

Russians Continue Drive Of Destruction On Nazis

Germans Are Slaughtered At Rate Of 10,000 Daily As Reds Move Forward Through Blizzard on All Fronts in Renewed Winter Offensive; Many Important Towns and Railroads Taken

By HENRY C. CASSIDY Moscow, Nov. 30.—(AP) Soviet shock troops have wrested another Don river stronghold from the Germans under clearing skies on the Stalingrad front and are pressing westward through a blizzard in the parallel offensive west of Moscow, the Russians said today.

Germans were declared to be dying at the rate of 10,000 daily as Red army divisions pushed across the snow, utilizing tactics perfected in the 1941-42 winter drive.

While clouds vanished, cold prevailed in the Stalingrad area. Wind-driven snow cut down visibility on the central front. Moscow observers said the joint operations were the greatest undertaken by the Russians in their 17 months of war.

(London commentators said that if the Germans might to make a counter-offensive they would have to pull in forces from relatively quiet sectors, thinning out and weakening the lines stretching from the White Sea to the mid-Caucasus.)

Red army scouts wearing white hoods and armed with automatic rifles patrolled snow-covered pine forests and the open lands west of Moscow to locate enemy positions for the artillery batteries blasting paths for the general advance.

Russian fliers warmed up frosty motors and roared the skies over the Stalingrad front in support of cavalry and tanks slashing at the enemy lines. Fifty loaded trucks and 17 Nazi planes were reported destroyed by Soviet squadrons in that area yesterday.

Hundreds of thousands of pamphlets in the German language were dropped on enemy positions, informing Nazi soldiers of the new situation along the eastern front and the climactic Allied drives in North Africa.

Frauds said "The iron ring of our troops is closing around the Germans" in the Don-Volga zone. The situation on the central front, where Red army vanguards are slashing west of Rzhev, 130 miles northwest of Moscow, was summed up with the declaration that the Red army men "vigorously overcome all obstacles, overwhelm the enemy's resistance and steadily advance."

The midday communique announced the capture of several more communities on the central front. (Continued on page three)

Must Endorse Gas Coupons

By properly endorsing their coupons at once, motorists and others holding gasoline rations will avoid the inconvenience of having to do so when they buy gasoline at a service station, the OPA has pointed out. They also will help protect their ration books from possible misuse in the case of loss or theft.

OPA officials urged prompt compliance with the new "write-in" requirement in order to clear up any possible misunderstanding on the part of customers or dealers.

It is not necessary, these officials emphasized, for ration holders to wait until they buy gasoline before endorsing their coupons. In fact, they fulfill the purpose of the requirement only if they write on the back of their coupons immediately. This prevents the coupons from being used in connection with the operation of any other vehicle.

A, B, C, and D coupons must be endorsed on the back with the car license number and state of registration. Passenger fleet operators using interchangeable coupon books must write or stamp the fleet name. "T" coupons must be endorsed on the back with the war certificate number or the fleet name and address of the user written on the back. All endorsements must be in ink to prevent alterations.

Close At 1

The Pitt County Rationing office, 119 West Fourth street, will close daily at 1 o'clock in order to expedite business.

All persons having business with the rationing office must transact it before 1 o'clock. No telephone calls will be answered after that hour. A government ruling requires that the office complete its reports daily.

Allied Gains In New Guinea Area

Nazi Rules French

With all pretext of a partly "free" France gone, Nazis announced that the entire country now would be under direct control of Field Marshal Gerd von Rundstedt (above). Announcement was made after Germans occupied France's great naval base of Toulon.

FRENCH ISLAND JOINS ALLIES

Last Vichy Outpost Surrenders To De Gaulists

London, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The French island of Reunion has joined the forces of Fighting France. General Charles De Gaulle's headquarters announced today, following a bloodless landing upon the island of a force composed entirely of fighting French.

The announcement that the Indian ocean outpost had aligned itself with the Fighting French followed a Vichy radio announcement that Reunion had surrendered under a two-hour ultimatum presented by "Allied forces."

Contrary to the Vichy report, the De Gaulleists emphasized that only Fighting French participated in the operation, which wrested from Vichy France the last of the French islands under its control.

"Patriotic demonstrations on quays welcomed the arrival at St. Denis of the Fighting French destroyer Leopard on Saturday," the announcement issued here said.

"The only resistance was from a coastal battery on Point Des Galets."

"M. Capagorry of the colonial services has been entrusted by the French National Committee with administration of the island."

The Vichy radio announced that French resistance to British occupation of the island of Reunion ended at 8:45 a. m. today.

British imperial forces, largely South African troops, were reported by a Vichy communique Saturday to have landed on Reunion, in the Indian ocean 400 miles east of British-occupied Madagascar.

Recommend No Change In Immigration Laws

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—In a compromise move, a House Ways and Means sub-committee decided today to strip from President Roosevelt's requested new wartime powers any authority to suspend present immigration regulations and restrictions.

The action came after the sub-committee, attempting to whip a measure into shape for congressional approval this year, conferred with representatives of the war navy, justice and state departments and the board of economic warfare and the tariff commission.

"These departments and agencies," reported Rep. Cooper (D-Tenn) chairman of the sub-committee, "again emphasized that there was no desire or intention to bring any persons into the country that are now restricted by the immigration laws for permanent residence and only those vitally needed in the war effort on a temporary basis."

Despite those assurances, however

Several Hundred Japs Cut Off In Pocket; Two Jap Destroyers Sunk

By The Associated Press Allied troops today were reported to have captured a beach 900 yards east of the beleaguered Japanese stronghold of Gona, New Guinea, and apparently cut the enemy's 10-mile coastal defense strip after U. S. Flying Fortresses smashed a new Japanese seaborne attempt to land reinforcements.

Front-line dispatches said Australian jungle fighters, supported by planes and artillery, had overrun the enemy's beach defenses near Gona and were pushing on toward Sanananda farther up the coast.

Several hundred Japanese were believed cut off in a pocket at Gona. American fortress aircraft were officially credited with setting fire to two Japanese destroyers and forcing two others to sea in breaking up the enemy's latest attempt to land reinforcements.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters said the big fortress planes scored direct hits with 500-pound bombs on two of the enemy warships and both were believed to have sunk later.

Gen. MacArthur reported that Allied naval forces had intercepted an 8,000 ton German auxiliary west of Australia, blasted the vessel with gun-fire and captured 78 of the crew after the Nazis scuttled their ship.

It was the first official mention of German shipping in the western Pacific for many months.

Meanwhile, the navy in Washington disclosed that despite violent attacks by American bombers, the Japanese were attempting to regain a foothold on the bleak little island of Attu, in the westernmost Aleutians.

Attu lies 160 miles west of the only other Japanese base in the Aleutians, Kiska, which has been rendered virtually useless by American aerial assault.

The navy said Flying Fortress planes set fire to a Japanese cargo ship off Attu on Thanksgiving. (Continued on Page Six)

WAAC Officer To Speak Tonight

Lieutenant Florabeth Serri, of the Woman's Auxiliary Army Corps will speak on an interesting war subject at the Austin Building at the college tonight at 7:30. An army band and a number of U. S. army officers were scheduled to come here this afternoon with Lieutenant Serri.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion and James R. Worsley, chairman of the Enrollment Committee, sponsored the coming of Lieutenant Serri and the army officers and band. The public is invited to attend.

Woman's Club Sells $34,310 War Bonds

The Woman's Club War Bond Committee, headed by Mrs. John W. Warner, chairman, sold $34,310 worth of bonds and a quantity of War Stamps last week in observance of "Women at War." The Woman's Club committee sold the bonds in a booth on Evans street, and in front of the Business and Professional Women's Club on Fourth street after the Santa Claus parade Friday night. At this time the B and P women sold $10,000 worth of War Bonds.

Mrs. James S. Picklen is Pitt county chairman for the sale of War Bonds.

Star Sniper Tough On Nazis

Grim-faced Vasily Farenov, credited with shooting 136 Nazi soldiers, is shown in this official Russian photo as he moved to an advanced post on the Leningrad front to do further sniping. Other feats credited to the star Red sniper is capture of seven soldiers and destruction of a tank.

Italy Again Target Of British "Blockbusters"

Turin Gets Its Second Straight Night Of Blasting by RAF

London, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Home-based British bombers attacked Turin last night for the second night in succession and found fires started 24 hours earlier still raging in the Italian arsenal city, the air ministry said today.

The attack was made despite bad weather and the raiding force was reported small in comparison with the strong formations which had occasionally made the 1,500 mile round-trip swing across the Alps to cut at the foundations of Premier Mussolini's war economy.

"Other bombers attacked Turin in succession and found fires started 24 hours earlier still raging in the Italian arsenal city, the air ministry announced.

It said two planes were missing. The Italian high command acknowledged in a communique broadcast by the Rome radio that Turin was a target, but said that the damage was not heavy and that one British bomber fell there.

This was the 23rd raid on northern Italy since the beginning of the war and the 12th since the opening of the new aerial offensive with an assault on Genoa October 22.

More than 100,000 incendiaries in addition to 8,000 pound "blockbusters" were dropped over Turin in the Saturday night raid, and one Canadian pilot who took part said the city's buildings were left "seething as though they were bubbling with molten lava."

The air ministry announced that "the weather over the target was good and the attack was heavy and concentrated. Good results were seen."

The Italian high command added a revealing footnote: Damage was great, "especially in the center of the town," its broadcast said, and the number of casualties had not been ascertained nearly 24 hours after the raid.

Reuters, the British news agency carried a dispatch dated from the Italian frontier, which reported that 300,000 of Turin's 622,000 population had fled the city under repeated air attacks.

Turin long has been the principal automobile manufacturing center of Italy, it was second in importance only to Milan as a railroad center and large airplane factories had been situated there in recent years.

While the bombers were completing their mission with the announced feature of one plane, the fighter command struck at transportation in occupied France and Belgium, losing one plane, the Air Ministry announced four more planes. (Continued on Page Six)

Call For Women to Do Red Cross Work

By CHESTER WALSH The Red Cross surgical dressing station needs women and girls to make bandages for use in hospitals and on the battle fronts. Mrs. John Mitchell, chairman of this department of Red Cross work, stated today.

The surgical bandage station is in the basement of the new class room building at the college. The women assemble to make the bandages daily except Saturday from 9 to 12 in the mornings, and from 2 to 5 o'clock in the afternoons. The Red Cross surgical dressing workers are required to wear wash dresses and head coverings.

The women of the city, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mitchell, have done good work on this project but at this time Wilson Farmville, Kinston, Rocky Mount and New Bern are far ahead of Greenville in the number of women volunteering for the work and the quantity of dressings prepared for the Red Cross to be used in war work on the battle fronts.

The WAR TODAY

By DeWITT MacKENZIE Wide-World News Analyst

(This Column, conducted as a daily feature by DeWitt MacKenzie, is written today by Glenn Babb. Mr. MacKenzie, now traveling in the African war zone, is expected to resume in a day or two.)

British-American Forces Forging Ahead In Tunisia

Boston Fire Death Toll Reaches 479

More Than 200 Others Injured When Fire Sweeps Crowded Night Club

Boston, Nov. 30.—(AP)—A tiny match flame in the hands of a 16-year-old busboy touched off a lightning-like fire that snuffed out the lives of 479 Coconut Grove night club merrymakers and injured more than 200—many seriously—in one of the nation's worst holocausts.

Deputy Police Superintendent James R. Claffin quoted the youth Stanley F. Tomaszewski, as saying that he accidentally ignited a paper palm tree that caused the terrific blaze which threw about 1,000 persons into a fighting, sprawling panic in efforts to reach safety.

The boy related, Claffin said, that he was trying to replace an electric light bulb which had been unscrewed by a prankster in the recently opened Melody Room of the club when the match flame brushed the flimsy palm and set off the devastating blaze.

The flames swept through the highly inflammable decorations as the orchestra leader raised his baton to signal for the National Anthem as a prelude to the Saturday night floor show. Within seconds the crowded night club was a be-lam as screaming women and horror-stricken men dashed for exits tumbling over each other on the jam-packed stairways.

District Fire Chief William J. Mahoney said that tangled and rightfully burned bodies were found four and five deep and that tables and chairs were scattered and tipped in a shambles among the ruins.

As speedily as possible, physicians and specialists in the treatment of burns, mustered by the Boston Committee on Public Safety, were meticulously ministering to the injured using blood plasma rushed from the Red Cross in Washington and pain and poison-slaying sulfa drugs.

Meanwhile, long lines of relatives and friends stood two abreast outside the city's morgues throughout the cold night waiting for a chance to identify bodies, many of them charred beyond recognition.

A board of inquiry, including U. S. Navy representatives—there were (Continued on Page Six)

Robbers Break In Store At Week-end

Robbers broke into White's Stores on Dickinson avenue late Saturday night and carried away $35 or $40 in miscellaneous change from several cash registers. They entered the place through a skylight or trap-door. They made their exit through a back door after considerable difficulty. Police are working on the case.

Kiwansians To Sing Christmas Carols

The Kiwanians of Greenville are going to sing Christmas carols in the munitary song festival in the natural amphitheater adjoining the high school on the night of Tuesday, December 22, at 7:30. The Christmas carol service will last a half an hour. Kiwanian "Tige" Gardner, of recent Kiwanis minstrel fame, will be master of ceremonies.

Mayor Bruce Suggs will open the meeting. Representatives of local choirs and civic and fraternal organizations will sing in the chorus. Christmas carols will feature the program. The songfest will open with the singing of "Over There" and close with the chanting of the National Anthem.

Churchill Warns Italy To Get Out Of The War

London, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill's warning to the Italian people—to get out of the war or expect a "prolonged, scientific and shattering air attack"—was pounded home again and again today by the British Broadcasting Corporation.

