U. S. And British Blast New Holes In Stalborn German Line In Italy

Americans Gain Important Mountain Positions; British Smash Trigno Defenses And Advance Five Miles Capturing Important Cities; Nazis Destroying Gaeta

EDWARD KENNEDY Allied Headquarters, Algiers, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Repeated explosions in Gaeta indicated the Germans were preparing to abandon that port 70 miles south of Rome as Allied headquarters announced today another mile gain by Americans of the Fifth army in a push which threatened to short-circuit the coastal mountains where the enemy had anchored a new defense line.

The British Eighth army, sweeping five miles ahead along the Adriatic coast against fierce resistance, took possession of the entire length of the Sinello river and advanced on the Sangro river, the next natural barrier in the area.

Capturing Scemi, Casalbordino and Carunchio, Cassi and Saletto Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery's veteran outfit took over the entire stretch of lateral road running inland from Vasto and at some places were within seven miles of the Sangro where the Germans apparently were preparing a new stand.

In the central portion of the Fifth army's front, Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's Americans drove ahead over the roughest country of the whole Allied line to achieve a gain of one mile and capture Calabritto.

Gains of several miles also were registered beyond Isernia along the road from Foglia to Rome across the Abruzzi mountains.

This first anniversary of the Allied landings in French North Africa found the Allies delivering stronger blows than ever to the Germans along Europe's southern front and the enemy displaying more weaknesses than ever.

The German desperation over inability to hold back the unexpected but relentless drive was reflected not only in the push to dismantle the port of Gaeta, but also, officers here believe, in the bombings of vatican city on Friday night—an act which Allied headquarters emphatically disapproved.

The view here was that the bombing, which the German radio loudly claimed on the Allies, and hysterical appeals of the German broadcasts were an effort to bolster home morale.

Gaeta is the best port on the Tyrrhenian sea between Naples and Civitavecchia, 40 miles north of Rome, and its harbor would be of great use to the Allies in getting supplies in for the battle of Rome.

Already the Americans had seized the heights dominating Mignano, opening the way for a push behind the Aurunci mountains which are the chief protection of Gaeta and the route to the Apennine coast. The route from this prospective thrust lies up the broad valley to Cassino along the Via Cassina, the main inland route to Rome.

An Algiers broadcast by radio France said the Fifth army already had captured Mignano, and had advanced 10 miles north of Venafro, a gain which would place the Fifth army to the northeast of Cassino in a position to flank that town.

With the Germans apparently resigned to the loss of Gaeta the battle along Italy's west coast promised to be a long one.

British Optimistic Over Prospects For Armistice

By JAMES F. KING London, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Heartened by good news from the fighting fronts and from Allied council chambers, an increasingly large number of people in Britain are talking and betting on the possibility of an early end to the war—perhaps by the new year—despite a lack of encouragement from their leaders.

Prime Minister Churchill has asserted that it would be foolish to try to fix a date of Germany's defeat, and Deputy Prime Minister Clement Attlee has warned that it would be unwise to think of the end of the war as imminent.

Many people, however, believe that fear of a wave of over-optimism prompted these cautious counsels, and unusually buoyant predictions—all of them entirely unofficial—continue.

It is difficult to assign any definite reason for this development; but the Moscow conference undoubtedly stimulated a new burst of public optimism.

MORE PAY FOR RAIL WORKERS

Recommended Increase Described As Unsatisfactory

Washington, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Wage increases ranging from 4 to 10 cents an hour for 1,100,000 railroad workers were recommended today by a special presidential board with the approval of Stabilization Director Fred M. Vinson, but met prompt rejection from union spokesmen.

B. M. Jewell, chairman of the rail employees wage conference committee, called the recommendations "entirely unsatisfactory."

George M. Harrison, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, said the scale of wages would be "unacceptable."

The 15 unions affected, representing railroad workers who do not actually run trains or engines, are now taking a strike vote. They are also relying on a congressional resolution to enforce an earlier award providing for an 8-cent increase all around.

