

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

TRUTH IN PREFERENCE TO FICTION

VOL. 112 No. 134

Full Leased Wire

GREENVILLE, N. C., SATURDAY AFTERNOON, NOVEMBER 14, 1942

Associated Press - Wide World

Price: 5c

CAPT. EDDIE RICKENBACKER RESCUED

French And German Troops Reported Battling In Tunisia

Montgomery's Men Still In Pursuit of Rommel As Allies Move Into Tunisia

Hitler Making Desperate Attempt To Reinforce Garrison; Unconfirmed Report Of Naval Battle Off Tunisia; Allied Planes Bomb Tunis Airdrome; Petain Disowns Darlan

GERMAN GAINS AT STALINGRAD

Russians Describe Gains As "Insignificant"

Moscow, Nov. 14.—(AP)—German troops gained ground in the factory district of northern Stalingrad yesterday in their newly launched drive to capture the city...

By ROGER D. GREENE (Associated Press War Editor) French and German troops battled in the streets of ancient Tunis today while the vanguard of a powerful Anglo-American expeditionary force raced across the Tunisian frontier to combat Nazi air-borne invaders of the key North African buffer state.

Unofficial reports reaching London said the Allies were moving parachute troops into the developing struggle for Tunisia, where the Nazis had seized several airports.

Tunisia lies between American-occupied Algeria and Italian Libya. Simultaneously British headquarters announced that Gen. B. L. Montgomery's victorious British 8th army had swept 40 miles beyond fallen Tobruk in pursuit of Nazi Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's fleeing troops.

Hitler's high command acknowledged that the British were attacking "with undiminished force on a wide front." The Italian high command also reported "heavy enemy pressure" in the Libyan desert.

Abandoned without a fight, Tobruk fell to the British yesterday morning, and today's communique said the triumphant Imperials already had cleared the desert as far westward as Gazala.

"On with the task—good hunting to you all!" was the message of Gen. Montgomery sent to his troops as the chase of Rommel's battered forces continued.

"In three weeks we have completely smashed the German and Italian army," the British field commander said, announcing the virtual destruction of 12 Axis divisions.

"Good Old Days" Are Here Again By CHESTER WALSH "It was the grandest program ever presented at the Greenville High School and everybody had a good time," parents and boys and girls, students of the high school, said last night at the conclusion of the second of a series of special entertainments to be given at the high school every other Friday night.

J. B. James and J. Herbert Waldrop, school trustees, Supt. J. H. E. Rose, Principal Roy Wilkerson and Coach "Bo" Farley had a better time than anybody there.

There was round and square dancing, with an old-time string orchestra, there were games and a quiz contest. There was fellowship and fun—a mingling of the parents and children for a good time that eclipsed anything ever given in Greenville.

Earlier Russian dispatches said that intense cold had settled over the long front and that the German drives were on a much reduced scale.

A Tass dispatch broadcast by the Moscow radio said that "a large populated place" northwest of Stalingrad was stormed by one Russian unit and that a "heavy defeat" had been inflicted on the Germans.

The Russians took the communique and held it against German counter-attacks in the Caucasus, where a German drive toward the Georgian military highway over the Caucasus mountains has been halted, continued yesterday and several German positions were taken, the Russians declared.

Northwest of Tappe, Black sea naval station, the Russians reported they advanced somewhat and, in one sector, routed an enemy company and captured material and documents.

Reports of Boy Scout activities increasing interest in the work. Speakers included F. C. Harding of Greenville, Clyde Lake and Norman Scribner of Roanoke Rapids, Douglas Kelly, of Kinston, Howard Peden of Roanoke Rapids, M. C. Waters of Washington, T. H. Covington of Kinston, Gordon Price of Roanoke Rapids and Wheeler Martin of Williamston.

A rain of 839 new members in scouting and cubbing was reported. Renewed interest is being manifested throughout the district, particularly in the Greenville area since James T. Uzzle became scout executive here some months ago.

Greenville members of the council are L. M. Buchanan, district chairman; F. C. Harding, honorary president; R. L. Hilldrup, chairman of leadership training, and E. E. Conway, chairman of cubbing. R. L. Collins represents the Greenville district in Farmville.

There were refreshments for all. There were no introductions—everybody knew everybody else. It was a grand success.

High Spots In Geography Of 'Second Front' War

In left-to-right sequence, the circled areas on this map represent key sectors in the news as North African occupation by U. S. and Allied forces was followed by Nazi move into previously unoccupied France...

Report Sea-Air Battle Off Solomons

YOUTH DRAFT BILL SIGNED

Boys To Be Helped Resume Schooling After War

By D. HAROLD OLIVER Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—More than 2,000,000 youths in the 18 and 19-year-old classes are subject today to military duty in the near future...

Reports of Boy Scout activities increasing interest in the work. Speakers included F. C. Harding of Greenville, Clyde Lake and Norman Scribner of Roanoke Rapids...

Servicemen's Club Calling For Rooms

The Servicemen's Club requests Greenville people who will provide rooms for visiting servicemen during the week-end to telephone 3115. Many of the men are expected.

Roosevelt Considering Naming Manpower Head

Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Reorganization of the nation's manpower machinery under one direct head was reported today to be under consideration by President Roosevelt.

News Of Battle Comes Via Tokyo

Report Admits Loss Three Jap Warships But Claims Heavier Damage To American Fleet

By The Associated Press A new clash of American and Japanese naval forces in which both sides have suffered losses is in progress in the Pacific island area, the navy announced today.

This was the first indication of a major new sea-air battle around the lower end of the south sea archipelago, where U. S. army troops and marines have been holding out for weeks against encircling Japanese forces.

More than balancing its own losses, as usual, the Japanese command asserted that powerful Japanese naval and air forces had sunk six United Nations cruisers and a destroyer, heavily damaged two cruisers and three destroyers, set three transports afire and shot down 19 planes.

Ten Japanese planes were listed as missing. All these claims lacked confirmation from any Allied source, but Tokyo's admission that a Japanese battleship had been damaged suggested that the main enemy fleet had returned and that a large-scale engagement was in progress.

The Japanese fleet had previously withdrawn from the Solomons (Continued on Page Six)

How Long Will The War Last?

Baltimore, Maryland, Nov. 14.—At the risk of being condemned by Washington as an "arm-chair strategist," I wish to say a word on how to shorten the war. I'll take for my text: Ecclesiastes 3:1-3 inclusive.

ARGENTINA AND CHILE STIFFEN

Move Toward Closer Collaboration With U. S.

Buenos Aires, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Argentina and Chile, the only two American nations maintaining relations with the Axis, apparently were moving today toward closer relations with their neighbors after exposure of evidence that Axis agents were endangering the hemisphere.

The Argentine government announced last night that the United States, by its request, had supplied three memoranda regarding espionage.

Seal Sale Workers Meet Monday Night

Mrs. Joseph S. Moyer, Publicity Chairman of the Greenville Tuberculosis Seal Sale Fund, announced today that the seal sale workers, and other advertising materials, had arrived.

Stalin Is Well Pleased With Events In Africa

Editor's Note: Less than six weeks ago, Henry C. Cassidy, chief of the Associated Press Bureau in Moscow, scored a journalistic coup when he obtained from Joseph Stalin a written statement expressing the first time the Soviet premier's views on the second front question. Now Cassidy has scored again by obtaining from Stalin his reactions to the Allied thrust into North Africa.

Famous World War Ace Rescued From Sea After Being Missing 23 Days

RAF BOMBERS BLAST GENOA

Axis Supply Base Bombed For Second Time This Week

London, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Home-based RAF Lancaster and Stirling bombers smashed anew last night at Genoa, Italian supply base for battered Axis forces in North Africa, starting massive fires which Rome acknowledged wrought great destruction.

The giant British raiders, which carry two-ton "block busters," made the hazardous 1,000-mile roundtrip across the Alps without the loss of a single plane. It was the 10th assault of the war on Genoa and the fifth in less than a month.

A cloudless sky was found over the city and with the help of flares targets were clearly identified, the air ministry said. The attack was well concentrated and large fires were left burning.

Official Yugoslav quarters in London meanwhile quoted travelers from Italy as saying the first four raids in the past four weeks caused damage aggregating $200,000,000 at Genoa. Docks, warehouses and areas in the heart of the city were reported devastated by the massive British explosives and showers of fire bombs.

The Italian high command's communique today said that the eastern and central sections of the city bore the brunt of last night's attack.

Since the Germans have taken over all France, the RAF must fly over enemy territory all the way, unless a short cut is taken across Switzerland, German fighters and anti-aircraft, formerly encountered only in Northern France, presumably now are at Vichy and other air-dromes in the south.

A British informant said Italian (Continued on Page Six)

Plane Forced Down In Pacific October 21; One Member Of Party Died Several Days Ago And Buried At Sea; Three of Officers Had Reached Safety Of Small Island

Washington, Nov. 14.—(AP)—Dauntless Eddie Rickenbacker has been rescued, in good condition, the Navy announced today, three weeks after his airplane radioed that it was about out of gasoline and then vanished in the Pacific.

Rickenbacker, America's ace of aces in the first World War and the country's emboldened proof that you can't keep a good man down, was picked from a raft bobbing in the sea by a navy Catalina flying boat along with two of his crew. They were 600 miles north of Samoa.

Three other army fliers who were with him on a survey of Pacific war zone air force operations have been located on an island. The rescue of one was announced yesterday and the seventh man of Rickenbacker's crew died in the long wait for rescue.

Colonel Hans C. Adamson and Private John F. Bartek were Rickenbacker's two companions at the time of rescue.

Adamson also was in good condition, the navy said, but Bartek is in serious condition. He is expected to recover from the suffering of exposure.

A fourth man on the little rubber raft which saved the 52-year-old Rickenbacker had been Sergeant Alexander Casimirsky. He died several days ago and was buried at sea.

The three men located on the island are to have help from a United States naval officer who has been flown there. The officer was directed to examine the condition of these men, give them immediate attention as needed and return them to a United States naval base.

They also were located by a Catalina flying boat although there was no indication as to whether it was the same plane that saved Captain Rickenbacker and his raft companions.

Benefactors Of Red Cross Are Rewarded

By CHESTER WALSH Chris Otis, Greek-American citizen, and Paul Nixon, owners of the Dixie Lunch Room near Five Points have been waiting a long time for a message from the Red Cross. Every cent taken in was donated. It totaled $126.00. Chris Otis and Paul Nixon have done other good work "chipping in" for every community enterprise and the Community Chest and buying War Bonds.

Paul Nixon, who had not heard from his family for more than a year, received a cablegram through the local Red Cross stating that his family is alive and well. Otis and Nixon went to the Red Cross, every cent taken in was donated. It totaled $126.00.

This and other instances of war service emphasize the importance of the Red Cross work here. It is interesting to recall that early this year when the local Red Cross was making its campaign for memberships that Chris Otis and Paul Nixon, owners of the Dixie Lunch turned over their cash register to the women of the Greenville Red Cross and every dollar taken in that day went to the Red Cross.

The authorized English translations of the text of Stalin's letter follows: "Dear Mr. Cassidy: 'I am answering your questions Red Cross and the Red Cross today save them good cheer.' (Continued on Page Five)

Social and Personal

Social Calendar

MONDAY

9:30 a. m.-12:00 noon—Red Cross work room open. Ladies of the Methodist Church in charge.

2:30-5:45 p. m.—Day Nursery sponsored by Junior Woman's Club, at Hut in city park. Cotanche street.

3:00 p. m.—St. Catherine's Auxiliary of Episcopal Church will meet.

3:30 p. m.—The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church meets at the church.

3:30 p. m.—The Council of the Eighth Street Christian Church meets at the church.

3:30 p. m.—St. Paul's Auxiliary of Episcopal Church meets at the Parish House.

4:00 p. m.—Book Week program in auditorium of Sheppard Memorial Library, presented by the children of the Training School.

6:30 p. m.—Rotary Club.

7:00 p. m.—Lion's Club.

7:45 p. m.—Mrs. J. H. Rose will present a Book Week radio program.

7:30 p. m.—Modern Woodmen.

8:00 p. m.—Miss Jennie Witkowski, German-Jewish student at the college, will speak to the American Association of University Women in Ragsdale Hall.

8:15 p. m.—Greenville Civic Chorus meets at the Woman's Club.

TUESDAY

9:30 a. m.-12:00 noon—Red Cross work room open. Ladies of the Episcopal and Catholic churches in charge.

2:30-5:45 p. m.—Day Nursery sponsored by Junior Woman's Club, at the Hut in city park. Cotanche street.

3:30 p. m.—Mrs. S. T. White will be hostess to the Sans Souci Book Club.

3:30 p. m.—The Inter Se Club will meet with Mrs. Wallace Bourne.

3:30 p. m.—The Ladies of the Round Table will meet at the home of Mrs. P. T. Anthony, with Mrs. W. C. Vincent as hostess.

3:30 p. m.—The Chatham Book Club meets with Mrs. Harvey Clayton.

7:30 p. m.—St. Mary's Auxiliary of Episcopal Church will meet.

7:30 p. m.—Chapter 149 of the Eastern Star will meet.

WEDNESDAY

9:30 a. m.-12:00 noon—Red Cross work room open. Ladies of Emmanuel Baptist and Presbyterian churches in charge.

4:00 p. m.—Book Week program in auditorium of Sheppard Memorial Library, presented by the children of the Third Street School.

7:45 p. m.—Mrs. John Armfield will present a radio program on Book Week.

7:30 p. m.—Mid-week service at the Presbyterian Church.

8:20 p. m.—The choir of the Presbyterian Church meets for rehearsal.

THURSDAY

9:30 a. m.-12:00 noon—Red Cross work room open. Ladies of Memorial Baptist Church in charge.

8:00 p. m.—Junior Philathea Class of the Methodist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. F. P. Brooks.

FRIDAY

9:30 a. m.-12:00 noon—Red Cross work room open. Ladies of the Christian Church in charge.

2:30-5:45 p. m.—Day Nursery sponsored by Junior Woman's Club, at the Hut in city park. Cotanche street.

4:00 p. m.—Book Week program in auditorium of Sheppard Memorial Library, presented by the children of West Greenville School.

6:30 p. m.—Kiwanis Club.

7:30 p. m.—Red Men meet.

To Sponsor Supper.

The Methodist ladies of Grifton are sponsoring a supper on Wednesday night, November 18, at 6:30 o'clock in the Masonic Hall, in Grifton. The public is invited.

Transferred.

