Claim Recapture Of Two Towns In Russian Fighting

German Claims Of Retaking Two Donets Basin Towns Not Conceded By Soviets; Communiqué Tells Only of Continuing Struggle On Front

London, March 1 (AP)—A desperate German effort to stave off further disasters in Russia apparently has checked the forces of Gen. N. F. Vatutin in the Donets Basin, but the Russians reported today the Red Army was continuing to grind forward west of Kharkov toward the rail junction of Poltava and the Dnieper river.

The Russian midnight communiqué did not concede the German claim that Kramatorsk and Loozova, south of Kharkov, had been recaptured by the Germans, but it did say the Germans were counter-attacking furiously and "hastily bringing up fresh troops and throwing them into action."

The German communiqué, as broadcast by the Berlin radio, said Kramatorsk and Loozova were taken by storm and "particularly high losses in men and material were inflicted on the enemy." Some units of the Russian army have been enveloped and are "gradually being destroyed," the German communiqué said.

The Russian communiqué, issued hours later and recorded by the Soviet Monitor in London, said that in the Kramatorsk area, about 60 miles east of Loozova, Russian forces were engaged in repelling serious counterattacks by enemy tank and mobile infantry.

In one sector, the Soviet communiqué said, "five consecutive counterattacks were repelled and eight enemy tanks were destroyed."

MacArthur Says Enemy Is Massing Strong Forces

By The Associated Press

The United Nations were put on notice by Gen. Douglas MacArthur today that the Japanese, who for months have not attempted any large-scale offensive enterprise, are concentrating their main strength in the ring of islands stretching for 2,000 miles or more to the north of Australia.

This announcement was supplemented by a headquarters spokesman who said the Japanese preparations might be either for defense or offense, and was matched by a statement by Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander in chief of the United States Pacific Fleet, indicating that the U. S. Navy might have some cards up its sleeve.

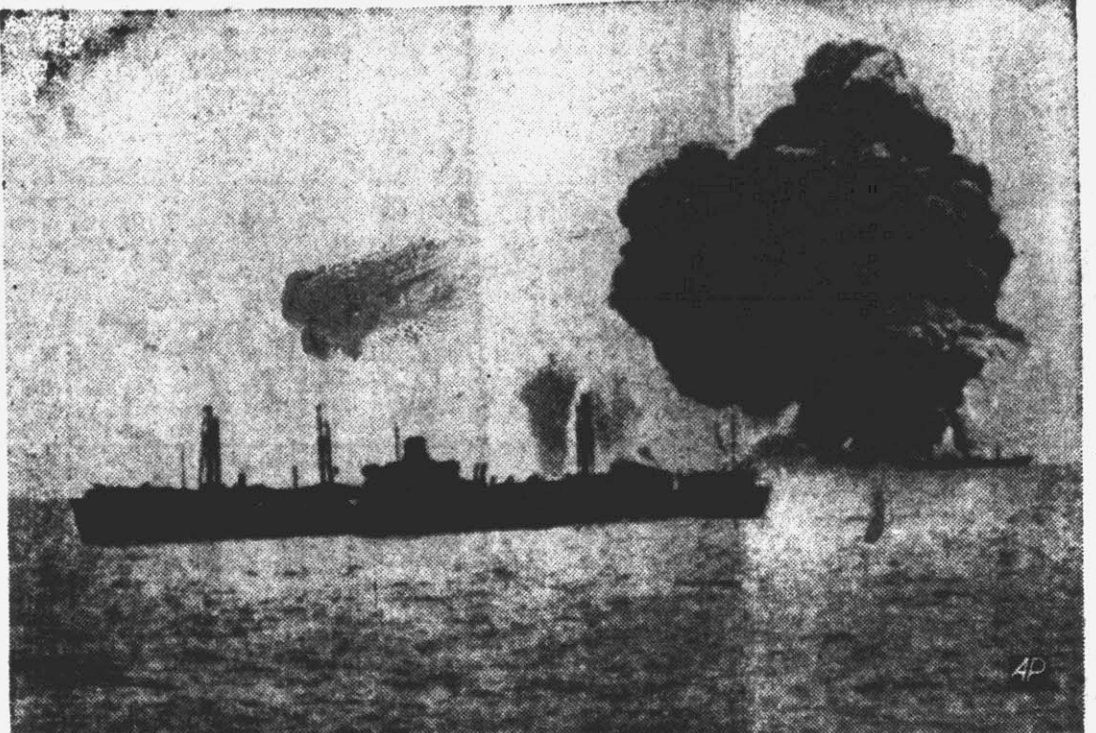

This statement was taken in some quarters as a hint that the Navy was aimed ready for some offensive action aimed eventually at bringing not only American air power, but American artillery, within range of the Japanese homeland.

