Roosevelt Clamps Down On Wage And Price Threat

Government Boards Move into High Gear To Speed Compliance With Order; Workers Prohibited From Shifting Jobs For More Pay

By IRVING PERLMETER Washington, April 9 (AP)—Official Washington mobilized a small army of its rule-drafters today in an effort to speed compliance with an overnight order from President Roosevelt to hold farm prices and wages at almost rigid levels of the day.

First action came from the War Labor Board, which telegraphed its regional offices and related agencies to stop all wage increases "except those that clearly come within the 15 per cent limitation of the little steel formula."

At the Office of Price Administration officials indicated that early orders could be expected in freezing the market prices of livestock and other basic agricultural commodities.

The War Manpower Commission is under orders to prohibit workers from shifting jobs in search of higher pay, and utility commissions were warned to hold or cut rates in line with the government's policy of keeping down the cost of living.

WMC Chairman Paul V. McNutt called his aides into conference today to prepare regulations governing transfers to higher-paying jobs. Just how the commission could control hiring throughout the nation was uncertain.

Thus far, control plans have been established in only about 50 areas. Twelve of the 36 areas designated as having most acute labor shortages still have no plans in effect, but the system is being extended to new areas constantly.

The WMC can force compliance with its order by war plants by directing government contract-winning agencies to invoke penalties or cancel contracts of the disobedient. Selective Service can be used to enforce compliance in virtually all quarters, either through grant or cancellation of draft deferment.

In addition, the WMC can call upon any other government agency to use all its powers to back the WMC.

Explaining his action in a press statement, Mr. Roosevelt indicated he thought it dangerous to the nation's economy to keep arguing about particular concessions for farmers or laborers, and declared he was moved to act by the senate's failure this week to kill the Bankhead farm price bill. The bill, which Mr. Roosevelt had vetoed as inflationary, was placed in legislative cold storage when the farm bloc was unable to muster sufficient votes to override the veto.

"I am advised that weeks or months from this date the bill may be reported for consideration," Mr. Roosevelt said.

"I cannot wait to see whether the (Agriculture) Committee at some future date will again report the bill to the senate. I cannot permit a continuance of the upward spiral of prices."

At the outset he declared: "To hold the line cannot tolerate further increases in prices affecting the cost of living or further increases in general wage or salary rates except where clearly necessary." (Continued on Page Two)

Compromise Tax Plan Bill Is Introduced

Washington, April 9 (AP)—A compromise pay-as-you-go tax plan designed to put all taxpayers on a current basis by July 1 was advanced today by Representatives Newsome (D-Ala.) and Compton (R-Conn.).

The proposal by the two freshmen congressmen would re-assess levies on 1942 income on the basis of 1941 rates and exemptions and provide that the March 15 installment, already paid, and the June 15 installment be treated as payments on 1943 income.

This, they said, would exempt approximately 7,000,000 new taxpayers from any indebtedness prior to 1943 while all other taxpayers would receive an abatement equal to 45 per cent of their 1942 taxes. The remaining 55 per cent would be paid over a period of five years in equal annual installments.

Effective July 1 a 20 per cent withholding tax would be placed in effect. BUY WAR BONDS

To Get Naval Station

Wilmington, N. C., April 9 (AP)—This war-booming seaport received the news today it would get a $10,200,000 naval air station. Rep. J. Bayard Clark announced the Navy had allocated $2,000,000 for "initial developments." The Navy Department has not disclosed the location yet. It will be near Wilmington.

Wages-Prices

Washington, April 9 (AP)—Tersely summarized, President Roosevelt's "hold the line" wage and price order provides immediately for:

No general wage increase above the little steel formula except to correct sub-standard living conditions.

Ceiling prices on "all commodities affecting the cost of living."

Rolling back of prices now "unreasonably high, unfair or inequitable."

No new rises in ceilings except to the minimum extent permitted by law.

No increases in transportation, power, gas and other utility rates.

No moving of workers from one job to another to get more money.

In addition, Stabilization Director James F. Byrnes was endowed with all the anti-inflationary powers conferred on the President by the act of October 2 to permit him to act quickly, by directive, to stabilize the economy, boost production and "aid in the effective prosecution of the war."

SINK TWO SUBS IN ATLANTIC

London, April 9 (AP)—Two enemy submarines were sunk last month by the fighting French Corvette Aconit in an Atlantic convoy battle in which the relatively new British destroyer harvester was lost, the admiral announced today.

Near midnight, the 1,340-ton Harvester located a U-boat and brought her to the surface with depth charges and then rammed her, the admiral said. The submarine became jammed under the Harvester's stern and remained fast for several minutes before breaking clear.

The Corvette sighted the U-boat on the surface and engaged her with gunfire and finally rammed her amidships, sinking the raider immediately, the communique reported.

The Harvester's damage was such that she could proceed only at very slow speed, but the commander, A. A. Tait, ordered the Corvette to return to the convoy, which still was in danger of attack.

Later, the admiral said, the Harvester was forced to stop and was torpedoed and sunk while lying still.

The Aconit came back to pick up the raider's survivors and spotted another U-boat on the surface. Again the Corvette depth charged and finally rammed the second raider and sank her.

Harvester survivors had the satisfaction of seeing the second submarine go to the bottom. The Harvester was laid down in 1939.

Vegetable Crops Improving Rapidly

Washington, April 9 (AP)—The Agriculture Department had good news today for housewives who have been experiencing difficulty in getting fresh vegetables. It said vegetable crops, after undergoing heavy losses from severe frozes in Florida and other southern producing areas in late February, are now improving rapidly.

Acres that were replanted following the February frozes should come into production about the middle of April and should furnish heavy supplies about May 1, the department said.

Wheat Crop Declines

Washington, April 9 (AP)—The Agriculture Department estimated today that the 1943 winter wheat crop will yield 558,551,000 bushels, compared with 703,253,000 bushels produced last year, and a ten-year average production of 550,181,000 bushels. The estimate was based on April 1 conditions.

