Further Gains In Sicily By Canadian-U. S. Forces

Several More Important Points Captured As Forces Sweep On Toward Axis Escape Port Of Messina; No Mention Today Of Fighting Around Catania

By RELMAN MORIN Allied Headquarters in North Africa, July 29. (AP)—American and Canadian troops, pushing steadily into northeastern Sicily under raging aerial support, have captured four more towns, including the vital central road junction of Leonforte, and have inflicted heavy casualties on stubbornly retreating Axis forces, the Allies announced today.

Canadian columns smashed their way into Leonforte, eight miles northeast of Enna, in fierce fighting while the American Seventh Army pounded eastward down the coast from Palermo, captured the towns of Pollina, Castelbuono and Gangi.

Axis prisoners in the 20-day-old campaign have now risen to 75,000, with approximately three-fourths of them captured by the Americans, it was announced.

In Washington, Acting Secretary of War Patterson predicted that the conquest of Sicily would probably be complete within a few days, despite strong German resistance in the northeast corner and evidence of Nazi reinforcements.

(Patterson declared that the American 7th army moving eastward along the northern coast threatened to outflank the enemy in the vicinity of Messina, Axis "escape port" only two miles across Messina strait from the Italian mainland.

"It is clear," he said, "that the battle for Sicily has entered its final phase, and the conquest of that island ought not to be more than a matter of days."

(He said that dispatches received this morning told of the fall of Agrig, 71-9 miles east and slightly north of newly captured Leonforte, and of Nicosia, 71-2 miles north of Leonforte. Both are key points in the Axis line.

The German radio acknowledged that the fall of Nicosia and San Stefano to the north, would "clear virtually the entire central and southern Sicily."

More Gasoline For Civilians

Washington, July 29.—(AP)—Interior Secretary Ickes timed an announcement of more gasoline for the east today with President Roosevelt's chiding observation to the civilian public on how much fuel was needed to fight the aerial war abroad.

Mr. Roosevelt said in his speech on the war effort last night that each Flying Fortress chews up 1,110 gallons of gasoline—equal to 375 A-card tickets—every time it bombed Naples from Africa. Such things make the personal convenience of the individual "back home" appear somewhat less important," he said.

Ickes, as fuel administrator, disclosed yesterday that stocks available for civilians rose slightly in the week ended July 24 to a level of 35.2 per cent of pre-rationing normal. This means that "a somewhat larger supply" for the motorist will be granted provided it does not interfere with adequate heating of homes this winter.

Ralph K. Davies, his deputy, said at the same time that oil for heating homes would be supplied at least on the same scale as last year—75 per cent of normal, and "it is our earnest hope that we may do better."

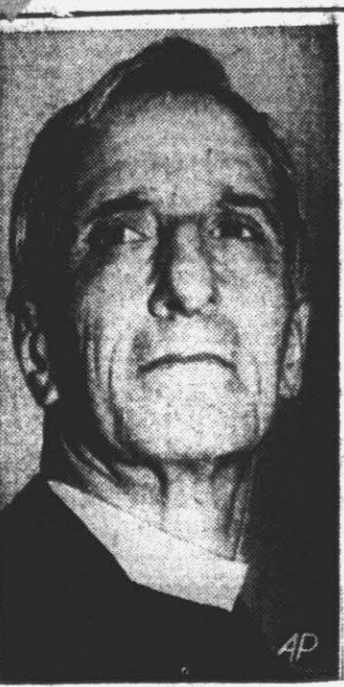

Roosevelt Urges Nation To Continue War Effort

(By The Associated Press) Washington, July 29.—Reporting Italy on the ropes, Germany blackened by bombs, and Japan losing the initiative in the Pacific, President Roosevelt called on the American people and their allies today to follow through with the knock-out punch that spells "total victory."

The chief executive, reporting to the nation on the war effort abroad and at home for the first time in almost six months, told a radio audience last night that:

"The United Nations may not make time out to gloat over the downfall of Dictator Benito Mussolini and the obvious plight of Italy, but must go on to demand unconditional surrender. Then Japan and Germany must be whipped on their

Sees Free Italy

Don Luigi Sturzo (above), exiled former leader of the Italian Catholic Popular Party which Benito Mussolini outlawed, said in an interview at Jacksonville, Fla., that if Duce's downfall is Italy's first step back to a free democratic and Christian country. Long on Mussolini's "hunted" list, Don Sturzo left Italy in 1924 and has lived in Jacksonville since 1940.

U. S. BOMBERS BLAST NAZIS

Sixty-Nine Enemy Planes Downed; 23 Fortresses Lost

London, July 29.—(AP)—United States heavy bombers raided Kiel today and 10 planes failed to return, U. S. headquarters announced.

London, July 29.—(AP)—Boldly defying Hitler's fading air strength, swarms of American Flying Fortresses flew unscathed and in broad daylight yesterday to within 80 miles of Berlin to smash the Nazi aircraft plant at Oschersleben.

Kassel, site of a big Focke-Wulf assembly plant, about 200 miles southwest of Berlin, also was battered by the big American bombers, which were reported to have shot down upwards of 60 Nazi fighters attempting to beat them off, the American lost 23 bombers during the roundtrip of more than 1,000 miles, a communication said. One Allied fighter plane also was lost.

Squadrons of RAF fighters crossed and recrossed the channel this morning in a continuation of widespread sweeps over northern France and Belgium and later Allied bombers.

Describe Speech As Fourth Term Bid

Washington, July 29.—(AP)—Rep. Ditter of Pennsylvania, chairman of the Republican National Congressional committee, said today that President Roosevelt's address "degenerated into the official opening of the fourth term campaign, aimed at the millions of men and women in uniforms."

Eighteen Killed

El Paso, Tex., July 29.—(AP)—Eighteen officers and enlisted men from Biggs Field said Fort Bliss were killed and an enlisted man was injured in two plane crashes, the air field public relations office announced today.

Nine men were killed and one injured when a four-engine bomber crashed ten miles east of Biggs field last night.

home grounds. —The Axis leadership must eventually be hunted out and prosecuted for war guilt. No mere resignation, such as Mussolini's, may interfere with this.

All this will command increased effort at home, the President emphasized.

