The Essen attack followed a twilight raid last evening on Jena, central Germany, where the Carl Zeiss optical works manufactures precision instruments and tools for many of Germany's war industries. Important chemical and machine factories also are in Jena.
The offensive was continued today as fighters swept across the channel for offensive sweeps over German-occupied countries and in the Mediterranean theater, there was no rest for the harassed defenders of Italy's island invasion outposts—Sardinia, Sicily and Pantelleria.

Allied headquarters in North Africa announced that the bombarded airfields of Villa-Idro and Decimomannu on Sardinia were blasted again yesterday by incendiary bombers and that 13 defending Axis fighters were shot down in dogfights with escorting Allied fighters. Fighter-bombers returned to the tiny island of Pantelleria to blast the airfield and small Axis garrison there.
Long-range fighters of the middle east command continued their patrol of the Aegean Sea, keeping Axis eyes anxiously trained on the island. They shot down at least one enemy plane.
Nazi spokesmen found occasion to warn Axis peoples against the Allied "nerve war," especially in Italy and the Balkans. A Swedish correspondent in Berlin said German sources told of propaganda leaflets spread over Italy in the past 48 hours. One German military analyst acknowledged that the Allies had the power to attack Italy, but added "don't forget Meila was attacked by the Germans and Italians for many months and never gave up."

Prohibit Use of Funds
Washington, May 28—AP—Without a word of debate the Senate voted today to prohibit President Roosevelt from using war emergency funds to finance agencies denied appropriations by Congress.
The restriction was a part of a $143,630,591 urgent deficiency appropriation bill which subsequently was passed and sent back to the House for action on this amendment and others.

'Freedom's Corner' Goes On Furlough

'Freedom's Corner' is to have a furlough after Saturday night. The popular War Bond and Stamp booth, located from time to time in the lobbies of different downtown stores, from which patriotic members of the Woman's Club sold $75,000 of War Bonds and stamps during the past nine weeks, will reopen next fall.
Mrs. John Warner, chairman of the War Bond Committee of the Woman's Club, had charge of the work in cooperation with Mrs. James S. Ficklen, Pitt County chairman of the women's division of the War Bond Committee. They today extended thanks to the women who have worked faithfully at 'Freedom's Corner' and those who bought bonds and stamps.

HIGHWAY TO HER HEART

by MAXINE SHORE

Chapter 21

It was a long day. Bert Stringer was driven by impatience to reach the Peace River and the canoe he had cached there. From the half-breed's shack, Penny learned, it was only ten miles by this route. The river took a bend which shortened the distance.

"Well make camp on the shore tonight," her captor said, "and paddle on to Fort St. John in the morning."

He kept Penny going relentlessly. Weary as she was, she dared not risk the consequences of irritating him by outright rebellion.

By this trail, she estimated, they would probably come out about ten or fifteen miles down river from where she'd left Cleve. Penny's heart plummeted. How long would he wait at the Indian encampment before beginning to suspect something was wrong? Several days, probably.

But now, at least, she had a plan. She had hope. She was both eager and reluctant to reach the trail's end. If she should fail—if Bert Stringer should somehow find out—what then? Warm as she was with the exertion of the strenuous hiking overland, Penny couldn't suppress an angry shiver. Stringer would never forgive her for trying to fool him. He'd be relentless. After all, she reminded herself fearfully, he was basically a criminal of the worst sort. She could hold him at arm's length only by keeping him guessing, by flattering his ego.

But—if she should succeed! Penny's heart beat with warm excitement at the thought. She would be free. The precious films Bill had risked his life for would be in her possession. She could, surely, manage to find her way safely back to Cleve. To succeed would be worth every ounce of painstaking effort, every bit of acting skill on her part, loath as she was to have to do it.

It was nearly ten o'clock, according to Penny's watch, when they emerged from the thinning pines and saw ahead the pale glimmer of the river. Soon the sub-arctic dusk would settle for a few hours over the north country, while the sun dipped briefly below the horizon's rim.

Bert Stringer flung down his pack, including the brown dunnage bag.

He said, "I'm dog-tired. I'll be glad to get out of this damned country."

Penny dropped her bed-roll, put down her first aid kit.

"Why did you ever come up here in the first place?" she asked curiously.

He was in no mood for confidences. "I had my reasons," he said shortly.

"Maybe you were telling Bill," suggested Penny indifferently, as if it really didn't matter to her.

He snorted. "Maybe—maybe not."

Penny decided to drop her questioning, before he became too annoyed. He was snappish as an animal who wants only to rest and be let alone. At the moment, body-comfort was paramount with him. Getting out camp equipment and supplies for their late supper, he rattled the pans and containers savagely.

"Let me help," she said sweetly, although every nerve and muscle of her body protested against it.

