Soviet Hammer German Defenses At Novorossisk

Make Slight Gains In Bloodiest Fighting Since Stalingrad; Russian Air Force Continues Heavy Offensive, But Unable To Stop Flow Of Supplies

By EDDY GILMORE Moscow, May 11 (AP)—Red Army troops crawling forward yard by yard in some of the bloodiest fighting of the Russian-German war since the days of Stalingrad, battled furiously today within the German defense lines at Novorossisk, but it was reported they were meeting stiffening Axis resistance.

The Red air force meanwhile kept up a major series of attacks against the German supply lines all along the front but apparently was not successful in halting the flow of supplies and reinforcements the Germans pushed into sectors of the Kuban to feed their numerous counterattacks.

Tanks, armored cars, motorized artillery and heavy field pieces were reported to have been brought in by the Germans. A dispatch from the Black Sea fleet said that its air force was continuing attacks upon enemy supply ships and land positions.

The German radio asserted today that 474 Soviet planes had been destroyed in the week ending last Saturday against a loss of only 36 German planes, and that the Russians had lost 168 tanks in the Kuban bridgehead fighting since April 29.

The noon communique told how a Red Army detachment stormed into the German trenches in their Novorossisk defense lines, killing 80 of the enemy to hold the position. In repulsing an Axis counterattack in another sector of the battle zone, 200 Germans were killed, a large quantity of guns was captured, and enemy equipment was destroyed, it said.

Secretary Eden Says Hess Still Confined

London, May 11 (AP)—Rudolf Hess is confined under the same conditions imposed on his arrival in this country following his mysterious flight from Germany in 1941. Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden told the House of Commons today.

Answering the latest of an interminable series of questions concerning Britain's most intriguing prisoner, Eden denied that Adolf Hitler's deputy had brought $60,000 worth of British securities to Britain or that any member of his family was here.

The WAR TODAY AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

THE WAR TODAY M. By DEWITT MACKENZIE The Axis debacle in Tunisia has given Hitler and his followers a bad case of mental willows.

The Fuehrer is moaning about the "superhuman hardships" of his troops in Russia, and about Allied bombing of Western Europe. We may be sure that he eagerly approves Spanish Generalissimo Franco's appeal for peace.

One are the days when Hitler dreamed of overturning the world. All he asked of fortune now is that he be permitted to retain some part of the territories which he has stolen.

It's reasonable to suppose that in advocating peace, Franco is considering, among the many issues, the effect of a continuation of the war on his own country. Neutral Spain is like a peach on a limb which hangs low over the school-yard fence. It might put ideas into the heads of passers by.

JAPS REPULSE BRITISH ARMY

See Threat To India-Burma Frontier In Drive

By The Associated Press A Tokyo broadcast asserted today that Japanese troops, rolling back Field Marshal Sir Archibald P. Wavell's British forces, had advanced within 12 miles of the India-Burma frontier in one of the gravest threats of invasion yet to confront India's 390,000,000.

The locale of the thrust was not disclosed and confirmation was lacking from any allied source. British headquarters acknowledged three days ago, however, that Marshal Wavell's legions had been withdrawn from Butheading, 60 miles north of the Big Japanese base at Akyab, under pressure by enemy infiltration forces.

The Tokyo Pacific war developments saw 14 the U. S. air force planes blow up seven locomotives and blast four river boats in two days of strafing sweeps over Japanese-occupied Indo-China, which adjoins Burma in the north.

Allies Continue Raids on Germans

London, May 11 (AP)—The sky over the English channel was filled today with two-way traffic during a day of sharp activity in which Allied bombers and fighters battered the continent anew and the Germans raided an East Anglian town where many girls were killed when an air war was hit.

Big Allied formations swung across the channel soon after noon and for some time many more squadrons headed toward France.

The raiders began streaming back across the channel from the direction of Boulogne shortly after noon. It was a fine sunny morning overcast in the afternoon. Accompanying the air activity was a short burst of shelling by German big guns on the channel between Boulogne and Calais.

