Churchill Sides With Russia In Controversy Over Polish Boundary

Prime Minister Ditch Government In Exile; Says Poland Must Be Compensated With Territory From Germany; Calls For Meeting Of 'Big Three' At Once.

By The Associated Press London, Dec. 15—Siding with Russia in the Polish dispute, Prime Minister Churchill today confessed disappointment at delays in reconvening the big three and bespoke unity among the great powers lest a new structure of world government die in inception.

The Prime Minister virtually abandoned the London Polish government, at least as now constituted, and supported as reasonable the Russian demands for territory in old Poland which the exiled government has refused to yield.

Once Churchill spoke of conditions "if" the great powers agree, again he mentioned "how much a failure on the part of the three greatest powers to work together would damage all our hopes for the future structure of world government."

He said Russia was entitled to certain territory in the east of old Poland as a matter of reassurance against the western frontiers.

Poland, Churchill said, would be compensated for its sacrifice of Lvov and territory near the Ukraine by tracts of East Prussia and Danzig, to be wrested from Germany.

In one of the most significant Commons addresses of the war—a speech which drew from one member the comment that the Atlantic charter has become a ghost—the Prime Minister also appealed to President Roosevelt and Marshal Stalin to meet him "at the earliest possible moment."

Apparently distraught over diplomatic developments which have "shaken confidence" among the United Nations, the Prime Minister confessed disappointment that it had "been found impossible to arrange any meeting of the three great powers."

JAPS SUFFER BIG LOSSES

Casualties On Leyte Placed At 82, 554.

General MacArthur's Headquarters, Philippines, Dec. 15—(AP)—The first 55 days of American invasion of the central Philippines cost Japan 82,554 casualties—1,500 a day—Gen. Douglas MacArthur estimated today as the campaign on Leyte pressed ahead despite bitter resistance.

General MacArthur gave American casualties from the Philippines invasion up to the middle of this week as 10,409—2,176 killed, 7,976 wounded and 257 missing. The Japanese thus are losing eight men for every yankee.

MacArthur's figures, covering the Leyte and Samar island fighting listed 33,901 abandoned Japanese dead, some 30,000 drowned in the smashing of ten reinforcement convoys, 283 prisoners and an estimated 18,500 dead inside enemy lines.

Doughboys of the 7th division driving north from Ormoc, seaport on western Leyte captured last Sunday, seized the enemy's main supply depot one mile from the city after severe fighting, the Friday communique said.

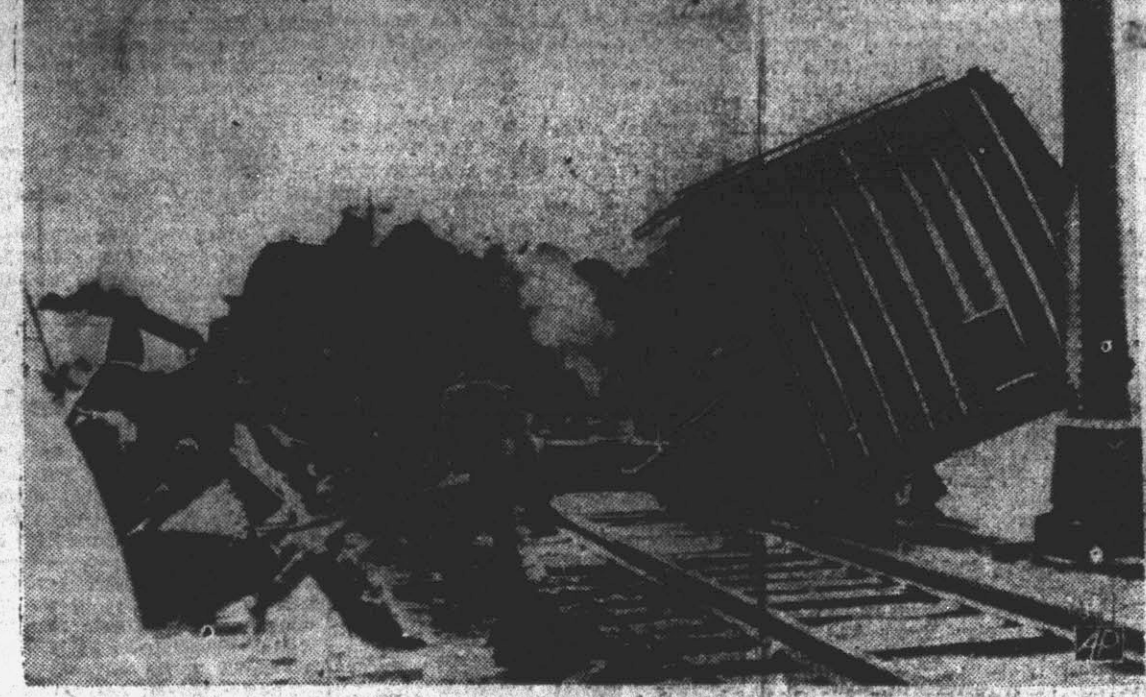

The 32nd division maintained pressure at the north of the Ormoc corridor, where thousands of crack Nippon troops are bottled up.

