Russian Army Swarming Across Plains Of Poland

Gain Of 40 Miles Made In 24 Hours; Lwow And Lublin Captured; Panic Prevails Around Warsaw And Roads Leading Toward Germany Packed With Transport

By DANIEL DE LUCE
Moscow, July 25.—(AP)—Swift Russian columns paced by churning tanks, Kuban Cossacks and swarms of planes were less than 50 miles today from Warsaw after hitting German armies in the heart of Poland by capturing Lublin and Lwow.

The Russian drive over the unobstructed plains carried the Red army 40 miles forward in 24 hours. More than 12 hours ago, they were at the approaches of Silesia which the Germans said they had evacuated, 50 miles east of the Polish capital.

The Soviets were less than 20 miles from the Wisla river, which flows by Warsaw and forms the last natural barrier to Germany itself. A swift crossing of the Wisla would outflank the Warsaw region and expose the garrison of the city of 1,265,000 to attack from the south.

German Silesia lies within 150 miles of advanced Russian forces which splashed across the San river. Red pilots reported scenes of panic around Warsaw, with roads choked with transport. The main frontal assault toward Warsaw was 50 miles wide and indications were that other army groups from the northeast Bug river and from captured Lublin were about to join in a coordinated assault on the capital, 319 miles from Berlin.

(The German communique reported bitter fighting continuing inside Lwow, third city of Poland already bypassed and 60 miles behind Red army vanguards. The Nazis asserted that their Lublin garrison still was resisting "stubbornly" despite "overwhelming" Soviet forces.)

Positions of other Russian army groups as shown by communiques were:

Within two hours forced march of East Prussia.

Frontally attacking by-passed West Litovsk, cut off and isolated far behind the front.

Less than 70 miles southeast of the Baltic port of Riga.

Frontally attacking Bialystok on the Leningrad-Warsaw railroad.

Forty miles west of Lwow, with the capture of Moseyska.

New War Loan Drive Begins In November

Washington, July 25.—(AP)—The Sixth War Loan may begin November 1 and end December 7—anniversaries of World War I armistice and attack on Pearl Harbor.

The treasury emphasized that no decision has been reached. Nor has the goal been decided.

The Fifth War Loan ended officially July 8, and final figures not officially announced, are known to have exceeded the $16,000,000 goal.

The WAR TODAY

AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
Associated Press War Analyst

Here's hoping the renewal of the Allied offensive in Normandy this morning is the big show!

This is the crucial moment when concerted Allied onslaught might tear through Hitler's revolt-weakened defenses. In fact, that would seem to be the acid test to tell whether we may expect a quick end to the European war.

On that basis one would expect the western Allies to extend their drive in Normandy to the utmost at the earliest possible moment in conjunction with the terrific assault by the Red armies, which are going all-out for the kill. United Nations forces already are surging northward in great strength against the powerful Nazi Gothic line which defends the upper third of Italy. The Allied fourth front—the air—continues to tear at the vitals of Germany.

A mighty Allied drive in Normandy would complete the ring of death about Hitler. Today's offensives might be the beginning yet because the British and Canadians on the left flank, and the Americans on the right, slipped into gear so quietly in the dawn that it isn't apparent whether the war machine is to be thrown into top.

The Germans have said a big offensive was boiling up in Normandy. Many Russians have taken British Prime Minister Churchill's visit to the front as presaging a fresh effort. Perhaps that's wishful thinking about Churchill's mission, but there certainly have been mounting signs that the Allied volcano on the peninsula is about ready to erupt.

It's no secret that huge quantities of materiel, and great numbers of troops, have been pouring into France.

It presumably is this picture which encourages the Russians to expect a mighty effort in Normandy. They believe that Hitler's eastern and western fronts will blow up if simultaneous pressure is put on them in a big way. Judging from his disaster in the Russo-German theater, this might happen.

Having said this, however, we must qualify it by recognizing that the Hitlerites have been offering tough resistance in Normandy and that while they are in dire straits in the eastern theater, there has been no complete collapse of their fighting machine. Their position in the east is so precarious that the collapse might come—but it hasn't arrived yet.

The Germans are retreating pell-mell before the Red armies at most points in an effort to reach a new defensive line on which they can hold the enemy advance. The next logical line appears to be that along the great Wisla river which flows through Warsaw. However, they will be lucky if they can make a stand there, for they are said to lack the necessary armored divisions.

