

Expect Japs Will Attack Russia Soon

Reported Rejection
By Russia Of Japan's
"Suggestions"
Expected To Give Japs Pretext For Invasion of Siberia

By The Associated Press Reports circulating in Chungking, China's wartime capital, said today that Russia had rejected "suggestions" made by Japan in the last few days and that a break into open conflict between the two nations was expected at any moment.

Reports circulating in Chungking, China's war-time capital, said today that Russia had rejected "suggestions" made by Japan in the last few days and that a break into open conflict between the two nations was expected at any moment.

These reports, unconfirmed elsewhere but closely attuned to recent indications of Japanese preparations to attack Soviet Siberia, said Japanese Ambassador Naotake Sato had presented the "suggestions" to the Kremlin since the Tokyo cabinet shake-up last week.

Presumably the "suggestions" involved Japanese demands on Russia's Pacific maritime provinces, particularly the key port of Vladiv-ostok only 650 miles by bomber across the Sea of Japan from Tokyo.

Military analysts pointed out that such demands might serve as a pretext for a Japanese invasion of Siberia, seeking to guard Japan's northern flank for an ultimate major operation against Alaska or the United States Pacific coast.

Upwards of 500,000 Japanese troops, including many thousands withdrawn from the east China war theater, have been reported massing recently along the Siberia frontier in Manchukuo.

Resignation of Shigenori Togo as Japanese foreign minister on September 1 was interpreted by some students of the Far East as clearing the decks for Tokyo's warlords to move on Siberia.

Emphasis was placed upon this interpretation by Joseph Dynan, recently returned member of the former Associated Press staff in Tokyo, because Togo's withdrawal eliminated a known exponent of a neutral attitude toward Moscow.

Before June, Dynan related there were rumors in Tokyo that Japan had been seeking to negotiate with Russia for the northern half of Sakhalin island, Kamchatka peninsula, and the maritime provinces embracing Vladivostok—all to be held by Japan for "safekeeping" until the war's end.

Pitt Murderer Paroled Today

Raleigh, Sept. 8.—(AP)—Eleven prisoners, including four serving terms for second degree murder, were paroled today by Governor Broughton.

William Dunn, Jr., acting commissioner of paroles, said the paroles included Jack Brown, sentenced in Pitt in October, 1933, to 20 to 22 years for second degree murder.

Official Visits Junior Red Cross

The Junior Red Cross Committee held its first meeting of the fall at the home of the chairman, Mrs. J.
B. James on Friday afternoon, September 4. The committee was delighted to have present for this discussion of plans for the coming year's work Miss Roberson, who is general field representative of the Eastern Area of Red Cross, and who is now making Greenville her headquarters, and Mrs. Walter Taylor, the newly appointed executive secretary for the Pitt County chapter of the American Red Cross.

The schools of the city, through their sponsors, agreed again to furnish new magazines to the Service Men's organization as they did so efficiently last year. Report was made that Mrs. Rose is preparing a pageant which will be given in both city and county schools. The schools also reported that plans are being made for the celebration on September 15 of the 25th anniversary of the founding of the Junior Red Cross.

In her suggestions for the work of the year, Miss Roberson brought a new appreciation of the scope of the work of the Red Cross for Juniors, and with the enthusiastic support of the schools, the Junior Red Cross committee hopes this year to make great strides forward in reaching an all-time high in production.

Present for this meeting, besides the chairman and visiting officials were Mrs. Lyman Ormond, treasurer, Mrs. Lyndon Blount, secretary, and Misses June Hadley, Frances Wahl, Agnes Fullilove, Janie Lyely and Miss Newell and Mrs. Garner, representing the schools of the city.

Churchill Optimistic In Address To Parliament

LITTLE ACTION AFRICAN AREA

Rommel's Losses
Heavy In Recent Drive

Cairo, Sept. 8.—(AP)—Axis anti-tank batteries were deployed today in an apparent attempt to hold a passage through the British minefield in the western desert while Field Marshal Erwin Rommel halted and regrouped his battered main forces near the starting point of his ill-fated second bid for the Nile valley.

British headquarters said there were no developments worthy of note in the southern sector yesterday while, "although enemy air activity was on a reduced scale, at least six enemy aircraft were destroyed for a loss of only one of ours."

"Last night our night fighters shot down at least three enemy bombers in the (Nile) delta area," it said.
A direct hit is claimed by a heavy bomber crew on an enemy vessel in the eastern Mediterranean.

(Wendell L. Wilkie declared in Ankara that Rommel had lost 100 of the 290 first-line tanks he threw into the first battle of his offensive last week—"I saw the ruins of these tanks myself." He expressed belief that the German marshal had lost 40 per cent of his punch).

Axis detachments were reported

War Bond Booth To Aid Campaign

A booth for the sale of war bonds and stamps has been placed in front of the Colony theater on Evans street and someone will be on duty at all times for the convenience of persons who wish to purchase bonds. September is "Salute to Our Heroes" month in theaters throughout the country and all the local theaters are co-operating in this increased effort to sell war bonds and stamps.

Second Front Decisions Were Made During July

Washington, Sept. 8.—(AP)—The White House disclosed today, after President Roosevelt had made it plain that preparations were under way for opening a second front in Europe, that the "necessary decisions regarding military operations" were made at a London conference between British and American officials in July.

The conferences, held with Prime Minister Winston Churchill and the British chiefs of staff, lasted ten days and covered the whole conduct of the war.

