Battles Now Reaching Major Proportions In Russian Caucasus Area

Indications Show That Impending Action Along Entire Red Front Ready To Start; Germans Report Loss Of Major Positions Near Velikie Luki

London, May 27 (AP)—A violent upsurge in the land and air battle for the Kuban Valley bridgehead held by the Nazis in the Caucasus was indicated today by Russian and German reports of intensified fighting from Novorossisk northward to Temryuk on the Sea of Azov.

The Russians announced in their midnight communique that they had smashed back two counterattacking German battalions totaling about 1,600 men, and a special broadcast from Moscow later reported 67 German planes shot down in the area northeast of Novorossisk with a loss of 20 Soviet planes.

A DNB dispatch broadcast from Berlin later declared however, that 63 Russian planes were shot down yesterday against the loss of five German aircraft. The high command communique recorded by the Associated Press said that Russian attacks gained the eastern sector of the Kuban bridgehead were repelled by a counterattack.

The German radio asserted 400 Russians had been killed and 600 captured in fighting near Temryuk but acknowledged that the Russians had regrouped their forces and that heavier fighting was in prospect.

CIO WORKERS END WALKOUT

President Issues Ultimatum To Rubber Plant Employes

Akron, O., May 27.—(AP)—CIO unionists ended strikes at three major Akron rubber companies today, complying with the noon deadline set in a presidential ultimatum concerning a five-day production stoppage that threw more than 50,000 into idleness.

A small shift returned to war jobs at the B. F. Goodrich Co., just as the deadline approached after United Rubber workers unionists had decided to observe the commander-in-chief's order.

The back-to-work movement started earlier at the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. and the Firestone Tire and Rubber Co. employes straggled into the plants throughout the morning and six hours after the first men reported on the 6 a. m. (Eastern war time) shift.

A company spokesman said about 2,000 reported at the beginning of the first shift at Goodyear, and others straggled into the plants for several hours. General Tire and Rubber Co. reported a full working force on the job.

Only a few employes entered the Goodrich gates until after a 10 a. m. meeting of the company's day shift workers. George H. Bass, president of the Goodrich Local announced the men decided to resume production at once. The meeting also approved a June 16 deadline for reconsideration by the War Labor Board of a wage decision that touched off the stoppage.

Union leaders said they expected full shifts to report at 2 p. m. at all four plants. A Goodyear spokesman indicated that normal operations could not be resumed immediately, however, asserting it would take "all day and a good part of tomorrow to balance up our production."

Davies Leaves Moscow With Reply

Moscow, May 27.—(AP)—Joseph E. Davies announced today he had received a written and sealed reply from Premier Stalin to the secret letter from President Roosevelt which he delivered at the Kremlin last week.

The President's emissary said he did not know the contents of Stalin's letter and that it was solely for the United States commander-in-chief.

