ALLIES MOVE TO PUSH JAPS OUT OF INDIA

Drive Eastward In Effort To Clear Naga Hills Road To Kohima And Manipur Valley; Japs Still Hold Bishampur-Silchar Trail

By CHARLES A. GRUMICH

New Delhi, April 15.—(AP)—An Allied force apparently was moving eastward from Dimapur today in an effort to clear the Naga hills road to Kohima and the Manipur valley of Japanese road blocks.

The road is one of the two jungle communication routes to the threatened Imphal valley of eastern India.

Today's communique from the southeast Asia command said small Japanese parties were still holding fast on the Bishampur-Silchar trail, the other route southeast of Imphal, although the enemy was meeting with heavy casualties in his attempts to choke off this important supply base.

Although progress was reported in clearing the enemy from the road running northwest of Kohima, 60 miles north of Imphal, the communique said no important change had taken place around Kohima itself or in the sectors south and east of Imphal.

Front dispatches yesterday said the Japanese had reached the Bishampur-Silchar trail leading into the Bengal flatlands and Allied communications lines.

The jungle trail leading from Bishampur, 17 miles southwest of Imphal, to Silchar, the terminal of a spur line connecting with the Bengal-Assam railway, is 70 miles long, but nearer 150 miles long for coolies and mulepack parties making the tortuous hike.

Front line dispatches indicated that the Japanese infiltration was small and said that not a dozen casualties had been inflicted on the enemy in the first brush along the trail.

Japanese snipers were still active along Imphal's other outlet, the road through Kohima to Dimapur, but on the Bengal-Assam railway, but the communique said offensive operations against said enemy road blocks on the Kohima-Dimapur stretch of road were making progress.

In this connection, a front line account confirmed previous reports that small Japanese parties at one time did penetrate the outskirts of the defended area of Kohima, but said the enemy party was liquidated. Forty-nine Japanese dead were counted and some prisoners taken. The rest withdrew into the hills to the northeast.

ADMIRAL KING PROMISES NEW BLOWS ON JAPS

Declares Japan Cannot Hope To Make Up Naval And Shipping Losses She Has Already Suffered

Washington, April 15.—(AP)—Japan's war fleet is already damaged "so that she can never hope to make up losses" and heavy new blows at it may be expected in the "next few months," Admiral Ernest J. King, navy commander in chief, declared today.

"We are seeking opportunities to strike whenever we can get within range of their warships or bases," he said, "and I think you will find, within the next few months to come, that we shall create these opportunities."

As examples he cited recent successful attacks on Palau, Yap and Woleai islands in the South Pacific Caroline Islands, once vaunted strongholds of the enemy, where further damage was inflicted upon the battered enemy fleet that consistently avoids engagements, then added:

"We have reduced Japan's merchant fleet to not more than two-thirds of what it was when we were attacked. We have sunk well over 2,000,000 tons of her cargo tonnage, and have so seriously damaged her fleet of warships that she can never hope to make up losses by building new fighting ships or repairing those that we have damaged."

"To date, we have sunk, probably sunk or damaged by submarine action at least 600 Japanese merchant vessels."

"We cannot stand such a rate of loss for any length of time and keep her empire together. The dissolution of that empire, of course, is one of the primary objectives of this war."

Such dissolution of the Japanese empire, he told the graduating class of the Federal Bureau of Investigation's Police Academy, is the minimum requirement for victory in the Pacific.

He described Japanese reasoning as holding that by retaining possession of the "inner portion" of seized territory, Japan has "won the war," and continued:

"The outer ring of islands which they occupy serves chiefly as their fighting front. Through their persistence in holding these islands they hope to make our advance so costly that we will give up the effort to break into their inner defense."

"But whatever the cost, we know that we cannot regard victory in the Pacific as anything short of the dissolution of the Japanese empire as a military power. To accomplish this objective we must deliver the heaviest attacks which we are capable, as frequently as we are able, where they will hurt the most."

Many Americans In Switzerland

Bern, April 15.—(AP)—One hundred and thirty Americans, comprising the crews of 12 bombers which landed in Switzerland and of another bomber which arrived today at the mountain resort of Adelboden for internment.

The Swiss shot down the one bomber which they said failed to respond to landing signals Thursday, when the U. S. air force attacked nine targets in Germany and occupied Europe.