The BBC preceded Churchill's victory speech Sunday with broadcast appeals to the Italians to make a separate peace and followed up by rebroadcasting at intervals the full text of the Prime Minister's 30-minute speech, addressing Germany and France as well as Italy.

Churchill promised that the war would be carried to Italy "in a manner not hitherto dreamed of by its guilty leaders" and added: "It is for the Italian people to say whether they want this terrible thing to happen to them or not."

He reviewed Allied strategy on the African and Russian fronts, discussed what he called a "reunion" with France and its "resurrection," and spoke somberly of the portents

Wedge Driven Between Tunis And Bizerte Separates Axis Forces While Planes Blast North African Strongholds; British Moving In For Battle With Rommel At El Agheila

(By The Associated Press) London, Nov. 30.—British and American forces, supported by a rising tide of aerial blows at the enemy on both sides of the Mediterranean, have stormed forward to within less than 12 miles of Tunis in a drive which has all but isolated that city and Bizerte, main Axis-held strong point in Tunisia.

The Allied advance was disclosed today by a headquarters communique which said fighting now was progressing east of Djedeida, which is 12 miles northwest of Tunis on the Tunis-Bizerte railroad. This indicated the Allies were driving a wedge straight toward the coast to separate the Axis strongholds.

Bizerte was the target of an attack by Allied planes which scored hits on the naval base, the communique said, and Allied fighters were credited with destruction of four enemy planes in operations over forward areas.

The Allies announcement failed to disclose the extent of thrust toward Tunis but the Morocco radio said yesterday that the Allies already were within cannon range of that capital of Tunisia.

Being astride the railroad, these forces have cut the only link between the Axis defense zones except for the coastal road. Absence of reports of fighting west of Bizerte suggested the Allies were attacking one town at a time, or were leaving Bizerte to a column advancing along the northern coast.

Simultaneously with the Allied assault on the hastily contrived Axis defenses in Tunisia, German and Italian communications reported that the 8th army's tanks struck the first blow at Marshal Rommel's El Agheila line in Libya. The Axis claimed these attacks repulsed; the British kept silent.

Tunis, Bizerte and Tripoli were targets of new punishing aerial attacks over the week-end in a prelude to impending assaults by American and British land forces.

Shipping and harbors were blasted at three Axis-held African ports and traffic along Marshal Rommel's road of escape toward Tripoli was strafed, while in Tunisia the fighting grew in intensity as the zero hour for the all-out land attack neared.

From Vichy came a broadcast of Italian troops on the Tunisian-Algerian border had been reinforced.

Issues Warning To V. D. Patients

At a recent meeting of the Pitt County Board of Health with the American Legion Venereal Disease Committee, it was agreed that the local health commission would get out warrants on all venereal disease rejected Selectees who were not under regular weekly treatment, either privately or in a public clinic.

The health officer, Dr. Ennett, says that no longer will the Health Department make follow-up visits before issuing a warrant and that he is making this statement in the public print as a warning to all delinquent Selectees.

He states also that the Venereal Disease Law applies not only to Selectees but to all other persons with a venereal disease, and that he desires to warn all such other persons that they will also be subject to a warrant without a visit from the follow-up worker.

He further stated that even though a patient is under private treatment, the patient must furnish the Pitt County Health Department with a weekly certificate from the doctor showing that the patient is taking treatment regularly according to Law, otherwise the patient is subject to prosecution.

21 SHOPPING DAYS LEFT

TO PICK OUT A TREE FOR CHARLIE

Buy Christmas Seals

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hellen left today for New York.

Dr. R. L. Shell has returned from New York.

Nick Marshall, who has been spending a few days with his grandmother, Mrs. E. L. Perkins, has returned to Richmond.

Mrs. S. H. Williams left Saturday for Philadelphia to visit her son, Dr. S. H. Williams, and Mrs. Williams.

Dr. and Mrs. Russell Batley of Wheeling, W. Va., have returned to their home after a visit here with Mrs. E. B. Ficklen.

Miss Martha Davenport has returned from Duke Hospital where she has been a patient for the past ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Hicks, who spent the week-end with Mrs. W. Phelps, have returned to their home in Morehead City. They were accompanied by Mr. Tom Phelps.

Johnnie Wooten of Duke University, spent the week-end with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. I. Wooten.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Bostic and daughter, Mary Sue, of Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Jones Smith of Pink Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Whaley of Kinston, and Sergeant Quinn Bostic of Fort Bragg, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Berry Bostic on Sunday.

Corporal Billy Whitehurst of Fort Bragg, spent the week-end in Greenville.

Mrs. J. T. Timberlake is spending the week in Durham with her sister who is a patient in Duke Hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Best, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Forbes and Mrs. Hortense Moxe spent Monday afternoon in Goldsboro.

Corporal Harry E. Wilson, who is stationed at O. R. T. C., Aberdeen, Md., is home on a seven-day furlough.

Miss Johnie Grey Currin and Mr. R. D. Stowell have returned to Washington, D. C., after spending the Thanksgiving holidays with Mrs. S. B. Currin.

Reverend and Mrs. J. W. Young and Miss Margaret Young of Oxford, were the week-end guests of Jack and Bob Young, E. C. T. C. students, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Currin.

Alumni Chapter To Meet. Greenville E. C. T. C. Alumni chapter will meet on Friday night, December 4, at 8 o'clock in the new Classroom building at the college.

T. E. L. Class To Meet. The T. E. L. Class of Memorial Baptist Church will meet on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, with Mrs. C. B. Whichard on Tenth street.

Birth Announcement. Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Thigpen Whitehurst of Waco, Texas, announce the birth of a son, James Roland, on Saturday, November 28, 1942.

Business Girls' Circle. The Business Girls' Circle of the Immanuel Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. Mildred Owens on Tuesday night, December 1, at 8 o'clock.

Immanuel Baptist Y. W. A. The Y. W. A. of Immanuel Baptist Church, will meet with Miss Sarah Jones on Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at her home on West Fourth street.

West Greenville P. T. A. The P. T. A. of West Greenville School will meet Wednesday afternoon at 3:30. Rev. Hartwell Campbell will speak on "What the Church Census Revealed."

Shrubs. Cooperating with the Garden Club, during planting week, we offer the following shrubs: Forsythia 30c; Jasmine 25c; Spirea 40c; Crapemyrtle 60c; Dogwood 50c and 75c; Pyracantha 50c; Japanese Quince 25. Orders delivered, not planted. This week only at these prices. Greenville Nursery, 414 E. 3rd St. (Adv.)

Slightly Improved. The condition of Mr. J. J. White, who is critically ill in a Boston hospital, is slightly improved.

Ball-Java Dancers Here Dec. 8. The Ball-Java Dancers, natives from Bali, Java, and Sumatra will give a dance program at East Carolina Teachers College December 8. This, the second entertainment offered by the college this season, will bring the Far East home to those who have followed events closely in that area for the past year. The native Balinese and Javanese dances have long been on the programs of dance artists, but rarely have the native dancers themselves appeared on stages in this country.

Devil Dja and her group of dancers have world-wide fame as artists. They were on a concert tour that would take them around the world when the war broke out, and they had already filled engagements in Warsaw, Milan, Strasbourg, Rotterdam, Budapest, Bucharest, and other great cities of Europe, when they had to leave. They went to Africa where Casablanca and Tunis were two of the cities they visited professionally.

They were having a successful season in this country when the war in the Pacific suddenly came and prevented them from returning home, so that now they are exiles. They are this season making a much more extended tour, including the South.

Greene-Herring. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Lucian Herring announce the marriage of their daughter Annie Laurie to Mr. Paul Welborn Greene on Thursday, the twenty-sixth of November.

Nineteen hundred and forty-two Chester, South Carolina

At Home after December sixth North Wilkesboro, N. C.

In Local Hospital. The friends of Charles Whiteford III, will regret to learn that he is ill in Pitt General Hospital.

In Duke Hospital. F. D. Duncan treasurer of the college, is in Duke Hospital following an operation on last Wednesday. Word from Mrs. Duncan says he is doing well.

To Lecture in Robersonville. Dr. R. H. Crossfield will give a lecture on "Japan" tonight before the Women's Council of the Christian Church in Robersonville. Dr. J. M. Perry is pastor of the church.

WGTC
1490 KILOCYCLES
GREENVILLE, N. C.

- TONIGHT
- 7:00—Charlie Spivak's Orch.
 - 7:15—The Johnson Family, MBS
 - 7:30—Silver Strings
 - 7:45—Mrs. Rose's Radio Actors
 - 8:00—Sizing Up the News, MBS
 - 8:15—College Program
 - 8:45—Musical Interlude
 - 8:55—You and Uncle Sam
 - 9:00—Gabriel Heatter, MBS
 - 9:15—Baron Elliott's Orch., MBS
 - 9:30—25th Annual Banquet of 4-H Clubs, MBS.
 - 10:00—News
 - 10:15—1100 Club
 - 10:30—Meet the Band TN
 - 10:45—Teddy Powell's Orch.
 - 11:00—News of the World in Brief
 - 11:05—Sign Off.

- TUESDAY, DECEMBER 1
- 7:00—Sign On
 - 7:01—News
 - 7:05—Yawn Patrol
 - 8:00—News
 - 8:15—Dickson's Melody Mustangs
 - 8:30—Morning Meditations
 - 8:45—Your Morning Pickup
 - 9:00—News
 - 9:05—Local News and Anncts.
 - 9:15—Milady's Music Box
 - 9:30—Melody Time
 - 9:45—Rhythm and Recipes, TN
 - 10:00—Obituary Column of the Air
 - 10:05—Farmville on the Air
 - 10:25—Women in the News
 - 10:30—The Cheer Up Gang, MBS
 - 11:00—Headlines of Tomorrow MBS.

11:15—Karl Zomar's Scrapbook, MBS.

11:30—Ayden on the Air.

11:45—Ray Herbeck's Orch.

12:00—Hillbilly Roundup.

12:15—News.

12:25—Tune Time.

12:40—Carolina Farm Features.

12:55—News and Markets.

1:00—Bond Wagon.

1:15—To Be Announced, MBS.

1:30—Letters From the Navy.

1:45—Palmer House Concert Orch., MBS.

2:00—Today's War Commentary.

2:05—Robersonville on the Air.

2:15—Baron Elliott's Orch., MBS

2:30—Mutual Goes Calling, MBS

3:00—Stanley Dixon and the News, MBS.

3:15—Shady Valley Polka, MBS.

4:00—Background For News With Walter Compton, MBS.

4:15—Treasury Star Parade.

4:30—Johnny Pineapple's Orch.

4:45—Bridgeport Ensemble, MBS

5:00—Piano Melodies by Chris, TN

5:15—Quaker City Footlight Rhapsody, MBS.

5:30—Superman, MBS.

5:45—Story Time Lady, TN.

6:00—Nation's Prayer Minute, MBS.

6:01—Sundown Serenade.

6:15—News.

6:20—Claude Thornhill's Orch.

6:30—Sportscast, TN.

6:45—Oettinger Views the News, TN.

7:00—Al Kavelin's Orch.

7:15—The Johnson Family, MBS

7:30—Deeds Without Words.

7:45—Paul Decker's Orch., MBS

8:00—Moonbeam Trio.

8:15—Crossfield With a Background for News, TN.

8:30—Tommy Reynolds Orch.

8:55—You and Uncle Sam.

- 9:00—Gabriel Heatter, MBS.
- 9:15—Carolina Pratt, TN.
- 9:30—Murder Clinic, MBS.
- 10:00—News.
- 10:15—1100 Club.
- 10:30—Meet the Band, TN.
- 10:45—Dick Kuhn's Orch., MBS
- 11:00—News of the World in Brief
- 11:05—Sign Off.

Attending Meeting in Tennessee. Dr. H. J. McGinnis, ECTC registrar, left this week-end for Memphis, Tenn., where he will join President L. R. Meadows in attending the meeting of the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools to be held there today through Friday.

At the meeting Dr. McGinnis will present a study he has made of the grading systems in colleges throughout the South.

Apron and Foods Sale. Now is the time to do your Christmas shopping. This year we are advised that gift suggestions are limited. However, visit the Apron and Foods Sale at the Ellington Book Store on Dec. 4th and much to your surprise you will have found one place where there is variety and quantity. You will fill your Christmas list in the shortest length of time that you have ever experienced.

SPECIAL PRICES ON PERMANENT WAVES—from $2.00

MRS. JOHNSON
1509 Chestnut St., Dial 2610

UMBRELLAS

Here's an item that makes a most practical gift for both men and women

$1.98 and $2.95

Our supply of these umbrellas is very limited, we suggest that you select yours now.

Blount-Harvey

GIFTS FOR A Practical CHRISTMAS

Gay

IN BLOUNT HARVEY'S GIFT SHOP

Make this Christmas season one of practical giving. Give gifts that are practical. You'll find hundreds and hundreds of just such gifts in our Gift Shop on the Third Floor.

FLOOR LAMPS	TABLE LAMPS
$4.95 to $19.75	$5.50 to $7.95

Select your gifts from this list which includes only a few of the many things you will find in our Gift Shop

- CHINAWARE, TABLES, NOVELTIES, LEATHERETTE GIFTS
- GLASS WARE, TRAYS, NUT BOWLS, SMOKING STANDS
- GAMES, BASKETS, STATIONARY, PYREX SETS
- STEMWARE, BOOKENDS, COCKTAIL SETS, PILLOWS

ROYAL FENTON VASES	MIRRORS
$1.00 to $12.50	$7.95
CLOTHES HAMPERS	PICTURES
$1.98 to $4.95	$1.00 to $4.95

Blount-Harvey

VISIT OUR GIFT SHOP

PENNEYS Practical Gifts

AT SENSIBLE PRICES

Sparkling Styles! Lift For Your Wardrobe!

