Russian Forces Tighten Blockade of Sevastopol; Driving Toward Lwow

Nazi Assault To Protect Important Communications Center Of Lwow Smashed; Russian Planes Sink Ships Evacuating Axis Forces From Sevastopol Area

By HENRY C. CASSIDY Moscow, April 25.—(AP)—The Red Army has smashed a German attack west of Dubno, 85 miles northeast of the big communications center of Lwow, which at first had succeeded in driving the Russians out of two localities, a Soviet communiqué said today.

More than 200 Germans were slain in the Russian counterblow which dislodged the enemy from both places and "restored the situation," the bulletin declared.

In the Carpathian foothills more than 100 miles to the southwest, more than 200 Germans were killed, it was reported after they crossed a stream southwest of Stanislavov by night and were routed by Soviet troops in the morning.

Except for these actions, however, a stalemate continued along the land front as the Red air force tightened the blockade of Sevastopol, blasting ships which attempted to carry Axis troops out of the encircled Black sea base.

The communiqué said the warplanes sank seven transports totaling 16,000 tons, as well as a landing barge, a torpedo cutter and three patrol boats between Sevastopol and Romanian ports.

Russian planes also struck "concentrated bombing and strafing blows" against Axis troops in Sevastopol itself, causing heavy losses, the communiqué said. Thirty-seven German aircraft were reported destroyed in the Sevastopol area.

A Berlin broadcast last night said the Russians had unleashed their "final assault" on Sevastopol and that fierce land fighting was raging once more around the city.

Red bombers also blasted Lwow again, striking at the railway yards, the communiqué reported.

Picture Reveals Naval Strength Washington, April 25.—(AP)—The first numerical indication of the overwhelming naval power that the United States threw against the Japanese in the seizure of key islands in the Marshalls appeared today in an unusual photograph released by the navy.

Taken from the air, the picture shows nine aircraft carriers and 12 battleships in addition to a multitude of supporting ships of the train—cruisers, destroyers, supply vessels. More than 40 vessels are discernible within the area covered by the camera. And the official caption says this is "part" of the task force in the operation.

Oil Train Burns Central Bridge, N. Y., April 25.—(AP)—Approximately 20 tank cars filled with oil were burned early today when 35 cars of a 76-car Delaware and Hudson freight train were derailed at the outskirts of this village. Reflection of the flames was seen in Albany, more than 25 miles to the east.

Meadows Case

The Pitt County Grand Jury at four o'clock this afternoon was still examining witnesses in its investigation of indictments against Dr. L. R. Meadows, president of East Carolina Teachers College, charging him with embezzlement and false pretense in connection with the handling, through his personal bank account, of state and student activity funds.

Several Injured And Much Damage In Johnston County

Selma, April 25.—(AP)—A spring tornado which cut a path estimated at more than a mile wide and nearly 15 miles long through one of eastern North Carolina's best farming sections late yesterday, injured at least six persons and caused damage to crops and property running into thousands of dollars.

Striking from the northwest during a severe electrical storm, the twister leveled trees, farm homes and outbuildings, and communications lines in the Pine Level area, five miles east of here, and extended beyond the Princeton area to within a few miles of Goldsboro. It struck at 6 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Roberts and their daughter Maybelle, who live near Pine Level, were taken to a Smithfield hospital for injuries they received when their home was demolished. They were not seriously hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Little and their son Bobby, also of the Pine Level section, were treated by a physician for injuries received when a part of their dwelling was wrecked.

No other casualties were reported immediately. H. H. Lowery, Selma newspaperman who visited the area, said that trees and telegraph poles were twisted like match-stems in one section a forest area, of perhaps a mile square, was leveled to the ground. Damage to tobacco barns and other farm property, he said, (Continued on Page Four)

Fire Chief Warns Of Fire Hazards

Fire Chief George Gardner today warned householders and business places to eliminate trash and rubbish and other fire hazards in the annual spring cleaning period. He suggested removal of litter and trash from cellars, attics, yards and vacant lots and placing it where the city street department may receive it. The chief reminded those who own gas extinguishers that they should be recharged from time to time to keep them effective for instant use in case of fire.