This government was represented by Harry L. Hopkins as President Roosevelt's personal representative, Gen. George C. Marshall, Army Chief of Staff, and Admiral Ernest J. King, Chief of Naval Operations.

Expesses Confidence In Ability Of The United Nations

London, Sept. 8.—(AP)—A British army is rapidly being strengthened in Iran and Iraq "which may eventually give support" to Soviet Russia's imperiled left flank, Prime Minister Churchill disclosed today, indicating British preparation to enter directly into the battle of Russia if necessary.

His statement came in a detailed war report to the House of Commons which reflected confidence in the Allied situation generally in the air and at sea and, specifically, on the vital western desert front in Egypt.

The Prime Minister gave Commons assurances both that Egypt was secure by the virtual raising there of a new Allied army, stronger than ever, in the midst of battle and that the day for an offensive against Hitler's Europe is coming.

He called the Dieppe raid more than a Commando raid, a reconnaissance in force which was an "indispensable preliminary" to greater undertakings.

Thus, the Prime Minister pictured Hitler as blocked at one side of his great 1942 campaign by control of the Mediterranean sea and the trans-Caucasus and possibly about to come to grips with a new, strong British force on the other.

The 10th army, separated now from the Middle East command and made an autonomous force under General Sir Henry Maitland Wilson, Churchill disclosed, "is being rapidly strengthened and, with substantial air forces which it will require, may eventually give sup-time conferring with Brendan Brak-en, Britain's minister of public information.

The decisions on military operations were, of course, not revealed, although Mr. Roosevelt in his " Fireside Chat" last night pointed out that there were at least a dozen different places at which attacks could be launched.

There was a probability that the meetings, described by the White House as important, were related directly to the recent conferences in Moscow between Churchill, Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin and W.
Averell Harriman, American lend-lease agent in England.

JAP ATTEMPT ON SOLOMONS HURLED BACK

Americans Blasted New Jap Attempt
To Land Reinforcements

Washington, Sept. 8.—(AP)— American land and air power blasted away today at scattered Japanese forces which gambled heavily with troops, ships and planes in a desperate effort to reinforce their isolated patrols in the southeastern Solomon Islands.

Disclosing the latest enemy attempts to regain lost footholds in the strategic Solomons, the Navy reported yesterday that U. S. planes bombed and strafed fleets of small boats, destroying many of them and causing "heavy loss of life."

Presumably, the Japanese succeeded in landing some reinforcements for their shattered forces.
The Navy communique, however, referred to the landings as "attempted" and added that "our Marine forces are continuing their efforts to search out and dispose" of isolated patrols which had withdrawn to the mountains and jungles after American occupation.

A U. S. air patrol discovered the latest enemy attempt at a landing Saturday near the western end of Guadalcanal. The patrol sank three landing boats, damaged several others, the Navy said, and "killed a large number of troops."

Earlier, the Navy reported briefly, the Japanese sent several small detachments into the southeastern Solomons and a landing party was sighted yesterday near San Jorge Island about 65 miles northwest of the important San Jorge airfield on Guadalcanal.

Grumman fighters and Douglas (Dauntless) dive bombers attacked the group of small vessels, sinking several, the Navy said, and raked the decks with machinegun fire causing "heavy loss of life."

The Japanese efforts to reinforce their small forces also brought several attacks by land-based bombers apparently from the enemy's mainland bases to the north.

RATION HEADS IN MEET HERE

Discuss Re-Examina- tion Supplement- ary Rations

By CHESTER WALSH
Seventeen of the 26 county rationing boards of this area were represented at a gasoline conference of state and county rationing officials at the City Hall here today.
J. B. Kittrell, Pitt County chairman, opened the meeting and presided. It was called to discuss gasoline rationing regulations and the new "yardstick" guide setting up 27 occupations not eligible for preferred mileage.

The conference was for educational purposes, to review with local rationing board the gasoline regulation preparatory to re-examination of all supplementary gasoline rationing by local boards in the near future. The "yardstick" rule is intended for use in reviewing C mileage rationing and in considering future applications. The new method is expected to relieve local rationing boards of making "on the fence" decisions.

State rationing officials participating in today's conference were Guy W. Rawls, state organization officers; W. H. Hoffer, state rationing officer; G. L. Bateman, state fuel rationing specialist; Judge Daniel L. Bell, state rationing attorney; Don L. Leach, field representative, and Misses Rachel Senter and Maggie Ellis, from state headquarters in Raleigh.

Beaufort, Bertie, Carteret, Chowan, Craven, Duplin, Gates, Greene, Hyde, Lenoir, Martin, New Hanover, Onslow, Pamlico, Pasquotank, Pitt and Washington counties were represented in today's area meeting.

Similar area conferences are scheduled to be held at Raleigh tomorrow, Winston-Salem on Thursday, and at Asheville on Friday.

The WAR TODAY

important phase of his tour as per-

APPROVE NEW VICTORY TAX

Senate Committee
Opposes Spending
Tax

Washington, Sept. 8.—(AP)—Re-The Senate Finance Committee voted 13 to 6 today to adopt a 5 per cent "Victory" tax on the income of all individuals in excess of $624 a year.

At the same time, the committee directed the Treasury to make an immediate study of the possibility of combining this tax with the regular income tax, so that collection would be simplified.