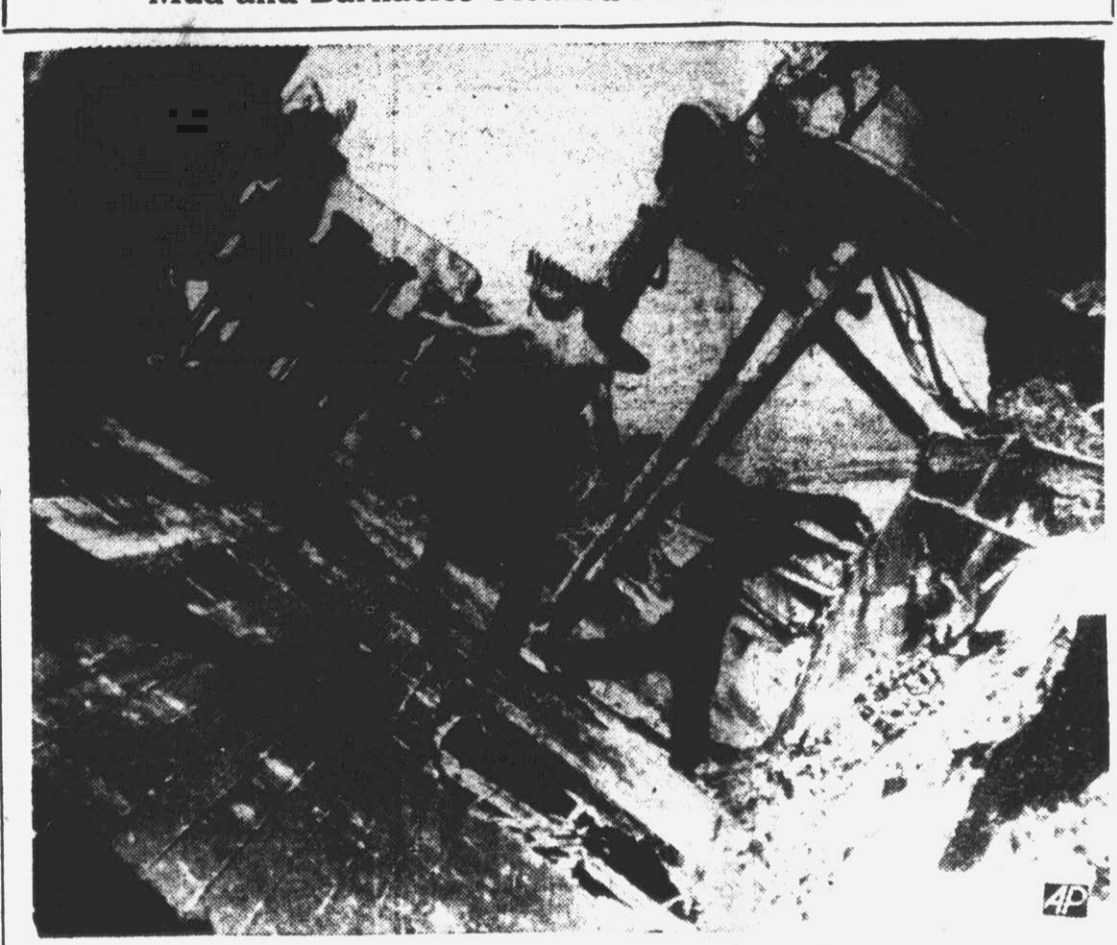

Seek Solution Of Pay For Coal Men

Washington, May 27.—(AP)—The United Mine Workers and the soft coal operators meet again today to work out a solution of the miners' port-to-port pay demand, the only substantial issue unsettled by a War Labor Board ruling in the wage dispute.

UMW President John L. Lewis ordered the union's full policy committee to be in Washington on Saturday, presumably to ratify an agreement but the conferees were not yet down to brass tacks.

Lewis, though still formally recognizing the authority of the War Labor Board is understood to have told the closed conference the substance of the board's decision and were ready to bargain for a port-to-port rate based on 90 minutes a day travel time.

Mud and Barnacles Cleaned From Oklahoma

A 17-month accumulation of barnacles and mud was scraped from the decks of the U. S. battleship Oklahoma while she was being righted during salvage operations at Pearl Harbor. Twisted wreckage of decks and equipment clutter the top side of the ship, one of 19 vessels sunk in the Jap attack on Pearl Harbor December 7, 1941. The Navy has salvaged all but three of the vessels and returned them to service.

Stimson Says American Casualties Relatively Light In Present Campaign

Washington, May 27.—(AP)—American forces supported by a naval bombardment and attacking army bombers and fighters have won a foothold on a ridge south of enemy-held Chichagof Harbor after two days of hard fighting, the Navy reported today.

Despite the ferocity of the fighting on Attu, Secretary of War Stimson reported today the American casualties have been relatively light, with preliminary reports indicating the army has lost 127 killed, 399 wounded and 118 missing.

From the communique and the War Secretary's discussion of the situation it appeared that the main enemy position is that at the head of Chichagof harbor which is being heavily pounded by sea, air and ground troops.

However, the communique brought out, although Stimson did not develop it, the fact that the Japanese still have a force in the area north of Lake Nicholas which lies south of Chichagof harbor and (Continued on Page Six)

The WAR TODAY

AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The defense being made by the Japs against our attack on their positions on Attu provides one of the outstanding lessons of the battle on this Aleutian island.

It is a harsh reminder of what the Allies are up against in their task of smashing the Japanese.

Frequently they make suicidal stands which serve no useful purpose because the shogun code says a soldier is dishonored if he surrenders. In theory the man who gives himself up becomes a pariah and is an exile from his motherland.

The conflict on Attu is a warning of the need of speed in cleaning up Hitler so that the Allied striking power can be turned against the Nipponese at the earliest moment.

The burden of speeding up rests much on intensification of civilian effort. If we provide the resources the fighting services will do the rest.

The Nipponese are pretty well established in their main conquests. It's going to take a lot to shift them. Their greatest strength outside of Japan is in China and Manchuria. A Chinese commentator at Chungking recently estimated the Jap forces in his country at about 458,000 men. The Japanese have been moving troops from Manchuria but there may be as many as 10 million more being sent to Russia, but avoiding the straits of China and their allies in Korea.

The new Jap offensive along the Yangtze towards Chungking has tarred a fresh position for Chinese defense. This drive obviously is aimed at separating Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, at present, which is a very serious situation for the Chinese.

Should such a program be achieved, it probably would give the Japs control of all China. The Allies would have to start from scratch to fight their way onto the continent without the help of the Chinese army.

The further we go the more certain it seems that an answer is going to provide the solution of the Japanese problem. Of course all the other fighting services will be involved in a big way but in trying to look ahead it would appear that there is only one method to wind up the war with Japan in our time. That is to say, we must add blacklisting Japan into submission.

MACHINISTS QUITTING AFL

Leaving Organization Because Of Jurisdictional Row

Washington, May 27.—(AP)—The International Association of Machinists with a reputed membership well over half a million, announced today it is quitting the American Federation of Labor as of May 31 because of a long standing jurisdictional row.

