President Roosevelt Makes Major Inspection of Troops

Reports Country Is Turning Out Far Better Personnel Than Last Year; Morale Very High, And Men Eager To Get Into Fight And End War

Aboard Roosevelt Train, April 20 (AP)—President Roosevelt is making a second major inspection of America's expanding war effort and has seen tens of thousands of fit, bronzed troops which, he indicated, will be used to hammer out or maintain a second front in Europe.

Weaving through the southeastern states by special train and motor, he has visited a Marine Corps base, a WAAC training center, and five army posts, and reviewed division after division of fit-looking fighting men, with months of toughening behind them.

Ahead of them may be glory on the European continent. "The troops you have seen will do a good job in Europe," a reporter asked at a press conference aboard his train.

Mr. Roosevelt replied that he would say so from what he had seen of our troops in North Africa and here back home.

The chief executive permitted an announcement today that he had toured Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama and Arkansas as a sequel to the swing which took him from border to border and coast to coast last fall checking up on military and war production establishments.

He left Washington April 13, and briefly and chronologically here is where he has stopped and what he has seen.

April 14—Marine Corps base at Parris Island, S. C., where new recruits were getting basic training that turn out men for out of the world's greatest fighting units.

April 14—Maxwell Field, Ala., near Montgomery, where fledgling pilots receive the rudimentary schooling which enables them to become crack aviators. Units also were present from nearby Pace and Craig fields, which offer actual flying instruction.

April 15—Fort Benning, Ga., near Columbus, where basic training is provided for troops that drop from the sky by parachute and top men from the ranks are pushed forward as candidates for officers' commissions.

April 15 and 16—Warm Springs, Ga., where Mr. Roosevelt spent a leisurely 26 hours seeing old friends and looking over an infantile paralysis foundation which he was instrumental in establishing.

Japanese Raid Guadalcanal Base, Causing 'Slight Damage' To Personnel And Installations

By The Associated Press U. S. army warplanes rained 17 tons of bombs in a series of nine attacks on the Japanese outpost at Kiska on Sunday, the navy announced today, while in the southwest Pacific Gen. Douglas MacArthur's bombers hit five enemy bases in single-plane forays and the Japanese raided Guadalcanal.

The navy said fires were left burning in the submarine base at Kiska and bomb-hits were scored on the main camp area.

Altogether, Kiska has been raided 90 times this month and 124 times since the American aerial offensive began on March 1.

The navy said Japanese raiders inflicted "slight" casualties on U. S. troops at Guadalcanal and "very slight" material damage. One of the enemy bombers was shot down.

While Gen. MacArthur's fliers hit five enemy strongholds in the islands above Australia U. S. heavy bombers attacked the enemy airbase at Munda in the Solomon Islands, plastering the runway with high explosives.

On both sides, the tremendous struggle for control of the southwest Pacific skies had slackened appreciably.

Targets hit by single United Nations planes included the enemy airbases at Hollandia, Dutch New Guinea, Gasmata and Cape Gloucester, New Britain, and Lae and Finschhafen, New Guinea.

A small Japanese ship was also bombed off Trumbar island.

Poultry Prices

According to announcement by the State Office of Price Administration today definite price ceilings have been set on poultry. Maximum wholesale prices are 28 cents per pound for poultry weighing over three pounds, and in no instance shall the wholesale price be higher than 29 1/2 cents per pound.

Retailers' ceilings are based on a mark-up permitted in accordance with their annual sales, and this ceiling must be figured and posted in a prominent place in the store each Thursday for the convenience of the purchaser.

Attention of consumers was called to the fact that, as annual sales differ in each store, the retail price will not necessarily be the same in every establishment.

Violations of ceiling prices should be reported by retailers and consumers to the price clerk of the local ration board, Dial 1414.

Cut Down 24 More Planes Yesterday, Bringing 48-Hour Total to 117; French Beat Off German Counter-attack In Land Fighting

By WES GALLAGHER Allied Headquarters in North Africa, April 20 (AP)—The Allied aerial offensive, continuing its scorching pace against the Axis air force route and warplane nests, cut down 24 more enemy planes yesterday, bringing the 48-hour total to 112, of which 70 were Junkers-52 transports, a communique from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters announced today.

Dispatches from Malta indicated that Allied airmen from that island fortress had boosted the total to 117 planes, including 73 transports.

Taking cognizance of announcements of what was called "alleged important success scored by British and American air forces against German air transport fleets," a Berlin broadcast said authoritative German quarters termed these reports "at least exaggerated if not completely incorrect." The broadcast acknowledged large-scale attacks, however, on "transports of German and Italian reinforcements to Tunisia." Allied dispatches, on the other hand, have said the transports were on their way from Tunisia.

