why do you think I yanked you out of there?"
"To stick Tommy with the check. Pretty clever."
He rushed back, slipped a bill into the cashier's cage and was beside me again. "Where does Ashley live?"
"Downtown someplace. I think." I had to almost run to keep up with him. He ducked into a drugstore on the corner and leafed through the telephone book. Ashley lived in the Village, on Perry street. I followed Jeff out. "Are we going to see Ashley? Listen, Speedy, maybe he won't even be home. We can talk to Carol. She'll tell us if she knew him in Salt Lake City."
"I'd rather talk to Ashley."
We took a Lexington Local to Grand Central, shuttled to Times Square and got on a Seventh Avenue Express. Jeff seemed to have forgotten I was with him. I poked him with my elbow. "Don't forget to ask him about those pills in his dressing room and what he was doing in Radio City."
"You ask him."
"All right, I will."

We got off at Fourteenth Street and walked south to Perry. Ashley's house was an old four-story brownstone with a brave little fringe of evergreen bushes struggling up between it and the sidewalk, and some brownish ivy limply from boxes at the windows of the first three floors.
We climbed the front steps and Jeff pushed the button under Philip Ashley's engraved card and waited. The door opened and a woman with auburn hair and a black dress looked at us. "What do you want?"
"I'm Tommy Neilson," I said. "I'm a stage manager. Bobby Reed. The rat!"
A waitress appeared and took Tommy's order. I asked for more coffee. When the girl had gone I said to Tommy: "You can act. I've a copy of Parker's play, and the cast is enormous. There might be something in it for you."
"Now. How could I get a part in New York anyway? I'm not an Englishman."
I laughed. That was the first attempt at a wisecrack I had heard Tommy make in weeks. Jeff didn't get it and Tommy tried to explain. "There are more English actors working in New York than there are Americans. But then of course I'm not even an American. I was born in Brooklyn."
"What d'ya mean more English actors?" Jeff stuck his chin out. He loved to argue on subjects he knew least about. "What English actors?"
"Shall I name you just a few?" Tommy asked, smiling.
"Yeah, Who besides Evans?"
"And Philip Ashley and half a hundred more," I said.
"Philip Ashley isn't English."
"My coffee cup clattered in the saucer as I set it down and stared at Tommy. Jeff was almost out of his chair.
"What's the matter with you two?"
Jeff's voice was sharp with excitement. "Did you say Ashley isn't English?"
"Yes. He isn't."
"How do you know?"
"One of the old-timers at the Lamb's Club told me. Ten or twelve years ago Ashley went to Toronto for a season of stock. When he came back he was English. And he worked steadily ever since. New York loves English actors."

Off Again
I was astounded. To me Philip Ashley had always been the very spirit of Trafalgar Square or Piccadilly or whatever it is that is all British and a yard wide.
"Where was Ashley born?"
"Salt Lake City."
Both our cups clattered into our saucers that time. Jeff's hand closed over mine. "Are you sure Tommy?"
"Positive. Some of us were going to expose him once just for the fun of it, but we decided it would not be so funny to him. We found out then that he was born and bred in good old Salt Lake City, U. S. A."
"C'mon, Haila." Jeff scooped up my purse and gloves and hustled me out to the sidewalk. Through the window Tommy stared at us open mouthed.

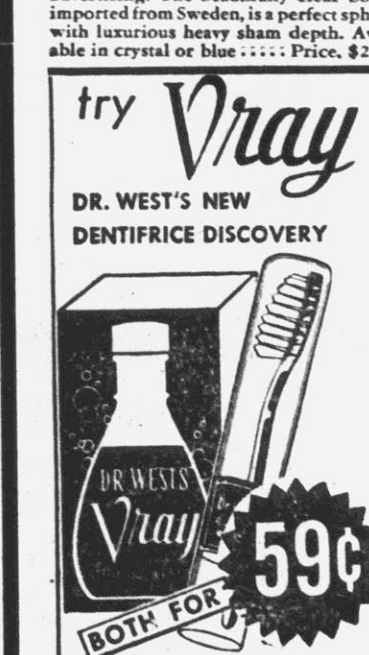

SPECIAL PRICES - SPECIAL TERMS
For A Limited Time Only!
3-PIECE BEDROOM SUITE
(as illustrated)
$49.50
Terms: $10.00 Down — $1.00 Per Week
Home Furniture Store
Dickinson Ave. at 8th St. Dial 2879

"Jeff, why—"
"Why do you think I yanked you out of there?"
"To stick Tommy with the check. Pretty clever."
He rushed back, slipped a bill into the cashier's cage and was beside me again. "Where does Ashley live?"
"Downtown someplace. I think." I had to almost run to keep up with him. He ducked into a drugstore on the corner and leafed through the telephone book. Ashley lived in the Village, on Perry street. I followed Jeff out. "Are we going to see Ashley? Listen, Speedy, maybe he won't even be home. We can talk to Carol. She'll tell us if she knew him in Salt Lake City."
"I'd rather talk to Ashley."
We took a Lexington Local to Grand Central, shuttled to Times Square and got on a Seventh Avenue Express. Jeff seemed to have forgotten I was with him. I poked him with my elbow. "Don't forget to ask him about those pills in his dressing room and what he was doing in Radio City."
"You ask him."
"All right, I will."

We got off at Fourteenth Street and walked south to Perry. Ashley's house was an old four-story brownstone with a brave little fringe of evergreen bushes struggling up between it and the sidewalk, and some brownish ivy limply from boxes at the windows of the first three floors.
We climbed the front steps and Jeff pushed the button under Philip Ashley's engraved card and waited. The door opened and a woman with auburn hair and a black dress looked at us. "What do you want?"
"I'm Tommy Neilson," I said. "I'm a stage manager. Bobby Reed. The rat!"
A waitress appeared and took Tommy's order. I asked for more coffee. When the girl had gone I said to Tommy: "You can act. I've a copy of Parker's play, and the cast is enormous. There might be something in it for you."
"Now. How could I get a part in New York anyway? I'm not an Englishman."
I laughed. That was the first attempt at a wisecrack I had heard Tommy make in weeks. Jeff didn't get it and Tommy tried to explain. "There are more English actors working in New York than there are Americans. But then of course I'm not even an American. I was born in Brooklyn."
"What d'ya mean more English actors?" Jeff stuck his chin out. He loved to argue on subjects he knew least about. "What English actors?"
"Shall I name you just a few?" Tommy asked, smiling.
"Yeah, Who besides Evans?"
"And Philip Ashley and half a hundred more," I said.
"Philip Ashley isn't English."
"My coffee cup clattered in the saucer as I set it down and stared at Tommy. Jeff was almost out of his chair.
"What's the matter with you two?"
Jeff's voice was sharp with excitement. "Did you say Ashley isn't English?"
"Yes. He isn't."
"How do you know?"
"One of the old-timers at the Lamb's Club told me. Ten or twelve years ago Ashley went to Toronto for a season of stock. When he came back he was English. And he worked steadily ever since. New York loves English actors."

Off Again
I was astounded. To me Philip Ashley had always been the very spirit of Trafalgar Square or Piccadilly or whatever it is that is all British and a yard wide.
"Where was Ashley born?"
"Salt Lake City."
Both our cups clattered into our saucers that time. Jeff's hand closed over mine. "Are you sure Tommy?"
"Positive. Some of us were going to expose him once just for the fun of it, but we decided it would not be so funny to him. We found out then that he was born and bred in good old Salt Lake City, U. S. A."
"C'mon, Haila." Jeff scooped up my purse and gloves and hustled me out to the sidewalk. Through the window Tommy stared at us open mouthed.

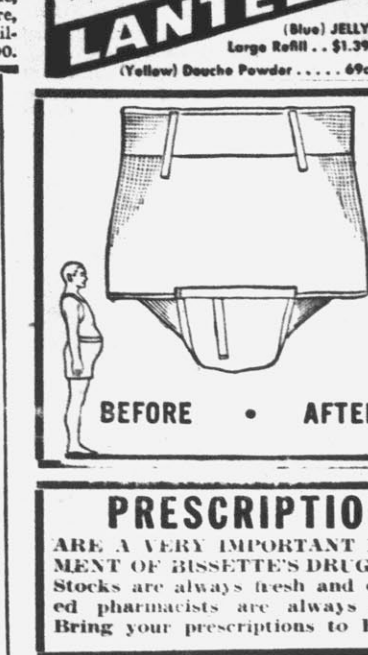

SPECIAL PRICES - SPECIAL TERMS
For A Limited Time Only!
3-PIECE BEDROOM SUITE
(as illustrated)
$49.50
Terms: $10.00 Down — $1.00 Per Week
Home Furniture Store
Dickinson Ave. at 8th St. Dial 2879

"Jeff, why—"
"Why do you think I yanked you out of there?"
"To stick Tommy with the check. Pretty clever."
He rushed back, slipped a bill into the cashier's cage and was beside me again. "Where does Ashley live?"
"Downtown someplace. I think." I had to almost run to keep up with him. He ducked into a drugstore on the corner and leafed through the telephone book. Ashley lived in the Village, on Perry street. I followed Jeff out. "Are we going to see Ashley? Listen, Speedy, maybe he won't even be home. We can talk to Carol. She'll tell us if she knew him in Salt Lake City."
"I'd rather talk to Ashley."
We took a Lexington Local to Grand Central, shuttled to Times Square and got on a Seventh Avenue Express. Jeff seemed to have forgotten I was with him. I poked him with my elbow. "Don't forget to ask him about those pills in his dressing room and what he was doing in Radio City."
"You ask him."
"All right, I will."

