Aerial And Land Activity Increases In The Philippines

INVAD'G ARMY IS REINFORCED

Island Fortress Of Corregidor As Well As Front Line Defenses Of Gen. MacArthur Subjected To Aerial Assaults; The Yanks And Dutchmen Cooperate In Hunting Down Jap Ships

Washington, Jan. 12.—(AP)—A heavy artillery battle along the entire front in the Philippines was reported today by the War Department, with ground activity increasing as fresh Japanese troops moved up, accompanied by renewed air attacks on American and Philippine defense.

Corregidor, the island fortress guarding the entrance of Manila Bay, as well as front line defenses of General Douglas MacArthur's troops, were subjected to new assaults from the air, the department said, as fresh enemy troops increased the pressure on the defending forces.

The text of the morning communique, number 55, based on reports received here up to 9:30 a. m. E. T. "Philippine theater: A heavy artillery battle is in progress along the entire front. Ground activity is increasing as fresh Japanese troops move into front line position. Enemy air attacks are being renewed on defensive installations and fortifications. Japanese troops occupying Manila are attempting to suppress the use of radio receiving sets by civilians. This apparently is designed to prevent the reception of broadcasts from the United States and England, even though the action also prevents reception of propaganda broadcasts from Tokyo.

"There is nothing to report from other areas." Flying Yanks and flying Dutchmen teamed up to hunt more Japanese ships for their hit parade.

The targets they sought represented the vulnerable spot in Nippon's grandiose campaign of conquest. The huge quantities of troops and supplies which Tokyo needs in the South Pacific must be waterborne, and resource poor Japan is not in a position to replace ship losses indefinitely.

The U. S. army and Netherlands bombers got in some heavy blows yesterday, as the forces of the son of heaven bent to establish a major new invasion front in the fabulously rich East Indies.

The Yanks paid a return visit to the waters off Davao, the southern port in the Philippines which the Japanese have been utilizing as a naval base for their East Indies thrust. The heavy bombers scored a smashing direct hit on an enemy battleship and left it in flames. An anti-aircraft installation ashore also was hit.

Commencing today to secret bases either in the Indies or Australia, the bombers spotted and swooped down on an enemy cruiser and other vessels, but the results were undetermined, presumably due to the poor visibility which handicapped the assault on Davao earlier.

Dutch planes, meanwhile, registered two direct hits on large Japanese transports off the northeast coast of Borneo, where the enemy has landed on the little island of Tarakan, a highly important oil center. Ranzing farther afield Dutch submarines were credited with sinking two Japanese transports. (Continued on Page Six)

Coldest Night

Greenville this week-end had its coldest weather in at least four years and the nine-degree reading recorded on Saturday night was probably the lowest for many years prior to the establishment of the official Airways Bureau four years ago. J. A. Clark, Airways observer, said that the low mark of nine degrees recorded Saturday night was the lowest since he has been keeping records. Mrs. B. T. Clark, who keeps records for the state bureau, said she did not recall a lower mark for this city. The mercury got down to 17 degrees last night and at 7 o'clock this morning was standing at 19 and continued to rise slowly during the day. A skim of ice covered the Tar river here early Sunday morning, but soon broke up and melted.

Atlantic Patrol Duty Declared By Sec. Knox To Be Navy's No. 1 Job

Nazi Dissension

London, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Growing dissension in the Nazi high command was reliably reported to have spread to the navy today with a sharp disagreement between Grand Admiral Erich Raeder and his submarine chief, Vice Admiral Karl Doenitz. Earlier the London Star quoted a Moscow broadcast that Field Marshal General Wilhelm Keitel, chief of the Nazi high command, suddenly had been taken ill. A foreign source, whose information about Germany has almost invariably proved accurate, said Doenitz had accused his superior of misleading him about successes of submarine raiders and the availability of replacements. He flatly charged Raeder with "being responsible for the miscarriage of submarine warfare."

This source said the Doenitz phrase, which he described as a direct quotation, "bears out indications that things are not going so well for the Germans in the battle of the Atlantic." The Navy's number one job, he said in a speech prepared for the annual United States conference of mayors, is keeping the sea lanes open between America and Britain to bring about the defeat of Hitler's Germany—"our great enemy."

CHINESE TRAP NIPPON FORCES

More Than 8,000 Japs Reported Slain in Battle

Chungking, China, Jan. 12 (AP)—Chinese news dispatches declared today that Japanese forces retreating northward from Changsha after suffering a stunning defeat had been completely routed while trying to escape a Chinese encirclement and had left more than 8,000 dead on the field of battle. The Chinese captured approximately 1,000 prisoners and large quantities of equipment during the battle, which took place between the Laotao and Milo rivers about 30 miles north of Changsha, Hunan province capital, the dispatches said. The battle, which was said to have started last Friday and raged for a day and a night, boosted reported Japanese casualties in the ill-fated Changsha offensive to 45,000.

This would mean the greatest defeat the Japanese have suffered since the beginning of the war in China—a defeat not even exceeded by heavy setbacks in their two previous attempts to capture Changsha.

The battle along the Laotao river—the Chinese said—completely smashed the main body of Japanese troops falling back toward the (Continued on Page Six)

Many Towns Have Blackout Tonight

Goldsboro, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Sometime between 8 and 10 o'clock tonight a blackout will darken the Goldsboro area in the first such test held in inland North Carolina. The area is composed of the towns of Bailey and Middle sex in Nash county, and the counties of Wayne, Wilson, Duplin, Sampson and Johnston with the exception of the town of Benson. All 17 of the state's districts will eventually hold blackouts. The second of the inland district tests will be held Wednesday in Lumberton. The Wilmington coastal district was the first to be blacked out. Fayetteville and Winston-Salem have held city-wide tests.