One of the chief fire hazards in Greenville a business man pointed out today, is the paper and trash that is scattered in alleys in the business district. A city ordinance requires that trash be placed in safe containers in the business district.

State police and railroad authorities said there were no injuries.

DENMARK IS NOW CUT OFF

Increasing Sabotage Brings Stern Nazi Measures

By ROBERT N. STURDIVANT Stockholm, April 25.—(AP)—Hitler's special deputy and minister to Denmark, Werner Best, declared today that the Germans were moving swiftly against Danish sabotage, and underground elements affecting German interests.

Denmark was virtually isolated from Sweden and Best's statement before Danish press chiefs was the first tangible evidence of the reason. The country was cut off late yesterday afternoon. Best asserted that Denmark was "swarming" with underground workers and it therefore was Germany's task to "attack swiftly and sternly." He said the Nazis would show no mercy toward saboteurs, indicating they would be summarily shot when caught. He expressed hope that "conditions would stabilize" and that Danish public opinion would react against the recent increase of sabotage.

The belief was prevalent in Stockholm that Denmark was isolated so the underground could be cleaned up as a pre-invasion security measure. Similar action was expected in other occupied countries, many Swedes believed.

Only the barest, unsubstantiated rumors trickled through the Nazi blockade of Denmark. One was that the Copenhagen harbor area was closed. Another said German soldiers were guarding railroads and keeping close watch over workmen. The newspaper Aftonbladet said there were rumors in parts of Denmark that the Nazis would be treated with the greatest reserve, however.

Naval Airmen Sink Submarine

Washington, April 25.—(AP)—Destruction of a German U-boat in two minutes of concentrated action by American carrier-based planes was reported today by the navy.

The sub first was sighted by Lt. (jg) Wallace A. LaFleur, 22, Lafayette, La., who was flying on patrol from a "baby flat-top" far out in the Atlantic. He made two bombing runs on the enemy despite anti-aircraft fire, but because of evasive action, failed to score a hit.

He began circling above the U-boat, remaining there despite anti-aircraft fire for 25 minutes, keeping in touch with the raider until other planes could arrive from the carrier 70 miles away. "I'm going to sit here all night if they don't come," he told the carrier.

PLANE CRASH KILLS NINE

Exploding Bomber Wrecks Block In Montreal

Montreal, April 25.—(AP)—An RAF bomber exploded and crashed today in a block of old brick dwellings in downtown Montreal, leaving piles of flaming debris in which rescuers found nine bodies.

Three of some 14 dwellings in the block were flattened and others were badly damaged. Shrieks of horror arose in the area. Adults and children ran about the streets hunting for kinfolk. One woman screamed that she had lost two daughters.

A high air official said the bomber, operated by the RAF transport command, was a four-engine Liberator, though many of the eyewitnesses said a twin-engine craft had crashed. The official said two engines were buried in the debris, in addition to two which could be seen in the street.

The craft apparently carried a crew of five, one of whom was reported to have parachuted to safety. Dorval airport said identity of the crew could not be known pending a check of all planes that left there today.

Some eyewitnesses said the bomber exploded in the air, while others said it blew up after striking the building, sending fragments 50 feet into the air. Parts of the wings and engines settled over sections of an entire block.

The plane apparently struck coming in over Shannon street, wrecking two tenement houses. Its wreckage came to rest in a mass of tobacco houses which bodies could be seen.

One eyewitness said a member of the crew who had parachuted to safety was badly injured and taken to a hospital.

Flames from the exploded bomber set fire to a half dozen buildings. One woman removed from a structure by firemen screamed that her three children were still inside.

Two hundred soldiers were brought into the area as firemen brought the flames under control. Constable Philippe Lemieux, patrolling his beat at the time of the crash, was hit by the fuselage and killed. Edgar Forget of Farnham, Que., died in one of the wrecked buildings.