We got off at Fourteenth Street and walked south to Perry. Ashley's house was an old four-story brownstone with a brave little fringe of evergreen bushes struggling up between it and the sidewalk, and some brownish ivy limply from boxes at the windows of the first three floors.
We climbed the front steps and Jeff pushed the button under Philip Ashley's engraved card and waited. The door opened and a woman with auburn hair and a black dress looked at us. "What do you want?"
"I'm Tommy Neilson," I said. "I'm a stage manager. Bobby Reed. The rat!"
A waitress appeared and took Tommy's order. I asked for more coffee. When the girl had gone I said to Tommy: "You can act. I've a copy of Parker's play, and the cast is enormous. There might be something in it for you."
"Now. How could I get a part in New York anyway? I'm not an Englishman."
I laughed. That was the first attempt at a wisecrack I had heard Tommy make in weeks. Jeff didn't get it and Tommy tried to explain. "There are more English actors working in New York than there are Americans. But then of course I'm not even an American. I was born in Brooklyn."
"What d'ya mean more English actors?" Jeff stuck his chin out. He loved to argue on subjects he knew least about. "What English actors?"
"Shall I name you just a few?" Tommy asked, smiling.
"Yeah, Who besides Evans?"
"And Philip Ashley and half a hundred more," I said.
"Philip Ashley isn't English."
"My coffee cup clattered in the saucer as I set it down and stared at Tommy. Jeff was almost out of his chair.
"What's the matter with you two?"
Jeff's voice was sharp with excitement. "Did you say Ashley isn't English?"
"Yes. He isn't."
"How do you know?"
"One of the old-timers at the Lamb's Club told me. Ten or twelve years ago Ashley went to Toronto for a season of stock. When he came back he was English. And he worked steadily ever since. New York loves English actors."

Off Again
I was astounded. To me Philip Ashley had always been the very spirit of Trafalgar Square or Piccadilly or whatever it is that is all British and a yard wide.
"Where was Ashley born?"
"Salt Lake City."
Both our cups clattered into our saucers that time. Jeff's hand closed over mine. "Are you sure Tommy?"
"Positive. Some of us were going to expose him once just for the fun of it, but we decided it would not be so funny to him. We found out then that he was born and bred in good old Salt Lake City, U. S. A."
"C'mon, Haila." Jeff scooped up my purse and gloves and hustled me out to the sidewalk. Through the window Tommy stared at us open mouthed.

SPECIAL PRICES - SPECIAL TERMS
For A Limited Time Only!
3-PIECE BEDROOM SUITE
(as illustrated)
$49.50
Terms: $10.00 Down — $1.00 Per Week
Home Furniture Store
Dickinson Ave. at 8th St. Dial 2879

"Jeff, why—"
"Why do you think I yanked you out of there?"
"To stick Tommy with the check. Pretty clever."
He rushed back, slipped a bill into the cashier's cage and was beside me again. "Where does Ashley live?"
"Downtown someplace. I think." I had to almost run to keep up with him. He ducked into a drugstore on the corner and leafed through the telephone book. Ashley lived in the Village, on Perry street. I followed Jeff out. "Are we going to see Ashley? Listen, Speedy, maybe he won't even be home. We can talk to Carol. She'll tell us if she knew him in Salt Lake City."
"I'd rather talk to Ashley."
We took a Lexington Local to Grand Central, shuttled to Times Square and got on a Seventh Avenue Express. Jeff seemed to have forgotten I was with him. I poked him with my elbow. "Don't forget to ask him about those pills in his dressing room and what he was doing in Radio City."
"You ask him."
"All right, I will."

We got off at Fourteenth Street and walked south to Perry. Ashley's house was an old four-story brownstone with a brave little fringe of evergreen bushes struggling up between it and the sidewalk, and some brownish ivy limply from boxes at the windows of the first three floors.
We climbed the front steps and Jeff pushed the button under Philip Ashley's engraved card and waited. The door opened and a woman with auburn hair and a black dress looked at us. "What do you want?"
"I'm Tommy Neilson," I said. "I'm a stage manager. Bobby Reed. The rat!"
A waitress appeared and took Tommy's order. I asked for more coffee. When the girl had gone I said to Tommy: "You can act. I've a copy of Parker's play, and the cast is enormous. There might be something in it for you."
"Now. How could I get a part in New York anyway? I'm not an Englishman."
I laughed. That was the first attempt at a wisecrack I had heard Tommy make in weeks. Jeff didn't get it and Tommy tried to explain. "There are more English actors working in New York than there are Americans. But then of course I'm not even an American. I was born in Brooklyn."
"What d'ya mean more English actors?" Jeff stuck his chin out. He loved to argue on subjects he knew least about. "What English actors?"
"Shall I name you just a few?" Tommy asked, smiling.
"Yeah, Who besides Evans?"
"And Philip Ashley and half a hundred more," I said.
"Philip Ashley isn't English."
"My coffee cup clattered in the saucer as I set it down and stared at Tommy. Jeff was almost out of his chair.
"What's the matter with you two?"
Jeff's voice was sharp with excitement. "Did you say Ashley isn't English?"
"Yes. He isn't."
"How do you know?"
"One of the old-timers at the Lamb's Club told me. Ten or twelve years ago Ashley went to Toronto for a season of stock. When he came back he was English. And he worked steadily ever since. New York loves English actors."

Off Again
I was astounded. To me Philip Ashley had always been the very spirit of Trafalgar Square or Piccadilly or whatever it is that is all British and a yard wide.
"Where was Ashley born?"
"Salt Lake City."
Both our cups clattered into our saucers that time. Jeff's hand closed over mine. "Are you sure Tommy?"
"Positive. Some of us were going to expose him once just for the fun of it, but we decided it would not be so funny to him. We found out then that he was born and bred in good old Salt Lake City, U. S. A."
"C'mon, Haila." Jeff scooped up my purse and gloves and hustled me out to the sidewalk. Through the window Tommy stared at us open mouthed.

SPECIAL PRICES - SPECIAL TERMS
For A Limited Time Only!
3-PIECE BEDROOM SUITE
(as illustrated)
$49.50
Terms: $10.00 Down — $1.00 Per Week
Home Furniture Store
Dickinson Ave. at 8th St. Dial 2879

"Jeff, why—"
"Why do you think I yanked you out of there?"
"To stick Tommy with the check. Pretty clever."
He rushed back, slipped a bill into the cashier's cage and was beside me again. "Where does Ashley live?"
"Downtown someplace. I think." I had to almost run to keep up with him. He ducked into a drugstore on the corner and leafed through the telephone book. Ashley lived in the Village, on Perry street. I followed Jeff out. "Are we going to see Ashley? Listen, Speedy, maybe he won't even be home. We can talk to Carol. She'll tell us if she knew him in Salt Lake City."
"I'd rather talk to Ashley."
We took a Lexington Local to Grand Central, shuttled to Times Square and got on a Seventh Avenue Express. Jeff seemed to have forgotten I was with him. I poked him with my elbow. "Don't forget to ask him about those pills in his dressing room and what he was doing in Radio City."
"You ask him."
"All right, I will."

We got off at Fourteenth Street and walked south to Perry. Ashley's house was an old four-story brownstone with a brave little fringe of evergreen bushes struggling up between it and the sidewalk, and some brownish ivy limply from boxes at the windows of the first three floors.
We climbed the front steps and Jeff pushed the button under Philip Ashley's engraved card and waited. The door opened and a woman with auburn hair and a black dress looked at us. "What do you want?"
"I'm Tommy Neilson," I said. "I'm a stage manager. Bobby Reed. The rat!"
A waitress appeared and took Tommy's order. I asked for more coffee. When the girl had gone I said to Tommy: "You can act. I've a copy of Parker's play, and the cast is enormous. There might be something in it for you."
"Now. How could I get a part in New York anyway? I'm not an Englishman."
I laughed. That was the first attempt at a wisecrack I had heard Tommy make in weeks. Jeff didn't get it and Tommy tried to explain. "There are more English actors working in New York than there are Americans. But then of course I'm not even an American. I was born in Brooklyn."
"What d'ya mean more English actors?" Jeff stuck his chin out. He loved to argue on subjects he knew least about. "What English actors?"
"Shall I name you just a few?" Tommy asked, smiling.
"Yeah, Who besides Evans?"
"And Philip Ashley and half a hundred more," I said.
"Philip Ashley isn't English."
"My coffee cup clattered in the saucer as I set it down and stared at Tommy. Jeff was almost out of his chair.
"What's the matter with you two?"
Jeff's voice was sharp with excitement. "Did you say Ashley isn't English?"
"Yes. He isn't."
"How do you know?"
"One of the old-timers at the Lamb's Club told me. Ten or twelve years ago Ashley went to Toronto for a season of stock. When he came back he was English. And he worked steadily ever since. New York loves English actors."

Off Again
I was astounded. To me Philip Ashley had always been the very spirit of Trafalgar Square or Piccadilly or whatever it is that is all British and a yard wide.
"Where was Ashley born?"
"Salt Lake City."
Both our cups clattered into our saucers that time. Jeff's hand closed over mine. "Are you sure Tommy?"
"Positive. Some of us were going to expose him once just for the fun of it, but we decided it would not be so funny to him. We found out then that he was born and bred in good old Salt Lake City, U. S. A."
"C'mon, Haila." Jeff scooped up my purse and gloves and hustled me out to the sidewalk. Through the window Tommy stared at us open mouthed.

