Tokyo Industries Blasted By Four Superfort Raid

Armada Of B-29 Bombers Rained Destruction On Japanese Capital For Hour And Half Yesterday; Attack Described As Most Successful To Date; One Bomber Lost.

By the ASSOCIATED PRESS. Saipan, Marianas Islands, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Industrial Tokyo lay in fresh ruins and flames today in the wake of the fourth thunderous bombing raid—and the most successful—by American Superfortresses based on Saipan.

A sizeable force of B-29's striking in midafternoon yesterday, found the Tokyo area clearly outlined in sunlight and for an hour and a half unloaded their bombs with pinpoint accuracy, despite intense attack and swarms of interceptors.

Results were good said the 20th Air Force communique. One squadron reported 75 per cent of its bombs fell within the target area.

The prime objective was the Musashima engine factory of the extensive Nakajima aircraft plant, one of the empire's top producers of military planes. The plant, built compactly of one-story concrete structure, was the target of the initial B-29 raid there Nov. 24 when considerable damage was inflicted.

Returning pilots from this fourth raid on Tokyo in 10 days described it as the toughest but the most successful. Antiaircraft fire was more severe and fighter interception stronger and more persistent than previously, but the bombing was carried out through cloudless skies.

The last squadrons to reach the target found large fires raging, whipped by an unusually high wind. One Superfort was acknowledged lost.

A Japanese communique claimed that 14 Superfortresses were definitely shot down and seven more probably. It admitted six interceptors were lost, including several that asserted to have suicide crashes into the big raid.

Tokyo radio made its customary claim that damage was slight, but authorities ordered 12 more miles of fire breaks built in the Japanese capital.

An undetermined number of enemy fighters were shot down by the heavily-armed B-29's. The communique said the late formations over Tokyo knocked down four fighters for sure and probably eight others.

One Superfort commanded by Capt. Robert McClanahan of Los Angeles was shot down.

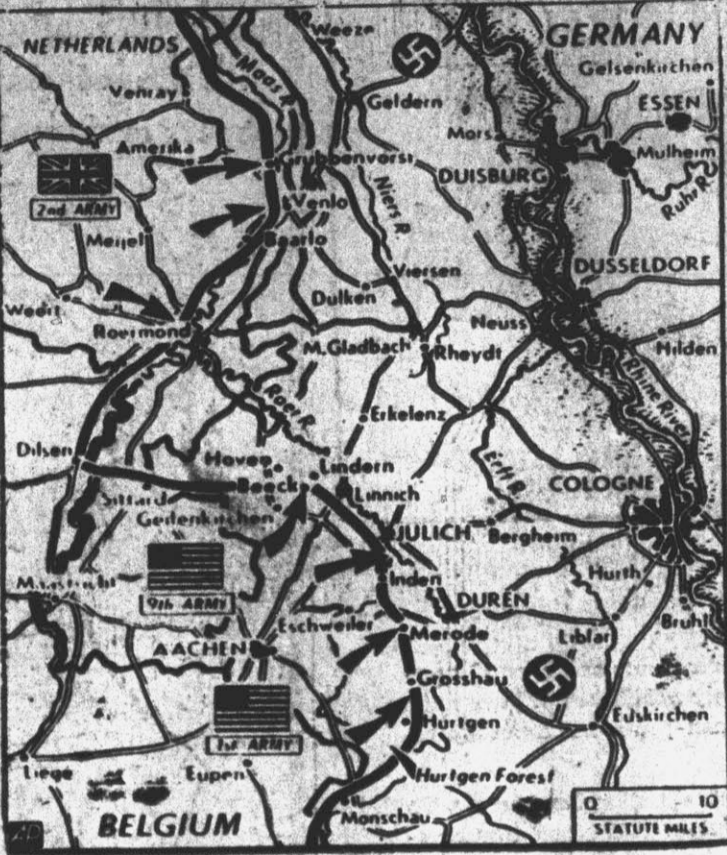

Legion To Collect Service Men Gifts

The American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary are collecting Christmas gift packages for the "Yanks who gave" as suggested by Eddie Cantor for service men and service women in government hospitals.

Gift packages may be left with any merchant in Greenville who will give them to the American Legion and the American Legion Auxiliary to be forwarded to the designated hospitals.

Information may be obtained from the Merchants Association of Greenville or from any American Legion or American Legion Auxiliary members.

Allies Drive Toward Cologne

Planes, Submarines Smash Jap Shipping

Airmen Pound Shipping And Supply Bases Over Wide Area.

General MacArthur's Headquarters, Philippines, Dec. 4.—(AP)—American airmen made wide-ranging attacks at enemy shipping and supply bases at Leyte Island's incessant storms limited ground activity to minor patrol flights.

Fighter planes bombed Japanese supply bases at Valencia, about the middle of the Ormoc corridor, down which the U. S. 32nd division is driving.

Off the north coast of Bornear, patrol planes sank two 1,000-ton freighters and probably sank another. In this area also Australian-based heavy bombers attacked an enemy convoy, sinking a 3,000-ton freighter with direct hits.