The Muscovites presumably are depending heavily on motor transport for their amazing mobility, and that means huge quantities of gasoline which must be transported over war-torn roads for long distances. In this connection it's interesting to see the versatile Russians using large contingents of cavalry which are ripping through the German line under their own power.

Guaranty Bank And Trust Company Enlarges Quarters

By CHESTER WALSH

The Guaranty Bank and Trust Company will have considerably increased office space when it occupies the annex in the building next door, recently remodeled for banking purposes, with doorways being built into the banking room and the additional quarters. The annex provides needed extra office space to take care of steadily increasing business in Greenville and at the bank's 10 branches in Eastern Carolina with $20,000,000 of resources. President Woolard's office will be in the annex a few yards from his present office in the lobby and be more convenient for the public. Americans Continue Progress On Tinian, Guam And New Guinea

(By The Associated Press)
Several United States task forces "with powerful groups of aircraft carriers as the mainstay" are maneuvering in the waters of the Marianas, some 1,500 miles from Tokyo, and the "time is not yet ripe for our fleet to come out and attack the enemy," the Tokyo radio asserted today.

The broadcast by Domei, official Japanese news agency, quoted the naval commentator Masanori Ito as saying:

"Strategically speaking, the time to deliver the coup de grace to this enemy has not yet arrived."

Later, he asserted: "Undoubtedly, our combined fleet is far inferior to the enemy's as far as aircraft strength is concerned. The fleet which loses command of the air is destined for defeat and immediate rout from the scene of battle."

It said the factors for "complete victory in a naval battle" were superior fleet strength, supplemental power needed to follow up the battle, and geographic considerations, as well as fighting technique and morale.

"Our combined fleet," it asserted in the Tokyo broadcast, "acting on the basis of cool reasoning and certainty, will not come out until an exhaustive study of the above factors has been completed."

The broadcast seemed to suggest that the fleet might remain in refuge of home waters near the protection of land batteries and land-based planes until, perhaps, the American fleet struck directly at Japan. It was this policy of deterrence that was being followed. (Continued on page two)

Urgent Call To Buy 'E' War Bonds Now

All township chairmen have been called on to concentrate their efforts to the balance of this week on the sale of "E" war bonds. Pitt County is behind in the region, and the state and nation are behind in their percentage of "E" bonds sold.

All civic organizations, sales agencies and committees are urged to concentrate their efforts on the sale of "E" bonds in order that Pitt County may not be embarrassed by falling so far short of its quota of "E" bonds. Our boys are still giving their lives every day. The war is not over and may not be for a long time, said J. Herbert Waldrop, Pitt County War Bond Committee chairman.

"E" bonds are postwar purchasing power. They may be cashed in any time after 90 days to buy the many articles that will be needed after the war, including automobiles, refrigerators, radios, stoves, etc. They pay more interest than any other bonds sold, if carried to maturity.

If you have not bought war bonds to the limit of your capacity, be sure and make your purchase this week, as Saturday is the last day they can be counted in the Fifth War Loan drive.

ARGENTINA'S AMBASSADOR IS RECALLED

Long-Threatened Break With Washington Is Completed; Buenos Aires Government To Issue Statement Tomorrow

By JOHN N. HIGHTOWER
Washington, July 25.—(AP)—The recall to Argentina of Ambassador Adrian Escobar completes the diplomatic break between Washington and Buenos Aires which has been developing since the Farrell regime took office last January.

Diplomatic quarters here awaited with considerable interest tomorrow's promised statement from Buenos Aires as a possible hint whether last night's action is to be followed by the withdrawal of Argentina's ambassador to other American capitals or whether Escobar is to be the only one affected.

In the latter event, the move would be interpreted in Washington to mean that the Argentine government headed by Edelmiro Farrell is pursuing a policy of trying to drive a wedge into Pan-American unity and split off some of the South American countries from the United States.

To combat this the other American nations have insisted on taking no action regarding Argentina except after consultation among themselves and agreement on a course satisfactory to all. This was stressed particularly by Secretary of State Hull at his press conference yesterday when he disclosed that a statement on policy would be issued but that the need for consultation with all the American governments would delay it several days.

Despite the recall from Buenos Aires of U. S. Ambassador Norman Armour and diplomatic representatives of other Latin American republics, the decision of the Argentine government to withdraw Escobar was "something of a surprise," a communique said.

The announcement said that such statements, if continued, "would constitute expressions which the (Continued on page two)

No Cause For Alarm

The Health Department, in keeping with its announced policy to keep the public informed, wishes to report the following facts about a case of infantile paralysis:

Little Johnny Richardson, aged 5 1/2 years, was visiting his aunt, Mrs. DeLoche Vincent, 386 James street. He was seen by Dr. J. M. Barrett and referred to Dr. Keller in Kinston. The boy was examined by Dr. Keller on Saturday and was sent to Hickory on Sunday where he could obtain appropriate treatment.

