Local Girl Crowned Queen.

Miss Jane Massey of Greenville, was crowned Emerson queen and Miss Peggy Pruette of Wadesboro, was the Irving bride Wednesday night when the new girls were joined to the old girls in the traditional society programs at Greensboro College.

Reigning over the Emerson court was Miss Jane Massey of Greenville, who wore white and carried American Beauty roses. Miss Mette Lewis of Wadesboro, Emerson president, crowned their queen. Attending her were Misses Laura Jane Taft of Wadesboro, Ann McCollum of Wentworth, Mary Dula of Wilkesboro, and Rebecca Dalk of Mooresville.

Miss Janie James of Bethel, Irving vice-president, performed the Irving ceremony with Miss Eleanor French, president, and Miss Pruette representing the old and new members. Miss Pruette wore a white gown and a fingertip veil draped from a white velvet headdress. She carried a bouquet of mixed white flowers. Her maid of honor was Miss Rebecca Royal of Hamlet, who also wore white and carried red roses.

To Review Book.

On Monday, November 6, in Memorial Baptist Church at 10:30 o'clock, Mrs. B. McK Johnson will review the book "The Silent Billion Speak," by Dr. Frank C. Laubach. It is a deeply moving story of Dr. Laubach's pioneer struggle against illiteracy in the Philippines. It is one of the most creative and interesting Christian ventures of our time.

Everyone is asked to bring a sandwich and hot tea will be served at the lunch hour.

The members of the W. M. U. of Memorial Baptist Church are all expected to attend and a most cordial invitation is extended to every one who would like to come.

Troop Meeting.

Troop 12-B held its regular meeting at the Rotary Club Wednesday. The leader called the meeting to order and the patrol leaders called the roll and took up the money. There were twelve girls present, one being absent. This was the largest meeting this year. Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Uzzle talked to us about our badges. Then we were adjourned, looking forward to the banquet on Friday night.

How her Backache is better
Many ailments relieve nagging backache quickly, once they discover that the real cause of their trouble may be tired kidneys. The kidneys are Nature's chief way of taking the excess acids and waste out of the blood. They help most people pass about 3 quarts a day.
When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pain, loss of pep and energy, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache, dizziness, nervousness or irritability, and a general feeling of burning some- where in the back.
The kidneys are the "filters" of the body. They give happy relief and will help the 13 million kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

End of the Century Club.
 Mrs. J. S. Moye delightfully entertained the End of the Century Club at her home Tuesday afternoon. Upon arrival the guests were invited into the dining room where Mrs. Aubrey Shackell and Mrs. George Hadley assisted the hostess in serving delicious refreshments which carried out the Halloween motif.
 Mrs. Ficklen Arthur presided over a short business session. The club voted to give ten dollars to the Emergency Fund of the local USO.
 Mrs. Charles White presented the speaker of the afternoon, Dr. A. D. Frank, who spoke to us on current events. Dr. Frank's comments and analysis of the news, both abroad and on the home front, were most informative and interesting.
 Mrs. C. S. Carr of Norfolk, Miss Janie Lyerly, Mrs. George Hadley and Mrs. Aubrey Shackell were guests of the club.—Reported.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

WE MUST SEEK PEACE

Few people would dispute the fact that the basic cause of the world's ills today is that society has departed from certain well-known standards of morality. Our enemies have forsaken the Golden Rule. They have defied the Biblical declaration that God "hath made of one blood all nations of men for to dwell on the face of the earth and hath determined the bounds of their habitation." The theory of a master race and the spirit of banditry which caused armies to pour across frontiers and fasten themselves like leeches upon defenseless populations, presume to justify such actions by a blatant denial of the God-hatred made the nations of one blood and hath appointed the bounds of their habitation.

But we too have departed from these same Biblical standards. When Manchuria was taken and Ethiopia ravaged, we shrugged our shoulders and said, "Are we our brother's keeper?" So both sides bear their share of the guilt, even though we feel that the enemy bears a much heavier burden than we do.

Certainly we shall not come to equilibrium in this storm-tossed and to any semblance of international balance until explicitly and implicitly the nations of the world agree that God is the God of all men. And there will be a new motive in human service and a new consideration of one people for another only when men confess and put into operation the principles of the Prince of Peace.

PUBLIC FORUM

DISCUSSING PROBLEMS OF INTEREST TO THIS COMMUNITY IN ALL CASES NAMES MUST ACCOMPANY ANY COMMUNICATION

DISCUSSION SUBJECT
The proposed amendment abolishing the constitutional requirement for the private examination of the wife for the sale of the homestead, should be defeated.