In the Samar sea light naval units attacked a 4,000-ton vessel off southern Masbate inflicting some damage, and shot down one Japanese plane. Presumably the ship was attempting to land men or supplies or both on Leyte.

Fighter-bombers attack bombers blasted installations on Mindanao in the southern Philippines, said a communique from Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters.

Submarines Send 20 More Japanese Ships To The Bottom.

Washington, Dec. 4.—(AP)—American submarines have bagged 20 more Japanese ships, including a light cruiser and a destroyer.

Today's announcement by the Navy brought the overall total of Japanese ships sunk by United States undersea hunters to 874. Of that number 82 were warships. In addition 37, including 11 combatant ships, are listed as probably sunk.

The last previous report of submarine action was on November 25 when 27 enemy vessels were listed as destroyed, including two combatant ships.

The text of Navy communique No. 557:

Pacific and Far East: 1. U. S. submarines have reported the sinking of 20 vessels including two combatant vessels—a light cruiser and a destroyer—as a result of operations against the enemy in these waters as follows:

One light cruiser, one destroyer, 10 medium cargo vessels, one medium tanker, four medium cargo transports, three small cargo vessels.

Administers Oath County Officials

When he administered the oath of office to recently elected county officials at the courthouse today Clerk J. Frank Harrington, "Judge" as he is affectionately and gratefully known to many, recalled that it was 26 years ago today that he was sworn in as clerk of Pitt County Superior Court. He succeeded Clerk J. D. Cox, who did not "choose to run" again. Assistant Clerk Edwin F. Tucker was sworn in and took office at the same time.

Clerk Harrington at noon today administered the oath of office to the five county commissioners, David T. House, M. Brown Hodges, G. S. Porter, G. H. Pittman and J. N. Williams, and Register of Deeds Roy T. Cox.

Buy That Extra Bond

This week has been officially designated by Governor Broun as E and G bond week in the Sixth War Loan and every North Carolinian is especially urged to buy at least one extra $100 bond during this period.

Pitt county, like other sections of the state, is meeting its overall bond quotas but is falling down on purchases by individuals. Local bond campaign officials pointed out today that the $500,000 E bond quota for the drive was only at the halfway mark while the overall quota had been two-thirds subscribed.

They pointed out that war bonds were the best of all investments for the individual and that they also were the ideal Christmas gift.

The slogan for this week's drive on E bond sales is "Remember Pearl Harbor by Buying That Extra War Bond."

RED FORCES PUSH NEARER TO AUSTRIA

Important Nazi Military Supply Center Captured; German Broadcast Says One Soviet Spearhead Within 45 Miles Of Austrian Frontier.

London, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Russian troops smashed ahead in southwestern Hungary today within 72 miles of the Austrian frontier and cracked strong Nazi defenses along the Slovakia border with the capture of Miskolc and Satoraljuhely.

A German broadcast early today said a major Russian force had reached the area to lake Balaton, which is 60 miles southwest of Budapest and at some points on the far shore only 45 miles from the Austrian border.

Miskolc, a vital military supply center for German and Hungarian armies, fell yesterday to Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky's Second Ukrainian army, elements of which joined with Gen. Ivan Petrov's Fourth Ukrainian army in taking by storm the communications junction of Satoraljuhely, 45 miles to the northeast. Miskolc is 25 miles from Budapest and was bitterly defended by the Germans for several weeks.

In the drive west of the Danube toward the Austrian frontier, Marshal Fedor I. Tolbukhin's Third Ukrainian army captured Tamasi, only 21 miles below Lake Balaton, in an 11-mile advance and seized Kaszperovo, in the closest approach to Austria.

These forces also drove northward 5 1/2 miles along the west bank of the Danube, capturing Dunafoldvar, 43 miles south of Budapest, in a push to take the Hungarian capital from the rear.

The sweeping gains of Tolbukhin's army engulfed more than 80 pieces in a steadily expanding front below lake Balaton, guardian of strategic approaches to Austria, and won for (Continued on page five)

Air Offensive Sets New Record

London, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Allied warplanes broke all records in the aerial offensive against Germany by dropping more than 11,000 tons of bombs on the Reich during November, it was disclosed yesterday.

U. S. heavy bombers based in Britain accounted for 37,800 tons of this total and heavy bombers of the 15th Air Force stationed in Italy loosed an additional 17,800 tons.

Britain-based bombers of the RAF accounted for the remainder, 59,000 tons.

The major portion of this tonnage was aimed at Germany's dwindling sources of fuel and at military rail centers handling traffic for the Western front.

A total of more than 794 enemy planes were destroyed—636 by Britain-based U. S. planes.

American losses for the month included 303 heavy bombers and 107 fighters, while the RAF lost 155 heavy bombers and 127 lighter aircraft.

Men At The Front Don't Think War Will End Soon

By HAL BOYLE. London, Nov. 29.—(Delayed)—(AP)—There's nothing like a visit to London—or New York, for that matter—to convince you that only the Allied fighting man at the front has a bedrock knowledge of the tough days that lie ahead before the Nazi military machine can be broken.