Fifteen German Focke-Wulf fighter-bombers swooped down on an East Anglian town early this morning, dropping explosives, machine-gunning buses and dropping a bomb on a building housing a number of auxiliary territorial service girls, where 11 bodies later were recovered.

At least seven others—five civilians and two soldiers—were killed.

Germany Decree State Of Siege In Holland

Execute Dutch In Effort To Halt Disorders As Invasion Jitters Mount

London, May 11 (AP)—The Netherlands news agency Aneta quoted reports today that a state of siege had been decreed throughout Nazi-occupied Holland and that 26 Dutch patriots had been executed and 10 others sentenced to death as a result of disorders apparently connected with an attempt to stage a general strike.

Aneta said the state of siege was ordered by Arthur Seyss-Inquart, Reichs commissioner for occupied Holland, and quoted the Stockholm newspaper Svenska Dagbladet as saying it resulted from "serious disturbances" following a Nazi order for rearmament of all former Netherlands army members as prisoners of war.

Aneta added that serious interruptions of the supply of food in the country resulting from strikes were reported. The German-controlled press in the country said editorially that "expected and accountable agitation has changed into unreasonable unrest, which has assumed a dangerous and intolerable form."

Aneta continued, saying further that De Telegraaf of Amsterdam termed the situation "most serious." Despite stringent censorship on Holland, there were indications during the past week of serious disorders, Aneta said, adding that the German-controlled Netherlands radio mentioned a "short fierce action" and told the people it was futile to "fight yourselves to death in the fire of German machine guns."

The news agency said that a state of "police martial law" was proclaimed in four provinces April 30 and was extended to the remainder of the nation the next day. (Continued on Page Six)

Rommel In Germany

London, May 11 (AP)—Marshal Erwin Rommel, German Africa Corps commander, has been in Germany since the British Eighth Army captured Gabes, a Berlin radio broadcast of a special high command announcement said tonight.

Announce Rules On Sugar Allotments

Sugar rations for home canning and preserving will be issued this year in accordance with the following instructions: R. B. Roberts, state rationing officer, said today. Each consumer is entitled to five pounds for the 1943 season which is March 1, 1943 to February 29, 1944 for preserves, jams, jellies, etc. "One pound for each four quarts of finished canned fruits or fruit juices with a total of 25 pounds for the entire season, including the five pounds allotted for jams, jellies, and preserves, and under no conditions will the full allotment be made at one time, as canning and preserving crops are still unknown, and will be coming on the market during the year.

"To obtain the above mentioned allotments, applicants must present War Ration book one for all consumers for whom he applies as the board must note the amount of sugar granted on the cover of his book one." The regulation suggests to the local boards that only six pounds be allotted for canning and five pounds be allotted for preserving at one time, and that additional allotments be made later as the crops come on the market.

London, May 11 (AP)—Prime Minister Churchill, in a congratulatory message to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, said today "the simultaneous advance of the British and United States armies side by side into Tunis and Bizerte is an augury full of hope for the future of the world."

The text of Churchill's message: "Let me add my heartfelt congratulations to those which have been sent to you by his majesty and the war cabinet on the brilliant result of the North African campaign by the army under your supreme direction."

"The simultaneous advance of the British and United States armies side by side into Tunisia and Bizerte is an augury full of hope for the future of the world. Long may they march together, striking down tyrants and oppressors of mankind."

Churchill also sent congratulations to Gen. Sir Harold Alexander, Tunisian ground chief, and air marshal Sir Arthur Tedder, air commander. He asked Sir Arthur to relay his message to Major Gen. Not Over Seven Cents

Atlanta, Ga., May 11 (AP)—Consumers in the southeastern OPA region were asked today not to pay more than the ceiling price of 7 cents a pound for new potatoes.

The request made in a statement by Francis E. Kamper, OPA food official, resulted, he said, from information that many stores in the region have been selling new potatoes as high as ten cents a pound.

