Japs Claim Preparations Complete For Offensive Against U. S. Territory

Nipponese General Says German And Italian Air Forces Will Collaborate In Attack; Allied Aircraft Continue To Strike At Enemy Bases

By The Associated Press Japan raised a bogie-man threat of bombing the United States today as Maj. Gen. Kenryo Sato, chief of the bureau of military affairs, declared that preparations were completed for "a vast air attack on the American mainland."

Sato said Japanese, German and Italian air forces would collaborate in the assault. The navy announced that American bombers blasted the Japanese base at Kiska in the Aleutians six times on Monday and other U. S. warplanes made a fire-setting raid on Munda in the Solomon Islands.

In the attacks on Kiska, which now total 63 since March 1, the navy said the fighter-escorted bombers plastered the main Japanese encampment, runway and gun emplacements with high explosives.

Meanwhile, Gen. Douglas MacArthur and Australia's Prime Minister John Curtin renewed official warnings that Japan was ready to strike out in a new offensive to gain control of the skies in the southwest Pacific battle theater.

Gen. MacArthur's warning was underlined by a terse announcement from Allied headquarters tonight (Australian time) that a strong force of Japanese planes raided Milne Bay at the southern tip of New Guinea. Details were not immediately available.

It was the enemy's fourth big attack in the developing struggle for control of the skies in the last seven days, highlighted by a 100-plane attack on Port Moresby on Monday.

"If we lose the air, naval power cannot save us," Gen. MacArthur said, less than 24 hours after his field commander, Gen. Sir Thomas A. Blamey, asserted that Japan had 200,000 first-line troops massed in island bases north of Australia.

"If the enemy wins control of the air, his naval units can at once bring forward convoys of ground forces to continue his attack to the southward," Gen. MacArthur said, and he added:

"A primary threat to Australia does not require a great initial local concentration of naval striking power.

"As a matter of fact, Japanese naval forces in great strength, although beyond our bomber range, are within easy striking distance of Australia."

Gen. MacArthur's statement followed an assertion in Washington yesterday by Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox that there was no indication Japan was concentrating ships for an invasion of Australia.

BRITISH MAKE HEAVY RAID ON ITALIAN BASES

Continue Offensive With Assaults On German Targets This Morning

London, April 14 (AP)—British home-based bombers heavily attacked Spezia, naval base in northern Italy, last night, and it was officially disclosed today that RAF raiders from the middle east had blasted Palermo and Messina harbors in Sicily Monday night.

Spezia is on the Ligurian sea, about 50 miles southeast of Genoa on the west coast of Italy. It was bombed twice in February by the RAF.

Palermo and Messina have been repeated targets for bombers of the middle east command and also for the north African strategic air force as efforts were made to knock out the important Sicilian harbors helping supply Marshal Rommel's forces in Tunisia.

Other RAF formations followed up these assaults by raiding objectives in northwestern Germany at dawn this morning.

Three bombers were reported missing on the 1,500-mile round trip to northern Italy and the raid on Germany. None were reported lost in the attacks on Sicily.

The raid on Spezia was the 43rd attack on Italy by Britain-based RAF bombers since the start of the war. Spezia was last raided on Feb. 14, which also was the last raid on northern Italy.

The Monday night raids on Palermo and Messina were disclosed in a communique issued from Allied headquarters in Cairo.

The bulletin reported that bursts were seen on railroad sidings and the ferry terminus at Messina but gave no other details of the assaults.

The same night, the communique said, enemy aircraft made a futile attack on Tripoli.

Yesterday, hundreds of allied fighters and fighter-bombers traversed the English channel for more than three hours to strike airfields, railway yards and warehouses in occupied France, Holland and Belgium.

Bill Dudash Is Very Much Alive

Bill Dudash, graduate of East Carolina Teachers College who was recently reported by the college as having been killed in action, is very much alive according to his own statement in a letter received by the Reflector today. The college story was released after a letter written to Dudash by a friend had been returned from Fort Knox, Ky., with a notation "this man died with his boots on while leading a group of commandos in Africa."

Dudash's letter, written from Fort Knox, Ky., follows: "Dear Sir: "I met my good friend "Red" Flanagan in Louisville yesterday on his way to camp from a furlough. He informed me that I was listed as a casualty in your paper, and I would like to clarify the statement I am far from dead, as healthy as I can be. I really can't see how that mistake was made. "I can't say where I've been. I have an eye injury that is coming along fine. I would like to clear this up as I have many friends in Eastern North Carolina and would appreciate a clarification. Please, if you will send me the copy of the paper with the write-up of my death naturally I would like to see it."

Very healthily yours Bill Dudash.

GARRIS HEADS COMMISSION Elected to Chairmanship Of Utilities Body Last Night

By CHESTER WALSH Louis B. Garriss, prominent business man and president of the Garriss-Evans Lumber Company, was elected chairman of the Greenville Utilities Commission at a meeting at the City Hall last night. He succeeded D. S. Spain who resigned the chairmanship after a third of a century of outstanding service.

Members of the commission praised Mr. Spain for his faithful and efficient service in helping to develop the Greenville Utilities Commission along sound business principles and progressive expansion. He expressed a preference for serving as a member of the body and relinquishing the responsibilities of the chairmanship.