While current problems are mighty, he asserted, it's not too early to think of the future. Hence, he thought it was time to lay down a specific policy for taking care of the men and women of the armed forces when they return, so there is no wholesale idleness or lack of attention. In this respect, Mr. Roosevelt recommended mustering out pay, unemployment insurance, vocational education and training, medical

PLANE CRASH KILLS TWENTY

Only Two Persons Survive Wreck Of Airliner

Bowling Green, Ky., July 29.—(AP)—An American Airlines plane enroute from Louisville to Nashville crashed and burned at Trammel, Ky., 20 miles southeast of here, last night and first reports said 20 persons were killed.

Two severely injured persons were in a hospital here. The crash occurred about 10:30 p. m. in a remote section of Allen county near the Kentucky-Tennessee border.

First word of the crash came when First Lieut. Glen W. Fellows, attached to Love Field, Texas, who was a passenger on the plane, stumbled to the door of a farm house three-quarters of a mile from the scene and summoned help.

Fellows and another passenger, S. K. Hoffman, 41, of Williamsport, Pa., to a Bowling Green hospital.

Hoffman told hospital attendants that the plane was flying through unfavorable weather and there was no indication of any trouble until the huge ship struck the ground.

City patrolman William A. Lyle, who was on duty near the hospital where the injured men were brought, talked with J. H. Claypool of Trammel, one of the farmers who helped bring the two men to Bowling Green, and quoted Claypool as saying that when he first heard the plane it appeared to be flying quite high and then "it suddenly started coming down with a mighty roar."

Allen County Sheriff L. A. Williams said the plane hit in a field and ploughed along on the ground for a quarter of a mile. The sheriff said ten bodies were visible in the wreckage but no effort would be made to remove them until after an inquest this morning by the coroner, Dr. H. O. Miller.

The sheriff said fire swept the entire plane and described the wreckage as "one of the worst things I have ever seen."

Sheriff Williams said agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation took charge of the wreckage relieving his men and state patrol officers.

The transport left Louisville, Ky., for Nashville, Tenn., at 9:34 p. m. Monday, according to American Airlines. The plane was last heard from at 10:30 p. m. at Smith Grove, Ky.

The dead included three crew members, a pilot acting as an observing member of the crew, and 16 passengers. Among the latter was a baby.

Seek Volunteers To Make Dressings

The making of surgical dressings will begin again next Monday in the Austin building of East Carolina Teachers college, continuing daily from 9 a. m. to 12 noon; from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., and on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 10 o'clock.

Because of the widely scattered disposition of our armed forces throughout the world, and simultaneous activities on so many fronts, surgical dressings are needed now in larger quantities than ever before.

The American Red Cross to provide these bandages, and Pitt county chapter can only look to 188 public spirited women of Greenville and throughout the county to meet our responsibility which is so vital to the welfare of our own loved ones in the service.

This condition has caused the national chapter to open new branches for production of bandages, and greatly increase allocations to branches already producing them.

The quota for the local chapter has been doubled, which necessitates this most urgent call for volunteers for this work.

This expansion has necessarily caused a shortage in material. There has not been enough to go around, and there has been none on hand for the past several weeks. However, a shipment has just been received for 37,000 bandages, and another shipment is in transit for 37,000 more, which indicates that from now on the production will be continuous.

The Austin building unit will be for the present under the supervision of a committee of three, Mrs. Harvey G. Clayton, chairman, Mrs. E. E. Rawl and Mrs. L. T. Shottwell, assisted by Mrs. C. E. Blair, Mrs. J. Key Brown, Mrs. John G. Clark, Mrs. E. R. Conway, Mrs. C. H. Edwards, Mrs. A. D. Frank, Mrs. W. M. Greene, Jr., Mrs. E. T. Lloyd, Mrs. R. J. Slay, Mrs. W. N. Spruill, and Mrs. J. H. Thomas.

The Farmville unit, under Mrs. W. M. Willis, has just recently completed 9,000 dressings and will also resume operations during the coming week.

Badoglio Studies Peace Conditions

Bern, Switzerland, July 29.—(AP)—The Swiss Telegraph Agency said today it had received a dispatch from Chiasso stating it had been "learned from Rome that the Badoglio government is examining the conditions of peace sent by (Gen. Dwight D.) Eisenhower." The agency appended an editorial note that it "published the dispatch with reserve."

SOVIET FORCES DRIVE ON OREL O'ER NAZI DEAD

Reds Continue Pressure On Germans Along Entire Russian Front

By WILLIAM MCGAFFIN Moscow, July 29.—(AP)—The Russian column advancing upon Orel from the south drove over the bodies of 1,500 Germans yesterday to force that claw of the giant pincers tighter about the vital city and keep pace with the northern and eastern onslaughts, the Russians said today.

Front line dispatches indicated that the masses of Red army troops and tanks in general advances of from 2 1/2 to 4 miles, now had battered down the Germans' outer hedgehog defense systems and were storming the enemy bastion's strongest defenses.

Stanovoy Kololets, railway station 11 miles southeast of Orel, fell to the Russians yesterday, a communication said.

Altogether, the Russians said they overran 30 occupied places, left more than 2,300 dead upon the field, and knocked out 29 German tanks yesterday in the Orel sector alone.

The Russian communique said that Soviet forces had maintained their steady pressure against the Germans in the Belgorod region of the upper Donets river, in the Donets basin, and on the northern Leningrad front where it reported a heavy artillery barrage had demolished blockhouses and silenced enemy gunners.

Hitler's high command declared all enemy attempts of a breakthrough in the Orel sector were repulsed yesterday, and that 168 Red army tanks were knocked out along the front.

Turn In Your Old Phonograph Records

Paul A. Scott, commander of the local post of the American Legion, Pitt county to turn in their old phonograph records for the benefit of the men and women in the armed forces in camps and on the battlefronts.

"If you have some old and discarded records take them to the sheriff's office in the court house, Look around and find old records, assemble them and send them to Sheriff J. Knox Proctor, chairman of the committee. The committee will be glad to send for the records and turn them in and spread some good cheer for the servicemen."

The WAR TODAY

AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR. General Dwight D. Eisenhower, who had much rather confine himself to fighting, is on the political spot again.