Raising its total on the flaming Sunday battle over the Sicilian straits, when troop-laden German transports tumbled out of the sky like leaves in a forest fire, Allied headquarters said three more enemy fighting planes had been accounted for by American pilots and their RAF and South African allies from the desert air force. This put the total of enemy losses in that single battle at 58 transports and 19 fighters.

The fierce, but somewhat slackened offensive was continued yesterday against Marshal Erwin Rommel's aerial ferry route and resulted in the destruction of 12 more Junkers-52's and eight fighters, the communique said.

Four more Axis planes destroyed in other fighting yesterday, and 11 in assorted actions Sunday brought the two-day toll to 112.

Against these losses, the communique said, the Allies had 12 planes (Continued on Page Six)

Approve Civilian Supply Measure

Washington, April 20 (AP)—The senate banking committee unanimously approved today legislation to set up an agency to assure production and distribution of needed supplies to civilians.

Strongly opposed by War Production Board Chairman Donald M. Nelson and War Manpower Chief Paul V. McNutt, the bill would empower a civilian supply administrator to determine need for rationing. Authoritative persons who withheld the use of their names said, however, it has the backing of economic stabilization director James F. Byrnes.

Civilian Wagner (D-N.Y.) said that the bill will be reported to the senate Thursday with the measure likely to be tested on the floor early next week.

Committee amendments offered by Senator Maloney (D-Conn.) would make the civilian supply administration an independent agency in the office for emergency management. Presently, civilian needs are administered by the Office of Civilian Supply under WPB.

Believe, However, Tax Plan Will Be Worked Out

Washington, April 20 (AP)—Another bi-partisan meeting failed today to produce a pay-as-you-go tax compromise, but Rep. Disney (D-Okla.) said "we appear to be coming toward an agreement that would abate 50 per cent of 1942 taxes for all income taxpayers."

Any compromise was expected to embrace a 20 percent withholding levy against the taxable portions of all wages and salaries.

The Republicans support the skip-a-tax-year plan, and the Democrats opposing any tax abatement called a night conference in an effort to attain final agreement.

On the "crisis day for pay-as-you-go tax plan, Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.) told newspapermen: "I really expect these folks—Republicans and Democrats to get together. I'll be very disappointed if they don't."

PLAN TO USE SANATORIUM

Government To Provide Free Venereal Disease Treatment

Washington, April 20 (AP)—Dr. Carl V. Reynolds, State Health Officer, said today that the Federal Government had given "every indication" that it would take over the Charlotte Sanatorium for a venereal disease hospital to provide free treatment for patients of both races.

All expenses, expected to total $150,000 a year, would be borne by the Federal Government with the exception of some personnel, Dr. Reynolds said.

It suitable supervising facilities could be obtained he said, judges in some instances might send infected patients to the hospital for treatment. But he pointed out that would not be the prime function of the hospital which would have as its chief aim the combat (Continued on Page Six)

State Nearing Goal In War Bond Drive

Charlotte, April 20 (AP)—War bond purchases in North Carolina since the start of the current campaign April 12 have amounted to more than $49,000,000. The state's quota is $62,000,000.

John P. Lucas, Jr., state director of information for the drive, said last night that this was reported by Hugh Leahy, president of the First Federal Reserve Bank of Richmond, Va.

Lucas said $262,800,000 in bonds had been sold in the district including $14,600,000 in South Carolina.

Later Senators George told reporters he felt that present arrangements barring the press from contact with delegates and from attending any but the formal opening and closing sessions "cannot but have a bad effect on American opinion."

I don't see why the whole question of the postwar production and distribution of food cannot be discussed openly and why public discussion is barred.

AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE (Continued on Page Six)

That's a magnificent job Axis American air forces are doing in northern Tunisia, to prepare the way for the final assault on the Allied armies on the last stand of the Axis there.

We should have a different picture in Tunisia today, with the Axis forces probably could be cut off. But for the growing strength of United Nations air forces, Marshal Rommel likely would still be holding his own in the Libyan desert.

Supremacy in the air over Africa has entirely altered the scene. Yesterday's statement by General Carl Spaatz, allied air chief in the northwest Africa theatre, said our forces had shot down 519 Axis planes since March 20 against a loss of 175 and had destroyed nearly 1,000 enemy planes on the ground.