No headquarters officers in the various capitals, no civilian who rides home to a warm dinner and a soft bed, can appreciate the job that still faces the combat man—be he American, British, Canadian, French, Russian or Polish who makes possible the fair life behind the battlefields.

That's because there has grown up after five years and three months of this monumental effort a great desire for war to end—and an abstract delusion that it soon will.

It frightens many thinking men along the front. They realize that therein lies perhaps the greatest single danger to a quick finish of this bloody business.

It's said that despite warnings by President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill, the average Allied citizen underestimates the German in this the sixth year of continuous war.

I've been in London several days now, and a number of people have asked the inevitable question: "How soon will it end?"

In most cases, it does little good to point out the hardships of winter warfare across quagmires which show armies and nubs battle morale.

ARMY SHOW AT STADIUM

Soldiers To Enact Battle Action Here Wednesday.

By CHESTER WALSH. A thirty-piece Army band and a company of American soldiers, veterans of battles with the Japs and Germans, will stage a parade and present two free shows here Wednesday afternoon and night.

"Here's Your Infantry" is a dramatization of war on the battlefronts. The first show will be given at 3:30, the second at 8 o'clock at night.

Here's your chance to see your infantry in person—in action in demonstrating the deadly weapons of war. The show is free for everybody. You do not have to buy anything to see it.

The army show is sponsored by the Pitt County War Bond Committee. "Here's Your Infantry" will be shown at Guy Smith Stadium.

See the deadly bazooka demonstrated in a 30-minute assault on a Japanese pillbox. See combat infantrymen operating machineguns. See heavy mortars throw their shells at the enemy. See the hand (Continued on page four)

General Strike In Athens Today Following Clash Yesterday In Which 21 Were Killed

By STEPHEN BARBER. Athens, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Gen. Catasotus, acting military governor of Athens, gave armed formations of the Leftist Eam 72 hours notice today to quit the area as a consequence of Sunday's violent clashes.

Twenty-one persons were killed and 140 injured in the clashes with police yesterday. A general strike ordered by the Eam had the Greek capital in a tense grip today.

Numerous incidents developed in night-long shooting last night. The Eam, the armed formations of the Eam, seized two government police barracks at Piraeus, the Port of Athens.

The streets of Piraeus were filled with striking dock workers armed with staves, knives, sticks and a few firearms. They were parading and shouting slogans.

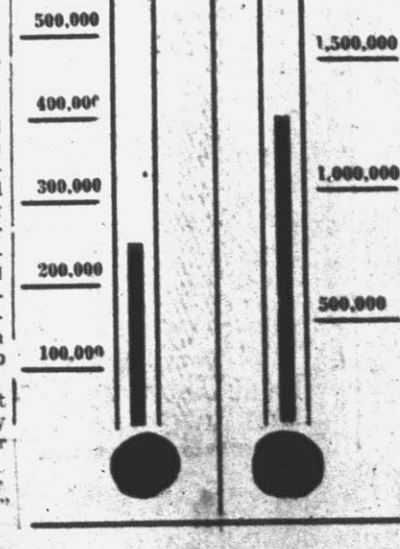

Apparently unorganized, formations had taken up positions in air raid trenches with machineguns and had posted themselves in other points of vantage.

A semi-private war between the Eam and Royalist bands raged in the Thessalon district of the capital. Eam besiegers worked their way over the top of Philoppos hill back of the Thessalon, which is near the Acropolis, this morning. From this position they were firing down into the Thessalon quarter which faced attack from three sides.

British troops surrounded and disarmed a column of 800 Eam marching on Athens from the Thebes district last night without a shot being fired, headquarters of Maj. Gen. R. M. Scobie, British commander in Greece, announced.

Another band of 1,200 was disarmed by a British patrol north of (Continued on page four)

Today On The Home Front

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, Dec. 4.—(AP)—The expected sudden spurt of unemployment in this country after Germany falls now seems less likely.

The reason: The government has changed its plans on cutting down war production after victory in Europe.

Only three months ago top government officials said this: After V-E day only 60 per cent of present war production would be continued for the fight against Japan.

The other 40 per cent would be stopped. The plants involved would turn to civilian work.

But that 40 per cent cutback would throw out of jobs—at least temporarily—between 4 and 6 million people.

The length of their unemployment would depend upon the speed with which cutback plants changed over to peacetime work.

Unemployment of so many people within a short period of time—in this country where President Roosevelt had set a goal of 60 million postwar jobs—could be acute if not serious.

It certainly might be a stumbling block in easing this country into a smooth changeover to peacetime economy.

The picture began to change in the past few weeks.

There were calls from the highest people in government for sustained war production to meet battle needs.

And, of course, the only way in which production could be kept up or stepped up would be through workers staying on the job.

There have been constant fears that workers, jittery about the security of their war jobs as the war end drew nearer, would desert to look for permanent non-war jobs.