The WAR TODAY

By DeWITT MacKENZIE (World-wide News Analyst) The Japanese continue to clamp tighter the pincers with which they are striving to clutch the key defensive base of Singapore and the rich Dutch East Indies. The heavy Jap offensive down the Malayan peninsula towards Singapore has forced a further withdrawal of the British and apparently the abandonment of Kuala Lumpur, known as the crude rubber capital of the world. The Nipponese also have made three fresh landings on the Dutch island of Celebes and claim capture of the Dutch oil island of Tarakan off Borneo. This means that the Japanese have acquired fresh bases much closer to their quarry. The increase of the air-threat to the allies in these gains is particularly serious. And, of course, the corollary must be the loss of valuable defensive bases to the allies. However, nothing approaching a decisive action has yet taken place. One of the most promising developments in the battle of the Pacific from the allied standpoint is the remarkable striking power (Continued on page four)

NEW NAZI LINE SHATTERED BY RED SOLDEIRS

Russians Reoccupy Steel Center On Winter Front

GERMANS SUFFER SEVERE LOSSES

Hitler, Upon Taking Command, Reported To Have Told Men To Hold New Defense Line at Any Cost

Moscow, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Onrushing Russian soldiers have broken the new German winter defense line between Vyazma and Bryansk, on the Central Front, by capturing the steel-producing center of Lyudnovo, it was reported today. The midnight Russian communique announced the recapture of Lyudnovo, 40 miles north of Bryansk, and the capture of the important railway junction of Tokhonova Pustyn, a few miles north of Kaluga, which is almost halfway between Moscow and Bryansk. A mid-day communique reported continued successes, chief of which was annihilation of 2,700 German officers and men and destruction of five anti-aircraft batteries and three trench mortar batteries during a two-day battle on the southwestern front. This communique added that Soviet troops had occupied "another populated place" and annihilated a German infantry battalion on the central front and wiped out 240 officers and men and destroyed six enemy tanks in another unidentified sector. (Adolf Hitler was said January 1 in Stockholm reports to London to have set up headquarters at Smolensk, 110 miles northwest of Lyudnovo and 220 miles west of Moscow) after taking personal charge of the German army. He was reported then to have ordered his men to hold the Vyazma-Bryansk line at all costs. (A British radio broadcast heard by CBS quoted a Gulbyshev spokesman as declaring the Russians were within 80 miles of Smolensk and moving forward rapidly. The locality of the advance was not given but might mean that the Russians already had swept beyond Lyudnovo, or possibly the recently captured city of Mosalsk, 120 miles east of Smolensk.) The latest Russian advance meant it was said, that the Soviet forces were firmly astride the vital railway system linking Smolensk and the Ukraine; that Bryansk, a major railway junction, was definitely threatened; and that Orel, 75 miles east of Brunsok on the Moscow-Kharkov railroad, had been flanked.

Firemen To Meet Increase Rates Of Insurance On Auto

New York, Jan. 12.—(AP)—The National Bureau of Casualty and Surety Underwriters announced today increases in premium rates for automobile liability insurance to be made effective immediately by its members. The change boosted by 3.5 per cent premiums for bodily injury and property damage insurance on private passenger automobiles in 33 states and the District of Columbia. It increased by 1.8 per cent the charge for coverage of commercial cars in 17 states and the District.

Trucks To Take Up Paper In Afternoons

C. K. Beatty, superintendent of the Greenville Street Department, announced today that effective immediately, paper and trash in the business section of the city would be taken up by trucks in the afternoon instead of at night. He asked the cooperation of the business houses and said that the trucks would start making the rounds at 1 o'clock in the afternoon and continue until the task was completed.

MAPS DETAILS OF EXPOSITION

Seed Exposition And Annual Meet To Be Held Here

The complete program for the 1942 Seed Exposition and annual meeting of the North Carolina Crop Improvement Association, to be held here January 30-31, was released today by County Farm Agent R. R. Bennett. The exposition and meeting will be held at Keel's warehouse, beginning Friday morning, January 31. The county agent is urging Pitt county farmers to support the exposition by entering samples of their crop seed, certified seed or seed not certified, and by personally attending the meeting. Judging of farmers' exhibits is scheduled for the first thing Friday morning, to be followed by the annual meeting of the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Crop Improvement Association. The association's business session will be held Friday afternoon, with Mayor B. B. Sugg making the address of welcome. J. B. Speight of Winterville, president, will make his annual address at the session. Also listed on the Friday afternoon program are the following: Crop Improvement activities; Dr. L. S. Bennett, seed specialist; treasurer's report; A. D. Stuart, Establishment of official variety test in North Carolina; H. F. Robinson, assistant seed specialist; Peanut varieties recommended in the defense program; Dr. G. K. Middleton, head of the section department of agronomy, N.C. State College; Soybean varieties for North Carolina; J. A. Rigney, assistant agronomist; N. C. Experimental Station; Federal and state seed laws explained by J. W. Woodside, director of State Seed Laboratory, North Carolina Department of Agriculture; Certified hybrid seed corn outlook for 1942; Dr. P. H. Harvey, associate professor of agronomy, N. C. State College; North Carolina victory gardens; Lewis P. Watson, horticulturist; N. C. Agricultural Extension Service; Disease control in the production of good seed; Dr. Luther Shaw, pathologist and botany department, N. C. State College; Insect control in the production of good seed; J. O. Rowell, entomologist, North Carolina Extension Service. The election of three members of the Board of Directors also is on schedule for the Friday afternoon session. The Saturday morning program will open at 10:30 and lists the following talks: The North Carolina Agricultural Experiment Station program for national defense; Dr. L. D. Bayer, director of the station; Production problems under war conditions; Dr. I. O. Schaub, dean of the College of Agriculture and director of extension work. Following a review of the exhibits, the association's annual luncheon will be held, starting at 1 o'clock, with F. H. Jeeter, editor of the Agricultural Extension Service, N. C. State College, as toastmaster. The principal address of the luncheon will be made by Gov. Broughton. Presentation of awards to 4-H club and FFA members in crop judging contests will be made, after which sweepstakes awards will be made. A report by the Resolutions committee will bring the meeting to a close.

DEFENSE MEETING

There will be a meeting of the Pitt County Council of Civilian Defense in the City Hall of Greenville Friday night, January 16, at eight o'clock. Now Within 150 Miles of Singapore

British Indicate Loss Of Kuala Lumpur, Great Crude Rubber Center And Capital Of Federated Malay States; Tokyo Also Claims Capture Of Strategic East Indies Centers

