REDS PUSHING GERMAN BACK AT FAST PACE

New Ukraine Offensive Sweeps 15 Miles Beyond Severed Lwow-Odessa Railway Threatening Isolation Of Thousands Of Nazis; Germans Retreating Toward Rumania

London, March 7.—(AP)—Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's first Ukrainian army is swarming across the Odessa-Lwow-Warsaw railway in a sharp thrust toward the Rumanian frontier after severing the last westward rail connections for the German forces battling in southern Russia, Moscow dispatches said today.

The vital Odessa-Lwow-Warsaw trunk line has been breached for a distance of 18 miles between Volochisk and Nagovichi, a Russian communique declared, and it was through this gap that Red army columns were reported racing toward Rumania, threatening the stragglers of great masses of German troops already partially isolated to the south.

Soviet spearheads are within 60 miles of the Rumanian border, the communique disclosed.

Plunges of the Russian drive were reaching out for the rail junction of Tarnopol, 30 miles west of Volochisk, and 11 miles southwest of Zarach, another of the 200 towns and hamlets taken from the Germans yesterday. The important rail and industrial city of Lwow lies 70 miles west of Tarnopol and is the hub of six other rail lines. Including the trunk line of Cernauti, Rumania.

The new Russian offensive, which was begun Saturday, is taking an enormous toll of German manpower and material, the Moscow bulletin said, reporting that one Red army formation alone killed 4,000 Nazi officers and men in a single day's fighting.

In the first two days Zhukov's forces killed more than 15,000 of the enemy and took more than 3,000 prisoners, Moscow said. Enemy material captured or destroyed included 323 tanks, 452 guns, 617 mortars, 360 machineguns, 3,000 trucks, 36 armored cars, 40 military depots and an armored train. In addition 500 towns were liberated, a total of 700 for the three days to date.

Colorado Election May Indicate Trend In West

By JACK BELL

Washington, March 7.—(AP)—Democratic and Republican national officials riveted their attention today on the voting trend in a special election to fill a vacancy in the First Colorado Congressional District.

Both sides regard the contest, which elects a war hero, Major Carl E. Wuerfels, Democrat, against a business man, Dean M. Gillespie, Republican, as being likely to indicate a definite drift not only in Colorado but in the Rocky Mountain states as a whole.

The district normally is Democratic, but Colorado swung toward the Republicans in 1942 and the late Rep. Lawrence Lewis won the seat by slightly more than 5,000 votes against his Republican opponent.

The Democrats pin their hopes on carrying the district today largely on Major Wuerfels' record as a Pacific flier who was wounded in action. The Republicans hope that anti-administration sentiment will put their nominee in office. A victory for the Republicans would boost their representation in the House to 210, against 216 for the Democrats, with four minority par-

According to testimony, Hall, who was walking along the highway in the direction of Belvoir, decided to cross the road and stepped in the path of the car.

NEW CLASHES REPORTED ON ITALIAN FRONT

Fifth Army Probes Nazi Defenses In Cassino Sector; British Repulse Two Attacks

Allied Headquarters, Naples, March 7.—(AP)—Sharp clashes have flared between Allied patrols and the Germans inside battered Cassino, headquarters announced today, and American troops have thrown back two small Nazi attacks near Claterna on the Rome beachhead.

The Germans opened up with heavy mortar and machine-gun fire at Cassino, then sent patrols out, but no gains were made. Rain had bogged down both armies. The Rapido river rose three feet.

Allied artillery again took a heavy toll of the Nazis attacking the beachhead and played a major role in blunting the thrusts. Another minor Nazi thrust southwest of Carroceto on the other side of the beachhead also failed.

The Germans also launched two small attacks against India troops of the Eighth army near Orsogna, but they were beaten back. Canadian artillery again smashed an enemy motor supply convoy near Ortona on the Adriatic coast.

Spitfires left a schooner flaming in Kotkor bay on the Yugoslav coast, and strafed a freight train and a troop-carrying truck convoy near Dubrovnik, causing casualties.

Allied troops, who hold about one third of Cassino, made several probing jabs into the German held part of the town, which resulted in fierce local fighting. The Germans appeared nervous and responded with intense fire, also slinging grenades.

The Germans have increased the number of snipers along the beachhead perimeter. They lie in concealed positions, ready to pick off Allied soldiers the second they expose themselves.

