German Vessels Sunk By Bombers

Allies Step Up Artillery Along Anzio Beachhead; Bad Weather Slows General Fighting; Berlin Says Sinkings Violation of International Law

Ally Headquarters, Naples, March 13—(AP)—British fighters on sweeps against German shipping in the western Mediterranean attacked and hit two enemy supply ships off the Spanish coast, driving one to the beach and leaving the other sinking, it was announced today.

(A Berlin broadcast by the propaganda agency international information bureau asserted the attack was a violation of international law. It said nine British Blenheims sank the 3,700-ton German refrigerator ship Girissi in Spanish waters yesterday off the mouth of the Ebro, killing 10 of the crew and wounding 15.)

At the same time an Allied communiqué said that naval forces in the Adriatic had sunk two other enemy vessels—one in a channel on the Yugoslav coast Friday night and the other below Ancona the next night. A number of Germans were captured when the first went down.

On the Anzio beachhead, Allied artillery fire was increased considerably in strength yesterday, the communiqué said.

On the three land fronts, patrols clashed with small enemy groups at several points but bad weather prevented any large-scale action.

Poor visibility and rain limited Allied air activity to 300 sorties Sunday, but fighter-bombers hit at enemy shipping in the western Mediterranean and bridges and trains on Italy's west coast. One enemy aircraft was destroyed. All Allied planes returned.

Pope Asks That Rome Be Spared

London, March 13—(AP)—Pope Pius XII, speaking to a great throng massing in St. Peter's square and to radio listeners around the world, appealed to Allied and German leaders yesterday to spare Rome and to strive for a "peace of liberation."

Speaking on the fifth anniversary of his coronation, the Pontiff received a tremendous ovation from the throng which had been assembling for hours before he appeared on the balcony.

U. S. Officer With Yugoslav Forces

London, March 13—(AP)—Yugoslav Partisans commanded by a United States officer have captured the port of Pucisce on the northeast corner of Brac island off the Dalmatian coast, March 12, headquarters announced today.

Brac lies 10 miles southeast of the port of Split and has been used in the past as a submarine base.

The action, announced in the war bulletin broadcast by the Free Yugoslav radio, again turned the spotlight on the Dalmatian islands. The Berlin radio asserted last week that British and American Commandos led by a "Gen. Churchill" had landed on Lissa island to the southwest.

Continue Probe Here Tomorrow

Continuation of investigation of the auditors' reports of affairs at East Carolina Teachers College, in which President L. R. Meadows is alleged to have failed to make satisfactory explanation of disposition of student activity funds totaling over $18,000, will be resumed tomorrow morning when the Board of Trustees will meet in the trustees' room at the college at 11 o'clock.

At a meeting in Raleigh last Friday Dr. Meadows denied that he had misused or misapplied any of the funds in question and declared that he could satisfactorily explain all his transactions and clarify the whole matter. The board then recessed its hearing until tomorrow to give Dr. Meadows time to prepare his answer for presentation to the board.

Like the Raleigh meeting, tomorrow's meeting will be open to the public.

The WAR TODAY

AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

London's prompt imposition of travel restrictions between Britain and southern Ireland was a corollary to Eire's refusal to grant America's request that German and Japanese diplomatic and consular representatives be expelled.

While it was Washington which made the overture to Eire, Britain beckoned it. The point is that twenty agents have been acting under cover of their legations and consulates to pass military information back home. General Eisenhower, supreme commander of Allied western invasion forces, says these Axis operations are a serious menace.

The travel restriction is a heavy blow to the economic life of Eire for Britain is a vital market for Ireland's cattle and other products. Even more grievous trouble may be in the offing for Eire, however. The British press forecasts curtailment of essential supplies from England and America. An appeal by Dublin to Australia to intervene with Washington has brought the reply that Australia fully supports Uncle Sam's stand.

Why should Eire cling so tightly to her neutrality? This is especially puzzling to many because Ireland's shield against danger from the continent of Europe is the United Kingdom, and Eire's ties with America are strong.

Dublin's neutrality has deprived the Anglo-American Allies of naval bases with the result that the war

BILL WOULD ABOLISH FSA

Measure Introduced By Congressman Cooley Today

Washington, March 13—(AP)—Legislation designed to abolish the Farm Security Administration was offered in the house today by an agriculture sub-committee which has been investigating the agency for months.