Pvt. James A. Little, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Little of the Red Branch community, has been transferred from Fort Bragg to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Forward With Books! Is Book Week Theme

This poster is being displayed in library, school and trade observance of the twenty-fourth national anniversary of Book Week.

DURING the week of November 15-21 our community will join thousands of others throughout the country in celebrating Book Week. Special exhibits and programs built around the national theme, "Forward With Books!" will be features of the week in our libraries, schools and bookstores.

Book Week was organized twenty-four years ago to intensify and dramatize interest in children's books and reading. Under the local leadership of our librarians and teachers, the annual drive receives the enthusiastic support of our boys and girls and all who are interested in them, their education and their development. Among the national associations participating in Book Week observance are Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Boys' Clubs, Camp Fire Girls, Women's Clubs, P.T.A., Katherine F. Lenroot, Chief of Children's Bureau, U.S. Dept. of Labor, has commented on the program this year: "Through books, we learn to understand the traditions of our Nation and to value the long struggle of their ancestors for freedom and opportunity for all people. Books also broaden their sympathies with people of other lands and cultures, thus making it possible for them to see this global world in proper perspective. Through reading they are preparing themselves some day to become the builders of a free world."

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
November 14, 1902

W. L. Best, one of the jewelers, had had the interior of his place papered and made more attractive. During the nineteenth century, London grew at a nearly constant pace from 80,000 people to 6,500,000—eightfold; New York, more rapidly, but less regularly, in general doubling in about twenty years, developed from a town of 60,000 people to a great city of 3,500,000—fifty-eight fold. This explains why the price of land on Manhattan Island constantly rises.

Attend Funeral
Out of town friends who attended the funeral of Miss Bettie Warren were Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Etheridge, Miss Mary Louise Etheridge, Mrs. Jesse Harrison, Mrs. William Rumbley, Mrs. James Mallison, Mrs. W. Z. Lackland of Washington; Mrs. Ida Pridden, Mrs. K. B. Bailey of Elm City; Mrs. William E. Warren, Miss Mary Edwards Warren, of Williamston; and Miss Ruth Warren of Burlington.

Mesdames Sugg and Cobb Entertain
Grifton, Nov. 14.—Mrs. George Sugg and Mrs. Cecil Cobb entertained on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Sugg, at an informal seated tea as a compliment to Mrs. E. M. Hall, who left Friday to make her home in Cary.

The home for the occasion was decorated with bowls of yellow chrysanthemums and ivy. Guests were asked to give Mrs. Hall a message of good will and their auto-graph. In a contest, Mrs. L. O. Cox was holder of highest score and was given a vase. The second high was a tie between Mrs. W. M. Taylor and Mrs. R. C. McCotter.

Russian tea, sandwiches and candy were served. Mrs. Hall was remembered with a lovely shower of handkerchiefs from the guests. Enjoying the afternoon were: Mrs. Hall, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. McCotter, Mrs. R. E. Nelson, Mrs. Joel Patrick, Mrs. G. T. Gardner, Mrs. G. Tucker, Mrs. J. H. Barwick, Mrs. C. E. Gardner and Mrs. P. L. Cox.

NEIGHBORS

You can live for years round people And like them—yet, you know, It takes a lot of trouble To find out how far they'll go To put themselves out just to prove They're real friends, through and through. Good neighbors are God's greatest gift To man—that, friends, is true.

It's great to have money enough To buy all you desire— And when you need help—all you do Is go ahead and hire. But money isn't everything— It never will compete With neighbors—I mean neighbors Like the ones along my street. —Edw. W. Hearne.

Miss Johnson Entertains.
Grifton, Nov. 14.—Miss Bertha Johnson entertained her contract club and players for an extra table on Thursday night at her home here. Four tables were placed for the games amid a setting of lovely fall flowers. After several progresses the high score for club members went to Mrs. Robert Mewborn, and the second high to Mrs. L. L. Mewborn. They were given War Stamps. Mrs. Josh Worthington was given the guard award.

Other players were: Mrs. T. J. Williams, Mrs. R. A. Nelson, Mrs. L. D. McCotter, Mrs. John Biggers, Mrs. Ben G. Tucker, Mrs. Robert McCotter, Mrs. Jack Chapman, Mrs. Jack Tucker, Miss Marie Chapman and Miss Louise Mewborn. Miss Johnson served a salad with sandwiches and hot tea.

The King's Daughters Meet.
The Patient Circle held their regular meeting Tuesday evening, November 10, with Mrs. Horstman Meye. This was a very important meeting and was well attended, in spite of the storm.

The president, Mrs. W. R. Jones, announced that this was a Thanksgiving service, as well as a business meeting, recalling that on the first Thanksgiving our forefathers gathered together to thank God for blessings they had received. Let us in this day, when God has so bountifully blessed us, thank Him no less heartily. The circles joined in singing the "Doxology." A Thanksgiving prayer was used.

Mrs. Meye then gave a very lovely devotion, taking as her subject "Pray Without Ceasing." It marks she said that all that true prayer seeks is God Himself. Some of us only pray in emergencies. Prayer is a sign of real spiritual life. It's good to be conscious that we are always in the presence of God and that we as King's Daughters must be women of prayer.

Here the prayer of the order was used. The minutes were read and approved. The roll call and treasurer's report was given. Two cases for traveler's aid were reported. The president appointed a committee to help in the program begun for delinquents. Mrs. Virginia Perkins read the international president's message, which was a lovely Thanksgiving message.

Miss Marjorie Perkins gave a glowing report of her six weeks at Chautauqua this summer. Each year the states send a high school graduate to this summer school which is an extension of Columbia University. This year the North Carolina branch sent Marjorie. She said in her report that the Chautauqua was a wonderful place to go. She contacted girls from each state and there were two girls from other lands—one from Chile and one from India—which really gave Chautauqua an international note.

In closing the meeting of the circle the president asked each one for one-minute talk on what they had to be thankful for.

—Reported.

Our Farm Folks

VERONA LEE JOYNER, H.D.A.
EDNA KIRBY, Assistant

County Winners Named.
Receipt of gold and silver medals to be awarded to members of the two highest rating teams in this competing in the 1942 national 4-H dairy foods demonstration contest was announced today by Extension Agent Edna Kirby. The county team members of winning gold medals are Beulah Rasherby of Bellamy and Helen Willoughby of Bellamy. They were coached by Miss Edna Kirby and Miss Esther Kooner.

Members of the second placing team, who will receive silver medals, are Mimi Tripp of Red Oak and Grace Tripp of the same club.

The gold medal recipients competed with other county team winners for State honors. The state winning team will receive all-expense trips to the National 4-H Victory Congress scheduled to be held in Chicago this month to participate in the finals. College scholarships provided together with all other awards by J. L. Kraft will be presented to the highest and second place teams in each of the four extension sections.

This contest, supervised by the Extension Service, encourages participants to give demonstrations throughout their communities this year on nutritional value of dairy foods to further their use in the family diet, Miss Kirby said.

Enjoy Sunday Night Supper
The Pactivolus Home Demonstration Club in Pitt County to send food to the Greenville Woman's Club to assist the Service Club in serving suppers to the Service men that visit Greenville on Sunday afternoon and night. Mrs. Linsey Savage of the Service Club said that it was the first time that suppers had been served to the soldiers in Greenville by this organization.

Pactivolus Club members sent in baked chicken, potato salad, pimento and relish, sandwiches, homemade cake and cookies. Several ladies remarked, "The soldiers had the best time last Sunday night with all that good food that they had ever had on Sunday night at the Greenville Woman's Club."

One Home Demonstration club will be responsible for food for each Sunday night. Stokes is the hostess Club this week.

Winterville H. D. Club Meets.
The November meeting of the Winterville Home Demonstration Club was held at the home of Mrs. Dave Buck on Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 P.M. The new president, Mrs. J. D. McArthur, presided. There were 21 members and 1 visitor present. Visitors are always welcome.

Mrs. O. H. Jackson, in her inspiring manner, conducted the devotional. She caused us to go home feeling more thankful than ever, for the privilege of being able to attend a club meeting during this critical time.

Leaders for various projects were named. Since Achievement Day this statement of Mrs. Estelle Smith's, "Service is the price that we pay for the space we occupy," has been written by Mrs. McArthur so, that she thought of another leader to add to the list. It was personal service, and Mrs. M. A. Woodard was named as this leader.

WGTC

1490 KILOCYCLES
GREENVILLE, N. C.

TONIGHT

7:00—Dean Hudson's Orch.
7:10—Human Interest Drama.
7:15—Jimmy Dorsey's Orch., MBS
7:30—Confidentially Yours, MBS
7:45—Bob Astor's Orch., MBS.
8:00—Mountain Music.
8:15—The Quintones.
8:30—This Is the Hour, MBS.
8:55—You and Uncle Sam.
9:00—News.
9:05—The Andrews Sisters.
9:15—You Can't Do Business With Hitler, MBS.
9:30—Homespun Trio.
9:45—Teddy Powell's Orch.
10:00—News.
10:15—1100 Club.
10:45—1100 Club—Louis Prima's Orch., MBS.
11:00—News of the World in Brief.
11:05—Sign Off.

SUNDAY, NOV. 15

8:00—Sign on.
8:01—News.
8:05—Lang-Worth Concert Orch.
8:30—Lang-Worth Choristers.
9:00—News.
9:15—Wohl's Sophisticates.
9:30—Eik's Christian Quartette.
9:45—Victor Arden's Orch.
10:00—Ellington Bible Class.
10:45—Walter Compton, MBS.
11:00—Church Services.
12:00—Cade Tabernacle, MBS.
12:30—Joe Jackson's Orch.
12:45—Letters To My Son, MBS.
1:00—Radio Camera Club, TN.
1:15—Bond Wagon.
1:30—Lutheran Hour, MBS.
2:00—Pilgrim Hour, MBS.
3:00—This Is Fort Dix, MBS.
3:30—Guy Lombardo's Orch.
3:45—The Harmonizers.
4:00—News.
4:15—Camp Wheeler Post Band, MBS.
4:30—Sunday Toastee Time, BNC.
5:00—Philippine Commonwealth Day, MBS.
5:30—Boys Town.
6:00—First Nighter, MBS.
6:30—Musical Interlude.
6:35—Sportscast, MBS.
6:45—Tommy Tucker's Orch.
7:00—We Cover the War Front.
7:15—Irving Sath-Myr's Orch.
7:30—Silver Strings.
7:45—Oettinger Views the News, TN.
8:00—Service Men's Program.
8:30—Treasury Star Parade.
8:45—Gabriel Heater, MBS.
9:00—Fashioned Revival, MBS.
10:00—News.
10:15—Your Next Door Neighbor, TN.
10:30—This Is Our Enemy, MBS.
11:00—1100 Club.
11:30—News of the World in Brief.
11:35—Sign off.

MONDAY, NOV. 16

7:00—Sign on.
7:01—News.
7:05—Yawn Patrol.
7:40—Lost and Found.
7:45—Yawn Patrol.
8:00—News.
8:15—10-2-4 Ranch.
8:30—Morning Meditations.
8:45—Your Morning Pickup.
9:00—News.
9:05—LBS News and Ann'ts.
9:15—Melody's Music Box.
9:30—Melody Time.
9:45—Rhythm and Recipes, TN.
10:00—Obituary Column.
10:05—Farmville on the Air.
10:25—Women in the News.
10:30—The Cheer Up Gang, MBS.
11:00—Headlines of Tomorrow, MBS.
11:15—Karl Zomar's Scrapbook, MBS.
11:30—Ayden on the Air.
11:45—JimmyDorsey's Orch.
12:00—Hillbilly Roundup.
12:15—News.
12:25—Tune Time.
12:40—Carolina Farm Features.
12:55—News and Markets.
1:00—Bond Wagon.
1:15—Frank Victor's Quiz, MBS.

1:30—Letters from the Navy.
1:45—To Be Announced, MBS.
2:00—Today's War Commentary.
2:05—Musical Interlude.
2:15—Baron Elliott's Orch., MBS.
2:30—Mutual Goes Calling, MBS.
3:00—Robersonville on the Air.
3:15—Del Courtney's Orch.
3:30—Will Bradley's Orch.
3:45—Thady Valley Folks, MBS.
4:00—Walter Compton, MBS.
4:15—Treasury Star Parade.
4:30—The Ink Spots.
4:45—Bob Crosby's Orch.
5:00—Swing Session, TN.
5:15—Joe Frassetto's Orch., MBS.
5:30—Superman, MBS.
5:45—Walking With The King.
6:00—Nation's Prayer Minute, MBS.
6:01—Sunbow Serenade.
6:15—News.
6:20—Rhythm Ensemble, MBS.
6:30—Hillbilly Tunes.
6:35—Sportscast.
6:45—Oettinger Views the News, TN.
7:00—Earl Hines' Orch.
7:15—The Johnson Family, MBS.
7:30—Silver Strings.
7:45—Mrs. Rose's Radio Actors.
8:00—Sing Up the News, MBS.
8:15—They're the Barries, MBS.
8:30—Tommy Reynolds Orch.
8:55—You and Uncle Sam.
9:00—Gabriel Heater, MBS.
9:15—Merchant Marine of the Air, MBS.
9:30—The Better Half, MBS.
10:00—News.
10:15—1100 Club.
10:30—The War News Analyst, MBS.
10:45—Music That Endures, MBS.
11:00—News of the World in Brief.
11:05—Sign Off.

BABSON

(Continued From Page One)
Their only logical complaint would be answered and this also would help us win the War.

Axis Free From Labor Handicaps
The simple truth is that England and America, shackled by labor unions and bamboozled by labor leaders, are trying to lick Germany, Japan and Italy which are entirely free from these handicaps. Of course, we will win sometime, but it will not be until England and America suspend the labor unions "for the duration" and reorganize the Colonial System.

Of course, I will be flooded with letters from paid labor union officials as to reasons why they should not be interfered with. Other persons will write me telling how certain bankers, fire insurance officials and industrialists are abusing their powers. I am not now disputing or arguing with such people. I am even willing to agree in advance to their claims. I am now discussing only one question, namely: "How long will the war last?"

War Can End In 1944
The war will last until the labor leaders turn over their unions to the government the same as employers, colleges and others are turning over their property and hard-won privileges. Concurrently with the elimination of the Colonial system, if labor unions in England and America would now voluntarily to do collectively the things we could not hope to do individually. Reported by Mrs. Rick Jackson.

LINE FORMS AT THE REAR—When the weather got too warm during the making of a movie at Universal City, Calif., these heavily-costumed actresses took to the water.