Three Killed By Virginia Tornado South Hill, Va., April 25.—(AP)—Three persons were killed and a number injured when a tornado swept through the Opie rural section about six miles south of here last night. Several homes were destroyed and a number of barns and tobacco houses leveled.

Eleven Busy Days

British Drive To Remove Last Jap Threat to Kohima

Southeast Asia Headquarters, Kandy, Ceylon, April 25.—(AP)—Long columns of men, tanks and guns of the 14th army are moving toward Kohima to meet an assault against the Japanese near that Japanese objective on the Assam-Burma front, it was reported here today.

The tanks are advancing as a protective screen for British troops tagged for the task of clearing away the last threat to Kohima. Vengeance dive bombers are harrying the retreating enemy, headquarters announced, and artillery is pounding away at Japanese concentrations.

Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten's communiqué said that north of Imphal on the 60-mile road to Kohima an English county regiment cleared one of the blocks with which the Japanese have held 15 miles of this highway and a battalion of the Ninth Japs (Indian army regiment) overran some Japanese forward positions, captured an anti-tank gun and repulsed two counterattacks.

This was the first indication that the British, apparently feeling Imphal secure, had begun operations to restore the land link between Kohima and Imphal. Northwest of Imphal the advance continued in the direction of Ukhrul while west of Bishenpur on the track to Silerch British troops remained "in close contact with the enemy," the communiqué added.

This is how the total works out: 45 quit; eight were laid off; six were fired; five drafted, and one left for other reasons, a total of 65 separations, not 65 quits the BLS says further.

Western Bombers Smash Nazi Airfields In Eastern France Today While Others Blast Invasion Coast; Munich And Karlsruhe Hit By RAF Last Night

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR London, April 25.—(AP)—Well over 1,000 American bombers and fighters bombed three German airfields in France today, the 11th consecutive day of the war's greatest aerial offensive. The German radio said other Allied raiders penetrated into the southern sector of the Reich.

A preliminary announcement of daylight activity, which appeared again to be on a gigantic scale, said Fortresses and Liberators from Britain smashed at German airfields at Nancy, Metz and Dijon in the continuing all-out effort to humiliate Hitler's air forces ahead of the western invasion.

While American Liberators and Fortresses were returning today from attacks on air fields in eastern France another formation of Eighth Air Force Liberators smashed at military installations in the Pas-de-Calais area under a Mustang escort.

Lightning fighter-bombers also made a forenoon attack on an airfield in northern France, with other P-38's escorting them. The daylight attacks followed all-night raids by probably 1,000 planes of the RAF which blasted industrial Munich and Karlsruhe.

In a reconnaissance report on the Munich raid the Air Ministry said whole blocks of buildings were left ablaze in the city Hitler converted from a Nazi shrine to an aircraft center and the heart of an important railway system. Smoke rose four miles as scattered fires merged into one glowing core.

American airmen back from Metz said at least 40 planes, mostly fighters, were shot down. The raiders of Nancy also caught German aircraft on the ground. Airmen said formations split at each field, one force bombing landing areas while the others smashed hangars and other buildings.

Crewmen generally reported no fighter opposition, moderate flak weathered spottily on the way but clear over the targets and good bombing results. While the heavies and their escort thundered into eastern France American Marauders and Havoc with British Boston's attacked military objectives in northern France which have been pounded repeatedly in recent days by every type of daylight raider based in Britain.

Waves of planes of all types drove forward the campaign that has poured 40,000 to 50,000 tons of explosives (Continued on page two)

Allies Close Pincers Around Jap Airfields

One Captured Hollandia Airfield Already Being Used By Americans; Jap Opposition Disorganized

By C. YATES McDANIEL MacArthur's Advanced Headquarters, New Guinea, April 25.—(AP)—American and Dutch fighters, slow-ed more by mud and mountains than by disorganized Japanese resistance, closed from two sides today on three airfields in a 350 square-mile area of Dutch New Guinea around captured Hollandia.

