ANNOUNCE MASS GERMAN SURRENDER

More Thousands Of Nazis Surrendering To Russians

Russian Search Of Reich Chancellery Fails To Reveal Bodies Of Hitler And Goebbels; Correspondents Give Graphic Pictures Of Conditions Inside Berlin

By EDDY GILMORE Moscow, May 4 (AP)—Unit after unit of the German Wehrmacht surrendered today along the still lengthy Russian front as weary Nazi troops anticipated a general capitulation, and dispatches from Berlin said the prisoner toll there stood at about 145,000 this morning with hundreds of Germans giving up hourly.

Front dispatches said Nazi officers indicated they had "performed their duty" to Adolf Hitler and that their fates were now in their own hands.

Developments were expected at any time from the Dresden direction and news was also expected from troops of the Third Ukrainian army west of Vienna, where patrols had been reported within 10 miles of the American forces.

The chancellery of the Third Reich in the Wilhelmstrasse has failed to yield the body of Hitler and now the building is burning, a Red Star dispatch from the German capital said today.

The disclosure that the chancellery where Hitler had his offices was ablaze indicated that it might be difficult ever to prove that the Fuehrer committed suicide along with Propaganda Minister Goebbels, as the Germans report.

The statement that the bodies were not found in the building, however, indicated that it had been searched, and strengthened the theory that if Hitler did kill himself, it was not in the chancellery.

Soviet correspondents reported how they, with Soviet soldiers, entered the building and found dead German machinegunners with iron crosses.

"Hitler's chancellery is hot," said a Red Star reporter. "The fire is getting closer. The floor is burning and at any moment will fall in the smoke and flame it is impossible to see much."

Hermann Goering's air ministry likewise was ablaze. The dispatch said "it is impossible to get into it, but the gigantic shelter is intact."

Flames still licked at other buildings, and in the Tiergarten trees cracked and swayed in the heat blasts.

Izvestia's correspondent said: "I have been asking the question 'Where is Hitler?' of German prisoners. They all answer 'Hitler and Goebbels committed suicide'."

Looting was rampant. There was no way of telling what the population of Berlin was at the (Continued on Page Six)

Campaign In Burma Is Nearing The End

DRAFT QUOTAS NOT TO BE CUT

Army Will Still Need Men After V-E Day

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST Washington, May 4 (AP)—Congressional hopes for a sharp cut in army inductions immediately after V-E day received a severe jolt today from Gen. George C. Marshall.

Not only will the army be unable to meet replacement demands for May and June under the present program, the chief of staff told Chairman May (D-Ky) of the House Military Committee, but the current shortage is expected to be increased "by some 50,000 men over the next three months."

Many congressmen have felt that as soon as Germany falls, army and navy manpower needs can be filled by taking only 18-year-olds. This would reduce sharply the current induction rate of around 120,000 men a month.

Within the last week, Marshall wrote Maj. Gen. "General Eisenhower has informed me that his losses are averaging 2,000 men daily and he anticipates no reduction in his replacement requirements for June."

The letter did not explain the losses. "While the success of our armies in Europe has recently exceeded our expectations," Marshall continued, "it is too early to assume that the replacement flow to Europe can be cut off. General Eisenhower, on the other hand, has vigorously protested proposed reductions in order to get increased shipments off to MacArthur."

"Norway, Denmark and sections of Holland remain unliberated and are occupied by strong and fanatical forces of the enemy," he said. "It is currently necessary to start an increased flow of replacements to the Pacific; ocean area over and above those required to replace battle losses. Many veteran soldiers have been through several hard-fought campaigns in that area under very (Continued on Page Four)

R. C. Dunn Dies At Enfield Home

Enfield, May 4 (AP)—Raymond Cromwell Dunn, 62, died at his home here Thursday night following a long illness.

Dunn, a prominent attorney of the State, was past grand master of the North Carolina Grand Lodge of Masons, a 33rd degree Scottish Rite Mason and a founder of the Oxford Orphanage. He served as a member of the board of trustees of Wake Forest College.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. P. W. Joyner of Enfield; three grandchildren; a brother, Walter Dunn of Enfield, and three sisters. Funeral services will be held Saturday with Masonic rites.

Mr. Dunn was an uncle of Judge Albion Dunn, of Greenville.

Inner Harbor Of Big Port Of Rangoon To Be Open To Allied Shipping Within Few Days

By PRESTON GROVER Calcutta, India, May 4 (AP)—Decisive defeat of Japanese forces in Burma, climaxed in the capture of the capital of Rangoon with its big port intact, was announced by the southeast Asia command today.

Rangoon was found abandoned by the enemy, but an amphibious force which had landed just below the city to participate in the capture went through with the operation as a practice for bigger things to come—perhaps an attack on Singapore.

A communique said 97,000 Japanese had been slain in the Burma campaign in the last 15 months. Seizure of Rangoon was effected so swiftly that the Japanese were unable to destroy the port's installations.

"Reports indicate that the inner harbor will be open to shipping in a very few days," said the communique.

Fall of Prome, another key city on the lower Irrawaddy, 150 miles northwest of Rangoon, also was announced.

The remnants of four Japanese divisions, perhaps totaling a little more than 5,000 men in all, were cut off in western Burma by the twin Allied successes. These forces were not regarded here as a menace in the military sense.

Rangoon had been the ultimate objective in bloody jungle fighting for three years—ever since the Allies were pushed over the frontier into India in 1942 and Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell made his famous remark that the Allies had taken a "hell of a beating."

But its capture finally was an almost bloodless show. Parachute troops which landed May 1 on Elephant Point encountered (Continued on Page Six)

Reduces Debt Nearly Half Million Dollars

By CHESTER WALSH The city's finances were discussed at length at last night's meeting of the Board of Aldermen at the City Hall and it was revealed that the municipality's affairs are in as good condition as any city in North Carolina.