Pactivolus H. D. Club Meets.
The Pactivolus club met at the home of Mrs. C. J. Satterthwaite with Mrs. G. E. Cherry, Jr., and Mrs. C. R. Fleming as hostesses.

Near the beginning of the meeting Mr. T. W. Grimes, principal of the school, was given a few minutes in which to urge the women to cooperate in the scrap drive.

Mrs. C. R. Fleming gave a report on Achievement Day. Leaders of projects committee chairmen and hostesses were selected for the year. It was decided by the club to take the money saved for the building of the community house and put it in war bonds until after the war.

Plans were made for the December social which will be a dinner for these members and their husbands and will be at the home of Mrs. Paul Davenport. Plans were also made for helping the churches of Greenville furnish refreshments the following week-end at the Woman's Club for the men in service.

Miss Joyner showed the women how to prepare, and also served them chill con carne, using dried beans. It was enjoyed very much along with hot tamales and Rita crackers served by the hostesses. During the social period the women were called on by Miss Joyner to stand and show the remodeled dresses they were wearing and in what way they were changed. It was found that the members had remodeled 11 garments since last meeting.

Mrs. W. J. Webb conducted contests for the recreation period. Much fun was had and Mrs. W. E. Tripp won the prize. The next meeting will be the December social. Reported by Mrs. J. B. Barnhill.

Contribute to Ambulance Drive
The 4-H clubs have been requested to cooperate in a national drive for the purchase of a 4-H ambulance, to be presented to the American Red Cross at a ceremony during the National Club Congress.

The ambulance will carry an appropriate dedication plate. Every club member in the state has been asked to contribute to the most worthy cause. Today, the Pitt county club members are sending $15 as their part in the drive. Every one was delighted to make a small contribution because the patriotic club members realize that the men in our armed forces are giving all that they have in order that the young people may enjoy freedom and liberty.

Langs 4-H Club Meeting
Miss Peggy and Frances Jones were hostesses for the Langs 4-H club meeting on Thursday, November 5 at 8 p. m. Lois Jones presided. After the usiness meeting Miss Kirby and Mr. Winchester had charge of the program, "More Dairy Cows For Victory." They urged every 4-H member to make an effort to get a dairy cow for their family.

Ruth Moore and Frances Jones gave the food value of dairy products and stressed the importance of milk products in the diet.

At the request of Mr. L. R. Harrel, State 4-H leader, the club members gladly contributed to the ambulance fund. Mrs. L. E. Turnage who has been working with the Salvage Committee reported that 8,000 pounds of scrap materials had been collected. Check was presented to the club treasurer.

The hostesses served delicious refreshments. The club meeting adjourned to meet on Friday, December 18, for the annual Christmas party.

Five Are Killed In Army Plane Crash

New Bern, N. C., Nov. 14.—(AP)—An Army plane crashed and burned on a farm four miles southwest of here yesterday, killing five men and seriously injuring another.

Residents of the area said they observed the plane circling several times, apparently in trouble.

Names of the victims were not immediately available.

The plane was based at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Colored Teachers In Session Here

Between 600 and 700 delegates were here today attending a meeting of the colored teachers of the North Eastern Educational Association. An all-day session was held at the C. M. Eppes High School, 9 Fleming street. Prof. W. H. Davenport, principal of colored schools here, who succeeded the late Charles M. Eppes, presided.

A comprehensive program, with special emphasis on the war influx, was in progress. June H. Boy, superintendent of Greenville schools state, and other school officials, were on the program.

Dinner was served shortly after noon.

Junior Red Cross Doing Great Work

By CHESTER WALSH
Mrs. J. B. James, chairman of the Junior Red Cross here and others extended congratulations to Miss Naomi Newell, English teacher at the Greenville High School for her outstanding work in securing $213.10 in the Junior Red Cross drive for memberships. Room 39, Mr. Starling, raised $35.68; room 25, Miss Newell, teacher, raised $16.68; room 31, Miss Robeson teacher, raised $13.71. In addition Miss Newell directed the Junior Red Cross play depicting a scene on the battlefield overseas and the good work the Junior Red Cross is doing. The play was presented here and at Winterville and Ayden to audiences totaling nearly 2,000.

That the true spirit is prevailing among the Junior Red Cross members it may be mentioned that boys at the high school repaired two ping-pong tables to go to Camp Davis. The youngsters under able leadership are setting a pace in Junior Red Cross work that is a credit to all.

The Camp Davis-New River camp and hospital committee, composed of Mrs. J. H. Blount, Mrs. R. J. Slay and Mrs. J. B. James, attended a meeting at Camp Davis and visited the Marine Base this week. The city schools sent a car full of magazines, books and games and a radio, which were needed and greatly appreciated.

An urgent appeal came to the Junior Red Cross the other day

Five Are Killed In Army Plane Crash

New Bern, N. C., Nov. 14.—(AP)—An Army plane crashed and burned on a farm four miles southwest of here yesterday, killing five men and seriously injuring another.

Residents of the area said they observed the plane circling several times, apparently in trouble.

Names of the victims were not immediately available.

The plane was based at Myrtle Beach, S. C.

Colored Teachers In Session Here

Between 600 and 700 delegates were here today attending a meeting of the colored teachers of the North Eastern Educational Association. An all-day session was held at the C. M. Eppes High School, 9 Fleming street. Prof. W. H. Davenport, principal of colored schools here, who succeeded the late Charles M. Eppes, presided.

A comprehensive program, with special emphasis on the war influx, was in progress. June H. Boy, superintendent of Greenville schools state, and other school officials, were on the program.

Dinner was served shortly after noon.

Germans Gain . . .

(Continued from page one)
er-attacks. The Volga was reported choked with ice and the temperature was said to be falling.

The communique said prisoners from the 13th German alpine infantry battalion reported their battalion, fighting in the Caucasus, was practically wiped out.

Try Our Want Ads

PLAZA THEATRE TONIGHT!

ON STAGE IN PERSON
DURSO'S
SPIRITUALIST SEANCE and WITNESS
STON
For Colored People Only
All Tickets 20c

CHURCHES

PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH
Rev. John S. Armfield, Rector
Twenty-fourth Sunday after Trinity 8:00 a. m.—Holy Eucharist.
9:45 a. m.—Church School; Mr. S. O. Worthington, Supt.
10:00 a. m.—Morning prayer, Sacrament of Holy Confirmation and Communion by the Rt. Rev. Thomas C. Darr, D. D., Bishop of East Carolina.
Thursday, 8:30 p. m.—Young People's Service League; Miss Mary Pat Wildrop, president.

IMMANUEL BAPTIST CHURCH
A. Hartwell Campbell, Minister
8:45 a. m.—Church School; a training class in worship and the Bible, with classes for all ages. R. H. Evans, Supt.
11:00 a. m.—Morning worship.
Sermon: "Jesus' Way to Greatness."
Church Conference.
7:30 p. m.—B. T. U.
8:00 p. m.—Evening worship.

MEMORIAL BAPTIST CHURCH
Dr. J. D. Simons, Pastor
8:45 a. m.—Sunday School; Hoyle Hendrix, Supt. Classes for all ages. Place for babies.
11:00 a. m.—Morning worship.
Sermon: "Jesus' Way to Greatness."
8:00 by Mr. Denton Rossell.
Services broadcast over WGTC.
4:00 p. m.—Service at Prison Camp.
7:00 p. m.—Training Union.
8:00 p. m.—Evening service.
Sermon: "The Conquering Life."
Wednesday, 7:45 p. m.—Prayer meeting.
8:30 p. m.—Weekly meeting of Sunday school workers.
A cordial welcome to all of these services.

JANIS MEMORIAL M.E. CHURCH
Rev. George W. Perry, Minister
9:45 a. m.—Sunday School; J. H. Ross, Supt.
11:00 a. m.—Morning Worship.
Organ Prelude: "Nocturne"—Chopin.
Anthem: "Rejoice, Give Thanks"—College Choir.
Offertory: "Andantino"—Chopin.
Solo: "The Lord's Prayer"—Miss Doris Hall.
Sermon: "The Wealth of a Nation."
Postlude: "March Aux Flambeaux."
Music by the College Choir.
3:00 p. m.—The Junior Choir will rehearse.
7:00 p. m.—The Junior Fellowship will meet.
8:30 p. m.—Meetings of the Intermediate Fellowship, with Kathryn Van Nortwick, leader; and Young People's Fellowship, with Haywood Sellers, leader.
9:30 p. m.—Evening worship.
Hymn Sign of old hymns.
Organ Prelude: "Evening Prayer."
Hymn 381: "The Church's One Foundation."
Hymn 249: "I Love to Tell the Story."
Hymn 256: "Faith of Our Fathers."
Hymn 338: "Jesus, Lover of My Soul."
Hymn 479: "Jesus Shall Reign Where'er the Sun."
Offertory: "Meditation."
Hymn 148: "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross." Sermon: "Living by the Higher Vision."
Hymn 238: "Blessed Assurance."
Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.—Mid-week prayer service.
Thursday, 7:30 p. m.—Young People's Choir Rehearsal.

EIGHTH ST. CHRISTIAN CHURCH
(Disciples of Christ)
R. H. Crossfield, Ph.D.
Ad Interim Pastor
Mrs. J. Paul Davenport, Organist
9:45 a. m.—Sunday School, with classes for all. J. F. Carr, Supt.
11:00 a. m.—Worship service and sermon.
7:00 p. m.—C. E. meeting at the church.
Sermon subject: "A Cruise of Nard."
Monday, 3:30 p. m.—Woman's Council meets. Dr. Crossfield will speak.
Boy Scouts meet Wednesday at 7:00 p. m., Guy Smith, Scoutmaster.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
Pitt and West Fifth Streets
Robert S. Boyd, D. D., Pastor
9:45 a. m.—Sunday School; A. B. Stallworth, Supt.
11:00 a. m.—Morning worship.
6:30 p. m.—Young People's League.
Hollywood Chapel
7:30 p. m.—Church School.
Meadowbrook Church
7:00 p. m.—Young People's League.
8:00 p. m.—Worship service.
Rev. L. C. Carter will preach.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE
Dickinson Avenue
9:45 a. m.—Sunday School.
11:00 a. m.—Lesson-Sermon.
Wednesday—Reading Room open from 2 until 5 o'clock in the church building.
Wednesday, 7:45 p. m.—Testimony meeting in the church edifice, 1008 Dickinson Avenue.

SALVATION ARMY MEETING
10:00 a. m.—Sunday School.
9:00 a. m.—Holiness Meeting.
6:00 p. m.—Young People's Meeting.
7:00 p. m.—Salvation meeting.
Tuesday, 7:30 p. m.—Prayer Meeting.
Thursday, 7:30 p. m.—Women's Meeting Club.

PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS
Corner 13th and Reade Sts.
Rev. J. G. Spivey, Pastor
10:00 a. m.—Sunday School; H. D. Foyes, Supt.
Services every Sunday by the pastor at 11 a. m., and 8:00 p. m.
7:00 p. m.—P. H. Y. S. meeting.
Tuesday and Friday—Prayer services at 8:00 p. m.

CHURCH OF ST. PETER THE APOSTLE
Rev. Charles J. Guble, Pastor
The Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered at 10:30 a. m.

Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament at 5 p. m.

LUTHERAN CHURCH
(400 East Eighth St.)
Robert L. Landeck, Pastor
(315 W. 4th St.—Phone 3192)
7:30 p. m.—Worship service.

FREE WILL BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. J. C. Moye, Pastor
Corner Eleventh & Cotanche Sts.
9:45 a. m.—Sunday School.
Public invited to all services.

WINTERVILLE METHODIST CHURCH
Services every second Sunday morning conducted by Rev. Perry Case of Atlantic Christian College, and every third Sunday night by Rev. L. A. Tilley of Ayden.

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CHURCH Corner Cotanche and Tenth Sts.
Rev. S. B. Denny, Pastor
Services every fourth Saturday and Sunday.

STOKES BAPTIST CHURCH
J. A. Hoyle, Pastor
10:00 a. m.—Sunday School; W. S. Overton, Supt.
11:00 a. m.—Services every fourth Sunday morning.

BETHEL CHURCHES
METHODIST—Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Sermon at 11 o'clock.
BAPTIST—Sunday School at 9:45 a. m. Sermon at 11 o'clock.
HOLINESS—Sabbath School 10 a. m., each Sunday. Preaching service 11 a. m., and 8 p. m., on second and fourth Sundays only. Young People's service each Sunday, 7:15 p. m.
Services at all churches are E.W.T.

BLACK JACK F. W. B. CHURCH
Rev. J. C. Griffin, Pastor
Sunday School every Sunday at 10 a. m.—Marvin Harper, Supt.
Preaching every third Sunday at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m.—and Saturday evening at 7:30 before third Sunday.

WINTERVILLE BAPTIST CHURCH
Rev. C. Arthur Francis, Pastor
10:00 a. m.—Sunday School; Hyatt Forrest, Supt.

STOKES METHODIST CHURCH
Daniel Boone, Pastor
10:00 a. m.—Sunday School; W. F. Stokes, Supt.
Services every first Sunday night, and every third Sunday morning.

STOKES CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Gilbert Davis, Pastor
10:00 a. m.—Sunday School; A. L. Woolard, Supt.
11:00 a. m.—Services every second Sunday morning.

ST. PAUL'S PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS
Washington Highway
Rev. J. G. Crocker, Pastor
10:00 a. m.—Sunday School; W. J. Lewis, Supt.
Preaching every second and fourth Sundays at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
7:00 p. m.—P. H. Y. S. each Sunday.

day morning at 10:30.
Holy Mass each morning at 7:00.
Prayer, sermon and instructions every Sunday evening at 8 o'clock; every Thursday night at 8 o'clock.

MT. CALVARY F.W.B. CHURCH Corner Hudson and Ward Sts.
Rev. E. M. Hill, Pastor
9:45 a. m.—Sunday School... Isaac Corey, Supt.
Preaching every second and fourth Sunday at 11 a. m., and evening worship at 7:30 p. m.
Prayer meeting Wednesday at 8 p. m.

PHILIPPI CHRISTIAN CHURCH
(Disciples of Christ)
Corner 13th and Greene Sts.
Rev. C. T. Utley, Pastor
Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; J. L. Leary, Supt.
Preaching every second and fourth Sunday at 11:30 a. m.
Evening worship at 7:30 p. m.