The committee thus acted to obtain an annual $3,500,000,000 from individuals over and above present taxes and those anticipated in the pending revenue bill.

The Treasury's spending tax plan was turned down on a vote of 12 to 0.

Chairman George (D-Ga.) said the committee had rejected on a voice vote a $6,500,000,000 spending tax program submitted by the treasury and now was considering his suggestion for a five per cent "victory"

JAPS INCREASE DRIVE TOWARD PORT MORESBY

Jungle Fighters Push Allies Back In
New Guinea
Mountains

By MURLIN SPENCER
General MacArthur's headquarters, Australia, Sept. 8 (AP) Japanese jungle fighters, forcing back Allied advance patrols, have pushed up into the Owen Stanley range and are in contact with the Allied defense line in the mountains that guard the way across southeast New Guinea to Port Moresby. General MacArthur's headquarters disclosed today.

A communique said fighting was on an expanded scale from earlier patrol clashes.

It was not immediately clear whether the Japanese had won their way through the principal pass in the mountains or whether the Allied defense line still guarded the high gap.

The communique said, "in a series of tactical attacks, combined with envelopment, the enemy has made advances, forcing back our troops in the forward areas, and is now in contact with out defense positions."

The scene of the Japanese advances was described as the Kokoda-Myola area.

Kokoda, scene of recent patrol clashes, is 1,000 feet above sea level on the north side of the range some 60 miles from Port Moresby. Mo-yla, mentioned for the first time in today's communique, is 6,000 feet above sea level, some eight miles south of Kokoda on the way to the Allied port.

The fighting, which had consisted largely of patrol skirmishes, widened in extreme and bitter and both sides sent planes skimming over the mountain peaks to join in the important struggle.

The Japanese have lost more than 1,000 men in dead and wounded in the preliminary stages of the fighting since their landing at Gona Mis-son July 22 and the advance to Kokoda, a spokesman for MacArthur said.

The drive to Moyle came after another Japanese force, landed at Milne Bay in an apparent effort to move up the southern coast of New Guinea to Port Moresby on the Allies' side of the mountain range, walked into ambush and disaster.

Some Japanese were still lurking in the Milne Bay area on the extreme southeastern tip of New Guinea, but today's communique said the Allied mopping up operations there were "nearing completion."

Taking advantage of unfavorable flying weather which prevented Allied air attacks, Japanese naval units entered the bay on Sunday and Monday night and shelled the Allied positions, it was reported.

The foresight and skill with which the intended Japanese invasion at Milne Bay was met and defeated indicated that the enemy force advancing from Kokoda might be moving forward to unpleasant surprises. The Allied forces have had months to prepare their positions around the mountain pass.

Allied planes flying over the mountains were reported diving down to bomb and machinegun Japanese supply lines and installations.
Large fires were started and direct

Air Raid Control Rehearsal Friday

The civilian defense control center staff will hold a practice session at the City Hall Friday night at 8 o'clock under the direction of Commander Charles A. White. The air raid rehearsal is exclusively for staff members. No equipment will respond to calls.

At a recent test blackout ordered by United States Army officers the control center staff, air, police and fire wardens and others showed considerable improvement in efficiency. Observers of the blackout were enabled to point out defects and have them corrected.

The civilian defense control center and field workers have been organized since shortly after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor.

Congress May Act Soon On President's Demand

By JACK BELL
Washington, Sept. 8.—(AP)— Senator Brown (D-Mich.) said today that the Senate Banking Committee would meet Friday or Monday to consider legislation authorizing President Roosevelt to stabilize living costs.

The Michigan senator piloted the existing price control legislation through the Senate and called for "prompt action" to support "the President in his future efforts to combat rising prices." He said committees of the House and Senate should work on the needed legislation simultaneously.

There were widespread demands, meanwhile, by members of Congress for statutory control of wages in the program to prevent inflation.

Germans Gain Ground In New Frontal Offensive On City Of Stalingrad

Hits On Convoys

London, Sept. 8.—(AP)—Light British coastal craft, striking at an Axis convoy within a mile of Cherbourg harbor this morning scored many close-range hits on enemy vessels—at least one with a torpedo—and came off with minor damage despite fire from shore batteries, the Admiralty announced tonight.

At the same time, another formation encountered an escorted enemy supply ship in the Dover Strait, the communique added, sinking the ship and the Axis escort ship and registering "many hits" on two vessels in the convoy.

FALLING PLANE WRECKS HOMES

Crashes Near Business Section Of Ohio
Town

Newark, O., Sept. 8.—(AP)—Three army flyers and at least one civilian perished today as a bomber smashed into a residential area, and struck two houses and exploded.

Fire Chief Stanley Shaw said he believed two other civilians were killed and that bodies of other crew men would be found in the wreckage.

Officials at Wright Field in Dayton said that on the basis of information they received the plane evidently was one that left there shortly after 11 a. m. with six men aboard.

Two of the crewmen were killed in leaps from the ship, one landing on a railroad depot platform, the other plunging through a roof into a doctor's office. The third body was seen distinctly in the debris.
Shaw said. The body of an unidentified woman was found wedged against a small apartment house which the ship hit full force after bouncing off an adjacent home.

A big gasoline tank tore loose, dropped to the basement of the apartment building and exploded.
The debris broke into flames.