Mavor Bruce Sugg called attention to the administration's achievement of reducing the city's bonded indebtedness of $1,393,000 on July 1, to $869,000 by July 1, 1945, a reduction of $424,000—and that's a record.

This is one of the few pictures of Adolf Hitler with Admiral Karl Doenitz. It was made when Doenitz was in command of Germany's U-boat force in 1942. The German radio announced that Hitler died at his command post in Berlin May 1, and Admiral Doenitz had succeeded him as head of the Reich. Doenitz came on the radio after the announcement of Hitler's death, and said Hitler had personally appointed him his successor April 30. (AP Wirephoto).

Nearing Agreement On Peace Formula Changes

Stettinius Pleased With Talks Regarding Changes In Dumbarton Oaks Charter

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER San Francisco, May 4 (AP)—The big-four were reported near agreement today on major changes in the Dumbarton Oaks plan for a world organization designed to keep peace.

This accord was regarded by officials of the 46 United Nations in conference here as a long step toward preventing deadlocks even after Foreign Commissar Molotov sets out for Moscow, as he is now expected to do next week.

Secretary of State Stettinius has told friends he is extremely pleased with the progress made thus far in his talks about amending the Dumbarton Oaks charter with Molotov, Foreign Secretary Eden of Britain and Foreign Minister Soong of China.

There was no evidence that the big-four intend to favor any amendments which would alter the basic Dumbarton Oaks idea of concentrating in a security council authority to use armed forces to smother down trouble-making nations of the future.

But there are signs that the council may be permitted to recognize regional defense pacts which automatically would produce help for an attacked nation while the process of deciding on longer-range measures.

Stettinius held last night the latest of a series of conferences with Molotov, Eden and Soong, going over amendments which the big four have in mind.

Truman Orders Seizure Of Anthracite Mines

By HAROLD W. WARD Washington, May 4 (AP)—The American flag flew over 363 Pennsylvania anthracite companies today as the government took over and ordered striking miners to return to work by Monday.

Acting under presidential direction, Interior Secretary Ickes seized the operations last night. At the same time he deputized the managers of each of the federal operations to keep the workings open while negotiations for a new contract continue in New York. The work talks have been deadlocked since they began a month ago.

Nazis In Holland, Denmark And Northwest Reich Quit

Nazi Surrender May Be Matter Of Hours

Peace Reports Prevalent As Remnants Of Broken German Army Thrash About Hopelessly

By The Associated Press London, May 4—Capture of Fortress-Germany was virtually complete today and a torrent of rumors on the imminence of general capitulation followed swiftly the announcement of Nazi Production Minister Albert Speer that the German nation "is defeated."

Tired and broken German remnants thrashed about hopelessly in that part of Germany proper still in Nazi hands, which consisted of narrow pockets with a total area no bigger than the state of Pennsylvania. Within that part of the Reich disintegration was reported so swift and the general situation so chaotic that there might be no need to negotiate a formal surrender.

What fighting there was on this 32nd day since the Normandy invasion—it was becoming increasingly difficult to call it a war—was mostly on the soil of Austria, Czechoslovakia and Holland, and in the waters off the east coast of Denmark, where Allied bombers slaughtered Nazi troops trying to flee by all manner of overcrowded craft.

Prime Minister Churchill was absent from Commons yesterday, and the British Press Association speculated whether "Mr. Churchill might have gone to Germany to be at the surrender ceremony or to some meeting with President Truman." The Paris radio said surrender of the entire German army was imminent and that Churchill would be in the Reich for the "final surrender."

No. 10 Downing Street said today that Prime Minister Churchill was (Continued on page four)

HARD FIGHT ON OKINAWA

Yanks Intensify Effort To Smash Jap Defenses

By AL DOPKING Guam, May 4 (AP)—American troops are smashing with new fury against the powerful natural defense belt of the Japanese Southern Okinawa front. Both sides are bringing their heavy guns to bear.

From caves, tunnels and interlocking pillboxes, the enemy is fighting back with artillery and mortar fire on a front so mixed up that a Japanese pocket, behind American lines, is harassing with night infiltrations.

The Okinawa campaign, including pre-invasion fleet attacks on Japan proper, has cost 16,964 American casualties. Of these 2,978 were killed. Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz's communique today reported total Navy casualties through Wednesday were 5,551, including 1,131 killed. (Continued on Page Four)

CHINESE HALT JAP OFFENSIVE

Seek To Save U. S. Air Base At Chihkiang

Chungking, May 4 (AP)—The Chinese have started a general counteroffensive in Hunan Province in an attempt to save the American air base at Chihkiang, 350 miles southeast of Chungking, an Army spokesman announced today.

The spokesman said the Chinese already had brought the Japanese drive toward Chihkiang to a complete standstill after annihilating 3,000 of the enemy.

The Chinese forces engaged in the counteroffensive were reinforced by airborne American-equipped troops, he added.

Previously Chinese combat command headquarters announced that Chinese troops in Western Hunan had captured strategic Wuyang, astride a secondary road leading toward the main highway to Chihkiang.

The announcement, in the form of "Press Note No. 1," indicated a growing coordination between the Chinese and American commands. The Chinese command headquarters is under Maj. Gen. Robert B. McClure.

The four-pronged Japanese drive in Hunan has spread to within 70 miles of its objective. Along the direct road from Paoching, base of the enemy offensive, the Chinese repulsed all Japanese attempts to advance westward, the Chinese high command said.

Wuyang, captured Wednesday, guards the entrance to a valley running generally northward to Chihkiang.

Two Women Sent To Federal Prison

Raleigh, May 4 (AP)—Edith Royster and Dorothy Nell Dixon, both 20, former clerks of the Granville County Ration Board, were sentenced in Federal Court here to serve a year and a day in prison for the theft of OPA ration stamps from the board.