The warning of Gen. MacArthur followed repeated statements in recent months by Premier John Curtin of Australia that the southwest Pacific area is still a crucial battle ground.

U. S. BENEFITS IN LEND LEASE

Cost Of Maintaining Overseas Army Is Very Small

Washington, March 1—(AP)—E. R. Stettinius, Jr., told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee today that lend lease shipments of agricultural products to other countries are not responsible for any food shortage in the United States.

Urging continuance of the program, the lend-lease administrator testified that food shipments under his direction totaled only 6 per cent in dollar value of American farm production last year. He added, however, that he expects such shipments to double during 1943.

He said that while lend lease shipped 18,000,000 pounds of beef in 1942, this country received 25,000,000 pounds from other countries. He cited the rate of shipment of other critical food items observing:

Lanier Urges Support For Anti-Politics Bill

Declares Measure Will Keep Liquor Out Of Politics; Pitt House Members Divided On Issue

Declaring that the purpose of his anti-politics measure for ABC officials and employees in Pitt county is an effort to keep the liquor business out of politics, Senator J. C. Lanier today urged citizens of the county to contact the county's two members of the House and urge that the measure be given favorable action.

Senator Lanier's signed appeal addressed to the citizens of Pitt county follows:

"Several days ago I introduced in the State Senate a bill which prohibits employees and officials of the Pitt County A. B. C. Board from actively engaging in political campaigns in this county. The purpose of the bill is to prevent the use of liquor profits and liquor influence in Pitt county politics, and to keep the A. B. C. set-up in this county strictly non-partisan and out of politics. It is not aimed at any person or persons. It does not seek to change the personnel of the A. B. C. Board and it does not interfere with the legal functions of the Board. It merely provides that people engaged in the handling of legal liquor in this county must not use their power for and against any candidate for public office. In short, it takes liquor out of politics. It is a good bill."

PASS TEXTILE SCHOOL BILL

Funds Allocated For Project At Belmont

Raleigh, March 1—(AP)—Senator Gregg Cherry of Gaston succeeded today in obtaining Senate passage of his bill to allocate an extra $75,000 for completion of a vocational textile school at Belmont.

The only opposition came from Senator Lanier of Pitt, who contended that the state had fulfilled its obligation to the school, and that enough money had been spent there.

Cherry replied, however, that if more machinery was not placed in the school within 90 days, the federal government would transfer $35,000 worth of machinery it placed there to some school already in operation. When the school was projected two years ago, he said, the state expected to obtain machinery from North Carolina mills but the war created such demands that the machinery now cannot be spared by the mills.

Rommel Makes Gain Of Three Miles In Face of Heavy Allied Air And Ground Support; Allies Claim Great Losses Inflicted On Germans

By WES GALLAGHER

Allied headquarters in North Africa, March 1 (AP)—Axis attacks toward Beja, in northern Tunisia, were disclosed today to have progressed three miles beyond Sidi Nsir, which is 18 miles northeast of Beja and 40 miles west of Tunis, despite great losses inflicted by Allied ground and air forces.

This disclosure came shortly after an Allied headquarters communiqué announced that enemy attacks in the north generally were on a reduced scale but that northeast of Beja the Axis threw in tanks and infantry all day in an effort to pierce Allied positions. Bad weather restricted operations in the south. Flying Fortresses carried out one of the heaviest raids of the campaign on Cagliari, Axis supply port, where four ships were reported hit.

Christian Science Service.

"Christ Jesus" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches and Societies on Sunday, February 28.

The Golden Text was from Hebrews 12:8: "Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and for ever."

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is risen, as he said" (Matt. 28:5, 6).

The Lesson-Sermon also included

Our Raleigh Letter.