The indicated acre yield and total production of winter wheat, by the states were reported as: North Carolina 13.0 and 7,007,000 and South Carolina 11.0 and 3,498,000.

BOND DRIVE TO START MONDAY

Chairman Waldrop Confident County Will Reach Quota

The people of Pitt County will have the opportunity of showing that they can stand the acid test when the Second War Loan gets under way April 12, said County Chairman J. H. Waldrop today in announcing completion of plans for the beginning of the drive in this county.

The United States Treasury must raise 13 billion dollars during the Second War Loan, and a substantial part of this money must be loaned to our government by people in ordinary walks of life—you and me and the fellow next door," Mr. Waldrop declared.

In revealing that Pitt County's quota for the drive is $900,000, Mr. Waldrop expressed confidence that the quota will be reached. "I realize that is a lot of money but my conviction is that we will reach the quota is based upon the fact that I know the good people of Pitt County are not going to let our men at the fighting front down. I wish to emphasize, however, that it will be impossible for us to reach our quota unless everyone does his or her part in the purchase of war bonds during this drive," he said.

"Our men on the fighting fronts are giving their lives to preserve the lives and freedoms of those of us who remain here on the home front," he said.

Report In Sharp Conflict With U. S. Navy Version Of Solomons Action

Washington, April 9 (AP)—Four Allied vessels, including a destroyer, were sunk as a result of the heavy Japanese air attack on shipping off Guadalcanal island Wednesday, the navy reported today.

The vessels were not identified either as to name or nationality but since most of the ships operating in the southeastern Solomons are American it was presumed that most of those lost were American.

Navy communique No. 339 said: "South Pacific: (All dates are east longitude) '1. Further reports of the Japanese air attack on Allied shipping in the vicinity of Guadalcanal island on April 7 as reported in Navy Department communique 337 reveal that the following damage was suffered: (A) One destroyer damaged by bombs and later sunk while being towed. (B) One tanker sunk as a result of damage by bombs. (C) One corvette sunk as a result of damage by bombs. (D) One small fuel oil boat sunk. '2. Next of kin of all casualties will be notified by telegram as soon as possible."

Imperial Tokyo headquarters asserted today that strong Japanese naval and air forces sank an American cruiser, destroyer and 10 transports and damaged three other transports in a Wednesday attack off Guadalcanal. The Japanese claimed their losses were limited to six planes which "crash-dived into the sea."

AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

General Eisenhower seems to have given us an idea as to whether Marshal Rommel will be able to get any considerable number of his troops out of Africa and to the continent by transport and the Nazi General's chances don't look good.

Eisenhower, in a message of congratulations to his deputy, General Sir Harold Alexander, said that the army, navy and air force "are now in a position to exact the full price from the enemy confronting us in Africa." Exactness as meaning one of two things—annihilation or surrender.

Indications are the great body of Axis troops is doomed. This of course doesn't preclude the escape of some officers and men especially by air transport.

It will be well for us to recognize as General Eisenhower points out, "that great difficulties and bitter fighting still lie ahead." We may be a long way from the moment when Rommel's men will face annihilation, surrender or attempt at withdrawal.

If Rommel can join General Von Arnim in positions about Tunis and Bizerte, in the northern tip of Tunisia, it may take a lot of power to blast them out. Still, the Allies have the power and will make it effective in due course.

Reports from many quarters in Europe make it clear that the Axis has been preparing for an effort to evacuate Rommel's forces. In mid-

TO PUSH DOWN PRICE OF HOGS

Washington, April 9 (AP)—The government intends shortly it was learned authoritatively today, to roll back the market price of live hogs from current levels of nearly $16 a hundred pounds to about $14.50 and at the same time provide "support prices" to give hog producers additional payments.

Officials who asked that their names be withheld, indicated that OPA Chief Prentiss M. Brown and Food Administrator Chester C. Davis had agreed on such a program and would issue a public statement later in the day. It was understood, however, the statement merely would announce that the action would be taken soon, and the actual order was not expected today.

The action, which actually has been pending several weeks, was described as the first major result of President Roosevelt's order last night to "hold the line" on all farm prices and wages.

On Capitol Hill Brown himself said that in line with the President's order regulations now are being prepared to bring under price control wheat, cotton, fresh fish, apples and other fresh fruits as they come into season certain oil bearing seeds, milk for manufacturing purposes, and some other products.

Information About Selling Farm Meat

The Office of Price Administration at Raleigh has issued the following order about the sale of meat by farmers:

A farm slaughterer may produce all the meat he wishes for his home consumption. However, if he desires to sell some of his meat he will be required to apply to the U. S. Department of Agriculture War Board for a permit. The War Board will give him a permit number, this number must be on a card and attached to the piece of meat before it is sold. When this meat is sold the farmer is required to accept red stamps from War Book II or ration checks from the groceryman. He may sell also all the butting that he wishes provided that he collects stamps at the rate of 8 points per pound. He must turn these in at the end of each month with his report to his Local War Price and Rationing Board. The government, as far as the ration programs are concerned, is not interested in anything that the farmer raises or produces for his own use. But if he has a surplus and wants to sell these products, they are interested in that part of the products produced.

British Resume Aerial Offensive

Report Loss Of 21 Bombers In Last Night's Raid

London, April 9 (AP)—The RAF resumed the allied aerial offensive against western Europe after a lapse of three nights, attacked targets in the industrial Ruhr valley last night in a raid from which 21 bombers failed to return, the air ministry announced today.

The attack, in which some of Britain's biggest bombers participated, was described officially as "heavy," but the weather over Germany was bad and it was difficult to observe full results, a communique said.

Specific targets in the Ruhr were not disclosed. Objectives in previous raids on this oft-bombed area have included the great manufacturing centers of Essen and Duisburg.