"Sure," he said, "why not? Let's see what you're good for, besides looking pretty."

Penny stifled her indignation, went doggedly to work. If only she weren't so worn out. This keeping up, this eternal humiliating pre-tending was wearing on her physically and mentally. And now, more than any time in her life before, she needed to be alert. Her movements, when the time came, must

You can—and probably do—operate along similar lines. But are you planning your future use of credit as carefully as your crop production, marketing plans, maintenance programs, etc? Credit can be programmed too. You can estimate when you'll need cash, how much you'll need, and when you can repay from income. Bring that information to the bank and we'll suggest a forward-looking credit program.

Sunken Battleship Oklahoma Raised At Pearl Harbor

Straining under terrific load, heavy cables slowly right the United States battleship Oklahoma from the bed of Pearl Harbor where she was sent by Jap bombs in the opening attack of the war December 7, 1941. The vessel was heeled over to a 131-degree angle when salvage operations began. Now, she has been raised to above a 15-degree angle. Within the 17 months since the attack, 16 of the 19 ships sunk have been salvaged and returned to service by the Navy.

be deft and sure. Otherwise—otherwise everything would be lost.

Penny felt suddenly the whole burden of the responsibility which had fallen upon her shoulders. Not only for herself, but for Bill, for Powell, for Cleve, she must succeed. Yes, and for many more, perhaps, whom she had never seen and never would for her country and for the whole world.

"Get a move on," growled Stringer, as her hands slowed under the overpowering weight of this thought.

Gritting her teeth Penny pushed the jagged end of the tin of corn she was opening into her hand.

She gave a little exclamation of pain.

"What's the matter now?" he demanded, exasperated.

"I cut my hand," she told him apologetically. "Nothing serious. But I'll have to get some gauze and adhesive tape to bandage it with. It won't take a minute."

"Hell," he said. "All right, but make it snappy."

Penny opened her kit hurriedly, got out the things necessary to bind her self-inflicted injury and, along with them, the little box she'd come across this afternoon while fixing her hurt knee. The latter she slipped surreptitiously into her breeches pocket, praying that in the increasing dimness Bert Stringer wouldn't notice.

Then having taken care of her hand, she came back.

Under his increasingly abusive urging and the stress of her own increased tension, she had the meal prepared in no time.

"Well," he said mollified after a few bites, "you can get a hustle on you, when you've a mind to, can't you?"

"Coffee?" asked Penny. She hoped her voice didn't sound as queer to him as it did to her.

Mouth stuffed, he nodded. With hands she couldn't keep from shaking, she gave him the steaming black liquid.

Emptying it, he smacked his lips and passed the cup back to be refilled.

"Nothing like good coffee to set a man up," he said, his good humor returning.

"No," swallowed Penny. "But—don't you ever have trouble with coffee keeping you awake?"

He grinned. "What if I do?" He sat over her, sweetheart.

"I'd rather get everything all cleaned up and put away first," she said cooly. "It won't take more than half an hour."

In half an hour, Bert Stringer was so sound asleep he didn't hear Penny rummaging in his brown dunnage bag for the Alcan films. The sleeping tablets had worked wonderfully.

OPA Wants Expired Stamps Destroyed

Raleigh, May 28—Expired red or blue point ration stamps can breed black markets and housewives who have not used up those stamps should view with suspicion any attempts to solicit their surrender, the Office of Price Administration stated today.

"If for one reason or another you find yourself with unused red or blue point stamps at the end of the month destroy them yourself," OPA said.

"These stamps represent your personal share of the national food supply. If you have not used up your share in any month, make sure that it stays in legitimate channels and is not diverted into the black market."

Officials explained that while red and blue stamps issued for any one month expire at the end of the month so far as retail buying is concerned, they continue to be valid for purchases and sales in trade channels for some time afterward. This is obviously necessary to enable storekeepers to make use of stamps collected in the final few days of the month.

State Guard Made Good At Inspection

By CHESTER WALSH

The Greenville company of the North Carolina State Guard, Capt. Jasper L. Jones commanding, made a creditable showing at a special inspection of men and equipment at the armory Wednesday night. The company had 100 per cent attendance, measured up like regular soldiers and won high praise from Lt.-Col. J. W. France, U. S. Army officer from Fort Bragg.

The State Guard was organized, equipped and trained to take care of any disorder or emergency during the war until the regular army takes over. Howard Sumrell and W. H. Woolard, Jr. are lieutenants. Bert Greene is top sergeant. The company was organized more than two years ago. The men serve without pay. The outfit was in training camp last summer and the officers spent some time in training at Fort Bragg.

Captain White and Lieuts. Wilson and Moran of the Edenton State Guard unit, attended the inspection.