The pay of the legislators ends with the close of this week, but the present session of the General Assembly will not come to a close before the middle or latter part of next week. If all the business that demands its attention is attended to and it will be provided a quorum the sessions can be kept here on no pay for a few days. The average legislator gets mighty "home-sick" about the time his pay stops, though of course, there are many unselfish and patriotic members of every legislature who are willing to remain as long as they are actually needed.

The following passage from the Christian Science text-book "Science and Health" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The real man being linked by Science to his Maker, mortals need only turn from sin and lose sight of mortal selfhood to find Christ, the real man and his relation to God, and to recognize the divine sonship" (On page 316).

O. E. S. Meeting.

At the regular meeting of Greenville Chapter No. 149 Order of Eastern Stars, on Tuesday evening, February 16, Mrs. O. C. Stroud, Sr., of Ayden, District Deputy Grand Matron of Second District, paid her official visit to the Chapter. She made an inspirational and instructive address on the real work of Eastern Stars in the days we are now living to the large number of members and several visiting members of Ayden and Wilson Chapters.

A gift of war saving stamps was presented the D.D.G.M., from the Greenville Chapter.

The patriotic program for war mothers which followed was beautiful. Corsages of red carnations with red, white and blue ribbon were presented to the wives and mothers present, of the twenty-three boys now in the armed forces of our country. Judge J. Frank Harrington, D.D.G. Patron of Second District, gave a challenge to all who stay at home to do more war work than ever before.

Mrs. C. T. Munford and Mrs. Mattie Holton of Ayden, made fine patriotic talks and Mrs. P. E. Wells read a letter from a soldier and a mother's tribute to her sons in service. Mrs. Blanche Jackson, the wife of a soldier, who teaches in Winterville and is the daughter of Mrs. Clyde Weldon, of Henderson, D.D.G.M., of Fourth District, expressed her delight in being present.

During the social hour at the close of the meeting delicious refreshments were served.

Physical Fitness.

"During these days of stress the health problems of the military and civilian population are inseparable. Total defense demands manpower. The full energy of every American is needed."

Whether or not each one of us is able to contribute his full share in our united drive for national strength will depend, in no small measure, on the health and stamina he has built up. With this idea in mind your library has for your use, the following books to help you become more "physically fit."

Heiser — Toughen Up America! — An inspirational treatise on the needs and methods for getting fit. Deals in a popular manner with foods, germs, sleep, exercise, and a variety of health habits. Contains a description of ten body building exercises.

Bogert — Nutrition and Physical Fitness — A guide to health building through nutrition.

Bogert — Vitamins. What They Are and How They Benefit You — What each of the vitamins does in the prevention of disease and the maintenance of health.

Pattee — Vitamins and Minerals For Everyone — a convenient, well-arranged book, written partly in question and answer form.

Rose — Feeding The Family — A consideration of individual and family needs and practical ways of meeting them.

Mason — Active Games and Contests — Exercises and games for young and old.

Nye — Lady Be Fit! — A popular book which gives a clear statement of the personal problem of physical fitness which faces many citizens. It includes exercises and advice for energy, efficiency, and lasting health.

Garden For Victory

Victory Gardens in various stages are appearing in many sections of Greenville. Some are just being prepared, others show the first green of new seedlings and a few grown by experienced gardeners have lettuce, spinach and other vegetables well advanced.

Some good citizens are willing to have their vacant lots used for Victory Gardens and responsible persons needing garden space should call Mrs. J. N. Hart to find out what places are available.

The Department of Agriculture says a space of approximately 1-10 acre for each member of the family will provide an abundant supply of vegetables. This is about 4000 sq. ft. and since most of us hope to buy part of our vegetables either fresh or canned we shall probably establish in excess of what is to be not plan for the maximum space. This year many fertilizers are not available for amateur gardeners, but there is a mixture called Victory Garden Special which is planned especially for home gardeners. Use well rotted stable manure if you can secure it.

From March 1 to March 15, plant the following: tendergreen and mustard, cabbage plants, onion sets, kale, garden peas, lettuce, beets, carrots, turnips, also New Zealand spinach and radishes.

Make two or more plantings at intervals of two to four weeks in order to have a longer season of vegetables at their best.