WOMEN'S DRESSES 4.98

The whole town will be talking about our new collection of dresses... contrasting color treatment and an accent on dashing shoulders in our two-piece rayon alpaca button-down-the-front... softly tailored pleats on the classic shirtwaist. Sizes 12 to 44.

WE'LL REMEMBER THIS CHRISTMAS!

Wartime Christmas live in the memory long after the happy, care-free ones are forgotten, for the shadow that war casts over every home, is intensified at this season. We must not let the radiance of Christmas be dimmed. Joyous occasions like this are part of our way of life. And Christmas is one of the things we're fighting for. There must be giving... generous giving, but no gift should be extravagant.

For the Gift of Gifts, for all of us, is the Victory we are working for... to achieve it, we're going to have to buy lots of War Bonds, however much we must sacrifice to buy them!

WOMEN'S GLOVES 59c

Sporty amazon alligator grains for her casual wear... rayon faille envelopes for dressier wear. All beautifully tailored in rich winter colors.

A Sensible Gift!

WOMEN'S NEW HATS 1.98

Styled berets with delicate cut work for that expensive look! Squared crown sport styles with stitching and pleated brims!

WOMEN'S GLOVES 59c

Lovely half-and-half sport styles and smart gauntlets for dressy wear.

POPLIN JACKETS 2.98

Lightweight—Warm and Water-Repellent!

With Warm and Bright Plaid Linings!

Handsome cotton and rayon in the popular natural finish that's featured at every winter resort this season! Note the smart slash pockets, flap breast pocket, elastic sides and zipper or button fly front. Light yet wind-resistant—it's HIS choice for sports!

RAYON ROBES 5.90

Bring Him Ease—IN STYLE!

Handsome Rayon Robes!

If you're searching for a PRACTICAL gift—this is it! Lustrous rayon satin trim—a superb combination for the best in good looks! Note the EXTRA style details—shawl collar, long body, high waist and tasseled sash.

Men's Fine Shirts, Shorts & Briefs 49c

Smart striped shorts, Swiss rib shirts and briefs, each—

Gift Boxed! MEN'S SOCKS 3 Pairs 1.00

Smart stripes, clocks and figures. All the popular patterns in every popular color!

Boys' Warm Corduroy JIMMIES 2.20 Pair

Choice of navy blue, maroon and other colors. Made of fine quality pinwale corduroy, for real service and warmth! Sizes 3 to 10.

For The Men On Your List... Give a Gift He'll Appreciate!

TOWNCRAFT SHIRTS 1.98

Sanforized shrunk in an amazingly fine woven fabric! Clear bright colors. Seven button fronts! Sizes 14 to 17.

Boys' SUITS 12.75

He'll Be Proud Of This Gift!

Colorfully handsome herringbone patterns in weaves with all the ruggedness boys NEED! Smart single and double breasted models to choose from. Price includes coat and trousers.

For That "Different Gift!"

UNFAIR TO SILKWORMS

Taking their place the minute their backs are turned—that's what rayon is doing strong and rich in these full-fashioned modern Gaymodes!

Finest sheer and service rayons in three soft shades—"Glorious," "Valorous," "Victorious." 79c

Others in the same lovely tones. 79c

MISSES' POPLIN SPORT JACKETS 2.98

Made with the same snap and zip that styles the hunting jacket brother wears!

Sporty poplin, with convertible collar, blind-fly button front, roomy flap pockets and adjustable straps at the waist-line!

PENNEYS

ON CHRISTMAS DAY IT'S GOOD TO KNOW "IT'S PAID FOR"

LOCAL and SOCIAL

Mrs. Jefferson Honored. Mrs. Billy Whitehurst was hostess at bridge on Friday evening, honoring Mrs. Russell Jefferson...

Asks For Christmas Gifts. The members of the Training School P. T. A. have received an urgent request...

The director of the USO at Fort Bragg told Mrs. Blair that at Christmas time there would be a large group of soldiers stationed there whose address would not be known by anybody...

Christian Science Service. "Ancient and Modern Necromancy, Alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism Denounced" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches and societies on Sunday, November 29.

The golden text was I Cor. 13:12. "Watch ye stand fast in the faith, quit you like men, be strong." Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon were the following from the Bible: "Deliver me, O Lord, from the evil man; preserve me from the violent man; they have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; adders' poison is under their lips..."

College Vesper Hour. "The Great Religions of the World" was the topic discussed by four members of the Freshman Y last night at East Carolina Teachers College vesper hour.

Introduced by Margaret Person of Louisville, the speakers presented briefly the outstanding characteristics of the various religions. Paula Ross of Edenton, recently chosen president of the Freshman Y, speaking on Mohammedanism; Pearl Sawyer of Powell's Point, on Buddhism; Doris Sutton of Goldsboro, on Confucianism; and Elsie West of Roxboro, on Christianity.

In discussing Mohammedanism, Miss Ross told of the belief of the Mohammedans in God, immortality and the prophets, stating that Mohammed was considered the greatest of all prophets. Miss Sawyer pointed out that Buddhism shows the ways of escape from pain, while Christianity offers a way of escape from sin. Confucianism consists mainly of a code of morals, said Miss Sutton, and went on to point out that countries where this religion prevails have shown little progress, comparatively speaking Christ's doctrine of service is one of the things that make Christianity stand out, according to Miss West, the closing speaker, who told of the many Christians who had given their lives in service for others in all parts of the world.

Miss Mary Bland Justus of Washington, sang "A Child's Prayer." The Freshman Y, a separate organization of freshmen members of the YWCA, has its own program, under the supervision of Mary Long Ford of Franklinton and Clarine Johnson of Stedman.

FOOD AND NUTRITION CLASSES NOW BEING HELD. With America at war even more than in normal times, we housewives of the nation hold the welfare of the home in our hands. We have the vital job of feeding our families properly - planning meals correctly but making sure that when the food we have chosen and prepared arrives on our tables, it contains all possible health-giving ingredients. We must make our family budget go as far as possible and act as efficient, wise purchasing agents, sure of getting our money's worth - we must avoid waste. Ours is a full time job - one of the most important. It takes time, energy and planning. It is for just this that Food and Nutrition classes are being taught in Greenville. Those housewives who have been fortunate enough to join these classes being taught by Miss Holizclaw and Miss Swann, report fine attendance and most helpful results. Following the Christmas holidays there will be other classes taught in Greenville and others also will be taught throughout the county, for both white and colored. Make your plans now to join one of these classes for you will find them a great help in feeding your

Social Calendar

MONDAY. 6:30 p. m. - Rotary Club. 7:00 p. m. - Lions Club. 7:30 p. m. - Modern Woodmen. 7:30 p. m. - Lieutenant Florabeth Ferri will speak in the Austin Auditorium in interest of the WAAC organization.

TUESDAY. 9:30 a. m. - 12:00 noon - Red Cross work room open. Ladies of the Episcopal and Catholic churches in charge. 1:00 p. m. - The Athenium Book Club meets with Mrs. C. H. Edwards.

3:30 p. m. - Mrs. David Evans will be hostess to the Inter Se Club. 3:30 p. m. - The Forty-one Book Club meets with Mrs. T. G. Basnight, Jr. 3:30 p. m. - Mrs. N. S. Beard will be hostess to the Chatham Book Club.

3:30 p. m. - The End of the Century Club meets with Mrs. B. W. Moseley. 3:30 p. m. - Henrietta Hall Shuck circle of Memorial Baptist Church meets with Mrs. T. H. Boykin. 3:30 p. m. - The Ladies of the Round Table will meet with Mrs. J. E. Nobles.

7:30 p. m. - St. Mary's Auxiliary of Episcopal Church meets. 7:30 p. m. - Chapter 149 of the Eastern Star meets. 8:00 p. m. - The Business Girls' Circle of Immanuel Baptist Church will meet with Mrs. Mildred Owens.

WEDNESDAY. 9:30 a. m. - 12:00 noon - Red Cross work room open. Ladies of Immanuel Baptist and Presbyterian churches in charge. 3:30 p. m. - West Greenville P. T. A. will meet. 7:00 p. m. - Fellowship banquet at the Eighth Street Christian Church. 7:30 p. m. - Mid-week service at the Presbyterian Church.

8:30 p. m. - The choir of the Presbyterian Church meets for rehearsal. THURSDAY. 9:30 a. m. - 12:00 noon - Red Cross work room open. Ladies of Memorial Baptist Church in charge. 11:00 a. m. - The W. M. S. of Immanuel Baptist Church will meet at the church to observe their season of prayer for foreign missions.

8:00 p. m. - T. E. L. Class of Memorial Baptist Church meets with Mrs. C. B. Whichard on Tenth street. 9:30 a. m. - 12:00 noon - Red Cross work room open. Ladies of the Christian Church in charge. 6:30 p. m. - Kiwanis Club. 7:30 p. m. - Red Men meet.

8:00 p. m. - Greenville E. C. T. C. Alumni chapter meets in the new Classroom building at the college. family. We have a job on our hands. We must make our homes, our communities, our country, ready, efficient and strong. A healthy America is a strong America. Following are recipes for meatless days:

BAKED CHEESE DISH - 4 slices bread, 2 tsp. butter, 1 tsp. mustard, 2 slices bacon, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup milk, 1-2 lb. cheese. Mix prepared mustard and butter. Spread on bread. Cut in small pieces to fit in bottom of greased baking dish. Grate cheese, put over bread. Beat eggs, add salt, paprika (to taste) and mix. Pour over the cheese. Cut bacon in small pieces and place on top. Bake in oven of 450 degrees for 30 minutes.

LIVER LOAF - 1 lb. chopped liver, 1 cup bread crumbs, 1 cup chopped green peppers, 1-4 cup chopped onion, 2 tsp. chopped parsley, 1-2 tsp. salt, 1-4 tsp. paprika, 3 tbs. melted butter, 1 cup tomatoes, 1 beaten egg. Cover liver with boiling water for five minutes. Add other ingredients and pour in buttered loaf pan. Bake 45 minutes in moderate oven. Serve with creamed carrots and green beans.

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR November 30, 1892. Notwithstanding the fall, up to a week ago, was so pretty, many farmers have not finished housing their crops. This is due to scarcity of labor. The time of the year is coming when the matter of road improvement would be a burning question if the ground wasn't too wet to strike a match.

Garden For Victory

Tomorrow, December 1st, marks the opening of Planting Week, when every family is asked to plant one or more flowering shrubs or trees. If everyone joins in the effort, what a beautiful Greenville we shall have when our service men come home. In accord with the planting program the Woman's Club under the supervision of the Garden Department, has cleared away the overgrown shrubs and unsightly debris around the club house preparatory to setting out new shrubs. The parkway on both streets have been leveled and will be beautiful also. Some of the loveliest shrubs to plant are Forsythia and Winter Jasmine, both yellow, and Flowering Quince, pink and red, for very early blooms. Spirea in many varieties, bloom all spring, and Pyracantha provides gorgeous masses of red berries for fall and winter. The dogwood, our state flower, in pink and white, rebud and crepe myrtle are beautiful flowering trees which may be planted on parkways as well as in the yard.

All these shrubs and trees may be secured locally and being grown right here should give no trouble. They require a minimum of effort in both planting and care and reward us with untold beauty. In planting it is well to make the hole amply large to give the roots room to spread. Put the topsoil in first, working it around the roots, then add some cotton seed meal or other fertilizer mixed with the remaining soil. Water well and press the soil firmly around the roots.

Mr. W. E. Hooker, chairman of the Planning and Project Committee, suggests certain precautions to be observed when planting trees or shrubs on parkways. Remember that the bush or tree which now looks fairly small, will soon be many times its plant size. Keep this future growth in mind and avoid planting it where it can ever be a menace to traffic by causing "blind corners." If the parkway is very narrow and wires are strung directly overhead, put trees in the yard where their future growth may be uninterrupted. Remember too that in order to have clearance on streets and sidewalks it may be necessary to cut all the lower branches. Do not choose trees whose beauty will be lost when the lower half is pruned back to the trunk. What pays such dividends as planting trees? A few cents spent, a half hour's work, then years of comfort and beauty for our families, our friends and countless passers-by whom we shall never know.

CHICOD NEWS

Mrs. Jack Edwards, Dorothy Edwards, Mary Edith Porter and Tull Edwards were Greenville shoppers Friday. Mrs. Ruth Harrington of Greenville, visited her mother, Mrs. Bertha Buck, Friday. Miss Dorothy Edwards of King's Business College, Raleigh, came home Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Edwards. She returned to Raleigh Sunday to resume her studies. Mr. Elmer Tucker of Oak Ridge Military Academy, spent Thanksgiving with his parents. Several people from our community were in Greenville Friday evening for the arrival of old Saint Nicholas. The kiddies as well as family. We have a job on our hands. We must make our homes, our communities, our country, ready, efficient and strong. A healthy America is a strong America. Following are recipes for meatless days:

BAKED CHEESE DISH - 4 slices bread, 2 tsp. butter, 1 tsp. mustard, 2 slices bacon, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup milk, 1-2 lb. cheese. Mix prepared mustard and butter. Spread on bread. Cut in small pieces to fit in bottom of greased baking dish. Grate cheese, put over bread. Beat eggs, add salt, paprika (to taste) and mix. Pour over the cheese. Cut bacon in small pieces and place on top. Bake in oven of 450 degrees for 30 minutes. LIVER LOAF - 1 lb. chopped liver, 1 cup bread crumbs, 1 cup chopped green peppers, 1-4 cup chopped onion, 2 tsp. chopped parsley, 1-2 tsp. salt, 1-4 tsp. paprika, 3 tbs. melted butter, 1 cup tomatoes, 1 beaten egg. Cover liver with boiling water for five minutes. Add other ingredients and pour in buttered loaf pan. Bake 45 minutes in moderate oven. Serve with creamed carrots and green beans.