Two Jims was raided Sunday Monday and Tuesday by land-based Liberators and Lightning fighters, all of which returned despite heavy anti-aircraft fire. Two Jims is an important base on the B-29 route between Saipan and Tokyo.

General MacArthur's headquarters in Manila, 530 miles south of Tokyo, was bombed Sunday, and other bombers hit tiny Maras island, 1,000 miles southeast of Tokyo, on Monday.

In the Philippines, Liberators bombed Bacolod airbase on Negros island with 38 tons of explosives. Three small freighters were sunk by patrol planes off the southwest Luzon coast.

Southern's Special In Wreck

Cars and engines from two freight trains and a fast passenger train, the Southern Railway's Aiken-Augusta Special, litter the tracks after a three-way collision during a heavy snow storm across the Potomac river in Virginia just outside of Washington. The engineer on the Special was killed, and six passengers and an equal number of trainmen were injured. The Special was en route from Augusta, Ga., to Washington and New York.

NEW PENSION BILL SIGNED

Increased Benefits For World War I Families.

Washington, Dec. 15—(AP)—President Roosevelt signed today a bill providing pensions for widows and children of deceased veterans of the last World War.

Estimated to cost $37,000,000 in its first year, the pension system provides benefits up to $74 a month for families of men who served in World War I.

The measure extends coverage to the families of virtually all World War I veterans, since it provides pensions regardless of the cause of death. Previous pensions were allowed widows and children only (1) if the veteran died of a disability connected with his war service, and (2) if the death of some other cause but had been disabled in the war.

Widows without children will get $35 a month. A widow with one child will receive $45, and $5 will be paid for each additional child.

A child of a deceased veteran, whose mother also is dead, will get $18. Two orphans will receive $27, three will get $36 and for each additional orphan $4 is provided.

No childless widow can draw a pension unless her annual income is under $1,000, nor can a widow with children qualify for a pension unless her income is less than $2,500.

A veteran must have served at least 90 days for his family to be eligible. Aid to discourage women from marrying veterans with the idea of obtaining pensions, the law says that any woman who has married a veteran after the effective date of the act must have been married to him for ten years to receive the pension upon his death.

More Liquor

Raleigh, Dec. 15—(AP)—Legal liquor sales in North Carolina totaled $2,211,258.55 during November, compared with $1,987,437.15 in October, the State ABC Board announced today.

December sales probably will increase even more, since distributors have been announced for the final two weeks. Each ticket will be worth one fifth, two pints, or a quart, instead of a pint, as now. Also, gins, rums and cordials will be unrationed, along with Rocking Chair and private stock whiskeys.

College Plans For The Future

The Board of Trustees of the East Carolina Teachers College met last night for final discussion of the budget requests to be submitted to the legislature next month.

Requests for permanent improvements to the college plant total $1,030,850. This includes plans for a Student Union building, a Health and Physical Education building, three new dormitories, one for boys, one for girls, and one for women teachers. Various improvements are also necessary for the heating plant and the college laundry.

In addition to this, money is requested to complete the Training School building, to secure three major additions to the administrative staff, a dean of the college, a director of practice teaching and placement, and a director of public relations and student welfare. Other requests would permit the college to expand its faculty to provide for greater enrollment as the men in service are returning to civilian life.

Dr. McGinnis emphasized that the budget has been drawn up on the principle that the college must be prepared ahead of time for the increased demands in education which will follow the close of the war.

Report Denied Rome, Dec. 15—(AP)—A high Allied diplomat, accredited to the Vatican, today described as "absolutely without foundation" reports published abroad that the Germans were seeking through the Holy See to obtain a more precise definition of the Allies' demand for unconditional surrender.

Navy Headquarters To Move Closer To Japan

U. S. Pacific Fleet Headquarters, Pearl Harbor, Dec. 15—(AP)—The Pacific war has moved so far west of Pearl Harbor, its starting point, that Adm. Chester W. Nimitz soon will set up advanced headquarters in a forward area to control more effectively ground, sea and air forces "as their operations converge on Japan."

Whether Guam and Saipan were uppermost among possible sites, as unofficially reported, the admiral would not say. Nimitz commands the Pacific fleet and Pacific ocean areas. Significantly, his announcement last night followed conferences embracing China and the Aleutians—conferences suggesting new strategic moves impending against Japan.

SUPERFORTS RAID TOKYO

Jap Radio Says Incendiary Bombs Dropped Today.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS American superfortresses, the Japanese announced in an unconfirmed broadcast, flew over Tokyo and dropped some incendiary bombs in two separate incursions today (Japanese time). At the same time the Japanese branded American attacks as "nuisance raids" and repeated previous threats against American aviators.