In the few hours since Spaatz made that announcement his forces have added another string of planes shot down. Commander in Chief Eisenhower's headquarters stated today that allied planes had destroyed a two-day total of 112 Axis warplanes including 70 great transports.

Were it not for the allied air

Ghost!

London, April 20 (AP)—A powerful ghost voice interrupted the Berlin radio's birthday tribute to "our beloved fuhrer" today by shouting:

"The entire German nation curses today the hour that man was born."

The voice continued: "This henchman has been in power much too long, German people awake! The time has come to finish with the Nazi gang. Down with Hitler and his gang. On the day of Hitler's downfall, the war will be over."

The ghost was on the same wave length as the Berlin radio and the Nazis were unable to stifle the voice.

Says Attitude Lax Toward Religion

By WYATT BROWN

"You may be enthusiastic about other things but never about religion," was the interpretation placed on people's attitude toward religion by Rev. George W. Perry, pastor in his sermon Sunday morning at Jarvis Memorial Methodist church.

"I do not see any need of our slipping around whispering that Christ was born. But we have lost something because we no longer have the old enthusiasm.

"The Son of God is most concerned with your welfare if you will let him. But not if you do not wish to be enthusiastic about the church and the civic welfare of the community. Jesus had a great deal of enthusiasm as He lived and dealt with people. He wants more than ever today to impart that enthusiasm. Enthusiasm and fervor are characteristic of religion. We have been short of our religious enthusiasm and our effect has been limited. Man cannot be at his best unless he has enthusiasm," declared Mr. Perry.

Whatever Things Are Lovely

Of times when we are looking in magazines for something lovely to read we find so much on the war and its various angles that we are prone to give up and search for some other medium of relaxation—probably a bridge game, a radio program or a record on the Victrola. But this month searchers for something lovely will find the magazines a bit different for nearly every one has at least one article on some lovely emotion, some lovely person or some lovely experience. Maybe it is because it is springtime and the editors know that readers are beginning to hunger more for the beautiful in life; to desire something to read that will lift them from sordid wartime existence to a high level of thought and enjoyment.

At Shepard Memorial Library on the magazine table, the current Christendom carries by far the best article of this nature. It is entitled "Whatever Things Are Lovely." The author, James McBride Dobbs says among other good things "that we have gained the whole world of material things—and lost the heart to enjoy it." The thesis of his article is: Because of the extreme interdependence our world needs for survival more love than the world ever needed in the past; love is native to a certain kind of world; we have made a foreign world to love; now we are destroying it; but, by God's grace, we shall build again."

Some other articles worthy of mention are:

"Home On Leave" by Ann Leighton. In Atlantic—A war-widow speaks from the heart, and what she says will be recognized by every wife whose husband returns from the service on leave.

"May Ling Song Chiang" by Al-mey Talney. In Vogue—American memorabilia about the wife of Chiang's Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, she whose beauty has inspired every reporter to choose the choicest words in describing her.

"She looked like a steel sword, thinned, beautiful, purposeful. Her phrases were always correct, her speeches had disciplined clearness. Her mind sees the target, fingers the attack, and dives."

"Love's Not Times Fool" by a war wife. In Mademoiselle—A wife's unalterable promise to her soldier husband beautifully and poignantly written.

"One Morning, Long Ago" by Marcelene Cox. In Good House-keeping—A happy-ending story that will give you succor from the trials and tribulations of the day.

"As a Child Psychologist" by Dr. Myrtle McGraw. In Harper's Bazaar—A discussion of the value of a watchful mother's eye in accelerating a child's development in neatness of form and spirit.

"When I Come Back, Darling" In House Beautiful—A letter from a soldier boy to his wife telling about the home they will build when he returns.

"The Triumph of Little Things" by Elizabeth Gordon. In House and Garden—Getting ready to be a service man's wife is very much like getting ready to go to college. There are things you should take and others you should leave at home (so prepared to make a home out of a trunk). This article tells you how it can be done.

"Designs in Old Blue" by Gresham Copeland. In Antiques—The fascinating story of the development of Staffordshire china.

"One Way to Care for Our Eight-Hour Orphans" In Saturday-Evening Post (April 19)—An article in detail about the expert, all-day care provided at Los Angeles, Gale Manor Apartments, where all the orphans have young children and all the mothers work outside.

"Salome Comes to Covent Garden" by Sir Thomas Beecham. In Harper's—The story of London's appreciation of a great opera.

"If I Were A Soldier" Mother by Channing Pollock. In Your Lot—A most consoling article to mothers who have given their son good home training before they left for camp. He says they need not worry about the boys' temptations if they were brought up properly.