The entire crew, however, parachuted to safety, the plane falling near the village of Siedenen, south of Zurich. Three of the men, slightly injured, were hospitalized.

There are now approximately 400 uniformed American internees at Adelboden, and nearly 100 others who escaped from Germany at the city of Klostern. Those who escaped into Switzerland were civilian apprentices. Seventeen American fliers are now buried in Switzerland, 13 of whom died in crashes last fall, and four of injuries sustained in combat over Germany.

The internees get board and room and $15 monthly, plus use of a credit system for purchases of such items as clothing and cigarettes. Those escaping from Germany draw full pay.

Invasion Rumor.—London, April 15.—(AP)—The Daily Mail in a Madrid dispatch said today that a three-hour general invasion alert had sounded on Wednesday night along the British coast of France.

"Coastal batteries over a stretch of miles blasted away with a number of armored units moved out of their re-ammunitions," the dispatch said.

Bank Statements.—Washington, April 15.—(AP)—The comptroller of the currency today issued a call for a statement of the condition of all national banks at the close of business Thursday, April 13.

Raleigh, April 14.—(AP)—Commissioner of banks, Gurney P. Hood, today issued a call to all state banks in North Carolina for a report of condition at the close of business on Thursday, April 13.

Allied Gains In Pacific; Jap Isles Blasted Again

Australians Capture Gateway to Madang In New Guinea

Allied Headquarters, Southwest Pacific, April 15.—(AP)—The new swift, now slow Allied push along the coast, and mountain-trail route of north New Guinea toward the distant Philippines has forced the Japanese out of Bogadim, 18 miles south of Madang.

The unopposed occupation Thursday of Bogadim, on Astrolabe bay and linked with Madang by a fine highway, was announced today.

Its investment by Australian soldiers occurred on the same day that Liberators raked Newak, 200 miles up the coast, with 250 tons of bombs in another of those sea-saw punches which have littered the shoreline for 500 miles between Madang and Hollandia with wrecked airfields and supplies.

Patrols of the Aussie force which overran Bogadim, seizing abandoned equipment, now are probing enemy outposts before Madang along the road that Chinese coolies were forced to build for Nippon's warriors when the enemy held hopes of converting the Ramu valley into air bases.

Several days ago, American forces advancing from Sador on the coastal approach to Bogadim made a juncture with the inland Aussies. (Continued on page two)

Airmen Making Daily Attacks Against Japanese Outposts

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, April 15.—(AP)—Aerial blows at Japan's island outposts from the north Pacific to the tropics have been stepped up to daily frequencies by aircraft under Adm. Chester W. Nimitz command.

Four attacks Thursday on the Kurile island chain branching to the northeast off Japan were reported by Nimitz last yesterday, for a total of 13 raids on the enemy's farthest north strongpoints in four successive days.

On the same day Ponape, the enemy base 440 miles east of Truk in the Caroline islands, and Uluk, Palau and Kusaie islands in the eastern part of the Caroline group, also were hit. It was the 13th daily hammering this month for Ponape.

In an earlier announcement yesterday Nimitz told of an attack on Truk by seventh army air force Liberators Wednesday night, giving the base one of its heaviest aerial drubbings of the war. Five islands of the atoll were pounded in this 20th assault of the campaign on Truk, the bombers meeting no air interception and only light ack.

On both days, the remaining four atolls in the line in the Marshall islands were blasted and peppered. (Continued on page two)

Postwar Employment Opportunities Babson Prefers Merchandising Enterprises

Babson Park, Massachusetts, April 15.—Many letters come to me from men in the service and from their families asking as to what lines of business should offer the best opportunities after the war. Personally, I prefer the merchandising group, which includes everything from the small retailer who lives over his store and employs only his family to the great distributing concerns such as Sears Roebuck and Montgomery Ward. It is impossible for anyone to make a profit on inflation, but good merchandising should suffer least from inflation as their stocks of goods are constantly becoming more valuable. Merchandisers can usually pass along taxes and quickly adjust themselves to changing conditions.

How To Select An Employer.—It takes a little capital and patience to operate a retail store or a good executive position in a chain store organization or even in a department store. Hence, most men wind up by getting connected with some special industry or manufacturing concern. The question is as to which industry has the greater opportunities and which pays the largest salaries and highest wages. Following will be found a list of the leading American industries.