No Inquest Death Shelmerdine Woman

Coroner Griffin H. Rouse after investigating the suicide of Mrs. Daisy Haddock Oakley at her home near Shelmerdine Thursday morning, deemed an inquest unnecessary.

Mrs. Oakley, wife of Walter Lee Oakley, worried over partial estrangement from her husband had threatened to end her life, the coroner stated. She told members of her father-in-law's family yesterday morning, "You may never see me again." She went to her home nearby, secured a shotgun, stood in the front door, placed the muzzle of the gun in her face and pulled the trigger with a stick. The blast nearly severed her head. Her husband, a daughter and a son survive.

Funeral services were held at the Mack Smith cemetery near Pleasant Hill cemetery this afternoon.

Free Care For Wives Of Men In Service

It was announced today that the local health department has sent out to all physicians in Pitt County a leaflet from the United States Children's Bureau concerning free maternal and infant care for the wives and infants of men in the armed forces.

This service is limited to the families of the men of the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th grades as of April 15, 1943. It includes Army, Navy, Marine Corps and Coast Guard Forces, but no one above the rating of sergeant.

The local health officer states that full information can be gotten by applying to the family physician, or to the Pitt County Health Department office, Greenville.

Harmony Prevails In Rubber Plants

By The Associated Press

Amity was restored in the rubber industry today as workers returned to their jobs in response to appeals based on the nation's need for their war products but internal dissension broke out in one segment of organized labor.

President Roosevelt's appeal to the Akron, O., workers to go back to their machines ended a strike of 50,000 at the nation's greatest rubber plants. Strikers at the U. S. Rubber Company's Buffalo, N. Y., plant also voted to return after a Navy spokesman warned that the armed forces would take over unless the walkout ended. The strikes followed wage disputes.

Production virtually halted however at the Marlin Rockwell Ball and Roller Bearing Plant, largest war production factory in Jamestown, N. Y. where 1,600 CIO United Automobile Workers joined in a strike unauthorized by the union. The men protested hiring of workers from outside at what they said were higher wages than they received.

Fathers Listed As Last To Be Called

Charlotte, N. C., May 28—(AP)—The calling up of fathers for service in the armed forces will start in North Carolina only after the reservoir of single men and childless married men is exhausted, Maj. Charles R. Jonas of Raleigh, representing the State Selective Service headquarters, told draft boards of four counties here yesterday.

Jonas said that the only exceptions to this would be when the single men were deferred for vital reasons, but warned employers that removal of deferments would be granted only in extreme cases.

Calling of fathers will be done simultaneously throughout the state when it does start, he said.

On Hospital Board

Raleigh, May 28—(AP)—John L. Beal of Gastonia, Paul R. Ervin of Charlotte and Herman Weil of Goldsboro were reappointed by Governor Broughton today as members of the board of trustees of the North Carolina Orthopedic hospital at Gastonia. Their terms expire April 4, 1949.

Seek To Prevent Trade Amendment

Washington, May 28—(AP)—The administration appeared today to be picking up forces in its fight to prevent any amendment of house-approved legislation renewing the Reciprocal Trade Agreements authority for two more years.

After preliminary oratory, the first test strength is expected to come on a finance committee-approved amendment permitting congress to end any trade agreement—or all of them, for that matter—six months after the close of the war by passage of a joint resolution.

This proposal seems headed toward the closest sort of vote largely on party lines. As the situation stands 35 senators—19 fewer than a majority—are publicly committed to support it and 17 to oppose it. Twenty still remain uncommitted.

The administration gained four recruits today when Senators Pepper (D-Fla.), McLellan (D-Ark.), Hayden (D-Ariz.) and Tydings (D-Mo.) indicated they would oppose the amendment. On the other hand, proponents picked up public support of Senators Maloney (D-Conn.), Hawkes (R-N.J.) and Moore (R-Okla.)

Buses Worst Speed Limit Offenders

Raleigh, May 28—(AP)—Buses are the worst offenders of the 35-mile speed limit which went into effect in North Carolina May 6, according to 1,468 speed checks made at seven rural points on the state highways between May 17 and May 25.

The buses had an average speed of 42.7 miles an hour, said James S. Burch, engineer of statistics and planning for the State Highway Commission. Twelve per cent of the buses, Burch said, averaged more than 30 miles an hour.

The report showed the average speed of all observed vehicles in May was 38. In April it was 37.6 and in March, 37.2.

Out of state passenger cars had an average speed of 38.5, while North Carolina passenger cars averaged 28.7.

Of all the vehicles clocked, 476 were trucks and buses.

Richardson Given Post As Moderator

Montreat, N. C., May 28 (AP)—The 83rd General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S. elected the Rev. Donald W. Richardson, D. C., of Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va., as its new moderator here last night in the opening session of a meeting that will continue through Wednesday.