Briley Cows Making Record With Twins

It's "double or nothing" among the herd of fine cows on Harvey Briley's farm near Greenville. The fourth set of twin calves were born several days ago. Two cows mothered one set each, another cow has had two sets of twins. The youngsters were all healthy and three sets developed into sound yearlings.

The Brileys farm on a business-like basis and realize the value of livestock on a farm. There have been so many twins that folks in the neighborhood, are wondering if the tendency to have twins is due to the war.

"It's just luck, the farmer said, and added, "bringing 'em in double helps a lot while meat and dairy products are so scarce."

Forum Not To Be Held This Week

By LUCY CHERRY CRISP

This week being Holy Week, with services in the churches in commemoration of the events that took place during the first Holy Week in Jerusalem, there will be no forum held in the city hall on Thursday night. Announcement will be made through the newspapers of the date on which the next of this series of community forums will be held.

Last week's forum on Thursday night was led by J. Roy Wilkerson, principal of the city high school. Prof. A. D. Frank of the college faculty, presented a resume of the preceding forum's discussion which dealt mainly with the question of finding more adequate means of handling both personal and community problems growing out of the juvenile delinquency increase prevalent not only in our locality but throughout the country as a result of war. Dr. Ennett, of the county health department, outlined the nature of the health work being done in the county, stating a number of specific immediate and long-time aims and goals on which the county health department is at work among them a child guidance clinic and a county tuberculosis sanitarium.

A number of those present took part in the discussion following when questions pertinent to our community's welfare were brought out, one of them being the matter of children's absences from school and the problem of enforcing the compulsory school attendance laws. Mayor B. B. Sugg spoke briefly stating that the city council and other responsible civic groups were already at work on many of the problems of immediate community concern, and declaring that for any such group to function effectively in bringing about better conditions, the weight of public interest and concern and support was absolutely essential. Mrs. J. H. B. Moore, chairman of the forum committee, in closing the forum for the evening stated that no meeting would be held during Holy Week, but that the series would be resumed at a date to be announced later.

Many Visitors Attend Festival

By LUCY CHERRY CRISP

One of the exhibits presented at the Art Festival last week was held over at the Woman's Club for this week-end and next, the exhibit of drawings and clay work from the Service Center and the Community Art Center.

The fact that 653 visitors registered at the club during the three days of the Festival indicates something of the interests of our community in Arts and Crafts. And there were a number who came who did not register. Children from the white schools came in groups with their teachers on Tuesday and Thursday, and children from the colored schools on Wednesday.

Sponsors of the Festival, the Woman's Club and the Art Center, feel gratified at the cooperation and response of both groups and individuals who contributed to the interest and value of the Festival, which this year was local both in its program and its exhibition content, and definitely planned only a very short time before the opening date. Notable contributions to the week were the recital presented at the college by Mrs. G. V. Smith and Prof. Dittmer, and the South American Exhibit and program at the high school under the direction of Mrs. Howard Minns.

In the show of drawings and clay work still on display at the Woman's Club a number of service men who have used the arts work-shop at the Service Center are represented, among them Fred Rhoads, Ted Jachimowitz, Baldwin Ford, Ernest Greer and Bill Morgan, of New River, and G. Taylor and Bob Erpenbeck of Cherry Point. Fred Rhoads is now in Washington, D. C. as one of the art editors of the "Leatherneck." Jachimowitz and Ford are on the West coast. Bill Morgan was on Guadalcanal for months and is still in the Pacific war zone.

the United States of the fourth, fifth, sixth, or seventh grades under allotments by the Secretary of Labor and plans developed and administered by state health agencies and approved by the Chief of the Children's Bureau.

Dr. Ennett states that this program already is in operation in Pitt county and that the Pitt County Medical and Dental Society at a recent meeting endorsed this program.

The program applies to both races. He called attention to the fact that in the families covered in this program, there would be no excuse for them using a midwife in the place of a doctor.

How Esso Dealers' new "TIRE PRE-CHECK SERVICE"

can save you trouble and Save Your Tires!

SLOW leaks caused by nails, tacks, bad valves, etc., can exist long before the tire actually fails on the road. But such tires waste rubber by running "soft," and finally produce "flats" that need not happen. Just replacing lost air once a week is not enough. A recent check of over 2000 cars showed that nearly three-quarters of them needed air in one or more tires. Slow leaks can be spotted, and the trouble fixed nine times out of ten before the tire goes flat.

To do this, your Esso Dealer offers this new, simple, and proved TIRE PRE-CHECK service: He will accurately hand-gauge each tire before air is pumped in.