By The Associated Press The Japanese have driven within 150 miles of Singapore, keystone of the united nations' threatened bulwarks in the Far East, and at the same time claimed today that Japan's week-end invasion of The Netherlands East Indies had won the city of Menado, on the Celebes, and the oil-rich island of Tarakan, off Dutch Borneo. Loss of Kuala Lumpur, second largest city of British Malaya, was indicated meanwhile by the British when they acknowledged another retreat on the road to Singapore—withdrawal to new positions before Seremban, 35 miles southeast of Kuala Lumpur. The Japanese followed the Imperial forces with heavy assaults. Tokyo announced officially that its troops on Sunday entered Kuala Lumpur, one of the greatest centers for crude rubber in the world and capital of the federated Malay states. Kuala Lumpur is in Selangor. With British withdrawal to the Seremban line, the battle for Singapore moved into another state of Malaya, Negri Sembilan, the last one on the northeast before Johore, which takes up the southernmost tip of the Malay peninsula. Across a narrow strip of water from the Johore shore lies the island of Singapore, bristling with guns, modern fortifications and naval installations—the place which the British long have called their Gibraltar of the east, pivot of united nation strategic hopes in the Far East. Regardless of the sweep of the Japanese through almost two thirds of Malaya in little more than a month of war, Singapore will be no easy nut to crack. The most Japanese can hope for is a costly victory after terrible sieges. The Japanese supplemented their drive toward Singapore from the northwest with fierce air attacks. The Japanese said that a packed troop train was toppled from the track near Tampin by a bomb hit. Tampin is about 20 miles below Seremban. "Our withdrawal was closely followed up by enemy infantry, with continued attacks from enemy aircraft," said the British communique. "Severe fighting continues in the Selangor area," the bulletin added, indicating that all of Selangor state might not yet be lost although this might have been British rearguard action to slow the Japanese pursuit. The Japanese supplemented their claims of farflung land successes with an announcement that army planes sank a 3,000 ton merchant ship and damaged two submarines on Saturday in Malacca strait between Malaya and the Dutch island of Sumatra. The Japanese were finding a terrific resistance to their assault on the outskirts of the Dutch Archipelago. A Dutch communique said that N. E. I. forces were locked in bitter combat with enemy parachute troops which, with sea-borne forces, yesterday sought to envelop three strategic positions in the Mianhassa area, northern arm of the Celebes. In a fierce counter offensive against Japanese invaders, the Netherlands Indies fighting forces today claimed to have sunk a cruiser and two new transports off the oil base island of Tarakan. The Japanese swept into the East Indies water Saturday and began putting men ashore at four points during the night. A long-planned "scorched earth" policy was put into effect immediately. WEED QUOTAS ARE INCREASED

Increased Cigarette Consumption Is Reason

Raleigh, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Because cigarette consumption hit a new high in the last six months of 1941, the 1942 flue-cured tobacco allotments have been increased 10 per cent. In making the announcement, E. Y. Floyd, AAA executive officer at N. C. State college, said that four-fifths of the flue-cured weed used in this country goes into cigarettes. "There is every evidence," Floyd said, "that flue-cured tobacco growers will experience a good year in 1942 if they can overcome shortages of labor and essential materials, such as tobacco plant bed cloth. Attempts are being made to solve both problems." During the July-August period in 1940, cigarette smoking increased 18 per cent. North Carolina's flue-cured allotment is about 562,650 acres, compared with 511,500 last year. In 1941 the nation produced about 650,000,000 pounds of flue-cured tobacco. The market is expected to use about 750,000,000 pound this year. County Agent, R. R. Bennett, stating that he had received the first official information from Raleigh Saturday, explained the local increase as follows: "Allotments of one and a half acres or less will be increased by 1-10 of an acre and allotments of 1.6 acres or more will be increased by the straight 10 per cent, regardless of per cent of crop land or any other ruling." The county agent said the office already had begun calculating the increases in allotments which will be submitted to Raleigh for approval before notices are mailed to farmers.

Singapore, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Air raid warnings were in force almost continuously this afternoon but in the downtown area only British fighter planes were seen in the sky. Some bombs were dropped in outlying areas shortly after midnight.

Christian Science Service.

"Sacrament" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches and societies on Sunday, January 11.

The golden text was from I Cor. 5:8. "Let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth."

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon were the following from the Bible: "And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and knelt down, and prayed, saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me; nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done." (Luke 22:41, 42).

The lesson-sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "When the human element in him struggled with the divine, our great Teacher said: 'Not my will, but thine, be done!—that is, let not the flesh but the Spirit, but represented in me. This is the new understanding of spiritus. Love. It gives all for Christ, or Truth. It blesses its enemies, heals the sick, casts out error, raises the dead from trespasses and sins, and preaches the gospel to the poor, the meek in heart.'"

Delta Kappa Gamma Meets. At a meeting in Washington Saturday of Delta Kappa Gamma, honorary sorority for women in education, the topic of defense problems was chosen as the central theme for the year's programs and the motion was passed to buy immediately a $50 Defense Bond and to buy others from time to time.

A number of members from Greenville and the college attended the meeting, among them the state treasurer, Dr. Lucille Turner, and the chapter secretary, Miss Elizabeth Hyman.

The president of this chapter, which draws its membership from the whole of northeastern North Carolina, is Mrs. Mabel Evans Jones of Manteo, before her marriage an outstanding county supervisor and superintendent. Hostesses were Miss Elizabeth Waller, who served as assistant librarian at East Carolina Teachers College during the summer recently, and Miss Ella Bonner.

Report on Assembly Meet. At Friday evening Y. W. vesper Grace Ross of Aurora and Charlotte Shearin of Rocky Mount, who reported E. C. T. C., at the National Student Assembly held at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, between December 27 and January 3, spoke on the highlights of the assembly.

At this conference, which was inter-racial and international in character, were gathered about 785 students from 264 colleges and universities. All the states in the Union were represented except seven, the delegation from the Southern district being the largest. Among those present were Negroes, Chinese, Germans, Jews, Japanese, students from Jamaica, New Zealand and other distant countries.

The representatives were divided into Seminars during the A Seminars lasting from Saturday through Wednesday, and the B Seminars introduced the state pres-

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR Monday, January 12, 1902

The S. S. Society met at the home of Mrs. Wiley Brown on January 10. True it is that cheerfulness is riches that cannot be taxed. We began the new year with a bountiful supply. Roll call and minutes, read by our Sunshine secretary, whose name is no misnomer. She gets so much sunshine out of life that I catch myself almost envying her.

Of course some of these agencies have achieved splendid things. Many have accomplished their purpose and closed. But there are a few organizations which bring to the world the fine heritage of a continuous record of splendid usefulness.

The order of The King's Daughters and Sons for a long period of years has been making a history of outstanding service. Not only have The King's Daughters and Sons, local state and national, accomplishments but they have also international interests, too.

There were also lectures in morning and afternoon, and in the evening the assembly met for panel discussions. An impressive service of Holy Communion in which everyone present took part was held on the last night of the conference.

Out of these various groups grew resolutions embodying the conclusions drawn, which were presented to a general assembly for action just before the conference closed. These resolutions set forth the attitude of the students of the world toward problems like inter-racial relations and world fellowship.