Continued rain has deepened the mud on the beachhead and flooded many low areas, making the life of the troops still more unpleasant.

In the lower Garigliano river region of the main Fifth army front, British patrols had local skirmishes with the enemy and took four prisoners.

Fighter-bombers attacked gun positions north of the beachhead and roads and railways near Rome, but the weather continued to hamper aerial operations, the communique said. Fighters flew battleline patrols.

Allied planes flew about 500 sorties, with three of the craft falling to return. There was no enemy air activity reported over the battle area.

"Bloody Monday"

Yesterday's great American daylight raid on Berlin must be considered a "catastrophe," the German-controlled Oslo radio admitted today.

This description was attributed by the radio to "competent German circles."

The broadcast said Berliners are calling the day on which the Americans proved they could hit Germany's best defended target "Bloody Monday."

Students To Purchase Warplane

A graphic for a war bond campaign. It features a circular logo with the text 'LEARN - SHARE - CONSERVE - SAVE - SERVE'. Above the logo, it says 'This PURSUIT PLANE represents War Bond purchases by the students of Greenville High School, Greenville, North Carolina.' Below the logo, it says 'Students of Greenville High School are nearing their goal of $75,000 in war bond purchases and sales with which the government will purchase a P-51 Mustang fighter plane like that one shown above. A four inch by six inch plaque (bottom) decorated in red white and blue will be placed in the plane and a duplicate plaque will be presented to the school.'

Students Conduct Bond Drive To Buy Fighter

Students of the Greenville High School are now buying a P-51 Mustang fighter plane through the purchase of war bonds. So far in their campaign, which will necessitate $75,000 worth of war bonds, they have bought the school, the Mustang through the high school of Greenville, North Carolina. At present $61,000 in bonds, during the Fourth War Loan drive the students of G. H. S. sold approximately 700 bonds which totaled about $25,000.

Public Asked To Cooperate By Buying Bonds Through High School

The students are purchasing the plane through a "buy-a-plane" campaign which is being carried on in schools all over the country. When the $75,000 goal is reached a plaque will be placed in a P-51 fighter plane stating that the plane was bought through war bonds sold through the high school of Greenville, North Carolina. At present there are about three other schools in the state which are purchasing Mustang fighters.

REPORT LOSS OF CRUISER

Famed HMS Penelope Lost Off Italian Coast

London, March 7.—(AP)—The Admiralty announced today the loss of the famed cruiser Penelope, which became known as "HMS Peppercorn" after she was scarred by 2,000 shell fragment holes in the battle of Malta.

The Penelope was lost with the cruiser Spartan and the destroyers Janus and Ingfield on the establishment and maintenance of the Nettuno bridgehead in Italy. Command was informed by A. V. Alexander, First Lord of the Admiralty. Loss of the other vessels was announced previously. Five major assault vessels also were bridgehead casualties, Alexander said.

The Penelope survived 14 days of bombing in Malta's Grand harbor during the height of the Axis campaign against the Mediterranean island bastion.

On the way to Gibraltar she underwent three more days of attack during which 14 torpedoes and 3,000 tons of bombs were aimed at her by German and Italian planes. (Continued on Page Three)

American Airmen Land In Sweden

New York, March 7.—(AP)—The American Swedish News Exchange said today that four American bombers from the Berlin-raiding force sent out yesterday from Britain had landed in Sweden, with two of them bearing marks of enemy gunfire. All the crews, totaling 40, were safe. Charles W. Smith, 27, of New York, was named as pilot of a plane that landed at Gotland Island.

Daylight Raid on Berlin Yesterday Cost U. S. 68 Heavy Bombers And 11 Fighters; 176 Nazi Planes Shot Down; Points In France Raided Last Night And Today

London, March 7.—(AP)—The Rome radio said waves of four-engined bombers attacked Rome today.

"Formations of four-engined aircraft in successive waves dropped bombs on inhabited districts of the city of Rome," the broadcast said.

"The enemy aircraft flew over targets at a comparatively low level and dropped loads of explosives on the Ostiense and Trastevere districts.

"The total number of casualties has not yet been ascertained but appears to be very high."