Any excessive loss of pressure in one tire is instantly spotted, can then easily and quickly be repaired—with a patch, a new valve, or whatever is needed—before the damage goes too far.

He will scientifically check mileage left on each tire, and switch tires for longest possible mileage.

Finally, tires are accurately filled to wartime pressure of not less than 32 pounds.

IMPORTANT! No matter how little you drive, your car needs these Spring services to help make it last!...

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

BREAD CAST ON THE WATER

Several months ago in one of our large cities a man was appointed to a judgeship by the governor of his state. For thirty years he had occupied the position of clerk in that court, but during those thirty years two very important things had happened. In the first place he had, as law clerk, familiarized himself with judicial procedure until he had become the best authority in the state of these matters. Best of all, however, he had spent his thirty years generously giving advice and counsel on legal matters to anyone who asked him, and over this period of time practically every lawyer in the city had fallen into the habit of consulting with the law clerk before arriving at any important decision. He was just as gracious to a boy out of law school as he was to the most eminent lawyer in the city.

The result was that when a vacancy occurred on that bench, the lawyers of the city arose as one man and carried his candidacy to the governor with such earnestness that they overrode every political and business influence and secured the appointment of the law clerk as judge. The day he was sworn in, five hundred people crowded into the court room to witness the simple but moving ceremony, and everyone felt that here virtue indeed had had its reward and that bread cast upon the waters had, after many days, returned.

ON THE JOB

Within an hour after a tornado struck in Bertie County yesterday units of the Red Cross and of the State Highway Patrol were on the job in the stricken area restoring order and bringing aid to the storm sufferers. This is just another example of the efficiency of these organizations and what they mean to any community in time of need.

THEY HAVE A RIGHT TO KNOW.

Those who are making complaint regarding the proposed barring of newsmen from the scheduled International Food Conference are right in their contentions. The matter of feeding the world is indeed a matter in which every person is vitally interested and should have a part and there is no sound reason why the considerations of such a conference should be kept secret and premeditated out to the public at the whims of those of the inner circle. After all, it is the people and not the diplomats or politicians who make up this world and it those who are trying to work out world problems will let the people know what's going on the people in turn will have more confidence in what our leaders are trying to accomplish.

KEEP IT UP.

gain the victory over our enemies. The greater our effort on the home front the shorter will be the war with its resultant savings of many lives that would be lost if the war is unnecessarily prolonged a single minute, day or month. Let's not only buy bonds during the present Second War Loan drive but let's keep right on buying them at every opportunity until the victory has been achieved.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

Washington—Capital military observers are positive that in spite of military secrecy, we are going to hear plenty about the Nazi U-boat menace in coming months.

Military officials have admitted that the sinkings in the Atlantic are again on the upgrade. One observer not connected with the government recently described the situation to me as the equivalent of a major defeat for the Allies. It does amount to that if we can't get men and material to Africa, Russia, and Great Britain in sufficient quantities offensive action is held to a standstill. The losses in equipment and shipping are just as crippling as losses in battle would be.

How far out of gear our offensive time-table has been thrown by our losses in the Battle of the Atlantic probably won't be known until after the war, but that there has been some disruption has already been openly conceded.

Why greater progress hasn't been made in whipping the U-boat menace is no secret.

The Nazis, having no great surface fleet at the outset, put all their faith in submarines. They started early. It is estimated now that they have nearly 500 U-boats, with perhaps 150 of these operating in the Atlantic at a time.

By the time Great Britain had built up her bomber force to the point that they could blast the sub works in Germany and along the Channel coast, those works had been under layers of concrete. In spite of the blastings of those bases recently, the Germans still may be turning out around 20 subs a month.

Then, too, our own destroyer-cort program was started too late. Speedy little DEs are now rolling off the ways in good order but the chances are there won't be enough of them to make a dent in the subs this summer.

There is a gap of about 700 miles in the mid-Atlantic that can't be adequately patrolled by land based planes. That gap is the submarines' happy hunting ground.

On the other hand, the United Nations aren't taking all this lying down. They have developed new tactics, mostly secret, which may include hunting the sub packs with destroyer packs and patrolling the subs' happy hunting grounds with carrier-based helicopters. It is believed too that great strides are being made in sub-detector devices.

The effectiveness of our coastal patrol in driving the subs from the off-shore traffic lanes has proved the efficacy of fighting the subs with planes, and before another summer the entire Atlantic routes may be covered with a canopy of aircraft.