The Ruhr was last bombed the night of April 3 when a great fleet of four-engined British warplanes unloaded a 900-ton cargo of explosives on Essen, home of the giant Krupp armament works, which was aided twice in March. Twenty-one bombers also were lost in that assault.

The anti-aircraft defenses of the Ruhr are regarded here as the strongest in Nazi-dominated Europe. According to the best information available in RAF quarters in London, more than 1,000 heavy guns are concentrated in that area, including 300 at Essen alone. For every heavy gun there are reported to be at least two light ones. More than 500 searchlights also are located there.

In addition to stalling at the Ruhr last night the RAF laid mines in enemy waters, the air ministry said.

A solitary enemy plane that took advantage of a high cloud to cross and head for London caused air raid warnings to sound in the capital before noon today, but the air force declared shortly afterward without any report of bombs dropped.

The last daylight raid on the London area was the morning of March 12, when five of a group of 24 German fighter-bombers were destroyed when they shot up and bombed the city's outskirts.

RUSSIAN FRONT APPEARS QUIET

Moscow, April 9 (AP)—The Russian-German front was generally quiet today but along some sectors there were sharp thrusts by both sides.

South of Balakleya, which is midway between Chuguev and Izum on the Donets river, the Germans again during the night attempted to assault Red Army positions but lost 200 killed and gained no ground.

This sector includes an area where the Soviet troops have a bridgehead on the Donets, and the attacks by the Nazis likely were designed at trying to smash through and clear up the western bank, but all their efforts have failed.

Within the last 24 hours the Germans have lost more than 500 men killed in the sector.

At one spot the Germans drove into the Russian positions yesterday but the Soviet troops regrouped quickly and hurled them back to (Continued on Page Six)

Bag Of Prisoners Mounts To 9,500 As British And U. S. Armies Push Popping-Up Operations; Air Formations Are Maintaining Attacks

By ROGER GREENE Associated Press War Editor Hounded by the British Eighth Army, Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's forces today were reported abandoning Mahares, only 22 miles south of Sfax, and also fleeing the rail town of Mezzouna as American armored troops gouged into the Axis "escape corridor" along the Tunisian coast.

Mezzouna lies 12 miles east of Mahares, base of the American flanking thrust, and about 20 miles from the sea. Simultaneously, another American column striking eastward from EL Guetar was declared to have captured 1,300 more prisoners.

Rommel's reported flight from Mahares marked a 70-mile retreat from the Mareth line in 11 days and a 30-mile withdrawal from EL Akarit since Tuesday.

A British broadcast said U. S. troops driving toward the sea via Mezzouna "are now reported to be little more than 20 miles from Gen. Montgomery's spearhead." This would indicate that 8th army vanguards had already passed the coastal town of Goharia.

A bulletin from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters told of mounting Allied pressure and declared that the bag of prisoners captured since the battle of Wadi EL Akarit totaled over 9,500 in the south alone.

"On the 8th army front, the enemy continued his retreat with forces in close pursuit," the communique said. In the north, the British 1st army drove on across "very difficult country and occupied important tactical localities," taking more than 400 prisoners since Wednesday. "An enemy attack supported by powerful air formations collapsed violently along the whole Tunisian front," especially in the southern sector," the Italian high command said.

"According to orders received, Axis troops are withdrawing to new positions."

Military quarters announced that Allied observers saw Axis troops heading out of Mahares yesterday. Both Mahares and Mezzouna are railway stations on the Gafsa-Sfax railway. Mahares lies 50 miles northeast of Gabes. While American and British aerial squadrons maintained assaults upon retreating Axis columns, it was announced that 130 enemy vehicles had been destroyed and 200 damaged in the past two days. "Pressed hard by the Eighth army," Rommel was growing short of motor transports to extricate his rear guards. In the Medjes-El Bab sector of Northern Tunisia the British maintained the offensive launched Wednesday on a 12-mile front. Long-range guns knocked out two enemy tanks there. Military quarters said one enemy tank was destroyed in that area, was observed yesterday under violent attack by German dive-bombers which obviously had mistaken their target. It was not ascertained how many (Continued on Page Six)

Mrs. Bettie Askew Of Farmville Died

Mrs. Bettie Belcher Askew, 66, highly esteemed Farmville woman, wife of William Askew, died early Friday morning in a Wilson hospital following an illness of several months.

Funeral services will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Joyner, in Farmville by Rev. J. R. Rountree, rector of Emmanuel Episcopal church in Farmville. Interment will be made in Hollywood cemetery.

Mrs. Askew was the daughter of the late Sherrod and Martha Joyner Belcher. She was an active church woman and among the pioneer club women of this section. She is survived by her husband, William C. Askew, two daughters, Mrs. J. W. Joyner of Farmville and Mrs. Bert McCullum of Eminence, Ky., three sons, William Horne, of the United States army, Cyril D. of Farmville and Harold Sugg Askew, of Wilson, and three grandchildren.

Christian Youth Movement to Meet

A few weeks ago representatives from several young peoples groups met and organized the Christian Youth Council. Each religious group in town was then invited to send two representatives to this council. The purpose of this organization is to solve the common problems of Christian youth through a united effort and to attempt to bring more young people to Christ. This group has been meeting weekly to plan its activities.

A larger group, composed of all of the young people of Greenville is known as the Christian Youth Movement. This organization is having its first meeting at the Methodist church, Sunday evening at 6:45. Attending one movement meeting is the only requirement for membership in the Christian Youth Movement.

All young people of Greenville are urged to attend this first program, which is to be a worship service. Interested adults, especially advisors to young peoples groups, are also cordially invited to attend. This is to be a union service, all of the groups participating in the Christian Youth Council are attending this meeting instead of their regular ones.

sary to correct standard living conditions. The only way to hold the line is to stop trying to find justifications for not holding it here or not holding it there. "No one straw may break a camel's back, but there is always a last straw. We cannot afford to take further chances in relaxing the line. We already have taken too many."