The great American air fleet smacking Berlin Monday knocked 176 Nazi planes from the sky, but lost 68 four-engined bombers in one of the greatest plane battles of the war. U. S. army headquarters disclosed today.

RAF night bombers kept the attack rolling, with a heavy blow last night on railway targets at Trappes, France, 15 miles southwest of Paris, and Mosquito bombers darted against targets in northwest Germany, all without loss.

A cloud of U. S. Marauders flashed over northern France by daylight today to pound military objectives there, protected by a canopy of fighters.

Berlin admitted today that "several hundred" bombers reached the capital yesterday.

More than 500 American bombers hurled over 2,000 tons of bombs upon burning Berlin, and in the swirling aerial warfare one was from the Dutch coast to the capital gunners of Flying Fortresses and Liberators bagged 93 enemy planes while fighter escorts shot down 82.

It was the second highest single day's score in victories for the U. S. air forces. The record still is 397 German planes downed during the Schweinfurt and Regensburg raids last Aug. 17.

But the bombers suffered a record loss. Sixty-eight of the big craft and 11 fighter planes plunged down. About 700 highly trained airmen (Continued on Page Four)

Oil Conference Plan Announced

Wilson, vice-chairman of the War Production Board.

The announcement of the forthcoming conferences, in which American plans to build a pipeline across Saudi Arabia, will be a prime subject, was made jointly in Washington and London. The Washington announcement, came from Acting Secretary of State Edward R. Stettinius, Jr.

Thaw In Russia May Aid Nazi Efforts In Italy

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER Washington, March 7.—(AP)—Reports of early spring thaws on the Russian front caused fresh concern here today over the Allied campaign in Italy.

Any Soviet slowdown might enable the Germans to throw new divisions into the Italian fighting, in which the Allies already have encountered fierce resistance ever since their initial landings on "the boot" last September.

The situation is not considered urgently critical, which is to say that prospects for progress in Italy are better at the moment than they have been in the recent past. But plenty of cause for dejection remains, in the opinion of thoroughly competent judges, with the present danger being the danger of stalemate.

Stalemate would mean: 1. No advance on the main front line and no expansion of the Anzio beachhead.

2. Failure to reap the enormous political rewards of the capture of Rome, which appear to have prompted the Anzio assault in the first place.

3. The men on the beachhead would be placed in an almost intolerable position, with the sea at their backs and German artillery, capable of sweeping the entire area, on three sides.

Toward these ends it is expected that the Germans will reinforce and supply their armies down the boot every time changed military conditions elsewhere allow.

The weather is almost certain to make a major change in the Russian front. Hitler, though surrounded, has the advantage of inter-communications lines, with spring mud slowing Russia's military activity, as authorities shift reserve divisions to Italy, in an attempt to hold or even to smash the Allies there—and then shift them back east as needed in time to meet a Soviet summer offensive.

So far as the immediate situation in Italy is concerned, it still is understood to be true that the Germans equal if they do not outnumber the Allied ground forces but (Continued on Page Two)

As one drives through the Florida countryside, and more especially if one goes by boat through its innumerable streams, he sees the banyan tree. One characteristic of this tree is that it often wraps itself around other trees and gradually kills them.

There are people and influences which are like the banyan trees. They wrap themselves about some weaker neighbor and crush the life out of him.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

Washington—In spite of complaints to Congress and the War Production Board that smelter forces are blocking the printing of Bibles, I'm happy to report that the Bible business was never better.

Harried officials in the printing and paper section at WPB say most of the complaints come from civilians who want overseas annotated or illuminated Bibles. There is a shortage in these editions. Nor can missionary societies get wholesale lots printed in Hotentot. The lack of paper and manpower simply won't permit it. But just about there, the Bible "shortage" ends.

According to Rep. Marion T. Bennett of Missouri, who has made a survey of Bibles in the armed services, more than 11,000,000 pocket-size Bibles have been issued already by just three agencies—and that doesn't take into account the millions given by individuals, churches and sectional religious societies.

It's a safe statement that the armed forces have received for distribution more Bibles than there are men and women in uniform. And there isn't any diminishing supply today despite curtailment of some editions for civilians. Losses, destruction and wear, of course, account for the surplus. According to the American Bible Society, the supply still is barely keeping up with the demand.