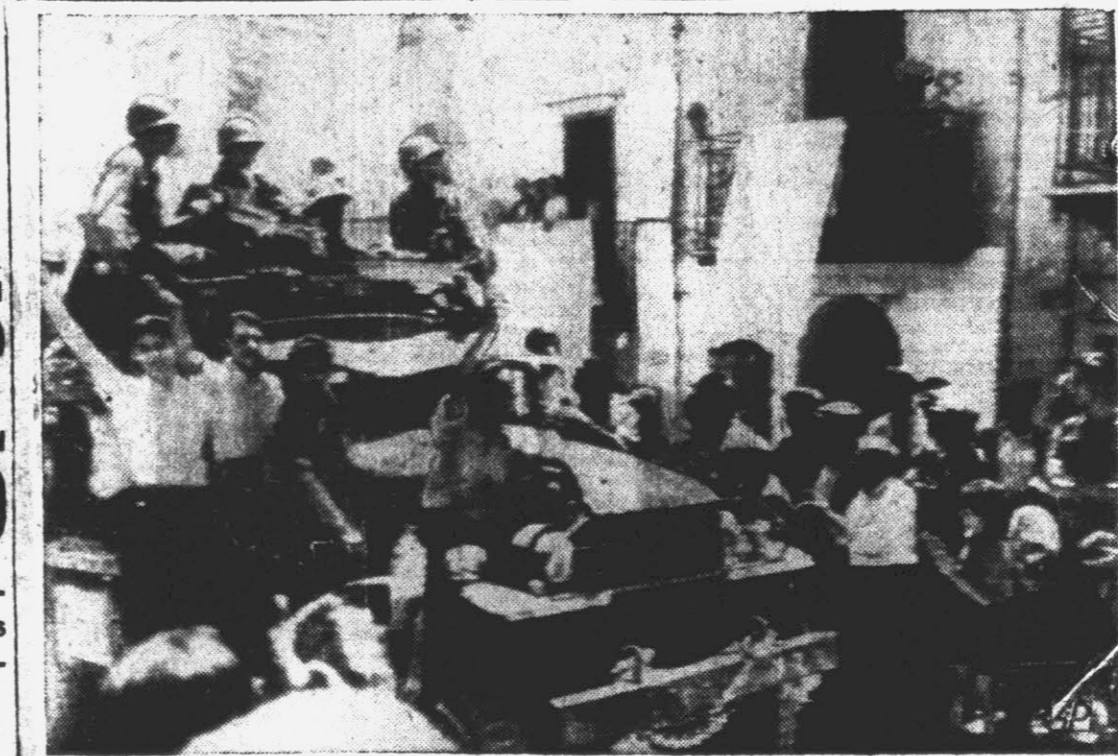

This morning the general broadcast a statement to the Italians that they can have the peace for which they are rioting. Throw the Germans out and we will look after you royally, was the gist of Eisenhower's message. But even as he spoke the Italians were awakening to find word from President Roosevelt that, once again, we consider the authority with whom the general will have to deal as only temporary.

Eventually, said the President, the Italian people will reconstitute their country under a government of their own choosing. Meanwhile, Eisenhower suggests we will deal with anyone who can deliver the country. Not a very hopeful situation from the standpoints of King Vittorio Emanuele and Marshal Badoglio, unless they are confident that by taking the country out from under the power of Germany, they can generate sufficient goodwill to make them the people's choice.

General Eisenhower's reference to the "honorable conditions" for peace "already offered" conflicts in no way with the President's reiteration of "unconditional surrender." But the general makes a strong point in referring to Allied policies in Sicily, where unconditional

Relying On Eisenhower For Surrender Of Italy

Two JAP SHIPS HIT BY BOMBS Destroyer and Transport Set Afire Yesterday

By MURLIN SPENCER Allied Headquarters in the Southwest Pacific, July 29.—(AP)—Allied aircraft and surface units ripped into Japanese shipping in the southwest Pacific yesterday setting fire to a destroyer and a transport, scoring near misses on a small freighter and destroying 13 barges.

Heavy bombers, summoned by a reconnaissance plane, dropped explosives squarely on the destroyer and transport off Cape Gloucester. (Continued on Page Six)

Hull Endorses Eisenhower's Broadcast to Italians Today

Washington, July 29.—(AP)—Secretary of State Hull indicated today that the United States relies on General Eisenhower, American commander of the Allied forces, to obtain Italy's unconditional surrender.

Asked at his press conference if the Italians had made any approaches, Hull said there was none to his knowledge, but that the war department probably would be the first to hear about it.

He then tacitly endorsed Eisenhower's declaration to the Italians today with an assertion of his supreme confidence in the Allied commander's sound judgment in dealing with military affairs at the front. Eisenhower told the Italian people in a broadcast today that the presence of German troops in Italy is the only obstacle to an honorable peace.

Hull was asked specifically if he agreed with Eisenhower that the House of Savoy was to be commended for its part in getting rid of Benito Mussolini and setting up the government of Marshal Pietro Badoglio.

At any time, at any stage, Hull said, he had supreme confidence in Eisenhower's sound judgment, patriotism and ability to meet every situation in accordance with the desires of the Allied Nations. He added that when Eisenhower gets ready to take up questions apart from the battle, then political and other matters will be more nearly in order.

Hull said he had no information on what a questioner described as Eisenhower's "honorable terms" for Italy. (Continued on Page Three)

Franco Cancels Summer Vacation

By CHARLES S. FOLTZ Madrid, July 29.—(AP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco has cancelled plans to leave for his summer home in Galicia, it was disclosed today as unconfirmed reports of fighting between Italian and German troops in northern Italy emphasized the growing seriousness of the situation there.

Foreign Minister Count Gomez Jordana, who had intended to go to San Sebastian this week for the summer, also is remaining in Madrid to follow Italian developments at first hand.

The reports of fighting between German and Italian troops said that Italian regulars, aided by civilians and railwaymen, had tried to block the entry of Nazi forces north of Milan and Turin.

There seemed no reason to doubt that Italian railroad workers, many of whom have long been unsympathetic to Fascism, might be making travel difficult and uncomfortable for the Nazis.

CRISIS NEAR IN BULGARIA

Country May Be First To Break Away From Axis

By FRANK J. O'BRIEN Istanbul, July 29.—(AP)—A serious Bulgarian crisis appears to be developing as a result of Benito Mussolini's downfall and there are indications that Bulgaria may be the first Balkan satellite to break away from the Axis if Italy surrenders.