The General Assembly of North Carolina of 1943 proposed five amendments to our constitution. They will be submitted on one official ballot in five sections.

The fifth section or proposition at the bottom of the official ballot, provides for the abolition of the present constitutional requirement for the private examination of married women for the conveyance of the homestead, as now provided by Article 10, Section 8 of the Constitution. In my opinion said proposed amendment should be defeated; but to better understand the proposition or question involved, Section 8 as it is, and the proposed re-writing of it should be copied, and here they are:

"Section 8. How deed for homestead may be made. Nothing contained in the foregoing sections of this article shall operate to prevent the owner of a homestead from disposing of the same by deed; but no deed made by the owner of a homestead shall be valid without the signature and acknowledgment of his wife."

The proposed amendment would re-write Section 8, as follows:

"Section 8. Nothing contained in the foregoing section of this article shall operate to prevent the owner of a homestead from disposing of the same by deed; but no deed made by the owner of a homestead shall be valid without the signature and acknowledgment of his wife."

The homestead was provided for and written into the Constitution by the founders or framers for the protection of the home, principally for the protection or preservation of homes of people of limited or moderate means, or to protect the poor. They the framers knew that said protection or safeguard of the home owners (the homestead) would constantly be attacked by the wealthy or well to do, the speculators and the credit men; and therefore they wrote Section 8 therein, as above copied. It gives the wife the last, a last clear chance, to tell the signing officer whether she is signing the same freely and voluntarily without fear or compulsion of her husband or any other person, and that she doth still voluntarily assent thereto. The proposed amendment takes from the wife that safeguard and protection; and would only require the signature and acknowledgment of the husband, and would require the signature and acknowledgment of the wife of a poor man or a man of moderate means suggesting an easier way of taking from her and her children their home (homestead) and turning them out of doors? The suggestion, the proposition, did not come from that side of the house. It had its inception with the wealthy, the well to do, the loaners and the credit man. It should not pass.

It is conceded that (Section 8) has not always given adequate protection, and will not always do so; but there is no question but what it has saved homes for many families, and if retained as it is it will save many more. Often the husband is a timid soul, not able to resist the pressure of the desiring purchaser or loaner, and Section 8 and his wife are his last hope to save the homestead, their home.

Section 8 of Article 10 of the Constitution was written into it some after the Civil War, the times that really and truly tried men's souls and it was written for protection and protection it should remain. It has been the watch dog on the door steps of the homes of people of moderate means since the Civil War and said watch and protection should not be lost by the proposed amendment.

Then again we are in war, our boys are in foreign countries and on foreign soil fighting for our rights and our protection, and they have had no opportunity to hear it discussed, and many may not vote, and we should not vote out or write out such a vital part of our Constitution in their absence. The voters should be slow to write such a vital and protective section out of the Constitution in the absence of our boys who are so nobly defending our rights and the flag; and I trust that the proposed amendment will be defeated. —JULIUS BROWN men, both Kuomintang and Communist, isn't available to fight the Japs. And there are other trials. The Japanese hold virtually all the rich industrial areas. Unoccupied China is crowded into the primitive hinterland, economically shot to pieces, in the grip of terrible inflation—just hanging on by her teeth. That's what the Allies have been trying to alleviate—and we are told that they've been encountering obstruction from reactionary and anti-foreign elements in the central government.

On the whole the present show-down may perhaps come as a welcome relief to Allies who've been leaning over backward in an effort to meet Chiang's wishes. It should clear the air and result in more realistic relations between China and her Allies.

To Name Farm Committeemen

Farmer committeemen who will have important roles in war and postwar farm problems will be named at AAA elections in Pitt County between November 20 and 25, according to Mr. J. V. Taylor, chairman of the county AAA committee. Locations and dates of the elections will be announced as soon as they are arranged.

Farmers from each AAA community will choose three committeemen and two alternates, and delegates elected at these meetings later will name three members and two alternates for the county AAA committee. All farmers who have or will participate during 1944 in any phase of the AAA program, such as carrying out approved soil building practices, are eligible to vote in AAA community elections. Committeemen elected at this time represent both their neighbor farmers and the Government in the work and responsibilities of the Agricultural Adjustment Agency. Their recommendations, based upon personal knowledge and experience, help shape agricultural programs to meet local and national problems of farmers and consumers.

The election meetings also will give farmers an opportunity to consider the problems and demands of the coming year.

"A program is being arranged for a full discussion of what's ahead," Mr. Taylor said. "Every farmer should attend the meeting in his community to take part in the discussion. Here is one important event in which farmers can take part to help prevent economic chaos such as followed the last war."

Among the subjects to be discussed at the meetings are: conservation practices for 1945, productive goals, and the general agricultural outlook for the coming year.