The bill, introduced by Chairman Cooley (D-NC), would transfer to the Farmers Home Corporation the assets and duties of the FSA, all regional agricultural credit corporations now operating under the Farm Credit Administration, and the Emergency Farm Feed, Seed and Rehabilitation loans of the Farm Credit organization. Further, it would drastically limit the policies to be followed.

The Farmers' Home agency, created by Congress in 1937 but never activated, would be directed by a president, vice president and secretary of agriculture.

Loans to farmers and stockmen for livestock, farming equipment, subsistence and refinancing of indebtedness would be limited to $3,500 each and the total available for loans would not exceed $125,000,000. (Continued on Page Two)

Pacific Veteran To Visit County

Max E. Meisel, top flight field director for the Red Cross just returned from a front row seat in the Southwest Pacific theater of operations comes to Pitt county March 15 for a series of speaking engagements. Meisel's appearance is the outstanding feature preceding Red Cross week, March 20-27, and his itinerary calls for a total of nine talks.

Field Director Meisel was stationed with advance units in New Guinea whose only contact with supply bases was by air. Jeeps, mortars, men and all supplies were flown to the unit Mr. Meisel was with. A number of Pitt county citizens who heard him in Rocky Mount several weeks ago stated without hesitation that he was one of the most interesting speakers they have ever heard and that his message was inspirational. Meisel's first appearance will be at Farmville at 9:15 a. m. Next he goes to Winterville for a talk at 10:15, Ayden at 10:30, Grifton at 11:35, Chicod at 12:30, Grimesland at 1:15, Pictious at 2:35, Bethel at 3:30, and Greenville at 8 o'clock Wednesday night. All day time appearances will be at the high schools in the localities mentioned; his Greenville appearance will be in the Austin building auditorium at ECTC.

Governor Broughton has arranged for Meisel's transportation to Farmville, accompanied by a high way patrol escort. Lt. Lester Jones in command of this district will arrange transportation and escort for the rest of his itinerary.

Fortresses Blast Targets In France

London, March 13—(AP)—A small formation of American Flying Fortresses bombed military targets in northern France today although no opposition from enemy aircraft was encountered, two of the bombers were lost.

The Fortresses were escorted by Thunderbolt fighters, the eighth air force announcement said.

British Mosquito bombers attacked unspecified targets in western Germany without loss.

Britain Moves To Halt Espionage In Ireland

London, March 13—(AP)—All travel except in cases of greatest urgency was suspended today between the islands of Britain and Ireland to keep Allied war secrets from the hands of enemy agents operating in neutral Eire.

A British government order imposing the restrictions effective at midnight last night came only two days after Eire's Prime Minister Eamon de Valera announced his refusal to accede to a United States request that German and Japanese diplomatic offices in his country be closed.

The order from the home office resulted from an urgent request by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, supreme commander of Allied western invasion forces, who was said to have information that the Axis representatives in Eire constituted a serious menace requiring immediate action.

It was generally believed in London that the travel ban was only the beginning of British and United States measures to provide strict military security, and the Associated Press correspondent in Dublin said "everyone is asking 'What will happen next?'"

Two possibilities stood out—closing of the Eire-Northern Ireland (Ulster) frontier and curtailment of the shipments of wheat, gasoline and coal which Eire imports from Britain and the United States.

The Daily Mail, Daily Express and other London newspapers all strongly emphasized the likelihood of restrictions on such Eire imports despite statements from both London and Washington officials that economic sanctions were

Russian Forces Smashing Forward To New Victories

Soviet Army Now In Possession Of Nazi Base At Kheron After Southward Lunge; Railway Leading To Rumania And Hungary Cut; 60,000 Nazis Killed In Eight Days

London, March 13—(AP)—The capture of Kheron was announced by Marshal Stalin tonight in an order of the day.

London, March 13—(AP)—The Red army battled today to within 22 miles of the big Nazi base of Kheron on the lower Dnieper river, Moscow announced, after slaying 5,000 Germans yesterday to bring to more than 60,000 the number declared killed in eight days of the massive southern offensive.

The Russians swept up 210 more communities yesterday, slashing the Proskurov-Gusiatin railway leading into Rumania and Hungary and storming into Gavoron on the middle Bug river, 50 miles from Rumania and close to one of the few intact railways left to the Germans in southern Russia, a Soviet communiqué said.