The state quarantine regulations are being enforced. There is apparently no cause for alarm as the case was contracted outside of Greenville.

Vinson Agrees To Review Leaf Ceiling Situation

Washington, July 25.—(AP)—Fred Vinson, director of the Office of Economic Stabilization, agreed today to review "the entire situation" with reference to the cured tobacco price ceilings to determine if growers' demands for an increase of two cents a pound could be granted without violating the "hold the line" order.

Rep. Cooley (D-NC) member of a congressional group aiding efforts of organized growers and warehousemen to obtain the adjustment, conferred with Vinson today.

He said Vinson called a conference this afternoon with James F. Brownlee, deputy price administrator, and promised to make his decision known as soon as possible.

Growers and warehousemen have threatened to keep markets in five states closed unless ceilings are raised.

The growers are asking a 41 cents a pound ceiling on unfired cured leaf in the Georgia-Florida belt. The OPA last week set a 39 cent ceiling for this year.

Producers are asking a ceiling of 45 cents for fired tobacco. The OPA fixed a ceiling of 43 cents. The case of growers in the five-state leaf cured belt—Georgia, Florida, North and South Carolina and Virginia—was presented to the OPA and the War Food Administration yesterday.

The answer was promised in 24 hours, or sometime today.

"The growers made considerable progress in their case," Tom Linder reported last night. "If the answer isn't satisfactory, we still have several cards up our sleeves."

Captured German Generals Urge Army To Quit Hitler

PROGRESS ON ITALIAN FRONT

Allied Armies Push To Within 10 Miles of Florence

By NOLAND NORGAARD
Rome, July 25.—(AP)—Steadily driving the Germans from one defensive position after another, Allied armies pushed within 10 miles of Florence and made limited gains elsewhere today along the Italian battlefield.

Official reports from the battle sectors said the tempo of the fighting had dwindled as the Germans gradually gave ground while preparing their defenses along the north bank of the Arno river between Florence and the west coast. However, a brisk fight developed east of San Miniato when the Germans launched two counterattacks in an unsuccessful effort to prevent the Fifth army from extending its lines eastward toward Florence.

American troops have cleared the enemy from the south side of the Arno along a sector from the west coast to a point within 18 miles of Florence. (Continued on page two)

Blood-Purge Inside Germany Continues With Insurance Of New Decees

By EDDY GILMORE
Moscow, July 25.—(AP)—Moscow newspapers printed today over the name of 16 captured German generals an appeal to all German officers and soldiers to renounce Adolf Hitler and bring the war to a close by refusing to fight further.

Reproductions of the signatures of the generals were headed by that of Gen. Velkers, former commander of the 27th army corps.

The statement declared that the signers, through long service in the German army in two wars, had come to the conclusion that the present struggle is hopeless. They appealed directly to the German army to:

(1) Break with Hitler immediately.

(2) Denounce all orders from him or his henchmen.

(3) Bring to an immediate end "this senseless bloodshed."

The general said it was the duty of all German officers to explain this situation to their troops.

The Russians took care to see that the statement would reach Germany, broadcasting it over short wave radio and dropping thousands of printed copies from planes in German-held territory.

By nightfall tonight, the Russians (Continued on page four)

Police Warn People Keep Dogs At Home

The police department today warned owners of dogs that hereafter the city law forbidding dogs to run at large on the streets will be strictly enforced, as a result of a dog biting several children last week and a child several days ago. One of the children is taking rabies treatment.

"The dogs must be kept off the streets and we are going to enforce the law," said Police Chief Herbert Woodson today. "When we can catch them we will impound them; when we cannot catch them we are going to shoot them and relieve the city of a general public nuisance," the chief said.

Will Repair Shop Damaged By Fire

The L. A. Randolph Auto Service Shop, on Washington street, gutted by fire yesterday which threatened adjoining property, suffered a heavy loss. Workmen will begin repairing the roof tomorrow to permit salvaging of cars and other material. Randolph carried no insurance on his plant, he stated.

J. A. Watson's hardware store, next to the burned building, which had the greatest damage from smoke, and the Keel Supply Company, S. V. Morton, Jr., Nichols Market and the County Rationing office on Fourth street, which suffered slight smoke damage, were open for business today.