An instant before the plane suided to the ground, one wing broke, the body of a man in uniform landed on the platform of the Baltimore and Ohio depot, six blocks from the

Rotarians Pledge Salvage Support

At the weekly supper session of the Rotary Club last night Attorney S. B. Underwood, Jr., publicity chairman of the Pitt County Salvage for Victory Committee was presented by Mr. Robert Darr, Rotary chairman of the Community Service Committee. Mr. Underwood outlined the set-up plan, which scraps metals, rubber and fats are to be collected from every community in the nation as an essential in the war effort.

William MacDonald was then presented by Mr. Darr. MacDonald made an inspiring talk, emphasizing the importance of every individual's 100 per cent cooperation in winning total war. "It is the part of some to do the fighting, and it is the part of all others to back up the fighting men in any and every way necessary," he said. No part is un-essential, no part is menial, no part is too small, and each of us must do what we can. We are extended the privilege of taking a part in winning the war; whether that part may be collecting scrap or collecting Japs depends only on where we are asked to serve, and both of these collections are essential.

"It is imperative that we win this war. We are fighting to save our own necks, and we'd better get on the job! We're fighting to win men!
We must kill more Germans and Japs and kill them faster! It is sad to have to instruct our men in the ways of killing others, but it is the part of all of us to back up the fighting men in any and every way necessary. We must not let them down. We must not let them down.
We must not let them down. We must not let them down. We must not let them down. We must not let them down. We must not let them down. We must not let them down. We must not let them down.

TO YOU SLACKERS
It Could Mean You
("If the shoe fits, wear it"—and some of you will not have to use a shoe horn in order to get into it.)

There's nothing in life that is worth anything That isn't worth fighting for.
And that holds true in time of peace
As well as in time of war.

And your mother's son isn't worth anything Than the sons of the mothers who fight For you and your liberty, and To preserve the things that are right.

If you hate your country... then leave it; Go over to some foreign land That's held by Hitler's gangsters.
And then you will understand.

Soon after you step on that soil you will try To arrange to get your pass Back to America... and then you will stop Belly-aching 'bout sugar and gas.

You'll be glad to ride a bicycle, or walk To your work in God's free air Where you can think, and talk, and do many things You couldn't do over there.

So come from behind all your alibis, Prove you're an American, too—Khaki is much more becoming than Yellow... especially on you.

There's nothing in life that is worth anything
That isn't worth fighting for—
That holds true in time of peace
As well as in time of war.

Nipponese submarines, too, have shelled the island at night. The Navy termed the shelling "ineffectual" and declared the bombings failed to cause serious damage.

Despite these attacks which exacted "a heavy toll of enemy planes," the communiqué added, the American forces have continued to land supplies and reinforcements for the Marines who captured the Guadalcanal-Tulagi area Aug. 7. Shore positions also have been strengthened and the Guadalcanal airfield developed.

Twenty-six bombers and 20 Zeros made the latest attack but American fighters shot down three bombers and one fighter, the Navy said. Referring to the previously announced sinkings of the U. S. destroyer Blue and the small transport Colhoun, the Navy added that the losses occurred as a result of operations "necessary to the supply of our shore bases in the Guadalcanal-Tulagi area."

SAVS CEILINGS BE ENFORCED

Henderson Backs Demand For Inflation Control

New York, Sept. 8. (AP)—Price Administrator Leon Henderson today sternly backed President Roosevelt's demands for inflation control with the warning that henceforth price ceilings would be enforced "to the hilt."

Henderson, speaking at a convention of the Research Institute of America, said the President's Labor Day demands for quick action from Congress to keep down living costs was "inevitable."

"In the Office of Price Administration from here on," Henderson said, "we propose to enforce price regulations wherever it is necessary to enforce them—and to enforce them to the hilt."

"Because we have been able to inform business as a whole of its obligations under the (price control) act, we may now assume that ignorance is no longer an excuse for price, rent and rationing violations. It has never been a legal excuse."

"Therefore I say to those in business and industry who have been violators apparently going unpunished that the time of our tolerance is past."

The price administrator, whose office lacked control of wages and some farm prices, asserted:

"Every willful violator of price regulations, every landlord who seeks to evade rent control, every trader in black markets of goods under rationing or under limitation—whatever his motive or station—challenges the war effort of the nation."

"To the limit of our ability we in the Office of Price Administration will meet that challenge."

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
September 8, 1902

"The A. and M. College is full and cannot receive any more boys except those previously granted permits to come."

This is the message sent by the president yesterday on the first day of the session. The message tells its own story. An industrial college growing in three years from 150 students to nearly 500; an industrial state, demanding skilled workers in wood, cotton, iron, tobacco, clay and all forms of agriculture; an intelligent, energetic, strong and ambitious generation of young men seeking for industrial training and education; and the doors of the college closed for lack of room. A part of this story is very bright, but a part is discouraging and discreditable. The last chapter should be revised, and surely will be.—Raleigh Post.

scene of the crash.
At about the same time, the body of another unformed man fell through the roof of a downtown building two blocks from the crash and landed dead in the office of Dr. Lewis Mitchell.

Two women were taken to hospitals from houses struck by the ship. Neither was reported hurt badly.

George Arensberg, proprietor of a drug store, said he was in his establishment a block and a half from the crash when he heard a tremendous explosion.

"As I stood in my prescription room I heard the explosion and then pieces of steel shot through the wall at my right," Arensberg related. "I examined them and found they were pieces of a motor."

William G. Loos, proprietor of a coal and junk yard two blocks from the scene, said flames shot 100 feet in the air.

