Attu Campaign Looms As Start Of Bi-Offensive

Progress In Five-Day-Old Battle Reported By Secretary Knox As 'Satisfactory'; Jap War Minister Prepares His People For Bad News

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER Washington, May 15.— (AP)— American soldiers and sailors, fighting since Tuesday for possession of the Aleutian island of Attu, stood out today as the possible vanguard of a mighty force the country expects eventually to sweep on to Tokyo.

The lack of fresh news from Attu, which lies at the western end of the long string of islands pointing across the north Pacific to the Japanese homeland, caused no apparent worry in the capital where hopes for success were buoyed by these factors:

- 1. A belief that the high command would not have ordered the operation without making arrangements fairly sure of winning through.
2. The statement by Secretary of the Navy Knox late yesterday that "it is going very satisfactorily."
3. Japanese dispatches speaking of "crack" American forces landing in numbers superior to the defenders, a possible face-saving-in-advance idea.

The American command knows how many Japanese are on Attu, Knox said, while declining to give the figure.

Asked whether the operation is part of a general plan of a United States offensive in the Pacific, he told a press conference that "when you take enemy territory it certainly can be called offensive."

Knox commented that the mountains, cold, treeless island is "tough terrain" for fighting, its difficulties comparable to those of the jungles of Guadalcanal island in the south Pacific, where it took seven months to expel the Japanese.

And the belief that subsequent steps soon may strike at southwestern, southern and central Pacific strongholds of the enemy's ocean empire seemed at least partially borne out by:

1. Recent conferences between Gen. Douglas MacArthur, commander in Australia and the southwestern Pacific area, and Admiral William F. Halsey, Jr., commander in the southern Pacific.

2. Emphasis on the Pacific situation by choice of high officials sitting in on the conferences here of President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill.

3. Expressed opinion of qualified authorities that no major Pacific move would have been started unless joint army-navy-air power was set to continue the offensive series all along the line.

In a typical Axis propaganda gesture of preparing the home front for bad news, Japan's former war minister, Gen. Sadao Araki, was quoted by the Berlin radio as declaring that "setbacks there and at"

Best High School Band In The State

The Greenville High School Band the best school band in North Carolina, today came in for some exceptionally high praise for the talent and ability of the young musicians manifested in the presentation of the Kiwanis minstrel at the college last night.

The boys and girls did a grand job in opening the show and with a special selection under the direction of Bandmaster Harold McDougale.

Business and professional men and others complimented the band for its participation in community affairs and recalled that the musicians have frequently stimulated the sale of War Bonds here.

The WAR TODAY

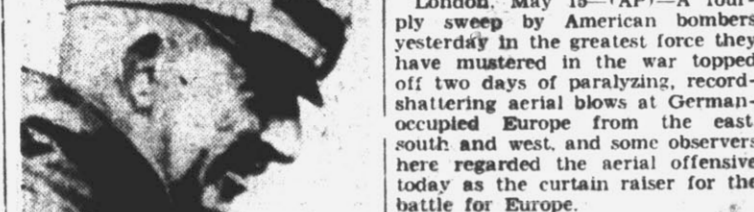

AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE Hitler's Europe has been rocking under an unprecedented deluge of bombs, from west to east. Italy and her great islands of Sicily and Sardinia have been undergoing furious air-raids. American forces have stormed their way ashore of the Jap base of rock-bound Attu among the Aleutian islands off Alaska, and bitter fighting is reported to be proceeding.

Allied Air Fleet Pounding Nazis

FortyEight Hours Of Unprecedented Assaults Leave Wake Of Ruin And Devastation

German General

London, May 15.—(AP)—A four-day sweep by American bombers yesterday in the greatest force they have mustered in the war topped off two days of paralyzing, record-shattering aerial blows at German-occupied Europe from the east, south and west, and some observers here regarded the aerial offensive today as the curtain raiser for the battle for Europe.

British patrols kept the air offensive going last night with intruder flights over northern France. The Air Ministry said two enemy planes were destroyed and that railway targets and a supply ship were attacked.

In addition to sending out the greatest number of planes in a single day, the American air forces engaged in a round-trip flight of more than 1,000 miles to blast the German naval and submarine base at Kiel. It marked their deepest penetration of Europe.

In closely coordinated supporting attacks, American heavy units bombed the former General Motors plant in Antwerp and a large German airfield and repair station at Courtrai. In Belgium, medium bombers made successful low level attacks on industrial targets at Veltzen, near Haarlem, in the Netherlands.

The tremendous explosive power dumped from coastal France through Germany to German-occupied western Russia and on Mediterranean bases since Wednesday night can best be pictured by these figures:

1. The plan prevents hiring of workers from essential industries; sets up machinery for workers to transfer from one essential industry to another, if it will aid in the war effort; specifies reasons for which an employe may leave one job for another, and provides for an advisory committee to help in the transfer.

2. Sets up machinery enabling workers, under certain conditions, to transfer from one essential industry to another if such a step will aid in the effective prosecution of the war or compelling personal reasons make such a step advisable.