Originally the men had asked a straight boost of 20 cents an hour. Vinson vetoed the 8-cent award, which carriers had accepted.

The presently proposed increase, effective on regular payrolls November 19, would be retroactive to February 1.

News of the presidential board's report was received while Jewell and Harrison were appearing as witnesses before a senate interstate commerce subcommittee considering the resolution to get congressional approval of the flat eight-cent increase.

In response to a question by Sen. Reed (R-Kan.) acting subcommittee chairman, Jewell said the new recommendations would have "no bearing whatever" upon the unions' support of the resolution.

The resolution sponsored by Senator Turman (D-Mo.) would, in effect, reduce Vinson's interpretation of the 8-cent award to be erroneous and permit the railroads to pay it.

The new recommended wage scale: All wages less than 47 cents an hour.

DEADLOCK ON FATHER DRAFT

Conferees Fail To Reach Agreement Today

Washington, Nov. 8.—(AP)—The first meeting of senate and house conferees on legislation to delay the further drafting of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers ended in a deadlock today.

The conference broke up after failure to reach agreement on a house provision stripping War Manpower Commission Chairman Paul V. McNutt of authority over the Selective Service, Senator Johnson (D-Colo.) reported.

"We never got around to the provision in the house bill that would put fathers at the bottom of the draft list," Johnson said, "because the senate conferees would not agree to the provision that would direct the President to delegate all selective service authority to Major General L. B. Hershey."

"Some of the senators took the position that this provision would remove any authority the President now has over selective service."

No one knew when a second conference would be held. Two separate approaches to the common goal of relieving the draft on family heads confronted members of senate and house military committees as they met to try to agree on legislation that would set an uncertain fate at the White House.

With administration support, the senate substituted for a bill by Senator Wheeler (D-Mont.) to halt the drafting of pre-Pearl Harbor fathers this year a measure tightening restrictions on the deferment of non-fathers in government and industry.

The house rewrote the bill to provide a formula for inductions on a series of quotas by which single men and childless married men would be drafted.

Churches To Give Christmas Concert

A community Christmas concert is planned by church choirs of Greenville for December 12. Choirs of the First Presbyterian, Baptist, Methodist, and Memorial churches will participate.

The week-end operations on land, sea and air were the lightest since the Allied drive to clear the Japanese from the northern Solomon Islands.

Ground operations on Bougainville and on Choiseul island 30 miles away apparently are progressing favorably, a spokesman for General MacArthur said, adding that "it's up to the Japanese to make the next move."

At last reports the marines had firm control on Empress Augusta Bay.

Ceiling Prices Put On Turkeys

Raleigh, Nov. 8.—The OPA today set dollar and cents ceiling prices on that Thanksgiving turkey.

The top prices consumers may pay for turkeys in 54 eastern North Carolina counties during November and December were listed by OPA as follows:

Young turkeys—Live, 45c light weight; 43c medium, and 42c heavy; Drawn—53c light weight, 51c medium, and 49c heavy; Drawn—57c light weight, 55c medium, and 53c heavy.

Old turkeys—Live, 43c light, 41c medium, and 40c heavy; Drawn—51c light weight, 49c medium, and 47c heavy; Drawn—60c light weight, 57c medium, and 55c heavy.

OPA said it was classifying 18 pounds as light, 22 pounds as medium, and over 22 pounds as heavy. Turkeys less than one year old are classed as young turkeys.

New Air-Sea Battles Loom In South Pacific

Allies Continue Take Toll Jap Fleet Units; Invasion Of Islands Proceeds Favorably

Southwest Pacific Allied Headquarters, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Aerial smashes against warships and cargo vessels striving to reinforce the key Japanese base of Rabaul on New Britain have cost the enemy probably 12 warships sunk or damaged this far in the Bismarck sea.

A probable torpedo hit was scored on a heavy Japanese cruiser in Simpson harbor at Rabaul by Australian-flown Beauforts Friday evening, a day after the first master blow in which aerial bombs sank two cruisers and damaged seven more plus two destroyers.