YORK MEMORIAL A.M.E. ZION Albemarle Avenue
Rev. Orlan P. League, Pastor
Sunday School, 10:00 a. m.
Morning worship at 11:30 a. m.
Christian Endeavor, 8:30 p. m.
Evening worship at 7:30 p. m.
Prayer and class meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p. m.

SELVA CHAPEL F.W.B. CHURCH
Rev. J. W. Wilkerson, Pastor
Sunday School, 9:45 a. m.; Sam Weathington, Supt.
Preaching every first and third Sunday at 11 a. m., and 7:30 p. m.

CORNERSTONE BAPTIST
Thirteenth and Railroad Sts.
Rev. J. E. Tillett, Pastor
Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; Milton Carr, Jr., Supt.
Morning worship at 11:00 a. m.
Evening worship at 7:30 p. m.

SIMPSON F.W.B. CHURCH
Rev. John Harden, Pastor
Sunday School, 10:00 a. m.; G. L. Hardy, Supt.
Services every fourth Sunday at 11:30 a. m., and 7:30 p. m.
Prayer meeting Wednesday, 7:30.

PHILIPPI BAPTIST CHURCH
Railroad St.—Simpson, N. C.
Rev. J. H. Harris, Pastor
Sunday School, 9:45 a. m.; J. H. Taft, Supt.
Morning worship at 11:00 a. m.
Evening worship at 7:30 p. m.

SWEET HOPE F.W.B. CHURCH
Rev. E. H. Cox, Pastor
Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.; C. C. Chapman, Supt.
Morning worship at 11:00 a. m.
Evening worship at 7:30 p. m.
Prayer meeting Wednesday, 7:30.

GOOD HOPE F. W. B. CHURCH
Rev. S. Hemby, Pastor
9:30 a. m.—Sunday School; David Henderson, Supt.
11:00 a. m.—Morning worship.
The public is cordially invited.

ROCK SPRING F.W.B. CHURCH
Rev. S. Hemby, Pastor
9:30 a. m.—Sunday School; Tony Thigpen, Supt.
11:00 a. m.—Morning worship.
The public is invited to attend all services.

French Admiral Jean Darlan (above) who was in Algiers during the American attack and gave the cease firing order that ended hostilities between the French Colonials and the Americans, has issued a radio appeal to the French fleet to flee from Toulon and come to North Africa.

The Eighth Zouaves, crack French regiment, shown on parade in Paris before taking up their post in North Africa. These troops were among those who capitulated to the Americans when Admiral Jean Darlan issued his cease-firing order bringing to an end hostilities between French North-African forces and the American Expeditionary Forces.

FROM BUCKSKIN TO BUCKET HELMET—Evolution of American fighting men's clothing was shown at an arms plant pageant at Ilon, N. Y. Left to right: Frontiersman, Mexican War rifleman, Civil War infantryman, plainsman, Spanish War trooper, World War I soldier, and World War II sharpshooter wearing the new bucket-style helmet.

Recovering from their wounds at San Diego, Calif. Private Albert A. Schmid (left), 22, Marine Corps private from Philadelphia, and Corporal Leroy Diamond (right) of New York "re-fight" the Battle of the Solomon Islands in which Schmid was credited with killing more than 200 Japs with a scorching hot machine gun before he was blinded by an enemy grenade. Diamond fed ammunition to the gun until he was wounded. Fellow-patients listen.

Colored Churches

STAMMOR HILL BAPTIST Corner Greene and First Streets
Rev. J. A. Gummo, Pastor
9:30 a. m.—Sunday School; W. D. Miller, Supt.
11:00 a. m.—Morning worship.
6:30 p. m.—B. T. U.; Mrs. Mary I. Butler, Director.
7:30 p. m.—Evening worship.
Thursday, 7:30 p. m.—Prayer meeting.

BETHEL F. W. B. CHURCH
Rev. J. C. Gardner, Pastor
Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.
Preaching every third Sunday at 11 a. m., 3 p. m., and 7:30 p. m.

JOE'S BRANCH F.W.B. CHURCH
On No. 43 Highway
W. T. Barrow, Pastor
9:30 a. m.—Sunday School; E. A. Chapman, Supt.
Preaching every first Sunday at 11:00 a. m.
Prayer meeting every Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

ST. JOSEPH'S CHAPEL
Vanceboro, N. C.
Rev. J. C. Gardner, Pastor
Sunday School at 9:30 a. m.
Preaching services every first Sunday at 11:00 a. m.

ST. PETER'S F.W.B. CHURCH
Vanceboro, N. C.
Rev. J. C. Gardner, Pastor
Sunday School, 9:30 a. m.
Preaching every third Sunday at 11:00 a. m.

CEDAR GROVE BAPTIST
Rev. C. C. Sharp, Pastor
Sunday School, 10:30 a. m.
Services every fourth Sunday at 11:00 a. m.

ELOHIM HOLINESS CHURCH
Pitt Street
9:30 a. m.—Sunday School; E. A. Chapman, Supt.
Preaching service every first Sunday at 11 o'clock.
Prayer meeting every Sunday at Elder J. N. Batten, Pastor
Sunday services at 11:30 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.
Prayer meeting Wednesday, 7:30 p. m.

ENGLISH CHAPEL F. W. B.
Rev. S. Hemby, Pastor
Sunday School, 9:00 a. m.; Sam King, Supt.
11:00 a. m.—Sermon by the pastor.
The public is invited.

ST. JOHN'S C. M. E. MISSION
Sheppard Street
Rev. W. F. Jones, Pastor
Residence, Bethel, N. C.
Sunday School, 10:45 a. m.
Preaching every first Sunday at 11:45 a. m., and 7:30 p. m.
Preaching every third Sunday at 3:30 and 7:30 p. m.

ST. GABRIEL'S CATHOLIC
Father Maurice, C. P., Pastor
Holy Mass and sermon each Sun-

NOTICE SERVING SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION
North Carolina—Pitt County.
In The Superior Court
Hattie Speight
-vs-Willie Speight
The defendant, Willie Speight, will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Pitt County, North Carolina for absolute divorce; and the said defendant will further take notice that he is required to appear at the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of said county in the court house in Greenville, N. C., within twenty days after the 27th day of November, 1942, and answer or demur to the complaint in said action, or the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said complaint. This 27th day of October, 1942.
E. F. TUCKER, Asst. Clerk of Superior Court Pitt County.
Dink James, Atty.
Oct. 29-11w-4wk.

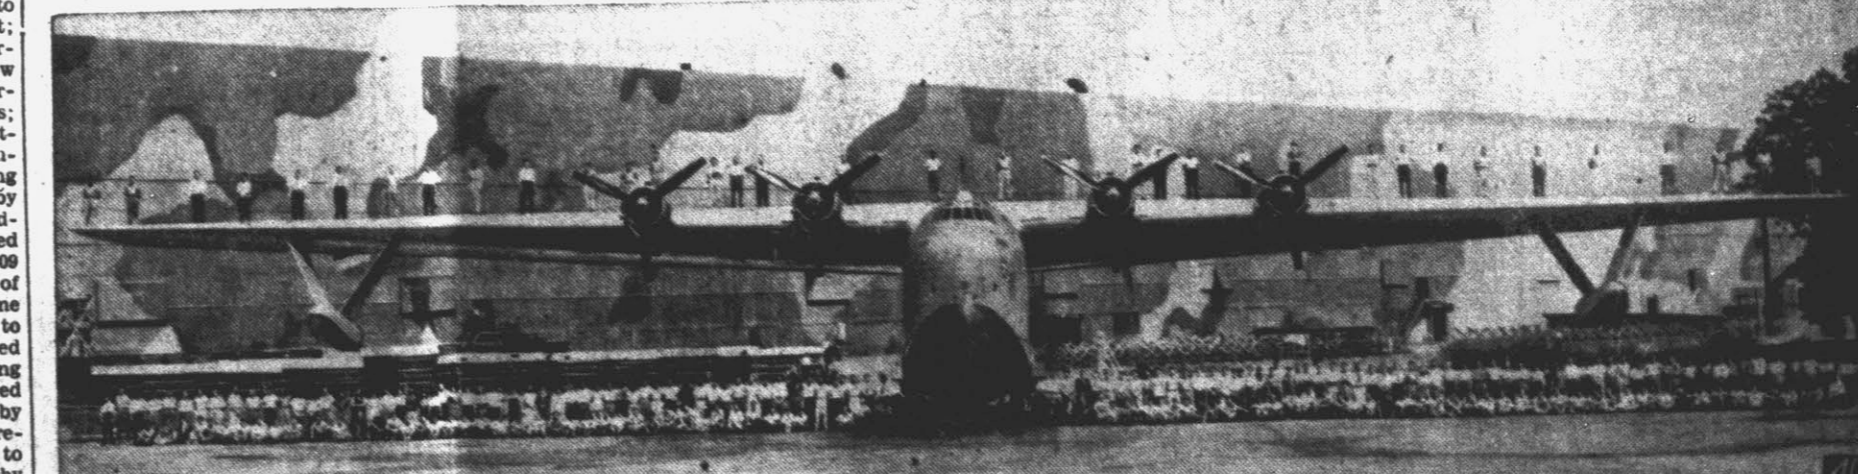

NOTICE OF SALE
Pursuant to an order of sale signed by Honorable J. F. Harrington, Clerk of Superior Court, in the matter of W. S. Arnold and wife, Lucy Helen Arnold; Bessie Weatherington and husband, Jim Weatherington; Annie Cox and husband, Clinton Cox; Mrs. Letha Sumrell and husband, Hugh Sumrell; R. C. Arnold; L. H. Arnold and wife, Lucy Arnold; Ek Parte, the undersigned commissioner will offer for sale, and sell to the highest bidder for cash before the court house door in Greenville, North Carolina, at 12 o'clock Noon
Monday, November 23, 1942
all of the following described parcels:
That certain lot or parcel of land lying and being situate in Chicod Township, Pitt County, North Carolina, in the proposed town of Simpson, beginning on Railroad Street at a stake, and running with Main Street northerly 80 feet to another stake on Main Street; thence easterly 120 feet to Barrow Street, thence with Barrow Street, southerly to a stake on corner of Barrow and Railroad Streets; thence with Railroad Street westerly to the beginning and containing 9,600 square feet and being the same lot of land conveyed by C. G. Barrow and wife to J. S. Edwards on February 15, 1908, by deed recorded in Book S-8 at page 209 in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County, and the same land conveyed by J. S. Edwards to L. A. Arnold et al by deed recorded in Book R-1 at page 531; and being the identical lot of land conveyed by L. A. Arnold to Julia Arnold by deed dated September 29, 1931, to which deeds reference is hereby made for a more accurate description.
This the 22nd day of Oct., 1942.
DINK JAMES, Commissioner.
Oct. 26-11w-4wk.

This picture of United States Rangers storming a beach from an assault boat in practice maneuvers somewhere in the United Kingdom gives an example of how Rangers made similar landings in storming ashore in the French colonies of North Africa.

Nick Zachery (left), and his brother, Zack (right), 20-year-old twins from Whitesville, W. Va., who can't read or write, look at a magazine in New York where they voluntarily joined the army after being arrested for failure to register for the draft. In Brooklyn to hunt a job, they decided to enlist and asked a policeman how to do it—and where. Finding the twins did not have registration cards, the officer took them into custody. At their hearing in federal court, they were placed on probation with the proviso that they enlist. They took care of that promptly. Nick said the folks back home just didn't pay much attention to the draft law, although "a lot of them went into the army."

AIR GIANT AND HER BUILDERS—The 70-ton Mars, largest aircraft of her type in the world, "poses" for this picture amid workmen who built her at Baltimore, Md. Thirty-five men, spaced six feet apart, stand on her 200 foot wing and 215 other Glenn F. Martin workers stand on the ground.

The Daily Reflector

Every Afternoon Except Sunday
Established 1882
DAVID J. WHICARD, Jr.
Owner and Publisher
DIAL 3356

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as second class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES (Payable in Advance)
One Week 15
One Month 50
Three Months $1.50
Six Months $3.00
One Year $6.00

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein. All right of publication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
Thomas P. Clark, Co. Inc., New York, Chicago, Atlanta.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

WE SEE GOD IN JESUS CHRIST
People often ask the question,
"What is God like?" If one is asking for a detailed description, then of course no one can give that. No one has seen God at any time. He has manifested Himself to men's hearts but He has not at any time drawn the veil which hangs between Himself and the worshiper, so that the worshiper actually sees Him.

But He has given men a full description of His character and purpose by sending Jesus Christ into the world. When we look at Christ, God made flesh, we perceive all those things about God which the human mind can understand. There may be other aspects of God's nature which He did not see fit to reveal in Jesus, but everything having to do with His character and purpose for mankind was faithfully disclosed in the life of the Messiah.

What then is God like? We ask ourselves as we examine the life of Jesus. Very evidently God is kind and loving, as Jesus was. Who has compassion on the multitude. God is all-powerful, as Jesus appeared to be when He commanded the forces of nature and they obeyed, commanded disease to "depart and health to rush in take its place.
God is righteous, as Jesus was righteous and willing to give Himself every day to the welfare of His children, even though His sacrifice led to the cross.

It may be hard for one to understand God when he thinks of Him in abstract terms, but it is not hard to understand Him when one sees Him set forth in the life and character of Jesus.

All Rights Reserved—Babson
Newspaper Syndicate

PUT IT INTO BONDS

The local tobacco market closed its 1942 season yesterday after paying out more money than in any season on record, regardless of the number of pounds sold. In view of this, most of our farmers should have some ready money after taking care of their obligations and a good place for them to put some of it is in War Bonds.
By buying War Bonds you are not only helping the government finance the war, but you are making an investment that will be returned to you with interest when you need it. The government is now inaugurating a new drive for the sale of bonds and every citizen is urged to go the limit in purchases.

CAUGHT NAPPING

Recent revelations regarding the ground work done in North Africa weeks before our troops actually entered the area indicates that Hitler was caught napping and outsmarted at his own game of intrigue. Naturally the whole story has not been told and may never be told, but enough has already come to light to emphasize that all the brainy ideas do not originate in a Munich beer hall.

LET'S FINISH THE JOB NOW

Last night's report on the Community Chest drive here revealed that some over $6,000 of the $8,000 goal had been pledged, leaving a campaign nearly $2,000

Ersatz Superman

ROMANEL
REG-MANNING

short. While it was hoped that the goal would be reached and the drive ended yesterday, the fact that there is still a shortage makes it necessary to extend the drive over into next week.