The AFL thus lost almost the same numerical strength it stands to gain by the prospective readmittance of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers.

The jurisdictional fight involves chiefly William L. Hutcheson's carpenter union, which the machinists contend has been "muscling" on its field with the sanction of the AFL executive council.

Machinists' president Harvey W. Brown said the break after 48 years affiliation is regrettable, but "if we are going to continue to get a beating we are not going to pay for it."

The machinists' per capita tax payments to the AFL have averaged about $60,000 a year. The union has been growing rapidly, however, because of organization in the aircraft field and tax payments on the full, claimed membership would substantially exceed $60,000.

Brown said the IAM would remain independent "with the hope that the machinists will be given the same consideration as other unions."

The IAM president said he did not know "at the moment" how the union proposes to handle its controversy with the carpenter's union. The carpenters have been contending for the right, Brown said, to install and repair machinery. In a more recent development, they have claimed jurisdictional rights in the small but growing wooden airplane field. The machinists claim exclusive rights in that field.

Africa Prepares For Coming of De Gaulle

Algiers, May 27.—(AP)—Pictures and insignia of Gen. Charles De Gaulle and Gen. Henri Giraud were removed from public places today in preparation for French North Africa's welcome to the Fighting French leader.

A few remaining reminders of Marshal Petain, Vichy chief of state also were pulled down or covered.

The move was undertaken by order of General Giraud, civil and military commander in chief, in line with a policy eliminating personalities and stressing the union of all French.

"More than ever," said Giraud's order, "the French must have only one thought: the liberation of France, victory."

Lilly Loses Suit Against R. V. Keel

A jury in Superior Court today delivered a very few minutes before returning a verdict against W. H. Lilly, tobacco speculator, who was suing R. V. Keel for $15,000 damages for an alleged assault.

In the testimony it was shown that Keel forbade Lilly to speculate in Keel's warehouse for violating warehouse rules. He persisted there were some words during which Lilly alleged Keel assaulted him. The jury was not satisfied with the evidence and lost no time in rendering a verdict in favor of Keel.

Judge Henry L. Stevens of Warsaw charged the jury this morning.

Another Jap Dies

The Berlin radio, in a dispatch from Tokyo today, reported the death in action of Rear Admiral Ryusaku Yanagimoto who "was drowned with his crew when his ship was sunk after a heroic fight."

ODT ORDERS MILEAGE CUT

Bus And Taxi Operators Must Reduce Gas Consumption

Washington, May 27.—(AP)—Implementing its order for an overall reduction of 40 per cent in gasoline rations for all commercial vehicles in the eastern shortage area, the ODT today directed bus and taxicab operators to reduce their mileage immediately by 20 per cent.

Failure of some operators to begin stretching their T rations voluntarily to meet the 40 per cent reduction made today's action necessary. The Office of Defense Transportation said.

The original order extended from June 30 to July 25 the valid period for all current "T" gasoline rations in the eastern shortage area, but did not specify how the operators were to achieve it.

By maintaining schedules as usual, OPA said, some operators would have exhausted their allotments and left their communities without essential transportation service in July.

"We cannot permit service as usual today at the risk of no service later," ODT said.

"The time to save gasoline is now, as well as at the end of the gasoline ration period."

The immediate 20 per cent reduction in bus and taxi cab service, ODT cautioned, must not be interpreted as any relaxation of the need for an overall mileage reduction.

It added that if the current allotment of motor fuel is to last the bus and taxi cab operators through July 25, additional curtailments must be made either by the operators themselves or by further ODT orders.

Today's order affects about 30,000 buses and 23,000 taxicabs.

The family and officials of the Ford Motor Company today continue to receive hundreds of messages of sympathy from persons in all walks of life.

Henry Ford received this message from President Roosevelt: "Please accept for yourself and for all who mourn with you this assurance of heartfelt sympathy in which Mrs. Roosevelt joins."

Eisdel died yesterday morning from a recurrence of a stomach malady aggravated by undulant fever.

Families Eegin Return To Homes Damaged By Flood

By The Associated Press

Farm families in many parts of the six-state midwest flood zone evacuated after rising waters from scores of rivers threatened their lives, were returning to their water-damaged homes and inundated lands today to begin to reshape their summer program of food production.

The evacuees in many of the flooded areas returned to their homes as the danger of further rising waters passed, but thousands of others remained in refugee shelters, mostly in southern Illinois and eastern Missouri. More than 150,000 persons were driven from their homes by the floods.

Other thousands in communities along the Mississippi and Illinois rivers still were plagued by the disorderly conduct of the two surging streams. The situation in many river towns, although somewhat improved, remained critical, said army engineers.

