Soldiers Eject President Montgomery-Ward Firm

Attorney General Biddle, On Scene Chicago To Aid Carrying Out Presidential Seizure Order; Congressman Demands Investigation Of Government's Action

Chicago, April 27.—(AP)—Two soldiers of the army detail which seized the Montgomery Ward and Company Chicago plant forcibly ejected Sewell L. Avery, 60, company chairman, today from his own offices which he refused to yield to authority even of President Roosevelt.

The troops carried Avery bodily out of the administration building. Attorney General Francis Biddle said ejection of the uncompromising foe of the government procedure involved after a labor dispute, was ordered after Avery refused to cooperate with the government officials who have taken charge.

Biddle outlined to reporters the dramatic occurrences preceding Avery's ejection. He said the government was in possession, intended to remain in possession and was anxious that the business be conducted without interruption and with the company staff continuing in operation.

"When Mr. Avery reported at his office at 9:35 a. m., we asked him if he would cooperate and he refused to do so," Biddle said. "Mr. Avery was asked to turn over company books to government bookkeepers so they could set up new books. He refused."

"Mr. Avery told us he was the boss and would continue to do things his way or not at all. We asked Mr. Avery if he would advise his staff to cooperate and he refused and said he would instruct them to do the opposite."

Biddle said that then, "in view of his refusal to cooperate with the United States government, Mr. Avery was ordered to leave the plant. He refused to leave voluntarily."

"Mr. Taylor (Wayne C. Taylor, undersecretary of commerce who took charge of the plant operations) on my advice instructed Maj. J. R. Weber (in charge of the army detail) to conduct Mr. Avery out of the building and not to let him return."

"Mr. Avery resisted and was carried bodily out of the plant. "When he is ready to cooperate with us and the United States government we will be glad to have him back."

Nazi Bomb Kills Number In England London, April 27.—(AP)—A number of persons were killed last night when a German raider's high explosive bomb hit the underground shelter in which about 60 adults and children had sought haven at a south coast town.

Bombs fell in a tenement district, smashing a mission hall and several taverns. The town cannot be named. The German radio said Portsmouth was subjected to a sharp attack.

The WAR TODAY AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE Associated Press War Analyst Our Uncle Sam, having expressed dissatisfaction with Sweden's rejection of the Allied request to stop sending ball bearings—vital material—to Germany, has been co-tailing step by step on the Stockholm Aftonbladet, one of Sweden's big newspapers.

Aftonbladet asserts that Britain never supported the request and that Russia "was the last to say anything." The paper then voices surprise that the note "came from a nation which among the Allies has done the least in the war"—and that means us.

Well, that's blunt language, but frankness can be employed between friendly peoples like the Swedes and Americans. Aftonbladet's appraisal invites two important questions: 1. What justification is there for the Allied request? 2. By what standard do we measure the worth of war contribution?

First off, we can readily understand the difficulties of Sweden's position. Ever since the war started she has been sitting under Nazi domination's big guns, in constant danger of attack. The bulk of her essential foreign imports come from Germany, and for this there has had to be a quid pro quo. Sweden is indeed lucky in being able to maintain neutrality and independence.

Having admitted this we come to the present Allied viewpoint. The Allies have recognized Sweden's troubles and up until now haven't made embarrassing requests. They conceded that she wasn't prepared to stand up against Hitler's mili-

WLB FUTURE IN BALANCE

Montgomery - Ward Seizure to Be Made Test Case

By JOSEPH A. LOFTUS (AP Labor Affairs Expert) Washington, April 27.—(AP)—The War Labor Board, veteran of many crises, risked its prestige once more today in the seizure of Montgomery Ward and Company. The survival or dissolution of the board in its present form may hinge on this attempt to make its order stick.

The WLB has found in Sewell Avery (directing influence of Montgomery Ward, U. S. Cypsum, and Hummer Manufacturing) an opponent to be reckoned with.

Other lawsuits and cases of delayed compliance have backed up behind Avery's defiance and until the Montgomery Ward case is disposed of the logjam is expected to grow.

The Chicago mail order house seizure may be the beginning of a test that will go to a Supreme Court decision but, if so, that is not the government's choice. It is seeking a decision in one fall, not protracted litigation.

The WLB has operated largely on a basis of voluntary compliance. Out of more than 4,000 disputes, it has referred 17 to the President for enforcement of decisions. Seven of these were employer defiance, and Montgomery Ward accounts for two of the seven.