The bulletin did not mention the fighting at Tarnopol at the upper end of the southern front, but Tass, Soviet news agency, reported earlier that the Russians were dislodging the Germans house by house, with the Nazis clinging to every ditch and gutter in the city, where street fighting has been raging since last Thursday.

A field dispatch to the army newspaper Red Star said the Germans were fighting fiercely for every hill-top, stream and road in the Tarnopol sector and another Russian report, indicating the German strength, said a single Russian plane had spotted 400 Nazi tanks coming up the river.

The advance to within 27 miles of Kheron was made by one Soviet force which struck 18 miles beyond Berislav, captured Saturday, and seized Tyaginka, the Russian communiqué declared.

The bulletin said that other Soviet troops had captured Dolinskaya, a key junction of the line leading south to Nikolaevo, another important Nazi river and sea supply port on the Black sea. The Russians had never imported within 30 miles of Nikolaevo itself.

The Proskurov-Gusiatin railway leading into Rumania and Hungary was declared severed by Russian forces which struck on both sides of Proskurov, 62 miles east of Tarnopol, cutting the line at a point (Continued on Page Two)

WEST TO GET GASOLINE CUT

No Change In "A" Cards Contemplated For East

Washington, March 13—(AP)—The possibility that basic "A" gasoline rations in the mid-west and west may be trimmed from three to two gallons a week for much of the eastern seaboard ration, was acknowledged today by Colonel Bryan Houston, deputy administrator of the OPA.

Colonel Houston said the plan was advocated by the Petroleum Administration for War as a means of equalizing supplies over the country.

OPA's decision may be announced tomorrow, he said, if the civilian allocation of gasoline for the second quarter of the year, starting April 1, is transmitted by PAW of OPA tonight as expected. If the mid- (Continued on Page Four)

Change Sought In Constitution

Washington, March 13—(AP)—A proposal to amend the constitution to permit senate ratification of treaties by a simple majority got a cool reception today from the Senate Judiciary committee.

Chairman McCarran (D-Nev) told reporters a resolution introduced by Senator Gillette (D-Iowa) was discussed at a closed session.

"The principles of the resolution were emphatically frowned upon by many members of the committee," McCarran said. "Apparently most of the committee favors retention of the present constitutional provision requiring that two-thirds of the senate ratify all treaties. We just let it rest in the committee."

Grifton Native Dies In Pikeville

Goldboro, March 13—(AP)—The Rev. Jack Quintley Patrick, 40, pastor of the Methodist Church at Pikeville, died today after suffering a heart attack Sunday.

He had taught in various schools in the state for 12 years and was teaching this year at Black Creek school near Wilson. He was the son of Mrs. Addie Patrick of Grifton, and was a graduate of St. C. State College and the Vanderbilt Divinity school.

Today On The Home Front

JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington, March 13—(AP)—Draft boards were told to be lenient about granting occupational deferments to pre-Pearl Harbor fathers.

Now the War Manpower Commission says it's really at the bottom of that barrel it has been reported scrapping for so long.

So that leniency may be revoked, Lawrence Appleby, executive director of the Manpower Commission, says all occupational deferments from now on will have to be "put strictly on the basis of essentiality and irrepleasability."

Local boards have deferred nearly 5,000,000 men as "necessary war production agriculture or other civilian activity."

President Roosevelt has directed attention specifically to those men under 26 who are thus deferred as "necessary."

As of February 1, there were 919,000 non-fathers (by the Pearl Harbor standard) in occupationally deferred classes—562,000 of them in agriculture.

Now let's see what's needed: On February 1 (the date taken in the latest selective service report) there were 10,600,000 in the armed forces. The July 1 goal is 11,300,000. That means 700,000 more. But an additional 500,000 will be needed, it's estimated, to replace casualties and discharges.

Total need, then: 1,200,000 more men.

From February 1 through July 1 selective service expects to get: 420,000 out of men presently in 1-A. 250,000 by reclassifying 3-A's in 1-A.

325,000 teen-agers (17-year-old enlistments, 18-year old selectees). Total, roughly 1,000,000 (these are all rounded estimates).

That leaves 200,000 to be sought elsewhere.

Although a certain number will be reclassified out of 4-F selective service says "no appreciable numbers" can be so obtained under existing standards—and there's no indication the standards will be changed again.