Judge Johnson J. Hayes ruled they must start their terms May 28, and denied them probation or an extension of time to begin their sentences.

Attorney B. S. Royster of Oxford pleaded for clemency for the young women, but Judge Hayes said he could not in good conscience sentence others to prison for like offenses and then turn ration board employes free.

Eisenhower Says The Troops Will Lay Down Arms At 2 A. M. (EWT) Tomorrow; Helgoland And Frisian Islands Also Included In Surrender; Fighting Continues In The South

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR Paris, May 4 (AP)—The Allies liberated all Holland and Denmark and now northern Germany today, with Gen. Eisenhower announcing that German troops there had surrendered to Field Marshal Montgomery, agreeing to lay down their arms at 2 a. m. eastern war time tomorrow.

This wholesale surrender came two days after the surrender of the German forces in Italy and part of Austria, and left only Norway and minor pockets in Germany, France and Czechoslovakia to be swept up before the great war machine that Adolf Hitler built has been brought to a complete halt.

Eisenhower's headquarters made this announcement at 5:20 p. m. (2:20 p. m. eastern war time). "Field Marshal Montgomery has reported to the supreme Allied Commander that all enemy forces in Holland, northwest Germany and Denmark, including Helgoland and the Frisian Islands, have surrendered to the 21st army group effective at 0900 (double British summer time) tomorrow."

"This is a battlefield surrender involving the forces now facing the 21st army group on their northern and western flanks."

The second major grouping of German forces in two days, following closely on the capitulation of German armies in northern Italy and western Austria.

It leaves as the only German forces of any size still offering resistance the armies in southeastern Germany, northern Austria and Czechoslovakia and the garrison of Norway.

The wholesale surrender in the north followed the capture of 500,000 German troops in Montgomery's territory in the last 48 hours.

Far to the south, the Seventh army joined the Fifth in the Brenner Pass 20 miles south of captured Innsbruck, completing a 700-mile circuit from Italy through France, Germany and Austria and back into Italy. Salzburg surrendered. The Third army besieged Linz.

Supreme headquarters said the British Second army had halted its swift drive abruptly just shore of the Kiel canal, possibly to await (Continued on page six)

Several Beaten In Street Disorders

Rome, May 4 (AP)—Many persons were badly beaten today in a free-for-all fight between a crowd singing Communist songs and a group of demonstrating Italian soldiers and students who demanded that Italy retain the province of Venezia Giulia.

Tension had spread about Rome over the disposition of the province, which includes the Adriatic ports of Trieste and Fiume and the Peninsula of Istria, following entry by Marshal Tito's Yugoslav troops. The province was transferred from Austria to Italy after the last war.

The WAR TODAY AN ANALYSIS OF THE NEWS

By J. M. ROBERTS, Jr. Substituting for DeWitt MacKenzie

The war in Germany, if it may still be called that, has reached the point today where Nazi activity has little further meaning.

Continued resistance by fanatics in the "surrendered" area of Austria make it clear that the mop-up must be continued, as it probably will have to be continued even after any general surrender order or V-E proclamation.

A general surrender order would be welcome for the effect it might have on the waverers, for saving some Allied lives. From the long-range standpoint, it probably would be just as well if the last-ditch Nazis never surrender, but stand to be wiped out. Just as well if war's destruction is spread so that no German can live more than walking distance from a shell-torn reminder of what happens to those who place their faith in false leaders. Just as well that war's explosive calling cards be left in the last hideouts of

Today On The Home Front

San Francisco, May 4 (AP)—Don't expect miracles to come out of the United Nations conference.

The delegates of the 46 nations here are working to create an international organization or league.

It won't be a cure-all for human problems. The primary purpose of the league would be to: 1. Prevent future wars. 2. Enable the nations to work together on many problems, such as trading goods—a banana for an apple, for example. 3. Settle international disputes peacefully through a world court or joint action of the league members.

As the years pass the league may try to widen its activities so that the simple problem of living may be made easier.

Right now the delegates are working on the rules and regulations which would guide the league. And they will draw up a preamble or forward to place at the top of the league charter.

Such a preamble would be an expression of what the league members say they believe. They'd all sign it. So they'd be on records as saying they believed in it.

That preamble may contain phrases like these: "This league believes in safeguarding human rights. It believes in freedom of the press, freedom of worship, justice for all."

All that sounds fine. But not every nation is apt to live up to that preamble.

For example: Suppose that 10 years from now some nation begins a persecution of a minority group.

Would the league step in and say to that nation: "Cut it out. Give back to those people the money and property and jobs you took away (Continued on Page Four)

Sophomore and Senior Banquet
On the evening of April 27, at the Winterville high school, the sophomore class entertained the seniors with a banquet. The banquet hall was decorated in the theme of May Day. The guests were seated at individual tables arranged in oval shape. Each table was centered with a beautiful bowl of spring flowers with a Maypole, from which fell many colored ribbons in pastel colors.

Elton McLahorn, toastmistress, welcomed the guests after which all joined in singing "We've Got a School That Can't Be Beat." Jane Tyson gave the toast to the seniors to which Charles Manning responded; Peggy McGlohon gave the toast to the visitors, to which Mrs. D. T. McLahorn responded; Helen McLahorn gave the toast to the faculty and Miss Mildred Howard gave the response. Elizabeth Hodges gave the toast to Mr. Conley.

Entertainment consisted of a debate between J. B. Edwards and Gay McLahorn. Resolved, that old maid is of more benefit to the community than old bachelors. Mrs. Margaret James sang a solo, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Christine Smith. Mrs. Marie Cruge's girls, Eleanor Clarke, Joanne Bloom, Kathryn Youngblood, and Sara Kirkpatrick, danced, accompanied at the piano by Miss Sara Jones.