Curtis Flanagan, alderman and fire commissioner at Farmville, in the city today, gave high praise to the Greenville firemen for preventing the fire from spreading to other buildings.

POLAND WILL GOVERN SELF

Russia Concludes Agreement With National Committee

London, July 25.—(AP)—Russia announced tonight it would conclude an agreement with the Polish Committee of National Liberation, rather than the exile government in London, covering relations between the advancing Red army and the civil administration of liberated Polish territory.

The Soviet announcement, broadcast by Moscow and recorded by the Soviet monitor, said the Russians have "no aims in acquiring any part of Polish territory" and gave the view that the western Bug river is regarded by Premier Stalin's regime as the Polish-Russian frontier.

Russian forces are well across the Bug and are advancing swiftly.

The announcement followed a manifesto issued yesterday by the Soviet-sponsored National Council of Poland setting up as a basic principle the transfer of pre-1939 eastern Polish lands to Russia. Describing these as Ukrainian, White Russia and Lithuanian lands, the committee said the Poles wanted (Continued on page two)

Today On The Home Front

By JAMES MARLOW

Chicago, July 25.—(AP)—This brassy city is building goodwill for itself all over the world by the way it treats service men and women.

They can come here—and do—spend their furloughs and leave without ever spending a dime.

They carry the word back to American camps and to American forces over seas.

This is how Chicago does it, a lesson in community cooperation: There are four large centers: A 14-story building in the loop; an old hotel; a large hotel for negroes; and a beach club operated in the summer.

More than 10 million men and women in uniform have visited these centers. The centers are operated by the Chicago Commission on National Defense, headed by Mayor Edward J. Kelly, chairman.

The help in the centers is 97 per cent volunteer and everything is on a do-as-you-please basis for the service people.

They can't spend any money in these centers. Food is free. They have several hundred beds, free, too.

Thus service people can eat and sleep their furlough away at no expense and keep tidy by washing, drying and pressing their clothes in machines set up for just that purpose.

Food donated to the centers by the community amounts to about $15,000 a week.

As for entertainment: About 30,000 free tickets for movies, theaters and sports events are available at the centers weekly.

Allied Armies Lunge Forward In New Double Offensive Seeking Break-through Of German Defenses; 4,000 Warplanes And Artillery Barrages Aid Assaults

By GLADWIN HILL
Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force, July 25.—(AP)—Supported by a massive armada of some 4,000 warplanes, the American and British armies burst forth at both ends of the 100-mile Normandy front today, and shoved the Germans backward in probably the greatest coordinated ground drive since D-Day.

Three thousand U. S. planes, including a record mission of 1,500 heavy bombers, smashed at the Germans opposing the new American offensive, location of which was not disclosed.

Hundreds of other planes supported the British-Canadian push south of Caen. In quick initial gains of more than a mile, British-Canadian tanks and infantry battling toward open tank country captured two towns, despite fierce resistance by at least two German SS armored divisions.

"Fighting continues very strenuously" on both the American and British sectors, Supreme Headquarters declared.

Throughout the day, headquarters kept secret all details of the American land drive. The U. S. First army has been strung along a winding front from St. Lo to Lessay on the west coast.

(Berlin said the Americans attacked from the area northwest of St. Lo, and declared a small penetration had been sealed off).

The British second army, hammering along on a four-mile front down to the road to Falaise, captured the towns of St. Emilion and Verrieres and street fighting raged in May-sur-Orne. These towns are some five miles below Caen.

Fighting also swirled for the town of Tilly-la-Campagne. Front dispatches said there was savage close-quarter fighting in indecisive battle after the British-Canadians cracked through the outer crust of German defenses and ran into a blistering series of anti-tank positions and machinegun nests. The Germans threw in batches of tanks to hold their lines.

Wilson McDiarmid Missing In Action

Rev. and Mrs. H. N. McDiarmid, 615 Evans street, were officially notified by the Adjutant General's office today that their son, Pfc. Wilson McDiarmid, was listed as missing in action in France on June 6 (invasion day).

Pfc. McDiarmid, 22, was a member of Company G, 116th Infantry. He graduated from Davidson College in 1942 and entered the army in April, 1943. He has been overseas since January of this year.

He has a brother, Newton McDiarmid, who is a member of the Army Air Corps, stationed at Dothan, Ala., and a sister, Miss Mary Elizabeth McDiarmid, of this city.

And at the centers themselves on a typical night is a choice of dances, night club entertainment with guest stars, billiards, pool and bowling.