Three Superfortresses hit the capital about 3:30 a. m. the broadcast recorded by the Federal Communications Commission said, while a lone B-29 paid a visit about 6 a. m. The radio told of flights by "one B-29" over two other Japanese areas. One went over the Osaka-Kobe district on the east coast of Honshu, main island of Japan, but because of atmospheric conditions government monitors could not hear the name of the second area. No bombs were dropped by these planes.

Allies Gain On Italian Front

Rome, Dec. 15—(AP)—Canadian troops of the Eighth Army have established a bridgehead west of the steeply-banked Canale Naviglio in a night attack northeast of Bagnacavallo and are holding it against strong opposition. Allied headquarters announced today.

The advance was made by the same forces who two days ago smashed their way through stiff German defenses in crossing the Lamone River due west of Ravenna. The attack threatened the road center of Bagnacavallo, 10 miles northeast of Faenza in the Po Valley.

Another American Army Entered Germany Today

Navy Airmen Blast 100 Jap Airfields

Carrier Planes In Day And Night Attacks On Luzon Island In Philippines.

By The Associated Press The Tokyo radio today said a "powerful" Allied convoy passed westward through Mindanao strait into the Sulu sea Thursday (Japan time) as American carrier-borne planes blasted Japanese installations and air fields on Luzon, Philippines.

Some 490 American carrier planes, the Japanese news agency Domei said, struck a Japanese installation on Luzon island in the northern Philippines today (Japan time). The broadcast, unconfirmed by Allied sources, said at least 100 of the planes hit the Clark Field area at 10 a. m. At least 300 other planes ranged over other sectors of Luzon and Visayan areas.

The broadcast was recorded by the Federal Communications Commission. Earlier the Japanese radio admitted Thursday's (Japanese time) American carrier strike in the same area.

By REMBERT JAMES Aboard Vice Admiral McCain's flagship of a Fast Carrier Force off the Philippines, Dec. 14—(AP)—(Delayed)—(Via Navy Radio)—Employing startling new and devastating seaborne airplane tactics, Vice Admiral John S. McCain's great air armada by day and by night panned down the Japanese airforce on Luzon island and held it there while others of his fleet sank their targets, including military targets.

Every one of Luzon's airfields, numbering almost 100 and including Manila's Clark Field—were smothered by the rocket-bearing Hellcats. Of the Japanese's 300 or more planes few got their wheels off the ground or their gun barrels warm.

Admiral McCain's carrier planes swept in from cloudy morning skies, which gave good coverage, and caught the Japanese by surprise. The effectiveness of the Hellcat umbrella over Luzon's 40,000 square miles was demonstrated by the helplessness of the Japanese to strike back by air. Sweet-smoked grinning pilots returning from the early strikes said they met no airborne opposition and that the planes they caught and destroyed in the air were there by accident.

An early score indicated that at least 85 planes were destroyed—14 in the air and 71 on the ground. (Admiral Chester W. Nimitz. (Continued on page six)

Seventh Army Smashes Across Border In Southern Sector In Drive Toward Karlsruhe; Six Allied Armies Now On German Soil Battering Siegfried Line.

By EDWARD KENNEDY Paris, Dec. 15—(AP)—The U. S. Seventh Army becoming the sixth Allied army to invade Germany, drove two spearheads today over the boundary near the fortress city of Wissembourg and near Scheibenhart.

The crossing at Scheibenhart—only 3 1/2 miles west of the easternmost tip of France and 35 miles south of Mannheim and Ludwigshafen. This was the easternmost point Allied armies have reached in northwest Europe.

The Seventh was the fourth American army to trample German soil. It crossed the frontier exactly four months after landing ashore on the French Riviera 425 airline miles to the south, but much farther as it wound through the mountains of southern and eastern France.

The First and Ninth armies, first to break into Germany, were drawn up along the Roer River 15 miles beyond Aachen where the Siegfried Line was first broken in September. The bitter fighting appeared to be subsiding.

The Third army, which crashed into the industrial Saarland last month, was hacking its way slowly forward in the first works of the Siegfried fortifications on the Seventh Army's left.

Six of Gen. Eisenhower's armies now are inside Germany. The British Second Army holds a bit of Reich soil around Guelternkirchen. The Canadian First Army is in the De Wyle Forest six miles from Kleve, northern end of the Siegfried Line. The Allied first airborne and the French First armies have not yet entered Germany, but the French are on or near the Rhine for 70 airline miles from Strasbourg south to Switzerland.

Li Gen. Alexander M. Patch's Seventh Army shock troops crossed the frontier at 1:50 p. m. A month earlier, he broke the strong German line in the Vosges east of Luneville and drove from there 90 miles northeast to the point of invasion.