College Vesper Services. Miss Mary Lee Ernest, Baptist student worker, who was the speaker last night at the vesper service at the college, talked on the subject of growth during the new year, suggesting as a goal toward which to grow the standard found in the last part of the thirteenth verse of the fourth chapter of Ephesians—"the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ."

Miss Ernest began by telling of a recent experience in a young people's meeting when one student had declared his determination to grow into a better Christian in 1942.

"I don't know what plan for growth he intended," said Miss Ernest, "but I am sure of two things: that such growth is a possibility and that the goal set up is most important."

She then spoke of the growth throughout all nature, and said that we all recognize the possibilities for similar spiritual growth. She pointed out how much better it was for the young man to have set up Christ as a model, instead of some relative or friend. Perhaps we grow like our model more unconsciously than consciously.

After reading several quotations that she suggested were good tests of Christian character, she closed by expressing a hope that all in the audience may grow into the measure of Christ during 1942.

Miss Ernest was presented by Charles Marks YMCA president.

The King's Daughters Meet. On Friday night Mrs. J. J. Stauffer was gracious hostess to the two circles of The King's Daughters at her new home on Fifth street extension. The Patient Circle were invited guests of the Hortense Moyer Juniors. The occasion was entertained our state president, Mrs. Thomas W. Young of Durham.

The meeting was in charge of the Juniors, Frances Aman, the president, called the meeting to order. The prayer of the order was used. Frances Hogbom read the Scripture lesson. The roll was called and all responded with their dues. Catherine Jolly welcomed the Patient Circle. Frances Aman then introduced the president of the Patient Circle, Mrs. W. R. Jones.

dent, Mrs. Young. The last few decades have seen great strides in organization. In that time we have viewed the rise and termination of many agencies, philanthropic, social and religious. In one survey of 46 organizations only 12 were in existence prior to 1900. In fact so many groups do not survive that we have the feeling of the small boy of St. Slaim Adams' verse:

"What's de use of raisin' chickens If dey won't stay riz? What's de use ob freezin' sherbet If it won't stay friz? What's de use ob payin' debts off If dey's gwine stay owed? What's de use ob blowin' noses If dey won't stay blowed?"

Of course some of these agencies have achieved splendid things. Many have accomplished their purpose and closed. But there are a few organizations which bring to the world the fine heritage of a continuous record of splendid usefulness.

The order of The King's Daughters and Sons for a long period of years has been making a history of outstanding service. Not only have The King's Daughters and Sons, local state and national, accomplishments but they have also international interests, too.

College Vesper Services. The Greenville Nurses' Council met on Friday night at the home of Mrs. Royce Jones, with Miss Davey Fleming as assisting hostess.

Due to the absence of the president, Mrs. M. E. Corbett, the meeting was called to order by Mrs. Alton Clapp. There was an open discussion on many important matters and a large amount of business was brought up.

The new officers were elected for the coming year as follows: President, Mrs. Lula Mae Fletcher; vice-president, Mrs. James L. Evans; secretary and treasurer, Miss Hall; reporter, Mrs. Jack Dixon.

Delightful refreshments were served by the hostesses.

Chio Club Meets. The Chio Club held its first regular meeting of 1942 on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. W. L. Whedbee as hostess. The president, Miss Jane Hadley, presided over the meeting.

After routine business, committee reports and announcements, Mrs. Roy Barrett gave a most interesting program on "Plays on Broadway."

Mrs. Barrett mentioned the effect of the last war on the theatre, and the fact that the entrance of the United States into this war coincided with the usual "blight before Christmas." However, judging by past experience and the experience of London, which has about 20 theatres open after all had been closed by the blitzkrieg, theatres will probably do a soaring business this year.

Among the most recent American drama about Woodrow Wilson and the lost cause of the League of Nations. Richard Gaines is giving a memorable performance as the war president, broken by a faith that is not shared by those with whom he is dealing. Other recent openings are "Brooklyn, U. S. A.," a story about gangsters which is somewhat different in that it does not represent them as colorful or heroic, and Eddie Cantor's new musical "Banjo Eyes."

From the group of propaganda plays she chose for discussion, "Candle in the Wind" in which Helen Hayes is appearing; "Watch on the Rhine," concerning the shadow of Hitler falling over an American harbor; "The Land is Bright" by Edna Ferber, author of "Show Boat"; and George S. Kaufman, author of "You Can't Take It With You"; this the story of three generations of

An American family, from robber baron through decadence to a re-dedication to Americanism; and "The Wookey," a story of what air raids are doing to the little people of England. Mrs. Barrett reviewed two comedies, "Arsenic and Old Lace," and Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit."

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Whedbee served a salad course and coffee.

Woman's Club Meets. The Woman's Club held its general meeting Friday night at eight o'clock at the club house. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. H. B. Moore, after which Mrs. Dink James led in reciting "The American's Creed" and the Salute to the Flag and the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner."

Mrs. Moore reminded members that all dues should be paid by the first of January and urged all those who had not paid to do so immediately so club expenses could be eliminated.

Reports were made by each department as follows: The American Home Department reported that a new rug had been purchased for the Sallie Southall Cotten Room. Mrs. James reported that 12 members visited the county home at Christmas, carrying gifts for the 26 inmates. Their gifts were donated by members of the department. Carols were sung around the tree and the Christmas story from the Bible was read.

Mrs. Conroy reported that the department had won the first prize for its float in the Christmas parade. She said that members of this department were crocheting an afghan which is to be sold later and asked that everyone give all extra bits of wools to Mrs. Harvey Ward.

The Garden Club reported that its Christmas show was a big success. A thousand visitors attended and $49 was cleared. Mrs. Garrett announced that Mrs. T. F. Wilkinson, Sr., of Cary, would speak at the next meeting on "Planting and Harvesting Gourds."

Mrs. Vance Perkins reported that the Junior club had purchased a defense bond. She also said that a Christmas tree and fruit, candy and nuts was provided by the Juniors for the kindergarten children of the West Greenville school.

Mrs. E. W. Harvey's report as chairman of the Welfare department was given by Mrs. Moore, since Mrs. Harvey was ill. The Roy Flanagan Christmas tree was placed in the club this year. Gifts, fruit, candy and nuts were given to 150 white children and 110 colored children. She thanked Mr. J. H. Rose, Mr. W. A. Ryan and Mr. B. E. Sugg for helpings with the program.

The Welfare department wishes especially to thank the following for their generous contributions for the community tree: Mrs. Walter Harrington, Mr. E. G. Flanagan, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Waldrop, Mr. and Mrs. Z. V. Murphree and Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Minges.