Dr. Richardson, professor of missions and comparative religions at Union since 1928 and who served 18 years as missionary to China, succeeds Charles G. Rose, of Fayetteville, whose son, the Rev. Ben Lacy 113th Cavalry, made a plea for in the opening sermon of the assembly last night.

Dr. Richardson is a native of South Carolina and was educated at Davidson College, where he received his B.A. in 1902 and the D.D. in 1918. He was elected over Dr. J. L. Fowle, of Charlotte, Dr. J. F. Hardie of Ft. Worth, Texas, and Dr. J. G. McClure of St. Petersburg, Florida.

Arrives For Reception

Algiers, May 28—(AP)—Gen. Georges Catroux, liaison officer between Gen. Henri Giraud and Gen. Charles de Gaulle, arrived today from London to assist in the reception here soon of Gen. de Gaulle.

"WHERE were the airplanes?"

"While the American public was being fed reports on our growing airplane construction and accepting those reports as accurate, the startling fact was that eight months after the start of the war our navy in the Pacific could get only twenty-nine planes to send into Guadalcanal, and those arrived nearly two weeks after the landing!"

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"Anything new, Bert, on that black market trial up at the county seat?"

"The jury came in 'bout an hour ago, Judge. The verdict was 'guilty.' I understand the sentence is going to be a mighty stiff one."

"Can't be too stiff to suit me. Anything those law-flouting racketeers get will be too good for them. How they thrive every time there's an opportunity to sell something illegally instead of legally in this country. Just like the bootleggers did during the 14 years when liquor was sold illegally instead of legally."

"Unless this black market in meat and other commodities is stamped out and stamped out quickly, Bert, we're in for another dose of the crime, corruption and lawlessness we had following the last World War."

DOUBLE THE MILEAGE?

We're not promising we can do it, BUT—

Leading tire manufacturers say that war experience proves that the "normal" 24,000-mile life of a first-line tire can be stretched to 50,000 miles or farther by proper tire care!

Slower speeds, careful checking of inflation, switching tires at proper mileages, all help a lot.

In addition, you make tires stretch through proper wheel alignment, correct brake adjustment, keeping bearings in good condition and other mechanical attentions that are right down our alley.

If you're lucky enough to have new tires, start off now to get full mileage—maybe double the mileage—through expert care. If tires are already worn, make them stretch not only through the things you can do yourself (such as watching tire pressure and cross-crossing tires regularly), but by using our expert service.

Remember—your present tires may well have to see you through the duration—and beyond. Can you afford to give them anything less than the most expert care—the kind we give them?

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

STRANGELY ANSWERED PRAYER

Some months ago a man complained to his friends that it would be impossible for him to pay his income tax. He was the type of person, however, who greatly trusts providence in such matters, and so he felt that somehow or other affairs would turn out in a way that he would be able to meet his income tax without dipping into capital.

It came out just as he had expected it would, but as the result of an unexpected combination of circumstances. This man had prayed the Lord that he would be able to meet his current income tax out of income, and the Lord granted his request by so reducing his income that he got down into much lower brackets than he had anticipated and so was able, even with a greatly restricted income, to pay what the government required.

Divine providence very often achieves its ends by means which astound us. We ask that certain things be done for us and the Lord grants our requests, but not in the way we thought He would. Great historical circumstances have sometimes hinged upon one little event. If we can just convince ourselves that the issue of events is in the hands of God, we may well leave the means to Him. And very often the circumstances under which His blessings are given are quite as amazing as the blessings themselves.

WE ARE PROUD OF THEM

It was a fine showing the local State Guard unit made on official inspection here this week. Not only did the members turn out one hundred per cent but they did so well in all requirements that the federal inspector was generous in his commendation of the officers and men composing the unit. Our local guard unit is one of our most valuable organizations.

A WISE MOVE

Today's creation by President Roosevelt of the Office of War Mobilization with the avowed purpose of unifying our entire war effort, eliminating interdepartmental friction and streamlining the nation for action, is indeed a good move if the office will act instead of just becoming another alphabetical bureau. The country has suffered already because of the failure of Congress, long ago, to enact the universal draft act, sponsored by the American Legion, that would place all the manpower and resources of the government for the prosecution of war to a victorious end. Today's move by the President apparently is a step toward this goal and we repeat, if so, it should bring results.

PATRIOTISM TO WHOM?

This country has recently witnessed the humiliation of our government by American coal miners and their leaders, in war time. There is no use trying to overlook the facts—the men walked off the job in defiance of requests of the President of the United States; they refused to go back to work at his request, and only returned to work on orders from the head of their union.