As the farmers in many areas received the damage to their crops and property from the worst flood

Concentrate On Air-dromes On Pantelleria, Sardinia And Sicily, Four Axis Ships In Aegean Sea Put Out Of Commission by United States Bombers

By LYNN HEINZLERING (AP War Editor)

Pounding home the Allied warning to Italy to get out of the war before the final storm breaks, the U.S. bomber fleet in northwest Africa unleashed savage new attacks on Axis island bases in the Mediterranean as the Russian front, stirred to violent action on some sectors, provided signs that the decisive days of 1943 are near.

Flying Fortresses again led the assaults on the Italian island of Sicily, Sardinia and Pantelleria, and spreading new fires and devastation on the great Axis base at Comiso, Sicily, already scarred by many earlier visits. Medium bombers razed other Sicilian strongholds.

American fighter planes—Lightnings and Warhawks—lugged bombs to Sardinia and dropped them on shipping barges amid sprays of cannon and machine-gun fire, setting one Axis supply ship afire with a direct hit at Golfo Aranci. Villaciadro airfield was hit again and bombs fell on hangars, barracks and aircraft on the ground, an Allied communique said. The power station at Tirso received a direct hit.

Other Warhawks kept the tiny, isolated island of Pantelleria under fire.

Five enemy aircraft officially were reported destroyed in this theater in 24 hours, making a total of 348 Axis planes claimed destroyed in eight days in the air and on the ground by the Northwest African Air Force squadron alone.

The actual total undoubtedly is higher, Axis sources said, because no figures have been given out since (Continued on Page Four)

Greenville Wins Prize At Meeting

Governor J. Melville Broughton delivered the closing address at the banquet Tuesday night of the annual meeting of the North Carolina Merchants Association, which was held Monday and Tuesday in Raleigh.

Among the matters discussed by Mr. Broughton was his view on the gasoline rationing situation in North Carolina. "I have protested, and shall continue to protest any rationing of gasoline on any basis except equality to every state in the nation," the governor told the merchants.

The governor congratulated the association for its efforts in meeting the changing conditions, and spoke of the difficulties in securing merchandise. "It has always taken courage and vision to be a successful merchant," he said. "Now, it takes another quality to be a good merchant—the quality of illimitable patience."

A feature of the closing banquet was the awarding of prizes, in which the Greenville Merchants Association won second prize of $10 in War Stamps for attendance. Attendance prizes are awarded on the basis of percentage of membership, and the Greenville Association won easily by having the second largest delegation present. Mrs. Cora S. Powell, secretary of the local organization, reported much interest was manifested in the Raleigh meeting.

Meadows Speaks At Final Assembly

Speaking at the last College Assembly hour Tuesday, Dr. Leon R. Meadows stated that it had been 23 years to the day since he had first set foot on East Carolina Teachers College campus and went on to say that though he might well on such an anniversary, take a backward look, he had chosen instead the topic, "Looking Forward."

There are two ways of viewing the future, said the speaker: in the light of the immediate need and the long-range need. Developing this idea, Dr. Meadows mentioned completing one's college education as soon as possible and helping to win the war as immediate aims.

He then discussed four long-range objectives vital for the future. First, he said, our democracy must be preserved, and this depends upon the education of the people. People have to be educated to know how to vote and to understand the kind of government needed, went on the speaker, as he urged the assembly to put into use the knowledge gained from their education.

FINALS HELD AT NEGRO SCHOOL

B. James Presents Diplomas To 26 Graduates

By CHESTER WALSH
Impressive commencement exercises were held at the C. M. Bpps Negro High School last night, when 26 graduates were awarded diplomas.

J. B. James, chairman of the City School Board, who presented the diplomas, in a brief talk paid high tribute to the Negroes of Greenville for their part in educational, religious and other activities and drew applause when he stated that there is no other town or city where both cooperate more whole-heartedly than Greenville.

Mayor Bruce Sugg, who made the awards, spoke in similar manner and expressed his pride in the close and mutual understanding between the races. Fine tribute was paid to Prof. W. H. Davenport, principal of the Negro schools, teachers and parents and others for the good work they are doing.

Three graduates made commencement addresses. They were George Barrett, "A Tribute to Our Fighting Men"; Bary Blow, "Why Democracy Must Triumph," and George Jenkins, "Our Duty on the Home Front."

Music included "On Wings of Song" by the Girls' Glee Club; "Deep River," "Ave Maria," solo by Evelyn Wooten; "Prayer From Haensel and Gretel," Girls' Glee Club; professional, "The Lord is Great," and recessional, "God of Our Fathers."

Rev. S. P. League said the invocation; Rev. J. A. Nimmo pronounced the benediction. Special awards were made to the following students for highest scholastic averages: George L. Jenkins, Jr., Mary L. Blow, George D. Barrett and Doris M. Hill.

Prizes were presented the following students: Highest scholastic average, George L. Jenkins, Jr.; best all-around student, George Jenkins; second ranking student, George Barrett; most loyal student, James Stokes; scholarship to Johnson C. Smith University, awarded on basis of conduct during four years of high school work, Mary Alice Garrett.