So attention focuses first on the 810,000 non-fathers under 26 holding occupational deferments.

Perhaps 500,000 of these, selective estimates, could pass the physical examination. If the needed 200,000 men were taken from this group, that would mean two out of every five physically qualified non-fathers in these deferred classes.

Every motion toward those deferred as farmers brings renewed warnings from farm officials who point to the 1944 food goals—biggest ever.

Every cancellation of deferment in war production produces claims that war production is being sacrificed.

There's been talk that the manpower bosses are casting eyes at class 2-A "necessary in civilian activity."

Asks Promotion For Doolittle

Washington, March 13—(AP)—Major General James H. Doolittle, commanding the eighth air force in England, was nominated by President Roosevelt today to be a lieutenant general.

The 47-year-old officer held the temporary rank of lieutenant colonel when he led the raid on Tokyo April 18, 1942. After this attack he was promoted to brigadier general and awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor.

In July 1942, he was sent to the European theater for the first time, attached to the eighth air force. A few months later he was named commander of the 12th air force in North Africa.

AIR STRATEGY IS REVEALED

U. S. Determined To Destroy Nazi Fighter Strength

By GLADWIN HILL
London, March 13—(AP)—The bombardment of all other strategic targets in Germany by the United States air force has been relegated to a back seat in favor of an all-out campaign to exterminate the German air force, it was learned today.

The U. S. strategic air force is so eager to do so—and so sure it can—that it swung into deliberate campaign last week to tangle with the German air force head-on and left off its tactics of trying to avoid the German fighters and splitting them up by diversionary attacks.

This new extermination campaign is two-edged. When the weather is good the impact is primarily on the Germans' ground resources such as their airplane factories. When the weather is bad the aim is to make attacks through the overcast so destructive that the German air force will be compelled to send up fighters to oppose the Fortresses and Liberators—which can "shoot them down."

The suggestion made in London last week that the German people be given a warning when big attacks are coming did not meet with the boots from the U. S. strategic air force headquarters that might have been expected.

As a matter of fact in the recent American daylight attacks everything was done except send a formal notice in an effort to stir up aerial opposition.

The big bomber armadas, which probably could be detected by the German apparatus on the French coast while they still were forming up in the air over England, were driven straight into Germany in a single force.

But it is unlikely any regular system of warning the German people will ever be taken under serious consideration, since the consistent stand of Allied air leaders has been that the German people were so thoroughly mobilized into the war effort that it is hard to distinguish between the importance of the contribution of those in uniform and those not in uniform.

New Successes On Burma Front

New Delhi, March 13—(AP)—A series of Allied successes in the Arakan sector of Burma, including the occupation of Butheading, 55 miles north of the Bay of Bengal port of Akyab, was announced by Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten's southeast Asia command today.

To the west, the British forced the Japanese from hills between Hindaw and Butheading, and from positions in the Razabul area to the north.

Further water-borne raids on enemy defenses along the coastal plain south of Maungdaw also were announced, while across the Mawdik range to the southwest of Butheading West Africans captured another Japanese position.

In north Burma, Chinese and American forces, continuing to smash southward along the main road in the Hukawng valley, advanced two miles in 24 hours and reached a point seven miles south of Walabaw where Maj. General Frank Merrill's American Marauders recently established a road block trapping about 2,000 Japanese.

The Americans and Chinese were within about 11 miles of the southern edge of the Hukawng valley and preparing to drive into the Mogaung valley and toward Kamaing, 40 miles to the south. There they would be in a position to move on Mogaung, whose capture would cut the railway to Myitkyina, chief Japanese base in northern Burma for offensive operations against southwest China.

HIDDEN IDOLS

We are always loathe to give up our idols. The passing years and changed circumstances may seem to make a difference with us, but we often find that years after we think we have relinquished some point of view or given up some worthy objective, we nevertheless continue to pursue it and regard it highly.

Many years ago missionaries among the South American Indians persuaded their worshippers to build a beautiful church. But the Indians were determined to worship their idols and would not give up the worship of those idols which their ancestors had been worshipping from the beginning of time.

And so as the centuries have passed, these Indians have knelt in the church, ostensibly Christian worshippers, but from father to son the information has been handed down as to just where the old Indian idols were placed in the wall, and the Indians, instead of worshipping as Christians, still turn their minds to idols, and probably their faces, also, toward those sections of the wall where their ancestors had placed their idols.