Magazines have been sent to the following schools by the Welfare department: Stonewall Jackson Training School, Farm Colony for Women, Samarcand Manor and Pitt County Home.

Mrs. Moore announced that the club would be 25 years old this year and that its anniversary would be celebrated with a pageant early in April. She said also that the Art Festival would consist this year of a school exhibit and hobby show. The date is tentatively set for April 30th.

The Red Cross sewing room is on the second floor of the club. Here you will find about the busiest work room in town. The knitting headquarters is the first room on the left downstairs, as you enter the club.

The following nominating committee was appointed: Mrs. F. B. Harmitte was appointed, Mrs. F. B. Haar R. C. Deal, Mrs. D. H. Conley and Mrs. Arthur B. Corey.

The club was delighted to hear Mr. J. H. Rose speak on "Civilian Defense." Mr. Rose said that everyone in the city has a place in civilian defense. He said we should select the place we fit best and get busy. The speaker described the progress being made by civilian airplane spotters all over the country. He described the filter center at Norfolk and told how women had their place in this project.

Mr. Rose said that Greenville's air raid warning would be a blast of number 55 from the fire whistle, the college whistle and the whistle at the water and light plant.

Mr. Rose said that the high school educational program was being revised to meet defense needs. Courses in radio home nursing, first aid, sheet metal work, busy buying and nutrition were being added. He said that the attitudes and ideals of youth in Greenville were exceptionally high.

ous life in the dramatic period that has seen two Roosevelts in the White House. "Come and Get It" has something important to say to all Americans.

"American Beauty"—the story of the invasion of the Connecticut Valley by the passionate, hot-headed, tenacious Polish who have pushed out the descendants of the Mayflower from their white-spined villages and neglected farms.

"Cimarron"—a great adios to the last American frontier. A slice of Oklahoma history, the story of the land rush of 1889, a blazing epic of the making of a nation.

"Show Boat"—a brilliant narrative canvas that recaptures the great days of the Mississippi when white and gold floating theatres were pushed majestically up and down from Minnesota to New Orleans.

"So Big"—the story of a memorably courageous woman on a middle-western farm. Not alone the study of a mother and her son, but the whole system of false standards in America today. Awarded the Pulitzer Prize, this novel of spiritual power and deep color has been read with profit by more than seven million Americans.

I. C. Club. Tonight at 7:30 the I. C. Club will hold its monthly meeting in room 35. The meeting was postponed last Monday, the regular time, due to its being too soon after Christmas.

A discussion on "Should we take in new members as we have in the past" will be led by Doris Broadhurst, president of the club.

Council Meeting. The student council will meet tonight at room 21 at 7:30. The meeting was changed from tomorrow night to tonight because of the basketball game in the high school at 8 o'clock tomorrow night.

Play Chosen. "A coin was flipped" stated Myrtle Gray Pollard, drama teacher, reporter of the choice between the two plays which were the favorites of the Dramaters. The play "Use" won, therefore it will be the contest play of the Greenville high school Dramaters. As yet the cast has not been selected.

Warning Signs. Attractive signs have been posted around the halls and rooms of the school telling students to "Keep Cafeteria Clean." "Yes, there's a war, but not in the hall, so keep quiet." The posters are to remind students of the excess noise and un-

Library News. The Ferber Books. Edna Ferber, the most masculine and energetic writer of all the American women novelists, has again written a best-seller. "Saratoga Trunk" and again she comes South for her material. In her earlier days she chose the middle west for the locale of her novels, but more recently she has traveled up East and down South for her stories. As all Carolinians know she came to Bath, N. C., to get her material for "Show Boat," her most popular book. "Saratoga Trunk" is laid in New Orleans, but the two main characters in the book make several trips to Saratoga, N. Y., thus the Saratoga in the title.

Miss Ferber spends far more time than the average writer gathering the material for her books. She is a close observer, but often makes technical mistakes. For instance, in "Peculiar Treasury" she tells about miners being in the audience on the Show Boat while tied up at Bath, N. C. There are no miners anywhere near that section of North Carolina, so they must have been just farm tenants resembling miners to her.

However, Miss Ferber is a splendid story teller. She puts plenty of action in her books and gives the details her readers are anxious to know. She knows how to give her books masculine strength and from which she sets them apart from other novels written by women. She will always have a large following.

The Sheppard Memorial Library has eight books on its shelves written by this talented woman. They are:

"Saratoga Trunk"—a flamboyant story in a setting to match. A New Orleans Creole, half aristocrat, half a nameless member of the underworld, beautiful and unscrupulous, falls in love with a Texas cowboy. Their marriage and complete understanding of each other, and subsequent trips to Saratoga make the plot of a fascinating novel.

"Peculiar Treasury"—an autobiography which discerning readers have found to be her most interesting book because she tells so much about how, where and why her books were conceived. She also reveals a lot about herself, giving intimate glimpses into her private life.

"Come and Get It"—a lusty, surging saga of the North—a story of strong men and women, of an empire in the making—and the breaking?—of a whole family's tumultu-

No Definite Trends Yet In Big Five Basketball Race

WAKE TO PLAY CAROLINA FIVE

Tuesday Night Game Only Intra-Loop Tilt of Week

Raleigh, Jan. 12 (AP)—About the only thing that the big five basketball race has definitely settled so far is that apparently everybody can lick Davidson.

The Wildcats have gone down before North Carolina, Duke and N. C. State in that order, and indications are that they would lose, also, to the Wake Forest Deacons. We'll never know about that definitely, though, because three years ago the Baptists and the Presbyterians stopped speaking to each other.

This week's program won't offer much help to fans wondering which team will be the race-setter in the mythical state loop. The only intra-loop five game will be played between Wake Forest and North Carolina. They meet in Chapel Hill on Tuesday night.

Duke goes to Lynchburg, Va., to meet V.M.I. tonight. Tomorrow night, State and Clemson play here, and Davidson plays South Carolina in Columbia. Clemson tries to move over to Wake Forest Wednesday night to meet the Deacons, and go to Chapel Hill Friday to engage the Tar Heels.

North Carolina will play South Carolina in Columbia and Duke will meet Navy at Annapolis Saturday night.

A backward look reveals that the big five teams won all their games with outside teams. Duke came up with a 37 to 35 victory over Tennessee and one of 37 - 33 over Maryland; State beat the McCrary Eagles 46 to 37 and Hanes Hosiery 45 to 36; Wake Forest defeated Hanes Hosiery 54-52 and George Washington 39-35; and Carolina downed Fordham 34-25.

The week also saw Davidson get beat 75 to 40 by Duke and 71 to 48 by State.