Dancing, ping pong and shuffleboard were enjoyed for the remainder of the evening.

Releigh, May 4.—Five hundred odd items of the revised community ceiling price posters for processed foods, just distributed to retail food dealers in this district, reveal that food prices in general have decreased four and a half per cent since May, 1943, when the first community ceiling price posters were published.

Theodore S. Johnson, OPA district director, said today. Volunteer price panel assistants from local War Price and Rationing Boards are aiding merchants in observing OPA posting requirements, he said.

Regulations provide that there must be a net of such list posted for every 1,500 feet of floor space, and they must be placed conspicuously where they may be read at a distance of not more than two feet. The new price posters are printed in crown ink so they may be readily recognized, Johnson said.

Wendell Girl Is Queen Of May

Greenville will be creditably represented at the eighth annual art exhibition for elementary schools to be held at Person Hall Art Gallery in Chapel Hill from May 9 through the 20th. The purpose of the exhibition is to promote the teaching of art and to encourage art production in elementary schools. Work included in this year's State School Art Exhibition is limited to elementary grades 1 through 6. After the initial showing in Chapel Hill the exhibition will be circulated in various cities of the State.

The Women's Club of Greenville has already scheduled this exhibition for a showing at the art center here next fall. All entries are original. They will be judged by art educators from outside the State. The N. C. Federation of Women's Clubs will award certificates to exhibitors whose work is selected for the exhibition.

Greenville schools have many pupils participating in this work. West Greenville school has 19 entries as follows: Patsy Moore, Robert Crawford, Emma Lucas Tilley, Janet Powell, Tommy Smith, Alvin McLaughlin, Marvin Hamann, Joe Steel, Lois Ann O'Neal, Vernon Wingate, Ray Jones, Francis White, Billy Tripp, J. B. Nichols, Dorothy Boyd, Jerry Phillips, Ray Evans, Charlie Byrum, Obie Lee Godley, Bobby Nichols, Barbara Liley, Charlie Ann Sutton, Peggy Tokamy, John Waters, and Betty Jean Briley.

Elizabeth Keel and Elizabeth White will be flower girls. Nathaniel Van Nortwick III and Mary Harrington will be train bearers. Bryce Cummings will be the crown bearer. Additional color and humor will be added to the occasion by the jesters, Ray Futrell of Rich Square and Nell Posey of Greenville. Old and modern dances will feature the program.

Thirty-three entries have been sent from Third Street School and are as follows: Bobby Ray Tatt, Marinae Clark, Harris Northrop, Helen Ruth Forbes, Annie Williams, Sarah Taylor, Dolly Best, Sue Stokes, Dickie Holbert, Alice Fye, Norma Mills, Patsy Baker, Billy Arnold, Bruce Baker, Burnie Harrison, Barry Lamm, Billy Dunn, Jean Moye, Myron Teel, Bobby Williams, Margaret Ann Rowe, Jimmy White, Elizabeth Ann Williams, Ruth Ann Taylor, Grace Barton, Jimmy Cheatham, Tom Smoot, Helen Stokes, "Marty" Hadley, Wiley Gardner, Mac Williams, Marie Briley and Eleanor Stoneham.

Elizabeth Ann Williams is exhibiting two pictures.

Organize Lions Club In Ayden

By CHESTER WALSH

Ayden, always active in community affairs, now has a Lions Club, was organized at a supper meeting at the Community Building last night with 21 members.

The Greenville Lions Club, headed by President O. E. Dowd, is sponsoring the new club. J. Barnett, speaker of Chicago, field representative of Lions International, supervised the organization. A singularly interesting feature of the meeting was greetings from the Ayden Rotary Club and assurance of cooperation in all community activities. Charter night exercises will be held Thursday night, June 14, when the club's charter will be presented, officers and members formally inducted into Lionism and the members' wives and sweethearts will be special guests. An entertaining program is being arranged.

At last night's meeting, the following officers and directors were elected: Bill Newsome, president; J. B. Hemby and T. S. Caton, vice-presidents, and Clay Stroud, secretary.

Raymond Cox is lion tamer, Mark E. Dixon is tall twister.

Directors are Joe Tripp, J. A. Johnson, Larry Tripp and Fooks Holden. The club will meet weekly.

Mexico Celebrates

Mexico City, May 4—(AP)—Approximately 50,000 persons participated here yesterday in a parade organized by federal district authorities to celebrate the fall of Berlin.

Leading one contingent was a mule decorated with a large swastika and a sign reading: "This is Hitler, the superman."

There are 3,756 Red Cross chapters in the United States.

Blazing Meteor Passes In Night

Philadelphia, May 4—(AP)—The mysterious flash of light seen in the middle Atlantic states early today was probably a "bolide, the largest kind of meteor," Dr. Roy K. Marshall, director of the Peis Planetarium at Franklin Institute, said.

Dr. Marshall based his statement on reports coming to him from persons in Philadelphia and vicinity who saw the flash at approximately 3:45 a. m. and who felt tremors which shook buildings.

A meteor of this kind travels at the rate of from five to 20 miles a second, Dr. Marshall said. It may be as large as 1,000 tons and 10 feet in diameter.

It pushes the air ahead of it, producing waves of shocks with resulting loud explosive noises, he said.

The inside of the ball is very cold and the outside highly heated, he explained and this difference in temperature causes the meteor to break into fragments.

Dr. Marshall said it may hours or even days before it can be determined where the meteor ended its course. It may never be traced, he said, if it plunged into the ocean.

ties are to be sold that day, and the money derived therefrom will be used in rehabilitation work of returned and returning soldiers carried on by the Legion Auxiliary.