The Siegfried Line was being shelled at perhaps its weakest points. The Germans used American artillery was cratering Karlsruhe. American divisions charged to within two miles of Wissembourg on the border, a natural invasion gateway into the Bavarian Palatinate and key to the flat German land between the Elbe Range and the Hunsrück Forest. That French fortress town is 16 miles west of the Rhine.

Advances ranged up to seven miles. More than a dozen French towns fell. Gen. Hermann Balck commander of German army group G, rushed reinforcements to his buffeted First and 19th armies. He also tried to relieve pressure by reinforcing the 600-square mile pocket around Colmar below Stasbourg.

GREEK STRIFE MAY END SOON

Leftists Submit Terms For Ending Revolt.

By STEPHEN BARBER Athens, Dec. 15—(AP)—Greek insurgents have handed the British terms for ending the 13-day leftist revolt, the Associated Press was informed by a reliable source tonight, with the possibility the British would accept them as a basis for an armistice.

Meanwhile, however, the Elas hammered British defense positions in central Athens with fresh bursts of artillery and rifle fire and attacked Indian troops on the mainland north of Patrai.

Today On The Home Front

Washington, Dec. 15—(AP)—Literary gents have done pretty well working for Uncle Sam. But Archibald MacLeish is a poet caught in the wringer. He's librarian of Congress, a job the President gave him in 1939. There was a big fight in Congress over it. Now the President wants to make him an assistant Secretary of State. He'd handle public information. There's another fight in Congress over that. Among poets MacLeish is a very distinguished guy, but not to Senator Clark of Missouri. Clark says: "I don't think much of his poetry—or his prose either. I don't think he's qualified to be an assistant Secretary of State." (Some government people didn't think much of Walt Whitman, either. But he just had a small job. He was a clerk in the Interior Department. He wrote "Leaves of Grass." He was tossed out on his ear for it. So, suspecting that any poet has three strikes on him in times when football braves win the girls and poets disappear in little magazines, I asked MacLeish: "If you become assistant Secretary of State, would that be the highest government job a poet ever got in this country?" And there was James Russell Lowell. He was a poet and American minister to Spain and England. Like MacLeish, he studied law at Harvard, practiced awhile, and quit to write. And there were Joel Barlow and Francis Hopkinson, back in Revolutionary times. The former nego-

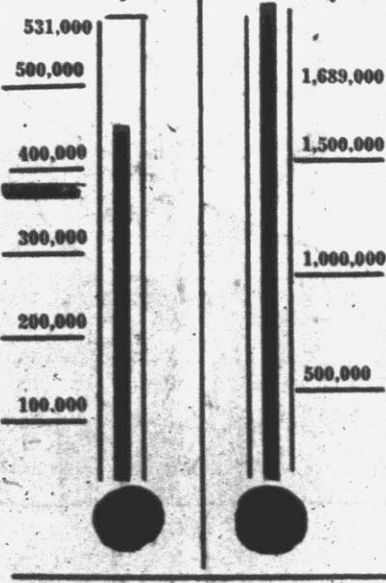

The WAR TODAY AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE Associated Press War Analyst The Greek contretemps, as constituting one of the moves in the formation of spheres of influence by major European powers, continues to be the gravest danger of the moment—a danger which grows hourly as fighting continues in Athens.

It's widely recognized in both hemispheres that the questions of political blocs and self-determination must be thrashed out—and thrashed out fast. Two world threats are growing out of this situation: 1. There has been created a widespread fear that the Atlantic Charter has been challenged, or repudiated in part—and this charter represents aims for which men are dying in battle. 2. Any formation of power blocs in Europe most certainly will create a potential threat to the peace organization which we hope to see established to maintain global order, by force if necessary. I'll develop that further on.

Sixth War Loan Is Over The Top

Oxford, Dec. 15—(AP)—Injuries received when he was attacked in his store last Friday night proved fatal yesterday to J. P. Evans, 64-year-old Oxford merchant.

I believe it isn't going too far to say that failure of the western powers to substantiate the charter might easily alienate the Orient from us and cause the creation of a hostile Oriental bloc. That raises visions of a great and terrible struggle ultimately between east and west—long one of the nightmares of mankind. And what of the threat to the new United Nations security organization? The league will be the focus of so many dangers that it will be like a body of troops caught in cross-fire. For one thing any bloc of nations, banded together under the influence of a major power, will represent a solid unit. It will act in all international matters as a unit. It will vote in the peace organization as a unit. Thus when the dominant power of a bloc casts its vote it won't be handing in one ballot but just as many as there are nations in the bloc. The possible complications of such (Continued on Page Four)

Christmas Banquet.
Last night from 7:30 until 10 o'clock, the annual Christmas banquet of the Belk-Tyler Co., was held at the Olde Towne Inn.

