JAP THREATS INCLUDE ALL WAR AREAS

MacArthur Continues Hammering Enemy Bases in Southwest Pacific

42-JAP THREATS—M By The Associated Press Axis broadcasts indicated today that Japan had broadened the scope of her threats of "severe punishment" of captured American fliers to include all pilots and crews "who have been found guilty of having committed cruel and inhuman acts" anywhere in Japanese territory or zones of Japanese war operations.

The Tokyo radio also quoted a Japanese cabinet spokesman, Tomokazu Hori, as saying "Japan can never agree with the absurd and groundless contention that the mere fact that enemy soldiers are wearing military uniforms make them immune from responsibility of willfully committing any and all kinds of inhuman acts."

A Tokyo dispatch broadcast by the Berlin radio said the Japanese government had notified the United States government of its intention to punish with death or severe penalty members of crews taken prisoner following attack on Japanese territory, Manchukuo and areas of Japanese military operations and "found guilty" of inhuman acts.

The enemy's new show of contempt for international law came in the form of a radio broadcast by the American radio in Tokyo and other cities in the area, aimed at the United States to blast the Japanese empire "until they beg for mercy."

Doolittle said U. S. fliers would bomb Tokyo again "soon" and said he wanted to take part in the assault. Disclosure of Japan's execution of one of the eight American fliers taken prisoner after the 1942 attack on Tokyo was followed today by news of widespread aerial blows against enemy forces in the southwest Pacific and in Burma.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters said United Nations airmen "sifted half a dozen enemy bases in the arc of islands above Australia, concentrating on the region of Newau Bay in northern New Guinea."

Allied bombers inflicted heavy damage on already depleted Japanese supplies and equipment in the area it was announced bombing and strafing islands in the bay and village along the coast. Enemy forces in the area were reported a "beef" by lack of food and medicine with many troops ill and hungry.

Allied headquarters in North Africa, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, said yesterday new reports on Tokyo were a decided possibility. On the Burma front, British headquarters reported that Allied bombers renewed the assault on Rangoon, raiding three enemy airbases and bombing and machine-gunning Japanese troops in the upper Chindwin area.

Take Heavy Toll Of Axis Planes

U. S. Pilots flying Warhawk fighters are taking a heavy toll of Axis planes shuttling between Tunisia and European points, many of the planes being German Junkers air transports flying Axis personnel out of Tunisia (broken arrow). Meanwhile, RAF Spitfires were engaging the Messerschmitt escort, and Flying Fortresses gave the Sicilian port of Palermo its third pounding in three days. American bombers also struck at targets in Sardinia.

COAL STRIKE IN PROSPECT Predict General Shutdown Unless Deadlock Is Broken

By MARGEN GRAHAM Pittsburgh, April 23—(AP)—A walkout of more than 2,000 soft coal miners, producing 12,000 tons of fuel daily for war-busy steel mills, was blamed today on "tremendous unrest of the workers" by a United Miner Workers official who joined two others in predicting a general coal strike unless the union-operator deadlock over wages is broken by May 1.

Joseph Yablonsky, international board member of district 5 (Pittsburgh), said the immediate cause of a work stoppage at three pits of the Republic Steel Corporation Wednesday and Thursday was the appearance of Pennsylvania Motor Police during a controversy involving 20 men, out he added. "In the background is the tremendous unrest of the men X X X against the stalling tactics of the operators."

Declaring that the miners also resent the placing of their own just demands for more money before the War Labor Board "because they know the cards are stacked against them there," Yablonsky said "I don't believe anybody can keep them at work after May 1 unless a new agreement is signed."

While nearly 1,000 men left their jobs last night at the Isabella Mines of the Wirton Coal Company, a national Steel Corporation subsidiary, the vice-presidents of two West Virginia districts, William Blizard of Charleston (17) district and Cecil J. Urbanak of Fairmont (31) said flatly the miners would not work after April 30 without a new contract. (Continued on Page Four)

U.S. LEGATION STAFF LEAVES FIN CAPITAL

State Department Officials Describe Departure As 'Administrative Move'

Stockholm, April 23—(AP)—Six clerks from the United States legation at Helsinki arrived in Stockholm on a special plane today and left only a skeleton diplomatic staff in Finland as the whole question of whether that nation is going to string along with Germany militarily seemed headed for a showdown.

Only Charge d'Affaires Robert M. McClintock and one clerk remained in the expatriate legation in Helsinki built by the United States as a sign of good relations between the two countries which are now so strained.

Washington, April 23—(AP)—State Department officials confirming Helsinki reports of the departure of some personnel of the United States legation described the action today as an administrative move.