"The plane came in over the city so low," Loos added, "that I was afraid it was going to crash right here and wipe out my place." He said the motors appeared to be functioning properly.

The crash was at the intersection of Hudson Avenue and Wyoming street.

FEWER DEATHS ON LABOR DAY

Week-End Accident Fatalities Total 287

By The Associated Press
America observed the first wartime Labor Day in nearly a quarter of a century yesterday but military workers—those for whom the holiday was designated—kept busy at their jobs to insure no interruption along the industrial front.

The wartime observance of the holiday, in addition to maintaining the flow of production, paid dividends in the numbers of lives saved attendant to the traditional celebrations normally staged throughout the nation.

The violent death toll for the 3-day holiday, an Associated Press survey showed, was considerably smaller compared to the total for the week-end holiday last Labor Day. Especially was there a marked reduction in the number of traffic fatalities, always the leader in holiday death tolls.

The number of violent deaths in the 1941 Labor Day holiday period was 626, including 423 killed in automobile accidents. This year's survey disclosed a total of 287 violent deaths, including 176 traffic fatalities.

Drownings accounted for 23 deaths while 83 persons died from other violent causes.

The National Safety Council had predicted that automobile fatalities would number 400, more than double the number reported.

sians at some points as much as five to one. The fifth Rumanian cavalry division lost 70 per cent of its personnel and was replaced by the ninth division.

The drive upon Stalingrad from the west gained only after repeated efforts and then was contained, the Russians indicated.

British military and diplomatic sources in London expressed belief that more depends on the battle for Stalingrad than on any battle in Russia since the Germans were thrown back before Moscow early last December.

The fall of the Volga river industrial center, producer of many of the Red army's war implements will split Russia's forces for the first time in the war. Loss of the rich Baku oil fields would force the Russians to rely on the Ural-Volga wells, with an annual production estimated at 7,000,000 tons.

Strategically, the occupation of Stalingrad would secure the German right flank for another advance upon Moscow this autumn or next spring.

tax which would raise a total of $3,650,000,000 yearly of which $1,100,000,000 would be rebated to taxpayers.

George brought this suggestion before the committee as a substitute for a motion by Senator Guffey (D-Pa.) to impose a flat five per cent retail sales tax, without exemptions, calculated to raise about $2,500,000,000 yearly.

All of these proposals were in addition to present taxes and anticipated increases voted by the House in the new revenue bill.

The spending tax system was submitted to the committee personally last Thursday by Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau.

As outlined to the committee at that time, the program called for a 10 per cent levy on all of the money spent by single persons who earned more than $500 a year and married persons with more than $1,000 income. Married couples would be given an additional $250 credit for each dependent.

This 10 per cent, which was to be in the form of enforced savings, was calculated to yield $4,500,000,000 yearly, all of which would be paid back to taxpayers after the war.

In addition, the treasury proposed a graduated tax ranging from 10 to 75 per cent on "luxury" spending above specified exemptions, the amount thus collected yearly to be retained as direct tax.

This later tax combined with a reduction in income tax exemptions, was calculated to yield about $2,000,000 in direct new taxes yearly.

Byrd said the entire program was rejected, including the treasury-proposed reductions in regular income tax exemptions.

CHINESE GAIN MORE GROUND

Jap Planes Becoming More Active In China

Chungking, Sept. 8 (AP)—Japanese troops in Kwangtung province have retreated to Fankai, 15 miles north of the important coastal city of Canton, a Chinese army spokesman said today.

The Japanese he added, at the same time have pulled back their right and left wings in that vicinity.

Chinese troops recaptured Tsung-fa, 50 miles northeast of Canton, ten days ago. Lupao, 25 miles northwest of the city, was taken last week.

In Chekiang province, the Japanese continued to reinforce the troops defending Kihwa, about 50 miles east of the important air base of Chuhsien which the Chinese have recaptured.

Allied fighters challenged Japanese planes attempting to raid the Hunan province city of Hengyang yesterday morning, precipitating a fierce air battle, Central News reported today.

Results of the battle were not given but it was stated that Hengyang and other cities were held under a three-hour alarm starting at 6 p.m. as 27 Japanese planes visited the province. Eight of the aircraft strafed Lingling near the Kwangsi border and subjected Shaoyang, northwest of Hengyang, to the same treatment.

Japanese planes were reported to have become increasingly active in Hunan in the past few days.

established in the El Himeimat area, permitting the German and Italian desert forces to use the 700-foot high peak as an observation post. Reports from the desert said Nazi rearwards had put "more sting in the Axis tail."

But the bulk of the tank and infantry forces with which Rommel launched his drive had backtracked to an area within a few miles of their jumping-off point. Allied planes, British light tanks, armored cars and mobile guns maintained their pressure.

Whether the British hoped to gain momentum to begin a real counter-offensive was a question.

Defensive power was illustrated by the wreckage of Axis tanks and trucks strewn across the battlefield. Rommel was reported to have told his troops just eight days ago that "we'll be in Cairo next week."

Among the invasion dead was listed one of Rommel's most trusted aides, Gen. Georg von Bismarck, a distant relative of the Iron Chancellor, Count Otto von Bismarck, who created the first German Reich in 1870.

Prisoners reported the death of the general. They said he had taken command of an armored division in the desert after service in Russia.

British lines remained intact all along the El Alamein front from the Mediterranean to the Quattara depression.