In addition, a light Japanese cruiser and a destroyer tender were attacked by night in New Ireland waters, but with undiscernible effect, and Mitchell bombers off Adm. William P. Halsey's 13th air force sank or damaged three small coastal vessels and 12 barges off southern Bougainville. Four more barges were destroyed off New Guinea by light surface craft.

These sinkings brought to 83 the number of Japanese ships, ranging from heavy cruisers to small coastal vessels, that have been sunk or damaged during the last week in the Bougainville-Rabaul-New Ireland area.

(Tokyo) radio broadcast a claim that 78 Allied "warships" had been sunk or damaged in "the battle of Bougainville island" between October 31 and November 5. Allied reports have not mentioned the loss of even a single landing barge, although they acknowledged damage to some cruisers and destroyers in an aerial attack last Tuesday.

Vanakanau airdrome at Rabaul was bombed, General MacArthur said, medium units made a night sweep over the off-blasted field, starting large fires in fuel storage areas.

The only Japanese retaliation was an attack by 12 enemy bombers, with fighter escort on positions in the Markham and Ramu valleys of New Guinea. Damage was listed as minor.

The week-end operations on land, sea and air were the lightest since the Allied drive to clear the Japanese from the northern Solomon Islands.

Ground operations on Bougainville and on Choiseul island 30 miles away apparently are progressing favorably, a spokesman for General MacArthur said, adding that "it's up to the Japanese to make the next move."

At last reports the marines had firm control on Empress Augusta Bay.

Airport

All three runways of the city-county airport near this city will be 5,000 feet long when the field is completed, according to information received today that authorized for extension of the third runway to 5,000 feet had been approved by the Civil Aeronautics Authority under whose direction the field is being built.

Authorization for extension of the other two runways from 4,000 to 5,000 feet was made sometime ago and this work is already under way.

Today's announcement was to the effect that necessary surveys for extension of the third runway would be made immediately.

The airport is under lease to the Navy Department and is being used by the Marines as an auxiliary base to Cherry Point.

The WAR TODAY

AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE Associated Press War Analyst

Scarcely had the sound of celebration died down in Moscow of Russia's Holy City of Kiev when the cannon of the capital again were set booming a 124-gun salute for the Red Army's liberation of the strategic railway junction of Fastov, 35 miles southwest of Kiev.

This fresh Russian assault which today was driving down beyond the capture of the harried Hitler with a double menace. It has severed the main rail communication with the German forces trapped in the Dnieper bend. It is thrusting dangerously towards Rumania, thus threatening to create another huge trap for the annihilation of still more of the invaders. These victories, which represent the chief military developments of the week-end in the European war, emphasized Premier Stalin's declaration on Saturday night that Germany "stands face to face with catastrophe." The Marshal made this statement in his speech on the eve of the 26th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution.

NEGRO SHOT BY OFFICER

Policeman Fires To Save Life Of ABC Officer

By CHESTER WALSH Assistant Chief Bowen S. Dorsey shot and seriously wounded Rufus Williams, Negro, who, with his brother, Henry Williams, had stabbed and severely beaten Namon Brewington, elderly Negro, on Pamlico avenue, at the rear of the colored theatre, Sunday night about 7:30, and was threatening to shoot ADC Officer J. M. Ward with a shotgun, according to police.

The bullet passed entirely through Williams' body. He is in Pitt General Hospital in a critical condition. Rufus Williams has a police record. Chief Herbert Wooten stated, "He was recently convicted in Police Court of being drunk, trespass at the Imperial Tobacco Company's factory and assaulting an employee."

