New Air Assaults On Nazis Today

Berlin Said American Bombers Roaring Over Southwestern Germany At Noon; Today's Sweeps Followed American and RAF Blows Yesterday and Last Night

By W. W. HERCHER
London, March 18.—(AP)—Hundred of American and British planes were thrown against the continent in an aerial offensive renewed with force today, and Berlin broadcasts said strong American bomber formations were roaring over southwestern Germany at noon.

The daylight forays followed night blows by Mosquitos of the RAF against unnamed targets in western Germany.

The Berlin broadcasts said the American bombers were escorted by fighters and were engaged in violent battle by strong forces of the German air defense.

Running air battles continued across France and into Germany, the broadcast said.

An air raid alert was sounded in Basel, Switzerland, as the American heavy bombers dived on eastward.

Coastal watchers said some of the bomber formations leaving Britain required nearly an hour to cross the coast.

The procession of daylight attackers was joined shortly after by fighter planes, streaking out in force toward Boulogne on the bombers' flank.

Today's bomber and fighter forays followed up far-flung blows yesterday in which Italy-based American heavy bombers made the trip over the Alps and loosed heavy explosives on Vienna, an old Austria, and Britain-based bombers resumed the attacks against communications in France and Holland.

The German-controlled Vichy radio claimed that 22 bombers and 12 fighters were lost in the Vienna attack, adding that "many planes were believed to have crashed in snowdrifts over the Alps." U. S. headquarters did not immediately specify the number of planes falling to return, but Allied headquarters at Naples said 11 planes were lost in all operations of the Mediterranean air force yesterday.

The Paris radio said 25 persons were killed and 30 wounded in a "British-American" attack yesterday on Oise. It referred apparently to the American Marauders blow against the rail center of Cherbourg, 30 miles north of Paris.

Hopes This Year Is Decisive One

London, March 18.—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill expressed the hope today that the war in nearly every theater would reach "decisive stages" this year.

In a message to the "salute the soldier" fund campaign the Prime Minister said:

"During this year the men in the British armies will be engaged in nearly every theater of war throughout the world and in what we hope may prove to be the decisive stages in this great conflict."

The political trend among his people now is to kick him out once more and reestablish the republic. When they called him back in 1933 he had a chance to rebuild the glories of his throne, but he soon allowed the late General Metaxas to set up a dictatorship and take over the government.

Now the Greeks throughout history have hated dictators, but they would have forgiven George if he had disavowed the dictatorship when Metaxas died in 1941, and had taken over the active leadership of his people. All he had to do was mount a white charger and ride through Athens with a sword at his side and he would have been the hero of the people.

But George didn't. He never has been a forceful person. His mother-in-law, the late Queen Marie of Rumania, discovered that when she did her utmost to get him back on his throne during his long exile prior to 1935. She knew then that if he would take the initiative he could regain his crown.

Well, the Greek political parties, including the Royalists, have asked King George not to return to Greece until after they have had a plebiscite to decide what government they want. Unless he acquires that white charger complex, his chances are small.

The plight of young King Peter of Yugoslavia is equally serious. When I was in that country not long before the war, the people were happy in the belief that their school-boy heir to the throne had the makings of a great king—and he did. But since the war he has encountered (Continued on page two)

AWAIT ANSWER FROM MOSCOW

Finland Clings To Hope For Peace Settlement

By EDWIN SHANKS
Helsinki, March 18.—(AP)—Finnish political quarters today still cling to the hope—admittedly very faint—of rescuing the peace negotiations with Russia, despite general pessimism here following parliament's action Wednesday.

Recognizing that time is running out fast, these sources said Finland still wants to negotiate an armistice, but at the same time felt she ought to have an opportunity to get a more precise idea of the terms before going to the Kremlin.

These quarters said it is quite likely that this is the essence of Finland's new reply to Moscow, which reportedly has now been delivered.

(A Stockholm dispatch said yesterday that the answer was delivered at the Russian legation in Stockholm. The Finnish parliament previously was reported with confirmation, to have flatly rejected Russia's peace terms by a 100-40 vote on Wednesday.)

In her first note to Moscow, Finland asked for more detailed information on Russia's six armistice conditions, especially the one regarding the internment of the German troops now in Finland.

One high Finnish source said acceptance of the terms as they stood now would be like entering a blind alley without knowing what is going on.

Do It Now

If Greenville is to be assured of further consideration as a location for a plant to manufacture ladies' lingerie, it is necessary that all white women interested in employment as electric sewing machine operators, make their applications now.

Officials of the company desiring to establish this plant in Greenville, have requested a report by Monday on the number of applications received, and while the response has been encouraging, many more applications are needed as this company plans to employ several hundred.

All white women interested in considering employment in this plant, which the owners state will be modern in every respect, and for which employees will be paid while learning, should get their applications in immediately either to the U. S. Employment Service at 221, East 5th street or the Chamber of Commerce in Greenville, stated Secretary Kzyer.