SPECIAL PRICES - SPECIAL TERMS
For A Limited Time Only!
3-PIECE BEDROOM SUITE
(as illustrated)
$49.50
Terms: $10.00 Down — $1.00 Per Week
Home Furniture Store
Dickinson Ave. at 8th St. Dial 2879

"Jeff, why—"
"Why do you think I yanked you out of there?"
"To stick Tommy with the check. Pretty clever."
He rushed back, slipped a bill into the cashier's cage and was beside me again. "Where does Ashley live?"
"Downtown someplace. I think." I had to almost run to keep up with him. He ducked into a drugstore on the corner and leafed through the telephone book. Ashley lived in the Village, on Perry street. I followed Jeff out. "Are we going to see Ashley? Listen, Speedy, maybe he won't even be home. We can talk to Carol. She'll tell us if she knew him in Salt Lake City."
"I'd rather talk to Ashley."
We took a Lexington Local to Grand Central, shuttled to Times Square and got on a Seventh Avenue Express. Jeff seemed to have forgotten I was with him. I poked him with my elbow. "Don't forget to ask him about those pills in his dressing room and what he was doing in Radio City."
"You ask him."
"All right, I will."

We got off at Fourteenth Street and walked south to Perry. Ashley's house was an old four-story brownstone with a brave little fringe of evergreen bushes struggling up between it and the sidewalk, and some brownish ivy limply from boxes at the windows of the first three floors.
We climbed the front steps and Jeff pushed the button under Philip Ashley's engraved card and waited. The door opened and a woman with auburn hair and a black dress looked at us. "What do you want?"
"I'm Tommy Neilson," I said. "I'm a stage manager. Bobby Reed. The rat!"
A waitress appeared and took Tommy's order. I asked for more coffee. When the girl had gone I said to Tommy: "You can act. I've a copy of Parker's play, and the cast is enormous. There might be something in it for you."
"Now. How could I get a part in New York anyway? I'm not an Englishman."
I laughed. That was the first attempt at a wisecrack I had heard Tommy make in weeks. Jeff didn't get it and Tommy tried to explain. "There are more English actors working in New York than there are Americans. But then of course I'm not even an American. I was born in Brooklyn."
"What d'ya mean more English actors?" Jeff stuck his chin out. He loved to argue on subjects he knew least about. "What English actors?"
"Shall I name you just a few?" Tommy asked, smiling.
"Yeah, Who besides Evans?"
"And Philip Ashley and half a hundred more," I said.
"Philip Ashley isn't English."
"My coffee cup clattered in the saucer as I set it down and stared at Tommy. Jeff was almost out of his chair.
"What's the matter with you two?"
Jeff's voice was sharp with excitement. "Did you say Ashley isn't English?"
"Yes. He isn't."
"How do you know?"
"One of the old-timers at the Lamb's Club told me. Ten or twelve years ago Ashley went to Toronto for a season of stock. When he came back he was English. And he worked steadily ever since. New York loves English actors."

Off Again
I was astounded. To me Philip Ashley had always been the very spirit of Trafalgar Square or Piccadilly or whatever it is that is all British and a yard wide.
"Where was Ashley born?"
"Salt Lake City."
Both our cups clattered into our saucers that time. Jeff's hand closed over mine. "Are you sure Tommy?"
"Positive. Some of us were going to expose him once just for the fun of it, but we decided it would not be so funny to him. We found out then that he was born and bred in good old Salt Lake City, U. S. A."
"C'mon, Haila." Jeff scooped up my purse and gloves and hustled me out to the sidewalk. Through the window Tommy stared at us open mouthed.

SPECIAL PRICES - SPECIAL TERMS
For A Limited Time Only!
3-PIECE BEDROOM SUITE
(as illustrated)
$49.50
Terms: $10.00 Down — $1.00 Per Week
Home Furniture Store
Dickinson Ave. at 8th St. Dial 2879

Colored News

Negro Baptist Camp Set For Grimesland

The Baptist Youth Congress of the Old Eastern Missionary Baptist Association is sponsoring a religious training camp to be held at the Pitt County Training school in Grimesland, August 26, 27 and 28. This camp is sponsored for the members of this organization which is composed of eight churches covering Pitt and Beaufort counties.

Registration will begin on Monday, August 25, at 4 p. m. (EDT). The formal opening will take place Monday evening at 8:15. D. H. Conly, superintendent of the Pitt county schools will be the main speaker. Dr. Baughn, professor of English at East Carolina Teachers College, will be guest speaker for the evening of August 26. On August 27 the camp will have as its guest speaker W. R. Roberson, manager of the Dr. Pepper Bottling Co. of Washington. All the main speakers will appear on the evening program at 8:15 p. m. (EST).

The camp will be favored with a number of doctors, nurses, teachers and ministers who will assist in the training of these Baptist youths mainly from the two counties. The following is a course of study and the persons who will assist in teaching:

Baptist History: 1. Early Development of the Church, taught by Rev. J. E. Tillett; 2. Organization of the Present Church, by Rev. O. L. Sherrill; 3. Baptists at Work, by Rev. J. A. Nimmo.

The Life of Christ: 1. Biography, by Mrs. O. A. Dupree; 2. His Life Standard of Perfection, by Rev. O. J. Rooks; 3. My Own Self, Like Christ, at My Very Best, All the Time, by O. A. Dupree.

Group Participation: 1. Introduction, by Mrs. Olga Myers; 2. Decorum in Local Councils, by Mrs. Thelma Moore; 3. Decorum in Baptist Youth Congress, by C. H. McGlone.

Religious Leadership: 1. Earnings of a Leader-Attitude, by Prof. P. S. Jones; 2. Parliamentary Usage, by J. B. Taft; 3. Determining Successful Leadership, by O. A. Dupree.

Health Education: 1. Social Diseases, by Dr. M. D. Lloyd; 2. Sex Education to Boys, by Dr. Capehart; to Girls, by Nurse Cardice; 3. Dental Care, by Dr. H. N. Dowdy.

Arts and Handicraft: Courses will be taught by Mrs. Nora Dowdy, Mrs. O. L. Sherrill, Mrs. E. B. Graves, Mrs. O. A. Dupree, Mrs. Madge Barnes, Mrs. Thelma Moore, Travis Allen, Mrs. Bertha Reeves and others.

Happy Relief From Painful Backache

Many of those gnawing, nagging, painful backaches people blame on colds or strains are often caused by tired kidneys — and may be relieved when treated in the right way. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking excess acids and poisonous waste out of the blood.

If 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters don't work well, poisonous waste matter stays in the blood. These poisons may start nagging backaches, rheumatic pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your doctor for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from the blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Music: Courses will be taught by Hugh M. Jenkins, Mrs. Mildred Thompson and Prof. H. C. Barnhill. Recreation: The following people will assist in the recreational activities: Mrs. Belle Atkinson, Mrs. Mary Louise Butler, Mrs. E. B. Graves, Mrs. Addie Spence, Miss Christine Clark, Miss Evelyn Jones, Miss Carrie Venters and others.

General Theme of the camp: "My Own Self, Like Christ, at My Very Best All the Time."

This organization was organized in November, 1940 at the Spring Garden Baptist church in Washington, with O. A. Dupree as president. Rev. J. A. Nimmo was elected as general advisor. Rev. O. James Grimesland, August 26, 27 and 28. This camp is sponsored for the members of this organization which is composed of eight churches covering Pitt and Beaufort counties.

Registration will begin on Monday, August 25, at 4 p. m. (EDT). The formal

The Daily Reflector

Every Afternoon Except Sunday
Established 1882
DAVID J. WELCHARD, Jr.
Owner and Publisher
DML 3354

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as second class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
(Payable in Advance)
One Year $5.00
Six Months $2.50
Three Months $1.25
One Month50
One Week10

Subscriptions will be discontinued at expiration of time paid.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatched credited to it or not otherwise credited, to this paper and also the local news published herein. All right of publication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
Thomas P. Clark Co. Inc., New York, Chicago, Indianapolis, Philadelphia, Kansas City, Richmond

Strength For The Day

By EARL L. DOUGLASS

"YONDER IS THE ENEMY"

On the eve of the battle of Trafalgar, Lord Nelson discovered that a Spanish ship had taken place between Admiral Collingwood and his captain. Sending for the captain, whose name happened to be Rotherham, Nelson led the captain up to the Admiral and said, "Look! Yonder is the enemy. You two men shake hands like Englishmen."

The pages of history, both sacred and secular, are darkened with the accounts of how those who should have been allies quarreled with each other and so fell victims of a common enemy. Sometimes party feeling within a nation will become so great that the adherents of one party or the other will work for the destruction of their domestic enemies, and thus lay the country open to the ravages of a foreign foe. In ecclesiastical circles this disposition has become notorious.
Churchmen have often been guilty of fighting each other so ferociously that the devil is able to take advantage of these circumstances to extend his evil domination.

There are enough men of faith worshipping the same God and believing in the same great religious truths to turn this world from a place of hellish strife into an industrious and happy world, were it not for the fact that they allow themselves to neglect the menace of a common enemy and fly at each others' throats over issues not worth fighting for.

We need some one to say to us as Lord Nelson said to Collingwood and Rotherham, "Yonder is the enemy."

All Rights Reserved—
Babson Newspaper Syndicate

WHAT RETAILING HAS DONE

(Industrial News Review)
The Retailers Advisory Committee observes that upward price trends in consumer goods in recent weeks have largely resulted from higher production cost factors that need not run into an inflationary spiral. The Committee then reviews its efforts of the past year to keep prices down, and emphasizes the following activities:

It has encouraged merchants to question the fairness of every price increase and to insist on knowing whether cost factors justify it.

It has discouraged speculation in consumer goods by both merchants and consumers.

It has prevented scare advertising that would have encouraged hysterical buying.

It has urged the continuance of established price policies, and has advocated the averaging of the price of new goods with old.