Mrs. Bundy said that first, second and third prizes will be given to the boy or girl selling the most poppies.

Headquarters will be at the office of W. J. Bundy and Bell's Pharmacy.

The little red flower will pay tribute both to those men who have died for their country in the present world war and to those who fell 27 years ago in France and Belgium among the swaying poppies.

This year it is expected that more Americans than ever will wear the poppies as a salute to the deceased soldiers and their bereaved families, and as a financial aid to the living but disabled soldiers and their needy families.

The rural districts of England and Wales have a much higher illegitimate birth rate than London.

Urges Sufficient Peace-Time Navy

Washington, May 4—(AP)—Assistant Secretary of the Navy H. Struve Hensel told a House committee today the navy must keep a building program going into peace time to maintain a modern fleet.

Hensel appeared before the Naval Affairs Committee considering a bill to limit the navy's power to dispose of surplus ships and shore installations after the war.

The Navy official told the committee it would be impossible for this country to remain at the top of naval powers unless it carries on through the years a constant program of ship disposal and construction.

Strength FOR THE DAY

By EARL L. DOUGLAS

THE TRUMPET BLAST

Someone has written "Where the trumpet is needed, the flute will not suffice." The flute is a bathroom instrument; the trumpet sounds across the battlefield. Life's deepest secrets are met and answered not in hours of pleasant ease but in hours of conflict. People who continually stop their ears to the trump-pet blast and care only for the dulcet notes of the flute never grow up spiritually or mentally.

Whether we like it or not, we have to face the fact that life is a battlefield. We may complain about the conditions under which we live, but life is in a measure hard for everyone, from king to commoner. This is not because God has forgotten, but because He loves us. This world is a school in which the great Maker of the universe teaches us lessons we need to learn. If we would share with Him an eternal destiny. Before He raised His only begotten Son to the place of supreme power, He required Him to go through the humbling experience of contradiction and pain upon the earth.

AMERICA IN WARTIME

By JACK STINNETT

(Second of Two Articles)
Washington — Nearly every new President who has taken the oath of office has enjoyed for a while, at least a "honeymoon" with Congress.
There's no doubt that President Truman now is having his "honeymoon" with Congress. It may end any time for it is clear already that our new President is a blunt, stubborn fellow.
On the other hand, there are many indications that we may be entering an era of cooperation between the executive and legislative branches of government that is practically unparalleled.

Here are some of the reasons:
(1) For the first time in a quarter of a century (since President Harding) there is a man in the White House who served his political apprenticeship in Congress.
(2) As Senator from Missouri, President Truman earned the respect of Democrats and Republicans alike. In his wars as head of the embattled Truman committee investigating all phases of the war effort, there never was issued a minority report.
(3) President Truman counts among his friends on the Republican side of the aisle such opponents of the previous administration as Senators Vandenberg, Taft and Ferguson. He was closely associated with the bi-partisan authors of the now well known H2-H2 resolution for participation in a postwar world peace enforcement organization.
Those authors include Republican Senators Ball and Burton as well as Democratic Senators Hill and Hatch.
(4) Since taking office, President Truman has conferred with almost as many Republican as Democratic leaders of Congress in both chambers. Even that former anti-administration die-hard Democratic Sen. Burton K. Wheeler, of Montana, has been holding olive branch telephone conversations with the White House.

All of this doesn't mean that the day of controversy in the two chambers of Congress is over, even for a while.
The new President had hardly become familiar with the top of his new desk before the question of extending the reciprocal trade treaties developed into a stiff fight.
But such battles aren't important as a refutation of the fact that the emphasis in government is changing unless President Truman enters the arena. That, say his closest

REC MANNING

advisors, he won't do. Behind closed doors, he may inform opponents and opponents alike of his views, but he won't issue any mandates to the legislative branch of government, as President Roosevelt did.

President Truman is giving the legislative arm an opportunity it hasn't had since it rebelled and made a mess of President Hoover's recovery plans following the crash of 1929.

from them?"
That isn't likely.

It's possible that a nation which was outrageous in its treatment of minority groups might be tossed out of the league.

That would have some effect in keeping nations a little decent. But maybe it wouldn't.

These are questions confronting delegates from 46 nations.

"We'll just have to wait for or-else we can do. If Lewis orders us

Reports from Hazelton and Scranton same in all operations which have been shut down since expiration of Contract negotiations between op-

City Shows ...

Duncan reported that arrangements are under way for completing collection of the unpaid taxes.
June H. Rose appeared before the board and reported that the Civil Aeronautics Authority, Atlanta, Ga., has a civil engineer here making plans for spending $32,000 for reconditioning the county-city airport, now used by the Marines, and sowing more grass seed.

The Aldermen gave Police Chief Herbert Woolen strict orders to rigidly enforce the parking and traffic laws in the city without fear or favor. The order provides for bearing down on motorists who park irregularly and block driveways and to put the clamps on speeders. It was pointed out that motorists speed through the city past schools, at more than 50 miles an hour. The police were also ordered to enforce the dog law, which provides for taking up canines running at large.
Two mad dogs on the streets had to be killed recently.

The Parks and Playground committee reported that it had not hired all of the working personnel for the swimming pool. It was announced that the fee for children using the pool this year will be a dime; adults, 15 cents—due to the high cost of labor.

John R. Barker was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Miss Ada Jones, who recently resigned as clerk of City Recorder's Court, and deputy sergeant at the police department. Miss Jones leaves for Raleigh on May 15 to become women's supervisor of the North Carolina Protection Commission for 37 eastern counties.
Other business transacted including authorizing Fire Chief George Gardner to attend the firemen's school in Charlotte the last of this month; approving Sanitarian H. H.
Hendrix's report; authorizing the Street Committee to purchase sewer pipes and granting beer and pool room licenses, and announcement that work will begin shortly on making up the next budget.

trying climatic conditions. We should return these men for release from the army as quickly as possible. To accomplish this, a pool of replacements must be built up there."