At the southern end of the battle line, the communists said the Russian continued to move in on the Black Sea port of Nikolaev, already hemmed in from three sides by seizing the town of Ingulka, 15 miles northeast of the city, and Novopolotskoye, 20 miles north.

Russian forces also captured Sidava on the outskirts of Zherinka, a rail junction on the Odessa-Lwow line, the bulletin said. The Odessa-Lwow line has already been cut by the Red army in areas north and west and southeast of Zherinka, which is south of Vinitsa.

The Russians gained control of a 32-mile sector of the Odessa-Zherinka line, by seizing the district center of Peschana, 16 miles beyond it, and the towns of Bratslav, 33 miles southeast of Vinitsa, and Krizhopol, a station on the rail line, the communists said.

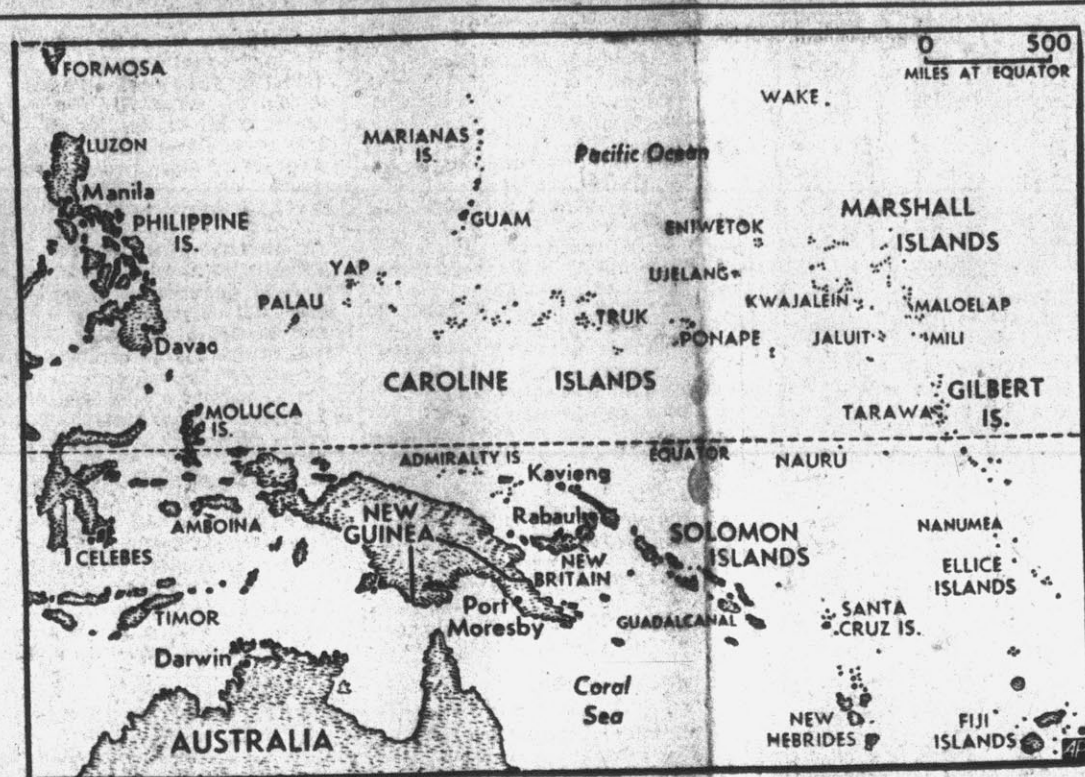

On March 6, twenty-four hours after the first glider landings, Brig. Gen. William D. Olds, American commander of the troop carrier command, landed the first transport on the new field. Martin reported that transports carrying equipment and men were landing and taking off every 47 seconds in the clockwork schedule worked out to garrison the behind-the-lines of defense.

All the Japanese river, rail and road lines linking their northern and southern forces are directly menaced by the new operation, which is still being expanded.

Workers Discharged

Congress Gives Green Light To New Tax Bill
Washington, March 18.—(AP)—Swift enactment was predicted today for a new "streamlined" tax bill which would free approximately 30,000,000 persons from the filing of income tax returns while making few changes in individual tax burdens.

American Airmen Blast Stepping Stones To Tokyo

This Pacific area map shows the Jap island strongholds which may serve as stepping stones in the United Nations' march toward Tokyo. Japan's Caroline Islands, touched by American bombers until mid-January, now have been raised to 27 times in a gathering air offensive which already has proved the vulnerability of Truk and virtually wiped out the military town of Ponape. Truk has been raised three times, counting as two the successive strikes of carrier planes February 16 and 17. Kure, the first Caroline base to be hit last January 17, has been attacked 16 times. Ponape 13, Oroluk three, and Pingelap twice. A press release yesterday by Adm. Chester W. Nimitz told of the third raid on Oroluk and the second raid on Pingelap Wednesday by navy search planes.

Americans Capture Airdrome on Manus Island

Allied Headquarters, Southwest Pacific, March 18.—(AP)—The American drive on Manus island in the Admiralties has overrun Lorenzetti's airdrome and is cracking the Japanese defenses around the town itself, Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced today.