Needless to say, this Committee has been given the full cooperation of the principal retail groups, chain and independent alike, in this country. As soon as war effects began to be felt, retail industry went to work on the new problems produced. It established a definite program for combating price inflation to the limit of its powers. It established

Communiques

IT'S ALL OVER!
THE SOVIET ARMY HAS BEEN WIPED OUT AT MINSK!

JULY 1

IT'S ALL OVER!
THE STALIN LINE HAS BEEN SMASHED!

JULY 13

IT'S ALL OVER!
THE ROAD TO MOSCOW IS WIDE OPEN!

JULY 20

IT'S ALL OVER!
THE RUSSIAN ARMY
OF 4,000,000 HAS BEEN ANNIHILATED!

AUG. 5

IT'S ALL OVER!
THE RUSSIAN
ARMY HAS BEEN DEFEATED

AUG. 10

IT'S ALL OVER!
THE —

AUG. 10

DON'T TELL ME—
LET ME GUESS

new standards of economy and efficiency. In many instances, it voluntarily reduced its own modest profits in the consumer's interest.

What this has meant to the American people cannot be detailed in figures. It has helped maintain the living standards of millions of families. It has put a check on an inflationary trend that, allowed to go free, would soon get out of hand. It has been of the utmost assistance to government and other industry in the hard and necessary fight to keep prices at the lowest levels consistent with the times.

Washington Daybook

By Jack Stinson

Washington.—The "airmail for Punkin Center," as Rep. Jennings Randolph of West Virginia, the legislative daddy of it, calls the air-mail pick-up system, is celebrating its first birthday.

It is just a year ago that I wrote in these columns about how the Postoffice Department was going to take the airmail to the whistle stops, with on-the-wing pick-up and delivery to 109 hamlets in New York, Pennsylvania, West Virginia,
Ohio, Kentucky and Delaware.

It was, said postoffice officials, purely and experiment, but the results of that experiment are not prop-wash. According to Representative Randolph, in that one year's time, the new airmail service has reached the point where it can be considered self-sustaining insofar as its direct cost to the government is concerned.

The service, at present in the hands of All-American Aviation Inc., of Wilmington, Del., flew 693,727 miles—making 32,000 pickups and deliveries, without losing a single piece of mail or express and without any serious flying accident. The flying schedules were maintained at 92 per cent of schedule.

But that's just the service record and wouldn't mean a thing if the folks all along the line didn't care two whoops for patronizing direct airmail service. So let's get down to cases.

Jump Of 62 Per Cent
A year ago, Greenville, W. V., population 588, the smallest town on the circuit, was sending about 200 pieces of airmail a month. Today according to the latest check, Glenville is dispatching an average of 791 pieces a month. Belington, W.
Va., another of the smaller towns jumped from an average of only 26 pieces a month to 306. Jamestown, N. Y., with a population of 42,502, increased from 4,080 pieces monthly to 10,328.

All in all, the 109 cities increased their use of airmail 62 per cent, going from 157,000 pieces monthly to 254,000. It looks like the folks back home think the idea is all right.

police, 80 feet apart. Given good weather, it's no trick at all; but gliding out of a murky 200 foot ceiling, with sighting your objective and heading for it a matter of seconds, is something else again. Undoubtedly, some of the pony express boys, were they still around would rather have Indians.

Night Flying Next

The next big step in the pickup business is going to be night flying which will permit 24-hour schedules. Night pickups have been impossible so far, but equipment already has been developed to make it as simple as the day-light run.

Just what Congress is going to do about all this isn't certain yet.
The report has just been made public and the pressure of national defense affairs has been too great to jump into what is almost certain to develop into a big scrap between feeder airline companies.

Two things seem pretty definite.
(1) The "experiment" won't be abandoned, being as successful as it is; and (2) the communities in the six eastern states can't go on long with this special privilege without a howl from other sections.
Maybe there really is something to Congressman Randolph's prediction that within five years, the "Pumpkin Center airmail" will be serving 2,500 communities in these United States.

Short Shots

By LYNN NISBET

Raleigh, August 21.—The man with an automobile is already paying his full share of the defense effort cost, and imposition of any additional gasoline tax by the federal government would not be fair, according to Boddie Ward, commissioner of the Motor Vehicles Department of North Carolina. "The federal tax of one and a half cents on top of the state tax of six and a quarter cents, making seven and three quarters in all, is plenty. I would hate very much to see any further increase."

Can Stay Warm This Winter.

Something may happen later to change the picture, but right now the family with an oil heating system doesn't have a lot to worry about. The current rationing and curtailment of gasoline consumption hasn't affected the fuel oil supply. The matter has been discussed, but according to most reliable information, present plans do not call for any rationing or curtailment in the kind of oil used in domestic furnaces or in industrial power plants.

No Test After All.

Motor Vehicles Commissioner
Ward was talking about reducing speed of automobiles as a means of saving gas. He was asked if the 20-mile maximum speed limit ordinance for the eight counties embraced in army maneuvers operations this fall would furnish a sort of "laboratory test" to prove his theory. He declared it would not, because of the probable frequency of stopping and starting. So it looks like we'll just have to take the engineers' word for it, that reasonable speed will save gas.

Lots Of Firsts.

While the advertising agency handling North Carolina publicity and one of the great railroad systems of the country are arguing about use of the phrase "See the First of America First," the folks down on Roanoke Island, where the "first" really happened, are going blithely ahead with plans for dedicating a site for a memorial of Reginald Fessenden, who is claimed to have been the "first" pioneer in Radio and wireless telephone. Fessenden was carrying on his experiments on the island while the

Crossword Puzzle

ACROSS
1. Entrance to a room
2. Backward-pointing
3. Sack
4. Press
5. Exchange premium
6. Away: Scotch
7. Kind of meat
8. Motherless calf
9. Express in words
10. Sea eagle
11. Leave
12. Cook with dry heat
13. About
14. Revolving cylinder
15. Thick and sticky
16. Encountered
17. Death notice
18. Raised to the third power
19. Near
20. Gaelic sea god
21. Wheeled vehicle
22. Attempt
23. Conjunction
24. Assessment
25. Musical
26. Profound
27. Transgression
28. Go over again
29. Strip of light wood
30. Institute legal proceedings
31. Lifeline
32. Musical instrument
33. Alet
34. Inlet of the sea
35. Pale
36. Epic poem
37. Debatable
38. Compass point
39. Narrow road

DOWN
1. Call
2. Metal-bearing compound
3. S-shaped molding
4. Bend
5. Ill-behaved
6. Excited with anticipation
7. Severity
8. Flaming
9. Kind of rock
10. Not sleeping
11. Mermaid
12. Greek island
13. Drained
14. Molding convex
15. Threaddike
16. Tissue
17. European coin
18. Sign
19. Title of a knight
20. Sweet substance
21. Tree trunks
22. Asiatic palm
23. Representative
24. Diminish
25. Herbage
26. Visionary
27. Pitted
28. Vat
29. Arbor
30. Humble
31. Prickly pear
32. Not any
33. Fine gong
34. Spite
35. Stitch
36. Full of suffix
37. Spread to dry

AYE SLOWS ATE PEN COURT PER ESS AERIE INA
STILLS TRACES ELAPSE ENATE
BRED YE OL
ADD LEERED DO
LA TURBINE UP MY WARRED ARE
SI SS ELON
BRACK WIGWAM
REVERE DEEMED
APPO SMILE OTO
SER SIDES DEN
SLY STORE ERG

Solution of Yesterday's Puzzle

ACROSS
1. Entrance to a room
2. Backward-pointing
3. Sack
4. Press
5. Exchange premium
6. Away: Scotch
7. Kind of meat
8. Motherless calf
9. Express in words
10. Sea eagle
11. Leave
12. Cook with dry heat
13. About
14. Revolving cylinder
15. Thick and sticky
16. Encountered
17. Death notice
18. Raised to the third power
19. Near
20. Gaelic sea god
21. Wheeled vehicle
22. Attempt
23. Conjunction
24. Assessment
25. Musical
26. Profound
27. Transgression
28. Go over again
29. Strip of light wood
30. Institute legal proceedings
31. Lifeline
32. Musical instrument
33. Alet
34. Inlet of the sea
35. Pale
36. Epic poem
37. Debatable
38. Compass point
39. Narrow road

NEW USE FOR COTTON FOUND

Potential Outlet Lies In Construction Industry

Raleigh, August 21.—One of the most promising potential outlets for American cotton in million-bale-a-year lots lies in the building and construction industries. Tom Cornwall, Cleveland county cotton farmer and member of the State AAA committee said today. Declaring that cotton is a stronger material than either concrete or steel, the Cleveland farmer reminded that it is only logical in the building trade as a result of efforts by the cotton trades industry to cooperate with the Surplus Marketing Administration and the U. S. Department of Agriculture in finding new sources of home consumption for domestic cotton.

"Inasmuch as foreign markets for our domestic cotton are sadly depleted because of the war," Mr. Cornwall observed, "the cooperation of the cotton trade is especially encouraging to us farmers." One of the most recent examples of what is being done with cotton in the construction field, the AAA committeeman said, is the complete "cotton house" just built on the west coast for the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The walls of the house, inside and out, are made of waterproof, fire-resistant, canvas-covered plywood. The roof is made of the same material. Comfortable indoor temperatures are assured by the use of new rodent-proof, fire-resistant cotton insulation material. Even the furnishings in the house are made largely of cotton, it was added.

"Such prefabricated cotton houses can be easily and quickly constructed by a small crew of men," the Cleveland farmer explained. "They are proving immediately useful during the national defense housing emergency."