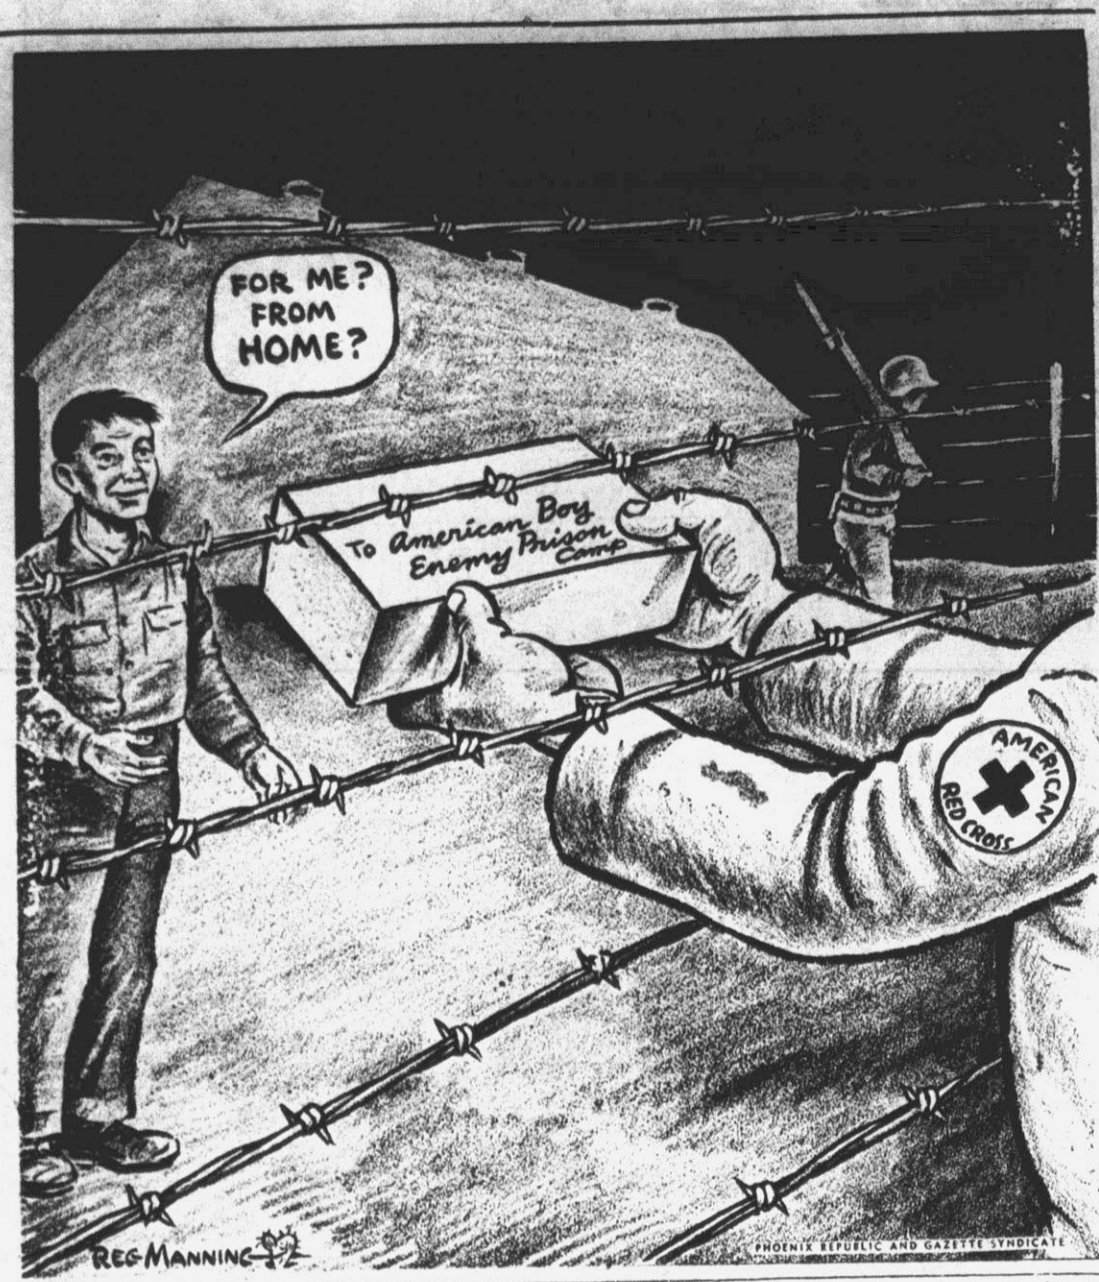

The ABS, by private subscription and through its own printing facilities, has distributed, since Pearl Harbor, $312,000 pocket-size Bibles to the armed forces. It also has supplied a half million more in 38 languages to prisoners of war.