Mr. Garriss has always been interested in the success of the program of extending electric service to rural communities and maintaining a high standard in the city, one of the members of the Utilities Commission.

The Greenville Utilities Commission chartered under state laws in 1903 has one of the best equipped steam electric generating plants in the state, with a capacity of 9,250 kilowatts an hour, more than enough to take care of the heaviest (Continued on Page Six)

NAZIS TRYING FOR SUPPORT

Hope To Weld Satellites For Defense Of 'European Fortress'

Bern Switzerland April 14 (AP)—The conference between Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini last week regarded here as only one facet of Germany's program to line up more intensive support among her satellite nations, was reported today to have resulted in promise that Germany would carry on the struggle for fascist expansion, including Africa, in return for greater mobilization of all Italian military and economic resources.

A series of conferences with Bulgarian, Rumanian and Hungarian leaders, it was understood here, was aimed at trying to weld the satellites into the final struggle for defense of the "European fortress" as the situation in North Africa and an expected second front point up the Axis urgency.

Coming discussions with Rumanian and Hungarian officials will attempt to settle their border territory dispute and strengthen their desire to fight harder under the Axis banner, it was said.

Usually well-informed circles expected that a formal program, containing the promise of a "new order" will follow the discussions, with willing cooperation stressed instead of compulsion.

Claim Nazis' Food Front Still Strong

London, April 14 (AP)—Adolf Hitler's food front is at least as strong as it was a year ago, and unless new military operations produce serious manpower drains, he should be able to harvest enough food on the continent to see him through the winter of 1943-44, a ministry of economic warfare official predicted.

He added that harvest probably will be good despite a shortage of labor, machinery and fertilizer.

The WAR TODAY

AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE A reader writes to advocate more spiritual and moral guidance in helping us to win the war and the peace.

He remarks it's difficult to write about religion without being classed as a fanatic. It does seem that way sometimes, but I doubt if it really is so, for I find plenty of people eager to discuss the subject.

REDS CONTINUE AIR OFFENSIVE AGAINST NAZIS

American Planes Playing Important Part On Russian Battlefront

By EDDY GILMORE Moscow, April 14 (AP)—While no essential changes took place on the Russian-German front today, large-scale air activity continued in many sectors, the aerial operations including everything from scouting to heavy bombing.

In these mounting air battles of spring there is good reason to believe that United States planes—flown by Soviet pilots—are taking part in many operations.

There also is reason to believe they'll continue to play their part in future operations as United States production of planes swells.

The Wednesday German high command communique, broadcast by the Berlin radio and recorded by the Associated Press, said 48 Soviet planes were destroyed against the loss of two German planes in the latest aerial fighting.

It asserted a 2,000-ton ship was sunk off the northwestern extremity of Russia.

"On the ground it said that fighting of local importance occurred in a few sectors only.

The main centers of ground fighting in Russia were south of Balaikleya and from the Volkhov front northwards.

South of Balaikleya, the Germans swung considerable numbers against Soviet bridgeheads, but again failed to capture objectives.

In the last hours of the battles, the Russians killed 200 of the enemy, bringing the total to 300 in 24 hours in this sector.

Also south of Balaikleya, Red army scouts during the night broke into a German-held town, presumably on the western side of the Donets river, and killed 40 Germans.

Battles in this sector officially were described as "fierce."

On the Volkhov front, southeast of Leningrad, the Russians' heavy artillery shelled a German position, smashing up some batteries and mortars. Russian guns in the last 24 hours have blown up 25 dugouts and pillboxes in this area.

The noon communique reported nothing fresh from the Leningrad front where the Germans in one sector attacked with tanks all day yesterday.

Japanese-Americans Arrive For Training

Camp Shelby, Miss., April 14 (AP)—Some 2,500 Japanese-American soldiers from Hawaii began arriving here today to join approximately the same number from the United States mainland to form a combat team, organized into a small, streamlined army.

As the first train unloaded after a 4,000 mile journey via boat and rail, the motto "go for broke"—a Japanese way of saying "shoot the works"—was adopted by these loyal Americans of Japanese ancestry who are taking advantage of an opportunity offered by the War Department for military service against the enemies of the United States.

The soldiers, carefully selected from all walks of life in the Hawaiian islands, made the trip here by special trains from San Francisco.

To Discuss Milk Shortage

Chief Gardner cordially invites the public to take advantage of the opportunity of inspecting the department and become acquainted with the modern methods installed for the protection of the community.

Fire Chief George Gardner was master of ceremonies at the supper and Rev. George W. Perry gave the invocation.

Sugg presided at the dedication exercises and paid high tribute to Mr. Minges, and expressed appreciation of the city for the generous gift he and his wife had made financing the building of the fire drill tower. He also expressed thanks to others who had contributed in any way to make the tower possible and to Fire Chief George Gardner who had long realized the need of such a tower and at whose suggestion Mr. and Mrs. Minges decided to contribute the funds for the construction. Two Billion Subscribed As Bond Drive Rolls On

The treasury estimated that at least 6,000 newspapers—daily and weekly—are carrying advertisements, stories and editorials explaining and supporting the campaign, which started Monday and will continue for three weeks.