Bali-Java Dancers EAST CAROLINA TEACHERS COLLEGE Tuesday Dec. 8 8:00 p. m. Admission 75c Season Tickets Admit Holders

the grown-ups enjoyed the occasion. Miss Elizabeth Edwards who teaches at Smithfield, spent the week-end at her home. Miss Ethel Tucker and Mrs. Sammie Tucker had as their Thanksgiving dinner guests all the family, also Mrs. Bettie Cox, Mrs. D. W. Hardee of Greenville, and Mrs. Fannie Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Campbell. A most bountiful turkey dinner, with all the trimmings, was enjoyed by all present. All members of the Christian Service Ladies are asked to attend the meeting on Friday, Dec. 4, with Mrs. Jimmie Edwards. The time is 3 o'clock.

NEWS OF GREENVILLE HIGH

By CORA REDDITT. Turkey dreams fade into the darkness of yesterdays while New Year's Eve schemes cause even the "first day after a holiday" faces to be bright. Yes, Thanksgiving holidays came and went. School started as usual this morning at 9 o'clock. Mr. Five by Five visited Greenville last Friday night but students will not start their Christmas holidays until Thursday, Dec. 17. Said holidays will continue until January 4.

Girls' Basketball. Girls' basketball practice begins today. Ninth and tenth grade teams practice on Monday and Wednesday at 4:15 p. m., and 12th grade teams practice on Tuesday and Thursday at 4:15. WAACs. There will be an official of the WAACs at the college tonight. Those who are interested are invited to attend. The WAAC representative will speak in the Austin auditorium at 7:30.

Report Cards. Report cards will be given to GHS students Wednesday, Dec. 9.

Congratulations! Last week's leading War Stamp purchasing home rooms were: 1st, Home room 24; 2nd, Home room 11; 3rd, Home, room 29. Our goal for Culmination Day, December 4, is that every stamp album be completed and converted into a War Bond.

Russians Continue...

(Continued from page one) An arm of the offensive groped south from Rzehev along the Rzhev-Vyazma railroad, threatening to take from the rear the advanced Nazi stronghold at Gzhatsk, on the Smolensk highway 100 miles from Moscow.

This was but one phase, however, of a drive which Russian dispatches said had cut three German-controlled railroad lines on the central front at isolated Velekle Luki, a contested communications center only 90 miles from the Latvian border. Dispatches from the Stalingrad front said the Germans, after losing the battle along the Don loop, were seeking to form a new line to the east, within the Don-Volga corridor, to protect their divisions massed before the city.

Two towns reported captured in last night's communique are Peskovka and Vertychy, which lie from 30 to 40 miles northwest of Stalingrad on a dirt road parallel with the Don roughly three miles east of the river and connecting with railroads to Stalingrad. Pravda said many German troops were concentrated at one point northwest of Stalingrad behind dense minefields and anti-tank barriers, but the position was broken by a three-sided assault on the enemy rolled south, abandoning its fortifications.

The Red army fanned out southwest of Stalingrad along the railroad running through Kotelnikowski toward Rostov. Newly reported captured were Obolnyo, 80 miles south of Stalingrad, and Verkhné Kurmoyarskaya, on the east bank of the Don at its junction with the Kurmoyarskaya-Aksai river and well inside the German corridor from Stalingrad. Pravda said an entire heavy artillery regiment was captured by France will rise again.

Soviet troops before the Germans could remove the covers from the guns. A German infantry regiment overwhelmed after a brief fight was declared moved practically intact into the lines of prisoners thronging the roads to the Russian rear. New German lines on the east bank of the Don were broken by the Soviet troops and 1,000 more Germans were reported to have paid with their lives for the luckless siege of Stalingrad. The Russian infantrymen were supported by tanks and artillery as they moved forward in the second breakthrough in this sector reported in two days.

Churchill Warns...

(Continued from page one) Italian Fascist state in a manner not hitherto dreamed of by its unfortunated people Mussolini had led, exploited and disgraced. Churchill pointed to the series of punishing raids the RAF has inflicted on Italian industrial and shipping centers, and remarked: "Already the centers of war industry in northern Italy are being subjected to brader treatment than any of our cities experienced in the winter of 1940."

The Russian battles are "moving forward to a climax" and weakened German divisions must prepare themselves, he said, "for a second dose of what they got last year." But England's war leader also warned his audience: "I know of nothing that has happened yet which justifies the hope that the war will not be long or that bitter, bloody years do not lie ahead. It may be that the war in Europe will come to an end before the war in Asia."

Then, he added, in that event "we should of course bring all our forces to the aid of the United States and our kith and kin in Australia and New Zealand in the struggle against the aggressions of Japan." The self-demolition of the French fleet, Churchill declared, redeemed its honor "and from the flames and smoke of the explosions at Toulon France will rise again."

Big Decrease In Traffic Deaths

Chicago, Nov. 30-(AP)—A drop of 49 per cent in motor car fatalities in October compared with the same month a year ago—the greatest monthly reduction in the nation's history—was reported by the National Safety Council today. Only 2,000 persons perished in motor vehicle accidents during October, representing a saving of 1,920 lives as compared with October of 1941.

For the first ten months of the year traffic deaths were estimated to be down 27 per cent from the same period a year ago—a total of 23,290 fatalities against 31,820 last year, or a saving of 8,530 lives.

NOTICE OF RE-SALE OF FARM LAND

Under and by virtue of an order of the Superior Court of Pitt County made in the Special Proceeding entitled "Furney Tripp, Jr. and wife, Mabel E. Tripp, et al. Ex Parte," the same being No. 4294 of said Court, and an order of re-sale made herein, the undersigned commissioner will, on Monday, the 14th day of December, 1942 at 12 o'clock Noon at the court house door in Greenville, N. C., again offer for sale and sell to the highest bidder for cash, the following described real property, to-wit:

That certain tract or parcel of land lying and being situated in Winterville Township Pitt County, North Carolina, about 3-4ths of a mile northwest of Reedy Branch Church, and being known as Lot No. 2 which was assigned to Mattie Willoughby in the Division of the lands of Irene Forbes, deceased, and beginning in the run of Mirey Branch centered by small maples and runs N. 11 E. 131 poles to a sweet gum on the north-east edge of said branch to a cross fence; thence down said fence S. 32 1-2 E. 28 poles to a stake; thence S. 35 W. 11 1-2 poles to the canal; thence N. 86 W. 14 1-2 poles to a black gum; thence with the side of Swift Creek, thence down said Mirey Branch; thence up Mirey Creek to a poplar in the mouth of Branch to the beginning, being 50 acres, more or less, as the same tract of land owned by Lucy J. Tripp by Furney Tripp, deed dated October 4, 1905, and recorded in Book G-8 at page 385 in the office of the Register of Deeds of Pitt County. Also, one other tract of land in said township, County and State, adjoining the above described tract of land, and being Lot No. 6 which was allotted to Lucy J. Tripp in the Division of the W. H. Tripp lands made during the year 1915 and containing 13.62 acres, more or less, as set forth in the report of the commissioners making said division in Special Proceeding No. 1805 and duly recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Superior Court of Pitt County in Division of Land Book No. 2 at pages 549 and 550, to which report reference is hereby made. The above described lands being known as the Lucy and Furney Tripp Home Place.

The 1942 tobacco allotment, 9.2 acres; cotton 6 acres. The proposed purchaser at said sale will be required to make a cash deposit with the commissioner in the amount of 10 per cent of his bid, and the sale will be made subject to confirmation by the Court. This the 28th day of Nov. 1942. R. B. LEE, Commissioner. Nov. 30-1tw-2wk.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Creomulsion blends beechwood crossote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

At BELK-TYLER'S TOMORROW! FINAL CLEAN-UP SALE 400 FALL DRESSES. Alpaca Crepes! Romaines! Sports Dresses! Woolens! Corduroys, All This Season's Dresses. Out they go tomorrow at Drastic Reductions... Be down early! DRESSES Values to $1.98 SALE $1.67 DRESSES Values to $7.95 SALE $5.37 DRESSES Values to $2.98 SALE $1.99 DRESSES Values to $8.95 SALE $5.88 DRESSES Values to $3.98 SALE $2.50 DRESSES Values to $9.95 SALE $6.88 DRESSES Values to $4.98 SALE $2.99 DRESSES Values to $12.95 SALE $7.88 DRESSES Values to $5.95 SALE $3.88 DRESSES Values to $14.95 SALE $9.88 DRESSES Values to $6.95 SALE $4.88 DRESSES Values to $16.50 SALE $10.88 BELK-TYLER COMPANY GREENVILLE, NORTH CAROLINA

If you like MILD cheese flavor here's the kind to get. KRAFT VELVEETA. THE CHEESE FOOD THAT'S DIGESTIBLE AS MILK ITSELF. Velveeta spreads like butter... slices when chilled... melts and toasts to perfection. Delicious! Contains milk protein, milk minerals, vitamin A and vitamin G.

The Daily Reflector

Every Afternoon Except Sunday
Established 1882
DAVID J. WHIGHAM, Jr.
Owner and Publisher
DIAL 3356

Entered at the Post Office at Greenville, N. C., as second class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
(Payable in Advance)
One Week $5
One Month $15
Three Months $45
Six Months $85
One Year $160

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein. All rights of publication of special dispatches herein are also reserved.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING REPRESENTATIVES
Thomas F. Clark, Co. Inc., New York, Chicago, Atlanta.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

NOT ALL BAD
George Brooks was the brother of the famous Phillips Brooks, rector of Trinity Church in Boston and one of the greatest preachers of the nineteenth century. In one of the biographies of Phillips Brooks, the author mentions the fact that George, just before he joined his regiment in 1862, was confirmed in his brother's church. Although his religious experience had been momentous and thorough, it was destined to be deepened by the events of the war between the states.

"George told me," said the chaplain of his company, "that he never had a full assurance of his faith and his acceptance to God until he became a soldier; that in the battle of Kingston, under the terrible fire of the enemy, his Savior came to him as never before, declared His presence, revealed His love, and held His soul in His hands."

We hear so much today about the temptations to which military life subjects one, and much of this is true. But it is also well to remember that the experience of war has sometimes driven men to religion. Strange as it may seem, some men have actually had a great experience of God on the battlefield. It may seem hard to fit this sort of thing into our religion. Probably the best explanation is that the tremendous excitement and jeopardy of war sometimes arouses the attention of men and puts them for the first time in their lives in a mood to receive spiritual gifts.

War will ruin some men, but it will make over others and give their lives a new meaning.
All Rights Reserved—Babson Newspaper Syndicate

DON'T LET IT HAPPEN AGAIN

The staggering death toll in Saturday's night's Boston fire emphasizes the need of practicing fire prevention at all times together with the need for proper exits for all public places in which large crowds gather. The nation was shocked at the news that close to 500 persons had lost their lives in a single fire, one of the worst in the country's history. Of course there will be the usual investigation but such an investigation will not bring back to life a single one of the victims. More strict fire codes, rigidly enforced, for public gathering places is one way to prevent another such tragedy.

FIREWORKS BANNED

With the sale of fireworks banned in this city, attention of city officials has been called to the fact that some of our local folks are ordering fireworks from the outside. The officers warn that the ban is against the shooting of fireworks in the city as well as the sale, and the order will be rigidly enforced during the coming Christmas season. If you are contemplating ordering fireworks, you had better change your mind and put your money into War Stamps or something else worthwhile, for you will not be permitted to shoot the fireworks in Greenville.

NO TIME TO SLOW-DOWN
Its world-wide address

Yesterday Prime Minister Churchill not only served notice on our enemies that devastation of their lands would be the ultimate result of continuation of the war now in progress, but he rightly warned the Allies that our successes to date did not signify a quick victory and that the road ahead was still a long and hard one. Mr. Churchill's warning is one that every person in every country of the United Nations should take to heart. Recent successes of our armies and navies have apparently brought about a feeling on the part of many of our people that the end of the war was near at hand and victory was within our grasp. Such an attitude toward the war on the part of our people is dangerous at this time. It is going to take everything we can do to win this war and the harder every one of us tries to do his or her part in the war effort now, the quicker victory will come, but even with our combined all-out efforts it will not come soon nor easily.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

(First of two articles on U. S. feeding of foreign nations.)

Washington—Gov. Hebert H. Lehman has been handed one of the war's toughest jobs. As Director of Foreign Relief and Rehabilitation, he will be the Herbert Hoover of World War II, but without deprecating the splendid job done by Mr. Hoover 25 years ago, the task facing Governor Lehman is ten times that. He will have to deal, principally with Belgium, parts of France, Russia and Italy and a few scattered small nations. Governor Lehman will have to consider a big chunk of the world. There already have been stories that when our supply lines in the Solomons forced our troops to cut to two meager meals a day, consisting principally of canned meat, we still were distributing food to hungry natives half starved during Japanese occupation. When the full story of North Africa is told, it's likely that the prospect of more and better food will have had more to do with capitulation of the French colonial and natives than all the Darlans and Girauds in the book. It is considered here that Spain and Portugal are staying neutral strictly from hunger. And it's a common saying that Italy will trade unconditional surrender for a ham sandwich. From Greece to Norway, from Brittany to Finland, the occupied and Nazi-allied countries already are starving. Food, medicine, clothing and even small arms have to be gotten to our allies inside the lines, as well as to those now neutral who might be brought into the ranks of United Nations. That sets up Governor Lehman in his new post as a sort of superczar of economic warfare. It means also that he will have to fight one of the battles of the century with the agencies and men in charge of production and distribution of food, clothing, etc., in this country.

Think of it in the single terms of one single commodity: meat. If our armed forces, civilians and the few allies already being taken care of have already forced the nation to meat rationing, whom is the new Director of FRR going to "rob" to get the supplies he must have, to do any kind of job at all? How is he going to do it without upsetting price control? where is he going to get the transportation to get these supplies to the starving nations? These are a few of the primary problems that will beset the good governor of New York. The slugging matches he will have to indulge in with the Board of Economic Warfare, Agriculture, Price Control, the WPB, the Maritime Commission, the armed forces, and half a dozen other agencies, before he can even call his task well begun are ones that will call for greater courage than any toiler in the Washington vineyard has yet had to display. (Tomorrow: Why Governor Lehman?)