Invasion units of the first cavalry division took the airdrome on Thursday, day after they landed on Manus from nearby Los Negros island which the troops already had captured. Then they knocked down enemy pillbox defenses with mortar fire and tanks to push southward within 600 yards of Lorenzetti's outposts.

Pitt Native To Oppose Tydings

Willis R. Jones of Baltimore, a former deputy attorney general of Maryland and formerly head of the Maryland Department of Correction, a native of Pitt County, has filed as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the United States Senate from Maryland. Senator N. S. Tydings is the present incumbent. In announcing Mr. Jones declared that he favors a fourth term for President Roosevelt.

Mr. Jones was born near Bethel, He is prominently connected in Eastern Carolina. He is a brother of Dr. Paul E. Jones of Farmville, chairman of the Pitt County Democratic Committee and has numerous other relatives in this county.

Mr. Jones has three sons in the armed forces. "As their father," he said in making his announcement, "and as one who loves freedom and humanity and who hates war and oppression, I share with our armed forces and their loved ones on the home front, the fervent hope that the pending conflict may be brought to a victorious ending at the earliest possible time."

House Ways and Means Committee Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) and Rep. Carlson (R-Kan.), committee members, described the bill as "a wonderful job." and Chairman George (D-Ga.) of the Senate Finance Committee said the senate would act "within 10 days after the measure comes from the house."

The house committee brewed its balm for taxpayers just two weeks after the historic "veto" battle over the second wartime revenue measure.

Doughton said the streamliner made no substantial changes in present burdens for taxpayers—that "nobody will be hurt much, or helped much," as to the size of their tax liability. However, some taxpayers, notably married persons without children, would pay more while couples with more than one child would pay a little less.

It was estimated the plan would bring in some 150,000 new taxpayers, whose incomes are between $555 and $224 annually, and that the effects of the new exemptions and rates would be to funnel about $20,000,000 more annually into the treasury.

The streamliner makes no change in the requirement that tax estimates and partial payments be made by this April 15 on 1944 income.

Russians Smash Toward Old Border Of Rumania

Tanks, Cavalry and Infantry Strike Through Valley Toward Bessarabia; Activity On Finnish Front

London, March 18.—(AP)—Russian army forces have rolled to within 70 miles of strategic Lwow in a new westward plunge through old Poland, Moscow announced today, while Turkish dispatches reported a heading flight of civilians from the pre-war Rumanian border as other Soviet troops thrust steadily toward the Danubian river.

In old Poland, the Russians topped the German stronghold of Dubno and advanced to Demidovka, 18 miles beyond and 42 miles from the pre-war frontier.

In the advance toward Rumania Soviet spearheads ripped through tottering German defenses southeast of Vinitsa, the Soviet communists said, and captured the towns of Klembovka and Oshanka, both 11 miles from the Danubian, which borders Bessarabia.

Dubno, to the north, fell to a flanking attack by Marshal Gregory K. Zhukov's troops against the German forces attempting to hold the upper end of the southern Ukraine corridor where Field Marshal Fritz von Manstein's divisions are steadily being hammered backward out of Russia.

Zhukov's drive threatened to neutralize the grim German defense at Tarnopol and Proskurov, by outflanking the Nazi forces.

Tass news agency quoted a Stockholm dispatch as saying the Germans have shut down all of Lwow's factories, and are evacuating their machinery and equipment to Cracow.

At the southern end of the battle line, the communists said the Russian continued to move in on the Black Sea port of Nikolaev, already hemmed in from three sides by seizing the town of Ingulka, 15 miles northeast of the city, and Novopolotskoye, 20 miles north.

Allied Airmen Open New Attacks On Nazi Defenses

TROUBLE FOR JAPS IN BURMA

Surprise Offensive Developed Behind Jap Lines

New Delhi, March 18.—(AP)—British and Indian airborne commands landed by American glider and transport planes are developing a surprise offensive from two hastily built airstrips southeast of Myittha in northern Burma. Associated Press War Correspondent Frank L. Martin reported today from forward headquarters.

The Allied offensive pocket is approximately 100 miles south of Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's Chinese-American columns in the Hukawng valley. It is far behind the Japanese lines, and is a direct threat to the main Japanese north-south communications system in Burma.

Maps indicate the new Allied force has carved out a position on more than 20 miles from the southwestern China border, 240 miles northeast of Mandalay.

A spokesman for the southeast Asia command here said the air invasion, which began the night of March 5, caught the enemy napping. Eight days passed before the Japanese worked up to the fact that the strong Allied offensive force was in the middle of their vulnerable north central Burma dispositions.

Their first air attack on the airfields, which airborne American engineers hacked out of the jungles, was frustrated on March 13.

Spitfires then operating from the new airstrips drove off the enemy planes, shooting down five.

During the period, when transport planes were shuttling back and forth with troops to reinforce the initial glider-landed force, fighters and fighter-bombers caught a heavy force of Japanese aircraft sitting on their airfield nearest the site of the landings, and destroyed 32 enemy aircraft. This operation further blunted the ability of the Japanese to counter the surprise airborne invasion.