German Commentator Declares There Will Be 'No Dunkerque' For Rommel's Forces; Allied Fliers Destroy 84 More Enemy Aircraft

By ROGER GREENE Associated Press War Editor Allied spearheads were reported driving into Field Marshal Erwin Rommel's main siege defense lines in the narrowing Axis-held corridor in northern Tunisia today, and an Algiers broadcast declared that Rommel had already started evacuating German technicians from the North African trap.

Other reports from Rome and Marseille said Axis troops, mostly Italians, had been slipping out of Tunisia during the last few nights and had been seen disembarking at dawn in Sicily and Sardinia.

A German military commentator, however, declared there would be "no Dunkerque" for Rommel's 200,000 beleaguered troops, and thus indicated they would be left as a time-saving sacrifice in a sequel to the German disaster at Stalingrad.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters announced that the Allies now had rolled up to Rommel's mountain defenses ringing Tunis and Bizerte, while United Nations fliers destroyed 84 more Axis planes.

The German high command said a series of Allied attacks on the western flank of Rommel's mountain-rimmed foothold had been repulsed by counterattacking Axis forces.

"In the southern sector, strong enemy forces approached Axis positions and carried out reconnaissance thrusts, which however were frustrated," the Nazi communique declared.

Fliers dispatched said an Algiers radio report yesterday that Enfidaville had been captured appeared premature.

A communique from Allied headquarters said Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's British 8th Army vanguards "continued to advance to the north and made contact with enemy prepared positions" between Enfidaville and the Djebel (mountain) Bou Hadjar.

Enfidaville, the southern anchor of Rommel's new 100-mile-long defense zone, lies 50 miles beyond Tunis. (Continued on Page Six)

Celebrate Pan American Day With Many Programs

By KENNETH DIXON Washington, April 14 (AP)—A hemisphere-wide day, drafted more than half a century ago stood forth as a possible pattern for postwar planning today as 21 American republics took time out from pressing world problems to observe Pan American day.

That the holiday has long since been graduated from its public school exercise status of earlier days was clearly demonstrated in the numerous commemorative programs arranged throughout the United States and her sister republics.

That the Pan American union it celebrates might be the Americas' proffered pattern for world-wide postwar planning was seen in the words of President Roosevelt.

Athenaeum Meets.

Mrs. H. L. Ormond was hostess to the members of the Athenaeum Book Club and their guests Tuesday at noon. The guests were Mesdames George Perry, Herbert Waldrop and Frank Wooten.

Upon arrival the hostess served a tempting war-time luncheon. The arrangements of spring flowers gave a happy and cheery setting which seemingly vied with the charming program presented by Mrs. Frank Wooten. In a versatile style, Mrs. Wooten presented the love affairs of the Louis Kings of France and wove this period of French history into the glamorous loves of these dissolute kings.

After the brief business session, conducted by the president, Mrs. J. B. Cummings, the meeting adjourned.

Miss Blount Honored At Bridge.

Among the lovely parties of the week honoring Miss Myra Blount, bride-elect, was the bridge party which Mrs. E. T. Lloyd gave on Tuesday evening.

The rooms were beautiful with red tulips, lilies, iris and spirea. Bridge was played at three tables and late in the evening Mrs. Lloyd served chicken salad with delicious accompaniments.

Mrs. Marvin Blount was winner of the high score prize, a box of dusting powder. The hostess gift to Miss Blount was goblets in her selected pattern of crystal.

"Ladies in Retirement"

The first of two performances of "Ladies in Retirement" will be given tomorrow evening, at 8:30 o'clock, in the Austin Auditorium.

The play is a "thriller," murder-mystery-detective play, but it is the subtle, English style and with a collection of unusual characters.

The play given here will follow so closely the play as given in New York two seasons ago that it is like bringing Broadway to Greenville. Some of the costumes worn then will be seen on the ECFC stage tomorrow night. A new set similar to the one used in the professional play has been made for this production. The director of this play not only saw the one in New York, but studied it carefully with the play-producing group.

The Chi Pi Players, the rehearsals indicate, will add another triumph to their long list of successful plays.

Concert Is Successful.

In a most enjoyable concert last night at the college, A. L. Dittmer, violinist, and Mrs. Mary Bertolet Smith, pianist, presented a program that showed great command of the instruments and musical interpretation of high order.

The playing of Mr. Dittmer, who is head of the East Carolina Teachers College music department, was marked by strength and smoothness. Especially in Mendelssohn's "Concerto in E Minor" did he show fine feeling for the beauty of the composition and skill in the intricate technique this composition demands.

A Zumbalist selection, "Suite in Ancient Style" gave a satisfying sense of contrast and coordination in the arrangement of its numbers and the handling of its melodies.

The last two groups were composed of shorter, more familiar numbers. Among them an audience favorite was Kreisler's "Caprice Viennois." "Falling Leaves" by Stoessel was interpreted as a poem in sound and the carefree rhythms and folk-song melodies of Spalding's "Alabama" were notable. Mrs. Smith's complete sympathy with the soloist and her flawless rhythm, as always, added greatly to the pleasure of the audience.