The climax came over the weekend when the War Production Board, headed by the late A. Krug, head of the War Production Board, said: "Stepping up of the war in Europe and the Pacific had made necessary a change in reconversion plans after V-E day.

The army was revising its cutback plans downward. They would not be as deep or fast as previously planned.

This meant—if it means anything—that the cutbacks will be a good deal less than the scheduled 40 per cent.

And that in turn means: The less sudden and widespread the cutbacks, the less acute the spread of unemployment.

So—By controlling the cutbacks more tightly, the government will be in a position to control unemployment.

At the moment, that is how the picture looks. But Krug's week-end statement is not the last word. He said as much himself. He said each new month would introduce new factors and new programs.

The WAR TODAY AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE (Associated Press War Analyst). The closer Europe gets to the end of the war, the more widespread and violent becomes the political upheaval—the struggle between the left and the right—which the bloody week-end demonstration in Athens is symptomatic.

We shall do well to recognize that the war is ushering a new political and social epoch into Europe. The war isn't the cause of this historic turnover, but it's facilitating it vastly.

Little Greece, of course, is only one of many continental countries which are in the throes of this politico-social change. In greater or less degree we see it in Italy, Yugoslavia, Rumania, Bulgaria, Poland, Finland, France and Belgium.

We find it, too, hovering again over Spain in the form of a renewed challenge of the Republicans to the Franco regime which came to power through one of the most terrible civil wars of history.

It is also in the midst of international strife which would be quite apparent to the outside world but for the fact that the Germans are using the country as a base from which to stand off the onrushing Red armies.

In several countries the question of a monarchy is involved and the way it looks from here several more crowns will be under glass cases in museums by the time Europe has passed this cataclysm. The monarchical form of government is under challenge in Greece, Bulgaria, Yugoslavia, Rumania, Italy and Belgium. It also is an issue in both Spain and Hungary, for Generalissimo Franco has been dallying with the idea of restoring the throne and Hungary never has abolished the monarchy but has been operating under a regency.

The Greek crisis had reached a nasty pitch today. Twenty-one people were dead and some 140 were injured as the result of week-end demonstrations. The war torn country also was in the grips of a general strike called by the left-wing National Liberation front. Premier Papandreu declares that the leftist leaders are "leading the country to civil war."

The leftist demonstrations followed a British army proclamation disbanding the Greek guerrilla forces which include large numbers of leftists. Six ministers belonging to the (Continued on page four)

COMPLETE SURGICAL DRESSINGS PROGRAM

The Pitt County Chapter of the American Red Cross has received a letter from area headquarters in Atlanta announcing the completion of the U. S. Army surgical dressings program, and with this message to the workers from the War Department:

"The War Department wishes to take this opportunity to thank the volunteers in your chapter who have given untriflingly of their time and effort in providing surgical dressings for the army. These surgical dressings volunteers have made an outstanding contribution to the war effort, and their help cannot be evaluated in terms of hours or dollars and cents. The total requirements were enormous, far beyond the available industrial facilities of this country and could not have been met except for the work of these volunteers whom we are sure take great pride in having had such an active part in this vital wartime activity."

Officials of the Pitt County Chapter wish to add their thanks to those of the War Department for the fine work done by the women of Pitt county in the surgical dressings program.

Speak At YW Service.

Three students discussed the services rendered by the World Student Service Fund at the regular YW chapel service last night in Austin auditorium. The ECYC YW and YMCA are promoting their efforts this week in promoting the annual World Student Service Fund Drive. Mildred Wellons of Selma, the first speaker, compared American campus life with the school life of students in England, France, and China. They live in constant fear of losing their lives by bombs which are constantly demolishing their schools and homes. In China, students must walk hundreds of miles to newer and safer zones. These students have faith and courage, yet they need outside help.

The WSSF, according to Miss Wellons, was organized by American students to show their interest in other students. This organization helps by giving materials for study and by educating refugee students.

TAKE YOUR FERTILIZER NOW

War Food Administration WARNS...
"NOW OR NEVER FOR 1945"

There's a crisis in the making!
If stocks pile up in fertilizer plants and agents' warehouses, the stream of supply will choke up. They must move fast or the lack of man-power will cause a paralyzing shortage.

Take the Chilean Nitrate situation for example. To supply the quantity needed for 1945 crops, many cargoes must be unloaded each month at each port, then moved out by train and truck for immediate allocation. It must move out of agents' hands as fast as it moves in. If not, the choke-up starts and works back to the ports, even back to the ships.

Already there's a threatened shortage of nitrogen, due to sharply increased war needs. Unless you help smash the bottle-neck by taking your nitrate as soon as it is offered, the shortage will become acute. Thousands of tons will pile up at U.S. ports or on the docks in Chile. The only place Chilean Nitrate does you any good is on your crops. Get yours now... while you can.