This flagrant disregard of public welfare, and established agencies of government, was but one step removed from open revolution in war time.

And yet the head of the United Mine Workers, according to news reports told the men who struck: "Your record of patriotism can never be challenged."

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

(Second of two articles on wartime news restrictions)

Washington — If you asked the Secret Service which is responsible for the safety of all visiting dignitaries you probably wouldn't get an answer, but those who should know will tell you that the toughest job of guarding they have had since we entered the war was that of seeing to the safety of Madame Chiang Kai-shek. That may be surprising in view of the fact that Great Britain's Prime Minister Churchill has visited this country twice, President Roosevelt has been to Casablanca and Mexico, via all the intermediate states; and that there has been an endless parade of Latin American presidents.

The reason Madame Chiang was such a nerve-wrecker for the SS-men is simply that her cross-country junket was mapped in advance and there was no secret about where she was today or where she would be tomorrow.

When Churchill arrived for his latest visit in the United States, there wasn't a word of warning to anybody but the White House inner circle, a few military officials, and Secret Service. It was paved with Health precautions, but not the kind that took local police forces, press, radio, port officials, and others into confidence. News photographers were allowed to take his picture as he climbed into the President's car for his drive to the White House, but there was no press conference.

His visit made the Secret Service jittery. So did the President's trip to Mexico. And the Roosevelt hop to Casablanca was a nightmare of Secret Service responsibility. White House Secret Service Chief Michael "Mike" Reilly covered every inch of that ground before the President took off, but if one word had leaked out that the President was going, Reilly's precautions would have had to be quipped.

During Churchill's visit, there were extra guards on the White House, starting with the ring of MPs regularly assigned to that task, but you hardly would have noticed it. The only time that the White House has the appearance of being announced arrival or departure is taking place.

Which brings us back to Madame Chiang. Why it may be asked, was Churchill's visit so hush-hush, and Madame Chiang's so well advertised? Simply because Madame Chiang's visit had to do with molding public opinion, while Churchill had to do with secret conferences over future United Nations war strategy. In the former there was every reason for publicity—in the latter, every reason for secrecy.

I couldn't say for sure, but I would be willing to bet that the Secret Service would rather take the President to Moscow under the new system of secret confinement than to take him to Kansas City on an announced speaking tour.

Wilson, May 28.—The annual convention of the North Carolina Elks Association convenes here on Friday and Saturday, June 4 and 5, and David Sholtz, former governor of Florida, past grand exalted ruler of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks and a member of the Elks War Commission, will be the principal speaker, according to Ed W. Davis, exalted ruler of Wilson Lodge No. 340, host to the convention.

The full convention program announced today by Dr. M. A. Pittman, past exalted ruler of Wilson Lodge and chairman of the general convention committee, calls for registration of delegates from noon Friday until 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

State officers, exalted rulers and delegates will gather in an informal session at the Wilson Elks home at 5 o'clock Friday in the first convention assemblage.

Bible School To Open On June 7

The doors of the public schools have closed for another school session—now the doors of the church are being invited all children of the community to attend a different kind of school—Bible school.

The Protestant churches of the city, cooperating in a united effort to provide more religious opportunities for the children of the community, are launching a joint enterprise, two Daily Vacation Bible schools to be held during the month of June.

The first of these schools will begin Monday, June 7, continuing through June 18. This school will be held at Jarvis Memorial Methodist church, Monday through Friday, of the two week period. The sessions will begin at 9 o'clock in the morning and will continue through 12 o'clock.

For the benefit of those boys and girls of the West Greenville district who are unable to attend the central school, a second school will be held at West Greenville School, June 21-July 2. This school will be run on the same daily schedule as the first—beginning at nine o'clock in the morning and ending at 12.

An adequate and capable faculty is being organized to teach in the schools, many of the members of which are religious educational leaders and teachers in the various churches of the city. A complete list of departmental leaders and teachers will be announced at an early date.

The schools will be organized into four departments; beginner, primary, junior and intermediate. Activities of the school will consist of stories, Bible study, handwork, dramatization, drawing, painting, music, and recreation.

All children and young people between the ages of four and 16 are cordially invited and urged to attend one or other of the Bible schools.

Bilbo Ready To Stage Filibuster

Washington, May 28 (AP)—Senator Theodore G. Bilbo of Poplarville, Mississippi, took a deep breath today and announced he is ready to conduct an 18-month, one-man filibuster against the anti-poll tax bill if, as, and when it is called up in the senate.

He came right out and said "filibuster" too. Some statesmen shy away from the word even while engaging in oratory patently designed to kill time—but not the little Democrat from Poplarville who helped talk to death a similar measure in the closing days of the last session.