Following is a list of the graduates: Ethel Gray Barnhill, Queen Elizabeth Bartlett, Mary Leona Blow, Mary Alice Garrett, Doris Mable Hill, Carrie Elizabeth Johnson, Hazel Attervian Jones, Loretta Mae McGlone, Mary Louis Love, Harriett Violet Norcott, Mary Blanche Robinson, Curdie Lee Spell, Curdie Mae Spell, Laura Mae Ward, Minnie Louise Wiggins, George Louis Cherry, Kelly Lee Darden, George Douglas Garrett, Walter James Gorham, Cannie James, Emerson Kelly Hardy, Talmadge Dalmar Hill, George Lee Jenkins, Joshua Jones, Uriah James Stokes, Earl Ernest Williams.

The commencement exercises were largely attended. The program was presented in a capable and efficient manner. The year just ended was one of the best in the school's history. Friends of education were generous in their praise of the work the Negroes in Greenville are doing.

After hearing Haan, Dickstein commented.
"We can't afford to brush people aside as we did two years ago. This fellow Haan is sincere. I spoke to him two hours before he testified. Statements he made before the Immigration committee two years ago have, unfortunately, borne fruit. Had we paid attention to him then we might have saved a lot of embarrassment."

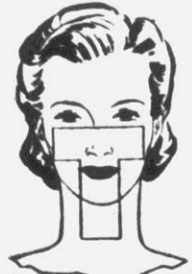

Dickstein said Haan had registered with the State Department as a member of the Korean organization which, the New Yorker said he believed had an organization of spies, which "seems to get more information than our own government."

The Japanese, Haan said at one point plan to send native girls to colonized areas and marry them off to local men in a general Japanization program.

Should Buy Bonds Regularly To Win

By CHESTER WALSH
It is interesting to hear the story about North Carolina leading the states of the Union in the purchase of War Bonds and Stamps. While reminiscing today about the fine spirit the people of Greenville and Pitt county manifested yesterday in buying $173,000 worth of War Bonds and Stamps from Constance Bennett, W. H. Woolard, president of the Guaranty Bank and Trust Company and Pitt County War Bond chairman, pointed out that the people of this county bought more government bonds (and this does not include the banks) during the past year than the total amount of the county's debt after the first World War, when they doubted if they would ever pay it off. Incidentally, since then Pitt county's debt has been reduced a half.

"This is some indication of the economic strength of the county and the conservative living and spending," the banker commented. "There is no reason why we cannot continue to meet any quotas of War Bonds the government sets for us."

"It will be good policy for our people to plan to buy War Bonds regularly—every week or monthly. To do our part on the home front to back up the fighting men it is necessary that all of us arrange to buy bonds regularly and consistently. We are on the way now toward winning the war, but it is going to take a lot of money," Woolard said.

Makes Report On Tobacco Prospects

"Everywhere growers report good stands and a minimum amount of re-setting, except for the first tobacco set out, and many have finished re-planting," R. C. Rankin said today. "They say tobacco has, or is taking root and that the crop is off to a splendid start. Almost everyone planted the 5 per cent increase, in some communities the percentage is less than in others, but taking the belt as a whole this increase will affect about 98 per cent of the belt's acreage."

"There is only a normal amount of damage from cut acid but worms but a widespread complaint because of grass. Frequent rains have prevented growers from working their crops and grass has grown very fast. Except for several cool days and nights following the rains of the 21st and a couple of very hot days prior to the 21st, weather conditions have been near ideal, probably the best planting season in several years," he stated.

HOG NEWS

Since Chester Davis took over, hogs have taken a tumble down from $16.50 to $14.50 at Chicago. The elevation of the floor from $13.25 to $13.75 to be maintained until September 30, 1944 is of no immediate value to the producer and especially so in view of the advanced price of corn. Hog prices were deliberately knocked down to where high cost producers will be forced out of production. With labor, machinery and feed scarcity a lot of growers who have been on the ragged edge will naturally reduce production. So long as the government asks for increased hog production and at the same time takes action deliberately designed to reduce market hog prices, we don't look for much increased production. If the floor had been put at $14.50 and current retail price were left as is we would have virtually a fixed price. That would be much better than at present where prices can go below $14.00. Any price below this figure is too low for the producer to continue high production under present high cost of operation. Something must be done if it will be patient and keep raising hogs.

cancellation for persons with a tax liability of $200 or less for the abatement year.

The conference committee, headed by Chairman George (D-Ga) of the Senate Finance Committee and Doughton (D-NC) of the House Ways and Means committee, was called back into session to decide exactly what had been decided upon.

George declared the compromise provided only 75 per cent cancellation for persons with tax bills over $50, but Senator Vandenberg, (R-Mich), a conference member, said he understood the taxpayers first would deduct 75 per cent from their abatement year liability, then subtract $50 to arrive at the amount to be paid. By such a mechanism, a person owing $400 would deduct $300 (75 per cent) and another $50, leaving a tax bill of $50—instead of $100, as George sees it.