On March 6, twenty-four hours after the first glider landings, Brig. Gen. William D. Olds, American commander of the troop carrier command, landed the first transport on the new field. Martin reported that transports carrying equipment and men were landing and taking off every 47 seconds in the clockwork schedule worked out to garrison the behind-the-lines of defense.

Wave After Wave Of Bombers Smash At Germans On Rome Bridgehead; Allied Forces Extend Positions In Fighting at Cassino; Railway Station Taken

By GEORGE TUCKER
With the Fifth Army at the Anzio Beachhead, March 18.—(AP)—Wave after wave of Allied bombers struck at German defenses ringing the beachhead below Rome this morning.

The first waves to roar over Anzio were barely perceptible in the early morning light as they broke out of the clouds hanging over the harbor and dumped their bombs on the German lines just a few miles away.

The return of Allied bombers to this area lifted morale on the entire beachhead, since the Germans for the third night in a row had stepped up their own air activities, keeping troops in foxholes and shelters.

The Germans apparently were making a determined night effort to knock out key installations. The enemy planes were led into the target area by determined "pathfinders."

The German raiders made more than 30 passes at the port after the flares were dropped before unloading their bombs.

By RICHARD G. MASSOCK
Allied Headquarters, Naples, Mar. 18.—(AP)—Allied troops are driving the Germans from one strong point after another in the southwest corner of devastated Cassino and the rugged hills extending from the town to the monastery above, headquarters announced today.

The Germans continued to hold out in the corner of the town against a closely coordinated Allied infantry attack. The attack, which was the first since the town was taken, was one of the most important in the German counter-attack. Indian troops, however, firmly held two others which they had captured.

New Zealanders and Indians were reducing one by one the German positions in Cassino's rubble and (Continued on page four)

PEACE TERMS FOR RUMANIA

Seven-Point Armistice Plan Reported Presented

Bern, March 18.—(AP)—The Journal de Geneve, quoting an unidentified diplomat, said today the Allies had presented seven conditions of armistice for Rumania to Prince Barbu Stirbey, Rumanian politician including the return of Bessarabia and Northern Bucovina to Russia.

By this same restoration of the 1940 frontiers, the northern branch of the Danube would be returned to the U. S. S. R. and a joint Russian-Rumanian commission would be established to the control of the river's mouth, replacing the prewar European control commissions.

The other five conditions: Rumania would undertake withdrawal in a specified period to free all of (Continued on page four)

WHAT'S TO HAPPEN TO COLORED WORKERS
Babson Urges Them To Save Money
Babson Park, Fla., March 18.—I am writing to the several million of colored people in this country. Moreover, I do so as a friend—one who has contributed money and time to help them.

America's Greatest Wasters
The way you are foolishly spending money today is a shame and disgrace. Not only are most of you now wasting money, but you are almost convincing your friends that you are unworthy to have good wages. You are showing an utter disregard of any knowledge of finances or economics.

Present high wages cannot continue. Many of you will be out of employment after the war. Millions of war workers will be discharged and—although it will be unjust—you will be discharged first.

Therefore, you should save up money now to help you in these hard days ahead. Most white workers are now doing this.

Why So Lazy?
Some of you foolishly refuse to work if you have a little cash in your pockets. This applies to great strong men and women as well as to your young people. Too many of you seem to have no regard for the needs of the country in this crucial hour. You are citizens as well as the white workers. You claim you are not treated right. I do not agree to this; but if it is true, it is because so many of you are lazy and wasteful.

I am writing this in the south where I have worked with colored people for 20 winters. I have taught for you and got you out of jail when the sheriff unjustly arrested you. I know your good points and weak points; but I never before saw you in the way, wasteful and saucy in the way that some of you put on today. From letters which I get, I fear you are behaving worse in the north than you are here in the south.

Don't Depend Upon Aunt Eleanor
Many of you say, "Aunt Eleanor will take care of me after the war." Perhaps Aunt Eleanor will not be the President's wife after the war. President Roosevelt may not be re-elected. Besides, even Mrs. Roosevelt is getting out of patience with you. She is beginning to wonder if she may not have made a mistake in praising you as she did. It is true that white workers strike when they shouldn't, but they are not lazy nor do they throw away money.

Does it ever occur to you what would happen to our country if all the people—white and colored—acted as so many of you colored people act? We would lose the war and we all, including you, would be slaves of the Germans. You should be ashamed of any point of view.

Therefore, as a friend, I beg of you all to get all the work you can get; work as faithfully as you can; and save, save, save!

A True Story
Let me prove that colored boys have just as good an opportunity (Continued on page two)

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

STANDARDS WHICH LAST
Matthew Arnold, the great English poet, tells how one day in a small little English village where everything seemed to drive a man's spirit in upon itself and fill him with despair, he met a preacher to whom he addressed the question, "How fare you in this scene?" "Bravely!" said he, "for I of late have been much cheered with thoughts of Christ the living bread."

Arnold's observation is that so long as a human soul can set up a mark of everlasting light above the ebb and flow of circumstances, that person has not failed in vain.