The board operated for more than a year and a half without having to go into court. Avery set a fashion when he sued in behalf of U. S. Cypsum Company (Warren, Ohio) last September, and subsequently in five others. The total court actions now pending against the board is 18. Avery's six cases include four Montgomery Ward actions cov-

Showdown Battle At Kohima Imminent; Allied Forces Make Gains In North Burma

By THOBURN WYANT Southeast Asia Headquarters, Kandy, Ceylon, April 27.—(AP)—A major battle appeared imminent today as Allied reinforcements streamed into Kohima, the gateway hill town guarding the valley entrance into the plains of Assam.

The garrison of Kohima could be seen below by Japanese scattered in the nearby hills, and the reinforcements rolled forward from Mogaung thru the eyes of the enemy perched in hilltop fortifications.

One of the enemy's strongest points was Kohima village, about a mile west of the main town. Into this the British poured artillery fire.

Kohima, 60 miles north of Imphal, the military storehouse of the Manipur valley, and two-thirds the distance between that town and Dimapur, the important operating center on the Bengal-Assam supply line, promised to be an incredible battlefield, with the men fighting both on the dense jungle valley floor and 6,000 feet above sea level with the snowcapped Himalayas in the distance.

The Kohima garrison recently received tanks to help expand its perimeter, and these circled the town's outskirts, battering at Japanese bunkers with their heavy guns and shooting snipers from the chimneys of houses.

The steepness of the hills to be assaulted and the bottlenecks opening into Japanese strongholds with narrow spaces afforded for the employment of the attacking forces presented many difficulties for the British.

In north Burma, Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's Chinese scored a spectacular success in the advance down the Mogaung valley with the capture of the village of Manpin, 10 miles north of Kamaing, southeast

Civilian Cotton Goods Shortage Becomes Acute

By STERLING F. GREEN Washington, April 27.—(AP)—Comprehensive government controls over cotton textiles have been proposed to alleviate a predicted 25 per cent shortage in cotton goods for civilians this year—a shortage which may run to 50 per cent in the low-priced lines.

The proposals, prepared by a military "task committee" of the War Production Board and the Office of Price Administration, were approved today, it was learned today, at a conference set for Friday morning with Fred M. Vinson, director of the Office of Economic Stabilization.

WPB Chairman Donald M. Nelson was reported to be "seriously concerned" over the textile outlook, although the inter-agency committee was understood to have said that prompt action would avert clothing rationing. WPB has committed itself to avoidance of rationing.

The most serious problems are in goods for children's clothes, men's shirts, women's inexpensive dresses, kerchiefs, underwear and nightclothes, infants' garments and other low-priced lines.

The task committee reportedly estimated that civilians would get only about 2,500,000,000 yards of cotton goods in the first half of the year, about 25 per cent under est-

NEW VICTORIES IN NEW GUINEA

Jap Defenses Crumbling Along Entire Front

Advanced Allied Headquarters, New Guinea, April 27.—(AP)—Utter collapse of Japanese defenses at both ends of a 430-mile New Guinea war front, resulting in seizure on the west of two airfields at Hollandia and a third on the east at captured Madang, was reported today by Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

In four days, four airfields and three coastal bases were wrested from the Japanese. One airfield already is in use and engineers are rushing repairs on the other three.

A fifth airfield, the big Hollandia airfield, was expected to fall momentarily to pincer forces, ending the assault phase of a big military operation undertaken last Saturday.

On the west, a force has moved 11 miles to the edge of the 'drome. On the east, another force is nearing a juncture.

At Madang, bypassed in the amphibious thrust into Dutch New Guinea, Australians, who for months had moved slowly coastward from the Ramu valley, overcame enemy rearguards to invest the supply base and its airfield on the shores of Astrolabe Bay. Large quantities of supplies and equipment fell to the captors.

The entire invasion front of 150 miles between Hollandia and Aitape was crumbling. Hollandia village was taken on the second day. Today headquarters announced the occupation Tuesday of Aitape, five miles from Tadij airfield, which the Americans seized on the first day of the invasion and now is used by the fifth airforce.