Mr. Dittmer responded generously with encores.

The program was a presentation from the music department of East Carolina Teachers College for the Greenville Art Festival, and had as co-sponsors the Women's Club of Greenville.

Chi Book Club Meeting.

The Chi Book Club was most graciously entertained by Mrs. Agnes Barrett on Tuesday afternoon April 13 at her home on Eighth Street.

Upon arrival delicious refreshments were served by the hostess. Mrs. Fay Smith, the president, called the meeting to order and a short business session was held.

Mrs. Bob Lang was in charge of the program for the afternoon and presented Mrs. Robert Humber who directed our thinking along the lines of a post-war peace. She first discussed the plans of Culbertson and others for world peace and then the plan of her husband. This plan is not a blue print for peace but a principle, calling for direct thinking and planning now for a better world after the war. Education of the masses in international relationship beginning with the very young child, teaching him that there are other countries besides our own and the inter-dependence of each upon the other is a fundamental principle.

This principle of federation as outlined by Dr. Humber is not just talk but must be understood, wishes must be expressed and sentiment created toward wanting a future world in which peace based on mutual understanding can be permanent.

Much interest was shown on the part of the club members in the discussion following Mrs. Humber's talk.

Misses Madelon Powers and Marguerite Austin of the college faculty were guests for the afternoon.

Chatham Book Club

Mrs. Rufus Stark was hostess to the Chatham Book Club at her home on Eastern Street Tuesday afternoon.

A short business meeting was presided over by the president, Mrs. F. A. Bessell.

A few minutes were given to WAAC Lieutenant Taylor, who explained the army work for girls, and urged that if the club members were not interested to join themselves that they please help girls who were interested to make the decision to join.

Mrs. Harvey Clayton gave the program—a paper on "The Life of Michelangelo." Her paper was especially interesting and fitting at this time since our annual Art Festival is on this week at the Woman's Club.

Mrs. Stark served a delicious sweet course with coffee assisted by Mrs. Luther Bowling and Mrs. Shelley Beard.

In another development, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) criticized the idea of a federally-financed "victory corps" for high school students.

Taft told the Senate Education and Labor committee that "I have no sympathy with the efforts of state schools to come in here and try to get federal money for the primary and secondary education of youth."

Detroit, April 14—(AP)—Execution of German-born Max Stephan, convicted traitor, was set for Tuesday, April 27, at the federal correctional institution at Milan, Mich., by federal Judge Arthur J. Tuttle in United States District Court here today.

Stephan, handcuffed to two United States marshals, wept through the entire proceedings.

Judge Tuttle refused a plea from the traitor's attorney, Nicholas Salowich to set an execution date about the middle of May. The judge told the attorney and the defendant that the only door open to them is to appeal to President Roosevelt for executive clemency.

A garage with galvanized iron roof in the rear of Mrs. R. G. Fussels' home, 311 Paris Avenue, was blown over and turned upside down. Heber R. Allen owns the property.

A decided drop in the temperature today indicated that winter weather was cold and cloud and threatening today.

"The Victory Bond and Stamp group of the Greenville Woman's Club is doing splendid work selling War Bonds and Stamps." W. H. Woolard, chairman of the War Finance Board for this district, said today when he reported that the women have sold in booths at stores in the downtown section of the city up to the last week-end $2,677.80 worth of War Stamps and Bonds. They sold $2,777.80 worth of stamps and $24,000 worth of bonds to make the total and are keeping up the good work.

Mrs. John W. Warner is chairman of the Woman's Club War Bond and Stamp Committee. Mrs. James S. Ficklen is chairman of the women's division for the sale of bonds and stamps in Pitt county.

To Conduct Forum On Thursday Night

The fourth in a series of forums on our home community will be held in the auditorium of the city hall on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. J. Roy Wilkerson, principal of the Greenville High School will preside. Dr. A. D. Frank of the East Carolina Teachers College, recently will give a summary of the discussions at last week's forum. Dr. N. Thomas Ennett, Pitt county health officer will give a short talk on health services and health problems of Greenville.

This probably will be the last forum on our home community and it is hoped that everyone who possibly can will attend and enter in the discussions.

Favors . . .

Land's endorsement of the bill to draft civilians for war work was given the House Military Committee. He said: "The problem of this legislation can be stated in a well known advertising slogan. Eventually, why not now?"

The Office of Price Administration, telling of the delay on the meat price ceilings which were to have gone into effect tomorrow, hinted that some of them may be cut down before being reissued. OPA said the delay was ordered "to permit a re-examination of the prices in the light of the recent 'hold-the-line' presidential order' against inflation."

Food was up for discussion too before the Senate War Investigating committee, where Quartermaster General E. B. Gregory acknowledged "there may be instances" in some army camps where large quantities of food have been thrown away.

He added, however, that now waste "has been reduced to a minimum."

FRANK SPEAKS AT ASSEMBLY

Gives College Students Resume Of World Events

"Some people in the world today do not agree with Thomas Jefferson that certain truths are 'self-evident, that all men are created equal that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness', said Dr. A. D. Frank as he began his discussion of the news in the college assembly, Tuesday, by commenting on the 200th anniversary of the birth of that great patriot.