We often follow the same procedure. Beneath the thin veneer of appearance lurk many evil tendencies to which we still defer.

What the Daily News knows about the situation at East Carolina Teachers College is confined to the information gained from published reports. But in these reports, representing auditors' figures and official statements, which include a letter from Governor Broughton, enough has come to light to demand serious investigation and a determined follow-through on the part of those responsible for the operation of the institution and accountable to the people of North Carolina.

In addition to the auditor's report, centering around disposition of funds entrusted to Dr. Leon Meadows, college president, there developed at a trustees' hearing in Raleigh Friday evidence of a split in the faculty and of a "feud" which some spokesmen saw as being back of the current audit.

The Daily News is not disposed to try to prejudice anybody and it is to be kept in mind that Dr. Meadows, who has denied any and all irregularities and given assurance that he can clarify matters in everybody's complete satisfaction, is yet to present his complete clarification by all sides, a full and unbiased presentation and hearing of the evidence and whatever action this full presentation warrants.

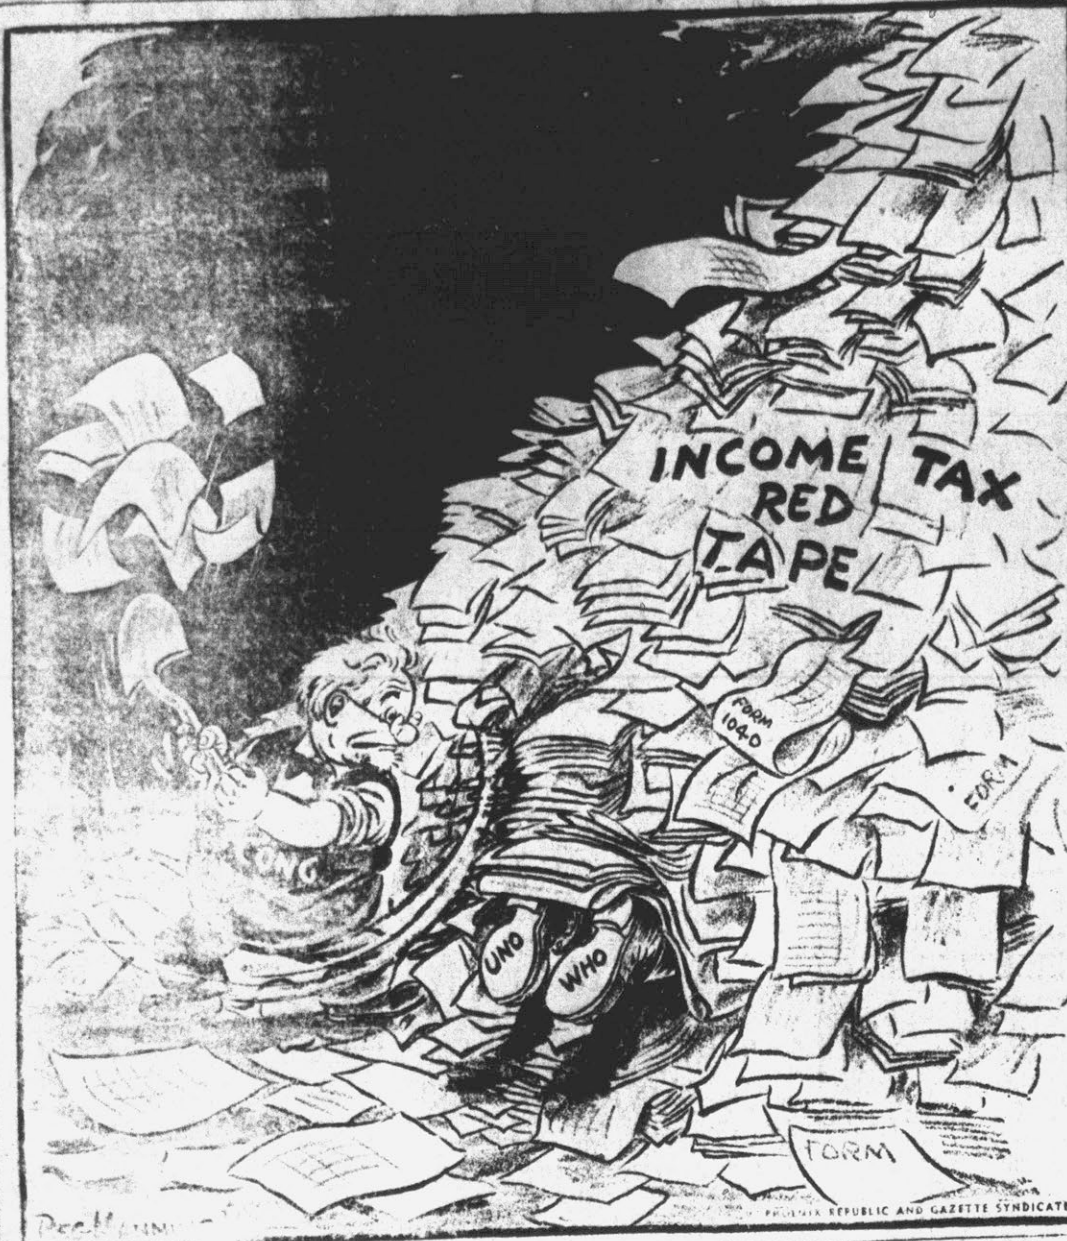

Personal character, the well-roundedness of a state institution and the expenditure of public funds are involved.

Revelations of the auditors' report constitute one matter, while it is of more pressing moment to any faculty split, differences of factionalism constitute another, which can and should be taken care of in due time as it affects the efficient administration and functioning of a major seat in the educational system. Neither matter is to be clarified or settled by demonstrations of feeling as characterized the trustees' meeting which was called to hear about it. Frankly, it is somewhat difficult at this distance to understand why the trustees constitute the jury under prevailing conditions. If irregularities, faculty rowing or what-not occurred at the institution over which they have jurisdiction, especially if the untowardness went on for any time, they also must assume a share of accountability in the public mind.

Negro's Slayer Is Held Without Bond