A fourth airfield, seized by another invasion force against sniper opposition 150 miles to the south-east near Aitape, was assumed into service less than 48 hours after its capture. Fighters and troop transport planes landed there yesterday. "Thousands of invading troops, the bulk of them Americans, were landed at three beachheads Saturday, protected by the guns and dive bombers of a naval armada which Adm. Chester W. Nimitz credits with wiping out 101 Japanese planes, all but 13 on the ground." Reports today by Gen. Douglas MacArthur and advices from the field by Associated Press war correspondents told of a steameroller, impeded largely by the terrain, over-running territory within bombing range of the Philippines.

Nowhere in the Hollandia area, less than 1,200 miles from Mindanao, was there any word of organized fighting by the 14,000 Japanese estimated to comprise the defending force. On the west flank, American soldiers, last reported within five miles of the main Hollandia airfield, told AP Correspondent Mulin Spencer that some Japanese "didn't even have guns." This invading force, landed at Tanahmambay bay, had moved six miles southeast by Sunday afternoon.

On the east flank, red mud which caked the Yaniks from head to foot, was the chief deterrent factor in a mile and a half push from Hummel bay into the wreckage of Hollandia village Sunday. AP Correspondent Asahel Bush, writing his dispatch amidst the ruins of the community's 150 buildings, said only the sprawling bones of dead enemy stragglers were found after naval guns, dive bombers and

New Measures Taken To Guard Invasion Secrets

London, April 25.—(AP)—Britain halted all but the most urgent travel overseas in another invasion-secrecy step today, while the Germans predicted the invasion was near and declared their most seasoned troops ready to meet the assault.

The travel ban, "except for business of urgent national importance which cannot be postponed," will run indefinitely and was taken "for military reasons," a home office announcement said. It followed orders restricting movements of diplomats, tightening control over coastal areas, suspending travel to Eire, and other recent steps to prevent leakage of information.

Persons now holding exit permits can use them to leave Britain until midnight Thursday. Thereafter, "urgent" permits will be issued. No permit to leave the country will be valid unless issued on or after April 19.

Three Killed By Virginia Tornado

South Hill, Va., April 25.—(AP)—Three persons were killed and a number injured when a tornado swept through the Opie rural section about six miles south of here last night. Several homes were destroyed and a number of barns and tobacco houses leveled.

The body of Carter Stone, a guard at a convict camp, was found about seven miles from here, and several miles distant two children of Cook Hubbard, negro, of the Opie section died when the twister struck their home. The mother of the children was taken to a hospital for treatment of injuries.

Trial Of Liquor Ring Under Way

Taking of testimony in Superior court today in the trial of Clarence Salter and C. T. Midgette of New Bern, white, and John Morris, negro, on a charge of receiving stolen property (liquor) allegedly stolen from ABC stores was concluded shortly before noon today. The case was expected to be given to the jury this afternoon.

At the trial in Superior Court yesterday of some of the members of the alleged "liquor and automobile ring" of two white men and 16 negroes rounded up last week by state highway patrolmen, SBI and sheriff's and police officers, four of the negroes pleaded guilty of larceny of a car in Bethel and of breaking and entering the Bethel ABC store and larceny of liquor.

They are Johnny Columbus Jones, Samana Hill, Robert Lee Workman, and Leroy Lewis. Sentences will be passed later. Judge Lawson L. Williams of Sanford is presiding.

Today On The Home Front

JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE Washington, April 25.—(AP)—The army, navy and maritime commission have pictured the manpower situation somewhat differently than has the Bureau of Labor statistics, chief collector of government figures on employment.

Their choice of words is narrower than the BLS uses and some of their arithmetic appears at fault. The three agencies issued a joint statement calling for government control of workers through a labor draft. The statement stressed the navy's through confidence the war is about won.

The statement says out of every 1,000 workers employed in February, 65 "quit."