HORSE PRAIRIE BY CLEM COLT

Chapter 13
Jones topped the last bit of rolling ground and the gaunt, weathered lines of the ranch building vaguely showed through the curdled milk. But nothing else showed not the faintest flash of a muzzle light; and Tubac reined in with a curse.

The raiders had gone. A fight had been staged here—that much was certain. There was a deal too much evidence to leave room for doubt. The house walls were pocked with bullet holes. Not one window had a whole glass in it and the living room looked like a cyclone had struck it with broken stuff laying in windrows.

And there was no sign of Blackwater any place.

Stampede had struck with a vengeance and Jones eyed the wreckage gloomily.

"They're a cold-blooded lot," muttered Winch Face. "I guess ol' man Coleman found that out. You ain't the Blackwater peccan is the first ones that's bucked Stampede in six years, an' if you'll take my advice—"

"If you're scared for your hide you can quit right now," Tubac snarled.

Winch Face shrugged and got out his "chawin'."

"Might be we could trail 'em—" "Trail right ahead," spat out Winch Face, "but don't cut me into such foolishness."

Tubac peeled back his lips contemptuously. "An' I thought you was a sally buck, a real double-actin' en-gine! Tough—"

"I'm tough," Finch Face scowled, "but I ain't plump daffy. If you got to be a Bright an' Shinin' Hero, it's all right with me—but I'll save my talents for the noble."

"Cattle!" Tubac showed sudden interest. "Did you say—"

"Yep—that's me. I'm a 're-write' man. Anything you want done on cow-critters, jest send a wire to Yours Truly. But don't count me in on no rough stuff."

Tubac snood turning it over a minute. "Go scare us up somethin' to eat," said finally and, turning, tramped out to the porch. He sat down heavily on the steps to them to the undersigned at my home, Rural mail route No. 3, Greenville, N. ## Athletics Play Senators At Washington; Full Schedule Tomorrow, Weather Permitting

By JUDSON BAILEY
New York, April 20 (AP)—Weather permitting, the Major leagues will take charge of the sports scene again today with a single game at Washington and then will let loose a full broadside tomorrow with all teams in action.

The start of the season this year is no signal for a public holiday as it often has been in the past. But in spite of the pressure of war, baseball has managed to detain its hold on the interest of fans throughout the nation and will have its familiar opening day furrows—public officials throwing out the first balls, pennants being raised, bands playing and peanuts enough for everybody.

At Washington today a crowd of 27,000 was expected at Griffith stadium to see the Senators tackle the Philadelphia Athletics. Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt was selected to handle the opening pitch assignment with Luman Harris of the A's and Dutch Leonard of the Nationals taking over afterward.

Tomorrow this scene will be reenacted at other ball parks. In the American league the regular opening day program call for Washington at New York, Boston at Philadelphia, Detroit at Cleveland and Chicago at St. Louis. In the National league the world champion St. Louis Cardinals will invade Cincinnati, Pittsburgh will be at Chicago, New York at Brooklyn and Philadelphia at Boston.

The Yankees will raise their American league pennant in pregame ceremonies with league president William Harridge officiating and mayor Fiorello LaGuardia will throw out the first ball.

Partly because of weather uncertainties and partly because many fans are too busy in mid-week to get to the games, the attendance on opening day this year is likely to be less than in the past.

If all eight games get off by the weather the total turnout probably will be in excess of 160,000, a decline of approximately 25,000 from last year. Only at Cincinnati, always a great first day center, is a sellout expected.

The prospect of seeing the Cardinals clash with the Reds, with big Mort Cooper matched against Lefty Johnny Vander Meer on the mound, is counted upon to fill Crisley field to its capacity of 30,000. A crowd of 30,000 also is predicted for New York's debut with Washington, but this is less than Another baseball show of considerable interest will be staged across town in Ebbets field, home of the Brooklyn Dodgers, who will be starting their penitential quest against the New York Giants. On the mound it will be Ed Head for the Dodgers and Bill Lohman for the Giants.

The Cardinals and Yankees have been made favorites by the baseball writers to repeat their championships of last year, but all observers acknowledge that the outlook is more confusing this year than ever. Many stars of last season have won the armed services and more are being called by draft boards from day to day.

Count Fleet Wins Despite Foot Injury

Kentucky Derby favorite Count Fleet, winner of the Wood Memorial Saturday (April 17) at Jamaica, Long Island, N. Y., with jockey J. Longden up, plainly showed his left hind foot had been punctured to the "coronet bone" when he reached the winner's circle after his victory. The foot was cut when it was stepped on during the scramble at the starting gate. At right is a close-up of the injury, which was described as not serious.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, April 20 (AP)—In case you've heard that rumor that the American league was about to back down on the 1943 model baseball because it is "dead"—forget it.