There are music rooms with recordings for those who take their music seriously and like symphonies. And there are music rooms for those whose interests are strictly swing-time.

There are free lessons in Spanish and a darkroom for photographers to develop their pictures, with a top-notch amateur or professional Chicago photographer in attendance to advise and discuss technique.

There are even stenographers to help soldiers write their letters.

One sailor said: "Chicago has built up a terrific reputation for kindness to the men and women in uniform. No serviceman need feel lonely or lost here."

"Even on Sunday there is always a big list of Chicago people who want to have servicemen out to dinner or take them around."

"We won't forget it and maybe some day after the war Chicago will get real benefit from all this."

We'll remember Chicago when we want to make a trip or when we're picking a place to hold conventions, whether the conventions are for businessmen or Legion affairs."

Strength FOR THE DAY
By EARL L. DOUGLAS

D-DAY IN OTHER LANDS
The Allied Nations were not the only ones to invoke God's blessing on D-Day. German churches were also filled with German Christians who fell on their knees and called on God to protect Festung Europa from the invaders.

To many people this may seem to indicate that religion is a sham, a sentimental cloak for self-interest, a rationalization of worldly aims for power, money, or security. This is a superficial interpretation. The fault is not with Christianity, but with Christians. All sinners do not come before God with clean hands. For the few who honestly pray for the salvation of their souls, there are thousands who wine or cajole and beg God to grant their selfish wishes.

There are also many who pray in an attempt to justify their own guilt. This is not the case with many of those Germans who fall on their knees on D-Day. Confronted with the specter of retribution, they are stricken with a consciousness of their own guilt. They rushed to the churches not to confess, but to justify.

The Japanese also, bowing before their Emperor as the son of Heaven and calling upon their deities of war and destruction, ask that they be able to wipe their enemies, the Americans, from the face of the earth.

But God regards prayer from the heights of perfect knowledge and answers it according to His omniscient will. Only the prayers of the righteous will be heard.

Camp Hardee Stays Open During Summer

By CHESTER WALSH
Camp Hardee, Girl Scout camp on Pamlico river, complying with an order from Dr. Carl V. Reynolds, state health officer, is not accepting any new campers this summer, but will continue until the closing date, August 28, Girl Scout officials stated today.

It was planned last week to close the camp because of the polio epidemic, but with approval of the health officer, it was decided to remain open.

There are about 30 girls at the camp now. Their health is excellent and there have been no accidents. Practically all of those now in camp will remain. No newcomers will be accepted. Those at the camp have been isolated so long that they are better off than they would be mixing in crowds, it was pointed out today.

Mrs. James T. Uzzie, Girl Scout executive secretary, is camp director. The camp personnel is high, living quarters are safe and comfortable, a dietitian provides the best food and every safeguard is provided for the campers. The beach is one of the safest on the river.

Mrs. E. L. Henderson, Girl Scout commissioner, an executive committee and council members are gratified over the plan to keep the camp open the full period without taking newcomers.

Mr. H. M. Hardee, prominent retired Norfolk, Va., business man and a former president of Pitt county, who donated $10,000 for buildings at the camp in memory of his parents, continues his interest in its success. His granddaughter, Miss Fatsy Shook of Norfolk, is now at the camp.

ReBarker Speaker At Rotary Meeting

By WYATT BROWN
Service as the ideal of every vocation or profession was expounded by Dr. Herbert ReBarker last night in a brief address at the Rotary club. In view of a worldwide social revolution in progress everyone must keep the faith, study and maintain the ideal of service if the individual is to succeed or the problem of minorities be met, he said.

Captain Jasper Jones, commander of the local unit of the North Carolina State Guard, spoke briefly on the need of recruits, explaining how the draft and essential industry had enlisted the young men of the local unit and now recruits must come from those a little older. Capt. Jones also members of the State Guard were guests of the Rotarians for dinner.

In his address Dr. ReBarker opened his remarks by indicating the point revolution of which the present war is merely one facet. Then he answered the question, "What Am I here for?" It boils down to service. Vocations and professions grew up as a result of a conscious need for service, he stated.

"We serve best through our vocations. There is the consciousness of the need of keeping the faith," he declared. He said faith with the past, present and future generations must be kept. Each must recognize the worthwhileness of his vocation or profession. We must be sold to it, else it is not going to stand out in our lives. Digging ditches can be made into a worthwhile vocation, he concluded.