3. Establishes valid reasons which entitle an employe to a statement of availability and sets up procedures under which statements may be obtained. The plan provides that statements of availability shall be issued to any worker by his most recent employer or the U. S. Employment service whenever the employe (A) is discharged by his last employer, (B) is laid off for an indefinite period or for a period of seven days or more, (C) can establish that his present employment does not utilize him at his highest skill or that he is not being employe full time, (D) has compelling personal reasons for a change in employment.

4. Provides that under certain conditions a statement of availability may be issued if it established that the change of employment will aid in the effective prosecution of the war.

5. Stipulates that where an employe has a valid reason for a job transfer within essential industries, the U. S. Employment service is authorized to grant such statements of availability when the employer refuses to grant the statement.

6. Provides that employers may not hire in-migrant workers who have not lived within the normal commuting distance of the prospective employer's establishments, except through the local U. S. Employment service.

7. Permits workers to transfer freely from other than essential to essential activities. No statement of availability is needed unless the worker is going to work outside the normal commuting distance.

8. Provides that where an employe has a valid reason for a job transfer within essential industries, the U. S. Employment service is authorized to grant such statements of availability when the employer refuses to grant the statement.

Manpower Stabilization Plan Effective In State

Persons Engaged In Essential Occupations Not Permitted To Change To Other Jobs

Raleigh, May 15.—(AP)—A plan for stabilization of employment in North Carolina—effective at 12:01 A. M. today—was announced here by Dr. J. S. Dorton, state director of the War Manpower Commission.

The program in North Carolina part of a regional plan which became effective today in Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina and the District of Columbia, Dr. Dorton said.

In announcing the regional plan, Leo R. Werts, acting regional WMC Director, said that it is subject to amendment to fit peculiar problems within a state or a locality within the region.

"The aim of the plan," Werts said "is to eliminate wasteful turnover, to reduce unnecessary migration by encouraging the full use of local labor, to direct scarce labor to employes engaged in essential activities in preference to others, and to obtain the maximum utilization of the manpower resources of the region under standards protecting the rights of all concerned."

To aid in administering the plan, WMC labor-management committees for both the region and the state will serve in an advisory capacity on policy. Werts added. Such a committee will be named for North Carolina.

The plan as outlined by Dorton provides that employers in essential industries may not hire a worker whose most recent employment was in an essential industry unless such a worker presents either a statement of availability from his most recent employer or a statement of availability from his local United States Employment office.

2.—Sets up machinery enabling workers, under certain conditions, to transfer from one essential industry to another if such a step will aid in the effective prosecution of the war or compelling personal reasons make such a step advisable.

3.—Establishes valid reasons which entitle an employe to a statement of availability and sets up procedures under which statements may be obtained. The plan provides that statements of availability shall be issued to any worker by his most recent employer or the U. S. Employment service whenever the employe (A) is discharged by his last employer, (B) is laid off for an indefinite period or for a period of seven days or more, (C) can establish that his present employment does not utilize him at his highest skill or that he is not being employe full time, (D) has compelling personal reasons for a change in employment.

4.—Provides that under certain conditions a statement of availability may be issued if it established that the change of employment will aid in the effective prosecution of the war.

5.—Stipulates that where an employe has a valid reason for a job transfer within essential industries, the U. S. Employment service is authorized to grant such statements of availability when the employer refuses to grant the statement.

6.—Provides that employers may not hire in-migrant workers who have not lived within the normal commuting distance of the prospective employer's establishments, except through the local U. S. Employment service.

7.—Permits workers to transfer freely from other than essential to essential activities. No statement of availability is needed unless the worker is going to work outside the normal commuting distance.

8.—Provides that where an employe has a valid reason for a job transfer within essential industries, the U. S. Employment service is authorized to grant such statements of availability when the employer refuses to grant the statement.

9.—Provides that employers may not hire in-migrant workers who have not lived within the normal commuting distance of the prospective employer's establishments, except through the local U. S. Employment service.

Italians Staging Major Assault On Leningrad

Fortresses Blast Italian Centers

Sicily, Sardinia And Italy Among Targets; Shipping, Airfields and Industries Hard Hit

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, May 15.—(AP)—Flying Fortresses made a heavy attack yesterday on the Italian port of Civitavecchia, 40 miles northwest of Rome, scoring direct hits on several ships in the harbor and on fuel storage and causing an ammunition dump to explode. Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters announced today.

A simultaneous attack by medium bombers on the Sardinian port of Olbia resulted in three ships being sunk and others, including a large tanker, being severely damaged, the communique said. Hits were also scored on the docks and the industrial area of the port.

At the same time fighter-bombers swept over the northern part of Sardinia, bombing and strafing the airfield and port of Alghero and the harbor of Porto Torres and vital points on the railroad.

Pires set at Civitavecchia were visible for 60 miles, returning pilots reported.

In the sweeps over northern Sardinia, targets also were hit at Calasetta and Porto Ponte Romano, where a carbonization plant was set afire. Another factory was hit at Abbasanta.

Three daylight forays against the strategic island of Sardinia and one of the shipping routes to Europe followed an assault Thursday night by the RAF's Wellingtons and a daylight attack yesterday by U. S. bombers against Cagliari, in the southern part of the island, and a blow by the RAF's heavy bombers on Messina, Sicily.