In Police Court today Judge J. W. H. Roberts found probable cause against Edward Williams, 18-year-old Negro, in connection with the shooting of Sam Junior Clark, 18 Negro, on Railroad street shortly after midnight on March 5. Williams was ordered held for trial in Superior Court.

Williams confessed to Police Chief Herbert Wooten that he shot Clark on an argument over a woman, C. Lee Combs, Negro, 22. After the confession, a coroner's inquest was deemed unnecessary. The woman, who had been held as an accessory, was released.

According to police, Williams shot Clark about 3 o'clock on that Sunday morning and left the scene. Clark's body, still warm, was found by a passerby shortly after daylight, who reported it to police. He had been dead a short time.

Girl Scouts Here Observe Birthday

By CHESTER WALSH Greenville Girl Scouts celebrated the organization's 32nd birthday anniversary with a Court of Review ceremony at Eighth Street Christian church Sunday afternoon. Mrs. E. L. Henderson, Greenville Girl Scout commissioner, gave an outline of Girl Scout history and the great work the young people are doing. She said the increase in national membership is reflected in Greenville, where the first Girl Scout troop was organized in 1929 and now we have a membership of 247 girls. Girl Scouts in Greenville have during the past year given more than 1,600 hours to the "March of Dimes" and War Bond drives, "Poppy Day" sales and the "allege" drives for scrap metal, paper, fats, etc.

The Court of Review program was impressive. Mrs. Henderson welcomed those present. Mrs. J. B. Kittrell explained the value of advancement in Girl Scouting. Mrs. T. L. Major Bruce Snugg discussed the "Challenge to Future Advancement in Girl Scouting" and paid tribute to the patriotic men and women who are behind Girl Scouting in Greenville.

The meeting was inspiring. In spite of bad weather it was apparent that there is renewed interest in scouting among the parents as well as the girls. Girl Scouts are always ready, always faithful, always willing to do their part in community work.

"There is a waiting list of 20 girls who want to be Scouts," Mrs. Henderson said. "All they need to be admitted is the cooperation of more adults who will serve as leaders, advisers and sponsors. We hope that the men and women of Greenville and Pitt county will give the Girl Scouts a birthday present this year—of their interest, help and encouragement."