Bulgaria's position, and that of the other Balkan powers to a lesser extent, is reported to have changed rapidly since the Italian upheaval. An immediate collapse of Germany's junior partners had been considered only a remote possibility before this week.

News from the Balkans indicates that the people there believe Italy is finished.

Bulgaria, one of Germany's most favored lesser allies, now holds all of Yugoslav Macedonia and part of Grecian Macedonia, and an Italian collapse would affect her quicker and more directly than any other of the eastern European nations in the German camp.

The Bulgarians have always regarded Italy as their main barrier against invasion. It is only about 100 miles from Brindisi in Italy's heel to Bulgaria's frontiers in Macedonia, and only about 300 miles to (Continued on Page Six)

U. S. Planes Sink Jap Cargo Ship

New Delhi, July 29.—(AP)—Cruising 800 miles deep into Japanese held territory, American Liberator bombers from India sank a 250-foot enemy merchant ship off Tavoy island, south of Thailand. A U. S. Army Air Force communique reported today.

Flights of B-24s also shot up a flat-topped vessel about 175 feet long, 30 miles north of Pagoda Point in Burma, the communique said but did not make it clear whether the ship was an aircraft carrier or not.

Other B-24s deluged a Japanese radio station on Diamond island with high explosives and bombed Japanese installations at Kiang-Thang at the mouth of the Irrawaddy. A building on Diamond island was destroyed.

Eisenhower Tells Italy To Get Rid Of Germans

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, July 29.—(AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower told the Italian people in a broadcast message today that the presence of German troops in Italy is the only obstacle to an honorable peace.

The American commander of Allied forces promised that the hundreds of thousands of Italian prisoners held by the Allies would be returned to their homes provided all Allied prisoners now in Italian hands were restored safely and not taken away into Germany.

He said that the Italians would have immediate peace under "the honorable conditions which our governments have already offered you," and pledged that the occupa-

New Government Totttering Amid Efforts To Prevent Chaos; Slovenes Seek Separation From Italy. Unconfirmed Reports Of Fighting With Germans

Bern, July 29.—(AP)—Italian and German troops were reported rushed today to Giume and Trieste, where Croats and Slovenes were demonstrating for separation of the Istrian peninsula from Italy, and the situation in other eastern sections of the kingdom was described as tense.

Swiss newspaper dispatches told of the crisis in Istria, soil which Italy annexed from Austro-Hungary after World War I. It juts into the Adriatic sea between Italy and the Croatian coast.

The Berner Tagwacht said Croats and Slovenes, who number 600,000 on the peninsula, were demanding the inclusion of Istria in a South Slav state. Additional clashes between Fascists and anti-Fascists were reported as Premier Marshal Pietro Badoglio struggled to maintain order and save the country from chaos.

News of an insurrection in Milan was partly blacked out today by Badoglio's military censorship. However, a dispatch from Chiasso, Switzerland, said strikes in the Milan industrial region had assumed menacing proportions, with Communists attacking the monarchy.

Walls in northern Italy—despite Badoglio's restriction of placarding and slogans—were reported plastered with inscriptions bearing the words: "Mussolini is liquidated—now the war must be liquidated. Long live the social republic!"

A British radio broadcast recorded by CBS said today the families of numerous Fascist officers were reported "to have arrived by plane in Berlin."

(The role of Italian military forces in north Italy was a subject of conflicting reports, some indicating that they were endeavoring simply to restore order and cooperate with German expeditionary divisions, others that they were battling Nazis newly shipped from France and Germany.)

(A Madrid dispatch last night said Italians in the Spanish capital reported regulars and civilians were fighting the Germans in northern Italy after Hitler had dispatched 10 of his divisions there from France. Estimates by these sources of German strength in Italy ranged from 100,000 to 300,000 men.)

Six Miners Safe In Flooded Mine

Bridgeville, Pa., July 29.—(AP)—Six miners trapped in the Ollett Coal Company mine by a flash flood were found safe and well today after 48 hours underground.

After hearing their shouts, E. E. Quenon, U. S. Bureau of Mines Engineer, swam 500 feet to reach the men, and found them sitting calmly on an upward slope above water level. Safe with them was a veteran mine mule, "Queenie."

"Because there is only six inches of clearance between the water and the mine roof, the men won't come out yet," Quenon said.

"One man said he didn't want to get wet. Another said jokingly 'we'll get time and a half for overtime.'"

All night long pumping crews worked doggedly to lower the water level enough to permit a rescue raft to enter the pit mouth. Quenon reached the men, however, before the water was low enough to send in a raft.

tion would be "mild and beneficent as in Sicily."

"Your men will return to their normal life, productive vocations," he said. "The ancient liberties and traditions of your country will be restored."

Gen. Eisenhower brought out these five points: 1. Only the Germans in Italy are blocking peace. 2. Cessation of hostilities is possible immediately under honorable terms. 3. Discontinuance of assistance by the Italians to German armed forces is a prerequisite to peace. 4. A pledge that Italian war prisoners will be returned if Allied prisoners (Continued on Page Four)

They Are All Good Soldiers And Game

By CHESTER WALSH
"The officers and members of the Greenville company of the State Guard proved they were good soldiers during the 10-day maneuvers of the two North Carolina regiments at Fort Bragg," Capt. Jasper L. Jones, company commander, stated to a Reflector reporter today.

"Our men did a good job; they learned a lot that will be beneficial to all of us and we hope to pass along to the company members who remained here for duty much of what we learned about war time conditions," Jones said. There was no accident, no sickness beyond a headache; the men were in good spirits, always willing to work and learn and every one of them is a credit to Greenville, Pitt county and the state," the captain added with emphasis.

The State Guardsmen had regular army training and were under army regulations while in camp. The Greenville company won special praise from army officers for personnel, equipment and efficiency.

No Celebration For Mussolini

Bern, Switzerland, July 29—(AP)—Benito Mussolini, the man who always wanted to live dangerously, marked his 60th birthday today apparently a prisoner of the sovereign he dominated for 20 years.

There was no celebration of the event in Italy. Mussolini's whereabouts are still a mystery. He has variously been reported a fugitive in Spain, a prisoner somewhere in northern Italy, in a villa near Rome or in Rome itself.

(Madrid heard yesterday that he had been transferred for his own safety from a villa near Rome to the royal villa at Viareggio on the Gulf of Genoa.)