The amount being asked of the citizens of Greenville participating in the chest fund is small, considering the great amount of good it will accomplish and there is no just reason why our people should not reach this goal or even surpass it.

Folks, let's not drag this thing out any longer. It is up to us to reach this goal and we should do it now without further delay. If you have not already contributed or made a pledge to the fund, we urge you to do so now.

It is possible that the so-licitors have not had the opportunity to pay you a personal call but that should not keep you from making a contribution. We know, as a good citizen interested in the welfare of Greenville, you will want to do your part in this matter, so call John G.
Clark, campaign chairman.

tell him what you would like to contribute and he will see to it that someone calls for your contribution or pledge card. The people who are giving their time to try to put this drive over are just as busy as you are and this cooperation on your part will aid greatly in getting the job done quickly. How about it?
Let's finish it up right away.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

Washington—Over at the War Production Board and in a thousand war plants, officials, labor-management committees, personnel directors and foremen are battling against one of production's greatest headaches. Officially it is referred to as "absenteeism."

Actually, it consists of taking "French leave," playing hooky, or going AWOL from a war job—for reasons other than illness or injury.
Joe (War-Worker) Jones wakes up in the morning. It's the kind of a day when the fish are biting or the ducks are flying. Or maybe it's just the morning after the night before. "To heck with it," says Joe.
"I got plenty of dough. I been working hard. I need a day off." He takes it.

Multiply Joe by several thousand every day and it means approximately 6,000,000 man days lost a month in the shipbuilding industry alone. Absenteeism is costing the war effort two cargo ships a month.

In Butte, Mont., copper mining officials estimated that absenteeism resulted in the loss of 63,000 pounds of copper a day.

Apply those same percentages to practically every war industry and wonder no longer why the WPB, labor-management committees, and personnel directors are so concerned.

Remedies there are and they are numerous. Some of them have cut absenteeism in some plants by more than half. In one western mining town, closing the bars on Sunday cut Monday absenteeism more than 60 per cent.

In many plants, there are various forms of personal interview. Workers with sons or brothers in the service call on the absentees at one plant and give them a friendly talking-to and in another plant, absentees without an excuse of illness are greeted with a vari-colored "AWOL time card" which instructs them to report to the personnel director for a conference.

In several factories, absentees are "paid" for the days they missed in "Hitler money," with a note from Der Fuehrer thanking them for their contribution to HIS war effort.

Contests with bonuses in war plants for perfect attendance records are common. In some plants, they give little badges.

But the problem still is with war production in a big way. Some of the increase is believed due to the greater number of women and older persons employed, but most of it comes from those big increases in the pay envelope and that perennial inclination of American youth to play hooky once in a while.

Argentina And . . .

(Continued from page one)
onage in Argentina by Axis agents and it hailed with satisfaction "this concrete example of cooperation."

Police and other authorities are investigating, said a foreign office statement. From other sources it was reliably reported that at least 20 Germans or pro-German Argentines had been arrested recently.

Youth Draft . . .

(Continued from page one)
during the war certain colleges and universities to train a limited number of men for "highly specialized" duties in the armed forces.

"These men will be selected solely on the basis of their ability," the President said, "and without regard to whether or not they are now in college or whether they could otherwise afford to go to college."
In signing the bill only a day after final congressional action on a measure stripped of all restrictions as to length of training before combat duty, the President said the time had now come "when the successful prosecution of the war requires that we call to the colors the men of 18 and 19."

Officials have estimated that there are about 2,400,000 youths between and 20 already registered and that about 2,000,000 or more might go toward making up the 4-500,000 additional men needed in all the four armed services by the end of the 1943 calendar year.

The calculations take into account the youths who will become 18 between now and well into 1948. From the present 18 and 19-year-olds registered, officials believe about 1,500-00 eventually will find their way into the service.

Inductions of this new reservoir of fighting power are not expected to begin until around the first of the year.
While many may be called within 30 or 40 days, the induction times will vary, depending on the extent of preparations of local boards to meet quotas with older men and how quickly the boards classify the new groups for service.

MURDER on the Campus

By JERRY BRONFIELD

Chapter 21 Good News

Todd picked a letter off the mail table as he walked in to lunch. He tore it open and read it eagerly at the table.
Eddie watched him closely. When lunch was over he cornered Todd in the living room.

"I don't know whether you realized it or not, but you lost your sourpuss for a moment while you were reading that letter. In fact, I thought you even cracked a smile at one spot. Your first in days. Was the letter the remedy?"
Todd pulled Eddie down onto the sofa. "It was," he said soberly. "One of those things that shows a guy the brighter side. It was from my father.
They're—he says—they set his parole for two months from now.
Jeppers, Ed, that's wonderful, isn't it? Just two months!"

Luttrell snipped Todd's thigh.
"It's great. I'm glad for both of you.
And it's bound to make a difference
—a whole of a difference. You know what I'm talking about, I hope."
Todd grinned sheepishly. "Yeah, pa—I know. Gee, this feels good."
It was good news Todd had received, but there was a qualifying note in it. Duke Malone expected to be paroled in two months but in that time he had to figure out a way to raise some money. A lot of money, it appeared to Todd. Three thousand dollars.

Duke Malone was going to give up gambling. For good. For $3,000 he could buy into a small manufacturing business a friend was starting.
There were men who owed him plenty but it was a funny thing.
Duke told Todd, how easily they forgot, or found themselves unable to help. He'd get that money, though.

And it wasn't to be Todd's worry, either. The Duke was pretty insistent about that. They each had their own private little battle.

Susan Needs A Rest
State was scheduled to travel that week-end, going to Northwestern. Tuesday night Peggy Cameron came up with the bright idea. She cornered Susan, Amy, and Jane.
"How about us piling into my little 'ol' prairie schooner tomorrow and driving up to the game? We can stay at the Northwestern chapter house and it'll be lots of fun. How's it sound?"

"Wonderful!" Jane enthused.
"Count me in."
Susan was silent. They looked at her questioningly. "What's the matter Susan?" Amy asked.
"I think I'll pass it up, gals.
Thanks much, though. I just don't feel like it. Anyway, it's a good chance to get in a lot of solid rest with the football fever on somebody else's campus for a change. But don't let me stop you. Get hold of Alice Duncan, she'll go for it."
"Hey!" Amy protested, "you can't do that."
Susan laughed shortly. "Under penalty of death, no doubt. Nope," she added conclusively, "deal little Susie out this hand. I'll get the gory details on the radio."

After they had left, Susan felt just the slightest pang of regret, but she knew that if she didn't she needed a week-end of rest. The last couple of weeks had taken something out of her.
She had wanted her senior year to be something she could remember. How could she miss? She thought sardonically. Especially after this semester.

Saturday afternoon she joined three or four others in the living room. They tuned in just as the announcer was giving the lineup.
In the background they could hear the gathering volume of sound that always rolled up in the final seconds preceding the kickoff.
"Northwestern won the toss, as you know, and elected to receive," the announcer was saying swiftly.
"Duchek kicking for State, with Malone holding. The referee gets his signal from the two captains, there's the whistle and there they go!"
Susan rolled over and looked at her room-mate, a whimsical expression crossing her face. There was a slightly weary note in her tone

when she answered. "I'd have a little more peace of mind if I knew myself. Sometimes—yes, she said.
"Once in a great while—no. And most of the time I'm not sure myself," she added.

"That'll do for a starter. Amy told her. "I don't work for the Geataps—I'll go easy on you. But I'm going to stick my ear in," she added
meaningly. "Jane and Eddie swear
by him, and that's enough for me.
So, if you're looking for votes I'll
cast a big one."
"It sounds like you're trying to stuff the ballot box," Susan smiled.
"He doesn't need it," Amy said
shortly. "Not if it's a fair election."
Susan had to admit there was a lot in what Amy said. But she had just enough courage to put up some sort of battle against Todd's attitude. It just wasn't in her to over-
crook it with charitable toleration.
Not something as important as that.
Susan checked her vein of thought
there. She amended it to something that could be as important as that.

News For Todd
Todd got back from Chicago
shortly after dinner Monday.
"What'd they do—kick you out of bed and give it to someone who really needed it?" Bill Gardner jibed, shaking his head.
"Just about," Todd grinned. "Eddie home from practice yet?"
"Inside." Bud said, pointing to the dining room.
Eddie was just finishing dinner.
"Hiya, boy scout," Eddie cried cheerfully. "What's the latest diagnosis? Pull up a chair. Eat yet?"
Todd sat down. "Ate on the train.
The diagnosis contained a flock of medical terminology that wound up with slight concussion but nothing serious. What'd you expect—permanent disability?"
Eddie grinned. "You going to be ready Saturday?"
"Maybe—if Doc Elliott says so.
What's new?"
Nothing much. Tried out a couple of new plays we'll use against Colgate. Flunked another physiology quiz, and—"
Eddie stopped for a moment and snapped his fingers. "Say, I almost forgot. Seems the day we left for Northwestern there was a shooting.
Riley Beckett—you know who he is,
the guy who ran the Trinidad Club?
—Well Beckett got himself involved
in the Humphries thing and just when the cops go to talk to him about it he gets bumped off in a robbery. Can you beat it?"
"Killed!" Todd echoed. "Who did it?"
"Oh, just a couple of yeggs. They make no difference—they were nabbed anyway—but what I'd like to know is in what way is this Beckett
connected with Humphries?"
"You can say that twice," Todd said. "Has old Gumbo Lake been pussy-footing around lately?"
"Not around here, but Jane told me he had Susan downtown last week talking with the district attorney."
"Susan—what for? What does she know that we don't?" Todd demanded, a faint note of irritability
creeping into his voice.
"Don't ask me—ask her anyway.
It's about time you started seeing things in different light. If you don't, I'm going to grab you by that

Chapter 22
Mr. Hazen
Susan was still up Sunday night when Peggy, Jane and Amy got home from Chicago. Amy, a somewhat bedraggled grin on her face effected a stagger as she came in the room.
She plopped into a chair. "Whoaam I bushed! Susie, did you miss yourself a good time this week-end?
What a game and what a chapter house those Delta Sligs have at Northwestern. It's simply something, that house. But I think we get an edge in girls," she added blithely.
"They've got three or four backwoods specimens who look as though they put on shoes for the first time when they came down out of the hills."
Susan laughed. "That, I imagine, is the most important note you have to offer on the whole trip."
"Oh, not exactly," Amy said starting to unpack her valise. "Jane and I managed to see Eddie for a moment after the game."
"Without looking up Amy said.
"Eddie mentioned that Malone was being left behind in a hospital for observation. He got a terrific kick in the head."
"Oh, I didn't know that," Susan said with an attempt at being casual.

Amy, sitting on the floor, leaned back on her elbows, her chin slanted up, her eyes regarded Susan thoughtfully.
"Look, Susie," she began slowly.
"We've been together for almost four years now and we're kind of used to letting our hair down once in a while."
"Give forth now, honey child. You might not exactly admit it to the rank and file but wouldn't you like to tell little Amy that you kind of go for the guy. Kind of . . ."
Susan rolled over and looked at her room-mate, a whimsical expression crossing her face. There was a

slightly weary note in her tone
when she answered. "I'd have a little more peace of mind if I knew
myself. Sometimes—yes, she said.
"Once in a great while—no. And most of the time I'm not sure myself," she added.

"That'll do for a starter. Amy
told her. "I don't work for the Geataps—I'll go easy on you. But I'm going to stick my ear in," she added
meaningly. "Jane and Eddie swear
by him, and that's enough for me.
So, if you're looking for votes I'll
cast a big one."
"It sounds like you're trying to
stuff the ballot box," Susan smiled.
"He doesn't need it," Amy said
shortly. "Not if it's a fair election."
Susan had to admit there was a lot in what Amy said. But she had
just enough courage to put up some sort of battle against Todd's attitude. It just wasn't in her to over-
crook it with charitable toleration.
Not something as important as that.
Susan checked her vein of thought
there. She amended it to something that could be as important as that.

News For Todd
Todd got back from Chicago
shortly after dinner Monday.
"What'd they do—kick you out of bed and give it to someone who really needed it?" Bill Gardner jibed,
shaking his head.
"Just about," Todd grinned. "Eddie home from practice yet?"
"Inside." Bud said, pointing to the dining room.
Eddie was just finishing dinner.
"Hiya, boy scout," Eddie cried
cheerfully. "What's the latest diagnosis? Pull up a chair. Eat yet?"
Todd sat down. "Ate on the train.
The diagnosis contained a flock of
medical terminology that wound up
with slight concussion but nothing serious. What'd you expect—permanent disability?"
Eddie grinned. "You going to be ready Saturday?"
"Maybe—if Doc Elliott says so.
What's new?"
Nothing much. Tried out a couple of new plays we'll use against Colgate. Flunked another physiology quiz, and—"
Eddie stopped for a moment and snapped his fingers. "Say, I almost forgot. Seems the day we left for Northwestern there was a shooting.
Riley Beckett—you know who he is,
the guy who ran the Trinidad Club?
—Well Beckett got himself involved
in the Humphries thing and just
when the cops go to talk to him
about it he gets bumped off in a robbery. Can you beat it?"
"Killed!" Todd echoed. "Who did
it?"
"Oh, just a couple of yeggs. They make no difference—they were nab-
bed anyway—but what I'd like to know is in what way is this Beckett
connected with Humphries?"
"You can say that twice," Todd
said. "Has old Gumbo Lake been
pussy-footing around lately?"
"Not around here, but Jane told me he had Susan downtown last week talking with the district attorney."
"Susan—what for? What does she know that we don't?" Todd demanded, a faint note of irritability
creeping into his voice.
"Don't ask me—ask her anyway.
It's about time you started seeing things in different light. If you don't, I'm going to grab you by that

slightly weary note in her tone
when she answered. "I'd have a little more peace of mind if I knew
myself. Sometimes—yes, she said.
"Once in a great while—no. And most of the time I'm not sure myself," she added.

"That'll do for a starter. Amy
told her. "I don't work for the Geataps—I'll go easy on you. But I'm going to stick my ear in," she added
meaningly. "Jane and Eddie swear
by him, and that's enough for me.
So, if you're looking for votes I'll
cast a big one."
"It sounds like you're trying to
stuff the ballot box," Susan smiled.
"He doesn't need it," Amy said
shortly. "Not if it's a fair election."
Susan had to admit there was a lot in what Amy said. But she had
just enough courage to put up some sort of battle against Todd's attitude. It just wasn't in her to over-
crook it with charitable toleration.
Not something as important as that.
Susan checked her vein of thought
there. She amended it to something that could be as important as that.