Meanwhile, Cairo dispatches reported that the repeated 100-bomber raids on the little fortress Tunisia, and a shattering naval bombardment had knocked out that base's lone airfield.

Allied pilots said no enemy craft had been seen on the airframe recently, and apparently the Axis had ceased operations there.

Two Allied planes were lost in all these bomber assaults on Sardinia, Sicily and the Italian mainland, the communique said.

The official bulletin in recounting Allied naval operations of the Tunisian coast, said four enemy merchant ships, an Italian destroyer, three small tramp steamers, a transport barge, a small fishing vessel and numerous small boats, most of them attempting to carry troops in an evacuation, were sunk "during the critical period of April 30 to May 12."

Some 400 men, including a German general, were made prisoner, the communique said.

In a message to his ships, Admiral Sir Andrew Baverly Cunningham, British commander in chief (Continued on Page Two)

Marine Heroes Well Known In Greenville

By LUCY CHERRY CRISP Under the caption "Double Jap Trouble," the "Quantico Sentry," Marine publication at Quantico, Va., last week carried a story of special interest to many people in Greenville.

Last spring, among the marines who spent many week-ends here before they left New River for the Solomon Islands, there were two who looked much alike, much alike, in fact—the Larkin twins, James and John, both of them corporals. None among all the many marines who have spent week-end leaves here have more endeared themselves to many people in the community than these two boys, whose "Greenville homes" were those of Mrs. W. J. Cowell and Mrs. Fred Haar.

These were the two marines who on Guadalcanal, proved "Double Jap Trouble," according to the "Quantico Sentry," which has this to say of them: "Cpl. Delbert James Larkin and Cpl. Wilbur John Larkin, Pen Yan, N. Y., have received letters of commendation for meritorious conduct in action." In darkness the brothers located and repaired an important communication cable during action on Guadalcanal during the night of October 13-14. During all their lives and since enlisting together in the Marine Corps in March, 1941, they have been together.

Another citation of much local interest made public recently was one concerning the 3rd Battalion of the First Marines, an outfit to which a number of the marines known well here belonged. This battalion was one of two honored by Maj. Gen. A. Vandegrift "for establishing and holding a position along the Matanikou river in October, 1942." "It was pretty rough going for a while," the general said, "but our boys stood up magnificently."

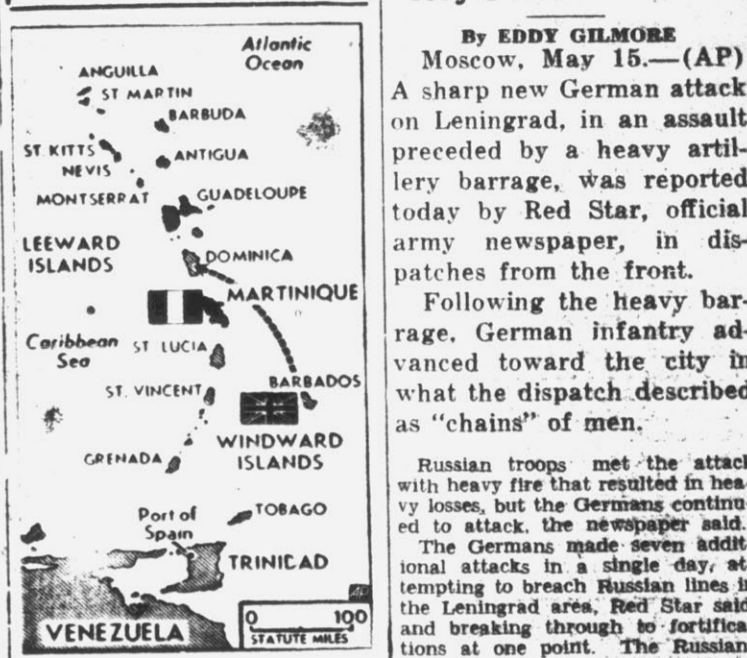

Its chances of being the final congressional choice depend largely on whether the house accepts it or sends it to a conference committee for a compromise.

Representative Forand (D-R.I.) co-author of the house bill, said he felt the senate version was sure to be sent to conference and warned "I'm going to fight for my bill to the last ditch."

"I don't think the Ruml supporters in the house can muster sufficient strength to instruct the conferees to adopt the senate bill," he said.

Violators of Draft Jailed

FBI Reports Arrest of 552 Draft Dodgers Yesterday

Washington, May 15.—(AP)—FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said today that his G-men arrested 552 men in 20 cities yesterday on draft law charges. They are on the lookout for some 3,000 more.

Now that the armed services' demand for manpower is "becoming greater day by day," Hoover urged that every man registered for the draft consider his obligations "in a most serious light."

All those arrested yesterday are to be arraigned before United States commissioners in various judicial districts.

Hoover said that "no mass raids or dragnet tactics were used," but the arrests were "the results of painstaking investigations to locate individuals who had become delinquent with their local boards for various reasons, such as failure to report for physical examination and induction, failure to return questionnaires, not notifying their draft boards of changes of address, and other delinquencies."

Hoover said that 137 were arrested in New York City and 81 in San Francisco. These figures were reported for (Continued on Page Six)

Red Cross Room Needs Workers

The women of Greenville have made and shipped 152,400 dressings since January. There are 96,100 dressings to be finished by July.