Politically, the action was interpreted as an effort to spike whipsawing demands of labor based on rising farm prices and of farmers based on rising wages. It also was regarded as the White House answer to John L. Lewis' demands for a $2 a day increase in mine wages. In directing Price Administrator Prentiss M. Brown and Food Administrator Chester C. Davis to put ceilings over farm prices, the President specified in some cases, in which prices already are above the levels of Sept. 15, 1942, that the prices are "be rolled back."

With regard to wages, the President said the regulatory agencies "Are directed to authorize no further increase in wages or salaries except such as are clearly necessary to correct standards of living, provided that nothing herein shall be construed to prevent such agencies ies from making such wage or salary readjustments as may be deemed appropriate and may not have the cost of living between Jan. 1, heretofore been made to compensate, in accordance with the little steel formula x x x for the rise in the cost of living between Jan. 1, 1942, and May 1, 1942 (15 percent.)"

THINKS PARTY BOLT IS FUTILE

Richmond Editor Speaks At University Of Georgia

Athens, Ga., April 9—(AP)—"A third party bolt by the southern Democrats in 1944 would be the height of futility," Virginia Dabney, editor of the Richmond, Va. Times-Dispatch, declared today, but "the South has been kicked around for decades and this condition is likely to continue until we become a doubtful area politically."

For the South to leave the Democratic fold in 1944 "would insure the defeat of the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, and accomplish little else," Dabney asserted in an address prepared for delivery at the University of Georgia.

"However, a greater measure of political independence for the South has been highly desirable for forty years, and the sooner that independence is manifested, the better," she added.

Dabney declared "there appears to be little likelihood that the South will go Republican next year, irrespective of whom the two parties nominate. The wrong probability is that region will be solidly Democratic."

"The present outlook is for a contest between President Roosevelt and one of the better-known Republicans, but even though an even more determined effort is made on behalf of the latter than was made for Mr. Willkie in 1940, it would be a miracle if anything came of it below the Potomac and the Ohio."

"If southern leaders can bring any concessions from either or both parties, in advance of the balloting, let them do so."

Goebbels Says War Will Tell In Time

By The Associated Press
German Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels, writing in this week's Das Reich, admitted to the German people today that Great Britain was superior psychologically now in the war because of her air attacks, but declared Germany's submarine war would tell in time.

Excerpts from his article, broadcast by the Berlin radio and recorded by the Associated Press, included the following:

"For the time being in this form of war Great Britain is superior psychologically only because the consequences of the air war could be directly seen by everyone while the consequences of the German submarine war against the British Empire would be felt by the masses of the British people after a certain time only."

"In the air war England holds Germany at the wrist but in the submarine war Germany has England at the throat. It remains to be seen who will lose breath first."

Mrs. Mary Ann Rice Died At Winterville

By The Associated Press
Mrs. Mary Ann Rice, 54, died at her home near Winterville at 11:30 o'clock Thursday night after a lingering illness.

Funeral services were held at the home at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. The officiating minister was Rev. M. A. Woodard, Free Will Baptist minister of Winterville. Burial followed in Bethany church cemetery.

Mrs. Rice was born and reared in Pamlico county. She married A. R. Rice in 1904 and had lived in Pitt county ever since. For the past eight years she had lived in the Winterville community.

Surviving are her husband, two sons, Floyd Rice of the home and Austin Rice of the St. John's community, and three daughters, Mrs. T. Clayton of Pateville, Mrs. Norma Gaskins and Mrs. E. A. Braxton of Greene county.

Society Holds Meet At Hotel Proctor

The Pitt County Medical and Dental Society held its regular monthly meeting in the Proctor hotel dining room Thursday evening, with Drs. Barrett and Johnson as hosts.

The meeting was very well attended with the following members present: Drs. Moore, Hemmingway, Ennett, Garrenton, Paul Fitzgerald, Johnson, Joe Smith, Frizzelle, Massey, Pace, Dixon, Barrett, Bonner, Brooks Schultz, Watson, Wooten, Beasley, Chas. Fitzgerald, Mewborn, Basnight, Winstead and Crisp.

After dinner the meeting was called to order by President Moore. After a brief business meeting Dr. Ennett gave the report of the health officer in which he emphasized the status of communicable diseases in the county and the occurrence of several cases of spinal meningitis. He also stressed the continued high incidence of tuberculosis in the county and the urgent need for a county sanatorium to take care of the cases not accepted by the state sanatorium.

Dr. Pace gave a paper on the treatment of fractures of the shoulder and arm which was well discussed.

Dr. Paul Fitzgerald then gave a talk on "The Trends of the Times" which called for considerable discussion.

Dr. Crisp reported a most interesting case involving a woman pregnant in a patient suffering with bilateral kidney stones with subsequent birth and apparently normal growth of the children. This was illustrated with interesting X-ray plates.

Lieut. Hinton Gets Warm Welcome Here

By CHESTER WALSH
First Lieut. Floyd Hinton of the United States Army Air Corps, who saw service in the battles against the Japanese in the Southwest Pacific since last September until coming home on sick leave, was in Greenville today, hobnobbing with friends at his Alma Mater, East Carolina Teachers' College, and others. The army flier rejoiced in being back with old friends and visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hinton at Rocky Mount. He, like others who have been in battle, had little to say about what's going on but expressed strong belief that the Americans "have what it takes" to finally get to Tokyo.

Hinton was active in sports while at ECTC. He specialized in physical education and history. He was a top-notch ball player and played ball in many parts of the country. He spent a pleasant half hour in the Reflector office with High School Coach Bo Farley and Sam Bridgers, whose son, Lieut. John David Bridgers of the U. S. Navy, has been in the Southwest Pacific more than a year. Lieut. Hinton said he visited with Lieut. Bridgers in the battle area last January.