News For Todd
Todd got back from Chicago
shortly after dinner Monday.
"What'd they do—kick you out of bed and give it to someone who really needed it?" Bill Gardner jibed,
shaking his head.
"Just about," Todd grinned. "Eddie home from practice yet?"
"Inside." Bud said, pointing to the dining room.
Eddie was just finishing dinner.
"Hiya, boy scout," Eddie cried
cheerfully. "What's the latest diagnosis? Pull up a chair. Eat yet?"
Todd sat down. "Ate on the train.
The diagnosis contained a flock of
medical terminology that wound up
with slight concussion but nothing serious. What'd you expect—permanent disability?"
Eddie grinned. "You going to be ready Saturday?"
"Maybe—if Doc Elliott says so.
What's new?"
Nothing much. Tried out a couple of new plays we'll use against Colgate. Flunked another physiology quiz, and—"
Eddie stopped for a moment and snapped his fingers. "Say, I almost forgot. Seems the day we left for Northwestern there was a shooting.
Riley Beckett—you know who he is,
the guy who ran the Trinidad Club?
—Well Beckett got himself involved
in the Humphries thing and just
when the cops go to talk to him
about it he gets bumped off in a robbery. Can you beat it?"
"Killed!" Todd echoed. "Who did
it?"
"Oh, just a couple of yeggs. They make no difference—they were nab-
bed anyway—but what I'd like to know is in what way is this Beckett
connected with Humphries?"
"You can say that twice," Todd
said. "Has old Gumbo Lake been
pussy-footing around lately?"
"Not around here, but Jane told me he had Susan downtown last week talking with the district attorney."
"Susan—what for? What does she know that we don't?" Todd demanded, a faint note of irritability
creeping into his voice.
"Don't ask me—ask her anyway.
It's about time you started seeing things in different light. If you don't, I'm going to grab you by that

slightly weary note in her tone
when she answered. "I'd have a little more peace of mind if I knew
myself. Sometimes—yes, she said.
"Once in a great while—no. And most of the time I'm not sure myself," she added.

"That'll do for a starter. Amy
told her. "I don't work for the Geataps—I'll go easy on you. But I'm going to stick my ear in," she added
meaningly. "Jane and Eddie swear
by him, and that's enough for me.
So, if you're looking for votes I'll
cast a big one."
"It sounds like you're trying to
stuff the ballot box," Susan smiled.
"He doesn't need it," Amy said
shortly. "Not if it's a fair election."
Susan had to admit there was a lot in what Amy said. But she had
just enough courage to put up some sort of battle against Todd's attitude. It just wasn't in her to over-
crook it with charitable toleration.
Not something as important as that.
Susan checked her vein of thought
there. She amended it to something that could be as important as that.

News For Todd
Todd got back from Chicago
shortly after dinner Monday.
"What'd they do—kick you out of bed and give it to someone who really needed it?" Bill Gardner jibed,
shaking his head.
"Just about," Todd grinned. "Eddie home from practice yet?"
"Inside." Bud said, pointing to the dining room.
Eddie was just finishing dinner.
"Hiya, boy scout," Eddie cried
cheerfully. "What's the latest diagnosis? Pull up a chair. Eat yet?"
Todd sat down. "Ate on the train.
The diagnosis contained a flock of
medical terminology that wound up
with slight concussion but nothing serious. What'd you expect—permanent disability?"
Eddie grinned. "You going to be ready Saturday?"
"Maybe—if Doc Elliott says so.
What's new?"
Nothing much. Tried out a couple of new plays we'll use against Colgate. Flunked another physiology quiz, and—"
Eddie stopped for a moment and snapped his fingers. "Say, I almost forgot. Seems the day we left for Northwestern there was a shooting.
Riley Beckett—you know who he is,
the guy who ran the Trinidad Club?
—Well Beckett got himself involved
in the Humphries thing and just
when the cops go to talk to him
about it he gets bumped off in a robbery. Can you beat it?"
"Killed!" Todd echoed. "Who did
it?"
"Oh, just a couple of yeggs. They make no difference—they were nab-
bed anyway—but what I'd like to know is in what way is this Beckett
connected with Humphries?"
"You can say that twice," Todd
said. "Has old Gumbo Lake been
pussy-footing around lately?"
"Not around here, but Jane told me he had Susan downtown last week talking with the district attorney."
"Susan—what for? What does she know that we don't?" Todd demanded, a faint note of irritability
creeping into his voice.
"Don't ask me—ask her anyway.
It's about time you started seeing things in different light. If you don't, I'm going to grab you by that

slightly weary note in her tone
when she answered. "I'd have a little more peace of mind if I knew
myself. Sometimes—yes, she said.
"Once in a great while—no. And most of the time I'm not sure myself," she added.

"That'll do for a starter. Amy
told her. "I don't work for the Geataps—I'll go easy on you. But I'm going to stick my ear in," she added
meaningly. "Jane and Eddie swear
by him, and that's enough for me.
So, if you're looking for votes I'll
cast a big one."
"It sounds like you're trying to
stuff the ballot box," Susan smiled.
"He doesn't need it," Amy said
shortly. "Not if it's a fair election."
Susan had to admit there was a lot in what Amy said. But she had
just enough courage to put up some sort of battle against Todd's attitude. It just wasn't in her to over-
crook it with charitable toleration.
Not something as important as that.
Susan checked her vein of thought
there. She amended it to something that could be as important as that.

slightly weary note in her tone
when she answered. "I'd have a little more peace of mind if I knew
myself. Sometimes—yes, she said.
"Once in a great while—no. And most of the time I'm not sure myself," she added.

"That'll do for a starter. Amy
told her. "I don't work for the Geataps—I'll go easy on you. But I'm going to stick my ear in," she added
meaningly. "Jane and Eddie swear
by him, and that's enough for me.
So, if you're looking for votes I'll
cast a big one."
"It sounds like you're trying to
stuff the ballot box," Susan smiled.
"He doesn't need it," Amy said
shortly. "Not if it's a fair election."
Susan had to admit there was a lot in what Amy said. But she had
just enough courage to put up some sort of battle against Todd's attitude. It just wasn't in her to over-
crook it with charitable toleration.
Not something as important as that.
Susan checked her vein of thought
there. She amended it to something that could be as important as that.

News For Todd
Todd got back from Chicago
shortly after dinner Monday.
"What'd they do—kick you out of bed and give it to someone who really needed it?" Bill Gardner jibed,
shaking his head.
"Just about," Todd grinned. "Eddie home from practice yet?"
"Inside." Bud said, pointing to the dining room.
Eddie was just finishing dinner.
"Hiya, boy scout," Eddie cried
cheerfully. "What's the latest diagnosis? Pull up a chair. Eat yet?"
Todd sat down. "Ate on the train.
The diagnosis contained a flock of
medical terminology that wound up
with slight concussion but nothing serious. What'd you expect—permanent disability?"
Eddie grinned. "You going to be ready Saturday?"
"Maybe—if Doc Elliott says so.
What's new?"
Nothing much. Tried out a couple of new plays we'll use against Colgate. Flunked another physiology quiz, and—"
Eddie stopped for a moment and snapped his fingers. "Say, I almost forgot. Seems the day we left for Northwestern there was a shooting.
Riley Beckett—you know who he is,
the guy who ran the Trinidad Club?
—Well Beckett got himself involved
in the Humphries thing and just
when the cops go to talk to him
about it he gets bumped off in a robbery. Can you beat it?"
"Killed!" Todd echoed. "Who did
it?"
"Oh, just a couple of yeggs. They make no difference—they were nab-
bed anyway—but what I'd like to know is in what way is this Beckett
connected with Humphries?"
"You can say that twice," Todd
said. "Has old Gumbo Lake been
pussy-footing around lately?"
"Not around here, but Jane told me he had Susan downtown last week talking with the district attorney."
"Susan—what for? What does she know that we don't?" Todd demanded, a faint note of irritability
creeping into his voice.
"Don't ask me—ask her anyway.
It's about time you started seeing things in different light. If you don't, I'm going to grab you by that

slightly weary note in her tone
when she answered. "I'd have a little more peace of mind if I knew
myself. Sometimes—yes, she said.
"Once in a great while—no. And most of the time I'm not sure myself," she added.

"That'll do for a starter. Amy
told her. "I don't work for the Geataps—I'll go easy on you. But I'm going to stick my ear in," she added
meaningly. "Jane and Eddie swear
by him, and that's enough for me.
So, if you're looking for votes I'll
cast a big one."
"It sounds like you're trying to
stuff the ballot box," Susan smiled.
"He doesn't need it," Amy said
shortly. "Not if it's a fair election."
Susan had to admit there was a lot in what Amy said. But she had
just enough courage to put up some sort of battle against Todd's attitude. It just wasn't in her to over-
crook it with charitable toleration.
Not something as important as that.
Susan checked her vein of thought
there. She amended it to something that could

ANGOTT QUILTS AS CHAMPION

Abdicates Crown In Lightweight Boxing Circles

By SID FEDE.
New York, Nov. 15—(AP)—Hold your hats, boys—the lightweight merry-go-round is of fine track again.

After 1-2 years of spinning around in a nice, neat ring—through the rise of Sammy Angott to the 135-pound turn—the merry-go-round is on the screwy circle once more after the retirement of Swarthy Sammy yesterday and the seven-round technical knockout victory beau Jack scored last night over No. 1 challenger Allie Stolz because of a cut eye.

Naturally, Sammy's abdication did the most toward making the merry-go-round look as much like a true circle as the three-cornered shawl your aunt Emma wears. But Jack helped a lot. It wasn't only that he held Stolz, a 5 to 12 favorite, off for the seven completed rounds of last night's Madison Square Garden shindig, for the entertainment of 14,249 paying customers. But when the state athletic club commissions ringside physician ordered the but halted, Allie's ailments were not regarded sufficiently severe for such drastic action.

But it still goes down in the books as a seven-round "K.O." for the ne-time Augusta (Ga.) national golf course bootback, and throws the lightweight lawn party into a wide-open brawl with "every man for himself."

Between Angott's retirement and night's tete-a-tete, it was generally admitted that the lightweight Luce Dolly was a matter for argument strictly between Stolz and another Jerseyan, Tippy Larkin of Carlisle, who boasts that he's beaten welterweight boss Red Cochrane five times.

But with Jack's victory, especially since you can get yourself tangled up in a nice, cozy rug-and-tumble if you want to argue about it, anything can happen now. And from the way powers-that-be are looking at it, anything will. Among the possible decisions are:

1—Return bout between Stolz and Jack.
2—A "title" tussle featuring Jack and Larkin, suggested for December 18 in the garden, about which the two commissions—NBA and New York State—are in a "well, we'll see" state.

3—A lightweight elimination, putting Jack, Larkin, Stolz and Cleo Shans, the Los Angeles Negro, into the pot together to see who comes out—provided, of course, that Shans gets by Richie Lemos, the ex-featherweight boss, in Holyoke, Mass., Monday.

Frankie Sinkwich—No. 1 Man On The No. 1 Team

These pictures give you intimate glimpses of Frankie Sinkwich, the No. 1 reason why the University of Georgia has the No. 1 football team of the nation. Left: Frankie and his attractive wife, a co-ed, stroll to a class at the University of Athens. Center: A good view of Frankie's stance as he gets set to cut loose one of his famous forward passes. Right: A close-up, showing just how Sinkwich grips the ball for a pass.

LAST NIGHT'S FOOTBALL

Wake Forest 20 George Washington 0
Catawba 42 Roanoke 0
High Point 6 Newport News 0
Freshman Football
At Davidson, N. C.: N. C. State 12 Davidson 0
At Durham, N. C.: North Carolina 9 Duke 26

against each other for Congate and Syracuse today. . . . But they probably won't keep the Wolves from howling as usual. . . . Or keep the coaches from telling bear stories.

Police Court Had Big Docket Friday

By CHESTER WALSH
In Police Court Friday Judge J. W. H. Roberts sentenced Clifton Taylor, colored, to 12 months on the roads for receiving stolen goods. Taylor bought some gloves from Willie Boyd, 14-year-old-colored boy, who confessed to police that he stole them from McLellan's Store on Evans Street. The boy was placed in custody of the Welfare Department.

Roy Sprayberry, charged with disorderly conduct and assaulting his wife, was given six months on the roads, sentence suspended upon payment of $10 fine and costs. He was placed on probation for two years. Sprayberry is a local radio entertainer, known as "Roy Spray, the singing cowboy."
Noah Jones, colored, and Mrs. Murphy were charged with reckless driving. Mrs. Murphy was acquitted. Jones was found guilty and was given 30 days in jail, sentence suspended on payment of court costs and $12 to Mrs. Murphy.
Jesse Stokes, colored, larceny, was given 60 days on the city streets.
Drunks: Dave Creech, 30 days on streets, appealed; Roosevelt Bryan, colored; A. Foreman, colored; Robert Baker, each to serve 30 days in jail or pay $15 fine, costs deducted; W. H. Skinner, drunk on highway, 30 days or $20 costs deducted.
Reckless driving: L. M. McLawhorn and Kelly Barnhill, colored, McLawhorn acquitted; Barnhill, 60 days, or pay court costs and $15 to McLawhorn.
Speeding: D. R. Ham, 30 days or $15 and costs, and recommendation that he forfeit his driver's license for 12 months.
Temporary larceny of a car: Henderson Hooten, colored, six months in jail or $50 fine, costs deducted and to pay $25 to John Lautares for damage to his car.
Abandonment and non-support: John H. Sumrell, colored, three months on roads, suspended provided he pay his wife $5 a week and court costs.
Larceny: James Jones, colored, two years on roads, sentence suspended and placed under two years probation.
More than 5,000 Italian anti-Fascists fought against Mussolini's troops in the Spanish Civil War.

Stalin Is . . .

(Continued from page one)

which reached me on November 12. "One. What is the Soviet view of the Allied campaign in Africa?" "Answer. The Soviet view of this campaign is that it represents an outstanding fact of major importance demonstrating the growing might of the armed forces of the Allies and opening the prospect of the disintegration of the Italo-German coalition in the nearest future.

"The campaign in Africa refutes once more the skeptics who affirm that Anglo-American leaders are not capable of organizing a serious war campaign. There can be no doubt that no one but first rate organizers could carry out such serious operations as the successful landings in North Africa across the ocean, as the quick occupation of harbors and wide territories from Casablanca to Bougie and as the smashing of Italo-German armies in the western desert, being effected with such mastery."