The fine room attractively decorated gave a lovely Yuletide atmosphere, set off by huge colorful plastered carvings, pickles, olives and shoe string carrots. At the north end of the room tables were stacked with more than 400 gifts. These were distributed after the guests had enjoyed an excellent seven-course turkey banquet. Preceding the feast, thanks were offered by Gene Skinner. The biggest surprise came as the guests entered and found that Mr. Wheatley, owner of the inn, had placed cigarettes and matches at each plate.

Scores of Christmas carols were sung by the young ladies of the organization, with a sometimes tenor and sometimes baritone thrown in by Pete Brewer for good measure.

Eight cash prizes were distributed during a comic drawing contest. Mrs. Dennis won high prize for occupying the seat bearing the lucky number.

C. A. Plyler, manager, and W. R. (Pete) Brewer, assistant manager, were remembered with gifts from the employees.

Edw. W. Hearne, advertising manager, had charge of the program. There were seventy-nine members of the Greenville store present.

Christmas Concert Tonight.
Tonight at 8 o'clock, the ECTC Music Department will present its annual Christmas concert in Austin Auditorium for the student body and the people of Greenville. This concert, the contribution of the college to the community celebration of Christmas, is the highlight of the activities of the Music Department for the fall quarter. It is hoped that all music lovers in the city of Greenville will be able to attend.

Dr. Karl Gilbert, head of the Music Department, is general director of the program. Working with Dr. Gilbert have been Miss Gussie Kuykendall, director of the Women's Chorus, and Mr. Charles Fisher, instructor in voice. An effort has been made in arranging the program to combine traditional classic expressions of the Christmas story with some of the best-loved Yuletide folk songs.

The soloists for the concert will be Josephine Gibson of Greenville, Jean Roberson of Spring Hope, and Elizabeth Bridgers of Greenville. Both Miss Gibson and Miss Roberson will sing selections from Handel's Messiah. These soloists are from Mr. Fisher's voice classes. The Voice Ensemble, also directed by Mr. Fisher, will present a group of numbers. Carrying the major part of the program will be the Women's Chorus of 44 voices directed by Miss Gussie Kuykendall.

Ward-Mauney.
Miss Martha Mundy Mauney of Charlotte and Capt. Stuart Jones Ward of Sebring, Fla., were married Saturday night, December 10, at 8 o'clock in a ceremony of charming simplicity at the Emmanuel Lutheran Church in Lincolnton.

Dr. L. A. Thomas, pastor of the church, officiated. Prior to the ceremony Mrs. Floyd Corriher, organist, presented a program of wedding music. The wedding march from "Lohengrin" by Wagner was played for the professional and Mendelssohn's march from "A Midsummer Night's Dream" for the recessional.

The bride wore a magenta costume suit trimmed with jet with fuchsia accessories and an orchid shoulder bouquet.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at "Woodside," the home of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ramseur, in Lincolnton.

Red and white Christmas decorations were used throughout the home. Assisting Mrs. Ramseur were Mrs. Robert Bond Lander of New London, Conn., and Miss Freck Sproule of Charlotte.

Mrs. Ward is the pretty and popular daughter of Mrs. David Hunter Mauney of Lincolnton. She attended Lenoir Rhyne College and the Woman's College of the University of North Carolina at Greensboro, where she was a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon. For the last five years she has been connected with the Charlotte Engraving Company in the art department.

The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Vernon A. Ward of Robersonville. He was graduated from Wake Forest College and the Medical College of Virginia at Richmond, Va., and is a member of the Delta Sigma Delta fraternity. Prior to entering the service he practiced in Greenville, N. C., and now holds the rank of captain in the dental corps, army air forces, at Hendricks Field, Sebring, Fla., where he and his bride will make their home.

Among the out-of-town guests were Dr. and Mrs. Vernon A. Ward of Robersonville, Mrs. Walter Elliott Ward and daughter, Peggy, of Robersonville, Mrs. Robert Bond Lander of New London, Conn., and Miss Freck Sproule of Charlotte.

Farm Delegates Are Snowbound

Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 15—(AP)—One hundred sixty Tar Heel delegates returning from the National Farm Bureau Federation convention in Chicago were stranded here today, their four-bus caravan blocked by highways blanketed in twelve inches of snow and 15-foot drifts.

Thompson Greenwood, head of the N. C. State Agriculture Department's News Bureau, who accompanied the group to Chicago last week, said the buses reached Charleston at four o'clock this morning and would be delayed at least eight hours and possibly longer.

Pilot cars will be sent ahead of the buses on the road to Roanoke, Va. Greenwood said, when the highways have been cleared sufficiently for travel.

The North Carolina Farm convention delegation was the largest of any state outside of the Illinois area.

Plenty Of Birds, Shortage Shells
Quail and other game birds are more abundant in Pitt county than in years, according to farmers who own large tracts of land. The birds appear to be wise to the scarcity of gunshells and act accordingly. Incidentally, shells are not so hard to buy if hunters are willing to pay the price. There are many unusual ways of buying them, but one must pay black market prices. The scarcity of shells and the roundabout methods of procuring a supply has converted bird hunting into a private pastime from what used to be considered an outdoor frolic. Dealers' supplies of shells are very limited and do not begin to supply the demand.