Police were called to the scene to stop the fight when the Williams brothers were beating Brewington. Officers Lester Page and M. A. Corbett and Jailer Haywood Willis responded. They learned that the Williams Brothers accosted Brewington on the street and slapped him. He retreated into his house and the Williamses broke open the back door. Brewington had a shotgun in the house but it was lost in the mixup when the two brothers dragged him into the street and beat him severely. Brewington was taken to the hospital. Police followed to make an investigation. The officers returned to the scene of trouble. Assistant Chief Dorsey and Ward were there. Dorsey was in a house making inquiry. Schools Have 'Open House' During Week

American Education Week will be observed in the city schools November 7-13. The theme is "Education for Victory." Plans provide for emphasizing some of the emergencies the schools are facing as a result of the war. O. E. Dowd, principal of the high school, stated.

Tuesday, November 9, will be "Come Back to School Day," when "open house" will be observed for parents and friends of the schools. The high school band will present a concert in the auditorium Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. The Glee club will give a special program. Parents will be invited to visit the teachers in the class rooms. Everybody is invited.

"We are endeavoring to gear the school program to the war effort and we trust parents will cooperate with us in this work," said Principal Dowd, today.

Boost Liquor Tax To $10 A Gallon

Washington, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Changing its mind again, the House Ways and Means committee voted today to boost the liquor tax to $10 a gallon, against a present tax of $6.

The $10 tax would mean $2.50 a quart or 12.5 cents a drink for 100 proof liquor, figuring 80 drinks to the gallon.

Off again and on again on the liquor levy, the committee previously had jumped the tax to $10, cut it back to $8, and now has put it at $10 again.

By the 66 1-3 per cent jump the committee expects to obtain $487,000,000 additional revenue annually. Today's action raising the rate from $8 to $10, put about $243,000,000 in the new general revenue measure, jumping the total in the bill to about $2,250,000,000, against an administrative request for $2,500,000,000.

After voting the liquor hike, the committee turned to consideration of proposed revisions of the law governing negotiation of war contracts. No other changes were made in the already increased excise list, or in postal rate boosts.

Committee members said they hope to report the new revenue bill to the house by Thursday, with debate to begin on the floor probably next Monday.

Nazis Threatened With New Disasters As Reds Forces Drive Forward

MANY KILLED BY NAZI RAID

Allied Air Attacks on Germany Continuing Today

London, Nov. 8.—(AP)—In one of the most disastrous air attacks on England for months, a lone German plane bombed a London suburban district last night, wrecking a crowded dance hall and causing many casualties.

"A witness described the scene as 'like a battlefield' with the dead and injured lying in the streets littered with broken glass, tumblers and bricks. Two emergency mortuaries were set up.

The bodies of many dancers were among those recovered from the wreckage of the dance hall. Many of the couples were Allied servicemen and their girl friends.

It was not immediately known whether any American soldiers were among the dancers at the hall, a popular rendezvous for service men.

The German raider swooped and dropped his explosives just as hundreds were pouring into the streets from three theatres adjacent to the dance hall. A single bomb crashed through the second floor hall into a basement restaurant. A whole block of buildings was damaged.

All through the night rescue workers toiled unceasingly among the debris to reach those trapped while hundreds waited anxiously for news of relatives and friends. One man alone rescued and 32 persons.

The rescue work was complicated by two fires which broke out, one in a nearby furniture store, the other in an ignited gas main. Both were extinguished before spreading.

An official announcement said that bombs were dropped elsewhere in southeast England during the alert, the sixth in London in as many nights.

London, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Formations of Allied aircraft roared out across the English channel today to continue an offensive which American heavy bombers sustained yesterday by carrying out their third raid on Germany in five days and their first without the loss of a single bomber.

Coastal observers said the daylight attacking forces appeared to be composed chiefly of medium bombers, which have been used chiefly for hitting at Nazi airfields and other military targets in France and the Low countries.

The bombers were accompanied by swarms of fighter planes.

The daylight offensive followed night attacks by the RAF's speedy Mosquito bombers on objectives in western Germany, a bombing of the Abbeville airfield in France by intruder patrols, and minelaying operations.

The Air Ministry said one bomber and one fighter were lost in the nocturnal forays.