"Two. How effective has this campaign been in relieving pressure on the Soviet Union and what further aid does the Soviet Union await?" "Answer. It is yet too soon to say to what an extent this campaign has been effective in relieving immediate pressure on the Soviet Union. But it may be confidently said that the effect will not be a small one and that a certain relief in pressure on the Soviet Union will result in the nearest future.

"But that is not the only thing that matters. What matters first of all is that since the campaign in Africa means that the initiative has passed into the hands of our Allies, the campaign changes radically the political and war situation in Europe in favor of the Anglo-Soviet-American coalition; that that campaign undermines the prestige of Hitlerite Germany as a leading force in the system of the Axis powers and demoralizes Hitler's Allies in Europe; that the campaign released France from her state of lethargy and mobilizes anti-Hitler forces of France and provides a basis for building up an anti-Hitler French army; that the campaign creates conditions for putting Italy out of commission and for isolating Hitlerite Germany; finally, that the campaign creates the prerequisites for establishment of a second front in Europe nearer to Germany's vital centers which will be of decisive importance for organizing victory over Hitlerite tyranny.

"Three. What possibility is there of Soviet offensive power in the east joining the Allies in the west to hasten the final victory?" "Answer. There need be no doubt that the Red Army will fulfill its task with honor as it has been fulfilling it throughout the war."

"With respect. (Signed) J. Stalin."

Roosevelt . . .

(Continued from page one)

fense committee for failure to formulate a national manpower policy. Senator Hill (D-Ala.), author of one of several manpower bills now being considered by the Senate Military Affairs committee, announced support of another proposal by the Defense committee headed by Senator Truman (D-Mo) which would halt volunteering for the armed services without approval by Selective Service.

Most legislators thought no attempt would be made now to assume compulsory control over workers either to "freeze" them in their jobs or to transfer them to other work.

OPA Officials Are Kiwanis Speakers

By CHESTER WALSH

The Kiwanians heard two interesting and informative explanations of war time rationing and price ceilings by A. A. Chappell, field price officer, and Donald Leach, field rationing officer for Eastern Carolina at the club's weekly supper session at the Woman's Club last night. Many of them remained after the meeting to ask questions, especially about the rationing of fuel oil. Both government officials are stationed at the local OPA office.

Chappell interestingly explained the reason for price ceilings and told why they are now a law to prevent inflation. There is more dollar buying power than there are commodities, he said, and the price ceiling law, as it is perfected and enforced, will be effective in equally distributing the discomforts and inconveniences incident to all-out war.

Leach emphasized the shortage of gasoline and oil due to lack of transportation facilities, explained the reason for registering tires and was rather optimistic when he recalled that in this country only two articles of food—coffee and sugar—are rationed. In England each individual is only allowed one egg and five ounces of bacon a week, and other foods are similarly rationed. Leach surprised the audience when he stated that engineers have demonstrated that tires on a car not driven over 35 miles an hour will last the life of the average car; that there are 27,000,000 tons of rubber in tires on cars in this country, and that the centrifugal force exerted on a tire traveling 60 miles an hour increases its size two inches.

The speaker stressed the importance of checking oil heating units for efficiency and reminded that drastic cuts in fuel oil will range from 30 to 65 per cent from last year. The rationing laws provide penalties on individuals and firms for failure to comply with them.

Charley Blair had charge of the singing of Kiwanis songs with Mrs. Ray Tyson as accompanist. Cliff Edwards, Lieut. J. S. Lennon, Lieut. R. R. Taylor, Jr. and Cliff H. Edwards were special guests. Charles Wilkerson won the attendance prize provided by Dave Moore, Jr.

NOTICE OF SUMMONS BY PUBLICATION

North Carolina—Pitt County
In The Superior Court.
J. Lundy Baker

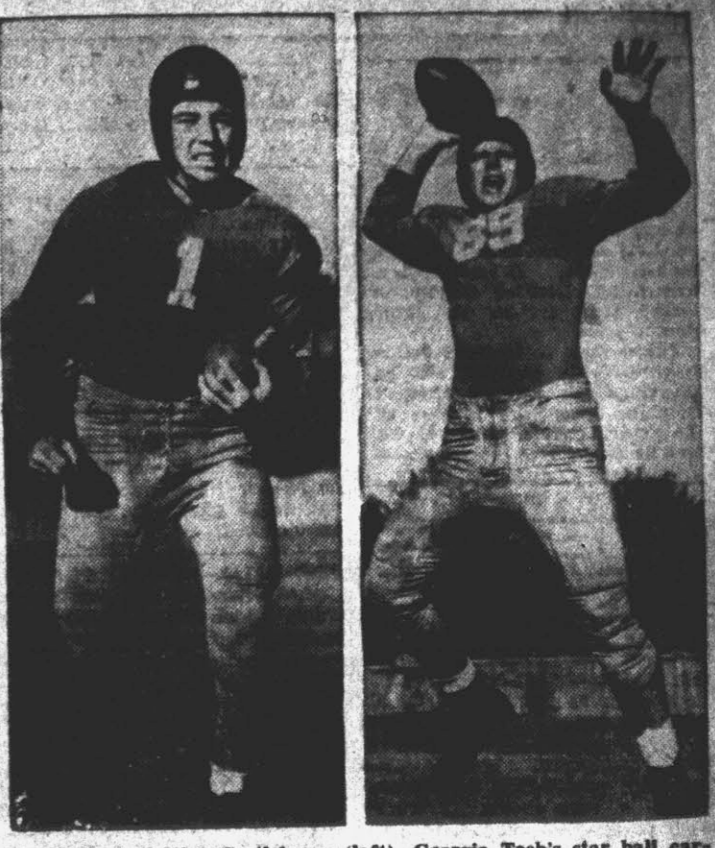

vs.
Oma Faye Baker
The defendant, Oma Faye Baker, will take notice that an action entitled as above has been commenced in the Superior Court of Pitt County, North Carolina, for absolute divorce and custody of one minor child born of the marriage between plaintiff and defendant; and the said defendant will further take notice that she is required to appear at the office of the Clerk of Superior Court of said county in the court house in Greenville, N. C., within twenty days after the 5th day of December, 1942, and answer or demur to the complaint in said action, or the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said complaint.

This is the 4th day of Nov., 1942.
E. F. TUCKER, Asst. Clerk of Superior Court Pitt County.
Dink James, Atty.
Nov. 5-11w-4wk.

NOTICE OF SALE

State of North Carolina County of Pitt
In The Superior Court
County of Pitt, Plaintiff,

Will Cox and wife, Omyra Cox, and H. C. Venters.
Under and by virtue of the judgment made and entered in the above-entitled cause in the Superior Court of Pitt County, dated October 19, 1942, the undersigned commissioner will on the 23rd day of November, 1942 at 12 o'clock, noon at the door of the Court House of Pitt County, in Greenville, North Carolina, sell at public auction to Freshman Clint Castleberry (left), Georgia Tech's star ball carrier, can pass as well as run. And so Coach Bobby Dodd hopes Clint will do each chore equally well in Tech's vital game with Alabama in Atlanta November 14. The air-minded Dodd is counting on Sophomore Eddie Frokop (right) to "pitch" unbeaten and untied Tech to its seventh straight victory in the game with Alabama. Frokop was quite impressive with his passing in the Tech-Kentucky game November 7.

the highest bidder for cash, subject to the confirmation of the court, the property hereinafter described, located in the County of Pitt, State of North Carolina, and more particularly described as follows:

FIRST TRACT: Being 30 acres of the F. C. Harding land located in Chiood Township, more particularly described in Book J-12 at page 34 of the Pitt County Public Registry.
Dated this 21st day of October, 1942.
ROBERT BOOTH, Commissioner.
Oct. 27-11w-4wk.

If you like MILD cheese flavor here's the kind to get

● Velveta spreads like butter... slices when chilled... melts and toasts to perfection. Delicious! Contains milk protein, milk minerals, vitamin A and vitamin C.

THE CHEESE FOOD THAT'S DIGESTIBLE AS MILK ITSELF

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Wide World Sports Columnist

Today's Guest Star
Tim Cothane, New York World-Telegram: "It might not be a bad idea to have Williams and Colgate meet for the shaving bowl championship. . . . That would be one battle in which both teams would get a good lathering."

Service Dept.
Joe Bach, civilian coach of the Fort Knox, Ky., football team that plays the Pittsburgh Steelers tomorrow, expects to join the army after the season. He was interested in the navy before the Armoriers signed him up. . . . When Pvt. Stanley Evans reported for boxing at Fort Custer, Mich., he knocked 'em over by announcing that he held a decision over Joe Louis. But Stan produced the evidence that he had beaten Joe back in their amateur days. . . . Corp. Buddy Knox, who has fought most of the good heavyweights, leads an officers' class in calisthenics at Bolling Field and plays squash and badminton. . . . "And say," remarks Buddy, "that badminton is tough."

Smart Like a Fox
A couple of foxes—Bill and Edwin—are due to play quarterback

Carolina Co-Captains Back In Shape

Co-captains Joe Austin and Freddie Marshall are due back in shape to lead the Carolina attack today. Marshall missed the Da forehead, but is ready to go again. Austin, who had just gotten off the injured list, raced down against the "Cats." He is losing scrap against Duke's 1941 Rose Bowl eleven, sparking three drives within the Blue Devils' 10-

CO-CAPTS: JOE AUSTIN AND FREDDIE MARSHALL yard strip.

DAN DUNN - SECRET OPERATIVE 48

THE TWO OPERATIVES COME UPON JOSE'S HENCHMEN JUST AFTER THEY HAD FOUND KAY AND WOLF-- WOLF BROUGHT DOWN ONE OF THEM WITH A SAVAGE ATTACK-- THE OTHER, PISTOL DRAWN, IS ABOUT TO SHOOT WHEN--

HE'S GOING TO SHOOT WOLF!

NOT IF I CAN MAKE THIS PISTOL WORK!

BANG!

o-o-ow!

YOU SHOT HIS GUN RIGHT OUT OF HIS HAND-- NICE WORK, BOY!

COME ON!--LET'S GET THE CUFFS ON THOSE BOYS AND START FOR CUAGA-- DAN MAY BE NEEDING US THERE!

YOU CAME JUST IN TIME-- I SHUDDER TO THINK WHAT WOULD HAVE HAPPENED IN ANOTHER MINUTE! AND DAN IS NOT DEAD??

WE'VE GOT TO GET INTO CUAGA-- DAN'S WAITING FOR US!

THIMBLE THEATRE - Starring Popeye

THANKS TO J. WELLINGTON WIMPY, YOUR KINGDOM IS SAFE, THE ENTIRE COASTLINE IS GUARDED BY OCTOPI WHO HAVE DINED SUMPTUOUSLY ON DYNAMITE

WE HAD DIFFICULTNEY WIT' ONE LIL' RASCAL AT WANTED TO FOLLOW US

THAT THWELL

HE WAS FULL'A DYNAMIKE, SO WE PUT A FUSE IN HIS MOUTH AN' LIT IT

YOU MEAN--?

HELP! HELP! HELP!

AW, PIPE DOWN, WE RUNNED ORF AN' LEFT 'IM

THAT'S WHAT YOU THINK!

OH, MY GORSH!

HELP! HELP!

BLONDIE - by Chic Young

YOU LOOK UNHAPPY, ALEXANDER

I'M WORRIED ABOUT DAISY-- I THINK SHE PICKED UP SOME FLEAS

OH, DON'T WORRY ABOUT THAT!

A CERTAIN AMOUNT OF FLEAS ARE GOOD FOR A DOG--

-- THEY KEEP HER FROM REMEMBERING SHE'S A DOG!

Her Mind On Her Work.

WANTS

Makes 1 1/2 per word, minimum charge 35c for 25 words, one insertion; six insertions $1.85; one month $7.00. Indicated lines known as classified display, or longer than regular size type, double price.

Other than to business houses having regular accounts with us, no want ads will be charged. Send or bring cash with order. To prevent errors, want ads will not be taken over the telephone.

Frank
CITY PLUMBING CO.

FOR SALE—RECLEANED YELLOW CORN, at the Pitt F. C. K. Dickinson Ave. 14-6t

OUR MEMBERS HAVE THE privilege of selecting the Funeral Director of their choice. If you do not have this feature, join with us. Ellwanger Mutual Funeral Association, 1212 Dickinson Ave. 18-1f

FOR SALE—1938 PLYMOUTH Coach, in A-1 condition, with five good tires, heater, radio and fan. Submit bid in writing to V. A. Merritt, administrator, Estate D. W. Hendricks, deceased. 14-3t

We Clean and Press Men's Suits, Ladies' Coats—Dresses Our work must please and a trial will convince you. CAROLINA DRY CLEANERS Dial 2776—Leon Smith Prop.

FOR SALE—FIVE ROOM HOUSE, with garage and chicken house. In good condition. Can be seen at 107 West 12th St. $2,500 cash, or $700 down with monthly payments less than rent. For immediate sale. Dennis Harris. 14-16-18

MONEY TO LEND—ANY AMOUNT at 6 per cent interest, on five minutes notice—no red tape—just quality. J. D. Aman, Dial 3747. Oct. 29-1 mo.

FOR RENT—5-ROOM DWELLING, 2 1/2 miles east of Greenville—good location electric lights, immediate possession. Apply to A. M. Moseley. 3-eod-6t

WANTED, IMMEDIATELY—EXperienced stenographer and bookkeeper. Preferably one familiar with lumber and building material experience. Permanent position. Moss Planning Mill Co., Washington, N. C.

LOST—AT THE BLIDER BASE IN Edenton, N. C. gasoline ration books of Miles E. Wilson, Grimesland, N. C. These were an A book and an S book. Finder return to Pitt County Ration Board, 119 W. Fourth St., Greenville, N. C. 13-2t

WATCH OUR LADIES' SHOE window for outstanding bargains in suede, and suede combination shoes. Prices $1.94 to $3.95. Blount-Harvey Co. 5-1f

WANTED—SETTLED MAN AS salesman, familiar with Pitt County and adjoining counties. Answer "P." P. O. Box 408. 3-1f

FOR RENT—3-ROOM UNFURNISHED apartment on 14th street. See Mrs. Evans, 312 E. 14th St. 12-3t

FOR SALE—1941 HUDSON 2-DOOR Sedan, excellent condition. Weather Master heater, radio, air foam cushion—5 good tires. Call 2334 after 6 o'clock. 11-4t

FOR SALE—FARM TRACTOR, plow, harrows and mowing machine. Address "Tractor," Post Office Box 408, Greenville. 12-3t

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS!—personalized for individual and business use. Beautiful designs. Order now. Stocks getting low. Dial 2638 for samples. Give personal stationery for Christmas. "Tige" Gardner. Nov. 13-12t

TURKEYS FOR SALE—HENS, 35c per pound. Toms, 30 cents per pound. Delivered. See or write Mrs. John Whitchard Stokes, N. C. 13-3t

FOR RENT—TWO-ROOM FURNISHED apartment near West Greenville school. Gas stove, electric refrigerator. Very reasonable. Call 2285.