William And Mary Star Top Scorer

Richmond, Va., Jan. 12 (AP)—Glenn Knox, engine center on the William and Mary basketball team which is now setting the pace in the Southern Conference campaign, holds the scoring lead with 61 points in four family tilts.

The second best sharpshooter is Matt Zunic, George Washington, with 56 points in four games. Travis of Maryland has gotten 42 points in three games. "Bones" McKinney, North Carolina State soph, picked up 23 points in his only conference appearance against Davidson.

Knox played end on the W. and M. grid squad and earned a berth on the second all-southern eleven, missing a first team spot by only a few votes. He hails from Niota, Tenn., and transferred to W. and M. last year from Tennessee Wesleyan where he rolled up 467 points in 23 games.

A step behind W. and M.'s Indians in the team race are Duke's defending champions with three successes so far, and an engagement with V. M. I. coming up tonight at Lynchburg.

The surprising Furman club which conquered Clemson and the highly regarded South Carolina quint last week, ranks next with two wins and North Carolina and North Carolina State have both overwhelmed Davidson in their only loop engagements.

Two Dollar Race Ticket Paid Them $3,627

On their first visit to the races, Harry E. White, Miami Beach waiter, and his wife held one of three winning $2 daily double tickets at Miami's Tropical Park which paid them $3,627.80. Mrs. White holds onto a rail at the pay-off window and White hugs her joyously.

CONFIDENT IN 1942 YANKEES

McCarthy Says The Champs To Be Plenty Tough

By MILT CARLIN

Buffalo, Jan. 12 (AP)—Joe McCarthy is confident that despite war conditions his world champion New York Yankees "are going to be tough again."

The 54-year-old Yankee manager expects to open the 1942 campaign with virtually the same team that won last year's world series, providing Uncle Sam doesn't call too many of his players into the armed services.

"After all," he commented, "the other major league clubs are in the same boat."

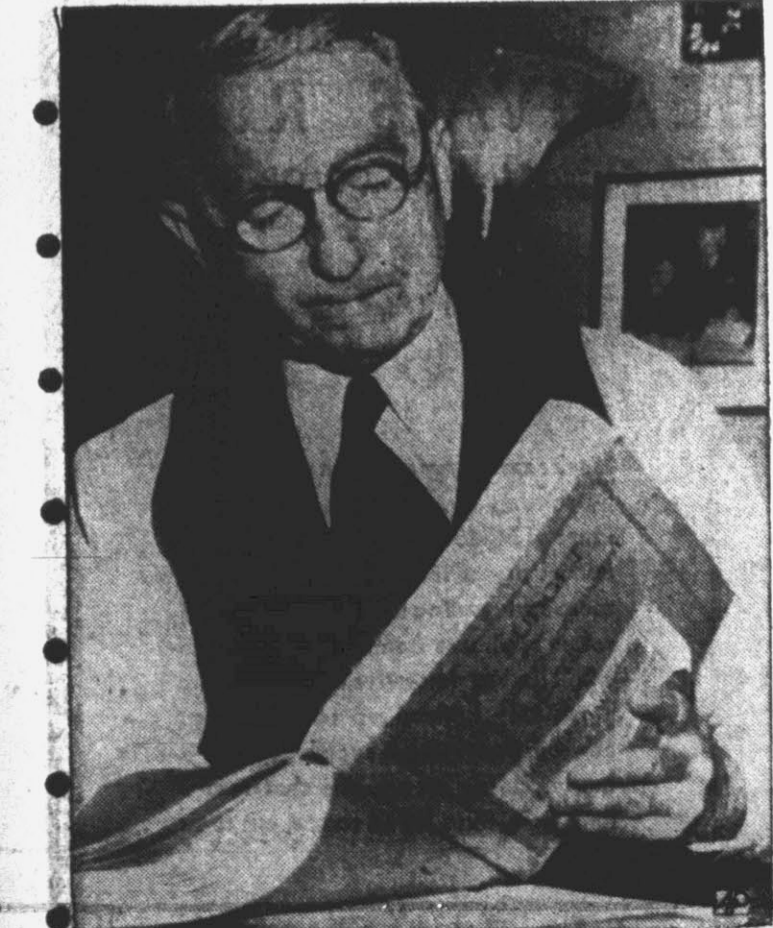

He's still in doubt about a first baseman with Johnny Sturm due to report for army induction next month — but he's far from worried. His biggest problem is choosing between Buddy Hassett recently acquired from the Boston Braves, and Tommy Henrich, who fields the position like a veteran although normally an outfielder.

Third base also might present a slight problem with Red Rolfe still on the sick list.

"It all depends on Rolfe's health," McCarthy observed, pointing out that second baseman Gerald Priddy, who came up with Phil Rizzuto from Kansas City last year, could play third if necessary. McCarthy said his infield probably would include Rizzuto at shortstop and Joe Gordon at second again with Frank Crosetti available for relief duty.

Among the newcomers McCarthy expects to work into the lineup are pitcher John Lindell, a righthander who won more than 20 games for Newark last year to lead the International League, and Ziggie Sears, hard-hitting Newark catcher.

George Tackles War Budget

In his shirt sleeves, Senator Walter F. George, Democrat of Georgia, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, digs into the President's $59,000,000,000, 1172-page war budget and started making arrangements for his committee to begin legislative action on the big victory program.

PHANTOM FIVE PLAY AT HOME

Meet Elizabeth City in Local Gym Tuesday Night

Greenville High's Phantoms open their conference schedule of home games Tuesday night at the local gym when they meet Elizabeth City. The Phantoms dropped their first conference game to Goldsboro in that city Friday night after a hard battle, and will be out to even the count tomorrow.

The locals have one of the best squads that they have had in quite a few years but have not been able to work out the best combination yet. Coach Boley Farley expects to be right up in the thick of the conference fight before many weeks pass. At present three teams of about equal strength are working together and when these boys get right it is going to be touch on the opposition.

Elizabeth City won handily Friday night over New Bern and will be after a win over the locals to keep their conference record clean. The game will get under way at eight o'clock in the high school gym.

haps for several years. The National Industrial Conference Board estimates that 99 per cent of our rubber imports come from areas now occupied or threatened by the Japanese. Roughly half of it came from Malaya, another third from The Netherlands Indies, and the rest from French Indo-China and Ceylon.

Shipping sources say the entire Far Eastern rubber traffic is practically at a standstill. If Singapore holds out, probably some rubber will be conveyed to this country. If it falls, the American motorist will have to grin and bear it.