A flight lieutenant of the Royal Canadian Air Force from Dallas, Texas, shot down three Messerschmitts in dogfights over the central sector yesterday and damaged another Axis fighter with his final burst of ammunition.

British fleet headquarters at Alexandria announced that British submarines operating against Axis supply lines in the Mediterranean had sunk five large and two medium-sized merchant ships and damaged three others recently.

Shortage Of Scrap Metal Endangers War Program

Every Citizen Must Do His or Her Part In Drive

By JAMES MARLOW AND GEORGE ZIELKE
New York, Sept. 5.—(Wide World)—The government's grim warning that shortage of scrap may hamstring the steel mills—and therefore war production—should get action from you today if time has any meaning.

Scrap you turn in today could be on its way to a shipyard within two weeks as part of a steel plate for a victory cargo ship that is needed to pump supplies into distant battlefields.

If you are a homeowner, a farmer or a plant manager or anyone at all with scrap lying around, then the week-end statement of army, navy and War Production board leaders that the need for scrap is immediate and desperate was meant for you.

R. W. Wolcott, president of the National Steel Company and chairman of the American Industries Salvage Committee, said steel mills now have on hand only two weeks' supply of scrap.

He warned that production this year would be five million tons less than capacity because of the inadequacy of scrap supplies.

The American Iron and Steel Institute believes as many as eight to ten million tons of iron and steel scrap are lying dormant in homes, farms and industrial plants throughout the nation. The National Salvage campaign is seeking to recover them for the mills.

Suppose you are a housewife and you have a steel hamper, an old rusty one in which you kept the family clothes. You don't need it, perhaps. You turn it in at a salvage depot in the neighborhood.

There it is put in a pile with other waste material from homes, farms and plants and is picked up at regular intervals—possibly within a couple of hours after you have dropped it there—by a scrap dealer who hauls it away.

The dealer takes it to his yard, "prepares" the scrap by separating the alloy steels from the ordinary steels which are in the hamper, and compresses the lighter pieces into compact bundles about two feet square.

The hamper will be in one of those bundles, perhaps along with scraps of sheet steel from an industrial plant. The dealer can finish his part of the operations within two days, including the time needed to load the bundled scrap into a railroad car.

Emphasizing the terrible scrap need of the mills upon which this country's war production depends, the institute says:

"When the scrap arrives at the steel plant in the railroad car that brought it from the scrap dealer's yard it is used promptly."

"So very likely the bundle of scrap (containing your hamper) will be loaded directly from the railroad car into a steel furnace 'charging box'."

The furnace boils for about 12 hours to remove impurities from the scrap it received in a bundle—about 50 tons of scrap are used in each furnace load—and to cook its batch of assorted materials into a heat of fine, new molten steel which is poured out to solidify in large blocks of metal called ingots.

Then follows a series of operations—taking perhaps eight or nine days—to turn the ingot into plate which is sent off to a shipyard within 14 days after you had dropped the hamper at the salvage yard.

Find Time Bomb In New Jersey Plant

Newark, N. J., Sept. 5 (AP)—Discovery of a powerful time bomb in the Western Electric Company's vast Kearny Plant was disclosed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation today with the arrest of an employee who supposedly had found it.

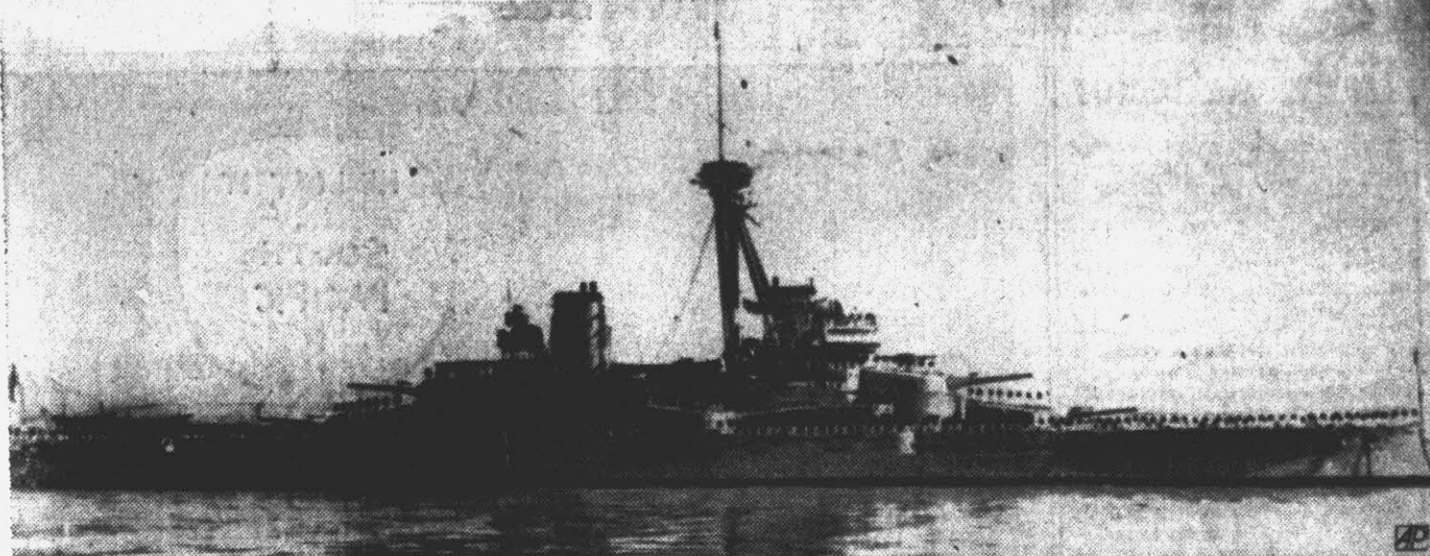

E. E. Conroy, assistant FBI director, said the bomb had been set to explode at 11 p. m., Sunday, but that at 10:42 p. m. it was turned over to company guards by Bernard Joseph O'Donnell, 21, of 100 East Forest Avenue, Teaneck. Guards ripped out wires to prevent a detonation.