There is a sharp difference between a "quit" and a "separation." Statisticians use both words, carefully distinguishing between them, to show what happens with workers. A "quit" is a worker who does just that, quits, voluntarily leaves a job. But "separation" includes those who quit and those who leave a job for any other reason, such as being laid off "for lack of work," discharged (fired for cause), or drafted.

The WAR TODAY

AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE (Associated Press War Analyst) Finland's action in rejecting Moscow's peace terms on the eve of the great invasion and, according to informed sources in Stockholm, gambling that Hitler will achieve a stalemate in the war, won't of course weaken our confidence in Allied success, but it's a sharp reminder that Germany still possesses great strength and that a terrible conflict is before us.

Berlin newspapers are saying that "the greatest battle in the history of the world will take place along the Atlantic," and certainly that may prove to be true. Finland's ill-adviced move, made in the face of strong possibilities that the United States would sever diplomatic relations, probably represents a decision of desperation. Still, the Stockholm sources say it was based on the conviction that the Reich has sufficient strength so that it may stand off the Allies even though it cannot win a clean-cut victory.

Berlin frankly admits that the Allied bombing has weakened Germany's ability to counter the invasion, but boasts that the Allies won't be able to attain their ob-

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS FACING SUPERIORITY IN OTHERS

We are in a presidential election year, and people are thinking a great deal about the type of man who should occupy the White House in the years which lie immediately ahead.

There is one thing of which we can be sure, namely, that the people of this country at least, are never particularly attracted by a man too far above them in intellect and attainments.

Some devils lurk about the White House, and it is not always the greatest men in our national life who have not also been occupied that high position.

WASHINGTON IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

Washington—Behind the scenes, the first big guns of one of the greatest international post-war battles are opening up.

A week or so ago, a conference between British and United States representatives was held in London. Soon a similar conference will be held here between U. S. and Russian representatives.

It's pretty generally agreed that it may be the opening wedge in post-war negotiations that, in the long run, may be more important than boundaries, forms of government and a good many other world problems now bedeviling the international thinkers.

The important thing at the moment is the man who is going to front for us in these vital negotiations. He is Assistant Secretary of State Adolf A. Berle Jr.

Just turned 49, Berle is the youngest assistant secretary in the department but not in point of international experience.

Here is place to pause for a point. Berle is generally described as an intellectual. Certainly he is a thinker, an analyst in the fields of economics, law and international relationships. Once he has reached conclusions, he tosses them out for what others think they are worth.

no distinction between quits and separations) has reached a rate of more than six per cent per month, three times the peacetime average.

But the BLS says: Separations were 6 1/2 per cent per 100 workers, compared with an average of 3 per cent in 1939, considered an average peacetime year.

This would show, therefore, that while the labor force was losing 3 million, another 1,500,000 who had not been in the labor force a year before had come into it.

But in addition, the statement that the labor force has declined 1,500,000 in the past year is incorrect as will be shown by government figures to be released this week.

Actually, according to BLS figures, the labor force did not decline 1,500,000 but rather less.

Bleunt-Bleunt. A marriage of impressive beauty and dignity was solemnized at six o'clock Saturday, April 22, in Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church, when Miss Jean Havens Bleunt became the bride of Dr. Samuel Gilbert Bleunt, Jr.

As the guests assembled, Mrs. G. B. W. Hadley, organist, rendered a program of organ music which included "Claire de Lune," by Debussy; "Romance," by Ruediger; "Wedding" by Chopin, and "Elegie" by Massenet.

Just before the bride entered, Mrs. Herbert Waldrop, Mr. Aubrey Tilley and Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Parkins, Jr., sang Schubert's "Serenade" and at the conclusion of the ceremony the "Benedictus" by Luterkin was beautifully rendered.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus, the bridesmaids and groomsmen entered and took their places about the altar. The bridesmaids were Miss Margaret Little Blount of Bethel, and Miss Marcia Warren of Tarboro, both cousins of the bride; groomsmen were Marion O. Blount and Judson Blount, Jr., brothers of the bride.