Byce B. Brown of Schenectady, N. Y., was a guest of the club. The following officers and enlisted men were guests from the State Guard: Capt. Jones, Lt. Greene, Sgt. Welch, Sgt. Page, Sgt. Hester, Sgt. McLeod, Sgt. Rogers, Cpl. Ennis, Cpl. Coward, Cpl. Moore and Privates Aycock, Duncan, Gilliam, Morris, Allen, Baker, Skinner, McLeary, Johnson, Stancil, and Forrest. Joe Moye, president of the club, presided.

It was announced last night at the Rotary club that the joint dinner meeting of the club of the city would take place on August 10 at the armory.

American casualties on Guam through July 22 were 348 killed, 110 missing and 1,500 wounded.

War Correspondent Clinton Green said marines were ashore on Tinian after probably the greatest half-hour air, naval and land-based bombardment yet concentrated on a single island in the Pacific.

The Japanese did not open fire until the ninth landing wave, and then only with mortars and machineguns—lightly compared to Saipan. The marines progressed at least 600 yards during the first two hours.

Green said Tinian's civilian population of 15,000 apparently went underground as in the early days at Saipan, three miles north of Tinian. Hiding in the bushes were several children, including one 18 months old. They were taken to Saipan.

Only major island in the southern Marianas upon which Americans have not yet landed is Rota, midway between Guam and Tinian. It was attacked by carrier aircraft Sunday.

Bombers from the Nimitz area and from the New Guinea theater, commanded by Gen. Douglas MacArthur, continued joint assaults upon the Caroline islands, striking Yap, Palau, Woleai and Ponape. Two of eight intercepting enemy planes were destroyed at Yap.

The landings on Guam and Tinian, four days apart, were on western beaches, as they were at Saipan.

At Tinian, troops of the second and fourth marine divisions—conquerors of Saipan—took control of two and one-half miles of coastline.

The greatest threat to the Nazi defenders of Florence, however, was from the south. Fifth and Eighth army units steadily drove the enemy back on an arc running southwest to southeast of the historic city.

Units moving up highway No. 2, main artery to Florence from the south—seized the town of Strada and captured over 60 Germans. To the east of Strada south Africans seized Monte Pili and their armored cars pushed on against brisk opposition.

British guardsmen fighting alongside South African troops gained the heights of Monte Domini, two miles from the town of Greve and 12 miles south and slightly east of Florence. Greve was found clear of enemy troops.

British in the Tiber valley also advanced, a spearhead reaching the vicinity of Sansepolcro, 10 miles northwest of Clitta di Castello.

The Germans managed to stabilize the Adriatic front somewhat and brought up long-range cannon and shelled the port of Ancona but failed to prevent the continuation of the port repairs. Polish troops meanwhile brought up tanks for an assault on Ostra, 18 miles west of Ancona.

An official announcement today said the German 278th division lost from 3,000 to 4,000 men killed, captured or wounded in the fighting between Pescara and Ancona.

From the heights of Monte Pisano to the northeast German guns shelled portions of Pisa, south of the Arno river, which the Americans occupy, and growing enemy activity was noted along the north banks of the river.

down, and the American attack opened shortly before noon. Huge artillery barrages supported both drives.

Besides the big bombers, the American air fleets aiding Lt. Gen. Omar N. Bradley's troops included medium and light craft spraying German defenses with bullets and fragmentation bombs.

The double offensives broke a four-day stalemate in France.

the road to Fallaise along a four-mile front, heading toward firm, open ground excellent for tank battles.

The ridge highway which the British and Canadians were following leads to Fallaise, birthplace of William the Conqueror and to Paris. In the early hours of the push, while the advancing troops still were shielded by ground mists, the British and Canadians reached May-sur-Orne for an advance of 700 yards and Verrieres for a gain of 1,000 yards. They also reached Tilly-la-Campagne, nearly a mile east of the road. All these points are about five miles below Caen. Bad weather checked Gen. Montgomery's offensive last week.

Montgomery achieved an element of surprise—although the Germans for two days have been forecasting a drive—by shifting the weight of his attack during the full five miles to the west. This shift was from the southeasterly highway toward Vimont and Paris, 120 miles away, to the more southerly highway to Fallaise.

Although the communique failed to specify the statements attributed to Secretary Hull it apparently referred to dispatches from Washington which said Hull disclosed yesterday that the State Department had sent a report to all Latin American nations setting forth Washington's views on Argentina.

At a press conference yesterday, the dispatches added, Hull said the United States was making known the honest policies, which separate the attitude of American nations supporting the Allied cause had of the attitude of the American nation supporting another cause.

The dispatches were approved for publication by Argentine authorities early today, about nine hours after their receipt.