If rubber supplies are so tight, why doesn't OPM order construction of more synthetic rubber plants?

They have already done so. But since the start of the war, such contracts have not been announced. Previously Washington had disclosed the capacity and location of each new factory.

This policy accounts for the apparent lack of new construction.

Corset manufacturers, battling to obtain rubber supplies, are reported trying to convince OPM that girdles and corsets are needed to support the country's morale.

THE RUBBER SHORTAGE (Continued from page one) sumption of rubber for 1942 is definitely bleak. Some use of reclaims will be permitted; but if we are to supply the armed forces freely, stock our allies and protect our good neighbor policy, it is possible that even these supplies will be cut off later in the year. It will be particularly true if the war continues to go against the Allies in the Far East and Singapore falls.

Many substitute sources of rubber have been suggested, Brazilian wild rubber, guayule, and synthetic rubber. The important thing, however, is that rubber obtained from all these substitute sources in 1941 was less than one good month's supply.

Except for certain special uses, none of these substitutes is, in normal times, a real competitor for natural rubber. They have not been developed and cannot be made to fill the breach overnight — nor per-

Louis Reports

New York, Jan. 12 (AP)—Joe Louis passed his final physical examination today for induction into the Army and will take the last step Wednesday at Camp Upton, Long Island, which will change him to plain Private Joe Louis Barrow.

The heavyweight champion went through an hour and a half physical test at Fort Jay, Governor's Island, along with some 400 other selectees. "Well, guess I haven't got those flat feet I was afraid of," Louis said on hearing that the Army physicians had okayed him "from head to feet."

Joe went through the "whole works" as one major at Fort Jay expressed it, "just as any other draftee."

After his induction Wednesday, he will be placed in the morale division of the Army.

ALLIES AIDING DUTCH FORCES

Australian And American Planes Taking Part

Batavia, N. E. I., Jan. 12 (AP)—Hard-hitting forces of the Netherlands Indies' allies (presumably bomber and fighter squadrons from the United States and Australia) were declared officially today to be taking part in vigorous counter action in which the fighting Dutch battled strong Japanese invasions of Borneo and Celebes.

Reporting the joint bombing of two Japanese cruisers, a destroyer and two transports yesterday and today, an official Dutch announcement declared that "our allies are energetically taking part in the fighting against the invaders."

The War Department at Washington said in its Sunday communique that American planes "attacked an enemy cruiser and two large transports in the Celebes sea with undetermined results. The Batavia report specifically mentioned Australian planes in action also in that area."

Japanese parachutists and sea-borne forces were battling doggedly in an effort to improve the positions they won early yesterday at the oil center island of Tarakan, off northeastern Borneo and on the northern arm of Celebes.

"The fight at both invasion points continues stubbornly," a special NEI armed forces statement declared.

Merchants' Prexy Names Committee

A list of committees appointed by H. Lyman Ormond, president of the Greenville Merchants Association, was released today in the association's weekly bulletin.

The list follows: Trade Promotion, O. F. Matthews, chairman, W. F. Young, C. R. McBrayer, C. A. Plyler and Morris Brody; Civilian Defense, Clarence Coburn, chairman, Bancroft Moseley, L. M. at the shipping which carried and supported the invasion, the special statement said:

"Our allies are energetically taking part in the fight against the invaders."

"Allied planes yesterday shot down four Japanese planes over Minahassa (northern Celebes) while they further scored two direct hits on a Japanese cruiser and a near miss on a destroyer. "This morning two Australian planes near Menado (where the Japanese landed on Celebes) were shot down in flames by the Japanese."

"Our bombers this morning scored a direct hit on a Japanese cruiser lying off Tarakan, while our (American made) Glenn Martin bombers also scored two direct hits on two Japanese transport ships lying there."

WAR'S PUBLIC TO SAVE FOOD

Wickard Cautions Americans Against Complacency

By OVID A. MARTIN
Washington, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Declaring the war was placing new, unexpected and as yet unmeasurable demands upon this country for food, Secretary of Agriculture Wickard today cautioned Americans against being excessively concerned about prices and too complacent about supplies.

He voiced this warning in an interview explaining why he had asked congress to vest in him, rather than in a separate price administrator, the power to set ceilings on farm products. The senate in effect gave him that power in a price control bill passed Saturday, despite a request of President Roosevelt that all price control be vested in a single administrator. Congressional action on the legislation has not been completed, however.

Emphasizing that he did not wish to alarm consumers, Wickard said they should nevertheless recognize that events since Pearl Harbor had greatly altered the food situation. Before Japan struck, demands were limited mostly to this country and Great Britain. Supplies and production prospects appeared ample then.

"But today no one can tell," the secretary said, "what the demands upon us may be before the war is won. We may be called upon to furnish vast supplies to allied fighting forces and peoples all over the world. We may want to send huge quantities of food as well as munitions to the conquered peoples at the proper time so that they might help defeat the dictators."

"In view of this prospect, I am concerned," Wickard said, "that the American people are more concerned about prices than the possibility that, in the future, demands might outstrip supplies."

Masons Will Install New Officers Tonight

Installation of officers will be a feature of the regular convocation of Chapter No. 50, Royal Arch Masons, tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

Officers will be installed by District Deputy High Priest G. A. Farrow of New Bern, assisted by other distinguished visitors.

STATE BUREAU PROGRAM SET

Several Local Men To Take Part In Annual Meet

With one Greenville man as president and others from this city and elsewhere in this immediate section scheduled to appear on the program, a large number of farm men and farm women are planning to attend the annual meeting of the North Carolina Farm Bureau Federation to be held at the Sir Walter Hotel, Raleigh, Wednesday and Thursday of this week.

Many important discussions are scheduled for the two-day session and as many Pitt county farmers and farm women who can be urged to attend, grand sessions of which will be held in the grand ball room. The general theme of the meeting will be "Agriculture and National Defense."

J. E. Winslow is president of the organization and will preside over the meetings. J. H. Blount, local business man and farmer, is chairman of the Resolutions Committee, one of the most important of the organization. President Winslow will make his annual address at the Wednesday afternoon session, at which several other nationally-known leaders will appear. The president will be introduced by Dr. M. T. Frizzelle of Ayden. A. C. Edwards of Hookerton also will appear on the Wednesday program, being scheduled to make the response to the address of welcome by Mayor Graham Andrews of Raleigh.

Mayor B. B. Sugg will be toastmaster at the annual banquet Wednesday night, at which Josephus Daniels will be the principal speaker.