Had the bomb exploded in a strategic spot, Conroy said, it could have killed 100 persons.

O'Donnell was charged with attempted sabotage, but Conroy said the prisoner protested he had made and planted the bomb only as heroics and to demonstrate that it could be done.

Army Air Force Trains With Transport Gliders

The Army Air Force's new 15-place troop-carrying gliders, the CG-4A, are now in quantity production, and some have been assigned to the advanced glider pilot school for use in the final stages of training for an invasion against the Axis powers. The CG-4A carries 15 fully equipped men, including pilot and co-pilot. It has a wing spread of 83 feet, 8 inches, and is 48 feet, 3 inches long. Despite its size, the glider weighs only a little more than 3,500 pounds. These pictures show troops training with one of the huge craft. Tight Race Between Dodgers And Cards For Pennant

DODGERS STILL TWO AND HALF GAMES IN LEAD

Both Teams Divided Double-Header Yesterday

By JUDSON BAILEY
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals are giving the National League its typical tight finish, but both clubs seem likely to stay within the speed limit in their race down the stretch.

Both teams looked tired and wobbly in dividing Labor day double-headers and kept the margin between them unchanged at 2½ games. Today the standing was: Brooklyn—93 games won, 43 games lost, 18 games to play.
St. Louis—91 games won, 46 games lost, 2½ games behind, 17 games to play.

At the end of the Dodgers' recent western trip, Manager Leo Durocher named the five pitchers he was relying on to bring Brooklyn home in front. They were Rookie Max Mason and the veterans Whit Wyatt, Curt Davis, Kirby Higbe and Bobo Newsom. Over the week-end all five worked and not one of the veterans, pitching on short rest, was able to last a complete game.

Yesterday at Boston Davis was removed after three innings although Dolph Camilli had given him a three-run lead with his 22nd homer in the first frame. The Dodgers ultimately won 11-4 with a six-run spurge in the fourth frame, but rookie Les Webber received the credit.

Then in the nightcap Newsom lasted less than six innings and was charged with the 5-3 loss. Pete Reiser, the staggering batting champ, was removed for a pinchhitter in the first game, but broke his slump with three hits off Jim Tobin in the second affair.

The Cardinals showed the extent of their reaction to pressure by letting the Pittsburgh Pirates score 11 runs after two were out in the sixth inning of the first game. The Pirates won 11-6 but the Cards came back battling to take the nightcap 6-4. Johnny Beazley, working on two days rest, gave nine hits and was floundering when the game was finally halted because of darkness at the end of eight innings. It was his 18th win, however.

In the American League, the New York Yankees swept a doubleheader from the Philadelphia Athletics and gained half a game on the Boston Red Sox, who won the one encounter that escaped the weatherman at Washington. This put the Yanks nine games in front.

Roy Cullenbine, latest acquisition of the world champions, hit a home run with two out in the ninth inning to decide the first game 6-3. New York bunched ten runs in the sixth inning of the second game to coast to an 11-2 verdict while Hank Borowy was holding the A's to six hits for his 14th triumph against three setbacks.

Boston clubbed Sid Hudson for 14 hits and beat the Senators 9-7 although Washington worked down to the ninth inning with the score tied.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Wide World Sports Columnist

New York, Sept. 8.—Not satisfied with a dozen "varsity" games against the toughest college and service clubs, Bernie Bierman's Iowa Seahawks are forming a junior varsity football team to meet such opposition as Cornell of Iowa, Case, Carleton, Grinnell and the Wisconsin "B" squad. And at the same time Bierman put in a claim for the weeping championship by saying, "This is the greenest team I have ever had." P.S.: The just-arrived battalion of cadets includes Judd Ringer of Minnesota and Mal Kuttner of Texas, starting ends in the Chicago all-star game. Sam Braden insists he and Branch Rickey haven't come to a parting of the ways, in spite of all rumors, but he adds, "Just supposing there wasn't any minors next year, you wouldn't need a farm hand, would you?"

Today's Guest Star.
Irv Kupcinet, Chicago Times: "Just in case horse players are interested, Sportsman's Park has been designated as an official morgue in event of an air raid on Cicero. And no cracks, please, about the stiffs you've already seen there."

In eight main bouts at Madison Square Garden, Fritz Zivic has drawn an average gate of $46,000. Jock Semple, the marathon runner, works a ten-hour day as a ship joiner in Boston, and then runs ten miles to his home in Lynn to save miles in the California footballer who suffered so many head injuries, has been okayed for this season. of the Canadian Press, reports that professional foot racing is having a revival in Britain. When Trainer Ben Jones inspected Warren Wright's yearlings recently, he was excited over the possibility that Whirlaway's baby sister might develop a tail as long and bushy as Whirl's. "The tail is an indicator of a horse's constitution," he explained. Canisius college will use a "V" huddle this season to conform with the spirit of the times—and maybe keep the guys on the ends of the "V" from second-guessing the quarterback. Al Buck, New York Post fight writer and one of the big city's nicer guys, spent Labor Day being inducted.