Lewis Says Mine Problem Unchanged

New York, April 9 (AP)—John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, declared today that President Roosevelt's "hold the line" order against inflation left the problem of the mine industry unchanged, and left "the mine workers still hungry and resentful in having their demands for bread made a political pawn."

As negotiations were resumed here for a new contract in the Appalachian bituminous coal fields, which would cover 450,000 union members, Lewis issued a formal statement in which he said miners wages were "substandard."

The President's order would hold wages to the "little steel" formula, and authorize no increases except where "clearly necessary to correct substandard conditions of living."

Charles O'Neill, spokesman for the Northern Operators' negotiating committee said in a statement that the President's order confirmed the position the operators had taken throughout the wage parley. He said that wages in the mining industry were not on a substandard level and that his committee believed that facts presented at the conference proved that position.

U. S. Citizens Interned In China

Chungking, April 9—(AP)—Between 1,000 and 2,000 United States citizens are interned in a "segregation center" established by the Japanese in the premises of the Great China University in Chapei, the northern section of the naive city of Shanghai, trustworthy advice received in Chungking said today.

This was said to be the largest of several such centers the Japanese are setting up at various points in China. American women and married couples are included in this community, which has set up its own committee government to run the center as far as possible on American lines. A library has been established and special precautions taken against disease.

Although the internees still hope for early repatriation the Japanese told them to take clothing "for all seasons," the advices said.

New Medical Plan Is Put Into Effect

Through the cooperation of the Farm Security Administration and the Pitt County Medical and Dental Society, a Medical and Dental Care Plan was put into operation on April 1 for 80 Pitt County Farm families.

These families are doing their part in the wartime food program by being thoroughly aware of the importance of keeping fit. Keeping fit means more food production, saves the overburdened doctor's time and is often simply a matter of following such practices as eating enough of the right kind of food, using pure drinking water, having enough clothes for cleanliness and protection, keeping the home and farm premises clean and orderly, knowing and applying a few simple rules in home care of sickness, and injuries and eliminating safety hazards.

The Medical and Dental Care Plan aids the family in keeping fit by furnishing treatment early in illness which will often prevent more serious sickness and long drawn out disability.

The Farm Security Administration acts as sponsor for the plan and assist the family in the pay-

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

ON BEING ABLE TO WAIT
We are told in the Bible that in patience shall we possess our souls. Nothing in the world is harder than to keep one's patience amid circumstances that irritate and burden which threaten to break our spirit—through loneliness, defeat, and pain. It is hard for us to be patient with ourselves, patient with the circumstances which overwhelm us, and patient with others.

The patient person is one who can endure imperfection in himself and in others without being roused into despair or driven into frenzy. The secret of patience lies in one's willingness to wait. The patient man is willing to wait hopefully until the things he hates in himself, in the world, and in others change or at least have full opportunity to change. Sometimes we wait a long time. Richard Baxter once wrote, "The fire is not always brought out of the flint at one stroke, nor men's affection kindled at the first exhortation." Patience is that quality of heart which enable one to wait for results.

You may have grown impatient with yourself; wait confidently with the realization that moral perseverance always brings results. You may have lost your patience as circumstance after circumstance came tumbling down upon you like huge rocks rolling from a high mountain. Wait with confidence, for God has so made His universe that "everything works together for good to them that love God." "The fire is not always brought out of the flint at one stroke."

They GIVE Their Lives— You LEND Your Money!

We on the home front face one of the most personal challenges of this war to date. That challenge is whether or not we are willing to sacrifice to a sufficient extent to lend our government thirteen billion dollars within the next few weeks.

To do the job, you and I, and everyone we know, are going to have to dig down in our sock—to dig out some of those dollars we have salted away for a rainy day—as well as to take a good hunk out of this month's paycheck. This is a job that has to be done. Sure, we on the home front are feeling the pinch of war. We have gasoline rationing, food rationing, higher taxes and a lot of other little discomforts. But they are nothing compared with the agonies faced daily by our men—men from this community among them—out there on the fighting fronts of the world.

Yes, we know that this constant demand for more money out of our pockets and out of our paychecks—an increasing amount each month—is monotonous. But so is sitting in a fox-hole or lying in a slit-trench day after day, slogging through the hell of a humid jungle or that of Sahara sand.

Our sons, friends, brothers, husbands and others we know are doing that for us. They are facing something more terrible than cutting down on a few things that we once thought were es-centials to the American standard of living in order to do it, too. As Secretary Morgenthau has said: "Shall we be more tender with our dollars than with the lives of our sons?"

The Second War Loan is an order to the home front to go on a new offensive. Your dollars are the weapons in this attack. They will make possible the passing of the ammunition to those boys up there in the front lines. To win this war is going to cost more and more money—and more and more lives. But the price of freedom is high. We can not; we dare not let our fighting men down.

You can't let George do this for you. You must pitch in with your dollars. Just keep in mind those boys in the front lines. They GIVE their lives—you LEND your money! Don't wait for someone to come around and ask you to do it. Do it today—and do it until you feel worthy of them.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

Washington—Notes on a speech by Rep. Clare Boothe Luce of Connecticut (whose first name are the most misspelled in Washington today).

Mrs. Luce—"Mr. Chairman, not being a tax expert there is little I can add to the current confusion on the pending legislation."

"Note: Gosh, that's a natty gray spring suit. Wonder if it's 60 per cent all-wool. The lady certainly is setting a hair style with those little bows in her hair. Already about one out of every eight of Uncle Sam's nieces here has adopted it."

Mrs. Luce—"What was the original tax bill aimed to achieve—revenue reform, remittance, or reelection?"