Says Medical Profession Will See Many Changes

Raleigh, May 11 (AP)—Governor Broughton, welcoming the 450 members of the North Carolina Medical Society at its convention here, said today that a third of North Carolinians called for military service have been rejected. "From the standpoint of the nation's safety we cannot progress with a population only two-thirds fit," he said.

He also termed "deplorable" the prevalence of venereal disease, especially among the Negro population. "We can't have a healthy North Carolina by having simply a healthy white population," he said, adding that the medical profession, public health, the schools and the homes all must cooperate to remedy this situation. Earlier, Dr. Donnell B. Cobb of Goldsboro, president of the Medical Society said in the annual president's address that "the practice of medicine as we have known it is undergoing profound changes."

GROWERS PLAN TO SET PRICES

Fruit And Vegetable Men Discuss Situation With OPA

Charlotte, N. C., May 11 (AP)—Fruit and vegetable growers from the southeast met here today to discuss and assemble data for submission to the Office of Price Administration to be used as the basis for setting price ceilings on their products.

William H. Stanton, head of the fruit and vegetable unit of the food price division of OPA, Washington, presided and outlined OPA procedure in setting other price ceilings, which he indicated would be used on fruits and vegetables.

Henry W. Miller of Paw Paw, Va., chairman of the national apple planning committee, presented a brief in which the committee went on record as opposing any ceiling on fresh apples and other perishable commodities but pledged their cooperation if the government considered such a ceiling essential.

They asked, however, that the ceiling be high enough to insure production at all points, and favored a retail ceiling price based on the top grade. Stanton, citing President Roosevelt's "hold the line" order of April 8, said the OPA interpretation of that order was that it is mandatory and that ceilings should be placed on nearly all fresh fruits and vegetables.

Apples, peaches, pears, grapes and papaya canteloupes will come under the fresh ceilings to be set up, he indicated. The procedure used heretofore, and probably to be followed on these products, is to establish wholesale prices at leading cities in the nation based on freight and handling costs with a flat price set for the wholesaler, Stanton said.

Flat retail ceilings would then be based on the wholesale price. Ceilings are also to be set on the seven principal vegetables, cabbage, string beans, tomatoes, lettuce, carrots, peas and spinach, Stanton said. (Continued on Page Six)

Panel Discussion on Christian Home
The Christian Endeavor Society of the Eighth Street Christian Church under the direction of Mrs. H. G. Haney and Mrs. Wm. Bradsher conducted a most interesting panel discussion on the Christian Home at the service last Sunday evening. Miss Peggy Rose Smith presided in a delightful manner and reviewed the program at its close.

A light supper was served and the panel discussion was held around the table. Mayor E. B. Sugg representing the fathers emphasized the comradeship of father and son as they attend together the services of the church and Bible School. Mrs. E. E. Corbette, Jr. representing mothers emphasized the necessity of sympathetic understanding between mothers and daughters and read a delightful poem, entitled "A Beautiful Gift" by Grace Hottel Crowell. Edwitt Proctor, Jr., as the son in the Christian Home stressed the obligation of honoring mothers, not merely on Mother's Day, but, a consistent Christian life every day and Shirley Savage as the daughter in a Christian home made clear the responsibility of daughters sharing their part of the tasks and chores of the family's life.

June Johnston sang an exceptionally beautiful song entitled "M-O-T-H-E-R" and Jimmy Haney played "Ave Maria" as a violin solo. A fine part of the program was the spirited discussion which followed every speech. The entire group decided to make this an annual observance in the life of the church.

Perry Speaks On Christian Homes
By WYATT BROWN
It is high time parents make their home a place of safety for their boys and girls, declared Reverend George W. Perry, pastor in his sermon Sunday morning at Jarvis Memorial Methodist church on the subject, "The Worth of Christian Homes."

The lack of respect for God's word has grown out of the lack of parents' interest in the word and their failure to read it to the family and to have parts of it memorized. Mr. Perry brought out He warned parents not to be surprised if their children are reading the cheapest magazines and not to blame the men who sell the junk. "Father is too busy to read the Bible. But if you do not read it, your children will not," Mr. Perry affirmed.