Wright brothers were playing around with embryo flying machines at Kitty Hawk. Dedicated exercises for the Fessenden Park are scheduled for next Sunday with Governor Broughton, George Gordon Battle and other dignitaries taking part.

Sales Tax Worries.

The old sales tax still worries customers of the corner grocery store, despite exemption of practically all foods from the levy. One grocer complains that his customers just can't understand why they have to pay the tax on salt nuts, bottled drinks, etc., and not pay it on sugar, sweet pickles, etc. Your correspondent tried to find out from revenue department officials. The reason is, after all, right simple: The law is that way. (No, we don't mean the law is simple.) For years there have been a few basic foods exempt from sales tax. The last legislature materially increased that list, but the tax still applies to all items of merchandise not specifically exempted. If what you buy isn't on the exempt list you owe the tax on it.

DEFENSE BOND QUIZ

Q. Are all types of Defense Savings Bonds on sale at post offices?

A. No. Only the Series E Bonds are sold at post offices. Series F and G Bonds may be ordered through most banks, from any Federal Reserve bank, or direct by mail from the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C.

Q. How do I get the highest return on my investment in Defense Savings Bonds?

A. By holding each Bond for its full term of years you will secure the full maturity value. A Defense Savings Bond of Series E increases in value 33 1-3 per cent if held for 10 years.

Note.—To purchase Defense Bonds and Stamps, go to the nearest post office or bank, or write for information to the Treasurer of the United States, Washington, D. C.

COLORED NEWS

Whereas it has pleased the Great and Supreme Ruler of the universe to call from labor to reward on August 15, 1941 one of our worthy and esteemed friends, Eldora Lee (Doll Lee) and whereas the long and intimate relations held by her in the faithful discharge of her duty to her family and neighbors, makes it befitting that we record our appreciation of her; therefore be it resolved:

That the wisdom and ability which she has exercised in the aid of her family by service, contribution and counsel will be held in grateful remembrance.

Resolved: That the certain removal of such a life from among our midst leaves a vacancy and a shadow that will be deeply realized by all the members and friends of her family and will prove a serious loss to the community and public.

Resolved: That with deep sympathy toward the bereaved relatives of the deceased, we express our hope that even so great a loss to us all may be over ruled for good by Him who does all things well.

Resolved: That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the local paper and a copy forwarded to the bereaved family.

TRUSTEE'S SALE OF REAL ESTATE

(By Substituted Trustee)

Pursuant to the power and authority contained in a certain deed of trust dated the 25th day of November, 1935, executed by Mary Curry (Widow) to T. C. Abernethy, Trustee, which deed of trust is duly registered in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County, North Carolina, in Book Q-20, page 367, securing a certain note payable to HOME OWNERS' LOAN CORPO-RATION, default having been made for a period of more than ninety (90) days in the payment of said note as provided therein and in the performance of certain covenants set out in said deed of trust and demand of foreclosure having been made by the holder of said indebtedness, the undersigned Trustee, having been substituted as Trustee, for T. C. Abernethy, said substitution being duly recorded in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County, North Carolina, in Book

X-23, page 124, will offer for sale at public auction to the highest bidder for cash at the Court House door in Pitt County, Greenville, North Carolina, at 12 o'clock, noon, on the 1st day of September, 1941

the following described real estate,
to-wit:
Situate, lying and being in the Town of Greenville, Greenville Township, County of Pitt, State of

Bounded on the North by Myrtle Avenue, on the East by Mrs. Manzar Saad, on the South by Chestnut Street and on the West by Mrs.
Julia Crawford heirs:
BEGINNING at a corner on the North side of Chestnut Street 74.33 feet East of the Northeast corner of Chestnut Street and Columbia Avenue, the Crawford heirs southeast corner; thence along Chestnut Street N. 60 degrees E. 65 feet to a corner, Saad southwest corner; thence N. 30 degrees W. 339 feet to a corner on Myrtle Avenue; thence along Myrtle Avenue S. 60 degrees
W. 51 feet to a corner; thence S.
16 degrees 20 minutes W. 185 feet to a corner; and thence S. 30 degrees E. 326 feet to the beginning, containing 1942 square feet of land: Being the same land set out by metes and bounds on plat of survey made by W. C. Dresbach, C.
E. & Sur., dated October 23, 1935 at Greenville, N. C., now on file with Home Owners' Loan Corporation;
Being the same land conveyed to R. S. Curry (now deceased) and wife, Mary Curry, by deed from Ellis Nassef, filed for registration in the Pitt County Registry on November 21, 1919, and recorded in Book H-13, page 466; and being the same parcel of land on which the said Mary Curry now resides.

The purchaser at this sale will be required to make a cash deposit of 5 per cent of the purchase price to show good faith.

This, the 29th day of July, 1941.

This property will be sold subject to 1941 taxes.

R. PAUL JAMISON, Substituted Trustee.

Julius Brown, Atty.

July 31-Aug. 7-14-21-28.

Welcome Tobacco Farmers!

Greater Savings PENDER Quality Food Stores

Make This Store Your Headquarters While You Are In Town—Check These Values!

TOMATOES NEW PACK 4 No. 2 cans 29c
FAT BACK DRY SALT lb. 11c
VEGETOLE SHORTENING 16-lb. Tin $2.45

Shortening Bulk 2 lbs. 27c
48-lb. Tin $6.48
Salad Dressing Mother's qt. jar 27c
Relish Spread Mother's qt. jar 27c
Honey Nut Oleo 2 lbs. 25c
Evap. Milk Colonial 4 tall cans 29c
Pork and Beans Phillips or Gibbs 6 16-oz. cans 25c
VIRGINIA-MAID
Peanut Butter quart jar 23c
CHEESE AMERICAN lb. 25c
SALMON PINK 2 tall cans 31c

BEST COOKING
PURE LARD
2 lbs. 23c
50-lb. Tin $5.75
25-lb. Tin $3.25
DOUBLE-FRESH
GOLDEN BLEND
COFFEE
2 lbs. 33c
3-lb. bag 49c

TRIANGLE SELF-RISING "ENRICHED"
FLOUR 12-lb. bag 43c
24-lb. bag 83c
48-lb. bag $1.63
98-lb. bag $3.19

PRODUCE SPECIALS
Jersey WHITE POTATOES, 10 lbs. 19c
YELLOW ONIONS, 3 lbs. 10c
New Crop SWEET POTATOES, 3 lbs. 13c
Home Grown TOMATOES, 3 lbs. 10c
Iceberg LETTUCE, head 10c

SUPER MARKET SPECIALS
SWIFT'S PREMIUM
Leg-O-Lamb lb. 29c
LAMB
Shoulder Roast lb. 19c PICKED
Fryers lb. 24c
BREAST and LEGS 49c lb.
BACKS and WINGS 25c lb.
BAKING—(PICKED)
Hens lb. 23c
LEAN SHORT SHANK—SMOKED
Picnics lb. 23c
PURE COUNTRY PORK
Sausage 2 lbs. 45c
CHOICE LEAN
Pork Roast lb. 25c
WESTERN CHUCK
Roast Beef lb. 19c
RINDLESS SLICED
Bacon lb. 29c
NECK BONES, 3 lbs. 25c
PORK TAILS, lb. 10c
FRESH TROUT
Fish 4 lbs. 25c
SHRIMP—SCALLOPS—CRAB MEAT

NEW GRID COACHES TAKE OVER 2-SCORE COLLEGES THIS FALL

Football Powers In Every Section Start Season Under Strange Tutors

By DILLON GRAHAM
Sports Editor, AP Feature Service

New York.—Football coaches, accustomed to frequent journeys during the fall, did a lot of off-season traveling this year—hotfooting it to new jobs.

Seldom has there been such a large turnover of gridiron mentors. Transfer signals were flashed from Maine to California. Every major college conference was affected. The list of teams with new tutors reads like a who's who of football—Notre Dame, Southern California, Army, Yale, Ohio State, Boston College, Tennessee.

With the 1941 kick-off almost at hand, a survey reveals 40-odd coaches appearing on new campuses. Here's the revamped line-up:

East: Frank Leahy, whose Boston College team was unbeaten and victor over Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl game, accepted an offer from his alma mater, Notre Dame. To succeed Leahy, B. C. selected Denny Myers, a former Brown and Yale line coach.

The Army, after a particularly poor season, found a more strictly military assignment for Captain Bill Wood and persuaded Earl Blaik, a former West Point assistant, to leave Dartmouth and return to the cadets. Dartmouth beckoned to Tuss McLaughry, J. Neil (Skip) Stahley, a Harvard assistant, took the job McLaughry had held for 15 years.

Yale, after losing seven of eight games, said goodbye to Raymond (Ducky) Pond and appointed Emerson Nelson, an Eli aide, as head coach. Pond caught on at Bates College. After 20 years on the coaching lines Fred Brice resigned at Maine and Eck Allen took over. Wes Fesler, Harvard assistant, accepted a call from Wesleyan.

Forest Evashevski, Michigan's famous blocking back for Tom Harmon, entered the coaching ranks at Hamilton College. Other new gridiron professors included Alfred C. Werner at Allegheny, Alured (Slim) Ransome, Geneva; Pete Stevens, Ursinus; and Stuart (Stu) Holcomb, Washington and Jefferson. Art Lawrence became Union College coach. Dutch Bergman left Catholic University.