Clifton International, famous for printing Bibles in hotel rooms, has distributed about 3,000,000. In addition, the government has distributed more than 4,000,000 and 1,500,000 more are rolling off the presses just as fast as the government printing office can turn them out.

These last, called "G. I. Bibles," are for army use only; the other services get theirs from other sources. According to Cong. Bennett, the "G. I. Bible" isn't as big a hit with soldiers as some others, being "larger, heavier and of an inconvenient size."

All of the Bibles are prepared in

Where Do Your Red Cross Dollars Go—?

Protestant and other versions. Dr. Francis C. Stiller, editorial secretary of ABS, proudly reports his society has established a printing "assembly line" for Bibles and has more than quadrupled its output since Pearl Harbor.

The guest speaker for the program was Dr. Haney of the Christian Church. He gave a very interesting talk on "What does a sense of security mean to a child in a home?" Dr. Haney pointed out some of the insecurities of today and gave some points for security after the war, which are: building homes, schools and churches. The thoughts that he left with us are: man shall find his life in the everlasting things of God, and security of tomorrow will be based on the eternal things of God. The meeting adjourned with a prayer led by Dr. Haney—Reported.

Eileen Farrell Concert. In commenting on Eileen Farrell, who is to appear at the Wright Auditorium tomorrow night at 8:30, Robert Bager, the distinguished music critic of the New York World-Telegram, remarked that she has "the Kirstep, Flagstad, Helen Traubel type of voice, substantiated and utterly musical." It is this type of voice that has won Miss Farrell the fame she has received.

Miss Farrell is distinctly a product of America. She was born in Massachusetts, but when young moved to Rhode Island, where she stayed until she set out on her career in 1939. Her mother was an actress of fame, and it was through her mother that she was trained and brought up to love and cherish the world of drama.

It is not unusual for a young singer to have a good voice, but when a young singer has an outstanding voice and outstanding interpretation that is unique. These two qualities have given critics cause to praise her as one of America's best.

Red Cross News

Have you decided which day you will give to making surgical dressings this week? Of course, days will be better than one day. It is about the only form of volunteer work in which Greenville women can engage except the ever-present and ever-needed knitting. Everyone is anxious to help with the war effort, so this chance is one that should not be ignored. Any time you can come, you are welcome, but the work runs more smoothly if you set apart definite hours or definite days. It is satisfactory both to you and the ladies in charge of organization. Come on your church's day if possible, but if that is not convenient, your church or organization will receive credit for your attendance when you register. There is a beautiful spirit of cooperation among the different organizations. Everyone seems to realize that the important thing is to get the work done, with credit to individuals and organizations a very secondary matter.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR March 7, 1904

A translation of the Bible is being made for the Filipinos, but at the rate at which Filipinos are reported as being slaughtered, it looks like there might be nobody to read the translation when it is completed.

The concert of shad frogs now greets our ears. Soon the aroma of yellow jasmine will permeate the lambent air, and the warmed up Atlantic will be tumbling its gladdened surf at the dimpled feet of the Summer girl. The wreck and ruin of nations by grim-visaged war in the East may go on, but in a land of beauties and the white winged dove of peace hovering o'er us, let us rejoice and get our bath suits ready.—Wilmington Star.

Party for Mrs. Greene. On Monday evening at 7:30, Mrs. Marvin K. Blount entertained at bridge honoring Mrs. William Morris Greene. The guests played at six tables of bridge in the music room and in the library.

After several games of bridge had been enjoyed, the guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments. From the beautifully appointed table, Mrs. George Snyder served lime-ice punch. Decorated cakes, mints and nuts were served buffet.

Mrs. Greene, the honoree, received plates in her pattern of china. The high score prize, war stamps, went to Mrs. D. M. Clark.