Buy Your Fertilizer NOW... Take it NOW... Store it Till It's Needed
This message is published to assist the War Food Administration and the fertilizer industry... to help you get the fertilizer you need.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

WINDING UP THE TANGLED MESS

In the last war the soldiers used to say that it would take two years to defeat the Germans, and 98 years to wind up the barbed wire. We wonder how long it will take to wind up the tangled affairs of the world at the close of this war. Millions of people have been uprooted and moved to other parts of the world. Untold amounts of treasure have been destroyed. Nations have been enslaved, and inconceivable sufferings inflicted upon racial groups and individual communities. Only a whisper is coming out of Europe at the present time, but there must exist on that continent such a passion for revenge and such an immeasurable hate of man for man that certainly it will take decades, probably generations, and perhaps even centuries to get national life straightened out satisfactorily and to get people living again in a normal fashion.

Human wickedness is a dreadful reality. When it works through the minds and hands of men who appear by nature to be demons, the whole world groans and travails, waiting, as the Bible says, for the manifestation of the sons of God—that is, for the emergence of good men in high places, who will demand justice and righteousness and who will stick to it until these things are achieved.

To the People of this Community

The European war has been expensive, but almost everything in the Pacific war will cost more. Take transportation costs, for instance. Because of the longer distances the same amount of freight costs 25 per cent more when shipped to the South Pacific than to Europe. It is twice as much when shipped in the Pacific to the Philippines.

It is giving since turn-around time is twice as great! In addition, we will need more of everything. More B-29 Superfortresses that cost $600,000 each. More P-47 Thunderbolts that cost $30,000 each. More M-4 Tanks, with bulldozer blades, that cost $67,417 each. More amphibious tanks—more aircraft carriers—more supply ships—more gasoline and oil than it took for the invasion of Europe!

And lest anyone forget, we will need more battalion aid stations—more clearing stations—more evacuation hospitals—more convalescent hospitals—more hospital ships. Your personal responsibility in the Sixth War Loan in helping to pay for the Pacific war is to buy at least an extra $100 War Bond over and above your normal War Bond purchases.

Credit Corporation In Annual Meeting

One hundred members and other farmers attended the Pitt county section of the annual stockholders' meeting of the Greenville Production Credit Association which was held at the court house in Greenville Saturday.

W. A. Minor, president of the Production Credit Corporation, Columbia, S. C., made the principal address in which he discussed general farm problems and the outlook for farmers for next year. John R. Carroll, president of the association, presided over the meeting. Robert A. Darr, secretary-treasurer, reported on the progress and financial condition of the local organization. He pointed out that the association had 14 per cent increase in membership, and a corresponding increase in total loans made over the previous year, and that it is in excellent financial condition. Frank L. Little, Jr., assistant secretary-treasurer, in charge of the Snow Hill office, reported on operations in Greene county and revealed that better than 96 per cent of loans made in 1944 have been collected. D. P. Hardison of Snow Hill led a panel discussion which was partic-ated in by Director G. L. Mewborn of Greene county, and Directors John R. Carroll, Mack G. Smith and J. P. Davenport of Pitt county. They reported on the activities of the association during the previous year. J. R. Ross, J. M. Smith, G. F. Little and J. A. Moore made short talks relating their experience with the association.

Plan Improve Rural Telephone Service

The Bell and independent operating telephone companies throughout the United States are working to advance the nation-wide postwar program to improve farm telephone service in rural sections. W. W. Aycock, manager of the Carolina Telephone and Telegraph Company, said today.

The plans provide for better service in rural communities and at a cost the farmers can afford. From 1935 until the war started more than 300,000 additional families in rural areas have become telephone subscribers—an increase of 35 per cent. Extension of telephone into rural sections will be resumed after the war.

An interesting feature is that plans are being perfected for a system of transmitting telephone conversations over electric power lines. Before this work was interrupted by the war it was clear that a suitable system of this kind could be produced. It is expected that telephone service may be extended wherever there are electric power lines.

The telephone companies also plan to study the possible application of micro-wave radio systems to rural telephone service and to make use of this and any other new methods which will be helpful in serving farmers and families in rural areas, Manager Aycock said.

Greenville High School News

By DENNIS FLEMING

Fourteen new members were inducted into the Monogram Club on Friday night, following a week of initiation. The club holds its meetings each week on Wednesday night at 7:30 in room 17.

Today the Greenville High School flies the Treasury Flag for the first time since October. This shows that the students of GHS were 100 per cent in buying stamps and bonds for the month of November.

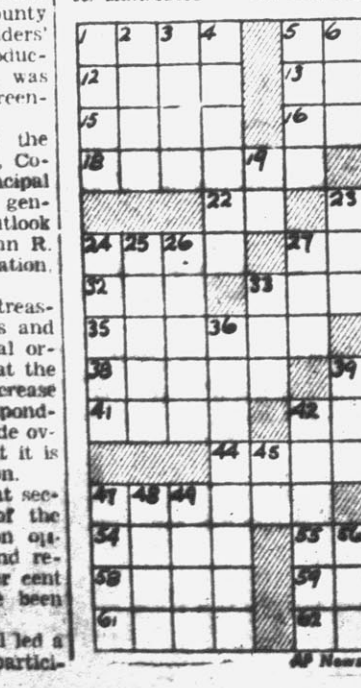

All students are urged to buy at least once a week if possible. Mr. Walker, manager of the Greenville theatres, is boosting the buying and selling of bonds in the high school by again conducting a bond selling contest for which he is offering several prizes. The person who sells the number of bonds totaling the greatest amount of money invested between now and Dec. 19 will receive a six weeks' theatre pass. The second and third prizes will be a four-weeks' pass and a two-weeks' pass. The next three leading students will receive three tickets each.