Casualty List

Washington, July 29—(AP)—The navy announced today 38 casualties, including 15 dead, 18 wounded and 5 missing. In addition, two men previously listed as missing now are reported dead.

This brings to 27,472 the total of navy, marine corps and coast guard casualties reported to next of kin since December 7, 1941. The grand total includes 8,735 dead, 4,898 wounded, 10,155 missing and 3,000 prisoners of war.

WILL PUNISH AXIS LEADERS

President Says None Will Escape By "Resignation"

By KENNETH L. DIXON
Washington, July 29 — (AP) — What will be the postwar punishment of Axis leaders who President Roosevelt says started this war — a Kaiser's exile, a killer's execution, or a lonely cell?

And how will the "criminals" be caught and sentenced? Spurred by one sharp sentence in the President's speech last night, these were the subjects of street-corner speculation today.

Said Mr. Roosevelt: "No criminal will be allowed to escape by the expedient of 'resignation.'"

Though he obviously included in that category all "the militarists in Berlin, Rome and Tokyo" who "started this war," specifically he spoke of Benito Mussolini, and said that "he and his Fascist gang will be brought to book and punished for their crimes against humanity."

But even as the President spoke, the ex-boys of the Blackshirts was variously reported in Switzerland, Spain and under arrest in Italy — and Switzerland and Spain are neutral nations.

Holland was a neutral country when the first World War ended, and there defeated Germany's Kaiser Wilhelm II found sanctuary for more than a score of years — until death in 1941 found him a faint, forgotten legend to millions who had called him murderer while the fighting lasted.

Whether the President envisioned an interpretation of international law permitting the enforced return of Axis leaders from such neutral havens in the post war days is not, of course, known. But a little later in his address he said "we will permit no vestige of Fascism to remain," and again he spoke, not of a people but of its leadership.

And he stressed that the "long arm of justice" eventually would tap the shoulders of the militarists of Rome, Berlin and Tokyo.

Rationing Of Coffee Ended

Washington, July 29 — (AP) — Six building and anti-sub successes poured unrationed coffee into America's cup for breakfast this morning — and left a hint of more sugar soon.

The end of coffee rationing — approximately seven months after it started — was announced last night by President Roosevelt in his address to the nation. He added that "we also expect that within a short time we shall get greatly increased allowances of sugar."

He termed the developments a tangible result of vast increases in available shipping space and greater success in the war against U-boats.

Shortly after his speech, the War Food Administration and Office of Price Administration issued a joint statement saying the termination of coffee rationing would take effect today and that "the nation's stocks of green coffee are at a satisfactory level."

Nazi Field Marshal Reported Being Held

London, July 29 — (AP) — Reuters said a Tass dispatch received in Stockholm today reported that Field Marshal General Walther Von Brauchitsch, former commander-in-chief of the German army, had been confined in a fortress by the Nazi government.

Von Brauchitsch frequently has been reported at odds with Hitler. He was reported in 1941 to have been fired from the supreme German command, but advice received last summer he had been restored. Last December he was reported to be the leader of a military clique bent on "isolating" Hitler and making peace with the Allies.

Says Hitler May Try Raid On U. S. Coast

Boston, July 29 — (AP) — Major General Ralph Royce, commanding general of the First Air Force, urged continued vigilance by east coast aircraft warning centers because Hitler in desperation "may well want to raid our coast to improve German morale."

Speaking at a dinner given by Mayor Maurice J. Tobin to newspaper men and army officers on a tour of aircraft warning centers, General Royce said that "the approach of defeat" may lead Hitler to risk his prized air force, just as the Kaiser wanted to throw his proud high seas fleet against the British in the waning days of the last war.

Reveal Facts On Bombing Of Rome

Allied Headquarters in North Africa, July 29 — (AP) — More than 1,000 tons of bombs were dropped on military targets in and near Rome in the historic raid of July 19, in which more than 500 American bombers and 200 fighters participated. It was disclosed today.

Nearly half the weight was concentrated on the Littorio and San Lorenzo railroad yards, while another quarter hit Ciampino airfield, an announcement said. Five raiding planes were lost.

Wants to Please Axis
Bern, Switzerland, July 29 — (AP) — A Rome dispatch to the Tribune de Geneve said today that the new Badoglio government "is just as anxious as Mussolini's to maintain satisfactory relations with Germany."

Doris Duke In Reno

Doris Duke, heiress to the Duke tobacco millions, steps from a cab to enter her hotel in Reno, Nev., where she has established residence because she likes the divorce laws of that state. "I have been separated from my husband for over three years, and I understand that this is ground for divorce under Nevada laws," she said in a statement through her attorney. The husband, James H. R. Cromwell, was married to her in 1935.

Badoglio Faces ...

drid. Their main job was to expedite train movements and clear highways for troop movements.

The Geneva newspaper La Suisse said prisons in the Domodossola region were bulging to capacity, so numerous have been the new arrests. A Rome writer said more than 4,000 political prisoners had been released and that many exiled under the Fascist regime were expected to return to Italy.

Border controls were reported heightened. A correspondent of La Suisse said the Italians had stopped a rather high Italian diplomat who was seeking to join his son in Switzerland.

A new proclamation by five anti-Fascist parties that demanded that Badoglio end the war was published in Turin newspapers.

It told the people that clarification of the government was awaited and asked reassurance that the government would "indicate the road to social and political reconstruction."

The five parties said the difficulties confronting Badoglio's ministry were recognized, but that they were aware of the Italians' feelings and aspirations. "The most urgent of which is the immediate liberation of political victims."

Reports reaching the Swiss border said that hundreds of persons had been killed in widespread riots and that tension was growing hourly.

The anti-Fascist outbreaks paralleled by massed peace demonstrations, occurred in widely separated cities despite Premier Badoglio's stern orders to the army to fire into groups of more than three persons.

Badoglio assumed control of the government five days ago in the hope of organizing and stabilizing a new authoritarian regime, advisers from Rome indicated, but the nation-wide demonstrations for peace, the rioting and fighting, strikes in Italy's most important war and industrial factories, combined with increased political agitation apparently has brought the country to the verge of incipient civil war.

The crisis in Italy's internal affairs has reached the stage where even a spokesman for the Berlin foreign office reportedly admitted the probability of a new government in Rome before the end of the week. Berlin political circles went so far as to mention Crown Prince Umberto as a rallying point around which a new regime would be set up.