These industries, I have grouped and, in fact, arranged in an order according to their rates of return on their total investment, before interest and income taxes. My theory is that the best opportunities lie with the companies that are making the most profits. (These are those included in Group 4, which showed prewar earnings are from 15 per cent to 25 per cent.) I have divided these 72 industries into four groups of employers as follows:

Group No. 1—Low Profits

The third group contains 18 industries starting with silver and plated ware, earning 10 per cent on the invested capital, and running up to corn products, earning 15 per cent on the investment, during the last prewar year, before deducting interest and income taxes. This is a very good list and includes some of the most satisfactory industries for the long pull, although I don't add (Continued on page two)

AIR OFFENSIVE STILL GOES ON

Bombers Blast Bucharest And Ploesti Oil Fields

By LYNN HEINZERLING

Allied Headquarters, Naples, April 15.—(AP)—Liberators of the 15th air force attacked targets at Bucharest today and Flying Fortresses streaked to the big Romanian oil center of Ploesti giving it the fourth attack of the war.

The bombers met a number of enemy fighters and shot many of them down, early reports said. Both targets are important communication centers on the German supply line to her armies battling the Russians in Romania and on the Black Sea coast. Ploesti is 35 miles north of Bucharest.

The attacks were made "in great strength," it was announced, and the big bombers were accompanied by Lightning and Thunderbolt fighters working in relays.

By W. W. HERCHER

London, April 15.—(AP)—Strong formations of deadly Allied fighters fanned out over Germany today, the Berlin radio said, taking over the pre-invasion offensive from heavy bomber fleets which had closed out a week of shattering blows at Hitler's air arm and transport.

Waves of broadcast warnings from German stations traced the swarming fighters' progress into the northwest, north and central Germany, indicating an ambitious series of thrusts from British bases.

The formations probably were made up of American Mustangs and Thunderbolts, often employed as fighter-bombers, as well as American Lightnings and British Mosquitos and Typhoons.

These swift fighters, although carrying a relatively minor sting in comparison to the destructive blows borne by the bombers they ordinarily shepherd, have been increasingly used by the Allies to strike airfields, shock up trains and canal shipping and coax German aircraft into combat.

Yesterday Thunderbolt fighter-bombers made a spectacular attack on a German airfield in northern France, swooping out of a cloud bank with such surprise and suddenness that they caught and raked about 50 grounded enemy craft, destroying a full score. None of the American planes was lost.

First reports from German radios today indicated that German planes were refusing the Allied challenge to come up and fight.

There were no signs of a major heavy bomber mission, apparently the second day American Flying Fortresses and Liberators have remained grounded after the Thunderbolt week-long offensive begun last Saturday during which powerful blows were dealt at least 13 German aircraft factories, 17 airfields and 14 railroads linking anti-invasion fortifications.

More than 15,000 tons of explosives and incendiaries were dropped by the heavy Allied fleets during the past six days during which more than 800 enemy aircraft were destroyed or damaged.

British heavy bombers also were grounded last night.

Filing Time Will End At 6 Today

Six o'clock this evening is the deadline for candidates for public office to file their names with the Chairman, J. Henry Harrell, of the County Elections Committee. The present picture of the political situation could change before the books are closed.

This morning M. H. Sumrell of Ayden township and R. F. Clark, Jr. of Belvoir had filed for constable. Three Republicans, W. J. Mann of Bethel, Ed Smith of Pountain and Luther Dall of Ayden, had filed for county commissioners.

The Republican primary is held in conjunction with the Democratic primary on Saturday, May 27. Contests are looming in the race for register of deeds and the State Senate. At present the political pot has not begun to boil. Wartime conditions are apparently restraining the usual ballyhoo attending the opening of a campaign.

Russian General Dead

London, April 15.—(AP)—Gen. Nikolai F. Vatutin, 42, one of Russia's outstanding army leaders, died last night after an operation in Kiev, capital of his native Ukraine, into which he had led liberating Soviet troops.

A Moscow radio announcement did not state the nature of the operation. Vatutin recently gave up command of the First Ukrainian army due to illness.

DEWEY GAINS MORE SUPPORT

Iowa Democrats Expected To Pledge For Roosevelt

(By The Associated Press.)—Additional support for Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York for the Republican presidential nomination appeared likely to materialize today as Arizona, Idaho and Virginia party members met to pick delegates, to the national convention.