The WAR TODAY

(Continued from page one)

ries, on their war weariness and on divisions among them at the European peace conference table to enable Japan to hold what she had snatched. Churchill has replied to these Japanese hopes in terms which leave no doubt that Britain, as long as a Churchill government stays there, will be with the United States to the end of the task of ending the rule of force and aggression in the Pacific as well as in Europe. "It may well be," Churchill said, "that the war in Europe will end before the war in Asia. The Atlantic may be calm while in the Pacific the hurricane rises to full pitch. If events should take such a course we should, of course, bring all our forces to the other side of the world to aid the United States, to aid China, to aid our kith and kin in Australia and New Zealand in the struggle against the aggressions of Japan." Among men who know the situation in the Orient there is a growing belief that this second chapter of the war may be as long, bitter and costly as the first, which will end with the destruction of Hitler. Churchill expressed the deepening conviction that we can not count on the surrender of Japan as an inevitable sequel to the defeat of Germany. There are many who believe that when Japan took her great gamble the hurricane rises to full pitch. Of course she was ready to seize all the advantages which Hitler's conquests might open to her, such as the bloodless acquisition of French Indo-China. Had Hitler been able to destroy the Red army Japan doubtless would have rushed jackal-like into Siberia to feast on the Lion's kill. But primarily for Japan the war in Europe was another of those opportunities—the most golden of all—granted her every generation or so by her gods in which the white powers spring at each other's throats on the other side of the world and give her a comparatively free hand to achieve her purposes in Asia. A long exhausting war in Europe, no matter who wins, probably would be more to the Japanese taste than a speedy, complete Axis victory.

Two Girls and a Man

YESTERDAY: Rita Ralston has gone east to New York from California to see what she can do with the New York bank which holds her father's note for $20,000, since her father was too ill to make the trip. On the plane she met the actor, Clark Pasquin, and now she is having dinner with him before his evening performance. Incredible it is, to Rita, but the great Pasquin is deeply interested in the girl from California.

Chapter Six Spied On
"My timing's too fast, isn't it?" Clark said quietly. "Makes the lines sound corny. I'm sorry. But when you meet one person who calms you and steadies you—makes you feel like you've found a ballast—" "That's a sack of sand, isn't it?" Rita murmured flippantly. Her heart was pounding violently, but she covered her confusion by glancing at her watch. "Half our supper hour is gone. You'll be late for your show if the waiter doesn't hurry—" He beamed joyously at her as he summoned the waiter. "I knew you'd be the kind to watch over me," he said. The evening swept on without a flaw. Rita sat entranced through Clark's play, her heart swelling with pride and happiness each time he appeared on the stage. She hardly followed the plot, she was so intent on him—listening to the warm tones of his voice, watching his tricks of stage technique, sensing his hold on the audience. Afterwards, Duffy took her back to his dressing room to meet the cast and director, and then she and Clark escaped through a horde of admirers pressing night club invitations. Out through the stage door through another horde of autograph seekers and finally to Clark's car and a swift drive across the dim-lit city to the Wallaby Club.

As they danced, Clark continued to be warmly attentive, but Rita just as determinedly refused to take him seriously. "I don't dare," she assured him lightly. "You're giving the country girl a big thrill, and don't think I don't love it. But the famous, handsome stage actor, Clark Pasquin interested in plain Rita Ralston from Blossom Ranch, California? Oh, no." "What a woman," Clark murmured humorously. "Not one decent spark of vanity I can work on." Rita had almost forgotten the thrill of dancing to the strains of a good orchestra in a dusky, scented room—of lingering over delicious food and delicate wines as though they had time without end. In spite of an unending procession of congratulating acquaintances their table gradually became an oasis of privacy. Their talk and laughter built a bridge of shared secret enthusiasms. They had read the same books, loved the same music. Rita argued happily over plays. Once Rita had a large party of soldiers, hosted by a patriotic white-haired stock broker.

Snapshot
"Having a grand time, aren't they?" Clark's eyes had followed hers. He was abruptly sober thoughtful. "You haven't asked why I'm not in uniform?" Rita's face colored guiltily. "I didn't think of it," she lied. "You had a right to." His tone was suddenly bitter. "Fact is, they won't take me." All his easy sophistication was gone with the statement. He was a disappointed boy blurring out his troubles. "You know that mystic look I have—according to my publicity write-ups? Well, that's acute myopia—short-sightedness. I've cultivated a certain adroitness in finding my way around a stage once I get the furniture charted, but they don't think I'd do so well on a battlefield."

Sudden understanding sent a rush of blood through Rita's heart. This was the real Clark Pasquin—straightforward, eager, honest like her father, resenting fiercely any physical shortcoming that came between him and his duty. "This war's the big show now," he was tracing an impatient line on the tablecloth. "It's hell being on the sidelines." Rita's hand reached out this time in an involuntary gesture of sympathy. His hand closed over it, his glance met hers. Slowly he relaxed, smiled.

And, at that minute, Gloria's voice cut through the soft drift of music about them, harshly imperative. "It's Mr. Pasquin!" Clark and Rita looked up dazedly into the laughing faces of the three debutantes and their escorts just as a photographer's flash-light caught the group. Party was shrilling. "Did we frighten you?" "Out of an absorbing tete-a-tete." Gloria was humorously sarcastic as she turned to Clark's companion. Her smile dropped abruptly. She gasped. "You!" she cried. "Clark was startled: 'You know Miss Ralston?'" Gloria's sullen eyes lighted with purpose even as she turned back to face Clark. "But of course," she cried gaily. "Our fathers went to school together! I've been dying to show Rita the town. That settles it. Now you must join us!" But Clark affably excused himself and Rita on ground of weariness. They said their goodbyes, but as they turned toward the door, Rita caught Gloria's black eyes on her in a glance so vibrant with hatred she felt as if she'd been struck.

Completely exhausted and puzzled, Rita relaxed against the leather seat of Clark's car, while he drove once around the park. A white moon gleamed frostily through misty clouds. The tires made a singing noise on the macadam of the drive. "Is that important business of yours going to keep you all day tomorrow?" he asked quietly. "I want to work out what I'm going to say in the morning and see Mr. Cunningham in the afternoon," she answered dreamily. "All right. But I'm picking you up for lunch." He smiled down at her slowly. "You still don't believe I'm serious, do you?" She laughed and shook her head. "Siege To Come" He pulled the car to the curb before her hotel. His voice was low. "You're facing a siege, little country girl," he said. "I haven't wanted a lot of things in my life—but I always knew what they were, and

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I couldn't help overhearing you, Mary, when you asked Jim here why they let the liquor companies use sugar to make whiskey when all the rest of us have to cut down on it. I happen to know the answer to that. You see, the fact of the matter is, the industry never has used a single pound of sugar to make whiskey. The bootleggers were the only ones who used sugar to make whiskey. On top of that, there's not a single the doorman at the curb, the cars whizzing by the street beside them—or of a limousine that passed very slowly, on the back seat of which Gloria watched them with hard flashing eyes. "She lives at Hotel Cheltenham," she said thoughtfully. Her voice was a vindictive whisper. To Be Continued

Public Renting Of Farm Lands

At the Court House door SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5th, at 10 o'clock noon—there will be rented to the highest bidder for cash, the—
JOSHUA TRIPP FARM
Located 5 1/2 miles west of Greenville, one-half mile from the Farmville Highway—42 acres under cultivation—1942 tobacco allotment, 8 acres—1942 cotton allotment, 7 1/2 acres.
HEIRS OF JOSHUA TRIPP
J. H. Harrel, Attorney.

Copyright, 1942, Conference of Alcoholic Beverage Industries, Inc., N. Y. C.

— THERE IT IS.. THE FINEST CHRISTMAS EVER, PAID FOR BY OUR CHRISTMAS CLUB!

HAVE YOU EVER HAD A "PAID-FOR" CHRISTMAS? A Christmas with enough money to pay in advance for the things you wanted to do; a Christmas free from the worry of year-end bills. If you have you were probably a member of our Christmas Club and will want to join again. If you have not you can provide the money for next Christmas by joining our new club which is now open. It's the easy way to save for Christmas, for taxes, for insurance, for an educational fund, or for any purpose where money is needed. We will welcome you as a member. Come in and join today. Plan now for the finest Christmas ever next year.

First Federal Savings & Loan Association Of Greenville
Member of Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation

Pay Esh. Wk. For 50 Wks.	Rec. Early Next Dec.
25c	$12.50
50c	$25.00
$1.00	$50.00
$2.00	$100.00
$5.00	$250.00

Crossword Puzzle

- ACROSS
1. Plays on the stage
5. Greek letter
8. Bow of a boat
12. Partially
13. Journal carbon
14. Rent
15. To an inner
16. More powerful
18. By
19. Spacious
21. Exit
22. Fresh-water
24. South American river
25. Public accommodations
26. Chilly
28. Greek ghost

AFT SPARK DAY
CAR TEPEE EGO
RUE ARISE PEN
ENTERTAINER
ELI NEMEAN
CODLINS RIDGE
ERI NETS TANS
NIS GNATS TAT
TOSE TIRE ETE
ALEMES REPOSED
LEMMAS EAR
BALUSTRADES
OWL ARECA ELL
FEER MARET AMA
RED OF STERE LOG

Solution of Saturday's Puzzle

1. Actor
2. Period of reduced prices
3. Lay out with hope of return
4. Greek portico
5. Back
6. Label
7. Vase
8. Stand for
9. Drive
10. Doctrine
11. Light opera
12. Exit
13. English letter
14. Ev-like aquatic vertebrate
15. And Latin
16. Only liquid
17. Soft drink
18. Sea lord
19. Spread to day
20. Chess
21. Famous name
22. Made over
23. Better view
24. Brains
25. Kind of cigar
26. Lohengrin's wife
27. Clubs of four
28. Tones
29. Just clear of the ground as an anchor
30. Severe pain
31. Mat
32. Mountain
33. Triumph
34. South American
35. South Indians
36. Roman house
37. Building
38. Eatable
39. Device which makes suit-able for other use
40. Sprint runners
41. Serpent
42. Jiggling salt
43. Elasticity
44. Advantage
45. Organ of hearing
46. Not sleeping
47. One who goes into evil
48. Island of the Dutch East Indies
49. Spouting hot spring
50. Agreements
51. Louisiana court decree
52. Struck
53. Earn
54. Yarn
55. Russians
56. Chinese
57. Bagodas
58. Epoch
59. Palm leaf

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11
12	13	14	15	16	17	18	19	20	21	22
23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32	33
34	35	36	37	38	39	40	41	42	43	44
45	46	47	48	49	50	51	52	53	54	55
56	57	58	59	60	61	62	63	64	65	66
67	68	69	70	71	72	73	74	75	76	77

Wide World Features

A dime out of every dollar we earn
IS OUR QUOTA FOR VICTORY WITH U. S. WAR BONDS

MANY UPSETS MARK END OF GRID SEASON

Host Team For Rose Bowl Still To Be Chosen

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
New York, Nov. 30—(AP)—The dirtiest football season of them all, complicated by the uncertainties of war, had all but run its course today, leaving coaches, players and fans convinced that the definition of armed conflict by a fellow named Sherman was a masterpiece of understatement.

In spite of an unprecedented quota of form reversal, all sections of the country have succeeded in crowning champions except the Pacific coast, where they may need another two weeks and the help of a bloodhound to find a conference titlist and a host team for the Rose Bowl game.

Although there still are a few odds and ends to be picked up elsewhere, the remainder of the country saw the screw campaign stagger to what amounted to a finish Saturday and unload what surprises it had left on an unsuspecting public.

Holy Cross, 4 to 1 underdog, crushed Boston College's previously unbeaten Eagles 55-12. Navy plied a 14-0 defeat on an Army team that was favored at 3 to 1. And Georgia, humbled by Auburn the week before, bounced back to ruin Georgia Tech's spotless record, 34-9.

All told, the day's activities added to the lineup of conference champions until now it looks like this:

Western—Ohio State.
Ivy League—Pennsylvania.
Southeastern—Georgia.
Big Three—Yale.
Southwest—Texas.

Big Six—Missouri.
Southern—William and Mary.
Missouri Valley—Tulsa.
Big Seven—Utah and Colorado (tie).

Pacific Coast—Still undecided.
Washington State lost a chance to clinch a tie for the Pacific Coast crown by playing a scoreless deadlock with Washington Saturday leaving U. C. L. A. on the inside track with four victories and one defeat. Southern California, which still has a chance for a title tie, plays Montana this week and U. C. L. A. meets Idaho in conference play. Then U. S. C. collides with the Uclans December 12, in what looms as the deciding game.

The Pacific Coast champ, when selected, will go into the Rose Bowl January 1 against Georgia, which was invited soon after its Saturday victory, clinching the Southeastern Conference title.

Tennessee closed its season with a 19-7 triumph over Vanderbilt and was named to play in the Sugar Bowl against Tulsa, Missouri Valley champion and only major team with an all-victorious record.

With the southwest conference title tucked away, Texas has qualified for the cotton bowl and Georgia Tech has been invited as the other team. Both are expected to make their decisions today.

In Saturday's Southwest Conference games, Rice blanked Baylor 20-0, and Texas Christian whipped Southern Methodist, 14-6. The loop will close its season with SMU playing Rice Saturday, although Texas A and M has an intersectional date with Washington State the same day. Ohio State, the Big Ten champion, finished with a convincing 51-12 victory over Iowa pre-flight, which still has a game with Missouri this week. Michigan closed the Big Ten campaign by stopping Iowa 28-14. Notre Dame blanked Southern California, 19-0, and ties into Great Lakes naval this week.