For detailed suggestions as to cultivation, varieties of plant and other information, secure one of the new bulletins provided by the Dept. of Agriculture and use it. You may have one without cost by requesting it at the office of the Farm Demonstration Agent.

Four "Musts" of a Victory Garden. Must No. I — Every family "must" produce enough vegetables to meet the family's need wherever good garden soil and other facilities are available.

Must No. II — A long season Victory Garden "must" be planned; that is, a succession of plantings of different kinds of vegetables during early spring and summer along with tomatoes, snapbeans, greens, root crops in the fall.

Must No. III — A surplus of vegetables in excess of what is to be Tomato — With resistant varieties, Rutgers, Marglobe or Pritchard. Pepper — California Wonder or Ruby King. Egg Plant — Black beauty variety.

If seed of the above vegetables have been planted in hot beds or in window boxes, the young seedlings should be transplanted to the cold-frames or tobacco beds. Cover the cold frames with tobacco cloth so as to give the tender plants protection against cold weather. Set the plants two inches apart in the coldframe or tobacco bed. When using a tobacco bed, set the plants around the edge of the bed so as to not to crowd the tobacco plants. Seed may be sown in the same way and then thin out the young seedlings if they are too thick. These can be transplanted to vacant spaces in tobacco bed while the remaining plants will develop a good root system.

FINLAND WILL CONTINUE WAR

President Says No End Of Conflict Is In Sight

Helsinki, March 1—(AP)—President Risto Ryti declared at his inauguration for a second term today that "we cannot see any signs of an end to the war" and called upon Finland to continue every effort in the fight which she has waged for 20 months as a partner for Germany.

His statement, made before Parliament, followed recent rulings from United Nations and neutral sources that Finland was ready for a separate peace.

London, March 1—(AP)—A Helsinki radio broadcast said that President Risto Ryti of Finland declared in a speech at his inauguration for a second term today that "the war will be continued and demands complete attention."

The statement that Finland would continue to fight, following recurring rumors that she wished to drop out of the conflict, appeared to be part of a Europe-wide campaign to seal cracks in Axis solidarity and to muster all available strength to meet military threats from the east and the west.

President Ryti asked his ministers to carry on until he could form a new government, a Helsinki dispatch broadcast by the Berlin radio said.

The Finnish radio reported last night that the Agrarian party, Finland's second largest, was demanding the creation of a new all-party government "with the main task of ending Finland's defensive war."

However a Berlin broadcast at the same time was predicting that "surprising developments" would follow the inauguration of Ryti.

Present in Helsinki for policy conferences attending the formation of the government were former Premier Toivo Kivimaki, Finnish minister to Berlin, and Georg Gripenburg, Finnish minister to the Vatican.

Each has been mentioned as a possible candidate for the cabinet. Kivimaki for premier and Gripenburg for foreign minister.

Archibald A. Williamson, 53, well known insurance man and agent here for the Home Security Life Insurance Company for the past 18 years, who died at Pitt General Hospital Saturday, was buried in Greenwood Cemetery Sunday afternoon at 3:30. After this they lived in Rocky Mount for 14 years. They moved to Greenville in 1928. For the past 16 years he was agent for the Home Security Life Insurance Company. He was a member of Immanuel Baptist Church.

Quiet Saturday And Weekend Greenville

By CHESTER WALSH
The last weekend of February, 1943, was the quietest in a generation, according to police and sheriff's officers. Fewer arrests were made during the period than in a generation. Only one drunk was "towed" into the police station. Shoppers were out in abundance during Saturday and in the early evening, but rapidly faded away after dark.

Downtown Greenville along Evans Street and down Dickinson Avenue to the railroad — was ominously quiet Saturday night. There were very few persons in stores after 8:30. For lack of gasoline transportation it appears that shoppers do their buying and "head for home early." Last Saturday night there was marked contrast between the crowds in the shopping section of Greenville and a few months ago.

At midnight "all was quiet" along the "avenue," and that's from Third and Evans Street and down Dickinson Avenue at the railroad. An interesting comment picked up on a weekend journey in town was, "The war is influencing people to stay at home and to go to bed early."

Give Bicycle And Automobile Quotas

Raleigh, March 1—A passenger automobile quota of 630 for March has been given the 52 counties in the Raleigh OPA district, it was announced today by Theodore S. Johnson, state OPA director.