All questions on the possible bringing of such a move on United States relations with Finland met with the reply that the State Department had nothing new on that subject. Officials likewise would not disclose exactly which members of the legation staff had left the Finnish capital.

The latest official list however, shows that most of those remaining in Finland prior to today's departure were military or naval attaches.

Washington, April 23—(AP)—Chile, Ireland, Colombia and Cuba will participate in the United Nations food conference opening at Hot Springs, Va., May 18, the State Department said today. It said 38 countries have received since the United States sent invitations to 12 foreign governments.

British Forces Make New Gains In Battle For Africa

Doolittle Leaves "Shangri-La" To Lead Tokyo Raid

Bouncing into the air off the bow of the sea-tossed USS Hornet—the mysterious "Shangri-La"—Major General Jimmie Doolittle is the first man to leave the ship as his band of raiders take off for the historic attack on the heart of Japan on April 18, 1942. In all, 16 planes made the attack, rising from the deck of the Hornet some 800 miles off the Japanese coast.

NO SOFTENING OF WMC ORDER

Regulations Will Stand Unless Changed By President. By CHARLES MOLONY Washington, April 23—(AP)—War Manpower Commission officials said today it would be difficult to soften chairman Paul V. McNutt's job-control order without a change in President Roosevelt's directions to hold-the-line against inflation.

These officials, who asked to McNutt's order which has drawn fire from both AFL and CIO leaders, merely carried out the President's instructions to prevent job-shifting at higher pay, which they said in the effective prosecution of the war.

They expressed the view that the labor protests voiced most strongly this far by AFL President William Green and the CIO-United Auto Workers Executive board, were aimed not at what the President directed but at what McNutt did. McNutt's order forbade the 27,000,000 workers in agriculture and other essential activities to take higher paying jobs with new employers except under WMC regulations which require releases from former employers or if they refuse from the WMC.

At present the released can be granted only in the 60-odd communities where the WMC has set up employment stabilization programs, McNutt has promised to provide for release of workers out- (Continued on Page Four)

Nazis Begin Reinforcing Armies On Red Front

Assaults On Russian Lines Costing German Heavy In Men And Material. By EDDY GILMORE Moscow, April 23—(AP)—The Germans hourly have reinforced their land armies in the Kuban and have shifted hundreds of their bomber and fighter planes into the Crimea for use in the north Caucasian battles but despite incessant attacks by these new forces the Germans have failed to dent the Russian lines it was declared today.

The Star the army newspaper, said the Nazis were employing numerous Rumanian troops and that Soviet airforce moved them down at the water's edge. Dozens of dead were left on the bank it was asserted.

This was no effort to cross the Donets in force but appeared to be an attempt by a strong scouting party to establish a foothold on the Russian-held bank and hold it until (Continued on Page Four)

Progress Of Armies Marked By Bloody Fighting; Allied Fliers Shoot Down Entire Formation Of Giant Transports And 10 Escorting Fighters

By WES GALLAGHER Allied Headquarters in North Africa, April 23 (AP)—The British Eighth Army has captured Takrouna and pushed six miles from Enfidaville toward Bou Ficha in twin drives northward and the British First Army has stabbed ahead three miles against stubborn Axis resistance in the Bou Arada sector on the western Tunisian front, it was announced today.

These gains ground were coupled with aerial action during which Kittyhawks and Spitfires shot down every one of twenty six-engine Messerschmitt 322's, some carrying troops and others laden with freight and ten of their escorting fighters encountered over the Gulf of Tunisia.

The giant Messerschmitt transports, which were such carriers as the Junkers 52's upon which Field Marshal Erwin Rommel has relied largely for reinforcements and supplies, are designed to carry 120 soldiers or almost 10 tons of cargo. The transports were carrying gasoline and personnel to Tunisia and "the entire formation" was destroyed, an official statement said.

"Although not many aircraft were shot down, the size and importance of this victory ranks alongside the success of last Sunday when 77 enemy planes, including 58 Junkers-52 transports, were destroyed in one engagement," the air force announced.

The Junkers-52 is designed to carry 16 to 20 soldiers or 5,000 pounds of cargo. It is powered by three engines. In all 38 Axis planes were shot down during the day, against an announced loss of five Allied aircraft.

Four Allied planes were missing after the Gulf of Tunis engagement, in which British, South African and Australian fighters cooperated to cut down the transports, so large that tanks and trucks may be diverted. (Continued on Page Six)

Guerillas Of Yugoslavia Waging Full-Scale War

By FRANK BRUTTO Bern, Switzerland, April 23—(AP)—The unorganized guerrilla army of Yugoslavia reinforced with airplane tanks and armored cars, today is waging full-scale war against Axis troops in rugged mountain terrain adjoining the Adriatic coast, according to a dispatch from Budapest. Quoting a Zetren report in the newspaper "Mazaryk Novosti," the dispatch declared "veritable warfare" under way in the Bosnia and Herzegovina regions of western Serbia. Strong Axis operations against the guerrilla forces of Gen. Draza Mihalicovic are "necessary to insure against possible Allied invasion," the report added.