May's committee began closed-door discussions today with military leaders on demobilization and postwar army plans.

Hard Fight ...

1,616 wounded and 1,604 missing.
American casualties for the entire Okinawa-Ryukyus operation are considerably lower than the figure for conquest of bloody Iwo Jima, for a comparable period, although the 10th Army faces nearly three times as many enemy ground troops in the current operation.

Ground casualties on Okinawa through April 25—25 days of fierce fighting on Okinawa, plus several days on some 15 nearby islands—total 11,413, including 1,527 soldiers and 320 Marines killed. Two 26-day battle cost was 19,938 casualties, including 4,189 killed.

Nimitz did not report Navy casualties for the fleet's two-supporting operations.
Japanese casualties on Iwo Jima exceeded 23,000—the entire garrison force.
Japanese casualties on Okinawa through April 23 were 21,269 killed and 399 captured of an estimated 60,000 garrison. Lt. Gen. Simon had left for Germany.

Germany's new fuzhrer, Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz, was reported to have fled to Kiel, where a Stockholm dispatch said he, his new foreign minister, Count Ludwig Schwerin Von Krosigk; Werner
Best, German minister to Denmark, and Josef Terboven, Nazi commissioner for Norway, were in confer-

The Swedish Central news agency quoted usually reliable sources as saying that Doenitz and Field Mar-

Denmark and that Best, Terboven and Col. Gen. Georg Lindemann, Nazi commander in Denmark, possi-

Grain Market
Chicago, May 4—(AP)—Grain markets were steady to firm today after profit cashing had wiped out a large part of gains made at the opening when wheat and rye were up more than a cent.
At the finish wheat was 1/2 lower to 1/2 higher than yesterday's close. May $1.75. Corn was unchanged to up 1/4. May $1.15. Oats were down 1/4 to 3/4. May 65¢. Rye was up 1/4 to 3/4. May $1.36 1/2. Barley was 3/4 to 1/2 higher. May 98¢.

New York Cotton
New York, May 4—(AP)—Cotton futures opened 10 to 15 cents a bale higher.
Noon prices were unchanged to 10 cents a bale higher. May 22.92, July 22.73 and October 22.13.

N. Y. Stock Market
New York, May 4—(AP)—Aircraft stocks, which some thought may have been oversold because of armament cutback apprehension, came to life on the upside of today's market along with scattered rails and industrials although many leaders cooled unsuccessfully with profit cashing.
While gains of fractions to around three points were plentiful near the close, a number of losers persisted. Dealings expanded at intervals and, despite slowdowns, transfers were in the vicinity of 1,300,000 shares.

A BUSINESS MAN FOR MAYOR

VOTE FOR JACK BOYD ON MONDAY, MAY 7TH

Next Monday the Greenville citizens will go to the polls and select a man as Mayor who will handle the city's affairs during the critical post war period.

This man should be a man of sound business ability, unhampered by political affiliations or handicapped by political aspirations or ambitions. His duties will be largely administrative, and business experience will be necessary in order to properly handle the affairs of our city.

We sincerely believe that Jack Boyd is better qualified to serve our community as Mayor than either of the two other candidates. He has had a wide experience in city affairs as Alderman for eight years, and made a splendid record. He fought for and secured for the city the municipal ownership of the gas utilities. As chairman of the Street Committee for many years, he put over a splendid program of paving and street improvement.

He has no political ambitions other than to serve his community. He is a man of highest character and reputation among all who know him.

For these reasons, we urge the voters of our city to vote for Jack Boyd in the city election on Monday, May 7th.

A Vote For BOYD Is A Vote For Efficient City Government

(This space contributed without his knowledge by the business friends of Jack Boyd)

JAPS FIGHT FOR BORNEO

Australian Invaders Meet Stiff Resistance

By FRED HAMPSON
 Manila, May 4—(AP)—Australian veterans met bitter Japanese resistance Wednesday, the second day of their invasion of oil rich little Taranakan Island off Northeast Borneo, but managed to widen their beachhead.

Using remote controlled land mines, the Nipponese blew 30-foot craters along a highway to delay the advance of Aussie tanks toward the island's airstrip. The Aussies had to fight with fixed bayonets and bore through heavy bunkers to reach high ground overlooking the island's main city.

Battered, burned and virtually uninhabited, Davao, Mindanao's biggest city, fell to Maj. Gen. Roscoe Woodruff's 24th Division Wednesday. The capture of the port city climaxed a 150-mile dash from their beachhead, and came after a final drive which saw little opposition.

Japanese troops recreated northward to hill country where, it was believed, the toughest fighting of the Davao campaign may occur in clean-up fighting. Only a handful of suicide squads remained in the provincial capital which was practically a Japanese city before the war.

The Yanks cleared Libby airfield of last-stand Nipponese and seized Malina airfield, south of Davao. Previously they had taken three other airfields in the area. Malina and Libby fields are among the best in the Southern Philippines. A 31st Division unit led by Lt. Col. George Williams of Seale, Ala., reached deep into Central Mindanao after having advanced an average of 12 miles a day.

More Thousands . . .

 moment, but unofficial estimates put it at not much under 5,000,000 for the metropolitan area.

The Red army set up army bakeries for the people and put thousands of prisoners to work clearing the streets. Red Star Correspondents Lt. Col. Leonid Vysokostrovsky and Pavel Troyanovsky gave graphic pictures of Berlin after the surrender.

"Ruins, craters, smashed streets, street cars on their sides, fresh graves, German bodies still not buried, white flags, throngs of gloomy, starving inhabitants. Such is Berlin today," they wrote.