The current session ends in January, 1945, and the poll tax bill already approved by the house, could be called up any time it emerged from the judiciary committee. Hence Bilbo was committing himself to underwrite a year and a half of talk.

"I could easily discuss the bill for a year and a half and I'm now ready to start," he said, clearing his throat.

In fact, he intimated, that period would be barely sufficient to permit him even his mildest objections to the legislation, which he considers an unwarranted invasion of states' rights, strictly unconstitutional, and provocative of disunity.

Bilbo said that if he did find it necessary to stage a filibuster he would stand ready to yield temporarily to legislation vital to the war effort—provided he got the floor back afterwards.

Dodgers Almost Start Riot In Game At Pittsburgh

By JUDSON BAILEY
(AP Sports Writer)

The major league pennant porridge is coming to a furious boil for the Memorial Day week-end with the heat turned up as high as it will go.

In the American League the Washington Senators moved into first place last night to give the junior circuit its third pace-setter in five days and in the National League the St. Louis Cardinals moved within a game and a half of the Brooklyn Dodgers who were trounced for the second straight time at Pittsburgh and were so incensed they almost started a riot.

The Pirates, who had battered Brooklyn 17-4 on Wednesday, won again 9-5 on the margin of four runs in the eighth inning and in the midst of their rally Umpire George Ball called a balk on hot-headed Johnny Allen.

The Dodger pitcher charged into the umpire and precipitated a melee which resulted in four Brooklyn players—Allen, Fred Fitzsimmons, Rube Melton and Les Webber—all being banished from the field.

However, this tumult, occurring in the presence of 14,724 fans at a night game in Forbes Field, hardly was the most important development of a busy day in the big show even though it was the noisiest.

The program started with a morning game at Boston where the last place Red Sox unceremoniously annihilated the Cleveland Indians, who had ousted the New York Yankees from the American League lead on Sunday. Tex Hughson pitched 5-hit ball to shut out the Tribe 2-0.

In the afternoon the Red Sox repeated the trick, winning 4-3 as Oscar Judd outpitched Jim Bagby.

Then last night the Washington Senators whipped the St. Louis Browns 4-2 in their second straight floodlighted fracas. This lifted the Senators into first place and dropped the Browns into the cellar, where the Red Sox had been hiding for weeks apparently just waiting to pounce on the Indians.

Lefty Hal Newhouser, who couldn't beat the Yankees a single time last year, held them to four hits in an afternoon game, fanned 14, most strikeouts this season and four short of the major league record, and led the Detroit Tigers to a 3-2 victory that placed them in a tie with New York for third place.

Rudy York homered with two for Detroit and Joe Gordon hit a round-tripper with one aboard for New York's runs.

Then, in another night game, the Philadelphia Athletics beat the Chicago White Sox 7-5 and the result was to bunch five American League clubs within two games of the top.

With doubleheaders coming up Sunday and Monday and the leaders matched against each other, the scramble is likely to become even more confusing.

The National League race also tightened up as the Cardinals nosed out the Boston Braves 3-2 with Lefty Howard Pollet pitching five-hit ball. This brought the Red Birds within easy striking distance of the Dodgers, with whom they open a series Monday.

The Cincinnati Reds punctured the Philadelphia Phillies' balloon with a second straight shutout 7-0 on four-hit hurling by Elmer Riddle and advanced within a game

Says He's Ready

Lou Novikoff, "Mad Russian" outfielder of the staggering Chicago Cubs, takes a practice swing after his arrival at Wrigley Field, Monday, ending his self-imposed exile from the lineup. He had been holding out for more than the $6,000 the Cubs offered, but says he has kept in shape at his California home by daily workouts with a semi-pro team. Manager Jimmy Wilson says he'll decide whether Novikoff is ready after watching him workout with the cellar-dwelling Cubs.

and a half of fourth place. New York's Giants also trimmed the Chicago Cubs again 3-2 as Lou Novikoff failed to hit for the second day in succession.

Allen Suspended For Fight At Game

New York, May 28.—(AP)—Johnny Allen, veteran Brooklyn pitcher, was suspended for 30 days and fined $200 today by President Ford Frick of the National League for his part in the argument during the eighth inning of last night's game between the Dodgers and Pirates in Pittsburgh.

Frick also fined pitchers Les Webber $75 and Rube Melton $50. Allen was on the mound when Umpire George Barr called a balk on the hurler. The Brooklyn pitcher's temper flared and he made a push for Barr. After a brief tussle other players finally separated Allen from Barr. But, meanwhile, another verbal skirmish broke out. As the result, Webber, Melton and Fred Fitzsimmons joined Allen in a trip to the showers.