The new adult bicycle quota for March for the same area is 1,217. The totals are considerably lower than those for February. During the latter month, the 52-counties were allotted 758 automobiles and 1,767 bicycles.

The Pitt county quota for March is 50 bicycles and 19 passenger cars.

May Cancel Coupons Of Large Oil Users

Charlotte, N. C., March 1—(AP)—Large commercial and institutional users of fuel oil in the Carolinas who can convert to coal and fail to do so will have their oil rations revoked.

This was announced Saturday night by a committee of representatives of the War Production Board and the Office of Price Administration.

Arthur F. Black, priorities manager for the Carolinas district office of the WPB, said a critical scarcity of oil necessitated conversion of oil-burning facilities. Black outlined a conversation procedure in which the WPB and OPA are cooperating.

Back At Work
Washington, March 1—(AP)—President Roosevelt, recovering from an intestinal disorder, switched today from inaction to "light duty" and scheduled his first appointments since last Wednesday.

They were with Admiral William D. Leahy, his personal chief of staff, and John G. Winant, United States ambassador to England, who has just returned to this country.

Five-Pound Sugar Sacks Coming Back

Raleigh, March 1—North Carolina housewives again will buy sugar in the familiar five-pound sacks and boxes when sugar ration stamp Number 12 become valid on March 16, the State Office of Price Administration announced here today.

The five-pound ration, however, must last from March 16 through the end of May, a period of 11 weeks. Stamp 11, good for three pounds, is valid to March 15.

Double Bike Riding Illegal
Numerous reports have been made to the police about persons "double riding" bicycles in the city. A city ordinance forbids two persons riding a bicycle, unless the machine is a tandem, and they disappeared in the late nineties. The Board of Aldermen passed this ordinance as a traffic safety measure. Complaints indicated that numerous school boys and girls were allegedly violating the law, which provides a fine for each violation.

China's First Lady Extended Welcome

New York, March 1—(AP)—New York's Chinese community joined with city officials to welcome Mme. Chiang Kai-shek upon her return to New York today for a four-day visit.

As the petite wife of China's Generalissimo stepped from a special train in Pennsylvania station, she was greeted by Mayor F. H. LaGuardia and Mrs. LaGuardia. Chinese Consul General Tsune-Chi Yu and several of the mayor's aides. Mme. Chiang, wearing a deep red silk Chinese gown, a sable coat, and carrying a sable muff, was escorted to a limousine through a guard of honor formed by New York policemen. A crowd of 10,000 persons had gathered at the station to applaud.

Her arrival at the Waldorf Astoria towers was greeted by another crowd of several hundred persons.

On another sector fighting went on all day for positions in front of one inhabited locality which changed hands several times. By the end of the day Soviet troops had firmly established themselves in the inhabited locality.

The Germans left 500 dead on the field of battle in this sector and 30 tanks and a large number of other vehicles were smashed, the Russians said.

Red army troops threw back a counterattack launched by the Germans southwest of Voroshilovgrad and, pursuing the retreating Nazis, captured another populated place and took about 100 prisoners, the Soviet mid-day communique said today.

The communique, recorded by the Soviet Radio Monitor 24 hours after the Germans announced the capture of Kramatorsk and Lozovaya on the edge of the Donets basin, made no mention of the fighting in this area.

The mid-day bulletin announced, however, that the Germans had been driven from more communities west of Kharkov and Kursk and places two companies of enemy infantry were routed. War material and prisoners also were taken.

In one sector west of Kursk, the Germans counterattacked, but were repulsed and withdrew from the battlefield leaving 200 dead, it was announced. In one sector five artillery dumps and about 500 tons of French troops (1) menaced Ousseltia and (2) were cleaning out Axis pockets east of Maktar. Allied headquarters in North Africa announced Marshal Rommel's beaten German panzer divisions were breaking through Kasserine as American-British spearheads (3 and 4), pressed southward, with patrols reaching below Sbibba.

Axis Army

Hurricane fighter-bombers was described as "magnificent" and pilots reported scores of hits on six-wheeled armored cars, tanks and trucks on crowded roads in the Medjer-Bab, Bou Arada and Pont Du Fahs areas.