The girls' physical education classes are sponsoring a volleyball tournament which will be held between now and Christmas. Mrs. Proctor means to have two practice games before the official tournament begins. The first of these practice games will be played this afternoon immediately after school.

grenades, smoke pots, flame throwers, and all the other things that are necessary for the job and performances will be given rain or shine. John O. Clark is chairman of the committee on arrangements. The white and Negro county and city schools will let out early to permit students to attend the free show at Guy Smith Stadium.

Air Cadet Course To Begin Shortly

By CHESTER WALSH
Governor Broughton is encouraging the organizing of Civilian Air Patrol cadet training units in North Carolina cities and towns, and Mayor Bruce Sugg of Greenville is giving his full support to the establishing of a squadron of CAP cadets here to take the free course in aviation. There is no cost, except for uniforms and a cap, except purchased for about $2.50. Lieut. Matt R. Lons, commander of the local squadron, said today. He pointed out that similar groups have been organized in Wilson and New Bern and other cities and they are going over, in a big way training boys and girls from 15 through 17 years of age.

At a meeting at the high school last week Maj. J. D. Winstead of Rocky Mount, wing commander, explained the requirements for being a CAP cadet and nearly 200 boys and girls signified their intention of joining and taking the course in aviation. The cadet training course will benefit every member. They will be more useful citizens and when the civilian flying era comes after the war the boys and girls will be in line to take their places in aviation.

Any boy or girl CAP cadet may resign for good reason at any time. The girls who will not be drafted into the WACS. A boy or girl cadet may take and complete the course, wear the uniform and be rendering patriotic services and get out when he or she decides to study to be a registered nurse or anything else.

The application blanks and printed information about the Civilian Air Patrol cadets is expected to be within a few days. Boy and girl CAP cadets in uniform will have credentials which will permit them to visit any regular Army field in the country.

Christian Science Service.
"God the Only Cause and Creator" was the subject of the lesson-lesson in all Christian Science churches and societies on Sunday, December 3.

The golden text was from Gen. 1:1. "In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth." Among the citations which comprised the lesson-lesson were the following from the Bible: "I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me: Thus saith the Lord, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker. Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me. I have made the earth, and created man upon it; I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host, I have commanded." (Isaiah 45:5, 11, 12).

The lesson-lesson also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God creates all forms of reality. His thoughts are spiritual realities. So-called mortal mind—being non-existent and consequently not within the range of immortal existence—could not by simulating defile power invert the divine creation, and afterwards recreate persons or things upon its own plane, since nothing exists beyond the range of all-inclusive infinity, in which and of which God is the sole creator."

New Blows On England

London, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Casualties and damage were acknowledged by the British Air Ministry today as a result of enemy air activity over Southern England from dawn Sunday until 7 a. m. The announcement gave no details.

Civilian Army Demobilized
London, Dec. 4.—(AP)—In many formal parades through wintry streets Britain's home guard of 2,000,000 men was demobilized yesterday. His was the civilian army which manned the island bastions when Britain fought alone.

Appreciation for its work was expressed by its colonel-in-chief, King George VI in a radio address.

Chewing Gum Explodes
Philadelphia, Dec. 4.—(AP)—Suburban township police called in the FBI today in the case of the exploding chewing gum.

Clayton Gloyd, 35, said a stick of gum exploded as he started to chew yesterday, causing severe lacerations of the lips and contusions of the tongue and mouth.

Police sent the unused gum in the package, bought at a drug store several days ago, to the FBI in Washington for analysis.

A MINIATURE OF NORTH CAROLINA

"It is a miniature of North Carolina painted by an artist." Ben R. Lacy, Jr., Union Seminary Review, Richmond, Va.

"We are grateful to Mr. Brooks for calling to our attention one of the half dozen greatest jurists and one of the last generation." Henry C. Walker, New York Herald Tribune.

"North Carolina is different because Judge Clark lived and the story as told by Mr. Brooks is both easy to read and full of much of the history of the state." Bernard W. Spilman, in Charity and Children.

"It is a thoroughly fine piece of work and deserves a place among our great legal biographies." John W. Davis, Democratic Nominee for Pres. 1924.

"I would like to see this book on the private reading lists of all thoughtful Americans." John T. Frederick, The Chicago Sun Book Week.

"It is one of the best and most interesting biographies I have ever read." C. C. Wylie, U. S. District Judge, Columbia, S. C.

Greece On Verge . . .

Athens and the "officers and men put in confinement," the official Greek news service reported.

The first courtmartial were put into operation today, under newly proclaimed martial law. Catoctas ordered the Elia who seized the Piraeus barracks to withdraw from the buildings or take the consequences.