The speaker referred to the Constitution as one of Jefferson's contributions to the whole world, saying that its influence had not been confined to this country but that it had been "a beacon light to the oppressed of the world"; and he went on to say, "I commend it to you as a document well worth your reading."

In turning to the new ship building record in March, Dr. Frank observed that the most crucial battle being waged today is that on the seven seas between the submarine and merchant shipping. At the present moment it seems that it will be determined by this country's succeeding in building ships faster than they can be sunk or in failing in that attempt.

He made the record of 146 ships a total of 1,516,000 tons, launched in March, more significant by pointing out that such a yearly rate of over 18,000,000 tons for 1943 alone exceeds the total tonnage of the merchant marine of this country in 1939 and is not far short of the 21,000,000 tons owned by Great Britain in that same year.

"Germany is still building submarines faster than we are sinking them, but the Government cannot announce the total number of sinkings," he explained. "The facts might help the morale of the German people too much."

Dr. Frank warned against being too easily over-optimistic or pessimistic, saying that the attitude of the American public is very fickle. Even though General Montgomery has made Rommel withdraw 75 miles in 48 hours, so that 100 miles long and 50 miles wide, Dr. Frank called attention to the opinion of experts, who say the Allied Powers can feel happy if the Germans are out of Africa by early June.

"If they make a Dunkerque withdrawal they must do it soon," he stated. "If they decide on a Stalingrad stand, we may expect much hard fighting yet."

Facing the facts that in any case, wherever an invasion is made, the hardest fighting lies ahead, and many of the boys will not be coming back, he urged that those at home not feel too sorry for those who don't come back, that they realize that those who give their lives will have made a real contribution, and that those at home put forth every effort to see that they make their own contribution on the home front.

Entertaining the boys over the week-end and being nice to them is fine on the side, he added, but a real contribution means buying bonds and stamps, folding bandages, and knitting sweaters.

SCOUT NEWS BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Throughout the nation this year special emphasis is being placed on all those scout activities which build physical health, mental alertness and moral strength for growing boys. Along with this program, Scout leaders are redefining their Troops and Patrols to the Civilian Defense, salvage and kindred tasks which Scouts have been performing as their share in the war effort.

Approximately 400,000 Boy Scouts are active over, and it is entirely possible that they may see military service before the conflict ends. Army chiefs have praised Scout training as ideal pre-induction preparation, and both the Navy and Merchant Marine have asked national Boy Scout headquarters to help enlist former Sea Scouts as special officer material.

Numerous former Greenville Boy Scouts are already on active duty with the armed forces in many parts of the world. Just to mention a few, Tom Wilson, Harold Sugg and Bancroft Moseley, a trio of former Boy Scouts who were active leaders in local Scouting a few years back, now are high in their praise of the training Scouting gave them. This column will welcome any news of former Greenville Boy Scouts now serving with the armed forces.

Southern Leaders Study Race Relations

Southern leaders are planning action to solve the South's racial problems and last week-end they issued a statement on possibilities for a solution to the problem. Among those at the conference were, left to right, Bishop Arthur J. Moore, Atlanta, of the Methodist church; Virginius Dabney, editor of the Richmond, Va., Times-Dispatch; Noel R. Beddow, Birmingham, southern director of United Steel Workers of America (CIO); the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Thomas McNamara, Savannah, Ga., representing Bishop Gerald P. O'Hara of the Savannah-Atlanta Catholic Diocese; the Rev. John Inzer, pastor of the First Baptist church, Asheville, N. C.; and the Rt. Rev. Charles Clingman, Louisville, Episcopal Bishop of Kentucky.

other, Wallace Gurganus became a senior patrol leader. The patrol leaders got together their boys and proceeded to organize their patrols. Most of the boys are on their second class. So they proceeded to teach them the points of the compass and signaling by Morse code and assigned it for them to know by next Tuesday.

Wallace Gurganus, Scribe Troop 30 By Pat Petterson Troop 30 held its weekly meeting at the armory Wednesday night at 7:30 with Scoutmaster Bill Drum presiding.

The meeting was opened by Senior Patrol Leader Pat Corey leading the troop in the Scout Oath. Dues were collected by Treasurer Conrad Taylor.

As part of the local Physical Fitness Program troop 36 sent a quintet against five of troop 30's veteran basketballers. Troop 30 won by a wide margin with Scout Massey and Jr. Asst. Scout Master Dunn leading the way.

Scoutmaster Startworth's boys downed Drum's scouts 2 out of three in a tug of war.

Troop 33 By Ed Batchelor The meeting was opened with the Scout Oath led by Donald Whitley. A check up was then made of the boys who went to the Board of Review. Jimmy Cox, Mac Batchelor, Alton Howard, Bobby May and Ed Batchelor were the boys attending. A report on the scrap drive showed that we had collected $19.55. After the patrol meetings an advancement period was held. Hubert Brown passed his 1st Class Signaling, while other boys were making plans for a 14 mile hike. The meeting was closed at 9:00 by S. M. Evans who led us in the Scout Masters Benediction.