"Note: What a shame to be wasting all those wax-crackers on the Congressional Record, which, as literature, is strictly permissible. Well, wh'd'ya know, that tall black-browed fellow taking his seat in the press gallery is Henry L. Luce. Come to check up on his 'Globaloney Girl'? Well, he won't be disappointed in the attention her colleagues are giving her. Congressmen are flocking back to the floor faster than LaGuardia going to a fire. They're listening, too."

Mrs. Luce—"It does not take any giant brain to figure out that however healthy Mr. Doughnut's bill may be for the state of the national exchequer, it will be dashed unhealthily for the Congressman who supports it."

"Note: That's language all your colleagues understand. Lady, but where did you get that delivery? I know, now—the theater. Clare Boothe Luce is an actress in the disguise of a Congresswoman. The way she skips from crest to crest of inflections; the absence of gestures; the soft, confidential modulation of her voice as if she were talking with you, not at you—all of it spells theater."

Mrs. Luce—"Many of you will insist that this arbitrarily to put one hundred-odd thousand taxpayers who were referring to the country's richest of whom I am one, incidentally, in a special non-favored, discriminated-against, unforgotten docthouse group is rank demagoguery."

Mr. Chairman (banging his gavel)—"The time of the gentleman from Connecticut has expired."

Mrs. Luce (jerked around as if she had been hit with pea-shooter)—"I ask unanimous consent for 2 minutes more."

"Note: Well, who would have thought it? The lady is actually nervous, that interruption caused something awfully close to stage fright."

Mrs. Luce—"Politics, they say, are made in the stomach and pocketbook—but, before this war is over, it may be our sad duty to vote for empty stomachs and emptier pocketbooks."

"Note: Well, that's that. Lady, but your '2 minutes' was typically feminine. It really was five and even then you had to drop the last two paragraphs of your speech. What's that on the face of Mr. Luce as he slips out of the gallery? If I'm not mistaken it was a fleeting grin—the kind he might allow himself if he had just launched a new successful publication."

HORSE PRAIRIE BY CLEM COLT

Chapter 4
The sheriff was standing back in the shadows coolly twirling a gun by the trigger guard. "Howdy," he said; and a wolfish grin spread apart his wide lips. "I'd an idee you'd be back again."

Jones, caught flat-footed, could do nothing but gape.
"Shallet," said Lot Deckerman, "I've been all through with you; but I was around some bucko, and I had you figured right down to the ground. It takes a smart guy to fool like, boy. I'd just as lief of been fooled in you, though—they'll put you over the road this time."

"Just a second," Jones said. "I've a cussin' acquaintance with the law myself. What're you figurin' to take me up for?"
"Plenty!" Shallet grinned. "You're a smart boy, Jones, but you can't buck the law. I could arrest you for forgin' my name to that note."

"Go right ahead, I'll laff you plumb outa court!"
But the sheriff just grinned his amused little grin. "You might, but you won't get the chance. I'm arrestin' you for horse-stealing."

"Horse stealin'! You need to have your head examined! That horse is mine, hand-raised from a colt."

"It may of been hand-raised from a elephant, but it sure ain't yours by a jugful. You sold the nag to Lot Deckerman, an' Deckerman sold him to me."

"He's a horse-thief then!" declared Tubac; and the sheriff's grin faded into a frown.

"What're you tryin' to put on here, anyway? I saw you write him a bill of sale."

"You better get fitted for glasses," Jones sneered. "Where is this famous bill of sale? Have sours-puss over there read it for you."

With a scowl the sheriff shifted a folded paper from his pocket. Keeping stare and gun hard focused on Tubac, he tossed it over to the stableman. "Never mind the writin' on the back—that's Lot's; jest read out what's on the face of the thing."

Obie, with a grudging admiration, read this to certify that one Lot Deckerman, at the point of a gun, took this white-stockinged roan—

"The rest was lost in the sheriff's curse. 'Don't say you never been stung!' Jones jeered, and began backing off, still chuckling.

"Stop right there!" Shallet roared. "Another step an' I'll let daylight through you, Tobie!" Shallet snarled, and bit his iron—

"Go right ahead!" Jones grinned at him, and the stableman fell back with a scowl.

The sheriff swelled up like a chuckwalla. "What you scared of? I got him covered!"

"Sure yoff have," Tubac grinned. "Come on, Tobie. Don't be bashful—it's only a little pussycat."

And then Shallet saw the small striped animal that was rubbing its eyes on Tubac's ankle while it gracefully waved its beautiful tail. "Goddemighty!" he said. "Where'd that polecat come from?"

Jones grinned. The skunk started to cross the stable. The stableman went through the nearest window.

When Shallet snapped his gaze back to Tubac he had lost the drop. There was a gun in Jones' hand and the look of Jones' eyes said he'd just let use it.

Short minutes later Tubac stepped from the saddle in front of a

BROWNS MAY BE LEADERS

Hope To Get Off To A Good Start This Season

By OSCAR KAHAN
St. Louis, April 9 (AP)—Manager Luke Sewell of the St. Louis Browns brought his question-marked team to sportsman's park today with the prediction that "if we win most of our games the first part of the season, we'll be hard to beat."

A poor start almost wrecked the Browns last year, but they recovered to finish third, their highest standing since 1928. They opened the campaign with four straight victories and then lost ten of their next eleven games, nine of them in a row, before Sewell got them on the track again.

The manager's hope for a better getaway this season has a solid, if temporary and draft-vulnerable foundation.

Vernon Stephens, his 1-A shortstop, made an unexpected appearance and will be available for an indefinite time until the army calls him. That should give the Browns an early advantage because neither the champion New York Yankees nor the second-place Boston Red Sox have their regular shortstop.

Fortified by Stephens, a 294 batter who hit 14 homers, the Browns can start the race with their entire 1942 infield intact—George McQuinn at first base, Don Gutteridge at second, "Junior" at short and Harland Clift at third.