The recall of Escobar came several weeks after U. S. Ambassador Norman Armour and British Ambassador Sir David V. Kelly had been called home by their respective governments for consultations. Most Latin American ambassadors to Buenos Aires left Argentina about the same time and have not returned.

W. H. Woolard today about additional quarters being provided at the bank's main office on Evans street in Greenville, he stated that in view of growing needs for larger banking quarters and more working space, the bank about five years ago purchased an adjoining store building. The plan was to make a major improvement and convert the two buildings into modern banking quarters in keeping with the growing local business and the requirements of the administration of the bank's 10 branches.

"On account of the war, it is impossible to carry out this plan at the present, but by reason of pressing need for more room, the bank has connected the two buildings with two doorways and converting the store building into temporary banking offices for the duration. All of these offices are very convenient to the public and accessible from the lobby. They will be used by the president and the trust and auditing departments," President Woolard said.

The new quarters will be put into use in about 10 days or two weeks.

Slay-Kyzer.
A wedding of impressive beauty and dignity was solemnized on Monday at 10:30 a. m., at the Presbyterian Church, when Miss Katherine Kyzer and Captain Ronald Joseph Slay were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. A. Hartwell Campbell and the Rev. H. N. McDonald.

The church with its background of ferns, palms, white lilies and white gladioli illuminated by the soft glow of cathedral candles formed a lovely setting for the impressive ceremony.

As the guests assembled, Mrs. Guy Smith, organist, rendered a program of nuptial music including Arioso in "A" by Bach; The Swan, by Saint-Saens; Ave Maria by Schubert, Adagio, Sostenuto, Op. 27, Beethoven.

Acting ushers were Messrs. Roy Coburn, A. B. Stallworth, E. C. Rankin and W. N. Spruill, deacons in the bride's church.

Just before the entrance of the bride party, Miss Louise Kligo sang "Through the Years," by Vincent Youmans, and Miss Elizabeth Brinkley sang "I Love Thee," by Oris. The traditional wedding marches were used. During the ceremony Mrs. Smith played softly "Du-bist Die Ruh," by Schubert.

The bride entered the church with her father, by whom she was given in marriage, and was met at the altar by the groom and his father, Dr. E. J. Slay, who acted as best man. She was dressed in white in her wedding gown of white tulle, satin, styled with fitted bodice and sweetheart neckline and long pointed sleeves. Her very full skirt fell in soft folds terminating in a dramatic spread of train and was edged all around with Chantilly lace. Her full length veil of illusion cascaded from a pointed band of orange blossoms. She carried a bridal bouquet of bride's roses and orchids showered with tube roses. Her only ornament was an heirloom lavalier of pearls and amethyst.

The bride chose as her only attendant, Mrs. James Slay, sister-in-law of the groom, as dame of honor. She wore an exquisite gown of "Indian Moire" marquisette styled with high neckline, long full sleeves, long bodice and full intricate skirt. She wore a halo of matching illusion with natural flowers and carried a colonial bouquet of asters and golden charm roses.

As the couple knelt for prayer at the close of the ceremony, Rev. McDonald, who had christened the bride when a baby, said the benediction as the final blessing of the church.

For the wedding the bride's mother wore a two-piece model of tinted mauve crepe with violet accessories and an orchid. Mrs. Slay, mother of the groom, was dressed in French blue crepe with luggage accessories and an orchid.

Mrs. Slay is the attractive and popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard T. Kyzer of Greenville. She graduated from Greenville High School in 1938 and from East Carolina Teachers College in 1943. She was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi, a member of the Student Council and chairman of the Student Campus Committee. She made her debut in Raleigh at the 1943 Debutante Ball. For the past year she has held a Civil Service position with the United States Government and resided in Arlington, Va. The bride is the direct descendant through her maternal lineage of Adiel Sherwood, a founder of Mercer University, Macon, Ga., namesake of maternal grandfather Katherine Stever Benson, who was the first graduate of the country's oldest chartered female college, Wesleyan, and the mother of Admiral William Shepherd Benson. Her father is executive secretary of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce, a descendant of a leading South Carolina family, prominent in educational circles in that state.

The groom, son of Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Slay of East Carolina Teachers College, is a captain in the United States Marine Corps Reserve. He graduated from Greenville High School in 1935 and Duke University in 1938. He is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity. Before entering the Marine Corps he taught two years at Tazewell, Va. He was commissioned in January, 1942, and served with the First Marine Division for two years in the South Pacific.