Mrs. Howard Hodges, Jr. was her sister's dame of honor. Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Lucy Clyde Blount of Stephens College, Missouri. The attendants were identical gowns of periwinkle blue net fastened with a very full skirt and lace bodice with high neckline, and carried arm bouquets of gerbera in pastel shades tied with matching satin ribbons.

The bride, entering the church with her father, by whom she was given in marriage, was very lovely in her wedding gown of ivory imported lace, fashioned in long simple lines with bodice of high neckline embroidered in seed pearls. She wore her sister's veil of illusion, with cap made of lace from her mother's wedding gown, and carried a prayer book shrouded with white orchids and valley lilies.

They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Lt. Richard Meany of Long Island, N. Y., and Fort Bragg.

The bride's mother was becomingly groomed in pale blue crepe with shoulder corsage of orchids. Mrs. S. G. Blount, Sr., mother of the groom, wore a gown of dusty rose crepe with matching hat and accessories and shoulder corsage of orchids.

The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Judson H. Blount of Greenville. She attended St. Mary's Junior College in Raleigh and later graduated from Sweet Briar College in Virginia. After graduation she spent a year in Boston at Simmons College and was later associated in New York with "Buy-Lines," edited by Nancy Sasser.

The groom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. S. G. Blount, Sr., of Providence, R. I. He was educated at Rhode Island State College and graduated from Cornell Medical School in New York and is now resident physician at Rhode Island Hospital in Providence.

For traveling the bride wore a modish two-piece wool suit of navy blue. The box coat of navy and white checks was braided-trimmed and the ensemble was completed with small matching hat with veil.

Immediately following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Judson H. Blount entertained informally honoring Dr. and Mrs. Blount. The house was decorated throughout with spring flowers. In the dining room the table was covered with an embroidered cloth and centered with a beautiful arrangement of white lilies and snapdragons flanked on either side by silver branched candelabras holding white candles. At each end of the table were silver tea services from which Mrs. E. B. Ficklen and Mrs. J. B. James poured coffee. Mrs. M. L. Wright and Mrs. J. Key Brown assisted in serving decorated cakes, mints and nuts. Platters of sandwiches attractively garnished, were passed to the guests throughout the house.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Blount in receiving their guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hodges, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Sugg, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hooker, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Stokes, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Leighton Blount, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rivers, Mr. and Mrs. Burke Stancill and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Blount.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin K. Blount entertained at a delightful luncheon on Saturday at one o'clock. Their guests were Miss Blount, Dr. Blount, members of the families and wedding party and out-of-town guests.

The Blount home on Rock Spring Road was beautiful with decorations of spring flowers. The dining room table was centered with a bowl of Dutch iris and lilies. Seated at each end of the table serving the buffet luncheon were Mrs. Judson Blount and Mrs. Leighton Blount, assisted by Mrs. Burke Stancill. Mrs. William Taft poured coffee.

Out-of-town guests here for the wedding were: Dr. and Mrs. S. G. Blount, Sr., Mrs. Don F. Blount and young daughter of Providence, R. I.; Miss Kay Roberson of Greenville, S. C.; Miss Mary Emma Robbins of Durham; Miss Frances Spillman and Lt. Jim Kennedy of Washington, D. C.; Miss Ann Dawson and Mr. and Mrs. John Dawson of Kingston; Mrs. J. A. Matheson of Chapel Hill; Mr. and Mrs. George Ross and Mr. R. A. Carrison, Mrs. Walter Latham, Mrs. Henry Stator, Mrs. John Hooker, Mrs. E. O. Burroughs, Mrs. E. L. Mayo, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Bunting, Miss Mary Wells Bunting and Mrs. Connell Garrenton, all of Bethel.

Hookerton Union. The Hookerton Union of the Christian churches will meet this coming Saturday with the Wheat Swamp Church at 10:30 a. m. dinner will be served on the grounds, and the program continued until 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

On the program in the morning will be Miss Etta Nunn, one-time missionary to Mexico, a native of this state, and also Rev. J. Wayne Drash, pastor of the Gordon Street Church in Kingston. The afternoon program will have as speakers Mrs. H. G. Haney and Mrs. Robert McArthur, who is president of the women's organizations in the state.