The Thursday morning session will be highlighted by an address by Edward A. O'Neal, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation, who is well known here through his several visits. Also appearing on the Thursday morning program is J. B. Hutson, president of the Commodity Credit Corporation, who will speak on the Lend-Lease program.

Funeral Held For Mrs. Luana Evans

Mrs. Luana Evans, 62, died at her home on the New Bern Road near Greenville at 6:15 o'clock Saturday afternoon after 13 months of illness. Funeral services were conducted from the home this afternoon at two o'clock by her pastor, Rev. W. B. Nobles of Winterville, and burial followed in the McGowan family cemetery nearby.

Mrs. Evans was born, reared and spent her entire life in Pitt county. She was the daughter of the late Thomas Haddock and Mrs. Sarah Haddock of Pitt county. She was a member of the Rose Hill Free Will Baptist church.

Surviving are her husband, Gilford Evans; two sons, Lyman Evans of the home and Lanier Evans of Pitt county; five daughters, Miss Ethel Evans of the home, Mrs. Arthur Ayers, Mrs. Raymond Evans, and Mrs. Rufus McLawhorn of Pitt county; and Mrs. Pearl Stocks of Martin County; 14 grand children; her mother, Mrs. Sarah Haddock of this county; four brothers, Southerly, Zeno, and Fred Haddock, all of this county; six sisters, Mrs. Marion Evans of Martin County, Mrs. John McLawhorn, Mrs. Leon Sutton, Mrs. Tommie Adams, Mrs. John Hardy, and Miss Bessie Haddock, all of this county.

Declares Anxiety Cause Of Unrest

By WYATT BROWN
"The greatest joy killer in the world is anxiety; it keeps one from doing his best," declared Reverend George W. Perry, pastor, in his sermon on "Getting Rid of Anxiety" at Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church yesterday morning. "Cast all your anxieties upon Him, for the scripture says as his text. 'Anything distracts which causes anxiety. One cannot do his best. If there is any way to get rid of anxiety and live joyfully and delightfully, it seems to me one should use it.'"

"We would be better off if we had used what was in our reach to drive back the most anxiety who is ever on our tracks. If one expects to rid of it, shift it to the Lord. To shift it to the Lord is not unkind. It is something God has invited. God cares," explained Mr. Perry.

Then Mr. Perry took cognizance of the number who are unhappy in the world of their friends, how people seek someone to listen and they do not listen in the right way, do not satisfy. This people do when God listens anytime and promises life to those who come to Him.

Next he took under consideration those who procrastinate in making their lives worthwhile. Those who just keep planning to.

"Would it not be wonderful to live to best possible life today; then tomorrow will be an even better day and will not be so hard. Today God has put within our reach choice things and asks us to use them to make ourselves happy and others happy."

Funeral Tomorrow For Miss Holliday

Miss Elizabeth Holliday, 21, died in Pitt General Hospital at 3:45 o'clock this morning after she had suffered a heart attack Sunday morning. Funeral services will be conducted from her home at 206 West Fourth Street Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock by her pastor, Dr. J. D. Simons, pastor of the Memorial Baptist Church. Burial will follow in Greenwood Cemetery.

Miss Holliday was born, reared, and spent her entire life in Greenville. She attended the Greenville city schools and graduated from Greenville high school in 1937. Then she entered East Carolina Teachers College and was graduated from that institution in June, 1941. She had been teaching in the Bell Arthur school since last September.

She was one of the most active members of the Memorial Baptist church and taught Sunday school there for several years. She was a member of the Beta Club in high school and a member of the YWCA and the Glee club while in college. She was also an officer in the BSU council for two years while she was attending ECTC.

Surviving are her mother, Mrs. Bruce Holliday of this city; three sisters, Mrs. James Keel, and Miss Mattie Lawrence Holliday, also of this city, and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. W. S. Godley of Grimesland.

The following will serve as active pallbearers: Russell Jefferson, L. A. Stroud, Leon Teague, Wilson Massey, D. G. Nichols, and L. V. Godley.

Credit Asso. Meet Set January 28th

The annual meeting of the Greenville Production Credit Association, which extends a short-term credit service to Pitt county farmers, will be held on January 28 at Greenville in the Pitt county court house, beginning at 2 p. m., according to an announcement by John R. Carroll, president of the association.

This will be the eighth annual meeting and Mr. Carroll said that it is his hope to make this the best meeting in the history of the association. Complete and detailed reports on the operations of the organization for the past year will be submitted by the officers and plans for further developing the service which this farmers' cooperative has to offer will be discussed.

At the meeting two directors will be elected and other business will be transacted. Mr. Carroll said that it is hoped that every member of the association will make an effort to be present at this meeting.

In addition to Pitt county, the Greenville Production Credit Association serves Greene county farmers. The association made loans in 1941 totaling $438,375 to its members for production and general agricultural purposes.

JAPS SUSTAIN LOSSES AT SEA

Many Successes Scored By Dutch And Allied Forces

(By The Associated Press)
The sinking of two Japanese transports, hits on at least two others, a direct hit which caused fire on a battleship, direct hits on a destroyer and a near miss on a destroyer were marked up against the Japanese in Dutch and United States communiques over the weekend.

The successes were divided as follows:
Sinking:
Two transports in the Gulf of Siam, the recent work of a Netherlands submarine cooperating with the British fleet for East Asia.
Hits:
A battleship in Malaga bay, Davao gulf, Philippine Islands, directly hit and left afire by a formation of heavy bombers of the United States Army.

Also under United States attack, with undetermined results, were a cruiser and two large transports in the Celebes sea.

Two transports, hit by American-built planes of the Dutch off the island of Tarakan, near Dutch Borneo.

A cruiser directly hit twice by Dutch allied planes off Minahassa, Celebes.

A second cruiser hit once by Dutch bombers off Tarakan.

Near miss:
A destroyer, rocked by a nearby blast, off Minahassa.

Norwegian Fliers Ordered Arrested

Berlin, Jan. 12.—(Official Broadcast Recorded by AP)—The Germans announced today all former officers of the Norwegian air force and navy have been ordered arrested because some 100 of their number have escaped to England to resume their fight against Germany.

The announcement said the Norwegian officers, released after cessation of German-Norwegian hostilities, were being rounded up under an order issued by Josef Terboven, German commander in Norway.

Another decree issued by Terboven ordered arrest of 20 former high court officials and close friends of the Norwegian royal house in reprisal "for the kidnaping of eight members of the National Samling (quising) party by Englishmen in violation of international law."

(These quislings apparently were among prisoners captured by Britain's hard-striking commandos in hit-and-run raids upon the Norwegian coast.)