Winterville Hens On Wartime Basis: Mrs. J. L. Nobles of Winterville has two hens which do not believe in eggings on weight of eggs they lay, according to two of mammoth size she sent to the Reflector office to be exhibited. Each hen laid half-pound eggs. The Banded Rock egg weighs half a pound. Mrs. Nobles expects to find quadruplet yolks when she breaks it. The Buff Orpington egg lacks a fraction of weighing half a pound and the hen's owner predicts that it contains quintuplets. Both hens are doing well and continuing to lay.

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR
March 13, 1904

A few days ago a certain young man living near town, bought himself a nice Sunday pair of shoes. After trying them awhile he concluded that they needed stretching. He asked a friend for advice and was told to fill the shoes with peas and pour hot water on them.

He laced up the shoes and filled them with peas and hot water and put them away to stretch. Sunday morning, upon examination he found his shoes very much swollen and burst all over. He will hardly try peas and hot water for stretching shoes again.—(Chapel Hill News).

Your doctor worries about you!

Long after the rest of the street is dark, a light burns in the doctor's office. It has been a hectic day... every day is during Wartime... That woman on Maple Street is a puzzling case—she was Dr. Henry's patient before Dr. Henry went into the Army... Mrs. Smith's baby is due any day now... So many things to do, and so little time to do them!... And there's that illness of yours, too...

You could never get him to admit it, but your doctor does worry about you—more than you think! Time was when he could sit down leisurely and think your case out. But War has thrust so many new burdens on our already over-worked physicians. Thousands and thousands of them have gone into the armed services, leaving behind more patients for the doctors on the Home Front to care for. There is a shortage of nurses, and our hospitals are filled to overflowing.

Your doctor doesn't complain, for he is a patient man, trained to service. He sacrifices much of his private home life, nearly all of his recreation, too much of his sleep to make and keep your community in good health. And he worries about you!

You can help take the pressure off your physician by making a conscious effort to keep healthy. Many ordinary illnesses can be prevented by following these simple rules: Eat regular meals of nourishing foods that provide plenty of essential vitamins, minerals and proteins. Get eight hours or more sleep every night. Dress sensibly, to avoid illness from exposure. Get outdoors part of every day for sunshine and sensible exercise. Avoid worry.

That's not a great deal to ask, is it? After all, in Wartime especially, keeping healthy is a duty you owe to your doctor, your Country, and yourself!

West To Get ...

(Continued From Page One) western and far western curtailment is ordered, it probably will be placed in effect by extending each series of "A" coupons to last three months instead of the present two months, officials said. It was acknowledged that only a small savings in gasoline would be accomplished. PAW Administrator Harold L. Ickes long has cherished the idea of putting rations on an equal basis over the nation.

PAW officials said the Atlantic coast allotment for the second quarter probably would provide as much gasoline for passenger car drivers as the allotment for the present quarter. To take care of the seasonal increase in farm and industrial consumption, the total civilian supply may be boosted from 372,000 barrels to around 400,000 barrels for the area.

The agricultural mid-west will require an even larger proportion of increase because of the greater extent of agricultural activity. Gasoline consumption in the middle west may rise by 15 per cent or more.

Getting Ready to Leave Stockholm, March 12—(AP)—The secret Lithuanian radio reported today that the Germans were closing down the armament industry at Riga, threatened by the Red army's advance toward the Baltic States.

Coal Strike Ends Sydney, Australia, March 13—(AP)—The strike of coal miners on the south coast of New South Wales has ended and the men will return to work tomorrow, it was announced today.

Nazi Commanders Ousted London, March 13—(AP)—Two German commanders on the Russian front—Field Marshal Eberhard Von Kluge, commander-in-chief of the center, and Field Marshal Georg Von Keuchler on the extreme northern flank—have been permanently relieved and replaced by commanders who are strong Nazis and not from the Junkers' general's caste, a usually reliable informant said today.

British Miners Return To Work

London, March 13—(AP)—Approximately 50,000 of Britain's striking coal miners returned to the pits today in response to appeals from union leaders, but at least 40,000 refused to return to work until the government meets all their wage demands.