British troops in trucks were stationed at several strategic points in Piraeus.

The first British casualty was a naval officer who was shot in the hip while riding from barracks to naval headquarters in Piraeus. The truck driver said he had no idea where the shot came from but that house-to-house fighting had been going on since before dawn.

Catoctas' order of the Elia to quit the Athens area of Attica province and the immediate surroundings, said one of the Elia's militia at a news conference in the Athens city some would be "treated as enemies" after midnight December 4.

Elia outside the specified boundary were ordered not to move. From 4 p. m. today any move by the Elia military forces by day or night will be considered a hostile act and will be followed by sharp official measures, it was understood.

Meanwhile Premier George Papandreu, whose efforts to bring about disarmament of the Elia precipitated the crisis, and several members of his cabinet conferred in the heavily guarded hotel Grade Cretagne.

British-supported Premier Papandreu charged the Elia faction with deliberately fomenting civil war out of the struggle to disarm the Elia, the armed resistance formations of the Leftist Elia.

Martial law was declared in the city. British tanks and armed paratroopers patrolled the streets. Greek and British planes circled low.

Athens was without electricity, gas or communications. The radio was out and the government was unable to communicate with the people.

National Liberation front, which opposed Papandreu's cabinet. The British government promptly announced its full support of the Greek government, but this didn't prevent the sanguinary affair in Athens.

This bloody clash would have had less significance in connection with the European trend had it represented an isolated instance, for the Greeks are fiery in their politics, but the past few days have been similar outbreaks. There has been street fighting between political groups in both Rome and Brussels.

Angles' caught fire in the tail turret over Tokyo and the crew had a few anxious minutes as the big plane came down low to "depressurize" while three men quenched the flames with fire extinguishers.

Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced at Pearl Harbor, meantime, that Army Liberators on Thursday carried out their fifth raid in four days on two jims in the Volcano Islands, which lie adjacent the aerial route from Saipan and Tokyo. More than 57 tons of bombs were dropped on two jims' airstrip and other installations.

Japanese raids against the 21st bomber command headquarters at Saipan have been launched from two jims since Nov. 28 in efforts to knock out Tokyo's leading worry.

Despite the long distances, bombers of the Asia-based 21st air force and the Saipan-based 21st are hitting Japan's home islands with greater frequency and greater bombloads than was intimated in the opening of the American aerial campaign against Germany.

Marines Lose To Cloudbusters

VMD's five suffered their first defeat Saturday night at the hands of North Carolina's Pre-Flight cadets at Chapel Hill. The large gymnasium with many spectators made the night a big time affair. The marines had several opportunities to score but after the opening tip-off but lost the ball on poor passing and ball handling. Meador tallied first for Pre-Flight when he sunk two free throws at the expense of Ted Unkel, who committed the foul. Two more field goals followed in rapid succession for the Cloudbusters. Trailing six to nothing, Pete Pawlowski drew a beautiful shot from the cadets. The cadets followed through with another flurry and raised their total to ten, before Pawlowski came through again with a throw good for two points. Again the cadets streaked down the court several times to score and outplay the firing leathernecks. Before the first half ended, however, the Cloudbusters and Adams scored for the Marines. Unkel scored on a long shot that touched neither hoop nor backboard. Adams got two points by grabbing a throw that was short and slipping it in before a Cloudbuster could tie him up. At the end of the half, the cadets stood on the long end of a 27-11 score.

The cadets seemed to have the advantage of being in better condition than the marines. They were also more used to their large court where they could use a fast break extensively. When the marines tightened up their defense, the cadets just nonchalantly threw in long shots. Cadet Meador was disgustingly accurate with his one armed shots from far out. He garnered twelve points for the Cloudbusters during the time he played. After the second half started, the VMD marines could not manage to score a point for the first five minutes or so while the cadets were running their score up into the thirties. Ted Unkel at guard but he just couldn't stop Mehl and Tobias, the fast breaking cadet forwards. Howie Helfrich found the range for the marines and put in two of his famous left hand shots during the second half. The shot is so unique that it is almost indescribable. The spectators roared with awe as Helfrich twisted the ball through the hoop with a shot that looks almost impossible. According to the data, Mehl was best man for the cadets with thirteen points, while Pete Pawlowski was top marine with nine points to his credit. This was the first game for the cadets, and they displayed plenty of talent. They seem to suffer none from the absence of Otto Graham who is on leave at the present. They have a somewhat tougher struggle on for next Saturday when they are due to tackle the Cherry Point marine varsity. You will have a chance to see the VMD 354 marines in action Wednesday night when they will tackle the VMP 913 team from Cherry Point. The game will be played at the Greenville Armory.