The WAR TODAY AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE As we vow to punish the Japanese and the Axis powers as we do, then atrocities are being committed in the name of the general peace and announced it forthwith a joint United Nations determination. If we could agree that the war should be declared with the aid by courts martial, it might have a restraining effect on the military mind.

The Allied city in the last war, being the Kaiser, and others, their war guilt, finally settled. When the peace conference convened in 1919 it was a matter of war responsibility. The Allies recommended that the Kaiser be tried before a tribunal made up of representatives of the United States, Britain, France, Italy and Japan. There also was a black list of 900 other German leaders and commanders.

There were 22 countries entered to join in demanding extradition of the Kaiser from Holland and their sentiment became divided. Many Germans including the emperor and Field Marshal Von Hindenburg volunteered to stand trial for the all highest. The ex-emperor's sons appealed to King George V of England to save his relatives. The king was said to have remarked that he thought Wilhelm had been "well punished" already. The Allies made two demands of

Girl Scout Activities In Greenville

Easter Greetings to all you Scouts.

Welcome to all the new Scouts. Special congratulations to the new Brownie troop under the excellent guidance of Mrs. Durwood Tucker. These Brownies are making a name for themselves! How was the Easter egg hunt, Brownies?

Troop ten has pulled a fast one on the rest of us. They have a troop house. They now reside in the Shell filling station on Dickinson Ave. They are planning to dress it up! This is a grand project. Happy landing, Troop 10, we know you are tickled pink, and that you will enjoy your new home!

Troop four is stepping high! They are in a hiking mood now. Just recently Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Dunne carried them on a wonderful hike to Rock Springs. After romping through the woods the girls enjoyed a picnic supper. Their Health and Safety Badge will be completed soon—then the hostess will be the next. There seems to be spaghetti in the air! Keep up the good work, Troop four!

The Service Bureau is swinging right along. The girls have many projects ahead and many behind them too. This is a comparatively new field for troop three. Their interest and accomplishments have proved its worth. They are looking forward to having new members.

Brownie troop five under the leadership of Mrs. Skinner took a romp through the woods. One would think they had been starved to death by the way they put away those lunches!

Greenville Negro On State Program

Raleigh, April 23 — (AP) — The 22nd annual meeting of the North Carolina Negro Teachers Association opened here last night with an address by Dr. L. Thomas Hopkins, professor of education at the Teachers College, Columbia University.

Mayor Graham H. Andrews and Dean C. D. Halliburton of St. Augustine's College welcomed delegates last night at Memorial Auditorium, and W. A. Davenport, principal of Eppes High School, Greenville, gave the response. Representatives of the state Office of Price Administration present were Mrs. Ruth Vick Everett, consumer relations representative, and Dean J. T. Taylor, information officer. Dean Taylor on leave from North Carolina College for Negroes, was the first Negro to be appointed to the OPA in any State.

Dr. J. W. Seabrook of Fayetteville, president of the association, presided at last night's meeting. The Washington High School chorus, directed by George Van Hoy Collins, sang.

Showdown Near In Celanese Strike

Newark, N. J., April 23 (AP) — The National War Labor Board and District 50, United Mine Workers, were at loggerheads today over a strike at the Celanese Corporation of America's plastic division which the government has ordered ended.

Two rapid developments last night brought the dispute closer to a showdown. The WLB issued an ultimatum calling for cancellation of the walkout "at once" or the case would be referred to the White House—usually a preliminary to intervention by the armed forces.

Strikers had cheered the reading of a telegram to the WLB asserting that its board was making "unwarranted threats" and offering to back to work only "if assurance is given x x x grievances will be adjusted."

President Howard Gill of the striking local 12666, District 50, of UMW, had said, however, that "if the army or navy enter into the matter, we will gladly work for them but not for the Celanese Company."

stopped thinking about my case "No," he said, seriously, speaking through the interpreter, "never. Not even when I go to bed."

The newspapermen were questioned from early morning until as late as 10 o'clock at night, day after day, from January until March. At that time I was presented with a bulky document in Japanese which I couldn't read, of course—and was told it was a transcript of the questions and answers.

After I was taken to court I found out it was a confession—that I had been guilty the day I signed the document with a thumb-print. All the court had to do was to sentence me.