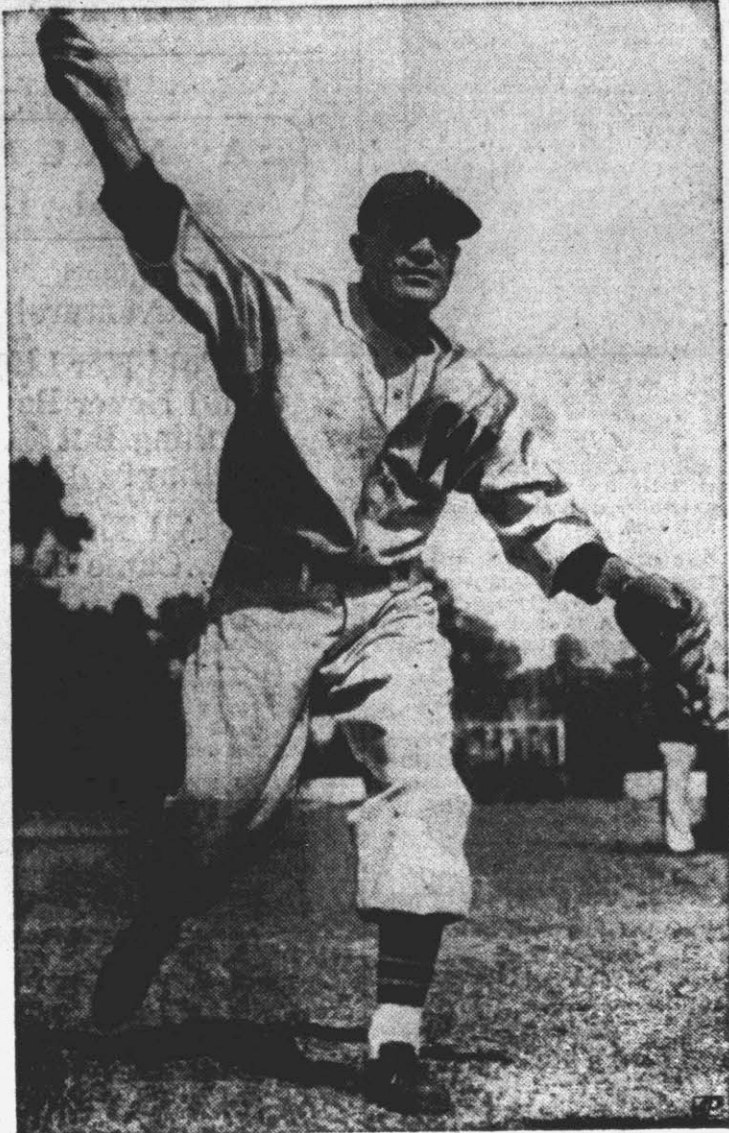

Middle West: Bidding farewell to the veteran Francis Schmidt, Ohio State brought a real rookie into the tough Western conference competition when Paul Brown, who compiled a fine record at Massillon, Ohio, high school, but who has had no college experience, took over.

Notre Dame permitted Elmer Layden to leave to become commissioner of the National Professional football league and named Leahy. Tom Stidham of Oklahoma followed Paddy Driscoll at Marquette and Oklahoma named Dewey Luster, a Sooner assistant, as its top man. Western Reserve chose Tom Davies and Patsy Clark, former Detroit Lions pro coach, went to Grand Rapids university.

Douglas at Akron

Tom (Spook) Dowler resigned at Akron U. and was replaced by Otis Douglas, Jr., Stan Kestka, one time Minnesota star, took over at North Dakota Agriculture College. After a fine season at St. Ambrose of Iowa, Moon Mullins resigned to become an assistant at Florida and James Dockery succeeded him. Bob Zuppke, Illinois coach for 28 years, beat a move to oust him and will direct the Illini again. Jim Yeager left Iowa State and Ray Donel replaced him. Cornell college named Walton Koch, Loras college selected Vincent Dowd and Penn college appointed Russell McCarthy. But Butler resigned at Beloit.

South: Major Bob Neyland was called into Army service and one of his aides, John Barnhill, was appointed Tennessee coach. Jimmy Kitts, formerly of Rice, replaced Henry Reid at Virginia Polytechnic Institute. Tex Tilson moved out at about 175,000 workers.

WHAT'S THAT NAME?—That pitcher whose name sometimes worries the sports writers, Alejandro Carrasquel of the Washington Senators, reached Aug. 16 as only American League hurler without a defeat. He's from Caracas, Venezuela.

Washington and Lee and Riley Smith, an assistant and former Washington Redskins pro quarterback, became head coach.

Southwest: Morley Jennings resigned at Baylor and was followed by Frank Kimbrough of Hardin-Simmons. Warren B. Woodson took Kimbrough's Hardin-Simmons post. Jennings became athletic director at Texas Tech, where Del Morgan succeeds the departed Pete Cawthon as head coach.

Tulsa Takes Frnka

Mose Sims left St. Mary's and Lloyd Russell took his job. When Chet Benefield left, Tulsa University appointed Henry Frnka.

Far West: The attractive Southern California post was left open late this summer when Howard H. Jones died suddenly. Sam Barry, a Jones aide, stepped in. Francis Schmidt, out at Ohio State, was signed by Idaho U. Bunny Oakes moved from Colorado to Wyoming and Colorado named Jim Yeager, formerly of Iowa State, as head coach. San Francisco U. chose Jeff Cravath, Southern Cal line coach as its mentor.

Pro Football: Earl (Greasy) Neale, Yale assistant, became coach of the Philadelphia Eagles, and Bill Edwards, Western Reserve, took charge of the Detroit Lions.

Kremlin, in Russian, means Citadel.

The American silk industry has about 175,000 workers.

BASEBALL STANDINGS

AMERICAN LEAGUE
	W.	L.
New York	81	41
Chicago	65	57
Boston	61	58
Cleveland	59	57
Detroit	55	64
Philadelphia	51	66
Washington	50	65
St. Louis	50	66

NATIONAL LEAGUE
	W.	L.
Brooklyn	76	40
St. Louis	74	41
Cincinnati	64	49
Pittsburgh	60	53
New York	56	56
Chicago	50	62
Boston	46	66
Philadelphia	31	83

COASTAL PLAIN LEAGUE
	W.	L.
Wilson	74	27
Greenville	58	45
New Bern	53	49
Williamston	50	53
Rocky Mount	49	54
Goldboro	49	54
Kinston	39	64
Tarboro	38	64

PIEDMONT LEAGUE
	W.	L.
Durham	68	41
Portsmouth	63	52
Norfolk	59	56
Richmond	56	57
Asheville	53	58
Charlotte	53	59
Greensboro	51	60
Winston-Salem	46	66

RESULTS YESTERDAY

AMERICAN LEAGUE
St. Louis 11-4, Boston 9-3.
Chicago 9, Philadelphia 0.
Detroit 1, New York 0.
Washington 6, Cleveland 3.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
St. Louis 2-3, Boston 0-2.
Cincinnati 2-3, Philadelphia 0-0.
Brooklyn 7, Pittsburgh 6.
Chicago 9, New York 4.

COASTAL PLAIN LEAGUE
All games rain.

PIEDMONT LEAGUE
Portsmouth-Norfolk, rain.
Charlotte 4-4, Asheville 1-3.
Durham 5, Richmond 1.
Winston-Salem 4, Greensboro 1.

The WPA junior baseball teams of Wilson and Greenville will square off at Guy Smith park at 4 o'clock. The entire proceeds will be turned over to the Bundles for Britain treasury. The tickets are being offered on the streets and the public is urged to support the movement.

The young players are in for a treat when they will be entertained

Tobs Here Tonight

The second-place Greenies will entertain the league-leading Wilson Tobs at Guy Smith park tonight at 8:30 o'clock in the first of a two-game series. The Tobs will appear here for only one more game during the regular season.

A victory tonight for Wilson will clinch first place for the Tobs, who have lead the league throughout the season.

The two teams always have attracted large crowds and tonight is expected to see a large number of fans present.

TODAY'S GAMES

COASTAL PLAIN LEAGUE
Rocky Mount at Goldboro.
New Bern at Kinston.
Williamston at Tarboro.
Wilson at Greenville.

PIEDMONT LEAGUE
Portsmouth at Norfolk.
Greensboro at Winston-Salem.
Charlotte at Asheville.
Richmond at Durham.

Charlotte Editor To Address Meet

Florence, S. C., August 21.—Dr. Julian S. Miller, editor of the Charlotte Observer, will be the Monday afternoon speaker at the convention of the Carolinas Kiwanis district to be held at Myrtle Beach September 7, 8, and 9. It has just been announced by Jack Wright of Florence, general chairman of the convention. Dr. Miller will speak on "Youth in a World Crisis."

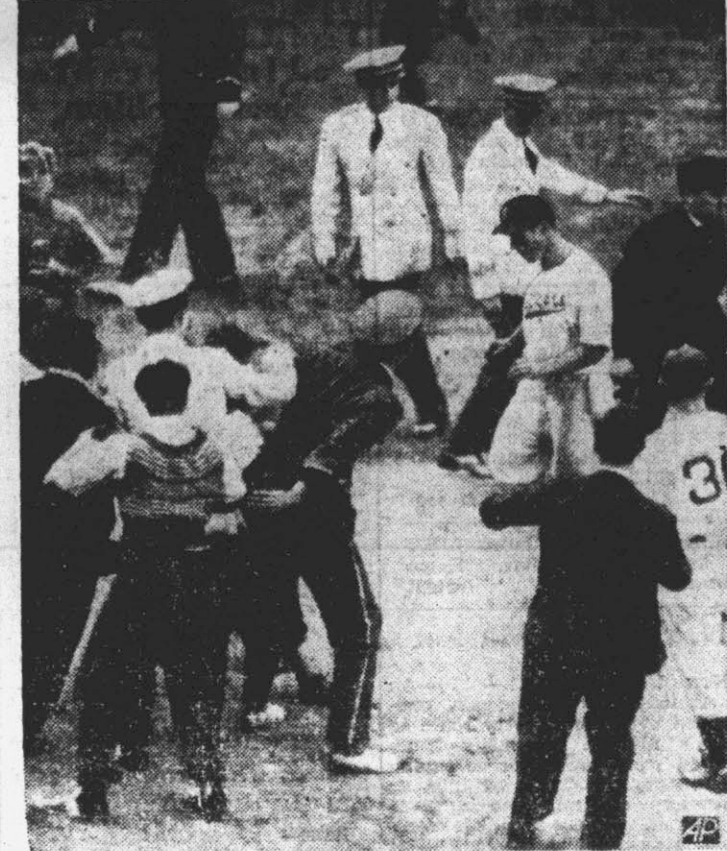

Other speakers at this convention as announced by Chairman Wright are Captain Norman Rawson of London, Ontario, Canada, an internationally known philosopher and humorist; Edward Scheidt of the Charlotte office of the FBI, and Frederick M. Barnes of Jersey City, N. J., official representative of Kiwanis International, who will speak at the fellowship luncheon.