Milan, Turin and Genoa, according to information reaching Bern.

OUTFIT THE OUTFIT

"Dear Mom" (Bill writes), "We had beans tonight and they tasted fine, because I knew you'd helped pay for them. It was swell of you to skip that new coat and buy a Bond instead. With you and me on the same team, we'll lick that Axis gang."

Your War Bonds and Stamps help outfit the outfits fighting for you. Buy an extra Bond today. Remember, they give their lives.

WHAT TO DO WITH FATS DURING RATIONING

FIRST—Save every drop from pan drippings, gravy skimmings, etc., to use again in your cooking. The government has asked for fats to make gunpowder—but it doesn't want them until you've got all the cooking good you can out of them, for various dishes you may want to make.

THEN—When all the cooking good is gone, don't throw your used fats away. They're desperately needed for gunpowder. Every little bit counts. Just one tablespoon will fire five machine gun bullets. Even with rationing, you can save that much every day. Keep it in a can. Rush each canful to your meat dealer.

were centers of peace demonstrations, open fighting and political revolts. In all three of these industrial cities gangs of Fascist militia were reported resisting regular army units striving to maintain order and enforce Premier Badoglio's decree abolishing the Fascist party. Significant also was the suppression after two days of free expression of Republican newspapers which had been under the Fascist ban for 20 years.

"Dispatches from Madrid last night reported that Virgilio Gayda, former editor of Il Giornale D'Italia and chief spokesman for the now defunct Fascist party, had been slain during roving units which flared in Italy after Benito Mussolini's downfall. The report was not confirmed.

BBC, however, in a French language broadcast recorded here by U. S. government monitors, said Gayda and three other Fascist editors had been arrested by the Badoglio regime and charged with high treason.

Communists were reported demonstrating in many cities, but it was asserted by travelers leaving Italy that they were not counting upon a Sovietized regime because their numbers are small in comparison with the great masses of Republican, Liberal and Socialist cliques.

Italy." As to whether there was any difference between honorable terms and unconditional surrender, Hull said it is made clear nearly every day by Prime Minister Churchill, President Roosevelt or himself that the fixed inflexible policy of the Allies is unconditional surrender of the Axis forces.

Asked about a statement of Office of War Information officials that State Department officials were unavailable to them last Sunday before they broadcast a characterization of Vittorio Emanuele as a "moronic little king." Hull reminded the correspondents that the were able to consult State Department officials immediately after the announcement of Mussolini's resignation.

Strength FOR THE DAY

THE IMMORTALITY OF THE SOUL

There is no Christian doctrine to which men cling with more earnest hope and expectation than to the doctrine of the immortality of the soul.

St. Paul declared that if in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.

Yet Paul says that if we did all this and yet failed to believe that the same Christ can take us on to a life of eternal glory with God the Father, still our earthly joys would be nothing but restlessness and misery.

Congratulations to Greenville's State Guard unit on the fine showing it made at the Fort Bragg encampment.

The call goes out today for women volunteers to work in the Red Cross surgical dressing room which will reopen Monday morning in the Austin building at the college.

FIRE GUARDS

Civilian defense officials have repeatedly warned that as the prospect of military defeat becomes increasingly apparent to German and Japanese leaders, the danger of air attacks on this country grow greater.

As the Office of Civilian Defense points out: "War has aggravated the fire hazards in every American community. Ordinary day-to-day fires threaten our lives and war production. Beyond that, the new enemy high explosive fire bombs carry with them the threat of disastrous conflagrations unless trained volunteers are ready to stop small fires before

O Son Of Heaven

They can endanger large areas. In present day bombings of cities and vital war centers, fire bombs comprise more than half the 'pay load.' A city may have to face more than a thousand fires set simultaneously—a task far beyond the capacity of regular fire-fighting forces.

The OCD is mobilizing a fire guard force of selected civilians not only to combat fire caused by enemy action, but to combat fire losses brought about by our own carelessness. The result of OCD efforts should be to make the nation increasingly aware of the fire menace. If it succeeds, it may well render a service of far greater value than the potential damage threatening the country from enemy bombers.

MURDER IN TIN

By CARL A. PETERSON

Chapter 19 Late that night Sam Taggard's daughter and I got into a cab on the Avenida Juarez. We were both wearing evening clothes.

I started out at Paseo de la Reforma's great statues, each inside its circle. We passed the bronze Charles IV on his bronze horse; Columbus and his priestly advisers; Cuauhtemoc, the last of the Aztec emperors, who was tortured by the Spaniards to reveal his Aztec treasure. We now passed the bull ring. "This club Opalo's out in the sticks," I said.

"All the way out, as I remember." Her white teeth flashed in an unexpected smile that didn't soothe my nerves at all. Her smile, her perfume, filled my brain with a score of images of her. "You're not wearing your jade ring."

"No, dear," she said. "I'm not. I put it aside as a memento of our first talk."

"Why do you always behave as if you were my prisoner?" "Am I not?" "No, you're not."

"A semi-prisoner then." "No prisoner at all. I hope Chevalle'll be out there."

"May I ask why?" "I was tempted to tell her of my conversation with my boss, Lew Fall. That's how bad it was with me."

"Mentioned Chevalle's name?" "Are you aware of how frequently we break into each other's speech?" She laughed and so did I. "That also proves something," she said. "We're not in competition," I said. "We both want the same thing. I wish I knew what you're after. I wish I really knew."

"It's too simple for you to see it. Naturally, I'm not after any of the objects you think I'm after. I'm not after pesos like our little friend Hernando. I'm not after excitement or intrigue."

"Or the betrayal of your country." "No, this is a disgusting situation. I've drifted into what am I doing in this cab with you? Why have we been going about together?" "Why?" "I needed someone to accompany me to Chevalle's home."

"As if you didn't have friends in this city." "Many friends. It wouldn't occur to you that I might be ashamed to ask their help. What could I say to their questions? That Dad was wanted by the governments of the United States and Mexico?"

"So you pick a government man as your constant companion?" "To prove I'm after nothing dishonest, you fool!" "But why me?" "Why you? Why you? You were thrown at me. Put an arm round my neck."

The cab pulled up to a three-story mansion. I paid the driver and we got out. A stone walk led up to a cypress wooden door flanked by two small lions.