The courtroom was closed to spectators. There were three judges, the procurator, a bailiff, an interpreter, clerk and an unidentified Japanese who sat off to one side.

The trial didn't take long. The procurator stated his case, and the chief judge solemnly asked some questions. Then the man on the side got up and spoke vigorously for at least ten minutes. Afterward the interpreter said he was my attorney. I had never seen him before, he had never examined the records of the case. That was my defense.

Afterward the procurator asked an 18-months sentence. That was what the judge gave me—suspended so that I could be exchanged. I spent five more days in prison after the trial, just to make sure I couldn't appeal the verdict.

There was no talk about possibility of exchange until June 2, but the Japanese knew about the negotiations early in February. Therefore, all of the legal rigmarole was just to satisfy that queer quirk in the Japanese mind about proper procedure.

Exactly the same thing probably happened to the American aviators. They probably were subjected to torture and endless hours of questioning, then given a military trial which could have but one outcome—the prisoner was guilty.

Stamps G, H, and J Are Good Tomorrow

Raleigh, April 23 — Blue stamps G, H, and J, totaling 48 points, in War Ration Book Two will become valid for the purchase of processed foods beginning Saturday, April 24, and will be good throughout the month of May, the Office of Price Administration announced today.

Blue stamps D, E, and F, which have been in use since March 25, expire on April 30.

This means that blue stamps D, E, F, (the April series), and G, H, J, (the May series), all will be valid for the one week beginning April 24 and the end of the month. A similar "overlap period" was provided toward the end of last month, when D, E, and F blue stamps for April were validated on March 25.

The purpose of the overlap period is to make it easier for housewives to shop toward the end of the month when their family books may lack a sufficient number of ration points to buy an item they need.

Killed In New Guinea

Maj. Kenneth McCullar (above) from Batesville, Miss., U. S. army, fier credited with development of skip bombing, and with the sinking of a Jap light cruiser, a destroyer, and four cargo ships, was killed April 4 when his Flying Fortress, taking off from a New Guinea base, hit a small kangaroo. His death was announced by Allied headquarters in Australia.

Mrs. John Hall Manning of Raleigh, N. C., whose husband, Col. John Hall Manning, is stationed with the army overseas, is doing her part on the home front by helping to build planes at the plant of the Fairchild Aircraft corporation in Burlington, N. C. She took the job after completion of a course in riveting at North Carolina State College in Raleigh. A son and son-in-law of Mrs. Manning are also in the army.

Maj. Charles W. Davis (above) from Montgomery, Ala., is among a group of American soldiers recommended for the medal of honor for capturing a hill position on Guadalcanal and clearing out a Jap obstruction to the U. S. advance.

Fireman Loses Life In Michigan Blaze

Port Huron, Mich., April 23 (AP) — One volunteer fire fighter was fatally trapped and at least 18 other persons were hospitalized when a $100,000 fire swept the downtown white block early today.

The missing man was David B. Colgan, 17, a Port Huron private in the Michigan State troops who was trapped in debris after the collapse of a floor, and scant hope was held for his survival. Rescuers used an air hammer to smash through a 36-inch wall to remove Sgt. Martin Glyshaw, 22, who also was trapped.

Negro Found Guilty In Train Murder

Albany, Ore., April 23 — (AP) — Outraged unperturbed and joking about "my gas ration," Robert E. Lee Fokes faces the prospect of dying in Oregon's gas chamber as the adjudged knife slayer of a navy ensign's pretty bride in lower berth 13 of a California-bound train.

The impassive 20-year-old negro cook late yesterday heard a jury find him guilty in the first degree of murdering Mrs. Martha Virginia James, 21, aboard a Southern Pacific limited before dawn January 23. He yawned as he rose to leave the court and later in his cell laughed with visitors, saying, "wonder if they'll have any trouble getting my gas ration?"

Prosecution evidence offered at Fokes' trial was that he killed Mrs. James when she resisted his efforts to enter her berth.

The jury returned no recommendation for leniency. Thus, under Oregon law, the conviction carried the death penalty.

Shoplifters Given Prison Sentences

By CHESTER WALSH

In Police Court today Judge J. W. H. Roberts gave the limit of the law to Maggie Blackwell, 41, and Helen Wilkins, 22. Negroes of Bethel, for shoplifting at Belk-Tyler's and Blount-Harvey's stores yesterday afternoon. Maggie Blackwell was given two years in jail, one year on each charge, and Helen Wilkins was given a year in jail.

18 months on each charge.