Assembly Sessions To Begin Tonight

Montreat N. C., May 27 — (AP)—The 83rd General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (Southern) will open here tonight with devotional services and election of a new moderator.

The session will continue until June 2.

The opening sermon will be preached by the Rev. Ben Lacy Rose, an army chaplain of Camp Hood, Tex., a son of the retiring moderator, Charles G. Rose of Fayetteville.

Business sessions will get into full swing tomorrow with presentation of reports of executive secretaries and heads of the assembly's agencies, permanent committees, ad interim committees, and trustees and officers of the general assembly. Standing committees also will be chosen.

A plan of union of the Northern and Southern Presbyterian churches is expected to be submitted to the general assembly with the request that it be sent down to the 88 Presbyteries for study. The plan was developed by a special committee on cooperation and union working with a similar committee of the Northern Church.

Three-fourths of the Presbyteries of both churches must approve the plan before it can become effective. Fifty-seven overtures have been considered.

Several ask the general assembly to withdraw from the Federal Council of Churches of America.

The assembly consists of 172 ministers and a like number of ruling elders representing 88 Presbyteries in 17 synods from Florida to Missouri and Virginia Texas.

U. S. Air Force Makes Good Record

U. S. Eighth Air Force Headquarters, England, May 27 — (AP)—British-based United States heavy bombers established a record for a single day's bag by destroying 74 German planes May 21 during the unescorted raids on submarine construction yards at Emden and Wilhelmshaven, it was announced today.

Twelve bombers were lost in this joint action.

The record bag of enemy craft brought the total to 301 destroyed in eight raids which embraced 16 targets during May.

The previous high for a single day was 64 shot down during the four-day attack on Kiel, Antwerp, Courtrai, France, and Velsen, Holland, May 14, by medium and heavy bombers were lost on those raids.

Many sufferers relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 pints a day.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Strength FOR THE DAY By EARL L. DOUGLAS

FEED THE ROOTS

The tree experts gathered about a great beech tree which had begun to show signs of disease and pondered for quite a while the drooping and withered appearance of the tree. They asked themselves what could be the matter. At last they concluded that the tree was gradually starving to death and that the only thing to bring it back to health and beauty would be to begin to feed the roots.

For many years it had drawn its life from the soil, but other things had been planted in the vicinity and the time had come when the things had taken the large share of food and the tree was compelled to subsist on what was left.

The same thing seems to be happening to the spiritual life of many people today. They become discontented with life, restless, and all this in spite of the fact that they live in the midst of conditions which others covet and which it would appear could not help but make them happy.

The trouble lies in their roots, and the fact that so many adjacent things, beautiful in themselves and highly desirable, are taking the best of their mind and energy and leaving only a few scraps upon which spiritual life is supposed to subsist.

Such people need to have the roots of their lives fed. The Bible speaks about the tree of life, and in the garden of every man's soul there stands such a tree. Foolish indeed is he who allows it to die, when a wise feeding of its roots would prevent death.

A GRAND JOB! Greenville and Pitt County citizens should be proud of the magnificent showing made at the War Bond rally yesterday.

Proud because of these four things:

1. We more than doubled the bond sales of our state capital, Raleigh, in the recent rally held there. Raleigh's sales were $53,000—Greenville's $173,000.

2. Our purchases topped those of Kinston, our neighboring city, which reported sales of $100,000.

3. Our entertainment of Miss Constance Bennett, screen star, and her party, who were honor guests of the city.

4. The teamwork of our citizens, who put their shoulders to the wheel, and really did an excellent piece of work.

And that isn't all—not by a long shot! Greenville and Pitt County only recently over-subscribed the Second War Loan by some $500,000—and came right back yesterday—dug down deep in their pockets, and came up with an additional $173,000 for Uncle Sam's fighting men!

Much of the credit for the success of the rally and the subsequent entertainment of the guests is due to a number of our leaders and organizations who worked hand-in-hand and gave of their time and money in order that the affair would reflect credit upon the city and county. It is well that we mention the names of lengths to which news restrictions have gone. Newsmen here weren't even warned that Churchill was on his way.

Except for his two speeches to England and before Congress, Churchill had no contact with the United States press throughout nearly all of his stay. His few public pronouncements were made through the British Press service in the form of handouts—and President Roosevelt, in his press conferences during the same period, refused to comment on the session he, Churchill, and their military advisers had held.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME By JACK STINNETT

First of two articles on wartime news restrictions.

Washington—Wartime censorship and news restrictions have had three important effects on the visits of such foreign personages as Prime Minister Winston Churchill.

1. On the surface, they have cut complications for the newsmen and visiting bigwigs to the irreducible minimum.

2. They have simplified the job of the Secret Service, which is charged with guarding these visitors, in spite of the fact that war has increased Secret Service responsibilities a thousand-fold.

3. They are establishing a dangerous precedent against complete freedom of the press recently manifested in the restrictions imposed at the international refugee conference in Bermuda and the world food conference at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va.