The response of the women of Greenville to this work has been better in the past two weeks but this quota cannot be met unless there are more helpers. There is an urgent plea from headquarters for all that can be made to be shipped at the earliest date. This is a task for any woman in Greenville who has the time.

Surely this is not too much to do for the wounded boys who are so far from home.

When Will the War End?

Not Until After Election, November, 1944

Babson Park Mass., May 15.—First let us remember that the United States is the only functioning constitutional democracy engaged in the war. Neither China nor Russia are democracies. Certainly none of the Axis countries are democracies. England has no written constitution although that written constitution although this week. Certainly England and her Empire group are run on entirely different principles than is the United States.

All the above means that whether we like it or not, World War II is gradually bound to get into politics. Furthermore, the longer the war lasts, the more it will become involved in politics. This is especially true as fear of American invasion or bombing disappears and there is a general feeling that we are bound to win. This is no reflection upon either the Republican or Democratic parties and least of all upon President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Having once been a presidential candidate myself I want to definitely emphasize this point: World War II is bound to get into politics even if I or any reader of this column were president.

Infantry Attack Followed Heavy Artillery Barrage; Russian Air Force Smashes At German Eastern Wall; Novorossisk Under Artillery Fire.

By EDDY GILMORE Moscow, May 15.—(AP) A sharp new German attack on Leningrad, in an assault preceded by a heavy artillery barrage, was reported today by Red Star, official army newspaper, in dispatches from the front.

Following the heavy barrage, German infantry advanced toward the city in what the dispatch described as "chains" of men.

Russian troops met the attack with heavy fire that resulted in heavy losses, but the Germans continued to attack, the newspaper said. The Germans made seven additional attacks in a single day, attempting to breach Russian lines in the Leningrad area, Red Star said, and breaking through to fortifications at one point. The Russians rushed reinforcements to the area, however, the newspaper said, and "the enemy group was exterminated."

It was too early to say whether this was the beginning of anything important in the way of a German offensive, but it indicated considerable German power has been massed along the Leningrad front and that the invading army was able to strike hard.

In the Kuban, the Red Army continued its intensive artillery bombardment of German-held Novorossisk, but there was little other action.

In other battle areas of the Kuban Delta, fighting slackened somewhat although there was active raiding in salt marshes near the sea of Azov.

The furious air battle was continued up and down the front with the Russians bombing, shelling and machine-gunning railways, lines, stations and junctions behind the German lines. Night after night Soviet airmen have been pounding junctions, but trains moving up tremendous quantities of supplies for the German soldiers continued to arrive.

The flow of material has been definitely interrupted from time to time, but much of it is arriving at Bryansk, Gred and other strong points along the central front.

The Russians' savage aerial attacks on German transportation and communications matched the swiftness of British and American onslaught in the west.

The Kharkov-Orel-Bryansk area below Moscow and the Staraya Russa-Vitebsk region, near the Latvian and Estonia fronts, especially felt the weight of the Russian bombers.

Big fires followed explosions after railway trains and ammunition dumps were hit at Snehovskaya, east of Bryansk, Tass said.

Barvenkov and Slavyansk, important centers recaptured by the Germans when they pushed back into the Donets basin early this year, also were heavily bombed.

The Russian losses were listed as 23 planes.

Seditious Show Suppressed. Manila, P. I., May 14.—A party of Americans stormed the stage of the Liberator Theatre last night and broke up a seditious play. The play which is historical has a climax in which the performers throw the American flag to the ground and raise the standard of a secret society. When the scene was reached a score of Americans sprang on the stage, routed the actors and smashed the furniture. The audience fled. Colonel Gientino, a former insurgent, who wrote the play, will probably be arrested.

Eighth Street Christian Church. "Undoubtedly many of the early settlers of this country came seeking fortune and adventure, but we dare not forget that the leaders of every phase of our national life were men who were determined to see that the foundations of our social structure were based on religious concepts." Dr. Haney declared today at preparations were made to observe tomorrow "I Am An American Day."

This day has been set aside by presidential proclamation to be observed by churches and synagogues and patriotic organizations. The emphasis will be made upon the debt we owe, as religionists of all kinds, to the freedom of worship we have in a democratic order. It is here that freedom of conscience and worship has given to us the highest and best opportunity of developing a truly religious social order. There is much to be done as yet, but we have the opportunity of better things.

The American Legion and other patriotic organizations are invited to be present tomorrow at 11 o'clock when the pastor speaks on "Christian Americans."

Pitt County Chapter News

Junior Red Cross To Present Program. Mrs. J. H. Rose, radio chairman of the Junior Red Cross of Pitt County, will present a program over WGTC Tuesday night, May 18, at 9:30, on which several members of the Junior Red Cross committee and sponsors of the City School, will give a report on the contributions of the City and County schools and an interesting summary of their year's activities and plans for summer projects.

Those taking part on the program will be Mrs. Judson Blount, Mrs. Lyman Ormond, Mrs. William Taft, Miss Vera Wahl, Miss Naomi Alexander, Miss Jane Hadley and Mrs. Clem Garner. A group of the Glee Club under the direction of Miss One Shindler, director of the music department of the Greenville High School, will sing the Junior Red Cross song. This will be the first occasion on which this song has been sung in Greenville.