Frick, however, took no action against Fitz, saying he was not seriously mixed up in the brawl.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, May 28.—(AP)—Remember when fighters used to just fight? Well, lightweight Bobby Ruffin is scheduled to make his debut as an actor in "Is Zat So" in Trenton, N. J., June 15 and Chalky Wright recently received an offer to go on the state with Canada Lee, the most successful example of a boxer turned actor. Ruffin, noted for looking sweet in the sticks and sour in Madison Square Garden, hopes the same mix doesn't hit him when his show hits Broadway. At least two husband-wife training combinations have been noted around the race tracks.

Johnny Forbes trains the nags and his wife, the former Nancy Shakespeare, exercises them. Ditto X steeplechase rider Scotty Riles and Mrs. Riles, who won the annual ladies race in Maryland. Bill Cissell, the one-time $10,000 "Beauty" of the White Sox, is playing for a shipyard team in California.

Quote, Unquote

Holcombe Ward U. S. Lawn Tennis Association president who is a strong supporter of schoolboy tennis. "When I went to school, we weren't allowed to play tennis. I tried it once and as I left the court the football captain stopped me and asked why I wasn't playing football instead."

Service Dept.

Marine Corp. R. A. Holbrook, a veteran of the famed U. S. S. Boise, was one of the standout performers in a recent regimental football tilt at the Georgia Pre-Flight School. He plays tailback. Army reserve Jim Milne, Michigan State high jumper, plans to become a paratrooper when he enters the army after his graduation. He figures he won't land much harder than after a six-foot-six high jump. Showing what becomes of college athletes these days, eleven Indiana U. varsity men, headed by Billy Hillenbrand, recently reported for basic training at Camp Croft, S. C.

Holdout Held Back

It seems that Louie Novikoff is very slow at getting off. So far he has only one hit. Except with words, held on

High School Jinks
Mason City, Iowa, finally was stopped by the practically unknown Corwith baseball team recently after running up 58 consecutive victories in football, basketball and baseball. The tennis team also was unbeaten but only tied for the state championship. For a little guy, 145-pound Harry Cooper of LaCrosse, Wis., central high did all right in a recent sectional meet. He set a state interscholastic pole vault record of 13 feet, 6 3/8 inches; missed the state broad jump record by an inch at 22 feet, 5 1/2 inches, and in his spare time tied for first in the high jump at 5-9. Dewitt Coulter, the big boy from Fort Worth, Tex., Masonic Home who can consistently reach 50 feet with the 16-pound shot, has decided to pass up the A. A. U. championships in New York and will enter Texas A. and M. next week.

Cleaning The Cuff

Rip Valenti, the Boston promoter, is bidding $10,000 to get middleweight Jake Lamotta to fight Sonny Horne, the N.Y. O. youngster. William Woodward has presented his famous stallion Omaha, 1935 triple crown winner, to the Jockey Club Breeding Bureau. A factory in South Africa has decided to combat the soft shortage by turning out wooden ones—instead of iron men and wooden shoes it's iron clubs and wooden pellets.

Believe Allied . . .

The present strategical bombing of Germany will be followed by an Allied invasion of the continent this summer. It will develop at times and places where the Axis least expects it, just as the American drive to throw the Japanese out of the Aleutian islands began with a surprise landing at Attu rather than a frontal assault on Kiska.

The war in Europe is expected to be won by some time next year at the latest, but the conflict in the Pacific may run on until 1945 or 1946, according to reliable estimates. The forces available for use against Japan's Pacific flank have been greatly increased. President Roosevelt revealed at a recent press conference that the bulk of American strength already was in the Pacific. When those forces grow sufficiently strong and the time is right, there probably will be an American thrust which will so directly threaten Japanese vital interests that the Japanese fleet williams base on Kiska. The weakest spot in the Allied ring around Japan at present, obviously considered to be the primary objective of the American naval high command. Occupation of new island bases, now that the supply lines to the southwest Pacific have been secured, is secondary to that purpose. But Japanese strategy has become so defensive within the last six months that they no longer appear willing to fight for a position which they do not need vitally.

Their failure to make a counter-attack by sea on United States forces at Attu Island—which stands in direct contrast to the long struggle they put up for Guadalcanal—not only doomed their garrison there but also at their main Aleu-

A Doctor Friend tipped us off to this one

He came in one day and noticed the tires lined up for recapping.

"Looks like my waiting room," he said, "only those are tires."

We couldn't help but come back and say, "Well, after all, doc, we're tire doctors, too. We've spent our whole business life keeping tires well and replacing those that pass on. Incidentally, that's something you can't do, doc!"

"Okehs," he said, "since you're tire doctors, why don't you follow my system and make appointments for recaps?"

So that's why we have that appointment coupon at the bottom of this ad. When your tires need recapping you won't have to waste valuable time waiting to be served or use extra gas making trips to our store if you will send in this coupon. We'll be able to schedule the work and give you overnight recap service. (No recapping certificate is necessary now.)