Other games Saturday and William and Mary's Southern Conference champions to Oklahoma, which finished second in the Big Six when Nebraska was upset by Kansas State, 19-0, and San Francisco to Mississippi State. St. Mary's Pre-flight, whipped by Stanford, 28-13, tackles California Sunday.

The picture for the January 1 bowl games looked like this today (won-lost-ties recorded in parentheses):

Rose Bowl at Pasadena—Georgia (10-1-0) vs. Pacific Coast champion.

Sugar Bowl at New Orleans—Tulsa (10-0-0) vs. Tennessee (8-1-1).
Cotton Bowl at Dallas—Texas (8-2-0) vs. Georgia Tech (8-1-0).
Orange Bowl at Miami—Boston College (8-1-0) vs. Alabama (7-3-0).
Cora Bowl at Chicago—Holy Cross (5-4-1) vs. unnamed opponent.

Sun Bowl at El Paso, Texas—No teams selected.
Boston College, headed for the Sugar Bowl until the Holy Cross thing happened, was reported invited to the Orange Bowl along with Alabama, but there was nothing official about either bid.

The corn bowl, scheduled for Chicago's Soldier Field under the sponsorship of the Catholic Youth Organization, joined the list of post-season games yesterday with the initial invitation to Holy Cross.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
Wide World Sports Columnist

New York, Nov. 30—(AP)—Look for a tremendous turnover in football coaching before next season (if there is a next season). . . . The news that Dick Harlow of Harvard and Jack Hagerly of Georgetown had joined the navy gave a hint of what you can expect. Dartmouth's Tuss McLaughry and Syracuse's Ossie Solem both are looking for commissions and plenty of others will pursue the same search now that the season is virtually over . . . One sure thing, the army and navy doctors won't have to worry about weak hearts in any of the coaches who got through this season. . . . After scanning the latest bunch of scores, we'd hardly be surprised to see the Redskins lick the Bears 73-0 in the pro playoff.

Figure It Out
Answering Hank Wolfe's query as to whether Ray Marshall's 102-yard touchdown run for John Marshall high of Richmond was the season's longest in high school circles, a reader sends a clipping from the Jacksonville (Fla.) Times Union in which Bobby Hague of Fletcher high at Jacksonville Beach is credited with a 105-yard run from scrimmage. . . . What kind of a field do they play on there, anyway? . . . Doesn't matter, though, because Wolfe sends further word that movies proved Marshall of Marshall actually ran 110 yards, intercepting a pass right on the end line. We're sure that can't be beaten.

Monday Matinee
The Yankees donated to the armed forces 176 dozen (2,112) baseballs that were thrown back from the stands during the past baseball season. . . . Nat Fleischer, who hit the jackpot with his book on Jim Corbett, "Gentleman Jim," will be out with his 40th book within a few days. It's about commando and ranger fighting. . . . And George Barton has authored a piece for acquire about Mike Kelley—who is too big a subject for one article. . . . You can forget that story that Teets Mirabito, the Syracuse swatter, will go in for pro boxing. He's heading for a teaching career after graduation and knows he can't get there via the ring. . . . But Columbia's Paul Governall would listen to pro football offers if the marines give him time. . . . White Plains, N. Y., won't stage its usual fight card this week because of an antique show at the Westchester county center. You can make your own gag about antique shows in various other fight clubs.

Today's Guest Star
Ken Alyta, Waterbury (Conn.) Republican; Joe Falcaro, noted New York Bowler, has rolled 57 perfect 300 games. There was a time when we threatened to roll 300 57 games.

Service Dept.
Four of the five first-stringers on Oregon's famous basketball "Alleycats" are in service now that Laddy Gale has been called for active duty by the army air corps. Wally Johnson, Bobby Anet and John Dick are in the navy but Slim Wintermate still is looking for a recruiting officer who will overlook his six feet, eight inches. . . . When Pvt. Honey Melody, boxing coach at Fort Sheridan, Ill., thought he had spotted a promising light-heavyweight prospect recently, the guy turned out to be Sgt. Charles Hobday, former national A. A. U. champion who "hoped" he wouldn't be too busy to try out for the team. . . . Lieut. Nathan B. Eubank of the South Plains army flying school at Lubbock, Tex., had only two weeks to get together a football team to play the Lubbock army flying school team. He thought he had done pretty well when his team only lost 20-0. Then nearly all his players, including Bob Guide, former Vanderbilt center, were transferred to a new field. The lieutenant says he'll concentrate on basketball from now on.

Hot Coffeyville
The Coffeyville (Kas.) Junior college football team has just won the Kansas State Junior College Football championship for the third consecutive year and has a winning streak of 26 straight games. . . . No wonder we have Coffey rationing.

British-American . . .
(Continued from page one)
by armored units, indicating that the all-out Allied attack upon the naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the capital of Tunisia, might soon be forthcoming.

This account from the Axis-controlled Vichy station said the Germans had captured a height in the Tunisian mountains, taken 110 prisoners and shot down several Allied bombers over Tunis. There was no confirmation of this enemy claim. . . . Comiso airdrome on Sicily, jumping off place for much of the supplies and reinforcements the Axis

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras, railway junction in eastern Algeria Saturday night, injuring ten persons and causing some damage, the communique added. . . . The occupation of Djedeida by Allied troops was reported in an Allied communique yesterday which also said that operations in the vicinity of Mateur, another railroad junction about 25 miles south of Bizerte, were "proceeding satisfactorily." . . . By cutting the rail connections between the great naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the Allies restricted communication between the Axis forces at the two cities to a coastal highway. The road should soon be under attack by Allied artillery, however. . . . Then the British first army under Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson and American troops would be in a position to attack the two strongholds one at a time with overwhelming strength. French military men have warned, however, that a successful assault on Bizerte will be a difficult operation. . . . Meanwhile, nearly 1,000 miles to the east, the British eighth army under Gen. B. L. Montgomery was preparing for another major battle with the remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's African corps at the Agheila bottleneck in Libya. . . . Reports from this point said

Rommel was now entrenched behind fortified lines on an 85-mile long perimeter. He was reported to have received reinforcements of Italian made tanks. . . . Twenty On Death Row . . . Raleigh, Nov. 30—(AP)—Death row population at central prison reached an all-time high of 20 over the week-end with the arrival of Nard Zeb Burrage, 49, convicted in Stanly county of the first degree murder in connection with the slaying of Ola Lower. Two of the inmates are negro women. . . . Wednesday, Sept. 2, 1752, was followed by Thursday, Sept. 14, when the present calendar was adopted. . . . The biggest jump in U. S. population was in the decade, 1920-1930, with an increase of 17 million.

Hot Coffeyville
The Coffeyville (Kas.) Junior college football team has just won the Kansas State Junior College Football championship for the third consecutive year and has a winning streak of 26 straight games. . . . No wonder we have Coffey rationing.

This account from the Axis-controlled Vichy station said the Germans had captured a height in the Tunisian mountains, taken 110 prisoners and shot down several Allied bombers over Tunis. There was no confirmation of this enemy claim. . . . Comiso airdrome on Sicily, jumping off place for much of the supplies and reinforcements the Axis

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras, railway junction in eastern Algeria Saturday night, injuring ten persons and causing some damage, the communique added. . . . The occupation of Djedeida by Allied troops was reported in an Allied communique yesterday which also said that operations in the vicinity of Mateur, another railroad junction about 25 miles south of Bizerte, were "proceeding satisfactorily." . . . By cutting the rail connections between the great naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the Allies restricted communication between the Axis forces at the two cities to a coastal highway. The road should soon be under attack by Allied artillery, however. . . . Then the British first army under Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson and American troops would be in a position to attack the two strongholds one at a time with overwhelming strength. French military men have warned, however, that a successful assault on Bizerte will be a difficult operation. . . . Meanwhile, nearly 1,000 miles to the east, the British eighth army under Gen. B. L. Montgomery was preparing for another major battle with the remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's African corps at the Agheila bottleneck in Libya. . . . Reports from this point said

This account from the Axis-controlled Vichy station said the Germans had captured a height in the Tunisian mountains, taken 110 prisoners and shot down several Allied bombers over Tunis. There was no confirmation of this enemy claim. . . . Comiso airdrome on Sicily, jumping off place for much of the supplies and reinforcements the Axis

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras, railway junction in eastern Algeria Saturday night, injuring ten persons and causing some damage, the communique added. . . . The occupation of Djedeida by Allied troops was reported in an Allied communique yesterday which also said that operations in the vicinity of Mateur, another railroad junction about 25 miles south of Bizerte, were "proceeding satisfactorily." . . . By cutting the rail connections between the great naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the Allies restricted communication between the Axis forces at the two cities to a coastal highway. The road should soon be under attack by Allied artillery, however. . . . Then the British first army under Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson and American troops would be in a position to attack the two strongholds one at a time with overwhelming strength. French military men have warned, however, that a successful assault on Bizerte will be a difficult operation. . . . Meanwhile, nearly 1,000 miles to the east, the British eighth army under Gen. B. L. Montgomery was preparing for another major battle with the remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's African corps at the Agheila bottleneck in Libya. . . . Reports from this point said

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras, railway junction in eastern Algeria Saturday night, injuring ten persons and causing some damage, the communique added. . . . The occupation of Djedeida by Allied troops was reported in an Allied communique yesterday which also said that operations in the vicinity of Mateur, another railroad junction about 25 miles south of Bizerte, were "proceeding satisfactorily." . . . By cutting the rail connections between the great naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the Allies restricted communication between the Axis forces at the two cities to a coastal highway. The road should soon be under attack by Allied artillery, however. . . . Then the British first army under Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson and American troops would be in a position to attack the two strongholds one at a time with overwhelming strength. French military men have warned, however, that a successful assault on Bizerte will be a difficult operation. . . . Meanwhile, nearly 1,000 miles to the east, the British eighth army under Gen. B. L. Montgomery was preparing for another major battle with the remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's African corps at the Agheila bottleneck in Libya. . . . Reports from this point said

NIGHT COUGHS
due to colds . . . eased without "dosing".
Run on VAPORS
APPROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

Rommel was now entrenched behind fortified lines on an 85-mile long perimeter. He was reported to have received reinforcements of Italian made tanks. . . . Twenty On Death Row . . . Raleigh, Nov. 30—(AP)—Death row population at central prison reached an all-time high of 20 over the week-end with the arrival of Nard Zeb Burrage, 49, convicted in Stanly county of the first degree murder in connection with the slaying of Ola Lower. Two of the inmates are negro women. . . . Wednesday, Sept. 2, 1752, was followed by Thursday, Sept. 14, when the present calendar was adopted. . . . The biggest jump in U. S. population was in the decade, 1920-1930, with an increase of 17 million.

Hot Coffeyville
The Coffeyville (Kas.) Junior college football team has just won the Kansas State Junior College Football championship for the third consecutive year and has a winning streak of 26 straight games. . . . No wonder we have Coffey rationing.

This account from the Axis-controlled Vichy station said the Germans had captured a height in the Tunisian mountains, taken 110 prisoners and shot down several Allied bombers over Tunis. There was no confirmation of this enemy claim. . . . Comiso airdrome on Sicily, jumping off place for much of the supplies and reinforcements the Axis

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras, railway junction in eastern Algeria Saturday night, injuring ten persons and causing some damage, the communique added. . . . The occupation of Djedeida by Allied troops was reported in an Allied communique yesterday which also said that operations in the vicinity of Mateur, another railroad junction about 25 miles south of Bizerte, were "proceeding satisfactorily." . . . By cutting the rail connections between the great naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the Allies restricted communication between the Axis forces at the two cities to a coastal highway. The road should soon be under attack by Allied artillery, however. . . . Then the British first army under Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson and American troops would be in a position to attack the two strongholds one at a time with overwhelming strength. French military men have warned, however, that a successful assault on Bizerte will be a difficult operation. . . . Meanwhile, nearly 1,000 miles to the east, the British eighth army under Gen. B. L. Montgomery was preparing for another major battle with the remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's African corps at the Agheila bottleneck in Libya. . . . Reports from this point said

This account from the Axis-controlled Vichy station said the Germans had captured a height in the Tunisian mountains, taken 110 prisoners and shot down several Allied bombers over Tunis. There was no confirmation of this enemy claim. . . . Comiso airdrome on Sicily, jumping off place for much of the supplies and reinforcements the Axis

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras, railway junction in eastern Algeria Saturday night, injuring ten persons and causing some damage, the communique added. . . . The occupation of Djedeida by Allied troops was reported in an Allied communique yesterday which also said that operations in the vicinity of Mateur, another railroad junction about 25 miles south of Bizerte, were "proceeding satisfactorily." . . . By cutting the rail connections between the great naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the Allies restricted communication between the Axis forces at the two cities to a coastal highway. The road should soon be under attack by Allied artillery, however. . . . Then the British first army under Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson and American troops would be in a position to attack the two strongholds one at a time with overwhelming strength. French military men have warned, however, that a successful assault on Bizerte will be a difficult operation. . . . Meanwhile, nearly 1,000 miles to the east, the British eighth army under Gen. B. L. Montgomery was preparing for another major battle with the remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's African corps at the Agheila bottleneck in Libya. . . . Reports from this point said

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras, railway junction in eastern Algeria Saturday night, injuring ten persons and causing some damage, the communique added. . . . The occupation of Djedeida by Allied troops was reported in an Allied communique yesterday which also said that operations in the vicinity of Mateur, another railroad junction about 25 miles south of Bizerte, were "proceeding satisfactorily." . . . By cutting the rail connections between the great naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the Allies restricted communication between the Axis forces at the two cities to a coastal highway. The road should soon be under attack by Allied artillery, however. . . . Then the British first army under Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson and American troops would be in a position to attack the two strongholds one at a time with overwhelming strength. French military men have warned, however, that a successful assault on Bizerte will be a difficult operation. . . . Meanwhile, nearly 1,000 miles to the east, the British eighth army under Gen. B. L. Montgomery was preparing for another major battle with the remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's African corps at the Agheila bottleneck in Libya. . . . Reports from this point said

NIGHT COUGHS
due to colds . . . eased without "dosing".
Run on VAPORS
APPROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

Rommel was now entrenched behind fortified lines on an 85-mile long perimeter. He was reported to have received reinforcements of Italian made tanks. . . . Twenty On Death Row . . . Raleigh, Nov. 30—(AP)—Death row population at central prison reached an all-time high of 20 over the week-end with the arrival of Nard Zeb Burrage, 49, convicted in Stanly county of the first degree murder in connection with the slaying of Ola Lower. Two of the inmates are negro women. . . . Wednesday, Sept. 2, 1752, was followed by Thursday, Sept. 14, when the present calendar was adopted. . . . The biggest jump in U. S. population was in the decade, 1920-1930, with an increase of 17 million.