The Wilhelmstrasse, the street which was lined by government buildings, was piled high with surrendered German arms and down it were moving columns of German prisoners.

"One can't walk or ride on Unter der Linden," they added. "Nine rows of fallen trees were placed across it at one place with sandbags stacked behind them. Through this we saw Red flags flying from the Soviet and French embassies."

Dispatches said the Reichstag was still smoking, with the roofs of the halls caved in but the skeleton of the cupola still standing and atop it the Red banner.

"I saw an old German digging in the ruins," said one of Ivestia correspondents, "and asked what he was looking for. 'My family,' he replied. Fairly soon 10 persons came creeping from the ruins."

 The Russian reporters said registration of Nazis had commenced in Berlin and Russian experts were working night and day to get gas, water, light and communication services working. Soviet specialists were being landed at Tempelhof airfield to push repairs.

Correspondents entering the underground headquarters of the German general staff said they found evidence that the officers left but one telegrapher to answer calls when they fled.

At the machines where he worked they found the ribbons bearing his last messages which told in a unique manner the story of the last hours of the capital. Some of them were:

"I have an urgent message from Oslo."
 "Very sorry, we are not transmitting any more. You see in a few hours we shall be closing down."
 "Is there nobody in Berlin who could be sent with a dispatch?"

No.
 "My God. What is happening?"
 "We've fought ourselves to a standstill."
 "Here's an urgent message for Gen. Weistel."
 "I told you we are not accepting anything else."

"I should like to know what your situation is."
 "Fine as ever. If you could see me now, I am sitting here in full uniform with my greatcoat and tommygun. They have all rattled. I am the last. Spirits below zero. . . . There is a noose around my neck."
 "Have you got contact with Prague?"
 "Idiot. Of course not. I'm telling you I am the last. Ivan is here on my neck. I'm going to cut the wires. Lord, what we have come to. It's all over with Germany. Ivan is at the door. I'm cutting the wires."

Near Agreement . . .

 Jan Christian Smuts of South Africa.)

2. A provision to make certain that the organization has enough flexibility to handle any troublesome international situations which arise. (The United States proposal to give it specific power to review treaties probably will serve the British purpose.)

3. A provision to allow scope for regional action to maintain peace without impairing the prestige of the security council or weakening the Dumbarton Oaks principle that the security of all nations can best be maintained on a world-wide rather than regional basis.

4. Elevation of the social and economic council to have equal importance with the security council. Under the Dumbarton Oaks plan, the economic council is subordinate to the general assembly of nations; the security council outranks the assembly.

5. A provision allowing a world organization, once it is set up, to work out some rules whereby the so-called middle powers—like Australia, Canada and Brazil—would be assured of places on the security council in recognition of their military prestige.

6. A system of trusteeships for dependent territories which are considered international responsibilities.

The nine points of change which the United States proposed for the world organization charter cover guarantees of justice, conduct within international law, development of human rights, peaceful changes in world conditions, trusteeships, amending the charter itself as experience indicates, a modernized world court, inclusion in the charter of Atlantic Charter provisions, and a declaration of cultural objectives.

China's amendments previously approved by the big powers deal chiefly with promoting cultural developments which would contribute to the growth of peace. The Russian delegation has maintained silence on changes it favors.

Prior to the conference, Russian publications made it plain that the Soviet delegation would favor letting the Dumbarton Oaks plan remain unchanged. But Molotov told a press conference here that there would be no point in having this meeting if there were to be no amendments.

Russia's position in relation to the United States and Britain continues to be a prime subject of discussion among the delegates here.

Hope for a reasonably early settlement of the dispute over reorganization of the Warsaw government of Poland continues, spurred along by reports that the Russians will be willing to confer with former Premier Mikolajczyk of the London Polish government. He has British and American backing.

In the background of current big three discussions are American objections to the way in which the Soviet union set up a new government in Romania some months ago, and more recently, sponsored the creation of an Austrian government without consulting this country and Britain, despite an agreement that Austria should be a joint responsibility of the Allied powers.

Campaign For . . .

 37 dead.

Narrowly beating the onset of the seasonal monsoon storms, the capture restores to Allied control the old overland route to China. Supplies can now be landed at Rangoon from deep-draught ships and, as soon as repairs are completed, can be shipped by rail through Mandalay to Lashio, terminal of the old Burma motor road to China.

With Rangoon captured, the Japanese retain only a narrow strip of virtually useless territory along the Gulf of Martaban in front of the Thailand frontier. New objectives to the south and east now hold the attention of the southeast Asia command.

Only mopping up remains in Burma. Rangoon itself will be a valuable base for these future operations. It is 780 miles closer to these targets than Calcutta.

(King George wired Agm. Lord Mountbatten, southeast Asia commander in chief: "I send you and all in southeast Asia my hearty congratulations on the brilliant success achieved by all arms and services in the capture of Rangoon.")

The initial British entry into Rangoon, Burmese capital which Allied troops have been fighting to regain since 1942, was effected by a single British airman on foot, it was disclosed today.

A formal report disclosed that RAF Wing Cmdr. A. E. Saunders made a one-man capture of Mingladon airfield and entered Rangoon by himself Wednesday, reporting back that the way was clear for the forces which entered yesterday and now are mopping up.

Saunders was flying over the area when he noted the lack of any kind of activity around and suddenly decided to land on Mingladon airfield. He learned no Japanese had been on the field for days. He camouflaged his plane there, and made his way 30 miles to Rangoon, where he was told that all but a few Japanese stragglers had fled the city April 25.

The airman then got into a sampan and sailed down the Rangoon river to advise amphibious forces making their way northward after landing at the river mouth.

Allied prisoners liberated by the combined operations forces said the Japanese began evacuating Rangoon three weeks ago by land and sea and only light opposition was expected. American pilots who flew over the city reported a large sign on one building saying "Japs gone."