At the ladies' luncheon on Monday Mrs. Hazel Gee, history teacher in the Florence High School, will address the ladies on "Woman's Part in National Defense."

The International airport of Douglas, Ariz., has a runway three-fourths of a mile long, part of which is in Mexico.

at the home of Wesley Harvey on the Ayden highway at a picnic supper that night. Mr. Harvey and John Webb will play hosts to the youngsters.

Bama Rowell Tries On Army Cap

Carvel "Bama" Rowell, Boston Braves' second baseman who'll be in the army almost any day now, tries on a service cap while sitting with Fort Devens, Mass., boys at a Braves' home game. Rowell's home is Citronelle, Ala. He took his physical exam at a suburban Boston draft board and passed it hands down.

Reveals Additional List Of Contributors

An additional list of contributors to the Old North State Fund campaign conducted in Pitt county was issued today as follows:

Mrs. R. J. Cox, Mrs. Virginia Braxton, Frances Russell, H. L. Andrews, Board of Education Office Force, Miss Thelma Jones, J. Kpott

COASTAL PLAIN LEAGUE

BASEBALL TONIGHT—8:30
WILSON vs. GREENVILLE
GUY SMITH STADIUM

Proctor, R. W. Twine, J. P. Harrington, Sammie Langley, Rosa Exum, D. R. Hollowell, Charlie Manning, Mrs. Forrest, Dr. Charles O'H. Horne, Mrs. Hugh Ragsdale, J. B. James, Miss Elizabeth Tibbatts, L. W. Gaylord, J. L. Evans, Dink James, J. H. Harrell, J. C. Lannier, H. L. Jenkins, S. B. Underwood, Elizabeth Pollard, R. W. Tyson, S. O. Worthington, W. J. Bundy, Pitt County Welfare Department, Miss Verona Lee Joyner, Pitt County Farm Agent Office, Pitt County Board of Health, C. P. Pierce, Grover Leggett.

About one-third of the United States is forested.

$1.00 PINT
$1.90 Quart

in the famous
"FIDDLE BOTTLE"
66 PROOF

Also ask for Old Anthem Spirits Blend
75% Grain, Whisky—72% Neutral Grain Spirits
$1.00 PINT PROOF
Bardstown Distillery, Inc.
Bardonia, N.Y. 10514
F. O. Bardonia, Kentucky

Junior Game Is Set For Saturday P. M.

Baseball fans will have an opportunity Saturday afternoon to witness a real contest and at the same time support the local Bundles for Britain movement when

DAN DUNN—SECRET OPERATIVE. 48

AH, THERE'S A TOWN! I'LL PHONE CALLAGHAN—NOW IS THE TIME TO RAID THAT SHIP—THEY'RE DOING THEIR COUNTERFEITING ON IT—AND WE MUST STRIKE AT ACE BART'S OTHER PLACE AT THE SAME TIME!

MEANWHILE THE GANGSTER, WHO WAS GOING TO KNOCK DAN OFF, BUT WHO WAS DEFEATED IN HIS ATTEMPT BY DAN'S ALERTNESS, SLOWLY RECOVERS FROM THE TERRIFIC BLOW HE RECEIVED!

OOH!—WHAT DID THAT BIRD HIT ME WITH—?? I BETTER GO BACK TO THAT SHIP AND TELL BARNACLE WHAT HAPPENED!

SO YUH LET THAT BIRD OUTSMART YUH, EH?—WE'LL HAVE TO TURN THE GANG OUT AND GET READY FER WHATEVER MAY HAPPEN!

YUH KNOW, BARNACLE, I THINK THAT KID WE GOT ON TH' BOAT HEARD US TALKIN' AND TIPPED HIM OFF!

DID YUH TELL THAT BIRD WE HAD LOCKED UP WITH YUH ANYTHING?

NO, SIR—OUCH! HE TOLD ME HE WAS A BEEN TOLD, GANGSTER—OUCH!—

HE MUST'A BARNACLE! NO COPPER'D BE THAT SMART!

BLONDIE — by Young

I'LL GIVE YOU EACH A QUARTER, IF YOU CUT THE LAWN FOR ME

SURE

HEY PA—THE LAWN-MOWER'S TOO HEAVY—WE CAN'T CUT THE GRASS VERY GOOD

WE'LL JUST PUSH IT AROUND AND MAKE A LOT OF NOISE WITH IT

I THOUGHT YOU WERE GOING TO CUT THE GRASS THIS AFTERNOON

I'M THE EXECUTIVE TYPE, DEAR, I'M HAVING IT DONE—DON'T YOU HEAR THE LAWN-MOWER GOING?

WE WANT OUR QUARTERS

OKAY, OKAY

THIMBLE THEATRE—STARING POPEYE

I WANT PLOPEYE!! NO, I MEAN FLOPEYE!! MOPEYE!! STOPEYE!! ONE MOMENT, PLEASE

I HAVE POPEYE FOR YOU GO AHEAD, MISTER POPEYE

AHOY, WIMPY!

LISTEN, MY FRIEND I CAN'T TALK TO YA RIGHT NOW, WIMPY

GO AHEAD, I'LL WAIT ULP

I DON'T CARE IF IT IS IMPORTINK—I KIN NOT TALK TO YA NOW!!

"PEPSI-COLA HITS THE SPOT"

12 FULL OUNCES—THAT'S A LOT

IS THE DRINK FOR YOU!

The tune hit with millions...the drink hit with millions! Outsmart that next thirst with Pepsi-Cola.

EVERYBODY'S SINGING IT—EVERYBODY'S DRINKING IT

Pepsi-Cola is made only by Pepsi-Cola Company, Long Island City, N.Y. Bottled locally by:

Authorized Bottler: Pepsi-Cola Bottling Co., Greenville, N. C.

WANTS

Wants 1 1/2 per word, minimum charge 25c for 25 words, one insertion; six insertions $1.50; one month $7.00. Indented lines shown as classified display, or longer than regular also type, double price.

Other than to business houses having regular accounts with us, no want ads will be charged. Send or bring cash with order. No prevent errors, want ads will not be taken over the telephone.

Frank
CITY PLUMBING CO.

MRS. D. H. CONLEY—IF YOU will bring this ad to our place, it will be worth 5 cents in trade. Some one else's name will appear tomorrow. Look for yours. Smith's Place, Dickinson Ave.

We Clean and Press Men's Suits, Ladies' Coats—Dresses. Our work must please and a trial will convince you. CAROLINA DRY CLEANERS Dial 2276—Leon Smith, Prop.

WE HAVE ABOUT 50 WATER-proof canvas covers for trucks and trailers in stock. Buy early before it is necessary for us to sell them at higher prices. J. A. Watson, Seed and Hardware. 2-17

FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE—plant Rutabaga and Turnip seed. Have plenty new seed in stock. Buy now and plant now! J. A. Watson, Hardware and Seed. 15-17

WANTED—VACUUM CLEANERS—to repair—Electrolux, Hoover, Eureka, or any make. Carry hose, bags, cords and parts. New and used cleaners for sale. Fleming Vacuum Cleaner Repair Service, 305 Paris Ave. Dial 2287. Jul 19-1 mo.

TOBACCO SPECULATORS—Don't wait until the last minute to arrange for your Dealer Bond. Yes, we write 'em on the spot. Ernest Willard Insurance Agency, 217 State Bank Bldg. 9-121

FOR RENT—TWO NICE DOUBLE bedrooms, hot water, shower, convenient to bath. Two blocks from business section. 115 East Eighth Street. Dial 2687. 20-46

FOR RENT—TO COUPLE WITH—out children—four unfurnished rooms. Desirable location. 602 W. 4th St. Dial 3387.

FRIDAY SPECIALS—ORANGE Pineapple Cake, Butternut Cake, Doughnuts. People's Bakery.

FOR RENT, TO GENTLEMEN—one double room and one single room, in private home. Steam heat. Dial 3052. 21-31

LOST—ONE LADIES' WALTHAM white gold wrist watch—black ribbon band. Reward if returned to S. B. Underwood, Atty. 20-31

THREE WAITRESSES WANTED—good pay—short hours. Apply Carolina Grill, Dickinson Ave. 20-21

DEPENDABLE COLLEGE SENIOR—older than average, in need of home or part time work to complete college work. Experienced in practical nursing, waitress work, domestic work and care of children. Write J. M. D., care Daily Reflector.