Frexy Will Harridge says: "Start with the new ball and use it all the way through the season." Theumps have been instructed not to let any other kind get into the games and the markings are distinctive so there's no chance of a mix-up.

Golf is booming in South America and so is the demand for golf balls from the U. S. You'd think they would just grow their own.

George Veenker, Iowa State athletic director, suggests summer football training for newly-enrolled freshmen who will make up most of the college varsity squads next fall.

John Berkebile, Burlington (Ia.) Hawk-Eye Gazette: "Now that they're teaching WAACS, WAVES and even high school girls the heretofore manly art of Juntas, American wooing technique is bound to change. How humiliating, first-stance it'll be to get tossed into the nearest clump of bushes the first time you try to steal that good night kiss from your commando-trained best gal."

Quote, Unquote: After a brief training period at navy's flight prep school at Amherst, Ted Williams says he'd like to go to college there. "Because, says Ted, you realize what a meat head you are when you sit down with those lads."

Coach Robert the Red has got the itch. To hit whatever the Phillies pitch. And fans would like to make some wagers. He'll try a comeback in the majors. For in college a coach is beyond the pale.

Mickey McConnell, former front office man and scouting director of the Dodgers farm system, has been named business manager of the 20th Armored Division baseball team at Camp Campbell, Ky. The team manager is George Lacy, former Red Sox catcher. During the first year the Iowa Navy Pre-Flight School was in operation there were 2,456 athletic events for and by the Gags, an average of almost ten for each working day.

Corporal Billy Gunn is on active service. Which should make Hirohito nervous.

Uncle Sam's Boys To Get Baseball News

By HAROLD CLAASSEN

New York, April 20 (AP)—Uncle Sam has made certain that his fighting nephews, wherever they may be, will know all about the baseball season that gets under way today with the Philadelphia Athletics playing Washington before Capital City dignitaries.

Both the Office of War Information and the Army itself will broadcast vocal accounts of all games this season while the OWI also will send the scores around the world by wireless telegraphy.

Under the guidance of Paul Stewart, head of the voice broadcasting division, the OWI will beam nine programs a day to all parts of the globe. In these, such announcers as Red Barber, Stan Lomax, Paul Douglas and Don Dumphy will give the scores and brief accounts of the games. No play-by-play will be broadcast, Stewart said, because transoceanic static might combine with the noise of the crowd at the game to drown out the speaker. He added the two hours needed to play the average game also helped to make play-by-play broadcasting impossible.

In addition to the purely baseball broadcasts the OWI also is providing the soldiers with a program labeled "Sports News From Home" in which 47 announcers throughout the country are cooperating. Today's script was prepared and read by Ken Trimble of Omaha.

Urges Pooling Of Road Equipment

Pointing out that the failure to fully utilize existing equipment for civilian road-building will work hardships on all local governments undertaking road-building and maintenance work, the Governmental Division of the War Production Board today urged the Highway Commissions, which have not already done so, to adopt the plan for pooling of road machinery and equipment initiated by the Division several weeks ago.

As the season for road construction and repairing is drawing near, some commissioners are faced with the problem of obtaining necessary equipment. The problem is not the result of any lack of equipment, a survey of construction equipment owned by local governments shows there is enough such equipment within each state. The fault lies in inadequate use of the equipment, some of it being idle in one place when it is urgently needed elsewhere.

The pooling plan is designed to remedy this, making all equipment available to all local governments within each state. The plan was initiated to reduce requirements for road-building machinery used on the home front because practically all new road-building machinery is being directly channeled to the military. Though originating with the War Production Board, the plan is state operated with a state official as coordinator. Responsibility is completely in the hands of the state. Twenty-one states, to date, have pooling plans in operation.

Men, Women! Old? Get New Pep, Vim Feel Years Younger

Don't blame exhaustion or a dull, tired feeling on your age. The simple secret of what a little pep and vim will do for you is shown in the general feeling of the men and women who are getting their pep and vim from the new Pep, Vim. It's a new feeling, a new pep and vim, a new feeling of youth and vigor. It's a new feeling of youth and vigor. It's a new feeling of youth and vigor.

(The Don River bend rail transport and railway installations were bombed and 11 trains were severely damaged, the German broadcast said.)

(The German radio claimed their heavy artillery was continuing to shell strategic war plants in Leningrad.)

(The Germans asserted 178 Russian aircraft were destroyed from April 16 through April 19 with a loss of only 11 German aircraft.)