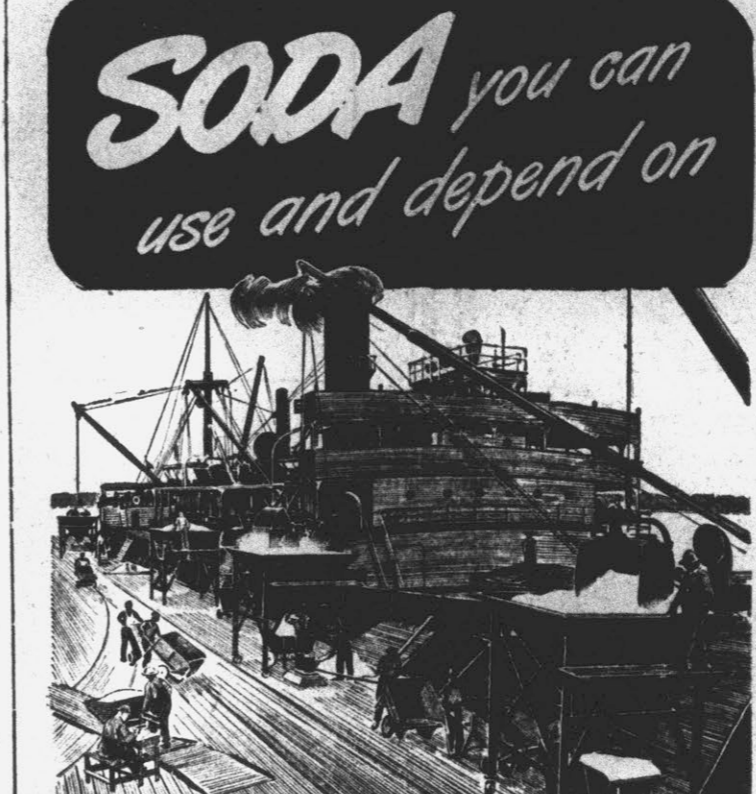

The back-to-work movement, which followed a split vote yesterday on the question of continuing the strike, enabled most of the idle mines in North Wales and Scotland to resume operations and their output was expected to be normal by tomorrow.

Air Raid Casualties London, March 13—(AP)—Air raids against the United Kingdom last month left 961 persons dead or missing and believed dead, the Ministry of Home Security announced today, while 1,712 were injured. The deaths compare with 252 in February 1943 and 109 in January 1944.

SODA you can use and depend on

SHIPS RETURNING from other missions, are bringing natural soda from Chile—for this year's biggest of all food production jobs. It is soda you know all about—can store and handle easily—can depend on for top and side dressing. How much will there be? That's hard to say, but last year Chile sent 1,000,000 tons to U. S. farmers and think what that would mean this year.

● Properly applied, 1,000,000 tons of Chilean Nitrate would produce 250,000,000 bu. of oats or 100,000,000 bu. of wheat 125,000,000 bu. of corn or 4,800,000 tons of forage crops; 6,000,000 tons of vegetables or 2,500,000 bales of cotton and 1,100,000 tons of cotton seed.

Natural Chilean Nitrate, always a big factor in food production, is absolutely vital this year—enough and in time for all essential needs.

Women IN THE CHURCH

by Mary Fowler

The Woman's Zionist Organization of America recently cabled an additional gift of $100,000 to Miss Henrietta Szold, founder and head of the youth immigration bureau of the Jewish Agency for Palestine, with headquarters in Jerusalem.

During the past ten years this group, under Miss Szold, has rescued 10,000 Jewish boys and girls from Europe and settled them in Palestine. More than 700 American communities have contributed $4,000,000 to this work which contains 100 agricultural cooperatives, small holdings, and institutions for training refugee children. Miss Szold, although 83 years of age, is active in the management of the colony.

Miss Marguerite Everham, M. D., a Baptist missionary, has for years been in charge of the Kiyang Free Loper Clinics, conducted jointly by the Chinese government and the Bixby Memorial General Hospital, some 35 miles from Swatow, China. One of these clinics was connected with the government poor house. The clinics gave 150 injections a week for leprosy and healed or arrested many cases. But the hospital and clinics have been on "the razor-edge of Japanese-occupied territory" and when they were bombed out the clinical service was moved to a former temple five miles away. Dr. Everham and a Chinese Christian doctor still carry on despite the nearness of the enemy and the uncertainty of the future.

Miss Garnet Mabel Everley of Hutchinson, Kas., missionary of the Methodist Church in Muttra, India, is the leader and supervisor of a group of Indian school girls who have been helping maintain the morale of some thousands of American Negro and white soldiers in India. Miss Everley has helped organize the mission school girls into a mixed choir, a girls' chorus, and an Indian-instrument orchestra.