Attorney General Hands Down Ruling On Election

Raleigh, May 11—(AP)—Attorney General Harry McMillan ruled today that "notwithstanding the fact that the filing time for candidates in a municipal election has expired, the voters may write in the name of any person for whom they desire to vote, unless such practice is prohibited by a local act."

A justice of the peace does not have jurisdiction in a case of "spending upon the highways."

"All morning I have raced forward with the armored scout cars and seen the amazing spectacle of the German army huddled in the dust of a bloody retreat."

"Five thousand German infantrymen surrendered in the last four hours to one armored brigade."

German troops, declaring "we are kaputt—ruined," were meekly asking newsmen to accept their surrender.

Sweeping clear across the western entrance to the peninsula, armored British vanguards reached the northern shore, and also sent spearheads plunging into the heart of Axis last-stand defenses.

A Reuters message from Allied headquarters said the British entered Hammamet this morning.

Frontline dispatches said that Axis troops, dazed by the swift Allied conquest of Tunis and Bizerte, appeared to have lost their nerve, and that prospects of an Axis "Barbarossa" in the Philippines were dimming.

Trapped Axis soldiers were inclined to surrender at the first opportunity, it was said.

"The towns of Soliman, Grombalia, and Menzel Bou Zelfa have now been taken over by British infantry," Allied headquarters announced.

Pilots who continued to sweep the beaches reported little activity and no landings.

A soldier who is sent to a military camp in North Carolina for training would not be a resident of North Carolina within the meaning of the divorce laws of North Carolina. Of course, if the soldier lived off the reservation and intended to make North Carolina his home, he would be a resident.

The proceeds derived from the sale of confiscated tax-paid liquor should be paid into the school fund of the county in which the seizure was made.

said the cornered enemy apparently had recognized the futility of attempting to get away, while huge fire-blasting along the roads of the bomb-riddled cape indicated the Germans already were burning their supplies.

Captured along with the flood of prisoners were messages of encouragement sent to the front lines by Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini. It was not known when the messages were sent, but there was no evidence that they had had any effect on the enemy's resistance.

The Nazis had attempted to stop the British drive by using their tanks, drained of fuel, as fortresses, but when the British renewed their deadly assault yesterday morning opposition cracked and the armor of Lieut. Gen. E. A. N. Anderson swept through to the south coast area with but little difficulty.

The tanks reached Soliman, 10 miles southeast of Hammamet, by 2 p.m., swept on to Grombalia, six miles to the south, by 5 p.m., and by 8:30 p.m. last night were within six miles of Hammamet.

(The German radio, quoting Berlin military quarters, said the Allies had made a "deep dent" in German defenses in the western part of the Cap Bon bridgehead and the official communique acknowledged that Axis soldiers were suffering "very great hardships" after weeks of incessant fighting.)

(What probably was the last tank battle to be fought in Tunisia was raging between the British and remnants of the German 19th Armored Division on Cap Bon, the Algerian radio said.)

(The British had advanced several miles northeast of Hammamet up Cap Bon, the radio said, and found the roads intact but littered with transport and material which the Germans had not taken the time to destroy.)

A German attempt to answer the Red Air Force sweep against their rail lines and supply centers by sending 200 planes in an attack on the Rostov-Bataisk area, gateway to the Caucasus, was met by withering anti-aircraft fire which brought down 43 of the raiders, it was reported.

On the ground, in the narrowing strip of the German-held Kuban, large forces crapped in trenches, in the valleys and on the mountain sides, with the Russians aiming at the systematic extermination of the Germans and Rumanians.

Red Star, the Red Army newspaper, said the German defense line around Novorossisk "is deep and built for permanent defense."

The first trenches were captured

Sunday and since then the Russians have been creeping forward, blasting enemy positions.

(The German-controlled Paris radio said that sea-borne Russian troops made large-scale landings in the Novorossisk area.)