After a short wedding trip, Capt. and Mrs. Slay will be at home at Quantico, Va., where Capt. Slay is stationed.

For traveling Mrs. Slay chose both the green silk shantung with matching hat and cocoa brown accessories. She wore an orchid from her bride's bouquet.

Immediately following the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Willard T. Kyzer entertained at a wedding breakfast at the Proctor Hotel honoring Capt. and Mrs. Slay.

Guests were greeted by Mrs. C. W. Shuff and Miss Phyllis Shuff. Mrs. R. C. Rankin invited the guests into the dining room, where from a beautifully appointed table centered with an exquisite crystal bowl of white asters, roses and baby's breath, a tempting breakfast was served.

Guests included the bride and groom, members of the wedding party, relatives and out-of-town guests.

On Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. James T. Little entertained at an informal supper, prior to the rehearsal, having as their guests the bride and groom and their parents.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Henderson and Miss Dorothy Nell Henderson entertained at a lovely cake cutting honoring Miss Katherine Kyzer and Capt. Ronald J. Slay on Sunday night after rehearsal.

Blue hydrangeas and pink crape myrtle decorated the living room. The dining room decorations were in all white. The mantel was banked with white flowers and candles and held a bridal scene with marine figures and bridesmaids dressed in yellow. From the chandelier wedding bells were showered.

The table was spread with an Italian cutwork cloth and centered with a large wedding cake flanked with tall white candles, in silver holders, entwined with delicate green vines.

The bride party drew tokens from the cake, after which the bride and groom cut the first two slices. Mrs. J. M. Slay or Graham, R. C. matron of honor, served the cake. At one end of the table Mrs. W. T. Kyzer served ice cream. At the opposite end punch was served from an antique silver bowl by Mrs. R. J. Slay.

Guests were members of the immediate families and out-of-town guests.

Among the out-of-town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. George B. Wood of Asheville, aunt of the bride, and Miss Jeanette Barry of Washington, D. C., a schoolmate.

Union Church Services.
Many young people and adults enjoyed a union church service by the Christian Youth Movement of Greenville, Sunday night at Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church.

The program was centered around "Missions." Those taking part on the program were Frances Holcomb, leader, Jimmy Harney, Elizabeth Ricks and Sudie Carawan who made talks concerning missions in the world today and future plans for tomorrow.

Leon Fleming was in charge of the music. Harper Darden sang "Father of Heaven," and there was a duet, "My Task," by Elizabeth Brinkley and Mary Andrews Whichard. Everyone fully enjoyed this service.

Sunday night at 7 o'clock in the Presbyterian Church the young people will present another service on "God Through Faith." At this service there will be a special speaker. All young people and adults are invited to attend.

NAVY OPENS ENLISTMENT FOR 17-YEAR-OLD BOYS
The recent statement by Secretary of the Navy Forrestal that 124,000 more men will be needed this year for naval service was described today as lending weight to the navy's appeal for more women as WAVES by H. S. Lee, local Navy-WAVES recruiter.

Also, Lee announced, that more 17-year-olds boys than had been expected can volunteer for the navy. Enlistments for boys, which have been closed temporarily, is now open, due to the increased quota, and applicants to fill this increase are being accepted locally.

The local recruiter is here on Mondays and Tuesday, with his office being in the post office. All local 17-year-olds who desire to volunteer for the Navy are urged by the recruiter to see him on his visits here.

PLAYGROUND NOTES
Swimming classes are still in progress at the local pool every Monday, Wednesday and Friday from 12:30 to 2 o'clock.

A Junior Red Cross Life Saving class will begin on Wednesday at 1 o'clock. Those who wish to take the course must be at least 12 years old. There is no charge except for admission to the pool.

At the end of the summer there will be three prizes for any type of handicrafts done on the playgrounds. The girls will probably be interested in making a small stuffed animal, several of which can be obtained on any of the playgrounds. There is also clay for modeling and drawing materials. At Third Street there are some interesting bits of wood that can be made into useful articles. A special prize will be awarded to the person who can make something useful out of material that might ordinarily go to waste.

Futrelle Attending Welfare Conference
K. T. Futrelle, county welfare superintendent, is among the 26 county welfare heads in North Carolina asked by the State Department of Public Welfare to attend a four-day refresher course in Raleigh this week. The course is given as part of the state department's program of staff development.

Among the subjects studied are relationships of county welfare departments with other agencies; interpretation of the program to the public; financial, statistical, and mental testing procedures; work with Negro families; child welfare problems; public assistance; and staff development.