(It was not explained whether the Germans were reinforcing their army by sea through the port at Novorossisk or were bringing troops in from the Crimea over the Kerch Strait.)

(The Kuban battlefield is about 40 miles wide as the crow flies but the line swerves in and out and the front probably totals almost 90 miles.)

(South of Balakleva the Germans lost 100 dead as they tried to smash into Red Army bridgeheads along the Northern Donets, and for the first time in a long time a German force, although a small one, attempted to attack on the Smolensk front, the Russians said.)

(Soviet big guns blasted at German positions on the Volkhov front southeast of Leningrad - activity that might be a prelude to offensive action by either side.)

(Allocation of the unit of Charlotte was given impetus with an announcement from Col. Warner B. Gates, Morris Field commander there, that Charlotte might be declared a forbidden area because of what he described as "horrible" venereal disease conditions there.)

(The yearly appropriation of $12,500 from the Reynolds foundation for treatment of venereal diseases in Charlotte has been withdrawn because of that city's failure to participate in the "merit system" of operation, the health officer said, adding that there was a hope that Charlotte again would cooperate.)

(One venereal disease specialist, who asked that his name not be used, said that the reported prevalence of such diseases in Charlotte could not be blamed entirely on prostitutes, but also must be partly attributed to "party girls, pick-ups, and good-time women." Men, too, are to blame, he said, for failure to take proper precautions.)

Fail To Agree . . .

(One conference member said the Republicans and Democrats might "from sheer exhaustion" come to an agreement on cancellation of about 50 per cent of either 1942 or 1943 taxes.)

(If a breakdown occurs in the friendly bi-partisan compromise drive, Martin is prepared to move immediately in an effort to obtain the signatures of 218 house members, a majority, on a petition which would open the way for another house vote on the modified Ruml skip-a-year plan, defeated by the Democrats three weeks ago, 215 to 198.)

(Republicans now are confident they would win on another vote, but Democrats appeared just as certain they could defeat it again.)

(The compromise group, composed of ranking members of both parties on the ways and means committee, met until late yesterday with Speaker Rayburn (D-Tex.), leader of the conciliatory party, Martin, and Democratic leader McCormack, in what was to have been the deciding conference.)

(If the preliminary conversations have not been held which would permit public discussion of these problems, then the call for the conference is premature.)

(Although Democratic leader Barkley of Kentucky told reporters the State Department soon would announce an agenda for the meeting, George said there was nothing in the outline of conference plans made by Dean Acheson, assistant Secretary of State, to indicate that his basis yet had been reached for anything except the most preliminary kind of talks.)

In addition, the government in the past 11 months has accumulated reserve stocks of over 100,000,000 gallons of alcohol.

The rubber director termed it "stale, inaccurate and confusing," while Davis retorted that "so long as I am here I propose to tell the people the news as accurately as I can ascertain it whether Mr. Jeffers likes it or not.")

(The report in question indicated that the great bulk of 27,000,000 civilian passenger car owners can not expect new synthetic tires before the last half of 1944, while Jeffers recently told a Senate committee he believed it would be possible to distribute 12,000,000 new tires to civilians this year, including 5,000,000 synthetic tires.)

(A Malta communication said two Junkers-52s and two Junkers-88 bombers were shot down by Malta Spitfires yesterday, and Valletta dispatches said a third Junkers-52 was accounted for by Mosquito bombers from the fortress Isle.)

(In London it was assumed these three were in addition to the figures of the Allied headquarters communique, bringing the two-day total to 73 Axis transports or 117 planes.)

(This assumption apparently was borne out by Cairo dispatches which the 12 Junkers-52 transports mentioned in the communique were shot down by Allied airmen from the western desert air force who tore

(J. B. Weaver, Rich Square lawyer who went to Roxobel after the storm, said it cut a 50-yard swath through the business district, demolishing two two-story brick store buildings, the Methodist church, several other business houses and a number of residences and damaging many other structures.)

(The state highway patrol's Williamston office also reported that power and communication lines were blown down and more than 200 trees uprooted, in some places blocking thoroughfares and obstructing traffic.)

(The twister was said to have moved through the countryside for at least two miles.)

(Some of the injured were taken to neighboring communities for hospitalization.)

(On the ground, the Germans mounted a counterattack in the central sector against French forces holding Oued Kebir, south of Bou Arada, but the French beat off the assault easily.)

(The communique said there was patrol activity elsewhere, but the fact that news was meager from the hand fronts was not taken as an indication no fighting was going on.)