Miss Joyce Whitehurst Honored. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Whitehurst of Ayden, delightfully entertained on Saturday night honoring their daughter, Helen Joyce, on her 13th birthday. The attractive country home was tastefully decorated with spring flowers.

A number of games and stunts were played by the twenty-four guests under the direction of Helen Joyce, assisted by Mrs. Donald Langston. A prize was offered to the young man who was nicest and most thoughtful of his partners throughout the evening. The girls, by secret ballot, awarded this prize to J. D. Dennis.

Among the most enjoyable games was a magician stunt by Helen Joyce and J. C. Whitehurst, Jr., and a fortune telling game in which each guest had his or her fortune told.

About 10-15 partners were found for refreshments by matching pieces of candy. The dining room from which ice cream, cake, nuts and candy were served, was beautifully decorated with a pink color scheme. The table was covered with an Irish lace cloth. At one end of the table was a lovely bowl of Japanese quince flanked with silver candlesticks containing pink tapers and at the other end was the two-tier birthday cake. The buffet was especially pretty with its long bowl of Japanese quince and fern. Among the flowers were long lighted tapers. Brass candelabra with pink candles were placed on each side. Mr. and Mrs. Whitehurst were assisted in serving by Misses Betsy Castelleo, Daphne McLawhorn, Mrs. Barrett, Hughes Sumrell and Mrs. Charles McLawhorn.

The honoree was very charming as she opened the lovely and useful gifts brought by her friends—thanking each in a most appreciative manner.

After Daniels' two-hour appearance before the sub-committee, Chairman Smith (D-SC) said he was "very well pleased" with the witness' testimony. Daniels said he saw Slattery on two successive days in July last year, after he had made a personal inquiry into REA affairs.

Grain Market

Chicago, March 7.—(AP)—Scattered buying, influenced to some extent by firmness in securities and cotton pushed all grain prices up fractionally in a generally quiet trade today. Price fluctuations in the wheat and oats pits were held within a narrow range by lack of incentive for traders to tender those markets.

Closing at or near the day's high points, wheat finished 1/2 to 1/4 higher than the previous close, May $1.71, July $1.67, oats were up 1/2 to 1/4, May 80 1/2, rye was 1/4 to 1/2 higher, May $1.28, barley was up 1/4 to 1/2, May $1.22.

New York Cotton

New York, March 7.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened 15 to 30 cents a bale higher. Noon values were 45 to 55 cents a bale higher. March 20 1/2, May 20 1/4, July 19 3/4. Futures closed 55 to 65 cents a bale higher.

N. Y. Stock Market

New York, March 7.—(AP)—Blue chip investment stocks came to the fore in today's market, after a lengthy period of apathy, and favorites pushed up fractions to around 2 points to 1944 peaks in one of the liveliest sessions of the past four months.

The advance which got under way Monday was extended at the opening. Most near-closing quotations held around the best although there were scattered let-downs on profit taking. Transfers approximated 1,200,000 shares.

The great daylight attack on the heart of Germany was flaming warning that virtually no section of the Reich is safe from round-the-clock bombing, and it caught the imagination of Britons. British newspapers cheered it as a major victory, marking a tremendous new phase in the air war.

The Air Ministry said first reports on last night's raid on Trappes indicate the bombing was "accurate and well concentrated." The planes may have carried the new six-ton block-busters.

The blow on Berlin was delivered with the full weight of the U. S. eighth air force.

Farmville Cage Tournament Ends

The Farmville invitational basketball tournament which got under way last Wednesday night with eight girls' teams and 10 boys' teams representing nine Pitt county schools and Walstonburg, ended last night with the Arthur girls and Farmville boys carrying off the honors as tournament champions in their respective fields.

The Arthur girls defeated Farmville girls by a 19 to 14 score, after overcoming a Farmville 11 to 7 lead at the half-way mark of the game.

The Farmville boys came from behind in the final half of their game to defeat the Arthur boys by 21 to 18. At the half Arthur led by a score of 10 to 8.

J. H. Moore, principal of the Farmville schools, who has had 15 years in coaching and handling basketball and other sports tournaments, stated today that the tournament just closed was one of the best he has ever witnessed. It was better attended, there was a display of better sportsmanship, and better behavior on the part of spectators, Mr. Moore stated.