Nowhere from Madang to Hollandia, between which some 60,000 Japanese are believed to be caught, was there a report of stiff enemy opposition. The thousands of Sixth army troops now about to join their platoon along a 34-mile road linking the original beachheads at Taninmarch and Humboldt Bays in the Hollandia sector were slowed mainly by muddy jungle trails and swamps.

All resistance ceased Tuesday around Aitape where 120 Japanese had been killed and more than a dozen taken prisoner.

At Hollandia, invasion columns which struck inland from Humboldt Bay, pushed down to the eastern end of Lake Sentani, then crossed an arm of the lake on amphibious craft to reach Nefari on the north shore late Monday. Early Tuesday afternoon, they seized both the Cycop and Sentani airfields after killing Japanese in scattered

Floods Sweeping Mid-West States

(By The Associated Press) The second major Missouri-Mississippi flood in less than a year approached the critical stage today with 7,500 federal troops, state guardsmen and prisoners of war working to confine the torrential waters which have already inundated more than 500,000 acres in Missouri and Illinois.

The Arkansas river in Oklahoma also was on a flood rampage, reaching the third highest crest in its history at Tulsa before receding. The town of Jenks was almost entirely inundated and more than a thousand persons were driven from their homes there and at Sand Springs and Tulsa.

The Mississippi broke through new levees on both the Missouri and Illinois sides and threatened additional earthen bulwarks protecting fertile farm lands in the two states.

Ten Lose Lives In Ship Disasters

Cleveland, April 27.—(AP)—Two ship collisions occurred in a heavy fog over Lake Erie at dawn today, causing the loss of ten seamen and two lake freight carriers.

The James H. Reed, a 448-foot freighter operated by Picketts Mather Lines for the Interlake Steamship Co., of Cleveland, sank about 40 miles north of Erie, Pa., after colliding with the steamer Ashcroft operated by Canadian Steamship Lines, Ltd., of Montreal.

Ten crewmen from the Reed were reported lost, but 26 survivors were taken aboard the Ashcroft which headed for Erie.

The Columbus Transit Company's steamer Frank Vigor, 412 feet long, sank in Pelee passage of western Lake Erie at about the same time, after colliding with the steamer Phillip Mitch, owned by the Columbus Transit Co. of Cleveland.

All members of the Vigor's crew were transferred to the Mitch, and there were no injured, the coast guard reported.

Acting Prexy

Dr. Howard J. McGinnis, registrar of East Carolina Teachers College, will become acting president of the institution on May 1, succeeding Dr. Leon R. Meadows, whose retirement effective on that date was voted by the board of trustees today.

The board also appointed a subcommittee to recommend a president to take over direction of the college. The committee, composed of Dr. Paul Fitzgerald, A. B. Andrews and Mrs. Charles Johnson, will make their recommendation to the board as soon as a selection has been made.

A resolution was adopted recommending that the business functions of the college be placed under a business manager who would be directly responsible to the board of trustees. He would be required to submit an annual report to the board at any other time specified by the board.

Dr. Meadows yesterday was indicted by a Pitt county grand jury of 16 counts of embezzlement and one of false pretense growing out of the alleged mishandling of special funds. (Continued on page four)

JAMES MARLOW and GEORGE ZIELKE

Washington, April 27.—(AP)—The tax simplification bill now before Congress would do away with the procedure under which husband and wife could judge their income tax exemption in whatever way would benefit them most.

The new proposal, if enacted would set the surtax exemption at $500 for each person. (The normal tax, operating like the present victory tax, would have a flat $500 exemption regardless of dependents or marital status.)

When both husband and wife have income, this would leave them just two possibilities: 1. File a joint return and take $1,000 total surtax exemption. 2. File separate returns and take $500 surtax exemption each.

If a wife has no income, her husband—as always—could take the exemption for both, which under the proposed law would total $1,000.

At present, when both husband and wife have income, they can divide the exemption (now $1,200 for a couple) in any way they want—to keep taxable income out of upper surtax brackets with their higher rates.

Thus the husband now can take the whole $1,200 exemption—if, for example, he's making a big enough salary to put him into a higher surtax bracket, whereas his wife's income may, even without a cent of exemption, stay in the first surtax bracket.

Under the pending plan, The special exemption of the first $1,200 of pay from the armed services would be retained. So the working wife of a serviceman whose service pay was less than $1,500 could claim a $1,000 exemption on her income.