Red Stockings—No, Faces
At Cincinnati's Redland field the other day, the announcer was giving out the news that Mike Robot, the pitching machine, would serve 'em up for a fungo hitting contest the next night. A fan interrupted: "We've seen enough pitcher. Let's see a mechanical hitter." And another Red's follower in Middletown, O., hearing that the Yankees had collected Jim Turner to pitch to Hollie Hensley, cracked: "The Tanks must want to play seven games in the world series, grabbing two former Reds."

What's Cookin', Coach?
The day after Scappy Moore, the U. of Chattanooga grid coach, entertained and instructed his players with movies of last season's games, a freshman asked: "What kind of pictures are you going to show tonight, coach?" A comedy, maybe? Moore asked the student with his sternest look and boomed out, "and what did you expect to see, Coral Gable?"

Service Dept.
Ed Johnson, who reported the Packers' decline for the Green Bay (Wis.) Press-Gazette for 13 seasons as business manager of the Green Bay Blue Jays of the Wisconsin State League, coached prep football, operated a baseball school and an amateur team and maybe handled a few odd sports jobs, is one of the new recruits at Fort Sheridan, Ill. Twenty-five years ago, in World War I, the army turned him down catcher, reports that a few months of training with the Marines has put him into better condition than "a lifetime of spring baseball training." When George Dunham, Oklahoma Aggies basketball, landed at Muskogee, Okla., flying school, he wrote back to Hank Iba: "There is at least one man here from every school the Aggies meet this autumn. If I open my mouth, I'll have plenty of takers. Shall I open it, coach?"

GOOD PITCHING NEEDED TO WIN MAJOR PENNANT

Pitching, as we have been told, is 75 per cent of a club's strength. Some very conservative managers have rated it at 60 to 65 per cent, and on the other hand some have rated it higher than 75. Connie Mack, we believe, is among the latter.

Bill McKechnie of Cincinnati always has been a manager who rated pitching high. And generally you will find Bill with a great staff.

Take this season, for instance. Long before the season opened the nation's fans were pointing to McKechnie's pitching staff—"greatest in baseball."

And where are the Reds? You'll find them down the column a ways. They've still got those fine mounds-men, even though their winning marks are not so high. The club doesn't make runs enough, so the pitchers suffer. Maybe they are pitching just as well as they pitcher in 1939 and 1940. You can't win a war or a game with defense and little else. It takes some hitting. The Reds don't have it.

THE WHISKY for M & M is made by the time-honored, slow-distilling process, which imparts a fine flavor to the whiskey. It is then blended with neutral spirits to give it mildness. The straight whiskies used in M & M are four years or more old, 27½% straight whiskies, 72½% grain neutral spirits. M & M is 86 proof.

Greensboro Wins Piedmont Pennant

Charlotte, Sept. 8 (AP)—Greensboro's youthful Red Sox, claimed the Piedmont League pennant today after a closing day double victory over Winston-Salem, 5-0 and 4-1, while Portsmouth was winning only a single game from Norfolk, 3-0.

Heinie Manush's Red Sox, rank outsiders in the pre-season dope, won the photo finish by two percentage points with a dazzling sweep of their last five games, when they needed every one of them to cop the flag.

Meanwhile, Charlotte divided a double-header with Asheville, taking a 22-inning opener 4-3 and dropping the second game 2-1. Red Barbary, Hornet second string catcher, pitched the full 22 innings and gave only 11 hits.

In the other Piedmont games Durham took a twin bill from Richmond, 6-5 and 5-1.

Charlotte goes to Greensboro today for the first round of the Shaughnessy playoffs, and Richmond goes to Portsmouth.

Carver Library News

Persons who wish to keep themselves abreast with the current events of the war are asked to become frequent visitors at the War Information Center in the Carver Library. We have many helpful pamphlets in this department which should interest all civilian defense workers such as messengers, air raid wardens, first-aiders, road repair crews, fire watchers, auxiliary firemen, and clearance crews.

The library Summer Reading Club for children closed on Tuesday. Forty-four children were present at the last meeting held on the library lawn at four o'clock. Twenty-five children read the required number of books to receive certificates. These certificates along with prizes for members reading the highest number of books shall be awarded during Book Week in the fall.

"Thunder Bird," by David Garth, was reviewed by Melba Forbes, member of the Summer Reading Club.

The author weaves a delightful romance into a stirring tale of courage and adventure. Iris Lightfoot, daughter of the late Richard Lightfoot, a marine artist, became the owner of thirty acres of land and a country store at the death of her great uncle. The store was in Vermont, Florida. In spite of all her comfort and happiness, Iris was constrained to search faithfully for her father's betrayer. On the island of St. Colette, an island in the Blue Caribbean so lovely with its graceful palms, and sheltered harbor, the betrayer is found, and her beloved father was avenged.

Thanks to Miss Irene Wooten, Mr. Jamie Reeves, Rev. and Mrs. Ryan, Mr. C. P. Ahart, Mrs. J. H. Blount, and Mr. John Warner for books and magazines.—Bell M. Atkins, Librarian.