The Red Cross Field Directors of the Coastal Area are calling for material to aid the ill and injured in the hospitals and these needs will be presented and explained on this program.

All members of the Junior Red Cross, their mothers and fathers, are urged to tune in for this fifteen minute broadcast that they may understand the opportunity given their boys and girls.

Italy Unable To Block Invasion. London, May 15.—(AP)—The uneasy Italians have been told bluntly by one of their leaders that the Italian navy cannot prevent an invasion of their land.

The admission was reported by the Rome radio in a broadcast recorded by the British Ministry of Information today.

The Rome announcer said the secretaries of war, aviation and the navy spoke at a six-hour emergency session of the Italian senate where the naval secretary said flatly that ships could not halt invaders.

The Italians broadcast attempted to calm its hearers, however, with other assurances that measures were being taken to protect the country against an invasion and declared the war secretary told the senate that "in case of a successful enemy landing, a possibility that cannot be overlooked—special rationing and supply plans already have been worked out."

Meanwhile, a Reuters dispatch said that the official journal of the German foreign office promised that the German army would fight for every inch of Italy, apparently an attempt to stiffen the morale of the Italian.

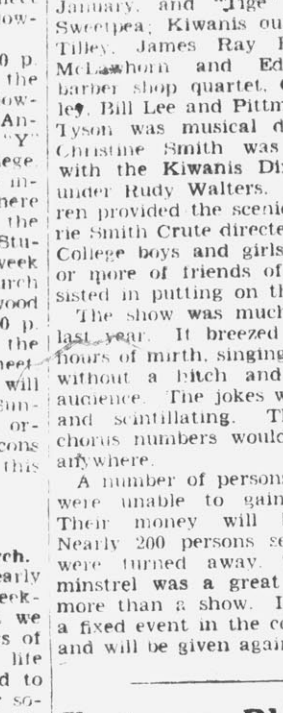

Axis Generals Now Enroute To Britain. Madrid, May 15 (AP)—Cifra, the official Spanish news agency, said in a dispatch from Algeciras today that eight German and two Italian generals including Col. Gen. Jürgen Von Arnim who commanded the defeated Axis armies in Tunisia, arrived at Gibraltar last night enroute to Great Britain as prisoners.

Ten Killed In Coal Mine Explosion

Rescue workers bring up from the mine the dead and injured after an explosion in the Praco No. 10 shaft of the Alabama By-Products Corp. near Birmingham, Ala., Tuesday, in which ten coal miners were killed and five others severely burned. The blast occurred early in the morning, company officials said, when only the maintenance crew was at work.

Army Ground Crew Students Train "Henderson Field"

At Seymour Johnson Field, N. C., a branch of the Army Air Force's Technical Training Command, a simulated Henderson Field has been set up for use by ground crew students in an 8-day intensive course designed to acquaint them with possible combat conditions, such as might be encountered on Guadalcanal. Little or no factory-made equipment is used, the students learning to make the best of what they can improvise. At top, with the use of logs, aircraft mechanics hoist a plane the way it would probably be done under combat conditions. Below, a sand-bagged storage shed provides a realistic touch at the entrance of the "Henderson Field."

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

Seditious Show Suppressed.
Manila, P. I., May 14.—A party of Americans stormed the stage of the Liberator Theatre last night and broke up a seditious play. The piece which is historical has a climax in which the performers throw the American flag to the ground and raise the standard of a secret society. When the scene was reached a score of Americans sprang on the stage, routed the actors and smashed the furniture. The audience fled. Colonel Gentina, a former insurgent, who wrote the play, will probably be arrested.

Presbyterian Announcement.
Mr. Jesse R. Moye takes over Sunday as the new superintendent of the Church school which meets at 9:45. This is a school for the whole family. At the preaching service 11:00 o'clock Dr. Robert S. Boyd, pastor, will speak on the subject "A Solemn Warning To All Nations Today." Text is Psalm 9:17-20. Special music will be rendered by the chorus choir. There will be no Vesper Service for the young people as they join in the service of the Greenville Youth Movement which has a service at the Eighth Street Christian Church at 6:45 p. m. All young people in the Intermediate-Senior Department are urged to attend this service.

At 8:00 p. m., Mr. James Cogswell, our new student worker for the summer, will preach at Meadowbrook Church. On Monday night at 8:00 p. m., Mr. Cogswell will meet with the young people at Meadowbrook for their Vesper hour.

On Monday afternoon, at 3:30 p. m., the Woman's Auxiliary of the First Church, and the Meadowbrook Church will hold their Annual Birthday Service at the Y Hut on the campus of the College.

All women of the churches are invited to attend. At 4:30 p. m. there will be a reception given by the Auxiliaries to the Presbyterian Students of the College. Mid-week prayer service will be at the church Wednesday at 8:00 p. m. Hollywood Sunday school will meet at 2:30 p. m., and on Friday at 8:30 p. m., the young people of that church meet.

The Session of the First Church will meet at Hollywood Church on Sunday afternoon at 3:15 p. m., to ordain and install elders and deacons chosen at the organization of this new church, May 9th.