Clift, reporting late, missed spring training at Cape Girardeau, Mo., but he may be able to get into condition in the seven-game city series with the Cardinals, opening tomorrow. Otherwise, Don Heffner, veteran utility infielder, or Floyd Baker, hard-hitting rookie from San Antonio, will be at third.

Baker or Mark Christman, back from Toledo for another major league trial, eventually will succeed Stephens.

The Browns' other "drafty" point is in the outfield, Glenn McQuillen is 1-A but he may be able to play left long enough to start the team off right.

After the Redhead goes, Sewell will have the problem of selecting a running mate for Chet Laabs and Mike Chartak. Available are Tony Criscola, Milt Byrnes and Mike Kreevich.

There's no worry about the Ferreri and Frankie Hayes—but the pitching staff is loaded with question marks. The older pitchers have shown they are just about ready, but lack of exhibition games has prevented Sewell from testing the newcomers.

The Cardinal series — and the draft boards—should decide the Browns' future.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 9 (AP)—Fresh from a visit to the Western American League training camps, Tub Thumper Earl Hilligan notes with some surprise that managers and scribes agreed that the ball players are in better shape and further advanced in training than they were a year ago in sunny Florida and California. That may be because it rained only once in the ten days Earl was in the camps, he explains.

Figuring It Out.
Hilligan also reports that the "Limestone League" did all right at the gate with a couple of crowds around 4,000 for early exhibitions.

"Chicago writers say," he adds, "that the White Sox haven't had an exhibition crowd like 3,900 in years." Teams in the east have been drawing even better, and if they get some real baseball weather when they begin to hit their home towns they'll probably make a bit of dough. Incidentally, Tom Stephenson, who has been plugging the "Limestone League" label for the Indiana camps, agrees that the "long underwear" league ought to cover the whole circuit—"if they stretch as well as they etch."

One-Man Gang

Axel Nordquist, vice chairman of the A.A.U. wrestling committee, is in charge of arrangements, publicity and ticket sales for the national wrestling championships this week end. He also plans to take the tickets at the gate and to weigh-in the grapplers. So don't be surprised, if a contestant fails to show up, to see him in theirer wrestling in the boys' games for three years. During the war season of 1918, the International League turned up seven pitchers who tossed both games, of doubleheaders and Ernie Lanigan wouldn't be surprised to see Montreal's James Willard Ramsdell join the iron man group this year. Ramsdell has worked 909 innings in the past three seasons.

Training Camp Briefs

By The Associated Press
Evansville, Ind. — Two sons of Texts, veteran Pinky Higgins and Rookie J. P. (Joseph Perry) Wood, are fighting for the Detroit Tigers third base job. Higgins, with an exhibition batting average of an even .300 compared to Wood's healthy .444, has a definite edge as a power hitter but Wood has superior speed. The hustling 22-year-old, up from Beaumont, has vowed that once he gets into the lineup Higgins never will get back. Skipper Steve O'Neill isn't committing himself.

Cairo, Ill.—The St. Louis Cardinals packed today to return home, mildly astonished at the highly successful spring training period they endured in the "North." Manager Billy Southworth admitted that a month ago he thought his squad would be fortunate if it succeeded in working outdoors three out of every five days. As it was the team worked outside 22 of the 25 days spent here and the other three went through stiff indoor drill.

Muncie, Ind. — Frankie Frisch, looking for more speed and battling strength, is trying two-thirds of last year's Toronto outfield with his regulars this week. Jimmy Russell is playing left and Frankie Coleman right with the veteran Vince Di Maggio in center. Jimmy's triple and Vince's single produced two of the four runs with which the regulars beat the Yannigans yesterday.

Wallingford, Conn.—After a final batting drill at Choate school this morning, during which Lefty Gomez will pitch, the Boston Braves will break camp and head south. The main body will move on to New Haven to open the club's spring exhibition series against Yale tomorrow. Casey Stengel has ordered Gomez and five other players, most of them pitchers, to head for New York, for the Braves have week-end engagements with Newark.

Newark — Skipper Joe Cronin is beginning to feel very confident about his pitching staff, for until the fourth inning of the Red Sox game yesterday with Newark, his batters had put together 32 successive scoreless innings. A pass and three hits forced Joe Dobson to break the tring. Today Cronin planned to test Lucier, chase and Terry against the eBars.

College Park, Md. — Owner Clark Griffith isn't worried about who will be the Washington Senators' shortstop after the war. He'll just wait until the war is over. Joe Jacobs comes marching home again, Joe left for Wichita yesterday at the invitation of his draft board, but Griffith, who termed the boy as "the best rookie infielder I've ever seen," pointed out that if peace is even five years away, 19-year-old Joe still will be a young ball player.

New York — The New York Yankees, with more new faces than familiar faces in the lineup, make their Metropolitan debut today in the first game of an exhibition series with Brooklyn Dodgers at Yankee stadium. Only Joe Gordon and Charley Kelle will be on hand today of the 1942 Yank infield and outfield. Manager Joe McCarthy has again shifted his batting order, moving up Gordon from seventh to the clean-up spot.

Brooklyn — Manager Leo Durocher has designated Whit Wyatt, Newt Kimball and Les Webber for mound duty when the Brooklyn Dodgers open their series today with the Yankees. With Dolph Camilli and Arky Vaughan finally in the starting lineup, the Dodgers finally will look something like the Dodgers. Dixie Walker is expected to get the call for right field.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Just one more question before you go, Judge. What is this thing called propaganda you hear so much talk about these days?"
"I'll give you an example, Hank. Last night I was reading an interesting little book called 'Hitler is in Favor'. It told how Hitler would very much like to see Americans fighting among themselves over prohibition because that would create disunity, waste the time of Congress and legislatures in wet-dry arguments and crapple our war effort. It also mentioned a booklet written about Hitler's government telling how Hitler's gang wants to maintain contact with foreign temperance organizations and how it contributes annually to an international temperance union."