Nipponese propagandists labeled the attacks as "nuisance raids" and said:
"The Americans are badly mistaken and merely indulging in wishful thinking if they think that the Tokyo people have been thrown into a panicky state by the raids."
At the same time they announced "evacuation of children and expectant mothers, the aged and the ill" from Tokyo is proceeding. The broadcast asserted every attention is being paid to construction of bomb shelters. In fact, "Tokyo authorities intend to dig air raid shelters at every available space in the capital. Tokyo is now being littered with dugouts."

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL I. DOUGLAS

MESSAGE FROM THE ETERNAL
In a Greek Bible in a little hotel, the words, "having done all, to stand" (Eph. 6:13), were heavily underlined with pencil.

What was the significance of this? What lay behind someone's determination to underline these particular words? Perhaps that someone in grave temptation had opened this Bible in a hotel room and chancing upon these words at random, had found strength to resist. Or it may have been that a tired and discouraged salesman had read them as he closed what appeared to be a day of failure, or started on one which apparently held out no promise. We can picture someone traveling at frantic speed in response to bad news from home and stopping in this room to catch a few hours' sleep before pressing on. The room may have been occupied by a wanderer who, after trying overmuch to please himself, had come to the decision to try to be something and do something in a world of opportunity and need.

Life is a pageant of joy and sorrow, of anticipation and regret, of success and failure. Out of the pages of the Word of God come promises, commands, admonitions to be considered, multitudes who through the highways of life.

Happy the man who believes that the Bible has a message for him and who is confident that its every page is alive with good counsel direct from God.

AMERICA IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

Washington — When the Civil Service Commission recently appointed to federal workers to stick with their jobs for the duration of the war, it defined "the duration" as "two years after fighting stops." So far as I know that is the first official definition of "the duration" but a check among a few government bigwigs and newsmen here more than verifies the definition. All that I talked to estimate it will take from one to ten years to get the world back to anything like an even keel. World War I wasn't legally terminated until July 2, 1921, more than two and a half years after the Armistice.

Republic 6700 is the biggest telephone exchange in the world. That's the War Department exchange that headquarters in the Pentagon building. Its size is considered a war secret, but the facts and figures are available on the world's No. 2 exchange. It's Republic 7500 and includes most of the other war agencies other than the War and Navy Departments, 22 in all. It has more than 7,000 extensions, which can be answered on approximately 15,000 phones. The switchboard could service a city of 50,000. More than 40,000 calls a day are handled by its 120 operators and technicians, working in shifts round the clock. The board now is under the direction of the Public Buildings Administration, which is all right too, since its extensions run to 65 government buildings and a number of private wires running to other cities.

When Donald Nelson moved from WPB to the White House he took nine members of his personal staff with him, including David Noyes, Edward Locke, and Robert Kerr and a half-dozen secretaries. According to observers, here little will be heard from Donald Nelson until the fighting ends, but after that, he may come out of eclipse as one of the most important government officials in world affairs. No one I have talked to inside government circles thinks that Nelson has been shelved. It's an odds-on bet Nelson doesn't think so either. On a salary basis, he has much bigger and better jobs awaiting him in private industry.

Speaking of salaries, Archibald MacLeish will take a kick downstairs if he moves over to the State Department. As Librarian of Congress, he has a lifetime job that pays $10,000 a year. As assistant secretary of state in charge of cul-natural and public relations, his salary will be only $9,000 a year and he will be subject to removal at any time. A change of administration almost certainly would mean that the New Deal poet laureate would have to look for another job.

President Roosevelt has clarified one phase of the often ambiguous "GI Bill of Rights." (One reason the Veterans' Administration has been slow getting benefits to veterans is that the lawyers have to convert every clause into rules and regulations.) The President, however, has specified that any disabled veteran completing training given by the VA or in training courses shall be given by most federal agencies shall be immediately government jobs immediately, without going through Civil Service tests.

There's no sense stopping now. The English look pretty good care of some of their shining lights with pencil-and-paper. For instance: Chaucer, Spenser, Milton, Macaulay, Francis Bacon, Disraeli, Philip Sidney all had good spots in government.

A lot of English writers served in Parliament. There was a particularly distinguished group back in 1901. It included: John Morley, W. H. Lecky and James Bryce, historians; James Barrie and Gilbert Parker, novelists; and Winston Churchill, who had a pretty good reputation in those days for his war correspondence.