To the north, British 14th army forces closing in on Rangoon from south of Pegu were overcoming remaining enemy resistance.

In the Irrawaddy sector the capture of Prom on the east bank of the great, muddy river has cut off large forces of Japanese to the west.

Air activities were greatly reduced by bad weather, but heavy bombers attacked four jetties and the railway sidings at Moulmein. Henzada railway station on the city's outskirts was bombed and strafed and rolling stock was destroyed.

Announce Mass . . .

 the surrender of Nazis garrisoned in Denmark. Quite in contrast, the German radio at Oslo asserted that the British had captured Flensburg (pop. 62,000) without a fight and swept northward. The Kiel canal is 38 miles from Denmark and Flensburg, north of that major enemy waterway, is barely four miles from the frontier. The Germans declared both Flensburg and Kiel open cities.

At 4 p. m. supreme headquarters not only denied reports that Denmark had been entered, but declared that the Allies had not even crossed the Kiel canal. The abrupt British halt went without official explanation.

Accounts quite in conflict with supreme headquarters came in profusion from Scandinavia, however. The Free Danish press service at Stockholm said the British at 3:30 p. m. were only a few miles from the Danish border, having started at dawn from the city of Schleswig 25 miles away. Earlier Swedish reports had asserted that Denmark had been invaded.

Adding to the confusion, the British had to advance past 500,000 prisoners who surrendered in the north in two days. The German army was cut up so completely that the foe probably had only the ragged sort of idea where his units were and where the British were.

The Germans who had not surrendered north of fallen Hamburg were in chaotic flight by land and sea toward Norway, where the shadowy Doenitz regime may make its last stand about the bases of the submarines the admiral once commanded.

Planes and tanks and artillery all turned the German flight into a debacle of burning ships and wrecked land transport. Dierhard Nazis were driven into the sea.

Virtually all of Germany was conquered. The last Nazi holdings were shrinking pockets, untenable and beyond hope of relief.

Supreme headquarters acknowledged that the British were advancing so swiftly that it was completely out of touch with Lt. Gen. Sir Miles C. Dempsey's vanguards.

Reporters in Sweden, closer across the narrow Kattegat, said the British 2nd army had crossed the Danish frontier at several places and that the complete liberation of Denmark would be accomplished swiftly. Opposition was reported light and disorganized; the Germans seemed more concerned with crossing the Ekagerrack to the uncertain refuge of the fjords and mountains of Norway.

Gen. Patton's 3rd army invading Austria and Czechoslovakia laid siege to Linz and neared a junction with the Russians west of Vienna. Moscow dispatches said only ten miles separated the armies from a meeting that will seal off the unconquered part of Czechoslovakia.

"Tankmen and doughboys speculated whether they would be able to join the 3rd Ukrainian army group before the war ends," AP Correspondent Thornburn Wiant reported from Austria last night.

Linz was reported afire within view of the 3rd army, only five miles away.

Labor, Management Have Peace Charter

Washington, May 4—(AP)—Labor and management's industrial peace charter has been approved by directors of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, President Truman was informed today by Eric Johnston, chamber president. Johnston said he told Mr. Truman that the directors had approved the charter last night and that the President had commented that the charter was a fine thing.

The charter was signed here March 28 by leaders of the chamber, the American Federation of Labor, and the Congress of Industrial Organizations, subject to the approval of these organizations. The CIO already has approved and the Executive Council of the AFL is now in session.

Plan To Purchase School Buses

Raleigh, May 4—(AP)—Purchase of as many school buses as are available subject to the limitation of funds set aside for their purchase, was authorized yesterday by the State Board of Education.

An allotment of 1,200 buses for North Carolina for the calendar year 1945 has been made by the Office of Defense Transportation, Comptroller Paul Reid said. The board approved a request to ask the Division of Purchase and Contract to buy the buses, 600 of which are needed yearly for replacement purposes.

Hay Fever Affects Cows Like Humans

Raleigh, May 4—(AP)—Some cows have hay fever just like some humans, in the opinion of State Veterinarian William Moore. Recently concluded experiments, he said, showed that 40 per cent of one group of cows were sensitive to ragweed.

Dr. Moore said he believed weed pollens caused hives, eczema and other conditions in cows.

Eight Killed
 Santa Ana, Calif., May 4—(AP)—Eight men aboard a navy blimp were killed and another seriously injured today by fuel tanks exploding as the craft was some 200 feet off the ground.

The helium gas in the blimp did not explode but fire spread through the gondola in which the men were trapped.

Names of the victims, including officers and enlisted men, were not made public pending notification of relatives.

Two Filers Killed
 Norfolk, Va., May 4—(AP)—Two Navy land planes collided over Albemarle Sound near Edenton, N. C., on April 26, killing Lt. (jg) Herman Charles Short, USNR and Ensign William Raymond Lauther, USN, both attached to the Naval Auxiliary Air Station at Edenton.

ABC Plan Rejected
 Columbia, S. C., May 4—(AP)—The South Carolina Senate rejected a state liquor store plan 21-19 on a roll call vote today. Continuation of the present system of state-licensed private liquor dealers then was accepted.

The Lone Star Route Highway is 1,190 miles long, and connects the Great Lakes with the Gulf of Mexico.

75 Steaks—Think Of It!

Sioux City, Ia., May 4—(AP)—Mrs. Mary Mook, alleging that Patrolman Harold Greene had eaten some 75 T-bone steaks, worth about 95 cents each, at her cafe without paying for them, has filed suit against the patrolman for $74.25.

The Red Cross Blood Donor Service was inaugurated at the request of the surgeons general of the army and navy in 1941.

In World War I, 18 per cent of the wounded taken to evacuation hospitals died; in World War II, only three per cent.