Iowa Democrats expected to select a delegation bearing 20 votes, to be cast for President Roosevelt, for a fourth term and a Democratic-Farmer-Labor fusion move in Minnesota was scheduled to be capped by the choice of a 24-vote group from that state.

In Arizona a definite move was reported underway to climb on the Dewey bandwagon with that state's eight votes. There were indications also that he would get the support of a major portion of Idaho's 12 delegates and share in Virginia's quota of 10.

Dewey apparently was the beneficiary of most of the support that Wendell L. Willkie, withdrawn candidate, had held in Connecticut although the Republican state convention yesterday endorsed Gov. Raymond Baldwin as a presidential pick. (Continued on page three)

Today On The Home Front

JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington, April 15.—(AP)—Americans are holding on to their war bonds.

Only about eight per cent of the money originally invested in the E. F. and G. bonds has been turned back into cash.

Bonds are being redeemed at a rate of less than one per cent of the total money invested in them. The total March 31 was $28,348,893,000. That total represents 92 per cent of all the money originally invested. Those are figures of the treasury which gives these reasons why some people cash their bonds before maturity date:

Some of them over-buy. It is expected they will turn some of their bonds back into cash.

Some people, unused to savings at all, may buy $100 worth of bonds and eventually cash $50.

The treasury figures show that people are at least $50 better off than they would have been if they had bought no bonds at all, since they hadn't been in the saving habit.

Treasury surveys on why people cash their bonds show that much of it is done to pay sickness or death bills. Bonds are cashed at an accelerated rate in income tax months and during the Christmas shopping days.

Figures given below show a fairly steady climb in the amount of bonds.

The WAR TODAY

AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

(Associated Press War Analyst)—The tense drama of the Red army's epic conquest of the Crimean peninsula—long Hitler's shield for the right flank of his now shattered fighting line in Russia—represents the final phase before the battle of the Balkans bursts into full flame.

All lines of endeavor in this southern theatre, both of the Hitlerites and of the retreating Hitlerites, lead directly to nature's gateway into the Balkan peninsula. That focal point, as already explained in this column, is the fifty-mile wide Galati gap which lies between the towering Carpathians and the estuary of the Danube on the Black sea in Romania.

The basic strategy which the German command is trying to work out is fascinating. It's divided into two parts, like this:

First, the Nazis must keep the Galati gap open long enough so that those defeated and weary troops which escape from the Odessa trap by land, and from the Crimea by sea (if any), can pass through safely for rest and reorganization. Secondly, having thus provided haven for these remnants of a once mighty fighting machine, Hitler must be prepared to fling a big army of fresh reserves into the gap to hold it closed against the pursuing Russians.

That will be one of the decisive engagements of the war. It won't be long now before we learn the truth about Hitler's reserve strength.

Of course that's not the whole story of the preliminaries to the battle of the gap. The Nazis are fighting holding actions to delay the Red advance on Galati. Tactics may change rapidly as the Russian pressure increases, but at the moment the Germans are trying to hold a line running from the Carpathians in the fast sector eastward to the Tiraspol sea on the Dniester river. This line, which is some 125 miles north of the Galati gap, is delaying the Russian approach to the gap from the north and is facilitating the withdrawal of the Nazi troops which are retreating from the southern Ukraine into Romania.

While all this is going on, there seems to be a temporary lull on the southern Polish front just north of the Balkan show. This likely has been due to a Russian need for a bit of time to consolidate gains and get set for a fresh onslaught. Also the spring mud may be making the going "extremely difficult in that region."

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

THE COMPLETE CIRCLE

Clergymen of all faiths are experiencing a period of trial at present as the result of the mounting casualty lists. One of the hardest things they have ever been called upon to do in their entire careers is to go to the homes of parents who have received word of the death of a boy on some battlefield.

Just an hour ago I returned from trying to comfort a father and mother who had been notified of the death of their son in an air battle in central China. He was an only child, and a career of real promising. I was particularly touched to have his mother tell me that she and a letter to him half-written when the news of his death arrived.
I wondered, when she told me of this, whether there was not a striking parallel between the letter and the disaster—a half-written letter, a half-lived life.

And yet we may well wonder whether any life is ever half-lived. If this life were all of it, we should have to say yes. But this life is only part of it. God's providence is worked out amid the triumphs and tragedies of the world, and the triumphs of peace, it seems when youth dies that the hardest thing to endure is the incompleteness of the life.