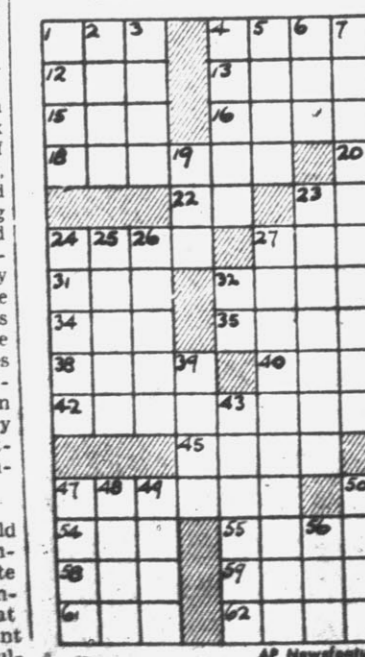

In the present Congress there isn't any literary figure, except, perhaps Mrs. Clare Booth Luce, the congresswoman from Connecticut. She writes plays, not poetry.

Devers' 14 or more American and French divisions stood on or near the Rhine for 105 miles from Switzerland to the border town of Lauterbourg, against which the Americans were charging.

The Seventh Army, commanded by Lt. Gen. Alexander M. Patch and part of Devers' Sixth Army group, was immediately southwest of Lauterbourg and presumably was closest to Karlsruhe.

Patch, indeed, had already opened his assault upon the Siegfried Line with eight inch shells and 240-millimeter Howitzers. Allied planes bombed the West Wall defenses and rail lines supplying the German front and funneling in reinforcements.

Local Church Aids Crusade

Success of Greenville Methodist in reaching their goal of $5,000.00 toward the denomination's Crusade for Christ $25,000,000 fund for post-war relief and reconstruction has been assured through the raising to date of over $3,000. It was announced today by the Rev. Robert W. Bradshaw, pastor of the Jarvis Memorial Methodist Church.

"Our people have responded enthusiastically to the appeal for a practical demonstration of Christian love and mercy for the starving and destitute men, women and children of war-torn areas," Mr. Bradshaw declared in announcing the campaign figure. "We found real eagerness among Christian people to share their means to provide physical and spiritual food for the needy and distressed. We confidently expect that pledge cards which will be turned in at the morning service on Sunday will cover the amount that has been allotted to our church."

Efforts will be continued by the Crusade Council of Jarvis Memorial Church with "Go over the top" for the Crusade fund. The congregation will join with 41,000 others throughout the nation on March 4, in celebrating completion of this phase of the Crusade in a "Day of Compassion" service, Mr. Bradshaw said. Payment of pledges continues until January 31, 1946.

In addition to providing for aid to stricken peoples in battle-scarred and occupied countries, the Crusade for Christ fund also will permit expansion of missionary work in other foreign countries, increased education services in Methodist colleges of this country, a wider pro-

They are Billy Harrington or Mac Batchelor and Dennis Fleming at guards, Jimmy Futrell and J. T. Williams at forwards, and Joe Lupton or Amos Leggett at center.

Relieve Miseries of Your BABY'S COLD

As He Sleeps

Now most young mothers use this modern way to relieve miseries of a child's cold. Even as you rub it on, Vicks VapoRub starts to soothe irritation in nose and throat, loosen phlegm, ease coughing. Then, as baby sleeps, VapoRub . . .

PENETRATES to upper bronchial tubes with its special medicinal vapors.

STIMULATES chest and back surfaces like a warming poultice.

Often by morning most of the misery of the cold is gone. Remember, Mother . . .

3. Mass transfers of population would be made to prevent minority disputes from troubling the future peace.

Between the lines of Churchill's speech apparently lay agreement between Britain and Russia on perhaps even more than the problems of Poland.

His pronouncements took on increased significance in the light of Britain's policy in the affairs of Europe's restive lands, contrasting to the hands-off attitude laid down by the United States.

From one of the first members to rise after Churchill concluded—Henry Raikes, conservative barrister who once served in the RAF—came the sharp retort that "the Atlantic Charter has become a ghost." "And," he said, "that ghost was laid today."

Churchill said he had no doubt "that the great powers, if they agree, can effect" the transfer of population implicit in the assignment of part of East Prussia to Poland. It was here he added that he found "great difficulty in discussing these matters because the attitude of the United States has not been defined with the precision which the British government have thought it wise to use."

"We know, however," he said, "that the government and the people of the United States have set their hearts upon a world organization to prevent the outbreak of future wars, and that this world organization will be fatally ruptured by a quarrel between any of the three most powerful empires which compose the grand Alliance of the United Nations. The President is aware of everything that has passed x x x."

Churchill took Poland's exiled government to task for what he called its delaying tactics.

As a result, he contended the authority of the rival, Soviet-sponsored Polish National Liberation committee will "grow and its contacts with the Soviet government will become more intimate and strong."