"Not with lost toil Thou laborest through the night!"
Thou mak'st the heaven, Thou hast indeed my own."
We are overwhelmed not by circumstances but by that lack of inner resourcefulness which enables us to handle our circumstances. Living is not so much a matter of good fortune as it is of right attitude. We usually achieve not because we are brilliant but because we are faithful. True success comes to those who can set up in their lives everlasting standards which will survive the ebb and flow of the tides.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

Washington—The death rate in Congress is becoming alarming. Since the 78th Congress convened a little more than a year ago, ten congressmen and three senators have died.

According to Dr. George W. Calver, Capitol medical officer, that's only half the story. The incidence of illness has soared in the past year. Some is due to the prevalence of influenza this winter, but not all. And Dr. Calver points out that the recovery period of most members of Congress is alarmingly long.

The only conclusion that can be drawn is that Congress is run down. Congress has been in almost continuous session for more than five years. So-called "vacations" have been occupied mostly with fence-mending and campaigning, which in most instances are far more strenuous than work-filled days on the Hill. Those who have had periods of thorough relaxation have been forced to take them on orders from Dr. Calver or their own personal physician. Dr. Calver says the toughest job he has to do is to make members agree to rest, even after he has convinced them that a physical crack-up is coming if they don't.

"You would be surprised what a good rest will do, even when it's enforced by a major operation," he says. "I dropped in today to see Congressman Robert Ransack of Georgia. About two weeks ago, he had an operation for acute appendicitis. He had to rest and he looks better now than he has in a year."

Although I have been unable to find any year-to-year record of the death rate in Congress, the old-timers tell me that the only year comparable to the present one is 1931, when depression worries were taking a terrific toll.

It was just before that that Speaker Nicholas Longworth made his classic observation: "Only the undertaker knows who will organize the next house."

Longworth didn't live to see the outcome of his prophecy. His death was the first of a series that gave control of the House pass, because of a majority of deaths in Republican ranks, to the Democrats.

There is little likelihood of that now. Of the ten deaths of House members of the present Congress, five have been Democrats and five Republicans, so the Democrats still hold their numerical edge of six members.

ferences for the best interests of a nation at war.
So if you hear that your congressman or senator is taking a little "vacation" in the months to come, don't criticize. The chances are he has been ordered to do so by Dr. Calver so that he will be able to serve better when he gets back on the job.

to succeed as white boys. A few years ago Webster College at Babson Park, Fla., employed colored boys in the kitchen. Among them was one named James Paul Goss. The dean noticed that whereas all the others went to the movies or shot craps in the evening James practiced for hours to learn typing. When the summer vacation came, he begged me to take him north and get him a job in an office. This I did. It was James' first opportunity.

James did so well that I brought him back to Florida in the fall. That winter he typed all my newspaper columns. In March, 1942, he was drafted. One day an officer asked if anyone of the men could type. James held up his hand. Then he was given his second opportunity. He has not held a gun since.

"It is a pleasure for me to comply with the recommendation of our Ministerial Association which has just met this morning that a letter of commendation be sent to the Christian Youth Movement for the most splendid work you are all doing."

"After the most splendid service last evening at the Memorial Baptist Church we are more conscious than ever of the most excellent contribution you are making to the Christian cause in our city and community. As ministers, we want you to know that we deeply appreciate your many efforts to uphold the cause of Christ here in Greenville."

"In discussion it was suggested that if your organization deemed it advisable it might be well to have your public meetings more often than once in every three months. This is not an effort on our part to tell you what to do, it is only to say that we highly appreciate your fine service and if it is agreeable with your council to have more services during the year it would be quite agreeable to us."

"We welcome your suggestions at any time."
"With best wishes, we are,
"Sincerely yours,
"Greenville Ministerial Association."

Blane-Flanagan.
Mr. and Mrs. John Flanagan announce the marriage of their daughter Josephine Skinner to

Victor Bernard Blane, Lieutenant, United States Marine Corps Reserve on Friday, the seventeenth of March nineteen hundred and forty-four Saint Paul's Episcopal Church Greenville, North Carolina

No announcements sent in town.

A wedding characterized by its simplicity and dignity was solemnized in Saint Paul's Episcopal Church Friday evening at six o'clock when Miss Josephine Skinner Flanagan and Lieutenant Victor Bernard Blane were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by Reverend Colgate Daugherty, rector of Saint Paul's.

Seven-branched candelabra with burning tapers against a background of greenery with vases of white flowers formed a lovely setting for the impressive ceremony. "Serenade" by Schubert; "Ave Maria" and "Venetian Love Song" were among the selections rendered by Mrs. R. A. Tyson, organist, prior to the ceremony.

Just before the entrance of the bride party, "Oh, Perfect Love" by Barnby, was sung by Miss Louise Kille.

The traditional Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin was used as a processional and Mendelssohn's Wedding March as a recessional. Acting as ushers were Lieutenant Ward Butler of Columbus, Ohio, and Lieutenant Richard Israel of Washington, D. C., both now stationed at the Greenville Marine Air Base.