Women Needed For WAC Medical Units

Southern women do not think the war is over if one can judge by increased enlistments in the Women's Army Corps, it was announced today by headquarters of the Fourth Service Command, Atlanta, Ga. With an amazing gain of 1125 during August 1944, as compared with August, 1943, WAC recruiting officials of Fourth Service Command are anticipating a lively recruiting program this fall.

Statistics show the Jacksonville District leading with an increase over last summer, chalking up a rise of 158 1-2 last month as compared with a year ago. Contributing to this new interest is the need for WAC medical technicians. The thousands of wounded men pouring back into army hospitals are opening the field to both skilled and unskilled women interested in every phase of hospital work. These are the women who are fighting "the Battle of America"—the biggest battle of the entire war—the battle here at home to restore our wounded fighting men to life and health again. 21,000 medical technicians are needed for this urgent work and many have already answered the War Department's call in the past few months.

Order Seizure Of Il Duce Property

Rome, Nov. 2—(AP)—Benito Mussolini's personal property and real estate were today confiscated by a Rome court order at the request of the customs superintendent's office.

The order also provided for seizure of the property of Mussolini's immediate family.

Rome newspapers said the greater part of Mussolini's goods had been transferred previously to Brno by planes of a trans-Atlantic airline, of which Vittorio Mussolini, son of the former dictator, was president.

"AFTERNOON OUT" DINNER

When your family know you've been away most of the day and you still manage to give them a thoughtfully planned, well-cooked dinner, they have to credit you with being a pretty smart operator. Right? With a few tricks up your sleeve (or on your pantry shelf) it really is easy to prepare a hearty, hot dinner in just a few minutes... one you'll be proud of.

MOR-Sweet Potato Casserole... a Quick Trick

2 large sweet potatoes
1 can Wilson's MOR
Whole cloves
2 tsp. Certified Margarine
Wash sweet potatoes and cook in boiling water to cover until nearly tender. Peel and cut lengthwise in 1/2 inch slices. Place in margarine casserole around whole MOR which has been sealed and cloved. Dot potatoes with Certified Margarine and sprinkle with salt and paprika. Pour syrup (made with brown sugar, lemon rind, lemon juice and water) over all and bake 20 min. in a moderate oven (375° F.). Serves 4 very generously.

BUSY LADY'S SPECIAL

This delicious casserole will be a boon to homemakers who are giving, as well as to women who are employed, much of their time to War Bond selling, the Red Cross and other wartime activities. The dish can be prepared (except for baking) the night before or the first thing in the morning; shortly before dinner-time, all you have to do is slip it into the oven.

When you're pressed for time, a can of Wilson's MOR on your pantry shelf is smart insurance for a delicious, hot dinner. Its convenience and its rare good flavor make it a good meat to have on hand always.

Be Protein-Wise

You're right up on your toes, nutritionally, when you give your family a tasty MOR dish. Made of tender, pure pork, it contains valuable B vitamins and the complete, high quality proteins of fresh pork.

Grain Market

Chicago, Nov. 2—(AP)—A third-day decline in grain futures prices was halted today when corn resented early selling pressure and limited offerings indicated an oversold condition in other markets.

At the close wheat was 1/2 to 3/4 higher than yesterday's finish, December $1.63 1/2. Corn was up 1/4 to 1 1/2, December $1.69. Oats were 1/4 to 1/2 higher, December 63 1/2. Rye was up 1/4 to 1 1/2, December $1.10 1/2. Barley was 1/2 lower to 1/4 higher, December $1.02 1/2.

New York Cotton

New York, Nov. 2—(AP)—Cotton futures opened 5 to 15 cents a bale higher.

Novon values were 15 cents a bale lower to 5 cents higher, Dec. 21.50, March 21.65 and May 21.68.

New York cotton closed unchanged to 25 cents a bale lower.

Phantoms To Play At Raleigh Friday Night

A twice defeated, three times victorious Phantom team invades the City of Raleigh tomorrow night in an attempt to upset a favored Raleigh High stronghold.

The Phantoms will be heavy underdogs and little chance for a Greenville victory is expected; however, Coach Clark has the greatest of confidence in his Greenville proteges. He believes that the Phantoms have the weight and material necessary for an upset.

The Phantoms, at times this year, have looked good both defensively and offensively but their attack bogged down tremendously in some games, especially the last Kinston game.

In an effort to improve tackling and blocking Coach Clark has gone through stiff practices this week. Tomorrow night the Phantoms will be without Billy Harrington, a very good runner and passer, who has played outstanding ball this year.