But that is because we look at the tragedy from the mundane point of view. God looks at it from the celestial, and what appears broken and incomplete to us may have found full completion indeed within the circle of His love.

Sind's Management

Too many young men and women take the first job which comes along. This will especially be true after the war. To avoid being a rolling stone, it is wise to take a little time in selecting the industry which you are willing to master and especially the concern with which you wish to stay for life. The money which the industry is making is not the only concern. Look up the character of the men for whom you are considering working. Do they attend some church? Are they interested in civic affairs? Have they a reputation for fair dealing and good treatment of their employees?

But in selecting an industry, consider also your own qualifications.
Are you mechanical or not? Do you go on well with other people? Are you slow but accurate; or are you rapid but a little careless? Are you good at figures? Do you prefer to work in an office or pound the cements and ring door bells at selling? What about your character? The industry should be chosen which fits into your temperament. Don't necessarily select an industry from Group 3 or 4. None of these may be suited to your training, physique or temperament.

Mrs. Gardner Entertains.
Mrs. Tige Gardner delightfully entertained at a crystal shower on Tuesday evening at her home on East Third street, in compliment to her niece, Miss Nancy Wynne of Bethel, whose marriage to Cadet Robert Young of Maxwell Field, Ala., took place today at Maxwell Field.

The house was beautifully decorated with early spring flowers, with good food predominating. Refreshments were served from the dining table which was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a flower arrangement of green and white.

The bride-elect received many lovely gifts in her chosen pattern. Miss Elender Tetterton presided at the register.

About forty guests were present. Those from out-of-town were: Mrs. J. C. Wynne, Sr., mother of the bride; guest, Mrs. C. Wynne, Jr., Mrs. J. N. Bullock, Mrs. Linwood Gurganus, all of Bethel.

Mrs. S. T. White was hostess to the Sans Souci Club Wednesday afternoon, April 12.

Mrs. White's home, always lovely, was filled with beautiful spring flowers artistically arranged.

Mrs. Herbert Waldrop, president, presided. After cordially welcoming the visitors present, she presented Mrs. June Rose, who with her inimitable charm, gave a review of the book "Happy Land," by McKinley Kantor. It was indeed a privilege and pleasure to hear Mrs. Rose review the book so filled with human feeling and pathos.

During the business hour the club voted a donation to the Cancer Control Society. They also contributed a sum to the Girl Scouts to assist in furnishing their room. Prizes were made for entertaining the wives of the enlisted men in the Marine Corps Friday at the home of Mrs. Herbert Waldrop.

At the conclusion of the meeting, Mrs. White, assisted by Mrs. James Hayes and Mrs. Cary Mayo, Jr., served a delicious salad course.

Dr. Jacobs Sucks At Vespers.
Dr. W. P. Jacobs, state school health coordinator, who formerly worked for a number of years in India, talked last night at the regular "Y" vesper service on India and its people. He was introduced by William Hines of New Bern.

He, told of the dense population of the country, and said that India was a potentially wealthy country. Jute, rice, wheat and cotton are its main products, he said, and about 80 per cent of the people farm.

In describing the people, Dr. Jacobs talked of the caste system in India. He said that some people had divided the complicated system into four groups—the Brahmins, the highest group; the warriors who lead the armies, the landowners and merchants who constitute the largest group; and all others who do any kind of work.

Then turning to the subject of the untouchables, he spoke of their narrow lives and said they have no desire to gain a standing in the caste system.

Dr. Jacobs brought out the fact that India wants her freedom, and that throughout history there is no record of her having ever been free to rule herself.

If Russia loses many more warships she will have nothing left to fight with.

Farmers are now getting cotton seed in the ground.

Now the middle of April has passed there should not be any more frost or cold weather.

The Bethel school which closed yesterday has been an exceedingly satisfactory and prosperous one. The enrollment was 205. The school had five splendid teachers and has grown to such an extent that for the session beginning next fall the building will have to be enlarged and another teacher added to the present faculty. The entire county is and ought to be proud of this school.

Minstrel Cleared More Than $1,100

By CHESTER WALSH

The Greenville Kiwanis Club made a net profit of more than $1,100 from the Kiwanis minstrel presented at the college two nights, general Chairman Ed (Little Lamb) Rawl reported at the weekly supper session at Respass' place last night. This money will be used by the club for the benefit of underprivileged child work.