Hot Coffeyville
The Coffeyville (Kas.) Junior college football team has just won the Kansas State Junior College Football championship for the third consecutive year and has a winning streak of 26 straight games. . . . No wonder we have Coffey rationing.

This account from the Axis-controlled Vichy station said the Germans had captured a height in the Tunisian mountains, taken 110 prisoners and shot down several Allied bombers over Tunis. There was no confirmation of this enemy claim. . . . Comiso airdrome on Sicily, jumping off place for much of the supplies and reinforcements the Axis

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras, railway junction in eastern Algeria Saturday night, injuring ten persons and causing some damage, the communique added. . . . The occupation of Djedeida by Allied troops was reported in an Allied communique yesterday which also said that operations in the vicinity of Mateur, another railroad junction about 25 miles south of Bizerte, were "proceeding satisfactorily." . . . By cutting the rail connections between the great naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the Allies restricted communication between the Axis forces at the two cities to a coastal highway. The road should soon be under attack by Allied artillery, however. . . . Then the British first army under Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson and American troops would be in a position to attack the two strongholds one at a time with overwhelming strength. French military men have warned, however, that a successful assault on Bizerte will be a difficult operation. . . . Meanwhile, nearly 1,000 miles to the east, the British eighth army under Gen. B. L. Montgomery was preparing for another major battle with the remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's African corps at the Agheila bottleneck in Libya. . . . Reports from this point said

This account from the Axis-controlled Vichy station said the Germans had captured a height in the Tunisian mountains, taken 110 prisoners and shot down several Allied bombers over Tunis. There was no confirmation of this enemy claim. . . . Comiso airdrome on Sicily, jumping off place for much of the supplies and reinforcements the Axis

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras, railway junction in eastern Algeria Saturday night, injuring ten persons and causing some damage, the communique added. . . . The occupation of Djedeida by Allied troops was reported in an Allied communique yesterday which also said that operations in the vicinity of Mateur, another railroad junction about 25 miles south of Bizerte, were "proceeding satisfactorily." . . . By cutting the rail connections between the great naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the Allies restricted communication between the Axis forces at the two cities to a coastal highway. The road should soon be under attack by Allied artillery, however. . . . Then the British first army under Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson and American troops would be in a position to attack the two strongholds one at a time with overwhelming strength. French military men have warned, however, that a successful assault on Bizerte will be a difficult operation. . . . Meanwhile, nearly 1,000 miles to the east, the British eighth army under Gen. B. L. Montgomery was preparing for another major battle with the remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's African corps at the Agheila bottleneck in Libya. . . . Reports from this point said

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras, railway junction in eastern Algeria Saturday night, injuring ten persons and causing some damage, the communique added. . . . The occupation of Djedeida by Allied troops was reported in an Allied communique yesterday which also said that operations in the vicinity of Mateur, another railroad junction about 25 miles south of Bizerte, were "proceeding satisfactorily." . . . By cutting the rail connections between the great naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the Allies restricted communication between the Axis forces at the two cities to a coastal highway. The road should soon be under attack by Allied artillery, however. . . . Then the British first army under Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson and American troops would be in a position to attack the two strongholds one at a time with overwhelming strength. French military men have warned, however, that a successful assault on Bizerte will be a difficult operation. . . . Meanwhile, nearly 1,000 miles to the east, the British eighth army under Gen. B. L. Montgomery was preparing for another major battle with the remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's African corps at the Agheila bottleneck in Libya. . . . Reports from this point said

NIGHT COUGHS
due to colds . . . eased without "dosing".
Run on VAPORS
APPROVED BY 2 GENERATIONS

Rommel was now entrenched behind fortified lines on an 85-mile long perimeter. He was reported to have received reinforcements of Italian made tanks. . . . Twenty On Death Row . . . Raleigh, Nov. 30—(AP)—Death row population at central prison reached an all-time high of 20 over the week-end with the arrival of Nard Zeb Burrage, 49, convicted in Stanly county of the first degree murder in connection with the slaying of Ola Lower. Two of the inmates are negro women. . . . Wednesday, Sept. 2, 1752, was followed by Thursday, Sept. 14, when the present calendar was adopted. . . . The biggest jump in U. S. population was in the decade, 1920-1930, with an increase of 17 million.

Hot Coffeyville
The Coffeyville (Kas.) Junior college football team has just won the Kansas State Junior College Football championship for the third consecutive year and has a winning streak of 26 straight games. . . . No wonder we have Coffey rationing.

This account from the Axis-controlled Vichy station said the Germans had captured a height in the Tunisian mountains, taken 110 prisoners and shot down several Allied bombers over Tunis. There was no confirmation of this enemy claim. . . . Comiso airdrome on Sicily, jumping off place for much of the supplies and reinforcements the Axis

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras, railway junction in eastern Algeria Saturday night, injuring ten persons and causing some damage, the communique added. . . . The occupation of Djedeida by Allied troops was reported in an Allied communique yesterday which also said that operations in the vicinity of Mateur, another railroad junction about 25 miles south of Bizerte, were "proceeding satisfactorily." . . . By cutting the rail connections between the great naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the Allies restricted communication between the Axis forces at the two cities to a coastal highway. The road should soon be under attack by Allied artillery, however. . . . Then the British first army under Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson and American troops would be in a position to attack the two strongholds one at a time with overwhelming strength. French military men have warned, however, that a successful assault on Bizerte will be a difficult operation. . . . Meanwhile, nearly 1,000 miles to the east, the British eighth army under Gen. B. L. Montgomery was preparing for another major battle with the remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's African corps at the Agheila bottleneck in Libya. . . . Reports from this point said

This account from the Axis-controlled Vichy station said the Germans had captured a height in the Tunisian mountains, taken 110 prisoners and shot down several Allied bombers over Tunis. There was no confirmation of this enemy claim. . . . Comiso airdrome on Sicily, jumping off place for much of the supplies and reinforcements the Axis

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras, railway junction in eastern Algeria Saturday night, injuring ten persons and causing some damage, the communique added. . . . The occupation of Djedeida by Allied troops was reported in an Allied communique yesterday which also said that operations in the vicinity of Mateur, another railroad junction about 25 miles south of Bizerte, were "proceeding satisfactorily." . . . By cutting the rail connections between the great naval base at Bizerte and Tunis, the Allies restricted communication between the Axis forces at the two cities to a coastal highway. The road should soon be under attack by Allied artillery, however. . . . Then the British first army under Lieut.-Gen. Kenneth A. N. Anderson and American troops would be in a position to attack the two strongholds one at a time with overwhelming strength. French military men have warned, however, that a successful assault on Bizerte will be a difficult operation. . . . Meanwhile, nearly 1,000 miles to the east, the British eighth army under Gen. B. L. Montgomery was preparing for another major battle with the remnants of Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's African corps at the Agheila bottleneck in Libya. . . . Reports from this point said

has been sending into Tunisia, again was the target of the R.A.F. Two waves of bombers struck there. . . . In Tunisia British airmen pounced on two trains bearing enemy supplies and troops and both were shot up effectively. A steamer was badly damaged off the coast. . . . The electric station and Moles were hit and set afire in a Saturday night R.A.F. raid on Tripoli and more direct hits were scored in daylight Sunday. One merchant ship in port and quays were left afire. . . . The fighting for the last toehold on the Axis in Tunisia apparently was growing in intensity in the Bizerte-Tunis area and the Paris radio reported that fighting also was in progress near Sousse, on the coastal road some 70 miles southwest of Tunis. . . . French troops under Gen. Henri Giraud had been reported active in this region earlier, apparently in an effort to prevent Axis forces in Tripoli from reaching the German and Italian strongholds at Bizerte and Tunis. . . . The Morocco radio broadcast a communique today which said "operations continued to develop according to plan." . . . "In collaboration with our Allies, our troops have increased considerably their advance eastward," the communique said. . . . Axis planes raided Souks Ahras,

WANTS

Rates 1 1/2¢ per word, minimum charge 25¢ for 25 words, one insertion; six insertions $1.25; one month $7.00. Indented lines known as classified display, or larger than regular size type, double price.

Other than to business houses having regular accounts with us, no want ads will be charged. Send or bring cash with order. To prevent errors, want ads will not be taken over the telephone.

Frank
CITY PLUMBING CO.

OUR MEMBERS HAVE THE privilege of selecting the Funeral Director of their choice. If you do not have this feature, join with us. Elivanger Mutual Funeral Association, 1212 Dickinson Ave. 18-1f

FOR SALE AT AUCTION—THE household and kitchen furniture of Mrs. Maggie Whitfield Bullock, Tuesday, Dec. 10, 10 a. m., at 1317 Fourteenth and Washington streets. Mrs. L. O. Rison, Administrator. Nov. 11-18-24-27-30

FOR RENT—5-ROOM DWELLING 2 1/2 miles east of Greenville. Good location, electric lights. Immediate possession. Apply to A. M. Moseley. 24-eod-1f

FARM FOR SALE—IN BLOUNT'S Creek section in Beaufort County, on hard-surfaced road. Ninety acres, two tracts, plenty wood, two small dwellings, two tobacco barns, forty acres cleared, 65 tobacco allotment. Sale price $5,500.00, half cash, balance on yearly terms. J. C. Crow, Washington, North Carolina. 27-eod-3f

FOR RENT—MY HOUSE ON ELM street, which will be vacant December 1. J. C. Waldrop. 24-1f

FOR RENT—TWO ONE-HORSE crops or one 2-horse crop. George H. Clapp. 28-6f

Visit the Shell Shoe Clinic and get relief from corns, bunions, ingrown nails, and hurting feet. We get to the cause of foot troubles. Scientific shoe fitting.

Shell Shoe Clinic
217 State Bank Bldg., Greenville

WANTED—EXPERIENCED MEAT man at once. Good salary. Garris Grocery Co., corner 5th and Co-tanche Sts. 20-1f

We Clean and Press Men's Suits, Ladies' Coats—Dresses Our work must please and a trial will convince you. CAROLINA DRY CLEANERS Dial 2776—Leon Smith Prop.

FOR SALE
1.—A 14-room dwelling, East Third St., suitable for boarding house or apartments.
2.—Duplex dwelling on Chestnut Street. Good investment.
3.—A 14-room dwelling in business district. Suitable for boarding house now and excellent business property after the war.
4.—A three-apartment dwelling—West Greenville. Excellent buy. Will pay better than 10 per cent on investment at present rental.
5.—An 8-room dwelling in Grimesland now occupied by colored. Will pay about 10 per cent on investment at present rental.

See these today. Call J. B. Oakley and Son, Proctor Hotel Building, Greenville, N. C. Dial 3728. Insurance and Real Estate. 24-6f

WATCH OUR LADIES' SHOE window for outstanding bargains in suede and suede combination shoes. Prices $1.94 to $3.95. Blount-Harvey Co. 5-1f

FOR SALE OR RENT—9,000 acres Ravenswood Plantation, near New Bern, N. C.—600 acres in cultivation; 400 additional acres easily taken in with tractors. No better land in the South. Splendid hunting reservation. Fine growth young timber. Communicate, T. A. Uzzell, Gaston Hotel, New Bern, N. C. 25-6f

FOR RENT—ONE UPSTAIRS furnished apartment. Mrs. S. M. Woolfolk, 401 Liberty St., Dial 2359. 27-3f

WANTED—3-ROOM UNFURNISHED apartment, with bath—close in. Call 3687-1 after 6 p. m.

CABBAGE PLANTS FOR SALE—Early Jersey and Charleston Wakefield. J. P. Arthur, 14th St., Dial 2865. 30-6f

FOR SALE—BY PERSON ENTER-ing army—La Salle coupe. Tires and car in excellent condition. Call 3425 if interested. 30-3f

FLOWERING SHRUBS—NICE blooming size (2 ft. or more)—Forsythia, Jasmine, Cassia, Double Spirea, Kerria, Red Quince, Crepe Myrtle, Pink Deutzia, Weigela and others—50 and 75 cents each. Mrs. J. A. Jones, 805 Evans St.

LOST—SMALL BROWN AND white dog, answering to name of "Pee-Wee." Finder return to or call J. G. Clark. Dial 2065. 30-2f

FOR SALE—THURSDAY, DEC. 3, any time after 10:00 a. m., beautiful handmade and antique furniture in walnut, mahogany and cherry. Reason—leaving town. Wm. H. McHenry, North Harding St. 30-3f

FOR SALE—1941 FORD 1-3 TON Pick-up Truck. Low mileage. Call N. G. Raynor. Dial 7756 or 2340.

WANTED—USED PIANO—MUST be in good condition. Dial 2662 or write P. O. Box 419, Greenville, N. C.