Eighth Street Christian Church.
"Undoubtedly many of the early settlers of this country came seeking fortune and adventure, but we dare not forget that the leaders of every phase of our national life were men who were determined to see that the foundations of our social structure were based on religious concepts." Dr. Haney declared today as preparations were made to observe tomorrow "I Am An American Day."

This day has been set aside by presidential proclamation to be observed by churches and synagogues and patriotic organizations. The emphasis will be made upon the debt we owe, as religionists of all kinds, to the freedom of worship we have in a democratic order. It is here that freedom of conscience and worship has given to us the highest and best opportunity of developing a truly religious social order. There is much to be done as yet, but we have the opportunity of better things.

The American Legion and other patriotic organizations are invited to be present tomorrow at 11 o'clock when the pastor speaks on "Christian Americans."

Fortresses Blast . . .
of Allied naval operations in the Mediterranean, said "it was a tribute to them that even in the desperate circumstances in which the enemy found themselves, no real effort was made to evacuate by sea, and that the few who made the attempt were soon intercepted by ships on patrol."

"The German radio in a broadcast attributed to the International Information Bureau, a propaganda agency, claimed today that the German destroyer Hermes, formerly a unit of the Greek navy, had sunk the British submarine Splendid in the Mediterranean."

A British submarine by that name is not listed in authoritative naval manuals, though there may be a submarine of that name recently completed. The British Admiralty in London refused to comment.

Italy Unable To Block Invasion
London, May 15.—(AP)—The uncessary Italians have been told bluntly by one of their leaders that the Italian navy cannot prevent an invasion of their land.

The admission was reported by the Rome radio in a broadcast recorded by the British Ministry of Information today.

The Rome announcer said the secretaries of war, aviation and the navy spoke at a six-hour emergency session of the Italian senate where the naval secretary said flatly his ships could not halt invaders.

The Italians broadcast attempted to calm its hearers, however, with other assurances that measures were being taken to protect the country against an invasion and declared the war secretary told the senate that "in case of a successful landing, a possibility that cannot be overlooked—special rations and supply plans already have been worked out."

Meantime, a Reuters dispatch said that the official journal of the German foreign office promised that the German army would fight for every inch of Italy, apparently an attempt to stiffen the morale of the Italians.

Axis Generals Now Enroute To Britain
Madrid, May 15.—(AP)—Cifra, the official Spanish news agency and in a dispatch from Algiers today that eight German and two Italian generals including Col. Gen. Jansen Von Arnim who commanded the defeated Axis armies in Tunisia, arrived at Gibraltar last night enroute to Great Britain as prisoners.

Kiwanis Minstrel . . .

The college boys and girls singing and dancing in the singing of the "Darktown Strutters' Ball," a tap dance by Judge J. W. H. Roberts, John Karsnak's song "If You Knew Susie," and El Bloom and the quartet singing the "Fuehrer's Song" (epitaph) provided minstrel entertainment of the highest quality. The quartet numbers were decided hits.

The college boys and girls in the dancing number with Bloom and Littlejohn, as a dancing couple, sang "For Me and My Gal," were Buddy Murphree, Nick Zuras, Snag Clark and Claude Woody as boys, and Clyde Mann, Metzel Simmons, Brant Waters and Billy Green as girls.

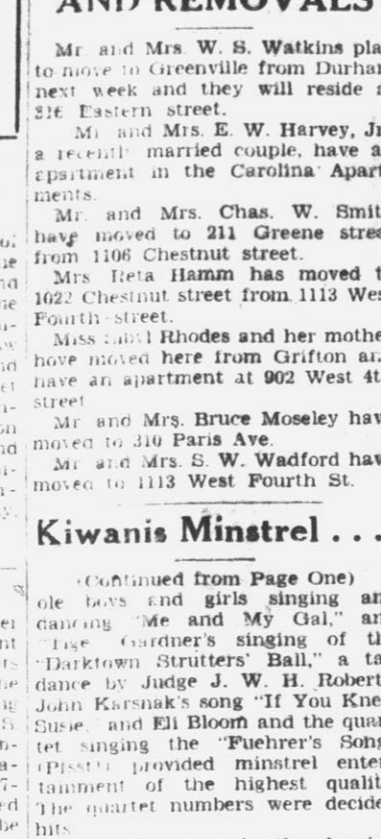

Cast of characters: End men, Judge Roberts as Smokehouse; John Karsnak, Molasses; Dick Burnett, Sasafraz; Dr. J. M. Barrett, Midnight; Dall Laughinghouse, January, and "Tige" Gardner as Sweepea, Kiwanis quartet, Aubrey Tibbs, James Ray Pittman, Pat McLawhorn and Ed Parkinson; barber shop quartet, Gardner, Tillet, Bill Lee and Pittman; Mrs. Ray Tyson was musical director; Mrs. Christine Smith was accompanist with the Kiwanis Dixieland Band under Rudy Walters. Jimmy Warren provided the scenery. Mrs. Marie Smith Cruise directed the dances.

College boys and girls and a score or more of friends of Kiwanis assisted in putting on the minstrel. The show was much better than last year. It breezed through two hours of mirth, singing and dancing without a hitch and pleased the audience. The jokes were sparkling and scintillating. The solo and chorus numbers would make a hit anywhere.