"We stepped into a square outer room and a fat man bowed to us like a butler." "San Miguel de Allende," I said, using the club Opalo password Fall had dug up for me.

"The club Opalo was on the big high side. Half of the space was a dance floor where couples were dancing. The other half was full of gambling tables, roulette wheels. A bar extended the length of the room."

I looked around. "I don't see Chevalle." "This club Opalo's popular. There are more than a hundred people here. Let's get a drink. I've seen you enough to call you Lila. How about a drink, Lila?" "Thank you."

"We walked to the bar. 'Two Martinis,' bartender. I glanced at her reflection in the mirror opposite. When I was served my drink I lifted it to the reflection. 'Your hair's like coal,' I said. 'Now let's find our Frenchman.'"

We found Chevalle at one of the roulette tables. He nodded to us as the ball rolled up red. He exchanged his chips for a paper slip. "I'm glad you came. I have been playing for hours."

"Any luck?" I asked. "Luck? Luck is fickle. Shall we have a drink?" "At the bar we squeezed ourselves close space. She was between the two of us and I slid my arm around her waist. Over her shoulder I smiled at the Jap agent with the name Chevalle. My throat was dry and a sensation of imminent showdown caused me to swallow hard."

"Your father, Miss Taggard?" he said, his narrow eyebrows arching on his hollow forehead. In his evening clothes he resembled an anemic artist rather than either of his real occupations: merchant or agent.

"No word yet," she said. "I've spoken to all of dad's lawyers since we saw you." "With better results perhaps?" "No results," I said. "Lansing, Sorabia, Sordo report nothing. The drinks had come and as we sat took one I continued. 'Dominquez and Avendano report nothing.'"

"I was staring directly at Chevalle. 'Senior Mollinedo. Nothing. Senior Velasco. Nothing. Senior Grisman. Nothing.'"

"Senior Grisman has long retired," Chevalle said. "If I recollect rightly."

"Senior Lathrop has also retired," I said. "Years ago he bought a ranch in the north."

"A good idea. A rancher's life is not so bad," Chevalle said. "We hope through Lathrop perhaps to get definite information about Mr. Taggard," I said.

"I hope so, Senior," Chevalle said. "So long missing. It is too bad if I can't only help. I sympathize."

traha and Guadacanal. There's good reason to believe, he declared, that the Japanese are too short of ships and planes to defend such outposts. Now the Allies are driving to positions from which to hit the Japanese mainland from all directions, he said.

WILSON'S WEEKLY Bulletin By George Rector Food and Nutrition Consultant to Wilson & Co. LIVER SAUSAGE - A REAL CINDERELLA

Time was when cold cuts, served with potato salad and other cold dishes, were considered a real treat - but not particularly blessed with food value.

Now we not only enjoy cold cuts for their palatability, but revel in the fact that they are nutritious as well, and particularly so if they are interspersed liberally with thick slices of delicious Braunschweiger liver sausage.

Today's brief Allied communique telling of the "steady progress" of this drive makes no mention of the fighting around Catania, southern anchor of the Axis Mt. Etna defense line, where the British 8th army has been stalled against the enemy's stubborn defenses for nearly a week.

The flight wing of the American onslaught over a 40-mile front was about 12 miles from Leonforte, from which the Canadians were driving forward.

Beating back elite regiments of the 15th German armored division, the Canadians found Nazi dead piled in heaps on the outskirts of one city, an official report said.

Capture of Leonforte cut the important north-south highway which is well behind Axis lines on the north coast and has been a major artery for movements of troops between the enemy center and left wing.

A German prisoner was officially reported to have said that the Nazis were killing their Italian allies whenever the latter attempted to surrender.

American Invader and Warhawk planes subjected enemy defenses and communications to heavy assaults yesterday and were credited with the destruction of at least 30 motor vehicles.

GOOD TO EAT... BETTER FOR YOU

Cut Wilson's Certified Braunschweiger Liver Sausage in slices about one-fourth inch thick. Then you get the real flavor. It's a grand combination with potato salad.

And speaking of nutrition (we were, weren't we?), two slices of liver sausage, 3 inches in diameter and 1/4 inch thick, gives you your full day's requirement of iron and Vitamin A, besides sizable amounts of Riboflavin, and Thiamin. Helps out on Protein, Phosphorus and Vitamin C, too (see chart below). So include Liver Sausage in your meals often. (Four points per pound.) It's hard to find more meat or more nutrition for your red points or money.

SLICE "ON THE BIAS" Slice liver sausage "on the bias" if you want larger slices. Looks prettier, too. Those carrot curls were made with a thing-a-ma-jig (gadget to you) I have had for years. You can cut them in thin slices and the color will be just as pretty - and perhaps they'll be even better to eat. Notch or "corrugate" the cucumber by running the tines of a fork down the cucumber lengthwise, pressing hard. Simple, isn't it? Sincerely, George Rector

WAR RELIEF GAMES BRING IN BIG SUM

Cox Apologizes For Firing Of Bucky Harris as Phils' Manager

By SID FEDER (Associated Press Sports Writer)

Before the whole thing gets out of hand, this is a plea to William D. (I used to play for Yale) Cox and his pheonish Phillies to please leave Brooklyn with its Brooklyn accent.

The way things have been going lately, what with the Dodgers dumped into third place in the National League yesterday, no one is even going to mind much if they move Coney Island out of Brooklyn's front yard down to Broad and Market in the City of Brotherly Love. But it might be just a little too much if the Phils should suddenly blossom out in the fanciest Flatbush-ese, complete with "dese" and "dem," to say nothing of "leave us go see Gottie from Greenpoint."

Yet, what with one thing and another recently, you'd hardly be surprised if something like that came off. First there was the series of player deals cooked up early this year by William (I used to play for Yale) and Branch the Reverend Rickey. Then the Phils fired Bucky Harris and took their new manager, Flatbush's own Freddie (fat and 42 today) Fitzsimmons, off the Dodger griddle—and even let the Dodgers announce it, mind you.

And last night, the Phils gave it the final humiliating touch by even borrowing the Bums' idea of a player strike, a stunt that took the play practically completely away from baseball's War Relief Day which saw eight games produce an estimated $199,733.55, along with an appearance of Babe Ruth as manager and pinch-hitter.