The women were suspected of shoplifting in Belk-Tyler's store yesterday afternoon. They were followed and required to return some dresses and allowed to go their way. Later other stores complained against them at the bus station on the way to Bethel. They had more than $100 worth of merchandise in their shopping bags. Some of it was identified by officials of Belk-Tyler's, Blount-Harvey's, Grant's and McLellan's stores. The loot ranged from baby dresses to expensive women's apparel.

Sheriff's and police officers issued a search warrant and later found a quantity of stolen merchandise at the women's rooms in Bethel. Some of it had been stolen from W. C. Whitehurst and Sons, M. O. Blount's and Carson's, Five and Ten Cent stores in Bethel. Much of the stolen merchandise was recovered. Only two warrants were issued. They were by Blount-Harvey's and Belk-Tyler's stores.

WPB Calling For Salvage Materials

Charlotte, April 22 — That old tank lying by the roadside, the tumbledown bridge, an abandoned railroad siding—don't forget to notify WPB salvage officials if you come across one or more of these sources of scrap.

For a while tips on where scrap could be found came to salvage officials in almost every mail but now few are being received. Most of the old projects have been cleaned up and officials want some new leads to work on.

North Carolinians knowing the whereabouts of old bridges, abandoned buildings and other projects, which might be converted into steel, are asked to communicate with English S. Deschamps, Jr., War Production Board office, 412 Law Building, Charlotte.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

REFLECTIONS ON GOOD FRIDAY

There has not been a time in centuries when the meaning of Good Friday was more poignantly impressed upon men's hearts than today.

We are in a world where multitudes are suffering unbelievable pain. The question must everywhere be arising in men's minds whether any good can ever come out of such suffering.

The answer is to be found in the cross of Christ God took the worst injustice that humanity has ever known anything about and made it the means by which men's souls are saved. He took up in His loving hands the suffering of His only begotten Son and handled it in such a way that this very suffering now constitutes the balm of life's cruellest wounds. It was not what Christ said that saves men's souls, but what He did, and the greatest thing He did was to endure the pain of the cross for our eternal benefit.

And we may infer that in like fashion He will take the pain of this present hour and make it contribute to a great and glorious end. People are not enduring torture and persecution, the horrors of the concentration camp, the pain of battle in vain. God will lift up in His loving hands all such pain. He will accept it as the noble sacrifice of earnest men. He will use it to the overthrowing of evil and to the establishing amongst us of a more just and righteous way of life.

IT'S THE ONLY WAY

Reported executions of American fliers forced down in Japan together with yesterday's warning that a like fate awaits every American flier who lands in Japan is just another evidence of the kinds of enemies we are fighting.

Upon his return from Japan Ambassador Grew was most emphatic in his assertion that annihilation was the only way to rid the world of the Japanese menace. There are a lot of Americans who feel that the good Japs and Germans are the dead ones and that the great majority of them must be placed in this category if the world is to be made safe and a decent place in which to live.

When one goes out to eliminate mad dogs or rattlesnakes he doesn't just stun them and go his way leaving them to recover and again become a menace. It is the same with us in the case of our present enemies. The conflict in which the world is now engaged is one of the forces of good against the forces of evil and complete annihilation of the evil is the only way to preserve the good.

There are those who feel that there should be no hate in our hearts for our enemies in this war but, to kill we must hate and unless we kill those forces that would destroy us we cannot hope to survive ourselves.

The present war is indeed a fight to the finish and any other course would make it a useless sacrifice.

O Son Of Heaven

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

Washington - If there has been any greater wartime confusion than in Selective Service, I don't know where it is.

The new "rules and regulations" issued a few days ago sounded drastic. The overwhelming majority (143-to-7) by which the Kilday bill, delaying the induction of fathers, passed the House indicated a radical change in induction policies.

Some classifications have been abolished and new ones set up. But what it boils down to is simply what has been known for months - and actually no serious change in the induction schedules is contemplated.

The facts that married men with dependents may now be reclassified as 1-A's; that Class 3-B (married men in "essential industries") is to be abolished; that there will be a special classification for farmers and "essential" farm workers, that there will be a reclassification of the 4-H's (men 38 to 45) to see what uses they might be put to in the armed forces or industry, means very little.

In sum and substance, dependency is no longer grounds for automatic deferment; but actually, married men with children in the home, and men whose induction would cause real hardship to dependents, will be the last to be called. That is not different from the program previously followed.

Primarily, the armed forces want single men, from 18 to 37, who are not essential to industry or agriculture. Their last wish is to disrupt the American home, but they are not blind to the fact that some men marry and have children merely to escape the draft. To ignore this would be an injustice to those millions who are willing to serve.

Secondly, the military powers that be want the armed forces built up to around ten or eleven million men. At present there is no indication that it will be less than that. To maintain an army of that size, and supply it and our allies, requires millions more in industry, sea and land transportation, and on the farms.