Russian Artillery Controls Every Street In Besieged City; Five Transports Sunk In Black Sea; Red Air Force Smashes Nazi Convoy In Barents Sea

By EDDY GILMORE Moscow, April 27.—(AP)—P-14 dispatches from the Crimean front declared today that Soviet artillery, commanding every street in Sevastopol, is firing point blank into the city and asserted that German attempts to hold out had definitely entered their last stage.

"The enemy still holds dead streets and squares," said the army newspaper Red Star, "but Soviet guns have reached the Germans and Romanians in their last shelters."

It appeared that the Soviet high command had decided to wipe out the enemy at any cost, even though it might mean the complete destruction of what still remains of battered Sevastopol.

The Red Star correspondent said the suburbs of the once-great naval base but they had been rendered unusable. He declared that Soviet dive bombers were cooperating with artillery in blasting the city.

The dispatch added that Russian troops had captured an important hill near the city on which the Germans had located eight artillery and four mortar batteries.

The Russian fleet and air force tightened the blockade on the city by sea and air and the cooperative blows have sunk five transports presumably carrying Axis troops from the besieged Crimean base.

In land fighting, the war bulletin said, 1,000 Germans were killed in two sharp but localized actions along the front, but the Russians made no mention of German and Romanian reports of a renewed Red army drive in the lower Dniester river area.

The five transports blasted in the Black sea totaled 13,000 tons, the communique said. Two other transports were damaged, and a landing barge and two patrol boats were sunk.

Two thousand miles to the north, the Red air force spotted a convoy of Nazi transports in the Barents sea, the bulletin said, and sank four transports totaling 20,000 tons, two patrol boats, a patrol launch, and (Continued on page four)

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL I. DOUGLAS

HE REGARDS THE UNWORTHY ALSO

We often hear the expression, "God helps those who help themselves." But have you ever thought that the conspicuous feature about God's dealing with man is that He seems for the most part to help those who cannot help themselves?

In His ministry upon earth, Jesus seemed to be interested chiefly in the outcast, the diseased, that great multitude of people regarded by their contemporaries as riffraff...

A great deal of cold-heartedness is frequently associated with the statement that God helps those who help themselves. Such a conviction feeds our egotism and makes us feel that we, with our energy and ability, are superior to the people round about us.

The truth probably is that God would regard us with much more favor if we made it our established policy to help the unworthy as well as the worthy—in fact to go out of our way to help the former because their need is great. If we help only the worthy, the world would become quite a univocal place, and if God helped only the worthy, we should fare badly on many occasions, if not on all.

God appears to regard humility much more highly than He regards ability.

Taylor added that "we have done everything possible to obtain cooperation of Mr. Avery and his staff but thus far it turns out that that is impossible. Therefore we intend to operate this plant and hope to do so without loss of efficiency in the operating staff and employees and without loss to stockholders."

and added.

"As a matter of fact we are the people being interfered with."

He asserted John A. Barr and Stuart Ball, company attorneys who were present when Avery was ejected, had declined to cooperate, and that Harold L. Pearson, vice president and treasurer, refused to turn over the firm's books.

A reporter told Biddle that Avery had stated the proceedings were a "bluff" by the government.

"We've called his bluff," the attorney general commented.

Repercussions of the melodramatic maneuvers at the nerve center of the huge mercantile business embracing nine mail order plants and 640 retail stores were evidenced elsewhere.

In Washington, Rep. Dewey (R-N.Y.) announced he would offer a resolution in the house for an investigation by a special committee of this high-handed and un-American procedure, which savors strongly of Gestapo methods.

Montgomery Ward stock advanced a bit early in the day. Stockholders were scheduled to meet tomorrow, a Ward spokesman said Avery was scheduled to preside.

Biddle, Taylor and Ugo Carusi, executive assistant to Biddle, arrived at the firm's headquarters at 7:45 a. m. and went to Avery's office.

Taylor distributed a statement to officials of the firm which made the following points:

The government is in possession of the concern's Chicago units. Taylor is the operating manager for the government. All employees are to perform their usual duties, and to comply with President Roosevelt's order. The American flag is to be flown on each building. Books are to be set up for the period of federal control.

Soldiers with bayoneted rifles patrolled the Administration building offices and the entrance to the retail store, shooting out reporters, although a company spokesman said press quarters would be made available later. Maj. J. R. Weber of the Sixth Service Command was in charge of the detail of some 35 soldiers, a token force which Taylor said yesterday simply emphasized the fact that the United States government had taken charge.