A number of persons with tickets were unable to gain admittance. Their money will be refunded. Nearly 200 persons seeking tickets were turned away. The Kiwanis minstrel was a great show. It has become a fixed event in the community life and will be given again next year.

Yank Infantrymen Round Up Nazi Snipers In Bizerte

Going from door to door along the streets of Bizerte, American infantrymen, with fixed bayonets seek Nazi snipers who chose to remain at their posts when their buddies were captured. This Army Signal Corps photo was received in Washington from Algiers by radiophoto.

Ten Killed In Coal Mine Explosion

Rescue workers bring up from the mine the dead and injured after an explosion in the Praco No. 10 shaft of the Alabama By-Products Corp. near Birmingham, Ala., Tuesday, in which ten coal miners were killed and five others severely burned. The blast occurred early in the morning, company officials said, when only the maintenance crew was at work.

Army Ground Crew Students Train "Henderson Field"

At Seymour Johnson Field, N. C., a branch of the Army Air Force's Technical Training Command, a simulated Henderson Field has been set up for use by ground crew students in an 8-day intensive course designed to acquaint them with possible combat conditions, such as might be encountered on Guadalcanal. Little or no factory-made equipment is used, the students learning to make the best of what they can improvise. At top, with the use of logs, aircraft mechanics hoist a plane the way it would probably be done under combat conditions. Below, a sand-bagged storage shed provides a realistic touch at the entrance of the "Henderson Field."

TAR HEEL WINS FOR WHITE SOX

Cast-Offs From Athletics Paying Off For Chicago

By SID FEDEER
(AP Sports Writer)

Old James Joseph Dykes must sit back in his rocking chair out there in the White Sox ball park every once in a while, take an extra-long pull on that big black cigar, and get to thinking about how funny the dice can roll sometimes.

Now, this is not to point out that James Joseph is a crap-shooter. As matter of fact, aside from baseball, bowling is his game, amateur and pro—although the way some of the boys tell it, the only thing he knows about strikes are what too many of the batters take, and the only thing he knows about spares are what he was one of on his car.

But what must be especially funny to James Joseph is that here he is, the man with the cigar who thinks Connie Mack is just about the greatest baseball brain ever to come down the pike; yet, every so often, he picks up some player Mr. McClelluddy has cast off from his Athletics—and the cast-off usually becomes as hot as a Guranid rifle in the hands of the Dykes Chicago circus.

Connie gave up on Bill Dietrich a few years back, and let the Sox take him for the waiver price. Respected Bill only pitched a no-hitter for Chicago and he's still around here.

Two years ago, the Sox picked up another Athletics' discard, Lee (Buck) Ross, a strong-armed right-hander out of Norwood, N. C., who has never been good enough even to make baseball's annual "who's who." He went under the collective wing of Dykes and his crack coach, Muddy Ruel, and yesterday he paid off. Thrown in against the New York Yankees, most famous of all hitting circuses, Buck limited them to one easily scratch single of the "fluke" variety as he twirled the Sox to a 3-0 decision.

This was the first whitewash job painted on the Yankees this year and was easily the standout stunt of a day which also saw likeable Freddy Fitzsimmons, fat and 41, fall in his first pitching job in a year, and four of the afternoon's six games decided in the final inning, two of them in overtime. Two tussles were postponed because of weather conditions.

For Fitzsimmons, who went less than four innings and was the losing pitcher as the Pittsburgh Pirates pounded the Brooklyn Dodgers 7-2, the defeat was one of the toughest he's had to take in a big league career stretching way back to 1925. In the first place, he was given a chance against these "pals" to show whether he still had the stuff to be kept on the Dodgers' active player roster. He served up a two-run "boom-boom ball" to Bob Elliott in the first, then walked two men and was tagged for a single by another in the fourth frame—and that was curtains.

The New York Giants put on their second-straight ninth inning rally to knock off the Chicago Cubs. This time, after Mel Ott and Ernie Lombardi had hit homers earlier, Sid Gornon singled in the clincher with the bases loaded in the finale for a 3-2 decision.

The other last-inning spree saw the Washington Senators shove three runs across in the ninth to take the Cleveland Indians 3-1 behind Dutch Leonard's nine-hit hurling; Pete Suder put on the squeeze way for the deciding marker as the Athletics nipped the Detroit Tigers 7-6 in 11 frames and rookie Charlie Workman up from Nashville, snatching a single with the bags loaded in the tenth to give the Boston Braves a 4-3 edge over the St. Louis Cardinals.

New York, May 15 (AP)—This is a queer town. The intercollegiate A.A.A.A. (count 'em) track meet today figures to draw only about 4,000 customers because its being held on Randall's island—just a five-minute bus ride from the subway. The same athletes pulled more than 10,000 into the garden for the indoor championships and it was called a "disappointing" gate. Billy Brown can't run outdoor fight shows at Astarlight Park this summer because its too close to the Coliseum, which has been taken over by the army. But Fort Hamilton Arena, on an army post, will have its weekly cards. Difference is that Fort

Remnants of Rampaging Yankees

These three New York Yankees (left to right), Bill Dickey, Joe Gordon and Charley Keller, are the only ones remaining of the erstwhile terrible Yanks of past seasons currently terrorizing the American league pitchers, and of the trio, only Keller is hitting with anything like Joe DiMaggio's fervor. Dickey, native of Bastrop, La., with 18 years of baseball behind him, once played with Jackson, Miss., and Little Rock. He has participated in seven World Series play-offs.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

So long as a soldier can eat and think up disparaging names for his equipment the Army will do all right. Food is either "beans," or "chow."