Harrington received an ankle injury in the game last week. Except for Harrington, the rest of the team will be in good physical condition. The unexpected may happen tomorrow and the Phantoms might win, but even if they are not victorious, the Greenville boys are expected to give the Raleigh boys a run for their money.

The probable starting line up will be Fleming and Batchelor, ends; Lupton and Rice, tackles; William, center. The offensive firework are expected to be carried by Perkins, tailback; Futrell, fullback; Jordan, blocking back; Leggett, wing back.

Coach Clark is expected to play many of his capable replacements.

Allied Forces . . .

South Beveland was disclosed to have been pulled back yesterday out of ruinous Nazi crossfire from the Walcheren side, but overnight the Canadians drove back and this morning once again held a small and fiercely-contested bridgehead a few hundred yards deep.

Below the Maas in south central Holland, enemy rearwards were fighting off Allied attacks on the escape bridges with the same bitter determination. Resistance was savage on the approaches to the Moerdijk bridge over the Hollandsch Diep. Farther east, the Allied troops held 4 1/2 miles of the south bank of the Maas, and were fighting in Geertruidenberg.

In eastern Holland, where the enemy last week struck out with a heavy attack west of Venlo in an unsuccessful attempt to relieve pressure against the crumbling front above Antwerp, the British counterattack rolled up fresh gains, advancing two miles beyond Liesel, which was recaptured yesterday. With tank support, British infantry also cleared the enemy from a stretch along the banks of the Deurne Canal.

In southern sectors of the long Allied front, local gains were made in the American sectors, including the capture of Letricourt and Abscourt, northeast of Nancy, and 26 miles southeast of Metz.

In the region of the northern Vosges, units of the Seventh army captured three villages—Burlville, Hainville and Azeville—southeast of Lunville, and north of Bucarat. New gains in the wooded country southeast of Rambervillers also were scored.

Over Holland the weather hampered air operations, although fighterbombers attacked communications in the area, and RAF planes went out to support the Walcheren landings, operating at times with visibility as little as 500 feet.

However, heavy bombers with fighter escort hit the Rhur yesterday afternoon and Oberhausen last night, while light bombers attacked Cologne and Berlin. Fighter-bombers supporting the ground forces hit a dam near Dieuze, east of Nancy, in the area which was flooded by a similar attack two weeks ago, and went after communications, railways and power installations in the Rhineland and the Saar.

made by an all-Canadian force of Halifaxes.

RAP Mosquitos attacked transport in Germany and Holland, destroying or damaging 46 trains, 10 barges and four small ships.

Seven bombers and two fighters were missing yesterday afternoon and last night. Five German planes were destroyed.

U. S. Thunderbolts scored seven hits yesterday on a dam holding a nine-square-mile lake 15 miles southeast of Dieuze. Other American fighter bombers flattened 12 factory buildings near the frontier town of Sargemund. Two Nazi aircraft were destroyed on the ground near Gotha. Two Thunderbolts were missing.

war effort, and notably in organizing a war production board to increase the output of China's war industries."

The announcement said Nelson's return to China had been urged by the Generalissimo.

Today's White House visit was Nelson's first since Mr. Roosevelt announced the recall of General Joseph W. Stilwell because of what he later described as a clash in personalities with Chiang, and the resignation of Ambassador Clare E. Gauss. Stilwell was chief of the Burma-China-India command.

Nelson, former War Production Board chairman, was accompanied on his first trip by Maj. Gen. Patrick J. Hurley, who remained in China.

On his return Nelson will take with him as his deputy Howard Conoley, WPB executive. He also will be accompanied by Eugene M. Stallings, a technical expert on alcohol production, and a mission of five steel experts headed by Herbert W. Graham of Jones and Laughlin Steel Corporation.

Church To Burn Mortgage Sunday

Mortgage burning ceremonies will be held at the York Memorial A. M. E. Zion church Sunday, November 5, at 3 p. m. the pastor Rev. Solon P. League, will be in charge. The guest speaker will be His Honor Mayor B. B. Sugg, of the city of Greenville, who has given whole hearted cooperation in supporting the drive to clear the mortgage indebtedness on this the only church in the city having such incumbency. Dr. T. S. Maulsby, presiding elder will also speak, with remarks by other of our friends and officers. This occasion will mark one of the greatest events ever to take place in the history of this old historic church and congregation, who have a record of more than 80 years of existence as a denomination in the city of Greenville, and will mark the close of the seventh administration of its present pastor who has led the congregation in accomplishing this great and noble task and looking forward to the completing the edifice in the near future.

We hereby wish to give credit to captains who led in the drive and outstanding friends who made contributions: Captain N. W. Cherry