Troop Recreation By Jack Whitchard Last Wednesday night after the scout meeting the scouts of troops 30 and 36 met at the armory for a recreation period with competition between these two troops. The first event was a basketball game in which troop 30 defeated troop 36 by a score of 45 to 26. The high scorer for troop 30 was Moulton Massey with 14 points. Close behind him was Syd Dunn with 12 points.

For troop 36 Jack Whitchard took the lead with 10 points and in second place was Ed Williams with 6 points.

Following this game was another basketball game between the younger boys of these troops. In this game troop 36 was victorious by the score of 14 to 8.

The tug-of-war was the next event and troop 30 won the first two out of three heats.

KNOW YOUR NEIGHBOR? LATIN AMERICA (answers): 1—United States, Mexico, Guatemala, Honduras, El Salvador, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama, Colombia, Venezuela, Brazil, Ecuador, Peru, Bolivia, Chile, Paraguay, Uruguay, and Argentina, Cuba, Dominican Republic, and Haiti.

2—All but two, Brazil was settled by Portuguese and Haiti was settled by French, who although they were mostly all driven out by the Negroes, left their language.

Note: Asking for republics left the Guianas and British Honduras out. The map order of the Guiana is: British, Dutch, and French. They speak the language of their mother countries, naturally with some Spanish.

3—False. Although it has been the dream of many a man to make all of the new world into one country it hasn't been done and it was even less successful trying to get Latin America into one republic. Perhaps you just referred to Mexico but the statement was "All territory south of the border is in one republic."

4—Yes, very much so. If you listen to Walter Winchell you no doubt remember his referring to a woman, who is the "dear, dear, friend" of one of the most outstanding Nazis over here, who went to Argentina, the one place in the Western Hemisphere where Axis representatives are allowed, when things became rather uncomfortable up here in the States. Too, you no doubt, being an average reader of the news remember the long delay and then postponement of Chile's break with the Axis. The article in "The Inter-American magazine" stated that the delay was caused by wanting to know who was on which side in order that they might keep neighbor from fighting neighbor.

An interesting fact about that was in the parade following the announcement of the break, one of the most patriotic groups and who proclaimed the "vivas America" the loudest were Germans who detest the Nazi system. Guatemala can tell of German girls in Guatemala not being allowed to dance with the native boys they went to school with in Guatemala because, even a few months before Pearl Harbor, the idea of being the "superior race" was being taught them. There are numerous other cases such as these.

5—Tish, tish! The neighbors of ours down south are Americans. 6—They are united, with the exception of Argentina. Most are pro-United States, some have declared war on the Axis like Bolivia, and some, for instance Brazil, will soon send over troops.

7—Buenos Aires is the capital of Argentina. It ranks as the largest, 2,300,000. 8—Texas City, Texas, is using the "Cinderella Mettle," tin, of Bolivia and it is important in war production.

9—"Brazil" River of January is the translation from Portuguese of Rio de Janeiro. 10—(1) Camacho is president of Mexico (2) Castello is president of Argentina, (3) Del Rios is president of Chile, (4) Ruben Dario is the famous poet of Nicaragua, (5) Rosas was the president-dictator of Argentina, known as the "Guacho President," (6) O'Higgins was the son of the Irishman O'Higgins, who became Viceroy of Peru from the ranks of traveling salesman, and it was his son, Bernardo O'Higgins who assisted San Martin to liberate Chile and at San Martin's suggestion, was made first president.

11—(1) Lima is the capital of Peru, (2) Rio de Janeiro is the capital of Brazil, (3) Buenos Aires is the capital of Argentina, (4) Caracas is the capital of Venezuela, (5) Bogota is the capital of Colombia, (6) Santa Marta is a port in Colombia, (7) Havana is the capital of Cuba, (8) Ciudad Trujillo is the capital of Dominican Republic, (9) Quito is the capital of Ecuador, (10) Santiago is the capital of Chile, (11) Maracaibo is the oil center in Venezuela, (12) Natal is Brazilian port located in "the Bulge," (13) Santos is Brazilian port supplying 1-2 of the world's coffee daily, (14) Cartagena is a sea port in Colombia, (15) Pampas are the plains of Argentina, located near Buenos Aires, (16) Asuncion is the capital of Paraguay, (17) Montevideo is the capital of Uruguay, (18) Llanos are low marshy lands in Colombia, (19) Mt. Aconcagua is the largest mountain in the Western Hemisphere and is located in the main cordillera of the Andes in Chile. It is 22,834 feet in altitude, (20) Lake Titicaca is located between Bolivia and Peru, in fact their border runs through the middle of the lake. The lake was the cradle of the Inca empire, and the mystic stone of the Americas, Tiahuana, is located on the shores of the lake. It is the highest steam navigable body of water in the world.

12—You said it. The students and teacher of the Latin American history class wish to thank the Daily Reflector for the space to run the series "Know Your Neighbor?" Also they wish to thank the radio station for the nightly 15 minutes to broadcast the series "We Salute Latin America." Hats off to the people lending articles to the Pen-American exhibits and to the Spanish students and Junior glee club members (and the singers of special numbers) without whose help the Pan-American Day programs would have been impossible.