YOU JUST CAN'T OUTLIVE A lifetime income, for men and women, that pays from the first day to the last day of disability from sickness or accident. Just what you may need. Dial 2678 day or night. Full particulars will be mailed. Claude D. Tunstall, 1018 Reade St., City. 13-2t

CIVILIAN COVERAGE WAR RISK protection is included in our Lifetime Income policies up to $5,000, for men and women. Don't delay. Dial 2678 to mail details. Claude D. Tunstall, 1018 Reade St., City. 13-2t

FOR RENT—MY HOUSE ON ELM street, which will be vacant December 1st. J. C. Waldrop. 14-1f

THE LARGEST COMPANY IN the world writing Lifetime Income protection to business and professional men and women. The best is always more satisfactory. Protect your income and your pocket all. Dial 2678 to mail our special brochure. Claude D. Tunstall, 1018 Reade St., City. 13-2t

SPECIAL OVER-AGE HEALTH and Accident for business and professional men and women. Hospitalization up to age 70 included. Old line company, $45,000,000 assets. Licensed to do business in North Carolina. Dial 2678 to mail special folders. Claude D. Tunstall, 1018 Reade St., City. 13-2t

Jean Arthur and Ronald Colman who come to the Pitt Sunday-Monday in the exciting romance "The Talk of the Town." Cary Grant in the cast makes this picture three-star entertainment.

WANTED, IMMEDIATELY—100 second-hand suits—double-breasted preferred, regardless of condition. Also 100 overcoats, regardless of size or condition. Sunshine Cleaners. 13-6t

WANTED—LOCAL BOY, OVER 16 years of age, not going to school, for permanent full time job. Apply Colony Theatre.

Grain Market

Chicago, Nov. 14—(AP)—Further selling of wheat helped to weaken the entire grain futures market today and prices again turned lower.

Rye opened 1/4-3/4 lower, December 61 1/4; wheat 1/4 lower to 1/2 higher, December $1.25 1/4-1/2; corn 1/4-3/4 off, December 83 1/2.

New York Cotton

New York, Nov. 14—(AP)—Cotton futures opened unchanged to 10 cents a bale higher.

Futures closed 25 to 30 cents a bale higher.

	Open	Close	Prv. Cl.
Dec.	18.54	18.58	18.53
Jan.	18.55	18.60	18.54
Feb.	18.60	18.64	18.58
Mar.	18.64	18.70	18.64
Apr.	18.66	18.71	18.66
May	18.72	18.78	18.72

Middling spot 20.27, up 6.

Hog Market
Raleigh, Nov. 14—(AP)—(NCDA) Hog markets steady, top of 13.20 at Rocky Mount.

Poultry and Eggs
Raleigh, Nov. 14—(AP)—(NCDA) Egg and poultry markets steady.

At Raleigh—U. S. extra large (clean white) 47; colored hens, 20 to 21.

At Washington—U. S. extra large (graded white) 50 to 51; colored fowls 21.

N. Y. Stock Market

FINAL STOCKS

Al Chem and Dye	139 1/2
Allegheny	5-16
Allis Chalmers	28 1/2
Am Car Fdy	24 1/2
Am Roll Mill	10 1/2
Am Tob B	44 1/2
Anacosta	26 1/2
Arm III	3 1/2
A C L	31
Aviat Corp	3 1/2
Bendix Aviat	35 1/2
Beth Stl	57 1/2
Boeing Airpl	16 1/2
Borden	21 1/2
Borg Warner	26 1/2
Bude Mfg	9 1/2
Bur Add Mach	9
Case J I	73
Caterpillar Trac	36 1/2
Ches and O	35 1/2
Chrysler	66 1/2
Coca Cola	83
Con Oil	7
Cont Can	27
Corn Prod	54 1/2
Curdis Wright	8 1/2
Doug Alre	60 1/2
Dupont	131 1/2
Eastman Kod	138
Elec Auto Lt	29 1/2
Gen Elec	29 1/2
Gen Foods	34 1/2
Gen Mot	42 1/2
Goodyear	23
Int Harvest	55
Int Tel and Tel	5 1/2
Johns Man	67 1/2
Kennecott	29 1/2
Ligg and Myers B	60 1/2

SUNDAY 2-4-9
ROMANTIC INTRIGUE!

A triple star adventure drama of a woman of mystery! Timely thrills!

GEORGE ILONA BRENT-MASSEY BASIL RATHBONE

INTERNATIONAL CITY
Special Short "MAGIC ALPHABET" Colony

French And ...

(Continued from Page One)
"We have made a very good start and today there are no German or Italian soldiers on Egyptian territory except as prisoners," Montgomery told his troops.

"Our task is not finished yet."

A British communique indicated that Adolf Hitler was making a desperate attempt to reinforce his tenuous grip on the French protectorate of Tunisia, reporting that Allied fighters yesterday shot down seven large Axis aircraft out of a formation of 90 planes en route from North Africa toward Sicily. Six others were badly damaged.

These were presumably Axis transport planes returning north to pick up more troops and supplies. Allied headquarters said the Germans already had landed 12-ton tanks in Tunisia by air and were trying to bring other reinforcements by sea.

French radio broadcasts said a naval battle was in progress off American-occupied Algeria, next door to Tunisia, which suggested that Allied warships were attacking the Axis sea-borne reinforcements. Latest dispatches pictured Tunisia, site of the 2,700-year-old Carthaginian empire, as the scene of widespread battle, with French troops fiercely resisting Nazi parachute troops in the crooked, winding streets of Tunis, the capital, and at other strategic centers.

All French soldiers in North Africa had now apparently swung over to the side of the United Nations, spurred on by appeals by such leaders as Admiral Jean Darlan, Gen. Henri Honore Giraud and Gen. Auguste Nogues.

All these former French military chiefs now are collaborating with the Allies.

The exact position of France's old Marshal Petain still was obscure, but it was apparently that he was acting under heavy Nazi pressure and virtually a German prisoner.

A Vichy broadcast asserted the 86-year-old French chief of state had sent a message to Admiral Darlan declaring that Darlan's decision to resume responsibility for French interests in Africa, with the approval of American authorities, was against Petain's orders.

British troops from Tangier said British troops, the vanguard of Lieut. Gen. K. A. N. Anderson's British-American expeditionary column, had already crossed into Tunisia from Algeria.

Nazi parachute troops were reported in control of the airdrome at Tunis, 80 miles east of the Tunisian frontier, which was again under heavy attack last night.

Report Sea-Air ...

(Continued from page one) after suffering heavy losses.

Imperial headquarters said Japanese warships launched the attack Thursday and by night had penetrated into Allied naval lines and "destroyed more than half of the entire enemy naval craft and transports there."

Latest Allied communique declared that hard-hitting attacks on the Japanese ashore, at sea and in the air were cutting away enemy strength in the South Pacific.

Tabulating these blows, the Navy in Washington and Gen. MacArthur's headquarters said American and Allied forces had damaged two Japanese cruisers and an 8,000-ton transport, destroyed 30 large landing boats and 30 planes, silenced enemy shore batteries and killed 700 or 800 Japanese.

The Navy said the U. S. cruiser San Francisco and the destroyer Buchanan, moving in to support American ground troops on Guadalcanal, turned their heavy guns on Japanese troops east of Henderson airfield, setting large fires and destroying 30 of 75 enemy landing boats.

While the American warships were pouring shells into the enemy, the Japanese attacked by air, but 28 U. S. Grumman Wildcats rose to the attack and shot down 16 bombers and five Zero fighters while shipboard anti-aircraft gunners shot down nine others.

Only one of 31 enemy planes escaped, the Navy said.

Thirty Americans were killed when a flaming enemy plane, apparently in a "suicide dive" crashed on the deck of the San Francisco, and five others were killed on the Buchanan in the explosion of a five-inch shell from a Japanese shore battery.

On the New Guinea front, northwest of Guadalcanal, MacArthur's headquarters reported that Australian troops advanced two and one-half miles to envelop another Japanese position after counting 700 to 800 enemy killed in previous encirclements.

Capt. Eddie ...

(Continued from page one) and has already performed many daring rescues of stranded fliers and other persons from rafts so that it was considered probable that as soon as Rickenbacker, Adamson and Bartek were sighted by this plane, the plane landed, taxied alongside their tiny raft and took them in.

A widespread search had been on from the moment that it became apparent that Rickenbacker was probably down at sea following the receipt of the message on October 21 that the fuel supplies of his plane would not last an hour.

His Pacific trip was along the same lines as a survey he had previously made for Secretary Stimson of air force operations in the European theater.

Hope of his safe rescue grew rapidly yesterday after the War Department announced that his pilot had been found on a life raft. The navy did not give the time of Rickenbacker's rescue.

"Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, Colonel Hans C. Adamson and Private John F. Bartek, all of the United States army who have been missing since October 21 when the plane in which they were flying was forced down in the Pacific, have been rescued from the sea by a navy Catalina flying boat," the navy reported.

"Captain Rickenbacker reported that Sergeant Alexander Caczmarczyk who was with them died several days ago and was buried at sea."

"Lieutenant James C. Whitaker, Lieutenant John J. Angelis and Staff Sergeant James Reynolds, all of the United States army who were also aboard the missing plane, have been located by a Catalina flying boat ashore on a small island in the South Pacific."

"With the rescue of Captain William T. Cherry, United States army, this makes all the personnel of the Rickenbacker party accounted for."

The rescue of Cherry was announced yesterday. The War Department said that, although weakened by about three weeks exposure to the sun and sea he was "in good condition."

Cherry was the pilot of the plane which was carrying Rickenbacker to the war zone for a survey of air force operations for Secretary of War Stimson.

The famous war flier's party had been last heard from October 21 when a radio message came through saying the plane had only about one hour's supply of gasoline.

In the long days of uncertainty which followed that message, American ships and planes swept over hundreds and hundreds of square miles of the South Pacific looking for the little rubber boats or other evidences of the presence of the Rickenbacker party.

This was the second time in recent years that Rickenbacker, who shot down a score of German planes in France in the last great war, has encountered high adventure and great danger as a result of aerial mishap. Two years ago he survived the crash of an airliner near Atlanta, Ga., although some others among the passengers and crew at that time were killed. Rickenbacker was severely injured then.

Through the long days of waiting this time two persons typified America's hope that Rickenbacker would yet be saved.

His wife had said: "Eddie will turn up. He's too old a hand to get lost in any airplane now."

Stimson had commented that Rickenbacker was "an exception to ordinary rules."

Rickenbacker's wife issued the following statement from her New York home:

"I have just been advised by General H. H. Arnold of my husband's rescue. Of course the tension we all have been under began being relieved yesterday by the discovery of Capt. William T. Cherry Jr., pilot of the ship."

"As stated before, my belief in the resourcefulness of this wonderful group of men, to say nothing of the constant prayers of Eddie's thousands of admirers and friends, would make it possible for them to withstand the strain until the War Department's thorough and efficient search brought about their ultimate rescue.

"I can't speak too highly of the wonderful cooperation of the army and navy and wish I could thank every one who participated personally. I have not a doubt in my mind about the wonderful reception given them by the men on that rubber raft when they were found."

TODAY AT THE MOVIES

Pitt—Boris Karloff, Peter Lorre in THE BOOGIE MAN WILL GET YOU.

State—BILLY THE KID'S SMOKING GUNS

partmen's thorough and efficient search brought about their ultimate rescue.

"I can't speak too highly of the wonderful cooperation of the army and navy and wish I could thank every one who participated personally. I have not a doubt in my mind about the wonderful reception given them by the men on that rubber raft when they were found."

MADE FOR LAUGHS---THRILLS AND CHEERS!

SUNDAY and MONDAY

CARY GRANT • JEAN ARTHUR AND RONALD COLMAN

You'll take them to your heart—as they take YOU for a most exciting trip into a world of romance, drama, comedy!

They will be the Talk of the Town!

The Talk of the Town

EDGAR BUCHANAN

Buy WAR BONDS We Are Prepared To Serve You Day and Night

Also PITT NEWS with Scenes from Pacific War Zone... Solomon Islands Guadalcanal

TUESDAY-WEDNESDAY

It's Today's Most Amazing Sensation!

H. G. WELLS "Invisible Agent"

starring Ilona Massey and Jon Hall

THURSDAY-FRIDAY

Dashiell Hammett's Newest Mystery—

The GLASS KEY with ALAN LADD VERONICA LAKE BRIAN DONLEVY

Sat.—East Side Kids in 'Neath Brooklyn Bridge

SIMMONS INTRODUCES

White Knight...

"THE MATTRESS WITHIN A MATTRESS"

$39.50 BUY ON EASY TERMS

Finest of the new mattresses... made by Simmons, of Beautyrest fame, and built for years of comfort.

Come in and see this "mattress within a mattress." Let us explain its many features, including the patented non-sag edges, the comfortable staple-cotton upholstery, and the handsome Beautyrest covers. White Knight is made of 100% non-critical American materials.

You'll like our Convenient Purchase Plan

Quinn-Miller & Stroud

"30 YEARS IN GREENVILLE"

SUNDAY-MONDAY

JUNGLE FURY!

PAGAN LOVE

Queen of the tropics... and lord of the jungle... on the mossy banks of the Lagoon of Love... their lips touch... while fierce animals guard their love tryst!

DOROTHY LAMOUR

"BEYOND THE BLUE HORIZON"

Filmed With All Its Magic Beauty In Technicolor

with RICHARD DENNING • JACK HALEY

TUESDAY

TIM HOLT in "BANDIT RANGER"

WEDNESDAY-THURSDAY

Where The Nazis Are On The Run

See this exciting picture, true as today's headlines!

A Tank in LIBYA

FRI.-SAT.

CHARLES STARRETT in "RIDERS OF THE NORTH LAND"

BUY MORE BONDS AND STAMPS KEEP 'EM FIGHTING On Sale at Box Office