Flying fortresses struck into western Germany yesterday with heavy Thunderbolt fighter escort and attacked Dueren, site of important airplane parts and light metals plants. All bombers and all fighters returned from the 700-mile trip.

Miners Return To Work Today With Higher Pay

Washington, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Most of the nation's coal miners began returning to the job of producing war-vital fuel under a new wage agreement today as President Roosevelt's special industry-labor public board opened a general inquiry into wartime living costs.

The miners' pay was raised from $7 to $8.50 per day, but they will be required to work an hour longer. Steel toilers were reported ready to seek a 15-cent an hour boost in pay, and a strike vote was being conducted.

The president's living cost investigators were drawn from the War Labor Board, which Mr. Roosevelt has backed consistently. Its members were instructed to report within 60 days. The inquiry followed complaints of workers that wages have not risen at the same ration as living costs.

The Chairman William H. Davis of the WLB supported the labor leaders in that contention. He told congress that present wage controls are forcing workers to bear a greater share of the anti-inflation struggle than any other segment of society.

Soviet Forces Rolling Toward Rumanian Border After Capturing Vital Rail Junction Of Fastov; Other Red Troops Nearing Latvian and Old Polish Borders

London, Nov. 8.—(AP)—The Red army was rolling swiftly toward the Rumanian border today after taking the vital rail junction of Fastov, 35 miles southwest of captured Kiev, and thus snapping the principal rail link between German forces in the northern Ukraine and the Nazis still battling at Krivoli Rog.

A Reuters dispatch from Moscow said the Russians already had driven 10 miles on beyond Fastov and were engaged in heavy fighting with Nazi armored reserves rushed into the breach.

The mighty push, moving along at a speed of 24 miles a day, threatened to crumple Nazi resistance in the Dnieper bend and raised the possibility of trapping huge numbers of the beleaguered Germans.

Seizing trainloads of undamaged German equipment at Fastov, which capture was halted in Moscow with 124-gun salutes, Russian tank and infantry units also were reported to have swept up 70 towns and hamlets as they lunged toward Rumania, one of the Nazi satellites which Premier Joseph Stalin said Saturday was "anxious to find a way" out of the war.

In the Crimea, far to the southeast, the Russians said they killed 1,000 Germans in repelling counter-attacks near Sevastopol, near Kerch, and generally improved their positions in that area. German broadcasts said the Russians were bringing up infantry reinforcements on the Perekop isthmus, northwest gateway to the peninsula.

The 26th anniversary of the Soviet revolution also saw the Red army driving to within 45 miles of the Latvian and old Polish borders on the north central front, where a (Continued on Page Two)

Allied headquarters announced the bombardment of the capital by two destroyers which tried the sea war to the Germans in the Balkans. The gains on the Fifth Army were made in the face of repeated attacks by the Germans who increased their force to nine divisions, for approximately 135,000 men in the front Italian line. Montgomery's army also encountered several German attacks, mostly by tanks, in its push up the east bank. Coordinating air assault with the bombers' bombardment of Durazzo, Allied bombers attacked the Yugoslav harbor of Split and bombed it on the coast south of Bar. In northern Yugoslavia, and north of northern Albanian port of San Vanni Di Media. Australian Kittyhawk fighters led the onslaught. They left a medium-sized enemy ship split and left it sinking and being from three bomb hits. In a second mission, the same Kittyhawk squadron hit the jetty of the north harbor of Split and a huge fire covered a full acre of the dock area. The drydock also was bombed and a merchant vessel in the north harbor was hit. In a sweep up the eastern Italian coast, medium bombers attacked the port at Ancona. Meanwhile, medium and light bombers and fighter-bombers and others ranged over the land battle area, hitting gun positions, rail communications, road junctions and troop concentrations. One aircraft was missing from all operations reported. Advance air headquarters officials described the Australian attack as a model of accuracy. At least 16 motor vehicles were destroyed and 12 damaged as American Warhawks A-20 Bostons and 36 invaders roamed Italian skies and the enemy lines. They sighted a total of about 24 planes over battle area during the day but combats were reported. Three divisions bombed enemy positions in vicinity of Cassino. Bad weather kept big bombers of U. S. 15th air force on the ground.

title Prospect For More Sugar

Washington, Nov. 8.—(AP)—Despite current large stockpiles of sugar, there is little likelihood it will be removed from rationing in the near future. The OPA said today that a reduction of sugar beet production next year by approximately 500,000 tons is the principal factor in this prospect.