The Eighth Street Church will have a delegation as usual to attend this union on Saturday.

New officers elected were: Vice-president, Mrs. G. T. Tyson, and treasurer, Mrs. Clarence Little; the president, Mrs. Robert McArthur, and secretary, Miss Lorraine Myers, having served only one year of a two-year term. Outgoing vice-president and treasurer are Mrs. R. E. Willoughby and Mrs. G. S. Nichols, respectively.

The meeting closed after an interesting report by Mrs. Josie McArthur in regard to the Honorable Lawrence Davis Tyson, in whose honor a ship was launched last summer. She stated that Mr. Tyson was not born in Greenville, as the papers stated, but was born in the Arthur community (or Beaverdam district), as was also the Mr. Shepard, who was the donor of our beautiful county and city library, born within two miles from the village of Arthur.

A social hour was enjoyed after the meeting adjourned. Refreshments were served by Mesdames Willoughby, Jack Smith, Mark Smith, Richard Nichols and Scott Heath.

Mrs. McArthur Honored. Mesdames G. S. Nichols, Roy Crawford and Verna Joyner entertained last Thursday afternoon at the home of the latter, in honor of Mrs. Josie McArthur who celebrated her 90th birthday.

The affair was a complete surprise to her. After she related in her interesting manner some of the experiences of her early teaching days the guests were invited into the dining room for refreshments which consisted of a variety of cookies, crackers and an iced drink. The table, covered with a lace cloth, took a large pink and white birthday cake, decorated with burning white tapers at either end of the table.

As the guests departed "Aunt Josie" (as she is known to the entire community) was most gracious in her words of gratitude and appreciation for being remembered in such a lovely way.

Arthur P. T. A. Meets. The last P. T. A. meeting of the school year was held Thursday night. After the devotional by Rev. Gilbert Davis, a splendid program was rendered by Miss Pace's sixth grade and Miss Peterson's fourth grade. During the business session definite plans were made in regard to the canning of surplus vegetables during the summer for the lunch room. A committee was appointed to consult with the principal, Mr. H. L. Hart, concerning the P. T. A. giving aid to needy children in securing glasses. Mr. Hart gave a report of the several important school events made during the past year—the outstanding one being separate, well equipped elementary and high school libraries, the completion of the manual arts building and the grading of the school campus, and a business department in the high school. A $25 war bond was presented to the captain and co-captain, Gladys Crawford and Anne Smith, of the girls' basketball team for being the champions in the tournament. Miss Crawford in turn, presented the bond to the school, Mr. Mark H. Smith, chairman of the local board, accepting in behalf of the school. Grades 1, 6 and 12 were winners in room attendance.

All scouts and scout leaders of Greenville extend their sincere and heartfelt sympathy to Scout Elvin Ray Jones in the loss of his father. We know that this expression is inadequate, that there is little that we can say or do to ease the pain of Elvin's loss, but as brother scouts and members of a great world, brotherhood of boys and men, we want Elvin to know and feel that we are not unmindful and that we are with him at this time.

All troops are hard at work on Commissioner Young's inter-troop contest. Results will be announced monthly at the district Board of Review.

Chairman John Fleming of the Greenville district, stated recently that scouting seems to be on the up-and-up throughout the entire council, with an extremely active group of men promoting scouting's program of character building and citizenship training throughout all 20 counties that make up the council. He announced the appointment of Mr. James S. Ficklen of Greenville, to the council executive board.

ESCAPE ADRIENNE

By Marion McClure Stewart

Chapter 24 Von Eger led the way towards the nearest elevator. They got off at the fifth floor and went to the end of the corridor where he opened a door with his key.

They entered the living room of his suite and he motioned for her to be seated. He produced his cigarette case, and as she took a cigarette bent towards her to offer a light. He lit his own, and turned to press a button on the wall. As he did so, Adrienne removed the package containing the jewel from her bag, and laid it on the table. He did not appear to have noticed her action as he seated himself near her.