"Chow" may consist of a well cooked meal or if circumstances demand our fighting men have learned to subsist on "Ration K," the concentrated food that all of them carry into battle.

With millions of men and women in the services it will require a lot of War Bond buying on our part to keep them happy.

Hitler Suffers Invasion Jitters

By E. C. DANIEL

London, May 15—(AP)—As Germany watched Turkey for a turn of events that might bring her new equipped army into the war, the Turkish ambassador to London, Rauf Orbay, was disclosed today to have gone to Ankara for consultations.

The departure of the ambassador came amid frantic efforts of the Germans and Italians to rally their resources against an invasion in Balkan territory adjoining Turkey's sphere of influence.

It followed a notable increase in British-Turkish military collaboration. The Turkish ambassador was stated authoritatively to have gone home for "rest and to renew contacts."

Across Turkey's western border in Bulgaria, seven more "Communists" were reported by the Paris radio to have been arrested in the long police campaign to quell political opposition to the Axis war.

Rumanian railways were reported by Tass to have been turned over to German authorities.

A number of Italian partisans in Yugoslavia are reported in a statement by the Russian communique to have rioted in protest against the failure of officers to send sick and wounded men home.

Killed in Plane Crash
Wilson, N. C., May 15—(AP)—Staff Sgt William L. Philligan of Wilson was killed in an airplane accident in the Pacific area on May 7, the War Department has informed his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Philligan of Wilson.

Too Big For Army
Salesbury, N. C., May 15—(AP)—Clyde Biggers, who is 19, weighs 235 pounds and stands six feet, six and a quarter inches, is just too big.

That's what the army has decided, after having plenty of trouble in outfitting him with a uniform, finding that ordinary trenches would be too shallow for him, and discovering additional inconveniences. Army doctors said Clyde was as fine a physical specimen as they had seen, but there was too much specimen. So they gave him an honorable discharge and sent him back home here.

Convoy Arrives Safely
London, May 15—(AP)—Another convoy of United States troops reached a British port recently without loss, it was disclosed today.

Figures may not be published, but it was indicated reliably that the number was not large. The force included a few WAACs.

The FBI has inquired into more than 200,000 complaints under the Selective Service law, Hoover said, and has located and made available to the armed forces 86,543 men. In addition, convictions have been obtained against 4,002 willful violators, and sentences aggregating 8,724 years in prison have been imposed.

Hoover urged that all Selective registrants maintain contact with their local draft boards at all times, report as ordered for examination and induction, and carry their registration certificates and classification cards at all times.

"By complying with these few simple rules," he said, "no person need ever have any fear of arrest by the FBI or local law officers for violation of the draft laws."

The FBI has been handling about 15,000 Selective Service complaints each month.

Imperial Tokyo headquarters itself had previously characterized the Americans as "crack" troops.

Military analysts believed Japan must rush heavy reinforcements to Attu, draining warships and troops from other vital zones of the far-flung Pacific battle theater, or face almost inevitable loss of her footholds on the closest approach to American mainland shores.

As the Attu battle moved into its fourth day, Knox said "it is going very satisfactorily." From other informed authorities came the opinion that the admirals and generals in charge of the operation, having full knowledge of enemy strength on the island, must have struck with force sufficient to assure a complete and smashing victory.

The attack on Attu, requiring many ships and thousands of men, was regarded as conclusive evidence that ships and men are available in great numbers for offensive action against the Japanese, since for such an objective the American command could not afford to weaken its positions elsewhere along the 3,000-mile battle line.

The island battle was unquestionably bitter with weather and terrain aiding a tenacious foe in opposing a successful landing and subsequent push inland. Aleutians weather is characterized by violent shifting winds and fog, rain and snow. The water in the Bering Sea on the northern side of the island chain is so cold that a human can hardly stay alive in it more than 30 or 40 minutes.

Moreover the surf which beats heads against the islands is invariably high and strong and small boat operations such as are necessary in carrying out an amphibious expedition are extremely hazardous.

With regard to the enemy's position on Kiska two alternate courses for the American offensive appeared possible. Outflanked by an American force on Attu, the Japanese on Kiska could be cut off from food, ammunition and reinforcements and left to the miseries of starvation and the destructiveness of heavy bombing attacks from Americans. Or an expedition could be launched against Kiska, either during or after the battle for Attu, to wipe out the enemy force, which some authorities estimate as high as 10,000 men, in combat.

president of the Southern Coal Producers Association, said his group "will comply, of course, fully and willingly."

The order provided for a meeting with a WLB division Monday to arrange for the resumption of negotiations, a progress report within ten days, and instructed the three-man fact-finding panel to complete its findings and submit an early report for a final board decision.