LOST—GASOLINE RATION BOOK of Mrs. P. C. Kemp of Greenville, N. C. This is a "B" book. Finder please return to the Rationing Board, 119 W. 4th St., Greenville. 30-2f

LOST—GASOLINE RATION BOOK of Sylvester Armfield, Greenville, Route 1. This is an "A" book. Finder please return to Pitt County Rationing Board, 119 W. Fourth St., Greenville. 30-2f

FOR HEMSTITCHING, BUTTON-holes, and alterations, see Mrs. J. D. Pringle, Singer Sewing Machine Office, East Fifth Street, one door east of Five Points.

New York Cotton

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened unchanged to 25 cents a bale higher.
Noon values were 5 cents lower to 35 cents a bale higher. Dec. 18.59, Mch. 18.40, May 18.23.
Futures closed 25 to 85 cents a bale higher.

	Open	Close	Prv. Cl.
Dec.	18.65	18.65	18.60
Jan.	18.44	18.57	18.50
Mch.	18.33	18.47	18.33
May	18.20	18.33	18.19
July	18.11	18.26	18.09
Oct.	18.07	18.20	18.10

Middling spot 20.10, off 4.

Hog Market

Raleigh, Nov. 30.—(AP)—(NCDA)—Hog markets steady with tops of 13.10 at Richmond and 12.90 at Rocky Mount.

Poultry and Eggs

Raleigh, Nov. 30.—(AP)—(NCDA)—Egg and poultry markets steady. Raleigh—U. S. extras large (clean white) 47 to 48; colored hens 20 to 22.

Grain Market

Chicago, Nov. 30.—(AP)—Corn prices were up as much as a cent a bushel at one time today to the highest quotations for almost two months but other cereals lagged behind and wheat turned fractionally lower.
Corn closed 1/4-1/2 cent higher than Saturday, December 84 1/4-1/2. May 89 1/2-1/4; wheat 16-1/4 lower, December $1.24, May $1.20 1/4-1/2 out 1/4-1/2 down; rye 1/4-1/2 cent lower; soybeans 1/4-1/2 off.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, Nov. 30.—(AP)—There were scattered firm spots in today's stock market but leaders, on the whole, tilted slightly to the upside. The list was irregularly lower at the start and, in the final hour fractional losers predominated. Transfers were around 500,000 shares.

FINAL STOCKS

Al Chem and Dye	136
Alleghany	25 1/4
Allis Chal Mill	24 1/2
Am Roll Mill	26 1/2
Am Smelt and Ref	37 1/2
A T and T	129 1/2
Am Tob B	25 1/2
Anconda	3
Arm II	25 1/2
A O L	18 1/2
Adl Ref	3 1/2
Aviat Corp	32 1/2
Bendix Aviat	32 1/2
Beth Stl	53 1/2
Boeing Airpl	15 1/2
Borden	25 1/2
Borg Warner	21
Briggs Mfg	21
Burd Mfg	2 1/2
Bur Add Mach	37 1/2
Case J I	72
Caterpill Trac	72 1/2
Ches and O	34 1/2
Chrysler	34 1/2
Coca Cola	28 1/2
Coml Chalt	8 1/2
Consol Edis	16 1/2
Con Oil	6 1/2
Cont Can	25 1/2
Corn Prod	55 1/2
Curtiss Wright	6 1/2
Doug Air	12 1/2
Dupont	140
Eastman Kod	184
Elec Auto Lt	28 1/2
Freeport Sul	35 1/2
Gen Elec	29 1/2
Gen Foods	34 1/2
Gen Mot	40 1/2
Goodyear	22 1/2
Int Harvest	54
Int Tel and Te	7
Johns Man	6 1/2
Kennecott	27 1/2
Kroger Groc	25 1/2
Libby O F G	30
Ligg and Myers B	59
Loews	43 1/2
Lorillard	16 1/2
Louis and Nash	34 1/2
Mont Ward	6
Nash Kely	15 1/2
Nat Biscuit	15 1/2
Nat Cash Reg	18 1/2
Nat Dairy Prod	14
Nat Dist	24
N Y Cent	11 1/2
O U Elev	18
Pac Mills	17 1/2
Packard	2 1/2
Param Pix	16 1/2
Penny J C	74 1/2
Penn R R	22 1/2
Pepsi Cola	27 1/2
Phillips Pet	42 1/2
Pullman	25 1/2
Pure Oil	9 1/2
Radio	4 1/2
Reynolds B	22 1/2
Seab A L	1/2
Sears	62
Sou Ry	14
Sperry	23 1/2
Std Brands	4 1/2
Std Oil N J	43 1/2
Swift	21 1/2
Tex	34 1/2
Tex Gulf Sul	34 1/2
Un Carb	74 1/2
Unit Air	24 1/2
Unit Corp	7 1/2
Unit Drug	7 1/2
US Ind Alco	20 1/2
US Rub	24 1/2
US Smelt and Ref	43 1/2
US Steel	46 1/2
Vick Chem	33 1/2
Warner Pic	6 1/2
Western Union	25 1/2
West Elec and Mig	76 1/2
Woolworth	28 1/2
Yell T and C	12 1/2
Total Sales	472,100

Winterville Boy Aviation Cadet

Dow Waters, 23, son of Mrs. Zula Waters, Winterville, has been selected for training as a Naval aviation cadet and will be ordered to active duty shortly.

Waters graduated from Winterville High School where he played basketball and baseball. One brother, Mr. A. M. Waters, is a Staff Sergeant in the Army; a twin brother, Darwin Waters, is a Private.

When ordered to active duty Waters will report to the U. S. Navy Pre-flight School, either the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, or the University of Georgia, Athens, Georgia, for three months of physical conditioning, instruction in Naval essentials, military drill and ground school subjects. After completing this course he will be ordered to one of the Navy's numerous reserve bases for primary flight training.

OWI Warns Against Spreading Rumors

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—The Office of War Information called on every American today to help win the war "by toughening his mind and ears" to sensational rumors.

"Every American," OWI said "can help to win this war by refusing to believe or repeat sensational stories which are not carried by the newspapers or over the radio. Every American can fight the enemy by refusing to spread suspicion and hate in the United States."

Ten Lose Lives In Army Plane Crash

Sioux City, Ia., Nov. 30.—(AP)—Ten men were killed today in the crash of an army plane a half mile southwest of the Sioux City air base, the post public relations office announced.

Capt. Fred Shick, post public relations officer, said all 10 men were dead when he reached the plane which he said was on a routine flight.

The crash occurred about 2:15 a. m.

Capture British Sub Crew Berlin (From German Broadcasts), Nov. 30.—(AP)—A German submarine chaser rammed a British undersea craft in the eastern Mediterranean—the former Greek submarine Triton, 714-tonner built in 1938—and captured the crew, the high command said today.

Italy Again . . .

(Continued from page one) were missing after Sunday raids on targets in France and Holland.

Two enemy fighter planes did slight damage in the coastal area of southeast England Sunday afternoon, the air and home securities ministries said, but no German aircraft were reported over Britain during the night.

The morale-shaking effect of the RAF's long sweeps against Italian cities had a promised sequel in Prime Minister Churchill's threat Sunday that unless Italy quit the war the bombers will be coming shorter distances from the Allies' newly-won African bases.

Meantime, in an attempt to hold the Italians in, it is reported that 60,000 of Germany's noted "tourists"—Nazi party disciplinarians—have been rushed into Italy.

Boston Fire . . .

(Continued from Page One) servicemen among the dead—and two representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which began its probe yesterday, reconvened today.

The death toll ranked only behind the steamship General Slocum fire of 1904 in New York's East river in which 1,021 died, Chicago's Iroquois theater fire in 1903, which claimed 602 lives, and the San Francisco earthquake and fire of 1906 in which 500 died.

Deputy Fire Chief John F. McDonough told investigating officials that he found a number of bodies, some within ten feet of a door equipped with a panic lock designed to open under pressure, but it was out of order and had been secured by another lock.

The death of many of the victims was ascribed by Medical Examiner Timothy Leary to monoxide poisoning and smoke inhalation. He said that a number were "terribly burned" after death.

The stampered for the exits began, fire officials said, when a girl detecting a thin wisp of smoke curling along the walls, shouted "fire," and within seconds the crowd broke for the doorways.

The wrecked stucco building resembled a huge brick oven after the flames had been extinguished, with hardly a scorched spot on the outside walls and roof, but with the interior a mass of debris.

Among notables who escaped from the inferno were Charles (Buck) Jones, Van Nuys, Calif., cowboy star of the motion pictures, who was critically burned, and Scot Dunlap also of Van Nuys, motion picture producer, who was injured and among those hospitalized.

Other widely known persons who either perished or were injured include: Edward Ansin, Brookline, Mass., president of the Interstate Theater corporation and treasurer of a Boston textile firm, dead; Robert Beverly Charles, 26, Winchester, Mass., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Charles of Oak Park, Ill., and eastern manager of a Chicago candy company, dead; Joseph A. Boratyn, star fullback of the Holy Cross football team a year ago, dead; Dr. Gordon Bennett, of Swampscott, captain of the 1937 Dartmouth football team.

Helen Welch, daughter of Vincent S. Welch of Port Washington, N. Y., vice president of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, dead; Mary Ellen McCormack, niece of U. S. Rep. John W. McCormack, missing; Grace McDermott, New York, entertainer at the club-known under the stage name of "Vaughn," dead; Katherine Woods, 22, daughter of Carl Woods, Boston manufacturer president of the Crosby Steam Gauge Company, dead.

Hull Expects . . .

(Continued from page one) The secretary praised Prime Minister Churchill's Sunday speech as a magnificent presentation of several of the most vital phases of the general military and international situation. He said he had listened to it with the greatest interest and satisfaction.

Asked about reports that the Japanese had arrested some 200 of the Americans interned at Shanghai, Hull replied he understood the Japanese had arrested some there and elsewhere. He added that this government had been giving constant attention to the problem of exchanging Americans still in Japanese hands for Japanese nationals held here.

Allied Gains . . .

(Continued from Page One) Day and U. S. fighters strafed enemy anti-aircraft installations on the island.

Washington, Nov. 30.—(AP)—American ground patrols on Guadalcanal island in the Solomons have destroyed "a considerable amount of enemy arms and ammunition," the navy announced today, while army bombers ranging north of the island have heavily damaged a Japanese cargo ship and shot down three Zero fighters.

A navy communique said that both the land actions and the aerial attack on an enemy convoy were carried out November 28, Guadalca-

TODAY AT THE MOVIES

Pitt—PARACHUTE NURSE—Margaret Chapman, K. Harris

State—WEST OF THE LAW— Buck Jones and Tim McCoy.

nal time.

The patrols scored their successes in the upper Lunga river region. The Lunga river runs through the American-held territory around the airfield on the northern edge of the island so that the damage inflicted on the Japs was south of the American flank in the hill country of the island.

The cargo ship which was hit by five bombs dropped from army Flying Fortresses was part of a convoy which consisted of two cargo vessels and three destroyers.

Ten Zeros tried to protect the convoy from attack and in destroying three of them the Fortresses, the navy said, "received no serious damage."

This was the latest of a series of actions in the area of the New Georgia islands, which lie about 180 miles northwest of Guadalcanal in the central Solomons.

PITT
Starts TUESDAY
Funniest Henry Aldrich
Hit you've ever howled at—
HENRY ALDRICH
EDITOR
with Jimmy Lydon

STATE
TUESDAY
Zane Grey's
Thrilling Story
"LONE STAR RANGER"
with
JOHN KIMBROUGH
Plus
"Capt. Midnight" No. 13
3 STOOGES COMEDY
"Even As I. O. U."

What We Have Must Do The Job

Bus Schedule Changes Effective December 1

Under the steadily increasing demands of America's war program, travel as usual has become impossible. New schedule changes are being made to effect still greater conservation of precious rubber in order that what we have may do the job.

Buses to and from nearly all points served by Carolina Trailways will be operated on new war time schedules, starting December 1. Operating speeds will be reduced still further and many peace-time features will have to be discontinued until the war clouds roll by.

Get complete information about new departure and arrival times from your nearest Trailways station. Please make plans for your necessary trips as far in advance as possible. Take only vital trips and carry a minimum of luggage.

We hope these war time changes will not cause you inconvenience or great delay. If they should, please remember we have a war to win and what we have must do the job. This can't be done unless we conserve rubber for use by our armed forces.

CAROLINA TRAILWAYS

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Refrigerators are out for the duration. Manufacturers have now tooled their plants for production of war materials. Common-sense-folk, however, are saving now, not spending, and building up a fund for purchase of refrigerators and other domestic needs through investment in U. S. War Bonds.

Your Money put into War Bonds today will bring you back $4 for $3 at maturity. So start saving for those domestic needs when you will be permitted to buy them. Join the Payroll Savings Plan at your office or factory and let's all "Top that Ten Percent by New Year's."

U. S. Treasury Department

THIS IS BANK'S UNSAFE!

Invest your money in United States WAR BONDS AND STAMPS!

HEADACHE from Anxiety

After hours of anxiety, a headache is the last straw. But it quickly yields to Capudine, which also soothes nerves and relieves the pain. Capudine is a liquid. No waiting for it to dissolve before or after taking. So it's really quick. Use only as directed. 10c, 50c, 60c.

CAPUDINE

It's Not Too Early To Shop Early!

—for—
Christmas

Of All Years — We Advise To Buy Early This Christmas! Our Stock Is Now Complete but Merchandise Is Difficult To Get

Listed here are just a few of the items we have:

- Goy, Winthrop Secretaries
- Lane Cedar Chest ● Karpén Sofa
- Odd Chairs ● End Tables
- White Knight Mattresses
- Karpén President Mattresses
- Coffee Tables ● Book Cases
- Boudoir, Table, Floor Lamps
- Bridge Tables ● Smoking Stands
- Pictures ● Mirrors ● Rugs

Quinn-Miller & Stroud
500 Cotanche St.
Dial 2636