Land action on other fronts was insignificant. The Germans suffered losses in new thrusts in the Donets River Valley, near Liski-chansk and south of Balakleya, and Russian artillery was busy in the Smolensk, Volkhov and Sevsk sectors, it was said.

efforts of the government. It has always approved such efforts when legitimate and sound. It has always supported government medical aid to those afflicted with mental and nervous diseases, to those affected with tuberculosis, and to the crippled. It has always worked with and supported the long established and excellent work done by the public health service.

"Today our people are receiving the best medical service the world has to offer. They are enjoying the lowest death rate in the history of the nation. North Carolina has the lowest death rate of any state east of the Mississippi, and the average life of expectancy has been almost doubled since the Civil war."

"And yet," he continued, "the people apparently desire some change. In this inevitable expansion of medical service, which is only just beginning, we must take these facts into consideration:

"Of the 50,000 to 60,000 physicians who will have been in the armed forces, a large number will have to face the sudden turning back into competitive civilian practice.

If the war continued for many more years — and there are those who think it will — might we not find our Democratic form of government leaving even more toward bureaucracy? Dictators and Bureaucrats rarely deign to take the advice of bodies like the medical profession. How different it would be to be told exactly what to do, whom to treat and when to treat them and the people, too, may derive a real sense of security during these troublesome times and during the post-war period to feel that a definite national health plan has been crystallized.

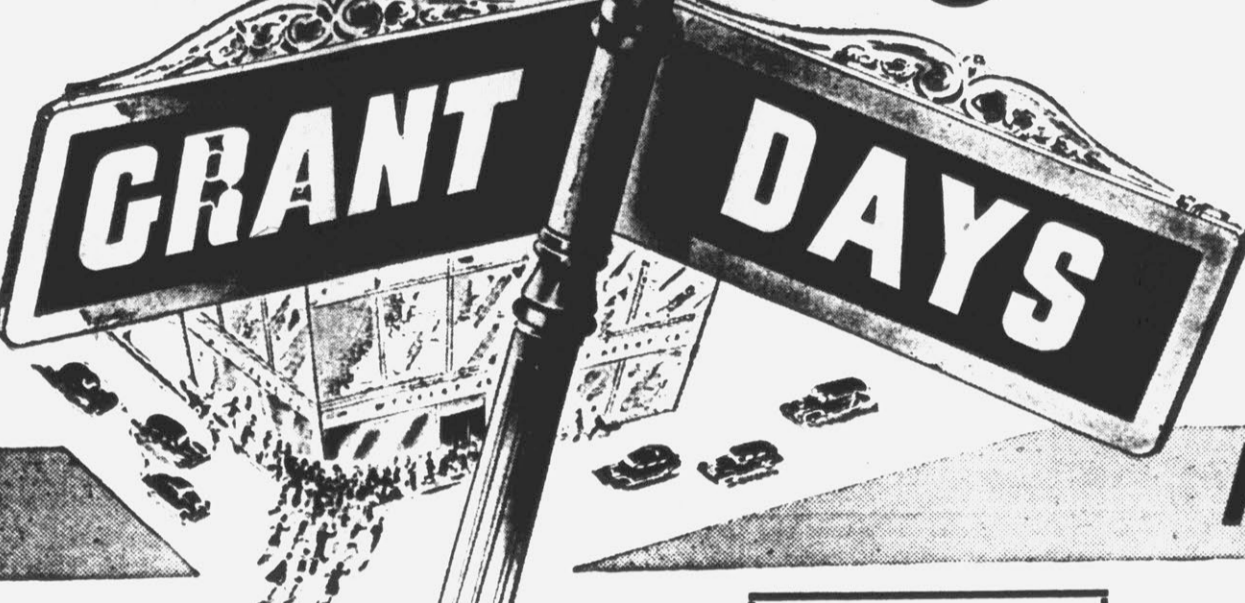

"Because of popular and political appreciation of the fact that the cost of medical care so often comes at a time when one is incapacitated and, therefore, least able to bear it, there has been increase growth of health insurance plans, both commercial and those sponsored by hospitals and physicians.