FOR RENT—THREE ROOM UP—stairs unfurnished apartment—newly painted. Also room for rent to two men. Reasonable rates. Dial 2779. 1012 Evans St. 21-eod-31

SEE US FOR BRIDGE SETS in assorted colors. Home Furniture Store. 21-21

N.Y. Stock Market

New York, Aug. 21.—(AP)—An assortment of stocks again one-stepped over the recovery route in today's market, but many issues showed scant inclination to extend Wednesday's moderate advance. Amusements ran into a little profit selling at the start, but steel rails, aircrafts and specialties did fairly well. Numerous fractional price signs were seen near the fourth hour, although laggards were plentiful.

N. Y. Stock List

American Radiator	6 1/2
American Telephone	152 1/2
Anacosta	60 1/2
A. C. L.	28 1/2
Atlantic Refining	28 1/2
Bendix Aviation	22 1/2
Bethlehem Steel	67 1/2
Chrysler	58 1/2
Col. Gas and Electric	2 1/2
Commercial Solvent	10 1/2
Consolidated Oil	5 1/2
Curtis Wright	9 1/2
Dupont	158 1/2
Electric Power and Light	1 1/2
General Electric	32 1/2
General Motors	38 1/2
Liggett and Myers	83 1/2
Montgomery Ward	34 1/2
Reynolds Tobacco B.	32 1/2
Southern Railway	18 1/2
Standard Oil of N. J.	43 1/2
U. S. Steel	57 1/2

Hog Markets

Richmond	11.15
Rocky Mount	10.80
Greenville	10.90

LEGAL LIQUOR ELECTIONS SET

Profit Motive Declared Inseparable From Problem

Reflector Bureau.
By LYNN NISBET
Raleigh, Aug. 21.—With elections already scheduled in Franklin, Warren and Vance counties, and one likely in Bertie this fall, the issue of legal liquor sales is more prominently before North Carolina now than it has been for some time in the past. Advocates of the ABC system contend that it is a control measure, while many—perhaps a preponderant majority—of North Carolina voters feel that any suggestion of "control" for an outlaw is absurd. Proponents of legalized

Chicago Grain Market

(Courtesy Vernon Parrish)
WHEAT—	Open	Close	Pr. Cl.
Sept.	12 1/2	12 1/4	11 3/4
Dec.	11 1/2	11 1/4	11 1/2
May	11 1/2	11 1/4	11 1/2
CORN—
Sept.	77 1/2	77 1/4	78 1/2
Dec.	81 1/2	80 3/4	81 1/2
May	84 1/2	85	85 1/2
OATS—
Sept.	43 1/2	43 1/4	43 1/2
Dec.	46 1/2	45 3/4	46 1/2
May	48 1/2	47 3/4	48 1/2
RYE—
Sept.	68 1/2	67 3/4	68 1/2
Dec.	72 1/2	71 3/4	72 1/2

Richmond Livestock

(Courtesy J. N. and J. L. Williams)
Hogs, market 15 cents higher than Tuesday. Top $11.15; good and choice 10-22 1/2 lbs. $10.95-$11.15; 100-120 lbs. $9.15-$9.65; 120-140 lbs. $9.85-$10.15; 140-160 lbs. $10.15-$10.65; 160-180 lbs. $10.65-$10.95; 225-250 lbs. $10.55-$11.05; 250-300 lbs. $10.25-$10.75; over 300 lbs. $9.95-$10.45. Sows under 350 lbs. $9.15-$9.65; over 350 lbs. $8.15-$8.65. Cattle, receipts of all classes generally light, early, and the market steady. Bulk of dairy type cows $5.50-$6.50; good fat kinds up to $7.00; thin canners down to $4.50. Heavy sausage bulls upward to $7.00. Common light weights $6.00-$6.50. Yearlings active fully steady, top $12.00, for good and choice nearby offerings common and medium large $8.50-$10.50. Spring lambs steady. Few good and choice $10.00-$10.50. Others mainly $9.00 down.

New York Cotton

New York, Aug. 21.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened five higher to one lower. Midday values were off 10 to 22 points, October 16.35, December 16.54 and July 16.73.

Aftermath Of $1,500,000 Pier Inferno

Twisted steel girders and charred debris litter the Brooklyn, N. Y., pier after the raging waterfront fire which also destroyed the Cub a Mail Line freighter Panuco, numerous smaller craft and left at least seven persons dead in its wake. Damage was estimated at approximately $1,500,000.

sale say that they are not interested in profit, and united dry forces say they don't want their children educated with blood money. Quite likely all of them have their fingers crossed.

Eastern North Carolina is generally "wet" while central and western portions of the state are "dry." At the same time, it isn't just a coincidence that Durham, most westerly county with legal liquor, is also the banner county in sales and profit.

A glimpse at figures for the three counties with elections just ahead indicates the importance of liquor revenue. For the fiscal year just closed Franklin county sold $103,923 worth of booze through its ABC stores. From this sale the State of North Carolina received $8,352 and the county and three towns in which stores are located got $11,959. Vance county sold $203,656 and paid into the state treasury $17,051.48, leaving a profit for the county (the city not participating) of $36,409. Warren county's stores put out $140,107 worth of drinks, from which the state got $10,645 and the county and towns nearly twice as much or $20,560.

It is an ancient maxim that "figures do not lie, but liars sure can figure." It is also a thoroughly demonstrated fact that honest auditors can take the same set of figures and draw entirely different conclusions. This correspondent has no desire to propagandize either the "dries" or the "wets." The figures presented are culled from state records. Perhaps if this money had not been paid across ABC counters it would have gone into constructive enterprise. Perhaps it would have gone to bootleggers. It is entirely possible that if it had not gone to liquor stores the money would have gone into other channels of trade making available even larger sums for the public treasury. But upon the record as here submitted the three counties which this fall will determine by popular vote whether to continue or abandon legal sale of liquor, did last year pay into the general fund of the state the sum of $36,018—and that is just about what it costs the state to hire 40 school teachers. Besides, the profits remaining in the counties is equivalent to a tax levy of approximately 25 cents on the $100 valuation or property.

TODAY-FRIDAY-SAT.

His Newest Thriller

SUNSET IN WYOMING
with...
GENE AUTRY
Plus "JUNGLE GIRL" No. 3 Cartoon
BURNETTE
MANS WRISON GEORGE CLEVELAND
STATE

house quietly, he observed a pair of legs standing on a platform, the top portion of the body in the attic. "Don't bother about that," said the partially invisible one, "just hold these for me."

He started passing down fruit jars of illicit whiskey.

Gossett waited until all jars were handed down and then set out for headquarters with the attic explorer and the fruits of his exploration.

FRIDAY—SATURDAY

A MAGNIFICENT Emotional EXPERIENCE!

He Promised Her Adventure!

He Told Her Life Could Never Be Anything But Thrilling!

And All That He Said... Came True!

Lovely "Mrs. Chips" and the handsome star of "Flight Command" teamed in the most magnificent and exciting drama of our time!

Technicolor's greatest love story... a memorable event in the motion picture!

BLOSSOMS IN THE DUST

starring
GREER GARSON
WALTER PIDGEON

Here's More...
PETE SMITH
Lions on the Loose
NEWS REEL

Cast Includes FAY HOLDEN
Marsha HUNT Felix BRESSART

PITT

ANNOUNCEMENT OF

CENTRE BRICK AND DIXIE WAREHOUSES

BY W. S. MOYE GREENVILLE, N. C.

WE HAVE EVERYTHING IN SHAPE AND ARE READY FOR THE OPENING OF THE SEASON BEGINNING NEXT TUESDAY, AUGUST 26th. ON THAT DAY WE HAVE...

First Sale At The Centre Brick In The Morning—Second Sale At The Dixie In The Afternoon

THESE TWO HOUSES WILL BE OPERATED THIS YEAR BY THE SAME FIRM AS LAST YEAR

B. T. CANNON J. HARVEY WARD M. D. LASITTER W. S. MOYE

We have a competent and courteous force hired to help us, and we can assure our customers good service and the highest market prices for their tobacco. In this firm we have two of the oldest and most experienced tobacco men in Greenville. BIGGS T. CANNON, auctioneer, who has sold tobacco more than thirty years, and is considered by the farmers and buyers, as one of the best in the business. W. S. MOYE, who has run the sales and operated a warehouse in this market for 25 years, and is one of the best judges of tobacco on the market will be on the sales in both houses every day to greet and help his old customers and friends. J. HARVEY WARD, who has had 15 years experience in the warehouse business and is an outstanding warehouseman, will be on the sales in both houses to take care of his friends and customers. He is a good judge of tobacco, starts a good sale and is always working hard to satisfy the trade. M. D. LASITTER, who has had several years experience in the warehouse business will be on the sales to help and take care of his friends. LISTEN, FARMERS, with this new arrangement of sales, we sell in both houses every day. First sale in one house at 9 o'clock every morning, in the other house 2nd sale every evening. So we can tell you where you can sell and what time every day. No Blocks to change the sales. NOW, FARMERS—Think for yourselves. Tobacco is getting higher every day with only about 1/2 crop, in my opinion it will continue to get higher. Keep your tobacco at home and sell in Greenville, The Best Market in the State, and you will get more money. Now with tobacco selling as high as it is, you can sell for 2c or 3c below the market and be satisfied, but you are entitled to the full value for your crop. Sell with men who know tobacco and get what is coming to you. If you sell with us at the Centre Brick and Dixie Warehouses, you'll be assured the highest market price for your crop. If you are not selling with us, drop in opening day, see our sales, get a hearty handshake, get acquainted with us and our force. You may like the way we sell tobacco.

YOURS TO SERVE

The Centre Brick and Dixie Warehouses

BIGGS T. CANNON J. HARVEY WARD M. D. LASITTER W. S. MOYE