President Dick Bundy congratulated the various committees for prompt and complete work and gave special thanks to all those who helped to make the show a success.

Producer Eli Bloom was presented a War Bond and Mrs. Ray Tyson, accompanist, was given a special prize. Both thanked the club for the recognition and donated the money to underprivileged child work.

The minstrel played to more people than any professional or non-professional production ever given here, it was stated.

The supper last night was entirely informal. There were about 100 persons present, including a group of Marines who were in the show.

The minstrel, now a local institution, will be presented again next year. This one was the best show and the most profitable production the Kiwanians have sponsored.

Lend-lease shipments of food from the U. S. during the first 11 months of 1943 totaled ten and a half billion pounds.

By JACK BELL

Washington, April 15.—(AP)—Senator Tom Connally (D-Tex.), chairman of the influential Senate Foreign Relations Committee, today added his voice to those of the State Department and the Selective Service Administration with the assertion that the United States must build up and maintain a strong postwar military force.

Pitt County School News

There will be a county-wide meeting of Pitt county Negro teachers on April 22 in the auditorium of the C. M. Epps High School at 10:30 a. m. Principals are reminded to turn in the book report at the end of the ninth month and not the eighth.

Miss Marie McIver, state supervisor of elementary schools visited in the county this week and she was impressed with the increase in library books in the small schools and the interest in the beautification of the school grounds. Dr. Hughes is still working among the schools in the county, nutrition classes are being taught in groups by Miss Outlaw and physical education by Miss Moore. Mrs. Cordie, the nurse, is working with the schools and Miss Douglas also is doing a fine work in the communities. We are glad to have the parents join in helping to get the benefits derived from having these trained workers with us.

Shaw University in cooperation with the Baptist State Convention held an institute at the Pitt County Training School at Grimesland during the week of April 2 for ministers, missionaries, Sunday school, and B. T. U. workers.

The faculty for the institute were the following: Dean John L. Tilley, dean of the School of Religion, Shaw University; Mrs. Martha Brown, state field worker for the Women's Foreign Missionary convention, and the Reverend J. H. Wertz, state Sunday school and B. T. U. worker.

The institute was sponsored by the old Eastern Missionary Baptist Association and the Baptist Youth Congress. It was largely attended, and a great deal of interest was manifested by all groups.

A forum was conducted each day in assembly by Dean Tilley on "The Church." An address was given by Mrs. Viola McMillan of Tarboro, president of the Women's Foreign Missionary Convention. Mrs. Martha Brown was director. Other leaders of the institute were the Reverend J. A. Nimmo, moderator of the old Eastern Missionary Baptist Association; the Reverend J. B. Humphrey, pastor of Spring Garden Baptist church, Washington; and the Reverend James Rooks, field worker of the Baptist Youth Congress.

On Sunday, April 16, at 3 o'clock we are celebrating Founder's Day and Mr. C. A. Dupree's tenth anniversary. Dr. H. L. Trigg, president of State Teachers College, Eliza-

KINSTON WINS OVER GREENIES

Locals Drop Game To Visitors By Score Of 22 To 3

Wallowing everything the Phantom pitchers could put across the plate, the Kinston high nine defeated the locals 22-3 in a hit-and-run affair here yesterday.

The game had all the earmarks of a close contest until the sixth inning when the Red Devils started a rally and scored 10 runs in spite of everything the Greenies could do.

Kinston scored two runs in their half of the first inning with the first two men having completed the circuit. Greenville's first score came in the second when Harold Williams singled into short center and Jimmie Futtrell brought him home by hitting a beautiful triple into left-center. The only other Phantom score came in the fourth when Williams again crossed the plate after a single to center, being forced to second by a walk-stealing third, and then coming home on a wild throw from the catcher to the third baseman in an attempt to get him out.

From then on it ceased to be a ball game and seemed more of a batting practice for Kinston. Stephen Humble was on the mound for the locals until the sixth when he was replaced by Howard Williams in an effort to stop Kinston's spree but the change in pitchers was to no avail.

In the ninth inning Coach Turnage put in a new infield for the Phantoms and sent his first team to the showers. This may partially account for the seven runs the Red Devils got in that inning.

Grady pitched the entire game for the visiting team allowing the Phantoms only three hits.

For the locals the totals were two runs, three hits and seven errors. The Kinstoners collected 22 runs, 18 hits and committed only one error.