"Unquestionably, as a field for social action has made . . . on both voluntary and governmental bodies."

With these problems in mind, he said, it is vital that members of the medical profession realize that there is a demand for expansion of hospital and medical service. "This demand stems from the people with whom we work. What these people need is the opportunity and convenience of prepayment to provide for hospital and medical care."

Captain of Detectives Martin Chiffe of St. Louis Police Department, said that James Franklin (below), 31, had confessed to him the slaying and criminal assault of Mary Jane Tankersley, 3, (above), whose slashed body was found in a Forest Park viaduct. Her nearly nude body was found in the little-used pedestrian underpass on St. Louis' west side.

MAKE BIDS FOR SUB'S HOLDOUT

Phillies, Giants And Reds All Want Services Of Lou Novikoff

By JUDSON BAILEY
AP Sports Writer

The major leagues are using the intermission before their first inter-sectional strife of the season to feel out trade possibilities and the foremost figure in their discussions of deals apparently is Lou Novikoff, the Chicago Cubs' holdout outfielder.

Manager Jimmy Wilson of the Bruins disclosed under cross examination last night that three other National League clubs—the Cincinnati Reds, New York Giants and Philadelphia Phillies—have made propositions for the mad Russian.

The hitch thus far is that the prospective buyers want to spend money instead of talent and Wilson is insisting on a righthanded hitting outfielder in exchange for the colorful clouter who batted an even 300 last year.

James Gallagher, general manager of the Cubs, has taken the position, publicly at least, that Novikoff would either have to agree to the Cubs' terms or remain out of baseball. Nevertheless, Gallagher is making the current eastern swing with his ball club and undoubtedly will be asked about Novikoff at various stops.

Just what rival clubs might be willing to give, or the Cubs take, for Novikoff, is a matter for guesswork. The Phillies, who perhaps need him most, have the least to offer. Besides there is a feeling on the Cubs that if he were traded to Philadelphia he probably would turn up shortly afterward with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

This is because Branch Rickey of the Dodgers and Bill Cox, the Phillies' new owner, are intimate traders. Recently the Cubs sold Pitcher George Washburn to the Phillies and within a week he had been sent to Brooklyn's Montreal farm in the International League.