Selective Service was planned originally as a means of getting the available men into the armed services. It has become apparent that Selective Service now has a greater problem. It has to (1) provide, by exemption, essential war industry and farm workers; (2) preserve so far as possible American family life; (3) avoid complete disruption of civilian industry, morale and economics; (4) employ to best advantage the conscientious objectors.

In spite of its confusions, errors and even isolated idiosyncrasies, here will tell you that Selective Service has been driving in that direction from the first. The only real changes are those which have been made by law (change of age limits, etc.) The newest classifications are just a rewriting of the catechism which they hope will get draft boards a little forwarder in the same old way.

Coal Strike . . .

New York, April 23 - (AP) - A proposal that the northern Appalachian coal wage conference recess to answer the summons of the War Labor Board to appear in Washington tomorrow was rejected by the miners today.

The operators, however, announced at the close of this morning's session that they would leave for Washington this afternoon, and the miners prepared to convene at 2 P. M. whether or not the operators appeared.

Charles O'Neill, spokesman for the operators, said that as far as the conference was recessed, subject to the call of Ezra Van Horn, the chairman, and that the operators expected to leave for Washington this afternoon.

No Softening . . .

WMC officials said the only way McNutt's order could be modified to meet labor objections, would be through broadening the definition of what job-shifts "aid in the effective prosecution of the war."

The McNutt order, in effect, brought under the definition only those cases where a worker is fired, laid-off indefinitely or for a specified period of seven days or more, or is not used full-time at his highest skill. In such cases, it provided, the worker must be released.

The WMC officials said this could be broadened by giving local WMC or affiliated U. S. Employment Service offices blanket authority to release any worker for a better paying job whenever, in their discretion, they felt it would aid the war effort.

Nazis Begin . . .

Likely it was a test of the Russian positions in the area, and was significant in the days' developments.

But the battle of the Kuman remained the principal conflict. The Germans are employing their reinforced armies from the region of Novosibirsk to the Sea of Azov, although the Soviet have not indicated they believe the enemy forces are numerically superior.

The Germans' losses approximate 4,000 dead since they began their attacks in the Kuman, it was estimated.

Pipeline Opened

HORSE PRAIRIE BY CLEM COLT

Chapter 16
Jones went across the street to eat, keeping an eye on the bank. "Sure doin' a land-office business over here," he remarked to the fat proprietor.

But across the street the bully-puss guard, Sugar Dip Carlin, was closing the brass-bound doors of the bank. The Great Run was on, and the street out front of the Storeman's bank was crammed with a mob of irate citizens.

When Jones' big laugh was at its zestfullest someone dropped a hand on his shoulder and, looking up, Tubac saw Mueller.

"Don't make no more trouble," the marshal purred, slipping Tubac's gun from its holster. "Come along."

"What for?" Tubac cried, exasperated. "For startin' that run on the bank."

"I never started it! Haines done that when he shut his doors."

"Come along," Jinx Mueller growled coldly. "You can tell all that to the judge next fall when they bring you up for arraignment."

"Next fall! Hell's hinges!" Jones blared. "How'm I gonna hold down Horse Prairie an' keep away from that land-hoggin' Deckerman claim-jumper?"

"You should of thought of that sooner, C'mon," Mueller grated. Jones stewed and fretted and tramped his cell like a cougar.

Jones smoothed the scowl off his face. Probably Deckerman coming to offer a dicker or something. Jones' freedom, probably, in exchange for his immediate departure with all strings jerked off the Holeman's place.

But it wasn't the Stampede boss at all. It was Haines' chic secretary, Sue Lambert. Jones bounced from the bunk with celerity.

"Pleased surprise wreathed his face, but if she noticed she ignored it."

"She said, 'I didn't come here of my own accord, you may rest assured of that. Mr. Jones, Mr. Haines sent me over to ask you a question.'"

"Haines!" Tubac sneered. "I sh'd think you'd had all you want of that guy after seein' the kind of cheap crook he's turned out, givin' depositor's hunk of blank paper."

"I did not come over here to discuss bank clerks and ink."

"What did you come here for? No - never mind. Don't answer! I can see you come over here to ask me to get Haines loose of that counterfeitin' charge - to get me to say that bum money he's got was put in his bank by me."

"She stood there looking up at him from under her long, dark lashes. 'Well, yes,' she admitted finally. 'But how did you know?'"

"Jones grinned down at her sourly. 'Because I know Haines an' his kind,' he sneered. 'They're all alike - tough when things come their way, but when the gon' gets a little uppish they yap like a coyote. They got no more sand'n a stack of hay; an' if you had any pride about you you'd of quit the old job long ago. It fair makes me sick to see a nice girl like you working for him.'"