There was no immediate word from Avery or company counsel on Ward's next step although it was speculated the company might make some court move promptly.

The government, through the Department of Justice, has resisted a court test for the same reasons that the board oppose a provision for court review in the war labor disputes act. In the U. S. Gypsum case, the government's legal position is that the court has no jurisdiction or authority to enjoin the War Labor Board because its decisions are merely declarations of equities and are not enforced by the board itself. The government thus takes recourse in the virtual improbability that the courts will attempt to enjoin the President.

Forty Years Ago Today

THE DAILY REFLECTOR April 27, 1904

The News and Observer says there was snow in Raleigh last night.

The general belief is expressed that the tobacco crop of Pitt county this year will not be over fifty per cent of what it was last year.

Scarcity of farm labor is the report from all sections of the county, but a large cotton crop is being planted.

The Columbia, S. C. high schools have gone back to Webster's old "blue back" to teach the pupils how to spell. This is commendable, it's real progress in education.

Chatham Book Club.

Mrs. C. E. Blair entertained the Chatham Book Club Tuesday at her home on Fourth Street. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. E. L. Hubbard, Jr. of High Point, and Mrs. C. A. Bowen. On arrival of the guests, the hostess, assisted by Mrs. F. A. Bendall and Mrs. E. R. Conway, served a delicious dessert course.

Mrs. L. H. Bowling, who was in charge of the program, introduced Mrs. C. A. Bowen, guest speaker. Mrs. Bowen delighted the group with a condensed reading of the play, "Tomorrow the World." This is a three-act drama by James Gow and Arnold D'Useau which was produced by Theron Bamberger at the Ethel Barrymore Theatre, New York, April 14, 1943.

The play presents a postwar problem of Nazi youth. It deals dramatically with possible postwar complications having to do with the social readjustment of enemy nationals. The chief protagonist is a 12-year-old Nazi whose moral and physical reclaiming is attempted with threateningly disastrous results. With vivid word pictures of the characters, setting of the play, and select cutting of the script, Mrs. Bowen gave to those present a feeling of having actually viewed the play in a theater.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. W. P. Moore presided over the business session. Officers for the next year were elected as follows: President, Mrs. W. P. Moore; vice-president, Mrs. Carl L. Adams; secretary, Mrs. C. E. Blair; treasurer, Mrs. Duward Tucker.

The club voted to contribute $5 toward the fund for furnishing the lodge at Camp Hardee. The books were exchanged and the meeting adjourned.—Reported.

damaged two transports and a minelayer. Ten defending German planes were downed, and six Soviet aircraft were lost, it added.

Southeast of Stanislavow in old Poland, Soviet tankmen wiped out a company of Germans and seized "a height of great importance," the communique said, while more than 200 Germans were killed in a second clash in an unidentified sector of the second Ukraine front. Another 300 Germans were wounded, and the enemy lost 20 tanks and self-propelled guns in a futile attack there.

(A Romanian communique, which was broadcast from Bucharest and recorded by U. S. Government monitors, declared the Russians had launched new attacks north of Iasi, capital of the Romanian province of the same name, and said heavy fighting was in progress. The bulletin also asserted that further Russian attempts to widen the Soviet bridgehead on the lower Dnestr had been repulsed.)

The board also adopted a resolution that "the matter of retirement of Dr. L. R. Meadows, made under the state retirement law for state public schools and institutional employees, is a matter for the State Retirement Board, whose secretary advises that he (Meadows) has regularly made application on the prescribed form."

Meadows' pension is expected to be little more than $100 a month. He is eligible for retirement now that he reached his 60th birthday several weeks ago.

McGinnis was graduated from the State Normal School of West Virginia and also studied at the University of West Virginia, the University of Chicago and George Peabody College.

Under the adopted recommendations, the business manager shall be responsible for the following: Assistant in budget preparation, control of budget operation, accounting and preparation of financial reports, collection of all institutional income, pre-audit of expenditures, disbursement of all funds except student activity fees, internal audits, purchasing, inventory of property, management of student loan funds, management of physical plant and business management of dormitories, dining halls and laundry.

No department of the college shall collect any money without being authorized to do so by the business office. All institutional accounts shall be audited annually by the state auditors.