Questions and answers were by Della Slater, Ann Eddy Blank, Nell Ehrhardt, Ed Batchelor, Gene Gurganus, Billy W. Tucker, Dick Fleming, Evelyn Foley, Lottie Thomas, Helen Thomas, Marion Cox, Ann Hardee, Cora Redditt, Kay Van Nortwick, and Pat Waldrop. The entire celebration was under the direction of Mrs. Howard Mims. We sincerely hope the citizens of Greenville found the programs and questions helpful.

Yanks Still Rated As Team To Win Pennant

Browns Take Second Place In Voting Of Scribes

By ORLO ROBERTSON
New York, April 14 (AP)—The New York Yankees lost three-fourths of their infield, the best part of their outfield and the dean of their pitching staff to Uncle Sam but they're still the team to beat for the American League pennant in the opinion of the sports scribes.

Fully realizing that the war might change the complexion of any team or teams on very short notice, 56 of the 74 writers participating in the Associated Press' annual survey named the Yanks to top the junior circuit for the third straight year. And not one of them placed the champs lower than fourth as they polled 56 votes on the basis of eight for first, seven for second, six for third, etc.

But after voting the Yankees the team most likely to succeed, the writers became widely separated, except in the opinion that Connie Mack's Philadelphia Athletics would land in the cellar.

With five of the scribes naming them for first place, the St. Louis Browns received ballots for every position except seventh and eighth to nose out the Cleveland Indians and Boston Red Sox for second place. The Browns polled 437 votes to take the runnerup position, one notch above the spot in which they finished in the pennant race last season.

The Indians and Red Sox each received six first place votes but the Tribe showed a little more strength in the second and third place ballots. As a result, they finished third with 418 votes to the Red Sox' 401.

Cleveland was mentioned for every position except last as were the Detroit Tigers, who with first place vote, finished fifth with 331 tallies. The sixth slot went to the Chicago White Sox and seventh to the Washington Senators, who received consideration for all positions except the top rung.

The voting:

Training Camp Briefs

By The Associated Press
College Park, Md.—Manager Ossie Blueger of the Washington Senators said today that if the Senator pitching staff became as good as the rest of his team the club "would provide plenty of trouble this season."

Boston—Al Simmons, veteran outfielder trying a comeback with the Boston Red Sox, pulled a ligament in his right calf yesterday while scoring a home run against Boston College. Pete Fox, another Red Sox outfielder, was hit on the wrist by a pitched ball and the bruise will be X-rayed today.

French Lick, Ind.—The Chicago Cubs and White Sox wind up the Indiana phase of their spring training today before starting the city series in the windy city on Friday. ## Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 14 (AP)—A recent note about Americo Wojciesz, who collected rare butterflies as well as Japs during his stay on Guadalcanal, reminded Harry Sheer of the Madison, Wis. Capital Times of the Syracuse U. boxer with the unpronounceable name who fought for the N.C.A.A. light-heavyweight title there four years ago. Harry even learned to pronounce the name—Why-see-jess—and he says says that Americo is quite a guy. Just listen.

"Wojciesz was a one-man general store if there ever was one. He was a front-ranking pigeon fancier and some of his birds won national championships. Others have been used as breeders for military carriers. He won prize fater prize at Syracuse for baking cakes. Honest he did! He played the clarinet and trumpet like Artie Shaw and Harry James combined and there was little about Bach and Mozart Americo didn't know. He went to school days (studying forestry) then worked in a steel mill night supporting his mother and several younger sisters and brothers. Now it's butterflies, but we weren't surprised here. We expect him to be speaking Japanese and driving the Nips batty by cornering all the chopsticks in Tokyo when the Marines march in."

Thrown For A Loss

At the recent Chicago pro football meeting, Coach Art Keisinger of the Pittsburgh Steelers was telling how Owner Bert Bell became worried last fall because his star halfback, Bill Dudley, seemed to be chattering too much in the huddles. Bell and Keisinger asked the quarterback, Dick Riffe, who admitted, "Yeah, he's always talking." "Well, what does he say?" Keisinger asked. "He's always saying, 'Give me the ball, give me the ball. If you can't do it, give me the ball.' Riffe replied, "Remembering what Dudley generally did when he got the ball, Bell and Keisinger decided they were the ones who ought to keep quiet."

During the other world war, William Wallace Wade, Jr. was born at Fort Sill Okla. Last fall he was graduated from Officer Candidate School there. A few days ago his dad, Lieut. Col. Evansville, Ind.—Tommy Bridges, veteran curve ball artist, is manager Steve O'Neill's selection to hurl for the Detroit Tigers today against the Minneapolis Millers of the American Association. After the game the Tigers will break camp.

Muncie, Ind.—Frankie Frisch is disgusted with the "shadow boxing" attack of the Pittsburgh Pirates and isn't keeping his displeasure a secret. Right now he says his club couldn't bat the 245 the 1942 Bucs compiled.