The bride entered with her father, John Flanagan, and was met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Lieutenant Allen S. Hartshorn of Los Angeles, Calif., also of the Greenville Air Base.

The bride's wedding gown was of white satin and lace. The basque pattern embroidered in pearls and had long close-fitting sleeves. The skirt of white satin ended in a long circular train. The finger-tip veil, worn over the face was of illusion fastened to a bandeau of lace and finished on each side with bunches of pearl orange blossoms. The bride carried an arm bouquet of white roses and orchids showered with white freesias.

Miss Anne Skinner, maid of honor, wore a floor length gown of sheer aqua. The close-fitting bodice with frilled neck was of aqua lace, the full skirt of tulle in the same color. Her head dress was a Dutch cap of matching tulle. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses tied with red ribbons.

The bridesmaids were Misses Joy Flanagan and Rosemond Hooker Nicholson, cousins of the bride. Their dresses and caps were identical with those of the maid of honor. They carried arm bouquets of yellow roses tied with gold ribbons.

Mrs. Flanagan, mother of the bride, wore a gown of aqua crepe embroidered in black sequins with corsages of pink roses.

Mrs. Blane is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Flanagan; a granddaughter of Mrs. Edward O. Flanagan and the late Colonel Flanagan, and of Mrs. W. Iverson Skinner and the late Mr. Skinner, all of Greenville. She is a graduate of Greenville High School and attended Saint Mary's School, Raleigh, and East Carolina Teachers College in Greenville.

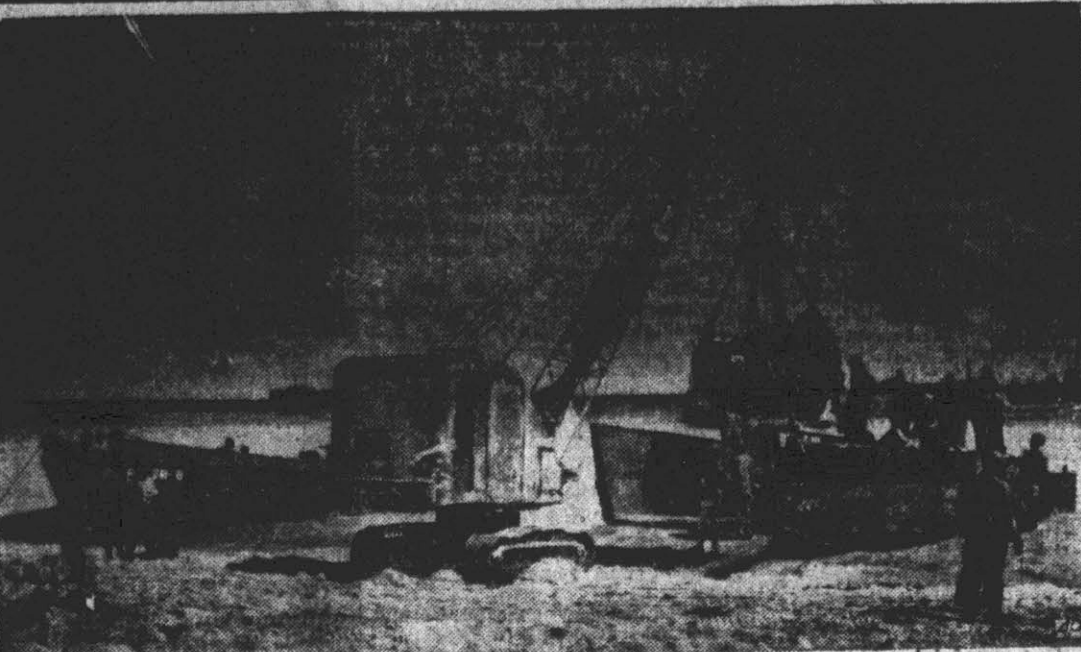

Lieutenant Blane is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor G. Blane of Pasadena, Calif. He received his education at Pasadena Junior College and Stanford University and is now stationed at the Greenville Marine Air Base.

For traveling Mrs. Blane chose a suit of gray-blue wool with matching hat, using black accessories to complete her costume. She wore an orchid from her bridal bouquet. After a brief wedding trip Lieutenant and Mrs. Blane will be at home in Greenville.