Butter Rating Values Reduced

Washington, April 27—(AP)—With more butter on store shelves, the ration value comes down Sunday from 16 points a pound to 12, while values of choice best cuts go up a point.

A four-point reduction for margarine is also ordered by the Office of Price Administration, bringing the new value to two points a pound. Farm or country butter gets an eight-point tax, reduced from 12.

Veal continues at current levels on the May chart, but all lamb and mutton items are reduced an average of 50 per cent to speed young lambs to market from drought stricken areas.

Spices, point-free in April, are given a value of one point a pound to slow rapid movement, but points on other pork cuts are unchanged.

Henhouse Robberies Bring Queer Result

By CHESTER WALSH
Harvey Hargett, middle-aged Negro is being held by police on two charges of robbing chicken coops. He is alleged to have pilfered fowls from the coops of J. A. Speight and L. M. Bullock. He will be tried in Police Court tomorrow.

In an enforcement circle about an elderly citizen who owns a parrot and a lot of chickens, thwarting thieves who frequently entered his hen houses. The parrot had an unlimited vocabulary. After losing a lot of chickens he placed the parrot on the roof nearest the henhouse door. The robbers came, got their birds and left. Walking along a dirt road with a bag of chickens the old Negro was accosted by an officer who asked what he had in the bag. "Some corn for the hogs," the Negro replied. About that time the parrot, smothering among half dozen chickens, chirped, "Corn! Not on your life! There's chickens in this bag and I'm in a helluva fix." Result—30 days in jail, Dial Laughinghouse said.

Air Offensive...

The German radio declared Allied planes roared into southern and southwest Germany this morning—possibly coming from Italy to make the day operations a two-day blow—and that great air battles were raging.

For hours beginning at dawn the channel coasts were filled with planes of almost every type resuming their scouring offensive.

Twenty-nine big British bombers were lost in the triple assault on the armaments city of Essen—the "Pittsburgh of Germany"—Schweinfurt and its ball-bearing factories, and the railways at Villeneuve St. George, 18 miles southeast of Paris.

Mosquito bombers also attacked the port of Hamburg, with two planes lost, and other bombers laid mines.

German bombers apparently intent on harassing invasion mobilizations struck at the English coast three times during the night, and Berlin identified objectives as the naval base of Portsmouth and other harbors.

LOW-POINT DISHES MAKE SHOPPING EASIER

The more low-point main dishes you have in your recipe files these days, the easier it is for you to shop for food. It is the low-point foods that are most plentiful so I feel that my big job nowadays is to keep you supplied with recipes for low-point dishes that are really a pleasure to serve—and to eat. Today's idea is for just such a dish.

For Six Healthy Appetites... MOR Noodle Casserole

1 can Wilson's MOR Certified (broken) 3 1/2 cups noodles 2 tsp. salt 7 cups boiling water
4 tbsp. Wilson's Margarine (broken) 4 tsp. flour 2 cups milk 1/2 tsp. dry mustard 1 pimiento, chopped 2 1/2 oz. can mushrooms (optional)

Cut MOR into 12 slices. Reserve 6 slices for the top of the dish and dice remaining meat. Boil noodles in salted water until barely tender, about 15-20 min. Drain, rinse and drain again. Make white sauce of Wilson's Certified Margarine, flour and milk. Mix in diced MOR, mustard, pimiento, mushrooms and pour into margarine sauce. If desired, top may be sprinkled with margarine crumbs. Arrange slices of MOR on top and bake 35 to 40 min., or until brown, in a moderate oven, 350° F. Serves 6.

PLANNED POINT-ECONOMY

For an "Adventure in Good Eating" try this delicious casserole. It's further proof that low-point foods can be delicious and nourishing. At approximately one red point per serving, this is truly "planned" point-economy.

You can use Wilson's MOR in many ways to help balance the point budget. Did you ever try MOR sliced and breaded like pork chops? It's really super.

Sweet potatoes and MOR just seem to go together so let them double for potato and vegetable when you serve MOR-Noodle Casserole. It will be nutritionally correct if you plan a tossed salad made of head lettuce, raw spinach, tomato wedges and chives.

SHARE AND PLAY SQUARE WITH FOOD

It's easy to throw away little bits of food, here and there. But please don't do it. Let's save food so more will be available for those less fortunate to whom even a dry crust of bread would be a feast.