"You can bet Hitler isn't interested in seeing prohibition advanced in our country for any reason except that he knows it's a good way to stir up trouble. That's what they mean by propaganda, Hank."

Poultry and Eggs

Raleigh, April 9—(AP)—(NCDA)—Eggs and poultry markets steady. Raleigh—U. S. large (clean white) eggs 38; colored hens 35 to 37. Washington—U. S. large (graded white) eggs 37 to 40; fowl receipts too limited to establish prices.

New York Cotton

New York, April 9 (AP)—Cotton futures opened 60 cents, to $1.15 a bale lower. Noon prices were 65 to 85 cents a bale lower. May 20.22, July 19.99, Oct. 19.76. Futures closed 55 cents to $1.05 a bale lower.

Table with columns: Month, Price, Last Prev. Price. Rows for May, July, Oct., Dec., March.

Grain Market

Chicago, April 9—(AP)—President Roosevelt's order directing that ceilings be set "on all commodities affecting the cost of living" unsettled grains today and prices dropped more than 2 cents at one time in heavy trading.

Grains subsequently rallied from their lows in diminished activity, but wheat, oats and rye were unable to get back to yesterday's finish. Most corn contracts held at their ceilings and September, after breaking a cent at the opening, recovered a major part of the lost ground.

At the close wheat was off 1-1/2, May $1.42 1/4, July $1.41 1/4, corn was unchanged to 1/2 lower, May $1.01, September $1.04 1/4, oats were 1/2-1 lower and rye showed losses of 1 1/2-1 1/4.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, April 9—(AP)—Speculative liquidation shook financial markets today. Transfers approximated 2,300,000 shares.

Secondary bonds weakened in the morning but eventually regained a portion of their equilibrium. Commodities cut initial losses.

Kiwanis Meet at 6:30

The Kiwanis Club will meet this evening at 6:30. The program part of the meeting will be used to rehearse for the annual Kiwanis minstrel to be presented at the college on Friday, May 14. President Joe Taft will preside. Eli Bloom and "Tige" Gardner, co-chairman of the minstrel, will conduct the rehearsal. Reservations are already being made for tickets to the show. Gardner stated today.

Japanese Claim ...

(Continued From Page One) enemy objectives. The Navy in Washington made no comment on the Japanese claim, which sharply conflicted with a U. S. communique yesterday referring to the same action and reporting that 37 of 98 Japanese planes were shot down in a violent air battle near Guadalcanal.

Today's navy communique scaled down the enemy losses, saying later reports showed a total of 34 instead of 37 Japanese planes were destroyed.

Tokyo's version declared a cruiser a destroyer and 10 transports were sunk and three other transports damaged.

On other far pacific fronts: Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters announced that allied fliers, striking at Japanese supply lines, blasted a flotilla of enemy barges in an hour-long attack off Dutch New Guinea and strafed other Japanese coastal vessels near the Aro Islands.

Fires were started on three barges and an escort boat, and other barges were severely damaged.

Allied airmen also raided Japanese airdromes and bases at Imika, Dutch New Guinea; Saumlaki, Tanimbar Island; Kavieng, New Ireland; Unli, New Britain; and Finschhafen, New Guinea.

On the Burma front, British headquarters reported "no change" in the battle along the Bay of Bengal coast, where the Japanese are attacking Field Marshal Sir Archibald P. Wavell's forces not far from the frontier.

In the skies, American heavy bombers dropped 13 tons of high explosives on the Japanese headquarters at Toungoo, setting fires visible for 20 miles, and U. S. fighter planes destroyed an enemy supply dump at Nimgam in central Burma.

RAF bombers also pounded the enemy, strafing Japanese positions along the Mayu peninsula and raiding other targets inland, including the airdrome at Shwebo.

Allies Continue ...

(Continued From Page One) tanks were knocked out through the error of the Stuka pilots, but British troops were jubilant at the sight and trusted that the results were effective.

Windy and rainy weather hampered ground operations in the north, however. Fields and dirt roads were turned into the same adhesive mud which the troops had endured all winter.

Bond Drive To ...

(Continued From Page One) front and all our government is asking of us that we lend our money for the purpose of purchasing the equipment and materials necessary for our fighting men to make a victorious fight. If we fall down on the home front we cannot expect our men to be successful on the fighting front," Mr. Waldrop continued.

"It is not only necessary and right that we assume this additional participation in the war effort—it is an honor to do so. We who are left here on the home front can do no less than attempt to approach the sacrifice of those brave men out on the fighting fronts to whom the last great measure of sacrifice is but a daily offering. They give their lives. We lend our money."

"When our people buy war bonds they are not only investing in the future safety of our people but they are at the same time making the best possible financial investment, one that will be repaid in full with interest by our government. In view

The German communique broadcast by the Berlin radio and recorded by the Associated Press asserted that two Russian battalions were "annihilated" in mopping-up operations on the middle Donets river front and that numerous prisoners were taken.

German heavy army artillery "shelled" strategically important objectives in Leningrad with telling effect," it said.

Otherwise, the Germans said, only fighting of local importance was reported.

Made to Meet the Wartime Needs, giving Perfect Sleep—Necessary to HEALTH

CULTIVATE HEALTH WITH COMFORT... SLEEP SOUNDLY ON A GUARANTEED PRESIDENT MATTRESS

The President has 36 lbs. of scientifically garnetted felted cotton linters making up the body of this mattress. The construction of same is identical with the famous Karpen Pil-O-Rest mattress except the springs have been eliminated. 15 lbs. of 100% India staple cotton is used in the channels. A pad of cotton stitched on muslin is placed over the body felt before the channelled portion is attached. Lace tufting thru the muslin of this stitched pad makes a complete mattress in muslin. After attaching the channels the Karpen patented inner roll construction is applied, thus reinforcing the border to prevent sagging. Handles for easy turning and screen ventilators to keep the interior of the mattress fresh and clean at all times.