Bond Premier Friday Night

Plans have been made for the Sixth War Bond Premiere showing of the motion picture, "THE SEVENTH CROSS", at the Pitt Theatre, 8:30 Friday evening December 8th. Admission to the premiere which will begin at 8:30 will be by the purchase of Series E, F or G bonds. Stars of the picture are Spencer Tracy with Signé Hasso, Agnes Morehead and others. The story of "The Seventh Cross" revolves around seven prisoners in protective custody who escape from a German concentration camp in 1936. At that time long before the actual war started. Only one makes good his escape and that is George Heister played by Spencer Tracy. Tracy surpasses his grand performances in such hits as "A Guy Named Joe," "Keeper of the Flame" and other prize winning performances. There will be 850 tickets available for the premiere. 400 of these will be for $25.00 bond purchasers, the other 450 will be for those buying a minimum of one $50.00 bond. Only one ticket will be issued for each bond with the exception of two tickets to a person purchasing a $1,000 bond. Any person purchasing a bond any time from Saturday Dec. 2nd up to and including December 8th, who wishes to attend this premiere may get tickets by taking the dated bond or a memorandum from the issuing agency to the Pitt Theatre. It is suggested that bond buyers get tickets early in order to avoid the last minute rush at the theatre.

BOND GAME SET FOR NEW YORK

Randolph Field To Play Second Air Force; Army Beats Navy; Carolina Loses To Virginia.

New York, Dec. 4—(AP)—Randolph Field and the second air force claimed the most attention in football circles today, although Monday's quarterbacks doubtless were rehearsing the Army-Navy game and what might have happened if—

The announcement over the week-end that these two powerful service elevens would meet at the Polo Grounds December 16 in a "treasury bond bowl" game focused the spotlight on their games next Sunday at Los Angeles and Atlanta.

Unbeaten and untied Randolph Field, ranked as the No. 1 service team in the United States, tangled with the Fourth Air Force (March Field) at L. A., while the superbly coached Army, unbeaten in 13 games, take the field against the Third Air Force down in Georgia.

Their Polo ground clash, arranged by the Sixth War Loan Sports committee, is expected to net approximately $82,000,000 in bond sales against the $58,637,000 realized by the Army-Navy struggle at Baltimore. Admission will be through the purchase of war bonds plus payment of $2 for army relief purposes.

Apart from Army's 23-7 victory over Navy, Notre Dame, Louisiana State and Southern Methodist featured the final games of the 1944 campaign on Saturday.

The Irish walloped Great Lakes for the first time in history, 28-7; Louisiana State upset Tulane 25-6 while SMU stunned the Southwest by beating the newly crowned titleholders, Texas Christian, 9-6.

In other games Georgia Tech won the Southeast Conference title by swamping Georgia, 44-0, and Oklahoma retained the big six crown by swearing Nebraska, 31-12. Virginia whacked North Carolina, 26-7, in the 49th renewal of the south's oldest continuous rivalry.

Bainbridge Naval and Fort Pierce (Fla) Amphib both wound up with perfect 1944 slates by winning yesterday. Bainbridge nicked Maxwell Field, 13-3, while Fort Pierce barely squeezed by the Third Air Force, 7-6.

Bury Mrs. Crawford Tuesday Afternoon

Mrs. Annie O'Mary Crawford, 29, died at Pitt General Hospital early today after a brief illness. Funeral services will be held at Pentecostal Holiness church Tuesday afternoon at 3:30. The Rev. M. U. Meador, pastor of the church, will officiate. The body will remain at Wikkerson's Funeral Home until an hour before the funeral service. Burial will be in Greenwood cemetery.

Surviving are her husband, Bernice Crawford of near Bethel; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. O'Mary of near Bethel; five brothers, John, Earl and Curtis O'Mary of Greenville, and Douglas O'Mary of Warrenton and Garland O'Mary of near Bethel, and two sisters, Frances and Myrtle O'Mary of near Bethel.

Winterville Helps Scrap Paper Drive

Members of the Winterville fire department collected more than 1,200 pounds of scrap paper in a recent salvage drive. Plans are now being made to make another scrap paper drive. George Cox, chief of the fire department, said.

Incidentally, Winterville has splendid fire-fighting equipment, and capable and loyal firemen. Mark Lassiter of Snow Hill, head of the Eastern Carolina Firemen's Association, said after a recent inspection: "The department is arranging now to buy additional hose. Every week is 'fire prevention week' in Winterville," Chief Cox said.

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must take the way it quickly always the cough or you are to have your money back.

EVER GROOM "HEAVIES" WITH A KI YI BRUSH?

- Whenever possible, Coast Guardsmen wash their heavy underwear every day — using a tough-bristled brush of coconut fiber to get the fabric spanking-clean for inspection. Underwear has to be plenty "rugged" to stand this daily scrubbing—and Coast Guard specifications make sure it is.
- You also want long wear with easy comfort when you buy underwear. So the brand you pick means a lot. During the past 43 years, Hanes has applied fine craftsmanship to the knitting and tailoring of underwear that fits properly and gives you full value in wear at moderate prices.
- Look for the familiar Hanes label when you buy—sign of the underwear that has made friends with millions of men. If sometimes your dealer's stock is low, he should have more soon. Hanes production is serving both our men in the Armed Forces and those at home. . . . P. H. Hanes Knitting Co., Winston-Salem, North Carolina.