Convicts Fail To Escape Alcatraz

San Francisco, April 14 (AP)—Listing two convicts as dead and two recaptured in the latest escape attempt at Alcatraz federal prison in San Francisco Bay, Warden James A. Johnston said today the men who made the dash were "all accounted for."

Last to be checked off was Fred Hunter of Ohio, 43-year-old stoop-shouldered former pal of the late Alvin (Old Creepy) Karpis, postoffice and train robber.

Hunter was flushed out of a cave on the beach of the prison island late yesterday, not far from where he and the three others started their dash in the morning from the prison model shop after binding and gagging two guards.

The warden also said four one-gallon paint cans were found, each stuffed with army uniform clothing. The men had planned to use the cans to help keep them afloat in the bay and the clothing, taken from the prison shop where army goods are reclaimed, to serve as disguise.

First printer in the western hemisphere was Giovanni Paoli of Mexico, 1829.

The rest-pause that refreshes

Welcome in peace... more welcome in war work

IN letter after letter from war plants and factories, managers write in to tell how important they consider Coca-Cola in providing energy-giving refreshment for workers... in helping output and morale. Of course, workers in war plants welcome a rest-pause... with ice-cold Coca-Cola to make it the pause that refreshes.

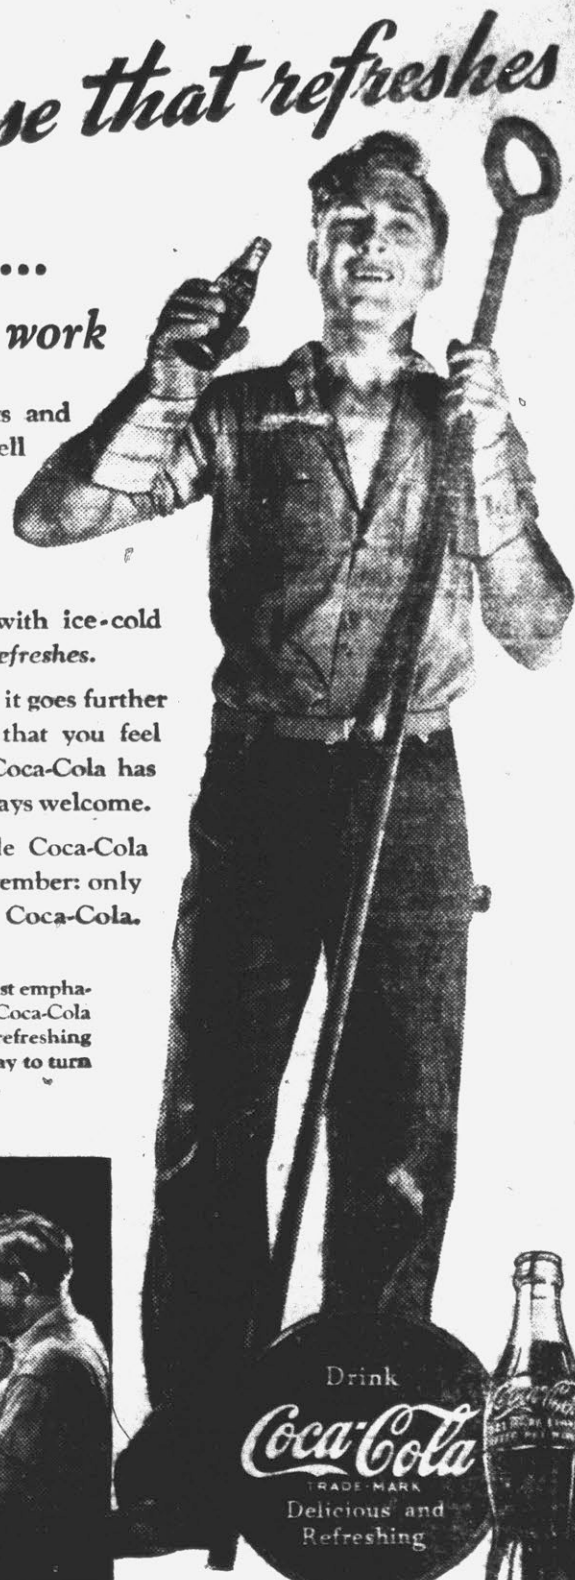

Ice-cold Coca-Cola quenches thirst. But it goes further to add pure, wholesome refreshment that you feel and enjoy. Made with a finished art, Coca-Cola has a taste all its own... a goodness you always welcome.

Popularity with war-workers has made Coca-Cola the symbol of the rest-pause. And remember: only The Coca-Cola Company produces Coca-Cola.

Letters from plant managers from coast to coast emphasize that the little moment for an ice-cold Coca-Cola means a lot to workers in war plants. It's a refreshing moment on the sunny side of things... a way to turn to refreshment without turning from work.

A breathing spell, a rest-pause and ice-cold Coca-Cola. Contentment comes when you connect with a Coke.

John G. Clark, president of Greenville Chamber of Commerce accepted the tower on the part of the city and in turn presented Mr. Minges. Mr. Minges in a few words expressed appreciation for the fine tributes that had been paid him and assured the gathering that the gift was made in the hope that it would prove of real value to the firemen in training for the important tasks of saving lives and property that they were called upon from time to time to perform.