While the latest visit of Churchill to this country doesn't quite cover all the points, it does illustrate the

HIGHWAY TO HER HEART by MAXINE SHORE

Chapter 20 Having made this magnanimous proposition, Bert Stringer let Penny think it over. He proceeded to finish his breakfast. To all appearances, he'd forgotten her presence. But Penny knew that, should she make the slightest movement toward the door, he'd be on his feet instantly, gun in hand.

She sat there desiring him as she'd never desired anyone before. Trying desperately to keep that hatred from showing on her face.

Bert Stringer not only intended to offer war-time films to enemy representatives, but he had the additional effrontery to believe her brother might accept money from such sources.

Wiping his mouth with the back of his hand, Stringer pushed back his chair. "We'd better be getting along," he said.

"Where to?" asked Penny. "Fort St. John." "Fort St. John!"

That was where Constable Renneck was taking Bill. Stringer glanced at her quickly. "Any objections?"

"Oh, no," said Penny. "I haven't much choice, have I?" She laughed unsteadily. "Whether you go, I go, you know."

"You bet you, do, sweetheart." He came over and put his hands on her shoulders, began to draw her to him. Penny fought her revulsion. Then, quite unexpectedly, he released her.

"No," he said, "that can wait. We got plenty of time to get acquainted. Better get started now."

Instead of following down along Moose Creek, they struck overland back of Pierre's cabin, along a well-marked forest trail. For the first time, Penny remembered Wolf and missed him. Doubtless he'd gone in the canoe with Marie. She wished he hadn't. His frisky, affectionate company would have been some comfort to her.

Every step, Penny thought miserably was taking her farther from Ponte Olivo air fields with fragmentation bombs indicated that air resources kept by the enemy in Sicily at present are slender.

No enemy planes attempted to intercept either of these raids. Fliers said "a few aircraft" were caught on the ground at Ponte Olivo and wrecked.

A large transport at Golfo Aranci burst into flames after a direct hit, and a small boat nearby also caught fire. Three storage tanks believed to contain oil were ignited. Dockside buildings were shot up.

After scoring direct hits on the Tirso power station, which supplied a large part of Sardinia with electricity, Lightnings sped on to shoot up Axis gun emplacements and small vessels.

Quays and shipping at Porto Ponte Romano, a harbor of southwest Sardinia, suffered from a Warhawk sweep.

Warhawks strewed fragmentation bombs on other targets in the center of Pantelleria island and shot up troops and gun emplacements. The coastal air force patrol shot down one Heinkel-111 Tuesday night.

Warhawk observers say it is this demonstration of lack of confidence that is rapidly giving rise to criticism against news restrictions. This lack of confidence reached a climax in the original plans on the White Sulphur Springs food conference, where a subject that affects every individual in this country and most of those in the world was being discussed.

PIRATES BEAT DODGERS 17-4

Giants Win Over Cubs, 4-2, With 22 Hits Featuring Game

By JUDSON BAILEY
Somebody must have sneaked a supply of the original balata (pronounced baloney by the players) balls into the major league parks under cover of darkness last night. There were two games played in the daylight yesterday and in one the Pittsburgh Pirates punished the Brooklyn Dodgers 17-4. The two teams made a total of 28 hits. In the other the New York Giants beat the Chicago Cubs 4-2 and there were 22 hits.

But after the sun had set, look what happened:
Cincinnati nosed out the Phillies 1-0 and Washington whipped the St. Louis Browns by the same score. There wasn't a sweat in either game longer than a single and the four teams together made a total of only 19 hits.

Another flood-lighted affair was an 11-inning scramble at St. Louis with the Boston Braves beating the Cardinals 4-3 and even though it included a couple of Cardinal home runs, it also was a pitching party.

Lou Klein and Walker Cooper hit homers for two of the six hits given up by Al Javery as he counted his fourth victory against one defeat. The Braves touched Mr. Cooper for ten safeties, bunched four of them with an error for three runs in the fifth and then won the game in the 11th when Eddie Joost led off with a sin eadnd ultimately came home on a single by rookie Charley Workmen.

This boosted the surprising Braves within half a game of the second place St. Louis Redbirds.

In the two 1-0 games the winning pitchers were the hitting pitchers. At Cincinnati Bucky Walters and Charley Fuchs pitched magnificently and neither team scored till two out in the last of the ninth.

Walters sneaked in this inning went to second on a balk and came home on a single by Eddie Miller. The sixth hit allowed by Fuchs Walters gave only four.

At Washington the lone run of the game was counted in the sixth inning on three singles, the middle one by Dutch Leonard, who held the Browns to four one-base blows. The Senators made just five singles off John Niecehinn and George Caster.

The day games were a striking contrast of these duels.