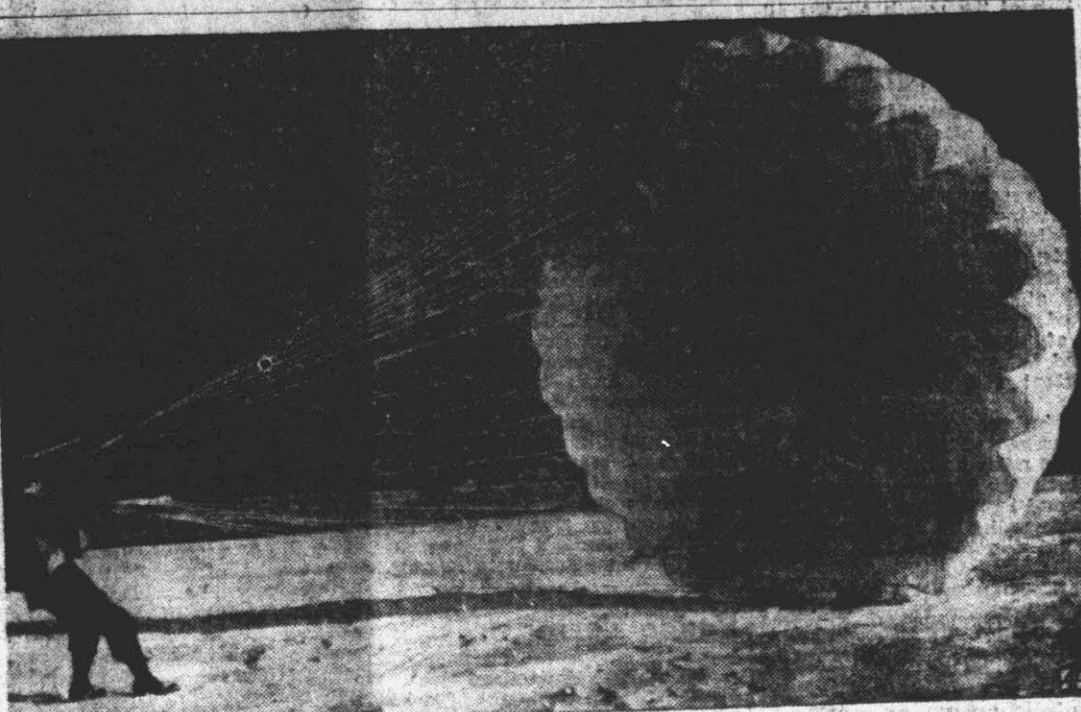

Honoring Lieut. and Mrs. Blane and their wedding party, Mr. and Mrs. John Flanagan entertained at their home on Pitt street at an informal buffet supper immediately following the ceremony.

Their guests included the wedding party, families, officers of squadron 343 and out-of-town guests.

Upon arrival guests were greeted by Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hooker and received in the living room by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Smoot, who introduced them to the receiving line composed of Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan, Lieutenant and Mrs. Blane, Lt. (jg) D. H. Telford of Jacksonville, Fla., and members of the wedding party. Carrying out a bridal motif of green and white, lovely roses, carnations and ferns were used in decoration throughout the house, except in the living room, where spring flowers in yellow and rose formed the color motif.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Harrington directed guests to the dining room where they were received by Mr. and Mrs. Graham Flanagan. A delicious buffet supper was served from silver platters by Mrs. Edward G. Flanagan and Mrs. W. Iverson Skinner, Sr., assisted by Misses Jean Harrington, Margaret Jones, Louise Park, Lillian Wooten and Ione Hooker Bradsher. The decorations in the dining room were vases of white flowers, white candles in silver holders and ferns. The dining table was covered with an exquisite cloth of cut work and lace, centered with a silver bowl of white roses, carnations and freesias. Branched candelabra with burning tapers completed the table decoration.

In the rear hall beneath a cluster of white and silver wedding bells was the coffee table, lovely in its appointments of silver, with flowers and lighted tapers. Here coffee was served by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Flanagan, Mr. and Mrs. Iverson Skinner, Jr., of Williamston, assisted by Miss Louise Skinner, Mrs. Ione Bradsher and Miss Iva Shelburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Warren invited the guests into the gift room where they were received by Mrs. Travis Hooker and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Little.

Goodbyes were said by Mr. and Mrs. Hogan Gaskins.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. W. Iverson Skinner of Williamston; Lt. (jg) and Mrs. D. H. Telford of Jacksonville, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skinner of Smithfield; Miss Betty Macchoux of Goldsboro, and Misses Anne Stough and Neva Whitaker of Kinston.

 the 13th of the month for the all-weather bombers, and they made the assaults without loss. In their steady series of operations during March they have hit Berlin twice, Hamburg, Duesseldorf and Frankfurt once and attacked a number of unspecified targets.

The assault on Vienna, second city in greater Germany and the site of many ministries driven from devastated Berlin, was the climax of extensive daylight raids from Italy during which Fortresses also struck at Bellberg in Austria and bombed shipping in the Yugoslav port of Sibenik. Medium bombers blasted Caccina and Monte Pescara. Important rail hubs in northern Italy.

Britain-based American Marauders smashed at the rail center of Creil, 30 miles north of Paris, serving both the German garrison in Paris and installations closer to the Atlantic wall. No Marauders were lost, but two fighters did not return.

U. S. Thunderbolts bombed air fields in northern France and Holland yesterday afternoon. Targets in northern France also were hit by British Mosquitos.

Allied headquarters in Italy did not immediately announce the targets of the Vienna, but it was believed they included railway facilities and port installations on the Danube.

Returning crews said some formations met small numbers of enemy fighters and that extremely heavy flak was encountered over Vienna.