All our recapping is done right in our own shop, on our own modern equipment, by skilled mechanics.

Grain Market Chicago, May 28 - (AP) - Rye rallied from the day's lows today after declining about a cent, but could not recoup all of the previously lost ground. Some local traders took to the buying side in a much lighter trade than has characterized recent sessions.

Some hedge selling appeared in September wheat and all contracts of that grain weakened. There were reports of cash wheat being offered more freely in the southwest. Oats sank on commission house selling on the basis of fairly liberal imports of Canadian oats into this country.

At the close wheat was 1/2-3/4, lower, July $1.43 1/2-3/4, Sept. $1.44 1/2 to $1.44, corn was unchanged, July $1.05, oats were off 1/8-1/4, and rye finished 1/4, lower to 1/4 higher.

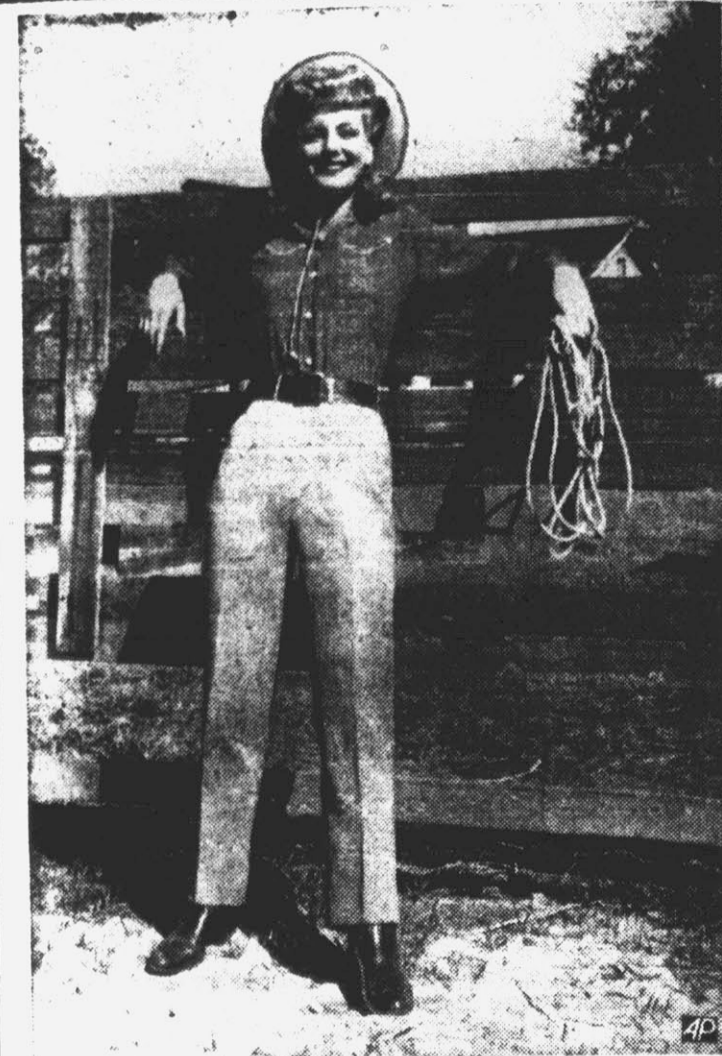

New York Cotton New York, May 28 (AP) - Cotton futures opened unchanged to 5 cents a bale lower. Noon values were unchanged to 20 cents a bale lower. July 20.16, Oct. 19.88, and Dec. 19.73. Futures closed unchanged to 15c a bale higher.

N. Y. Stock Market New York, May 28 - (AP) - Short covering took the sting out of further profit cashing in today's stock market. Transfers were around 1,000,000 shares. Stocks getting in the "new high" category included Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, Chrysler, Dow Chemical, Allied Chemical and Johns-Manville. Ahead were Bethlehem, Kennecott, Goodyear, United Aircraft, Eastman Kodak and Philip Morris. Among laggards were American Telephone, American Can, Du Pont and Westinghouse. Bonds were uneven.

Officers May Have To Repay Money

Raleigh, N. C., May 28 - (AP) - Law enforcement officers who since February 15 have been getting half of money seized in gambling raids might have to repay the money to county commissioners. The 1943 Legislature repealed an old statute and directed that monies seized in such raids must go into the county general fund. The old law provided that half should go to arresting officers and the other to charity.

The point was raised here today after city judge Paul West ordered money taken in a gambling case to be equally divided between the officers and the Salvation Army. Wake County officials went into a huddle. They said they had not heard of the new law, which became effective upon its ratification. They agreed, however, that it was up to the County Commissioners to formally take action.