"Time's up," grumped the jailer, scuffing his boots; but Sue said imperiously: "Just a moment, please!" and he slunk back out of sight again.

five days prior to the first Monday in May and shall deposit for registration the sum of $1.00; and that all candidates for Judge of Recorder's Court and Solicitor of Recorder's Court shall register their candidacy with the City Clerk at least five days prior to the first Monday in May and shall deposit for registration the sum of $1.00; that there shall be two voting places, to wit: The County Court House and the new City Hall; that all qualified voters residing in Wards No. 1 and 2 shall vote at the County Court House and that all qualified voters residing in Wards 3, 4 and 5 shall vote at the new City Hall; that all persons registering to vote shall be registered according to Wards in which they reside and that all tickets to be voted shall contain the names of properly registered candidates which shall be supplied by the Clerk of the City of Greenville; that run on the blank. Oh, Tubac - she cried, catching his hand again. "You can tell that dang ol' widow-robber his little scheme ain't -"

"But it's not 'his scheme,'" protested Sue. "It was my idea; and I had an awful time trying to convince him. But when I heard they had put you in jail -"

"Did you say this was your idea?"

"Of course!"

"Well, go on," Tubac grumbled. "What's the deal? If you went to all that trouble for me, I guess the least I can do is hear it. But I'm not givin' up Horse Prairie. So if that's what they want -"

"Oh, but it isn't. All they want is for you to tell the marshal the truth about that money - I mean, about you're depositing it in the bank yesterday, so the marshal will withdraw that counterfeitin' charge. If you'll do that, they will arrange it so you can get out on bail."

"What good'll it do me to get out that way if I admit I put bum money in the bank they'll -"

"But you can tell the marshal how you got the money -"

"Hm," Jones said. "But how do I know -"

"Mr. Haines' word is as good as his bond."

"I dunno as I'd put much stock in that, either," Jones sniffed. "But I'll be a gentleman if it kills me. Go tell the old thief I'll get him off that counterfeitin' charge."

Small Crowds Attending Major League Games

May Resort To Morning and Night Games To Pull Up Attendance

By JUDSON BAILEY

Associated Press Sports Writer
The 11 games that have been played in the new major league baseball season have convinced almost everybody that the new Balata ball is just that—a lot of balata—but the deadness of the ball has not alarmed as many persons as the deadly emptiness of the stands for the early games.

Weather reports in wartime are of necessity scant and the first reaction to the shrinkage in attendance was to blame it on unreasonable conditions such as caused postponements of all four eastern openers on Wednesday.

Unfavorable weather has been responsible in varying degrees and in certain instances, such as the tiny turnout of 5,800 fans in big Yankee stadium yesterday to see the American league champions edge out the Washington Senators, 5-4.

On the other hand it had nothing to do with the fact that only 1,897 persons went to Crosley field in Cincinnati to see another pitching classic in which the Reds again whipped the world champion St. Louis Cardinals, 1-10 in ten innings.

The small attendance goes deeper than the weather. Many thousands of baseball fans are now in military service and countless others are too busy in war work to get to games on week-day afternoons. The major leagues may have to play more night games and possibly will experiment with morning contests.

Cincinnati's second-day crowd was a drop from 27,709 on Wednesday in spite of the fact that there was every reason to expect a duplication of the spectacular struggle which the Reds and Cards waged the day before.

A repeat performance is exactly what the fans present received, too, for Lefty Ernie White of the Cards and the veteran Ray Starr of the Reds pitched scorelessly till the last of the tenth. Then Lillie Frey, who had led off the 11th inning the day before with a single and eventually carried the winning run across, did it again. He hit safely, was sacrificed to second, went to third on a single by Max Marshall and came home on another single by Bert Haas.

Starr gave five hits and no walks while White was touched for six safeties and an equal number of passes.

The Brooklyn Dodgers, gloating over the tough time their rivals were having in the west meanwhile easily thrashed the New York Giants, 5-2 in their getaway before 16,775 fans at Ebbets field. Ed had pitched six-hit ball and his teammates got him four runs in the first three innings. The Giants would not have been any competition at all except for manager Mel Ott, who made four of his hits and batted in both their runs.

The Chicago Cubs turned the tables on the Pittsburgh Pirates with a 4-3 triumph. A long fly by Phil Cavarretta with the bases loaded in the seventh was needed to break a tie score although Claude Passeau and Eddie Hanvewski held the Pirates to five hits.