A few German raiders were over the London area last night and bombs hit two hospitals, causing some casualties on the top floors. Some bomb damage also was reported in a southeast coast town.

The Vatican radio announced last night that an anti-aircraft shell exploded in Vatican City yesterday, wounding several workmen.

Russia would not expect war indemnities, but would get restitution of machinery and installations exported by the Rumanians from territory they had occupied. Persons guilty of cruelty to Russians would be extradited to the U. S. S. R. for trial.

The week-long Japanese drive aimed at the Allied airdromes on Empress Augusta Bay flickered out in fighting Tuesday night and Wednesday morning. Fred Hampson, Associated Press war correspondent, said the dawn assault Wednesday cost the enemy 195 dead.

MacArthur said the enemy's formations in the Bougainville fighting had been "dispersed and decimated" and "over 1,000 of his dead lie within our lines alone."

With Allied air and sea control over relief routes, the future appeared bleak for remaining Japanese troops believed concentrated on southern Bougainville.

 the caves in the hillsides. Allied tanks moved into Cassino Thursday night after having been held up by huge craters from Wednesday's tremendous air bombardment.

Only patrol activity was reported on the Anzio beachhead and on the Eighth army front.

The Germans driven into the southwest corner of Cassino were protected by supporting fire from Nazi positions on high ground to the west and southwest of the town. Allied infantry went through a hurricane of mortar fire to engage the Germans in hand-to-hand struggles.

New Zealand troops started an attack toward the railroad station at the southern edge of Cassino shortly before noon yesterday and by 2 p. m. one or two tanks with some infantry were reported in the station.

Allied artillery engaged German tanks and anti-tank artillery nearby. As the New Zealand infantry went forward, fifteen Pöck-Wulfs appeared suddenly and dive-bombed them, but failed to break the attack.

While the whole area trembled under gunfire and bombings from both sides, American engineers threw a bridge over the Rapido river to speed the inflow of infantry and tanks. The Germans threw 18 fighter-bombers against the bridge, but failed to destroy it.

Prisoners said that when the air and artillery bombardment began last Wednesday the Germans in Cassino took refuge in deep shelters they had prepared extensively under the town. Casualties were severe, they said, but the survivors were able to present stern resistance to the Allied ground assault.

On the Anzio beachhead Allied artillery and small arms fire broke up an attempted attack by about one company of Germans near the coast south of Cisterna. Otherwise, except for intermittent artillery fire, the beachhead was quiet.

Nine enemy aircraft were shot down in yesterday's operations and eleven Allied planes were missing.

Violates Ration Banking Rules
 Raleigh, March 18.—W. A. Quinley, of Ayden, has been ordered to stop sale of all rationed processed foods and meats for a period of two weeks and has been placed under an additional suspended suspension until December 31, 1944, for violation of OPA's ration banking regulations.

The suspension order against Quinley was signed yesterday by Chief Hearing Commissioner Daniel L. Reveal Story Of Modern 'Bluebeard'

London, March 18.—(AP)—The Berlin radio said today that a house in a Paris suburb in which bodies of persons believed to be victims of a "Bluebeard" killer have been found contained a death chamber fitted with arc lights and a periscope through which the slayer watched the dying agonies of his women victims.

The Vichy radio asserted Thursday night that a physician, for whom the police are searching throughout France, had been indicted for the murders of some 30 persons.

Karl Schmidt, a German crime reporter, said in the Berlin broadcast that the killer drugged his victims in an ante-chamber, then dragged them into the death room and tied them to rings set into the wall. Schmidt said the killer then watched through a periscope, one end of which was only eight inches from his victim's faces as they struggled.

After they died, he continued, their bodies were dropped through a trapdoor into a trench filled with quicklime.

DNE, the German news agency, said in a dispatch yesterday that line complete skeletons had been recovered from the lime pit and a furnace in the villa.

Asks Change In Wage Formula

Washington, March 18.—(AP)—Chairman Thomas (D-Utah) of the Senate Labor Committee declared today that "the time has come to work out a new formula" for helping wages meet increased living costs.

Thomas asked about a determination in high administration quarters to stick by the "Little Steel Formula" and leave any lifting of wage ceilings to Congress, said: "We can't care who does it. We have to rectify a wrong."

Testimony at recent committee hearings on the plight of white collar and fixed income workers showed, Thomas said, that the Little Steel Formula, which restricts general wage increases to 15 per cent above January 1941 levels, trailed behind the cost of living.

Says Eire Not A Spy Center

New York, March 18.—(AP)—Eire's minister to the United States, Robert Brennan, denies that Axis diplomats are carrying on any successful espionage in Ireland.

"We know," Brennan told a press conference yesterday, "that the German legation has no means of transmitting to Germany any information they may obtain. They have no diplomatic pouch or diplomatic couriers. They have no telephonic communication. They have no wireless transmitter."

"They can communicate only by cable which passes through London. Therefore, they can transmit no message that the British are unwilling to forward... I cannot reconcile that uneasiness of the American government on the question of Axis espionage in Ireland except by saying the American government is grossly misinformed."