At Pittsburgh the Pirates scored 15 runs in the first three innings off Max Macon and Les Webber, getting five of their runs in the second and in the third frame scoring nine times after two were out. Vince had increased by 1,000,000 since Ap-Dumaggio hit two home runs, one of them with one on and the other farm workers still was the lowest with two, and his teammates add- ever recorded for May.

ed an assortment of nits. But what really piled up the score was a series of walks by Webber, who issued nine bases on balls and forced six runs across the plate.
Fred Fitzsimmons took over in the fourth and cooled off the Buccaneers, although they added two final runs in the eighth on a triple by Tommy O'Brien.
At Chicago the Giants scored all four of their runs in the first three innings off Paul Derringer. The fact that they were ninth 2-10 and could do nothing in the later innings made little difference.
Oh, Yes, a certain mad Russian, whose name has been in the public prints so much it doesn't need repeating, made his 1943 debut and was the only Chicago player except the pitcher who failed to get a hit.

Raleigh, May 27—(AP)—Frank Parker, State Agriculture Department statistician, said that farm labor employment in this country nine times after two were out. Vince had increased by 1,000,000 since Ap-Dumaggio hit two home runs, one of them with one on and the other farm workers still was the lowest with two, and his teammates add- ever recorded for May.

WILSON'S WEEKLY Bulletin By George Rector Food and Nutrition Consultant to Wilson & Co. A DELECTABLE ROAST WITHIN YOUR BUDGET

Those of you who have resigned yourselves to forego roasts during rationing might well take another peek at the table of point values. You will find boneless shoulder roasts much more economical in points than a prime rib roast because all of it is edible. Remember, too, that any meat, whether its point value is high or low, provides high quality nutritional essentials your body requires each day.

SUNDAY DINNER MENU GELA SEALED LAMB ROAST (Rolled), MINT PEARS WITH JELLY BAKED POTATOES BUTTERED ASPARAGUS STRAWBERRY SHORTCAKE MILK COFFEE

Use Bones and Trimmings Ask your dealer to bone a 3 or 4 lb. shoulder of Wilson's Gela Sealed Lamb and roll it. Be sure to take the bones and trimmings with you; they'll make a delicious broth. Wipe all pieces with a damp cloth, place on a rack in an open pan and roast in a slow oven, 325 F., allowing 40 to 45 minutes per lb. When about half done, season with salt, pepper and just a smidgen of garlic (optional). It's a hit with the carver! 3 lbs., 18 points. Serves 6-8. If your dealer has previously boned the shoulder, it's 24 points for 3 pounds.

An Exclusive Process You will be delighted with Wilson's Gela Sealed Meats. They are prepared by a process, exclusive with Wilson & Co., that seals in the original freshness and juiciness of the meat. Keeps the exterior more sanitary, too. Look for the clear gelatine coating and the Gela Sealed name the next time you buy beef, veal or lamb.

To prepare any Gela Sealed Meat, wipe it carefully with a damp cloth, being careful not to remove the gelatine coating which helps keep a roast more juicy. Then cook according to cut by the new low temperature method. The drippings from Gela Sealed Meats make an extra-delicious brown gravy.

If you have your own herb garden, crush fresh mint leaves for flavoring the peas and garnish platter with sprigs of mint. Color peas a delicate green. Use red jelly for center.

Conserve Points in Dessert You can save points when making strawberry shortcake by using Wilson's Advance or Wilson's Certified Oleo-margarine for the shortening (5 points per lb.). You'll like the flavor of the dishes made with these fats.

Mrs. Daisy Oakley Suicides With Gun

Mrs. Daisy Haddock Oakley, 36, died suddenly Thursday morning at her home near Shelmerdine, as a result of a self-inflicted wound with a single-barreled shotgun.

Funeral services and burial will take place Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Mack Smith family cemetery in front of Pleasant Hill Church on the New Bern highway.

Mrs. Oakley is survived by her husband, Walter Lee Oakley, a son, Otis Ledrow Oakley, and a daughter, Peggy Joyce Oakley; three sisters, Mrs. Cora Jones, Mrs. Levy Manning and Miss Olive Vera Haddock, of Grimesland, Route 1; five brothers, Herman Haddock, address unknown, Eljas Haddock, U. S. Army, stationed in Louisiana; Jesse Lee Haddock, U. S. Army, stationed in Texas; Robert Haddock, U. S. Army, stationed in California, and Leroy Haddock, of Shelmerdine.

Mrs. Oakley was the daughter of the late James Haddock and Mary Harrington Haddock. She was born, reared and spent her entire life in the Shelmerdine community.

Stimson said in his discussion that the army troops on Attu are making steady progress, with heavy enemy losses.

U. S. Forces... (Continued from Page One) about three miles away. The two enemy positions were obviously isolated from each other.

vealed. The action was carried out by combined units from both the northern and southern forces in the island and authorities here believed that once the high ground is taken the Japanese position would entirely collapse.

The ground overlooks the area in which the village of Attu formerly was located. The village consisted of a few buildings and a church.

A few days ago, the Navy reported that all the structures except one building and the church have been destroyed. Apparently the destruction which resulted in today's official report that all have now been wiped out was centered on the church and the lone unidentified building, both of which were used by the enemy.