French resistance at Medjer-Bab, southeast of Beja, and along the Mediterranean was described as particularly stubborn.

The exact position of the Allied line remained in doubt but it was apparent from the three days of steady attack that the Germans had not been able to make a definite break in the Allied battlefront.

Even in the three-mile Beja thrust, the Germans are in danger of being cut off if the Allies continue to hold their positions behind and on each side of the enemy, which it now appears they are doing.

The main air activity of yesterday took place when "one of the largest fortress attacks of the campaign" was launched at Cagliari, an air force spokesman said.

Two waves of bombers protected by Lightning fighters were over the port and hit four ships as well as leaving large fires burning in the dockyards and striking at railway targets, hurling railroad cars into the air.

The first wave encountered no opposition but the second ran into nine Messerschmitt 109's and a group of Italian Macchi 200 fighters. Lightnings shot down one Messerschmitt and two Macchis.

In another American bombing raid, Mitchells with Lightning escorts blasted railroad bridges at La Hencha, north of Sfax, scoring direct hits.

Today's headquarters bulletin announced continued Allied advances in last week's battle area centering on the Kasserine Pass.

TEAMS READY FOR CONTEST

Sonja Henie May Attend Meet In Raleigh Thursday

By WOODROW PRICE
Raleigh, March 1 (AP)—The eight leading teams of the Southern Conference plunged briskly today into preparations for the 22nd annual basketball tournament, and the business office reported that tickets for the seven-game series were selling rapidly, despite wartime travel restrictions.

There was a possibility that Sonja Henie, ice skating star, might attend the tournament, which begins here Thursday, and present individual and team trophies after the championship game Saturday night. Governor J. M. Broughton invited the actress and her husband, Lieut. Dan Topping of Camp Lejeune, the Marine base at New River, to be the guests of himself and the city of Raleigh during the last two days of the tourney.

Meanwhile, the conference basketball committee, which made the seedings and drew up the pairings yesterday, announced that the same officials who called the past five tournaments have been selected to work the 1943 games.

They are the veterans Footsie Knight of Durham, Paul Menton of Baltimore, Md., and Gummy Proctor of Richmond, Va. Proctor has been coaching at Washington and Lee this year.

Duke's Blue Devils, who are leading the conference with 12 victories in 13 games, were seeded number one and will meet seventh-place Virginia Military Institute in the first round.

Seeded number two were the Colonials of George Washington, who were matched with William and Mary's Indians in the first round. The Indians are one of the two conference teams that defeated George Washington this year, but they have since been drained of manpower by Uncle Sam's military requirements. Glenn Knox, William and Mary's star, was one of the players called to the service.

Duke was the other team which conquered the Colonials.

Family battles round out the first day's games. The Citadel and South Carolina play, and N. C. State meets Davidson.

South Carolina and the Citadel are in the same bracket with Duke and V.M.I., while N. C. State and Davidson are bracketed with George Washington and William and Mary.

The Colonial-Indian contest is the first on the schedule. It will be played at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Willis Zemer, tournament business manager, said that advance sales of tickets were satisfactory, especially to out-of-town buyers.

Glad To Get Home Again

Barney Ross, former boxing champion, clearly shows how he feels about getting back to America after a stay on Guadalcanal, and proclaiming it the "best in the world." Ross drops down and kisses the soil after his ship docked at San Diego. Ross said as he prepared to kneel for his solemn act: "This, I vowed to do if ever I saw American soil again. Sometimes out there we're not sure we shall." Ross, 22, was recommended for a decoration after an act of bravery on Guadalcanal during which he was wounded in the knee and arm. Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, March 1 (AP)—Our old friend, Mr. Reliable Source, passes around the tip that Southern California is cancelling its football game with Notre Dame, scheduled for next fall, and that Stanford probably will follow suit. Reason is transportation, and all hands likely will book service teams to fill the gaps in the schedules. There'll be a lot more of that before September and our idea is that most colleges not only will depend on freshmen for players but will be playing typical freshman team schedules. The question now arises how many kids almost 18 years old will think it worth while to go to college for one season unless some good inducements are offered?

COAST GUARD WINS AGAIN

Defeat Phantoms 52-43 In Saturday Night's Game

Saturday night in the high school gym the Elizabeth City Coast Guard five defeated the GHS Phantoms for the second time 52-43.