Now, the resemblance between the Brooklyn rebellion of a couple of weeks ago and the Phils' uprising in St. Louis last night was only about the same as that between a hot-dog and a sirloin steak. They're just distantly related. The Dodgers howled over something their manager, Leo the Lip, had done. This time, the Phils—24 of 'em—signed a petition that they would strike unless Cox reinstated Harris as manager and gave him a chance to resign.

The Phils gave Harris the heave-o the night before, although Bucky has won 39 games in slightly more than half the season with a club that managed to take only 42 all of last summer.

Faced with a walkout of practically all his able-bodied hired hands, Cox apologized to Harris before the entire club for "an unfortunate incident." He told Bucky the dismissal "is not intended to reflect in any way on your ability as a baseball manager"—which left you wondering just what Bucky was fired for, then.

Anyway, his apology apparently satisfied one and all, because the Phils went out and made Fitzsimmons' debut as manager a merry one by clouting the Cardinals 6-4 to snap St. Louis' winning streak at 11 and climb back into sixth place themselves.

Pat Freddy shook up the Phils' lineup, but the Brooklyn aroma was still as prominent as channel No. 5 in a glue factory, because the life of the party was a pair of ex-Dodgers—Schoolboy Rowe, the winning elbow, and Dee Moore, who hit a homer. And for a final bit of

Fitzsimmons To Lead Phillies

Freddie Fitzsimmons (left), veteran pitcher-coach of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is congratulated by Brooklyn Manager Leo Durocher (right) after it was announced that Fitzsimmons has been released to become manager of the Philadelphia Phillies. He succeeds Stanley R. (Bucky) Harris.

irony, it might be pointed out that Bucky Harris and Rowe have been close pals ever since 1933 when Schoolboy first came up with Detroit and Harris was the Tiger manager. The standings in both leagues generally got a tossing around. The Pittsburgh Pirates climbed into second place by knocking off the New York Giants 8-3 as Truett Sewell chalked up his 16th win. The Bums were clubbed twice by Chicago, 8-7 and 4-2. Stew Martin's 11th inning single decided the first game and Hank Wyse's seven-hitter settled the second. The Boston-Cincinnati night game was postponed.

After a four-run first inning, it was easy for Cleveland to whip the New York Yankees 6-2. Then the Tribe and the Yanks combined under Ruth's managing to take an 11-5 whipping at the hands of the North Carolina-Pre-flight Cloud-busters, during which the Babe batted as a pinch hitter and drew a walk.

The Tribe's victory, plus a double defeat for Detroit and Chicago's win over Washington left a three-way second place tie in the American League among the Indians, White Sox and Tigers. Oscar Judd served up a five-hitter to give the Boston Red Sox a 4-1 opener decision over the Tigers and a four-run spree in the eighth left the Sox with a 6-4 nightcap triumph. In Washington, the White Sox sprayed 21 hits around the landscape for a 12-7 victory. The St. Louis Browns belted the Athletics 5-1.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, July 20—(AP)—First reaction here to the Dodgers' announcement that the Phillies had a new manager was that it supported the rumors rampant in Philadelphia that Branch Rickey really is the guy behind the Phils.

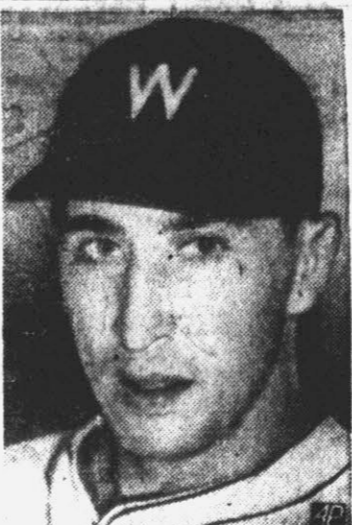

After letting the idea stew a while, we figure it just the other way—though Rickey and Bill Cox might find it easier to have a special phone for conversations. We can't see a man with as much baseball wisdom as Rickey firing a good manager for no other apparent reason than that he insisted on doing the managing himself and keeping the owner in his right place.

Testify In Oakes Case

Mrs. Dorothy Clark (left) and Mrs. Jean Ainslee, wives of RAF officers, testified in hearings on the charges against Alfred de Marigny of slaying his father-in-law, Sir Harry Oakes, in Nassau, Bahamas, and told of a party at de Marigny's house the night Oakes was slain, after which de Marigny, they said, drove them to their home two doors from the Oakes residence.

Georgia Leaf Prices Lower
Prices Off Yesterday After Opening Above Ceiling
(By The Associated Press)
Prices for most grades of flue-cured tobacco on Georgia and Florida markets yesterday dropped an average of one cent a pound under Tuesday's opening. The WFA reported today. Offerings were of slightly lower quality.
Gross sales at the 15 Georgia and two Florida markets on opening day totalled 5,836,609 pounds, at an average of 42.74 cents per pound.
Most of the leaf brought between 33 and 45 cents a pound Wednesday. On most markets the volume was light. Several markets sold out before noon. Sales average slightly above the OPA ceiling price of 41 cents a pound.
Three warehouses in Waycross cleared their floors of a total of 250,000 pounds Wednesday. The high was 50 cents, low 12 to 20.
Nashville, Tifton and Statesboro markets reported the bulk of the crop brought from 40 to 45 cents a pound.
One Statesboro warehouse sold out, clearing 145,000 pounds for $62,350, at an average of 43 cents a pound.
Valdosta sales totaled 572,552 pounds, bringing $239,470, for an average of 41.82 cents a pound. The high was 47 cents, low 12 to 15.
Blackshear sold 288,532 pounds, averaging 41.48 cents.
In Florida, a total of 609,988 pounds was sold at Live Oak's eight warehouses for an average of 42 1/2 cents a pound. This compared with the sale of 598,000 pounds for an average of 35.2 cents on the corresponding day last year. Prices showed continued strength at the Lake City market with indications the average would be around 43 cents.

War Bonds will pay back every cent you put into them—plus a "dividend" of 25% at the end of 10 years. And there's no risk! They can't go down in value!

And you've a still more important reason for buying War Bonds if you've a son or a sweetheart, a husband or a friend in the Armed Forces.

By buying Bonds, you'll help protect planes over his head in battle—torpedo-proof convoys around the ship in which he sails. You'll help to bring him home again safe and well and sound!

Think of that, next time you stop by the Penney store. And buy War Bonds—buy, buy, buy!