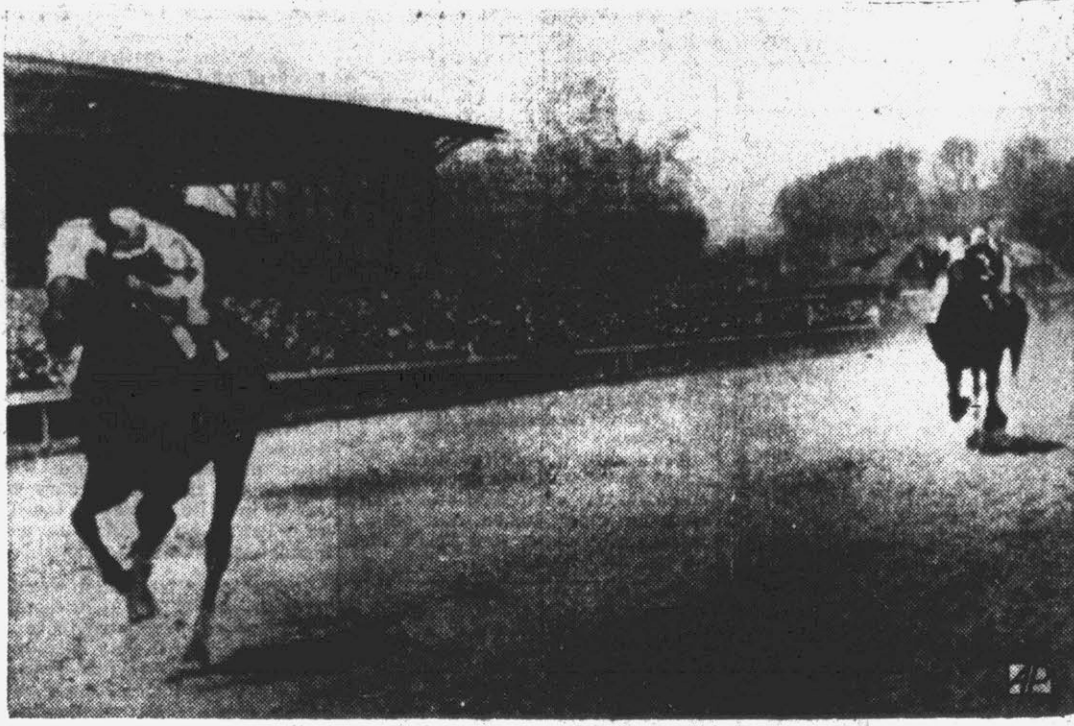

The Giants have offered nothing but cash and the Cubs probably are covetous of Buster Maynard, whom they have little chance of getting. If a player deal should be made with the Reds, Gerald Walker might go to the Cubs.

Brooklyn might get into the bidding. The Dodgers, although leading the National League, are far from satisfied with their performances to date. The team has been in a hitting slump and of its six defeats, five have been by one run and the other by two.

The lineup for the first inter-sectional games is:

National League—Chicago at New York, Pittsburgh at Brooklyn (tonight), Cincinnati at Philadelphia, and St. Louis at Boston.

They Called It A Horse Race

But Count Fleet (left) wasn't racing as he won the 53rd running of the Preakness Stakes Saturday (May 8). He was galloping along, pulled up by Jockey Johnny Longden. Back of him eight lengths came Blue Swords, who has been coughing in the Count's dust all season. Behind Blue Swords, almost obscured, is Vincentive. New Moon, so far behind that he isn't even in this view, won $2,000 just by running.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, May 11 —(AP)—According to the table of performances for the A.A.U. primary physical fitness test, a guy over 35 should be able to run 100 yards in 14.5 seconds and a mile in seven minutes or run and walk a mile in ten minutes. What, on an "A" card? Back-tracking the rumor that the Army has been negotiating to take over Madison Square Garden, we learn that the source probably was a recent visit by a couple of government men who were asking about hiring the joint for some sort of show next fall. A Columbus (O.) newspaper reported there were 500 people in the stands when Beulah Park Racing began and 5,000 cars in the parking lot. Wonder how the other 4,500 got there?

Wrong Team

When Bill McKechnie, Jr., arrived in Syracuse to take over as second baseman for the Yankees...

American League—New York at Chicago, Boston at St. Louis, Philadelphia at Detroit and Washington at Cleveland (night).

This year each club will make only three East-West jaunts instead of four because of travel difficulties and the first round will take 12 days. Also because of the travel situation, two off days have been allowed for travel between inter-sectional series instead of one as in the past.

YOUR DREAM WILL COME TRUE...

Yes, it will.

Some bright day before you know it, so to speak, you'll find yourself driving in here to get 4 or 5 spanking, brand new Generals.

Generals... with the Top-Quality you used to know so well. Generals with the kind of mileage and comfort and safety that we got so much pleasure out of selling you. And you, so much pleasure out of having on your car.

They'll be even better Quality Generals... but they'll be different Generals, too. Different and better in ways that only engineers can dream about. We can only hint... rayon... nylon... and American-Made rubber.

Think of never worrying about blowouts. Of a tire that will keep on running and running and running... maybe as long as your car. Of a miraculously light tire body, yet one that is far stronger and not bothered by heat.

When? No one can say just now. But it's good to know that Top-Quality Tires... Generals... our first love and our last, will be moving out of here some day on your car.

Meanwhile, it seems everybody in town must have decided that this is the place to come for expert advice, dependable recapping (right in our own shop), and where to bring their certificates for new tires.

At least, we're the busiest in our history making new friends and keeping our customers rolling until that General Tire of The Future arrives.