Winterville Girl Is Proud Of WACs

By CHESTER WALSH Mrs. Willie Mae Oglesby Manning of the Women's Army Corps, stationed at Bowling Field, D. C., is spending a three-day furlough in Winterville with her mother, Mrs. Mary Oglesby, and her brother, Ray Oglesby. She joined the WAC last March and received her training at Daytona Beach, Fla. She is now a corporal. In private life Corporal Manning is Mrs. Lewis G. Manning of Winterville. She married while very young. Her husband is dead. Mrs. Manning's marriage interrupted her graduation from the Winterville High School. After her husband's death she decided to complete the course and win her diploma. She attended the same classes with her son and graduated at the same time, 1940. He is Frederick G. Manning. He enlisted as an air cadet nearly a year ago. His mother joined the WAC shortly afterwards. She had hoped to be sent on overseas duty, but did not apply. Corporal Manning, whose duties are in the post exchange at Bowling Field, has a secret hope that her son, when he receives his wings, may be stationed with her at Bowling Field. "The WAC is a wonderful organization and provides unusual opportunities for women to be useful in the war and relieve men for combat duty," Corporal Manning said in the Reflector office today. "Every safeguard—physical, spiritual and educational—is provided for the women in the service, just as it is for the men. Whether a man or woman is good or bad, he or she will be just that wherever he or she is, whether in the service or not. I know that I am replacing a man for combat duty. I have received and am receiving training and experience which will be beneficial to me all of my life. I would like to see more. Put county women in the army," the Winterville WAC said.

COLORED NEWS

Sergt. Milton Lee Smith, 348th Port Battalion, U. S. Army, now stationed in North Africa, in a letter to his sister, sent greetings to Mayor E. B. Sugg and Greenville people—white and colored. The letter is typical of the American soldier and a credit to the writer. It says in part: "Tell Mary (a younger sister) that she should continue to go to school because her school days are the very best of her life. She will not only profit in the future by what she is taught but she will have happy memories after she has grown up. Tell her to think of the many thousands of little children in war-torn countries who do not have the privilege of going to school. In a country like America we are fortunate enough to enjoy the privilege of education without interruption by falling bombs or screaming bullets. Tell Mary to keep up her school work." The soldier enclosed two Algerian five-franc notes as souvenirs. Sergt. Smith is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Smith, 414 Tyson Street, Greenville. His address is Sgt. (1st class) Milton Lee Smith, 24179499, Co. A, 358th (port) Battalion, T. C. A., APO No. 763, New York City. Eunice M. Crowell Kittrell departed from this life November 6. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crowell.

Woman's Club Meeting. At the Greenville Woman's Club meeting held on last Friday afternoon, Prof. J. C. Sitterson, an author and writer of note, gave an address on "The International System as a Basis for International Organization." Winning the war comes first, he stated, then the creation of a world order in which peace prevails should be in the thoughts of every thinking person.

World peace must be based on power, no nation is sufficient alone to remain secure, the United States is the only nation qualified to assume world leadership due to the necessary moral prestige and trust also due to being the only nation small nations have confidence in, and if peace comes nations must keep the peace risk resources for the four points Prof. Sitterson gave as necessary for the creation of world order in which peace prevails.

He outlined the Inter-American system as being a practical plan and a pattern for all nations of the world, both large and small nations, to follow. These twenty-one Inter-American nations form an international laboratory in the world today and show that different cultures, different languages and different ideas can be brought together in harmony and peace.