At New York Joe Gordon came through with the first home run of the major league season, but it took a double by Roy (Stormy) Weatherly with the bases loaded in the last of the ninth to bring the Yankees from behind and subdue the Senators. The Yanks were out-hit 8-6.

McNutt Pitches First Ball As Baseball Season Opens

Paul V. McNutt, War Manpower Commissioner, heaves out the first pitch in Washington Tuesday afternoon as the Washington Senators open the 1942 baseball season with the Philadelphia Athletics. Connie Mack, Athletics manager, Clark Griffith, Senators president, (left to right) cheered the opening of a season which may have a struggle to survive wartime conditions.

but shutting out the Philadelphia Athletics, 1-0, on three hits, but the once ferocious Red Sockers were held to two hits themselves by Jesse Flores and Roger Wolff. However, one was a fourth-inning double by Pete Fox, who got across with a run.

Virgil Trucks pitched a 4-0 four-hit shutout for Detroit against the Cleveland Indians to avenge the Tigers' opening day whitewashing.

Schwartz did that job in New York last Sunday and a lot of the guys who sit in the stands and bet dimes on all the runners in Lane 3 or anyone who wears a purple jersey, would like to know what they decided.

Today's Guest Column

By Ted (AP) Meier: Boxing is booming here. Promoter Herman Taylor terms Philadelphia the best fight town in the country outside of New York. Jimmy Toppi, who has only 2200 seats to sell at his Olympia Club, has run 53 consecutive shows at a profit. One show netted only a nickel, but still it was on the right side. Clare Haire, copromoter with Ned Irish of basketball doubleheaders at Convention Hall, took a wartime job on the sports desk of the Philadelphia Record. Clair says he'll have a court schedule for next winter lined up in a few weeks but he doesn't expect to know before July what the prospects really are. Penn opens

Another Shortage

Every year William Dupont, who likes good tennis, invites a number of top-flight racquet welders to visit his estate near Wilmington, Del. Without even using any of their twelve weeks tournament allowance, they fill up on high class food, boss the butler around and have a grand time. Nothing more is expected of them than playing a couple of sets a day, which they'd go anyway to keep in practice. This year Dupont can't find any guests to invite.

Today's Guest Star

Wilbur Kirby Jackson (Miss Daily News) It has often been written and more often said that no war ever brings any good. Well, this war has. Didst the Southern Association decide that the Shagbush playoff system was out for the duration?

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

Philadelphia, April 23 — AP— There aren't any mutual machines at Franklin Field, but there's one of the greatest sets of handicappers you ever saw for the Penn relays races. They're the timers—ten of them and all red-hot track fans. Not only do they handle as many as three stop watches at a time to keep tabs on various performances, but they get together in advance and go over the past records of the runners so they'll be sure to catch the right ones. ## Should Fertilize Soybeans, Peanuts

By CHESTER WALSH

Farmers who grow soybeans and peanuts know that these two crops and all leguminous plants enrich the soil with nitrogen, but they have found out that peanuts and soybeans are heavy feeders on plant food such as potash, phosphate, calcium and magnesium and take much of the mineral elements from the soil. To offset this, county agents are pointing out the importance of fertilizing land on which soybeans and peanuts are grown. Long ago when soybeans were grown as a supplemental crop and a few beans for seed were harvested and the plants left for the hogs, the land was not so much depleted of plant food. It is different now, when the beans are harvested and the plants are cut for hay. Agricultural specialists are urging farmers to generously fertilize soybeans and peanuts for better and heavier crops.

There used to be a saying among farmers, "My land has been beamed out." We heard this when farmers were fertilizing cotton tobacco and corn and "trusting to luck" with soybeans and peanuts, but not so much now since they realize the importance of fertilizing the crop. Farmers who apply fertilizer these two crops, especially where the beans are harvested and the vines taken off the land, are securing bountiful yields of soybeans and peanuts and a substantial supply of hay, a farmer who is generous with fertilizer, stated his crop last year demonstrated the value of this plan.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I can't think of anything else you'll need for your Victory garden, Judge... you've got pretty nearly everything."
"I think so, too, John. Ever get your asparagus patch going?"
"I gave that up last year, Judge. Tried it six years in a row with no luck. Just haven't got the right soil, I guess?"
"Well, I think you're wise, John... no use keeping on trying things you know won't work. Just like prohibition. State-wide prohibition has been tried in this country seventy-two times in the last ninety years. It has been adopted forty-seven times in the past thirty-three years and discarded everywhere except in three states. Same thing was tried in eight provinces in Canada and in Norway, Sweden, Finland and Russia but it was an admitted failure and universally abandoned.

"The reason is prohibition does not prohibit. All you get is bootleg liquor instead of legal liquor, plus no end of crime and corruption."