After a moment there was a rap on the door, and a waiter appeared. Adrienne saw he was French, and it seemed to her he regarded her curiously. When Von Eger had given an order for cocktails, he withdrew.

"You have comfortable quarters and a nice view here, Herr Kapitlan," Adrienne glanced out of the open window as she spoke.

"Yes," he returned, his eyes fixed on her in a brooding manner. "It is not bad, but compared to my apartment in Berlin, it is very ordinary."

She made no answer to his remark but commented on a Corot landscape that hung over the fireplace. "I like the tranquility of it, and the soft color scheme."

At that moment another knock on the door announced the arrival of the cocktails. In placing them on the table the waiter cast another glance at Adrienne.

"To your good health and happiness, Adrienne," said Von Eger raising his glass, smiling. "A toast to the most beautiful girl in Paris."

"Thank you, Herr Kapitlan, even if I don't deserve that tribute. I drink to your health and happiness too."

He took a long drink from his wine glass. "That is good. I can never get used to your French custom of sipping wine and liquors."

"You have the power Adrienne, to make me happy if you wish."

Instantly she knew she had not been wrong. She sensed danger in the atmosphere, and setting down her glass, turned to flick off the ash of her cigarette.

"I do not understand. Your happiness could never be affected by anything I might do."

He drained his cocktail glass, and suddenly rising he bent over her, his hands on her shoulders, his eyes searching hers.

Before she could protest or move, he had seized her in his arms, gripping her with muscles that seemed made of iron. Closer, closer, despite her struggles, he drew her until he held her crushed against him.

Words incoherently uttered in German came to her. Then he bent his lips to hers, and kissed her roughly, passionately. He held her so long that she felt he would faint. When finally he let her go, she was white and shaken with fear.

Beware Coughs from common colds That Hang On

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bron-chitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medi-cine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, per-mitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. ### Floods Spread In Middle West

By The Associated Press

Fresh rain forecasts for tonight and tomorrow over the midwest promised little surcease from the devastating floods which have forced thousands from their homes; destroyed vast acreages of crops and snarled highway and rail traffic.

Eight deaths by drowning were reported.

More than 5,000 soldiers and state militiamen joined civilians in their struggle to plug crumbling and threatened dikes along the Missis-sippi and lower Missouri as crests rushed toward the junction of the great rivers.

Northern Oklahoma saw the Ar-kansas river's tremendous wall of water come pouring out of Kansas to sweep the big U. S. Highway 69 bridge east of Ponca City and par-tially inundate Ponca City. The river covered miles of farmland over that section.

Residents of Wichita, Kas., wait-ed for the turbid waters of the Lit-tle Arkansas to recede from the hundreds of homes inundated by the second worst flood in the city's history.

The Kaw river's crest passed Kansas City last night without do-ing serious damage, although leak-ing dikes had to be repaired.

Although all trains were operat-ing behind time, the large crowds of stranded travelers were beginning to thin out.

AMERICANS OCCUPY ANOTHER PACIFIC ISLAND

Washington, April 25. - (AP) - American forces, beating down light Japanese resistance, have occupied Uffeland atoll, westernmost of the mid-Pacific Marshall islands, the navy announced today.

The quick conquest of the atoll provides an American base im-mediately north of the Caroline islands, heavily fortified by the Japanese.

It is only 264 miles northeast of Ponape, strongest point in the Car-olines and 644 miles from Truk, center of the group.

The occupation was carried out Saturday and Sunday and was fol-lowed immediately by a proclama-tion placing Uffeland under military government.

Phantoms Will Play Marines

Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock the Phantoms will meet the Marine baseball team of the local airport at the Guy Smith stadium.

Bad weather has prevented the high school nine from practicing since the game with Tarboro last Thursday, which the Phantoms won 7-3. The Greenies have lost two regular games this season and won only one encounter.

Dick Fife will probably start on the mound for the Phantoms to-morrow and will be relieved, if need