During the twentieth century, since the United States has reached the position of the strongest nation the good neighbor policy has brought forth a good working plan for this Inter-American system. In the first place all nations are equal, they are large or small, and secondly they are twenty-one nations do not resort to force because of the overwhelming power of the United States, and third all nations in this group must have unanimous recommendations before taking action as a whole.

The workings of this group of nations can serve as a guide and is not exclusive but leaves room for larger participation in world affairs. A genuine world community must be formed—of women from your own State. Find out about joining this special group. Go to your nearest U. S. Army Recruiting Station. Or mail the coupon below. Do it today!

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
November 8, 1903

Dedication Day
This is an eventful day in the history of Greenville. It marked the dedication of our splendid graded school building, an occasion that had been for weeks looked forward to with pleasure, and which will for years to come be looked back upon with pride.

This dedication today was the culmination of a determination on the part of our people to have a graded school, and it shows what can be accomplished when differences are put aside and the people unite in their efforts.

Tea and cakes were served during the social hour by the hostesses, Mesdames E. B. Ficklen, John G. Fleming, Wiley Brown, DeRoche Vincent, J. B. White, E. L. Willard, J. H. B. Moore, H. L. Andrews, W. J. Bundy, Louis Harrison, Misses Agnes Fullilove, Eva Keeter and Stella Grogan.

Members were invited to be guests of the Home Department for the next regular meeting on December twelfth.

Mrs. Gaskins Entertains
Grifton, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Wiley Gaskins entertained members of her contract club on Thursday night at her home here. Three tables were placed for the games which were played progressively. Lovely arrangements of fall flowers were used as decorations. High score was compiled by Mrs. Ned McGilchrist, Jr., and the consolation went to Mrs. Roy Jackson. During play at the end of the games pie with whipped cream and coffee. Players were Mrs. McGilchrist, Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Edward Hart, Mrs. R. T. Johnson, Mrs. Walter Patrick, Mrs. Elmo Smith, Mrs. F. L. Cox, Mrs.

Mrs. Dixon Honored
Grifton, Nov. 6.—Mrs. Ralph Dixon was honored on Sunday last at a surprise birthday dinner when her daughters Mrs. Elmo Smith, Mrs. Beatrice Maynard and Mrs. Mark McLawhorn of Goldsboro entertained for her. The day was enjoyed by the families of the honor guest and a beautiful barbecue dinner was served. Out of town guests here were Mr. and Mrs. Mark McLawhorn and children of Goldsboro.

Girl Scout News
Council Meeting
An enthusiastic meeting of the Girl Scout Council was held in the Girl Scout rooms in the City Hall on last Friday night.

Mrs. E. L. Henderson, commissioner, presided over the business session which brought forth some splendid reports from standing committees. Among these reports was one from the program chairman, Mrs. George Hadley, in which she stated program consultants in eleven different fields had visited each troop and two of them will meet with the leaders club each month. Council members appreciate greatly the contribution these women are giving to the Girl Scouts of Greenville. A leaders' club has been organized, with Mrs. Uzzle as president. These women are also giving of their time and experience to perhaps the very opportunity for service offered in our community.

The highlight of this meeting was the acceptance of the plot of ground in the ravine facing Third street, given to the Girl Scouts by the City of Greenville through the Board of Aldermen. This gift was received with many expressions of thanks.

Plans are already under way for the building of a "Little House" on this lovely spot, and some material has already been contributed. The building committee, composed of Mrs. T. M. Watson, chairman, Mrs. J. B. Kittrell, Mrs. W. I. Wooten and Mrs. Ed Batchelor and the Girl Scouts themselves, are prepared to move forward rapidly with this work and are asking for contributions of material and labor from all Greenville citizens.

"Girl scouting is a service organization—serving girls and the community. It is a cooperative effort of the community, the nation and its own members to bring citizenship training and wholesome comradeship to girls." What service is more valuable than that of aiding girls, through their scouting experience, to become intelligent citizens with an understanding of democratic living?