Although he said "we still recognize the Polish (exiled) government," Churchill made it clear that he held no confidence in its administration since it was constituted "in a form which in some respects I certainly am not able to

As a side dish, action-hungry pilots shot up four trains, set two Japanese destroyers afire in Subic bay, damaged one large cargo vessel, destroyed one small oiler, off Iba, and fired a medium other near Lingayen Gulf.

It was the first time American carrier planes had been over the Philippines since November 28 when the last of five major carrier strikes started against Luzon, seat of the Japanese-held Philippine capital.

Veteran pilots with the fleet said that day and night patrols over almost a hundred enemy fields was something which has never been done before by carrier forces.

The effectiveness of this air-tight coverage by day and night lies in the fact that the enemy cannot bring in planes from the outside fields to replace planes destroyed in re-ventments and hiding places and thus field operation stops.

The Japanese, past masters of camouflage, have developed a great skill in hiding planes under trees and other places, returning pilots reported. There is one case in which planes taxied long distances down highways and were hidden in a

Church League Will Support Referendum

Greensboro, Dec. 15 (AP)—A fight against alcoholic control in the state which will be carried to the General Assembly will be spearheaded by a Lexington attorney.

The Allied Church League yesterday elected J. E. Spruill as its new president and passed a resolution asking Governor-elect R. Gregg Cherry and Legislators to "use their office and their influence for the enactment of a statute to provide for a state-wide referendum on the manufacture and sale of beverage alcohol."

Pacific fleet commander, in a communique issued at Pearl Harbor, Thursday, said that American planes had destroyed 91 Japanese planes, 14 in the air and 77 on the ground.

As a side dish, action-hungry pilots shot up four trains, set two Japanese destroyers afire in Subic bay, damaged one large cargo vessel, destroyed one small oiler, off Iba, and fired a medium other near Lingayen Gulf.

It was the first time American carrier planes had been over the Philippines since November 28 when the last of five major carrier strikes started against Luzon, seat of the Japanese-held Philippine capital.

Veteran pilots with the fleet said that day and night patrols over almost a hundred enemy fields was something which has never been done before by carrier forces.

The effectiveness of this air-tight coverage by day and night lies in the fact that the enemy cannot bring in planes from the outside fields to replace planes destroyed in re-ventments and hiding places and thus field operation stops.

The Japanese, past masters of camouflage, have developed a great skill in hiding planes under trees and other places, returning pilots reported. There is one case in which planes taxied long distances down highways and were hidden in a to contain three main points—amnesty for the rebellious political leaders, a national government representing all parties and a regency to rule until a plebiscite decides whether the country will remain a monarchy or become a republic.

The reply was temporarily withdrawn to meet British insistence that it be signed by Elass military leaders as well as the parent organization, the Eam central committee.

British ambassador Reginald Leeper sent for Emmanuel Sophoulis, Greek political leader who is believed acceptable to all parties, drawing speculation that negotiations for a new government were under way.

The possibility that the Archbishop of Athens might be named regent also was reported.

Finland Willing To Make Payment

Washington, Dec. 15 (AP)—War-battered Finland is reported willing to pay another semi-annual installment on her debt to the United States today.

But whether the United States will accept it is uncertain.

Since June 15, when the last payment was made, this country has broken diplomatic relations with the Finns. The United States still considers Finland "enemy territory" although the Finns are no longer fighting side by side with the Germans.

An official at the Swedish legation, which handles Finnish affairs in Washington, said Finland is willing to use some more of her frozen funds in this country to make the December 15 payment. This requires Treasury approval and no one there would comment in advance.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm, and aid nature in soothing and healing tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends best with good creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, call your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly alleviates the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

RETONGA PROVED MERIT STATES CONTRACTOR

It Would Be Hard To Find A Man Suffering More With Muscular Pains, Splitting Headaches And Sluggish Elimination, Says Mr. Spruill. Years of Distress Promptly Relieved.

One of the best known general contractors in Atlanta and one of the strongest endorsers of Retonga is Mr. George Spruill, of 453 Moores Mill Road, and chairman of the Board of Trustees of Sardis Methodist Church. Discussing Retonga, Mr. Spruill gratefully stated:

"It would be hard to find a man trying to attend to business who suffered more distress and felt worse than I did. I had such severe pains in my arms and legs that at times it was difficult to even walk. Splitting headaches were my daily lot. I seldom got more than a few hours sleep at night for I was so uncomfortable that it seemed to me I was up and down all night long. The amount of laxatives I was forced to use during the past several years would sound fantastic.

"The relief Retonga brought me seems beyond price. The pains are completely relieved, and so are those terrific headaches and the constipation. I can go to bed and sleep like a top all night. I have regained ten pounds of needed weight, and I feel like a different person. I cannot say too much for Retonga."

Such a sincere statement from a man of Mr. Spruill's character and standing speaks for itself. Retonga is intended to relieve distress due to Vitamin B-1 deficiency, constipation, insufficient flow of digestive juices in the stomach, and loss of appetite. Accept no substitute.