The Phantoms took the hardwood very determined to avenge their loss to the Coast Guard five the night before when they were defeated by two points. The Phantoms grabbed an early lead in the game and held it without much trouble. At the half it appeared that the Phantoms had a safe lead with the score of 28-19.

At the beginning of the third quarter the Coast Guard quit buckled down and allowed the Green Wave only four points. The Coast Guardsmen began dropping in the goals and rang up 42 points in the second half while the Phantoms could chalk up only 15 mark.

Down The Heavyweight Trail

By James J. Johnston

Jack Johnson is, I think, the greatest heavyweight champion the world has had under the Marquis of Queensberry rules stretching back to late in the nineteenth century.

In earlier stories in this series I have told about the strong points and weaknesses of all of our heavyweight kings, something about their styles and the men they fought, and how they would have fared against Joe Louis. Now I am going to tell you how I would rank them.

I have given serious consideration to their boxing skill, footwork, all-round cleverness, adeptness at feinting and avoiding punches, their strength, sportsmanship and ability to fight back when hurt.

No. 1 on my list is Johnson, because of his boxing ability, his defensive tactics and his knowledge of ringcraft. On the day he won the title he would have defeated any other fighter who ever became champion.

James J. Corbett is my choice for second, because of his unexcelled cleverness, his terrific speed, and the finest pair of legs ever possessed by a boxer. All these were his the day he beat the great John L.

Gene Tunney because of his record, his ring knowledge and his style, with which he could make his opponents do what he wanted. He brought a new science to the lovers of boxing and his two contests with Dempsey proved Tunney was right.

John L. Sullivan is No. 4. He was under 12 years a champion, meeting all comers, fighting bare knuckle contests lasting hours. He was fairly clever, a terrific puncher and possibly the strongest, toughest fighter ever to win the crown.

Joe Louis, today's champion, ranks No. 5 on my list. A skillful, aggressive, hard-puncher with dynamite in each fist, Louis would be bewildered by the dazzling speed of some of the oldtimers but he would be a thoroughly courageous battler. He proved that the night he won the title, by coming up off the floor to beat Braddock.

Jack Demsey is No. 6, although I believe Louis is no better than was Demsey the day Jack won the title. Demsey possessed a fierce fighting instinct, always in a hurry to annihilate his foes. The speed, the sickening body punches, his proven aggressiveness and strength, created terror in the hearts of his opponents.

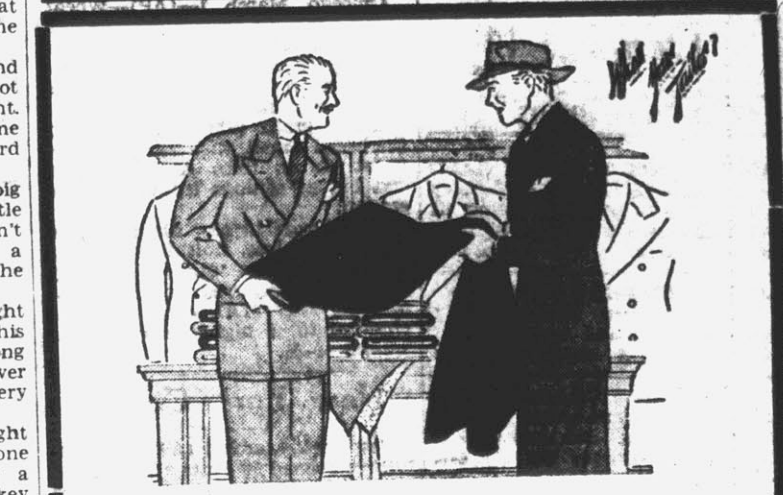

James J. Jeffries, a good fast boxer with the ability to take terrific punishment with never a sign of being hurt, is the seventh choice. He was a great fighter the day he won the title.

Morrissey of the Coast Guardsmen captured the high scoring honors of the game with 23 points. High scorer for the locals was flashy forward Syd Dunn with eight points. Futrell followed closely with seven point while Andrews and Mus-selwhite had six points each.

man the rug, too, you see. But that's about all I can say for him. He really had only a fair punch, little boxing ability, and lacked the fighting heart that so many of our champions possessed.
